Chapter 2261: Taniguchi fight to death

The three-meter-tall elite demons walked towards them with a grinning grin a second, ridiculing the poorly lethal flow of human beings, but the next second, when they saw the humans rushing in from a distance, the demons Was shocked.

“This group of weak reptiles dare to charge us?”

“Are they going to die?”

“How is it possible that these short humans, who are less than 2 meters tall, dare to attack us?”

After the demons lost their senses for an instant, an angry expression appeared on their faces. They felt that they had been humiliated. The elite demon captain roared: “Charge with me and kill this group of humans.”

“Kill~!” The five hundred demons shouted in unison, their big shields were placed on their chests, and they ran into the humans in front of them. This group of humans directly hit the ground and trampled to death, so that they could be worthy of their elite demon status.

100 metres

50 meters

10 m

The distance between the two sides was getting closer and closer, and finally, the two sides collided with each other, the turbid wine was in the first row, and he was facing the elite demon captain.

At that moment, the turbid wine felt a sharp pain in his arm, and his body couldn't help raising it back. Even though his strength reached the second-tier peak, his physical strength was different from that of the demons who were also the second-tier peak. It's huge.

The Elite Demon Captain also thought so. At the moment of collision, his body was only slightly obstructed, and then he continued to charge forward with brute force, but he only continued to advance a distance of his body. Can't make an inch anymore.

"Brothers, stand up~! Knock them back." The dirty wine yelled.

"Roar~!" The 100 shield-bearing soldiers shouted in unison. They pushed one by one, and the 10 people standing in a vertical row worked together to make the first row of soldiers no longer retreat.

More importantly, they have 10 people standing in a row on their side, and the demons are too big, 5 standing in a row, that is to say, a demon is facing 20 human beings.

The elite demon captain tried his best and couldn't move forward. He even felt a huge force pushing him back. He roared in surprise: "The soldiers behind pushed me hard and we smashed their formation."

The demons behind him tried hard, but within a short time, the demons were still unable to make an inch. Just when the two sides were in a stalemate, the Dao beside the turbid wine was lonely and sad, and the broken star blade suddenly pierced out and pierced it easily. The leg armor of the Elite Demon Captain was pierced into his knee.

"Wow~!"

The captain of the elite demon did not expect that the human weapon was so sharp that he could stand unsteadily and fell backward, but the demon behind him was still pushing him hard, causing the captain of the elite demon to be pushed out of balance.

At the moment when he fell to the ground, Dao Jintianya sorrowed and pierced the Star Breaking Blade again, piercing the throat of the elite demon captain.

With an unbelievable expression on the face of the elite demon captain, he died at the feet of the demon behind him in painful suffocation.

The demon behind did not want to step on the elite demon captain, but his body was not controlled. He was pushed forward by countless demons behind him. Seeing the demon captain tragically die at his feet, the angry demon roared: "Human, I Kill you."

"puff"

Before the long sword in the hand of the demon was cut off, Zhuo Jiu and Dao Jin Tianya Lonely Sorrow took advantage of his loss of consciousness. Two broken star blades pierced his waist and abdomen at the same time. His belly was cut open.

Green blood and disgusting internal organs flowed out together, and the second demon instantly felt his body lose strength and was pushed to the ground by the demon behind him. Like his former elite demon captain, he was trampled to death on the ground.

At this time, the surrounding demons felt that something was wrong, and did not dare to use brute force to tightly protect the shield in front of him, and the short sword in his hand was cut against the dirty wine party.

This is what Zhuojiu is most worried about, because, except for him and the Tao, all the weapons in their hands are Star Steel Short Swords.

Facing the same big shield made of star steel, it was completely impenetrable. Although the devil's star steel sword could not smash the human shield, the repeated attacks made the brothers around Zhuojiu very uncomfortable.

"Let's attack separately to help the brothers share the pressure." Zhuojiu said while looking at Dao Jin Tian Ya with sorrow.

"Okay." Dao Jin Tianya nodded sadly, and fought forward with the Zhuo Jiu in one direction.

But the demon behind already knew that the weapons in the hands of Zhuo Jiu and Dao Jin Tian Ya Gu Shou were special. They put the shield in front of them, and the star-breaking blade was sharp, and it was impossible to cut a 2 cm thick shield in a short time. broken.

For a while, the two sides fell into a state of fierce fighting, which made the three demon patriarchs standing in Taniguchi frowned.

"What are these idiots doing, it took such a long time for such weak crawlers to kill them?" Mons said uncomfortably.

Bikas raised his right hand and shook slightly, a black light emerged from his fingertips, and gradually a black weird creature with wings appeared in the light.

There is no need for Bikas to speak, the weird creature spread its wings and flew into the valley. After circling two times over the fighting two circles, it flew back to the space between Bikas and said in a sharp devilish language: "Single, the two sides are stuck together. , The devil could not move forward, the captain of the elite demon died, 22 strong demons died, and 3 humans died."

"What?" Demon patriarch Zalha showed a furious expression and roared: "There are only 3 humans dead, and 22 of my elite demon army have died, as well as the elite demon captain."

Bikas said: "Something's wrong, let's fly into the air to have a look."

Zalha and Mons nodded together, flapped their wings, and flew to a 100-meter aerial view with Bikas, which was the maximum height they could fly.

From here they saw the battle ahead. As the weird creature summoned by Pykas said, the two sides fought very anxiously. The two commanders of the human side, the weapon in their hands is the broken star blade, which has great damage to the star steel armor. force.

“Damn it, how could human beings use this kind of weapon that specializes in killing Tier 3 creatures.” Bikas said furiously.

Mons and Zarha both showed a look of horror for an instant, and then both showed a hypocritical smile. Mons said: “We need to change our tactics. Since there are not many humans, how about we change our tactics.”

Zalha grinned and said: “I agree to let the elite demon army hold a shield to protect a group of demons from rushing over, and constantly rushing into the human lineup. I want to see how many demon warriors they can kill us.”

Bikas said with a satisfied expression: “I agree.”

The three demons looked at each other and laughed. In fact, the three of them were holding the Star Smashing Blade in their hands. Several of their elite friends also carried the Star Smashing Blade, but they would never send these people up, nor would they break it. Star Blade is handed over to other demons, and will not do it personally, because they are demons with extremely selfish personalities.

Chapter 2262: Holy Light Approval

The three demon patriarchs have not yet been separated. Who will become the commander of this demon army? In name, Vikas is the leader. Both Komons and Zarha want to replace Vikas in their hearts, and the only alternative is kill him.

Bikas also knows this clearly, so the tacit smile of the three is based on knowing the other's inner thoughts.

“Woo~~!”

The screaming horn sounded, and the attacking elite demons in the Wild Wolf Valley passage showed surprised eyes, and then reluctantly retreated slowly with their shields.

Zhuojiu watched the demons leave in surprise, and grabbed Dao Jintianya who wanted to catch up and fight hard and said, “Don't chase, take a break.”

Dao Jin Tianya's sorrowful eyes are blood red, because of the 100 brothers behind him, there are more than 60 dead.

Unlike Zhuo Jiu who is always around Lu Yang, Dao Jin Tian Ya Lonely Sorrow always takes his brothers to perform various tasks, from the most basic patrols, burning the corpses of monsters in other worlds, to going out to fight and a series of things. Gushou and this group of brothers have established the deepest feelings. He can die, but these brothers die, he can't bear it.

“I'm not reconciled, I'm not reconciled.” Dao Jin Tianya kept repeating this sentence in his sorrowful mouth.

Zhuojiu patted his shoulder vigorously, looked at the brothers behind him, and shouted: “Everyone rests in place, the enemy will rush over again at any time, don't be sad, don't be angry, remember, and try to survive.”

“Oh~!” The remaining more than 60 brothers were already exhausted, fighting with the three-meter-tall demons. They were so tired that they sat on the ground one after another.

Someone from the Sagittarius Corps behind him immediately ran over to deliver water and food. They quickly ate and drank to recover their strength, while on the other side, Taniguchi's demons began to change their formation.

The two elite demons lined up with their shields up in the air, forming a wide ceiling. You walked in from Taniguchi. A total of four hundred demons went from Taniguchi to a place 20 meters in front of them. .

"Ustaka~!" Taniguchi heard the demon's high roar, and the three demons quickly rushed into the ceiling formed by the shield formation, and rushed towards them.

Only then did Zhuojiu understand the enemy's thoughts, and hurriedly shouted: "The archer releases his arrows."

"Swish"

"Swish"

"Swish"

...

Bows and arrows with poisonous arrows shot into the valley like raindrops. When they fell, most of them shot on the shield, but a small part of the arrows hit the running demons.

After all, this shield couldn't completely protect the three demons running side by side, but even so, there were still a large number of demons rushing in front of the dirty wine and others, and the two sides fought together again.

"Kill~!" Zhuojiu stabbed to death a winged demon. He clearly felt that the demon attacked this time was much weaker than the previous demon. This made him puzzled and at the same time he felt hope.

“Boss, come on, it doesn’t matter if I die, there are thousands of brothers behind me, this is the future of the Jagged Brotherhood.” Zhuo Jiu said secretly in his heart.

The other side.

Lu Yang is also desperately rushing here, but the straight-line distance from Xishi to the L8 area is more than 800 kilometers. It takes more than three hours to fly at full speed in the Red Night. It has only passed nearly an hour and a half, and it is still far away. Distance can be reached.

The reinforcements of Bai Shi and Zhou Tianming had just got on the train not long ago, and it would take three hours to arrive.

Zhuo Jiu and Dao Jin Tian Ya Gu Sorrow and others can only rely on their own strength to survive, but how could the demons give them this opportunity.

The demons kept coming in, and the brothers around them gradually reduced. After half an hour, the demons paused the attack, because the shooter at the rear killed too many demons, causing the valley passage to be blocked by the demons’ corpses.

Zhuojiu took this opportunity to look back at the brothers beside him. There were fewer than 40 left. Before he could drink a sip of water, the second wave of demons rushed in.

In another half an hour, only less than 20 of the brothers around Zhuojiu were left, and in another half an hour, only 10 were left.

“Boom”

The long sword of the muddy wine was inserted into the ground. He had no strength, and all the magic power in his body was exhausted. Looking at the brothers who were also exhausted like him around him, the muddy wine said with a bitter smile: “It looks like we I’m going to die here.”

Dao Jin Tianya said with sorrow and red eyes: “I have to pull a few more cushions when I die, the old meeting will avenge us.”

“Yeah.” The remaining few people said one after another.

“Unfortunately, I couldn’t protect my brothers.” Zhuojiu looked back at the thousands of shooters behind him, showing a decisive expression, looking at the demon who rushed in the distance again and shouted: “Come on, who do I look at? I want to die by my sword.”

“Papa Papa”

Sparse applause sounded, just when the elite demon army was stunned, and ordinary demons did not dare to attack, the three of Bikas, Zalha and Mons came out of the shield and stared at the turbidity not far away. Jiu and others, his eyes were full of admiration.

“Very good, you are warriors and won my respect.” Zalha’s expression was sullen, staring at the dirty wine sarcastically and said: “I will twist your head off and make a wine glass to commend you in this war. In the effort.”

Mons said in a sharp voice: “The constant provocation of a group of ants is really wonderful, but do you still have the strength? Give up, I can spare your lives and make you slaves to our demons.”

Zhuo Jiu and Dao Jin Tianya Gushou and the others looked at each other. Even though they were already tired and flew in while standing, they still looked at the devil in contempt.

“From the day this country stood up, no one has knelt down and served as a slave. No one could do it back then, and today you invaders can’t do it,” the voice said loudly.

“I came to take my head if I was able to see if I would not insert the broken star blade into your throat.” Dao Jin Tianya said with sorrow.

The Bikas trio were a little surprised. They didn’t want to make them slaves. They just came to ridicule. This is their custom and the way they win the cheers. If the Bikas surrender, the Bikas trio Will kill them with more cruel methods, but the firm will of Zhuojiu and others made the three people very uncomfortable.

“Human, if you are offended, I will grab you with my own hands and use the cruelest torture to torture you.” Bikas pointed his right hand to the end of the world, and a black ray burst out.

Dao Jin Tianya Gushou no longer had the strength to avoid it. Just when he was about to be shot, the turbid wine slammed him away, but the turbid wine was hit by the black light.

“Dang Cang”

The black light turned into a black chain, tightening the body of the dirty wine, Bikas sneered, his fingers raised, and the chain flew into the air with the dirty wine. He wanted everyone to see that the spiritual pillar of the army was caught by him. Torture to death.

“Brother Zhuojiu.” Dao Jintianya yelled sorrowfully. He deliberately angered the other party just now, just trying to pull hatred for the dirty wine, so that he could live a little longer, and maybe wait for reinforcements, but he didn’t expect that the dirty wine would actually happen. Choose to sacrifice himself to save him.

“I’m fighting with you.” The remaining brothers roared and stood up desperately, and rushed towards Bikas, but before running to the front, several black rays shot from Zalha’s palm. , Several people were beaten and fell on the ground, no matter how hard they struggled, they couldn’t get up.

Bikas looked at the muddy wine in the air, with a playful smile on his face. He wanted to torture the muddy wine. The black energy in his body gushed out and followed the chain into the muddy wine’s body. He said, “Thank me. Well, you are the first human being transformed into a devil, and you will enjoy this feeling.”

The devil, the most cruel method of the demon race, can turn other races into ghost creatures, thereby torturing him with cruel energy. In a ghost state, the senses will be a hundred times higher than normal. A slight tingling will make it difficult for ordinary people. Bear.

Muojiu instantly felt his body change. The energy of drilled into his soul sea along his meridians and began to erode his soul core.

Pain, severe pain, the head of the turbid wine is as if torn, a voice is constantly telling him, begging for mercy, begging for forgiveness will be forgiven, but no matter how the voice induces him, the turbid wine just stays unmoved. He looked at his brothers so firmly, as if telling them that he would rather die than surrender.

Thousands of fire crow archers just looked up at the turbid wine. They knew the meaning of turbid wine, so everyone raised their bows and arrows and walked toward the Taniguchi Pass. They would rather die than descend!

Bikas did not expect human beings to be so stubborn. Under the rage, he increased his energy influx, but this kind of severe pain, the dirty wine still did not scream, and he would rather bite his tongue through his teeth, and insist on it. .

Suddenly, Zhuojiu heard a voice that seemed to come from ancient times: "Sacrifice, bravery, justice, mercy, humility, perseverance, honor, you have all these qualities, and you have been recognized by me. From today onwards, My holy light spirit Malthus will be your life partner."

"Boom~!"

Holy light, the violent Holy Light, centered on the body of the turbid wine, a violent Holy Light burst out...

Chapter 2263: Lu Yang is here

The dark energy invading Zhuojiu's brain was instantly dissipated, and the dark chains on his body dissipated and collapsed under the holy light.

"Boom"

The chain in Bikas's hand broke, and the violent power of the Holy Light even burned his fingers. With a wailing sound, Bikas looked at the energy of his Holy Light in fear, and said: "This, how is this possible, this is ancient It's impossible for a human being to be recognized by the ancient sacred elves with the power that the sacred elves only have."

Mons and Zarha looked at the muddy wine in the sky and showed a look of fear. Numerous holy light elves appeared beside the muddy wine, turning the surrounding area of 5 kilometers into a world of holy light, and they surrounded the muddy wine. Wine dancing, cheering.

The demons below were stunned by the Holy Light, and the demons who stood behind Bikas and the closest to the dirty wine felt tingling all over their bodies.

The damage of the Holy Light to the devil is just like the human being is afraid of sulfuric acid, and a small amount of body will be corroded when it touches it. Even the devil's proud recovery ability cannot restore the damaged part to the original.

"Retreat, this is an ancient holy elf."

"Run, I don't want to die."

...

Fighting with humans, the demons are fearless and can compete with the holy light. They have no chance of winning. They turned their heads and ran in the direction of Taniguchi, away from the holy light.

"Damn it." Bikas looked at the dirty wine and showed unwillingness. He was about to torture the dirty wine, but at the last moment, the other party received the protection of the ancient sacred elves and shouted: "Retreat, everyone Retreat to Taniguchi and wait for him to successfully merge before killing him. He is only Tier 2 and cannot stop us."

Mons, Zarha and others quickly led the team to retreat until they stopped outside Taniguchi. On the other side, Zhuojiu was staring at the holy light elves around him blankly.

A pure, golden, translucent, slap-sized spirit body appeared in front of the muddy wine amidst the cheers of many holy light elves, and the violent holy light energy appeared from him.

After this energy entered the muddy wine body, it became softer inexplicably, repairing the dark energy damage in the muddy wine body, and finally entered the soul sea along the meridians.

Originally the turbid wine for practicing the technique of the God of War Temple, he clearly felt the energy in his soul sea changing. The white fighting spirit of the God of War Temple, which had cultivated to the second-tier peak, had gradually turned into golden yellow under the influence of the Holy Light.

“This is?” Zhuojiu looked at the golden spirit body in front of him, full of questions.

The voice from the spirit body carried the vicissitudes of ancient times, and said solemnly: “I am the ancient sacred spirit Malthus. I have come to this world along the passage of time and space. Among countless humans, I have felt the most noble quality in your body. , You have got my recognition, I will use the Holy Light to help you practice in the future, do you agree with it.”

“Can you save my brothers?” Zhuojiu asked anxiously.

Malthus did not expect that he would not be able to ask for him in a different world. He took the initiative to sign a contract with humans in the human world. The first sentence of the other party was not grateful, but asked about his role. He was a little unhappy, but it also proved In view of the fact that the people he depended on were upright and in line with the spirit of the Holy Light, he said:

“Your strength is too weak, unless you use the Holy Light to transform into a sacred warrior with my help, but in this case, you will die.” Malthus said.

“Teach me to transform.” Zhuojiu said affirmatively.

Malthus frowned, sighed and said: “I know you will be like this, it is my destiny, ready to accept my energy.”

“Om~!”

Countless sacred energy flooded into the soul sea of turbid wine, this energy only swiftly, quickly transformed the energy of the Temple of War in his crystal core into sacred energy.

“Om~!”

The second wave of energy poured in, and a painful look appeared on the face of the turbid wine, and his limbs, heart and skin were quickly washed by the divine energy.

“Om~!”

The third wave of energy poured in, and the stale head almost exploded. Before he could react, the violent energy instantly burst his body.

“Roar~!”

Muddy wine looked up to the sky and roared, his body swelled rapidly, and at a speed visible to the naked eye, he turned into a giant with a height of 100 meters and armor emitting golden light all over his body.

When he stepped on the mountain peaks on both sides of the Wild Wolf Valley Passage, Zhuojiu jumped to the Taniguchi position, facing countless demons less than 30 meters in front of him, his body released a fierce holy light.

“Who dares to take a step forward.” A golden spear turned out from the hand of the dirty wine and pointed at Bikas and the others.

Bikas hurriedly launched a dark sneak and retreated to a place 100 meters away. He was also Tier 3, or Tier 3 pinnacle. It was not that he couldn't beat the turbid wine alone, but he didn't want to waste magic power on the turbid wine.

Bikas could clearly feel that the turbid liquor was forced to become a third-order. In this case, the turbid liquor could last for at most an hour, and then he would surely explode and die.

A second-tier force becomes the third-tier pinnacle, and his body can't bear it. He believes that turbid wine knows this clearly. Therefore, no matter who is fighting turbid wine, the purpose of turbid wine is to die with him.

"Wow~!"

Mons and Zarha appeared beside Bikas at the same time, and the three demons looked at each other. If the three of them acted together at this time, they would die within half an hour of the drunken wine, but the patriarch of the demons did not follow. When other patriarchs cooperate.

There is no such thing as cooperation for tens of thousands of years. How can the three of them cooperate? That is a calculation carved in the bones.

Zarha asked, "What should I do now?"

Mons said: "It's better to let the demon army consume him."

Bikas said: "Just because of this, we each sent a thousand demons to attack him from a distance. He can't last long."

Zalha and Mengsi nodded, and each issued an order. Nearly 10,000 demons quickly changed their formations, forming a semicircle around the turbid wine, a distance of 100 meters away.

Muddy wine seems to be powerful now, but he is extremely anxious, how long he can live, he knows, he wants to kill one of the demon patriarchs, but the three demon are so smart, they hide behind all the demons.

He couldn't rush out to hunt down any of them now. If he dared to leave, the demons surrounding him might rush into the valley. He didn't dare to move rashly.

"Magic Flame"

Green fireballs suddenly appeared in the hands of nearly ten thousand demons around them, and they threw them towards the muddy wine, but these green fireballs dissipated in the holy light before they came close to the muddy wine.

The holy light elves who celebrated Malthus' possession of the dirty wine did not leave. At this time, they were still cheering around the dirty wine, so they formed a natural barrier to make the dirty wine last longer.

The demons were instantly helpless. They had no choice but to wait for the dirty wine to die. The dirty wine did not dare to attack at this time, and the two sides became a stalemate.

5 minutes

Thirty minutes later, just as the muddy wine became more and more anxious, and Bikas and the others became more and more proud, a dragon roar came out in the distance.

"Muddy wine, brothers, I'm here." Lu Yang's voice came from a distance.

Chapter 2264: Frighten the Demon Legion

In the sky on the east side of the Wolf Valley, a red dragon was quickly approaching, which suddenly stopped the attack of the demons, and all the demons were blank.

Mengs said in horror, "Isn't Lu Yang fighting the orcs? How come he has arrived here."

Zalha was extremely angry, and roared: "The Red Night and the Three-Eyed Magic Flower under him are both Tier 3, what shall we do?"

Bikas remained silent, staring at the red night that was getting closer and closer, and said, "All retreat 100 meters to see how good Lu Yang is."

Mengsi and Zarha understood that if Lu Yang's strength was insufficient, they were going to be trapped here together with Lu Yang.

"Woo~~!"

The horn sounded, and nearly 10,000 demons stopped attacking when they heard the sound, and slowly retreated back, returning to the back of the three demons including Bikas, forming a huge phalanx.

Zhuojiu secretly breathed a sigh of relief, turned his head to look at the approaching red night, and shouted: "Boss, I am Zhuojiu."

Lu Yang looked at the beckoning golden giant and nodded. He knew that it was a dirty wine. Although the phone of the dirty wine was broken in the battle, every team leader in the valley had a call. Device.

The archer leader, Prison King, turned on the video mode. Lu Yang was the holy light warrior who saw the turbid wine turn into a holy light warrior. At the same time, the blazing demon in his body also told Lu Yang that the state of the turbid wine was approved by the holy light spirit. But as soon as the turbid wine merged with the Holy Light Elf, it was forced to become Tier 3, supporting it for at most an hour, after which it will undoubtedly die. The only way is to end it early, and there is still a possibility of salvation.

"Help me become Tier 3," Lu Yang said to Blazing Demon God: "I definitely can't let my brother die in battle."

The Blazing Demon said: "Forcibly transforming, your injury will be heavier, and, after transforming, you won't have any fighting power, it's just a display of fancy."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "They all say that the demons are selfish. I want to see how selfish they are and if they will be fooled by me."

Blazing Demon God understood that he wanted to take advantage of the three demon patriarchs' personalities who didn't believe in anyone, and pretended to forcibly kill one of them. That patriarch must flee with his talents and would not fight Lu Yang.

"Okay, I'll help you." The Blazing Demon God controlled the Demon God's heart and fiercely injected a steady stream of flame energy into Lu Yang's body.

"Roar~!"

When Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye to fly to Muojiu's side, he roared fiercely, and jumped off from Hong Ye. Before landing, his body suddenly became a hundred-meter-high flame giant. .

With a loud bang, Lu Yang stood beside Zhuojiu and said, "How long can it last?"

Zhuojiu didn't expect Lu Yang to know his situation, and said with a bitter smile, "About half an hour."

"Enough." Lu Yang threw the three-eyed magic flower in his hand to his side, and said: "Hold on, the boss will never let you die. If anyone dares to let you die, I will take them to the funeral."

"Boom~!"

The whole earth trembled violently, countless demons stared at the surrounding blankly, and in an instant, countless towering trees with a height of 100 meters rose from the ground around them.

The trunk of the big tree is more than 20 meters thick, and countless vines crawled out of the big tree, staring at the demon trapped in the middle like a poisonous snake.

"Roar~!"

The red night in the sky followed a long roar, and when he flew back, he turned from the original 15 meters long to a hundred meters long, and the flames with terrifying high temperature spewed out of his mouth were more than 500 meters long, which made the demons on the ground. They showed a more horrified expression, because this length has exceeded the attack distance of the demons' magic fireball.

Bikas said in shock: "Lu Yang, Hong Ye, and the Three-Eyed Magic Flower are all Tier 3, and Lu Yang's power is still Tier 3 peak. How could this be possible."

Mengsi and Zarha also felt the terrifying energy in Lu Yang's body. They could clearly feel that no one would be able to be Lu Yang singled out, and it is very likely that Lu Yang would be killed in a very short time. , Which made the two people become afraid.

Nearly ten thousand demons felt even more fearful. The terrifying coercion of the third-order demon-level creatures was beyond them. Fortunately, four third-order demon-level creatures were standing in front of them.

Before, they dared to attack with turbid wine, because turbid wine did not dare to rush out to kill them at will, fearing that they would rush into the valley to kill the shooters inside, but now they are four Tier 3, whether it is turbid wine, Lu Yang, Hongye and Whoever guards the three-eyed magic flower at Taniguchi, they can't attack, and the other three can attack at will.

The gap between Tier 2 and Tier 3 can't be stacked by numbers, but is crushed by absolute strength. If the red night in the air breathes on the ground once, this 10,000-person group can collapse.

"Roar~!"

Lu Yang sensed the fear of the demons, and stepped forward and roared. He stared at the three demon patriarchs guarded by many demons in the distance and roared, "Go away, or die~!"

The three big demons of Bikas, Mons, and Zarha showed angry expressions at the same time, but none of the three wanted to transform first.

The reason is very simple. Whoever transformed, the other two were allowed to run, and the transformed one became Lu Yang's target and couldn't run away.

“What to do?” Zalha’s eyes disappeared from ferociousness, but turned into cunning.

Mons also had cunning eyes in his eyes, and he looked at Bikas and asked: “You are the boss, you have the final say.”

Bikas cursed in his heart. He didn’t listen to me very much before. Now I want to leave the problem on me, so I don’t do it. He said: “Let’s decide together. If we want to fight, the three of us will transform together.”

Mengs and Zarha said that because they didn’t want to fight. They looked at each other in silence, but at this moment, Lu Yang raised his hands, and the terrifying flame energy began to gather, gradually forming the spear of lava. shape.

“Damn it, how could there be such a powerful spell, this is Tier 4, and if you are hit, you will definitely die.” Bikas said in horror.

Originally, the spear of lava was a Tier 4 spell, but it was not the son of the beast god, or the orc shaman. One was the bloodline of the beast god, and the other was a special existence born and grown, but the three demon patriarchs were ordinary Tier 3 masters. The devil, without the particularity of the first two, will die if hit.

But they didn’t know that Lu Yang was acting like this. He couldn’t condense at all. The severe abdominal injury made him feel more pain every time he condense. Before he condense and form, the lava spear would eat his body back. , So he is betting.

“Die, or get out~!” Lu Yang roared.

Countless flowers suddenly bloomed on the branches of the towering trees around 100 meters high, and there was a strong poisonous mist in the pollen, which would make you feel dizzy when you smell it.

Hong Ye also lowered his height to 450 meters, spread his wings over the heads of the demons, he also chanted a spell, the red elves let out bursts of laughter, and appeared on the heads of the demons.

“Damn it, it’s another leapfrog curse.” Bikas was more afraid, looked at Mons and Zalha and said: “Two brothers, we have won this battle because we killed one of the other. Holy Light Warrior of Tier 3, right.”

Mons and Zarha had already begun to sweat, and they nodded violently when they heard that, Bikas was right. Although the dirty wine is not dead now, he will die soon. No matter what, they are considered to be them. It was the enemy of the Holy Light who was killed, and it was possible to deal with the demon god.

“Yes, we have won the battle. Now the enemy is stronger than us. We can’t fight hard, causing the demon god’s subordinates to suffer more losses.”

“We should let the natural gods and humans kill each other, instead of fighting instead of the natural gods and humans. That will only make the orcs cheaper. We retreat and all retreat.”

Zarha, Mengs, and Bikas found various reasons, which is equivalent to an agreement on this matter, and quickly issued an order to retreat, and a large number of demons began to retreat in the direction of Sun Moon City.

“Boss, can’t let these demons run away.” Zhuojiu said excitedly.

Lu Yang shook his head, turned his head and spit out a mouthful of blood, then quickly turned his head back and continued to stare at the demon in the distance.

Zhuojiu looked at Lu Yang in horror. When the demons had really retreated more than ten kilometers away, Zhuojiu quickly asked, “Boss, what’s the matter with you?”

Lu Yang smiled bitterly and said: “They are all pretends. Me, the Three-Eyed Magic Flower, and Red Night are all beautiful now. When fighting against the Son of the Demon God, I was punched through the abdomen by the Son of the Beast God. Hong Ye is just an ordinary dragon. , The last time he released a spell that could only be used by the sacred dragon, his body was backlashed. When the three-eyed magic flower killed the orc shaman and the son of the beast god, it had exhausted its power. Empty shell.”

Zhuojiu came to understand and said helplessly: “If you let them go this time, there is bound to be another bitter battle in the future.”

Lu Yang said, “Don’t worry about the future. Who is the Holy Light Elf in your body, please ask him out immediately, and we will discuss how to save you.”

Zhuojiu gave a bitter smile and said, “You know, I’m not saved. This time I’m dead. I can feel that my body is broken. As long as the holy light disappears, I’m afraid I will even have a corpse left. Won’t come down.”

Lu Yang shook his head and said, “You still have help, let him come out quickly.”

“I’ve already come out.” A golden spirit body flew out of the dirty forehead, with wings behind him, looking at Lu Yang unhappily, and cursed: “Kaldas, you old dog, get out of here. Can’t I feel your breath?”

The Blazing Demon God flew out of Lu Yang’s chest with a crooked expression, looked at the Holy Light Elf helplessly, and said, “Malthus, why is your temper so stinky? No wonder you can’t find one for hundreds of thousands of years. Creatures.”

“I found it.” Malthus said with a smug face, pointing to the Blazing Demon God secretly: “You deserve your grandson to become the current virtue, forget it, I don’t want to say more about your bad things, and quickly help me save this human being. It’s been hundreds of thousands of years. This is the first one that makes me feel the cleanest and purest soul, attached to him, and I feel happy.”

The Blazing Demon God was a little surprised, and said, “I really let you find it. Forget it. For the sake of the old friend’s face, I won’t care about you. You use the energy of the holy light to form a cocoon to wrap him up and put it in In my demon temple.”

“Your Demon Temple is broken into a ghost, can it still be used?” Malthus asked suspiciously.

“Humph.” Blazing Demon God sneered, and said: “Don’t think that you have found a suitable human being, and I have also found it. This kid has helped me gradually restore some of the facilities in the Demon Temple, and at least the energy will continue to supply you with magic. Energy, so you can keep this kid’s soul alive.”

“What will happen next?” Malthus asked.

The Blazing Demon said: “Did you forget to leave Anu Prison? As long as you open it with me, the contents can save the dirty wine.”

Malthus nodded, then snorted again, and said: “It can also restore your strength to stronger, right. ”

The Blazing Demon said: “Fair deal, even if you don’t help, after the next Red Moon Night, the energy here will be more abundant, and I will have a way to get Lu Yang in.”

“Well, I promised it.” Malthus was still reluctant to die from the turbid wine, the 100-meter-high Holy Light Giant quickly shrank down, and finally turned into a light cocoon about 2 meters in size.

Lu Yang also lifted the fire demon’s transformation, restored his original appearance, opened the Demon Temple and took Malthus in and placed it next to the Lingquan.

Malthus just helped the turbid wine transform and also consumed a lot of energy. With Lingquan helping to recover, he gradually slowed down and said: “Old stuff, count me owing you a favor.”

“I can take note of what you said.” The Blazing Demon God was extremely excited, closed the Demon Temple, and said to Lu Yang, “Your kid is lucky.”

Lu Yang asked with a smile: “It makes you so happy, is there such a special affection for this Holy Light Elf?”

“Of course, listen to me slowly.” Lu Yang couldn’t understand the joy of the Blazing Demon God. He slowly explained the reason...

Chapter 2265: Secrets of Bandarsburg

Malthus, the ancient holy light spirit, existed at the same time as the Blazing Demon God. During the previous wars of the God Realm, the Blazing Demon God transformed from an elemental state to the Flame God King, but Malthus still maintained the Holy Spirit body and was unwilling to become a God Body to participate in the war. .

Many gods thought that if Malthus took the initiative in the first battle of the old gods, the position of the Holy Light King was Malthus's, but Malthus was not moved, and would give the fragments of the former Holy Light King. His friend, the second Holy Light King.

For this reason, after the Blazing Demon and the others took the position of the King of Gods, they were grateful for the help and selflessness of such elves like Malthus, and they were given a special right to be in charge of Bandarsburg.

Lu Yang asked curiously, "Where is Bandarsberg?"

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said: "You can simply identify him as a prison, a prison for all ancient alien species and gods and demons who disobey us."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Why don't you just kill it."

Blazing Demon God smiled triumphantly again, and said: "To prevent this situation from happening today, the first war of the old gods and the fall of so many * kings, we these newly risen * kings can see clearly that one day after all , Our group will also have conflicts because of various things, and eventually break out into war.

Or there are other strong people who gain powerful energy after traveling through the void, and instead want to take our place.

Bandarsburg and many other fortresses are one of the back roads left by us * kings. The gods and demons inside have strong strength. Killing them and gaining their energy can quickly recover. Our body, and there is also a treasure house in it, with all kinds of treasures, among them there are things that can revive dirty wine, and can also promote you to the fourth level. ”

Lu Yang clenched his fists and asked, “What should I do?”

The Blazing Demon said: “The castles are all Tier 4, and we can’t beat them. However, Bandarsburg was built by us. There are countless organs in it. As long as the organs can be triggered, you can easily kill the inside. monster.”

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief. It seemed that this action would not be too dangerous. He was still a little curious, and said, “How can I be Tier 4? This castle is not enough to restore your strength.”

The Blazing Demon explained: “In addition to Bandarsburg, there are also a large number of prisons such as Terns Castle and White City. There are high-ranking gods from the fourth to the thirteenth. You can only go to the fourth and go to the class. Dalsburg is the most suitable. We will find other ways to go again in the future, and the way to go is different.”

Lu Yang nodded clearly and asked, “When can I go?”

The Blazing Demon said: “Under normal circumstances, it is to look at the concentration of magic elements on a planet. Take the earth as an example. The next time a red moon night erupts, you will be able to produce enough concentration for you to pass. But then it’s too dangerous to go to the East China Sea. lost.

However, it is different now that there is Malthus’ help. In one month, Bandarsberg will be opened three times a year. Although the element concentration is not enough, Malthus can use the element key to force you to be teleported into Bandarsberg. ”

Lu Yang understood and said, “I will start preparing now.”

Blazing Demon God said: “You have to prepare carefully. When you pass by, you will not only encounter monsters in the castle, but also encounter Tier 3 and Tier 4 subordinates who are forcibly teleported in by the idiots of the New God.

This group of idiots don't know the true role of Bandarsburg. They thought it was a place to train and improve their strength. If you encounter them, you have to kill them as much as possible, because these subordinates who have been sent in may be the next ones. To criticize the enemy who came over on Hongyueye. ”

Lu Yang's eyes became sharp, and he said, "I will do my best."

The next red moon night, Blazing Demon God predicts that it will be October. At that time, General Fire Spirit's injuries should be healed. When the next batch of Legions of Other Worlds arrive, General Fire Spirit will personally lead the army to attack the East China Sea.

If the next group of masters can be killed in Bandarsburg ahead of time, the crisis in the East China Sea will be resolved, and he will be able to return to a decisive battle with General Huo Ling calmly.

"Boss~!" A frustrated voice came from behind him, and the Prisoner Hades ran out of the canyon with the archer army, standing behind him one after another, his morale was extremely low.

Lu Yang stared at the Prisoner Pluto and said, "What about the damage?"

The Prison King said reproachfully: "The 8000 Sagittarius brothers, 2212 died, and 5788 are left. The fire crows are all dead. It is my command error. Please punish the boss."

Lu Yang patted him * the shoulder, looked at the archer soldiers behind him, and said loudly: "Remember the shame of this battle, remember the dead brothers, the war is not over, our enemy is still alive, you The task now is to train hard and seek revenge on them."

This battle not only killed 2,212 brothers, but also made the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood realize for the first time how cruel the war is.

The previous wars with the Redskins, Greenskins, and Orc Legions were too easy, and the Shekou defense battle was too easy, but they were all based on the enemy's paralysis and arrogance.

Now that the Demon Race knows the specific strength of the Human Race, and when they begin to take it seriously, the human beings are in a paralyzed stage when fighting in the wild.

Under normal circumstances, no matter how to chase or kill the fleeing orcs, there will be a large number of sentinels patrolling the surroundings. However, they have neglected the turbid wine and the prison pluto, and they will bear heavy responsibility for such casualties.

When the turbid wine is used up, the Pluto town should be punished heavily, but it is not easy to train a general. Lu Yang believes that the Pluto town will not be paralyzed again after this incident.

He looked at the Pluto King and said, "Your life is in my mind. I can't avenge my brothers in the next war. I will kill you myself."

"Yes." The Prison-Suppressing Hades said forcefully, enduring grief.

"Take the brothers back to the Shekou defensive position to rest. I will rescue Augustus. He can't stay with the enemy." Lu Yang retracted the three-eyed magic flower, summoned Hong Ye, and jumped up.

Prison Hades recovered his life, brought the Archer Army into a team, and returned towards the East China Sea. This time, he commanded the sentries and the Chinese Army and other parts of the army in an orderly manner.

Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye to fly a circle above the Archer regiment. After making sure that there was no problem, he flew towards Riyue Mountain.

The Demon Army was still halfway there. It didn't take long before Lu Yang flew into Sunyue City on the top of Riyue Mountain, rescued Augustus from the prison, and threw him into the Demon Temple for training.

Poor August was shocked as soon as he entered the Demon Temple. Even if the horrible light of the ancient holy light elves hit his body, it would cause him severe pain.

Lu Yang cut down on Augustus's love for not revealing his secret, and made Augustus hide in the fruit tree planting area of the Red Spirit Fruit, avoiding the Holy Light.

Afterwards, Lu Yang called the white lion, Zhou Tianming and others and said: "Half of the legions are transferred back to defend Shekou, and the remaining half of the legions will continue to stay in the water cave to kill the orcs."

The magic train that the White Lion took was almost at the station in the L8 city, and asked: "Boss, did you solve it over there?"

Lu Yang recounted what happened, said: "I need to come back and lead the Sagittarius team to restore morale."

Zhou Tianming and Xia Yuwei said at the same time: "Let me come."

Lu Yang thought for a while and said, "You both are back."

Zhuojiu can't command Shekou. Only Zhou Tianming, Xia Yuwei, White Lion, and Kishai Half a lifetime can understand the command here, but the White Lion needs to command the Warrior Legion, and the sword-like wizard will help him. It will be upgraded to Tier 3, only Zhou Tianming and Xia Yuwei can be transferred back.

"Yes." Zhou Tianming and Xia Yuwei said at the same time.

"Boss, I have one more thing, I have to tell you in person." Zhou Tianming hesitated and said to Lu Yang.

"I'm returning to Shekou. We will meet there," Lu Yang said.

He also felt that something was wrong with Zhou Tianming. For a while, Zhou Tianming seemed to have been enduring something. The Blazing Demon God occasionally heard the whispers of the ancient Demon God. He was by Zhou Tianming's side. He had been waiting for Zhou Tianming himself. Said, now I can finally talk about it.

Chapter 2266: The whispers of the ancient demon

The top of the fortress in the center of the Shekou defensive position.

Zhou Tianming took off his armor and stood on the edge of the fortress in white clothes. He looked at Lu Yang beside him and said, "Boss, I have been hearing strange whispers recently. I was afraid to trouble you before, but I feel like I can't hold on anymore. , The whispering keeps tempting me to join them."

Lu Yang smiled and patted him on the shoulder, and said, "It's the call of the ancient demon. Don't promise him. Once you agree, although you can gain power for a short time, the demon will take over your body and wipe it completely. Lose your consciousness and let you disappear from this world."

This is what the Blazing Demon God told him that whenever magic elements enter a new world, it brings not only new world creatures that can learn magic elements, but also various alien space creatures that use magic elements to communicate.

Ancient demons are one of them. Even the Blazing Demon God doesn't know how the ancient demons came into being. They only know that they are sealed in a different space. Whenever a creature hears their whispers and agrees to sign a contract with them , They will briefly give the contractor strong power, and then swallow the contractor and appear in this world.

The key is that this thing cannot be killed. What he comes from is just a ray of divine consciousness. Even the Blazing Demon God fears the Demon King among the ancient demons. They are like the heart demon of the Tribulation Monk, and they are always promoted in the power of God level. Critical moments appear, and if you don't pay attention, you will die.

But after so many years of fighting, the Blazing Demon God has also researched some ways to deal with the ancient demons, and can also use the ancient demons to increase their strength. This is why Lu Yang is not afraid that Zhou Tianming signed a contract with the ancient demons before telling him. reason.

"Boss, what should I do?" Zhou Tianming asked. He was not afraid of death, but he was afraid that death was not worth it. So many enemies were waiting for him to kill, so many brothers needed him to protect him, and he couldn't die now.

Lu Yang looked at Zhou Tianming with some emotion, and said, "Maybe this is your life. You have two choices. One is that when the ancient demon appears, I will use a spell to control the ancient demon's consciousness, but in the future you At every critical moment of improving your strength, ancient demons will appear, because your physique and soul are in line with the choices of ancient demons, which can be said to be a crisis step by step."

With the help of the fragments of the Devil's Heart, the Blazing Demon God is still very easy to deal with the soul of an ancient demon, but as Lu Yang said, Zhou Tianming's life is closely related to the ancient demon, and he will never escape.

Zhou Tianming smiled bitterly and said, "Who am I offending? What is the second way?"

Lu Yang said: "Accepting demons actively. There is a saying that our world has been invaded by ancient gods. All of us humans are descendants of ancient gods. Only after the element of magic disappears, we lose the inheritance of magic and change from generation to generation. As I am now, I am close to the fire element because I may be a descendant of the flame * race. You can hear the whispers of the ancient demons, and maybe the blood of the ancient demons is flowing on your body."

This is the inference of the Blazing Demon God, because there are many weird monuments on this planet, and the horror is prohibited so that the consciousness of the Blazing Demon God dare not explore, and Lu Yang's body can integrate with the fire element so easily. The only explanation he could not imagine was that the humans on this planet were a branch left by the ancient gods.

Zhou Tianming was even more speechless, and said with a wry smile: "No wonder I can hear the whispers of the ancient demon, and came to me with my ancestor."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "It can be understood that way for the time being, maybe there will be more discoveries in the future."

Zhou Tianming sighed and said, "Then I will take the initiative and stop struggling. That's the way I fate, so why bother to resist."

Lu Yang said: "If you choose to accept, I can help you erase the ancient demon consciousness that invaded your sea of knowledge for the first time, but after that, my help to you is becoming more and more limited, and I still have to rely on more. You yourself fight against the ancient demon spirits that later invaded.”

Zhou Tianming nodded and said, “I can accept it.”

Lu Yang said: “One more thing is that after you become a demon, you are probably as ugly as the boss. I am a flame demon with a height of 100 meters, and you may be a terrifying demon with a height of 100 meters. You must be psychologically prepared.”

Zhou Tianming chuckled and said, “It’s okay. The white lion and the three brothers may have completely turned into beasts when they transformed. I still have a personal appearance. I’m very lucky.”

Lu Yang laughed and said, “Follow me to the nearby mountain forest. Let’s start now. The ancient demon in the province is just talking in your ears.”

Zhou Tianming nodded, he was so bored, and hurriedly followed Lu Yang to the mountain peak on the left side of the Shekou defensive position.

Lu Yang took out the Three-Eyed Magic Flower and created eight towering trees, each with vines sticking out of the trunk, binding Zhou Tianming’s arms, legs, neck and waist.

“Let’s get started.” Lu Yang handed over the control of the body to the Blazing Demon God. His mastery of these types of spells was average, and he had to leave it to a professional to do it. The only thing he could do was leave Zhou Tianming a word. : “Hold your heart, remember that we are brothers, we were, we are, and we will be from now on, no one can separate us.”

“Yeah.” Zhou Tianming nodded, stood still, closed his eyes, and listened carefully to the weird and intoxicating words in his ears.

“Zhou Tianming, I know that you desire power, sign a contract with me, and you will gain the most powerful power in the world.”

“The three heroes of the Bai family have all been promoted, Lu Yang has also been promoted, and the love of half a lifetime has also been promoted, only you, among many leaders, your strength is the weakest, how do you protect your brother.”

“The lovely queen has also been promoted, and both heroic Wanzong and 200 fighters have the ability to be promoted to the third rank, but you are still a second-rank, how do you face your brother? What will they think of you?”

“You keep saying that you can give everything for your brother, but now you are hesitant, you are obviously a hypocrite.”

“Promise me, I will give you strength, I will grow with you, and let me see the world.”

...

Through the Blazing Demon God, Lu Yang could hear the words of the ancient demon. This made him sneer. No wonder Zhou Tianming said that he couldn't help it. It turned out that the devil had grasped part of Zhou Tianming's weakness.

He has lived for his brothers all his life, loyalty is everything to him, but this doesn't mean he can't bear that his brothers are better than him, or even he is willing to see that his brothers are better than him, so that someone will share the pressure with him.

Zhou Tianming needed power, but he was not jealous of his companions. The ancient demon found the wrong breakthrough. However, it seemed that the ancient demon was about to find his true point. That's why Zhou Tianming would tell Lu Yang about this.

Chapter 2267: Zhou Tianming turned

If there is anyone in this world who can make Zhou Tianming trust unconditionally, this person must be Lu Yang. He has been with each other for thirteen years, helping each other countless times, and relying on each other countless times. That kind of trust is engraved in In the bones.

Zhou Tianming is not afraid of death, but his fear of death is not worth it. Starting from the whispers of ancient demons echoing in his mind, Zhou Tianming knew that when he promised, it was when he died, and it would also pose a threat to his brothers.

Now he was not afraid. Lu Yang told him that even if the devil took over his body, Lu Yang could still kill the devil and save him back. That was okay. Therefore, Zhou Tianming gradually relaxed his consciousness and began to accept the call of the ancient demon. .

“Yes, don’t resist the consciousness, accept my arrival.”

“I will make you strong, and make you the strongest person in the world.”

“Then...”

“Then...”

“Quack~! Then I will kill everyone, including your relatives, lovers, friends, brothers!”

Zhou Tianming’s mind suddenly heard a sharp laughter that was extremely rampant and excitement. The next moment, Zhou Tianming’s uncontrollable screaming up to the sky, green light appeared around his body.

The terrifying green magical flame burned through the space around Zhou Tianming, and a green body the size of a fly flew out of the void and plunged directly into the center of Zhou Tianming’s eyebrows.

Zhou Tianming’s body seemed to be on fire, and all his clothes were burned to ashes. His body began to undergo great changes. His long black hair instantly turned white, and two buffalo-like corners grew on his forehead. .

His face and skin became completely black, his eyes became red, his tongue became slender, and the skin on his chest and arms continued to grow, gradually turning into spikes.

“Finally, I finally returned to this world. It has been tens of thousands of years. I can’t remember it.” The demonized Zhou Tianming screamed up to the sky, but at this moment, he discovered the problem, because Zhou Tianming’s limbs, The neck and waist are bound by vines.

“What is this?” Demonized Zhou Tianming cursed angrily, his hands lit up with green flames.

The Blazing Demon God was controlling Lu Yang’s body at this time, with an arc drawn at the corner of his mouth, and the scarlet flames that he had prepared in his hand instantly flew into Zhou Tianming’s mind.

“Ah~!”

Zhou Tianming let out a scream, and the flames that had just gathered in his hands dissipated instantly. He couldn’t believe looking at the humans in front of him, and roared: “How can you understand this kind of magic? It’s impossible.”

“Nothing is impossible, I specifically restrain you.” Blazing Demon God said triumphantly.

Back then, he encountered ancient demons from Tier 3, and fought against them again and again until he became the King of Gods. Now it is too easy for him to deal with a Tier 3 ancient demon consciousness again.

The ancient demon who broke the alien space had not waited for his name to be reported, but his consciousness was burned by the special flame of the Blazing Demon God, leaving only the Tier 3 spirit body unconsciously wandering in Zhou Tianming’s soul sea.

Zhou Tianming woke up abruptly, looked at Lu Yang with confused eyes, and said, “Boss, what happened to me just now?”

Lu Yang smiled. He has regained control over his body. He took a picture of Zhou Tianming with the phone on his arm and said, “The ancient demon has been killed by me. This is how you look now. .”

“Why is it so ugly?!” Zhou Tianming was anxious, and quickly turned on the camera on Lu Yang’s arm, and carefully looked at his appearance, and said: “The outline of the individual is left, and it feels not as good as the white lions. .”

Anyway, the white lions are still strong beasts after their transformation, which makes people look safe. Zhou Tianming’s demon form is completely disgusting, no wonder he can’t accept it.

Lu Yang laughed and said, “Soon you will regain your human form. Feel the energy in your soul sea. There is a third-order ancient demon’s spirit body there. Only by absorbing him as soon as possible can you increase your strength to the third-order. , Wait until you reach the third-order peak, you can become like this again. Of course, you will be 100 meters tall like me at that time.”

Zhou Tianming said with a greasy look: “I have to practice hard to keep this disgusting face together.”

Lu Yang patted him on the shoulder and said, “This is all fate. Your task will be very heavy next. I’m going out to find a way to deal with General Huo Ling. During this period, you should always beware of Riyue Mountain. The devil, beware of the Scorpion people who don’t know where they are going. There are still a lot of things inside, but they will all be left to you.”

The demons of Riyue Mountain should not sneak attacks on humans. According to the character of the devil, at this time they will definitely wait for the human race and the natural * race to decide the victory or defeat. They will pick up the bargain again, but no one can guarantee that the demons of Riyue Mountain will do it. Convulsions.

The Scorpion people didn’t dare to fight, and there were hidden Necromancers. They should all be waiting for the next red moon night before they unite to attack humanity.

The Blazing Demon God said to Lu Yang that the next time the Red Moon Night will arrive in another world army, there is a high probability that it will be the same group of other world creatures entering Bandarsburg. In that case, Lu Yang wants to use Bandarsberg. The organs inside, kill them first, so he must recover his body as soon as possible.

Zhou Tianming has gradually changed back into a human form at this time, and said to Lu Yang with a solemn expression: “Boss, don’t worry, I will guard Shekou while you are away and will not give the enemy any chance.”

Lu Yang nodded. He believed that Zhou Tianming and Xia Yuwei could arrange this well, and said: "Let's go back, there is still a lot to do."

The sentinel arrangement of the Shekou defensive position, the daily training and patrol arrangements of the soldiers, as well as the memorial to the brothers who died in battle, returned to the East China Sea to broadcast the battlefield news to more than 10 million people, telling them that the Jagged Brothers had once again defeated the enemy. Defend the last piece of pure land in the northeast region.

While resting at night, Lu Yang controlled Hongye to patrol outside Shekou, looking for the Necromancer. At the same time, he issued a secret order. A large number of young and strong laborers and equipment left Shekou and went to one. Special location.

Lu Yang spent a whole month busy. Fortunately, he was supported by the heart of the demon * and blood in his body. Not only was he not fatigued, but the wound on his abdomen caused by the son of the beast * also healed.

"Boy, it's time to open Bandarsburg, get ready, I'm going to send you there." Inside the Demon Temple, Malthus, who turned into a cocoon, sent a message.

Lu Yang nodded, and finally after explaining Zhou Tianming and Xia Yuwei in the Shekou defensive position, he jumped on top of Hongye's head and flew to a dense forest 5 kilometers away from the Shekou position.

Chapter 2268: Enter Bandarsburg

This dense forest did not originally exist. After the death of the flower demon, a large number of rhizomes of the flower demon reborn in the soil, growing here from behind the big mountain in front.

Lu Yang originally wanted to burn this flower demon forest, but the Blazing Demon God told him that after the dead flower demon became a plant again, it would attract a large number of wood elves, which would help wood mages to practice.

There are more than 200 Tier 2 pinnacle wood mages in the Jagged Brothers League. Lu Yang arranged for them to be behind the mountain in front, where the flower demon died. Now the people such as De Bu Taste the Corpse and become upset have broken through to the third. It feels like an order, but it's just a final touch, so all of them are practicing desperately.

Lu Yang looked around and made sure that there was no one around. He said to the Blazing Demon God, "I'm ready here. I can leave at any time."

The Blazing Demon raised his magic power to the extreme, and said: "When you get there, you may encounter other creatures as soon as you hit the ground, enter the passage, and you will quickly become a flame form."

Lu Yang nodded.

Ancient Holy Light Elf Malthus snorted coldly and said: "Be prepared, I opened the portal."

"Om~!"

A peculiar voice rang in Lu Yang's ears, and then a two-meter-high oval portal with golden light appeared in front of him.

From the outside to the inside, he couldn't see anything at all, only the bright golden light. Lu Yang stepped into the portal. In an instant, the golden light disappeared. He felt the extremely abundant magical energy and made his soul irritated. Feel the evil thoughts of disgust.

"Transformation"

Lu Yang's body instantly burned into flames and turned into a fire demon form. He looked around and was surprised to find that he had come to an extremely desolate world, where the ground was jet black and there was no grass growing.

The sky was red, and there were cracks everywhere, as if it had been broken by people. There were three red moons in the distance. Under the red moonlight, the ground was illuminated very clearly, as if it had just entered dusk.

A huge castle stands under the red moon on the right, about a few hundred kilometers away. The castle is very big, like a mountain.

The Blazing Demon God said in a solemn voice: "Unexpectedly, the distance is so far, it looks like you need to run over on foot."

Malthus said uncomfortably: "It would be nice to be able to transport you over. It was agreed that the nine ancient elves would hold the key together to transport you to the castle. Don't think this road is easy."

The Blazing Demon God was too lazy to talk to Malthus, and said to Lu Yang: "This is Bandarsburg prison. You have to walk to the castle in the distance. Be careful. You can only be at night every day, that is, three moons rise. When walking, other times must find the cave to hide."

"Why?" Lu Yang asked curiously.

The Blazing Demon sneered and said, "Because during the day, this world will rise up an extremely huge sun. You can even see the surface of the sun clearly. The terrifying high temperature will ignite this world, and all living things will be on this sun. Below, they will all be burned to death, and the only ones that can survive are fire creatures above the fifth level."

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders and said, "Sure enough, the differences between different worlds are different. If the earth were so close to the sun in our universe, it would have been drawn into the sun a long time ago."

The Blazing Demon God said: "In fact, this is not a world, but a weird space. I even suspect that this is the temple of the ancient flame * king, because the space here is only two thousand kilometers long and wide, and the marginal area is void. And the castle in the distance is the only one that can withstand flames, very similar to my Demon Temple."

"Bah, dreaming again." Malthus suddenly uttered a voice and cursed: "How many times have the ancient elves and all the * kings of your generation have been here. It has long been proved that this is a special plane, and it is not related to the ancient flame * king. Don't just dream about it."

The Blazing Demon God was speechless, annoyed and wanted to curse, but finally held back, and said to Lu Yang: "Don't pay attention to that old thing, I will tell you the route of travel."

Lu Yang laughed, he knew why Malthus was so unwelcome in another world, and his mouth was too stinky.

Lu Yang asked, "How should I go?"

The Blazing Demon God directly sent a memory map to Lu Yang's Sea of Consciousness, and said, "This is a map of the entire Bandarsberg inside and outside, with all the burrows that can be hidden in it."

Lu Yang looked at the map carefully and found his location by comparing the surrounding terrain. It just so happened that the road was in the middle of several regular terrains leading to Bandarsburg, and he stepped forward.

"Om~!"

Suddenly, in the red sky around Bandarsburg, more than 20 huge portals with a diameter of more than 100 meters appeared, and various monsters flew out of the portals.

The Blazing Demon sneered and said: "Those stupid clans who believe in them have come in. Be careful. When you encounter them, you will be hunted and killed endlessly."

Lu Yang frowned. There was a portal right on the road in front of him. The race that flew out of it seemed to be orcs, there were more than a hundred in number.

“Perceive their location,” Lu Yang said, his perception range is too small and he needs the help of the Blazing Demon God.

“Don’t worry, leave it to me.” Blazing Demon God’s huge divine consciousness radiated, and instantly covered the orcs five kilometers away in front of him.

Lu Yang could even see the faces of these orcs and hear the content of their conversations through the consciousness of the Blazing Demon God.

“The great beast * sent us here. For the beast god, we must pass the test.” A jackal head orc man who was more than three meters tall and raised a two-handed sword with one hand shouted loudly.

More than one hundred orcs nearby cheered. One of the orcs took out the map and said, “Everyone, follow me. Let’s go to ambush other races. We can enter the earth.”

Lu Yang and Blazing Demon God were surprised when they heard this. Lu Yang said, “They want to kill each other?”

Blazing Demon said: “It’s not surprising that when we set the ban, only Tier 3 creatures can enter, and the strongest monster here is Tier 4, so they can only be in the periphery of Bandarsburg. The first three floors of the castle are explored, and the underground floor is the living area of the group of Tier 4 monsters. If you enter, you will die.”

In other words, the resources available here are limited, and whoever can grab it will go to whoever can grab it. Naturally, this group of people will fight each other for strength.

Chapter 2269: Framing

Lu Yang's purpose in coming to Bandarsburg this time was to find ways to kill these enemies, in addition to improving his strength. He originally thought that these enemies would act together. Said: "The opportunity is here."

The Blazing Demon God frowned and said: "I have just scanned each of their orcs, the lowest third-level elementary, the highest third-level peak, sent by other * races, and their strength will not be weaker than this orc, don't be impulsive."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Don't worry, I won't go there in person."

A total of 12 portals appeared in the sky just now. Lu Yang probably counted them. There were more than 1,000 different races in the different world this time. He couldn't win by fighting hard, but he fought against the races in the different world several times. A conclusion came out that these races have a common problem-simple thinking, everything is respected by strength.

Just like the first batch of orcs who rushed over from the grassland before the red moon night, if their thoughts were a little more complicated, they would not fall into Lu Yang's trap, and all 50,000 people died.

This time Lu Yang's idea is still deceitful. Since the enemies want to annex each other, Lu Yang might as well take the initiative to provoke a war. He is a Tier 3 Fire Element, and there are other Tier 3 crystals in the Demon God Temple. The illusion of a sneak attack between races is very easy.

The Blazing Demon frowned and asked, "But where are you going to ambush? There are plains all around."

Lu Yang smiled, pointed at the mountains around Bandarsburg, and said, "Bataan Mountains."

In the map passed to Lu Yang by the Blazing Demon God, Bandarsburg is guarded by countless low mountains around it. The longest place is 12 kilometers, and the narrowest is 6 kilometers.

Any creature that wants to enter Bandarsburg must hide in the Bataan Mountains to find opportunities. During the day, they must hide in the caves of various low mountains to prevent damage from Tier 5 flames.

The Blazing Demon thought for a while, and said: "Your trick can really work. It is said that once this group of orcs are attacked, the first thing they think of is other races."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "It's up to your brother now. Scan the surroundings for me. Don't be found by the enemy when I am running."

"Give it to me." The Blazing Demon unfolded his divine consciousness, and he was enveloped within 3 kilometers of the surrounding area.

Lu Yang avoided the orc army and came to a place 3 kilometers away from their side, running at full speed toward the Bataan Mountains. In fact, there was an off-road vehicle in his special space, but he didn't dare to drive.

On the open plain, there was no sound at all. If Lu Yang dared to drive an off-road vehicle, even a few kilometers away, creatures in another world would be able to hear him. Then he would be exposed, so he could only run.

The night in this special space lasts 16 hours, and the time they enter is in the middle, which means that there is still 8 hours before the sunrise.

"Hot and Fast"

Lu Yang's running speed increased three times. From night to the bright sky around him, he ran a total of about 200 kilometers, slightly faster than the orcs.

The Blazing Demon said: "The sun will come out soon, you can continue to run for at most half an hour."

This is the advantage of the fire demon. Lu Yang is a third-order fire demon. When the sun rises, the temperature is not so high. He can resist for a while. In this way, in addition to the same fire demon, all other races it is impossible to reach the Bataan Mountains before Lu Yang.

Lu Yang continued to run. At the same time, he looked curiously towards the brightening horizon, but before running for another 20 minutes, Lu Yang showed a look of horror on his face, because an extremely huge sun just rose from the horizon. rise.

The distance between the sun and the ground seemed to be only a few kilometers. From the ground, Lu Yang saw the size of the sun, and it occupies one-third of the sky, and blazing red flames kept jumping on the surface of the sun.

The terrifying high temperature caused Lu Yang's clothes to instantly turn into fly ashes. Fortunately, it was not noon. A flame burst out from his right hand and punched to the ground. A deep hole was punched out by him, and Lu Yang clasped his fists in both hands. Pointing to the ground, his body spins into the ground at high speed.

When he reached the height of 20 meters underground, he breathed a sigh of relief and said to the Blazing Demon: "The power of nature is terrifying."

The Blazing Demon God nodded and said: "There is even more terrifying. When it is noon, the sun above your head will occupy two-thirds of the sky, giving you the feeling that you are about to hit the sun."

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders, carefully dug down another two meters, and then fell asleep peacefully. When it was late at night, he was awakened by the Blazing Demon God and crawled out of the soil to continue running.

After running for three days in a row, until late at night on the fourth day, Lu Yang took the lead to reach the Bataan Mountains, and the orcs behind him were six hours away from the Bataan Mountains.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Lu Yang began to search for other races in other worlds. One hour later, he found the Fire Demon Race 10 kilometers away on the left, and continued walking for 5 kilometers. In a crater, he found three of the Natural God Race. Two races, the wood elves of the forest trolls, the earth elves of the rock giants, and the wind elves of the roar.

The Blazing Demon God looked at Lu Yang speechlessly, and said, "Their names are the Sendan, Gur, and Hill. What kind of weird name do you have?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Can you blame me? The Sundan clan, a green-skinned man with fangs growing out of his mouth, looks more like a troll, and there is also a Gur clan, not three meters tall. As for the last Hill clan, I have never seen a toad with such a big mouth and human limbs."

"It's up to you." The Blazing Demon God shook his head speechlessly, and said: "How do you want to kill?"

Lu Yang said: "Look at me. "

He had already aimed at a big toad that was alone. This guy came out looking for a cave that could be hidden. It happened that he was facing the side of the Yang when he walked out of the crater.

"Lava Spear"

Lu Yang's right hand had already prepared a flame spear violently thrown out, and in an instant, a flame was flashed in the air. Before the big toad man could react, his body was penetrated by the spear, and his body was ignited by the terrifying flames.

"Ah~~~!"

The big toad man let out a scream before he died, which caused the three clans in the crater to run out quickly, but at this time, Lu Yang had disappeared, leaving only the toad man's body burning all over.

The patriarch of the Toad human clan immediately turned red, and he roared up to the sky and said: "Fire Demon Clan, I must kill you."

Both the head of the forest troll clan and the head of the rock giant clan both had angry expressions on their faces. Obviously, they were also angry at the behavior of the "fire demon".

Chapter 2270: Open mechanism

“Smash them to pieces.”

The warriors of the three races were already crazy, searching the surroundings based on their races, but Lu Yang, the initiator, had already ran to a place ten kilometers away from their side. On the back of a low mountain, they found the Dark Race, Void Race and Arcane race.

Among them, the dark race is a group of extremely tall skeletons called golden skeleton warriors, the void race is a humanoid monster like an octopus, called the Soster race, and the arcane race is a group of purple, tailed human creatures called the Dolin race.

Lu Yang used the method of the Blazing Demon God to create a special magic circle. He gathered all the energy of a Tier 3 wind crystal to create a magic shock arrow. This wind shock arrow hits any target. Will explode in the opponent's body, completely tearing up the opponent's internal organs.

An octopus man was hit, and his body was in a frenzied shock, turning into a corpse with only the epidermis and the internal organs completely shattered.

The three clans were furious and chased after the traces left by Lu Yang, just when they ran into the toad man, the stone man, and the troll tribe.

“The * roar and scumbags, unexpectedly attacked the heroes of our clan, the soldiers of Soest, attack with me and kill~!” The leader of the octopus roared, without giving the toad man any opportunity to explain, he carried more than a hundred The men attacked them.

“I, not...” The leader of the toad man couldn’t explain it, and he could only roar: “This is planting and framing and killing them.”

“Kill~!” More than a hundred toad people launched a counter-charge towards the octopus.

Seeing this, the other two races on both sides didn’t care about the others, and rushed over together. Suddenly, more than 600 third-level magic creatures from different worlds fought together.

Lu Yang saw this scene on a mountain not far away, with a sneer at the corner of his mouth. There were only 12 races in total. Now half of them are fighting together, and the rest are water, fire, thunder, and holy light. , Orcs and Demons.

According to the Blazing Demon God, the water system is the slowest of all races that come here. It should not be near the mountains yet. The Fire Demon, Thunder Demon and Holy Light races are the fastest. They should be able to hide. In the mountain range closest to Bandarsburg.

Lu Yang decided to find these three races first. He ran towards the distant mountains. Sure enough, within an hour, he found the Fire Demon Race. Outside the cave on the back of a big mountain, he saw a few Tier 3 Fire Demon Warrior wandering.

“Evil Fire Spear”

Lu Yang evacuated all the energy in a Tier 3 demon crystal, created an evil fire spear, and plunged it into the body of a fire demon warrior. After that, he found the thunder demon and made it out of a handful of star steel. His two-handed sword was inserted into the heart of a Thunder Demon warrior.

Immediately afterwards, Lu Yang ran back to the area where the orcs were, and killed another orc with the lava spear, leading the other orcs to the area of the Fire Demon Race.

At this point, except for one water demon clan that had not been attacked by Lu Yang, the other 11 races were all caught in fury.

Lu Yang took this opportunity to find a high mountain closest to Bandarsberg. From here to Bandarsberg, he will experience a huge 50-kilometer-long plain. In front of the castle, there is a huge lake, which is exuding. A strong aura, obviously, the aura here has become so strong that it turns into water.

Countless red and bloated creatures were carrying buckets, running out of the castle continuously, and after receiving a bucket of water, they ran back into the castle.

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "What monsters are these?"

The Blazing Demon snorted coldly, and said, "They are called Batanmon. They are monsters that can release flames and blood magic at the same time. Back then, they were one of the landlords of our world. They were led by our * kings. The joint attack killed most of their races, and only a few hundred of them were thrown into it, and their strength was at the peak of Tier 3."

Fire spells are already very strong, and blood magic is even more terrifying. It is a spell that contaminates the magic power of other races with blood. Once it is stained with this kind of blood, creatures will mutate and eventually become their slaves.

Lu Yang said, "Is there any way to avoid them entering the castle?"

The Blazing Demon God frowned and said: "You can't go now, you can only wait when the sun just rises, these Batan beasts will hide in the castle, take this opportunity to enter the castle, don't go to war with them, don't enter the secret room The engine is off, you can't beat them."

Lu Yang nodded, just as he was about to find a place to rest, suddenly, a roar came from far behind him.

A toad man couldn't help using his ability to transform. At a height of more than 100 meters, the wind spell he launched was more than twice as powerful.

"Only you will transform?"

"I can do it too."

...

One after another, Tier 3 creatures roared and activated their transformation abilities. The highest mountain in the Bataan Mountains is only more than a hundred. Many monsters fight on the mountains. Therefore, the situation here makes Bandars The Batanmon in front of the fort can see clearly.

“Damn it, there are enemies invading, all of them gather.” The leader of the Bataan beast who carried the water threw away the bucket and ran towards the mountain side at full speed.

Other Batan beasts also ran after the leader. On the way, the leader took the lead in transforming. The original human form turned into the shape of a beast. The body was more than twice as strong, and he ran on all fours.

Lu Yang watched this scene in surprise, he counted, and said, “There are 807 Batan beasts in total, how many have you imprisoned?”

The Blazing Demon said with a smile: “The number is just right Go invisible.”

Lu Yang didn't expect to come in so smoothly, took out the bone scepter to activate his invisibility, staggered a few kilometers away from the Batanmon, and quickly ran to the gate of the castle.

The door was open at this time. Looking into the hall from here, I found that the decoration inside was extremely beautiful. The cyan stone was made of unknown material, like a mirror surface, which could clearly reflect people's appearance.

There is a 20-meter-wide red carpet in the middle, which has been spread to the deepest part of the hall. On the left and right sides of the hall, there are many pillars with colorful gems on them.

Lu Yang asked, “How do I go?”

The Blazing Demon said excitedly: "Are those colored gems gone? Take me under each red gem, and I will start the spell."

Lu Yang was a little surprised. Unexpectedly, the organ was at the door. He hurriedly walked under the first stone pillar with a red gem.

The Blazing Demon God cast a spell in the Sea of Consciousness, and suddenly, the red gemstone emitted a beam of light, shining toward the center of the hall.

Chapter 2271: Red Flame Scepter of Treasure

Lu Yang then walked to the second pillar, and the Blazing Demon God continued to chant a spell, and the red gem on the pillar shone light and shone towards the middle point of the main hall.

Then Lu Yang walked to the third pillar, the fourth pillar... until Lu Yang triggered all the gems on the twenty-four pillars in the hall. At the middle point of the hall, one was made of red light. The portal appears.

"Quickly go in, there is my treasure house." Blazing Demon God said excitedly.

Lu Yang walked quickly to the portal and stepped inside. Suddenly, a red light flashed across his eyes. The next second, he appeared on an altar surrounded by flames.

This altar is made of cyan stone, surrounded by a circle of red gems with eight arm-thick red gems. In an instant, the eight gems emitted fierce red flames at the same time, but before the flames touched Lu Yang's body, it was blazing. The Flame Demon God released his spiritual thoughts, and the flames instantly became milder, and roasted on Lu Yang's body, only to make Lu Yang feel warm all over his body.

Lu Yang asked, "Is this a trap circle?"

The Blazing Demon said apologetically: "It hasn't been here for tens of thousands of years. I forgot the mechanism here. The moment I entered the teleportation formation, if it weren't for my body, I would be attacked by my preset formation. Don't underestimate this. Although I set up the formation with the fifth-order gems casually, his attack power is equivalent to the full blow of the fifth-order peak."

Lu Yang didn't care about this. He and the Blazing Demon God had already lived and died many times. Like relatives, he smiled and said, "I guess you never thought that you would be where you are today."

The Blazing Demon God said greasily: "Nonsense, I was the Blazing Demon God, the dignified Flame God King, with more than 8,000 upper gods, more than 100,000 middle gods, millions of lower gods, and countless people. How could I think that one day in the future, I still need to prepare a place for myself to be promoted to Tier 4 strength, this thing is what I arrange at any time."

Lu Yang laughed and praised: "That is to say, a divine king like you has such perseverance. If you change to another person, you have long collapsed, but you can get up again. You are a real strong."

"Stop flattering." Blazing Demon God said so, but he was very proud, and said: "Okay, although this place is arranged by me, it is a huge treasure house. Look at the two flame statues in front."

Right in front of the steps of the altar, there is a huge golden box, and on both sides of the box, stands a five-meter-high flame sculpture. Their faces are similar to human figures, and their bodies are similar to human figures, but their red bodies are long. It is full of black sharp corners, from fingers to arms, to shoulders and then to forehead.

Their abdomen is covered with sharp and angular muscles, and their thick thighs and toes are also covered with black sharp corners. The most terrifying thing is their backs. Although they are incomplete from the front, their backs grow out. The sharp corners are at least one meter long, and there are eight that can be seen, all facing the sky.

There is also a thick tail near their feet, which is covered with black sharp horns, as if this creature has no shortcomings in the whole body, and it is completely serving the war.

Lu Yang asked in amazement, "What are they?"

The Blazing Demon said triumphantly: "The two of them are the two source fires that I found on the outer planet in ancient times. Because of their low strength, I sealed them here as guards.

If it weren't for me to come here, once the others opened the box, the two of them would resurrect, kill each other, and let me activate both of them. From now on, the two of them will replace those fire demons. "

The Blazing Devil chanted a spell, and the originally hollow eyes of the two guards instantly glowed with red light. In the next second, the two five-meter-high guards came to life at the same time. After seeing Lu Yang, they kneeled respectfully on one knee. Lowering his forehead, he said, "Welcome the master's return."

Lu Yang asked curiously, "How can they recognize me so much from your appearance?"

"They look at the soul, not the appearance." The Blazing Demon God was very upset about Lu Yang asking such a low-level question, and said to the two guards: "Enter my Demon Temple and absorb all the fire demon."

"Accomplished." The two guards burst into light, turned into fire, and flew into the body of the Blazing Demon God. After standing on both sides in front of the main hall of the Demon God Temple, they opened their huge mouths at the same time to remove all the fire in the temple. The demon was sucked into the body.

Lu Yang could clearly feel that the flames of the two fire demon were different from the flames of the blazing demon. It was a more tyrannical flame. He asked, "The flames of these two source fires are very special?"

The Blazing Demon said triumphantly: "There are more special ones, you open this treasure chest, I will tell you slowly."

Lu Yang became interested and opened the huge box in front of him. The first item was a scepter shining with red flames.

The scepter is about one meter and five meters in length. The middle handle is about 4 cm thick. The material is like a red crystal. At the top of the scepter, there is a huge red ball. The material is the same as the handle. On both sides, there is a 15 cm long golden wing, which can rise and fall with thoughts.

At the other end of the scepter, that is, the bottom of the scepter, it was cut into a spear tip, and the sharp Lu Yang accidentally cut the bluestone ground that could not be burned by flames.

“Is this scepter used for war?” Lu Yang curiously weighed it, feeling that it would be good to hit someone with this hammer.

The Blazing Demon God was even more proud, and said, “This scepter is called the Red Flame Scepter. It is a Tier 4 weapon. The material is made of Tier 4 Red Flame Crystal. Even the Star Smashing Blade cannot leave anything on this crystal. Mark of.

The scepter is heavier and lighter. The tip of the hammer can be used to hit the enemy hard, and the tip of the gun can be used to assassinate the enemy. Kill it.

Another, Red Flame Crystal is the best fire gem in Tier 4, it can perfectly release the spells of Tier 4 wizards, and it can also help spellcasters increase their casting speed by 30%.

If this is the case, the red flame crystal is not strong enough. The key is that the red flame crystal can contain the flame of the source spark. The flames contained in the two source sparks are called burst flames. Once they use their flames to create a lava spear, Injected into the Explosive Scepter, the power it hits is about five times higher than that of the normal lava spear. In the future, you will encounter the son of the beast * at the third-order peak, and you can kill it with a single blow. ”

Lu Yang was completely shocked, looking at the Red Flame Scepter in his hand with a little excitement, and said, “This is really a baby.”

Blazing Demon God said triumphantly: “What is this, you continue to look inside, there is more than this baby.”

Lu Yang held the scepter tightly and continued to look into the treasure chest. This made Blazing Demon God despise for a while. He thought that Lu Yang was too small, but Blazing Demon God didn't know how important this weapon was, because with this weapon, he could even more. Destroy the enemy's top power quickly, and then join the war below. In this way, there will be fewer dead brothers

Chapter 2272: Holy Light Beast Blood

In the box, next to the red flame scepter is a red flame crystal armor sculpture with a height of about 10 cm, including helmets, coats, shoulder pads, wrist guards, hand guards, belts, leg armors and combat boots. It looks like a reduced version of the fire demon.

Lu Yang picked it up and asked curiously, "What is this for?"

The Blazing Demon said: "This thing is called the Red Flame War Armor. It is grade 4. The main material is made of space crystal, star soul stone and red flame crystal. Don't look at him so small now, as long as you drop the blood on it, he You will recognize the Lord, as long as your body shape does not exceed 120 meters in height, he can change with your body shape."

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and said excitedly: "You mean this thing can change with my body size?"

"Of course." Blazing Demon God was also somewhat contented, and said: "Back then, I was looking for Tier 4 equipment in the warehouse, and finally found a piece of equipment that I built during the time when I was still in the Fire Spirit. On the armor, give it a try."

Lu Yang quickly bit his finger and dripped blood on the armor. In an instant, the armor glowed with a dazzling red light, and the blood was completely absorbed by the armor.

"Boom boom"

The Red Flame Battle Armor made two sounds like a beating heart. Lu Yang said to the Blazing Demon God in surprise, "How do I feel that he is alive?"

The Blazing Demon said triumphantly: "The battle armor I made by myself is of course different from ordinary armor. It is not alive, but there are the remnants of the space spirit and the flame spirit in it.

You and I are connected by blood. Therefore, the two spirits The Remnant Soul responded to you instinctively, give it a try, and use his mind to put the armor on you.”

A flame burst out of Lu Yang’s body, and the clothes on his body were instantly burned by the flames. Then he communicated with his mind, and the armor that was only 10 centimeters high bloomed with red light again, as if it had become magma, flowing along Lu Yang’s arms all over his body, in a blink of an eye. , Turned into a set of heavy armor shining with red light, in which the arms, back, helmet, legs and chest all have several 30 cm long black pointed horns.

If he didn’t open his helmet and mask, Lu Yang would be like a real fire demon. He knocked curiously, and found that the red area on the outside of the armor was even more terrifyingly hard and sharp than the Star Smashing Blade. He said: ” What is the Star Soul Stone, so hard?”

The Blazing Demon said: “You can compare him to a diamond in the human world. Think about it. Your whole body is covered with diamond-like spikes. Among all Tier 4 materials, the hardness of the Star Soul Stone is the highest. Yes, the temperature of resisting flames is also the highest. This armor, even when you are confronted with General Fire Spirit, may not be able to beat you, because this armor is not an ordinary Tier 4 The strong can afford it.”

Lu Yang smiled and nodded. In fact, the most exciting part of him was the size and high temperature resistance of the clothes. Every time Lu Yang fought, his clothes were burned when flames broke out from his body. Although he was in the form of a fire demon at that time, he was still uncomfortable naked.

Another thing is that when you transform into a 100-meter-high fire demon, no clothes have that kind of ductility, and they will tear into pieces, which is just as uncomfortable. Now with this suit of armor, the defensive power becomes stronger, not to mention it. I’m worried that I won’t have any clothes to wear during the fight.

Lu Yang’s mind turned, the spikes on the armor were retracted, and the armor became thin and light. Like a piece of underwear, he took out a suit of clothes from the Demon Temple and put it on again, and said, “It’s really a good piece of equipment.”

The Blazing Demon God sighed and said, “Look at the contents. I really regret that I didn’t prepare more materials at the beginning, and the rest are the Tier 4 magic cores for cultivation.

You give the bottle full of golden blood to Malthus, the Holy Light Elf, which is the blood of the Holy Light Beast of the upper * level.

Back then, it was a guardian beast of the upper * of the Holy Light. After being teleported here, he fought with me. The upper * was saved by the King of the Holy Light. His Holy Light Beast was killed by me, and I drew it from the heart of the Holy Light Beast. The blood came out, there was no place to put it at the time, so it was thrown here. ”

Lu Yang laughed. He could imagine how irritable the Blazing Demon God was back then. He picked up the bottle and didn't care about practicing. He quickly transported it back to the Demon God's Temple and came in front of the Holy Light Cocoon. He respectfully said: “Mr. Malthus, this is Chi The Flame Demon asked me to give you the blood of the Holy Light Beast.”

“Even the holy light beast dare to kill?” Malthus's angry voice came from the light cocoon. Suddenly, the light cocoon glowed golden light, and a spirit body flew out of the light cocoon, staring at Lu Yang with some anger.

Blazing Demon God cursed: “Don't scare my host. Kill it when you kill it back then. How do you want to get revenge? If it wasn't for the blood of the Holy Light Beast, would you have the ability to save your host?”

Lu Yang could clearly see that Malthus's elven expression was extremely angry, and he finally endured it and cursed, “You shameless old thing, I will settle accounts with you later.”

After speaking, Malthus took the blood of the holy light beast and flew back towards the light cocoon. Lu Yang quickly asked, “Mr. Malthus, what else do I need to do? Is one bottle of blood enough? A holy light creature of the first order.”

“Enough.” Malthus glared at Lu Yang and flew back into the light cocoon.

In embarrassment, Lu Yang secretly asked the Blazing Demon God with his consciousness, “Why is he so irritable.”

The Blazing Demon God chuckled and said: "This blames me, there are more than 200 Holy Light Beasts in our different world. It is a choice when ancient elves such as Malthus transform. I killed the Holy Light Beasts and killed the ancient elves. It makes no difference."

Lu Yang was speechless, and said with a smile: "You are really wicked."

The Blazing Demon God was even more proud and said: "Back then, I deliberately killed the Holy Light Beast. You don't know how annoying the Holy Light Elves are. Just like a group of old antiques, they scolded us and pointed at us every day, not only me. Even the Holy Light God King is annoying."

Lu Yang could understand the anger of the Blazing Demon. The Holy Light Elves who did not choose to evolve were the purest elves in the world. They would certainly not see the evolved Blazing Demon. They would use various elemental powers to destroy the world.

But the problem is that the ancient elves of the Blazing Demon God chose to evolve because they didn't want to continue to live like this. After the evolution, they even possessed seven emotions and six desires. It was impossible for them to live like the elves before. It is estimated that the Holy Light King cannot do it, otherwise the Blazing Demon God cannot be allowed to kill the Holy Light Beast.

Lu Yang focused his gaze on Light Cocoon and asked, "Can this bottle of Holy Light Beast's blood really cure the turbid wine?"

Blazing Demon God said: "Don't worry, not only can it be cured, but the turbid wine may also be upgraded to Tier 4 soon. This is the blood of the Holy Light Beast."

Lu Yang nodded in surprise, the stronger the turbid wine, the happier he was.

“Om”

When Lu Yang was chatting with the Blazing Demon God, the light cocoon in front of him suddenly emitted a fiery golden light, and the person who was shining could not open his eyes at all.

As soon as Lu Yang covered his eyes with his hand, the light disappeared, but the next second, golden light burst again, like a heart beating, constantly changing from strong to weak, from weak to strong.

“Kala~!”

There was a cracking sound in the light cocoon, and cracks appeared on it. Slowly, the cracks grew bigger and bigger, and finally, with a bang, the light cocoon was completely broken, and the whole body of the turbid wine was shining with golden light. I stood up and watched the landing in confusion. Yang said, “Boss, what’s wrong with me?”

Lu Yang excitedly grabbed the dirty wine’s arm and said, “Brother, you are not dead, but you are alive again. Moreover, you have got a bigger adventure and a stronger power.”

Zhuojiu felt the strength in his body, and said in surprise: “I’m at the third level, boss, how did you do it.”

Lu Yang smiled and recounted all the things he had been in a coma until now, and said, “Malthus has been a great help. Besides, I have the Blazing Demon God in my body, and I must never mention it to anyone.”

“Yeah.” Zhuojiu nodded and said.

Lu Yang had absolute trust in turbid wine, and so did the Blazing Demon God. The blazing demon who was able to make Malthus, the ancient holy light elves, admired him, and he wanted to study the structure of turbid wine.

A golden light flew out of the muddy wine, stopped on the shoulders of the muddy wine, and turned into a spirit body. Malthus said with an unhappy expression: “Your life can only be saved this time, and there will be another time I will save it. Can’t help you.”

Zhuojiu bowed gratefully to Malthus, and said, "Thank you, Mr. Malthus, I have survived and can better protect my brothers."

Malthus rolled his eyes and cursed: "If you want to save your brother, learn spells with me first. Look at your stupidity. The attacking spells of the Holy Light are designed to conquer the devil. I don't understand, it's too stupid."

If he had a place to learn, he would naturally study desperately, but the Holy Light spells had been studied by him and 200 Holy Light Masters from the other world to the present, and he couldn't figure it out at all.

Zhuojiu looked at Lu Yang and said, "Boss, what do I need to do now?"

The Red Flame Scepter appeared in Lu Yang's hand, and he said to Zhuojiu: "You first learn spells in my Demon Temple. You don't need to worry about the outside affairs. I have become stronger. Just leave it to me here."

Zhuojiu nodded, then bowed respectfully to Malthus, sat cross-legged on the ground, and followed Malthus to learn the Holy Light spell.

The blazing demon said excitedly: "Luck, you kid, what Malthus can teach is not inferior to the teaching ability of the * king, it is the top and the oldest holy light spell. If the turbid wine can be learned, when he returns in the human world, he alone can suppress the three major third-order peak demons, ordinary second-order demons, and when he transforms, even close bodies will be purified and burned to death by the Holy Light."

Lu Yang was excited as if there was a fire in his heart, and said, "I can finally get rid of those big demons. I have a headache for them."

The Blazing Demon God chuckled and said: "Don't have a headache, there are still a lot of Tier 4 fire demon cores in the box. Expand your soul core to reach Tier 3 peak as soon as possible, and prepare to hit Tier 4."

The third level is to connect the soul sea with the meridians of the whole body, forming a rotating pattern to wash the body. When it reaches its peak, the flesh and blood of the body can be transformed into the form of the fire demon at any time.

Lu Yang's cultivation method is different from that of ordinary people. He has the blazing demon * and the heart of the demon god. When he reaches the third level, his whole body has been washed countless times by the blood of the gods, and he has transformed himself several times, and his body has improved. The worst of the capital is the soul core.

If you want a third-order soul core to become a fourth-order, the first thing is to fill every cell in the body with a crystal of flame energy, that is, countless small soul cores.

These small soul cores are the same magic pattern as the soul cores in the soul sea. Once the soul cores in the soul sea start to transform, all the small soul cores will participate.

The Blazing Demon said: "The fourth-tier and the third-tier are qualitatively different, and there are many other benefits. I won't tell you now. You practice hard. At the time, General Fire Spirit didn't drag his wounded body to attack the East China Sea, but he was not afraid. You killed him, but he was afraid of being attacked by the Necromancer general. If you cannot be promoted to Tier 4, after October, when the Fire Spirit general attacks, you and the entire East China Sea will not be able to stop him."

Lu Yang nodded. He left the Demon Temple and returned to the Blazing Demon God's treasure house. He looked at the three rows of 102 small water tank-sized red magic cores in the treasure chest.

Originally, Lu Yang thought that his absorption and transformation speed would not be very fast, but he underestimated his current physical state. The energy in the magic core rushed into his body like a flood of a bank, and penetrated into the soul sea.

There was originally a huge soul core in the mixed sea, which filled the entire soul sea, so that the magic power in the soul sea began to crystallize, and then the flame energy flowing into every cell of the body also began to crystallize.

One magic core, two magic cores...

In just half a month, all the 102 red magic nuclei in front of Lu Yang were completely absorbed by Lu Yang, which not only allowed him to smoothly rise to Tier 4, but also to Tier 4 and 2.

Lu Yang scratched his head, looked at the flaming demon god's spirit body that flew out of his body, and asked, "Is it progressing too fast, and there is no heart demon this time."

The Blazing Demon God sighed and said: "You are unlucky and lucky. When I was practicing, there was no such a big crisis, especially in the first seven stages when I first started to practice. I encountered few enemies, most of them. They all cultivate on their own.

You are different. You are one step at a time. The reason why you did not encounter the demon this time is because you have already experienced it. With so many brothers dying in front of you, you can survive this stage of the demon. I dare not come to you anymore."

Thousands of brothers died in battle. It was Lu Yang who took them out of the East China Sea, which is equivalent to Lu Yang personally sending them to death. Especially when facing the beast god, the brothers were willing to die, and later forgave Lu Yang with his soul state. , Making Lu Yang's mental and spiritual power more than ten times stronger, the heart demon that Blazing Demon God encountered back then did not dare to trouble Lu Yang at this stage.

Lu Yang heaved a sigh of relief and asked, "Teach me what powerful magic is in Tier 4, and I want to go back and join the war as soon as possible."

The Blazing Demon God was a little proud, and said: "At the level of the fire spirit, you can learn a lot more spells. The lava spear you learned before can be released at will. As for the spells you need to learn now, there is one of the best spells you can learn. It's suitable for you, it's called Huolingyanying. After learning it, you will have a new understanding of speed."

Fire Spirit Flame Shadow: As the name suggests, it turns the body into a spiritual flame and moves at a high speed. The distance of 100 meters is instantaneous. It is like teleporting in the eyes of ordinary people. What's more terrifying is that this trick can be transformed into a hundred in Lu Yang. Use it in the form of a rice fire demon.

Lu Yang never thought that the strength of the fire spirit level could be so much stronger than the fire demon form. He asked: "In other words, if the fire spirit general wanted to kill me, I didn't have the strength to resist at all, right?"

The Blazing Demon God shook his head and said triumphantly: "The fire spirit flame shadow I taught you belongs to the high-level fire spell. Only the descendants of the god-level powerhouse are qualified to learn it. The ordinary fire demon cannot learn it."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "That means, if I learn, General Killing Spirit will become easy, right?"

The Blazing Demon said: "It is true. If you have the Red Flame Scepter and the Red Flame Battle Armor, you can fight with General Fire Spirit in close proximity. He is definitely not your opponent, but you should not use this trick easily. , It's too wasteful of spiritual power, even if you reach the peak of the fire spirit, it can last up to 5 minutes.

Now you have just entered Tier 4 and Tier 2, and it's not bad to be able to hold for 30 seconds. You can use him as a trick, and then your body will collapse, and you have to cultivate for a period of time. "

Lu Yang frowned and said, "The battlefield situation is changing rapidly. I have always worried that the Necromancer is hiding near the East China Sea Dungeon and Shekou defensive position. If I take the army to fight with the Huo Ling general, he will quietly follow and launch a sneak attack. The odds are great.

If I was attacked by the Necromancer after starting the Fire Spirit Flame Shadow, can I rely on the Heart of the Demon God to help me continue to fight? "

The Blazing Demon God shook his head and said: "The heart of the Demon God can continue to provide you with spiritual power, but it cannot repair your broken body. After the fire spirit flame shadow is used, your body will be on the verge of breaking and you will definitely not be able to fight again. Therefore, Be cautious when using it."

Lu Yang nodded, and asked, "Do you have any skills against the enemy under normal circumstances?"

The Blazing Demon said: "Of course, it is called Husfal in our world. When translated into your world, you can call it the Black Sun Melee Technique."

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and asked, "Black Sun close combat technique?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "I believe you have discovered that after you reach Tier 4, when you are transformed, the power in your body is comparable to Tier 4 beast divine body, because you are now a pure flame. Any creature wants to get close to you, you have to withstand the flame heat of 4500 degrees, so your melee combat will be much stronger than the long-range fireball throwing.

When I discovered this situation back then, I learned a lot of melee combat skills, but then I discovered that any spell is not as effective as the high temperature of melee combat, so I created my own black sun technique. "

Lu Yang came with interest and asked, "What are the characteristics of this close combat technique?"

The Blazing Demon said: "The Black Sun technique can exert a high temperature far beyond your strength. With the help of the opportunity to fight with the opponent, the temperature of the flame in the body can be kept constant.

Each attack can increase the temperature by 10%, and the maximum attack is 5 times. After increasing the temperature by 50%, your flame temperature can reach more than 6000 degrees, so that the flame you hit turns black in an instant, so I call it the black sun exercise, but you remember that you must never hit a sixth pass. If it exceeds 6000 degrees, your body will be severely damaged. "

Lu Yang nodded and said, "This trick is good. The temperature of the Necromancer is about 5000 degrees. I use the black sun to kill him. There should be no problem."

Blazing Demon God said triumphantly: "Of course, this is a technique created by our gods for descendants. If we can't easily kill enemies of the same rank that are not descendants of God, wouldn't we be faceless."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "Let's start now. I can't wait to learn these two tricks so that I can kill General Huo Ling."

The Blazing Demon God immediately ordered Lu Yang to sit on the ground, passing the exercise information to Lu Yang's consciousness through his consciousness, and also attached a self-made exercise release diagram by the Blazing Demon God. A blazing flame appeared in Lu Yang's mind. It's very easy to learn the screen of the Demon God's unleashing skills.

After just one day, Lu Yang was able to use it freely. He stood up and said, "How about I go out and try?"

After being instigated by Lu Yang, the outside races of different worlds died a lot, and then they attracted the Batanmon attack in Bandarsburg. It is estimated that there will not be too many other world races that can survive, but they should There are still those who survived, and Lu Yang wanted to kill the rest.

The Blazing Demon raised his eyebrows and said, "Yes, you can practice with them first. Now you can walk outside even when the sun rises. As long as you hide before noon, you will not be burned. die."

The temperature at noon in Bandarsburg is about 6000 degrees, which was measured by the Blazing Demon long ago, and this temperature only lasts for three hours at noon, after which the temperature gradually decreases.

A smile appeared at the corner of Lu Yang's mouth, his body instantly ignited a flame, half-transformed into a normal-height flame demon form, his clothes burned clean with the flames coming out of his body, revealing the red flame armor inside.

Because of the recognition of the lord with Lu Yang's blood, the Red Flame Battle Armor returned to its original appearance with Lu Yang's thoughts. The thick shell and the black sharp corners of the battle armor pierced out one after another. From the outside, Lu Yang looked like Like a flame monster.

He walked to the bluestone teleportation array, and a ray of light flickered. He left the secret room and teleported to the entrance of the main hall. It was not long after the sun had risen in the morning.

Lu Yang stepped out of the castle. Under the high temperature of more than 4,000 degrees, he only felt warm, without a trace of discomfort. He looked at the Bataan Mountains in the distance, turned on the fiery speed and ran over with full force.

On the back of the mountain closest to Bandarsburg, Lu Yang found a big hole. He stopped, the sense spell was released, and the situation inside the hole became clear.

“Fire Demon Transformation”

Lu Yang roared, his body instantly turned into a 100-meter-high flame giant, and the red flame armor on his body quickly enlarged. The red handguard covering his entire arm exuded a violent light. He raised his arm, The punch hit the mountain.

“Lining Yang Fist”

The force of horror smashed this 100-meter-high low mountain, and the six Tier 3 peak orcs hidden inside ran out in horror. As soon as they saw the sun, they wailed and dared not talk to Lu. Yang fought and ran away desperately.

The leading orc roared as he ran, “Damn Fire Demon Race, you will be punished. At night, I will come to you for revenge.”

“You can’t wait for the night.” Lu Yang spit out the language of the orc, and strode to chase after him. After only three steps, he caught up with an orc and stomped it under his feet.

Chapter 2275: Framing

“Wow~!”

The jackal-head orc warrior suddenly let out a scream, his body swelled fiercely, and the white War God Temple was enveloped in vindictiveness. While resisting the flames, he wanted to overturn Lu Yang.

“Death to me.” Lu Yang pressed his feet, the jackal-headed orc had no ability to resist, his arms were broken, and his whole body was trampled into meat sauce by Lu Yang.

If it was a Tier 4 Jackal Head Orc, Lu Yang’s fire spirit body might not be stronger than the opponent, but the opponent was only Tier 3, and Lu Yang was really easy to kill him.

The surrounding jackal-headed orcs had originally thought of sneaking on Lu Yang to rescue their comrades, but when they saw Lu Yang’s strength, their faces had already become horrified.

“Tier 4, this is a Tier 4 fire demon. How could there be a Tier 4 powerhouse here? This is impossible.” The jackal-headed orc screamed, his head couldn’t run away, but he didn’t wait for him to run away. , A flame spear penetrated his body.

“boom”

“boom”

“boom”

Five consecutive lava spears were thrown out of Lu Yang, hitting the remaining five Tier 3 orc warriors. Each lava spear contained the bursting flames of the source fire, and the five orc warriors It was blown to pieces on the spot.

Lu Yang smiled on his face and looked at the other low mountains around him. He kicked a mountain peak and forced a large number of alien creatures to run out, but every one who escaped was hit by Lu Yang with a lava spear. kill.

By the time the sun rose to its highest point, he had killed more than 60 creatures of various races in different worlds. The Blazing Demon said: "In a cave 200 meters ahead of you, there are two water gods. Creature, go in quickly, you won't be able to hold it anymore."

Lu Yang looked at the cave with interest, and ran to the entrance of the cave in two steps. His body turned into a two-meter-high flame demon and got into the cave.

A strange humanoid creature with a height of only two meters, a curved head, bat wings, and a blue and green appearance was hiding in the depths of the cave. Seeing Lu Yang suddenly showed a hideous expression, a water column appeared in his hand, and roared: "Don't come here, come again and we die together."

Lu Yang sneered. He felt that there were two water monsters in the cave. The one in front of him was one, and the other was behind a big rock behind the water monster. The magic power was extremely weak, as if he had been seriously injured.

Obviously, the water monster in front of him was bluffing, and he didn't dare to die with Lu Yang. He smiled at the corner of his mouth, staring at the water monster and asked, "Say your name."

"The third-order Nami warrior, Buxi." The water monster's expression was extremely heavy, and asked: "During this period, all the fire demons were killed by us. Where did you come from?"

Lu Yang is now in the form of a fire demon, still wearing a red flame armor, and looks exactly the same as the fire demon. He pretended to say proudly: "I separated from the tribe after I landed, so I escaped. Let me talk about what is going on outside. If what you say makes me happy, I might spare your life."

Buxi stared at Lu Yang's face, but because he couldn't see anything in his visor, he frowned and said, "It seems that you really don't know what happened outside. What you killed just now is everyone who is left. Now only You have followed me, but I know you won't forgive me. Once I go back, I will tell the main gods of your family, how despicable and shameless the creatures under the throne of your fire gods are."

"Fire Spirit Flame Shadow"

Lu Yang's body instantly turned into a flame of fire, and when Bossi reacted, he had already appeared behind Bossi, with the lava spear that penetrated his body.

"You, you..." Busy died in the end.

Lu Yang sneered and said, "Poor water waste, what if I killed you? No one knows anyway. When I go back, I will tell the main gods that you were all killed by a sneak attack, and I was the only one who survived. Oh, I'm really too smart."

When the Blazing Demon heard Lu Yang's words, he frowned and asked, "What do you mean, there is a seriously injured Nami behind the stone."

Lu Yang said: "I just told the Nami warrior to let them go back, so that the gods of the various schools will have a misunderstanding about the fire gods. The next time the red moon night arrives, the fire gods will die."

The Blazing Demon God smiled and nodded, and said, "You are so wicked."

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders, found a place to rest, and said, "Is there a way to unlock the restrictions of other gods, we have a hard time come and move them too."

The Blazing Demon raised his eyebrows and said: "You and I thought of going together. Back then, when we set up bans, they were all in places that were set by ourselves. Others didn't know it, but there was one on the bottom of the castle. Special enchantments, through that enchantment, can detect the places where other gods hide their treasures, and even use this enchantment to get into the places where other gods hide their treasures."

"I know you have a way." Lu Yang said excitedly. The hidden things in the other treasury can definitely allow more of his brothers to rise to the third or even the fourth level.

The Blazing Demon said: "Don't be too happy, the bottom of Bandarsburg has a total of 240 Tier 4 monsters detained in 240 cells. Although I can transport you directly to the cells on the bottom, those Monsters have survived for thousands of years. You can't beat them one-on-one. The only way to win them is to lead them into my treasure house. As soon as they enter the teleportation formation, they will stop the teleportation formation. The seventh-order spell kills, but it is dangerous to lead them, are you sure you want to go?"

Lu Yang nodded firmly and said, "I must go, this is my responsibility."

The Blazing Demon said: "Well, let's analyze which is the weakest. By the way, the demon Samar, this one is the lowest in strength and is still a melee demon. The only thing he is strong is that he has Nine mouths, one on the head, * on both hands, a mouth on the belly, a mouth on the knee, two on the back, and one on the tail.

Every mouth can spray blood-colored venom. With your fire monster, it was burned before the venom got close. The only problem is the close attack of this guy. His body is not afraid of fire. There are mouths everywhere in the body. His teeth are extremely sharp. I have used his teeth to make a short sword. The hardness is even higher than that of the red flame crystal. You can't be bitten by him, otherwise you will die. "

With the effort of speaking, the Blazing Demon God passed the face of Samar in his memory to Lu Yang's Sea of Knowledge. In Lu Yang's head, there was a specific face of Samar in an instant. He frowned and said, "This is the weakest. ?"

The Blazing Demon God said with certainty: "The weakest one will kill you only for an instant. You can't fly him into the teleportation formation instantly, and your head will be bitten off by the big mouth on his tail."

Lu Yang said, "I will train first."

He looked at the sky outside, and after waiting for two hours, the temperature of the sun was not so high. He left the cave and quickly ran back to Bandarsburg.

Chapter 2276: ?Ancient Treasure

The teleportation array in the main hall had disappeared, and Lu Yang opened the door of the teleportation array again at the request of the Blazing Demon God and returned to the secret room.

The Blazing Demon said: "If you want not to be killed by Samar, you must quickly use the Fire Spirit Flame Shadow to evade after you have just teleported into the room. I will not be able to pretend to be exposed until 3 seconds later when I am ready to teleport for the second time. , Appeared in front of Samar, the idiot saw you appear in front of him, he would definitely not kill you with his tail, but his habitual mouth on his stomach to bite you, you took this opportunity to insert the Red Flame Scepter into him alone , I turned on the teleportation and flew him to the teleportation formation in the secret room."

The teleportation array contains a Tier 5 pinnacle spell. As long as it can attract the opponent, it will definitely kill the opponent. Lu Yang tested the power of the teleportation array. The terrifying flame heat, if Lu Yang is hit head-on, he will undoubtedly die. .

Blazing Demon God then said: "You now need to find a sparring partner to let the dirty wine come out. I will teach him to simulate the opponent's attack method, and you can avoid it."

Lu Yang nodded and called out from the Dirty Wine Demon Temple. As soon as he landed, Lu Yang felt the enormous spiritual power from his body. He asked: "Are you promoted to Tier 3?"

Zhuojiu nodded, looked at Lu Yang excitedly and said, "Boss, I was promoted to Tier 3 easily, and now it is Tier 3 and Tier 3. Malthus told me not to let me upgrade faster, otherwise, It looks like I can be promoted to Tier 3 and Tier 5."

Malthus flew out of the turbid wine, and flew on the shoulders of the turbid wine in the state of a holy light spirit, frowning at Lu Yang and said: "What are you calling him out for? What he lacks now is the cultivation of the mind, and the foundation is not stable. Woolen cloth."

Fearing that Lu Yang would suffer, the Blazing Demon God flew out of Lu Yang's body and landed on Lu Yang's shoulder. He pointed at Malthus and cursed, "You old thing, we must have something to tell you to come out with dirty wine, otherwise I Do not you know?"

"What's the matter?" Malthus felt a little unreasonable, and his attitude was a little better.

The Blazing Demon God gave Lu Yang a triumphant look, and said in secret, "Malthus is naturally like to reason. As long as you are more reasonable than him, he will listen to you."

Lu Yang smiled secretly and said, "I guess you didn't bear him less before."

"Nonsense, who makes him bully?" Blazing Demon God replied triumphantly, looking at Malthus and said: "I'm going to the bottom of Bandalsburg to kill those demons. Didn't you ask me to kill them before? , Now the opportunity is here, but Lu Yang alone is not strong enough, and he has too little understanding of the demon abilities inside, so he needs your help."

Malthus thought for a while and said: "I support you to go down there. It's time to kill these * demons. The turbid wine can simulate the shape of the following demons with the Holy Light Body. You two try to fight."

Zhuojiu asked, "What should I do?"

Malthus said: "In the spell I taught before, there is a holy light armor, which can cover your whole body with holy light armor. This armor can simulate any shape. You can try it."

The Blazing Demon described the appearance of Samar, and the holy light emerged from the muddy wine, and he restored Samar step by step. Not long after, a virtual Samar braved the holy light appeared.

Muddy wine scratched his head and said: "Such a light armor has no defense or attack power, it's just like a phantom, and it breaks when touched."

Malthus said: "This is just right. Your Holy Light Phantom's attack speed is comparable to that of Tier 4 Samar. If Lu Yang can't avoid your attack, don't go down and die."

The Blazing Demon said: "I will tell you Samar's attack method. You two start to practice against each other. You must prevent Lu Yang from being attacked within 3 seconds."

"Yeah." Lu Yang and Zhuo Jiu nodded together and began to practice each other.

It seems that three seconds is very short, but in fact these three seconds can be as long as two or three hours for a Tier 4 master.

It took Lu Yang a week to evade for three seconds, but three seconds was only the estimated minimum standard, which was far from enough. Therefore, Lu Yang and Zhuojiu continued to practice in pairs. After two weeks, Lu Yang could resist for 10 seconds, and the two men stopped.

Blazing Demon said: "Good job, get ready, I will send you to the last floor."

Lu Yang looked at the dirty wine and said, "Go back to the Demon Temple and wait for my news."

"Call me out anytime, I can resist an attack for you." Zhuojiu said.

Lu Yang nodded, and received the turbid wine and Malthus into the Demon Temple. He walked to the teleportation formation, the Blazing Demon God chanted a spell, the magic formation flashed a light, and Lu Yang disappeared in place.

Next second.

Lu Yang activated the Fire Spirit Flame Shadow skill as soon as he landed, and his body was beating in the room like a light. At the same time, he observed the situation in the room, but he carefully scanned the room up and down, left and right, and did not see a demon.

The Blazing Demon was also dumbfounded, and said: "Stop, why is there no Samar's breath here?"

Lu Yang stopped in place. His forehead was already sweating. Don't look at it for only 1 second. This trick puts too much load on his body. He looked around. The room was big, about 500 meters long and wide. It is about 200 meters high. The walls are made of cyan-like metal bricks. The walls are carved with magic circles, but they all seem to have been destroyed. Especially the wall on one side was shot out with a very large one. Hole.

The Blazing Demon summoned Malthus and asked: "I don't have your ability to perceive demons. If you perceive it, where is Samar?"

Malthus looked around, felt that something was wrong, and quickly activated his perception ability, but wrinkled and said: "It's not right, how come I can't feel any demon anymore, not only is Samar gone, but other demons are gone. It's gone."

Blazing Demon God frowned and said, "Is there anything else?"

Malthus shook his head and said: "There is nothing, as if the demons have disappeared. Go into the hole and look at it. There is something wrong here."

The Blazing Demon God said: "You can go and take a look. I also want to know what is behind that hole. Don't worry, the teleportation array has been opened. I can teleport you back at any time."

Lu Yang nodded and walked towards the entrance of the cave, but when he walked into the entrance of the cave, he found that it was a huge cave with no end in sight.

Blazing Demon God's eyes lit up and said: "At first, we didn't find a cave in the ground. This must be the treasure left by the master of Bandarsburg. Go and take a look."

It was previously said that Bandarsburg was a treasure left by the death of a fire * king in ancient times, and now that this cave is there, it is even more confirmed.

Chapter 2277: Ancient Demon God

The treasure left by the ancient * king must be the legendary strange treasure. This kind of treasure, even in the heyday of the blazing demon god, will be interested, even if this is a low-level treasure land of the ancient * king, the things in it will not be lower than Tier 5, and if it is equipment to upgrade the rank, the brothers of their own can quickly improve their strength.

Lu Yang retracted the flame in his body, leaving only the flame on his right hand to illuminate the surroundings, and walked into the depths of the cave.

The Blazing Demon and Malthus both released their minds to scan the cave at the same time. Malthus's mind was even more terrifying, reaching 2 kilometers away, ten times that of the Blazing Demon. Neither of them found any traces of creatures in the cave.

After not walking far, Lu Yang found a fork in the side wall. The flame in his hand flew in and flew for more than a thousand meters. The flame hit the wall and burst into flames to light up the inside.

Lu Yang saw clearly that it was an empty secret room, just like the one he had just walked out, and said, "It looks like the monsters in this cave have also disappeared."

The Blazing Demon God frowned and said: "Do you think there is another possibility? This cave is so straight to the ground, more than two hundred demons have already run away."

Malthus looked at the cave wall carefully and said: "There is a possibility, there has been an earthquake here."

Blazing Demon God cursed silently: "Don't make me happy for nothing."

Lu Yang laughed and continued to walk forward. Not long after, he found one fork after another along the way. Like the first one, each one led directly to the secret room, and the demon in the secret room disappeared.

Originally, the Blazing Demon God was worried that this passage would lead to the surface, but as he walked, several people discovered that the edge of the road turned out to be a piece of void.

The walls on both sides of the cave are no longer cyan rocks, but voids with a weird blue-black light. They seamlessly connect with the walls of the cave, as if the road itself is like this.

Lu Yang asked, "How did this go?"

The Blazing Demon God frowned and said: "Don't touch the walls of the void passage. With your current strength, it is like facing a meat grinder. Anything you touch will be cut into minced meat by the void."

Malthus said: "I can temporarily conjure a holy light wing and fly over with you, but I can only hold it for half an hour. After this time, your body will feel uncomfortable because of the holy light."

Blazing Demon said: "Don't worry, I can send you away at any time."

Lu Yang nodded and said, "I'll give it a try. I've already come here. Why should I go to the passage to see where it is."

A golden ray of light appeared from Malthus's body and hit Lu Yang. Soon, a pair of golden wings appeared behind Lu Yang. The wings were 10 meters in diameter. They flew easily and continued to fly towards the depths of the void cave. go.

After continuing the flight for ten minutes, there was a turn in the void passage. Just as Lu Yang flew over, he found that a cyan rock wall appeared in the passage not far ahead.

The Blazing Demon said: "It seems that this is the cause of the earthquake. The underground of Bandarsburg is gradually being eroded by the void. In the near future, this place may be completely returned to the void. All the castles and the distant sun will be destroyed. The void was crushed to pieces."

Maras said: "I agree with your point of view. This void channel has been formed for a short time. It may be something that happened recently. The secret rooms may also have cracks at that time. The only problem is where the monsters have gone. I felt the end of the first 2 kilometers, but I did not perceive any living beings, not even the dead."

Lu Yang looked forward carefully, but it was a pity that he couldn't see anything. In the void passage, the light from the flame in his hand would be swallowed by the surrounding void, and it could shine up to a distance of 50 meters.

After continuing to fly forward for two minutes, the Blazing Demon God also sensed the area in front of him, frowned and said, "It's strange, there really isn't a living body at all."

"Pyroblast"

Lu Yang shot a big fireball toward the front of the passage. The fireball was not powerful, and it would automatically disappear after flying 200 meters away.

Following the light of the fireball, Lu Yang clearly saw the area in front of him. It was a very large space, and it was extremely empty, as if there was nothing.

Lu Yang said, "How come I don't feel right, wait for me, I will put a clone over."

In his soul sea, the fire ignited, and a body exactly like Lu Yang appeared, and was thrown into that space by Lu Yang. At the same time, the consciousness of Lu Yang, Blazing Demon God, and Malthus also entered together. Among the flame clones.

"Pyromance"

Lu Yang stretched out his hands and ignited a one-meter-high flame to illuminate the surroundings, but the place where he was located seemed to be able to swallow the fire. It didn't shine far, at most 10 meters away. Beyond 10 meters, everything was black. of.

Lu Yang walked forward for more than 30 meters, and there was still nothing. Just when Lu Yang continued to walk forward for two meters, suddenly, a three-meter-high black stone stele appeared in front of it, carved on the stone stele. There is a fiery red phoenix.

Lu Yang could feel the horror of the Blazing Demon God from his soul. He asked, "What's wrong?"

The Blazing Demon God didn't want to reply, and quickly uttered the spell, a red light appeared in the void, and Lu Yang's body was about to teleport away in the red light, but suddenly, the fire phoenix statue in front of him appeared. There was a blazing red light.

The light of the teleportation array was quickly dissipated by the red light emitted by the fire phoenix. At the same time, the entire space suddenly lit up, and a huge statue of a kilometer high appeared in the cave. What a terrifying statue, Lu Yang Can't even describe it in words.

Just when Lu Yang was stunned, the Blazing Demon God roared at Malthus: "Open the teleportation array and we will return to Earth."

Malthus was also shocked by the statue in front of him. The ancient morale gods and demons had no righteousness or evil at all. As long as they were beneficial to them, they would kill each other. The gods and demons in front of them came up and dispelled the blazing demon. The teleporter is definitely not a good thing. His consciousness instantly returned to Lu Yang, and the holy light in his body burst to open the teleportation formation, but no matter how hard he tried, he couldn't break the space here. Even if he had the key, it was useless, and he still couldn't. Transmit.

"Neigh~!"

Suddenly a group of gilt flames emerged from the stone stele, like running water, passing through every surface of the red phoenix. Then, the fire blazed into the sky, and a three-meter-high red phoenix actually flew out.

At the same time, the passage where Lu Yang's main body was located actually began to squeeze inward, and there was a tendency to close. Lu Yang's consciousness instantly flew back to the main body. When he could not fly back, he had to fly quickly and rushed in. In the space, however, when he stood firm, the fire phoenix flew in front of him, and the intense high temperature made Lu Yang feel pain all over his body.

Chapter 2278: Soul fire

"Golden Light Armor"

Malthus stood in front of Lu Yang and put on a battle armor made of holy light for Lu Yang and him at the same time. He stared at the phoenix in the sky and said angrily: "What the * are you?"

The fire phoenix looked at Malthus with interest, and said sarcastically: "A little holy light spirit dare to be so presumptuous. It seems that the times outside have changed so much that no one knows me anymore."

The blazing demon flew to Malthus's side, staring at the fire phoenix and said, "I used to be the Flame God King, and I lived for hundreds of thousands of years. Before me, I was ruled by the Elf Kings of various elements. They said they lived in an era. Known as the ancient era, it is also the origin era of the world. Before that, even the elements did not exist on the planet, and there were no living things."

"Nonsense~!"

The fire phoenix was furious and stared at the Blazing Demon God and said, "Damn elemental spirits, they have tampered with history. The spirit kings of the ancient times were just the original spirits formed naturally between the heavens and the earth. They were as weak as a waste. At that time, Our ancient Protoss and Chaos Demon Race are the masters of the world. They instigate separation and cause our two races to fight, and they take the opportunity to draw our strength and grow.

When our ancient protoss won the war, the elemental elves of various schools sneaked on us, causing countless races of our ancient protoss to be annihilated. I was also hit hard in that battle. Tell me, where are they now? "

The Blazing Demon God shrugged and said, "They were dead long ago. They were killed by us later Demon Gods. Now we are defeated by the newly grown Demon God. It is estimated that the current era is the same as the era you are in. Tens of millions of years have passed."

"Neigh~!"

The Fire Phoenix screamed in anger and roared, "They are all dead. You all died before I was going to kill you?"

The terrifying flames were flying in the air. I don't know how long it took before the Fire Phoenix stopped, staring at the Blazing Demon God and said, "Very well, thank you for telling me the situation outside."

Blazing Demon God quickly said: "Thank you, since this is your place, we won't bother much, and we will leave now."

"Want to go?" The Fire Phoenix smiled sarcastically, and said: "Holy Light Elf, Flame Elf and creatures in your Demon Temple can leave, but the human who learns the fire spell in front of you must stay, what a good body. , It's right to be my carrier, poor weak, hand over your body."

The fire phoenix turned into a flame and hit Lu Yang's body instantly. In an instant, the turbid wine, the red night, and the three-eyed magic flower resting in the Demon Temple were knocked out. As soon as he landed, his body was surrounded by the fire, including Malthus. Everyone, including the Blazing Demon God, disappeared in an instant and appeared in the forest where Lu Yang had teleported away.

"Damn it, how could this be?" The Blazing Demon God turned into a spirit body, holding the fragments of the Demon God's heart in his hands and said furiously: "I'm going to kill that * bastard."

Malthus said sarcastically: "You can't kill him."

Zhuojiu said anxiously: "Transfer us back soon. You can't let the boss die like this."

Malthus shook his head and said, "Although I left a mark just now, I can only force the Blazing Demon God to teleport in. But after entering, life and death are unpredictable. Do you dare to go?"

Blazing Demon God said firmly: "Teleport me over, even if I die, I can't throw Lu Yang away."

Malthus was a little surprised and asked, "Will the Blazing Demon God die for a human?"

"Stop talking nonsense." The Blazing Demon said, staring at Malthus: "Teleport me over, or I will kill you."

Malthus was at a loss again, and stopped arguing with the Blazing Demon God, and said: "Be prepared, I will teleport, be careful, that ancient Demon God is not strong, at most Tier 4 peak, but that is in his domain, you Together with Lu Yang, it may not be his opponent."

"Why do I have to fight for it? I am called a master and apprentice in Lu Yang. I am really a brother. I swear that I will never let any brother die in front of me." Blazing Demon God's body burst into flames. Shining, the heart of the devil in his hand was beating frantically, as if he was going to fight to the death.

"I hope you can come back. This is the totem of the flame elves." Malthus stared at the blazing demon, with fiery golden light coming out of his hands, creating a portal out.

The Blazing Demon God did not hesitate at all, stepped into the portal, and in the next second, he saw Lu Yang standing in place with his eyes closed, flames burning all over his body.

If you were an ordinary person, you would be at a loss. He didn't know what was going on, but Blazing Demon knew this. He opened the eyes of his soul, and when he looked at Lu Yang again, he found that Lu Yang's soul was entwined with one. The fire phoenix bit his soul desperately.

"If you want to kill my brother, it depends on my answer." The Blazing Demon God flew into Lu Yang's body with the heart of the Demon God. Then, a head grew out of Lu Yang's soul body on the right shoulder with a lot of back. Two pairs of arms came out.

Lu Yang was almost unable to resist it. felt the arrival of the Blazing Demon God, and he smiled and said, "I knew you would come."

"Of course, I'm going to die together. I won't let a brother die in front of me again." The Blazing Demon God bit the Fire Phoenix's chest, and at the same time, the two pairs of arms that grew out of the back scratched tightly. Lived the wings of the fire phoenix.

Lu Yang now freed his arms, grabbed Fire Phoenix's head, bit the Fire Phoenix's neck in one bite, and roared, "If you want to eat me, I will eat you first."

The true strength of the Fire Phoenix is just the pinnacle of Tier 4, as Malthus said. It is with Bandarsburg's domain power that he can crush Lu Yang.

The Fire Phoenix just drove away Malthus and others not because he didn't want to kill these people, but because they were afraid that they would be there to prevent him from devouring Lu Yang's soul.

Now the Blazing Demon God is back, and he is united with Lu Yang, using the Demon God's heart to provide energy to help Lu Yang rise to the fourth-order peak in a short period of time. He has the strength to fight the Fire Phoenix and has a slight upper hand.

As the ancient demon god, the fire phoenix did not expect to be bullied in this way by the backup, and suddenly became furious, staring at the blazing demon * and Lu Yang and said: "You want to kill me, it's too late for you to feel the flame spell of the ancient period-soul fire ."

Lu Yang only felt the red flames in front of him. The next second, he entered a deep coma, but what the Blazing Demon God saw was that the fire phoenix turned into a pure flame and merged with Lu Yang's soul. .

"Damn it, what kind of * spell is this." Blazing Demon God didn't understand it at all.

Chapter 2279: Self-reliance

There are two situations of soul fusion. The first one is that one party snatches the soul of the other party and swallows it and forcibly occupy the other party's body.

The Blazing Demon God definitely does not believe that the ancient Demon God would use the second method. Looking at his posture just now, he must have devoured Lu Yang's soul, but he didn't know where to start.

The only thing worthy of his gratitude is that Lu Yang's colorless soul was not contaminated by the white flames, but stood in a stalemate. This shows that in Lu Yang's soul, he did not fall under the wind, but was able to fight against the ancient demon gods. .

“Om”

A golden light appeared in the space around the Blazing Demon God, and the two of them flew in one after another. As soon as they landed, Zhuo Jiu quickly looked around and found that Lu Yang was in a coma and the Blazing Demon was standing next to him. He hurried over. , Asked: “Mr. Blazing Demon God, what happened to our boss?”

The Blazing Demon God shook his head and sighed and said, “The ancient Demon God didn't know what spell he used and got into Lu Yang's soul. The two are fighting in the soul. Lu Yang is in no danger at the moment.”

Malthus checked Lu Yang's soul, nodded and said, “It's true. I've tracked down the information of ancient demon gods. None of the ancient demon gods are single-line spells. Most of them understand blood spells and soul spells. The state is not bad, he can only fight against it by his own will, and none of us can help.”

The muddy wine was full of powerlessness. This kind of divine oppression made him very uncomfortable. He looked at Malthus and said, "Is there no way?"

Malthus shook his head and said, "Looking at Lu Yang's own desire to survive, whenever he has a little thought of wanting to die, he will be taken over by the ancient * king. If he can hold on forever, he can hold on."

The Blazing Demon said: "You two, go back, block the news, and don't let anyone know about Lu Yang. Before, Lu Yang suspected that there were human traitors in the Donghai Underground City. Take responsibility for the Jagged Brotherhood. For a long time to come, you will be the strongest in the Jagged Brotherhood. You must improve the strength of your brothers as soon as possible."

The muddy wine nodded firmly and said, "I will try my best."

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said: "Don't worry too much. Take a closer look at the foot of that idol. The bones and cores of more than two hundred Tier 4 monsters we previously imprisoned are all there, and there are still a large number of ancient Demon Gods left behind. Bring all these things back to improve your strength as soon as possible."

Zhuojiu looked around. The thousand-meter-high statue was too majestic before. All eyes fell on it. Look closely at the feet of the statue, the fourth-order magic cores of various colors and the unseen treasures of heaven and earth. There are countless, he ran over and said blankly: "I don't even know these things."

Blazing Demon said: "Malthus knows, he will teach you."

Malthus glanced at the Blazing Demon unhappily, and said, "Stop giving me orders. You don't need to say that I will do it. I don't want a host I finally found to die like this."

The Blazing Demon God rolled his eyes. He really couldn't understand Malthus's refreshing point. Does it mean that he would be happy physically and mentally every time he saw dirty wine doing things fairly?

"Holy Light Elves are all sick." The Blazing Demon murmured, looked at Malthus and said, "Teach as many mages who believe in Holy Light as much as possible. You know, this war is getting harder as it goes on."

Malthus said: "I think the Holy Light King is also annoying. Let others believe in him and believe in a ghost every day. I will try my best to help the n-th generation of hybrid holy light beasts."

The Blazing Demon God did not expect Malthus to have such a big view of the current Holy Light King, so he was relieved, and helped Malthus and Zhuojiu to transport thousands of materials out of the temple. He returned to Lu Yang alone. Watching the safety of staring at Luyang.

the other side.

After the dirty wine fell to the ground, he took out the new phone that the Blazing Demon God gave him and contacted Baishi, Zhou Tianming, Xia Yuwei and Kuai Bansheng, and said: "Brothers, I am back."

Everyone was very excited when they heard the familiar voice of the dirty wine, Zhou Tianming said excitedly: "Where are you, we are looking for you now, the boss, is he back too?"

Zhuojiu thought for a while, and felt that this matter should be told to the White Lions, but he could not say in the phone. Even if there is a trace of it may be detected by the spy, Zhuojiu did not want to take risks. He said: "The boss found one. In a special place, we are making a breakthrough towards Tier 4. He first teleported me to the forest outside Shekou. Come here. The boss and I have had a good harvest this time. There are thousands of Tier 4 materials and treasures. First served."

"We are in Xishi." The white lion and the bitter love were speechless for half their lives. They were leading the warrior regiment to kill the sealed jackal head orcs in the cave and could not return for the time being.

“We are nearby.” Xia Yuwei and Zhou Tianming were happy. Part of their legion was in Shekou, and part of their army was outside the underground city to guard against sneak attacks by demons and scorpion people.

a half-life of bitter love and said pitifully: “Leave us some, we are in short supply for upgrading.”

The dirty wine laughed, and said, “You all have a share. This time you have brought too much. You both come back with the white lion and the bitter love for half a lifetime. Let’s discuss how to divide it up.”

“You divide...” Just as the bitter love was about to speak for a long time, she suddenly reacted to something wrong, and the white lion also stopped his words, both of them stared in horror.

In the Jagged Brothers League, the division of dirty wine has always been absolutely fair. No one can single out the problem, but now the dirty wine is letting them go back. Obviously, there is something wrong with my boss, and it is not convenient to talk on the phone.

The white lion said: “Let’s go back now, don’t move things, wait for us to come back.”

Xia Yuwei and Zhou Tianming also felt something was wrong. quickly ran out of Shekou with part of the main force and ran towards the forest not far away.

White Lion and Kuai Bansheng also quickly boarded the Demon Reform Train and headed straight to Shekou. Two hours later, the train drove into the central fortress of Shekou. On the top floor, the two brothers found Zhuojiu, Xia Yuwei and Zhou Tianming.

“What’s wrong with Boss?” Bai Shi and Kuai half-life came to the front and asked anxiously at the same time.

Zhuojiu looked at the four of them, and said, “The boss has something wrong. The two of us met the ancient demon * while hunting for treasure. He wanted to occupy the boss’s body and was competing with the boss in the boss’s soul.

The boss asked me to come back with things first. He competed against the ancient demon gods in his soul alone. We can’t help with this. We can only see if the boss’s willpower is firm enough. ”

The white lion frowned and asked, “What will happen if you are not firm?”

Muddy wine sighed and shook his head, and said, "It may be that the soul is occupied, and it is not the boss who returned, but the ancient demon god."

"This..." Everyone was a little dazed. From the establishment of the Jagged Brotherhood to today, Lu Yang has always led them forward. Now that Lu Yang is unpredictable, they are a little at a loss.

Zhuojiu saw the panic of the people, and said in a deep voice: "Our task now is to guard Shekou before the boss returns. Starting today, I will bring people with the Holy Light talent to practice the Holy Light. You take the materials and go back to improve your strength. Let more people rise to Tier 3 as soon as possible. Our time is good, and the next red moon night is coming."

Chapter 2280: The late old man debuts

The next red moon night, according to Malthus's calculation, is probably at the end of October, less than 3 months away from now.

They must kill the demons in Sun Moon City within these 3 months, find the hidden scorpion people, and destroy the jackal-headed orcs in the caves in the city, and they will also use these Tier 3 and Tier 4 in their hands. The magic core and crystal enhance the strength of more brothers.

The white lion said firmly in his eyes: "The boss has never lost in his life. I believe he will not lose. Since we can't help, we will do our own thing, and I will continue to kill the jackal head orcs."

Zhou Tianming said: "I'll clean up the surrounding monsters and watch General Fire Spirit in the crater of Dan City."

This was an errand to die, and Zhuojiu couldn't help asking: "If he makes a surprise attack, can you stop it?"

Zhou Tianming chuckled, and said freely: "My power is different from yours. Although I can't defeat General Fire Spirit, my demon spell can injure General Fire Spirit. Last time Red Moon Night came two Tier 4 enemies. , General Fire Spirit appeared, but General Necromancer did not come out. Before the next red moon night, General Fire Spirit would never dare to fight me."

There is another sentence Zhou Tianming didn't say, if General Huo Ling really launched an offensive in advance, he tried to blow himself up and would cause General Huo Ling to be seriously injured.

The Jagged Brothers now have the ability to fight General Fire Spirit and only him and Zhuojiu. If he chooses to die, Zhou Tianming will not let his brother die. He would rather die first.

Zhuo Jiu, Bai Shi and others are very clear about Zhou Tianming's thoughts, but they are very painful but there is no way, because this is the best choice at present.

Zhuojiu looked at Zhou Tianming and said, "Don't die, when I come back, I will take the Holy Light Mage Group to fight Riyue Mountain, and then I will support you."

Zhou Tianming nodded.

Love half a lifetime and said: "I took the team to look for supplies outside, and set fire to the mountain by the way to clean up the surroundings."

The last fire took two or three months, and all the trees in the area 200 kilometers from Shekou to Fengshi were burned clean.

But in less than four months, the trees have grown again. The wood elves in the different world make the plants in the world grow extremely fast, although this is conducive to basic work such as sericulture and planting in the underground city. , But it also made Shekou lively outside, and a large number of wild boars did not know where they came out again and began to multiply in the forest.

In order to prevent the enemy from the next red moon night from fighting for a protracted battle, all the surrounding forests and animals must be killed. At the same time, this can also serve the purpose of searching. If the Scorpion Man is still around Shekou, it will definitely be burned out.

Xia Yuwei said: "I am weak. I will guard the Shekou defensive position and give me the training and internal search for the brothers."

Zhuoju said: "Don't worry about your strength, this time you will get a lot of Tier 4 magic cores. Find a category you like to practice, and you will soon rise to Tier 3."

Xia Yuwei said, she was very anxious to improve her strength, not because of jealousy, but now she can only watch Zhuoju and Zhou Tianming fight for their lives but unable to help, feeling ashamed and self-blame in her heart.

"We are gone, come back next time, I hope all of us are still alive." White Lion said jokingly.

Zhuoju and Zhou Tianming both smiled and said together, "We are all alive when we meet next time."

At the moment, several people moved separately, and the white lion returned to Xi City. The wine took 200 first-order wizards, 1,800 novice apprentices and 1,000 warriors who learned the Holy Light spell, and held more than 400 third-order holy light magic cores. Go to Riyue Mountain.

Zhou Tianming took away 300 magic cores, led 1,000 warriors and 200 water mages, and went to the junction of East China Sea and Dan City to garrison, and took the newly formed Fire Crow Archer Group and the newly formed Rapid Eagle Archer Group out of love for half a lifetime. patrol.

Xia Yuwei stayed in Shekou and led the remaining 10,000 people to practice. Don't think Xia Yuwei's work is the least dangerous, but her work is the most tiring. Among the people taken away by Zhuoju and White Lion included Tier 3 ice. The lovely queen of the mage, the second-order peak archer Zhenyu Hades, and Wan Zhonghui, who has received the blood baptism of the beast god, all top combat powers.

She can only select the fighters and wizards who have the most chance to advance from the remaining fighters. At the same time, she also manages various trivial matters on Shekou every day.

The dungeon is managed by Lu Zhongtian, Tao Yue, and Ye Ziqiu, who can guarantee the lives of the 10 million residents in the dungeon and its surroundings, but their tasks are also very heavy. All beginner fighters and wizards are doing their best. Many children from 6 to 14 years old are taught to learn spells to ensure that the future of the dungeon has successors and continue to fight.

When many parties were short of manpower, Xia Yuwei began to use the old people with management ability in the Jagged Brothers League, such as the late old man.

On the top floor of the central fortress of the Shekou defensive position, the late old man looked at Xia Yuwei with a smile and said: "You children are not easy. Although I am old, I can still contribute some residual heat. Leave all the chores to me. You can practice with peace of mind."

Xia Yuwei nodded and looked at the old man Tingmu and said: "I can breathe a sigh of relief when you are there. My brothers are all working hard. I can't help. It's really uncomfortable."

The old man twilight betrayed the Jagged Brothers. Now his allegiance is Nemor, the Necromancer. He had always wanted to find a chance to return to the management of the Jagged Brothers, but the existing manpower of the Jagged Brothers is enough. The late old man can only wait for the opportunity in silence.

Now that there is a shortage of manpower in various aspects, the old man finally waited for the opportunity. What made him even more excited was that Xia Yuwei trusted him so much and opened his heart to him. He quickly inquired about the news and asked: "Yuwei, where is Lu Yang? , Why didn't I see him."

Xia Yuwei had never doubted the old man late, but she knew that this secret could not be told to the outside world, so she smiled and said: "The boss went to a special place to practice. It is estimated that when he comes out, his strength will reach Tier 4. "

"So fast?" Old Man Chimu asked in surprise.

Xia Yuwei said: "The place where the boss went in is special. You can see from the materials we got before. Another thing is that the turbid wine not only restores the body, but also has a great chance to upgrade to Tier 4 in a short time. Zhou Tianming's demon spell They can also kill people by crossing the ranks. When the boss returns before the red moon night, the three of them will unite to kill General Fire Spirit."

"Great." The old man Chimu's expression was a bit exaggerated. He said, "Go and practice. I won't delay you. When your practice is over tonight, I will tell you the big and small things that happened on this day."

"Yeah." Xia Yuwei felt that there was a lot to say today, and she didn't want to talk any more, turned and walked into the castle.

The late old man looked at Xia Yuwei's back with a cold light flashing in his eyes. In order to live forever, he could only betray these brothers before, but he did not regret it.

"Tell Wang Shijie that if they don't act, they will be finished." The old man Qi Mu raised his right hand and stretched out his index finger. Suddenly a black crow appeared on his finger, leaping into the air and heading towards Dan. The direction of the city flew past.

A crow appeared on the old man's finger, and he said: "Tell the devil on Riyue Mountain that the dirty wine is about to be promoted to the fourth-order holy spirit. If they don't attack, all the demons will die by the purification of the holy light."

"Qua~!" The crow yelled, flapping its wings and flying towards the north of Riyue Mountain.

The old man stood there, with a sneer at the corner of his mouth, and said: "No matter how the world changes, resourcefulness will always be the most powerful, the great General Naymor, soon, I will offer you a great gift. ."

In a cave deep underground, the necromantic general Nimor sitting on the ground, the two eye sockets on the skull's head, shining crimson light, he was very satisfied with the plan of the late old man.
