Chapter 2341: Enemy in the game

Latest website: Tongxing Town, the top of a two-story building at the forefront of the trench.

Lu Yang put down the monitor in his hand, looked at Tao Yue and the others behind him and said in a low voice, "Shooting the alarm, everyone is ready for battle."

"Yes." Tao Yue walked not far away and shook the air defense siren in her hand.

"Woo~~~~!"

The harsh sirens sounded throughout the town in an instant, and the more than 50,000 human legions and more than 10,000 alien legions resting in the house quickly ran out to form a team.

"The mage team is complete." The lovely queen ran to Lu Yang first to report.

"The formation of the soldier legion is complete." Liu Ruohuai ran over and said second.

"The Sagittarius team is over." The Prison Guard Hades ran over and said.

"The reorganization of the Demon Legion and the Harpy Legion is complete." Oberto, the commander of the Harpy Legion, shook his wings in the air. Next to him was the Tier 3 demon Bikas who was also flying, and the two slowly landed next to the lovely queen.

Lu Yang walked to the edge of the building, looked at the more than 60,000 soldiers standing neatly in various areas of the town, then looked back at Liu Ruohuai and the others, and said with a smile: "Don't all lose your face, let us again It's not that you can't win."

Bikas and other demons showed desperate and helpless expressions on their faces. They were teleported from another world. Naturally, we know how many troops can be teleported at a time on the red moon night. The total number of the six clans is at least four to five million. People, if the other party comes over in a swarm, then they are just like dying.

According to the character of the demon race, Bikas and the others should have run away long ago, but they signed a contract with the dirty wine. If the dirty wine dies, they will definitely die. Therefore, this group of demons can only stay here.

The Harpy didn't have such thoughts. Oberto was grateful for Lu Yang's trust and really wanted to help Lu Yang. Besides, they were already a rebellious race, and they couldn't go back if they wanted to return to the embrace of God.

Liu Ruohuai thought that Lu Yang was boosting morale, and said loudly, "Boss, brothers are all ready to die in battle. Don't worry, the enemy is going to Shekou and stepping over our corpses first."

"Yes, step on our corpses first." The lovely queen, the jail king and others shouted.

Lu Yang was moved in his heart. Although he didn't know how many life and death battles he had gone through, every time his brothers said that he was willing to obey his orders to die, he would feel warmth in his heart and even wanted to cry.

He patted his shoulders one by one and said, "Don't worry, the boss will not let you die. We will win this war. Everyone will enter the fighting position. The enemy will arrive in twelve hours. We will check the supplies last. We await the arrival of the enemy."

"Yes." Liu Ruohuai and the others turned around and jumped off the second floor, and each went to arrange a team.

"Leader of the Ice Mage Corps stay for a while," Lu Yang said lightly.

The lovely queen returned to Lu Yang curiously and asked, "Boss, what's the matter?"

Lu Yang smiled and said in her ear: "Let the wind and snow become more violent, preferably ten times more violent, can it be done?"

The lovely queen blinked and said: "It can be, but it will greatly reduce the fighting ability of both of us."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "It doesn't matter. After eight hours, let the area of Tongxing Town go forward 50 kilometers, the snowflakes are so big that it is difficult to see within 50 meters."

"Yes." The lovely queen nodded without understanding. He didn't question Lu Yang's decision, jumped off the top of the building, and prepared to go with the Ice Mage Legion.

Only Tao Yue, Han Ying and others were left around Lu Yang. He didn't worry, so he sat on the edge of the building and waited quietly.

One hour

Two hours

Three hours

Eight hours later, a huge snowflake suddenly appeared in the sky, and the blizzard was so big that no road ahead could be seen clearly. Lu Yang knew that the lovely queen's ice mage army had already begun to move.

"Quah~!"

Dozens of black magic birds and green magic birds kept circling in the sky, but unfortunately, the wind and snow were too big to see clearly.

These magic birds had to lower their height, from a few hundred meters in the sky to several tens of meters, but they didn't wait for them to see the situation on the ground clearly.

“Swish”

“Swish”

“Swish”

...

Dozens of magic birds were shot by bows and arrows, bursting out a brilliant light in the air in an instant, and then disappeared without a trace.

“Damn it.” Boscart, Valadok and others cursed at the same time. These birds were summoned by them.

At this time, the six races had already converged in Hutou Town, 40 kilometers away from Tongxing Town. Both sides were exploring the road with magic birds along the way, looking for the footprints of the human legion. Originally, they thought that humans would leave Tongxing Town and run. Going to other places, I didn't expect that the humans would not move at all. Unfortunately, they were just about to control the magic bird and explore it well when they were shot by a bow and arrow.

“The army continues to move forward, we will kill the humans.” Varadok said furiously.

“Slow.” Agunan looked at Varadok, Sara and others with a smile, and said: “This blizzard is too big, obviously it was deliberately released by humans. If our six races go in, it is impossible to guarantee that they will not be injured by accident. , Why don't we wait for a while, wait for this Blizzard to pass, how about we attack together again.”

This is Agunan's careful thinking. The three tribes of Necromancers, Trolls and Rocks can wait. They have no nobles to be captured by humans. They can wait as long as they can, but the Elves can't. Those nobles will also ask Sara and Rustafa to launch a powerful attack on humans.

When the elves move, the Hasta and the ogres will definitely move together. When that time comes, they can wait for the fighters to meet.

Sara saw through Agunan's tricks at a glance, and deliberately said: "That's not good, the heavy snow will not affect anything, let's continue the attack."

Agunan was particularly proud in his heart, but still smiled on his face and said, "Forget it, human beings will not escape sooner or later. We will rest here in this day's time."

With a wave of his hand, he took his tribe and walked towards a ravine in the southeast of Hutou Town, which was called Wushigou.

He knew that humans had thermal weapons. He would not be stationed in the plains, exposing his people to the thermal weapons.

The troll tribe and the rock tribe also followed, and walked towards the Jinshan and Jinjiangshan areas not far away respectively. These three places are connected together, like a triangle, which can ensure safety.

Sarah saw this scene and knew that Agunan had been fooled by himself, and pretending to be angry, he took the elves to the valley in the northwest area of Hutou Town.

The surrounding areas have their own names. The place where the elves enter is called Baihua Valley, the place where the Hastas enter is called Tangshan, and the place where the ogres go is called Gushan.

Algaea was standing on one of the highest mountains in the Baihua Valley. After using the magic bird to confirm the areas of the other five races, he smiled and said to the phone in his armband: "Boss, there will be no war tonight, can you move? ?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Action."

"Leave it to me." Algaea ended the call and looked at Hezra and Tista beside him and said, "It depends on your performance."

"Look at me." Hezra and Tista were extremely excited, and they ran towards Siping City and Heishui City quickly!

Chapter 2343: 2 family fight

Latest URL: Sarah looked at the two who left and couldn't help but whispered to Algaea: "There will be no problems, right."

Algaea smiled and said, "I believe that these two people will absolutely carry out my orders."

"Oh?" Sarah looked at Algaea with a smile, and asked, "How did you do it."

Algaea said: "The Tier 4 masters who have lived for hundreds of years, there are no idiots, I helped them find their way, so they gave me loyalty back."

In the elven clan in another world, everyone thought that Hezra was a arrogant trash, able to have today's status, all relying on the merits of his ancestors and his Tier 4 strength.

Didn't Hezra know it himself? He knew very well, but he couldn't change this impression. He tried, but he just wasn't suitable to be a legion commander.

In several wars, he killed tens of thousands of civilian elves. He had no commanding ability at all. He also killed many noble elves, so that even the group of noble elves hated him.

In order to change this situation, Hezra had also learned secretly, but it was still useless. When he arrived on the battlefield, the command still didn't understand, and he killed a large number of subordinates.

In these hundreds of years, Hezra has been ridiculed by the commoners and nobles. He can only use brutality to cover up his embarrassment and unwillingness.

This time he came to another world, and Hezra took the initiative to apply. He really couldn't bear the eyes of his own people, and wanted to prove himself in another world.

After Algaea had a long talk with Hisra, Hisra knew the importance of his mission. He promised Hisra that as long as he completes this mission, he will get a vast land and five races. Exhausted slaves will also be given the title of great noble among the Shadowmoon Elves of Hezra.

The task of being able to build a huge reputation among the race is exactly what Hezra wants to do. Moreover, after completing this task, he can also have a large territory and slaves. This is all Hezra wants. Therefore, he Accepted the task gladly.

The situation in Tista is roughly the same. It is the same as human behavior. Those who can leave the other world and enter the human world, except for the high-level people in the first batch of wastelanders who are cronies, all the elves from the remaining batches are the original ones. Not to be seen in the elven clan.

The same is true for the noble elves. When dealing with the commoner elves, the noble elves are not a group. The noble elves who are sent over are either poor and destitute elves with noble names, or the second and illegitimate children of the family. In one category, Tista is an illegitimate child!

In the elves of another world, they are the objects of ridicule by all the nobles, and even the slave elves of other nobles will secretly ridicule when they hear about them.

This time the elves changed their dynasties, Tista, as a well-educated noble, chose to seize this opportunity to join Algaea's banner and completely get rid of his status as an illegitimate child.

On the vast snowy field, two Tier 4 elves ran out of Siping City in just four hours with the help of the cover of wind and snow.

"Brother, help me." Hezra said, looking at Tista.

"Hold it." Tista pulled out a handful of undead iconic bone spurs from the magic backpack, pierced Hezra's shoulder, and then pulled hard, cutting off his entire arm.

"Dead Seed"

Tista took out the magic scroll developed by the Iron-Blood Brotherhood and aimed it at Heathra's body to release. Suddenly, Heathra spit out blood and knelt on the ground.

"It really hurts." Hezra resisted the severe pain and activated the ice spell to freeze the wound. This bitter trick must be performed, otherwise the Hasta and the ogres cannot be fooled.

Tista said, "It's me."

Hezra put the broken arm into the magic backpack, and then took out a troll hatchet from the backpack, a black light flashed, Tista's arm was broken, and he took out the scroll and pointed to the lift. Star said.

"Curse of Death"

Tista fell on the snow in pain, quickly resisted the pain and ice-sealed the wound, and then put his arm in the backpack.

"We are in town," Tista said.

“Okay.” Hezra and Tista stumbled in the snow and ran towards Siping City. Before they got close to the city gate, the Hasta sentry captain found them.

“Who?” A dozen sentries surrounded Hezra and Tista.

“Quickly, send me to see your city lord, something has happened.” Hezra fainted in the arms of the sentry.

The elves are allies of the Hastas, and Sara is about to marry the city lord Varadok. This sentinel captain also knows, because this captain is one of the most trusted people in Varadok, his nephew. Boskante.

Boskante’s first feeling was that his whole body was numb. The wounds of the two were caused by the dead human race and the troll race. When he released the magic bird, he yelled frantically: “Bring them into the city and get out. It’s a big deal.”

The sentry hurriedly picked up the two of them and ran towards Siping City behind them. As soon as they arrived at the gate of the city, Bin Lei, the temporary city lord, who was also Varadok’s most trusted legion commander, also ran over.

“The treatment team rescued these two people.” Bin Lei knew what had happened just now through the magic bird, so he came with the treatment team.

A dozen Shaman priests of the Hasta tribe brought Hezra and Tista to the barracks behind the city gate, and at the same time chanted the restoration spell.

Several green lights flashed, Hezra woke up first, which made Bin Lei rush to his side with excitement, and shouted: “What happened to the war ahead?”

Hezra weakly said: “We are in the plan. In Hutou Town, Agunan pretended to invite Sara, Varadok and Aiyaris to discuss the attack plan, but he suddenly launched a sneak attack, and Varadok In order to protect Sara from being hit hard and trapped in the Jinshan area, go to the rescue.”

Bin Lei exploded in an instant, and roared: “The whole army gathers, leaving a hundred people to defend the city, and the rest will fight with me out of the city.”

“Everyone must assemble urgently.” Boskante shouted.

The ten thousand troops in the city are already in a state of combat readiness, quickly ran to gather outside the city. Binley took this opportunity to ask more questions, but Hezra and Tista struggled to stand up.

“We are going to the ogres. Don’t act alone. When we bring the reinforcements of the ogres, we will attack together.” Heathra said.

Bin Lei was not familiar with Hezra, but he had heard of this aristocratic elf with great ambition. He was already thinking about the entire race. Bin Lei was moved and said, “I will send someone to send you there.”

“Okay,” Hezra said.

At the moment, Bin Lei found a team of guards, and gave Heathra and Tista a Tier 3 Silver Wolf mount, and ran quickly to Blackwater City. After saying the same thing to the city lord Tatar, Tatar did not have the slightest doubts.

Originally, the elves and the ogres were allies that helped each other for three years. Now the patriarchs of the two families are going to marry again, and the top nobles among the noble elves are here to report the news. Tatar and Binley have no doubts about the truth of the matter. , Leaving only a few hundred people defending the main city, rushed out with more than 10,000 defenders in the city.

After meeting with the Hasta tribe in Siping City, the two tribes went straight to the tiger’s head!

Chapter 2344: 5-family melee

Latest URL: "Neigh~!"

A colorful magical light rushed straight into the sky, bursting out a brilliant light on the top of Jinshan Mountain, and the dead people hiding in Wushigou and the Trolls sentinels in Jinjiang Mountain not far away saw this scene.

This is a signal agreed upon by the three clans. Once this signal appears, it means that the three elves have come to attack. After learning the news, Agunan and Brute were surprised that they didn't think much about it, and hurriedly each took 90,000 troops from their headquarters. Go straight to the entrance of Jinshan.

When they got to the place, the fighting continued, but 10,000 Hasta fighters and 10,000 ogre fighters had killed more than 3,000 people. Just when Agunan didn't know what to do, Brute With a roar, he said: "Warriors of the Troll Race, follow me to attack, kill~!"

How could the violent trolls endure such a bloodthirsty scene, and rushed into the battlefield one after another, which made the attacking Hasta warriors and ogre warriors inflicted on their backs.

Agunan didn't dare to hesitate at this time. The six tribes' three-year war has left them extremely nervous about such a war on any one side. It is possible that a slight loss of mind will result in the disadvantage of the entire battlefield. Therefore, Agu Nan shouted: "The Undead Army flew over from the air, and the Undead Army followed me on the ground."

"Roar~!"

Binley and Tatar, who were in the middle of the battlefield, did not expect that it was originally a rescue war, but at this time they were surrounded.

"Hezra, where are you?"

“Tista, you lied to us, you lied to us.”

No matter how stupid the two of Binley and Tatar were, they found the problem, but at this time, no matter how loud they yell, it will not help. The Necromancers will not let them go, and Tista and Hisra have already withdrawn. The battlefield is running in the direction of Baihua Valley.

At the gate of Hundred Flowers Valley, the 270,000 armies of the Elves, Hastas and Ogres have been assembled. Starting from the gleaming light of the sky from Begure, the tribes of the Elves 20 kilometers away are also Recognizable, this is a signal for the three tribes to initiate war.

“In three years, we have seen this signal countless times, and it must be the three clans who want to attack us.” Sarah said loudly.

Aiyaris frowned and said: “It stands to reason that this is the case, but if they want to attack, why do they even send a signal first?”

Varadok also felt something wrong, and asked: “Did they have been attacked by humans?”

Sara shook her head and said: “This is impossible. There is no action on the human side. Don’t worry, I have a sentry near Jinshan. They will be able to send back news soon.”

“Report~! General Hezra and General Tista are back.” A warrior from the elven race ran over and said.

“Let them come here quickly.” Sarah pretended to be anxious.

“Yes.” The elven warrior replied, and the four soldiers helped Hezra and Tista, who were dying, out of front of the three patriarchs.

Varadok and Aiyaris saw that Heath was hurt so badly, they couldn't help but glance at each other in surprise. Varadok asked, "What's the matter?"

Hezra was extremely weak. This was not a pretense. She hung one arm on the soldier beside her, and said to Varadok and Aiyaris with her last will: "Quickly, go and support Jinshan, your two men don't know what happened, they brought more than 10,000 people to support each other, but they were led to Jinshan by the Rock Clan, and were besieged and killed by the Dead, Troll, and Rock Clan."

"What?" Varadok and Aiyaris' horrified eyes widened.

Tista took out the belongings of Bin Lei and Tatar, and said: "They may have died in battle. This was given to me before they died."

In fact, this was deceived by Varadok and Aiyaris. Along the way, the two persuaded Bin Lei and Tatar to exchange items with them. Once they were killed in battle, the two parties would bring the tokens back to the other's patriarch.

Binley and Tatar didn't think much about saving their own race, so they exchanged their tokens. As a result, it is now the best evidence to deceive the patriarchs of the two races.

"Damn it, this is really Tatar (Binley) thing." Aiyaris shouted at the same time as Varadok.

Sara looked at the two in surprise, frowning and asked: "What are you two sending reinforcements for? What are your plans?"

"No plan? This is not my order." Varadok said in amazement.

"I don't have this order either." Aiyaris said.

Sarah looked distrustful and asked, "Then what's going on?"

“This, this...” Varadok and Aiyaris were dumbfounded by the question. Both knew that Sara suspected that they had a conspiracy. The conspiracy is the tribe of the Necromancers to harm us.”

Sara said suspiciously: “Then please go ahead of the two clans, behind my clan.”

Varadok and Aiyaris also knew that Sarah’s suspicions were not wrong. If they were both of them, they would also give the order, after all, it involved the life and death of their own 100,000 people.

“Okay, the two of us are going ahead.” Varadok shouted: “All go forward and aim for Jinshan.”

“Target Jinshan, go forward.” Aiyaris shouted.

“Roar~!” The beak horn warrior of the Hasta tribe and the warrior of the ogre tribe quickly ran towards the direction of Jinshan. Among the two tribes, the warriors with mounts did not accelerate to the front because of Varado. Both Ke and Aiyaris were worried that this was an enemy’s conspiracy, so they ordered the cavalry to protect them on both wings to prevent sneak attacks by the enemy.

Sarah saw the armies of the two tribes in action, smiled at the corner of her mouth, looked at Algaea behind her and nodded, and shouted loudly: “The whole army will follow me, and the third-tier masters will follow me to the patriarchs of the two tribes, and we will move forward together. .”

Algaea led the main force behind. He looked at Hezra and Tista, who had fallen into a coma, and took out the scrolls he had prepared long ago.

“Holy Light”

The two purest lights flashed, and the unconscious two woke up. At the first moment, the two men took out the magic backpack and connected their broken arms to the wound. The healing power of the Holy Light made their arms quickly It was connected to the body once, and even recovered to the point where the scars could not be seen.

“It’s worthy of the Holy Light spell, it’s really powerful.” Hezra said in amazement.

“I was so scared that I thought my arm would not come back,” Tista said.

Algaea smiled and gave the two a big hug, and said: “Welcome the two to join the Shadowmoon Elves. Starting today, you are the first and second great nobles of the Shadowmoon Elves. Kilometers and 200 kilometers to the west.”

“Always be loyal to you, my patriarch.” Hezra and Tista said excitedly on one knee.

The two of them finally got the recognition of their race. Although this is a rebellious race for the Elves with the world, Rustafa has betrayed them. What is the politeness of the two of them.

Algaea helped the two of them and said, “Don’t let anyone find out when you hide in the army. Prepare for war.”

“Yeah.” The two nodded and hid among the team.

Algaea exhaled excitedly and called Lu Yang and said, “Report the boss, the enemy has been fooled, and the war can begin.”

Lu Yang had already flown into the sky at this time, watching the war under Jinshan, and said with a smile: “I have seen it all. I did a beautiful job. Start the war as soon as possible and force the dead and trolls in the City of the Dead and Snow Sea to drive away. Come here to join the war.”

“Yes.” Algaea hung up and led the legion to quickly follow the two clans.

The straight-line distance from Baihua Valley to Jinshan is only 40 kilometers, and at the speed of the six races, it only takes 20 minutes to reach. Therefore, when Agunan and Begure carry the heads of Binley and Tatar to study the Hasta tribe When there was some wind with the ogre to send 20,000 people to kill, Varadok, Sara and Aiyaris sitting on the back of the dragon in the sky could see clearly.

“Agunan, I want you to pay with blood.” Varadok roared like crazy, and the Tier 3 sacred dragon under his seat spouted out of flames.

“Small carving skills, ice barrier~!” Agunan has been alert to the sky, because they all know that there is a sacred dragon in Varadok.

A huge ice of half a meter thick and fifty meters in diameter exuded a blue light, appeared out of thin air in midair, protecting him, Brut and Begure.

The terrifying flame dragon breath sprayed on this barrier without causing any harm, as if a small flame fell on the ice for thousands of years.

“Eat my spear~!” A black spear appeared in the hands of the troll patriarch Brute, and after the sacred dragon flew in front of them, he turned around and threw it fiercely.

“Buried Shadow~!”

The black spear suddenly turned into dozens of spears. Before they could hit it, the head of the rock clan roared.

“Gravity Acceleration”

Dozens of spears violently increased the speed by three times, and flew behind the sacred dragon in the blink of an eye, but before they were hit, Sarah chanted a spell.

“Soul Flower and Tree Shield~!”

Hundreds of flowers appeared out of thin air behind the sacred dragon, and then quickly turned into a hard wooden shield. The black spear hit the wooden shield, and the wooden shield quickly dissipated. At the same time, the energy of the black spear was also consumed. All dissipated in the air.

Aiyaris, the chief of the ogre clan, condensed the wind with both hands, and the speed of the holy dragon doubled again, quickly leading them out of the battlefield.

Sara looked at Varadok and said, "What you did just now was too unwise. Are you going to kill the three of us and your mount dragon?"

Varadok said furiously: "My people have killed 10,000 people in the battle, how can I not be angry."

Aiyaris also had cold eyes, and said, "Going back to our team, I want to make the three necromates pay the blood debts."

"But this matter, in the end..." Sara asked with a frown.

"Enough, no matter what, our tribe is dead." Aiyaris and Varadok shouted at the same time. The three tribes have an agreement. Once the three tribes fighters are killed, the three tribes must take revenge together. Now it is Sarah who fulfills his promise. It's time.

Sarah whispered: "Well, I am willing to take the main force and join the battle with the two. The archers and magicians of the elves will be your strongest fire support points, and the warriors of the elves will attack with you."

Aiyaris and Varadok nodded in satisfaction, and glanced gratefully at the same time!

At this time, the armies of the three clans were already lined up at the mountain pass of Jinshan. The sacred dragon quickly returned to the front with the three of them. As soon as they landed, Aiyaris and Varadok were not waiting for the clansmen to ask, Gao Loudly roared: "Blowing the horn of death battle, everyone is ready for a decisive battle."

"Yes~!" More than fifty trumpeters shouted at the same time, each raising their own clan's horn to blow the horn with all their strength.

"Woo~~~~~!"

“Woo~~~~~!”

“Woo~~~~~!”

...

The soldiers of the two races opened up blood-red eyes at the same time, and Aiyaris yelled: “The whole army is attacking, kill~!”

“Kill~!” Varadok yelled afterwards.

Suddenly, the fighters of the two races took the lead in attacking!

Chapter 2345: Void Killer-Xia Yuwei

Sara watched the warriors of the two races continue to run past him, her eyes were angry, but her heart was smiling. Aiyaris and Varadok were not stupid. The reason why they attacked as soon as they landed. It is the Necromancer tribe who are trapped in Jinshan and can't develop their formation. At this time, their offense is the best choice.

“The elves, the ogres, and the Hastas, you have to fight decisively. Today we will see who is wiped out first.” Begure's voice came from the mountain.

In the dark night, a huge stone man with a height of 100 meters jumped out of the Jinshan Mountain and stepped on the tribe of elves outside.

“Go back to me.” Aiyaris instantly turned into a 100-meter-high ogre, leaping into the air, hitting him in the body as the stone man fell in Begure, and knocking him back. Inside Jinshan.

“Do you think we only have one Tier 3?” A large number of Tier 3 stone monsters turned into a form of 100 meters high, and jumped out of the mountain, but similarly, a large number of Tier 3 ogres greeted them. The quantity is exactly the same.

“Forbidden Curse·Great Ice Cone Technique~!”

Countless Tier 3 ice trolls pointed their fingers to the sky one after another. At a height of 100 meters, countless huge ice cones smashed into the ground, but before they fell to the ground, countless big trees rose up and waved. Using vines several meters in diameter to break the ice, or roll it up and throw it back.

The warriors of the Hasta tribe all carried flames at the tips of their spears, and rushed towards the mountain frantically. As soon as they reached the top of the mountain, they smashed with the golden skeletons of the undead tribe, and followed countless arrows in the air. The arrows are all made of special Tier 3 materials, even if they have armor, they are shot through the body, and the arrows are accompanied by the venom of the scorpion man. The arrows of the soldiers of the Necromancer tribes are equal to death!

At first, Agunan, Begure, and Brute thought that they had taken advantage of the 20,000 Hasta and Ogre coalition forces, but now it seems that they feel that the 20,000 people are decoys. The 270,000 armies of the three tribes are trapped in Jinshan and cannot get out, but the enemy can attack calmly.

“Damn it, where is the scorpion venom from the Elves? Did they catch some of the scorpions and kept them secretly?” Begulei snapped a bow and arrow and cursed.

Brute said angrily: “What’s the point of saying this now, and immediately order our clansmen in the city to come and help, otherwise, we will be completely unable to get out.”

“Okay, I’ll send a message, you guys give me a code word.” Agunan said.

The undead tribe is different from other races. They have a way to send messages to their tribe members from a long distance. Brute and Begure also knew about this. The two quickly told Agunan in secret, while Agunan closed his eyes and spread out all over his body. With black light.

Far away in the city lord’s mansion in the city of the dead, Agunan’s most trusted general, Carrick, was responsible for defending the main city. Seeing a dark black light suddenly appeared from a purple skull beside him, he quickly picked it up in surprise.

“Quickly lead all tribesmen to Jinshan to the southeast of Hutou Town to support, and at the same time tell the secret words of Begure and Brute, defenders of Rock City and Xuehai City, that your tribes join forces to attack...”

Carrick was so shocked that he couldn't take care of the others, holding the purple skull and ordering the army to assemble, and at the same time he ran to Rock City and Xuehai City to report the situation.

The 30,000 armies of the three races were dispatched in just four hours and headed straight for Jinshan. The number of defenders in the city was less than 300.

Xia Yuwei, hiding in the space-time storm area on the east side of the Rock City, immediately noticed the presence of people in the city. She took out the intercom and called Lu Yang, and asked, “The enemy is gone, do you want to act?”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Kill all the remaining garrisons in the three cities and take away their time-space stabilizers.”

“Yes.” Xia Yuwei turned off the intercom and looked at the void warriors behind her, with a smile on half of her face, and said: “It's time for us to act.”

Tao Fei and the other girls nodded one after another. In the next second, their bodies became transparent like Xia Yuwei, and they walked in the direction of Rock City.

At this time, the number of garrisons in Rock City was only 300, but Xia Yuwei and others had a thousand. On the east wall of Rock City, there were only 3 rock men in the defending army.

“Yes.” A rock man next to him said dissatisfied: “There are only 300 people left. It's better to change shifts and guard at the other three gates. This is the space-time storm zone. Who can come in.”

“!” The other two rock men just nodded in agreement, Xia Yuwei’s devilish voice appeared behind a rock man, and she pierced the void blade in her hand into the back of the rock man with a leap.

“Uh~!” The Rock Man instantly lost his strength and couldn’t even make a shout, so he could only uh uh, he fell softly to the ground.

The other two rock men were about to call for help, Liu Juan and Li Mao appeared in front of them at the same time, the broken star blade pierced into the heart at the same time, and on the backs of the two rock men, there were four void warriors stabbing daggers. Entered their throat and spine.

Xia Yuwei waved to Liu Juan and the others. At the moment, Liu Juan led the team to the south of the city wall, Li Mao led the team to the north of the city wall, and Xia Yuwei went into the city.

As soon as they took the first step, Xia Yuwei and others entered a state of invisibility and invisibility, and the Rock Clan people in the city were completely unaware of their arrival.

In the city.

On a 20-meter high platform in the center, there is a huge palace. There is the most important distorted time-space teleportation array of the Rock tribesmen. Every time they teleport, the Rock tribesmen come out of the warped time-space in this palace.

At the gate of the palace, there are 12 rock tribesmen guarding. According to the rules, they should watch the surroundings vigilantly, but at this time, they are all sitting around a bonfire.

“What the **** is going on on the front line? Don’t the six races want to fight the human race? Why are they fighting each other again?” a rock guard asked curiously.

“Ghost knows!” The team leader moved towards the fire and said: “We are lucky not to participate in this war. Many of you are new here. I tell you, count these three. In 2015, nearly 600,000 members of the six races died in battle. If you go there, it will be the same as sending you to death. If you didn’t go, please be grateful that we are still alive.”

Everyone was about to nod, but in the next second, the huge body of the team leader became stiff. The rock tribe's three-meter-high body caused them to have a height of more than two meters even if they sat down, and Xia Yuwei didn't need it at this height. Hidden, a relaxed sword pierced into the team leader's heart, and the rest of the rock people didn't know what happened.

Chapter 2346: Ambush Reinforcement Corps

“puff”

“puff”

...

Small voices came one after another, and then, eleven girls wearing masks like her walked out from behind the rock people and returned to Xia Yuwei.

These twelve rock men are all second-tier pinnacles, and they died silently like this. Even if it is the heroic Wanzong with the beast blood warrior legion, it will not be so easy, because the rock men are the most powerful. The place is their skin.

During the battle, the skin of the rock people can become as hard as steel. Ordinary weapons can't pierce their bodies at all. It's just that they don't keep the magic power running at high speed at any time during the battle. Therefore, These Tier 2 Peak Rockman warriors, who were supposed to guard the gate for a while in the face of the enemy's attack, were so easily killed.

“Let's go in.” Xia Yuwei's body became invisible again, and she opened the door and walked into the temple.

In the hall of the temple, a rock is sitting cross-legged in front of a huge twisted time and space. The red light has not completely faded away at this time. The red light emitted makes everyone in the room wear a layer of red. coat.

“Since you are here, show your figure, let me know, who are you?” The rock man stared at the opened door, his expression extremely tense.

Xia Yuwei was hidden in the void, so he didn’t even make a sound of walking. It could even be said to be floating in the low air. She did not agree to the rock man’s words, but continued to walk towards the rock man.

“Steel skin~!” The rock man’s body suddenly turned bright black, and the hard bulges and corners of the body turned into blades. He closed his eyes and said: “Although I can’t see you, I know You have already come in, feel the power of the third-order rock man. With me here, no one can move the time-space stabilizer of our rock clan.”

“boom”

The entire ground shook violently, and in the next second, countless spikes of metal black light emerged from the ground and the ceiling.

This is one of Tier 3 Rockman’s pinnacle skills. They can turn any object on the ground into an extremely sharp weapon, and the sharpness can even pierce Tier 2 Star Steel.

If normal creatures came here, they would have been nailed to the ground by these countless spikes, but unfortunately, it was Xia Yuwei they encountered.

“Puff~!”

A blood line flew out from the back of the rock man, and the void blade was as powerful as a Tier 4 weapon and easily pierced the body of the rock man at the top of the Tier 3 peak. No matter how hard the rock man worked, he couldn’t use any strength at this time. , Weakly fell to the ground.

The rock man turned his head to look. He wanted to know who the killer was and if he would tell him anything, but Xia Yuwei didn’t pay attention to him at all. After taking it out, the twisted void spun wildly.

“Da da da”

There was a sound of running outside, and Li Mao, Liu Juan and others had just killed all the defenders in the city, worrying about Xia Yuwei’s safety and ran over at full speed.

Xia Yuwei frowned, and said, “Don’t advance like this in the future, whether I live or die.”

“Yes.” Liu Juan, Li Mao and others said in unison.

“Report the battle situation!” Xia Yuwei said.

Liu Juan said: “Killing 372 Rock Warriors and searching the whole city, there is no more living person.”

“Let’s go to Xuehai City.” Xia Yuwei was very satisfied with Liu Juan’s performance. As she walked towards the door, she took out the intercom and called Zhuojiu and said, “Send the warriors of the elves into the Rock City, and the battle is over.”

“Okay, I’ll inform them, pay attention to safety, and don’t have any trouble.” After the dirty wine ordered, he turned off the phone and immediately dialed to the Elf Legion. At this time, the Holy Light Knights and the Beast Blood Warrior Legion led by them were already there. Not in the Elf City anymore, but lying in ambush on the road of Hutou Town in front of the Rock Tribe, the Undead Tribe and the Troll Tribe.

There are 10,000 elven warriors, archers, and mages following them. The entire elven race can actually send out fewer than 200 soldiers to move things.

According to the plan made by Lu Yang and Zhuojiu, these 30,000 reinforcements must not be allowed to reach the battlefield. If these 30,000 people get to the place, they will become the three tribes of elves. All of the enemies are killed in this way.

“I can smell the enemy. They are three kilometers away.” The white lion ran over in the form of an orc, and said to the turbid wine: “Doesn’t we really need a frontal attack?”

Zhuojiu shook his head, and said, "Give it to the Knights of Light and the wizards and archers of the elves. You must ensure that no enemy can escape from the periphery."

This war will be relatively simple. The trolls are a lightly defensive race. They like light armor to participate in battles and long-range raids. The elf archers just restrain them.

The rock race runs at the slowest speed, but in order to keep up with the teams of the other two races, they are also running at full strength. Therefore, the rock race's 10,000 troops are the weakest, and the wizards of the elven race have been buried on the road. A large number of seeds, and more than 800 wood magic arrays were arranged on both sides of their hidden roads, and each magic array contained Tier 3 wood crystals.

As for the last undead race, it was even more miserable. They faced the Knights of the Holy Light. The shining of the holy light alone could make the undead feel painful, and the turbid wine prepared a holy light gift for these enemies.

"Take care." The white lion grabbed the dirty arm of the wine, turned and left. There were hundreds of beast blood warriors who followed him. Their mission is not light. Even if an enemy escapes, the humans and the elves will suffer. To the disaster of extinction!

Zhuojiu was also a little restless at this time, he decided to check the ambush point again, at this time their location was in a valley of maple leaf forest.

There is a 150-meter-wide passage in the valley. The elves and human ambush troops hide on the 30-meter-high mountain slopes on both sides. The heavy snow covered all traces of the ground, and it was cold. The temperature made everyone feel at a loss, and the dark night filled everyone with fear.

There is no moon in the sky, and the turbid wine dare not use torches. He can only see the area within 2 meters in front of him, groping forward in the dark.

"Are there any omissions from the wood crystal magic circle?"

"Brothers of the Knights of Light move your body."

As they walked, the voiced wine whispered encouragement. Suddenly, there was a bird call in the air. The voiced wine quickly bent down, and several black magic birds passed over their heads and flew into the distance.

In the area on the north side of the valley, the running sound of the brigade soldiers sounded, and countless torches were jumping and flying at low altitude like countless fireflies.

The distance of three kilometers is only a few minutes for the second-tier fighters. Soon, the troll legion running in the front entered the sight of all the soldiers, and the necromantic legion behind them was the last. The other is a panting rock warrior.

Chapter 2347: Zhou Tianming's horror

The army captains of the three races ran in the forefront. They were all Tier 3, possessing a huge magic power that Tier 2 did not have, and could support them to run at such high speed for more than eight hours.

“Damn it, after running to the battlefield like this, we don’t have the strength to fight.” The Rock Clan’s legion commander, Bo Lie Ri, cursed as he ran angrily.

The chief of the troll clan, Cowens, slanted a glance at Blaze Sun, and said as he ran: “If the war ahead is lost, we will face the crisis of extermination. Do you want all your people to die here? ?”

“Use your nonsense, **** elves.” Blair cursed angrily, and continued to run forward.

Carrick ran the easiest way, because he was riding a Skeleton Dragon, holding a purple skull in one hand, and a five-meter dragon spear in the other. His eyes were cold and he said: “Don’t quarrel, our tribes are in a hard fight ahead. , Our time is running out.”

“No, you don’t have time.” The voice of dirty wine reverberated in the valley.

“Who?” Carrick quickly stopped his mount to look around in horror, but before he could react, a golden light flew out from the hillside not far to his right, straight into the sky.

“Boom”

The golden light exploded in the air. In an instant, countless bows and arrows, tree vines, and wooden thorns were flying on the road. The trolls in the middle of the three races were shot by bows and arrows with scorpion venom and fell to the ground. Entangled by tough vines, unable to move.

Carrick at the forefront turned into a 100-meter-high skeleton general in a moment of anger, but before he took any action, he was suddenly illuminated by the holy light within a few kilometers, and there were two hundred hundred-meter-high holy lights. At the same time, the warriors were transformed into giants with a height of one hundred meters, and stepped neatly out of the mountain roads on both sides, and fell into Carrick’s skeleton army.

“Ah~!”

“My body, I’m going to die~!”

...

The warriors of the undead clan can’t hold the light at all, even the third-order undead facing the third-order holy light knights may be killed by a single blow, not to mention that Carrick is carrying all the second-order legions.

“Why? How come there are so many Holy Light Warriors?” Carrick was completely dumbfounded.

“Puff~!” A 20-meter-long holy light blade slashed Carrick’s body diagonally, splitting it in half instantly, and Tier 3 Carrick was killed on the spot!

The troll of Cowens also turned into a 100-meter-high form, smashed the aftermath of the Holy Light Blade with a punch, frowned and stared at the turbid wine that released the Holy Light Blade and said, "Human?"

With a smile at the corner of his mouth, Zhuojiu said, "The commander of the First Legion of the Iron-Blood Brothers League, the Zhuojiu is pouring out!"

No matter how stupid he was at this time, Brie Ri could see the clues, and cursed: "The elves have betrayed the protoss. This is what you did."

"Very correct, but you have no chance." The voice of half a lifetime of love appeared behind Brie Ri and Cowens, two broken star blades with ice blue light pierced through the hearts of the two. .

Breeze and Cowens, die!

Tier 4 vs. Tier 3 is still so close that even the Holy Light Knight has no chance to survive.

"The rest are Tier 3, everyone ends their transformation and prepares for defense." Zhuojiu issued an order.

The two hundred holy light knights quickly lifted the third-order transformation state and returned to the original state, but they did not attack, but put up a defensive formation, and the huge holy light spells condensed into a light shield in front of them.

The stunned Undead Legion thought that the Holy Light Knights were going to use some big move, and when they were at a loss and wanted to escape, the entire sky suddenly turned purple.

"Evil spirits in another world, listen to my call, evil spirits and demon hell~!"

Zhou Tianming's voice floated above Maple Leaf Valley. No one had noticed since the beginning of the war. Zhou Tianming stood alone on the top of the 200-meter-high mountain in Maple Leaf Valley.

There was a weird magic circle under his feet with weird runes that were only known to the demons. At this time, these runes shining with purple-red light floated beside Zhou Tianming, circling and dancing continuously.

In the end, these runes shot towards the sky above Maple Leaf Valley, tearing open a huge purple-red hole that was one kilometer long and one hundred meters wide.

“Oh~!”

A weird purple-red flame fell from the hole with a terrifying sound, and hit the shield of a second-order troll warrior. In an instant, the purple flame passed through the shield and fell on the troll warrior.

There was not even a cry of pain, the entire body of the troll warrior turned into ashes, but before everyone around could react, the purple-red flame seemed to have life, and it rushed straight to another troll warrior beside him. !

“What is this, this, this?”

“kill him.”

The surrounding trolls hurriedly waved their weapons to attack the purple flames, but their magical attacks fell on the purple flames and did not cause any harm. Instead, they were attached to the magic by the purple flames and penetrated into the body like bone gangrene. Then it turned into fly ash again.

An elderly troll stared at the purple flames for two seconds. The next moment, he opened his eyes suddenly, and wailed with the greatest strength in his life: “This is evil magic, everyone must run away, Tier 3 The following will not harm them.”

The surrounding trolls are at a loss. Their mission is to attack, and their glory is also to attack. Flee? The word never appeared in their minds, it was something that only cowards would do.

“Damn it, I’ll kill you if you dare to disturb the military’s mind.” The troll leader of the second-order peak next to him pierced through the heart of the old troll with a spear in his hand.

The expression on the face of the elder troll was unbelievable. Just when he fell, he exhausted his last strength to look towards the sky, only to see the purple flames flying down from the hollow. There was only one in his heart. Thought: “It’s over!”

“Swish”

“Swish”

“Swish”

...

The purple flames in the sky were still hovering around the hollow, seeing the enemies below that could not cause them harm, falling crazily from the sky.

More than a thousand purple flames flew into the formations of the Rock, Troll, and Undead in an instant, and countless soldiers were burned to fly ashes when they encountered it. In 5 minutes, 30,000 people disappeared without a shadow. Without a trace, only one place of weapons and equipment was left, and everyone who saw it was dumbfounded.

“Is this the power of demons?” the elves said blankly.

“Roar~!” Countless Zi Yan seemed to have not eaten enough, and turned their eyes to the elves and human races in the distance. Just when they wanted to rush past, the purple-red void in the sky was shrinking continuously.

“Zhou Tianming~!”

“Zhou Tianming~!”

...

Countless purple flames let out a roar, and the entire Maple Leaf Valley is echoing Zhou Tianming’s name, but the purple flames dare not continue to kill. Once the void above their heads disappears, they can only stay in this world, which will cause the demons to lose. The energy supply of the original world could not continue to practice, so they had to leave.

“Zhou Tianming, you have not fully fulfilled your promise, you will be met with retribution~!” The last Zi Yan flew in before the space disappeared, leaving only this sentence.

“Puff~!”

Zhou Tianming in the sky spit out blood, and a purple magic symbol appeared on his arm, which made the dirty wine who had been on the intercom extremely nervous, and asked, “What’s wrong with you?”

Zhou Tianming fell on his knees and said with a wry smile: “The estimate was wrong. I would have summoned 100 evil spirits a long time ago. Most of them didn’t kill them all, and blamed me on my head. I’m fine. Backlash can bear it.”

“Oh~!” The white lion sighed, and said depressedly: “There was no place for you to test the power of spells before. Your move was too fierce.”

“Who said no.” Zhou Tianming said with a smile: “I have nothing serious, let’s go to support the front line, the boss is dangerous over there, I am so fierce as Tier 4, if there is no boss to provoke the elves to join us The human race, the fourth-order powerhouse of their six races alone, is enough to wipe out tens of millions of us in the East China Sea.”

Zhuojiu, White Lion and others all had cold sweats on their backs. They came up after practicing and didn’t understand the rules of another world at all.

There is a rule in another world, that is, the army must have at least a high-level strength equal to that of the enemy to fight, otherwise, don't think about launching an offensive.

If it is on the battlefield, the two sides will not attack the large corps from the beginning, but first let the high-ranking players fight against each other, the winning side takes all, and the losing side surrenders on the spot.

Because it is impossible for hundreds of thousands of Tier 2 to pose any threat to a Tier 4, on the contrary, this Tier 4 can make hundreds of thousands of Tier 2 instantaneous deaths with a big move.

Zhou Tianming had just collected his power. If he used all his power to release demons, at least 2,000 would be released.

The enemies in Hutou Town are all at the Tier 4 pinnacle. If there is no Lu Yang's strategy, and the elves work together to cause the enemy to fight inwardly, what a terrifying situation they are facing now, after all, There are more than 20 fourth-order enemies!

Zhuojiu said: "Assemble the army, we quickly rushed back to Hutou Town, we must not let the boss face the enemy alone~!!!"

"Yeah." The White Lion, Zhou Tianming and others quickly assembled all their forces and took the Elves straight to Hutou Town!

Chapter 2348: Lu Yang comes

The other side.

At the foot of Jinshan Mountain in Hutou Town, the tribes of undead and elves have been killed for four hours, because 10,000 Hasta fighters and 10,000 ogre fighters led by Tatar and Bin Lei were attacked. The killing in vain led to the frantic revenge of Varadok and Aiyaris, and there was no room for attack.

The total number of Tier 2 powerhouses on both sides who died in battle has exceeded 40,000. The Tier 3 Demon-level powerhouses died in one third of the battle, and a total of 24 Tier 4 powerhouses on both sides have arrived ten kilometers away from the battlefield. On a clearing.

“Ice Dragon Spear”

“Wooden Spirit Shield”

“Long Yan”

...

The spells of various schools are flying all over the sky, and the ice is the main one, which gives the three tribes the upper hand, because the Boscate and Black around Agunan are all ice-based, and Brook from the troll clan brings it. The two spirit-level powerhouses are also ice-based.

On the elven side, Rustafa has only one fake ice-type spirit-level powerhouse behind Boll, and the ogres have two ice-type powerhouses. The Hastas are completely fire-type and don't know ice-type spells at all.

In this icy and snowy weather, the higher the ice spell, the stronger the strength. Agunan used four ice spells to continuously launch ice spell attacks, leaving Rustafa to passively defend.

Fortunately, Varadok and the spirit-level powerhouses behind him are more fire-type melee fighters. Rustapha and Algaea are also good at melee combat. After a entanglement, Rustapha and the others found a chance The close fight narrowed the gap between the two sides by a large amount, but if the fight went on like this, it was their side who lost.

Agoon became more excited as he fought, staring at Sara and shouting: "My beautiful lady, it seems that you will be my captive soon. Have you ever thought about what I will turn you into? Deadpool is still the lowest order. Zombies?"

"Don't think about it." The long sword in Varadok's hand pierced Agunan, but was blocked by Agunan with a bone shield. He sneered at Varadok and said: "You will never defeat me."

"That's not necessarily." Aiyaris roared, struggling to be hurt by Boscart, and hammered the ground with his right hand.

"laugh"

A hard soil sword came out suddenly under Agunan's feet, with a brown light on it, easily pierced through Agunan's armor and pierced his lower body.

"Damn~!"

Agunan wanted to jump away furiously, but was entangled tightly by Varadok. He stared at Agunan and said: "Unexpectedly, this is a plan we have made long ago. We look alike and see, you become After the undead, is there still that thing."

"You have to pay for this." Agunan's voice was filled with uncontrollable anger, and he instantly turned into a hundred-meter-high giant with a terrifying black light in his hand, and countless black energy **** straightened indiscriminately. Everyone in the run field.

"Is it you?" Rustafa turned into a 100-meter tall tree, and countless vines formed a shield to block all the **** of light.

The chiefs of the troll tribe and the rock tribe jumped behind Agunan with their men, and they all instantly entered the transformation state. Begure couldn't help saying to Agunan, "Is it too early to transform now? Now, we've been transformed into a fight for two hours just now, and we have only recovered for two hours. It won't last long."

This is the biggest problem for the spirit-level powerhouses. Incarnate as a 100-meter-high magic-level giant, they can last longer than the third-order magic-level powerhouse, but this is when they are not involved in the war. For such a high-intensity war, they can last for two hours at most.

Four hours ago, the battle between the two sides had just begun, and both sides turned into a giant form with a height of 100 meters. It was after two hours of fighting that the transformation ability of both sides could not support it before returning to their normal form. Now, their bodies Less than 50% of his energy was restored, and he turned into a battle again, and he might not be able to support it for even an hour.

Agunan gritted his teeth and said, "They can't hold on for long. I'm going to kill them in close combat this time."

"It's not necessarily who kills who." Rustafa said with a sneer.

"Yes, you are dead." Aiyaris and Varadok stood in front of Sara with their subordinates at the same time and said, they had just deliberately angered Agunan with minor injuries.

What do men fear most from others? Even if they became the powerhouse of the spirit level, the Necromancer still had no way to allow their bodies to reproduce normally like other races. That place is their eternal pain, but this is their privacy.

Now that Varadok and Aiyaris ridiculed them in public, how could Agunan as a nobleman bear it, so Agunan transformed in advance.

The reason why Aiyaris and Varadok wanted to do this was because both of them were betting that this war was a protracted battle.

Among the spells of the various schools, the most powerful in protracted warfare is the elves. Wood spells have their own recovery capabilities. Even in this icy and snowy place, they are still the ones who can fight to the end.

As long as Agunan and the others are fooled, if they continue to transform immediately after taking a short break, Rustafa, Sara and Algaea will be able to kill Agunan and others within a few times.

“You two are okay.” Sara looked at Varadok and Aiyaris with some worry.

“For you, it’s nothing.” The two said.

In an instant, the two of them were a little confused, looking at each other, with a furious look in their eyes, Varadok roared: “Sarah is already engaged to me, what are you doing?”

Aiyaris was dumbfounded and said angrily: “It’s obviously Sarah who is engaged to me, what are you talking about?”

“What?” Varadok hurriedly looked at Sara, but before the two turned around, the vine brought six Star Smashing Blades into the backs of the six people including Varadok and Aiyaris.

Six Tier 4 spirit-level powerhouses including Valadok and Aiyaris were killed on the spot!

Agunan was dumbfounded when he saw this scene, and asked blankly: “Sarah, what are you doing? Are you going to surrender to us?”

This matter couldn’t be explained, it made Agunan extremely confused, but at this moment, a sense of oppression that made their souls feel terrified suddenly came from the sky, that kind of powerful spiritual pressure, let They couldn’t help but kneel down.

“Leader, lord level!?” Agunan, Begure and the others stared blankly into the air.

Algaea smiled and closed the armband. He just sent a message to Lu Yang, telling him that the matter was revealed, so now it was Lu Yang’s time.

“Roar~!” There was a roar of the dragon in the sky, and the sacred dragon under the seat of Varadok roared: “Sarah, what did you do? You dare to kill my master, I killed you.”

The sacred red dragon's neck fiercely bulged a big bag, but when he was about to breathe out the dragon's breath, a Tier 4 red dragon suddenly burst out of the sky, and it bit the sacred dragon's neck with precision. He just tore it hard, biting off the neck of the dragon on his body!

The dragon blood sprinkled in the air made Agunan and the others confused. In the next second, the corpse and head of the sacred dragon disappeared. Lu Yang, who had not transformed himself, slowly appeared from the sky and fell in front of Agunan's and others. Whispered: "surrender or die!"

"Human? Lu Yang? Tier 5?" Agunan was stunned, as if he had seen the most unbelievable thing in the world.

"Why did you become a lord? Did you lie to us? I don't believe it." Biegulei was furious. As a rock man, his right arm suddenly turned into the color of metal, and he hit Lu Yang with a punch.

The punch from a 100-meter-tall body was like lightning and thunder. Before Lu Yang was in front of him, the sound of breaking through the air was unbearable for his ears.

"Yan Yang Cable"

Lu Yang only uttered three words softly. Under Begulei's feet, dozens of golden flames burst out of the ground, melting the blizzard within a hundred meters of the surrounding area. The body was firmly controlled in place, and the fist he tried his best to strike out also stopped at the position with the highest explosive power, and could no longer swing forward an inch of distance.

Chapter 2349: Lord Prestige

"This is impossible. It is the cold winter season. Even the lord level cannot have such a strong strength." Begulei's rocky body is burning and cracking. Even in the cold weather, the flame cannot be reduced by a bit. temperature.

Lu Yang looked at Begure with a smile, and said, "Because I asked Algaea to lead you over this place specially."

The depth of 50 meters below this piece of land has already been filled by Lu Yang's talent skills, which spurred underground magma. Not only here, but also the area within a few kilometers in radius, it is like this. If Lu Yang is willing, he can now Just turn this area into a spewing volcanic area.

Agunan looked at Sara blankly. Although he was an undead race, he also had the glory of a higher race in another world. He couldn't understand that the elves would fall to humans.

"How would you do this? How is this possible?" Agunan asked excitedly, which is tantamount to the gods who betrayed the entire other world and would be angered by the gods.

Sarah and Rustafa took a step back with a smile at the same time and gave Algaea their position. Algaea also stepped forward, smiling at Agunan and said: "The elves have been renamed as Shadowmoon Elves. I am an Elf. King!"

"Who are you?" Beggulei roared, he hadn't known this elf for three years.

"Common Elf Algaea."

The undead tribes were shocked. A commoner elf could control the entire elf clan. They looked at Lu Yang in the air and then they understood what had happened to the entire elf clan.

"Now that we are crowded, we can't run away. In any case, we must work together to kill them." Agunan said loudly.

"Delay for time, let the four of us of the Ice Element go to kill the human lord." Hurduo, an ice element spirit-level powerhouse of the troll clan, roared.

“Leave it to us.” Agunan roared and rushed towards Algaea first. The difference between the lord and the spirit level is only the magic in the body. 10 spirit level powerhouses do not have to deal with a lord level powerhouse. The slightest problem.

Although there are only four spirit-level powerhouses who are free to deal with Lu Yang, they are of the ice type and have the power of heaven and earth. It is not hopeless to kill Lu Yang.

“Human lord, do you dare to accept the challenge of the four of us?” Hurduo yelled at Lu Yang.

Lu Yang saw this scene with a sneer at the corner of his mouth, and said, “If you dare not, change yourself.”

A crimson light flashed, and Lu Yang’s body instantly turned into a hundred-meter-high flame giant. The red flame crystal armor quickly enveloped his body, and the red flame scepter appeared in his right hand, turning into one hundred and five. Ten meters long flame shape.

The heavy snow between the sky and the earth was instantly vaporized by Lu Yang’s terrifying flame temperature. The snow falling around couldn’t even land 50 meters away from Lu Yang’s side. The ground was even within a hundred meters in diameter. The ground was exposed. Many meters of heavy snow have evaporated.

Upon seeing this scene, the four of them looked at each other, and a huge warhammer appeared in each hand and charged towards Lu Yang.

“Don’t think that you have some chance to become a Tier 5 lord, and you have mastered the essence of our different world, so that you can see the combat skills of our other world.” Hurduo yelled, and the hammer in his hand turned towards Lu Yang’s face. Smashed over.

As the hammer approached, all of the surrounding wind and snow gathered towards the hammer in an instant, and the ice power contained in it suddenly reduced the surrounding temperature to a terrifying level, completely suppressing Lu Yang’s own temperature around his body. , The temperature outside is 20 to 30 degrees lower than the average temperature.

Lu Yang was surprised by this trick, the flames in his body gathered frantically, and the red flame scepter in his palm swiped in his backhand.

“Boom~!” With a loud noise, the top of the scepter collided with the front of the hammer. Ice and fire energy gushed from the scepter and the tip of the hammer at the same time. The collision of extreme cold and high temperature should produce steam, but at this time But no gas appeared. Instead, the tip of the hammer suddenly sprayed out waterfall-like ice.

Lu Yang’s stupefied kung fu was actually frozen by the ice. Before he could react, a second hammer slammed into his body, and another piece of ice poured out in the middle of his body. Frozen completely.

Following the third and fourth hammers, Lu Yang ice was completely enclosed in a huge ice block 100 meters high, and the flames on Lu Yang’s body surface were quickly extinguished.

“Sure enough, he doesn’t understand our combat skills, we won.” Kuerduo cheered loudly with excitement. What he just used was the strongest combat skill of Tier 4 Ice Element, even at the Lord level of Tier 5. The costly attack skill that can only be used at a critical moment is called the Wrath of the Ice Elf.

The special warhammer built by Wannian Han Iron allows them to continuously condense ice energy into the warhammer during the battle, and finally urged out through combat skills at a critical moment. The energy that bursts out is extremely terrifying, and it is only a spirit-level state. can severely wound the Lord Level, and now the four Spirit Levels are attacking at the same time, and Kuldo and the others are confident that they will kill Lu Yang just then.

Agunan felt incredible when he saw this scene. He looked at Rustafa and Sara sarcastically and said: “Your human ally is so vulnerable. He doesn’t even understand the combat skills of our world. It’s so ridiculous. .”

Algaea and the others were also dumbfounded, and they couldn’t understand how the mighty Lu Yang died like this. All of them were at a loss for a while, but at this moment, the underground where Agunan was located suddenly appeared. A white light came out.

“White Sun Fist”

Another Lu Yang suddenly appeared from the ground. The same body was 100 meters tall. The only difference was that this Lu Yang did not have a red flame armor and a red flame scepter, but there was a white ball of light in front of his left hand, nearly 10 meters in diameter.

The white sun accurately hit the unprepared Agunan, and in an instant, Agunan's body turned into fly ash.

"This? What's the matter?" Rustafa asked blankly.

Lu Yang smiled, turned around to look at the four of Hurduo, and said: "It's unexpected, the one you are freezing is not my body, the real me is here, and now you still have the power to release the Ice Spirit one more time. Angry?"

Lu Yang didn't understand the combat skills of another world, but the Blazing Demon knew it. Lu Yang had learned the relevant combat skills long ago, and he also knew clearly how the Ice Elf's wrath was released and how powerful it was.

From the beginning of the battle, he has been hiding in the ground, allowing a clone to ride the red night in the air to prepare for battle. At the same time, he gave his weapons and equipment to the clone. The purpose is to confuse the enemy. Sure enough, the enemy was fooled and took his The avatar became the main body, throwing all the energy that only had half an hour left to transform onto his avatar.

Chapter 2351: Assault Demon

At this time, the only people in the arena who insisted on not surrendering were Begure, Boscate and other spirit-level powerhouses. However, it doesn't make much sense for them to surrender or not. The undead have the spirits of Black and Rock. Except for Begoulei, all the powerhouses have surrendered, and the patriarch of the troll clan, Brute, has also surrendered. These powerhouses can already order their race to surrender to the human race.

Algea said: "Boss, I hope you can give me a chance to take revenge. Begure and I have blood and blood. I will kill him personally to avenge my brothers who died in battle."

In the previous three years, when the six races were fighting, the rock tribe of Begure did nothing to slaughter the civilian warriors of the elven tribe. Many of Algea's confidants died in Begure's hands to protect him. Have a great hatred of Begure.

Lu Yang said, "Of course."

Begure was dumbfounded. He thought that Lu Yang would slowly invite him to surrender with the treatment of a nobleman. He didn't expect to kill if he didn't agree with him. Looking at Algea who came by, Begure struggled and shouted: "I surrender, I vote..."

Algea stabbed Begure's neck with a knife, cut off his head completely, and then took out the earth magic core from Begure's head and gave it to Lu Yang.

Lu Yang's arm was lighted with flames, he easily burned the blood on the magic core, and he said, "I have no shortage of manpower on my side. What I lack is the magic core to enhance my strength. Since you are not willing to surrender, then you can dedicate all the magic cores."

"We surrender~!" Boscart and other strong men were already terrified at this time, no longer caring about the dignity of any nobleman, bowed their heads to Lu Yang and accepted the fate of becoming a slave.

The light in Lu Yang's hands flickered, and the characters of slaves were carved on their heads. In the end, a total of two undead clan spirit-level experts, three troll clan spirit-level experts, and two rock clan spirit-level experts became Lu Yang's slave.

"Go back and order your race to stop the war." Lu Yang ordered.

"Yes." Boscart, Brute and others knelt on the ground and said in unison. Then, they stood up and ran towards the battlefield in the direction of Jinshan.

“We went too.” The three of Rustafa bowed to Lu Yang and followed along.

An hour later, the war on Jinshan stopped. The three tribes of the undead, the Hasta, and the ogres heard that the strongest of their race had been defeated, and it was the lord-level strong that had defeated them. This made the five races All fell into despair.

Regarding the matter of becoming slaves, they did not have the slightest resistance, and a team came out of Jinshan, put down their weapons and accepted the fate of becoming slaves.

It took four full hours for the fighters of the five races to reassemble. They stood in a clearing outside Jinshan. Nearly 400,000 fighters of the five races let the turbid wine and the white lion who had run back to Lu Yang. Waiting for no one can understand.

“Why did you surrender? If it’s ours, you have to bite off the enemy’s flesh when you die.” The white lion frowned and said.

Algaea had a good temper with the White Lion, and explained with a smile: “You will become more and more accustomed to such things in the future. The strong in our world are too strong, and the weak will never resist the commands of the strong. This is the weak and the strong in our world.”

Zhou Tianming said: “This war is really boring, how many people we thought we would have to die, I didn’t expect it would end like this.”

Rustafa frowned and said, “Don’t think it is simple. It seems that these slaves are ours now, but one day, if a stronger man appears in the future, we may become the slaves of others just like these slaves. .”

Sarah said: “This is why we, intelligent races, need to find a **** as a backer in the original world. Without the help of gods, we will become slaves to other races at any time, and gods have God’s rules, and they don’t accept them. Slaves, only collect our offerings, so our elves can survive to this day.”

The bitter love gave a sigh of relief and said: “Now things are simple, and there are no other enemies around us. We can develop with peace of mind for a while.”

Lu Yang nodded and said, "Yes, it's finally been a while. The slaves in front of me will be given a tenth to let them return to their original city life, and the rest will become real slaves to work as labor. ."

Soon after the night of the red moon, the merchants of the mechanical plane should have come. Almost all the materials produced by the three cities of the East China Sea in the past six months have been sold to them in exchange for a small amount of Tier 3 magic cores.

The current Jagged Brotherhood can be said to be in urgent need of labor. With the addition of these slaves, they can be used by 10,000 ordinary people alone. After the beginning of spring, the next time the mechanical plane merchants will come over, Lu Yang will exchange things. It can be improved hundreds of times.

Algaea said: "We have no opinion."

Lu Yang said: "Now you and my clan are allies. I will give you a copy of all the production materials of mankind so that you can learn how to make them. For these slaves in front of you, your elven clan will divide two-fifths of them and leave behind. Three-fifths belong to human beings. Is this fair?"

Rustafa said in surprise: "Give us one-fifth even if it is fair. The war is won by your lord."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "After all, I rely on your help, otherwise there won't be such a great situation."

If there was no betrayal by the elves, maybe this time the war was really a battle between the Jagged Brothers and the Six Races, and Lu Yang would also die in the town of Tongxing with a high probability.

Two-fifths of the slaves are about 150,000. The Elves still have 80,000 left. They can almost do two slaves per person, not to mention that some of the slaves are of high rank, and one can be several hundred. Come to redeem.

"Thanks to the human lord." Rustafa bowed respectfully to Lu Yang, expressing his gratitude.

Lu Yang smiled. Just about to continue his polite manner, his intercom suddenly rang. He picked it up and saw that it was Han Ying. He pressed the connect button and asked, "What's the matter?"

"Something happened, boss, we were attacked by the enemy, brothers are desperately resisting!" Han Ying's voice panicked.

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "Where did the enemies come from? All the enemies here have surrendered?"

"The demons, are all red-skinned demons with long beards. Fortunately, we have been waiting for your order to stand by at any time. When the enemy sneaks in, we will send it off, but the enemy's offensive is too fierce. There are at least 200,000 people. All of them use fire spells. We are very difficult to block." Han Ying said.

"Hold on, I'll be right there." Lu Yang hung up the phone, looked at the people around Zhuoju and Rustafa and said: "Something happened, I don't know where a group of demons popped up, the number is about 200,000. The warriors of our human race in the town of Tongxing are violently attacking. I'll go and see first. You immediately gather your army and follow."

"Yes." Rustafa, Algaea and others said immediately.

"The animal blood warrior legion transformed and rushed to Tongxing Town." The white lion howled, his body turned into an orc form, and rushed towards Tongxing Town.

Zhuoju, Zhou Tianming and others also quickly put on their mounts and ran towards Tongxing Town. The distance between the two sides was only 50 kilometers, and it took less than an hour to reach them.

Lu Yang's speed was even faster, and it took only ten minutes to fly from the air to the sky above Tongxing Town. Here, he saw the following situation.

Countless red-skinned devils on all fours like dogs were driven by the red humanoid demon over two meters tall to the position in Tongxing Town to initiate a charge.

Fortunately, Lu Yang didn't disclose to Tao Yue the surrender of the Elves to humans before. When Tao Yue and the others set up their positions, they set up defensive positions, which are now being used.

Hundreds of thousands of demons attacked from four directions in Tongxing Town at the same time, but they were all blocked by the attacking circle made by the third-order magic core, but countless evil fire meteorites in the sky kept smashing into Tongxing Town. The defensive array above the position will not be able to support it for long.

The defensive array above the position will not be able to support it for long.

On a low mountain outside Tongxing Town.

Three demons stood on the cliff and looked at the attacking situation in the entire area. One was strong and ugly, the other was slender and slender, and the other was a female demon with an extremely beautiful appearance!

The strongest demon looked at the human front that was about to be broken through, and said with a sneer: "Humans, really are the weakest!"

"I agree. Now that the six races are fighting, we kill the humans and then kill the sixth races. This area belongs to Lord Lively." The slender demon has an extremely beautiful appearance.

The one called Lively is a female demon and the leader of the three. She frowned and looked at the battle below, and said to the slender demon: "Don't be careless, Weiss, the human power hasn't appeared yet."

"What about it, can you beat you Lord Lord?" Weiss said indifferently.

"Lord Lord, I will remove all obstacles for you, the strong human race appears, and I will solve him for you." The strong demon said.

Lively smiled and said, "Hill, you will always be my most loyal subordinate."

"Thank you for your compliment," said the strong demon.

Just when the three demons were chatting with each other, a human trot all the way from the foot of the mountain. This man was very old but exceptionally elegant. Upon closer inspection, he was still a foreigner, and he was not someone else, but Lu Yang's two men. One of the big spies, the big liar Bagley!

"My lord Queen, my lord queen, good news, the human legion is running here, they are about to enter your trap." Bagley raised his hand and said while running with excitement.

The two demons, Hill and Weiss, both showed disgust when they saw Bagley. Even as a demon, they had never seen Bagley so flattering. In front of Bagley, they both showed disgust. The flattery was so low-level and pale, which made the two feel a huge threat.

Lively looked at Bagley with satisfaction, waited for him to come closer, and asked: "Where is the human legion?"

Bagley said: "There are still 20 minutes to reach our preset encirclement outside Tongxing Town. As long as they come in, don't even think about going out."

Hill frowned and asked, "How strong are these humans?"

Bagley shook his head and said, "It's impossible to get close, but some of them are in orc form, and some of them are riding fire lion mounts. They look like they are very strong. I feel that there are a lot of Tier 3 powerhouses inside."

"Bagley, do you want to deceive us for your fellow humans?" Weiss found the opportunity in an instant, accusing Bagley bitterly.

"Why, how could it?" Bagley looked at Lively at the sky, and said: "You rescued me from the evil orcs. I thank you for not having time. I am no longer a human being. I am a member of the Demon Race, Queen, you have to believe me."

Lavli did not speak. Regarding the issue of race, she could not be sure that Bagley's words were true or false. She said: "Even if there are many Tier 3 members, it is not terrible. There are also a large number of Tier 3 powerhouses in my ambush. ."

"That's good, that's good." Bagley looked relieved, but in his heart, Bagley was already anxiously wondering what to do. At this moment, suddenly, his heart There was a sudden jerking nearby, which made Bagley's eyes brighten and a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

The red and black night surrounded by blizzard suddenly turned crimson. The bright red light seemed to swallow the world. Even the thickest black cloud was completely dyed red at this time.

Lu Yang stood in the sky in the form of a human, with flame-transforming phoenix wings behind him. With his right hand facing the ground, he shouted in his mouth and said:

“Forbidden Curse·Meteor Fire Rain”

The piercing sound of the air reverberated through the entire battlefield instantly, which made both parties in the battle unable to hear their own roars. Tao Yue, Han Ying and all the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood commanded in the town of Tongxing looked desperately towards the sky. , When they thought that the enemy had used some big move, they saw this red, and their faces instantly showed hopeful expressions.

“The boss is here~!”

“We are saved~!”

“Boss, come and save us~!”

In the countless cheers, tens of thousands of huge fireballs with a diameter of more than 1 meter fell from the clouds, and the charging demon dogs and demon warriors were hit by the fireballs in the positions around Tongxing Town.

The flames over 4000 degrees instantly burned their bodies to ashes. Some were not hit directly, but were stained by the flames after the fireball fell to the ground and burst. The flames would ignite his body quickly, and they screamed in pain. Rolling all over the ground, but still unable to prevent the flame from extinguishing, because the fireball in the air drops every second,

The attacks of the demons were instantly forced to stop, and they ran out of the town in a panic. The three demons, Lifely, Weiss, and Hill, who were far away on the low mountain, saw this scene, frowning and looking into the air.

“Lord’s breath?” Lovelli said, staring at Lu Yang under the red clouds in the sky.

“Impossible, how could human beings have a Tier 5 lord level powerhouse?” Weiss said furiously.

“Just go and see. Even if he is Tier 5, the three of us can kill him.” Hill said indifferently.

“Let’s go.” The wings moved behind Lavli, leading her quickly into the air. Then the two demons, Hill and Weiss, followed Lavli, and the three flew to a distance of 30 meters in front of Lu Yang. The location just stopped.

Loveli stared at Lu Yang and looked at it carefully. Lu Yang was also looking at their three demons. Weiss stood in front of Loveli and asked furiously: “Are you a human?”

Lu Yang sneered and said, “Nonsense.”

Loveli pushed Weiss away, smiled at Lu Yang and said, “You should be the strongest man in mankind, Lu Yang as Bagley said.”

Lu Yang frowned. He didn’t expect Bagley to be caught by the demons. He frowned and said, “It’s me, where are you from? Why are you attacking us?”

Loveli gently tucked the hair in her ears, and looked at Lu Yang and said, “My name is Loveli, the commander of the steppe demon army. As for why we came here, of course we killed you. ”

Lu Yang sneered and said, “I’m afraid I don’t have this ability.”

“How do you know if you don’t try?” Two black short blades suddenly appeared in Lavli’s hands, and she flapped her wings and went straight to Lu Yang.

Lu Yang was not afraid, but waited for Lavli to reach 5 meters in front of him, with a move with his right hand, the Red Flame Scepter appeared in his hand and slammed straight toward Lavli.

Loveli seemed to have known Lu Yang would have this trick a long time ago, a black magic shield appeared in front of her, and with this force, Loveli flapped her wings to Lu Yang's side, and threw two daggers at the same time.

“Flame Fist”

Lu Yang wrapped the flame in his left hand and punched out. The terrifying flame force flew the two daggers out, and followed the violent force straight to Lively.

Loveli was not afraid either, her hands slammed into Lu Yang's fist with terrifying green energy, and a huge force exploded in front of the two of them, shaking them back at the same time.

The first round, a tie!

Chapter 2354: Confrontation

on the ground.

Bagley watched Lu Yang and Lifeli face each other in the air, and his heart was constantly rolling. In the end, he couldn't help but shouted: “Lu Yang, don't even think about it. There are 17 Tier 5 lords in the Demon Race on the grassland. You are the only human being as the lord, what do you use to fight them?”

There are more than 100,000 demons in the legion brought by Queen Lively, and the number of demon dogs summoned is countless, and there are more than 200 third-tier powerhouses. You humans have absolutely no chance.”

“Noisy”

A blaze burst out of Lu Yang's hand, and went straight to Bagley on the ground and flew past. The fifth-order Pyroblast technique was extremely fast, and a flame ray passed through the air in an instant and came to Bagley.

"The one who moved me?" Lovelli was furious, and black light appeared in her hands. In the next instant, a black skull magic shield appeared in front of Bagley, easily blocking Lu Yang's flame explosion technique, which could be violent. The high temperature still caused Bagley's whole body of clothes to burn.

"Lu Yang, I am here, you can't kill me." Lifeli's face was covered with frost, staring at Lu Yang and said: "Give you a choice, surrender to our demon clan now, in the future you humans will be ours. The demons come to protect, and I promise you will not be killed by the subordinate races of the natural gods."

Lu Yang became amused. He looked at Lively and said, "It doesn't matter whether you can leave alive or not. Do you still want to persuade me? Are you kidding me? I will give you a choice and surrender to me now. Otherwise, I will kill all of you, you only have 5 minutes to think about it, and my subordinates are about to arrive."

"Impossible, you don't need to think about it." Lively's body glowed with black and green, and she stared at Lu Yang and said, "You mean to fight to the death?"

Lu Yang's body also burned with flames, and said, "There are only humans who died in battle, and there are no inferior people who surrendered. Kill you, and our whole clan will join me in fighting your demon army. Our human race never fears death. ."

"Oh, he's a straight man again." Lifeli put away the black and green flames all over her body, put on a shy look, and said to Lu Yang a little bit like: "Your Excellency Lu Yang, you can't negotiate properly, why have to killed and killed."

Lu Yang frowned and stared at Lively, and asked, "What do you mean?"

"It's not okay for us to leave, how about this incident?" Lively continued to act like a baby.

Lu Yang was exasperated again, and said, "Is this your home? You can come and leave if you want. If I hadn't been cautious, the secret weapon of the Legion would have hidden 100,000 dead bodies."

"Then what do you want." Lifeli continued to act like a baby, holding her small mouth and looking at Lu Yang and said: "If you don't want someone to give you a kiss, you just let us go. We promise that we won't hit you in the future. ."

Lu Yang didn't believe what Lavuli said. The most likely thing is that the first thing Lavuli does when she returns to the grassland is to find their son of God to lead an army to retaliate. Now Lavli is just giving Lu Yang a step to stop both parties. Warring.

The actual number of the Jagged Brotherhood is not enough at 100,000, and the formation is also a defensive formation. Let them come out to attack, without the cooperation of the third-order magic crystal formation, they will suffer a lot of casualties.

Furthermore, no one knows how this group of demon army fights. Lu Yang didn't dare to let his brothers go to fight. The human army could not withstand the damage.

There is also the most important issue. The undead, trolls, rock, Hasta, and ogres have just surrendered, and the demon discovers this situation, which is likely to trigger a chain reaction.

Lu Yang didn't dare to try and make mistakes. He stared at Lively and said, "You can go, but the human must stay."

He was referring to Bagley. What Bagley did just now is definitely not harmful to humans. If Bagley rebels, he could take the demon army directly to Shekou, and then go straight to the East China Sea, one Tier 5, two Tier 4 and more than 200 Tier 3 wanted to kill more than 10 million people, but it took two hours. Even if they were all killed, Lu Yang just rushed back alone, his brothers weren't that fast at all. speed.

In fact, Bagley saved the humans in the East China Sea, and by the way, Lu Yang discovered the threat of the demons. Therefore, he wanted to rescue Bagley from the enemy.

Loveli didn't know Lu Yang's thoughts. He thought that Lu Yang was going to kill this human to prevent him from divulging more human information. But now she relied on Bagley the most, and she couldn't let Lu Yang do that.

Loveli smiled and said: "This is not good. She is my most important friend. I can't let him go back and be killed by you. I won't tell you more, let's go."

"If you don't let him go, then don't blame me for leaving this demon." Lu Yang's right hand surged with magic power. In the next second, Wes gradually floated, and the Red Flame Scepter took him to Lu Yang's back.

Lavli was stunned. She didn't dare to act rashly at this time. As long as she dared to save Weis, Lu Yang would definitely kill Bagley, but if she didn't save her, she would also be sorry to her men. For a while, Lavli Somewhat at a loss.

"Roar~! Let go of my brother." Hill had a grumpy temper and rushed straight to Hill, but before getting closer, the Three-Eyed Magic Flower shot out countless wooden thorns in an instant.

How can Hill dare to welcome the magic of the three-eyed magic flower, you must know that the three-eyed magic flower is a creature that can be promoted all the way to the **** level, and only his master, the son of the god, can compare with it, as long as the three-eyed magic flower of the same level is not restrained, Is an invincible existence!

"Dark Shield"

A black shield appeared in front of Hill. Numerous wooden thorns were stuck on the wooden shield. The black magic shield was constantly deformed. Scared Hill quickly increased the magic power transmission, which kept the stability of the shield. But for this delay, Weiss was also caught by Lu Yang's side.

Leverly watched this scene and couldn't help showing her fangs, but the next second, she became gentle again, looked at Lu Yang with a sweet smile, and said: "My subordinates are temporarily storing a section with you. Time, let's go."

Lavli led Hill slowly and flew backwards, Lu Yang stared at Lavli and Hill until the two of them returned to the demon army.

“Woo~~~~!”

“Woo~~~~!”

“Woo~~~~!”

...

The low horn sounded, and the 100,000 demons surrounding Tongxing Town began to retreat slowly. At the same time, the White Lion brought the Beast-blood Warriors and Muddy Wine to the battlefield with the Holy Light Knights.

“Boss, just let the enemy go like this?” Zhuo Jiu asked. Just now, the phone on Lu Yang’s arm had been turned on. Therefore, Zhuo Jiu and White Lion also knew the situation on the battlefield.

Lu Yang sighed and said, “The turbid wine stays behind and commanded the Elves to gather the other five clans. The White Lion took Tao Yue and all the Jagged Brothers warriors to send the group of demons with me and drive them back to the grassland.”

“Yes.” Zhuojiu and the white lion replied in unison.

The Demon Army came from the grassland, and it was more than 390 kilometers from Tongxing Town to Horqin Grassland in the northwest of Feng City. Lu Yang had to drive the enemy out of this distance to temporarily guarantee the Tongpao Brotherhood and the entire East China Sea. Security.

But even on the prairie, if he meets the main force of the demon army, Lu Yang dare not imagine what will happen. Therefore, his heart is now very anxious, and he can only follow the 100,000 demons who are gradually retreating in the air. The army, at the same time, secretly said to Zhuojiu: "Integrate the six clans army as soon as possible. Once the son of the devil chooses to attack us with all his strength, the six clans must have combat effectiveness."

"Yes." The voiced wine said in a solemn voice.

Lu Yang then asked the White Lion to say: "Don't be too close to the demon army, keep a distance of 10 kilometers, and listen to my orders at any time."

"Yes." The White Lion had already returned to Tongxing Town.

"Why are you back? How is the battle on the Sixth Clan? We are defending against the Sixth Clan. How come a demon army has emerged?" Tao Yue asked anxiously. At this time, she and Han Ying were completely It's a state of ignorance.

The White Lion didn't have time to explain, and sighed and said: "Say on the road, let the brothers leave the position, we will stare at the demons and return to the grassland."

"Yes." Tao Yue and Han Ying also knew that the situation was urgent, and quickly gave orders. All the Jagged Brothers fighters, the Harpy Legion and the Demon Legion that surrendered on Riyue Mountain got up and left their positions to gather outside the town. Afterwards, he hung tightly behind the demon legion.

In the middle of the violent storm and snow, the two legions were walking on the wasteland one after the other holding torches. Lu Yang flew in the air, holding the fainted Wes in one hand, while locking in Loveli with the air machine.

Loveli also locked on Lu Yang, but she was very angry. According to the plan, she was here to kill the humans. From Bagley and the defeated orc slaves, she learned that humans are not powerful, so she took the initiative to ask for it. This is the ending now.

Bagley accompany Lavli, watching Lavli's expression carefully, and said aggrieved: "My Lady Queen, please forgive me. Lu Yang must have mastered some special cultivation method, otherwise he It is impossible to improve so fast."

Lively said with cold eyes: "You don't need to say, it has only been four years since our Protoss came to the present. There have been several lord-level powerhouses out of mankind. They must be helped by the old gods, or they just got it. What should belong to them, I must report this to the Son of the Demon God, and ask him to lead an army to destroy mankind and take away the relics of the old god."

Bagley's eyes rolled around, and he whispered in Lively's ear: "My Lady Queen, why can't this thing be yours?"

The reason why Lovely likes Bagley so much is because Bagley is thinking about her everywhere, with a cruel smile on the corner of her mouth, and said: "Do you want to kill me?"

Bagley shook his head repeatedly and said: "After you report, the Son of God may also judge that humans have relics of the Old God, but the things of the Old God are so powerful that the other servants of the Son of God may not have the idea of looting. , There is a high probability that the Son of God will only bring you by yourself, it's better to..."

Leverly looked at Bagley's expression with three points of panic and seven points of excitement, turned her head and said flatly, "I'll talk about it later."

Bagley shut his mouth cleverly. He knew that Loveli had agreed. He sighed in his heart, looked back at the same air, Lu Yang, and secretly said, "I tried my best."

Lu Yang's senses were very powerful. He instantly sensed the look in Bagley's eyes, and he didn't say anything. He asked the Blazing Demon in his consciousness, "How about the memory search for Weiss?"

Blazing Demon God said with emotion: "The memory is thrown into your head, see for yourself, I don't know what to do with this situation, let's see if you can break the situation."

Lu Yang suddenly felt a lot of knowledge coming in from his consciousness. This was West's memory, and he slowly accepted it.

In this memory, the huge grassland was almost occupied by the demons. Most of the original hundreds of thousands of orcs were killed, and the remaining few fled to the mountains and forests near the northern side of the imperial capital and became mountain orcs. .

Now the Demon Legion has a large army of 500,000, of which only her is the commander of 100,000 people like Lavli, and the rest are commanders of 10,000. As for why Lavli has such a qualification, it is because Lavli is The fiancée of the son of the devil.

For his own rights, the son of the devil ordered Lavli and a group of lord-level powerhouses to lead the army to conquer the Quartet. The East China Sea received few attacks. The real crisis was the imperial capital. The son of the devil personally led 300,000 troops. On the way to the imperial capital!

Lu Yang's heart suddenly hung up. The imperial capital must have nothing to do. Now the preserved cities in the country can still operate normally, all of which rely on the imperial capital to be in the middle of the dispatch. If there are any needs in various aspects, several cities near the sea can quickly send supplies to each other. Support, can even buy and sell some basic materials.

If something goes wrong with the emperor capital, all major cities in the country will have major problems, and another, if the emperor capital falls, the East China Sea will really be lonely overseas. The surrounding areas are all enemies, and there is no external supply. Lu Yang believed that the East China Sea could last too long.

"Dididi"

Lu Yang took out his intercom and was about to call Fu Yun, but before he could call, Fu Yun called first. He pressed the call button and said, "I'm looking for you."

"Don't talk, listen to me first." Fu Yun said excitedly.

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "What's the matter?"

There was a constant noise of fighting from the phone on Fu Yun's side. He said, "The imperial capital can't stand it anymore. There are more than 100,000 beasts in the north, more than 300,000 trolls in the west, and four in the south. There are more than one hundred thousand undead army, I must use a big move."

Lu Yang was dumbfounded, and asked, "How come the imperial capital is attacked by so many monsters, are they crazy?"

Fu Yun said, "I don't know the reason. I am calling you to tell you that I have a fragment of the Void God in my hand. Now I will use this fragment to detonate the void and attract the Void Zerg."

Lu Yang knew about the Void Zerg. Xia Yuwei and the others were captured by the Void Zerg before. This race is a weird race, and a single body can produce countless Void Scythe Insects.

The strength of the matrix determines the strength of the void sickle worm. If it is a low-level void sickle worm, it can indeed play a spoiler effect, but if it is a lord-level matrix, then the world will be ruined.

Lu Yang thought for a while, and said, "I support your decision. The Imperial Capital is ruined, and Dong Hai can't hold it. Since he is dying, he will die together."

"Okay, what I want is your words, Lao Tzu fights with them." Fu Yun hung up the phone.

Chapter 2356: Void Zerg

Lu Yang hung up the phone and asked the Blazing Demon in his consciousness, "Where will the Void Zerg fly out, can you be sure?"

Blazing Demon God said: "Fu Yun should have used Void God's body fragments to directly blast a gap in the space-time channel, connecting with the plane of the Void Zerg. This will not only allow all the warped time and space that have previously been transmitted to other world races to be destroyed by the Void Zerg. Using it, it will also allow the Void Zerg to find the world we are in. This is a disaster, but this is also good. At least your world is preserved. The strongest **** in the Void Zerg will attack us with a powerful Zerg army. Only the low-level Zerg will attack the world you are in.”

Lu Yang frowned and asked, “Is it that strong? Can’t even hold the new god?”

Blazing Demon God said: “The strength is not much different. When Void God was exploring the universe before, he found the planet of the Void Zerg. He fought with a Void Zerg. He is slightly stronger, but there are too many Void Zergs. , He left without daring to love war.

When we were attacked, the Void God wanted to recruit the Void Zerg and let the new **** to bury us, but in the end a few of us resisted it. This time it seemed that we had to use this trick. ”

“If we say that every channel that has been teleported will transmit bugs, then our surrounding area is in danger. I have to take my brothers back.” Lu Yang said anxiously.

“What’s the rush?” Blazing Demon God was very calm, and said: “Detonate the fragments of the Void God to the Void Zerg, there are still seven or eight hours, you can rest assured to deploy, now the red moon night is almost over, first The number of enemies will not be too large, and the strength is not strong. After all, the purpose of Void God’s self-destruction is to kill a new **** in another world. Therefore, he will turn the main channel to another world. The channel here is only opened when he detonates. A small opening in the opening of the space-time channel will be very narrow.

The strongest creature sent by the Void Zerg from this channel is probably a Zerg Lord. Without a stable teleportation array, the Void Zerg can only wait for the next red moon night. ”

A smile appeared at the corner of Lu Yang’s mouth, and said, “Then can I use the space-time stabilizer to stabilize the space-time in the grassland area.”

The Blazing Demon said: “Of course you can, you can also leave with a stabilizer before the other party teleports. There are a large number of bugs in the Void Zerg who will detonate their bodies to stabilize the void. You can create a stable area for the grassland. The demon Wuxia fought with you.”

Lu Yang nodded. He already had a countermeasure in his heart. He took out the intercom and explained what Fu Yun and Blazing Demon God had just said. Then he said: "Algae quickly returned to Baishan City to stabilize the transmission channel. Take off the device to prevent the invasion of the Void Zerg.

Tao Yue returned with the main force, the white lion and the blood orc warriors stayed behind, and Yuwei quickly returned to the Shekou area with all the time and space stabilizers, and kept them carefully. "

He had a space-time stabilizer in his hand, which was the space-time stabilizer of the Demon Race that was captured on Riyue Mountain. The space-time stabilizer is in the Demon Space.

"Clone"

Lu Yang hid in the clouds, and after transforming into a clone, he left the clone to be managed by the Three-Eyed Demon Flower. He transformed into the form of an undead bird and flew towards the grassland with the Blazing Demon God.

With a flap of Phoenix's wings, Lu Yang could fly several hundred meters, and he flew all the way to the northwest along Fengshi.

An hour later, Lu Yang flew to an area with lush forests and grasses. Even in winter, the trees and grasslands here were very lush.

According to the map on his arm, it used to be a national nature reserve. He felt that this place was good. It was the junction of the grassland and Liao Province. In the future, the demons would not dare to bypass the Zerg if they wanted to attack humans. Otherwise, they would just It is possible to be flanked back and forth by the Zerg and Terran.

Another, in this area, there are several large-scale warped space-times. He came to the front of one of the largest warped space-times. The radius of this warped space-time is a full 10 meters. He took out an iron box from his backpack. The thing slowly moved towards the space-time stabilizer step by step.

The violent twisted time and space gradually stabilized as he was approached by the iron box. Finally, when Lu Yang walked to the twisted time and space, he put the iron box on it, and in an instant, the twisted time and space was completely stabilized. , Turned into a light red space-time channel.

“Oh~!”

Lu Yang was about to call Fu Yun. Suddenly, there was a horrifying scream in the distorted time and space. This sound made Lu Yang’s back instantly covered with cold sweat.

The Blazing Demon said: “You don’t need to call Fu Yun. he has already started. This sound should be the roar of the insect **** of the Void Zerg. A Zerg has entered the tunnel and came here. .”

Lu Yang smiled bitterly, and said, “I haven’t driven the new gods out of the other world, yet another Void Zerg has emerged, and it’s getting harder and harder to survive.”

The Blazing Demon said: “Sooner or later, you will have to experience it. After all, your world is too easy to be invaded. If we come to you in the heyday, only a lower **** will be able to rule this planet.”

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders. He knew that the Blazing Demon God was right. His current lord-level power could easily destroy a 100,000-strong army, even if there were millions of troops coming to kill him. He may not be able to withstand an attack from his ultimate move. If it is a human killer, he will not be able to hit him at all. With his current reaction speed and perception ability, he can instantly return to the Demon God Space when he foresees danger. Or in Bandarsburg, no big killer can touch him at all.

“Wait, you can help me watch, tell me when the Void Zerg comes, let me have a preparation.” Lu Yang said.

Right now, Lu Yang sat on the ground to rest. At the same time, he released the flaming tiger that the Blazing Demon had become conscious, and said, “Little tiger, go ahead and explore to see if there is any demon coming to meet him. ”

The Flame Tiger nodded and quickly ran into the forest to meet. Four hours later, the Flame Tiger quickly ran back and roared: “There are more than 200,000 demon legions moving towards the official road. It may be Come to meet Lavli.”

The Blazing Demon said at the same time: "Come on, prepare to withdraw."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "I didn't expect the two sides to come together. If that's the case, then I'm not welcome."

Chapter 2357: Mother Worm Coming

He picked up the space-time stabilizer and slowly retreated a distance of 50 meters. The originally stable twisted space-time gradually became violent, continuously collapsing and expanding. When he retreated 50 meters away, the twisted space-time was completely out of control.

"Wow~!"

Suddenly a scream of screams came out from the passage, and a large number of Void Zergs were killed by the uncontrolled turbulence, exhausting the last bit of strength to make angry screams.

Lu Yang could feel the resentment and anger of the killed Zerg, covering his ears and said, "How many Zergs have to be killed to make such a violent scream."

Blazing Demon God said: "There may be tens of thousands, or hundreds of thousands. If you want to maintain this passage, you must exchange it with the life of a lord-level or spiritual-level powerhouse. Otherwise, all the Zergs will have to. To die in battle, I believe that the coming Voidworm Lord will make a wise choice."

Lu Yang and Blazing Demon God laughed at the same time. As expected, the violent warped time and space gradually calmed down, as if a time-space stabilizer had been installed, but this time the warped time and space was no longer quiet, but roars continued.

"Shadow Bone Spear"

When Lu Yang listened to the sound, he took out a Demon scroll from the Demon God Space. After crushing the seal, the scroll was unfolded, and a three-meter-long bone spear hidden inside flew straight away. Into the void passage.

He handed the scroll to the flame tiger beside him, and said: "Go to the demon legion, disband the body when you get there, and return the soul to the Demon Temple."

"Yes." The Flame Tiger turned around with the scroll in his mouth and ran.

Lu Yang retreated to a large stone 500 meters away, hiding his breath, and waiting quietly. He believed that the Void Zerg inside would never let go. You just used the space-time channel to kill them tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands. The enemy of the Zerg, and the only clue of the Void Zerg is the bone spear scroll held in the mouth of the Flame Tiger.

The Flame Tiger is a part of the Blazing Demon God, and has the ability to return to the Demon God Temple on its own. Now it depends on whether the bone spear can be fooled by the enemy.

The other side.

In the twisted time and space, the bone spear was flying rapidly. In this place where there was not much resistance, the bone spear could fly more than a thousand meters away, but the bone spear only flew out 50 meters.

With a sound of "dang", a black-red blade light appeared, and the bone spear was cut from the middle by a sharp blade. In an instant, a creature that was three meters tall and resembling a human shape but with black bone knives in both hands appeared in the void channel.

"The speed is so fast?" Lu Yang hid his head behind the stone, staring at the bug without daring to let out a murderous look, and asked in surprise, "What is this?"

The Blazing Demon said: "The Void God brought back a map back then, with a detailed introduction to the Zerg species. The humanoid bug in front of me should be a Tier 4 Void Scythe Worm."

Lu Yang was a little speechless, and said, "The first one is Tier 4, how many Tier 4 do you have?"

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said, "You don't really need to worry about this. According to the research of the Void God back then, every insect in the Void Zerg has defects. They will reach Tier 4 in one aspect, but are far behind in other aspects. You can find it slowly when you reach the fourth level."

Lu Yang asked, "Is there no detailed data on various bugs?"

Blazing Demon God said: "Void God is a god-king level existence. Will he carefully study the strength of a Tier 4 spirit-level bug?"

"That's right." Lu Yang was a little helpless, no one could ask a **** king to study something that was a dozen or so ranks lower than him, and was not counted as a quasi god.

"Roar~!"

There was another roar in the distorted time and space. Suddenly, countless creatures exactly the same as the Void Scytheworm came out of the entire cave, at least tens of thousands of them.

Behind the sickle worm came out a smaller body. Four-legged creatures resembling a demon dog came out. There were even more monsters in this group, hundreds of thousands.

The Blazing Demon said: "This is the Void Worm, born second-order, and is the most basic part of the Void Zerg."

"The most basic is Tier 2." Lu Yang cried and laughed a little.

The Blazing Demon said: "You don't need to be pessimistic. The Void Worm can't advance to the ranks, nor can the Scythe Worm. To be honest, I think you humans are the most suitable race for cultivation."

Among the Jagged Brothers, the most representative is the love for half a lifetime. An ordinary human being without the ancient Holy Spirit, the blood of the devil, and the heart of the devil, can cultivate to the fourth-level elementary in just three years.

Although Lu Yang's supply of infinite mana crystals and purple spirit fruits is available, such an increase in speed still makes Blazing Demon God feel the horror of human beings.

Lu Yang said: "According to your good words, I hope this group of zergs can help me and Fu Yun to withstand the attacks of otherworldly gods for a period of time, and also give us time to practice."

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said: "You will know how strong the Lord of the Zerg Race is. Take a look, he has come out."

"Roar~!"

A roar resounding through the grassland suddenly appeared from the twisted time and space, and Lu Yang watched as a huge red-brown meat ball was constantly squeezing out along the edge of the twisted time and space.

After a few minutes of hard work, the meat ball still hasn't come out completely. The body that has come out is already more than 30 meters in length.

"Roar~!"

Meatball roared again, and the entire twisted time-space was stretched by him. Although it was only for a moment, all the back of Meatball flew out. When Meatball stood up, Lu Yang could see clearly. His full picture.

This is a huge piece of flesh that is more than 50 meters tall and nearly 100 meters wide.

Around the body of this flesh and blood, there are countless yellow-green eyes, each of which is the size of an adult's head, with a big mouth growing in his body.

The Blazing Demon said: "This thing should be called the Lord of the Void Mother Worm, be careful, all the Void Scythe Worms and Void Worms are made by him, and his strength should be the pinnacle of the Lord Level."

Lu Yang didn't dare to look at the Lord of the Void Mother Worm. It was not that he was afraid of death, but that he was worried that his eyes would show murderous aura. Each of the Void Mother Worm's eyes was the size of a human head. Who knew the distance to look at? How far, can he perceive things like murderous intent, if there is, his plan to let the flame tiger take the scroll to pit the demon army will go bankrupt.

"Roar~!"

The Nether Worm let out a roar, and Lu Yang pressed his killing intent and turned his head and found that the first Void Scythe Worm that came out just now was running towards the front. Hundreds of thousands of Void Worms surrounded the Nether Worm and followed closely behind. With the Void Scythe Worm.

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth. He knew that his plan was successful. These hundreds of thousands of Void Zerg must have been chasing the scroll to find the enemy who temporarily destroyed the twisted time and space. He said, "We can go back, too."

He slowly retreated towards the back, circled to the back mountain in this area, jumped into the air, turned into a phoenix, flapped its wings, and flew quickly towards his army.

Chapter 2358: Melee era

While Lu Yang was digging a hole for the hundreds of thousands of demon army, on the other side, the Devil Queen Lifeli was also digging a hole for Lu Yang.

With Bagley's help, Lavli found many maps in the destroyed city on the grassland, and many mobile phones also had map functions. Therefore, Lavli, the Son of God and other demon leaders knew very well that they were now retreating. Where.

Loveli even learned to use the intercom and cell phone. Of course, he couldn't use it in this kind of battle. In order to prevent Lu Yang from discovering it, he still used the devil bird to transmit messages.

"Your Excellency, Son of God, we will arrive in Area 8 in two hours." Lively released the demon bird.

The so-called area No. 8 is a village at the junction of Fengshi and Horqinhouqi. The demon bird flew extremely fast and reached the army of the sons of God, which was on the way at full speed in just 10 minutes.

A 3 meters tall and extremely ugly red-brown-skinned demon waved his hand. He was the son of God and his name was Da Gamat.

"Bring the map," Da Gammat said.

The six little demons who were just over 1 meter in height immediately ran over with an animal skin map. After opening it, Da Gamat quickly locked the No. 8 area, which was where he was now.

"Everyone stopped, set up an encirclement, and prepared to ambush the human legion. All lords come to me." Da Gammat said loudly.

Seven demons with a height of more than 3 meters and holding a weird black warhammer walked out of the nearby legion and stood beside Dagamat with a respectful look.

If these seven lords and Dagamat really succeed in ambushing, humanity will be completely finished. Any one of the lords will entangle Lu Yang, and the rest will be able to fly to the Shekou and Donghai dungeon areas, which will cost more than ten million Humans are easily killed!

"Son of God, what's the matter?" The seven demon lords neatly bent over and saluted.

Dagamat pointed to three of them and said: "You guys will go to the human area and kill all the humans, and the rest will be laid out by me."

"Yes." The seven demon lords said in unison.

As soon as the voice fell, a flaming tiger suddenly rushed from a distance. When it rushed to Gammat, its body burst into starlight, and disappeared without a trace in the blizzard weather.

"What's the matter?" Dagamat asked with a frown.

One of the lord picked up the magic scroll with only one corner and said, "It looks like a magic scroll?"

Dagamat took it and rubbed it between his fingers. The scroll was turned into powder. He frowned and couldn't analyze what the flame tiger was. He looked around carefully, but the surrounding forest was quiet, with only blizzards. sound.

"Roar~!"

Just when Dagamat wanted to let all the legions continue to perform the mission, suddenly, in the sound of howling wind, Dagamat heard a faint roar.

From the inheritance of the Demon God, Dagamat quickly found the ancient memories left by his ancestors. He widened his eyes and roared: "All the legions are facing the southwest and put on a defensive formation. Quickly, put on a defensive formation~!"

"Why?" a demon lord asked blankly.

"The Void Zerg, it is the Void Zerg~!" Da Gamat's voice was full of rage. Other natural gods may not know the Void Zerg, but the Demon Clan knows it very well, they have seen it!

The more than 200,000 demon army turned its formation to the northwest side blankly, and just stood firm. In the distant forest, the roar of the Void Scythe Worm can be heard clearly, and the nearest Void Scythe Worm can already be seen with the naked eye. arrive.

“Roar~!”

...

The demons standing in the front row roared one after another, rushing towards the Void Scythe Worm, and the two sides immediately fought together.

Dagamat didn't participate in the battle. He just released a few demon birds and waited quietly in place. These demon birds not only flew in the direction of Lifeli, but also in the direction of the grassland.

He asked Lovely and the demon lords who were fighting outside to quickly withdraw their legions from the battle. Since the Void Zerg army is coming, there must be the Void Zerg's lord and his army of spirit-level powerhouses, only relying on them. Ten thousand people, if they can win, there will be a lot of casualties. He doesn't want his own loss to be too heavy, and must increase firepower to eliminate the Zerg with minimal losses.

The other side.

The demon army that had arrived in the area 100 kilometers northwest of Feng City was still walking unhurriedly. Lively looked at Lu Yang in the sky with sarcasm in her eyes.

Lu Yang had just taken over the clone and was carrying the demon Weiss in one hand while flying in the air. He saw Lavli's eyes looking back and said loudly, “Your lord Lavli, let's leave with your demon army as soon as possible. , , don't think about delaying time, waiting for your son of God to lead the army to ambush us.”

Lifeli's eyes widened fiercely, fluttered into the air and came to Lu Yang, frowning and said, “What do you mean?”

Lu Yang smiled at Lifeli and said, "Your Demon Legion is being besieged by a large number of Void Zergs. Go back and support it. If it's late, I'm afraid your Demon Legion will not be much left."

"Void Zerg? How is this possible?" Lavli did not believe it, pretending to say: "I have never found Her Royal Highness the Son of God, his legion is deep in the grassland, far away from here."

Lu Yang smiled and shook his head, and said, "Don't lie to me. I have sent someone to investigate. Another thing to tell you is that the Six Nations of the Natural Gods gathered more than one million troops to besiege the imperial capital, and Fu Yun was forced to explode into the void. The body fragments of the gods have opened up the space between the Void Zerg and the humans, and the other worlds. Now the Zerg Legion is coming to the human world through a stable and twisted time-space tunnel. The army led by the Son of God is fighting, and you are too late to go back. Maybe your Son of God is about to die."

"It's impossible!" Loveli showed off two black daggers furiously, baring her fangs at Lu Yang.

"Don't look at this expression, it's not good." Lu Yang smiled at Lifeli and said, "I will retreat with the army now. Goodbye."

Lu Yang would definitely not get involved in this war. He didn't want to bring the Void Zerg to his side. There were hundreds of thousands of Tier 2 and above insects, and he felt cold all over when he thought about it.

Leverly looked at Lu Yang slowly flying away, she had become at a loss, but before she could think for a long time, a demon bird flew to her shoulder, and after a few words whispered in her ear, Leverly went wide-eyed. The eyes roared: "The whole army accelerates forward."

Lu Yang stood in the air, seeing that there were only 20 demons left in the Demon Legion, and the remaining 100,000 demons quickly ran towards the grassland, at a speed more than ten times the original.

Zhou Tianming turned into a demon and flew to Lu Yang's side, and asked, "Just let them go like this?"

Lu Yang sighed and said, "I'm also a little reluctant, but these 100,000 demons can't be eliminated in a short time. If we work hard, we won't be worth the loss."

Half a life of bitter love stepped on a sword and flew to Lu Yang's side, and said, "Boss, what should I do now?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Let's go and see the war between the demon and the void zerg, and by the way, catch a few insects and demons and throw them back in the Colosseum to study them."

Several people nodded one after another, but at this time the white lion's voice came on the phone, saying: "You guys come down and talk, and there is me."

Lu Yang laughed. Now the only thing that can't fly in the Jagged Brotherhood is the white lion and the blood warriors of the beasts and gods. He led the crowd to fly back to the ground, looking at the depressed white lion and said, "Let the brothers stay where they are. Land, a few of us past."

"Okay." White Lion nodded and said.

At the moment, Tao Yue and Han Ying led the Human Legion to garrison in the Fengshi area, and by the way, they searched for supplies around the city again to see if there was anything that could be used.

Lu Yang quickly rushed to the battlefield area with the white lion and half a life of bitter love. They hid on a high mountain. When they looked down, everyone's face was shocked.

The lord of the Void Zerg, the Roshan-like creature, has already fought with the son of the Demon God of the Demon Tribe. Although the Void Zerg has only one lord, he has thousands of fourth-order spirit-level powerhouses. In contrast, the son of the Demon God Dagama On the special side, although there are multiple lords, the number of spirit-level powerhouses is far less than that of the other side.

The Void Zerg was completely defeated by the Demon Race. Even if Lively brought a 100,000 army to support, it was only a tie between the two sides until the other Demon Lords on the grassland arrived, and the battlefield turned to favor the Demon Race. The direction of development.

The two sides killed for two consecutive days. Finally, the black long knife in Dagamat's hand and the black blade light cut off all the legs of the Lord of the Void Zerg. The Zerg retreated.

"Roar~! I'm going to kill you." Dagamat was already extremely angry, because at this time he had cultivated an army of 400,000 demon races for many years, but fewer than 200,000 were killed, and the lord also fought. Eleven died, but six are left.

Loveli quickly stopped Dagamat and said: "There are humans, be careful, humans still have a hundred thousand army."

Dagamat quickly calmed down, staring at the Zerg army retreating to the depths of the jungle, and shouted, "Retreat."

He didn't dare to stay here anymore. If the army of the human race suddenly appeared, he would be trapped here by Lu Yang, but unfortunately, he thought too much, and Lu Yang had no plans to kill him.

Lu Yang didn't want to go to war with the demons at this time. The form on the grassland had changed into a new look. According to the news from Fu Yun, the encirclement of the imperial capital had been lifted in the past two days.

Millions of Zerg killed the more than one million natural gods that besieged the imperial capital. The orcs of the steppe were forced to return to the steppe. Therefore, the situation on the steppe has become the three tribes of the demon, the zerg and the orcs. Powerful situation.

Lu Yang is now fighting against the demons, and eventually it will be cheaper for the orcs and the zerg. It's better to stabilize. He first thinks of a way to clean up all these bugs.

“Bring the prisoners back, let’s study it carefully,” Lu Yang said.

Each of the White Lion and the bitter love half a lifetime caught more than a dozen prisoners in their hands, and they were mounted on the supporting vehicle.

Lu Yang left a few sentries and withdrew the main force back to the Shekou defensive position. He threw the things in his hand to Zhuojiu, Baishi and others, and said, “I went to find a place to practice, and the specific things Leave it to you, don’t find me for trivial matters.”

In the red moon night in the future, there will no longer be a large number of natural gods. The various races in the different world are being invaded by the Void Worm God, and there will be a long recovery period.

Lu Yang wanted to take this opportunity to consolidate his strength at the lord level. As for the reception of the elves and the other five races, it is enough to have dirty wine and be in charge. The arena is to study the Void Zerg and the demons of Lifely. , The white lion will be in charge, the Shekou defensive position and the three cities in the East China Sea have bitter love for half a lifetime and Zhou Tianming are in charge.

As for where Lu Yang was going, he aimed at the space storm belt on the east side of Rock City. In that place, Lu Yang felt a strange energy. At that time, he was anxious to clean up the six races, and he had no time to see what was there. Things, he can go and see now.

“Transformation”

Lu Yang jumped into the air, transformed into a phoenix form, and quickly flew to the center of the space storm belt. has a very dense storm zone in the air in this area.

If it weren’t for Blazing Demon God’s strong perception ability, Lu Yang would not dare to go here, because the space fissures here seemed to breathe, and they didn’t necessarily open or disappear when they opened and closed, and the time of opening and closing was completely irregular.

“Clone”

Lu Yang's consciousness controlled the clone tentatively to fly in. After evading 20 spatial fissures in a row, the clone was cut into two by the 21st spatial fissure.

"Clone"

Lu Yang continues to summon the clone...

After half a month, when he summoned the seventh thousand clone, finally, Lu Yang found the completed path through this space-time passage and came to the biggest space rift.

The Blazing Demon looked at this space rift, frowned and said, "There is a familiar breath."

Lu Yang smiled and asked, "I won't be so lucky. I found the heart of the Void God."

The Blazing Demon snorted and said: "If you want to be beautiful, this should be a secret treasure space. Use the main body to go in and take a look. I feel that there are treasures in it, and it is easy for your main body to not get in when the clone enters."

The Secret Treasure Space is the most commonly used space for the Protoss in other worlds to store their own treasures. Once set, outsiders cannot enter at all, unless he opens the space before dying, or the treasure that controls this space breaks automatically. Opened up the space.

But no matter what it is, once someone enters, the magic circle will activate the self-protection function and forcibly close the space, causing others to no longer be able to enter.

Lu Yang and Blazing Demon God were afraid that it was such a secret treasure space, so he disbanded the clone, recalling the method of passing through the gaps in various spaces, quickly came to the door of the secret treasure space, and jumped into it.

Chapter 2360: Void Shield

After a violent ray of light, Lu Yang was surprised to find that he had appeared in the space of a divine artifact. There were valleys and flowers everywhere, and the sounds of birds and mountain springs flowing in it.

“Flower God Valley, this is Flower God Valley~!” Blazing Demon God roared excitedly.

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and said with a smile: “I was just about to ask if you know this place, what is the Flower God Valley? It was built by the Flower God?”

The Blazing Demon God turned into flames and appeared beside Lu Yang. He said excitedly: “I said the Void Defense Array outside is so familiar. It stands to reason that this thing should belong to the Void God, but what the Void God said in Fu Yun’s place. , There can be no Void God here, but there is such a magic circle here, plus the valley in front of me, I can be sure that this is the Valley of the Flower God.”

It was the first time Lu Yang saw Blazing Demon God so gaffe. He couldn’t even answer the question. He asked, “Is there anything special?”

“It’s quite special.” Blazing Demon said with emotion, “Flower God Valley is a paradise created by Flower God Della. At first, Void God and Della fell in love. In order to protect this paradise, Void God gave Della a gift. A Void Shield is a divine tool. If Della dies, the Void Shield will become a masterless thing. If you get it, it will be of great help to you now.”

“Uh, do you have an enmity with the Flower God?” Lu Yang asked curiously.

The Blazing Demon God rolled his eyes and cursed: “I am the God of Flame, do you think the Plants have any hatred with me, and if there is no hatred, I have no affection for me, okay, I will burn them specifically.”

“That’s right.” Lu Yang was embarrassed. He thought the Blazing Demon God was resentful because he didn’t chase the Flower God back then, so that the resentment was too deep.

“Lu Yang, your uncle.” Blazing Demon God was furious, pointing to Lu Yang and cursing: “I am the same body as you, I know everything you think.”

“Okay, okay, I was wrong.” Lu Yang hurriedly begged for mercy. He was so happy because the war ended suddenly, so he didn’t need to die. He made fun of the Blazing Demon God for a while and said, “Scan, see. To see where the approximate location is, I will first search for treasures below and see if I can add some more treasures to the Demon Temple.”

There is a spiritual spring in the Demon God Temple. Every day, springs full of spiritual power are constantly emerging to nourish the land in the Demon God Temple. Now many broken places in the Demon God Temple are gradually recovering under the nourishment of the spiritual spring, but the speed is still too high. slow.

Lu Yang could feel that there was a spring of spirit below, and he fell straight into a dense forest halfway up the mountain. Next to a cave, he saw what he wanted.

A lake with a diameter of at least 30 meters, the water of the lake is completely formed by abundant spiritual energy, and the springs at the bottom of the lake are still gushing, so that the lake water flows down the mountain and forms a small stream.

Lu Yang said, “How about I dig out the spring?”

The Blazing Demon snorted and said, “Silly boy, look at the trees around Lingquan. You have made a lot of money again.”

Lu Yang looked around. There were colorful trees growing around Lingquan. He curiously asked, “I just wanted to ask you what kind of tree is this. I didn’t feel threatened, but what about so many colors?”

The Blazing Demon God sneered, and said: “This flower **** is not a good thing. He actually raised such a tree in secret. If I knew about this when I was the Blazing Demon God, I would have to kill the Flower God and the Void God. No.”

“What’s wrong?” Lu Yang asked curiously.

The Blazing Demon said: “This kind of tree is called the Nine Dragon Blood Tree. In a rebellion that happened that year, part of the dragons of the dragon race joined the rebel camp. After being suppressed by us, these dragons should be put to death, so , I left it to the Demon God to deal with this matter, but I did not expect that the Demon God killed these dragons, but watered a kind of tree with the blood of these dragons, and this kind of tree was transformed from a rebellious tree **** Yes, he can absorb the blood of various dragons to strengthen his body.”

“You know, a single dragon blood is not very useful, it is to make ordinary people immune to single-line spells below the first order, but the nine-line dragon blood added together, after being absorbed by this tree **** body, it has a chemical reaction, and it changes. It has become a kind of treasure that can increase the life span, which directly led to the slaughter of the dragon race and the race of the tree god.”

Lu Yang asked curiously, “Does the gods of your world also have a limited lifespan?”

“God of course has a lifespan. Only when we cultivate to the level of a **** king like us, will he have an unlimited lifespan, but that is combined with the origin of the planet, not our own lifespan.” The Blazing Demon God muttered and said: “ I am the King of Gods, it is impossible for a branch of the Dragon Race and the Tree God to be exterminated in this way. Therefore, I destroyed all the Nine Dragon Blood Trees. I did not expect that there were hundreds of them in the Flower God Valley, the Void God and the Flower God. Is too courageous.”

Lu Yang walked to a Nine Dragon Blood Tree and took a closer look, and asked with a droopy eyebrow, “How to eat it?”

The Blazing Demon God said: “Pick off a small piece of bark and eat it directly. It is said that one piece can increase the life of the gods by a hundred years. Ordinary people like you below the gods should be able to increase even more.”

Lu Yang said, “Then I will move them all back.”

This baby Lu Yang will never let go. With these trees, his parents, lovers, and the parents and lovers of Jagged Brothers fighters such as Zhuojiu and White Lion will all be able to live a long life.

Blazing Demon said: “Don’t worry, there should be a Void Shield hidden in the front hole, go in and take a look.”

Lu Yang asked, "Are there any living things in it?"

"I'll check whether it is, you will know if you go in with a clone." Blazing Demon God said.

"That's right." Lu Yang changed into a clone and flew straight into the cave entrance. Although he was very excited now, he should not be less cautious.

The cave is not big and very simple. There is a bracket in the middle of the open space. On it hangs something about the size of a handbag and shaped like mercury This is the Void Shield. Back then, the Flower God Turn it into a handbag, you can turn it into a wristband and buckle it on your arm, enough to protect your safety. "The Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang asked, "Is there no **** of flowers?"

The Blazing Demon God sighed and said: "No, it seems that the Flower God is completely dead."

Lu Yang nodded and controlled the clone to fly back to the main body with the shield. He disbanded the clone and took the small shield in his hand and asked, "How should I use it?"

The Blazing Demon said: "Use mental power to manipulate, or I use spiritual power to manipulate. In the future, your spiritual power will be consumed very quickly in battle. When fighting the enemy to the last move, I can use my spiritual power to control The shield blocks the damage for you, you come to kill."

Lu Yang's eyes lit up and said, "This is a good idea."

After being promoted to the **** level, spiritual power becomes spiritual consciousness. The so-called one thought can kill people, is to kill with spiritual power. From now on on the battlefield, if the Blazing Demon God cooperates with him at the last moment, he can die a lot. Lord-level powerhouse of the same level.

As the Blazing Demon God's thoughts flowed, the handbag in Lu Yang's hand suddenly became a large rectangular shield with a length of 2 meters and a width of 1 meter. The surface of the shield was constantly flowing like mercury, which was extremely beautiful.

The Blazing Demon said: "Do you know? This shield has another function besides defense."

"What's the role?" Lu Yang asked curiously.

Blazing Demon said: "Break the void, or create a void passage."

Lu Yang's heart moved, he looked at Blazing Demon God in surprise, and said, "Tell me in detail, how do I feel that there is something to do in it!"

The Blazing Demon chuckled and said, "Of course, listen to me slowly."
