

Wild Fire 2361

Chapter 2361: Devil's Eye

Void, for ordinary people, is something invisible and intangible, but for gods, Void, like soil and sea water, is a tangible substance.

These voids are connected to other planes. Therefore, as long as the specific void coordinates of a plane are known, the gods can use the way of digging to connect with this plane, and among the things used to dig void channels, the best item is Void meteorite.

The Blazing Demon said: "It just so happens that this Void Shield is made of Void Meteorite. When used as a shield, the face of the Void Shield can transfer all damage to the void. Similarly, this Void Shield is also It can be used as a shovel to dig out the void."

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "You mean let me dig the void to other planes?"

"Stupid?" The Blazing Demon shook his head, and said triumphantly: "I asked you to dig a void tunnel to connect with your Bandarsberg, and use the special terrain in Bandarsberg Castle to let the Zerg and The demons can't get out and can't go back."

Lu Yang realized it instantly. After he reached the lord level and absorbed the soul of the ancient * Phoenix, he completely controlled the castle and could deform the inside of the castle at will.

In fact, this castle can be transformed into many forms. One of the most classic is the maze. If Lu Yang is willing, this castle can be turned into three large-scale mazes, the upper, the middle and the lower.

The walls of Bandarsburg are made of special materials. Only spells of the main * level can cause damage to the castle. That is to say, at this stage, any creatures that come through the distorted time and space do not have it. The ability to break through the walls of Bandarsburg, in this way, this castle can become a place for Lu Yang to spawn monsters.

“Good idea, after some high-level demons come out, I can kill them to obtain weapons and equipment, which can quickly increase the strength of my brothers.” Lu Yang said.

Blazing Demon God said: “Now your brothers are not in a hurry to increase their strength. The main problem is your own strength. If you can quickly upgrade to Tier 6, their lives will be more secure.”

Lu Yang frowned and said, “I can feel that it is easy to increase my strength now. As long as I keep absorbing the original fire spirit, I can quickly increase my rank, but this energy demand is too huge, there is no such place.”

Promoting to the Flame Lord is considered to have brought Lu Yang to another level. The two levels of the Flame Demon and Flame Lord behind both make the magic core in his mind and the flame filaments formed in his body stronger, not to say that he becomes another one. A form, so as long as the energy is enough, you can quickly improve your strength.

The Blazing Demon said: “This is another reason for my excitement. Remember what I told you before, did we ancient gods keep for ourselves the treasures of every rank and upgrade? Describe the magic array according to my requirements. , Block in front of you with a void shield, I will take you to another space.”

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and he listened carefully to what the Blazing Demon God said. This magic circle is not complicated. It only took half an hour to complete it. But when Lu Yang poured magic into it, Lu Yang instantly ‘S body entered an extremely chaotic time and space turbulence.

If the turbulence flying in from the front wasn’t blocked by a Void Shield, Lu Yang’s body might have been sifted into a sieve in an instant. However, there was no original energy in this turbulence of time and space, and it was a pure chaotic time and space.

Looking through the void flowing on the shield, Lu Yang found a palace standing in mid-air not far from the void. Lu Yang asked curiously, “Is it that palace?”

The Blazing Demon God nodded and said: "Yes, that's the palace. You can't hide from this turbulent time and space. Only a strong person like me who fell from the realm of the king to the realm of the lord can pass through. You guys are lucky. You can also get in with this shield."

Lu Yang snorted in understanding. He could think of the Blazing Demon God's thoughts back then. As the God King, the Blazing Demon God, I'm afraid he would never think of the day when he was dead, he would never think that he would need to be parasitic in Lu Yang's body, relying on landing. Yang can survive.

The palace in the void was not far from Lu Yang, a distance of less than a hundred meters came in an instant. When he arrived at this place, the temporal and spatial turbulence in front of him disappeared, and all the turbulence was blocked by the palace.

"The material of this stuff is good, I'll take it away," Lu Yang said.

The Blazing Demon God said angrily: "You can take it away, but you have to be careful. This thing is called Void Rock. It is formed when the turbulence of time and space collides to a certain extent. Don't look at his stability now, that's when I was there. The realm of the * king fixed it with supreme mana. If you don't use it well, if a god-level powerhouse takes action, it will instantly be shattered to a state of turbulence in time and space. Flies out in the ash of the void."

Lu Yang nodded, and said, "If I meet God's words, it's not bad to throw this out and kill him."

The Blazing Demon smiled and said, "It's a good choice. Let's open this door first."

A fire light flew out of Lu Yang and landed on the rock gate of the Void Hall. There was a groove there. The fire light flew into the groove, and the door opened in an instant, revealing a huge space inside.

Lu Yang walked in curiously, When was just seen from the outside, the Void Hall was only 50 meters in diameter, but when you entered it, the Void Hall turned out to be a huge room of tens of thousands of square meters, with a height of more than 200 meters.

"Why is it so big?" Lu Yang said in surprise.

The Blazing Demon said: "Void materials are made of it. Naturally, there is something magical about it. Take a look at the supplies I left for you in the box in front. Open the first box first. I can't wait."

Lu Yang was a little curious to let the Blazing Demon God speak like this. He came to the middle of the palace. There were more than one hundred boxes. One of them was a very small box with a gold shell. He opened it. At a glance, a strong flame flew out of the box in an instant.

At the same time, an eye that was as hot as the surface of the sun flew out of the box. Lu Yang felt the huge energy contained in the eye and couldn't help asking, "What is this?"

The Blazing Demon God gritted his teeth excitedly and said: "The Eye of the Demon God! This is a treasure of our world in ancient times. It is an eye formed by nature.

Normally it is used by god-level powerhouses. When I was a lord-level powerhouse, I was found in a dungeon in our world. It was precisely relying on this eye that I killed countless people who were stronger than me. The enemy of Bei, later, after I was promoted to the * level, this eye gradually lost its function.

I thought I wouldn't need him in my life, so I sealed him as a backhand in the Void Hall, but I didn't expect to use it this time. "

Lu Yang asked, "How to use it?"

The Blazing Demon said: "Listen to my spell and become a lord."

Lu Yang mobilized the magic power in his body, and in the next second, he became a flame giant with a height of 100 meters!

Chapter 2362: Super killer

The Eye of the Demon God seemed to sense the call and flew up from Lu Yang's hand. The Blazing Demon God followed to chant a spell. It was a language only understood by the ancient Divine Residence, and every note shook the Eye of the Demon God like a Sanskrit sound.

Suddenly countless flames flew out of the eyes of the demon god, who had already reacted fiercely. They penetrated into Lu Yang's body and connected with the flames in Lu Yang's body.

Lu Yang only felt that the magic power in his body was instantly drawn out. Just when Lu Yang knelt on the ground and was about to lose his ability to transform, the Demon God's Eye slowly approached Lu Yang's forehead, and finally, it was embedded in it.

"Ah~!"

Lu Yang couldn't help but let out a heart-piercing roar. It was not painful, but felt the amount of violent violence in the eyes of the devil. The killing intent contained in this power made Lu Yang feel crazy instinctively.

After this feeling lasted for a while, Lu Yang stopped. At this time, he had recovered his human form and was curled up on the ground.

"How about it, it's better." Blazing Demon God asked.

Lu Yang turned over and lay flat on the ground, and said with a smile: "After this eye came to my body, I saw your past, you deserve to be a demon god, how many races have you destroyed?"

The Blazing Demon sighed with emotion and said: "It's innumerable. There are not hundreds of thousands, but there are tens of thousands. The wars of the past were not as simple as the wars of today. The biological warfare, as well as the creatures of alien planets. There are seven planets destroyed by my own hands. How many races do you say I have killed? The eyes of the demon * has not been following me for long, nor can I see anything. That's too much, don't mind, you will feel more intense when you get more of my body in the future."

Lu Yang laughed, sat up and touched his forehead, but found that he had no eyes, and asked, "How can this thing come out? What's the use?"

The Blazing Demon God chuckled and said: "As long as you gather your mental power on the eyes of the Demon God, he will naturally open. This baby has many functions. One of them is that you can see hidden things, and you will be invisible in the future. The creature is close to you, and you can see his location with this eye."

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and asked, "Can you see any hidden creatures?"

The Blazing Demon said: "Of course, whether it is a shadow sneaking, a ghost shifting, a walk in the void or an underground shuttle, you can see his phantom through the eyes of the demon."

"This is indeed a treasure." Lu Yang had always worried about being assassinated by the enemy using other stealth methods. Now he is not afraid of this.

Blazing Demon God said with a smile: "More than this function, the second function of the Demon God's Eye is to gather the magic power of your whole body, allowing you to use higher-level spells.

If it is someone else, it can only be a tasteless product. After all, it consumes the whole body's mana to make an attack more and more. Not to mention hurting the enemy, the damage to itself is big enough.

It is different for you. You have the sun in Bandarsberg. As long as you connect with Bandarsberg with the Eye of the Demon God and fully absorb the magic power in the white sun, you can launch an attack even higher."

Lu Yang was a little dazed. The energy contained in the white sun in Bandarsburg was extremely terrifying, at least the energy of the main god, but he couldn't mobilize it before. Unexpectedly, the eyes of the demon * could do it, so he asked quickly: "What should I do? ?"

The Blazing Demon said: "Concentrate your mental power, connect the Eye of the Demon God to Bandarsburg, and activate the absorption of the eye of the Demon God."

Lu Yang quickly did so. In an instant, the Eye of the Demon God opened from Lu Yang's forehead, and at the same time, a huge eye of flame appeared above Bandarsburg.

“absorb”

The eye of flame emits a crimson light, and the surrounding hot energy seems to have found a catharsis, all concentrated in the eye of flame, and this violent absorption of energy makes the white sun in the sky react quickly, a bucket of thick white The energy beam poured into the eye of flame.

Lu Yang only felt that the energy of the fire element in the eyes of the Demon God on his forehead was instantly full, and the color of his eyes turned purple-red, and the violent power made him want to release it.

“What should I do?” Lu Yang asked.

The Blazing Demon God said excitedly: “Aim at a place and spray the flames. This Void Hall can withstand such powerful flames.”

Lu Yang turned his head and looked at the wall a hundred meters away. The energy in the eyes of the Demon God instantly found a catharsis. A purple-red energy wave with a diameter of 2 meters was ejected and gradually spread into a 10-meter vortex, hitting the wall. It stopped. Although it was not destroyed, it left traces of scorched black on the wall.

The Blazing Demon said: “The power is about the same as the quasi-god’s casual blow. How does it feel to be able to severely injure a lord of the same level?”

Lu Yang said excitedly: “I don’t have any burden on my body, it’s just that my mental energy is consumed more. This thing is too strong.”

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said: “What’s this? You just used the most common attack method of the Eye of the Demon God. Now I teach you two tricks. May kill the monarch level.”

“Please.” Lu Yang respectfully looked like a good baby.

Blazing Demon God was very satisfied with Lu Yang's attitude, and said very proudly: "The first move is called the Purple Flame Laser. It recompresses the purple flame energy wave just now and turns it into a laser beam, which can double its power.

The second trick is called the Purple Flame Star Burst, which compresses the purple flame energy wave into a ball. All the energy is gathered in this sphere to attack the target, so that all the energy is concentrated on the target body to the greatest extent. The power is the purple flame energy. Four times the wave.

Although these two tricks are simple to say, if you want to compress with mental power, it is impossible without the quasi-god's cultivation base. Therefore, I used another method, called the magic circle. I used to be in the eyes of the devil. I have portrayed it, but in order to force me not to rely on the Eye of the Demon God, I erased this circle. Now the Eye of the Demon God is handed over to you, you must have a psychological preparation. One day in the future, you must abandon this thing, otherwise If you just rely on the Eye of the Demon God, your strength will only stagnate in the quasi-god stage, and you will never be able to be promoted to the position of God. "

"Yes." Lu Yang bowed to the body of the Blazing Demon God, feeling a lot in his heart, what is the most lacking thing in a person's life? A teacher who guides the way!

Luckily for Lu Yang, he was really lucky to think that the teacher would guide him anytime and anywhere on the road of cultivation, so that he would not get lost.

"Come with me to describe the magic circle, and then show you other treasures." Blazing Demon beckoned, bringing Lu Yang's soul into the eyes of the demon and began to portray the magic circle.

Lu Yang knew the greatest significance of the next piece of Demon God's Heart Fragment, and it was Lu Yang's greatest guarantee for attacking the lower gods after he was promoted to the realm of Quasi-God.

Now the distortion of time and space has expanded to the point where the lord-level powerhouse can come. I'm afraid it won't be long before the protoss of another world can send the demon king-level, monarch-level and even the quasi-god-level powerhouses over. If Lu Yang can be He was promoted to the lower * within a short period of time before he had the confidence to keep the safety of the East China Sea.

"I will start practicing now." Lu Yang said firmly in his eyes.

Blazing Demon God said triumphantly: "Open the three boxes at the back. They are all treasures of Lord-level promotion and cultivation. Note that some of them are alive. You need to defeat them first and collect them."

"Alive?" Lu Yang walked to the first half-person tall box in the second row with some surprise, and found that there was a seal on the box. Before he could ask, the spirit of the Blazing Demon God swept the box and sealed it. Slowly disappeared and disintegrated, and at the same time, the box trembled violently.

"Boom"

The box collapsed, and a drop-shaped flame elf with a height of 10 meters flew out. The surface of its body was not flame, but the flow of original fire energy.

Lu Yang asked in surprise, "What is this?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "The Fire Soul, a treasure higher than the original Fire Spirit, was originally a gemstone. It has been sealed here by me for millions of years. It has formed an unconscious spirit body and shattered his shell. The fire soul gem is inside, remember to use the new spell, the fire soul's strength is at the lord level, and the old spells don't work."

"I'll try." Lu Yang became interested. He just learned the use of two spells just now. He didn't know the specific power yet, so he just took this fire soul to try it out.

“The Eye of the Devil”

Lu Yang poured his spiritual power into the eyes of the demon god, and in an instant, opened an eye on his forehead, and the phantom of the eyes of the demon * appeared in the midair of Bandarsburg.

The attracted White Sun shot a white energy into the phantom of the Eye of the Demon God, directly filling the Eye of the Demon God on Lu Yang’s forehead with magic power. He activated the magic circle in the Eye of the Demon God, staring at the fire soul that pounced on him.

“Purple Flame Laser”

A purple-red laser with thick fingers shot out from the eyes of the demon god, and the fire soul was hit in the head before he could react. In an instant, the fire soul’s head was shot.

“Wow~!”

A harsh noise was emitted from the body of the fire soul, and the 10-meter-sized drop-shaped body crazily collapsed inward, and finally turned into a red gem of 10 cm in length, width and height.

Lu Yang supported the gem with one hand, feeling the abundant energy in it, and said in surprise: “There is such a pure flame energy in it, and the original fire spirit is not at the same level as it.”

The Blazing Demon said: “Of course, there is no Moral Grade in what I left, so let’s start to absorb it.”

Lu Yang nodded and sat cross-legged on the ground, holding the gem in his hands to absorb it. When he really absorbed it, he knew how terrifying the energy contained in this gem was.

With only a trace of Fire Soul energy entering Lu Yang’s body, Lu Yang involuntarily entered the state of fire demon, the flames in his body flew out in large numbers, greedily swallowing the fire soul into the soul sea, and the original fire in the soul sea After the spiritual capital was transformed into a fire soul, it fed back to Lu Yang’s body.

This piece completed the transformation of Lu Yang's body. At this time, the color of the flames emerging from his body turned out to be purplish red. By the time Lu Yang had completely absorbed it, half a year had passed.

The Blazing Demon said with satisfaction: "Yes, not bad, you can absorb it quickly, so let's absorb the next piece."

Lu Yang said, "Let me go out. It is estimated that the next Red Moon Night is coming."

The Blazing Demon smiled, and said: "How long do you feel that time has passed?"

Lu Yang pointed to the time on the phone and said, "Half a year."

The Blazing Demon God smiled triumphantly and said, "I forgot to tell you. This is a node of the turbulent flow of time and space. It is only one day outside in a year. So, if you have been here for half a year, it will only be half a day outside, so you can rest assured. Practice."

"Really." Lu Yang was a little surprised.

"You'll know if you go out and have a look." Blazing Demon God beckoned, leading Lu Yang to fly out of the Void Hall, and land in the Valley of the Flower God.

Lu Yang flew out of this secret treasure space with a void shield in his hand. As soon as he got outside, he couldn't wait to call Zhuo Jiu and asked, "What are you doing?"

Zhuojiu smiled and said, "I'm integrating the elves, you have only been away for a long time, boss, what happened?"

Lu Yang blinked and said, "I found a precious place. I spent half a year in it and only half a day in reality. I couldn't think of such a place."

Although it has been several years since another world has invaded, Lu Yang still feels a little weird to convince Lu Yang that there is such a place in this world.

Zhuojiu was also surprised, and said, "This is a treasure place for cultivation, can we go?"

Lu Yang said: "It won't work for the time being. It's all empty turbulence. I found a treasure, the Void Shield, to get in. After a while, I will change you to come in after I finish my training. Tell your brothers. , Let them collect as many cultivation materials as possible during this time there is no energy in that place."

"Okay." Zhuojiu said.

Lu Yang hung up the phone, looked at the Blazing Demon God beside him and said, "Let's continue."

"Get your shield ready." Blazing Demon God waved his hand and brought Lu Yang back to the outside of the Void Hall.

Lu Yang quickly flew back into the void hall with the void shield in his hand, opened the second box, and after killing the fire soul, he absorbed the gem energy...

For 300 years, Lu Yang had absorbed all the 600 void gems in the room. At this time, Lu Yang clearly felt that his body had reached the peak of the lord level, and he was only close to a breakthrough.

"There are only three boxes left. I'm afraid the gems inside are not enough." Lu Yang frowned.

Blazing Demon God transformed into a flame phantom, and said with a look of disgust: "You are too weak, if I had 600 fire souls, I would have been promoted to the peak of the Demon Lord level."

Lu Yang glanced at the Blazing Demon God with a crooked look, and said, "Why don't you say that you absorb it according to the amount of re-cultivation from the Divine King Body? I was promoted from the Lord to the Demon King Body, which naturally consumes a lot. "

“That’s right.” The Blazing Demon God found that he didn’t despise Lu Yang, changed the subject, pointed to the three boxes in front of him and said: “Although you are not at the Demon King level, you can still use the treasures in these three boxes. , Open it and take a look.”

Lu Yang curiously walked up to the three boxes and opened them at the same time. At once, three scarlet rays of light burst out. He took a closer look and found that inside the middle box was a set of gold-red armor.

In the box on the left is a pair of golden-red hammers. The two ends of the hammer are flat and sharp in the middle, which looks like a beak and wings. In the box on the right, there is a rectangular jade-shaped accessory.

Chapter 2364: Two-headed Flamingo

Lu Yang picked up the hammer first, and asked curiously, “What kind of weapon is this material, I haven’t seen it before?”

The Blazing Demon was particularly proud, and said: “The two-headed Flamingo, these two hammers and clothes, are made from the head and torso of a complete two-headed Flamingo.”

Lu Yang asked with a smile, “What is the double-headed Flamingo?”

The Blazing Demon God was even more proud, and said, “An ancient divine bird, which has disappeared in our world, because this bird is a natural quasi-god-level creature, and when it grows up, it has the strength of a high-level god. This kind of bird It is also extremely cruel, an ancient beast.

Back then, the dragons couldn’t beat them. It was with our help to kill this ferocious bird, but the double-headed flaming bird is not only cruel to the enemy, but also cruel to itself. Nuclear, as a result, at the end of the war, each * was assigned half a double-headed Flamingo.

I left three for myself, all made into weapons and equipment, two of which were grownups for my subordinates, and this juvenile was for myself. ”

Lu Yang was a little speechless, and said, “I’m carrying two bird heads together and fighting with people wearing the bird’s corpse.”

“Hey~!” The Blazing Demon was choked and cursed: “What you said is quite reasonable, but listen to me. The corpse of the two-headed Flamingo will not rot, and it will change quickly after death. As a fossil, its hardness can withstand the full blow of the quasi-god, and after injecting magic power, it can become larger and smaller as your body, and it has the ability to self-recover.

Especially the weapons made of the two bird heads can perfectly allow you to release the spells of the flame system, up to the level of the quasi-god, you don’t have to worry about weapons anymore. ”

Lu Yang looked at the heads of the two hammers, still disgusted for a while, and said, “Let’s make do with it, after all, you don’t have anything better.”

“Damn, get rid of it~!” Blazing Demon God is walking violently!

Lu Yang chuckled, and put the armor on his body. The weapon was placed around his waist. The magic power surged in his body. The two hammers instantly became the size of an arm, and the armor turned into personal software, just like wearing a leather jacket. Same.

“What did this accessory do in the end?” Lu Yang asked curiously.

Blazing Demon: “...”

Lu Yang was speechless, and said, “Don’t be angry, be careful.”

“Damn!” The Blazing Demon God rolled his eyes and cursed: “I am too lazy to pay attention to you. This accessory is called the Void Talisman. I got too many double-headed Vulcan birds back then. Void God wants to exchange it with me and give it to me. This thing can instantly transfer you to another plane, but the time is only 1 second, and you need to recharge it again. With your current magic power, you can recharge at least half an hour at a time.”

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders and said, “It’s a pretty good baby.”

The most troublesome problem for the fire system powerhouse is that there are no defensive spells. However, most of the defense spells of other schools are incompatible with the fire system. For example, the most defensive wizards are the water system and the earth system, and they cannot be integrated with the fire system. When the former casts spells together, there must be a spell failure. When the latter casts spells together, the earth spell becomes extremely fragile.

Among other defensive spells, the dark and light types are also prone to problems. Only the void type can cooperate a little bit, but they cannot be released at the same time.

Lu Yang hung the jade pendant around his waist and said, “Send me home. It has been a year. I also want to know what’s going on outside?”

“I have handed over the spell to you, read it yourself.” The Blazing Demon God said that he was very upset, and flew directly to the Demon God Temple to rest.

Lu Yang chanted the spell with a smile, and he appeared in the Flower God Valley. After a year, the Flower God Valley has not changed in any way, and it is still the fragrance of birds and flowers.

“Transformation”

Lu Yang’s body suddenly changed to a height of 100 meters, but he was still dissatisfied, and continued to inject magic power, his body grew to a height of 200 meters.

At this height, he grasped a large mountain in the Valley of the Gods of Flowers with both hands. This mountain was more than 300 meters high, but it was such a high mountain that was lifted by Lu Yang’s hands.

“Devil Temple”

Lu Yang entered the Demon God Temple and placed the mountain in the void outside the Demon God Temple. Suddenly, a void was stabilized by the mountain.

“Sure enough, this mountain is also a little way.” Lu Yang returned to the Huashen Valley. After moving a few times, the entire Huashen Valley was evacuated by Lu Yang. Even the sand on the ground was not let go. These sands and rocks are all. A divine baby can stabilize the void.

Lu Yang moved to the Demon God Temple together, leaving a valley directly in the Demon God Temple. After that, he transformed into the form of an undead bird and quickly flew towards the Shekou defensive position.

“How is the house? Did any accident happen?” Lu Yang took out the intercom and dialed the chat group of Zhuojiu, Baishi and others.

The other side.

In the command center in Shekou, Zhuojiu, Baishi and others were watching an agreement meeting. They were relieved when they heard Lu Yang’s call.

“Boss, you can be regarded as coming back.” Said with a sigh of bitter love for a long time.

“What’s the matter?” Lu Yang asked with a smile.

Zhuojiu said: “The Demon Race sent a letter of alliance, wanting us to stop the war with them, and at the same time help them contain the Void Zerg.”

Lu Yang smiled, looked at the still rosy sky outside, and said, “Red Moon Night is already here, what is the state of the enemies of all parties? How did you think of forming an alliance with us?”

The White Lion said: “Let me just say, this year, the Demon Race and the Void Zerg have fought seven battles, and the two sides have won each other. Last week, the red moon night fell, and the two sides fought the most tragic battle, because There is no new lord-level powerhouse from both sides to send over, the war is still mainly based on the battle between lord-level and spirit-level powerhouses.”

Xia Yuwei said: “This time I sneaked into the internal observations of both sides. The lord of the Void Zerg was injured. Although the son of the demon was intact, the two subordinate lords were seriously injured.”

Zhou Tianming followed and said: “It happened at this time that the orcs re-emerged. One of their tribes was promoted to the lord level, and the orcs scattered on the grassland were gathered together, ready to fight the demon tribe, the demon tribe. Worrying about the enemy, we are required to join the war, otherwise, we will take the initiative to retreat and let the Zerg kill us.”

Lu Yang smiled, and said, “I understand, the Devil Race is going to be unable to handle it. Accept their request.”

Zhuojiu frowned and said: “But we have just finished the war here, and new clansmen of the six elves have been sent over. We finally suppressed it. If we fight now the soldiers are too tired.”

Lu Yang smiled and said: “Don’t worry, boss, I have been cultivating in the Void Hall for 300 years, and my strength has reached the peak of the lord level. It is a matter of time to break through to the king level. kill him.”

Zhuo Jiu, Zhou Tianming and the others looked at each other, and both showed excitement. They said in excitement, “In this way, our human race has become the most powerful race among the four race groups. We don’t have to worry about it. The enemy is attacking.”

Lu Yang smiled and said: “In the next period of time, I will take you around and get enough training resources. I will send you one by one to the Void Palace for 300 years of cultivation, so that you can also quickly improve your strength. .”

“300 years?” The white lion said with a wry smile: “Boss, we are the strength of the spirit level, I am afraid that we will not live for 300 years.”

Lifespan has always been the biggest problem that restricts humans. No race can help humans solve this situation. Elves can live for thousands of years, demons have a lifespan of thousands of years, and orcs can live for more than 200 years at the worst. Only humans can live for more than 200 years. Just over 100 years.

After becoming cultivators, although the White Lions felt the blood surging in their bodies, they still didn't know how long they lived. They really didn't dare to let them practice for 300 years.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "I have brought back some treasures, which are enough to extend your lifespan. As for how long, those who are willing to live can live for infinitely long periods of time. There is no problem for 10,000 years."

"What is it?" asked curiously.

"Nine-Dragon Blood Tree." Lu Yang talked to everyone about the cause and effect of this baby, and said: "The number is not very large, and I will give it priority to you."

"Boss Xie." Zhuojiu, Baishi and others were all excited.

Chapter 2365: Murderous 4 Volt

Two hours later.

Lu Yangfei returned to the Shekou defensive position, entered the meeting room, threw a piece of the bark of the Nine Dragon Blood Tree in his hand to each person, and said, "Eating it will increase the life span by a thousand years."

After taking a bite of bitter love for half a lifetime, he smiled and said, "Like cotton candy, the boss, is there anything that will not grow old after eating, I still want to keep this handsome face."

Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and the others laughed, and the white lion laughed and cursed: "What's yours, it's Yuwei... Rain..."

"Oh~!" The white lion punched his face and said, "I'm sorry, Yuwei, I didn't mean it."

Xia Yuwei still wears a mask on her face. Although there is still half of her face intact, she completely abandoned her face because of Zheng Yuan, Zhang Zibo and others' deaths, and never showed her true colors anymore.

"Small things, don't make trouble because of my face, just live a long life." Xia Yuwei was comforting the white lion instead.

This is what Bai Shi and Zhuo Jiu can't accept. They are both men, but in the end they want the woman Yuwei to persuade them not to blame themselves for failing to protect her.

Lu Yang looked at everyone and asked, "Have you found the old man late?"

The white lion shook his head and said, "No."

The five clans had just been stabilized that day. Before they could be subdued, the Demon Race came. Lu Yang, Zhuo Jiu and others had no time to find the old man Chi Mu. They had to resist the attack of the Demon Clan first. This gave the old Chi Mu escape for his life. Chance.

Lu Yang said angrily: "Our Jagged Brothers killed so many brothers at one time. It was all caused by the defection of the late old man. I won't let him go. Is there any clue?"

Zhuojiu said: "A soldier of the Elf race told me that he saw an old man of the Human race running out of the undead army and fleeing to the northeast. This person should be the twilight old man. I suspect that there are more powerful undeads in the northeast. Clan, he ran there to seek refuge."

The White Lion said: "I sent them to investigate, but the farthest distance was only to the border area of the Black Province, where there is indeed a strong atmosphere of darkness. I am afraid that they will be captured, so I dare not let them continue. Go inside, so the number of enemies is unknown."

Zhuojia said, "There must be a lot of it."

"There are enemies everywhere." Lu Yang said emotionally.

The White Lion said: "We have just been arguing about this issue. If we participate in the war, it is very likely that we will be attacked by the undead in the Black Province. If we do not participate in the war and the Zerg army will come over, we still have no way to survive."

Lu Yang smiled and said: "Now you don't need to argue, I will take you to kill the Void Worm Lord, and solve the Zerg problem first."

Flames ignited on his body, the red double-headed Vulcan bird armor covered his whole body, and two bird-head hammers appeared on his hands. The power gushing out of his body made the muddy wine and the white lion stunned in shock.

"Boss, is this the strength of the pinnacle of the lord rank? And what kind of treasure are your weapons and armors?" Asked excitedly for a long time.

"It's a weapon and equipment of the lower * level." Lu Yang looked at Xia Yuwei and asked, "Have you sneaked into the area of the Void Zerg? What's the situation there?"

Xia Yuwei sent a map on Lu Yang's phone, saying: "This is the Zerg area I have explored. They turned 100 kilometers around Daqinggou into habitats and enslaved the creatures in the area.

Among them, the second-tier insects and enslaved creatures live in the outermost area, and the lord lives on the innermost side, but there are 10 spirit-level powerhouses around the lord to protect them, and the rest of the spirit-level powerhouses and demon-level powerhouses are all nearby. Armed. "

Lu Yang looked at the map carefully, and found that Lord Void had actually placed his nest in a natural cave in Daqinggou, which was just right for assassination.

“When it comes to a blizzard, I will take you to assassinate him.” Lu Yang said.

Zhuojiu, Baishi and the others looked at each other and felt that this plan was feasible. Zhuojiu said, “Boss, would you like to see Lavli? That demon lord has been waiting for us in the border area of Fengshi. Reply.”

At present, half of the main force of the Jagged Brotherhood is stationed in Feng City to prevent the demon clan from sneaking attacks, and is also observing whether the Zerg has a plan to expand eastward.

“I’m going to meet him, you go into my Demon Temple.” Lu Yang waved his hand, and took the muddy wine and the white lion into the Demon Temple. He came to the top of the building and summoned the red night to fly towards. Fengshi direction.

The other side.

In a building on the outskirts of Feng City, Lifeli was gazing at the human legion in the opposite building. Through the glass, he was puzzled to see the human soldiers united and helping each other.

“Why are they laughing so happily?” Loveli asked coldly.

Bagley stood behind Leverly and said with a smile: “Because they are weak, they can only help each other to protect themselves. They smile after getting help.”

A sneer appeared at the corner of Lifeli’s mouth, and said, “It’s really pathetic.”

Bagley shrugged and said, “That’s why I followed you. I don’t want to experience that kind of weakness anymore. My beautiful Queen, thank you for giving me a new life.”

Leverly waved her hand and said indifferently: "Bagley, don't always praise me, you still have to take the initiative to improve your strength, you are too weak."

"Yes." Bagley lowered his head respectfully.

Loveli asked: "What do you think of this plan?"

Bagley thought about it and said: "This plan is perfect. If it succeeds, all human beings will die in the hands of the undead king. He will never sacrifice a human being and invite another world for himself. Of the enemy."

Lavli sneered at the corner of her mouth, and said, "I hope he can do it. Humans are a little bit too big. We all looked down on them before."

Bagley didn't speak, but lowered his head obediently, but there was already a storm in his heart. He did not expect that there was a terrifying army of undead in the dark province.

If it were not for the old man Twilight to reveal the true strength of the Undead Legion in order to achieve an alliance, Bagley would not dare to imagine that the leader of the Undead Legion in the northernmost section of the Black Province was a * in another world!

It's just that this * and the gods in the different world are enemies. The sneak attack failed and was counter-killed, and he had to escape into the human world. Now he is weak and trapped on an iceberg in the extreme north, but the army of the undead under him is very powerful. There are 9 lords, enough to flatten the Shekou defensive position and the Donghai Underground City.

Bagley didn't dare to expose the slightest worry, he could only continue to agree with Lifeli's plan, but in his heart, he kept thinking about when to inform Lu Yang.

For this reason, he insisted on following Lavli and other spirit-level demons to Fengshi to negotiate with humans, but Devil Hill kept staring at his every move, and he didn't even have the opportunity to engrave on the wall.

Just as Bagley was extremely anxious, Leverly turned her head abruptly, glanced over Bagley's body, and looked at the sky in the distance.

“Roar~!”

With the sound of Long Howl, Hong Yezai Lu Yang flew over from a distance, and when he reached the front of this building, Lu Yang jumped down and stood in front of Loveli.

The two looked at each other, and they all saw the cold light in each other's eyes!

Chapter 2367: Warring Void Zerg

One hour later.

Among the ruins of Feng City, the 50,000 strongest legions of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood are ready to go, and the mounts of each soldier have been replaced by a Tier 3 Snow Wolf King that is more than five meters high.

Most of these snow wolves are part of the high-level mounts that the Elves and the other five races have come to the earth for so many years. Because it is winter, they are most suitable for running on the snow. The Elf King Algaea is worried about the problem with the dirty wine, so he takes the initiative to send it. Come here.

The 2000 hawks in the sky also flap their wings and hover in the air. Although the hawks' combat effectiveness is not good, these flying intelligent races have become the special intelligence personnel of the Jagged Brothers, and the Jagged Brothers' own Fire Crow Legion and The number of Cloud Sculpture Corps has been reduced to 500, and their mission has also become reconnaissance.

“Roar~!”

Hong Ye's roar sounded in the air. Standing on Hong Ye's head, Lu Yang took the lead and flew towards Daqinggou. The horn below immediately sounded.

“Go forward!”

Zhuojiu, White Lion, Zhou Tianming and others issued orders one after another, leading the 50,000 soldiers to run quickly on the Snow Wolf King.

The wolf king's speed is very fast. They can keep running at a speed of 200 kilometers per hour for two consecutive hours, while the distance from Fengshi to the edge of Daqinggou is only 130 kilometers. At full speed, they only need It takes more than half an hour to arrive.

Lu Yang was not in a hurry. He suppressed the speed at 80 kilometers per hour and led the team towards Daqinggou at a constant speed. At the same time, he turned on the intercom and said to the defender Tao Yue in the Shekou defensive position: “ Order the troops to take out all the Tier 3 gems and get ready for a big decisive battle.”

Tao Yue said with a smile: “It is ready. As long as it is not a lord-level powerhouse participating in the battle, Shekou's Tier 3 gems can be used for a week.”

The mechanical plane merchant has been here twice, but the previous time Lu Yang was in a war, and the next time Lu Yang was practicing in retreat, and he did not face the opponent, but this did not hinder the transaction. Three transactions in two years, the Jagged Brothers paid At the same time a large number of basic materials were exchanged for countless Tier 3 gems and a small amount of Tier 4 gems.

The Shekou defensive position is now a super defensive fortress armed to 200 meters underground. Although it looks nothing special, as long as you look closer, it is all magical arrays. It is no longer a random third-order demon-level strong. Where the person can conquer.

“Be careful, this time the Void Zerg is here, good at void spells, don't be careless.” Lu Yang said.

Tao Yue said triumphantly: “A total of 5,000 Void Gems are used to prevent the Void Zerg from playing Void Stealth. Boss, you have grown a lot this year, and our growth is not small. Don't underestimate us.”

This year Lu Yang was training in the Void Hall. Tao Yue and Zhuo Jiu were also sneaking and hunting the Void Zerg and the Demon Clan, and then threw them into the arena to compete. Tao Yue knew very well what skills the Void Zerg would have.

Lu Yang was very satisfied with Tao Yue's growth, and said with a smile: "Well, I won't talk too much, I'll leave it to you."

"That's right." Tao Yue was very happy.

Lu Yang smiled and hung up the phone and led the team to move forward. After running for more than an hour, the harpy flying in front sent back a message, saying: "The frontier is the border of the Void Zerg. The tens of thousands of Void Zergs are resting."

With a thought in Lu Yang, Hong Ye flapped his wings to speed up and flew forward, and in a blink of an eye he came to the southern boundary of Daqinggou, which was called Xiaoqinggou.

In a snow-white forest, there is a huge lake, and on the north side of the lake are mountains. You can see that many caves have been cut out at the leeward of the mountain. There are countless second-order hound-shaped worms. Caught wild deer, goats and other prey are thrown on the ground for group feeding. They eat raw meat and look very disgusting.

Lu Yang said: "Everyone is ready to fight, and retreat quickly 20 minutes after the battle."

"Yes." Zhuo Jiu, White Lion and others responded in unison, and then they shouted: "Everyone is ready to fight, raise their guns~!"

Every warrior of the Iron-Blooded Brotherhood picked up the three-section spear that hung from the waist of the Snow Wolf King. Each section was more than 3 meters long, and connected together to become a 9-meter-long stainless steel war spear. , As for the position of the gun head is made of star steel, other than that, it is all normal steel.

This tactic is a tactic developed by Zhuo Jiu, White Lion and others to deal with the Zerg. It is too disadvantageous to attack the Zerg at close range, so it is better to mount a wolf on it and start a charge forward.

There are 100 people in each row, and the distance between the back row and the front row is 100 meters. Under the alternate charge, it is enough to kill the second-order warriors of the Zerg in a piece. The soldiers would throw away their long spears and use two-handed swords. At the same time, they slowed down, allowing the soldiers in the back row to attack from the gap. This stepped charge ensures maximum damage to the enemy, but also Save yourself.

“Kill~!” The dirty wine roared, and led the Holy Light Knights to charge.

“Kill~!” Bai Shi, Zhou Tianming and others also raised their guns and roared, leading the army forward to attack.

For a time, the fifty thousand army of the Jagged Brothers rushed to the Zerg troops by the lake like a big wave one after another, and the Zerg troops also saw humans.

“Hey~!” The hound-shaped second-order Zerg warriors roared to the sky almost in unison, waving the two spikes on their backs and rushing towards the human side.

The height of these second-order zergs is more than three meters, the whole body is strong, and they are not inferior to the third-order wolf king in strength. Soon, the two sides collided together, but these zergs were in the hands of human warriors without touching the wolf king. The spear penetrated the body.

Lu Yang looked at the first row of holy light knights led by Zhuojiu with interest. The spears in their hands penetrated the first second-order demon, followed by the second and third demon. It was not until the sixth demon that the holy light knights could not hold the spears in their hands.

“Change the long sword, the second team speeds up the attack.” Zhuojiu commanded loudly.

The soldiers in the second row rushed up with their guns and took over the attack of the soldiers in the first row. The connection between the two was like a machine, without any flaws.

Lu Yang nodded in satisfaction. He looked at Lively who was flying in the air in the distance, and said, “You can go. If you don’t go, I will doubt your motives.”

Loveli deliberately was not too far from Lu Yang, the distance between the two was only about 200 meters. She smiled charmingly and said, "I'm leaving, I wish you all be killed by the Zerg!"

After speaking, Loveli grabbed Bagley who was hanging in the air and flew away quickly.

Chapter 2368: Might of the Peak Flame Lord

After flying far away, Hill said to Loveli: "His Royal Highness, it's better for us to discuss with the son of the devil, what about the East China Sea Dungeon attacking humans now? Maybe we can clear all humans at once."

Loveli gave him a sneer and said, "Do you want all the demons to be buried with us? If Lu Yang takes these 50,000 people out of the battle to find us for a decisive battle, wouldn't we have to face the orcs? The joint attack with humans should be resolved by handing humans to the gods of the undead race. That * will not let humans live."

"Yes." Hill bowed and flew aside.

Loveli chanted a spell silently, and a black strange bird formed from her ear, then shaking its wings and drawing a black light flying into the clouds, then went straight to the northeast.

When Lu Yang saw Loveli's movements, he guessed that the undead army from the northeast was coming. A sneer appeared at the corner of his mouth. He looked at the battlefield in the distance. On the north side of Xiaoqinggou, a large number of Void Zergs were coming from the cave. Get out and run towards this side.

Knowing that the enemy has taken the bait, he picked up the intercom and said, "You can retreat. The whole army retreats to the Shekou defensive position."

“Yes.” Zhuo Jiu, Bai Shi and others received instructions and quickly led the team out of the battlefield. Lu Yang also flew back. On the way, he ordered Hong Ye to lower his altitude. When he was close to the legion, Zhuo Jiu and Bai Lion and others jumped on the dragon’s head.

“Close~!”

Lu Yang took them into the Demon God Temple. He looked at the heroic Wanzong, Baihu and others, and said, “The team is handed over to you.”

“Boss, don’t worry.” Lofty Wanzong riding on the wolf north, holding his fists, said loudly: “Pay attention to safety. If necessary, we will turn around and fight to death at any time!”

Lu Yang smiled and controlled Hong Ye to fly into the sky again, and dived into the clouds. Using the Beidou positioning function in the phone on his arm, he quickly flew to the top of the mountain where the Void Lord designated by Xia Yuwei was hiding. superior.

“Close~!”

In the Luyang Demon Temple, a pair of wings appeared on the back and slowly descended from the air. There was a heavy snowfall in the air, and the north wind roared, all the Void Zergs under the mountain hid in the cave without anyone defending.

“This stupid Voidworm Lord has deployed hundreds of thousands of Zerg army to the outer area. There are only 10 spirit-level Voidworm warriors and hundreds of second-order Voidworm fighters beside him.” Blazing Demon God used. Said after the divine mind scan.

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Probably he is confident. He has not encountered a flying lord so far. Even if a lord appears, with his strength, it is no problem to single out three demon lords.”

The Blazing Demon sneered and stopped talking, Lu Yang accelerated his fall, and landed silently at the entrance of the huge cave at the foot of the mountain. The fire in the cave was shining, and it was obvious that there were a lot of torches in it.

“Come out.” Lu Yang waved Zhuojiu, White Lion, Xia Yuwei, Kuai Bansheng and Zhou Tianming out of the Demon Temple, looked at the dozens of Void Worm warriors who were dumbfounded at the door, and said: “Follow me to kill. .”

“Kill~!” Zhuojiu, White Lion and others were ready to fight, raised a two-handed sword made of broken star iron, and rushed into the insect swarm.

“Pyroblast”

Lu Yang burst into flames with both hands and walked forward. All the Void Worm fighters rushing towards him were hit by his fireballs. Although this was a low-level spell, it could be released in the hands of a lord-level powerhouse like Lu Yang. It was extremely powerful. One can burn five or six Void Worm fighters to death.

“Neigh~!”

The battle at the entrance of the cave attracted the attention of the Void Worm fighters in the passage, and they rushed out, but it was Lu Yang’s huge fireball that was hit head-on. They were burned into corpses, and the scorched meat smell passed into the passage, causing The subsequent Zerg retreated and dared not attack.

“Lord Voidworm, humans are here to visit.” Lu Yang stood at the door and yelled, stepping on the body of Voidworm, bringing the dirty wine and others to the end of the corridor, turning around, and saw a vast expanse. Natural cave.

The height of this cave is more than 200 meters, the top is dark and no light can be seen. The diameter of the hall is more than 2,000 meters. There are torches on the walls. There are more than 20 fires on the ground. There are a large number of void insects near each fire. warrior.

Under the wall on the north side of this hall, there is a black meat ball that is 50 meters high and nearly a hundred meters long. The dark green eyes all over the body are staring at Lu Yang and the others. Ten Void Warlords are already standing in the meat ball. The attacking posture was put in front.

“Huh?! Human~~~Like~~~?” The voice of the Void Worm Lord uttered from under his body, like the echo of the ancients, making people feel terrible pressure.

“I’m going to kill them.” A Void Worm warlord bowed to the Lord Mother Worm, and walked towards Lu Yang with bloodthirsty eyes. The black sickle arms on the two arms glowed with a cold light under the reflection of the firelight. .

“And me.” The other three spirit-level void worm warlords also came over, with a hideous expression on their faces.

Lu Yang looked at the four spirit-level void worm warlords who came by, sneered at the corners of his mouth, and said, “It really is a tyrannical race, and we don’t even ask what we are doing here.”

“Food, what qualifications do you have to speak?” The Void Warlord who walked in the front said contemptuously.

“I’m coming.” Zhuojiu, White Lion and others raised their weapons and said in unison.

“No, you stay at the door, don’t hurt you.” Lu Yang stretched out his hand to stop the muddy wine and others’ movements, chanting a spell.

“The Eye of the Devil·Purple Flame Laser”

The Demon Eye, which had already received energy from the White Sun in Bandarsberg, has been charged. With Lu Yang’s mental power activated, the Demon Eye on his forehead opened, and a purple laser with thick fingers ejected in the center. The foremost Void Worm warlord.

“Ah~!”

The Void Warlord did not react at all. The laser penetrated the body. The other three Void Warlords did not wait to react. Lu Yang turned his head and looked at the three of them. The Purple Flame Laser swept past, and the three Spirit-Level Void Warlords The head of the body is different.

“Hiss~!”

The hundreds of void worms in the cave retreated in horror, not even daring to roar at Lu Yang, all crawling on the ground as lowly as ants.

The remaining six Spirit-level Void Warlords were also dumbfounded and did not dare to say a word. They could only stare at Lu Yang’s third eye vigilantly, for fear of hitting them.

“Void Cover”

Lord Voidworm watched the purple laser shot at his body, and with a simple sentence, a shield like flowing mercury suddenly appeared in front of him, completely shielding his body.

The purple laser hit the void cover without causing any waves, and disappeared silently as if it had been shot into the abyss.

Lu Yang put away the eyes of the void, and said with a smile: “As expected to be the Lord of the Void Worm, killing you is really hard.”

“Only by you?” The Void Worm Lord laughed. Suddenly, a Void Mirror appeared behind Lu Yang, and a purple laser shot out of the mirror and went straight to the back of Lu Yang’s head.

“Hot and Fast”

With a flame at Lu Yang’s feet, he moved laterally to the side for a distance of 5 meters, easily avoiding the blow.

“You guys go to the door and guard, boss, I’m going to make a big move.” Lu Yang sighed, if he didn’t change his body, he really couldn’t beat this Void Lord.

Zhuo Jiu and the others nodded, turned and walked to the door. At this time, a large number of insects rushed towards this side. Obviously, the Lord of Void Worm called to protect him.

“Boss, we are guarding the door, you can rest assured to fight.” Bitter love for half a lifetime shouted.

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth and looked at the standing up Voidworm Lord and said, “It’s true, everything else is nonsense.”

“Fire Demon Transformation”

“Lord Form”

“Two-headed Vulcan Bird Armor, Warhammer”

In a blink of an eye, Lu Yang’s entire body was engulfed in flames and turned into the form of a flame lord. His whole body was burning with flames. His body was protected by the crimson double-headed firebird armor, and two bird-head hammers appeared in his hands.

Chapter 2369: Lu Yang vs. Voidworm Lord

“Drink~!”

Lu Yang roared, because his body did not become a hundred meters high, the accumulated flame power was in his body. With his roar, purple flames exploded outwards centered on his body.

Flames exceeding 7000 degrees instantly burned all Tier 2 bugs in the cave into coke, and even the Spirit-level Void Warlords were severely injured, leaving only one Void Worm Lord intact under the protection of the Void Cover.

“Lord-level peak?!” The countless eyes of the Voidworm Lord stared at Lu Yang at the same time, and exclaimed: “This is impossible. How come there will be a strong leader in the peak period in this world so quickly, this is impossible.”

“Take it to death.” Lu Yang rushed towards the Voidworm Lord, and the hot flames under his feet made him appear in front of the Voidworm Lord as if teleporting. Before the opponent could react, the two hammers in his hand slammed the Void Cover down. .

“Boom~!”

As if hitting a big bell, the Void Cover shook violently, which made the Void Worm Lord stunned and asked: “How did you do it? My Void Cover is only when it absorbs excessive energy. Will such a state appear?”

Lu Yang sneered, but he couldn't help but admire him. The hammer made of the two-headed Vulcan bird had the power of a full blow. Each blow was as powerful as a small nuclear weapon. It stands to reason that under this blow, The impact caused by the entire mountain will be destroyed. It can be hit on the Void Cover, just twisting and deforming it. It can be seen how strong the opponent's defense is. No wonder this Void Worm Lord can single out three demon races. Where's the lord.

"It can block an attack, I think you can block it a few times." Lu Yang raised his double hammers and smashed it down again, but before hitting it, Lu Yang's body retreated 30 meters away with a flame of fire, and Lu Yang was standing. A crack appeared in the space where Lu Yang had just stood there, his body would be easily cut into two sections by the void crack.

"Why didn't you fight?" The Voidworm Lord asked mockingly: "I can't hold my void crack, but can you hide it?"

Lu Yang was really able to hide. He was able to detect the abnormal state in the surrounding space with the perception of Blazing Demon God's divine consciousness and his mental power. Therefore, Lord Voidworm's move did nothing to him. effect.

"While he didn't find it, explode his void cover quickly." Blazing Demon God said.

"I think so too." Lu Yang once again rushed towards the Voidworm Lord with a light of fire, but when he was halfway, Lu Yang suddenly turned a corner, and while avoiding the void crack, he doubled. The hammer slammed into the void cover again.

"Boom"

There was another loud noise, and the Void Cover shook more violently than last time. This made the Void Worm Lord extremely annoyed. With a scream, a void crack appeared at Lu Yang's location.

Lu Yang jumped into the air. The double hammers smashed into the air this time and hit the Void Cover. Following him, he kept changing positions, hitting the Void Cover continuously with each blow. , Is the power of a nuclear weapon.

After more than sixty consecutive hammers, suddenly, a crack appeared on the surface of the void cover, and then, the liquid flowing in the silver light disappeared out of thin air, exposing the original appearance of the void lord, which was a huge ugly black flesh. The ball, and countless green eyes.

“Roar~!”

Lord Voidworm was furious, and countless tentacles on his head went straight to Lu Yang’s body and grabbed it, but before Lu Yang was in front of him, Lu Yang opened his forehead eyes.

“Eyes of the Devil·Purple Flame Starburst”

A purple-black fireball flew out from the third eye of Lu Yang’s forehead, and on the way soared to a diameter of 1 meter, instantly hitting the back of the Voidworm Lord and the roots of the tentacles above.

“Oh~!”

The tentacles of the Lord Voidworm hit Lu Yang’s body suddenly stopped in midair, and the lower body made a painful scream that made the entire cave tremble.

The power of the Purple Flame Starburst is four times that of the Purple Flame Laser, and the Purple Flame Starburst is a high-speed rotating fireball that burns through a hole in the back of the Void Worm Lord the moment it falls on the back of the Void Worm Lord. After sinking into the body of the Lord of Voidworms and agitated frantically, the tentacles of the lower body of the lord of the painful Voidworms all stood up, digging into the wound on the back to catch the purple fireball.

“Good opportunity~!” Lu Yang rushed to the Lord Voidworm with a flash of fire. Two double-headed Flaming Bird warhammers, hammer after hammer, swung from the bottom up, hit the Lord Void because of raising their tentacles. The corners of the exposed mouth.

“boom”

“boom”

This time there was no Void Cover to absorb energy. Every hammer that fell on Void Lord's body would cause a huge shock wave. This terrifying power directly shattered the entire mountain, and Void Worm Lord was hit to the most vulnerable part. Under the severe pain, he didn't even have the ability to counterattack. After being successfully attacked by Lu Yang, half of his body was smashed and deformed.

"Human, you have to pay for it, pay for it." The tentacles around the chin of the Void Worm Lord successfully grabbed the Purple Flame Starburst out of the body, and used more than 30 tentacles as the price, allowing it to explode and explode the tentacles. broken.

The remaining dozens of tentacles came straight towards Lu Yang with mercury rays, pushing Lu Yang back 10 meters away, and then, the body of the Lord Voidworm appeared strange black rays of light, as if the area around him The area was torn apart by his body.

"No, it's the life-saving skill of the Void Worm Lord, Void Slash." The Blazing Demon God didn't have time to tell Lu Yang how powerful this move was, and immediately activated the Void Shield.

In the next second, centered on the Lord of the Voidworm, the space within a hundred meters, even the ground, flashed through countless black rifts, especially Lu Yang's body, surrounded by dozens of rifts, but unfortunately, this The fissure existed for a moment, and Lu Yang found the void shield from the Flower God Valley, allowing Lu Yang to escape into a different space for 1 second. It just so happened that the Blazing Demon God made Lu Yang perfect. Avoided this killer attack.

"He can no longer use this trick in a short time, kill him as soon as possible." The Blazing Demon said through his divine mind to perceive the situation of the Void Worm Lord.

"Look at me, he will resist until the next release." Lu Yang's body suddenly turned into a giant with a height of 100 meters, and the double hammers in his hands also turned into giant war hammers with a length of 50 meters and a head of 30 meters thick.

"Death to me." Lu Yang stepped on the tentacles of the Void Worm Lord, and two hammers hammered his head frantically. At the same time, the Demon God's Eye on his forehead was fully charged.

“Purple Flame Starburst”

Another purple fireball penetrated into the head of the Voidworm Lord. Under Lu Yang’s frantic attack, the Voidworm Lord wailed frantically, and his body instantly turned into a 100-meter-high and 500-meter-long mountain.

The interrupted tentacles grew crazily, carrying a flash of mercury, smashing into Lu Yang’s body crazily, but the tentacles hit the armor of the fire bird with both hands, and even a trace could not be left, which made the void. The Worm Lord miscalculated again.

“when”

A black crack should have exploded in Lu Yang’s body, but this crack could not form at all, and finally appeared outside of Lu Yang, colliding with the double-headed Vulcan bird armor, making a crisp sound.

Lu Yang sneered. He had been showing weakness before and was waiting for this opportunity. This double-headed Vulcan bird armor was made from the corpse of a quasi-god level Vulcan bird. How could it be wounded by a space fissure created by a lord? Now, this is completely impossible.

Now that the Void Lord used the energy remaining in his body to become such a large body, he couldn’t run away even if he wanted to run. Lu Yang raised his double hammers and smashed them one after another!

Chapter 2370: Hammer the Void Mother Worm

The body of the Void Mother Worm was only at the lord level, and could not withstand an attack like the Vulcan Bird Warhammer. The skin cracked and the sound of bone breaking at the place where it was hit was endless. Not long after, most of her body was smashed into mud.

A large amount of liquid spouted from the mouth below the Void Mother Worm, which contained internal organs and bone residues. He screamed desperately: “You are not a human, you are definitely not a human, who are you? What is hidden behind you? Who, I am not reconciled, I am not reconciled to die so unclear~!”

Lu Yang didn't talk at all, turning his body over and continuing to chisel the Void Mother Worm's mouth with hammer after hammer.

The mouth of the blood basin, which was originally full of fangs, had become * after more than a dozen hammer blows, and couldn't say a word.

“Purple Flame Starburst”

Lu Yang threw a purple-red fire energy ball into the female flesh and blood worm's mouth, spinning at a high speed straight to the brain, amidst a burst of burnt smell, the energy ball burrowed into the brain, followed by a loud bang. A big hole was exploded in the brain of the fleshy female worm.

A giant silver magic core with a diameter of 5 meters was ejected with a small piece of brain, and it flew towards a spirit-level void worm warlord who was not far away. Lu Yang grabbed it with one hand.

“Die~” Lu Yang crushed the brain of the Void Mother Worm.

In an instant, the hundreds of thousands of Zerg rushing across the mountains and plains stopped in place, and in the next second, they no longer cared about Lu Yang but slayed each other frantically.

Lu Yang threw the female worm's magic core into the Demon God's Temple. After summoning Red Night, he single-handedly killed the Zerg in front of Zhuojiu and others in giant form, and then held up several people with spells and threw it to Red Night's On his back, he followed him and jumped into the air. His body quickly shrank and became the size of an ordinary person. Hong Ye flew under him and took him into the air.

Zhuojiu quickly grabbed Xiang Lu Yang's body and asked, “Boss, are you okay?”

Lu Yang's body was a bit collapsed. Quasi-God-level weapons were not that easy to use. When they became larger, they consumed magic power. Using the Eye of the Demon God also consumed mental power. He was leaning on the white lion and Zhou Tianming, and he was a little weak. Said: “It's okay, it's just a little over-consuming. Just recover for a while. Let's go back to Shekou.”

There is still an undead army that has not been resolved. Lu Yang can guess that this undead army will bypass the Six Elves and launch a sneak attack from the fringe area on the northeast side of Ji Province.

Lu Yang didn't let the elves stop halfway before. On the one hand, he could not determine the enemy's specific attack route, and on the other, he wanted to wipe out the army.

Now all the air forces of the elves are flying over the main roads on the northeast side of Jilin province, looking for the undead legions.

"Dididi"

The phone on Lu Yang's arm made a sound. He picked it up and saw that it was Algaea calling. He pressed the video call button and asked, "What's the matter?"

Algaea looked at Lu Yang and said, "Boss, we have found an army of undead. There are millions of people, all human beings who died in battle, and there are a large number of undead."

Algaea turned the camera to the ground, and Lu Yang could clearly see through the video that countless human zombies, skeletons, and beast corpses were chasing away by a group of gray-skinned humanoids on a wide road on the ground. Ran towards the East China Sea.

In the middle of the undead army, there is an extremely luxurious dark silver carriage, which is obviously not a product of the earth. Eight skeletons are pulling this carriage, and sitting on the top of the carriage is a monster more than three meters high.

He has black sharp horns on his head, his body is gray, and sharp bones have come out of his skin and spread all over his body. He also has a tail with bone spikes on it.

"Hmm~!" The monster glanced at the sky in surprise, and a gray light shot straight towards Algaea. Fortunately, the distance was high enough and Algaea was vigilant enough to control the cloud sculpture to avoid the blow, but The elven warrior behind him obliquely did not escape, and was hit by a gray light, turning into ashes along with the cloud sculpture and dissipating in the air.

“Lord-level pinnacle~!” Algaea said in horror.

“Retreat quickly, don’t die, just know where they came from.” Lu Yang said.

“I hold on.” Algaea didn’t listen to Lu Yang’s words, gritted his teeth and quickly flew away from the lord’s attack range, and continued to check from behind.

“The second carriage, the third carriage, the fourth carriage...” Algaea said with trepidation in his voice, “Boss, there are seven carriages, which means that the enemy has seven lords. What shall we do? ?”

The seven peak lords are not something the elves can deal with, nor can they be dealt with by the Jagged Brothers. Not only the seven of them, even the millions of zombies, skeletons, and hundreds of thousands of gray unknown race fighters. These two races, humans and elves, cannot be dealt with.

Lu Yang’s expression also became serious. patted Hong Ye’s head and said, “Go to Baishan City.”

“Roar~!” Hong Ye let out a low roar, his body rotated to change the direction of flight.

Lu Yang said to Algaea: “Call all the high-level staff, and we will discuss the solution together.”

“Yes.” Algaea nodded. He controlled the cloud sculpture to fly into the clouds and flew quickly towards Baishan City.

Zhuojiu asked, “Is there any solution?”

A wry smile appeared at the corner of Lu Yang’s mouth, and said, “There is a way, but it turned out to be for the Demon Clan, but it was a pity that I had to use it in advance.”

“It’s a big deal.” The white lion gritted his teeth and said.

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "You are not strong enough to defeat the enemy at all. We still need time to recover and develop. After I survive this time, I will find you enough training materials so that you can do it as soon as possible. Reach the pinnacle of the lord."

"Oh~!" Bai Shi, Zhuo Jiu and others all sighed, annoyed by their lack of ability.

Lu Yang didn't care. He controlled Hong Ye and flew quickly over Baishan City. As soon as he fell in front of the castle, he saw Algaea with Rustafa and other high-level elves waiting there.

Lu Yang quickly landed on the ground, without waiting for them to greet him, and said, "Don't say anything, I tell you all the slaves under your command. Starting today, as long as they help us fight, they will be promoted from slaves to civilians and have war achievements. Also named a nobleman."

Rustafa asked in surprise: "Are you going to let those slaves help us fight?"

Lu Yang nodded and said, "Yes, there are not enough staff now, so I can only do this."

Rustafa, Algaea and the others looked at each other and nodded. Rustafa said, "I will call the high-ranking member of the five races to come over."

Chapter 2371: Duel undead army

In the red moon night that just happened, the newcomers of the Elf tribe have been surrendered, and 5 more lords have emerged. The remaining five tribes were surrendered by the stale wine and the white lion with the army. After that, all these people were thrown to the elves. Family to manage.

There are 25 lords of these five races. None of them surrendered. Now they are all locked in the cages of the elves.

When Rustapha brought them, each lord was wearing magical shackles, preventing them from using their abilities.

“What are we calling for? We will never surrender!” a lord of the ogre clan roared.

Rustafa smiled and said: “Jaime Yang, a special magic race in the ogre, good at dual fire and thunder spells.”

Lu Yang smiled and looked at Jaime Yang, his body instantly turned into a flame lord with a height of 3 meters, and said: “Give you two choices, follow me in the war, you will regain the title of nobleman, or death!”

Jaime Yang stared at Lu Yang in the form of flames blankly, and muttered to himself: “You have reached the peak of the lord level? A human?”

“Answer my question.” A Vulcan bird hammer appeared in Lu Yang’s hands.

“Of course I chose to join the war, but you have to clarify first, what does the title of nobility mean?” Jaime Yang’s eyes were cunning.

Lu Yang said: “War is your last chance to win the title of nobility. From now on, you will fight with me. You will kill 50 enemies and become a coordinated army. Kill 150 enemies and become civilians. Kill 300 enemies and become allies.

Kill a demon-level powerhouse and become a baron, a spirit-level powerhouse to a viscount, and a lord-level powerhouse to an earl. The lowest level of the title is 200 acres. For each level you upgrade, your territory is doubled, and you will get Slaves and high-level magic cores and rare treasures. ”

This is the most luxurious gift given by Lu Yang. In other words, after this war, the lords who surrendered such as Jaime Yang will become the largest landlords in Jilin Province. Most of the materials they receive will belong to them, and, Lu Yang gave them freedom.

"I accept." Jaime Yang said first.

"Jaime Yang, you shameless, did you give up your faith in God so soon?" A rock tribe lord yelled at him frantically.

"Purple Flame Laser"

Lu Yang opened his third eye on his forehead, and a laser hit the head of the Rock Race Lord. With a loud boom, the Rock Race Lord died on the spot, and all the Lords who were watching were dumbfounded.

"That, that is the strongest lord of the Rock Clan." Rustafa was a little bit reluctant.

Lu Yang stared at all the lords present, and said, "surrender or die, I am not in the mood to persuade you one by one."

The remaining 23 lords looked at each other, 11 lords chose to abandon their faith and followed Lu Yang, while the remaining 12 remained standing in place.

"Die all~!"

A laser shot from Lu Yang's eyes, sweeping across the bodies of these 12 lords, exploding their bodies, and then he picked up the magic cores in the brains of these lords and threw them to Jaime Yang and the other 11 lords, saying: "Send A meeting gift for you."

"Many, thank you~!" Jaime Yang and the others were a little panicked. They could already feel it. Even without the injured shackles, they couldn't beat Lu Yang.

"What are we going to do now?" Doslod, the lord of the troll tribe, asked respectfully.

Lu Yang asked, "How many subordinates can you persuade to follow you in the fight? I need more fighters. This command is not only effective for you, but also effective for them."

This is the biggest problem. The captured soldiers of the five races can be slaves, allowing them to abandon their gods. It is not a particularly easy task. Only certain races can do this.

Jaime Yang said: "All of my people can join. We believe in various schools of magic such as wind, fire, lightning, ice, space, etc. We believe in whoever can improve our strength."

"I can too." Dostoy said, the troll race is also a race of multiple gods.

The lords of the three races of Halata, Rock and Undead looked at each other, shook their heads, and said: "Our people have a single belief, and it is impossible to betray God."

Lu Yang said: "Then the three of you can join the war. Jaime Yang and Dosduo go to persuade the tribe to join the war. This time we are going to face the undead tribe. I want to let the millions of undead come back and forth."

"Yes." The five tribe lord bowed and said.

A magic symbol appeared in Lu Yang's hand and flew into the foreheads of 12 lords such as Jaime Yang, completing their enslavement, and said, "After the war, I will decide whether to remove or keep the slave symbol above your head."

"Yes." Jaime Yang and others dared not refute. Seeing Lu Yang's decisiveness in killing people, they had no choice but to be willing to be enslaved when they didn't want to die.

"Master, we're going to persuade you to go down." Jaime Yang and Dostoy said, bowing together. Lu Yang waved his hand, looked at the lord of the undead tribe, Mars, and asked: "Do you know the origin of the undead in the north?" "

Mars nodded and said: "Know some, there is a horrific sadistic warrior sent by Pilos, the lower * under the seat of death. This race is a well-known tyrannical race in the undead world. It likes to * the undead. Breath, the methods of attack are mainly melee bone spur attacks and long-range dark spell attacks."

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "Don't you, the * of death in another world, know that there is a * behind the Necroman in the north?"

"God?" Mars shook his head and said, "I haven't heard."

"It doesn't matter." Lu Yang looked at Rustafa and said, "After gathering the soldiers of all races, go to the Shekou flank to ambush and wait for my offensive order."

"Yes." Rustafa said.

"I'm back to Shekou." Lu Yang summoned Red Night, and quickly flew back towards Shekou with Zhuojiu, White Lion and others.

This time, as long as there are elves and other races to help, there are 23 lord-level powerhouses on his side. Among them, there are 1 human race, 10 elves, and the remaining 12 belong to the other five races. This number definitely exceeds the undead. The number of lords of the clan, he didn't believe that he couldn't kill these * bastards.

When Lu Yang flew back here, the Jagged Brotherhood had all mobilized, including the Demon Race and the Harpy Race, and all the materials stored for more than a year were transported from the warehouse to the defense areas.

One day later, when the first ray of sunlight on the side shone through the red dark clouds on the towering cliffs on both sides of Shekou, the undead people all over the mountains arrived at Shekou Fortress, and the seven carriages stopped at the forefront of the undead army at the same time. , In every carriage, there was a Lord of the Horror Race who stood up and looked at the human wall with a sneer.

“This is the defensive position of mankind, two mountains and some magic circles, so vulnerable.”

“Weak humans, lowly creatures.”

“Destroy their souls~!”

...

The seven lords raised their arms at the same time, and a violent black light gradually formed from their hands, but at this moment, violent coercion suddenly came from the air.

“Roar~!”

Hong Ye roared furiously, and the dragon head flew savagely toward the chariot. Lu Yang stood on top of Hong Ye’s head with the warhammer in both hands, and said loudly, “Lord of the Terror Tribe, do you look down on us humans so much?”

The arms of the seven lords pointed at Red Night at the same time, and the terrifying black rays flashed across the sky instantly, but before he could get close, Hong Ye dodges the attack sideways, and at a distance of 100 meters from the ground, a breath of dragon sprayed to the ground.

When the dragon’s breath of more than 3000 degrees fell on the ground, it had turned into a cone-shaped flame storm with a diameter of nearly 80 meters.

Red Night swooped over a distance of 200 meters. The undead, zombies, and Tier 2 horrors within 200 meters in length and 100 meters in width were all burned to ashes by the flames. Then, the speed of Red Night continued unabated, and the second breath of dragon spurted out. , And the enemy with a length of more than 200 meters was wiped out.

“Lord of the human race, where is your dignity.” The horror lord in the middle of the seven carriages stared at Lu Yang and roared: “If you don’t stop, I will personally destroy your human walls.”

Lu Yang looked back at the talking horror lord, his appearance was extremely ugly, he sneered, and said, "Seven lords surpassed the attack together, where is your dignity? If you want to stand alone, follow me. I want to see, the lord of the horror tribe has some ability."

"Roar~!"

Hong Ye got the order, and flew towards the east side of Shekou's defense position with a roar. There was a plain without any shelter.

In the grass of this plain, the elven lords such as Rustapha and Algaea and the lords of the other five tribes hid in the ice and snow.

"This does not have the dignity of the lord, I protest." Bilba, the lord of the Hasta tribe, growled uncomfortably.

"Don't talk about your sense of honor. This is the earth. You have to understand the rules of existence on the earth. This is a weird planet that is so cunning that even the gods of our world can't match it. Believe me, humans here will become gods sooner or later. And the day when they become gods is the twilight day of the alien gods." Algaea said with a sneer.

"Agree." The undead lord Dade said: "I learned something when I was captured before. This is a group of creatures that don't have any sense of honor and only knows to use conspiracy and tricks. Once this group of creatures have power, they The conspiracies and scheming are superimposed on each other, and the gods are not their opponents either."

Bilba still felt uncomfortable, but at this moment, there was a dragon roar in the sky, and behind the dragon, seven carriages were galloping at high speed.

"Come here, ready to ambush," Rustafa whispered.

Twenty-two lords have accumulated their strength, and every three lords aimed at a horror tribe's lords, and the extra lords were the backstop, ready to fill the loopholes at any time.

500 meters

Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye to fly over the heads of these lords, and then, seven carriages galloped over, and the moment the carriage passed over the heads of Rustafa and the others, 22 lords almost shot at the same time.

In the blink of an eye, the carriage burst, and seven lords of the Horror Race were attacked and severely injured. Lu Yang jumped off the dragon's head and came to the seven lords who had fallen on the ground.

"Despicable human beings, where did these lords come from? Who are they?" The most powerful of the horror tribe lords clutched the hole in his heart, staring at Lu Yang furiously.

Lu Yang sneered, and two hammers appeared in his hands, blasting the heads of the seven horror tribe lords one by one, then drew out the soul cores in their brains, and said, "Follow me back and kill all the undead and horrors."

"Yes." Rustafa and others did not expect Lu Yang to be so fierce, and would not give the Horror race any vitality at all, and killed them on the spot.

What they didn't know was that the Blazing Demon God told Lu Yang that these seven horror lords were all lords who had been promoted by forcibly indoctrinating the undead of human beings. To reach this level, each of them would have at least 1 million lives, and these The main source of human life is those zombies and skeletons on the battlefield!

Lu Yang returned to the battlefield with Rustafa and others. At this time, the battlefield was already in a different situation. The 100,000 soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood and the 5,000 demon army were forming a square formation to push the undead army.

The strength of ordinary skeletons and zombies is the first-level elementary or intermediate level, a few skeletons can reach the second-level, and a few are the third-level.

The warriors of the horror tribe are mostly Tier 2 soldiers. This time the army sent by the northern undead tribe to attack has never thought that the human legion can survive the war of the void zerg. Therefore, in addition to sending seven lords For the six elves, the rest of the legions are dominated by the most common legions.

There are six to seven hundred Tier 4 spirit level powerhouses of the Horror Clan. They sensed the situation as soon as their lord died, and after shouting warnings to each other, they quickly led the legion to flee toward the north.

This is what Lu Yang defended against. He brought lords such as Algaea and Rustafa to kill the spirit-level powerhouses of the Horror race.

Zhuojiu, White Lion and others led an army of 100,000 to hunt down the ordinary army of the undead, and along the Shekou defensive position, they hunted down to the outskirts of Fu City. More than a quarter of the deaths of a million undead and more than 100,000 terror tribes one.

“How can these undead run like this? I’m tired and they are not tired yet.” Mao Qiu frowned and cursed while riding on the snow wolf.

“It’s all undead and tired ghost, go ahead and kill.” Vulcan M16 casts spells while controlling the mount to run.

The members of the Jagged Brotherhood around them smiled, chasing and killing them more than 400 kilometers away. They were tired, not to mention that the Snow Wolf was also tired, but this group of undead was not tired.

Zhuojiu said: “Don’t worry, there are allies ahead to stop the undead, and the warriors of the elves, trolls, and ogres are ready.”

As soon as the words fell, countless fireworks shot straight into the sky from the plain ahead. The 200,000 armies of the Elves, the 50,000 armies of the Ogres, and the Trolls formally launched an offensive, blocking the Legion of the Undead on both sides.

Standing on the top of Hong Ye’s head, Lu Yang was relieved to see this scene and continued to chase the spirit-level powerhouses of the Horror Race. Anyone who was stared at by him would have a purple flame laser in his third eye, and he would surely kill him instantly. A spirit-level powerhouse.

During this 400-kilometer journey, he killed 63 spirit-level powerhouses alone, and he locked another spirit-level powerhouse in the distance.

“Purple Flame Laser”

Lu Yang opened his third eye on his forehead, and a purple laser shot past it, but when it hit the body of the spirit-level horror, it didn’t penetrate its body. Instead, a burst of light emerged from the back of the spirit-level horror. The black-violet ripples blocked the Ziyang laser.

“It’s interesting~!” The Blazing Demon God said in Lu Yang’s consciousness: “Grab him, the identity of this terror demon is a bit special. What he just blocked you from attacking is not something a spirit-level powerhouse can possess.”

Lu Yang also felt it. In the past four years, he had seen only two strong men with shields, one was the Void Mother Worm, and the other was the terror in front of him. He was very curious about this fourth-order spirit level terror. Where did the devil get the shield.

“Yan Yang Cable”

Lu Yang stretched his finger towards the back of the horror, dozens of scarlet flames flew out of the foot of the horror’s landing place, and instantly wrapped the horror in place like a spider web, unable to move.

“Roar, let me go, let me go.” The spirit-level horror struggled frantically, but Lu Yang released his magic with one hand, and the flame ribbon flew into Lu Yang’s hand with the horror.

“I’ll leave the rest of the battle to you, don’t leave a living mouth.” Lu Yang used the intercom to say to Algaea and other lords.

“Leave it to us to ensure that none of them can escape.” Algaea, Rustafa and others said in unison.

Lu Yang turned off the communicator and ordered Hong Ye to fly to a hill not far away. He threw the terror to the ground. Before the other party could speak, he slapped his head with a palm, smashing its heavenly spirit cover.

“Help check his soul.” Lu Yang said.

“Enough ruthless.” The Blazing Demon God was very satisfied with Lu Yang’s behavior. Divine Mind was struggling to move the contents of his head out of the spirit-level Terrorist’s mind in an instant.

“Hey, this is still a refiner.” Blazing Demon God said excitedly: “I have refined the basic refinement knowledge in his head. Who do you want to use? If you use it well, you can cultivate it in the future. With the emergence of a batch of craftsmen, the death rate of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood will be greatly reduced.”

“Give it to Han Zhong and my new junior brothers. My master likes refining weapons.” Lu Yang shook his head with a smile. From the beginning of the invasion of another world, Han Zhong asked to participate in the war, but his strength was too low and he had cultivated to the point. The first-order peak couldn’t be improved.

In addition, Lu Yang didn't want to see Han Zhong die in battle, so he didn't give him red spirit fruit and purple spirit fruit. As a result, Han Zhong stayed in the first-order peak state for four years without improving.

Lu Yang asked, "Is there any news about that undead god?"

The Blazing Demon chuckled and said: "You have encountered a problem. This deity's name is McConaughey. He was once a peak-level upper * and a general under the throne of the new undead god. I have fought with him before, but I didn't expect that he betrayed the King of Gods. It is estimated that he was holding a large piece of the Demon God's Heart in my hand and wanted to absorb it by himself."

Lu Yang frowned and said, "Then we can't beat this one."

The Blazing Demon God had an angry expression on his face, and said: "It's not just that you can't beat it. Let him know about your existence. He will send more legions to kill you. Even if I can't beat him, the only lucky one of us is Mai. Connor was severely injured, and his realm fell to the lower level of the gods, and he was still unable to move. You must take advantage of his recovery time to increase your strength as much as possible, otherwise, you and I will both die!"

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "How to improve?"

There are no more places on earth that can improve Lu Yang's strength, and the gods of the undead tribe may not only protect him from the lord, but also the existence of the demon king and the monarch level.

Blazing Demon God said: "Now you need to improve from two aspects, one is the improvement of your subordinates, and the other is your own improvement. Get ready, the Red Mist Blood Pool is about to open."

"Red Mist Blood Pond? There really is a weird type of fighter like the Red Mist Warrior, right?" Lu Yang asked in surprise. Back then, the Red Mist Warrior was Lu Yang's assassin in the game.

The Blazing Demon God sneered and said: "Of course it is true. The one who made this game is a fallen old god. All creatures in the game are real, including professions."

Lu Yang's eyes shone brightly, and said, "Tell me in detail what is going on in this red mist blood pool."

"Of course." Blazing Demon God slowly told the story of the Red Mist Blood Pond!

Chapter 2373: Violent power

The Blazing Demon God looked back at him and said: "The Red Mist Blood Pool, even in another world, is an extremely special place. If you want to enter there, you can only enter it when the blood sun rises once every 100 years.

At that time, there will be a large number of teleportation formations open in different worlds, and all races can enter the teleportation formation. These creatures need to fight in the swamp where blood is everywhere, and the dead creatures will be killed by the blood pool. Swallow."

Lu Yang asked curiously, "What does it mean to swallow?"

The Blazing Demon said: "The characteristic of the Red Mist Blood Pool is to swallow all the energy of the dead. The skin, flesh, soul, and magic power will all be swallowed up by the blood pool. The reason why the Red Mist Warrior can be produced is also because the blood pool is swallowed up. The energy of this batch of creatures then denied the blood fog * that appeared."

Lu Yang understood, and said with a sigh: "The red mist blood pool itself does not produce energy, but absorbs the energy of the war dead, and then spit out the excess energy into a blood mist ball."

The Blazing Demon said: "This is also the conclusion drawn by my research with the old gods. As for what this red mist blood pool is, we don't know exactly, because only creatures below the lord level can enter this place, like us. The king of God, it's not easy to catch up with the chance to get in once."

Lu Yang couldn't help but glanced at the Blazing Demon God with contempt, and said, "Then I will suffer a lot when I go in, I am a lord pinnacle."

The Blazing Demon God said: "It is indeed a disadvantage. There are at least a few million creatures of the ten thousand races that entered this time, and at least two thousand lords have entered, and each has a clansman to protect you, but you will soon be promoted to the Demon King level, isn't it? , We studied that even if you were promoted to the Demon King level inside, you wouldn't be kicked out or killed. It could still exist inside, and there would be no problem when you came out."

Lu Yang said, "But how am I alive? There are too many other races, and how do I get in."

There are millions of creatures in the different world occupying various transmission channels. For the time being, not to mention the matter of being chased after entering, just how to get in is a big problem.

Blazing Demon God didn't care, and said: "I know a few secret transmission channels. I will take you there. As for how to survive after entering, I will tell you where you are hiding."

The Blazing Demon God, who has existed in another world for millions of years, sends his subordinate races into research every time the Red Mist Blood Pool opens. He has found several safest places.

"I'm relieved, let's finish the battle here first, and then we will go to the Red Mist Blood Pool." Lu Yang stood up and jumped onto Hong Ye's head, swooping and flying towards the battlefield.

At this time, the Iron-Blood Brotherhood and the six elves have formed an encirclement to the forces of the undead race. Although the number is not as large as the opponent, the strength is far stronger than the opponent.

When Lu Yang came to the battlefield, Heiyan was carrying various wizard groups and the six elves wizard groups under the command of Rustafa to cover the undead in the area. There were a large number of undead and horrors of Tier 2 and below. Died in battle.

The strongest Tier 4 spirit-level horrors have all been killed, and only thousands of Tier 3 demon-level horrors are supported in the spell. These horrors gather together to create a huge purple-black protective cover. A large number of spells hit it and were blocked.

“Transformation”

Lu Yang’s body instantly turned into a lord form with a height of 100 meters. The two Vulcan bird hammers also became 50 meters in size, and the hammer heads were more than 30 meters thick.

“Break it for me~!”

Lu Yang picked up two warhammers and slammed them on the protective cover. With a loud bang, the protective covers made by thousands of Tier 3 horrors were shattered by the two warhammers. The horrors were backlashed by magic and fell to the ground.

“Die all to me~!” Lu Yang opened his third eye on his forehead, and a purple laser shot out from it, sweeping across the ground. All Tier 3 horrors encountered were cut into two pieces and died on the spot!

Algaea, Zhuojiu and others saw that Lu Yang was so powerful and burst into cheers. It was not that Lu Yang was deliberately showing off his strength, but only through this, would the six elves have more confidence in humans.

“Summon Magma”

Lu Yang didn’t bother to waste time on killing these low-level creatures, and directly chanted the spell to release the flame lord’s talent skills.

He felt magma flowing five kilometers underground in this area. This distance is the limit of his movement, but it can still be hooked out.

Zhuojie, Algaea and others had seen Lu Yang summoning a volcano. They were frightened and commanded their troops to retreat. The warriors of the Horror and Undead tribe thought they had hope of alive, but they just passed it. In 5 minutes, the earth shook crazily in the surrounding area of more than ten kilometers.

“Get up~!” Lu Yang roared up to the sky in the form of a 100-meter-high Flame Lord, and his two hammers slammed into the ground fiercely.

“Boom~!”

With Luyang as the center, hundreds of volcanic craters with a diameter of 50 meters appeared within a range of more than ten kilometers. Crimson-red magma over 2000 degrees was violently ejected from the crater, and the plain was covered by magma in the blink of an eye. Submerged, hundreds of thousands of undead warriors within the range died in this magma.

The work of Zhuojiu, Algaea and others is left to hunt down the remaining terror and undead. By the middle of the night, the hunt is over.

Go back to Baishan City.

Lords such as Algaea and Jaimeyang found Lu Yang with a look of curiosity and admiration. Algaea couldn't help asking: “Boss, how come the strength of the lord-level pinnacle is so strong? Your strength is obviously better than We lords have come out a lot.”

“Yes, yes.” Jaime Yang, Bilba and other lords nodded repeatedly.

Lu Yang looked at them with a smile and asked, “Why, I want to learn.”

“Hmm~!” Algaea and others nodded desperately, how could they not be excited if they could raise their strength to such a strong level.

Lu Yang smiled and shook his head, and said, “For the time being, you can't learn it. This requires a lot of magic cores to improve your strength. Even if all the magic cores in your hands are added together, it will not be enough for one of you to be promoted to With this level of mine, you can accumulate magic cores with peace of mind. When there are enough, I will teach you.”

“Thank you boss (master)!” Algaea, Bilba and others knelt on the ground and said respectfully.

Lu Yang said: “According to the prior agreement, you are no longer my slaves, but the nobles of your heart. Find a place you like. These areas will be your territory in the future, and there will be differences in the future. The races of the world are sent over, or if we catch creatures of other races, they will all become slaves, and you and us are the masters of those slaves.”

“Thank you again.” Bilba, Jaimeyang and others knelt again.

Lu Yang looked at Algaea and said, “From today, your six clans will go out to cooperate with my army to enter the northern area to find out the enemy’s situation. You must investigate the enemy’s hidden location and deployment of troops in detail.”

Algaea bowed and said, “Don’t worry, I will try my best to do it.”

Lu Yang nodded, looked at the people around Zhuojiu, White Lion and others, and said, “I’m going to leave for a while to find a way to improve your strength for you and your men. The demons in Riyue Mountain and Xishi Water Cave The orcs must be killed on time, and the wild monsters cannot be spared. There is also the daily production situation in Shekou and Donghai.”

“Boss, don’t worry, we will take care of the house.” Zhuojiu said.

Love half a lifetime with a smile and said: “I promise not to hold you back.”

Lu Yang laughed and said, “I’m leaving, please contact me in time if you have anything to do.”

“Let’s take a rest for the night.” Algayala said Lu Yang.

Lu Yang knew Algaea's thoughts and said with a smile: "You should leave your elven maidservant with Zhuojiu and White Lion. If you have a chance to see my wife, he is very important to me."

"Hey, okay." Algaea scratched his head embarrassedly.

When Lu Yang came out of the Void Hall, he found that the ordinary people of the elves were very close to the ordinary people of humans. The two races had begun to marry, and half-elf children were born. This is what Lu Yang wants to see most. of.

Chapter 2374: Red Mist Hall

In the past two years, the population of Donghai has been rapidly recovering. After the people in the three cities have stabilized their lives, they originally had a population of about 12 million, but now there are nearly two million more newborns. .

Coupled with the half-elves born from the combination of the elves and humans, Lu Yang believes that as long as they are stable for a few more years, humans will be able to usher in a super high population growth rate. This way, more soldiers can be recruited. They are all capital for human beings to counterattack another world in the future.

"Everyone, cooperate well and wait for my good news." Lu Yang walked out of the palace, jumped into the air, Hong Ye skipped over from a distance, and steadily caught Lu Yang above his head and flew in the direction of Shekou. Went back.

For the next five days, Lu Yang stayed with Shen Mengyao at home while studying the map of the Red Mist Blood Pond with the Blazing Demon God. As for the * in the north, after the millions of troops he dispatched were killed, the White Lion He brought the Beastblood Warrior Legion into his territory many times to explore, but found that this * had never happened before, and he didn't even think about counterattack.

On the sixth morning, after Lu Yang and Shen Mengyao bid farewell, they flew into Bandarsberg with a ray of light. As soon as they landed, the Blazing Demon chanted a spell. In an instant, it was in the northwest corner of Bandarsberg. There was a hole in the sky.

The entrance of the cave was pitch black, but there was a strong wave of magic. The Blazing Demon said to Lu Yang: "Go in, I can't hold it anymore."

Lu Yang turned into a phoenix and jumped into the hole. In the next second, his body was completely out of control. He persisted in various folding and bending for some time. Suddenly, a piece of land appeared in front of him. Guangliang, he was kicked out of the space uncontrollably.

As soon as he landed, Lu Yang ignored his physical discomfort, and quickly looked around, only to find that the space here was extremely strange. It was obviously a valley, but there was still a valley in the sky, standing upside down.

The sky and the earth are completely black, there is no sun and moon, but purple grasses glowing white are everywhere on the ground, and many weird calls can be heard in my ears.

"Where is this?" Lu Yang frowned and asked.

The Blazing Demon God was a little weak, and said: "This is called a subspace. It is a special area connected to another world. Only I know this place. As for why it looks like this, I don't know. The portal is in the valley. Let's rest. Now, don't worry that there will be creatures attacking you here, there are no creatures here."

Lu Yang nodded and sat cross-legged on the ground to rest. He smiled bitterly and said, "Is the feeling that I shuttled through the passage of time and space just now, is it just the feeling transmitted by creatures in a different world? weak."

The Blazing Demon said: "Yes, the narrower the passage of time and space, the more powerful creatures have to undergo more folding. The folding in the void is the most painful. You just arrive at the closer subspace, another world. The lord of "was directly transmitted, so after he came, he was not seriously injured but also weak."

Lu Yang looked at the direction of the valley, where a red light was shining. It was probably another teleportation formation. He asked, "Is the next teleportation formation still so painful?"

Blazing Demon said: "This is where your advantage lies. Teleporting from this subspace, your distance is half shorter than others."

Lu Yang understood that if it was a normal teleportation distance, the first reaction of a creature in that world would be dizziness, or even nausea and vomiting. Unlike him, he can adjust his body to the best state before entering it. After getting inside, there is still a strong fighting power to protect yourself.

Right now, Lu Yang rested on the spot. After his physical condition was fully recovered, Lu Yang came into the valley and saw a huge red teleportation array 10 meters in height. He stepped in.

"Om~!"

As the sky was spinning around, Lu Yang didn't know how long the time had passed. Just when his body was about to be unable to support it, the next second, he felt his body relaxed and fell freely from the air.

With a "bang", Lu Yang smashed into the water, and at the same time, there was a continuous sound of falling water around him.

"Roar~!"

"Ah~~~!"

...

The sound of killing on the water made Lu Yang react fiercely. The Red Mist Blood Pond had already been sent. He struggled to stand up quickly. The water was not deep, only about half a meter, but the water was blood red.

"Die to me~!" An orc next to Lu Yang spotted Lu Yang, raising his warhammer and smashing it towards Lu Yang's head.

Lu Yang wore a Vulcan bird armor all over his body, with the Vulcan bird warhammer in his hand, turned around with a hammer, before the opponent's hammer hit him, and then came first, smashing the orc's head together with the helmet, and the powerful force directly smashed the orc. Kneeling in the red blood pool.

"Hi~!"

The blood pool boiled and rolled around the orc. In less than 3 seconds, the orc's corpse disappeared, and there were no bones left.

"Isn't he killed when his life is lost? This pool of water is used to determine who is dead and who is alive?" Lu Yang asked in amazement.

"Don't stand here hurry up." The Blazing Demon said to Lu Yang in his consciousness: "Remember not to get hurt. This pool of blood will not only kill people, but also the living, as long as you bleed. Now, the blood will follow your wound and penetrate into your body, leaving your body with nothing left to eat within three seconds."

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief. He had this set of quasi-god-level battle armor to ensure safety. He jumped into the air, and his body turned into an undead shape. He looked at the surrounding environment, and there was steaming blood fog everywhere. , Asked: "Where am I now and how should I go?"

The Blazing Demon God scanned the surroundings and said, "You should now be the outermost part of the Red Mist Blood Pond, fly to the middle area, where there is a Red Mist Hall, hide in that Hall."

"good."

Lu Yang flapped his wings and quickly flew towards the middle hall.

Fortunately, there is no limit on the flying height of the Red Mist and Blood Pool. The transmission channel in the air is about 50 meters high. He flies at an altitude of 100 meters without worrying about being hit.

Moreover, he only teleported in after taking a rest, and the body could still hold on. The other fighters of various races who teleported in, the high-level fighters all sat in the blood pool to rest. Only the low-level fighters were fighting and could not stop him. .

The Blazing Demon seemed to have its own navigation, constantly guiding Lu Yang. Four hours later, before Lu Yang ran out of magic power, he saw a huge island in the sea of blood in front of him. There was a silver and black island on it. The huge palace is almost as big as the side of the island.

“That’s the Great Hall of Red Mist, go in.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang nodded, seeing that there were no enemies on the left or right. He quickly swooped to the door of the main hall and walked into the palace. But when he entered, he was locked in by six murderous auras at the same time, which shocked Lu Yang’s cold sweat.

Chapter 2375: God belongs to race

At the entrance of the hall, there are six creatures of different races in groups of three being hostile to each other. The first long ghost-like face on the left is similar to an orc, and the height is about 2 meters. The second has three faces, but all It is the face of a dead person, and the last one is the ghost of the soul body.

Of the three races on the right, the first is a humanoid with tentacles on the chin, the second is a monster with six hands and a face like a mummy, and the third is a dragon with an orc body.

The Blazing Demon God said in his consciousness: “The ones on the left are the Guimian tribe and the Three-face tribe, and the three on the right are the Divine Beard tribe, the Dobby tribe, and the Dragon Beast tribe. The strength is around the lord-level intermediate, but don’t underestimate them, the armors, weapons and treasures on their bodies are not ordinary.”

“Is my Fire Bird suit powerful?” Lu Yang asked.

“No, but it’s not too bad.” Blazing Demon God said.

“Then I understand.” Lu Yang was about to run away.

“Here is another new friend, what kind of faith?” A dead face of the three-faced tribe was facing Lu Yang, and asked cunningly.

When Lu Yang came, he discussed this with the Blazing Demon God, smiling and saying in ancient elven: “Wandering race, it’s not worth mentioning, please continue on both sides, I won’t bother.”

The wandering races are those races whose tribes have lost their faith after being eliminated. Often there are only a few tribesmen of these races. They wander on planets in another world and rely on being bounty hunters to survive.

Often such individuals are very powerful. When they are not concerned, the major races are usually reluctant to provoke them so as not to be attacked and killed by these mercenaries without faith and honor.

“Unexpectedly, the wandering race can also enter here. How about joining our Destroyer God camp? We guarantee that you can get a red mist bead.” The three-faced man released a bewitching spell.

“He is telling lies, join our natural gods camp, I promise in the name of the * of light, you will get a red mist bead.” The lord-level powerhouse of the * bear clan yelled and interrupted the bewitching spell.

“What do you want?”

Weapons were shown on both sides, and there was a stance of disagreement, but neither side really did it. Those who can enter here first are not idiots. What you want to fight outside is a chance to enter here. They have already come in. Naturally, the winner will not be divided at this time. One more, there are three people on both sides, and there is one more Lu Yang who has no one to care about.

“How did the friend decide?” the three-faced man asked with a grin.

Lu Yang arched his hands to both sides and said, “I’m sorry, I can’t make a decision for the time being, I’ll take a step first.”

After speaking, he bypassed the area where the two sides were confronting each other and walked backwards towards the depths of the hall. Just when both sides were still keeping him, Lu Yang said, “The army of all races outside is not far from here, please persuade you to also Leave as soon as possible, otherwise, the army will rush in and no one will be spared.”

Even the lord level cannot withstand the frantic attacks of five or six hundred spiritual level powerhouses in a small space. Besides, who knows which lord is watching in secret, and which spiritual level powerhouse has special attack weapons in his hands?

The six lord-level powerhouses looked at each other, gradually lowering the weapons in their hands, and the three-faced man said: “Why don’t we just leave it alone, how about?”

“Agree.” The doobby’s lord nodded and said.

“Then we each step back and find a safe place first.” said the lord of the ghost race.

The six lords stared at each other and took a step back. Finally, the war subsided and each ran forward.

Among them, the lord of the three-face race ran to Lu Yang, his head rotated 120 degrees, and the smiling faces in the three faces aimed at Lu Yang, and said, “Friend, I feel that we are very close, how about walking together?”

The Blazing Demon God snorted coldly, and said: "This three-faced leader assassinated you. He has a special attack method, specifically attacking the opponent with his soul. This is to ignore the armor. Be careful. Once he is released from the body Three souls bite your soul, and you may be killed."

Lu Yang secretly said something dangerous. Ever since he had the full armor of the Vulcan Bird and the Soul of the Phoenix, he has somewhat looked down on the powerhouses of the same level. He didn't expect an existence that could kill him.

"Get one step closer to me, don't blame me for being polite, put away your soul attack." Lu Yang said, staring at the lord of the three-faced tribe as he saw the Fire Bird Warhammer in his hand.

"Haha, I've seen it through. It's ridiculous that you want to sneak attack with your tricks." The leader of the dragon beast clan opened his huge dragon mouth and laughed.

The three-faced man stopped in place angrily, his face quickly rotated 120 degrees and turned into a grimace, glaring at the dragon orc behind him and cursed: "In comparison, your dragon roar is rubbish."

The Blazing Demon chuckled, and said: "Dragon and beasts have a talent ability, that is, roaring at close range. The super sonic attack at close range is very terrifying, and it is also an attack method that ignores the armor. You have to be careful."

Lu Yang was speechless for a while, and said, "Why can anyone break your suit of armor? You are too useless, so you will leave these tatters."

"Damn~!" Blazing Demon God was anxious and cursed: "When you think of this place, take a good look at these six races. Are they the races you've seen before? They are born demon king-level powerhouses, and they practice a little bit. For decades, they have been the lord-level powerhouses. They are pure-bred gods. These are the descendants of the races with gods and official positions in the gods. Not to mention their special skills, and their weapons are definitely not ordinary weapons. "

"No wonder." Lu Yang took a closer look at these six people. As expected, their weapons all had a weird light, completely different from those made of ordinary star steel and broken star iron.

The six lords were also staring at Lu Yang secretly at this time. Seeing Lu Yang's weapons and armor, they also felt that Lu Yang was not an ordinary wandering tribe, and they were very afraid.

"Boom~!"

There was a knocking sound from the door of the palace. The next second, the door of the palace opened during the impact. Countless snake-body men appeared at the door, seeing Lu Yang and others, and raising the hammer in his hand at the same time.

"Kill them~!" The headed serpent screamed, and countless serpents poured in like a tide.

"Run quickly." None of the six lords had any intention of attacking these snake-body people, so they raised their legs and ran deep into the hall.

Lu Yang also hurriedly ran. He didn't want to expose his attacking spells at this time. If a person accidentally falls into the tide of the snake body, he will struggle to live.

"There are six forks ahead, how should I run?" Lu Yang asked.

The Blazing Demon said: "The second one on the right."

Lu Yang nodded and quickly ran into the second entrance on the right, but by coincidence, he ran into the same entrance with the three-faced man, while the other lords were in other forks.

Chapter 2376: Ancient Crystal Controller

"Yohoo~!" The three-faced man quickly approached Lu Yang, with a smiling face on the side, and asked Lu Yang, "You also know this road? Who is your backer? It really makes me curious."

Lu Yang raised the hammer in his hand, forcing the three-faced man not to get close to within 2 meters, and said, "Stop talking nonsense, what are you doing with me? I ran in casually, do you still want to attack me?"

"Hey, don't admit it yet." The three-faced man looked at the door at the end of the passage in front of him in no rush, and said, "Then how about I let you go in?"

Blazing Demon God said in his consciousness: "Be careful, there are agencies there, so many people rush in, and the temple will activate its autonomous defense system."

"What do you mean?" Lu Yang asked.

"Hi~!"

The sound of rubbing between the boulders and the boulders came from above. Lu Yang looked up and saw that there were originally large bluestones on the ceiling of the palace passage, but at this time these large bluestones turned down vertically.

The crimson water contained in it poured down like a waterfall, and in a blink of an eye it passed Lu Yang's waist, and the water level continued to rise.

"Neigh~!"

Ear-piercing screams came from the entrance of the cave, and red murloc-like creatures swam out. They moved extremely quickly in the water, twisting their bodies vigorously, and came to Lu Yang in the blink of an eye.

"Don't fight them hard, let these murlocs kill the chasers behind." Blazing Demon said.

Lu Yang jumped into the air for 50 meters. At the same time, wings appeared on his back, leading him to fly forward quickly.

The three-faced man originally thought that Lu Yang would be blocked, but he didn't expect Lu Yang to fly, which made him very upset. The crying face came to the front, let out a faint low groan, and the murlocs walked around him one after another.

Lu Yang was a little surprised, but he didn't have time to think about it. He quickly flew into the hole in front of him. As soon as he entered, he found that there was a huge maze in front of him. There was still a red river over a meter high on the ground, but there were a lot of murlocs. not much.

The Blazing Demon said: "This is called the Nether Hall. The red murlocs in the water just now are called Nether murlocs. These fish are unkillable. Whenever they die, they will automatically melt into the red water. At the same time, this The river will recreate a ghost murloc."

Lu Yang was a little speechless, and said, "Unlimited rebirth, will there be hatred?"

The Blazing Demon said: "Yes, so I won't let you kill them. Once you kill one of the ghost murlocs, after the murloc is resurrected, the first goal is to chase you. The more you kill, the more you will suffer. The higher the probability of the siege, so the strong people who came here, and those who have backers told them to kill the ghost murlocs without doing their own hands, and try not to kill them."

Lu Yang nodded, and said, "I will try not to kill them as much as possible. How can I go now?"

The Blazing Demon said: "Give me the body, and I will take you away."

Lu Yang quickly handed the control of his body to the Blazing Demon God, and the Blazing Demon God swam towards the designated location quickly according to the memory in his mind.

When he encountered the red murloc, the Blazing Demon God controlled Lu Yang to fly into the air to avoid him, and once he dodges, he continued to fall and swim forward.

An hour later, Lu Yang swam out of this area smoothly and came to a black gate. The walls here were all blue and black, and there was a strange monster head on it, only 10 centimeters in size.

The Blazing Demon God took control of Lu Yang's body and jumped into the room. As soon as he landed, Lu Yang discovered that it was a forked corridor with 12 forks, and each road had one side higher than the ceiling. The bluestone is connected, and it is impossible to fly through the air.

"Where is this again?" Lu Yang asked curiously.

The Blazing Demon God smiled triumphantly and said, "Boy, when you get to this place, it is the place to go to the secret road. Most creatures in the front know it, but when you get here, it's another matter. This place is called Zongdao Dao. The * race discovered the secret of this temple after many intrusions. There is an ancient crystal here. If you get this ancient crystal, you can control all the ghost murlocs here."

Lu Yang was stunned, and said with a smile: "There is still this kind of treasure, wouldn't it be equivalent to controlling this temple."

The Blazing Demon God said: "Basically, after you get this ancient crystal, you have the capital to save your life. Don't underestimate the other creatures that enter here. The six lords are not easy for you to deal with. You can't hide here, you must go outside to fight, so that you can control the situation and not make a certain race too strong."

Lu Yang nodded. If one of the races had few casualties and there were several lords in this race, then Lu Yang would not get the Red Mist Orb even if he hid to the end.

"Don't worry, I know what to do." Lu Yang's eyes shone fierce. The Blazing Demon God nodded with satisfaction, and led Lu Yang quickly forward, passing several forks in the road. After that, he finally came to an inconspicuous little bluestone room. In the middle of this room, there was a one-meter-high bluestone platform on which was placed a white crystal with a diameter of about 10 cm.

"This is the ancient crystal. The usage is very simple. You can control all the ghost murlocs by inputting magic power, and you can see all the conditions in the area through the crystal." Blazing Demon returned his body to Lu Yang.

Lu Yang picked up the crystal to inject magic power. In an instant, a complete spatial map was revealed in the crystal, and all creatures appeared on the map in the form of red dots. The stronger red dots are bigger, and the smaller ones are red. The point is small.

“It’s really a good thing.” Lu Yang took the orb and sat down to watch. If he continues to inject magic power, he can still see the specific situation of a certain battlefield.

At this time, the people killed outside the temple were the most ferocious. Almost all the millions of people of all races entered the Red Mist Blood Pond. The demon-level, spirit-level, and lord-level powerhouses also recovered their bodies and were carrying them. The respective clansmen launched an offensive.

All the killed creatures fall into the blood pool, and their bodies will quickly decompose, and those who die in the air with the water in the blood pool will also be swallowed up in the air by the pool water on their bodies.

Inside the temple, Lu Yang found the six lords he had just met at the door. At this moment, they were hiding in a secret corner. The closest to Lu Yang was the three-faced man, and he was seriously injured and lost. A lot of blood is still bleeding in the abdomen without saying a face.

“How about I kill him first?” Lu Yang asked.

Blazing Demon said: “Good idea, I have seen him not pleasing to the eye for a long time.”

The corners of Lu Yang’s mouth rose slightly, and he ran towards the position of the three-faced man...

Inside a secret room.

The three-faced man was sitting on a high platform to rest, and one of his faces kept moaning, and this sound made the water in the red mist and blood pool on his body quickly slide down from him and stay away from his wounds.

If you are a general lord, I am afraid that it has been swallowed into dross by the water of the blood mist pool, but the three-faced man is a race of gods, naturally supported by the special techniques taught by the gods, and his self-healing ability is also extremely strong.

In the three-faced man's low groan, his wound was healing at a speed visible to the naked eye. In the end, his abdomen was intact, as if he had not been injured. The only problem was that the armor protecting his abdomen was damaged, and he did not substitute.

"Damn, I didn't expect to encounter the lord of the Spirit Blade race. These wandering races are the most disgusting. I have to find a chance to kill the wandering race I just met." The three-faced man shouted with a fierce face.

The wandering race is one of the most disgusting races in another world, because everyone knows what strength each race has. Among the gods races, they probably know what each other's techniques and treasures have.

The real variable is these wandering races, no one knows what they have gone through, what treasures they have, what exercises they will use, and if they don't pay attention, they may be killed by the other's special spells.

The three-faced man had just been very careful, he was still approached by the lord of the spirit blade clan, and pierced his abdomen with a stab. If he hadn't had a way to escape the blood mist pool, he died just now, and fortunately the lord of the spirit blade clan I didn't know that he had this trick, but thought it was successful, but he killed it instead.

"How about going out to see?" The smiling face on the left asked excitedly.

The embarrassed face on the right said: "It's better to be careful, and you'll be finished if you are attacked again."

"You two shut up and listen to me." The crying face in the middle was very upset, and he walked outside with a low growl.

Now the place where the three-faced man hides is not safe. There is still a way to go from where he originally hid. He must get out and enter that hidden place.

In the final hidden area, you can directly reach the central hall area of the temple, where the red mist beads were produced. Thinking of this, the three-faced man cautiously walked out of the room, but as soon as he arrived at the door, there were more than a dozen in the distance. A spirit-level void worm with a sickle-shaped arm found him.

"Kill him." A dozen void worms rushed towards him.

The three-faced man was on fire, staring at these void insects with weeping faces, and a black energy jetted out from his entire face, forming a cone-shaped black mist.

The Void Worm entered the black mist, and his body stopped uncontrollably, as if he was demented, and stayed on the spot, and the sickles on his hands were also drooping.

The crying face of the three-faced man sneered, a dagger appeared in his hand, and he walked slowly over with blood, piercing the abdomen of these spirit-level void worms one by one. The next second, these spirit-level void worms just woke up, but only before he screamed, he was swallowed up by the water in the blood mist pool.

Lu Yang saw this scene not far away. He frowned and asked, "What kind of spell is this? Is the spirit level strong no longer moving?"

Blazing Demon God said: "Soul magic, after being sprayed, you will fall into the illusion. This trick does not work for you. You have me by your side. Even if you enter the illusion, I can easily call you out."

“Then what should I do without you?” Lu Yang frowned and asked.

The Blazing Demon said: “This is the power of the three-faced man. When you act alone, you must wear something that can crack the magic spells of the illusion system. Otherwise, you will die if you hit this trick. Of course, there are other things. One way to crack it is that your mental power is far stronger than the other party. For example, my current mental power is no longer mental power, but divine consciousness. This level of illusion is completely ineffective for me.”

“The race of the gods is strong enough.” Lu Yang shook his head, swam quickly to the front of the three-faced man’s only way, stopped at a corner, raised his two hammers in his hands, and waited for the three-faced man quietly. near.

The three-faced man was very happy at this time. He killed more than a dozen spirit-level powerhouses and let the anger in his heart vent out. He thought proudly: “Fight against the lord of my god’s race. It’s really looking for death. Look at me. I will get in touch with the tribe in a while, * the waste outside.”

Thousands of tribesmen came from the Three Faces, and there are two others outside the lord level, and the thousands of tribesmen led by them are all spiritual level powerhouses. He came in to prevent accidents, and the remaining two lords bring The rest of the spirit-level powerhouses are responsible for killing the weaker races outside.

In fact, the current Red Mist Blood Pool has formed a tacit understanding. The major races of the gods will not confront each other head-on from the beginning, but will form alliances. Even the enemies will avoid each other at the beginning. open.

After these * races kill the rest of the non-god creatures, these * races will fight each other, and finally after the red mist beads are produced, several * races will be allocated according to their output.

Of course, the actual situation often changes. If a certain * race is too strong, he will slaughter all the other races, leaving only them. In the end, this * race takes all the red mist beads and leaves the red mist. Blood Pool The three-faced man is thinking about the final result of this battle. What he is most worried about is the dragon beast clan. This year the dragon beast clan is exceptionally strong. He is afraid that the dragon beast clan will eventually slaughter all of them. Race, so he had to go to the hiding place to rest before contacting the tribe.

Just as he was thinking about these things, the three-faced man came to the corner, but at this moment, a pair of scarlet warhammers smashed head-on.

“Boom”

“Boom”

The sound of two blunt instruments smashing the bones into the flesh sounded. The next moment, the right half of the three-faced man was smashed to pieces.

At the moment Lu Yang attacked, the embarrassed face on the side of the three-faced man saw Lu Yang and quickly controlled his body to dodge, but Lu Yang’s attack speed was too fast, and the hammer still hit the three-faced man’s body.

“Ah~!”

Under the terrible pain of the three-faced man, his embarrassed face sprayed a purple wave of energy at Lu Yang, and Lu Yang’s eyes instantly turned into the Donghai Underground City.

“Broken~!” The Blazing Demon snarled.

Lu Yang regained his clarity abruptly, but the three-faced people didn’t know it. At this time, his other two faces were already open. Now the three faces were aimed at Lu Yang at the same time, and the faces on the left and right sides were glowing black, a skull. Formed on the top of the head.

“Asshole, I will torture your soul for ten thousand years~!” The three-faced man’s painful three faces were distorted, and he shouted crazy at Lu Yang~!

Lu Yang’s hands were already drooping, and the two hammers fell into the pool of water, but just as the skull was about to form, a dagger appeared in Lu Yang’s hand.

“Die~!”

Lu Yang flashed his left arm, and the head of the three-faced man was separated. He punched the three-faced man's face and knocked his face away.

The skull in the air disappeared, and the body of the three-faced man fell into the blood pool. The next second, it was completely swallowed by the water in the blood pool!

Chapter 2378: rise to king rank

A transpiring red mist rose, and Lu Yang felt that the huge source of power contained within it, which was the most special place in the Red Mist Temple.

Whenever a creature is swallowed by the red mist blood pool, a part of the energy will be turned into mist and rise from the blood pool, finally reaching the ceiling and then condensing into water droplets and dripping down.

“Suck~!”

Lu Yang stretched out his hands, and the powerful suction gathered all the mist between his hands to form a colorless energy ball.

The Blazing Demon God sensed it and said: “A quarter of the source energy in the main body of the three-faced person is here, you are lucky.”

This is not simple magic energy, but the purest source energy, regardless of the type of magic element. Although it is not as good as the fire soul crystal, after being absorbed into the body, it can be quickly transformed into flame energy to supplement the last missing promotion in the soul core. The energy of that corner of the Demon King Rank.

Lu Yang slowly ran the magic power and began to absorb the energy ball. Originally, he was worried that after the energy entered the soul core, he would have resentment against the three-faced person, but when the energy entered, he did not feel any discomfort, as if three-faced. All the information of people has nothing to do with this group of energy.

“It disappeared without a trace.” Lu Yang asked in amazement.

Blazing Demon God said: “In the magical world, there are also spells that absorb the origin of others to improve one’s own strength, but the source energy absorbed by that kind of exercise is very mixed, and it also carries the grievances of the deceased. If it absorbs too much, Resentment will make the absorber go crazy, but the red fog blood pool is different, the red blood water dissolves all the energy of the deceased, so you can absorb it without any harm.”

Lu Yang nodded and absorbed it with peace of mind, but at this moment, the entire Red Mist Temple actually shone with red light, as if the whole world had turned blood red.

“What happened?” Lu Yang asked blankly.

“The first red mist beads actually appeared.” Blazing Demon God couldn’t believe it.

Lu Yang said nonchalantly, “After all, a lord and tens of thousands of souls outside have died, so it’s almost possible to produce one.”

The Blazing Demon God shook his head and said: “It is absolutely impossible that it is as simple as the death of a lord. Only 200,000 second-order creatures outside are equivalent to a lord, but if you want to generate a red mist bead, at least six lords have died, look at it. Look at the other lords in the ancient crystal, what happened?”

“It’s impossible for six lords to die in such a short time.” Lu Yang also felt that something was wrong. After all, the lords of various races avoided each other and would not fight in advance. He took out the ancient crystal and looked into the temple. The status of the other lords, but he found out that the lords of the multi-armed clan, the ghost-faced man, the dragon orc, the ghost clan and the god-beard clan had all disappeared. In the blood pool they hid, only the remaining ones gradually disintegrated and disappeared. equipment and weapons.

“How is this possible? What did it do?” Lu Yang asked in surprise.

“I don’t know, retreat quickly and go back to the secret space, there is something wrong with this time.” Blazing Demon God said in shock.

Lu Yang nodded. He also sensed the danger. Since the five were dead, it stands to reason that there should be a group of creatures who came to kill the three-faced clan, but if the three-faced clan died, the people who came would definitely look for him. trace.

Lu Yang turned into a phoenix and came into the air. He didn’t dare to stop, and quickly flew towards the hidden spot. At the same time, Lu Yang stared at the place in the ancient crystal where he had just killed the three-faced man.

It didn’t take 10 minutes. He had just returned to the hiding spot when a strange sound came from the crystal ball. Lu Yang widened his pupils sharply. A ghost and a creature with six arms.

“Isn’t there a ghost clan and a multi-arm clan? How could it be the two of them?” Lu Yang asked in surprise.

The Blazing Demon God sneered and said: “Boy, see clearly, that ghost clan has entered the sixth-order king rank, and it is still the peak of the king rank, those three deaths are not wrong, if you walk slowly, You didn’t deserve to die.”

Lu Yang frowned and asked, “They say that they can reach the primary level of the king’s rank. How can they reach the peak? This is unreasonable.”

Blazing Demon God said: “There is nothing unreasonable. The characteristics of the ghost family are to devour other races to strengthen themselves. It is estimated that when they first came in, it was the peak of the lord, and it was only a line away from the breakthrough, but he disguised well outside. It should be He devoured all his clansmen, and with the help of the multi-armed clan, he ate all the ghost-faced people, the god-bearded clan and the dragon orcs, plus some special drugs that he brought with him, forcibly using his strength Raised to the peak of the king rank.”

Lu Yang said: “Then what should we do, who can beat the peak of the king rank?”

Even with the help of the Blazing Demon God, Lu Yang couldn't have beaten the peak of the king rank at the current stage.

The Blazing Demon God thought for a while and said, “It's not impossible to beat him, but you need to be promoted to the king rank first. For the time being, don't care about the outside world. How are you feeling now? How many.”

Just now Lu Yang got the origin of the three-faced person, and he still had a large part to digest, and said, “I'll give it a try.”

He sat cross-legged on the ground and quickly digested the original energy in his body. There was a lot of energy belonging to three-faced people. It took Lu Yang an hour to absorb all the energy. Suddenly, Lu Yang felt his brain The inner magic core has changed.

“Crack~!”

There was a cracking sound from the magic core. In the next second, Lu Yang's entire body burned. The magic core in his head turned into a liquid and flowed out. It overflowed through the meridians, and gradually formed a fiery red fire demon, but this fire demon was very Fragile, as if smashed with a poke.

The Blazing Demon God nodded with satisfaction, and further tempered the newly formed fire demon in Lu Yang's body with the help of the blood of the Demon God's Heart. He said, “This is the change of the Demon King level. At this point, you are nowhere near becoming a god. Far.”

“Why?” Lu Yang was in severe pain at this time. The newly formed fire demon in his body was gradually separating from his body. The pain of the separation of muscles almost made Lu Yang faint. He could only use other things to help him. distraction.

The Blazing Demon God said: "The thing you have formed now is called the fire soul. Later, when you cultivate to the monarch rank, quasi-god rank, and demigod rank, you will cultivate this fire soul. When you become a god, it will also be your fire soul. Become a god."

Lu Yang nodded clearly and asked, "I'm so uncomfortable, why do I feel that the ghost clan doesn't respond? Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to start massacres so quickly."

The Blazing Demon God said: "The body of the ghost family is the soul, so he won't have the same reaction as you. For the ghost family, their cultivation is called conforming to the destiny. Race is different, don't be envious."

"Shit." Lu Yang was speechless, lying on the ground and continuing to endure the pain.

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said: "But your race also has advantages, that is, you have trained enough. Once you succeed in your cultivation, you will be much stronger than the Ghost Race's spiritual power, and you can also cultivate some things that require a lot of spiritual power to control. magic."

"What spell?" Lu Yang asked.

"Fire Soul Slash~!" The Blazing Demon God asked proudly, "Is this name domineering?"

"The name is not bad, is it strong?" Lu Yang asked.

Blazing Demon God said: "It's so strong that you can kill the ghost clan at the peak of the king level with one blow. Do you think it is strong?"

Lu Yang forgot the pain in his body, looked at the Blazing Demon God in shock and said, "How can it be so strong?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "Isn't this normal? The level of realm is different from the level of strength. Back then, when I was in the realm of the god-king, none of the other god-kings could beat me. The realm is only related to you. How much magic power in the body, the real battle depends on the skills you use, and this skill is condensed by mental power or spiritual sense."

“Boom~!”

The fire soul in Lu Yang’s body was separated from the last piece of his body, and Lu Yang’s pain disappeared. He was sweating coldly all over, and excitedly said to the Blazing Demon God: “Teach me this trick, I will devour them. energy, and improve your strength as soon as possible.”

The warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood who stayed in the East China Sea may face the sneak attack of the undead god-level powerhouse at any time, and he needs this move.

“Comprehend it yourself.” The Blazing Demon God injected a spiritual thought into Lu Yang’s soul. The next moment Lu Yang’s mind appeared the complete action of the Blazing Demon using this fire soul slash. , and the rules for casting spells.

The reason why Fire Soul Slash is so powerful is that this move attracts the source power of the surrounding world, drives the fire soul within the body with mental power, and allows the source energy of the surrounding world to quickly pour into the fire soul within a short period of time. , the temperature of the fire soul can reach the king level, and if there is enough time, it can even reach the power of the demigod.

Lu Yang learned this trick very quickly. It didn’t take a day for him to grasp all the essentials. When he opened his eyes again, there was a firm look in his eyes, and he said, “I feel that I Can kill that ghost king, where is he now.”

Blazing Demon God has been observing the ancient crystal for a while, and said with a smile: “The ghost king and the multi-armed clan lord killed four more lord-level powerhouses and more than 400 spirit-level powerhouses, and the second red mist bead It has also been formed, and it is now in the hands of these two people.”

Lu Yang looked at the ancient crystal. He found that the ghost king and the doobby lord were still slaughtering all the creatures in the palace. When each creature died, some of the energy would be absorbed into the body by the doobby lord.

“It seems that this ghost king is thanking the multi-armed lord for his help and helping him improve his strength.” Lu Yang sneered and said, “It’s not appropriate for me to kill them myself, it seems that I have to find a few people to help. ”

“What are you going to do?” Blazing Demon God asked curiously.

Lu Yang said, “Aren’t the three-faced people, dragon orcs, ghost-faced people, and the lords of the Shenbeard clan all dead? I have to find their kin to help them.”

“Good idea.” Blazing Demon God said with a smile.

Lu Yang raised his eyebrows and quickly searched in the temple. After a while, he found the dragon beast team, just to the southwest of him.

Chapter 2379: alliance

“Vals, tell me who killed you, and I will avenge you.”

“Vals, do you remember our agreement? We want to become gods together, why did you leave first?”

“No one dares to kill the warriors of the dragon beast clan, you have to pay the price, you have to pay the price~!”

...

A dragon orc lord clad in heavy black armor roared wildly while swinging his double hammers to attack the Void Zerg in front of him, even a spirit-level Void Zerg warrior could not withstand the full blow of the dragon orc lord. , Soon, the spirit-level void worms in the passage were killed by the dragon orc lord and the team behind him.

“Roar~!” The dragon orc lord looked like a madman, staring at the empty passage in front of him and roared: “I sense it, it is the breath of the ghost family, the ghost family is not dead yet.”

Lu Yang was flying in the air in the form of a phoenix. He blinked blankly and asked, “How did this guy know? He didn’t see it either.”

The Blazing Demon God sneered and said, “Dragon Beast Clan has a very smart nose, even if it is dozens of kilometers away, he can smell the breath of a strong man. For others, this temple is a labyrinth, but Dragon Beast Clan is not. I can easily find the hidden lord following the breath, I thought it was a legend, but I didn’t expect it to be true.”

Lu Yang was speechless and said, “What is a legend?”

The Blazing Demon God was even more speechless, and said, “I’m the king of gods, okay, will I care that the highest achievement is the racial specialty of the lower gods? I don’t need a watchdog. What do I need a nose like this?”

Lu Yang: “...”

You have nothing to say about this, he is a * king, there is nothing wrong with what he said, Lu Yang couldn’t help shaking his head, looked at the dragon orc lord below, and shouted: “Don’t go alone, the strength of the ghost clan lord has already At the first level of the Demon King, you can’t beat him, you need to find a few more to help.”

“Who are you?” The dragon orc raised his head sharply to look at Lu Yang, and roared, “How did you know it was him?”

Lu Yang said: “There is a multi-armed lord next to him. Now these two * are working together to kill other lords. If you are willing to listen to my advice, just follow me and I will take you to find other lords.”

“Why should I believe you?” the dragon orc lord growled.

Lu Yang said: “Don’t believe me, I also want to improve my strength, and I want red mist beads more, but now there is a king-level powerhouse, I need the cooperation of allies, if you are willing to work together to kill him, then we Just cooperate, if you don’t want to, forget about it, as for killing him, we are still enemies.”

The eyes of the dragon orc lord were like sharks. After turning around in the blood-red eye sockets, he put away the double hammer in his hand and said, “Your suggestion is very good, I accept your invitation and take me to find other races. Bar.”

“Follow me.” Lu Yang turned and flew into the distance.

The dragon orc lord ran quickly behind him, and the dragon beast spirit-level powerhouse who came in with him was behind the dragon orc lord, and one of them couldn’t help asking: “Lord Moka, that lord-level powerhouse will not be Trap?”

The dragon orc lord Moka sneered and said: “The king-level powerhouse of the ghost clan is the trap. Although my nose is very smart, my brother’s nose is also very smart. Since my brothers will all be killed, then It means that the king-level powerhouse of the ghost clan has a way to hide his breath. Now he releases his breath and waits for me to pass by. Aren’t we courting death? Thanks to that flying bird, the way he took me was the opposite of that of the lord of the ghost clan. , so, I believe him.”

A group of subordinates nodded clearly, and no longer questioned each other, and continued to run. In fact, when they reached the Red Mist Blood Pond, the internal unity of each race was not so united, and everyone was desperately fighting for their own lives. Work hard, if the lord makes the wrong decision, the subordinates will choose to leave. Unless the lord kills him, there is no way to keep him, and most of the lords of the same clan cannot kill him.

Lu Yang was flying ahead, and through the Blazing Demon God, he could clearly hear what the dragon orc lord and his subordinates said, making sure that the other party was willing to cooperate, and a sneer appeared on the corner of his mouth.

Lu Yang doesn’t believe that this dragon orc lord is sincerely cooperating with him. I am afraid that this lord named Moka is also playing tricks. At the lord level, no one has any special abilities. The distance between the two is only 100 meters. You can easily perceive what the dragon orc lord and subordinates said.

The other party obviously reassures himself and relaxes his vigilance. In the future, when a sneak attack occurs, he can kill him with one blow.

“It doesn’t look like your world is all a race without a plan?” Lu Yang said to the Blazing Demon God as he flew.

The Blazing Demon God snorted coldly and said, “This time, the new gods who attacked our new gods are not playing tricks and tricks. Otherwise, how could our old gods be attacked? Similarly, the subordinates they recruited are all the same. They are a virtue, it is better to kill them all, I look upset.”

Lu Yang said with a smile: “I also have this idea. I have to create a clone in a while, and we will cooperate.”

“Leave it to me.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang continued to fly forward. After passing through more than thirty corridors and more than a dozen halls in a row, there was a fight in front of him. One group was ghost-faced people, and the other group was Shenbeard tribe.

“Stop fighting, it’s not the other party that killed your brothers, it’s the ghost clan.” Lu Yang flew over the two groups and shouted loudly.

In an instant, the ghost-faced and the god-beard clan stopped at the same time, and both sides looked suspiciously at Lu Yang, among them, the ghost-faced and god-beard clan lord looked at Lu Yang at the same time, and shouted, “Why do you say that?”

Lu Yang pointed behind him and said, “Let the dragon orc speak.”

The dragon orc lord ran over quickly, the three of them are all gods, and they all know each other. The dragon orc lord Moka roared: “We have been deceived, the ghost clan’s That * and the * of the multi-armed clan formed a team, and just released their breath to trap me, thanks to the friend above who reminded me that I was not fooled.”

“How can opposing races cooperate together? Aren’t they afraid that their respective gods will punish them?” The ghost-faced lord asked with a frown.

The dragon orc lord sneered and said, “If we are all dead, who will pierce them both?”

“Damn.” The Shenbeard clan roared and said, “My tentacles sensed the lord of the ghost clan and the lord of the multi-arm clan.”

The dragon orc lord sneered and said: “If you go, you will be caught in a trap. The lord of the ghost clan has reached the king level, and the multi-armed clan is also the pinnacle of the lord level. The distance breakthrough is just a line, and whoever goes alone will die. .”

“Let’s go together.” The lord of the Shenbeard clan roared: “Let’s go together, the ghost-faced people, whether you can go.”

“Of course I’m going,” said the ghost-faced lord.

“Then let’s go together.” Lu Yang said with a smile, “I know the location of the two of them, and I also know that there is another way to ambush them. Are you interested in going that way with me?”

“Listen to you,” said the dragon orc lord.

The three clans together have three lords and more than 300 spirit-level powerhouses. No one is afraid of the threat of a single lord like Lu Yang, but what they don’t know is that Lu Yang asked the Blazing Flame God to help. Hide his strength, otherwise, his king-level aura would have been exposed long ago.

At the moment, Lu Yang led the three lords to run in the direction of the ghost clan and the multi-arm clan lords. The Blazing Flame Demon God had already studied and understood the passages of each area in this area in the ancient crystal, and he chose one. The nearest road is half an hour shorter than before.

Chapter 2380: melee

the other side.

In a room similar to a gourd mouth on the sixth floor of the Red Mist Hall, the king-rank powerhouse of the ghost clan and the lord of the multi-arm clan were hiding on both sides of the door.

“Just before the lords died, I saw you and I worked together to kill them, it’s really happy.” The king-rank powerhouse of the ghost family has turned into a green entity undead at this time, and his voice is hoarse. , as if it had just been resurrected from ancient times.

The multi-armed lord next to him sneered while sharpening the long knife in his right hand: “Of course you are happy, you have been promoted from the lord to the king rank, this kind of leap of life and death, so easily achieved.”

“You will also reach the king’s rank soon. I promise to help you kill other lords and I will fulfill my promise.” The voice of the ghost king was joking.

The multi-armed lord stared at the six swords in his six hands and said, “I hope so.”

“You and I are both poor people. This time I was thrown in to die, but they don’t know that you and I have known each other for hundreds of years. You and I are lucky, haha.” The voice of the ghost king was small, but he could hear it. He was very happy.

In fact, all races in the different world are very clear that the red fog blood pool that opens every hundred years, entering this world is equivalent to sending death.

The patriarchs of all ethnic groups will never send their children and cronies to this place. Only those who usually have a normal relationship with the patriarch, or who have been excluded from the clan, will be thrown here.

It just so happens that the ghost king is the son of the previous generation ghost clan chief, and the multi-armed clan lord is the half-brother of this generation's patriarch, and he is also the loser in the competition for the position of the patriarch.

After the two strong men were thrown in together with their respective clansmen, they found out that the other party quickly reached an alliance. Relying on the discomfort of the first entering, the two patriarchs ordered their subordinates to fight each other. When the two sides were almost dead, the multi-armed clan lord. Helped the lord of the ghost clan to eat all the powerhouses from the ghost clan, and then devoured the remaining powerhouses of the multi-armed clan.

After entering the Red Mist Temple, the two of them used this relationship to deceive the earliest lords of the dragon beast clan, the ghost-faced man, and the god-beard clan. After some slaughter, the lord of the ghost clan was promoted to king. Rank, the lord of the multi-armed clan has also reached the point where he is about to break through.

Whenever they think of the unbelievable eyes that the lords looked at them before they died, the two of them couldn't help but want to laugh.

"When I am promoted to the king rank, I will go back and grab everything that should belong to me."

"Me too."

The two had already planned how to take revenge on the clan when they returned, and at this moment, the sound of running came from the corridor outside.

"Just in front, in that room are the king rank of the ghost clan and the lord of the multi-arm clan." Lu Yang shouted as he flew.

The lords of the dragon and beast clan, the lords of the ghost-faced people, and the lords of the god-beard clan who followed in the distance all had angry expressions on their faces. At this time, Lu Yang did not need to speak. They all discovered the situation inside the gate in front of them with their perception.

“The spirit-level powerhouse is entangled with the lord of the multi-armed clan. The four of us join forces to surround and kill the king-rank powerhouse, and the bird flying in front of us has no opinion.” The lord of the dragon beast clan roared.

“Of course.” Lu Yang said.

“Roar~!”

“We’re going in.”

The dragon orc lord, the ghost-faced man, and the god-beard lord launched their long-saved big moves as soon as they arrived at the door. The super-strong sound wave, countless black dead souls, and countless black and white * flew into the door. Suddenly, the ghost king and the multi-armed lord who were ambushed on both sides of the door were caught off guard.

The two hurriedly retreated for more than 100 meters. When the two stood firm, they looked at the doorway, Lu Yang, who was flying in the air, and the lord of the dragon beast clan, the lord of the ghost-faced man, the lord of the gods and the beard clan standing on the ground, and The 300 spirit-level powerhouses behind them have entered the gate, less than 50 meters in front of them.

“How did you find us?” The Ghost King asked angrily.

The dragon orc lord smiled proudly and said, “Thanks to the bird brother flying in the sky, if it weren’t for him, we really didn’t know you two * got together.”

“Bird?” The Ghost King stared at Lu Yang, his green face was full of anger, he raised his hand and hit a dark green skeleton ball of light, and said, “Bad me for good, give me death~!”

The power-charged blow of the powerful Wang rank was not something that an ordinary lord could catch. Lu Yang hurriedly dodged, but the green light was extremely fast, and he still hit his wings.

In an instant, Lu Yang felt that his wings were rotting. Under the severe pain, his body fell uncontrollably. Before he could react, the ghost-faced lord pierced Lu Yang's chest with a sword.

"You, you? Why, why?" Lu Yang asked blankly.

The necromantic power of the ghost-faced lord continued to invade Lu Yang's body. He sneered and said in Lu Yang's ear: "Because we know you have bad intentions, no matter who you are, you should die first."

"I'm not reconciled." Lu Yang showed anger, he turned his head to stare at the ghost-faced man, grabbed his arms with both hands, and his body swelled violently.

"Damn, fire-type~!" The ghost-faced lord turned pale in shock and quickly retreated, but he was still late. A small mushroom cloud exploded with the ghost-faced man at the center, exposing the red mist pool in the entire room. On the ground at the bottom of the pool, the water in the pool even turned up a hundred meters high and shot against the surrounding walls.

Everyone was stunned by Lu Yang's attack, and they hurriedly avoided the bombardment of the pool water. They were even more afraid of the sharks in the pool water.

At this time, outside the door that no one noticed, Lu Yang was hiding there silently with a stealth scepter. In fact, as early as the dragon orc lord and the ghost-faced lord, they zoomed in at the door and rushed in. For a moment, Lu Yang had already used the avatar's tinder, leaving the main body to hide in stealth with the skull scepter, and he controlled the avatar to come inside.

"As expected, I was the first person to kill this group of people." Lu Yang muttered to himself.

The Blazing Demon God asked curiously, "How did you know?"

Lu Yang said: "I am the only uncertain factor, no one knows who I am, it is strange that you can keep me alive, no matter what happens to both of them, they have to kill me first, so just now At that moment, I beg you to use your spiritual sense to make them stupefied, so that I can use the clone technique to escape."

“You’re really a thief.” Blazing Demon God was very satisfied with the thoughts in Lu Yang’s head.

Lu Yang glanced at the fight that had already started, and said with a smile: “Without this IQ, I don’t know how many times I’ve been played to death in the game back then, or let’s say that our race also has advantages, five thousand years. The history of , when everyone reaches the adult stage, when their strength is the same, they can only compete for resourcefulness.

In fact, I haven’t really started to use conspiracy and tricks. When my subordinates are strong enough, you will see how I really use conspiracy and tricks, and you will know how strong we are.”

Blazing Demon God was looking forward to it and said, “I’m watching.”

The corner of Lu Yang’s mouth twitched, took out the ancient crystal, and began to summon the red murloc.

Chapter 2367: Warring Void Zerg

One hour later.

Among the ruins of Feng City, the 50,000 strongest legions of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood are ready to go, and the mounts of each soldier have been replaced by a Tier 3 Snow Wolf King that is more than five meters high.

Most of these snow wolves are part of the high-level mounts that the Elves and the other five races have come to the earth for so many years. Because it is winter, they are most suitable for running on the snow. The Elf King Algaea is worried about the problem with the dirty wine, so he takes the initiative to send it. Come here.

The 2000 hawks in the sky also flap their wings and hover in the air. Although the hawks' combat effectiveness is not good, these flying intelligent races have become the special intelligence personnel of the Jagged Brothers, and the Jagged Brothers' own Fire Crow Legion and The number of Cloud Sculpture Corps has been reduced to 500, and their mission has also become reconnaissance.

“Roar~!”

Hong Ye's roar sounded in the air. Standing on Hong Ye's head, Lu Yang took the lead and flew towards Daqinggou. The horn below immediately sounded.

“Go forward!”

Zhuojiu, White Lion, Zhou Tianming and others issued orders one after another, leading the 50,000 soldiers to run quickly on the Snow Wolf King.

The wolf king's speed is very fast. They can keep running at a speed of 200 kilometers per hour for two consecutive hours, while the distance from Fengshi to the edge of Daqinggou is only 130 kilometers. At full speed, they only need It takes more than half an hour to arrive.

Lu Yang was not in a hurry. He suppressed the speed at 80 kilometers per hour and led the team towards Daqinggou at a constant speed. At the same time, he turned on the intercom and said to the defender Tao Yue in the Shekou defensive position: "Order the troops to take out all the Tier 3 gems and get ready for a big decisive battle."

Tao Yue said with a smile: "It is ready. As long as it is not a lord-level powerhouse participating in the battle, Shekou's Tier 3 gems can be used for a week."

The mechanical plane merchant has been here twice, but the previous time Lu Yang was in a war, and the next time Lu Yang was practicing in retreat, and he did not face the opponent, but this did not hinder the transaction. Three transactions in two years, the Jagged Brothers paid. At the same time a large number of basic materials were exchanged for countless Tier 3 gems and a small amount of Tier 4 gems.

The Shekou defensive position is now a super defensive fortress armed to 200 meters underground. Although it looks nothing special, as long as you look closer, it is all magical arrays. It is no longer a random third-order demon-level strong. Where the person can conquer.

"Be careful, this time the Void Zerg is here, good at void spells, don't be careless." Lu Yang said.

Tao Yue said triumphantly: "A total of 5,000 Void Gems are used to prevent the Void Zerg from playing Void Stealth. Boss, you have grown a lot this year, and our growth is not small. Don't underestimate us."

This year Lu Yang was training in the Void Hall. Tao Yue and Zhuo Jiu were also sneaking and hunting the Void Zerg and the Demon Clan, and then threw them into the arena to compete. Tao Yue knew very well what skills the Void Zerg would have.

Lu Yang was very satisfied with Tao Yue's growth, and said with a smile: "Well, I won't talk too much, I'll leave it to you."

"That's right." Tao Yue was very happy.

Lu Yang smiled and hung up the phone and led the team to move forward. After running for more than an hour, the harpy flying in front sent back a message, saying: "The frontier is the border of the Void Zerg. The tens of thousands of Void Zergs are resting."

With a thought in Lu Yang, Hong Ye flapped his wings to speed up and flew forward, and in a blink of an eye he came to the southern boundary of Daqinggou, which was called Xiaoqinggou.

In a snow-white forest, there is a huge lake, and on the north side of the lake are mountains. You can see that many caves have been cut out at the leeward of the mountain. There are countless second-order hound-shaped worms. Caught wild deer, goats and other prey are thrown on the ground for group feeding. They eat raw meat and look very disgusting.

Lu Yang said: "Everyone is ready to fight, and retreat quickly 20 minutes after the battle."

"Yes." Zhuojiu, White Lion and others responded in unison, and then they shouted: "Everyone is ready to fight, raise their guns~!"

Every warrior of the Iron-Blooded Brotherhood picked up the three-section spear that hung from the waist of the Snow Wolf King. Each section was more than 3 meters long, and connected together to become a 9-meter-long stainless steel war spear. , As for the position of the gun head is made of star steel, other than that, it is all normal steel.

This tactic is a tactic developed by Zhuojiu, White Lion and others to deal with the Zerg. It is too disadvantageous to attack the Zerg at close range, so it is better to mount a wolf on it and start a charge forward.

There are 100 people in each row, and the distance between the back row and the front row is 100 meters. Under the alternate charge, it is enough to kill the second-order warriors of the Zerg in a piece. The soldiers would throw away their long spears and use two-handed swords. At the same time, they slowed down, allowing the soldiers in the back row to attack from the gap. This stepped charge ensures maximum damage to the enemy, but also Save yourself.

"Kill~!" The dirty wine roared, and led the Holy Light Knights to charge.

“Kill~!” Bai Shi, Zhou Tianming and others also raised their guns and roared, leading the army forward to attack.

For a time, the fifty thousand army of the Jagged Brothers rushed to the Zerg troops by the lake like a big wave one after another, and the Zerg troops also saw humans.

“Hey~!” The hound-shaped second-order Zerg warriors roared to the sky almost in unison, waving the two spikes on their backs and rushing towards the human side.

The height of these second-order zergs is more than three meters, the whole body is strong, and they are not inferior to the third-order wolf king in strength. Soon, the two sides collided together, but these zergs were in the hands of human warriors without touching the wolf king. The spear penetrated the body.

Lu Yang looked at the first row of holy light knights led by Zhuojiu with interest. The spears in their hands penetrated the first second-order demon, followed by the second and third demon. It was not until the sixth demon that the holy light knights could not hold the spears in their hands.

“Change the long sword, the second team speeds up the attack.” Zhuojiu commanded loudly.

The soldiers in the second row rushed up with their guns and took over the attack of the soldiers in the first row. The connection between the two was like a machine, without any flaws.

Lu Yang nodded in satisfaction. He looked at Lively who was flying in the air in the distance, and said, “You can go. If you don’t go, I will doubt your motives.”

Loveli deliberately was not too far from Lu Yang, the distance between the two was only about 200 meters. She smiled charmingly and said, “I’m leaving, I wish you all be killed by the Zerg!”

After speaking, Lively grabbed Bagley who was hanging in the air and flew away quickly.
