

Wild Fire 2401

Chapter 2401: human talent

Lu Yang dodged to avoid the flames and turned his head to look. A bull-headed demon with a height of 100 meters, burning flames all over his body, and sharp horns on his head was rushing towards him.

“Don’t do it~!” The voice of the Blazing Demon God was full of excitement. He instantly turned into a flame and looked at the demon approaching from a distance, and said, “Barbarian, do you still recognize who I am?”

“Hey~!” The flame demon’s two red eyes suddenly widened, and he quickly stopped his body. He knelt on the ground with his legs in front of the Blazing Demon God, and howled like a bell: “Master~! You are finally back. Now, I knew you would definitely come back, Lao Niu finally waited for you.”

The Blazing Demon God nodded with satisfaction and said, “I am now living in this human body, and I have become the same fate as him. From now on, his words will be the same as mine, you know?”

Manniu glanced at Lu Yang, his body shrunk to the state of Lu Yang, he respectfully kowtowed to Lu Yang, and said, “Thank you for saving my master, I am willing to obey your orders in the future.”

Lu Yang didn’t understand, and asked curiously, “Who is this flaming tauren?”

The Blazing Demon God said: “My royal blacksmith is also my apprentice. Most of the weapons in my temple were forged from the hands of barbarian bulls. Unfortunately, when barbarian bulls were promoted to Lord God, they were attacked by foreigners. The demon attacked, I was traveling in the outer world at that time, and when I came back, the bull was left with a sliver of soul. In order to save him, I put him in the emerald forest with rich spiritual energy to recover his body, and I don’t know if you have recovered to To what extent.”

Barbarian Niu scratched his head in embarrassment and said, “Divine Sense has become a lower god, but Lao Niu has no body, and his strength is still at the monarch level.”

Lu Yang was speechless and said with a smile: "Without a body, your strength is still a lower god. You are already very strong."

The Blazing Demon God frowned and said, "Didn't I leave you a body of a demon? Why is it useless?"

The bull shook his head violently, and said unconvincingly, "I still have to fight the extraterrestrial demon again with the body of the Bull Demon God."

The Blazing Demon God sighed and said, "Alright, otherwise your mood will always be missing a piece, but now I can't help you, you can only rely on your own efforts."

Man Niu patted his chest and said, "Master, I will protect you from now on."

The Blazing Demon God sighed and said, "Let's find another chance, pack up, go back to my Demon God Temple first, and I'll take you out."

Manniu nodded and said, "I still have some treasures, you go to my house with me first."

Lu Yang stood up and followed Manniu, but secretly said to the Blazing Demon God, "Are you sure he didn't betray you? Don't be a trap ahead."

Blazing Demon God said: "His soul has my mark of loyalty, and it is also the higher mark of the outer world. Our world cannot be changed."

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief, and then he followed Manniu's footsteps with confidence, and followed him to a wooden house not far away.

The bull pointed proudly at the iron felt at the door and said, "Master, although I'm not strong enough, my forging skills are still there. This is the forging equipment you left me back then. With the spiritual thoughts of my current lower god, I can forge divine tools. The following equipment is very easy, even forging primary artifacts is no problem."

The Blazing Demon God took out the broken horn of the ancient demon snake from the Demon Temple and said, "Forge it into a long sword."

"It's too simple." The bull took the broken horn and forged it on the iron felt for a few minutes. The broken horn turned into a long sword. He handed it back to the Blazing Demon God and said, "Master, please Appreciation."

The Blazing Demon God took the long sword, nodded with satisfaction, and said, "Tens of thousands of years of practice have made your forging skills more and more consummate. This sword is even more exquisite than the one I forged myself."

Manniu was very proud, he said with a smile: "I just pick up things to forge when I have nothing to do here. Back then, the chaotic beasts on this floor killed each other, and many things fell off. You don't know, I was making them at the time. Thousands of exquisite weapons."

Lu Yang's eyes lit up, and he quickly asked, "Where's the weapon?"

Manniu scratched his head proudly, and said, "I was smashed by me, I fought against myself, honed my martial skills and mood, and constantly simulated the process of fighting with extraterritorial demons. Now, I have the ability as early as a thousand years ago. Defeat the extraterrestrial demon."

With a speechless expression on his face, Lu Yang asked anxiously, "Do you have a few left?"

The bull was even more complacent and said, "What do you keep the garbage below the artifacts? After I found a way to defeat the extraterrestrial demons, it was all destroyed by me."

Lu Yang asked, "What about the artifact?"

The bull said: "There are only two pieces in total, and they were broken."

"I..." Lu Yang was completely speechless.

The Blazing Demon God sighed directly and scolded, "I knew this kid would always bring you unexpected... surprises."

Manniu blinked and asked, "Master, are you short of weapons now? If you are short, I can take you to find them. We can refine them in time."

Blazing Demon God asked: "Where? What grade?"

The bull said: "Go up one level, the area near the Horror Bell."

"Take us quickly." Blazing Demon God said.

"Oh~!" With a wave of the bull, he sent the entire house and artifacts, such as iron felts, into the Demon Temple. He also jumped in, and then changed into the shape of a flaming tauren. : "It's better to go home, the road is ahead, follow me."

Lu Yang followed Manniu to the entrance of the third floor. Since Manniu had already scavenged all the things on this floor, it would be meaningless for him to search again.

The three of them ran all the way. When they passed through a foggy woodland, Lu Yang lost his way completely. Fortunately, there was a bull who led him out smoothly. At the same time, a golden hall appeared in front of him, and the teleportation array was Right in the middle of the hall.

A green light flashed, and Lu Yang came to the third floor. As soon as he landed, he was surprised to find that the surrounding fog was even thicker. As long as he left the hall, nothing could be seen outside.

"What's the situation?" Lu Yang asked curiously.

The Blazing Demon God said: "This is called mirage, and it is what the powerhouses of the Chaos Beasts use to deceive the minds of the entrants. They have always wanted to leave the Emerald Forest, but they can't wake up on their own, so they can only rely on the psychedelic entrants. , let them wake up by ringing the fright bell, if it is a strong person who is not strong enough in mind, not only will the fright bell ring, but also die in the psychedelic array."

The bull said honestly: "The fog outside has little effect on the monarch rank and below, as long as you don't get close to the fright bell, the mirage of the god-king chaotic beast is already blowing in the fog over there, although it is separated by several times. The emerald forest has weakened a lot, but it is still very terrifying."

The most powerful part of Lu Yang is his mind, As early as when the invasion of another world began, the Blazing Demon God used his spiritual sense to create an illusion to train Lu Yang's mind, and he would enter an illusion almost every other month.

Especially in the more than 300 years in the Void Palace, when Lu Yang was cultivating alone, the Blazing Flame God created all kinds of terrifying illusions, using various illusions such as loneliness, delusion, and desire to come to him. To test Lu Yang, without exception, Lu Yang passed the test with ease.

In the past, Lu Yang felt that this thing was not very useful to cultivate. When his spiritual power became stronger, the improvement brought by the illusion was already very limited. He didn't expect it to play a big role here.

Lu Yang smiled and said to the Blazing Demon God: "There is an old man in the family who is like a treasure, and there is really no cultivation that is useless for you."

The Blazing Demon God was also very emotional, and said: "It's because your mind is strong enough, and it is also the special of your race. In fact, I have discovered that the talent of your race is the human beings with unparalleled talent in the aspect of mind, their minds. It makes me feel terrified, you are the best among them, let's find the materials first, and then go to ring the fright bell."

"Yeah." Lu Yang nodded and walked in the direction of the Horror Bell.

The barbarian bull looked at Lu Yang's movements in shock, and quickly said to the Blazing Demon God: "Master, that is the mirage automatically released by the Lord God and the God King, and the illusory terror can't be resisted at all, even a former superior * like me can't do it. , he can't."

The Blazing Demon God smiled as Lu Yang walked into the fog, and said to the bull, "You will soon see a miracle. When he first started cultivating, I used the illusion created by the God King to intimidate him, but he was turned off by him. Easily resolved, this race is terrifying."

Manniu was stunned. You must know that if the Blazing Demon God killed him with an illusion created by his divine sense, he would only need one look. Manniu might not be able to get out of the illusion for the rest of his life, but Lu Yang could easily resolve him. It is impossible to understand what kind of terrifying race the Blazing Demon God has found.

"Om~!"

Lu Yang stepped into the mist, and a slight snoring sound came from his ears, as if some powerful creature fell into a deep sleep and made it unconsciously.

The sound was very sweet and had a certain rhythm. Just as Lu Yang was walking forward, he suddenly felt the chill around him. The biting cold made him want to burn all the magic in his body. Dispel the cold.

A sneer appeared on the corner of Lu Yang's mouth. He suppressed the changes in the magic power in his body and said with a smile, "Is this the beginning? You underestimate me."

"Brother~! I'm cold~!" A pleasant voice came from not far away, and Lu Yang turned his head to see that Han Ying was wearing a single shirt, and his arms were trembling in the wind and snow.

"Boss, I'm so cold too." Xia Yuwei appeared beside Han Ying, also wearing a single shirt in the blizzard, with a pitiful look on her face.

"Boss, we are so cold." Han Fei and Han Yu also appeared.

Along with Zhuojiu and Bai Shi, they all appeared, as well as Lu Yang's parents, who were all shaking with unlined clothes in the snowstorm not far away. With that pitiful look for help, Lu Yang could not wait to use all his strength to disperse the wind. Snow brings warmth to them.

Lu Yang said with a tsk tsk: "Come on, it's too weak."

Not to mention that Lu Yang knew that this was an illusion. Even if it was true, Lu Yang would not be able to use the magic power of his whole body. You must know that there are all beasts around. If he motivated the magic power in his body to attack, the murderer who fell asleep nearby. will wake up immediately.

There is an even more terrifying situation, that is, the environment blocks his control of the magic in his body. It is very likely that his body has spontaneously activated the magic, but if he does not release it, he will not wake up those beasts.

Lu Yang looked at the fright bell in the distance, and walked over step by step, no matter how terrifying the illusion, the fright bell, a magic weapon that accompanied the heaven and earth, would not be obliterated by the illusion.

"Ring that bell, ring him, and your wife, parents, brothers, and subordinates will all be alive~!"

"Knock him, you will get unexpected abilities, and you will become the * of the whole world~!"

"Ring him, your enemies will be punished forever, and they and their families will die thousands of times."

"Knock him~!"

"Knock him~!"

Lu Yang's ears continued to echo with various inducing voices, some women's voices, some men's voices, some flattering and stern, but Lu Yang just smiled when facing these voices.

When he came to the front of the frightening clock, he raised the bell hammer, but stopped a moment before it struck, and said with a smile: "I want to knock so much, but I won't knock, come out, shouldn't I? Let's talk about the conditions."

"Knock him~!"

...

The voice in his ear became even more excited, but Lu Yang sat down with a smile, took two steps back and stood on the spot, saying, "If you think about it, I can leave here at any time, if I leave with the clock hammer, you will never wake up."

"Looking for death~! You dare to play tricks on us, I want you to never be saved." A furious voice sounded in Lu Yang's ear.

"Boom~!"

The ground beneath Lu Yang's feet suddenly collapsed and turned into a bottomless abyss. A whistling sound came from his ears, and his body quickly fell towards the bottom of the abyss.

"Ring the fright bell, we will save your life." The voice sounded in Lu Yang's ear again.

Lu Yang looked at the bottomless abyss under his feet, and then looked at the rapidly upward cliffs around him. A sneer appeared on the corner of his mouth, and he said, "Who are you frightening? , I really can't fall to death."

He has a phoenix as his soul, which can be resurrected after 10,000 deaths, so Lu Yang, who is determined, doesn't even need to be immortal, so he just sits like this.

Besides, before the big change in the world, there was a 5D movie that was sitting on a special chair and wearing a pair of glasses to play a roller coaster. In fact, the chair shakes slightly with the roller coaster picture in the 3D glasses. nothing.

Lu Yang felt that this kind of fantasy was no different from watching a 5D movie, and it was not as scary as the blizzard just now.

"I want to let ten thousand snakes bite your body and ten thousand ghosts to swallow your soul." The voice appeared in Lu Yang's ears again.

Lu Yang, who was falling quickly, suddenly appeared around a large number of flying snakes. They had hideous faces, cold eyes, and stuck out their tongues from time to time. There were also madly roaring evil spirits in the air who wanted to devour Lu Yang's soul.

Lu Yang was still not afraid, just sat there, letting countless flying snakes bite his body, countless evil ghosts biting his soul, and a strange pain came from all over his body and from the depths of his soul.

I don't know how long it has passed It seems like 10,000 years, but Lu Yang is still carrying it. He knows that these are all fake, no matter how real, he is still fake, as long as he If you can bear it, you will be able to exchange the greatest benefit for mankind.

"I'll give you one last chance. If you still can't scare me, I'll leave with the fright bell. This treasure is good. I'll bring it back to my world. If it's smashed, I can make a few shields." Lu Yang's voice was very soft, but the surroundings disappeared.

Lu Yang returned to the place where he was sitting in front of the Horror Bell at the beginning, the ground was still the ground, there was no collapse, and there were no countless flying snakes and evil spirits on his body.

At this moment, a rustling sound came from the grass behind him, and suddenly, a 100-meter-tall ghost-faced roar jumped out and punched him. There was a small scar on his heart. Obviously, it was the When Lu Yang first reached the first floor, he saw the ghost-faced roar whose heart was pierced by the sharp horns of the ancient demonic snake.

It was Lu Yang who pulled the horns of the ancient demon snake out of his heart, and it must be because of this reason that he suddenly woke up now.

Seeing that the fist was in front of Lu Yang, but Lu Yang didn't move, just watched Ghost Mian Roo's fist reach the tip of his nose and stopped.

Chapter 2403: trade

"Damn creature, what kind of monster are you, why are you indifferent to my fantasy~!" a voice asked angrily.

Lu Yang smiled and said in the ancient Elvish language, "If you have no desires, you will be strong~!"

"No desire is just right?" The unknown voice repeated a sentence and fell into thought. After a long time, he said angrily: "There is no one in this world who can do nothing without desire, you obviously want something, how can you achieve nothing without desire?"

Lu Yang smiled and said: "Because my desire is too low, so I can control it, I limit my desire to a fixed range, beyond this range, I think he is fake, so, You'll never get me wrong."

This is like a person going to the bank to save 10,000 yuan for financial management, but the lobby manager told him that the interest is 100%, do you dare to save it? Obviously a scam! Can tell you the interest is! To 3%, you have a high probability of believing, because this is the reasonable range.

The angry voice appeared again and asked, "What do you want?"

Lu Yang said: "Two things, one is an agreement, and the other is to give me something you don't want. I'm a king-level powerhouse. In your eyes, I can kill a yawn. You can give it to me."

"You are from the fire department, give you a fruit, so that you can quickly advance to the upper * after eating?"

"I have an arm of the ancient fire * king. It's in my stomach. You can get the arm and drain the blood inside to become the fire god."

"How about the fire of the world-destroying * fire, let me out, I will give you the fire."

Countless voices lingered in Lu Yang's ears, but Lu Yang showed a tired and crooked expression and scolded: "Have you forgotten what I just said, I said that my needs are within a reasonable range, beyond this range, It doesn't make any sense to me, I just want it within that range."

"What do you mean, what do you want?"

"Then what do you want?"

"Don't you want any good things?"

The illusion reappeared. Around the Shock Bell, the treasures that the Blazing Demon God would be moved when they saw them were held in the hands of the beautiful women, waiting for Lu Yang to reach out and take them.

Lu Yang sat on the spot motionless, he said solemnly: "To improve my strength, I will exercise step by step, it is not given by others, it is not mine, and I do not need it, so don't use this illusion to deceive Me, it doesn't make sense."

Lu Yang continued: "And those artifacts, I'm just a monarch-level powerhouse, and I can't use them either. Besides, I have too many enemies, no matter how powerful personal weapons are, it's meaningless, I don't want them."

"I gave it to you, come and pick it up~!"

"Come on, it's yours to get it."

The seductive voice kept lingering in Lu Yang's ears, but Lu Yang didn't move at all, he just sat on the ground and watched this clumsy performance. Go in the opposite direction.

This time, all the women showed horrified expressions and disappeared in an instant. In front of Lu Yang, a humanoid creature appeared with hundreds of eyes on his head and countless arms on his body.

"Young strong man, I am the thousand-eyed and thousand-armed God King Longest, one of the four kings of chaos. I will negotiate with you and tell me your name." Longest stared at Lu with a thousand eyes. Yang said.

As soon as the voice fell, another spherical monster with a thousand eyes and a thousand beards, a red body with a hundred heads, a pale humanoid with a rock-like body, and many strange creatures appeared around Longest. , they gradually surrounded Lu Yang in the middle, intimidating Lu Yang with a powerful force.

Lu Yang was not afraid. He looked at each one carefully and said, "You ancient chaos beasts really look strange."

The thousand-eyed and thousand-armed God King Longest said solemnly: "Speak your specific requirements."

"Haha~!" Lu Yang sneered and said, "What kind of majesty are you pretending to be with me? Believe it or not, I'll take the clock hammer out of the Emerald Forest now, so that you won't be able to wake up for the rest of your life."

"You..." The god-kings were speechless, even though they were all ancient beasts, their strengths ranged from low-ranking gods to god-kings, but they really couldn't do anything about Lu Yang now, who kept them in a state of eternal sleep.

"What do you want?" Longest asked helplessly.

Lu Yang said: "The first requirement is that if I rescue you, then I am the benefactor of all your beasts. You are not allowed to hurt me in the future, let alone hurt my friends."

The surrounding ferocious beasts looked at them and nodded. This request was not too much for them. No matter how cruel they were, Lu Yang was willing to take the initiative to save them after resisting all their illusions, which meant that Lu Yang's mental strength is not weaker than them, and they are willing to make friends with such a strong person.

"Yes, we are willing to accept you as a friend." Longest said on behalf of the beasts.

Lu Yang nodded and said, "The second requirement is simpler. There must be the corpses of ancient beasts here. I don't want to be too high-level. Just give me this monarch-level to refine weapons."

All the beasts were a little stunned. Originally, they thought that Lu Yang would use this to threaten them. After rescuing them, one of the god-king or main god-rank powerhouses would have to pay the price of their lives after rescuing them. , Let's use Lu Yang as the material for the refining. I didn't expect that Lu Yang would be a monarch or a lower god, or a corpse.

“It’s that simple?” Longest asked in disbelief: “We have all the treasures of heaven and earth. You only want the monarch and the lower gods?”

Lu Yang said: “I said, my strength, I will cultivate by myself, what you gave me will only hurt my strength to permanently stagnate in the stage of the upper * or the main god, but I want to become a * king, I will never take shortcuts.”

The Blazing Demon God once told Lu Yang that unless God gave birth to you, let your strength be the upper * or the main god, otherwise, using other methods to forcibly climb up the ranks will only make your strength permanently stay at this stage.

Strength is not only about magic power or divine power, but also related to various factors such as experience, state of mind, mind, spiritual power, and endurance. Without one, you cannot be promoted to a * king. If you cannot become a * king, then, no matter how many main gods the human race has, one * When the king comes, it only takes one thought to destroy the entire human race.

Longest nodded to Lu Yang with satisfaction, and said, “If it’s just like this, we can accept it, give us some time and let’s discuss it.”

Chapter 2404: Demon Flame Bound Dragon Formation

The four * kings and many main god-level beasts immediately discussed it. They were reluctant to give something too good, and they felt that they couldn’t do it for something too bad. He came over and said to the four kings of the gods: “In exchange for the corpse of my dead child.”

Longest was surprised and asked, “Are you sure?”

The hundred-legged beast had a grimacing face, but at this moment, it was crying and said with a grim face: “When the * ancient * sealed me, my child was not yet born, this world has been absorbing the divine power in our body, so I have no More nutrition is provided for my child, which died ten thousand years ago, and I will go out to seek revenge on those ancient gods and kill them all.”

Longest sighed, these beasts originally had no distinction between good and evil, because when the world of another world was formed, they appeared naturally, which meant that the whole world belonged to them. .

After countless subsequent beings were born, some of them also cultivated to the rank of gods and began to challenge them. In battles again and again, the beasts fought their own way, and they were finally defeated and sealed in the Emerald Forest.

Now, Longest and the others have finally reached a consensus by using illusions to communicate, that is, the beasts must form an alliance and form a group life, so as to survive to the maximum extent, and find those ancient gods to take revenge.

Longest looked at Lu Yang and said, “You are lucky, the ones who are willing to give you treasures are called Chaos Demon Flame Beasts. The flames they release have a chaotic aura, which can restrain all evil spirits, evil spirits and extraterrestrial demons. , wake us up.”

Lu Yang was a little surprised and asked, “Is there any other types of flames?”

Longest said: “Of course, I can sense that the flame in your body is ordinary fire. No matter how high the temperature of this flame is, you can encounter ghosts and evil spirits hiding in the void, and your flame is useless. It’s because the flames can’t burn them, but the Chaos Demon Fire can.”

“Thank you.” Lu Yang clasped his fists at Longest and the ghost-faced centipede, and said, “Human Lu Yang will remember your kindness, and I will definitely repay it in the future.”

He took out the bell hammer and struck * the top of the fright bell.

“Boom~~~~~!”

The melodious bell rang through every floor of the Emerald Forest, all the mirages slowly dissipated, and the oppressive aura condensed from all directions, almost causing Lu Yang to kneel on the ground, but Lu Yang, relying on his strong willpower, just stood there. in situ.

“Roar~~~~!”

The roar mixed with tyranny, madness, bloodthirsty and many other negative energies resounded through the Emerald Forest. The teleportation temple behind Lu Yang burst with a bang, and the nine layers of the Emerald Forest overlapped into one layer.

Countless thousand- and ten-thousand-meter-long terrifying creatures in the sky flew over his head. One of the creatures with a thousand eyes and a thousand arms was Longest, and next to him was a ghost-faced hundred-legged beast.

“Don’t let my son’s corpse be humiliated. His mother is the main god-level chaotic beast, the chaotic demon flame beast~!” The ghost-faced hundred-legged beast roared angrily, followed by a tens of meters long beast that fell from the air.

Afterwards, the ghost-faced hundred-legged beast spewed out a mouthful of flames, burning the emerald-green sky with a gap of one kilometer in diameter. Countless ancient beasts flew out of the emerald forest from this passage!

Lu Yang stood on the spot and watched all the ancient beasts fly away before secretly relieved. He found a big tree to lean against, feeling the trembling uncontrollable legs, and muttered to himself: “It finally succeeded.”

Manniu flew out of the Demon Temple immediately, stood beside Lu Yang and said excitedly, “You will be my big brother from now on, I’ll take it, you actually fooled so many * kings and sovereign gods, They are ancient beasts, killing the king of gods is like playing.”

“Cough cough~!” Blazing Demon God flew out, gave Man Niu a displeased look, and then said to Lu Yang in amazement, “You are so daring, you were going to ring the bell, but you dare to use it. Here to threaten the ancient beasts? What do you think?”

Lu Yang laughed and said with a long breath, “I’m also afraid that they will use the eternal illusion to imprison me, but I believe that they still want to go out. The key is that my requirements are low enough that they can give it at will, This is also the key to their unwillingness to delay time with me, but I didn’t expect that they finally gave me the corpse of a child of a god-level beast, in other words, what can this thing do?”

The Blazing Flame Demon God looked at the dead hundred-legged beast in front of him. Although it was only a few dozen meters in size, its corpse was very complete. There was still a fire in its body, the Chaos Demon Flame, and he said with emotion: “You are lucky. Ah, store the fire in your soul sea, and you can release the Chaos Demon Flame in the future, this is a windfall, it seems that the Chaos Demon Flame Beast really appreciates you.”

Lu Yang was also a little surprised. He took the fire out of the corpse’s body. It was a gray flame. It looked very strange. It seemed that there was no temperature when his hand was placed on it. Demons and extraterrestrial demons are extremely frightened.

“Accept~!”

Lu Yang put the fire seed into the soul sea, and suddenly, he felt a change in the flame in his body. After suppressing the joy in his heart, he looked at the remaining bones and asked, “Can you refine any treasures?”

The barbarian ox ripped off the outer skin of the Chaos Demon Flame Beast’s corpse. The internal organs were damaged, but the bones remained intact.

Blazing Demon God said: “There are 60 leg bones in total, each of which is a good material of quasi-god level, and can be used as a totem pole for storing flames. The stored flame energy is enough to reach 600 magic powers in your body. Carve a dragon binding formation, and in the future, whether it is a duel or a group battle, there are very few powerhouses of the same rank who can beat you.”

The bull said excitedly: “I guarantee that the refining is perfect.”

“Go back now.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang stopped the Blazing Demon God and said, “How about we go to another world? Since the ancient beasts have all returned to another world, let’s not go and see how much damage they have caused. strength?”

Blazing Demon God’s eyes lit up, and he said excitedly, “I really want to take a look.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “If you can’t get it right, you can still pick up the corpse. The only problem is how to be careful not to be found.”

The Blazing Demon God pointed to the shocking clock in front of him and said, “I asked you to come to him, just because this baby is the best invisible treasure.”

The Shock Bell has three functions. The best use is to use the divine sense to let the Shock Bell fly to the top of the head to release the magic power, and transmit the user to the node channel of the void and reality.

Walking in this passage, you can see the situation in reality clearly, and will not be discovered by the creatures in reality, unless the other party is the upper * of the void system, or the other party’s spell has the ability to break the void, otherwise, it will not hurt at all. to the user.

“It’s up to you.” Lu Yang said excitedly looking at the Blazing Demon God.

The Blazing Demon God laughed, put away the fright bell, and took Lu Yang along the Bandarsburg route to teleport to another world.

Chapter 2405: be a oriole

A light flickered.

Lu Yang found that he had landed on a low mountain. There was a sacrifice pit and battle flags stuck in the soil on all sides. There were corpses all over the place.

“It seems that this race wants to open the space of Bandarsburg. Even if the time is up, it needs a lot of sacrifices.” Lu Yang said with emotion.

Blazing Demon God said: “Of course, what you have now seems simple, but for the vast majority of races in other worlds, you can’t ask for it.”

Lu Yang asked, “How about compared to the gods?”

The Blazing Demon God snorted coldly and said, “Then you can’t compare. In my heyday, the things I gave me belonged to the race of the gods, you can’t imagine, the treasures you have now are the gods of the lower gods. The race is stronger.”

Lu Yang sighed and said, “I really don’t know what kind of impact it will have the next time the divine race is transmitted to our world.”

The Blazing Demon God was not in a hurry and said, “It’s enough to destroy a few more. It’s much easier to grab their treasures than to make them yourself.”

Lu Yang also has this plan.

“Roar~!”

“Hey~!”

Suddenly there was a strange cry of killing from the foot of the mountain, as if two legions were fighting, Lu Yang curiously walked to the side of the mountain and looked down.

At the foot of the mountain is an endless plain. The armies of the two races are fighting frantically. One of them is burning with flames, and the other is the Void Zerg.

The Blazing Demon God said: "The fire element is the * race, you see their patriarch, the strength is quasi-god, and the four fire-breathing * above the head are the entropy energy * of the lower * level of the fire element. ."

Lu Yang asked, "What is it for?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "Together, it can emit a flame of the lower * level, but that thing is not as strong as your ghost-faced hundred-legged beast. The patriarch can't beat you."

Lu Yang nodded and looked at the Void Zerg side again. Unlike the Void Zerg that entered the earth world, the Void Zerg who arrived in another world were different from the ones on Earth.

Not only is the appearance more than ten times larger, but the strength is far more than the Void Scythe worms on the earth. The breath released from them, the lowest rank is the lord rank, the king rank is everywhere, and the strongest mother among them. Insect, the strength is also quasi-God level.

The two sides were fighting together, and the flame race was obviously unable to defeat the Void Zerg, especially the 20 demigod-level Void Scythes that the Quasi-God-level Void Mother Insects produced every few minutes.

If it weren't for the large number of high-level magic crystals and powerful magic circles in the hands of the flame race, the flame race would have been unable to support it.

Seeing this scene, Lu Yang couldn't help but think in his heart. He said to the blazing demon * in his consciousness, "Ask a question, who is the * of this flame race?"

Blazing Demon God shook his head and said, "Looking at the sign, it should be the new lower god. This * is not simple. His sign is the lower * of the Tuli family."

Lu Yang was a little surprised and asked, "In your world, do gods still have families?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "Of course, the gods in our world are free to fall in love, it is very normal for gods to marry gods, and the children born will most likely become gods, and a few who can't become gods are quasi-gods or half-gods. God-level, it is easy to form a family."

Lu Yang asked, "Is this Tuli family your betrayer?"

The Blazing Demon God cursed with some resentment: "The * of this family, I gave their family so much support at the beginning, but when I encountered the rebellion, they chose to support their troops, and I will definitely destroy this family in the future. "

Lu Yang smiled and said, "It seems that this family is not the direct descendant of the new Fire God King, right?"

Blazing Demon God said: "Not only is it not a direct line, but it is one of the families that the newly promoted Fire God King is most afraid of."

Lu Yang smiled even more and said, "Then we might as well use this flame race as a breakthrough. Let's take this Tuli family first, how about it?"

The Blazing Demon God became interested and asked, "What do you want to do?"

Lu Yang asked: "If the Tuli family secretly made deals with the human race to buy and sell arms, what would the new Fire God King do to them?"

The Blazing Demon God has already reacted, he said with a smile: "Even if there is no war, it will be more suspicious, I know what you think, I will help the bull to refine the magic weapon, don't worry, this war is not The fight can be finished in a few days, and both sides have to kill for at least half a month."

Lu Yang said, "I will also follow you to learn to refine weapons."

With a flash of light, Lu Yang disappeared in place and entered the Demon Temple. In the medicine garden where the red and purple spirit fruits were grown, Man Niu had already built his blacksmith shop and was skillfully handling the corpse of the ghost-faced hundred-legged beast.

At this time, six leg bones had been pulled out intact, and the gray-white bones had golden blood on them, making the bones look a little weird.

The Blazing Demon God took one and walked into the blacksmith shop. After tempering it with divine fire, he began to draw an inscription array on the leg bone.

The most difficult thing is this. The Blazing Demon God has to describe twelve small circles and three large circles. The small ones are used to increase the speed of casting spells and the speed of energy transmission and other auxiliary circles. The larger one is the energy storage circle. , One is the control circle and the other is the attack circle.

These add up to a total of 512 runes, but the bones can only hold the next 200 runes, which requires a redesign of the Blazing Demon God. If some runes can be shared, they will not be depicted.

This kind of thing seems simple, but it is very complicated when it is really portrayed. First of all, you need to know the ancient Elvish language and have a very strong design ability.

Lu Yang couldn't do such a thing, but the Blazing Demon God was very familiar with it. It took only three hours for a leg bone to go from calcining to carving inscriptions, to summoning spirits to attach to it, and then dripping blood to become the master of the weapon. time.

Sixty leg bones were manufactured, and less than ten days had passed. When Lu Yang came out of the Demon Temple, the war between the flame race and the Void Zerg continued, but the two sides had already killed each other. Exhausted.

The body of the Void Mother Insect was damaged in many places, and the strange black blood continuously dripped from its body to the ground. Most of the demigod-level sickle worms around it also died, and the other sickle worms were even more deadly and injured.

The flame race is even more miserable. Almost all of the thousands of fifth- and sixth-order flame circles have been broken, and more than two-thirds of the clansmen have been killed or injured. Healing, there are less than five hundred monarch-level powerhouses around.

“The warriors of the Demon Fire Race, for the glory of God, follow me to attack, we will die, and we will die under the glory of God.” The quasi-god of the Fire Race watched the Zerg gather again, he let out a roar, and took the lead in leading the remnants The tribe launched an attack.

Seeing this scene, the Void Mother Insect showed a sneer on her face and said: “Poor Demon Fire Race, where is your god? Why didn’t he come to save you, you were abandoned, your * abandoned you, surrender .”

The warriors of the Demon Fire Clan have fallen into self-doubt, because they have been fighting for ten days, and the confidence to ask for help has long been in the hands of the lower gods. Why didn’t the lower gods come to save them? The biggest question in the minds of the clan owners.

Lu Yang laughed and said to the Blazing Demon God, “Could it be because I released the ancient beasts, causing all the gods to go to fight with the ancient beasts.”

The Blazing Demon God also laughed and said: “It should be like this. Originally, the Void Zerg was very difficult to deal with, and it was necessary for the New God side to select most of the main force to participate in the battle. Now the ancient beasts have appeared again, and the New God side has no more. Any excess combat power, this kind of war below the * level here, will not send gods to help.”

Lu Yang stared at the war in the distance. The quasi-god of the Demon Fire Race continued to fight with the Void Mother Worm with hundreds of monarchs, but the Void Mother Worm suddenly gave birth to more than 20 demigod-level Scythe bugs. In reversal, the Demon Fire Race side is at an absolute disadvantage.

“For the glory of God~!” A monarch-level powerhouse of the Mohuo clan was stabbed in the heart by a demigod-level sickle bug But the monarch-level powerhouse of the Mohuo clan did not escape, but

Holding the demigod-level sickle worm, a blazing red light emerged from his body and chose to self-destruct.

Half of the demigod-level sickle worm's body was crippled, but it wasn't dead yet. As a last resort, three more monarch-level demon fire clan powerhouses rushed over and also chose to self-destruct.

Seeing the death of each clan, but all the new demigod-level sickle worms were killed, the patriarch of the Demon Fire Clan, the demigod-level powerhouse was furious and madly killed the female worm.

Lu Yang knew that his chance was coming, he took out sixty leg bones and placed them around, and chanted a spell in his mouth. After a while, strange white flames burst out from the sixty leg bones at the same time, and his right hand pointed forward. , all the flames began to condense into his hands.

"For the glory of God~!" The demigod of the Demon Fire Clan let out a tragic howl, all the energy in his body shot out, and the four entropy energy spheres collided with the Void Mother Insect, bursting with a dazzling fire.

Just when the Patriarch of the Demon Fire Clan thought he had succeeded, half of the body of the Void Mother Insect still existed, and it was healing quickly. Suddenly, the Patriarch of the Demon Fire Clan turned gloomy, and at this moment, a gray flame came from Shooting from a distance.

Chapter 2407: monarchy magic core

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and secretly said to the Blazing Demon God: "Why is this guy so enthusiastic about me all of a sudden? Could it be that the chaotic flame I used has also been used by other races in this world?"

The Blazing Demon God frowned and thought for a while, and suddenly scolded a little furiously: "Dark Fire Race, I can't believe that my affiliated race is still alive, Van Dier, this lowly bastard, must have taken refuge in the New God, otherwise, His tribe should have perished with me long ago."

Lu Yang was unable to help the Blazing Demon God to relieve himself. This kind of betrayal from an affiliated race was the most uncomfortable. It is conceivable to be able to become an affiliated race of the Blazing Demon God. How many benefits would be gained, but such a racial betrayal is not something that anyone can do. accepted.

Lu Yang said to the Blazing Demon God, "Sooner or later, they will be punished, trust me."

Blazing Demon God nodded and stopped talking.

Lu Yang continued to follow Lordos to the southwest of the Mohuo clan. Before long, a high mountain appeared in the distance. There was a huge crater at the top of the mountain. The smoking volcano seemed to erupt at any time. generally.

At the foot of the volcano, there is a huge city built of red and black rocks. Inside the city, there are red-skinned creatures burning with flames all over the body, and their appearances are not much different from Lordos.

"Honorable guest, please follow me to the palace." Lordos led Lu Yang into the castle.

As soon as he landed, a group of Demon Fire servants came to Lordos with scepters and cloaks, and changed his equipment for him.

Lordos whispered a few words to a servant next to him. The servant turned and left, and came back shortly after, with a box in his hand.

"My friend, this is my thanks to you, please don't refuse." Lordos said to Lu Yang very proudly.

Lu Yang was a little surprised. He took the box and opened it. There were thirty magic crystals of the monarch rank inside.

"Thank you so much." Lu Yang didn't expect that Lordos was so generous, and this thing could be used for his practice.

Lordos knew that Lu Yang would like it. He already felt that Lu Yang was a monarch. With this thing, he could speed up his cultivation.

Although the demon core of the monarch is not a rare thing among the races with main gods like the Dark Fire Clan, the Dark Fire Clan is too large, and it is impossible to equip every clan with such sufficient cultivation materials, most of them are still Find it by yourself.

Luo Erdos did not intend to give these materials to Lu Yang. After all, it is not so simple for a race of quasi-god-rank powerhouses like him to obtain the demon core of the monarch-rank, except for the few hunting grounds controlled by the main gods. , most of the places are still chaotic areas, even the main gods are reluctant to go.

Originally, the magic cores of these monarchs were prepared by Lordos for his younger brother, but his younger brother had already died in battle, and his son had not reached the monarchy. The existence of , so, give Lu Yang a favor.

Now that Lu Yang was satisfied with the gift, he breathed a sigh of relief, and said, "Brother Flame, I want to attack the Void Mother Worm's lair tonight and kill the Mother Worm. What do you think?"

Lu Yang didn't care, he asked, "Can your body hold up?"

Lordos said: "No problem, I will fight in the front, you hide behind, and when he can't hold it, you will burn him with flames."

Lu Yang nodded and said, "Okay, if I kill him, I can continue to practice with confidence."

Lordos sighed and said, "Brother Flame, I advise you not to go out to practice, hurry back to your race, the outside world is in chaos."

Lu Yang pretended to be surprised and asked: "What happened? I practiced in the deep mountains for a long time. How do you feel that the strength of our Protoss is much weaker?"

Lordos heard Lu Yang's overtones, sighed again, and said, "I don't know which * released the chaotic beasts. The chaotic beasts that were originally exiled to the Emerald Forest, I don't know how many. It's been ten thousand years, and now it's good. After such a long time, this group of chaotic beasts, who are used to fighting alone, have learned to fight in groups.

As soon as it was released today, they joined forces to kill a powerful flame protoss with three main gods, occupying their place, known as the Chaos Race living area, and prohibiting any race from approaching in the future."

Lu Yang asked deliberately, "What does that have to do with you?"

Lordos said depressedly: "It didn't matter at first, but there are so many treasures on the beasts, so many gods, they all think that after the beasts of chaos are released, they will wander around the world alone, rushing over to want Killing monsters and grabbing treasures, I didn't expect that they would all become the belly of the beasts of chaos, and our lower * doesn't know whether he is dead or alive now, and there is a Void Zerg invasion here.

Lu Yang sneered in his heart and deliberately asked, "What about sending the race to Earth?"

Lordos looked around, and after confirming that there were no outsiders, he said helplessly: "I don't know what the gods are thinking, they still want to send the gods to the earth, but I'm afraid not many will be sent this time. I don't know what good things are there, why do you have to occupy the planet over there at this time."

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief in his heart, smiled and looked at Lordos, took out a packet of tea from the demon space, handed it to Lordos and said, "Try this, this is what a friend of mine brought back from Earth. Yes, maybe you will know why you want to invade over there."

Luo Erdos's eyes lit up and said: "Sure enough, he is a member of the big family. He is actually a friend of the merchant of the mechanical plane. This must have been bought from the merchant of the mechanical plane. I heard that this thing is called Tea, isn't it, it's now the best thing in our world for entertaining VIPs."

Lu Yang said in his heart, sure enough, the more powerful the race, the same as the powerful nobles in the ancient times on earth, would like to show off their power with something that other people don't have.

Only the mechanical plane merchants can trade things back and forth on the earth, and they are elusive. Only the gods of the other world can buy such things.

Lordos had tasted the taste of tea at a meeting of the son of the Lord God before, and the son of the Lord God had also rewarded his enemy with a packet of tea, and his enemy had often shown off in front of him, and now he has it too, I was already thinking about fighting that enemy again.

Chapter 2408: Orc Fair

"I don't know how much you have, but I'm willing to buy them all." Lordos said respectfully to Lu Yang.

There are still more than 100 packs in Lu Yang's Demon Temple, but he can't directly say that there are so many, and said with a smile: "I still have ten packs, but I can't sell them all to you, it's just that this thing is rare, what are you willing to use? to exchange?"

Luo Erdos didn't expect that Lu Yang had so many in his hands, and he was shocked and said excitedly: "Your position in the elder family must be unusual, you actually have ten packs, I want them all, as for the things, I think you like Void Demon Cores, I have 2,000 Void Demon Cores of the lord rank, 1,000 of the king rank, and 300 of the monarch rank, I will take them all out and exchange them with you."

This time, it was Lu Yang's turn to be stunned. He only had one sentence in his heart: "How much difference did that little * earn from the businessman Luo Laide of the Ten Thousand Realms?"

Usually, these tea leaves are shipped to other worlds by ton by ton, but all the things given to him are the third-order magic cores, but he used a hundred packs to exchange so many treasures. .

“Okay, okay, this thing is not very useful to me, but a friend of mine urgently needs these things, so I’ll exchange them with you first, and then with him.” Lu Yang deliberately pretended to be reluctant, Take out ten packets of tea leaves.

Lordos hurriedly called someone to take all the Void Demon Cores seized in the past year and gave them to Lu Yang together.

Lu Yang didn’t avoid Lordos, and put them all into the Demon God’s space, which made Lordos feel that he couldn’t easily provoke Lu Yang. Normally, only gods can have a space that Lu Yang has, and Lu Yang is still there. It is obviously unreasonable to go out to practice alone. The only possibility is that there is a god-level powerhouse hidden in Lu Yang’s demon space.

“Woo~~~~!” A horn sounded suddenly outside the door.

Lordos was thankful that he didn’t do anything to Lu Yang, and when he heard the voice, he showed an excited expression and said, “The reinforcements are here, and my reinforcements are here.”

Lu Yang looked out in surprise. In the sky in the distance, a strong man with a human-like shape and feathers on his back flew over.

“Is this an angel?” Lu Yang asked curiously in his consciousness.

The Blazing Demon God sneered and said, “This is the White Feather Clan, not the real Holy Light Angel Race. It belongs to the subspecies of the Angel Clan, mainly the product of the combination of the Holy Light Angel Clan and other flying races.”

The white feathers in the distance gradually approached. The head of the patriarch was extremely ugly. The weapon in his hand was a long spear with holy light. He said loudly, “Where is Lordos, he hasn’t come out to meet me yet.”

Lordos walked out with an unhappy face, looked at the white feather clan chief and said angrily: “Bernde, how is it you, my brother Carl?”

Bernd, the patriarch of the white feather clan, enjoyed the expression of Lordos very much, and said arrogantly: "Your Excellency Karl, the lower god, was seriously injured in the war against the beasts. Please ask me to come and help. Do you have any questions?"

Lordos really couldn't refute, but he suddenly thought of tea. This Carl was his mortal enemy. The last time he was rewarded with tea, Carl kept showing off to him, and this time he could just press it back.

"Of course I have no problem, please come in, I have a good treasure of the human world, tea~!" Lordos deliberately showed off, leading Bernd to the palace.

Berndton felt unhappy, but he didn't believe that Lordos had such a good thing, so he walked in, just in time, the servant made a pot of tea.

Bernd didn't even care about Lu Yang, who was sitting beside him. After drinking a drink, his face showed a shocked expression and asked, "Where did you get it from? It tastes better than what my brother gave me. ."

Lordos was very proud, pointed to Lu Yang and said, "My good brother Huan gave it to me, don't ask him where he came from, you can't tell."

Lu Yang didn't expect Lordos to be so understanding and cover up his identity, which made Bernd unable to ask questions.

Bernd looked at Lu Yang carefully, and after confirming that Lu Yang only had the strength of a monarch, he felt incredible, and deliberately started a conversation with Lu Yang.

Lordos couldn't accompany him to talk all the time. He needed to recover his strength as soon as possible, so after chatting with him for half an hour, he went back to the room to recover.

Bernd found an opportunity at this time and asked Lu Yang, "Do you have anything similar in your hand?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Yes, yes, but what do you have?"

"Our White Feather Clan occupies a promotion origin mountain, and a bag of tea is exchanged for 100 holy light origin gems." Bernd said.

Lu Yang immediately took out twenty packets of tea and said, "I'll exchange it with you."

Bernd didn't expect Lu Yang to have so many in his hands, so excitedly he immediately took out two huge source gems and handed them to Lu Yang, saying, "It contains the same amount of energy."

Lu Yang checked and confirmed that the source of holy light gem is a good thing, this thing can directly increase the source of holy light, and if it is given to Zhuojiu and his holy light army, it can enhance the strength.

Lu Yang asked, "Are there any other races around here?"

Bernd said: "Brother, this is your first time here. There are many races around here. There are several orc races going south. If you want to go there, I can send you a map."

Lu Yang nodded happily, took the map and said, "I'll be back on time for the afternoon battle. I'll go check out the race over there."

He was going to exchange all the things he brought in the backpack, not only to improve the strength of his brothers, but also to let these races carry the reputation of being connected to the human world and prevent these races from invading the human world.

Immediately, Lu Yang walked to the door, jumped into the air, and quickly flew in the direction indicated by the map.

In the state of a phoenix, Lu Yang flew extremely fast in the air, and within two hours, he discovered an orc city in a valley.

At this time, the city was also devastated by the attack of the Void Zerg, and a large number of orcs were building various fortifications at the top of the city.

“Flame Clan?” The patriarch of the Orc Clan is a strong man, looking up at Lu Yang in the sky with a thoughtful look.

Lu Yang can clearly perceive the position of the orc clan chief, because he is constantly accumulating power, and he is also a demigod.

“Friend of the orcs, I am a cultivator who went out to practice. I can rest here with you.” Lu Yang landed in front of the chief of the orcs and said.

“Of course, my name is Milner, and I am the chief of the forest orcs.” The strong orc bowed slightly.

Lu Yang also bowed and asked, “I just came from the Demon Fire Clan, and it looks like your side was also attacked by the Void Mother Worm.”

Milner said proudly: “That group of * bugs can’t beat us. All of our six orc races are here, and there are six demigod-level powerhouses. How many Void Zerg come to die~!”

Lu Yang complimented: “Amazing.”

Milner said: “Friends from afar, do you have any rare treasures? Our six clans will hold a treasure trade fair this afternoon. If you have them, you can exchange them with us.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “I’ll go take a look first.”

Chapter 2409: buy low sell high

Treasure fairs have always been a very important gathering among various races in different worlds. The Blazing Demon God told Lu Yang that even if they reached the * rank, the gods of all departments would hold various treasure fairs.

Lu Yang followed Milner down the city wall and came to the southern part of the main city of orcs. The whole street in front of him was full of business.

Milner said to Lu Yang: "Please watch it casually. I went inside the castle. There is a high-level treasure area. There is something I need to trade. I will go first."

At the end of the street, there was a very large wooden castle, which was in the direction of Milner. Lu Yang was not in a hurry, and he looked one by one along the street.

The treasures in the Demon Temple now include coffee, fruits, cakes and other things Lu Yang eats daily, as well as some clothes, paper and pens and other supplies, as well as some game consoles and laptops.

These were all found by Lu Yang from major cities in the past four years. Back then, when he was still weak, he thought that these things would never be produced again. Therefore, every time he went to a city, he went to the Electronic City to search for them. Store supplies such as laptops and desktop computers that can still be used in the Demon Temple.

Now that the human world is not destroyed, the southern cities that made these things still exist, and the East China Sea can gradually produce these items, so these things in his hands are worthless.

"Look at the brothers in the past, they are all first-class treasures." A green-skinned orc shouted loudly in the distance.

A lot of orcs gathered around, and Lu Yang followed. In the booth of the green-skinned orcs, there was a two-handed axe with a blood-red light on the back of the axe.

"What's the name of the quasi-god-level axe?" a monarch-level orc asked curiously.

Lu Yang was a little surprised. He didn't expect the monarchs to be so common here, and he could meet them casually. There were more than one, and most of the strong people around him were of the monarchs.

The green-skinned orc said: "Gore Roar, I got this weapon on the Void battlefield. The battle was too chaotic at that time. The strong man who originally held this weapon has died in the battle, and the weapon has become an ownerless thing. Who would have thought? If you want, the one with the higher price will get it."

"I exchanged 100 monarch-level origin soul crystals," said an expert monarch-level orc.

"I'll pay 110 yuan," said a squat orc on the other side.

"I'll pay 200 yuan."

The bid quickly exceeded 300 Origin Soul Crystals, but the green-skinned orc was still dissatisfied, and said loudly, "I won't sell less than 500 Origin Soul Crystals, I'm going to apprentice."

Compared with the rare treasure such as Origin Soul Crystal, the weapon like Gorehowl is even rarer, because the material of this weapon is made of eighth-order blood smelted iron.

The reason why it can be called blood smelting is because this iron ore contains the blood energy that the orcs like most, which can make it easier for them to enter a violent state, and the energy released through this weapon is also more convenient.

This weapon can also resist the power of the void and various dark magic powers, and it can be regarded as a top weapon below the * level with both offense and defense.

Lu Yang felt that the white lion lacked such a weapon. He came to the green orc and said, "Brother, can you talk alone?"

“Okay.” The green-skinned orc could see at a glance that Lu Yang had a treasure on his body.

Lu Yang immediately walked to the side of the green-skinned orc and asked in a low voice, “Are you interested in exchanging things on earth for this weapon in your hand?”

“Something on Earth?” The green-skinned orc’s eyes lit up, and he asked excitedly, “What is it, tell me about it?”

Lu Yang asked: “I have a lot of types. It depends on who you want to give it to. If you want to apprentice, I believe in you. What I give you must be better than the original soul transistor. Tell me about it. Who do you want to be your teacher?”

The green-skinned orc was very sincere and said, “His Royal Highness, the lower * of the orcs, Gorgulus.”

Blazing Demon God said in his consciousness: “An ordinary lower * does not have much strength, but he is a good teacher.”

Lu Yang understood, smiled and took out a box of coffee to the green-skinned orc and said: “With this transaction, a drink that can only be used by the upper class nobles and royal families in the human world is called coffee, I guarantee that His Royal Highness Gegulas will accept you. apprentice.”

The green-skinned orc directly handed Gorehowl to Lu Yang, and said, “My good brother, if I succeed in apprenticeship, I will be very grateful to meet you again.”

Seeing that the green-skinned orc agreed so easily, Lu Yang felt a little stunned and sighed: “It’s a real person, you don’t even talk about bargaining with me, this coffee costs 25 yuan a box, and I have hundreds of boxes here. Woolen cloth.”

The Blazing Demon God looked at Lu Yang with contempt, and said, “It’s a shame that you are a king, and you still do business like this.”

Lu Yang didn't care, and said, "We both get what we need, and he's not at a loss, right?"

The Blazing Demon God didn't speak, and the bull said secretly, "Amazing~!"

Lu Yang put the Blood Roar into the Demon God's space, looked at the various orcs who were not angry, and said, "I'm sorry everyone, I took this thing."

The surrounding orcs are all of the monarch rank, and seeing Lu Yang's expression is a little uncomfortable, but they did not dare to do anything with Lu Yang, because this is the main city of orcs, there are several demigods and quasi-gods, and you are not their monarch rank at all. Affordable.

Blazing Demon God said: "I suggest you go directly to the fair in the castle, and sell everything you have there. If it is auctioned, things like coffee will be robbed very quickly. I will exchange you for materials that are not below the monarch rank."

The castles are all places where the monarchs trade with quasi-gods and demigods. They will not be stingy with the things that are useless to them.

Lu Yang also had the same idea. He walked quickly to the castle. Just as he was about to enter the door, an orc in black armor walked in front of Lu Yang, blocking the road and saying, "Warrior of the Flame Race, what are you going to do?"

"Sell something." Lu Yang said with a smile.

The black armored orc smiled and said, "Everything needs to be registered with me, and I can let you in only if it is a treasure."

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders. took out coffee from the Demon Temple and said, "How about things in the human world?"

The black armored orc, like the green-skinned orc just now, also brightened his eyes and said, "Come in with me, I never thought that the warriors of the flame tribe would have such treasures."

Lu Yang smiled and followed and walked in. On the way, he deliberately asked arrogantly, "Can you guys afford the things I have here? Don't be all orcs who don't know the goods."

The black-armored orc was not happy anymore, and said proudly: "The lowest rank here is also the monarch rank, and they all have the title of aristocrat. You have come to the right place. This thing can definitely be sold at a good price in our place, but it is not Know how much you have."

Lu Yang didn't dare to take out too much, he just took out 10 boxes and said, "There are only so many, I didn't want to take them out originally, but I really need the original soul crystal, I can sell as many as I can."

"Where is your identity?" the black armored orc asked.

Lu Yang said, "Secret."

The black armored orc nodded and took these 10 boxes of coffee to the backstage to register!

Chapter 2411: windfall

Remember [New] for a second,! The immortality and immortality skills have a prerequisite, that is, they will not be attacked by the opponent's spiritual sense. Once the opponent uses a spiritual attack, it is possible that a god-level illusion can make Lu Yang stay in place infinitely and sleep. until the end of life.

The Blazing Demon God is not sure whether Bernd will use this kind of divine sense attack. After all, it is a gods race and still has some strength, so the Blazing Demon said: "I can only help you resist one divine sense attack. Go in the direction of the Ferocious Beast Battlefield."

Lu Yang turned his head and flew to the southwest, where the fierce aura could be felt by the Blazing Demon God thousands of miles away.

“Friend of the Flame Race, do you want to leave? I’ve been waiting for you for a long time.” A tens of meters wide Holy Light Slash suddenly shot towards him.

The strong holy light almost caused a wound in the sky, and the space that passed through was wrinkled. Lu Yang’s attention was on the battle between Bernd and Lordos in the distance, and he never thought of it. An enemy attacked him outside the holy light shield, and his body was immediately chopped up by the giant holy light.

“It’s so easy to die?” A strong man of the White Feather clan flew over from the ground, holding a golden long knife in his hand, a cold and arrogant expression appeared on his hideous face, and said, “The monarch is in my sword’s way. It’s really vulnerable in front of you.”

The voice just fell.

Lu Yang was resurrected on the spot, and 60 gray chaotic flames flew out of his body, binding the limbs, torso, head and other parts of the white feather strong man to death. In the next second, Lu Yang opened Bandarsburg and pulled it in. .

Afterwards, Lu Yang flapped his wings and flew into the distance, not daring to stay in place for a moment, but behind him, a loud shout came, “Put down my brother.”

Lu Yang glanced back at Bernd, who was about to rush over. Unfortunately, he was entangled by Lordos and returned with a sneering expression, and he flew to the southwest.

Bernd could only watch Lu Yang disappear into the sky with his younger brother. Then, he glared at the half-dead Lordos, and said with a grim expression, “You want to be buried with my brother.”

Lordos was not afraid at all, stared at Bernd and said: “The matter of you killing me and the matter of killing the disciples of the Darkfire Clan have been exposed, and your fate will not be better than mine.”

“Roar~!” Bernd madly slashed at Lordos with his sword.

Four hours later.

Lu Yang came to an abyss area. Seeing that there were no enemies left and right, he entered Bandarsburg and looked at the white feather warriors who were being comforted by 60 chaotic flames. Holding the two-handed sword of the Holy Light, he said, “It really is a good weapon. Your strength is also the monarch rank. This weapon can actually increase your damage to the quasi-god rank, which is really unusual.”

“If you want to kill me, or, I will kill your entire clan.” The strong man of the white feather clan roared wildly at Lu Yang.

Lu Yang slashed the arm of the white feather strongman with one knife, and the golden blood splashed. The next second, the white feather warrior looked at the arm that fell to the ground in shock, and then let out a heart-piercing scream.

“My arm, my arm, me...” The white feather strong man struggled frantically, but his body was still bound by the chaotic flames.

Lu Yang raised the long knife and pressed it against the throat of the white feather strong man, and said, “Either surrender or die, choose one.”

“I, I, I...” The white feather strong man showed a terrified look.

Lu Yang sneered at the corner of his mouth, and the long knife cut through the skin of the opponent’s neck. He said, “My patience is limited, and I think it is enough to get this weapon.”

“I surrender, what you got is not enough, not enough.” The white feather strong man collapsed, completely giving up his glory and dignity as a godly race.

The Blazing Demon God looked at this scene in shock, and roared in his consciousness: "How is this possible, how can the powerhouses of the race of the gods abandon their glory."

Lu Yang smiled in his consciousness and said to the Blazing Demon God: "Not every strong man can face death calmly, the only strong man who can hold this kind of weapon is the son or brother of the patriarch, and such a strong man Often it's the fake powerhouse."

There are tiger fathers and dogs, not to mention the large number of races in different worlds. Lu Yang firmly believes that there are such ineffective wastes in any race, and only such wastes will be given to them because they are overly spoiled by the family. Protect them with weapons of higher rank than your own.

Lu Yang made the right bet. He chanted the ancient elf incantation, and a big slave character was engraved on the forehead of the white feather strong man. At this point, he had an extra monarch-level slave.

"Tell me, what's your name, and why are you killing Lordos and me." Lu Yang made a flame seat and said with a smile.

The flame restraint on the white feather strong man disappeared. He quickly took his arm and chanted a spell. A ray of light flickered, and his arm was connected again. This made him relieved and at the same time showed a frustrated look.

"My name is Huen, and I'm Bernd's younger brother. This time, when we come here, we will kill Lordos and protect their lower gods. Therefore, my brother has no scruples." Huen said.

Lu Yang asked, "Do you want to go back to your clan?"

"Of course, master, are you willing to let me go?" Hu En showed an excited look on his face.

Lu Yang said: "Of course, but I have one condition. I want you to lurk in the White Feather tribe and find information for me."

"No problem, I'm willing to do whatever you want me to do, as long as you don't kill me." Hu En said in horror.

Lu Yang didn't want to kill Hu En. What he lacked most now was creatures who knew about the other world. The Blazing Demon God and the Barbarian Bull had too much knowledge about the other world, and they didn't know the inside story of some important things. Being willing to take the initiative to do these things can save him a lot of trouble.

For example, in the transaction, he wants more wood-type magic cores, which requires someone to buy it for him. If Lu Yang bought a fire-type creature, not only would he not sell it, but it would also cause him a lot of trouble. .

Immediately, Lu Yang released Huen from Bandarsburg and said, "Go back and find your brother. Before my order, lurking in peace and waiting for my news."

"Thank you master." Hu En knelt on the ground and bowed respectfully, then he stood up and flew to the northeast.

Lu Yang wasn't worried about Hu En's betrayal of him, because he signed the slave agreement with Hu En using the ancient elf incantation taught by the Blazing Demon God. Even if the God King came, he could not cancel the slave agreement.

Chapter 2412: battle of gods

"Transformation"

Lu Yang jumped into the air and continued to fly in the southwest direction in the form of a phoenix. The fighting atmosphere there was getting more and more terrifying. Lu Yang felt that he was only half an hour away from the edge of the battlefield.

the other side.

In a terrifying black abyss area, millions of beasts are flying out of the abyss, surrounding a huge beast with a length of 10,000 meters.

This is the Cloud Demon, one of the Four God Kings of Fierce Beasts. He is the strongest of the three spells of wind, water and thunder, and in front of him is the * king of wind and water.

In a one-to-two situation, the two * kings still have no certainty of winning, especially looking at the hundreds of main god-level beasts around Yunmo, the two * kings feel their scalps numb.

“We just want a place to rest in peace, don’t you want to give it to us?” Yun Mo’s voice resounded through the sky.

The two * kings looked at each other, and the wind * king Bourdan frowned and said: “Who knows what you really think, if you are well trained and then attack us, won’t we be caught without a hand.”

A hint of sarcasm appeared on Yun Mo’s huge face, and he said, “We cultivated here in the abyss of the two realms, how could we counterattack you, and we still want what we have on us as materials. If that’s the case, then don’t blame us.”

“Roar~!”

Countless ancient beasts opened their huge mouths at the same time, spewing out terrifying wind, rain, and thunder energy. This kind of god-level battle, even if it was hundreds of kilometers away, could be sensed by Lu Yang.

Looking at the strong light emerging from the sky, Lu Yang slowed down the speed of his flight, he felt that if his monarch rank encountered this light, he would be shattered in an instant.

“I have to say that the hardness of the earth in your world is a hundred times stronger than ours. Otherwise, with this kind of attack power, the earth would have to be torn apart.” Lu Yang sighed.

The state of the Blazing Demon God was very bad at this time. He held back his anger and said, "I sensed the God King who was chasing me. Take a closer look. I want to know how strong they are now."

Lu Yang was a little surprised. He controlled his body to fly above the clouds, and then accelerated the flight with all his strength. After a while, he came to the border of the battlefield.

Hidden in a dark cloud, Lu Yang showed only one head, looked at the two hundred-meter tall humanoid creatures that were fighting in the distance, shining with cyan and blue light, and said, "They are your enemies, right?"

The Blazing Demon God snorted coldly and said, "These two wastes are still ignorant of progress, and their strength is still in the early stage of the god-king rank, and they have not improved at all."

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile, and asked, "What should we do now?"

The Blazing Demon God reacted and said, "Your low strength is no different to them than a flies and mosquitoes flying around. If you want to kill you, just a thought will do, but they won't be distracted by this. Yes, you can watch nearby with peace of mind, and when they kill you with divine sense, the moment I help you solve it, you can teleport back to Bandarsburg."

Lu Yang felt that this move was feasible, and waited quietly in the clouds, just as the Blazing Demon God said, the powerful God King looked at him like a fly. As long as he didn't get too close, the God King would not care. After chasing a monarch-level attack, there were eight major ranks and 32 minor ranks on both sides, and every step was like a natural moat. If the king of gods really wanted to kill him, Lu Yang's face would be too great. .

The wind and water * kings on the battlefield were indeed aware of all the creatures within a hundred kilometers, but all their energy was on the god-king rank beasts below, and they had no intention of taking care of Lu Yang at all.

"Boom~!"

The two sides launched a confrontation again, and pieces of divine might exploded in the air. Lu Yang had never seen such an attacking skill before, and he could not understand what the attacking skills of the two sides were. He could only see the nine-color light flickering in the air. .

I don't know how long it took, but the beasts actually gained the upper hand. Just when the wind and water * kings were about to be unable to support them, countless green plants suddenly appeared on the ground in the distance.

These plants quickly grew into towering trees, and then the tree was uprooted and turned into a humanoid creature running forward, fighting with the fierce beasts that bumped into it.

“The three-eyed magic flower is complete~!” Lu Yang said in shock.

The Blazing Demon God said: “Yes, the towering tree below is the complete body of the Three-Eyed Demon Flower. Get ready. Once the Three-Eyed Demon Flower is defeated, you rush in and * their original Demon Core.”

Lu Yang raised his eyebrows, soothed the excitement of the three-eyed magic flower on his body, reduced his body to a mosquito-like state, and flew in the direction of the three-eyed magic flower.

“Bang”

“Bang”

The beast side saw the three-eyed magic flower rushing over, and Yunmo immediately ordered the beasts of his flame clan to charge there, including the chaotic flame beast that gave Lu Yang's body.

Even an existence as powerful as a three-eyed magic flower has no way to deal with such flames. Whenever a chaotic flame beast spews a mouthful of gray flames, there will be dozens of three-eyed flames. The magic flower turned to ashes in the flames.

But the three-eyed magic flower in the distance seems to be endless, and towering trees continue to grow from the ground, and then turn into the three-eyed magic flower to charge forward.

Lu Yang, a mosquito-like existence, carefully avoided the chaotic flames, and he was carefully looking for the body of the three-eyed magic flower.

Suddenly, the entire ground trembled violently, without giving Lu Yang a second to react. A few kilometers away, a huge three-eyed magic flower was arched from the ground by a 100-meter long beast similar to a pangolin. come out.

The body of the three-eyed magic flower was smashed into hundreds of pieces by the pangolin beasts in mid-air, and the section containing the magic core fell not far from Lu Yang.

Lu Yang didn't dare to grab it, because in the next instant, a vicious beast with vegetation all over his body jumped over and swallowed the magic core of the three-eyed magic flower, but he didn't wait for the beast of vegetation. After chewing, a blue ray of light shot from a distance, piercing the vegetation-type beast into six segments.

On the ground, there were hundreds of three-eyed magic flowers rushing over. One of them grabbed the magic core and turned around and ran back, but before he ran a few steps, there was another vibration from the ground in the distance. The body of the eye magic flower was arched out by the pangolin-type beast, and the two sides launched a new battle around the demon core of the lower * level.

Lu Yang, the mosquito, hurriedly flew to a distant area and hid. I don't know how long it took before the fighting subsided. The two sides seemed to treat this place as a shooting range, and whoever came in would die.

"What's wrong with this, we still have to grab it." Lu Yang scratched his head, he thought of an idea.

Chapter 2413: Wealth in danger

Remember [New] for a second,! Lu Yang released the strength of the monarchy inside and outside the body, and raised it to the maximum. He said to the Blazing Demon God: "Brother, whether I can survive or not depends on you."

"What are you doing?" Blazing Demon God was a little stunned.

Lu Yang laughed, without using the form of a phoenix, he used his own two-meter-high fire demon form to quickly run towards the middle of the battlefield.

"Are you crazy?" Blazing Demon God was completely stunned.

"I'm not crazy!" Lu Yang's eyes were only on the battlefield fifty kilometers away in front of him, the ten largest three-eyed magic flower magic cores of the lower * level.

"Hurry up, they will kill you, I can only save you once." Blazing Demon God said in horror.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "They won't kill me. Since they all take me as a mosquito, how can they easily kill me? I bet that the gods and beasts on both sides who are targeting this area must be watching. My joke."

"What do you mean?" Blazing Demon God didn't understand.

Lu Yang said: "Human heart, even a monarch like me dares to go, both parties must think I'm crazy, so I bet they won't kill me immediately, but will run back after I get something. Kill me in an instant."

Blazing Demon God said: "It should be like this, but you..."

Blazing Demon God suddenly understood, and said excitedly: "Devil God Space, you want to activate Demon God Space the moment you get it."

Even on the continents of other worlds, there is no monarch who has the ability to open areas such as the Demon God's Space, and even less able to avoid the attack of God's Spiritual Mind.

Lu Yang is an example. The heart of the devil is in his body, allowing him to open the devil's space as he wishes. The blazing devil can also help him relieve a spiritual attack, and Bandarsburg can make Lu Yang use infinitely immortal. It is immortal, so even if Lu Yang can't grab it, he will not die.

Blazing Demon God said: "Then why don't you have to clone yourself, what is the main body doing such a dangerous thing?"

Lu Yang said: "There are gods all around. If I go with a clone, the two sides will be able to see through the gods at a glance. If I go with the main body again, I am afraid that they will notice me. In this case, I might as well go to the body."

The Blazing Demon God no longer stopped Lu Yang, he felt that this move was feasible, he said with a smile: "If you can succeed, you will be crazier than me, I didn't dare to do such a crazy thing in the war of the * king back then. Things are crazy."

The bull and the flaming tiger nodded sharply in their consciousness, and they were both frightened by Lu Yang's crazy behavior.

Lu Yang is not afraid at all. As the so-called wealth and wealth are at risk, he has obtained these ten wood-type demon cores of the lower * level, and he can safely survive the next god-genus race war. Anyway, he will not die. Better to fight once.

forty kilometers

twenty kilometers

Lu Yang ran quickly on the battlefield, which made both the ancient beast and the new * a little confused, and even their battle stopped at this moment.

“Where is the monarch-level waste, dare to rush to the god-level battlefield to grab something? Is he crazy?” A lower * stretched out his finger in confusion, and the magic of the wind element has begun to gather.

A lower water * next to him stopped the movement of the lower * of wind with a smile, and said: “Let him go get it first, give him some hope, this poor guy, it is too cheap to kill him like this, let him know what the price is for contaminating the things of God.”

The lower * of wind smiled, and the spells in his hands continued to condense, and said: “The moment he gets the three-eyed magic flower magic core, I will give him an eternal hurricane curse and make his soul spin ten thousand in his dream. Second-rate.”

“Good idea.” The lower * of water said excitedly.

the other side.

The ferocious beasts were also a little confused, especially Yunmo. He knew Lu Yang. Back then, in the Emerald Forest, he was one of the god-king rank fierce beasts who used illusions to attack Lu Yang, but he couldn't do anything to Lu Yang.

Now seeing Lu Yang running towards the center of the battlefield at full speed, trying to * the magic core, a sneer appeared on his face, and he muttered to himself: “This greedy creature is not satisfied with the chaotic flames and the bones of the beasts, and even thinks about it. Grab the magic core of the three-eyed magic flower.”

“Would you like to kill him?” asked a beast next to him, a low-level * of thunder. The three corners above his head had already gathered violent thunder and lightning. With just one thought, Lu Yang would be stunned in an instant. The lightning that shot over was shattered to pieces.

“The magic core of the three-eyed magic flower is the stuff of the new gods. They are even more anxious than us. For the help of human beings, we have paid back the chaotic flame and the bones of the beasts. He has no favor with us. Once the new * strikes Kill Lu Yang, and you will immediately attack the new god.” Yun Mo said in his consciousness.

The chaotic beasts in charge of the attack in that area all stared at Lu Yang in the distance, and the distraction of the cloud demon here also caused the * kings of the wind and water elements in the distance to separate a ray of spirituality to pay attention to Lu Yang. The situation on the Yang side.

The king of gods couldn't understand why this monarch wanted to run in and seek death. The only thing that made them feel that Lu Yang was special was that he ran faster. At this time, Lu Yang was already away from the nearest three-eyed magic flower and magic core. Less than 100 meters away.

He pretended to be clumsy, jumped to the front of the first magic core, tied the huge magic core with flames, and then ran to the second magic core, the third magic core, The fourth magic core...

The wind and water * kings saw Lu Yang's actions but did not instruct their subordinates to attack. They could also imagine why their subordinates would let Lu Yang collect them. Obviously, when Lu Yang collected all the magic cores, then if they kill them, Lu Yang can also contribute to them the power to collect magic cores.

When Lu Yang collected nine in a row, he had not been killed by both sides, which made Lu Yang realize that the enemy also wanted to attack him when he got the tenth.

At this time, in Lu Yang's heart, he felt a little hesitant. If he flew away with nine low-ranking god-demon cores now, it would be safer, but if he went to * the tenth one, he might be in danger.

But at this moment, the flame in Lu Yang's body burned. It was not the flame provided by the Blazing Demon God, but the flame naturally formed in his body. He instinctively told Lu Yang that the fire-type powerhouse did not hesitate or retreat, only Keep going.

“Go~!” Lu Yang’s eyes suddenly became sharp, and he jumped with nine magic cores to the tenth magic core. As soon as he landed, the spells in the hands of the lower wind gods in the distance disappeared. In seconds, Lu Yang only felt that his whole body was surrounded by a hurricane.

His body was spinning completely uncontrollably, and it flew into the air in a short time. The violent hurricane made him too late to think about what was going on. The power in his body was released frantically to fight against the hurricane.

But no matter how he fought, his body was still spinning rapidly. Suddenly, the words of the Blazing Demon God appeared in his spiritual sense, saying, “This is an illusion of the wind element, don’t be fooled.”

Lu Yang suddenly woke up and scolded: “This is too scary I don’t know where the enemy attacked from and who attacked?”

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said, “Get ready, I’m going to unlock the illusion, you must leave immediately. After 0.0001 seconds, you will be discovered by the gods and freed from the illusion.”

Lu Yang nodded and said, “Let’s start, I can do it anytime.”

“Open~!” Blazing Demon God roared loudly.

A purple-red light that did not belong to his body suddenly appeared in Lu Yang’s body, which caused the gods in the distance to look at Lu Yang standing on the battlefield at the same time.

“He solved the illusion, kill him.” The lower * of wind who released the illusion roared anxiously.

The spell of the lower * of the water system was instantly released, and Lu Yang’s body was blown up, but the next second, Lu Yang’s immortality and immortality skills took effect. He was resurrected on the spot, and he chanted the spell to open the demon space. The ground disappeared, but before leaving, he left a flame clone, gestured with a * to all the minds, and cursed: “Bastard, sooner or later I will come back to kill all your new gods, you all deserve to die~!”

The new gods were stunned, and the ancient beasts were also stunned. For a while, none of them could understand who the deity of the flame avatar standing in the middle of the field was gradually disappearing!

Chapter 2414: Conditions for promotion to lower gods

Remember [New] for a second,! “Hahahahaha~!”

Yun Mo suddenly let out a hearty laugh, looking at the wind-type * king and the water-type * king who had extremely bad expressions in the distance and insulted: “The two * kings were actually played by a monarch, your new * clan still It’s ridiculous.”

The face of the water * king was extremely dark, staring at Lu Yang, who was standing in the same place with his middle finger, and could not wait to tear his body to shreds with one look.

A high-level * of water roared at Lu Yang: “If you have the guts, tell me your name, and what do you mean by this gesture?”

Lu Yang blurted out the essence of a national scolding, and then it dissipated between heaven and earth. On the other side, in his home in the Donghai Underground City, Lu Yang was sitting on the ground and laughing with the Blazing Demon God.

“The stupid looks of the two * kings really made me laugh.” The body transformed by the Blazing Demon God almost fell on the ground and slapped the floor.

Lu Yang was also very excited, and said, “I finally succeeded. This time I have the confidence to defend the enemy’s attack.”

Of the 10 demon cores of the lower * level, except for one to be reserved for the Three-Eyed Demon Flower, the others will be used by his subordinates. He could not imagine how much his subordinates would improve.

The Blazing Demon God said in a serious tone: "The power of the magic core in the three-eyed magic flower is not very complete. After all, they have just gone through the battle, but they have absorbed the power of the source inside, which can at least allow your 2,000 wood-type magicians, All have been promoted to the king rank."

Lu Yang took out one of the lower * and demon cores and fed it to the three-eyed magic flower who had been coquettish in his chest. He asked, "Can you create a lower god?"

The Blazing Demon God shook his head and said: "The conditions for becoming a * are very harsh, even if you become a quasi-god and a demigod, the conditions are equally harsh, it is useless to rely on the core of the lower gods and demons, at most you can only be promoted to the monarch rank. It's impossible."

Lu Yang asked curiously, "How can I become a lower god?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "There are two methods, one is simple element becoming a god, cultivating a single element to the extreme, and turning yourself into an element, then you will become a god, but the strength is very low, such as the ancient Holy Spirit Malthus, that is also a kind of god.

If you want to become the kind of * with fighting power, you must first find a way to gather the things that smelt the body of the lower gods, absorb it into the body, and change your body from a pure elemental spirit to a certain fixed form. , once the fixation is completed, it cannot be changed for eternity, because your elemental spirit has been completely integrated with this body, and if the body is damaged, the soul will also be damaged. "

Lu Yang understood and said, "It means that there is no such thing on my planet."

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said, "Most people don't gather things together. If the things that become gods are so easy to gather together, can't all creatures become gods?"

Lu Yang asked, "There are many gods in your world."

The Blazing Demon God said: "Most of them are the second and third generations, that is, the children born by the gods. Some gods can be born, and it will be so much over time."

Lu Yang was a little curious and asked, "Are you also the second generation?"

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said proudly: "Of course I am not the second generation, and I have no children. The way I am promoted to the * position is the only way for most monarchs to be promoted to quasi-gods."

"What way?" Lu Yang asked.

The Blazing Demon God said: "Fighting the Demon God, I am a Fire God King, I should have been called the Fire God, why is my name the Blazing Demon God, just because I fought several demons, absorbed the essence of their bodies, and saved my life for me. I created a new body by myself, so my name can be called Blazing Demon God!"

Lu Yang was a little surprised. He could understand this matter. Every extraterritorial demon is powerful. When Lu Yang encounters an inner demon, he is the clone of these extraterrestrial demons. Once they pass through the plane and use their bodies to fight, then their The body must be an extremely useful material.

Lu Yang asked, "So you can still use the abilities of the extraterrestrial demon, right?"

The Blazing Demon God was very proud and said, "The response is really slow. I forgot how I taught Zhou Tianming? If I didn't have the ability of an extraterritorial demon, how could I teach and understand Zhou Tianming?"

Lu Yang thought that the Blazing Demon God was proficient in various low-level spells by virtue of the ability of the God King, but he did not expect that the Blazing Demon God itself had the attributes of a demon God, so he asked a little excitedly: "You are also going to let me use the extraterrestrial demon's magic. body?"

The Blazing Demon God said in a good mood: "Get ready, after you are done with your work, just follow me to the Void Hall, and prepare to fight against the extraterrestrial demons, you have the qualification to become the second me, I will take out some The ability to press the bottom of the box."

On the battlefield between the God King and the ancient beasts, Lu Yang's actions completely made the Blazing Demon God admit Lu Yang's ability. He is a strong man whose resourcefulness can completely help him fight in another world. Therefore, The Blazing Demon God is willing to teach Lu Yang one of his most powerful abilities, making him a true * with unlimited potential.

Lu Yang is also eager to improve his own strength. He has learned all the exercises of the monarchy. The faster his strength improves, especially after he is promoted to the king rank, there is no bottleneck for him to learn any fire-type exercises.

Wherever he couldn't, the Blazing Devil God could guide him hand in hand. Even if Lu Yang couldn't release this spell, Blazing Blazing Devil God would use his body to release it once, and Lu Yang would naturally learn it if he did so many times. .

Now Lu Yang almost wants to improve his strength. He brought back a lot of original soul crystals this time. Except for some of them to be handed over to his subordinates, the rest is enough for him to be promoted to a high rank.

He took out the intercom and called Shen Mengyao, asking, "Where are you?"

Shen Mengyao said, "I'm in the forest on the north side of the dungeon, are you back?"

"I'm here to find you." Lu Yang hung up the phone with a smile.

It's been a long time since I met Shen Mengyao, and he missed it very much. When he came to the outside of the dungeon, he used his perception ability and quickly found a man who taught German to not taste the corpse and became upset and other spells in a 100-meter-high forest. Shen Mengyao.

"Boss~!"

“Boss~!”

The druids such as De Bukanshu were very excited, and Lu Yang was also very excited. He walked up to Shen Mengyao and held her in his arms, saying, “I’m back.”

“It’s good.” Shen Mengyao rested her head on Lu Yang’s chest and closed her eyes happily.

“It’s very bad, let go of my arms and let go.” A voice came from Shen Mengyao’s body.

A ray of light flickered, and the beautiful Moon God flew out of Shen Mengyao’s body with a displeased face, and stared at Lu Yang in mid-air and said, “I’m still in Shen Mengyao’s body, isn’t it the same as hugging me when you hug her?”

Lu Yang didn’t let go, and said cheerfully, “The Blazing Demon God is still in my body, I don’t even despise him, you still despise me, besides, you are being held by the Blazing Demon God, so you won’t suffer.”

“I...” Luna was speechless, turned his head and didn’t bother to pay attention to Lu Yang.

The Blazing Flame Demon God was also speechless for a while, scolding: “What are you doing with me, I and the Moon God are innocent.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “The two of you won’t be innocent in the future. Let’s get married.”

“Fuck.” The Blazing Demon God sent Lu Yang a national curse.

Chapter 2415: Strength improvement

Remember [New] for a second,! De Bu tasted the corpse and became upset and others were watching. Who would have thought that the * king who made them feel aloof and superior would have such a playful side, and they covered their mouths and couldn't help laughing.

Shen Mengyao still respects Luna, she left Lu Yang's embrace and said, "Let's get down to business, so many people are watching."

Lu Yang smiled and took out nine demon cores of the lower * level, and said, "Please ask Your Highness Moon God to teach De Buchan and them to improve their strength."

Moon God couldn't care to get angry with Lu Yang, and asked in shock when he saw these things, "Where did you find it? It's impossible?"

The Blazing Demon God said with emotion: "This kid Lu Yang is no worse than I was back then. He was taken from the front of the Water Element God King, the Wind Element God King, and hundreds of thousands of gods."

"How did you do it?" The Moon God couldn't believe it at all, but this was what the Blazing Demon God said, and she had to believe it.

The Blazing Demon God told Luna what happened, which made Lu Yang pay more and more attention to Lu Yang, and said, "There is no problem in teaching them. With these nine demon cores, I can train more than 200 lord-level powerhouses. Thousands of king-rank powerhouses, but this requires the help of the Void Palace, otherwise the time will be too late."

"No problem." Lu Yang said respectfully.

At the moment, Lu Yang put Luna, De Buchanzhe and others into the Demon God Space, and then he used the Void Shield to send himself in. Now Lu Yang's strength is strong enough to open the Demon God Space in the Void Hall. If it is Before, he really couldn't do it.

The light flickered.

Lu Yang appeared inside the gate of the Void Hall. As soon as he landed, he saw Zhuojiu and Baishi who were training in the distance.

“Boss, are you back?” Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others also saw Lu Yang and ran over excitedly.

Lu Yang smiled as he watched a few people come to him, the aura from each of them was much stronger than before, and asked, “How is your cultivation?”

One day outside, one year inside, Lu Yang lived outside for nearly a month, while Zhuojiu and the others spent thirty years in the Void Palace.

“The speed of cultivation is still not fast enough.” Zhou Tianming said a little depressed.

Turbid wine said: “There is a lack of cultivation resources, and cultivation consumes too much. Boss, please let us go out.”

Lu Yang smiled, took out all the original soul crystals he got at the Orc Fair this time, and said, “Look what these are.”

There were a total of 2,700 pieces, which was enough for Zhuojiu and Baishi to rise from the lord rank to the king rank, which made Zhuojiu and others look surprised.

“Boss, where did you get so many good things?” Zhuojiu asked in surprise.

“There are more good things than that.” Lu Yang smiled and handed the blood roar of the quasi-god rank and the Wrath of the Holy Light of the lower * rank to Bai Shi and Zhuo Jiu respectively, and said, “The treasure I bought by accident this time. , just right for the two of you to use, practice well.”

Zhuojiu picked up Holy Light's Wrath, and in an instant, Malthus flew out of Daojiu's body, excitedly surrounding the weapon and said, "How could it be Holy Light's Wrath, where did you find it?"

Lu Yang briefly recounted his experience and said, "Is there anything special about this weapon?"

Malthus laughed and said, "Let you see the unique origin of this weapon."

As soon as the words fell, Malthus actually merged into this weapon. In an instant, the golden light on the Wrath of the Holy Light was prosperous, and it released the breath of the peak of the lower gods.

"It's still a little bad." Malthus came out of the weapon and said a little unhappily: "If it is in a place with strong holy light elements, I can make this weapon upgrade to the level of a median god."

Lu Yang smiled and looked at the turbid wine and said, "You got the baby."

"Thank you, boss." Turbid wine said excitedly, there are not many things that can make his mood fluctuate now, this weapon makes him extremely happy, because he can better protect his brothers.

The white lion waved his red two-handed axe and said, "This weapon is very suitable for me, thank you boss."

"Don't be in a hurry and thank you." Malthus stared at the weapon and said, "I will teach you a spell. When you are on the battlefield and encounter an invincible enemy, use this spell. Maybe you will sacrifice your life for it. , but your strength will quickly increase by a rank."

"Don't teach." Lu Yang stretched out his hand to stop him: "I believe that my brothers will not encounter such a thing."

Malthus shrugged his shoulders indifferently and said, "It's just a pity for this weapon, I won't talk about it."

Blazing Demon God was a little curious and asked, "How do you know that these two weapons have other ways to use them?"

Malthus said: "When you are fighting for power and profit, I am comprehending the essence of the world and traveling to all the hidden areas of the world. Because I am invisible, I can pass through many places and see things that you cannot see.

The Wrath of the Holy Light was created when I went deep into the ground, and was caught by an ancient * with a secret method, who forcibly took away part of my Holy Light power.

As for Gorehowl, he is the weapon of the ancient gods in war. In the most powerful state, he can even exert the power of the upper gods, but this requires the blood and soul of the gods as sacrifices. Now the weapon in this weapon has I don't know how many souls there are. If someone is willing to sacrifice their soul and blood, Gorehowl will temporarily release the angry soul inside and make you stronger. "

Lu Yang looked at the white lion and said, "You are not allowed to study, you know?"

The white lion nodded with a smile and said, "I see."

Lu Yang looked at the people around him and said, "Keep an eye on him, we can't let him learn, we haven't reached the time when we need to work hard."

The crowd laughed silently.

Lu Yang took out two more quasi-god-rank Void Mother Insect demon cores from the Demon Temple. These two demon cores were not much different from the lower-level god-level demon cores. There were also a large number of Void Clan demons exchanged from the Demon Fire Clan. Nuclear, he handed it over to Xia Yuwei and said, "It's all yours, take good care of your Void Sisters."

"Thank you, boss." Xia Yuwei's eyes lit up when she saw these void demon cores. Lu Yang looked at the half-life, handed him a weapon made from the horn of an ancient demon snake, and said: "This weapon belongs to you, so use your sword intent."

The horn of the ancient demonic snake has been made into a weapon by the savages. Although its overall strength is not as good as that of a lower god, in terms of sharpness alone, it is no less than a weapon of the lower * level.

The bitter love has been short of a good weapon for half his life. Seeing this weapon tailored for him, his eyes lit up and he said, "Thank you boss, what is the name of this weapon?"

Lu Yang said with a smile, "I haven't named it yet, you can decide for yourself."

Kuai Ai thought about it for a long time and said, "It's called a snake."

Lu Yang finally looked at Zhou Tianming and said, "You will go to a place with me in a while. I have prepared a teacher for you. Your strength will start to improve by leaps and bounds."

He had already persuaded the Blazing Demon God to let him teach Zhou Tianming, which surprised Zhou Tianming and asked, "Who is it?"

The Blazing Demon God stood beside Lu Yang and said, "It's me, let the lower * in your body go out and cultivate for a while, and I will teach you personally."

Chapter 2416: Spiritual attack

Remember [New] for a second,! Zhou Tianming was flattered. The brothers who were closest to Lu Yang all knew the true identity of the Blazing Demon God, the king of the old gods in another world, but he was still a little hesitant and asked embarrassedly, "What am I learning? Fire?"

The Blazing Demon God suddenly exuded a terrifying demonic aura. This rich source of demons caused Zhou Tianming's eyes to widen in horror. Cold sweat covered his whole body in an instant, so that a man like him couldn't help kneeling on his knees. On the ground, but even so, Zhou Tianming still forced his hands on the ground, not wanting his knees to touch the ground.

Seeing this scene, Lu Yang sighed, and said, "No wonder I felt strange before, how easy it is for Zhuojiu and Baishi to improve their strength. If I want to improve a rank, I have to go through various journeys of refining the mind. You have been training me with the power of the devil."

The Blazing Demon God said proudly: "Nonsense, I suggest that they also taste this taste, otherwise, they will encounter an extraterritorial demon in the future, and the chance of surviving is basically zero."

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi, Xia Yuwei, and Kuai Bansheng looked at Zhou Tianming's miserable state, and they were all eager to try. They knew who Zhou Tianming was. For more than ten years, Zhou Tianming could only kneel down at any time for the sake of his brother. It would be better to kill this arrogant man to kneel. Now, Zhou Tianming is kneeling like this, and he can't get up at all. They want to know what Zhou Tianming is going through.

Malthus looked at the Blazing Demon God a little unhappily and said: "Although I am very tired of the way of the Blazing Demon God, I admit that this is a process that you all have to go through. The extraterrestrial demons are very terrifying, even our Holy Light family is unwilling. It's easy to provoke them, and you can feel it too."

"We think so too." Debu tasted the corpse and became upset and others shouted from a distance, they were about to go to the second floor.

Luna sneered and scolded: "Your minds are far from theirs, don't look for death, just go with me and train the foundation honestly."

Debu tasted the corpse and became upset and other people's bosses were unwilling, but in the next second, the Blazing Demon God flew over with an evil thought, although it was only for a moment, the corpse of Debu tasted the corpse and became upset. Glancing at the Blazing Demon God, he quickly walked up to the second floor.

The Blazing Flame Demon God was very happy, and then, he indiscriminately exuded the evil thoughts in his soul, and Zhuojiu, Bai Shi, Xia Yuwei and Kuai Bansheng all knelt directly on the ground.

The dead brothers kept forming real visions in their minds, crying to them how cold * was, how much they wanted to live, how much they missed their family.

After so many years of war, Zhuojiu and the others still remember the appearance of each of their brothers. Therefore, it is difficult for them to bear such pain as they attach great importance to brotherhood.

Lu Yang was the only one standing in the same place. He was tortured by the Blazing Flame God for three hundred years in the Void Hall with this trick, and it was already ineffective.

This is not to say that Lu Yang has become like steel and no longer attaches importance to brotherhood, but that he can distinguish between reality and psychology. The brothers who died in reality have passed away. Psychologically, these people are still alive. Another way to live.

No matter how the Blazing Demon God creates illusions, as long as Lu Yang keeps his original mind unchanged, he will not be bound by the illusions, including the turbid wine, the white lion, Zhou Tianming, Xia Yuwei and the bitter love half a lifetime in front of him.

After half an hour, Zhuojiu stood up first, followed by Zhou Tianming, Bai Shi, Xia Yuwei, and Kuai Bansheng. Looking at their tears, they looked at the Blazing Flame God, and Zhuojiu asked: "Have we passed it?"

"Go through a ghost~?" The ancient Holy Spirit Malthus was angry, pointing at the turbid wine and scolding: "I taught you in vain, try crying on the battlefield for more than half an hour, and see if the enemy will wait for you to finish crying. fight you."

"Uh~!" Turbid wine and Zhou Tianming, who were still complacent just now, were embarrassed for a while.

On the contrary, the Blazing Demon God said with a smile: "Not bad, this is the evil thought of the monarch class, you can get rid of it within half an hour, and it has surpassed most of the gods in the other world. Congratulations, you have cleared the customs."

Malthus said a little unhappily: "Exercise again, I estimate that in terms of their talent, the demon control of the monarchy has little effect on them, and they may be able to crack it in an instant."

The Blazing Demon God nodded with emotion and said, "That's true. The most terrifying thing in this world is mental torture. It's really good that the human race can fight mental torture with such a talent."

Malthus said: "You are still not thankful. The king of God has taught you something that hasn't happened in millions of years."

"Thank you, His Royal Highness." Zhuojiu, Zhou Tianming and others bowed respectfully at the same time.

The Blazing Demon God was very satisfied with Malthus' compliment. He watched how Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others stayed by Lu Yang's side, and followed him to fight the enemy as if they were desperate.

The kind of feeling that can sacrifice his life for his brother at any time, the Blazing Demon God has not felt it for millions of years. He was moved a little, so he was willing to teach these people.

"From now on, once a day, I will use my spiritual sense to attack you from time to time. If you can't bear it, you can tell Lu Yang at any time." The Blazing Demon God said.

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others bowed again, and when they looked at Lu Yang, they all felt that it was too difficult for their boss before. They exercised under this kind of torture every day, and they couldn't imagine it.

The Blazing Demon God then said to Zhou Tianming: "You have more times than them, because they are right to fight against demons, you are going to become a demon, if your spiritual sense can be promoted to a monarch before the arrival of the divine race Order, I will help you * the soul of an extraterritorial demon of the monarch order."

Zhou Tianming asked in shock: "Then I also have the strength of the monarchy?"

The Blazing Demon God nodded, said: "This is the strength of the demon race, we don't need to cultivate the body step by step, as long as you take their souls, you can naturally attack the power of the spirit. Go up to the monarchy."

Lu Yang asked, "What if it doesn't work?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "If it fails, Zhou Tianming will be controlled by the extraterritorial demons, but if I do it myself, is it possible to fail?"

"That's right." Lu Yang said with a smile.

Malthus snorted coldly and said, "Not necessarily, didn't you still lose in the battle of the king of gods?"

"Damn, you expose my old bottom." Blazing Demon God got angry, pointed at Malthus and scolded: "Didn't you always feel unhappy because that female Holy Spirit got married after transforming into an entity, do you think I don't know?"

"I..." Malthus was anxious, and rushed over to fight the Blazing Demon God.

Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and the others looked at each other, and they found that these old guys who have lived for millions or even tens of millions of years also have a funny side.

Maybe that's why it's familiar!

Remember [New] for a second,! Lu Yang was worried that the sudden war would catch the Jagged Brothers by surprise, so he brought Zhuojiu and Baishi out of the Void Hall.

In a month's time, it has been thirty years in the Void Hall. When they returned to the human world again, although the appearance of Zhuojiu and Baishi has not changed, their strength has become extremely terrifying.

Lu Yang looked at them with a smile and asked, "What rank have you reached?"

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others looked at each other and said to Lu Yang together, "Monarchy~!"

De Bu tasted the corpse and became annoyed and shouted: "Boss, we are also on the monarch rank, and two thousand wood-type mages have reached the king rank."

Lu Yang nodded with satisfaction, and said, "Well done, with this strength, I feel a lot more at ease."

The strongest races of the gods are only monarchs or demigods, and most of the remaining members are probably the kings. This kind of strength does not pose any threat to the Jagged Brotherhood.

The white lion carried Blood Roar and said, "Boss, I want to go out to find them and try my axe's power."

In the Devil's Temple, the white lion researched several sets of melee martial arts with the help of blood memory, and taught them to others, but without actual combat, the white lion did not know what his strength was.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "There is a chance for you to test, but not now, honestly wait for the news at the Shekou defensive position, and tell the brothers that they are in the best state of preparation. Except for the sentinels, no one else is allowed. One step out of Shekou."

"Yes." Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others reluctantly agreed, and returned to their teams, teaching them the exercises while waiting for the arrival of the enemy.

the other side.

In terms of Baishan City, the elves, rock people, ogres and Hastas have all gathered near Baishan City and rebuilt a huge white mountain layer, relying on the space-time rift zone to protect themselves.

Because the Moon God is here, and the Blazing Demon God is also here. Except for the elves, Hastur has completely abandoned his original beliefs and made a crazy request to become a believer of the Blazing Devil God, but the Blazing Devil God has never agreed. Therefore, Hastur has never agreed. The tower and elves took the initiative to undertake external patrol work.

One day, two days, three days... After seven days, the red light on the horizon finally reached its maximum value. The next second, Lu Yang, who was watching the surroundings on the roof of the Shekou Command Center, suddenly widened his eyes.

“Come on~!” Lu Yang and Blazing Demon God said at the same time.

The perception ability of the two people is extraordinary. The energy wave transmitted from this other world is transmitted from hundreds of kilometers away from the Shekou defensive position. Although it is weak, it is very obvious.

“It seems that the enemy doesn’t dare to teleport directly into Shekou.” Lu Yang said with a smile.

Blazing Demon God’s face was a little solemn, and he said, “This proves two things, one is that the enemy is cautious, and the other, I am afraid that these gods may not be as powerful as we think.”

Lu Yang was a little surprised and asked, “What do you mean?”

The Blazing Demon God said: “I doubt that there will be other races of gods teleporting to the imperial capital, you have to be careful.”

Now that the East China Sea can exist in such a stable manner, it all relies on the sea transportation from the imperial capital to continuously deliver various technological materials. This has not caused the people of the three cities in the East China Sea to panic. If there is a problem in the imperial capital, the East China Sea Edges have a very big impact.

Lu Yang immediately took out his phone and called Fu Yun, asking, "How are you doing over there?"

Fu Yun sighed and said, "I sensed that the gods from another world have been teleported, and the strongest ones are not around us, but on the grasslands, damn, they must want to unify the grasslands before they come to trouble us."

Lu Yang felt bad. The gods who came this time are very smart, because every time the red moon night is turned on, orcs, demons and other races are also sent. If the gods first control these lower races if you join them to attack together, it will be very bad news for mankind.

When the various races in the different world had never cooperated before, even when Lu Yang attacked the six elves, they never really cooperated. It is really possible to form a huge empire.

"I can't let him succeed." Lu Yang looked at Xiao Liang next to him and said, "Gather all the Red Mist warriors, go and fight the Void Zerg. After eliminating all the bugs, return quickly."

"Yes." Xiao Liang clasped his fists respectfully, and with the other nine Red Mist warriors behind him, rode the third-level cloud sculpture and flew towards Xiaoqingshan Park.

Originally, Lu Yang thought that if there are Void Zerg there, they can also contain the gods. Now it seems that these hostile races are useless. It is better to destroy them first.

"Transformation"

Lu Yang jumped into the air, and he flew towards the northeast direction that he sensed. It was not too far from Baishan City. I am afraid that these races from other worlds also defeated Baishan City first.

The only advantage on Lu Yang's side now is that these * races do not know that the elves in Baishan City have surrendered to the Jagged Brotherhood. If there is a * race that dares to attack, it will be a good thing for Lu Yang. He can directly Bring the main force over and besiege with the elves.

“Boss, take us with you.” Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others didn’t want to fall behind Lu Yang this time. direction.

Lu Yang smiled. He didn’t refuse to follow him. Unlike before, now his brothers have reached the monarch rank and have enough strength to help him.

“Follow me, but you are not allowed to attack without my order, you know?” Lu Yang said.

“Yes.” Zhuojiu and the others agreed with a smile.

At the moment, Lu Yang flew them towards Baishan City, while on the other side, a group of elves were patrolling the periphery of Baishan City.

The red sky made the whole world look a little gloomy, especially the fog around Baishan City, which made it even more difficult to see the surrounding situation. Even the sentinels of the elves, in this red fog, can only rely on Memory Patrol.

Suddenly, a ghostly cry appeared in the ears of these warriors, and in the next second, a dark creature appeared, and the dagger in his hand easily pierced the bodies of these warriors.

“It’s really weak,” said the dark creature.

Chapter 2418: the enemy is coming

Remember [New] for a second,! Lu Yang was worried that the sudden war would catch the Jagged Brothers by surprise, so he brought Zhuojiu and Baishi out of the Void Hall.

Chapter 2419: Mighty Tallinn Ghost Fog

Inside the city of Baishan City.

The Elf Queen Sara suddenly opened her eyes. She had already felt what happened in the fog. The fog was released by the fog tree, and the fog tree would perceive the surrounding situation through the fog, and then pass it on to the spirits with them. Connected to Sarah.

“Calling all warriors of all races, the enemy is coming.” Sara said to the two maids beside her.

The two maids rushed to the gate of the palace and ordered the trumpeter to sound the horn of the highest alarm.

“Woo~~~!”

“Woo~~~!”

“Woo~~~!”

In the city of Baishan City, the warriors of the Hasturs, Ogres, Rocks, Trolls, and Elves showed their shocked expressions. They knew what this horn meant. Only at the juncture of life and death would they sound it. The horn of sound.

“Come up to the city wall and prepare for battle.”

“The enemy is here, come to the city wall.”

“For Baishan City~!”

...

The warriors of all races quickly ran to the city wall, preparing to fight the enemy to the death, but when they came to the city wall, they looked at the fog outside the city, but did not find a single enemy. Just when they were curious about what happened, suddenly, On the city wall on the north side, the section of the city wall that the trolls were defending, hundreds of daggers suddenly appeared from the void, cutting the throats of the troll warriors.

The troll clan chief Dostor suddenly smelled a tyrannical smell, and he suddenly swept his hand back.

“Dang~!”

The crisp clash sounded, and Dostor only felt his arm go numb, and when he looked back, he only saw a vague face and a weapon that was about to enter the void.

“Not bad, I can actually feel my position, the patriarch is right, you must kill your trolls first.” The voice disappeared from the void.

Dostor did not dare to act at all. After waiting for a while, his back was soaked in cold sweat, and he was relieved. It was only at this time that a large number of his clansmen had died on the city wall. How many were there? He didn't dare to count.

“Hoo~!” Dostor roared furiously and said, “Damn bastards, what are you guys, come out and I'll kill you.”

“Remember our name, Tallinn Ghost Mist, after death, tell the * of death our strength.” A voice appeared behind Dostor, and the next second, the dagger was inserted into the back of Dostor's neck.

“Blessings of the Moon God~!”

The cold voice sounded, and Sarah arrived in time to release a lavender healing wave, saving Dostor's life. Spells crawled out a lot of vines on the city walls.

“Smart, I actually thought of using this trick to deal with us. Unfortunately, your strength is too low. Let humans help you.”, disappeared in place.

Algaia looked at the empty city wall angrily, and said loudly: “Do you mean to issue a gauntlet to humans? Do you want to fight to the death under Baishan City?”

“Of course, you can understand that.” The voice came from down the city.

“Say your name,” growled Dosdor.

“Taslin Ghostblade.” The voice was farther away, and there was a ghostly state of echo.

Algaia looked at Sarah and asked, “Can they feel it when they dived into the mist?”

Sara said disheartenedly: “I can’t perceive it at all, our fog seems to be ineffective against them.”

Rustafa sighed and said, “It just doesn’t work. Tallinn ghost fog is a race born from ghost fog. Ordinary fog is one with them. Please inform Your Excellency Lu Yang, we can’t deal with these enemies.”

Algaia nodded, took out the intercom and called Lu Yang, saying, “Boss, the enemy is here, and they just launched an attack on Baishan City. In just five minutes, we lost more than a thousand troll clansmen.”

Lu Yang frowned and said, “Why did you die so much?”

Algaia sighed and said: “They claim to be the Tallinn Ghost Mist tribe, we didn’t see them from the beginning to the end, we just saw their swordsmanship, they asked me to ask you for help, saying that they were going under the White Mountain City. Fight to the death.”

Lu Yang sneered and said, “Wait for help, play this game with me, does he understand what he’s playing?”

Algaia asked, “What do you mean?”

Lu Yang said: “You don’t have to worry, we are on our way, be careful, they are afraid they will launch an attack tonight.”

“Yes.” Algaia breathed a sigh of relief and said, “I will organize the defense.”

Lu Yang hung up the phone, looked at Zhuojiu and the others who were riding on the cloud sculpture, and said, "The Tallinn Ghosts are besieging Baishan City, I suspect that the enemy is trying to encircle the point to help, and on the other hand, he wants to move the tiger away from the mountain. , after our main force left the Shekou defensive position, the other two races rushed into Shekou and attacked the three cities in the East China Sea."

Turbid wine said: "There is a high probability of this possibility."

Bai Shi said: "Boss, why don't we send a small number of elites and most of the low-level soldiers to pretend to go out of the city to fight against the enemy, how about the large troops stay in Shekou?"

Xia Yuwei said: "Wood magicians are hidden inside the Shekou Fortress. As long as the enemy dares to come in, they will launch a large-scale wood magic to trap them."

The bitter love said: "I'm here to kill the enemy's clansmen."

Zhou Tianming said: "Count me in, if there is a gap, I will summon the devil to come and help."

Lu Yang looked at the five of them with satisfaction and said, "It's very good, the plan is perfect, I don't need to make any more comments."

He took out the intercom and called Tao Yue, repeated the plan and said, "When you take people out of the city, you must disguise yourself well. Whether you can win this war or not, your disguise is very important."

"Leave it to me." Tao Yue said confidently.

Lu Yang hung up the phone and looked at Baishan City, which was already approaching in the distance. He said, "Let's take a look first and see where the Tallinn Ghosts are hiding."

This race can escape the sight of ordinary people, but he cannot escape the perception of the Blazing Demon God. Lu Yang circled around Baishan City, but did not perceive the specific location of the enemy, and continued to expand the search range. After a day, Lu Yang Behind a big mountain 50 kilometers away from the side of Yangbai Mountain City, the camp of the Tallinn Guiwu tribe was found.

At this time, the Tallinn Ghost Mists also showed their bodies. Their appearance was as described by the Blazing Demon God. Their bodies were purple, with two horns on their heads. They looked like demons, and they were not very tall. There are two daggers in it.

“Talent is really important. You can kill someone stealthily. You can actually scare the major races in Baishan City to such an extent.” Lu Yang sneered and waited quietly. As long as Tao Yue brought his men close to Baishan City, he You can launch an attack.

Chapter 2420: plan

While Lu Yang was waiting on the spot, suddenly, a scream came from inside the valley, and then, tens of thousands of soldiers from the Tallinn Ghost Mist tribe disappeared at the same time, and the thick purple mist filled the valley again, and Lu Yang never saw it again. They do not know where they are, nor do they perceive their presence.

“They found me.” Lu Yang said with a frown.

Blazing Demon God said: “That’s right, there is a strong man from the Tallinn Ghost and Mist clan approaching you, although I can perceive his location, but his speed is too fast, when I inform you, I’m afraid it’s too late already.”

Lu Yang sent a message to Zhuojiu and the others, saying, “I was discovered, I’ll stay here temporarily to contain the Tallinn Guiwu Clan, and you should quickly return to Shekou and prepare for defense.”

Now that the Tallinn Guiwu Clan has discovered him, if Tao Yue runs out with the army again, it means that the other two races can launch a sneak attack.

This war now has some advantages for Lu Yang's side. First of all, Lu Yang knows how many races the enemy has come, but the enemy doesn't know that Lu Yang knows this. In other words, the enemy thinks that Lu Yang knows a Tallinn. The Ghost Mist Clan is here, so the Demon Blood Orc Clan and the Void Ghost Clan are about to start at this time.

"Be careful, old man." Zhuojiu, Zhou Tianming and the others said in succession.

The war has begun, and it is the race of the gods who came. They have no ability to persuade them to say anything. They can only fight with all their lives. After this war, who will be alive, no one knows, what they can say, that is, Be careful with the word.

Lu Yang fell from the air and stood in a forest far away in the valley, chanting a spell in his mouth. The magma several thousand meters underground felt Lu Yang's call and surged towards the ground frantically.

"The Eye of the Devil"

"Immortal"

The third eye on Lu Yang's forehead opened, all the flames radiated by the white sun in Bandarsburg were absorbed by the eye of the devil, and after being converted into magic power, Lu Yang released his immortality skills.

"Come, in front of you, no, behind you." Blazing Demon God suddenly shouted.

Just as Lu Yang was about to turn his head, a dagger stabbed into the back of Lu Yang's neck. The huge magic energy in the dagger tore Lu Yang's body into pieces.

"The powerhouse of human beings is still a very interesting existence. You can use immortality and immortality?" A gloomy voice echoed around the forest, using the ancient Elvish language.

Lu Yang's body recovered quickly. He sighed in his heart that this * race is too strong. Fortunately, he learned the skills of immortality and immortality. Otherwise, he would not even have a chance to survive, and this * race was too cautious. He disappeared quickly after being killed, and he didn't know where he was.

Blazing Demon God said: "This guy from the Tallinn Ghost and Mist clan is constantly moving around you, and I can't grasp his position."

Lu Yang frowned a little and asked deliberately, "What are you? Come out and fight with me if you have the guts!"

"I'm fighting your life and death with you. Our race is inherently invisible. By the way, I forgot to tell you, poor human, my name is Misten, the patriarch of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist clan, you are going to die here today, to the * of death. , remember to report my name." Misiteng sneered, suddenly appeared beside Lu Yang again, and stabbed Lu Yang's heart with a knife.

Lu Yang's body dissipated again and reorganized. He said calmly, "You are very strong, but I have the ability to be immortal and indestructible. You can't kill me."

"Not necessarily." Misiteng snorted coldly and said, "Although immortality and immortality can be called the ability to live forever, your mental power is limited. As long as I kill your mental power, you will die if you don't. ?"

Lu Yang sneered and said, "Then I want to see how you can approach me."

"Lava Eruption"

Lu Yang was resurrected again, stepped on the ground, and the endless magma surged out from the ground, turning the surrounding forest into a sea of fire.

"Flame Transformation"

Lu Yang's body turned into a blazing white fire demon, but at this moment, a faint purple mist appeared around Lu Yang, and the erupting magma seemed to have lost its power, and stopped spraying, slowly return to peace.

Lu Yang's body was also disconnected from the magic elements in the outside world, as if there were no elemental spirits in this world at all.

"Ridiculous~!" The dagger pierced Lu Yang's body again, tearing his white fire demon to pieces.

Lu Yang resurrected for the third time, looked at the surrounding fog in surprise, and said, "What is this? How can it have such a terrifying ability."

Blazing Demon God said: "Their innate ability, the mist emitted from their bodies, can block the connection between creatures and elements. This mist can be released continuously, just like his enchantment."

Only then did Lu Yang understand why the Tallinn Ghost Mist Clan was so powerful, and said, "He shouldn't have thought about the fact that I have a demon space, he can only think that my immortality and immortality are released by the soul of the source within the body, as long as He continues to kill, and sooner or later I will die, right?"

The Blazing Demon God thought for a while and said, "It should be like this."

Lu Yang said: "Then I should have the opportunity to kill him. Sooner or later, he will be paralyzed. Unfortunately, I don't have the time. I am afraid that more Tallinn ghosts are already attacking in the direction of Baishan City. Now It's not that Misten who stays here to control me."

The Blazing Demon God did not refute. He had already sensed the arrival of another Tallinn Ghost and Mist strong man, and said, "You guessed it, they are changing people. Do you want me to help you point out the location."

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "I can't hit. If I miss a hit, I'm afraid that the Tallinn Ghosts will not hit Baishan City and flee directly into the deep mountains, which is too much of a threat to me.

This time, Lu Yang must completely wipe out the Tallinn Ghost Mist clan, otherwise, if this clan continues to stealthily attack like this, Lu Yang and all human beings will not live peacefully in the future.

The Blazing Demon God felt that what Lu Yang said made sense, so he stopped talking.

In the southwest of the fog, behind a big tree more than ten meters thick, Misten was saying to a Tallinn ghost fog warrior of the king rank: "He can't escape, you are responsible for killing, I will attack Baishan City. ."

After the city was broken, the Tallinn Guiwu tribe and the other two tribes would have enough food. This raid was a joint decision of the three tribes. Although it was a dangerous move, none of the three tribes believed that there was a city in Baishan. The race and human beings can resist, Misten is just a precaution, and at the same time, it is also to slaughter the race that betrayed the new god, and give a shock to all the races that come to the human world.

"Follow the orders of the patriarch." The Wangjie warrior nodded respectfully, picked up the dagger and walked towards Lu Yang.

Lu Yang pretended to be flustered and ran in a random direction. The Tallinn Ghost Warrior of Wangjie suddenly burst into a purple light, crossed a distance of fifty meters and came behind Lu Yang, and stabbed Lu Yang in the back of the neck with a knife. Wearing, the sword qi raged, and Lu Yang's body was torn apart again.
