

Chapter 2441: blood purgatory

Blood Purgatory, Demon God Clan, these words are very unfamiliar to Lu Yang, he does not understand the other world thoroughly, not to mention the strange place of Blood Purgatory.

The Blazing Demon God also knew that Lu Yang didn't understand these things, he said with a smile: "Think about my name, Blazing Demon God, that is to say, my body itself is the body of a Demon God, but I gave it to me. Robbed."

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "Didn't you use the body of an extraterritorial demon?"

Blazing Demon God said: "In the beginning, I used the body of an extraterritorial demon, but later I found out that the demon's body was stronger, so I grabbed a demon's body, which also left me with a big problem."

"What's the problem?" Lu Yang asked.

Blazing Demon God said a little unhappily: "A creature, every time it changes its body, it will cause more or less damage to the soul to a certain extent, even though the damage is very slight, it is indeed irreparable.

I have changed my body seven times in my life, which caused a big loophole in my soul. Originally, I wanted to use the origin of our planet to repair it, but my subordinates did not give me this opportunity to use my loophole to sneak attack. I was the one who led to the final failure.

I don't want you to follow my old path. If possible, we will directly use the body of the demon god. In this way, when you enter the god-king rank, the damage to your soul will not be infinitely amplified by your enemies to attack. "

Lu Yang nodded and said gratefully, "Thank you."

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said, "You and I don't need to be polite. Let's think about how to **** the Demon God's body. This thing is not easy to grab."

Lu Yang asked, "What race is the Demon God?"

The Blazing Demon God was a little emotional and said with a smile: "This race is born a god."

Lu Yang was speechless and said, "Then what else can I grab, I can't beat it, I'm not even a demigod."

"Listen to me." Blazing Demon God said angrily: "Isn't there someone who is dying? Just find a corpse."

Lu Yang: "..."

"Don't think I'm joking, robbing their bodies, you may not be able to do it, their souls will slowly regenerate, and their bodies will gradually recover, without killing their last cell, They are not really dead." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang said: "It's a bit complicated. Then I robbed their bodies and had to fight with their regenerated souls. If I lose, I'll die."

The Blazing Demon God said: "That's right, so, before you go, you have to practice soul spells with me for a period of time. The powerhouses in the blood purgatory are the worst at soul spells. The negative emotions of the demons, if you defeat them, your life is good, you don't need to **** the body of the extraterrestrial demon, and I can teach you the spells of the extraterrestrial demon."

Lu Yang was grateful and said, "I'm not polite to you, let's start now."

The Blazing Demon God hummed, and transmitted all his experience of cultivating soul spells into Lu Yang's brain. Pictures of cultivation flashed in Lu Yang's soul, and he subconsciously began to simulate the cultivation methods of the Blazing Demon God.

After an unknown amount of time, Lu Yang stood up and said in a low voice, "I learned it."

The Blazing Demon God sighed with emotion and said, "The most annoying thing is that you humans are quick to learn anything. There is an enemy coming, you can try him."

Not far away, there was a gust of wind, and Lu Yang said speechlessly, "Why is that two-headed birdman not finished yet?"

The Blazing Demon God snorted coldly and said, "You scolded the gods he believed in, just like someone in your world scolded your whole family. If you have the strength, you have to find trouble with that person, no matter where the other party runs."

Lu Yang was right when he thought about it. He flew into the air, looked at the two-headed birdman flying over in the gust of wind, and said, "The **** you believe in is an idiot."

"Ah~!" The two heads of the two-headed birdman shouted, and they opened their huge mouths at the same time, and a hurricane and a lightning bolt shot towards Lu Yang.

Lu Yang smiled and dodged easily. At the same time, his eyes looked at the four eyes of the two-headed birdman. In the next second, the two heads of the two-headed birdman were aimed at each other.

"Lu Yang, I'll kill you." The two heads aimed at each other and spewed hurricanes and thunderbolts. In an instant, both heads were blown to pieces at the same time.

Lu Yang watched the two-headed birdman fall from the air to the ground. Both heads were gone, and only two soul cores remained. He launched a spell to take the magic core into his arms, and sighed: "The power is a bit strong. what."

Blazing Demon God said proudly: "Nice job, you have learned the essence of it, let's name it, in the words of your world."

Lu Yang raised his eyebrows and said, "This spell is to stir people's hearts, so let's call them hearts."

The spell of heart fire, to put it bluntly, is to use people's anger to force the enemy's eyes in an instant, so that the enemy thinks that the target is in front of them and releases the spell, causing them to kill each other.

The Blazing Demon God said: "You practice a few more times, and after you are sure that you can release 100% successfully, I will take you into the blood purgatory. That place is a perfect world for fire creatures, but you still have to be careful. Some, if you encounter the Devourer, there is a good chance you will die."

Lu Yang nodded, he looked around, and randomly found creatures to start unleashing the Heartfire skill. Almost no one with wisdom can escape the Heartfire trick.

After Lu Yang practiced for five days, he was sure that there was no problem. The Blazing Demon God said, "Get ready, we will enter the blood purgatory today."

Lu Yang asked, "How do I get in?"

Blazing Demon God flew out of Lu Yang's body, turned into a human figure and chanted a spell in his mouth. Suddenly, a blood-red flame channel opened in front of Lu Yang. He said to Lu Yang, "Go in, it's blood purgatory."

Lu Yang nodded and jumped into the blood-red channel. In the next second, Lu Yang appeared in a strange world. The place was blood-red and the temperature was as high as seven or eight thousand degrees.

The soil on the ground is also red, but this soil is completely different from the soil on the earth, as if it is filled with countless blood.

“Roar~!”

There was a strange roar in the distance, and before Lu Yang could react, the two giant beasts 100 meters tall suddenly collided, causing a shock wave like a tenth-level hurricane, but it didn't cause a splash of soil.

Lu Yang looked at the two monsters carefully and found that both of them were full of pustules on their heads, but in fact each pustule was an eye, and the red light emitted was extremely terrifying, and one of them shot towards Lu Yang.

“boom”

Lu Yang couldn't dodge in time, and his body was shot on the spot. Fortunately, Lu Yang had been using his immortality skills, and his body quickly assembled.

Chapter 2442: God King at War

“I'm a few kilometers away from him, and such a distance can blow my body.” Lu Yang's first reaction after recovering was to quickly hide in a bush in the distance.

Blazing Demon God said excitedly: “Boy, your luck is here, there is going to be a war here!”

Lu Yang asked, “Why?”

The Blazing Demon God pointed to the two giants in the distance and said, “That's the Hundred-Eyed Demon God. The one who fought against him is called the Giant Demon God. Both of them are low-level gods, but they both have the potential to grow into God Kings.”

Lu Yang looked at the two demon gods with a greasy face, and said, “One is full of pustules, and the other is uglier than the demon clan, so there is nothing better.”

The Blazing Demon God was anxious and said: "You are not satisfied with this, do you know that even if the main **** of our world sees it, he would rather abandon his body and change to a demon body, but they can't change it, except Other than me, no other **** has mastered the method of changing the body of a demon after becoming a god."

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders. No matter what, the Blazing Flame Devil was right to persuade him to hide. He hid behind a stone and watched the war in the distance.

But at this moment, a huge flying monster with wings suddenly flew from the sky. He descended on the heads of the two demon gods, opened his huge mouth, and swallowed both demon gods.

Lu Yang was stunned and said, "What's the situation, big brother, is it a little early for you to send me to this place?"

The Blazing Flame Demon God was also a little stunned, and said: "The Demon God at the level of the God King, what day is today, how could such a thing happen."

As soon as he finished speaking, the entire blood-red sky suddenly darkened, and the temperature suddenly rose to nearly 20,000 degrees. He looked up and saw a huge stone platform directly above his head.

On the stone platform, sat a giant with a height of 1000 meters. He was holding a long sword in his right hand, and his whole body was burning with red flames. He said to the flying demon **** who had just eaten two demon gods: "Don't run away, you are You can't escape my pursuit."

The Flying Demon God had a ferocious look on his face and said, "Then let's see, who the **** deserves to die here, you've been fooled, my brothers, come out."

"Neigh!"

A roar appeared from all around Lu Yang, and in the next second, seven creatures that looked exactly like flying demon gods flew out from the ground. One of them was right under Lu Yang's feet, but Lu Yang was like an ant, his body was blown up. At the same time, the Demon God didn't even react at all.

The thousand-meter-high Demon God saw this scene, with a solemn look on his face, and roared: "I didn't expect you to be so despicable, but it's useless, you must die here today."

"boom!"

The terrifying red flames covered the surrounding sky in an instant, and the ground was burned to red and black, and the eight flying demon gods also released spells.

The terrifying purple-black lightning and hurricane attacked the thousand-meter-high demon god.

Fortunately, he did not need to use the flames in Bandarsburg to resurrect this time, and could be easily resurrected with the flames released by the thousand-meter-high Demon God, which made him not need to open the space of Bandarsburg all the time, saving money. A lot of mental power.

Although Lu Yang has a lot of mental power now, but looking at the battle situation here, he feels that with his ability, he may not be able to endure the time to change his body.

Lu Yang's body exploded again, and when he was resurrected again, he couldn't help but said to the Blazing Demon God: "How did you do it back then, how do I feel, at this time, I'm just like an ant on the earth Well, they killed me as if it had nothing to do with me, they just stepped on it when they were passing by."

"It's almost the same meaning." The Blazing Demon God laughed and said with some yearning: "Brother, you may have really hit the jackpot, or you may have been really unlucky. Can we survive now? You and I are no longer in control."

"What do you mean?" Lu Yang was a little confused.

The Blazing Demon God sighed and said, "If it is a demon **** at the level of a lower god, a middle god, and an upper god, I can still take you to escape and return to the real world, but these are two **** kings. There is no way to open the space with you when he casts the spell, so now you and I can only wait for the two to finish the fight and decide the winner. If you are still alive at that time, you will be lucky. Now, no matter which of these two creatures is dead, it is enough to make you a god-king-level top existence, but if you don't hold on, we will die together."

"boom"

Lu Yang's body exploded again, and he didn't even know how he was blown up. After the fourth reorganization, he said speechlessly: "Okay, I will try my best to escape and see if I can escape the attack range of the two of them. ."

The Blazing Demon God didn't speak, and he let Lu Yang toss and toss, but Lu Yang tried his best, but just like a drowning man struggling desperately, it was meaningless.

In almost three or four seconds, Lu Yang's body was about to explode. He wanted to escape to a distance, but the hurricane released by the flying demons kept pulling his body back. The wind, even if Lu Yang turned into a phoenix, couldn't get rid of the hurricane, and was constantly pulled back to the center of the battlefield.

In fact, the flying demon gods were not targeting him, but the thousand-meter-high demon god. Lu Yang just suffered a disaster like the hurricane that was released because he was afraid that he would escape.

The thousand-meter-high Demon God was unwilling to be killed like this, frantically releasing the surrounding flames, and at the same time, the long sword in his hand transformed into countless sword shadows.

I don't know how long it took, when Lu Yang's consciousness was weakened to the limit and his mental power was about to collapse, Suddenly, the spell on the battlefield stopped.

Lu Yang looked up and saw that the thousand-meter-high demon **** was still standing there, but only one of the eight flying demon gods was killed.

"Amigao, you still died in my hands, although seven of our kin died, but you are dead, you are dead!" The flying demon **** laughed wildly, he flapped his wings and instantly came to a kilometer high In front of the Demon God, he opened his huge mouth and actually sucked in the Demon God's soul, and then he flew into the distance excitedly.

The Blazing Demon God looked at this scene in astonishment, and said excitedly, "Brother, hurry up and take the Demon God's body, you're done!"

Lu Yang was so weak that he didn't even have the strength to speak, and his soul was aching like tearing apart, and he said, "Don't worry, let me rest."

But before Lu Yang passed by, the ground vibrated wildly. At the feet of the thousand-meter-high Demon God, a black ball drilled out. He was five or six hundred meters tall. The pipe, like a suction cup, sucked the Demon God's body and returned to the ground.

"What the **** is this?" Lu Yang became anxious.

Chapter 2443: perish together

"Earth Demon God, the Earth Demon God of the upper **** level, the use of the earth's gravity is superb, you should restore your body well, that Demon God's corpse is no longer with you." Blazing Fire Demon God said regretfully.

Lu Yang was also a little depressed and asked, "Is there no chance at all?"

Blazing Demon God said: "Unless there is another god-king level, or a demon **** at the upper **** level, but this is impossible..."

Before he finished speaking, the ground suddenly vibrated wildly. At the entrance where the Earth Demon God had just disappeared, a brown shock wave with a diameter of 100 meters suddenly rushed out, and the spherical body of the Earth Demon God with a diameter of 100 meters rushed out from the ground.

“Roar~!”

The Earth Demon God didn't know where the sound came from. All the thick pipes on the black sphere's body expanded at the same time and spurted out airflow, followed by the same brown light hitting the direction he came out of.

The two brown rays of light collided, and Lu Yang, who was five or six kilometers away, instantly turned into dust, and the terrifying shock wave made Lu Yang have no chance to react.

Lu Yang's mental strength was about to be overdrawn. This sudden injury made him panic, but just as he was about to escape, his entire body slammed to the ground uncontrollably.

“Gravity of the Earth”

The Earth Demon God floated in midair, and all the pipes in his body spurted out a strange light again. Within a few kilometers around, all the things floating in the air were suppressed to the ground.

If it wasn't for Lu Yang being far enough away and his body in the form of flames, he felt that his body would be instantly crushed, but at this moment, an even more bizarre humanoid creature suddenly flew out of the deep pit where the Earth Demon God was.

He had hundreds of heads, so many that Lu Yang couldn't count them in a short period of time. His body was over a thousand meters tall, with two arms, and his body was still gray-black.

“Earth Demon God, how about my earth magic? It's more powerful than yours.” The demon gods with hundreds of heads laughed at the same time.

The Earth Demon God didn't speak, but Lu Yang felt that the gravity was even more terrifying. Even though Lu Yang was in the shape of a flame, he was still tightly pressed to the ground, and he was unable to take a step forward.

The demon gods with hundreds of heads seemed to be still unaffected by gravity, and opened their huge mouths at the earth demon gods at the same time.

“Magic Flames”

“The Wrath of the Wind God”

“The God of Thunder”

“Blood Sea”

“The Earth Shakes”

“Space Storm”

“Time Storm”

“Mixed Spells Infernal Hell”

Lu Yang has only one feeling. He is fortunate that he is far enough away. Even if he is within a range of three kilometers, Lu Yang is dead. This kind of mixed spell can kill him infinitely, not to mention mixed spells. together.

The Earth Demon God, who is in the center of the attack range, has a ball-like body, and every tube is melting, but the Earth Demon God's body is also recovering, as if he can use his body to resist this attack.

This made the demon gods with hundreds of heads very dissatisfied, and more heads joined the spray of the spell, but the demon gods were still recovering.

Lu Yang asked, "Who will win between the two?"

The Demon God of Blazing Flame was once a god-king-level powerhouse. His strength was gone, and he still had some experience. He frowned and said, "Both are high-level god-level powerhouses. The demon **** with hundreds of heads is called the fusion demon god. His body can be fused with any kind of spell, as long as he devours the creature. I have been to the blood purgatory many times, and I have seen the power of the fusion demon with my own eyes, but his spells are not specific, and his head is a little abnormal. He is a little crazy with too many other demon gods."

Lu Yang also felt that there was something wrong with the fusion demon. His purpose was not to **** the body of the **** of flames, but to fight the demon of earth.

The Blazing Demon God asked, "Can you still hold on? Do you want me to help you?"

Lu Yang was a little surprised and asked, "Can you do it?"

The Blazing Demon God was a little depressed, and said: "At most, I can help you run a few kilometers, but once I take action, the breath of the god-king will leak out. Blood purgatory eats souls. is their favorite."

Lu Yang said, "That's fine. I can still hold on for a while. I hope they will decide the winner as soon as possible."

As soon as the words fell, the fusion demon actually took the initiative to walk towards the earth demon. The eyes on each head emitted rays of various spells, and attacked the earth demon crazily. The edges of the body were pierced.

"Devil on the ground, hand over your body, let me eat you, and when we fuse together, your life will have meaning." Hundreds of heads of the fusion demon laughed at the same time.

The Earth Demon God was unmoved, and his body remained motionless. In fact, it wasn't that he didn't want to move, but the gravity of the earth was released to the extreme. He was also under the gravity of this spell and could not move at all, but he didn't think that the fusion Demon God could still Move, and now can only watch the other party approach.

The fusion demon came to the front of the earth demon, grabbed the spherical body of the earth demon with both hands, and opened a huge mouth in the middle of the head, biting towards the earth demon.

But at this moment, Earth Demon God's body suddenly opened, and a strange human head flew out from the center of the sphere. It was a human-shaped head, but the hair on the head was like a needle. Fusion on all the heads of the devil.

In an instant, countless black flying needles shot out, and hundreds of heads of the fusion demon were instantly shot through by the black flying needles.

"Ah~!"

The fusion demon let out a deafening wailing sound, but instead of letting go of his hands, he opened his huge mouth furiously and bit the head of the earth demon.

The head of the Earth Demon God was deformed again, from the previous human shape into a giant sword, a brown light flashed, and the main head of the fusion Demon God was pierced by the giant sword. The next second, the giant sword was retracted and stabbed out, fusion The Demon God's heart was pierced, and then the two shoulders were removed from the giant sword.

In less than 5 seconds, the fusion demon was cut into dozens of pieces by this giant sword. In the end, he fell to the ground weakly, and died like that!

“Roar~!”

The giant sword returned to the appearance of a human head, with an excited look on his face, and after a roar, he rushed towards the main brain of the fusion demon god, wanting to eat it.

The main brain has not died yet, showing an unwilling look, and growling: “Despicable bastard, let’s die together.”

Hundreds of heads groaned at the same time, which caused Earth Demon God’s frightened body to emit a brown light, and his head also drilled back into the ball.

“boom”

Lu Yang only felt a burst of light come on, and when he came back from Bandarsburg, the scene he saw made him a little dazed.

The terrain has changed. Just now, it was a flat land, but now it has become a grand canyon, which is bottomless and surrounded by several red mountains.

“What about the Earth Demon God and the Fusion Demon God?” Lu Yang couldn’t sense it, so he hurriedly asked the Blazing Demon God for help.

Blazing Demon God said: “Under the Grand Canyon, it seems to be dead, go down, maybe you still have a chance to grab a piece.”

Lu Yang turned into a phoenix and flew into the grand canyon. In the deepest place, he saw a black piece of meat and half a black long sword.

The Blazing Demon God said: “Pick it up, you can’t use this thing, but you can give it to your earth-type mages. If one can grow to the peak of the monarchy, use this fragment to replace the body, even if it is a dog. Can grow to the upper god.”

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders, put the black piece of meat into the Devil’s Temple, and asked with a half-length black long sword, “This thing should be the head of the Earth Devil, isn’t he dead?”

The Blazing Demon God felt it, and said, “It’s dead, and the soul is completely gone, but his soul will grow again. You should keep it first. For the time being, you can use this half-length sword to kill the gods and cultivate as an Earth Demon God. The essence is in this half of the long sword.”

Lu Yang nodded, put away the long sword, and continued to look for it. What he needed most was the body of the God of Flames, but he was a little skeptical, whether that body would still be able to survive a battle after losing its soul. There are fragments.

Chapter 2444: get demon body

The scope of the deep pit is too large. Lu Yang and the Blazing Flame Demon God scanned with their consciousness, but neither could sense the divine flame Demon God’s breath. Just when he was scratching his head, a strange light floated in the distance.

“What is that?” Lu Yang asked in surprise.

The Blazing Demon God also looked puzzled and said, “Be careful, I have never seen this thing, it seems to be a soul.”

Lu Yang transformed into a clone and approached in the direction of the light. When he got closer, he realized that this was actually a larger cave, and the light came from the cave.

“Do you think there is a possibility that this place was originally the hometown of the Earth Demon God. This huge space was not created by the explosion, but originally existed.” Lu Yang asked curiously.

Blazing Demon God said: "It's really possible, there are special energy fluctuations in the cave."

If this is the home of the Earth Demon God, then there should be a lot of treasures hidden here. Lu Yang excitedly controlled his avatar and walked into the cave, but as soon as he entered, a light flashed, and Lu Yang's avatar was shattered. .

"What?" Lu Yang didn't even see how his clone died?

The Blazing Demon God didn't see it clearly, and said, "I'll change into another clone and go in and have a look."

Lu Yang nodded, transformed into another clone, and walked into the cave, but this time, like last time, there was a flash of light, and his clone was broken, and he couldn't see anything clearly.

"It is estimated that the Earth Demon God has set up a defensive ban on his hometown. It's not easy to deal with." Blazing Flame Demon God said anxiously.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "There is another way."

"What way?" Blazing Demon God asked.

Lu Yang transformed into another avatar, and then took out the half body of the Earth Demon God from the Demon Temple, and let the avatar hold this body and walk to the front of the ban.

"buzz"

This time, the clone passed the restriction with ease, which made Demon God Blazing Flame and Lu Yang excited, and their consciousnesses attached to it and continued to move forward.

The passage is very deep, and after walking for more than ten kilometers, a larger underground lair appeared in front of Lu Yang.

This lair is full of bones of strange creatures. Obviously, this place is the area where the Earth Demon God eats. Next to this room, there is a larger room with a bed made of monster feathers. It is the bedroom of the Earth Demon God.

Lu Yang continued to search. Next to the bedroom was a huge cage. Inside this cage sat a sphere with a diameter of 1 meter, like a miniature version of the Earth Demon.

“Young man, you are looking for this.” The Earth Demon suddenly opened his body, and a miniature figure appeared in front of Lu Yang, holding a round box in his hand.

Lu Yang was stunned, looked at the Earth Demon and said, “Who are you?”

“I am the Earth Demon God Abinas!” The Earth Demon God showed a smug look and said sarcastically, “You don’t think I died in the explosion just now.”

“Uh...” Lu Yang couldn’t help swallowing his saliva and said, “How come, of course, such a powerful **** like you will not die.”

“No, you thought I was dead, so you came to pick up the treasure.” Earth Demon God was even more proud, looked at Lu Yang with some mockery and said, “All the treasures are in the treasure house behind me, you thought you came in here. Is it? This is a god-king level magic formation, even if the god-king comes, it will take a long time to destroy it.”

Blazing Demon God was a little emotional and said: “It seems that there is no chance. I feel that this restriction is very strong, and it is indeed a god-king level.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Don’t worry, this guy is bluffing. He can say that because he has no strength.”

As long as this Earth Demon God has the ability to attack, he will not let Lu Yang leave alive. After all, Lu Yang discovered his secret. If Lu Yang leads other Demon Gods over, the Earth Demon God will be dead. Therefore, Lu Yang It is concluded that this Earth Demon God does not have any attack ability now.

Lu Yang said, "Your Excellency Earth Demon God, let's make a deal."

"What deal?" Earth Demon God asked pretending not to care.

Lu Yang said: "I know very well that you need your half body in my hands, and you also know that I'm here to find the body of Demon God Shenyan, make a deal, you give me something, and I give it to you."

This is the purpose of the Earth Demon God, and said excitedly: "Yes, you can give me the things first."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "A powerful demon like you will recover quickly after taking your body back. I'm afraid that you will kill me if I can't escape your attack range. You have to give me the things first, and then I put things on the ground before I believe you really want to trade."

The Earth Demon sneered and said, "But if you lied to me, what should I do?"

Lu Yang said: "I'm just a small character, to lie to you, a high-level god-level powerhouse, isn't it courting death, in the future I have to come here to find the body of the Death God King, and offend you, I must not be chased and killed all the time."

The Earth Demon God felt that what Lu Yang said was reasonable, but he still didn't want to let Lu Yang go. After all, Lu Yang knew his hiding place, and after tangled, the Earth Demon God said: "I ask you to send the most severe ancient Elf spell, if you mention my location to any demon god, you will be devoured by the elements and die."

Lu Yang immediately swore an ancient elf spell and said with a smile, "That's it."

The Earth Demon God threw the box out. Lu Yang opened it and saw that it was a complete corpse of the Fire Demon God, but it was sealed in this small box.

Lu Yang put down half of his long sword and respectfully said to the Earth Demon God, "Let's say goodbye now, and I hope you and I can coexist in the future."

The Earth Demon snorted coldly and said, "Please."

As a demon **** of the upper **** level, he actually had to sign a contract with a waste of the monarch level. It was like a human being signed a peace agreement with an ant, which made the irritable **** such as the earth demon **** like a throat.

Blazing Demon God said: "Be careful, there is a teleportation circle on this box, and he can teleport to you at any time."

Lu Yang said in his consciousness as he walked out: "There is a soul magic attached to that long sword, so he can't be fooled."

"I know you're not a good person." Blazing Demon God sneered.

Lu Yang said: "We need to cooperate for a while. My clone energy is not much, only 10% of my main body strength. Everything has to rely on mental power to kill him."

The Blazing Demon God said: "I also have this intention. If a higher **** dares to be arrogant in front of me, the **** king, he must die."

The voice just fell.

At the same time, Lu Yang and the Blazing Demon God sensed that half of the long sword was taken into the restraint by the Earth Demon God. In an instant, Lu Yang turned on the blazing speed, turned and quickly returned to the door of the room.

The Earth Demon God was in a state of stillness, he was holding half of his body in his hand, and he didn't know what he was thinking.

Lu Yang said in a low voice, "Open the restriction and let me in."

The Earth Demon God slowly stretched out his arm, but his hand was shaking constantly, as if he wanted to stop this action, but his body was out of control, and in the end, his arm was still pressed on the prohibition switch.

“buzz”

A black light flashed, the ban was lifted, Lu Yang flew towards the Earth Demon God, opened the space in Bandarsburg, and thirty-six Chaos Demon Flame Beast bones flew out, and at the same time released flames to hold Earth Demon God half of his body. Broken arm.

“Ah?!” Earth Demon woke up in pain, saw that Lu Yang had come in, and roared, “You dare to kill me.”

“You were the one who killed.” The soul of the Blazing Demon God flew out of Lu Yang’s clone and got into the consciousness of the Earth Demon God.

The Earth Demon God stood still again, and despite the chaotic demon flames burning his body, he couldn’t move until he died.

The Blazing Demon God returned to Lu Yang’s body and said with a sneer, “Be arrogant with me, you are not qualified.”

Lu Yang was a little surprised and asked, “Has your strength recovered to this level?”

The Blazing Demon God sighed and said, “I can also bully this Earth Demon God who has no strength. In his heyday, I still don’t even have the qualifications to escape.”

Lu Yang shrugged and saw that the other part of Earth Demon God’s body had also turned into a half-length sword. He picked up the two long swords, took them into the Demon God Temple, and followed to look at the place behind Earth Demon God.

“My God, we are going to make a profit.” In front of Lu Yang, there were all kinds of red energy crystals, and the bright crimson made Lu Yang fascinated.

The Blazing Demon God flew out and said excitedly: "This is the blood flame crystal of the blood fire fire seed. You absorb them, and you can definitely give your bloodline the blood flame ability."

Lu Yang was a little surprised and asked, "What is blood flame?"

The Blazing Demon God was even more excited and said: "Blood flame is a flame that is forbidden to be used in our world. It has only one function, burning the target's body, leaving only the source energy in its body for you to absorb."

Lu Yang couldn't help laughing and said, "And this kind of spell, then the more creatures in the other world I kill, the stronger my strength."

Blazing Demon God said excitedly: "That's it, take it back to absorb it, this kind of blood flame crystal is extremely rare even in blood purgatory, you can get it, it's really a blessing."

Lu Yang also felt that this trip was really a blessing and a big fate. As soon as he came in, he encountered so many battles against the powerful god-kings. Fortunately, he was too weak. For those god-kings, he was like a fly and ant, even if it was him. When he reaches the level of a lower god, he may be silenced, but he is a monarch, not even a demigod, so he was let go.

After that, I encountered the battle between the Earth Demon God and the Fusion Demon God, and now I have picked up the blood flame crystal and the body of the God Flame Demon God, which is really fortunate.

"Let's go back." Lu Yang put away all the crystals, and even took the altar similar to the Bagua ritual on which the Earth Demon sat.

Although it is not clear what the purpose of this altar is, it looks like a tall thing. In short, it was obtained from the lair of the upper god, and everything is precious to him.

The Blazing Demon God waited for Lu Yang to disband his clones, and after his consciousness returned to his body, he opened the teleportation array and sent Lu Yang back to the earth world.

As soon as he landed, Lu Yang flew into the Demon God's space and looked at the body of the Demon God of Flame in the exquisite box. He said to the Demon God of Blazing Flame, "What should I do?"

Even if it is a corpse, it is not something Lu Yang can chop down, and he doesn't know how to absorb it.

The Blazing Demon God looked solemn and said: "Pour out the corpses of the God Flame Demon. Although they are of the god-king rank, their corpses will be quickly disbanded after leaving the blood purgatory. This is the law of the blood purgatory, and no one can change it. , you can only quickly absorb the part of him that has no laws at the moment when he disbands, which probably only occupies one billionth of his body, and I will help you capture this piece of genetic fragment together."

Lu Yang sighed a little. He understood that there is really no absolute shortcut to become a strong man. Originally, he thought that he would directly dive into the body of the God of Flames. At least he could become a **** directly. , I can't imagine that the only thing that can be obtained after all the hard work is a fragment of a billionth of a billionth of the god-king order.

The Blazing Demon God sensed Lu Yang's state of mind, and said with a smile: "Your luck is already very good, I met the corpse of a **** king back then, but after me, each of my subordinates can get a superior. The corpse of a **** is already a rare thing, and their corpses can hardly be found even with a billionth of genetic fragments, and many people have gone back and forth many times and have not yet obtained them."

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders, poured out the body of Shenyan Demon God from the box, and said, "It was me who became greedy. It seems that I should practice my spirit more."

Blazing Demon God said: "It's not your fault, even I have such thoughts. You can restrain yourself and maintain this non-greedy character. It's already very good. Get ready, it's time to start."

Shenyan Demon God's corpse just fell into the Demon God's space, and his body turned blood red. Soon, the corpse began to disintegrate and slowly floated in the air. A blood-red space opened, and all the energy was absorbed. sucked back into the blood purgatory.

suddenly.

A red shard that was completely invisible to ordinary people, like a speck of dust, flew up, and the Blazing Demon God suddenly released his magic power, turning into a big flame hand to grab the shard out of the blood-red channel.

“Into the state of fire soul, quickly start the fusion.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang’s body suddenly turned into a flame shape, and the dust-like fragments were fused into his body. In an instant, the dust seemed to have found a hotbed and began to grow rapidly.

It quickly grew into a cell. Then, the cell quickly decomposed and gradually covered Lu Yang’s body. After only one day, when Lu Yang stopped releasing the flame, he looked at his body again. , Although there was no change in appearance, the surging magic power made Lu Yang completely unbelievable.

“I’ve become a demigod.” Lu Yang said in amazement.

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said, “That’s right, now you’re a demigod, try your transformation.”

Lu Yang nodded, the magic in his body surged wildly, and his body quickly turned into a 100-meter-tall giant, but this giant was not a flame body, but a demonic body, a blood-red body, a face that was not angry and mighty, and its limbs Extremely majestic, his body is covered with muscles, as if there is no end to his strength.

When Lu Yang released the flame, nearly 20,000 degrees of red flame appeared from behind him, forming the shape of a phoenix.

“I feel that the magic power in my body is extremely abundant, and the connection with Bandarsburg no longer needs the eye of the devil. I only have one thought, the space of Bandarsburg will automatically open, and the white sun will obey my call at any time. Approach or stay away.” Lu Yang said with a sigh.

Blazing Demon God said: “How about the power.”

Lu Yang said: "I feel that I can wrestle with Ghost Face Roar head-on Ghost Face Roar is an existence at the level of a lower god. Lu Yang, a human who cultivates Fire Element, can actually wrestle with Ghost Face Roar with pure power attribute. It is conceivable how terrifying this demon body is.

"Have you sensed the soul fluctuations of the Demon God of Flame?" asked the Demon God of Blazing Flame.

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "Not yet, but I can feel that this body doesn't completely belong to me. It seems that something is blocking me and this body."

The Blazing Demon God said: "That is the remnant soul of the God of Flame. It seems that the Demon God of God is looking down on you a little bit. He actually started to **** his body so early. You practiced according to my secret method and refined him as soon as possible."

Lu Yang nodded, entered the Void Hall, and learned from the Blazing Demon God.

Chapter 2445: Fight the two-headed bird again

three years

Lu Yang didn't know how many years he had spent in the Void Palace. When he finished practicing this spell, he felt a sense of spiritual clarity.

That is a spiritual realm that is detached from everything. In this realm, he can kill any enemy, including the soul of the **** of flames and demons.

When he watched the soul of the God of Flame gradually dissipate, turned into a little bit of starlight, and was completely swallowed by his soul, Lu Yang suddenly felt the complete fusion of the body and the soul, but this fusion occurred from the very beginning. crack.

"For me, is this another form of inner demon?" Lu Yang asked with some emotion.

Blazing Demon God said: "It is very correct, you have obtained the ability of the Demon God of Flame, but you have also been cursed by the Demon God of Divine Flame. In the endless years to come, the stronger your strength is, the faster the soul of the Demon God of God will recover. Hurry up, every time the Demon God of Shenyan fights with you in the form of a soul, it is when you are at your weakest, so from now on you will always be on the borderline of death, and you will have no peace for a day."

This is the price to be faced with the strength, but it is also the price that Lu Yang has to bear, and it is the price that every strong person needs to bear.

Lu Yang stood up and said, "If I can exchange my death for the safety of my brother and family, I would rather do it. People are not born great, but they will grow up to greatness. I have witnessed too much. Brother who died because of me, when it comes time for me to face death, I will die calmly!"

"buzz"

A golden divine light passed through the void and the temple and landed on Lu Yang's body. The warm light made Lu Yang's body burst into flames.

Lu Yang said blankly, "What's wrong with me?"

The Blazing Demon God sighed and said: "What oath did you make, kid, I haven't had time to tell you, after you have the body of a demon god, your oath will follow you for the rest of your life, if you break the oath, your whole body will collapse and die. Souls enter the blood purgatory to suffer endless years of torture."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Of course I won't break my oath, that's what I think."

Blazing Demon God shook his head and said: "Your oath is too heavy, one day, you will die because of your oath, but you are also lucky, because your oath is too heavy, and the power of the Demon God you get is also very strong. ."

"The power of the devil? What?" Lu Yang asked curiously.

Blazing Demon God said: "I can't explain it clearly. I also received the blessing of Demon God's power back then, but I am far from your Demon God's power. The flames are far less violent. In short, this thing is like a formation, which can additionally increase your spells. Power, I don't know where it came from, but it must be harmless to you, I have it for millions of years and it has never hurt me."

Lu Yang relaxed a little. He tried to use the most basic fireball technique. He just released it at will. After the blessing of the magic circle, it turned into a golden red fireball. Its power made Lu Yang feel terrified. He quickly Open Bandarsburg and take the shot fireball in.

The fireball slammed into the sand, and it exploded a pit that was 100 meters deep, almost sinking the entire Bandarsburg.

"Why so strong." Lu Yang couldn't believe his own strength.

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said: "You are now a demigod, but with the blessing of the Demon God, the power of the spells you cast is no less than that of a quasi-god. I will teach you the spells of two lower gods. If you can If the release is successful, even if the lower gods come, with the blessing of this magic circle, you can kill them."

Lu Yang asked, "How many years have I been cultivating here?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "It's only been 100 years, and it's only been 100 days in reality. Don't worry, I have been monitoring the East China Sea area and the Daqinggou area, and there is no enemy situation."

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief and said, "I'm relieved, you say, I'll learn it now."

The Blazing Demon God said: "These two spells, one is called Tianxingburst, are the spells I learned from traveling in space and seeing planetary explosions. With your demon body, you can use them up to three times, so don't use them lightly."

The second spell is called Explosive Inflammation. After it is turned on, your speed can reach the fastest speed of the lower **** level, which is dozens of times faster than your phoenix transformation speed, but your demon body can only withstand 3 minutes of Time, after which your magic power will be insufficient and the body will become extremely weak. "

The two spells flew into Lu Yang's soul. The operating rules and principles of the Starburst and Explosive Flame were constantly replayed in Lu Yang's mind. In just a few days, Lu Yang learned these two spells.

"When I meet that wind-type **** again, I will kill him with one punch." Lu Yang said unhappily.

"Don't kill too much, you can still use the blood flame spell, the absorption of energy is the main thing, the promotion from a demigod to a quasi-god requires ten times the energy before, think about how difficult it is for you to be promoted to a demigod, you will I know how much energy is needed to be promoted to a quasi-god." Blazing Demon God said.

"I'll kill enough." Lu Yang left the Void Hall and returned to the desert. As soon as he landed, he suddenly felt a familiar atmosphere ten kilometers away. It wasn't someone else, but the one who killed him before. The two-headed birdman who escaped.

"What a coincidence." Lu Yang let out a breath.

"Cuck~!" An extremely excited roar came from ten kilometers away, and the two-headed bird roared: "Damn human, I'll see where you run this time!"

Lu Yang stood there and didn't move. In just 10 seconds, Lu Yang saw an extremely violent hurricane blowing in front of him, and its speed reached 70 meters per second.

Behind the hurricane, a giant black tornado with a diameter of more than 100 meters followed. In the middle of the tornado, Lu Yang saw the two-headed bird spinning at high speed.

"Human, how dare you take the initiative to release energy, it seems that you are courting death." The bird on the left said excitedly.

"Let me think about **** you, I will tear your body to pieces with a hurricane." The bird on the right was even more excited.

The distance between the two was hundreds of meters, and the two-headed bird couldn't wait to launch an attack. A rotating hurricane shot towards Lu Yang, which contained hundreds of cyan wind blades, reaching a hundred meters in front of Lu Yang. Within the range, the hurricane continued to move forward, and hundreds of wind blades flew out of the hurricane and shot straight towards Lu Yang's body.

If Lu Yang could see these spells but couldn't avoid them before he obtained the body of the devil, he could only quickly turn into a phoenix and fly into the air to escape, but now he is different.

After possessing the demon body, Lu Yang looked at the spells aimed at him, as if he was watching the movements slowed down by 0.5 times. He could dodge without much effort. The attack direction of a wind blade makes it easier to avoid.

The two-headed bird thought Lu Yang was going to run away again, but he was surprised to see that Lu Yang swayed left and right, and avoided his hundreds of wind blades and hurricanes.

"How is this possible? You, have you been promoted to a demigod?" The two-headed bird was still knowledgeable, and turned to run away.

"It's too late." Lu Yang turned on the explosive flame technique, and when the body activated, the two-headed bird only felt that his eyes flashed, and Lu Yang disappeared from the spot.

“Damn I have to report it quickly.” The two-headed bird turned around and was about to run.

“It’s too late.” Lu Yang suddenly appeared behind the two-headed bird. No matter how the hurricane around him was torn apart, his body was not damaged in any way, and he still had a smile on his face.

“Impossible, this is impossible, even a demigod can’t resist my hurricane, who are you, you can’t be a human.” The right head of the two-headed bird shouted in horror.

“If you can see the God of Death, just ask him.” A purple-gray flame appeared in Lu Yang’s hand, and he tied it easily and threw it into Bandarsburg. The blood-red flame immediately attached to his head again. On the bird’s body, he began to refine his magic power.

“Blood flame, this is blood flame, this is impossible, didn’t this thing disappear in another world? How can the human world use it? My clan, my clan, my...” The two heads of the two-headed bird were covered. The blood flames were completely swallowed, and a word could not be uttered.

Chapter 2446: Conquer Lively

It didn’t take an hour for the blood flame to melt the body of the two-headed bird, a peak monarch, and only a colorless crystal was left.

Blazing Demon God said: “This is the purest source energy, and it will not cause any harm to you, so feel free to absorb it.”

Lu Yang took a right hand and absorbed the colorless crystal into his palm. The red flame ignited, and the colorless crystal gradually transformed into energy and poured into Lu Yang’s body.

Today's body has given Lu Yang the characteristics of human life again. The source energy not only strengthens Lu Yang's magical energy, but also strengthens his physical quality.

Compared with the previous human body, this body seems to be the same body as the elements, so Lu Yang absorbs it without any stagnation.

When he absorbed all the energy, his strength increased by about one thousandth, and he said eagerly: "A peak of the monarch rank, the energy provided to me is only so little, I have to go to Devil City."

The war between the Jagged Brotherhood and the creatures from other worlds has gradually transformed from a weak stage to a strong stage. Since he has become a demigod, he must kill all the other worlds around him that are below demigods. All living things have been refined.

The Blazing Demon God also felt a little relaxed, and said: "I have helped you find your target a long time ago. When you refined the two-headed bird just now, I searched for his soul. This guy is from the Devil City, and their city owner has already It's a demigod."

Lu Yang smiled helplessly, and said, "How long has it been? Last time I heard that witch Lively said that the son of the devil is the lord of the peak."

The Blazing Demon God said: "The son of the Demon God was sacrificed, and the current city lord is not the same as the Son of the Demon God."

"Sacrifice?" Lu Yang asked in surprise, "What do you mean?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "Most of the demon children who were sent to the earth at an early age were mostly used as sacrifices. The children of the demon gods containing the blood of the gods were sacrificed to the gods in other spaces. Those strange gods would use Divine power helps them temporarily open the space channel and transmit more powerful gods.

You will meet the two-headed bird family, because the son of the devil was sacrificed by the most recent batch of high priests, which opened a larger space channel on the night of the red moon, and the demigod and more than 200 monarchs were sacrificed. The order was sent over. "

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "Isn't the son of the devil very strong? Are you willing to die?"

Blazing Demon God said: "Every child of the Demon God in his childhood will engrave an oath on his forehead before teleporting. No matter how weak the high priest of the demon race is, he can kill the Demon God's son as long as he utters the oath."

Lu Yang said with emotion: "This demon clan is also a wonderful thing. If you say that, the contract I signed with Lively is very likely to be destroyed by the new demon god."

Blazing Demon God said: "It's very possible, but at present, the demon family has not put humans in their eyes. In the memory of the two-headed bird, they only know that humans have five monarch-level powerhouses, but they have A demigod and more than 200 peaks of the monarchy, wanting to destroy humanity is just a matter of thinking."

Lu Yang frowned and said, "Looks like I have to work hard to kill these more than 200 monarchs first."

"I feel like, don't rush to kill them first, find your old friend Bagley first, Lively may have encountered some difficulties." Blazing Demon God said with a smile.

Lu Yang was also amused and asked, "It looks like you have found a lot of good things."

The Blazing Demon God said: "As the wife of the Demon God's Son, Lively was forced to, but the Demon God's Son was very kind to her, but the Demon God's Son was sacrificed like this, and the rights of the Demon Race were also taken over by the new half. God and more than 200 monarchs carved up space, and he was thrown into a remote corner, why don't you talk to him, maybe you can get an unexpected harvest."

Lu Yang asked, "Where are they?"

"To the southeast of Devil City, there is the truce area." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang jumped into the air, turned into the form of a phoenix, and flew in the direction indicated by the Blazing Demon God.

In less than two hours, Lu Yang came to a terrifying Great Rift Valley area. This area is full of gray-black scorched by demon flames. The blood of orcs and demons is everywhere, a lot, The scorpions, which are two meters tall and more than ten meters long, and the gray-green 100-meter-long pythons all over the middle of this rift are obviously mutated after eating the blood and corpses of the two races. Fourth-tier king.

Lu Yang searched carefully and found that two kilometers away from the east side of the Great Rift Valley, there was a temporary bunker. Many demons were resting in the camp. Many demons were injured and looked extremely miserable.

Lively was among them, and was dressing the wounds of each subordinate herself. Suddenly, she felt a familiar aura in the distance, and jumped into the air. Above the clouds, she saw that she had turned into a human shape. Lu Yang.

“Why are you?” Lively saw that Lu Yang didn’t look good, and a scarlet blade appeared in her hand, and asked, “What are you doing here?”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “I’ve heard about your side. Are you interested in cooperating to kill the current demon **** and regain your power?”

“It’s just you?” Lively still thought that Lu Yang was the trash who had just been promoted to the lord rank.

Lu Yang sighed, and suddenly pointed at Lively, exuding a demigod’s breath, and said, “It’s up to me.”

“Half, half god?!” Lively trembled in fright, stared at Lu Yang and said, “This, this is impossible, it’s only been a few months, how can you become a half god.”

Lu Yang also felt a little emotional. It seemed that only a few months had passed, but he had experienced too many things, such as the battle of the Red Mist Blood Pond, the confrontation between the ancient gods and the gods in the battlefield of another world, and three times in and out of the void. Hall, after more than 400 years, Lu Yang felt a strange feeling when he saw Lively.

“Are you interested in cooperating? You and I know each other after all. I don’t want to kill you.” Lu Yang said.

“How do you want to cooperate?” Lively calmed herself.

Lu Yang said: “I will help you kill the high priest and the current demon god, avenge your husband Da Gamat, and you will lead the remaining demons to submit to me.”

“Why should I trust you?” Lively asked suspiciously.

Lu Yang said: “Many people from the demon race have surrendered to me. You can ask Bagley next to you. He has seen it with his own eyes in the Donghai Dungeon. I have not hurt any demons who surrendered to us. If you want, you will also get permanent residency on this planet, and you will also get the supreme honor and become a mentor to all human beings.”

Lively showed a wry smile. He had already asked Bagley a lot about the Donghai Dungeon, and he knew that Lu Yang had always had great goodwill towards the surrendered races of the alien world.

In this case, Bagley has persuaded her more than once to contact human beings, but Lively sees the low strength of human beings, even if she passes, it is still a mortal ending, so she did not take it to heart. , Now that Lu Yang has personally come to invite her, she is still a demigod, so there is nothing she can’t agree to.

“The little girl would like to thank His Highness the demigod for his invitation. I am willing to join the human race, and I just ask you to avenge my husband.” Lively’s face gradually changed from playful to hideous, and said, “Damn the devil, actually took me to sacrifice their husbands, and I will never forgive them.”

Lu Yang asked, “Do you hate that **** of the other dimension?”

“I don’t hate him, I only hate the demigods and ten priests who sacrificed him.” Lively said angrily.

Lu Yang said: “That’s good, take me to that altar, I want to talk to the **** in person.”

“The altar is in the central area of Castlevania, you can’t go in.” Lively said in surprise.

Lu Yang said, “That’s why I came to find you. It should be no problem to go back as you. I will enter as your servant.”

Lively nodded, took out a cloak from the space backpack and handed it to Lu Yang, saying, “This method is fine, come with me, although I have no power, all the demons pretend to respect me on the bright side. After all, it was at the expense of my husband that they came into this world.”

Lu Yang put on his cloak and flew to the northeast with Lively. After two hours, he came to an area full of black trees.

These trees are thirty or forty meters high, which are completely different from the trees on earth. In the central area of this black forest, there is a huge black castle.

The material of the castle is made of black trees outside. It is nearly 100 meters high and several kilometers horizontally and vertically. It looks extremely majestic. Who is it? stop. “A winged demon sprang out from behind a black tree next to it, and pointed the long sword at Lively and Lu Yang.

“Bastard, if you want to kill me, just do it.” Lively was furious.

“It’s Your Highness Lively.” The demon soldier said with an embarrassed smile, “I’m sorry, I didn’t notice it was you.”

“Go back, next time your master wants to kill me, let him do it directly, what are you supposed to do?” Lively roared.

The demon soldier quickly disappeared and flew back.

Lively calmed down and continued to take Lu Yang forward. Every demon clan he encountered along the way had such an attitude, and every demon clan warrior immediately retreated. Obviously, the demons The soldiers of the clan are not stupid, and they know the ins and outs of this matter clearly.

Chapter 2447: Blood God

Passing through the Blackwood Forest, Lively brought Lu Yang to the front of the Demon Castle, where there were far fewer demon soldiers interrogating.

No one stepped forward to ask about Lively's purpose of returning with a subordinate, and everyone walked around, which surprised Lu Yang.

"I didn't expect the demons to respect you so much." Lu Yang asked curiously.

Lively sneered and said as she walked, "This is the tradition of the demon clan, and it is also the last bottom line of the demon clan. Otherwise, what do other demon clans think?"

"That's right," Lu Yang said.

"It's coming, are you sure you can convince the Blood God?" Lively was a little unconvinced. If she couldn't do it, it might attract the attention of the Blood God. Once discovered by other demon races, the two of them wanted to escape. It's a little difficult.

"Trust me." Lu Yang smiled.

The two continued to move forward, and after a while, they came to a blood-red land, where there was a deep pit, with blood-red flags stuck on both sides of the pit, with a strange pattern on it.

"Lively, what are you doing here?" A majestic voice appeared, and in the next second, dozens of demon warriors suddenly appeared around Lu Yang and Lively. The lowest strength was the king rank. The strongest one is the monarch, and it is this monarch who speaks.

"I'm here to pay homage to my husband, do you have any opinion?" Lively glared at the monarch and scolded, "Vince, my husband sacrificed his life to bring you here, how dare you disrespect me?"

“Hmph, I don’t even respect him, who is destined to die from birth. Why should I respect you? This is the altar. If you don’t want to die, get out of here.” Vince refused to let him.

Lively was instantly furious but there was no way to do it, she said to Lu Yang via voice transmission, “If you want to summon the alien space gods in a while, you need blood, so please kill them.”

A smile appeared on Lu Yang’s mouth, and he suddenly raised his head to look at Vince and the others. In an instant, Vince and the others entered the fantasy world, and they couldn’t help showing a demented look.

A half-length sword appeared in Lu Yang’s hand, which was the corpse of the Earth Demon God. With a slight wave, all the demons, including Vince, were cut in half, and the blood splattered into the sacrifice pit.

Lively looked at Lu Yang in shock and said, “What kind of weapon are you, how can it be so strong.”

“You will know in the future, cast the spell as soon as possible, and summon that god.” Lu Yang said.

Lively nodded, knelt on the ground and chanted an obscure incantation, and the blood flowing into the sacrifice pit suddenly churned.

The blood-red door of the different dimension opened, and a blood-red phantom gradually formed. His wings were similar to a crow, but he had the body of a snake, his head was like a giant lizard, but he had two praying mantis arms, as if they were spliced together. biological.

“Why are there so few sacrifices this time?” The **** of the different dimension spoke in Elvish language, glared at Lively angrily, and said, “I’m going to kill you!”

“Wait.” Lu Yang saw that Lively was too frightened to move, he stepped in front of Lively, looked at the **** of this different dimension, released the divine power in his body and said, “Can you talk about it?”

“Who are you? Are you not a demon?” The **** of the different dimension retracted his mantis arm, and asked Lu Yang with two blood-red eyes.

“I am a human, a brand new race.” Lu Yang said.

“What are you looking for from me?” asked the **** of the different dimension.

Lu Yang said, “I heard that you have a way to quickly improve the strength of a certain creature. I hope you can help me.”

“You are already a demigod, and my abilities are useless to you.” The **** of the different dimension shook his head and said.

Lu Yang said, “It’s not me, it’s my subordinates. I need a lot of strong people to be promoted to the monarch rank. It seems that only you can do it.”

“Below the monarch rank, as long as you are willing to sacrifice the flesh and blood of intelligent creatures for me, I can help you.” The **** of the different dimension showed a greedy look.

Lu Yang asked, “How many for a monarch rank?”

The **** of the different dimension looked at Lu Yang carefully and said, “Thirty thousand souls, one monarch.”

Lu Yang was stunned for a moment. He was a little stunned by such a simple request from the **** of the other world. Only 30,000 people can change to a monarch rank, and there is such a good thing.

It seems that the gods of this different dimension have no knowledge. The invasion of another world, less than one-tenth of the human population of 8 billion died, and the population of China has changed from 1.4 billion at its peak to tens of millions now. .

Lu Yang said: "You and I swear in the ancient Elvish language, every time I sacrifice 30,000 Holy Spirits to you, you will infuse me with a powerful monarch."

"You can call me a blood god." The eyes of the gods in the different space were full of light, and he immediately swore in the ancient elf language, and then he said to Lu Yang: "In the future, you must have 30,000 souls every time you summon, otherwise, you and I will The agreement is void."

As soon as the words fell, the blood **** flew back to the different space, and took all the blood away.

"How do you know that he can help others improve their strength?" Lively asked in surprise.

Lu Yang smiled without saying a word, took Lively into Bandarsburg, jumped into the sky, turned into a phoenix, and flew in the direction of Daqinggou.

The reason why he can know that the Blood God has the ability to help others improve their strength is that the Blazing Devil God has searched for it from the memory of the two-headed bird. The Blazing Devil God also knows something about the ancient **** of the wilderness in this different space.

No one knows where the blood **** came from, but the purpose of the blood **** is to devour blood. He is a fierce **** who never knows his satisfaction. As long as the blood is there, he will become stronger.

Similarly, the Blood God is also a good businessman. After absorbing blood, he will produce a kind of blood spheres similar to those in the blood pool of red mist, which can quickly improve the strength of a certain creature.

"What to do next?" Blazing Demon God asked.

Lu Yang's eyes were cold and he said, "Kill people, from the time I entered another world, I will slaughter all the races that have invaded the human world, and leave no one behind."

Since you have chosen to invade, don't let the victim take revenge in the future. There is no creature that can't be held responsible for the mistakes he has made.

Even the Blazing Demon God who made a mistake will be overthrown by the new gods. How can those creatures who enter the human world and wantonly slaughter the human race still live well.

“Who to kill first?” The Blazing Demon God asked.

“Dark Demon.” Lu Yang said.

In attacking the human world, the Dark Demons are the most active. When so many people died, they also had a great relationship with the Dark Demons. Lu Yang would never let this race go.

Chapter 2448: deceive by death

It is not too difficult to bring tens of thousands of people into another world. Lu Yang has Bandarsburg, so he can pull his soldiers inside, and when he arrives in another world, he will bring them from Bandarsburg. come out.

It is not difficult to find the residence of the Dark Demon. The Blazing Demon God knows where they are, and it is enough to send Lu Yang to that coordinate point.

The really difficult thing is how to make Lu Yang bring about 100,000 soldiers and soldiers there without the orcs and demons paying attention.

If Lu Yang didn't bring more than 40,000 main force to Daqinggou, it might not have attracted the attention of the demons, but he has already brought people, so he can only find another opportunity.

Blazing Demon God asked, “What do you want to do?”

“Let the orcs and the demons fight again.” Lu Yang found a place to stop, released Lively from the space, and said, “How much control do you have on your opponents?”

Lively asked: “What do you mean? I can only control some of the subordinates of the original Son of the Demon God, about a thousand demons, and their strength is only about the third rank.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “That’s enough, let’s return to your area, gather all the demons, and attack the Orcs with me.”

Lively didn’t know why, and asked, “You can’t win, it’s no different from being sent to death. I’m afraid only you can escape.”

Lu Yang said: “I will bring you. My purpose is to kill a few orc monarchs and attract crazy revenge from the orcs. Then, the demons and the orcs will fight again.”

“But what’s the point of that?” Lively didn’t understand and said, “I don’t mind letting those subordinates die, but isn’t it a waste of time for them to die like this.”

Lu Yang said with a gleam in his eyes, “It is of great significance. I need some time to improve the strength of my subordinates. I can let you leave the lives of three subordinates as your future support.”

Lively said, “Okay, let’s go back.”

Lu Yang took Lively back to Bandarsburg again, and quickly flew to the front line of the Orcs and Demons. On the way, he asked Lively with his consciousness and said, “On the Orcs, except for the half of the Orcs. God, who is the strongest person who is most easily attacked but most worshipped by the orcs?”

Lively said: “Kenneth, the son of the former orc shaman Doringer, the orcs can open super-large teleporters to transport demigods and more monarchs, relying on the release of Doringer. Shaman spells, but he forcibly released this spell and he was killed by the elemental backlash, but his death alone saved the orcs, so every orc has great respect for Kenneth.”

Lu Yang said, "Then kill him, do you know his location?"

Lively said: "Kenneth got the power of his father's blood, and his strength has reached the peak of the monarchy. He has always been the representative of the main battle faction of the orcs. At this time, it should be in the southwest of the Surabi rift, where there is a In an area with a strong wind element, he practiced hurricane spells there."

"Point it to me." Lu Yang said.

Lively nodded and gave the location of Surabi's big crack in her consciousness, and Lu Yang flew over there quickly.

The so-called Surabi Great Fissure refers to the fissure in the earth caused by the war between the orcs and the demons. It is dozens of kilometers long and hundreds of meters wide.

In the southwest of the Great Rift Valley, there is a hurricane ravaged area that is visible to the naked eye. Dozens of tornadoes have formed a natural barrier there, and it is impossible for people below the monarch to pass.

Lu Yang did not act in a hurry. He circled the hurricane area in the air and found a large camp of orcs more than ten kilometers away. There were at least five or six thousand orcs in it, and there were nearly a hundred kings. Then, he flew back to the vicinity of Lively's camp and said, "Order your army to attack that orc camp, and say that it became empty, with only dozens of second-order orcs, and you will get credit for killing it."

"I'll take my men away first. I don't need anyone else. I only need Bagley and Lander, and I'll call them both now." Lively ran to the distant camp.

Lu Yang stayed where he was and waited. After a while, Lively returned to him with a human man and a demon.

"Bagley, you've seen it, I need his company, and Randall is also my most important friend." Lively looked at Lu Yang stubbornly. Obviously, she didn't know that Bagley was a traitor. matter.

Bagley didn't expect that his mission would end in this way, shaking his head and said, "Your Majesty, I don't want to return to the human world."

This is for Lu Yang!

Lu Yang looked at Lively and said, "You still need to send someone you trust to do one thing."

"What's the matter?" Lively asked nervously.

Lu Yang said, "You need to send someone back to report that you were killed by Kenneth and ask them to avenge you."

"I'll go." Bagley said excitedly.

"No." Lively shook her head and refused. Obviously, Bagley was a human, and he would definitely die if he returned to the demon race. Apart from her, no other demon liked Bagley.

"Then it can only be me." Randodo said with a wry smile.

Lively hugged Randall and said, "I won't let you go either."

"I still have to go, believe me, I will not betray you, you are the love of my life." A black light suddenly appeared from Randodo's body, pouring into Lively's body.

"Soul division, are you crazy?" Lively said in horror.

"If I betray you, I will be tortured by you forever." Randall looked at Lu Yang and said, "I will do my best to do this, I just ask you to treat Lively with kindness."

Lu Yang sighed It is undeniable that any race will have crazy people when it comes to love, and Landduo is also a lover.

“Don’t worry, I’ll keep my word, Lively will live very well with me,” Lu Yang said.

“Goodbye.” Randodo pushed Lively away and ran towards Castlevania with a firm expression.

Lu Yang looked at Lively and said, “Take Bagley to the battle. I will follow you two and save you both when the fight breaks out.”

Lively took Bagley back to the camp with resolute eyes, Lu Yang turned into a phoenix and flew into the air, hiding in the clouds and watching every move below.

After two hours.

Lively gathered all the demons under her command, crossed the Surabi rift, and launched a fierce attack on the camp of the orcs.

Chapter 2449: 2 clan battle

On the sentry tower of the orc camp, brown-skinned orcs are on guard duty, and the rest of the orcs are training in the camp.

At this time, it was daytime, and the orcs’ sentry saw at a glance the demon legion that crossed the Surabi rift and rushed towards them.

“Woo~~~~~!” The orcs in the tower immediately blew the horn.

Thousands of orc warriors did not need to assemble. They were training in the field and rushed out from the four gates of the camp on the third-order prairie wolf with shields and weapons in hand.

Thousands of demon warriors were surrounded in an instant, followed by a massacre. Lu Yang watched the battle below from above the clouds. If a demon warrior ran out of the encirclement, he would use spells to kill him. .

“Why are there so many orcs in the camp?”

“Liveli, what the **** is going on? What about Liveli?”

“Bagley, **** liar, where are you? Where is your master?”

The demons roared wildly. They found that they had been deceived, but they could not escape, and could only passively gather towards the central area under the attack of the orcs.

If human beings face such a sudden death situation of the enemy, any general with a brain will not give an order to kill them all, but will capture a few prisoners, and first ask the reason for the enemy's attack. After all, there is no Who will die, and this is under the circumstance that the two sides have just concluded an armistice contract.

But the commander of this orc camp, Maduge, is Kenneth's subordinate, and he is also the personal guard of the former orc chief Dolinger. If it wasn't for the demons' sacrifice to the blood gods and opening a larger space-time channel, there would be so many of them. The demons of the monarch and demigods were teleported over, so Dolinger didn't have to protect them by self-exploding his body to expand the channel and summon more orc monarchs and demigods.

This truce, like Kenneth, Madoge firmly disagreed, but there was no way. The truce agreed by the high-level officials of the two sides, but Madoge has been fighting hard at the border, waiting for a war one day.

Originally, he thought that it would take a year for the next time more powerhouses from both sides teleported over to start the battle. He didn't expect the demons to launch a sneak attack. Recalling the care of Dolinger before, Madog was furious and ordered: : “Kill all of them, leave none of them~!”

Hundreds of king-rank orcs rushed out first, followed by the rest of the lord-rank and spirit-rank. None of the more than a thousand demons escaped, and they were all killed on the west side of the great rift.

In the clouds, at some point, Lively had brought Bagley back to Lu Yang. Looking at the subordinates who died tragically below, she said to Lu Yang with red eyes, "You will give me more in the future. Subordinates, ten times stronger than these people."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "I will do what I promised. Come into my space to rest. I'm going to fight Kenneth."

Lively nodded and flew Bagley into the Bandarsburg opened by Lu Yang, and rested peacefully in the castle.

Lu Yang flapped the wings behind his back, left over the camp, and quickly flew into the hurricane area several kilometers away. In an empty desert, he saw a strong orc sitting in the center of the hurricane and practicing with his eyes closed.

"Who is it, come out." Kenneth suddenly opened his eyes, glared at Lu Yang who was in the hurricane, and said, "You were found by the wind element."

"So what?" Lu Yang looked at Kenneth sarcastically. Suddenly, he turned into a demon body, with a gleam in his eyes.

Kenneth just met Lu Yang's eyes, and in an instant, Kenneth became sluggish, it was Lu Yang's spiritual spell.

The spells of the extraterrestrial demons taught by the Blazing Demon God, even the upper gods in the blood purgatory cannot wake up in a short time, let alone a small monarch-level orc.

Lu Yang slowly landed in front of Kenneth, imitating the attack of a two-headed bird, tearing Kenneth's body into pieces, and then he flew back into the sky.

The raging hurricane quickly dissipated with Kenneth's death, which made Maduogo, who had just returned to the camp to celebrate the victory, look terrified. He quickly ran over with his men, but when he saw Kenneth's body At that time, there was only panic in his eyes, and then it turned into rage, kneeling on the ground and roaring frantically: "Demon race, I want to kill all of you, kill all of you~!"

the other side.

In the Castle of Demons, the new Demon God also saw Landerdo who had fled back in a hurry. When he learned that Lively had been kidnapped and killed by the demons, the first thing that came to his mind was that there was a problem, but his The second thought is that this war must be fought.

According to the tradition of the demon race, Lively must be respected. Since she has an accident, she must seek justice for her. Otherwise, no more children of the devil will take the initiative to sacrifice, and the devil will become even more scattered.

"War~!"

"War~!"

This sentence also appeared in the mouth of the new orc clan chief who rushed to the orc camp.

In just one day, the orcs and the demons gathered all the warriors at the same time. The two sides added together more than 300,000 troops, from the lowest lord rank to the highest demigod, all participated in this war.

When Lu Yang saw the fight between the two sides, he breathed a sigh of relief, turned and flew back to the defensive area of Daqinggou. As soon as he landed, he called Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and others to his side, and said, "You guys from now on Start organizing the team and prepare to go to another world with me."

"Going to another world?" The white lion was a little surprised, and then asked excitedly: "Why? Go there to fight?"

Lu Yang nodded and said, "I found a way to quickly improve the strength of my brothers, that is, to slaughter the creatures of another world, and for every 30,000 intelligent creatures of another world to sacrifice, I can get a strong monarch."

"This business is suitable." Zhou Tianming said.

Turbid wine said, "Which race do you want to attack?"

Malthus flew out of the turbid liquor and asked with a frown, "You won't make an agreement with the Blood God, right?"

Lu Yang said, "That's right I have indeed reached an agreement with the Blood God."

Malthus sighed and said, "Be careful. Although the energy **** given by the Blood God can improve their strength, they have a great negative impact. These people are likely to live in hatred for the rest of their lives."

Turbid wine said, "I'm the first to use it."

Zhou Tianming smiled and said: "You don't have to do it for you, let the brothers who follow me use it, I am a demon myself, but my brothers are a group of normal people, this is too abnormal, I think this time I should let my brother improve his strength."

The Blazing Demon God flew out of Lu Yang's body and said with emotion: "They will all become extraterrestrial demons in the future. I can guarantee this, but you must find someone with enough willpower, otherwise, you will harm them."

Zhou Tianming said solemnly: "I must look carefully."

Chapter 2450: world of darkness

In order to win the war, sometimes some sacrifices have to be made, and the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood have long buried the principle of sacrificing themselves and protecting their brothers in their hearts.

From the beginning of the night, Zhou Tianming was looking for qualified candidates among the many warriors, while Lu Yang first passed through Bandarsburg's teleportation to the area he was going to this time – the world of darkness.

The difference between the different world and the human world is that the earth in the human world rotates and revolves, but the planets in the other world do not. The celestial bodies of the stars correspond to the Holy Light Star, the Dark Moon Star, the Flame Star and the Extreme Cold Star respectively.

These four celestial bodies are distributed in a square shape on the front, back, left and right sides of the different world. Therefore, the planet in the other world has two sides that are always under the strong light of the Holy Light Star and the Flame Star, and the other two sides are always under the strong light of the Holy Light Star and the Flame Star. Under the dim light of Dark Moon and Frigid Stars.

As a result, half of the creatures in the other world are born to the light, and the other half do not need much sunlight.

The area of another world that Lu Yang went to before was the north pole of another world. That place could receive the light of four stars at the same time, but they were not strong, and they were also within the acceptable range of human beings, but this time the area he was going to was in The north side of the north pole of the different world belongs to the area close to the dark moon star, called the dark forest.

The light flickered.

Lu Yang appeared in a dark forest with a hazy night. All the surrounding trees were black, but the grass and trees on the ground exuded a little bit of starlight. Looking up, his eyes passed through the shade above his head, and he could see that there were some stars in the sky. A huge pale white planet with a purple star ring on it.

The Blazing Demon God said with emotion: "This is the dark world under the rule of the Dark Moon Star. There are hundreds of main gods such as the God of Death, the God of Curse, and the God of Pain living on that star. The Moon God is just the most inconspicuous one among them. Don't easily exude a demigod-level force field, although the gods in another world are fighting against the Chaos Beast, the gods who stay in the palace and discover the flame of the **** of flames may still be able to investigate in the lower world."

Lu Yang nodded and asked, "Where are the dark demons?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "Go north, there is a cave there, which leads directly to the world of the Dark Demon. This race is accustomed to living underground and is the best miner of various minerals. Currently, it is attached to the Blade Demon family and is responsible for the Blade Demon. Mining minerals such as Broken Star Iron and Star Steel."

Lu Yang walked in the direction indicated by the Blazing Demon God, and sure enough, he found a huge cave not far away. There were no guards at the entrance of the cave, only hundreds of black chariots.

Hundreds of humanoid creatures all in black and three meters tall were getting off the car. Their shoulders, arms, and even their backs were covered with tentacles like sharp black blades, as if their bodies were surrounded by sharp blades.

"What is this?" Lu Yang asked curiously.

The Blazing Demon God said: "This is the Blade Demon. Today should be the day when the Blade Demon family came to collect ore. You can follow them in, and there will never be any Dark Demon staring at you."

Lu Yang asked with a smile, "Why?"

Blazing Demon God said: "When I was still weak, I came to the world of dark demons. They are a typical race that bullies the weak and fears the weak. The strength of the blade demons is more than a little bit stronger than them, and the worst is the spiritual level. In terms of strength, the Dark Demon is first- and second-order, and it has no power to fight back against the Blade Demon, so the Dark Demon will absolutely surrender to the Blade Demon.”

Lu Yang understood that once the blade demon came, there would be no safety or danger at the entrance of the cave. In the world of the dark demon, it was impossible for any creature to attack their underground world under the guardianship of the blade demon.

The Blazing Demon God went on to say: “The Blade Demon family is not a powerful race. In the war between the new **** and the old god, the Blade Demon family took refuge in the new God, and their strongest is just a lower god, so the Blade Demon After the victory, the family was assigned to the border position of this dark moon region, and now in the war with the Chaos Beast, the lower **** of Blade Demon has gone to the war with all the strong, and will not be back in the short term.”

Lu Yang nodded, took out the invisibility scepter from the demon space, followed behind the blade demon and walked into the cave.

“Hey, I don’t know how the battle ahead? Has our **** won the war against Chaos Beast again?”

“Our **** is the strongest. Chaos beasts are nothing but materials for the weapons in our hands.”

“It’s a pity that we can’t participate in the war, otherwise, I’ll kill Chaos Beast to get materials.”

“It’s up to you? Collect materials honestly, enter the human world, and slaughter humans is what we should do.”

“Earth people really are delicious food. I can’t wait to hear that Borance and the others are killing the Quartet in the human world.”

“That, that is, after the ore has been shipped this time, it’s time for us to go to Earth...”

...

The blade demons chatted, and the topic turned to the matter of going to Earth. Obviously, a large number of blade demons have entered the human world and are still slaughtering humans.

Lu Yang felt that the place they were talking about might be the southern part of the country, and his face suddenly became frosty, but he didn't startle the snake, but continued to follow them.

The underground passage is long and dark, and every 50 meters on the walls on both sides there is a white stone that emits a faint light, and the light is also very weak.

three hours later.

The blade demons suddenly disappeared, and Lu Yang was a little surprised. He made sure that he was not exposed, and slowly approached the area where the blade demons stood. He was surprised to find that a huge underground world appeared in front of him.

At this time, he was standing at the exit of the cave. There was a cliff at his feet, several hundred meters in height. Under the cliff, there was a huge black city.

The city is full of white-glowing stones that you see on the road, but the stones here are brighter, almost turning the entire underground world into white.

Next to the city, there is a larger pit, where countless dark demons are mining ore, and in a further area, there is a large pit where countless dark demons are mining.

Lu Yang looked at his feet. There was an escalator here. The blade demons who had just left took the elevator down. There were many blade demons below, as if they were welcoming them. Among them, the strength of ten blade demons was in the monarch rank, there is another blade demon whose strength is a demigod.

"The strength here is quite strong." Lu Yang said with a sneer.

The strength of the normal creatures in this area is mainly the first and second orders. The only reason for the eighth-order powerhouses such as demigods is that there are mines here to prevent them from being robbed by other races.

“Om~!”

A strange voice appeared, not far from Lu Yang’s side, a light green mist floated, but Lu Yang was already at the level of a demigod at this time, and he could see at a glance that there was something wrong with the dense fog.

Blazing Demon God said excitedly: “Hurry away, why is there such a poisonous fog here, **** it, I don’t know if you are lucky or unlucky, tell you, this poisonous fog encounters, even if it is a lower **** must die.”

Lu Yang was startled, he quickly retreated back into the cave, away from the dense fog, and asked, “What is this?”

The voice of the Blazing Demon God trembled a little, and said: “The ruins, the fog unique to the prehistoric ruins, damn, these dark demons have dug up the treasure.”

Chapter 2451: ready to attack

Most of the so-called prehistoric ruins are the tombs of ancient gods. In the ancient times of other worlds, the ancient gods below the main **** rank would also die.

After their qi and blood decline, the top gods will find a safe place to find a way to sprint, and those below the top gods will find an undisturbed area to bury themselves to prevent them from being turned into war puppets by enemies.

No matter what kind, there are usually rich treasures in their tombs, such as the armor and weapons they use with them. These things are immortal, but in the same way, there are dangers in the tombs.

On the one hand, it is the security restrictions set by the tomb owner. If you don't break it, you will be attacked by the prohibition if you enter it rashly. Often, the attack power of these restrictions is similar to the strength of the tomb owner, but it is not as flexible.

On the other hand, the owner of the tomb will have great resentment due to the failure to be promoted to the upper god. After more than a thousand years of accumulation, this resentment has turned into this green mist. In fact, the mist is filled with a kind of weird bug.

This kind of worm was born from the corpse of the ancient god. They were not conscious, but inherited the resentment of the ancient god. They would devour any creatures they encountered. Even the lower gods could not bear the erosion of such worms.

Lu Yang watched as the green mist floated to the entrance of the cave and flew towards the ground. In an instant, countless dark demons and blade demons roared wildly.

"The green fog is here again, get out of the way~!"

"Don't be touched by him, run away."

"Open the teleportation array and teleport them out."

...

On the northernmost side of the main city of Dark Demon, inside the largest building, a huge purple teleportation formation suddenly appeared. A ray of light shot out and hit the fog precisely. The fog disappeared in an instant, and I didn't know it was teleported. where.

The Blazing Demon God smiled when he saw this scene, and said, "These idiots don't even know that they dug into the tombs of the ancient gods and expelled the mist as ordinary poisonous mist."

Lu Yang asked: "Do these poisonous mists have any other effects?"

Blazing Demon God said: "It is the best attacking weapon, and it is even stronger than your demon body at the moment. After all, you have to do your best to fight against the quasi-god and the lower god. If you use this kind of green fog, you can throw it out. It can kill the opponent in seconds."

Lu Yang asked with a smile, "Do you have a way to load this fog?"

Blazing Demon God said: "Of course, the corpse of the ancient **** is the best carrier. Look around and see if you can find the tomb of the ancient god."

Lu Yang nodded and slowly slid down the ropeway of the elevator. As soon as he landed, a group of blade demons and dark demons walked in front of him.

"Your Excellency Augustus, there have been more and more poisonous mists in this mining area recently. My clansmen have suffered serious casualties, and it is very difficult to mine. We have spent a lot of effort to get what you want." A dark demon flattered He said to a monarch-level blade demon.

The blade demon called Augustus glanced at the dark demon arrogantly, and said, "Dara, I know your purpose, isn't it just wanting more benefits? But what does the death of your clan have to do with me, you More ore needs to be mined before I can take credit for you and send you to the human world."

"Thank you, my master." The dark demon called Dara was extremely excited. He was the patriarch of this dark demon clan.

The news that came back from the human world, these dark demons went there, they were like gods, and slaughtering human beings was as simple as squeezing worms, which made them want to go to earth as a higher race to oppress human beings.

"Next month, I will definitely mine more ore to ensure that you are satisfied." Dara said respectfully.

"You should also pay attention to the security around you. Too many people of our tribe have been sent to the front line, and there are too few defenders here." Augustus said with a frown.

“Don’t worry, the defense here is very strong, we have miasma here, and there are many third-order magic circles, the most important of which are the demigods of the great Blade Demon clan and the three monarch-level powerhouses. We have nothing to fear.” Dark Magic Dara said excitedly.

Blade Demon Augustus also felt that his worries were unnecessary, so he stopped talking, turned and walked in the direction of the main hall, followed by Dara and others.

Lu Yang has been standing in the same place without moving. Originally, he wanted to explore by himself to find the special defense here, but he did not expect that the patriarch of the dark demons would provide everything by himself.

“How to crack this miasma?” Lu Yang asked curiously.

Blazing Demon God said: “You are just asking me, I really don’t necessarily know if I change to the second god-king level powerhouse. I came to this place back then, and this kind of miasma only needs to use the leaves of the black trees outside. , chew it and put it in your mouth, no matter how much miasma you **** in, you can’t get hurt.”

“I didn’t expect it to be so simple.” Lu Yang didn’t rush to collect leaves, and continued to explore the underground world.

In just two days, Lu Yang explored all the magic circles in the Dark Demon City and the surrounding area. There are a total of 1032 magic circles, ranging from the second to the third order.

small book booth

The defensive power in the city is also clear. There are no defensive personnel at all. Except for the more than 500 third-order dark demon warriors who maintain order, the remaining more than 400,000 dark demons are all from the first to the second order. Among them including the elderly and infirm.

As for the ancient god’s relic, Lu Yang did not find it, because that thing was mainly in the mining area. There were tens of thousands of dark demons mining. Lu Yang couldn’t avoid everyone, so he didn’t go to investigate, but what he already knew , enough for him to start a war.

That night.

Lu Yang left the underground world while no one was paying attention. After collecting a sufficient number of leaves according to the instructions of the Blazing Demon God, he opened Bandarsburg and returned to the defensive position of Daqinggou.

“Go to the conference room for a meeting.” Lu Yang took out the intercom and sent it to Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and others.

Less than half an hour.

The five vice-chairmen of the Jagged Brothers Alliance, Zhuojiu, Bai Shi, Xia Yuwei, Zhou Tianming, and Ku Ai Bansheng all returned from the outside and sat beside Lu Yang, with expressions of uncontrollable excitement on their faces.

“Boss, among the more than 100,000 brothers guarding the Quartet, we have selected 40,000 people, who can follow you to the other world to fight at any time.” Zhuojiu said firmly.

“Okay.” Lu Yang smiled and said: “The situation of the enemy has been inquired clearly, we can just kill them directly. We will simulate the attack now, and you can see how best to slaughter the city.”

Chapter 2452: the carnage begins

The legions that followed Lu Yang this time were all soldiers who had been tested by blood and war in the past five years, and they were also Lu Yang’s most capable assistant.

They are:

A legion of 3,000 king-level wood-based mages led by De Buchangshi.

A legion of 20,000 demon-level god-blood orc warriors led by the white lion.

The 15,000 Demon-level Holy Light Knights led by Mokushu.

The 108 king-rank ghost-faced roar warriors led by the pride and pride.

500 king-level water elemental mages led by the deep sea.

The 3,000 king-rank Void Warrior Legion led by Xia Yuwei.

10 Red Mist soldiers led by Xiao Liang.

In this legion, the most inferior are the powerhouses of the third-order demon level. If there are no strongmen of the blade demon clan to stay behind, the two legions of the demon level can kill this dark demon tribe.

Lu Yang took these people to plan for a night. After determining how to crack each magic circle and how to defend against the poisonous miasma, he found an open space and stood there and chanted a spell.

“Om~!”

A red teleportation array 50 meters long and 3 meters high slowly formed behind Lu Yang. This was the space teleportation channel of Bandarsburg. He looked at the more than 40,000 soldiers in front of him, and said solemnly: “According to the order. , everyone enters my space castle to rest, I will lead everyone to another world, and seek justice from the dark devil.”

“Bang~!” More than 40,000 soldiers hit their chests with weapons at the same time, and the killing intent suddenly filled the grassland.

“The first team, follow me in.” The white lion walked in front, leading his legion into the teleportation formation.

Kuai Bansheng, Zhou Tianming and others led the team to follow them, and the 40,000 people were silent, and even Malthus and the Blazing Demon God felt a chill with the condensed killing intent.

“What a murderous aura.” Malthus said in amazement.

Lu Yang glanced at him and said, “The Dark Demon has a grudge against us, a big grudge.”

The Dark Demon came to Earth in the first year of the arrival of another world. Compared with the powerful races such as high-level demons, two-headed birds, and demon-blooded orcs that have appeared in the past two years, the hatred of the Jagged Brothers team is far less. It is far less hatred for the dark demon, because when the creatures in the other world just came, it was the dark demon that caused the greatest damage to human beings.

At that time, the first batch of more than 100,000 soldiers gathered by the Jagged Brotherhood, more than 40,000 people died at their hands, more than 10,000 people were disabled for life and could not be cured, and millions of ordinary people died in the hands of these dark demons.

Now it's finally time for revenge, everyone wants to avenge their dead relatives, and even wants to use massacre to vent their anger.

Malthus has only been here in the past two years. He is not clear about these things. After learning the cause and effect of the incident, he said: “You are qualified to slaughter the dark demons, and you can also destroy their race.”

Lu Yang was taken aback for a moment, looked at Malthus with a smile and said, “I was thinking that if you don't agree, I won't let the turbid wine participate.”

Malthus rolled his eyes and said, "I am the Holy Light, not the Virgin. In our world, there is a wordless blood monument formed at the beginning of the world. Every creature comes to the blood monument and sees different things. ."

The Blazing Demon God was excited and asked, "What did you see?"

"Fair~!" Malthus said: "The blood tablet tells me that blood debt requires blood to taste, and everything in the world has his law of operation. All I have to do is to stick to this law, so I despise you guys. Old God, there is not one good thing."

"I'm talking too much." The Blazing Demon God flew back into Lu Yang's body uninterestingly, sulking all by himself.

As Malthus said, the old gods really went too far, they destroyed most of the rules that work between heaven and earth, and turned to their rules to do things.

Lu Yang bowed to Malthus, clasped his fists and said, "Thank you for your understanding, I don't have to have any scruples anymore."

Malthus shrugged his shoulders, flew back into the body of the maiden, and followed him into the Bandarsburg space.

Four hours later.

More than 40,000 people entered the castle of Bandarsburg, and Lu Yang also flew in. Then, he opened the space-time channel and teleported into the dark forest.

Caution, he did not release his brothers immediately, but patrolled around the dark forest and made sure that there were no new enemies in this area, or that stronger enemies appeared before he opened the teletransportation channel.

More than 40,000 soldiers quietly walked out in order. Standing in the dark forest, no one made a sound of amazement. They just lowered their heads and sorted out their weapons and equipment, making final preparations for the upcoming massacre.

Blazing Demon God and Malthus flew out again, looking at these warriors coming out of the passage, their faces were full of emotion.

“It’s bad luck for the Dark Demon.” The Blazing Demon God sighed a little and said, “If it wasn’t for the teleportation array in the dark forest going straight to Bandarsburg, I wouldn’t be able to do reverse teleportation.”

The new **** of another world does not know the specific use of Bandarsburg. He has always used this castle as a treasure hunt place. Therefore, there are space teleportation arrays that lead directly to Bandarsburg in different worlds. The reason why Lu Yang could teleport in the reverse direction directly.

Malthus also sighed and said: “I don’t know what kind of demons will be produced after this group of humans is massacred. I hope they won’t be too badly attacked by the demons.”

The Blazing Demon God thought for a while and said, “There may not be a demon of the heart.”

“How?” Malthus asked.

Blazing Demon God said: “I have been here longer than you, so I have read the history of human beings here, believe me, the Huaxia race is a race that you cannot understand. When they are gentle, they are better than other worlds. Any race should be gentle, but when they are brutal, the most brutal race in another world is comparable to them.”

“Really?” Malthus said in disbelief.

Blazing Demon God said: “I guessed it too, we’ll find out in a while.”

In the teleportation array, a large number of soldiers are running out quickly. Compared with the nervousness when entering the door, everyone becomes natural when they go out.

In just two hours, all 40,000 people walked out of the teleportation formation, forming a neat square queue in the dark forest.

“The first legion is complete.” The white lion shouted.

“Second Legion is complete.” Turbid wine shouted.

“The third legion is complete.”

There were four legions and seven bloodline warriors in total. Lu Yang looked at them and said solemnly, “I don’t need to say more. The hatred in this battle is death and hatred. I have only one order for you. Kill them all, and slaughter the dark demons in this underground world.”

In an instant, the killing intent of more than 40,000 people increased to the highest level, but no one spoke, and they were asked before going out.

“Come in with me.” Lu Yang turned around and took the 40,000 people into the entrance of the underground world through the long tunnel and came to the cliff at the exit.

Beneath the cliff, none of the Dark Demon’s population of more than 400,000 found Lu Yang and they were all living normal lives.

Lu Yang snapped his fingers, and De Buchan’s corpse led 500 wood-type mages out. They chanted the incantation, and a green light shone from them. The next second, centered on the cave exit, countless The vines grew rapidly from the cliff, and continued to grow after climbing to the ground. In a short time, a vine channel with a length of more than 500 meters and a width of more than 80 meters was formed.

Lu Yang waved his hand and said, “Attack~!”

“Bang~!”

The white lion tapped the armor heavily, looked at the 108 ghost-faced roars and 20,000 blood warriors led by the pride behind him, and said loudly: “Iron Brotherhood, kill it~!”

“Kill~!”

The anger that the warriors had accumulated for a long time finally burst out, and tens of thousands of people roared and waved their weapons and rushed down the vine passage, and entered the world of dark demons.

...

“Enemy attack, enemy attack, this, this, this, this is a human, there is a human attacking us.” An elder of the dark demon had some insight and immediately shouted loudly, but the next second, the elder Died under the arrogant sword.

“Follow me to break through the defensive array.” The pride Wanzong led the Ghost-faced Roar Legion to the Dark Demon King City.

“Who dares to invade the dark demon clan, don’t you know that this is protected by my blade demon clan?” There was a roar in the central hall of the dark demon city, and then, a blade demon with sharp spikes all over his body flew out. stopped in mid-air.

Chapter 2453: Ancient God's Tomb

The perception ability of a demigod-level powerhouse is far greater than that of a low-level powerhouse. When the warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood rushed into the underground world, the demigod-level blade demon Thomas had already sensed it.

After hurriedly sorting out his weapons and equipment and flying out of the temple, Tomast arrogantly looked at the enemy who had committed crimes. In this area, he, the demigod, had not encountered an opponent for a long time.

Generally speaking, when all the races in the vicinity see this demigod, their eyes will show panic and begging expressions, especially when a legion invaded the underground world a few years ago and saw him as a demigod, The desperation in his eyes made Thomast reminisce, and he wanted to take another look.

However, when he stopped in midair and looked at the ground, more than 40,000 human warriors looked at the demigod with only death stares, as if they were looking at a beast to be slaughtered.

Thomas was shocked. As a demigod, when was he treated by ordinary creatures with such eyes? In an instant, Thomas fell into a violent rage, and the long knife-like corners all over his body radiated purple-black light at the same time.

Countless purple-black light blades flew out from his body. Just as he was about to attack with these light blades, Lu Yang slowly flew into the air, and Thomas, who was frightened by the surging demigod power in his body, quickly switched his target to Lu Yang. Yang's body.

"Demigods? How can humans have demigods?" Thomas asked in shock.

"Is this your last word?" Lu Yang turned into the body of a demon, and his body was filled with violent crimson flames. A black long sword in his right hand was transformed by the body of the demon god, and he rushed towards Thomast. past.

"A flame demigod, dare to fight me in melee?" Thomast seemed to be humiliated, the blade-shaped corners around his body suddenly became longer, he curled up and twirled frantically, like a spherical whirling flying. Like a knife, it slammed into Lu Yang with a purple light.

Lu Yang stared at Tomast, and the Earth Demon God's long sword in his right hand slashed out against his spherical body.

"Crack~!"

A crisp cracking sound sounded, and the demigod-level body, the blade demon known in other worlds for its hardness, was simply cut in two by the Earth Demon Sword.

Tomast didn't even have time to let out a cry of pain, and he was simply killed. A purple light emerged from the black blade of the Earth Demon God's long sword, swallowing Thomast's soul.

Quiet!

The scene was extremely quiet for a while!

Countless dark demons and blade demons were cheering for Tomast, looking forward to a slaughter feast for the demigods, but in the blink of an eye, the biggest sustenance in their hearts was killed by Lu Yang with one sword, even if it was the Jagged Brotherhood. The warriors showed incredible expressions. After all, the power emitted by this blade demon was still a demigod one second ago.

With a move with his right hand, Lu Yang put the Blade Demon's corpse into the Bandarsburg space. His blood will become a human bloodline transfer item, and it will be hung on the guild warehouse shelf of the Jagged Brotherhood.

"The boss is mighty~!"

"The boss is mighty~!"

"The boss is mighty~!"

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others suddenly reacted, raising their weapons and shouting in unison, "This is the slashing general. The strongest of the enemy was killed by Lu Yang like this. It is conceivable that the enemy's morale will be reduced." what becomes.

The more than 40,000 warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood also reacted and cheered wildly, while the Blade Demon and the Dark Demon side fell into infinite panic.

Lu Yang raised the long sword in his hand, slowly pointed to the dark side, and roared, "Iron Brotherhood, kill~!"

The soldiers of the more than 40,000 Jagged Brothers no longer had any fear, and rushed towards the Dark Demon and the Blade Demon frantically.

"Get up the defensive array." The dark demon clan's patriarch only remembered to set up a defensive array at this time, but unfortunately, it is no longer in a hurry.

The soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood were very familiar with the terrain here during the drill. The various legions rushed to the position of the defense formation in an orderly manner, destroying hundreds of formations. Afterwards, the war became massacre.

The Dark Demon side, the strongest is only Tier 3, while the Jagged Brothers Alliance, the worst is Tier 3. Under the strong strength gap, even if the number of opponents is more than 400,000, they can still be slaughtered.

Lu Yang stopped quietly in mid-air, watching the massacre happening below, he had no pity or tyranny in his heart.

"All the slaughtered human beings, the parasitized human beings, as the younger generation, we are not qualified to forgive the enemies who killed you, but what we can do is to take the same revenge on them, I hope you can see it in the spirit of heaven. In this scene, I hope my brothers who died in battle can see this scene, your souls can rest in peace, your hatred, I will pay for you, and even the descendants of three generations of enemies, I will slaughter them cleanly." Lu Yang muttered to himself.

Inexplicably, countless rays of light lit up in the space, some flew from Lu Yang's body, and some flew around Lu Yang.

Lu Yang knew that this was the resentment of some of his dead brothers. He had always known that these resentments surrounded him. From when he set up the hero forest and swore in front of the tombstones of countless dead brothers, these resentments were all around him. The spirit was attached to him.

Now, Lu Yang has avenged them, and some of the brothers' resentment no longer have any resentment, and can truly dissipate between this world.

"Om~!"

"Om~!"

"Om~!"

...

In the mine not far away, a crimson light suddenly appeared, as if calling for Lu Yang to pass.

He looked in the direction of the battlefield, and after confirming that there was no danger between the turbid wine and the white lion with the brothers, he flew over curiously.

The Blazing Demon God said excitedly: "The ancient god's tomb, this is the last spiritual consciousness of the ancient god, he is calling you, **** it, your boy is lucky again, the dead souls of countless brothers just naturally dissipated between heaven and earth. , seems to have touched the spiritual consciousness of the ancient gods, hurry up and take a look, there must be treasures."

Malthus also flew out of the turbid wine, attached to Lu Yang's body, and said, "This is the cemetery of the ancient gods, go in and have a look, there must be secret techniques and words from the ancient times, if there is any, for yours Legions are infinitely useful."

Lu Yang nodded and quickly landed on the top of the light curtain. The Blazing Demon God and Malthus activated their spiritual thoughts at the same time and carefully scanned the situation below. Soon, the two sent a complete image of the tomb to Lu Yang's soul. .

“Fire Soul Slash”

A crimson light appeared from Lu Yang's body, and punched a 100-meter-long deep pit into the mine not far away. At the same time, a red light shot out from the inside. Inside the pit.

Chapter 2454: Law skills

The dark red light became more and more dazzling as Lu Yang fell. When Lu Yang landed on the ground inside the tomb, he looked at the left and right walls and knew where the red light came from.

“These magical runes on the walls and on the walls are actually written in ancient gods' characters. It's incredible. There are magic circles and spells carved by ancient gods here.” Blazing Demon God has fallen into madness, he rushed to these On the text, it seems to be integrated with it.

Malthus also looked like the Blazing Demon God, one threw himself on the wall on the left and the other on the wall on the right, as if the ancient god's words had magical power.

Lu Yang asked with a smile, “What are you two doing? Make a rubbing of it and go back and study it slowly. It's not like this.”

“What do you know?” Blazing Demon God and Malthus cursed Lu Yang together for the first time.

The Blazing Demon God said: “We have unique magical powers. By lying on top of this, we can restore the ancient god's mental journey when he carved these words, and what he looked like at that time.”

The voice just fell.

The two gods directly connected their consciousness to Lu Yang's soul. In an instant, a tall and old **** appeared in front of Lu Yang's eyes. He was burning with flames, but the wrinkles on his body were deep, and his face was very withered. , the blue-black eye sockets and the huge ice wound on his chest, as if he would die at any time.

"I am the Fire God King Phil, who was attacked by the Ice God King and had to search for the tomb to meet the Father, but I am not willing to die like this, and now I will engrave what I have learned on the wall. If the later generations are willing to avenge me, I will I will give you all my money, if you promise but don't do it, the world will punish you!"

"The first form of the God of Fire spell, God's Extinguishing Slash..."

"The second form of the Vulcan spell, the Great Nirvana..."

"The third type of Vulcan spell, Doomsday Heart Fire..."

While the ancient **** Phil painted magic symbols on the wall, he taught how to use each trick. Lu Yang followed suit unconsciously. When he came to the end, a secret room appeared in front of him, but he didn't wait. He pushed the door in, and he was surrounded by countless green mists.

Lu Yang suddenly came to his senses, and looked around quickly, only to find that the Blazing Flame God and Malthus had entered a strange state, as if they were trapped in an illusion.

small book booth

"Wake up." Lu Yang called the two in his soul, but unfortunately, there was no response.

"Don't waste your energy." In the green mist around, a group separated and turned into the appearance of an ancient god. He stared at Lu Yang and scolded: "Unfortunately, there are still gods who can do this trick. , Later, the **** king of the world really has some strength."

“Are you? Ancient God Phil?” Lu Yang blinked, he felt that if he moved a little bit, the green fog would swallow it up.

“Of course it’s me.” Phil looked at Lu Yang angrily and said, “Don’t think about rescuing those two gods, they are trapped by the magic circle I set up, and they won’t be able to get out in the short term. ”

“Sorry for disturbing you.” Lu Yang didn’t know what to say. He was robbing a tomb, and he was caught by the owner of the tomb.

Phil didn’t feel so angry when he saw Lu Yang like this, and said, “You have seen my experience, and you have seen the spell, now you only have two choices, either, promise to avenge me, or you will die. it’s here.”

“I’ll avenge you.” Lu Yang was not stupid.

“Haha!” Phil sneered and said, “You are smart, but you must know that my enemy is the Ice God King, do you really dare to seek revenge from him?”

Lu Yang vowed: “I believe everything I did outside, you have seen it, I came to seek revenge for the gods in this world, they wiped out more than 90% of our species, and they also killed all of us. People, if I don’t seek revenge on them, they will kill me too, so there must be a death between us.”

Phil snorted coldly, if he hadn’t sensed the resentment spirits around Lu Yang and dissipated his resentment, then he stole the memories of those resentful spirits and learned the whole story, he wouldn’t take the initiative to emit light to attract Lu Yang come.

“Your body is suitable for learning my spells. According to your life, you are a qualified leader. You are indeed qualified to be my successor. Enter the tomb and kowtow three times, and you will officially become me. My disciple, but all my weapons and magic weapons were destroyed in the battle, and my remnant soul is about to dissipate, I hope you don’t break your promise.” Phil said this, the soul actually dissipated automatically, and all the green mist also flew out of the tomb.

“What happened just now?” Blazing Demon God woke up first, looked at Lu Yang blankly, and said, “Did I just get controlled by someone?”

Malthus also woke up and cursed: “Damn, who controlled the god.”

Lu Yang looked at the two of them with a smile, and recounted the meeting with Phil just now, saying, “Now that I’m his apprentice, I have to go in and kowtow three times.”

Blazing Demon God smiled and scolded: “Hurry up, where can I find this good thing, even if I need to learn the magic of the ancient gods, these three tricks are of great benefit to me, I can improve a lot of my spells.”

Malthus said with emotion: “You should kowtow these three heads, these spells are too easy for you to obtain, if any other gods come here, they will become crazy, this is an ancient **** spell what.”

Lu Yang had heard the Blazing Demon God talk about the ancient magic spells before. The ancient spells were comprehended according to the rules of operation between heaven and earth. Every move had the laws of heaven and earth. This was the most terrifying place.

The words follow the law, which means that if I say you die, you have to die. It is similar to this kind of spell. The ancient gods killed each other, causing the spells of the law to be broken, and the subsequent **** kings tried their best to find them. But after generations of cannibalism, when the generation of the Blazing Demon God became the king of gods, there were not many law-based spells left.

The Blazing Demon God said: “Law-like spells can avoid the restriction of rank. These three tricks are actually god-king-level spells, but you can use them now, although the power is much smaller, but the lower gods can’t beat them. is you.”

Originally, Lu Yang was very afraid of seeing the lower gods, because Lu Yang had no way to solve the attack of a lower god’s spiritual sense. Later, Lu Yang possessed the body of a demon, and he also learned the magic of spiritual sense from the blazing demon. I’m not afraid of the divine sense attack of the lower gods, but when it comes time to fight for strength, it is still not necessarily able to win.

Although Lu Yang has an Earth Demon Sword that has been turned into an Earth Demon God's corpse, this thing seems to be easy to use. Once used, Lu Yang's body's original energy has been drained by 90%, and he has just attacked the upper demigod-level blade demon. At that time, he was worried that the war would become a protracted war, giving the enemy a chance to open a defensive array. Another, the blade demon was still a bit stupid, so he used his body as a big move, and Lu Yang used the earth demon sword to give the demigod-level blade demon to the enemy. Divided.

Chapter 2455: Blood Sacrifice Dark Demon

Lu Yang summed up that something like the Earth Demon Sword can only be used at the juncture of life and death, when it is desperate, and at other times, it has to use normal spells to fight the enemy, but the Blazing Demon God has no better spell to teach him.

Fire Soul Slash is already a lower-level god-level spell. In the words of the Blazing Flame God, at this stage of Lu Yang, he was not as terrifying as Lu Yang.

When he was in the monarch rank, he grabbed a god-king rank body in the blood purgatory where the lower gods walked everywhere and the main gods were like dogs. After fusion, the flame magic power of the whole body Compared with the demigods of the same level, it is nearly a hundred times more.

Back then, at Lu Yang's stage, the Blazing Demon God could only use Fire Soul Slash twelve times, but Lu Yang used it more than a thousand times without any problem, but no matter how much mana, it doesn't mean that he can release the spell of the median god. There are too many grades, and the temperature of the flame is too different, and the spell of the median **** is no longer on the same line.

The magic of the ancient gods is different. After watching the three styles of the ancient gods, Lu Yang felt that the three tricks of God's Extermination, Great Nirvana and Doomsday Heart Fire, just as the Blazing Demon God said, belonged to Law-like spells.

The God Extinguishing Slash is mainly based on the detonation power of the flame. It is similar to the conversion of thermal energy into kinetic energy, and a powerful flame shock ray is emitted that penetrates a point of the target, similar to a high-pressure water jet, but the power of this is more terrifying. According to Phil saying, .

The Great Nirvana technique is similar to immortality, but this trick is even more terrifying. It increases the temperature of the flame in the continuous explosion. After each self-destruction, the next self-destruction will increase the temperature by 10% to 30% compared with the previous one. The magic power is enough, and it can continue to explode like this until the magic power is exhausted, or the spiritual power is exhausted.

As for the last move, Doomsday Heart Fire, it is a high-level control spell that condenses a flame into the opponent's body, instantly destroys the opponent's magic balance, and prevents the opponent from using any spells.

The Blazing Demon God was the first to learn these skills, and said to Lu Yang: "These three moves are all released by the operation of the law of flame, but there are flaws, the spells are not quite right, you don't need to learn them first, there are explosives. Danger."

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and then said with a smile: "It is estimated that the supplementary part of the spell is in the sarcophagus."

He walked to the last tomb, pushed open the stone door, and inside there was a corpse that had rotted into water and only had bones left sitting on a giant red rock.

There were no other objects and no other corpses in the room. Lu Yang knew that this was Phil's body.

He walked to the corpse, knelt down respectfully, kowtowed three times to Phil, and said, "Master is here, my apprentice will definitely avenge you."

"That's what you said." The white bone corpse suddenly let out a loud roar, and in the next second, a wisp of dust fell on Lu Yang's body.

“The ancient curse, if you can’t finish it, you will be backlashed by the laws of the ancient gods.” Malthus said with a sigh.

The corpse of the ancient **** turned into a little dust and dissipated in the air, and behind the red rock where the ancient **** sat, there were engraved complete versions of the second half of the three spells.

“Sure enough.” The Blazing Demon God laughed and said, “This curse is useless to him. The Frost God King doesn’t even know that he has been dead for tens of millions of years. Lu Yang has now completed his mission.”

Lu Yang looked at the dust that he couldn’t dissipate, and said with a smile: “I have to go to the ice area, otherwise, the ghost of the **** king will not believe.”

“Learn the skills first. With these three moves, you can challenge those races with lower gods, kill the lower gods directly, and use blood flames to plunder more source energy.” Blazing Demon God said.

Malthus said: “Don’t worry, if you want to learn, just sit on this red stone and study, it will speed up your learning.”

“What is this?” Blazing Demon God was a little curious and said, “It’s the first time I’ve seen this kind of red stone.”

Malthus said proudly: “The stone of the gods, no matter what level of gods they are, as long as they are imprisoned on this stone, they will not be able to use their mana. I have seen them in historical materials, but I can’t think of seeing real objects now. ”

Lu Yang was a little surprised and asked, “It’s so magical, can anyone at any level be imprisoned?”

Malthus said: “Even if the king of gods comes, you can be imprisoned. This is the stone of the law. Unless the king of the gods also has corresponding laws, otherwise, this stone can imprison the king of gods to death.”

Lu Yang was a little surprised. He didn't expect the treasures left by the ancient gods to be so high-end.

"It can also be used." Malthus was a little excited, and said: "As long as you sit on this stone in the future, no extraterrestrial demons will dare to trouble you, even if there are already extraterritorial demons or inner demons. Use this prisoner stone to strip the extraterritorial demons and inner demons from the body."

Lu Yang was really excited this time, and said, "Then Zhou Tianming and all his brothers will no longer have to worry about being attacked by extraterrestrial demons."

"That's right." Malthus nodded and said with some emotion: "No wonder the turbid wine follows you to the death. If I have a boss like you who has something good to think about first, I will follow to the end."

The Blazing Demon God was proud and said, "How about this kid is not afraid of the intrusion of demons and can learn soul-like spells so quickly. The depths of his heart are clean."

Malthus was convinced.

Lu Yang looked at the two of them with a smile, and said, "What's the matter with you two today, you are praising me so much. Have I entered an illusion? It's not normal."

The Blazing Demon God and Malthus laughed, found the ancient god's tomb, and understood some of the ancient god's laws. Both of them were very excited, so they were in a particularly good mood.

"Let's start practicing and see how well you understand the law." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang jumped onto the Prisoner Stone and began to learn the three ancient gods. It took him three days to learn the three ancient gods. Although the use of the ancient gods was still a little rough, he could still use it in front of the enemy.

"Boss, we won the battle and caught more than 300,000 dark demons." Kuai Ai arrived at the entrance of the tomb excitedly and shouted to Lu Yang.

“I’ll come out now.” Lu Yang jumped off the God Prisoner Stone, waved his hand, and took it to Bandarsburg, where Bai Tianyang can directly provide energy to the God Prisoner Stone through the eye of the devil.

When he came to the entrance of the mine, he looked at the half-life of bitter love covered in black blood and asked, “How is the harvest?”

The face of the half-life was full of excitement, and said: “Boss, we have made a fortune this time, there are more than 80,000 pieces of third-order Broken Star iron ingots, each piece can forge a two-handed sword, and there are 3,000 pieces of iron ingots. One monarch-level origin soul crystal and more than 70,000 spirit-level origin soul crystals.”

Lu Yang said with a smile: “It’s a good harvest, there are so many things in this small place.”

Blazing Demon God said: “It is estimated that the property of several generations of dark demons in this dungeon has left you all in one pot, but this place is indeed poor enough to have such a few things.”

Lu Yang said as he walked, “Enough is enough, I can make all my brothers become very strong.”

If it absorbs the source energy in these soul crystals, at least 3 more monarch ranks and 70 king ranks can be cultivated, which is a major improvement for the strength of the entire Jagged Brotherhood.

But the number is still not enough. Lu Yang needs more Jagged Brothers soldiers to become monarchs and kings. He looks at the open space outside the city in the distance, where there are more than 300,000 imprisoned dark demons, with a cold look in his eyes. .

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others ran over from a distance and stood respectfully in front of Lu Yang, each with a trace of violence on their faces, and at the same time a trace of reluctance to move in their eyes.

“Boss, almost 320,000 dark demons have been captured, let me do this.” Zhuojiu Qingshang suddenly became firmer, looking at Lu Yang and said.

“I’ll come, it’s just to let my subordinates improve their strength, it’s up to me to give this order.” Zhou Tianming said.

“I...” Xia Yuwei, Bai Shi and Kuai Bansheng would not let their brothers bear this sin alone.

This is 300,000 living beings, even if it is an enemy, even if they are beasts, there are still 300,000 people, killing is killing, how can it be so simple!

What kind of sins this person will need to bear to live in the future, this reminds Lu Yang of the Qin Kingdom’s Bai Qijun, what a powerful figure he is, who can give orders to kill 400,000 Zhao Kingdom’s soldiers.

For the country!

For your relatives!

For my brother!

In order to keep everything he loves alive, when the enemy must die, then they must die, even if they are feared by friends, brothers, and relatives, he must issue this order.

Lu Yang stared firmly at Zhuojiu and the others, and said, “This is for the continuation of our race, for the revenge of our brothers, and for the survival of our relatives. It is not a meaningless massacre, even if we bear sins today, This is also carried by me, Lu Yang, who will build the sacrificial altar, and I will sacrifice these 320,000 dark demons alive.”

“Yes.” Zhuojiu, Zhou Tianming and the others no longer had any doubts in their eyes, they walked not far away and drew a magic circle on the ground.

Lu Yang chanted a spell.

“Summon the Blood God~!”

The dazzling red light suddenly shone through the entire underground world, and the ten-meter-tall Blood God appeared in front of Lu Yang, he said greedily, “I can hear the smell of blood from the voice of your summoning, tell me, you are ready to How many souls have come to sacrifice me in blood.”

Lu Yang pointed to the 320,000 dark demons behind him and said, “It’s all yours.”

“So many, have you defeated a group?” Blood God said with excitement and cruelty in his eyes, “You are really a good summoner. There has never been a creature willing to sacrifice my blood to so many creatures at one time.”

Lu Yang said, “Don’t forget what you promised me.”

“30,000 intelligent creatures are a monarch, and the blood **** has always been fair and just in doing business. I will give you blood cells.” The blood **** said arrogantly.

Lu Yang nodded, took out a sword from the Demon Temple, walked to the patriarch of the Dark Demon Race in person, and dragged him to the place of the sacrificial pit.

“Damn, you actually want to sacrifice us with blood, you don’t respect our traditions, I ask to return to the embrace of the dark god, you can’t turn me into a blood sacrificer.” The patriarch of the dark demons struggled desperately and roared Lu Yang sneered, pressed it in front of the summoning circle, and cut it into two pieces with one knife. The black blood in the dark demon was sprayed into the circle like spring water, and was absorbed by the blood god. into his world.

“Kill them all, leave none.” Lu Yang ordered loudly.

As the second batch of executors, the legion commanders such as the turbid wine and the white lion brought the elders of the dark demons to the summoning circle and hacked them to the ground.

Immediately afterwards, Pride Wanzong, De Bujushi and others, groups of soldiers from the Jagged Brotherhood, held the Dark Demon for blood sacrifice.

None of the more than 300,000 dark demons dared to resist, and the gap in strength made them unable to escape, let alone kill them, and could only wait for the coming of death with grief.

Looking at this scene, Lu Yang said loudly: "Brothers, think about the human beings when the other world just arrived. Only tens of millions of 8 billion people were slaughtered. Before they died, how desperate human beings were, how many The women and children of the family were killed in weeping and panic, these dark demons had a trace of pity, this is the beginning of our revenge, there are more races to be slaughtered by us, don't have any Pity, you pity them, the next person to die may be your relatives and the brothers by your side."

The last trace of unbearableness in the eyes of the more than 40,000 soldiers disappeared. They knew that Lu Yang was right. Since this is a war of death and death, they can only fight to the end.

"Kill~!" I don't know which soldier shouted, and countless people roared, grabbing batch after batch of dark demon blood sacrifices into the magic circle.

Chapter 2456: Prisoner stone shows its mighty power three full days.

It took three days to kill these 320,000 people. The location of the blood sacrifice magic circle can no longer be seen. When the number of deaths of the dark demons exceeds 100,000, the blood sacrifice magic circle absorbs blood faster than Lu. The killing speed on Yang's side has increased.

Fortunately, the blood sacrifice magic circle chose a low area next to the mine, and the black blood formed a black lake with the magic circle as the center.

The phantom of the Blood God floated above the black lake, looking down at Lu Yang, his eyes were full of excitement, he spread his wings and said arrogantly: "I am very satisfied with this blood sacrifice, according to the agreement, I should give you 10 Blood cell, this time I will send you one more, I hope next time, I can get more blood."

"Om~!"

Ten thumb-thick red blood cells floated up from the black lake and slowly came to Lu Yang with black blood ticking on them.

Lu Yang took ten red blood cells and said to the blood god, "The next call won't be too far away. I hope you can prepare more blood cells."

"Of course, I'm looking forward to it." The Blood God's expression was somewhat arrogant. After bowing slightly, he turned into a ray of light and flew into the black lake.

Lu Yang turned his head to look at Zhou Tianming beside him, and said, "Call the ready brothers over, they can improve their strength."

Zhou Tianming nodded, looked back at the brothers behind him, called eleven people, and said, "They are the first batch."

Lu Yang looked at these brothers, they were all old acquaintances, and their strength was at the demon level.

"Have you figured it out?" Lu Yang walked to the first person named Mei Cheng and asked again: "Eating this thing has a great negative effect, and it may not be a normal person for the rest of my life."

"I've figured it out." Mei Cheng laughed and said, "It's an extravagant hope to live in this troubled world. Seeing my brothers block the sword for me, I can't help, I can't stand it, I'd rather eat something wrong. Don't be a drag on your brothers."

Lu Yang patted his shoulder, handed the blood cell to him, and said, "Eat it and see."

Mei Cheng took the blood ball and ate it in one bite. In the next second, Mei Cheng's entire body turned blood red, and the terrifying magic patterns scurried across his body, as if it would cut his entire body apart.

"Ah~!"

Mei Cheng suddenly knelt on the ground and couldn't help crying out in pain. As a man, a full-blooded adult man, Lu Yang had never seen Mei Cheng cry out in pain for more than ten years. Eating this blood cell hurts like this, it can be seen how terrible the side effects of this blood cell are.

Zhuojiu wanted to summon the Holy Light, but was stopped by Malthus, and said with a wry smile: "In the future, you can't use the Holy Light to treat people who have used blood cells to treat their injuries. They have already been enchanted, and the Holy Light will only do double damage to them."

"This..." Turbid wine felt uncomfortable and at a loss.

Mei Cheng and the others used the blood cells for the sake of the brothers, or if there was a war in the future, they wanted to block the swords for the brothers, but they had no way to treat these brothers who used the blood cells. The brothers who said this were uncomfortable and didn't know what to do.

"It's okay, this is our resource." Mei Chengqiang resisted the pain and stood up from the ground with a grim expression.

In an instant, the terrifying fluctuation of the monarch-level junior radiated from Mei Cheng's body. He resisted the cold sweat and looked at Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and the others with a sinister smile and said, "Boss, I feel, My strength has risen to the monarch rank. This blood sphere is very special. It makes me feel that all spells hate me, but my blood and skin are also actively repelling elements. It seems that I am not so afraid of spells."

Malthus said: "In the future, all elemental spells will not cause too much damage to you. With your cultivation, you will even be immune to spells below the **** level, but at the same price, you will not be able to use them in the future. Any magic can only kill people with physical strength and blood will."

Blood Intent is the exclusive cultivation spell of the Blood God. It is a hostile energy between heaven and earth. It ignores the strength gap between human beings and the gods. Even the weakest Blood Intent warriors can cause damage to the gods.

Mei Cheng raised his arm, looked at the surging violent aura in his body, and pointed to a piece of Broken Star iron ore a hundred meters away.

“boom”

The hard ore was actually blown to pieces, Mei Cheng said excitedly: “It’s enough to be strong, I don’t care about the rest.”

The voice just fell.

Mei Cheng’s face suddenly became extremely violent. He looked at Lu Yang and stretched out his right hand, pointing at Lu Yang’s head.

“boom”

A ray of light shot out. Fortunately, the Void Shield automatically triggered the defense mechanism and took this move for granted, but Mei Cheng seemed to be crazy.

“Ah~! Hahaha! This body belongs to me.” A voice that did not belong to Mei Cheng came out of his throat.

Lu Yang and everyone present could hear clearly that it was the voice of an extraterritorial demon.

The Blazing Demon God snorted coldly and said, “Use the Prisoner Stone.”

Lu Yang made a move with his right hand, and the Prisoner Stone flew out of Bandarsburg and landed on Mei Cheng's side. He activated his magic power, and the Prisoner Stone instantly released a dazzling red light, and more than ten red chains flew out, knocking Mei Cheng out. firmly stuck on the rock.

"Om~!"

In the next second, Mei Cheng's body fell through the chains, but there was a soul with an extremely twisted face on the Prisoner Stone struggling desperately.

"God Prisoner Stone, God Prisoner Stone! How can you have an ancient artifact, God Prisoner Stone, ah~! Let me go, please let me go, I will never dare!" The extraterrestrial demons desperately wailed and begged for mercy.

Lu Yang sneered and said, "Since you want to be my brother's nourishment so much, then I will fulfill you."

With his right hand, he condensed the spell, turning the evil energy of the extraterrestrial demon into a ball of energy, which was poured into Mei Cheng's body.

Mei Cheng, who was originally a junior monarch, jumped into the middle stage of Chen Wei's monarch. The dazed Mei Cheng asked, "What's wrong with me?"

Zhou Tianming told Mei Cheng what happened and said, "You kid has a big luck."

Lu Yang said with a smile: "In the future, you don't have to worry about being invaded by extraterrestrial demons. As long as I am here and the Prisoner Stone is there, any extraterritorial demons will become your nourishment."

Mei Cheng and the others nodded excitedly.

Blazing Demon God and Malthus looked at each other, and both of them were a little emotional, and they communicated in their consciousness: "They are a bunch of idiots, they don't know what kind of

**** they have just experienced, if there is no prison stone, I'm not here. If you are around, anyone who is attacked by an extraterritorial demon will surely die."

Malthus said: "Indeed, these children are very lucky, Lu Yang's luck is also good, the prisoner's stone, you and I have never obtained such a treasure."

The Blazing Demon God nodded with emotion. If he hadn't been with Lu Yang, he would have been jealous of Lu Yang's good luck, and such a treasure could be obtained.

Chapter 2457: Orc City

Lu Yang didn't expect this matter to become so simple. Originally, according to his plan, once Mei Cheng and others who were using blood cells encountered a sneak attack by a demon of the heart, Lu Yang and the demon **** of blazing flames took action to help them suppress it, but no one could do it. Guarantee the time and place of the demon invasion.

If Lu Yang and the Blazing Demon God were not around, this matter would become troublesome, so Lu Yang wondered if he should keep them in Bandarsburg.

I didn't expect to find the tomb of the ancient gods this time, and get treasures like the prisoner stone, and creatures like the extraterrestrial demons will only make sneak attacks in the early stage of the cultivator's promotion of a rank, or when the cultivator's mentality has serious problems. At other times, a strong man other than the extraterritorial demons will be able to resist the attacks of the extraterritorial demons, so he would not dare to do it.

In this way, Mei Cheng and the others will be able to live normally with other brothers in the future, and there is no need to set up a separate residence.

Beside the Prisoner Stone.

After Lu Yang made sure that Mei Cheng was fine, Zhou Tianming asked a second person to come over. This person was called Ban Lei. After he took the blood cell and ate it, the process was the same as that of Mei Cheng. Devil's attack.

Lu Yang launched the Prisoner Stone to smash the soul of the extraterritorial demon, turned it into nutritional supplements and entered Ban Lei's body.

Next is the third person, the fourth person...

After the last Huo Yun was also promoted to the mid-monarch rank, Lu Yang looked at them with satisfaction and said, "Yes, although it looks a bit ugly, but the strength has improved a lot, and we can attack stronger groups."

Ban Chao, Huo Yun and others, everyone's skin is blood red, and there are black runes all over their faces and bodies, as if they are always telling everyone that this group of monarchs hate elements, or, look, look When they got to them, they knew that they were a group of warriors who were stared at by extraterritorial demons and could go crazy at any time.

"Boss, I can't suppress the killing intent in my body." Ban Chao said with some pain.

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and said, "Is the extraterritorial demon looking for you again?"

Ban Chao shook his head and said, "It's not an extraterrestrial demon, or the killing intent in the body, as if it were about to rush out."

The Blazing Demon God was a little emotional and said: "This is the second side effect of using the Blood God Orb. They can't control their killing intent. After the Blood God gives everyone who believes in him, the Blood God Orb will add a crazy energy that keeps them killing all the time, to sacrifice blood and life to him."

Lu Yang said: "It's easy to handle. Let's find a hostile race. If we become like this, we will specifically find these races to kill."

There are 11 more monarch ranks, enough for Lu Yang to find some more powerful groups to attack. He looked at the Zhuojiu and others around him, and said, "You are responsible for smelting these broken star iron ingots and making weapons as soon as possible. I'll go to the world around me to see if there are any suitable groups to attack."

“Yes.” Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others said in unison.

“Wait for my news.” Lu Yang waved his hand and took Mei Cheng, Huo Yun and others into the Void Hall. Then, he jumped into the air, quickly flew out of the underground world, and moved towards the south side of the dark woodland. flew over.

When he killed the demigod-level powerhouse of the Blade Demon Clan just now, he searched for the soul of the other party, and learned that there was a large city in a valley area 500 kilometers away from the dark woodland. fortress.

If the Dark Demon and the Jagged Brotherhood have a blood feud, the Orcs are the common enemy of the entire East China Sea. In terms of killing, the jackal-headed Orcs cause far more damage to humans than the Dark Demon.

All of Lu Yang’s brothers died at the hands of the jackal-headed orcs, especially those with the blood of the gods. Now that he has learned the ancient magic, he really wants to meet the lower-level **** of the jackal-headed orcs for a while.

“What else should I pay attention to when fighting against the lower gods?” Lu Yang cautiously discussed with the Blazing Flame God. He didn’t want to be slaughtered by the lower **** of the jackal-headed orc tribe with a big move.

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said: “According to the memory of the blade demon, this jackal-headed lower **** is at least 500,000 years old. For you, the devil’s body, 500,000 years is nothing, but for the jackal-headed orc It is said that it is already in his old age, if there is no better means of prolonging his life, his strength is estimated to be the lowest level of the lower gods, and it is very good not to fall to the quasi gods.

What you need to worry about more is the quasi-gods of the jackal-headed orcs. These quasi-gods with strong qi and blood are extremely fast, and you may suffer. ”

Races like the jackal-headed orcs are born to kill for food. Their movements are quick and ruthless, and they have no mercy for other races. Once they set their sights on their target, they will definitely hunt them down to the end.

Lu Yang said, "I will pay attention."

He deliberately slowed down the flight speed. In the area with trees, he flew close to the trees, and at the same time maximized his perception ability to prevent other creatures from attacking him.

more than an hour later.

Lu Yang flew out of the black forest. On a prairie, he saw a fortress made of red rocks from a distance.

It just so happened that the sun's rays came from the horizon and illuminated the castle. Like the dark satyr, the sun's rays here only had an hour's exposure time.

At this time, Lu Yang looked at the main city of the jackal-headed orcs again, and was surprised to find that there were countless orcs and people of various races waiting to open the door at the gate of the city, and among them there were creatures of the flame race.

He was a little curious and turned into a demon-level fire demon. He walked out of the woodland quickly, came to the vicinity of the city gate, walked to the tail of the team, and followed a group of fire demons and trolls in front of him into the city.

"What treasures did you bring, thanks to the protection of the Great God Karu, I must find some useful ones today." A fire demon said excitedly.

"Humph~!" The troll sneered and said a little unhappily: "That old immortal didn't go to the front line, instead of being ashamed, he was proud of it, and he started a business in the vicinity based on his identity, which is really a shame for the orcs. ."

"Don't say that, after all, this is a lower god, keep us safe Besides, it's good to say that your uncle has returned safely from the battlefield, otherwise, don't offend a lower **** easily." A harpy analyzed calmly.

Everyone came to their senses, and the Viscount was far away from this troll, for fear that the lower **** would hear their conversation, so as not to be troubled in the future.

“Will I be afraid of him?” The troll didn’t care about speaking ill of others at the door of other people’s houses.

Lu Yang felt that this person was very interesting, so he took the initiative to lean over and asked in a cliché: “This brother, even if the lower **** doesn’t kill you, his quasi-god descendants will trouble you.”

“I’m a quasi-god, do any of his descendants become quasi-gods? There are only three quasi-gods in total, or the lowest level. It’s ridiculous.” The troll was even more rampant, and even laughed.

With a smile on his lips, Lu Yang continued to chat with the troll, extracting the information he needed.

Chapter 2458: intense situation

After some conversations, Lu Yang realized why the quasi-god of the troll clan talked about the jackal-headed beast so much. It turned out that since the lower-level gods of their surrounding clans were all transferred to the front line to fight the chaos beasts, the jackal-headed beast has The **** Karu was a little off.

On the battlefield where the ancient beasts were fighting, the status of the lower gods was not as good as that of dogs, the middle gods were everywhere, and it was common for the upper gods to die five or six a day, and the main gods might not be able to come back alive. The lower gods of these races are dead.

Even if there are some who are not dead, they must have been severely damaged, and it is not certain whether they can keep the godhead of the lower gods. Therefore, Karl Wu began to order the jackal-headed tribes under his command to invade the surrounding races, expand their territory, and, Ask the surrounding tribes to secretly worship him.

The surrounding tribes dared not to speak out, but gradually, after the various tribes were linked together, they shared information and found that Karu’s strength was not that strong, so they decided to unite and ask Karu to end their oppression. .

“Today is the day of trading. Originally, several of our races had trading markets, and everyone took turns to hold them. Damn Karu, relying on him to be a lower god, threatened our races. Whoever dares to open the trading market, he does not guarantee that he will not make a sneak attack. , we can’t take it anymore.

Including the three quasi-gods of the ancient tree clan, Ati, Ruorings, and Lucat, the quasi-gods of the lava clan, Fein, Luo Li, and Araham, and a large number of quasi-gods from six or seven races have all rushed over. He negotiates. “Goering, the quasi-god of the troll race, said angrily.

Lu Yang understood that Karl Wu had touched the fundamental interests of the troll clan, the ancient tree clan and other groups with lower gods. As a result, they had to join forces to fight with Karl Wu.

He decided to add fire to these races and said: “Since you are quasi-gods, then you are the same as the acting patriarchs of all races. Karu dared to block the acting patriarchs of all races from the door. This kind of hospitality is I don’t look down on you at all.”

“I must kill him.” This is another reason for Goering’s rage. He is indeed the acting patriarch. It stands to reason that before the market opens, he should be qualified to enter and discuss with the patriarch of the jackal-headed orcs. Security issues with this transaction.

But Karwu completely ignored this rule that had been preserved for hundreds of thousands of years, and blatantly used his status as a lower **** to oppress all races to either obey or exterminate them!

“Don’t be impulsive, it’s almost at the door, it’s not good for them to hear.” Lu Yang pointed to the team that was only a few dozen meters ahead.

Goering couldn’t calm down at all. He glanced at Lu Yang contemptuously, and said, “A little fire demon is also qualified to teach me a lesson. Believe it or not, I killed you.”

“Uh...” Lu Yang was speechless and said, “When I didn’t say it, you are a quasi-god, and what you said is right.”

“Humph~!” The sharp claws in Goering’s palm were already stretched out, and his eyes were full of ice-cold staring at Lu Yang. Obviously, this was a sign that he was about to attack.

Lu Yang could not show his strength here, and quickly ran two steps to the side of the jackal-headed orc soldier guarding the gate, which made Goering unable to do anything for the time being.

“Go back to your team.” A jackal-headed orc warrior scolded Lu Yang.

Lu Yang quickly smiled, came to the orc warrior, secretly took out a piece of broken star iron and stuffed it into his hand, and said, “please make it easy, I was already in line at the door, but I went out to do some errands temporarily. It’s just coming back.”

The third-level broken star iron is not a rare material in this different world, but it is also a useful thing. The jackal-headed orc secretly glanced at it, put it away with satisfaction, and gave Lu Yang a waist card, saying: “Since If you have been in line, then go in and get your waist card, if you don’t have a waist card, it is equivalent to entering privately, and being known by the Great God Karu, you will be killed.”

“Thank you for reminding me, I will definitely abide by the rules.” Lu Yang nodded and bowed quickly, pretended to be weak and walked in. When he entered the city gate, he also looked back at the quasi-god of the troll clan, Goring, and found that the other party was still staring at himself with death.

“Is this troll sick in the head?” Lu Yang was a little speechless. Before, he communicated with races in other worlds, either fighting or surrendering, and no friend said anything.

I just communicated with Goering, and I felt that this quasi-god troll was not bad, like a man with a straightforward personality. I didn’t expect that this guy is actually a lunatic. Whoever talks to him will be unlucky.

It was the first time that the Blazing Demon God saw Lu Yang deflated, and he said with a smile: “This is the characteristic of races in different worlds, the eternal prey to the weak, you only show the level of fire demon, and the other party is a quasi-god, just like a lion in your world. Like the rabbit, does the lion need the rabbit’s advice?”

“It seems that my compassion is superfluous. The killing of more than 300,000 people before has had some impact on my heart.” Lu Yang said with a frown.

Blazing Demon God said: "This is unavoidable. As you kill more, this feeling will become stronger and stronger, and will eventually lead to a sneak attack from an extraterritorial demon. Often when this happens, the creatures of the gods belong to the race, There are gods who help to kill the extraterritorial demons, and those who don't have to rely on their own will to survive.

Those who have achieved results will become lone wolves, and may even become the strongest, but most of them have died, but in the same way, even if the strong of every race knows what the outcome of the killing is, they will not stop. Killing, this is the nature of the people of this world, and it is also the honor of this world.

If you can kill the other's patriarch, your race will make specimens of the other's patriarch's body and hang it in their honor room for later clansmen to pay their respects, you say, will you kill? "

Lu Yang sucked in a breath of air, since that's the case, the war between the other world and the earth is not because the gods want to destroy humans, but every race in the other world wants to slaughter human beings. to show their power.

"I know what to do, thank you." Lu Yang's willpower became firm again. If there is no enlightenment from the Blazing Demon God today, it won't be long before he will be attacked by an extraterrestrial demon.

The slaughter of 320,000 dark demons still has too much influence on him!

The Blazing Flame Demon God also sensed Lu Yang's problem, not only him, but also Zhuojiu and others had such problems more or less.

"I turned what just happened into an image, and help you enlighten these people of yours, otherwise, before you are promoted to God King, your subordinates will be crazy." Blazing Demon God entered Bandarsburg .

Lu Yang is grateful. If there is no Blazing Flame God, he really can't handle these things. After all, not everyone is a natural killer. Although he has done a good job with these brothers, he still hopes More brothers can survive and see the day of peace.

“Recruit warriors, you can join if you are above the spirit level and become a foreign warrior of our Bordu orcs. You can get 10,000 power stones every month.” A jackal-headed orc was shouting in the distance.

Bordu orcs, the original clan name of the jackal-headed orcs, Lu Yang walked over curiously and looked at the notice opened by his subordinates.

Lu Yang understands both languages. After reading the above content, it means that Karl Wu needs to recruit 10,000 mercenaries. The lowest level is Spirit level, the highest level is Quasi-God, and the salary given is normal mercenary salary. three times.

“It seems that this Karl Wu is not stupid. He knows that all ethnic groups will unite to deal with him.” Lu Yang sneered in his heart, which was in line with his idea of sneak attack.

After finding a place where no one was there, Lu Yang’s strength suddenly increased to the early stage of spiritual level, and he returned to the place where mercenaries were recruited, and said, “I am willing to join.”

“Early stage of spiritual level?” The jackal-headed warrior in charge of recruiting frowned and glanced at Lu Yang. After thinking about it, he said, “Okay, you can follow him to the side to get the clothes.”

A jackal-headed warrior walked up to Lu Yang, with a smile on the corner of his mouth, but how cruel he looked, he said, “Come with me, brother.”

Lu Yang was speechless for a while. On earth, he just talked like that. There is no good thing. The so-called laugh before you speak, and make out when you see a stranger. You are either looking for someone to take the blame or find someone to borrow money, sure. no good!

“This eldest brother, it’s fate to know him, and I’ll follow you in the future.” Lu Yang pretended to be fooled and said happily.

“It’s easy to say, easy to say, when there is no one in the future, you can call me Big Brother Belhu, and when there is someone, you can call me General Belhu, do you understand?” Belhu said proudly.

“Okay, big brother.” Lu Yang lowered his eyebrows and followed him to a military camp in the distance.

Chapter 2459: Temple Dinner

while on the road.

Lu Yang pretended to be curious and asked: “Brother Belhu, your ethnic group is already so powerful, why do you still recruit ordinary powerhouses like us?”

Belhu glanced at Lu Yang and thought with a sneer in his heart: I will tell you, did you recruit you to send you to death?

On the bright side, Bie Erhu showed a look of worship and said: “Our **** will lead us to fight in all directions, follow us well, and you will get something you never dared to think of in your life before.”

If he were an ordinary person, he might even think about it with excitement. Lu Yang immediately realized that the lower-level **** of the jackal-headed orc is playing a big game of chess.

If it was said that the lower gods of the surrounding races could not return and all died in the front line, Karu would lead the jackal-headed orcs to attack the surrounding races.

If the various clans cannot resist, they must recruit wandering powerhouses, but these powerhouses are already in the camp of the jackal-headed orcs. When attacking the various clans in the future, I am afraid that these powerhouses will be the vanguards.

Lu Yang looked to the left and right, and found that on the east side of the barracks, there was a luxurious building complex surrounded by various magic circles, with strong spiritual energy.

“What’s the place over there?” Lu Yang asked.

Beerhu was already a little impatient, and said: “That’s where the kings and monarchs live, how can you talk so much as a little spirit.”

“I’m not curious, so just ask.” The barracks were in front of him, so Lu Yang felt that he asked more, and said, “I just took a look. Except for a trade market in the southeast corner, why are the other areas all barracks? It seems that The trade market is surrounded by barracks.”

“That’s not what you should ask.” Berhu stared at Lu Yang fiercely, and said, “You are inquiring about the military situation, do you know the consequences?”

“Uh, I won’t ask.” Lu Yang felt that there was a problem, pretended to be frightened, but secretly glanced at the various areas carefully.

He thought that he had frightened Lu Yang, so he led him into the barracks, pointed to the innermost house on the first floor, and said, “You live here, rest today, and at night, our gods will Might meet you.”

Lu Yang looked at the situation in the room, there was only a skin bed and a table, nothing else, and said, “Okay, I won’t go out today, I’ll just wait here.”

Lu Yang secretly released his divine sense, he sensed at least three forces scanning him, a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, and he sat on the animal skin bed to rest.

After working hard for several days, he could finally rest. Lu Yang also wanted to have a good sleep. After all, he was safe in this place for the time being.

After careful confirmation by the monitoring personnel in the barracks, they found that Lu Yang’s strength was really at the primary level of the spiritual level.

Wait till evening.

Lu Yang woke up and looked outside the room. He had already entered the black area. He came out of the room and was about to go outside to have a look when the horn sounded in the barracks.

Belhu's huge figure ran over from a distance and shouted loudly: "There is a dinner party in the temple, all the warriors will follow me to the temple."

The doors in each room of the barracks opened, and hundreds of spirit-level powerhouses like Lu Yang came out, and on the second floor there were nearly a hundred lord-level powerhouses.

The undisciplined people walked to the square of the military camp in a sloppy manner, and Belhu scolded: "Everyone cheer up, you have a chance to see God, if God is angry with you, you will know the consequences."

Only then did everyone cheer up. After all, they were disrespectful to the gods, and they would not be pitied if they were killed, and no one would take revenge on them as a group of wandering strong people without ethnic groups.

Lu Yang was at the end of the team, just as he wanted to take this opportunity to observe Calu's strength, he followed the team out of the barracks and walked towards the palace in the center of the main city.

When passing by the villa area, it happened that more than a dozen kings and six monarchs came out, as well as two demigods and a quasi-god, with different races and strengths ranging from low-level to high-level.

This group of strong men just glanced at Lu Yang and the group of people with contempt, and walked to the front of the group. Beerhu didn't dare to be disrespectful to this group of people. Together with the team leader, they led the team through a barracks full of jackal-headed orcs and came to the gate of the temple.

“There are a lot of people at the banquet today. Please dine in the inner door area of the temple for the spiritual and lords. The kings and the monarchs will follow me to the living room of the temple.” Berhu said loudly.

People are meaningless.

In another world, strength is respected. Only the living room area of the temple can eat. The rest of the area is a more sacred place and cannot be eaten. Therefore, Lu Yang and the others, who are defined as low-level powerhouses, can only be inside the door. al fresco area for dining.

Lu Yang found a place and sat down at random. He was unwilling to communicate with other people, for fear of developing feelings. Once there was friendship, he was afraid that he would not be able to do it.

Fortunately, this group of people didn't want to communicate with Lu Yang. Most of them were creatures from other types, and only Lu Yang belonged to the fire type.

As soon as we settled down here, a large number of people came outside the gate of the temple. Accompanied by a group of quasi-god-level jackal-headed orcs, the quasi-god of the troll tribe who was going to kill Lu Yang during the day was also among them. The two looked at each other. Glancing at it, Goring's eyes suddenly showed a fierce light, but seeing the uniform on Lu Yang's body, he resisted the urge to kill.

A smile appeared at the corner of Lu Yang's mouth, and he continued to hide in the corner area, looking at the surrounding situation with cold eyes. At this time, he had probably understood it.

Today's banquet is the lower **** of the jackal-headed orcs, Karlu, showing off his force to the surrounding races.

The number of quasi-god-level jackal-headed orcs accompanying Goering and his party was no less than that of Goering's side, and with their mercenaries, they had already surpassed the strength of Goring's side. This was because he wanted to scare them away and not let them go. They shot.

But the more it is like this, the more it can explain one thing, that is that the beast **** with the head of the jackal has a guilty conscience. If he is really strong, today's dinner should be a Hongmen banquet, and Karl Wu should kill Goering and others on the spot. People, but Karl Wu chose to intimidate, it means that there is a problem with the Jackal Clan, either because Karl Wu himself has suffered a serious decline in strength, or there are signs of rebellion.

Lu Yang said to the Blazing Demon God, "Look, there must be a big show tonight."

The Blazing Demon God said excitedly: "My thoughts are the same as what you think, there must be something wrong with this jackal orc."

Lu Yang said with a smile, "It's a great improvement."

In terms of exercises, the Blazing Demon God is Lu Yang's teacher, and in terms of conspiracy, Lu Yang is the teacher of the Blazing Demon God, and now the Blazing Demon God is not too far away from leaving his apprenticeship.

"With you, it's hard not to learn badly. Do you want to find a chance later, let's take down Karu." Blazing Demon God asked excitedly.

With the ancient **** spell that Lu Yang has learned now, he is still 100% sure to kill Karu, but the premise is that all tribes will attack the jackal-headed orcs.

Lu Yang looked at Goering in the distance and said, "Let's see first, I feel like I have a chance tonight."

He couldn't wait to try the power of the ancient gods' spells, and he wanted to see how much he could improve by absorbing the energy of the lower gods.

Chapter 2460: final battle

"Goering, what are you trying to do? How dare you disrespect God!"

"Don't think we are afraid of you, we are here to seek justice today."

...

In the distant temple, it didn't take too long for a quarrel to be heard. He knew that Goering's hot temper could no longer be held back.

He looked left and right and found that everyone's eyes turned to the inside of the temple, and many people's consciousness was also detecting in that direction, but without exception, they were blocked by the defensive barrier of the temple and could not detect the situation inside. .

Lu Yangxue's secret method of divine consciousness was taught by the Blazing Demon God, and it was different from theirs. If he wanted to, he could detect the content of the conversation, but Lu Yang didn't choose to detect it. He was afraid that Karu had some special treasure to discover. he.

“Separate”

Lu Yang used the avatar to create a avatar that stayed in place. He took this opportunity to become a phoenix, but the phoenix was only the size of a child's palm. At the same time, he imprisoned all his power to Bandars. Inside the fort, make sure that from the outside, he is a wild flamingo of the first grade.

Fluttering his wings, Lu Yang flew into the living room of the temple. When he looked inside, he found that the current state of the two parties was more serious than what he heard outside.

The head of the troll clan, Goering, and the clan chiefs of the other five races, along with a dozen quasi-gods under their respective commanders, had already stood up and were confronting an aging jackal-headed orc sitting on a chair opposite.

This jackal-headed orc is Karu. The hair on his body has fallen off a lot, revealing the shriveled muscles on his body. He looks like an old man on the verge of death, but his eyes are extremely sharp, stopping more than a dozen quasi-gods in front of him. He stared at Goering and the others and said, “The sons step back, I will talk to them personally.”

“Father, are you going to take action?” The strongest quasi-god son at the head asked excitedly, and all the other quasi-god sons showed excitement.

“I haven’t been active for a long time.” Karu stood up, his huge body was more than three meters high, a black sword appeared in his right hand, and he looked at Goering and the others with a grin, and said, “I only give you two choices, or Surrender, or die!”

“Who are you frightening, we are ready to die when we come, and even if we die, we will pull your whole family.” Goering sneered, took out a horn and blew it.

“Wow~~~~~!”

“Wow~~~~~!”

“Wow~~~~~!”

...

With the sound of the horn, a dense and rhythmic drum sound suddenly sounded outside the whole city, which made the faces of Karu and all his sons change greatly.

“Death War Horn!” Karu stared at Goering and the clan chiefs beside him, and said in shock, “You dare to let your entire clan fight me to the death? Aren’t you afraid of being exterminated by me?”

The sound of the horns matched the drums outside the city, and the mournful sound of the horns outside the city, all of which proved that Goering and the others brought not only the merchant team, but also the soldiers of their entire clan. .

“It’s better to continue being bullied by you, it’s better to die like this.” A gray orc with a body like a bloated meat ball showed his butcher’s knife and roared: “My Laen family, Dalama, asks to duel with you!”

“Duel~!”

“Duel~!”

“Duel~!”

Goering and the others roared in unison, which made the Blazing Demon God hidden in Lu Yang's body smile, and said, “These orcs are quite smart, and use the Ryan tribe to counter Karu.”

It was the first time that Lu Yang saw the meatball-like race and asked, “Is it very strong?”

The Blazing Demon God said: “The biggest feature of this race is its strong ability to resist beatings and recover. When I was a lower god, I fought with a lower **** patriarch of the Ryan family. Even if I burn him with divine fire, this race can resist. If you live for a long time, if it is just a physical attack, Karu will definitely not kill him in the short term.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “If Karu agrees to a duel, then the warriors of the races such as Goering will fight, and their race will be finished.”

The Blazing Demon God said: “But he must accept the duel. The duel of the orcs is supreme, and it is a symbol of dignity. If Karu avoids, his reputation for fearing battles will spread throughout the orcs, and the jackal-headed orcs will never be able to lift them up. Start being a man.”

Lu Yang was a little interested. He wanted to know how this Karu would choose, but at this moment, a terrifying divine might burst out from Karu. That kind of unique ability of God made all the strong people present. He closed his mouth and could only resist with all his strength.

“Dalama, Goering...” Karu's voice was low, but everyone could hear it clearly, a long sword appeared in his right hand, and he said with a grinning smile: “If you want to challenge me, you have to pass first. Do you see the powerhouse I recruited for this level? If Dalamar can beat the Great Hammer, I will accept his challenge.”

Goering and the others looked in the direction of Karu's finger, and a ferocious orc strongman with a heavy hammer was sitting there. He was a mercenary recruited by Karu.

There are several other demigods sitting next to them, each of which is extremely powerful. At this time, they are all ready to fight.

"Dalama is still used to kill them? I'll do it." A black orc quasi-god behind Goering held an iron rod and charged towards the giant hammer.

Several other quasi-gods also launched an attack at the same time. For a time, the seats on the side of the mercenary group were in a mess, and several demigod-level mercenaries were involved.

Lu Yang said with a smile, "That's why I didn't reveal my full strength. If I were below, although I could get close to Karu, I'm afraid Karu would be used as cannon fodder now."

In a battle of this scale, there is one **** and more than 100 quasi-gods on both sides. If Lu Yang dares to reveal his strength, even if he has the means of immortality and nirvana, he will not be able to leave alive.

The Blazing Demon God said, "Why not talk about treacherousness or look at humans? Orcs can use Dalama to deal with Karu, which is already the limit."

on the scene.

Goering and the others were still facing Karu, and Dalama said with a sneer: "Kalu, you are a low-level god, don't you dare to fight me, a quasi-god? Aren't you afraid of being laughed at by all the orcs?"

"Hahahaha..." Goering and the others burst into laughter.

Karu was unmoved, and stopped the impulse of the quasi-god sons, saying: "Order, the first to the first legion will defend the city wall, and the fifth legion will kill all the aliens in the city, leaving no one behind."

“Yes.” Karu’s five sons nodded together, each giving orders, and for a while, shrill horns sounded all over the city.

Karu stared at Goering and the others and said, “Since you are ready to seek death, don’t blame me for being disrespectful, but I want to see how you quasi-gods fight against me, a lower god.”

Black light flickers.

Karu charged towards Goering with a black long sword. At the same time, his spirit locked on Goering and other six patriarchs, and they were oppressed and unable to move.

As if he was dying, Dalama stood in front of Goering and blocked Karu’s long sword with his bloated stomach.

If a strong person below the quasi-god blocked in this way, he would definitely die on the spot, but the quasi-god was different. The difference between the quasi-god and the lower **** was only a godhead, commonly known as the domain.

For example, the God of Power, his Godhead is power. When it is released, it becomes a gravitational field. All creatures in his domain will instantly feel the coercion of his power, causing them to move slowly.

Karu’s godhead is speed, and the jackal-headed orc’s unparalleled speed allows him to release the field, as if he has released a blinking technique, and can appear in front of any enemy at any time.

It’s a pity that a human shield quasi-god like Dalama is not afraid of Karu, he is here to resist, so he can block the attack for Goering.

“Kalwu, today is your day of death.” A strange blood-red short spear appeared in Goering’s hand, and at the moment when Karu stabbed Dalama, his blood-red short spear slammed into Karu’s. on the body.

“Ah~!”

Karu let out a scream, looked at the short spear nailed to his body, and shouted in horror: "Blood Spirit Spear, isn't this thing Picard's personal weapon? How could it be on you?"

"This was given to me by my father to protect the clan." Gorin roared, holding two short axes, and at the same time his mind controlled the Blood Spirit Spear to attack Karu.

Although Lu Yang didn't know what the Blood Spirit Spear was, he could see that Karu was injured, maybe not seriously, but he was indeed injured.

"You all have to die, all of you have to die." Karu went crazy, his body suddenly transformed into countless phantoms, and at the same time launched an attack on Green, Dalama, and dozens of quasi-gods.

The quasi-god on Goering's side became completely passive, but at this time, Karu's sons also participated in the attack.

Originally, Goering and the others were the one with the most people, but now they were suppressed and a one-to-two situation emerged.

Goering is the most difficult. He has to face the afterimages of six Karu at the same time. If it wasn't for the fact that Goering was a troll, and his shooting speed and reaction speed were extremely fast, he would not be able to stop Karu's attack at all. Everyone persevere, Karu's blood is exhausted, and we won't be able to hold on for too long. We must win. ' growled Goering.

"The big deal will perish together. If we can't win, our clansmen will also be slaughtered by him." Dalama, who had been chopped all over, shouted frantically.

"Roar~!"

The quasi-gods on Goering's side shouted and prepared to fight to the death, and Karu also became crazy, fighting the enemy to the death.

At this time, the area at the gate of the temple also began to fight, and Lu Yang's clone was blown up. He looked back and looked outside, where a large number of trolls and orcs of various races were fighting against the jackal-headed clan.

Lu Yang understood that none of the businessmen brought in by Goering and the others were real businessmen, all of them were high-level powerhouses.
