

Chapter 2521: All parties try

“Demigod~!” The Blazing Demon God looked at Zhou Tianming with emotion, and said, “I never imagined that there is really a living being that can do this.”

Lu Yang was a little surprised and asked, “Is there a problem?”

Malthus said: “Of course there is a problem. The path that Zhou Tianming took is a path that no creature in another world can take. It combines the negative emotions of various planes. Tell me, which creature in another world can do it. arrive.”

Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and the others shook their heads. They had come into contact with a lot of creatures from other worlds, at most some of them were cunning or clever in the eyes of humans, but when they encountered Zhou Tianming, who was full of resentment, Creatures from other worlds may lose their hearts on the spot.

“Will he be in danger?” Lu Yang asked.

The Blazing Demon God said: “Every step he takes in the future is dangerous, but your divine blood is in him, and when he goes mad below the level of a * king in the future, you can use that drop of divine blood to wake him up at any time, of course. , if he is promoted to the king of gods, your drop of divine blood will be useless.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Zhou Tianming can still be promoted to the king of gods, we never thought it would be that far.”

Malthus laughed and said: "In the future, the one of you who will be promoted the fastest in normal speed may be Zhou Tianming. He is now turning the body brought by the extraterritorial demon into a container, which is to absorb negative emotions. Negative emotions will be stored in that easy, and gradually turned into his nourishment.

Not to mention other areas, the grievances accumulated by the dead creatures on the earth are enough to make him hit the quasi-god realm, and it may even be the pinnacle of the quasi-god, and there is the original blood of the Blazing Demon God. It will go crazy, the most difficult level of the demigod is over, until the upper god, Zhou Tianming is a smooth road. "

Blazing Demon God said: "The strength is still tyrannical, and the same level is basically invincible. It is the bloodline of the Nightmare family, and it has the body of an extraterritorial demon. The grudges emanating from the battle with the enemy are enough to make the enemy crazy."

"I have a set of exercises that I learned in the tomb of an ancient god. It is just right for Zhou Tianming. It is called the funeral song of the underworld! There is only one ancient bell above the quasi-god rank. See if you can find it." Malthus said .

Lu Yang and the Blazing Demon God looked at each other, took out the big bell from the Jade Dream that woke up all the ancient chaotic beasts from the Demon God Temple, and said, "Is this okay?"

"Soul Soul Bell~!" Malthus's eyes widened in surprise. He took the big bell and dragged Zhou Tianming, who had just woken up, to the Void Hall.

"Hey, wait, boss, are you alright, let me say a few words." Zhou Tianming was stunned.

"What nonsense, how can there be that time, hurry up and study with me, it's only one day." Malthus scolded in a hateful tone.

Lu Yang laughed and said, "I'm fine, boss, I'm in good health, learn the funeral song of the underworld as soon as possible, war waits for no one."

"Okay, I will try my best, the boss and brothers wait for me." Zhou Tianming waved to Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and others, and entered the Void Hall to learn spells.

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile and returned to Bandarsburg with the turbid wine. He looked at them and said with firm eyes, "Bring the brothers out and take out all the weapons and equipment, and prepare for a decisive battle with the three-faced clan. ."

The high-level weapons and equipment from previous robberies were all hidden in the Devil's Temple. The Fire Bull brought flame tigers and black flames, as well as a large number of unconscious fire spirits, to forge these equipment every day.

The races in the other world are tall and tall, and even if human beings become creatures in the other world, they do not have that height, and every weapon needs to be modified.

Fortunately, there are not many places for refinement. As long as the handle of the long sword is changed to a smaller size, the problem of excessive length is not a big deal when facing the Three-faced Clan.

The three-faced clan is a pure magic race, and their melee combat strength is low. Even if humans use a long sword with a slightly different length to melee them, they can still gain enough advantages, not to mention that the main fighting clan of the three-faced clan lost 300,000 people. , 500,000 of the remaining 700,000 are seriously injured and can hardly participate in the battle. Only 200,000 people are slightly injured, but these 200,000 are also the weakest in combat. Now the Three-faced Clan can only rely on a large defense formation. support.

"Don't worry, boss, we promise to deliver all the weapons tonight." Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and others said together.

"I'll go outside to monitor, and I'll leave it to you here." Lu Yang's right hand flashed a burst of light. He opened the transmission channel between Bandarsburg and Baishan City. At the same time, he also opened the transmission between Bandarsburg and the Devil's Temple. aisle.

Zhuojiu and Baishi found a melee army, and they entered the Demon Temple in batches and began to carry weapons and equipment.

Algaia happened to bring the elf warriors to the palace area to carry meat. Seeing Lu Yang hurried over, he asked, "Boss, what else do you need me to do?"

Lu Yang said: "I'm looking for you, disarm the defensive circle, use the fog circle instead, and isolate all information from the outside world. You go to the temple and get in touch with all the magic fog trees. Once there is an alien creature approaching, you will be notified immediately. I."

"Yes." Algaia nodded vigorously, and issued an order to his subordinates to inform the residents of the city to stop providing magic power for the magic circle. He ran into the magic circle deep in the palace and sat down. This is what the Moon God taught the elves. Clan's new magic fog tree use method.

The previous Magic Mist Tree had no effect on races like Tallinn Ghost Mist. Now Luna has given an improved magic circle. Even if the Tallinn Ghost Mist of the monarchy comes in, it will be discovered by the mist and pass the message to Algaia. .

Lu Yang flew into the sky, sat cross-legged, closed his eyes, and activated his soul perception. His task was to find masters above the monarch rank to see if other races came to inquire about the news, If anything, he'll have to change his battle plan.

"Whoo~!"

A ray of light swept across the sky in the distance, and Lu Yang sensed that it was a demigod-level powerhouse, flying straight towards the direction of the Three-faced Clan camp.

Not long after, another ray of light streaked across the sky in the distance, and the second demigod-rank powerhouse flew over, followed by the third, fourth, and fifth rays of light.

Lu Yang couldn't sit still, but he didn't move rashly. He continued to stay where he was and pretended nothing had happened. He believed that the three-faced tribe's defense formation would definitely be able to block the attacks of other races.

2k novel

In this world, except for the human race, a creature that has experienced countless hardships in its life, any other creature will be trapped by the three-faced clan's inner magic formation.

After all, except for the Void Mother Insect, a creature that is not afraid of inner demons, any other strong person is worried that they will gradually lose their nature in this inner magic formation, and finally attract the attack of extraterritorial demons.

as predicted.

It didn't take five hours for the rays of light that flew towards the Three-faced Clan to fly back in the opposite direction, and there was Elvish language in one of the rays of light, and he said cursingly, "He came to help with good intentions, but he used his heart to demon. The big formation will deal with us, and the three-faced clan will fend for themselves."

"The three-faced tribe doesn't need your help, you can't let go." Gulisto's voice shook the sky and said, "If any other race dares to attack, don't blame me for inspiring the inner demon formation."

The five rays of light flickered in the air for a while, and then they flew faster. They didn't even have the idea of exploring the human area, and each flew in the direction of their ethnic group.

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief. Obviously, the powerhouses of these five races were intimidated. Then, it was time for him to debut!

Chapter 2522: opinionated

Temple of the Three-faced Tribe.

The beautiful palace that was once built under the guidance of Xue Renyi, now only a wreckage remains. The second elder of the Three Faces, Domingo, and the third elders, Elvis, Gulisto, and others sat grimacingly. together.

“Damn, see our weak strength, any race wants to take the opportunity to plunder us, I want to kill them.” Gulisto’s furious whole body spurted magic power, his arm hadn’t grown yet, the power of the void at the fractured shoulder Still exist.

With his only good face left, Domingo stared at Gulisto and said, “Shut up, we can’t beat any * race now, we are too weak, within ten years, no clan will be allowed to Going out, I will use all the remaining source soul crystals to activate the heart magic circle, let it reach the peak of the median god, and try to overcome this difficulty.”

Gulisto’s eyes widened and he said excitedly, “Then how do we recover our bodies and how do we cultivate? Ten years later, the gods invaded, how did we fight.”

“Humph!” Elvis snorted coldly, stared at Gulisto and said, “The top training materials are in your father’s hands, even if you don’t use the existing materials, you think the second one of us can be promoted. To the next god?”

“Bastard!” Gulisto was furious and scolded: “What does it have to do with me when he disappears, let me tell you, Olakag will no longer have a father-son relationship with me, and who will dare to use yin and yang in front of me from now on? “Ola Kaig, don’t blame me for launching a death duel against him!”

After this battle, Gulisto’s father, the first elder of the Three-faced tribe, Olakag, still did not show up. All the elders of the Three-faced tribe believed that Olakag was with the family. The top training materials escaped, which filled their hearts with anger, and even vented all their anger on Gulisto.

Elvis and the other living elders were not afraid of Gulisto’s challenge at all, and they all stood up in anger and looked directly at Gulisto, with the meaning of accepting the challenge.

“Enough!” Second Elder Domingo roared sadly when he saw this scene, and said, “Isn’t the death of the three-faced clan not enough? Do you really want to watch our three-faced clan be exterminated? Give it all to me. Sit down, I have a way to save the race!”

“What way?” Elvis frowned and asked: “If no one in the family can become a god, our race will be wiped out by other * races sooner or later.”

“Hey! That’s not necessarily!” Domingo said with a grim look on his face, “What is the reason for the major races of gods to be in a hurry to become gods, isn’t it just to prevent a lower * from coming to the world in the future and liquidating us? We can use this to threaten them.”

“Can we threaten other races?” Elvis said with a sneer, “They don’t come to threaten us, they are all protected by the formation.”

Domingo didn’t worry when he saw the expressions of disbelief on the faces of Elvis and others, and said with a sneer, “It’s because of the protection of the formation that I can threaten them. Have you ever thought about it? Human beings are all arrested and threatened with their life source. If we don’t give us materials, we will kill these tens of millions of human races, open the passage of time and space with their life source, and ask the gods to come into the world. Do you think they will cultivate for us? supplies.”

The eyes of the six elders, including Elvis and Gulisto, lit up. This world cannot come to the gods of the lower gods. The reason is that the human beings who have the origin of this world have not encountered large-scale sacrifices.

Now the tens of millions of people in the East China Sea are in front of you, and killing them is enough to open a space-time channel for the passage of the lower gods.

The major races of the gods are all traitors to the gods, and the gods of other worlds must order their lower gods to slaughter them in the most cruel way. Therefore, humans are the biggest weakness of all gods.

Gulisto’s whole body energy surged with excitement, waving his staff and said, “I’m going to talk about all humans being caught now.”

“No!” Domingo raised his staff to stop Gulisto and said, “I can’t go now.”

“You, you also suspect that I am with Olakag!” Gulisto changed his angry face excitedly.

Domingo sighed, shook his head and said, "I have never doubted your loyalty to the Three-faced Race, and I am not letting you go now because I am worried that there are other races of gods around to investigate our situation, you are now How can you beat the demigods of other races, and besides, humans also have demigods, their war with the Void Mother Worm may have just ended, and their anger towards us is raging, what should I do if they resist desperately?"

Gulisto then reacted, knelt on one knee in front of Go Domingo, and said, "Thank you for your trust, I would like to recommend you as the new patriarch and chief elder."

Elvis and other elders also agreed with Domingo's emergency response, and they all knelt on the ground and said, "I would like to follow you as the new patriarch and great elder!"

Domingo laughed and accepted the position, with a cold chill in his eyes, and said, "Although we promised Fu Yun not to kill humans, it was based on the premise of our safety. Now that we can't protect ourselves, we should not Care about those contracts, five days later, our army of 200,000 people will gather to raid the East China Sea human race, leaving only one million people to open the space-time channel, and the rest will be killed, not a single one will be left."

"Yes!" Gulisto, Elvis and others showed a frenzy in their eyes. In the three-faced family's masks, each has a killing face, but they want to form a killing The face has to be killed. In the war with the Void Zerg, the killing face of the vast majority of the three-faced clan was destroyed, just by killing humans to rebuild their killing face.

Domingo stood up and said, "Gulisto, Elvis, you two lead your men to send all the training resources to the operation center of the Heart Magic Array, and then go to the lake and enter a deep sleep state with me."

"Yes!" Gulisto and Elvis shook their heads again, looked at each other, and went to get the high-level origin soul crystal together.

Domingo stood up, leaning on his wand, and came to the big lake in the middle of the camp, found an open space and sat down.

The woodland area around the Great Lake is already full of severely injured people of the Three-faced tribe, because the bottom of the lake is the area where the Three-faced tribe transformed the human world. Abundant magical energy from another world poured out from the lake, and was quickly absorbed by the Three-faced tribe. of repairing the body.

“All the tribesmen slept deeply for five days. After five days, we attacked humans to repair their bodies.” After Domingo gave the order, the only face separated from the middle and suddenly expanded, wrapping the whole head, making the head look like Like a marinated egg.

This is the talent recovery spell of the three-faced tribe. In this situation, the body can be recovered at a speed ten times of normal rest, but the disadvantage is that once this trick is used, it will not be able to wake up, unless it is severely injured or the set time is up. wake up.

The 200,000 people did not dare to fall into such a deep sleep, but when they saw that Domingo fell into a deep sleep, and the heart magic circle in the sky opened to the maximum, they also calmed down and covered their heads with their faces. , begin full recovery.

Chapter 2523: Arrive at the mountain gate

Lu Yang didn't know the situation in the Three-faced clan. Every day he watched the demigods and quasi-gods flying around in the sky from the major gods. They were excited when they came, and cursed when they left. of.

This kind of mental magic circle, the stronger the strength, the more afraid, so everyone ran away without caring about the situation on Lu Yang's side.

After Lu Yang waited for a day, Zhou Tianming returned from the Void Hall, holding a soul knife and meeting with more than 3,000 blood spirit guards.

In the early morning of the next day, Liu Ruohuai and Telunda led five thousand dragon orcs to arrive. Liu Ruohuai reached the peak of the monarchy, and was one step away from the demigod.

The Holy Light Warrior Corps of Turbid Wine, the Orc Warrior Corps and Ghost Face Roar Corps of the White Lion, the Mixed Mage Corps of Luo Siyu, the Pluto Suppression and the Poison Arrow Archers Corps of Jin Buhuan, the Void Warrior Corps of Xia Yuwei, and the Wood of Debu Tasting Corpse All the legions, including the Mage Corps, were also fully prepared for battle.

late at night.

After confirming that none of the gods belonged to the race to investigate again, Lu Yang looked at the 100,000 army standing in front of the gate of Baishan City and said, "This is the best time for us to eliminate the three-faced tribe, let them survive, we are the ones who die. , everyone is ready to not come back, and go with me!"

"Bang~!"

The 100,000 army hammered the chest with their right hand, and looked at Lu Yang with firm eyes. They had been waiting for this moment for a long time. The days of being threatened at this moment are long enough. They would rather die with the enemy than do any more. one day.

"Let's go." Lu Yang turned around and walked towards the Three-faced Clan's camp first.

The 100,000 army followed behind Lu Yang, like 100,000 ghosts from hell, except for the sound of people and horses stepping on the grass, there was no sound.

Malthus and the Blazing Demon God, who sensed the enemy in the air, looked at the determined expressions of these warriors, and even if it was not the first time they saw it, they were once again shocked.

"There are so many masters of the monarchy who let them die like this, but none of them flinched. Most of them still have the idea of death battle. It's incredible." Malthus said with emotion.

There is no such war in another world. If it is in another world, even if the three-faced race is already weak to such a degree, the surrounding weak races will not have any idea of resistance, and will still cowardly make offerings and play the role of slaves. .

Unless the surrounding weak races suddenly become stronger than the three-faced clan, or the overall strength of the ethnic group exceeds that of the three-faced clan, they will choose war, and the victory is also negotiated first, and then the strong one is selected to fight one-on-one, like humans. There is no such thing as an all-out war for the weak to challenge the strong.

This is different from the war between the three-faced clan and the Void Zerg. The reason why the three-faced clan fought to the death is that the Void Zerg had already surrounded them, and they fought to the death only when they could not escape. If they could escape, the three-faced clan would fight to the death. Warriors will never fight against the Void Zerg.

Human beings are different. They still choose to fight to the death even when they know that the Three-faced Clan still has 200,000 powerful monarchs who can fight. Instead of fearing the power of the enemy, they flee and hide in the mountains to continue their cultivation. This is what they see. to come is incredible.

“Cultivation to the monarch rank means that they have a life span of more than a thousand years, and it means that they have the possibility of becoming a demigod or even a god, but they still choose to engage in a large-corps-style life-and-death battle with powerful enemies. What a good character!” The demon sighed.

Malthus said: “The key is that they will actively choose to block the sword for their comrades even when they know they are dead. Obviously, this is not because of Lu Yang’s order, but their innate quality. I bet that the human race will definitely be this time. win.”

The Blazing Demon God nodded. He wanted to see how Lu Yang would direct the war. After confirming that there were no enemies around, he flew forward, and Malthus followed.

From Baishan City to the area of the Three-faced Clan, if you walk from the ground, it will only take 12 hours in total. If it is transformed into a 100-meter-high demon-level state, it will only take three hours to reach it, but that state consumes magic power. The speed is too fast, and it is easy to be discovered by the enemy, so Lu Yang chose to run over from the ground.

But this kind of running is not all about legs. From the last time Lu Yang led the army to invade another world, to the eradication of the dragon orc army, Lu Yang got a total of about 2,000 earth-walking dragons from the races of the other world.

The elves also provided a large number of spirit deer mounts, plus the Fire Crow Legion and the Fire Lion Legion that the Jagged Brothers had already had, all of which were extremely fast mounts. Running at full speed, it only takes three hours to arrive.

When the human race was marching at full speed, on the other side, in the camp of the three-faced tribe, 200,000 three-faced tribesmen were recovering their physical wounds at a speed visible to the naked eye.

In the face of the magic elements gushing out from the other world, their magic power is recovering at an extremely fast speed, which gives them enough magic power to offset the void power left by the Void Zerg on their wounds.

Gulisto had just let the small piece of void power at the fracture of his shoulder dissipate, and he couldn't wait to let that small area grow granulation, which gradually turned into a whole arm, but most of the area at the fracture was empty. The force has not completely dissipated, and the arm cannot be docked. Seeing that only a small area is connected, it is impossible to exert force.

The other two faces of the new Great Elder Domingo also gradually formed in the eggshell of his face, but the face was expressionless and had not been endowed with magic power.

Among the six elders of the three-faced clan who survived the battle, the twelfth elder suffered the least damage, only one of the three faces was damaged, and all limbs were intact. The consumption of mana is too high, so he is in charge of the security work for these five days. The main purpose is to defend against some overly powerful other divine race powerhouses. As for human beings, he doesn't take it seriously.

One hundred three-faced monarchs who were on duty followed behind Bi Siming, which made Bi Siming feel very irritable.

"Go to the camp and stare around, don't bother me here." Bi Siming left a sentence, and flew to the guardian mountain in the center of the lake, sat down and recovered his magic power.

This is the peculiarity of different world races. The strong are unwilling to let the weak follow. In his opinion, he has no reason to protect these hundred monarchs. As for ordering these subordinates, his purpose is to become a god. It's not to hold power, to do what his subordinates do, and to create a bunch of slaves to be more obedient than these monarchs.

The powerhouses of the monarch rank are also unwilling to serve Bi Siming. Originally, they were willing to stay in the clan because of the cultivation resources in the clan. Now the resources are used for the defense of the mountain, they can still be obedient. , because Domingo said that he could threaten other races to obtain resources, otherwise, they would have left long ago.

As the Blazing Demon God said, the monarch has a lifespan of more than a thousand years, and finding a quiet place to practice is better than staying here for the moment.

One hundred monarch-level powerhouses left and came to the surrounding area. They did not monitor the area outside the camp according to Bi Siming's request, and each found a place to rest.

Lu Yang was afraid that the enemy's clansmen would be sending sentries outside the camp, so he deliberately brought Zhuojiu and others to look for these sentries, but when he came outside the camp, he found that not a single enemy could sense it.

"So arrogant?" Lu Yang said with a sneer.

"Not only arrogant, but also very stupid." Malthus flew out of the turbid wine, looked at Lu Yang with excitement and said, "Boy, your luck is here."

"All Worlds"

"What's wrong?" Lu Yang asked.

Malthus said: "There is a problem with this mountain defense formation, and the three-faced clan has opened to the maximum."

"Is this luck?" Lu Yang asked speechlessly.

“Listen to me.” Malthus was very proud and said, “I have traveled to the Three-faced Clan and know the characteristics of their race. Once they fully operate the Inner Demon Formation, it means that they will enter a deep sleep to recover.”

Lu Yang was a little surprised, but when he listened to the deep sleep explained by Malthus, he couldn't calm down at all, and the whole person became excited and said, “Let's go in and have a look.”

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi, Xia Yuwei, Zhou Tianming, and Kuai Ai Ban Sheng Yi followed Lu Yang into the mountain guarding formation of the Three Faces Clan.

Chapter 2524: Zhou Tianming kills the quasi-god in an instant

Under the darkness of the night, in the mist that filled the sky, a copper bell hung over the heads of Lu Yang and others.

Every time Lu Yang took a step, he made a footprint on the ground and made a unique mark. The compass cannot be used here, and the satellite navigation cannot penetrate the fog. Ordinary strong people enter the fog, not to mention being tempted. Demon, you can't even go out, but this foggy formation has a weakness.

The central area of the fog is the strongest area of the inner demon formation. This is used for the strong. If there is a strong man above the demigod level who wants to attack the urban area of the three-faced tribe, he has to go to the center of the formation. But the closer they are to the central area, the more they will be affected by the magic circle there, which will reduce their combat power.

It's a pity that this formation met Lu Yang and his group of humans, and there was a soul-suppressing bell on the top of his head to protect him. Zhou Tianming could easily feel the location of the central area of the formation. They only used Lu Yang and Zhuojiu. It took half an hour to penetrate the inner demon formation and came to the lake area.

After the fog cleared, the scene of the 500,000-strong three-faced clan with their heads wrapped around their heads sitting peacefully by the lake cultivating, shocked Lu Yang and Zhuojiu.

The sweat on Lu Yang's forehead fell. The route he asked Zhou Tianming to choose did not go straight to the central area of the mountain guarding formation, but went straight to the lakeside area according to the route drawn by Xue Renyi before.

In the middle of the night, the lakeside area should be the place where no one stays, but he did not expect that the bottom of the lake was transformed by the Three-faced tribe into a passage connecting to another world. The half-million three-faced tribesmen are all like Malthus said. In the same way, recovering the body here is still in a deep sleep state.

"Are they really not going to wake up?" Lu Yang asked.

Malthus flew out of the turbid wine and said, "Don't worry, absolutely not, he won't wake up if you kick him. It is estimated that he will know who killed him before he dies."

Blazing Demon God suddenly said: "Be careful, there are enemies coming."

As soon as the words fell, a black shadow suddenly appeared in the sky above Lu Yang and others, and Bi Siming, the twelfth elder of the Three-faced Clan, said with a sneer: "Isn't this a human? It can break through our inner demon formation, You guys are really strong."

Lu Yang didn't know Bi Siming, but he could sense that Bi Siming's strength was a quasi-god rank, and he was a master of fire, thunder, and earth cultivators. He turned his head and glanced at Zhou Tianming, and said, "Let me See your strength at the demigod level."

The corners of Zhou Tianming's mouth rose slightly, and the soul-suppressing bell flew to the top of his head with his right hand, and the bell's mouth was aimed at Bi Siming.

"Buzz!"

The copper bell made a strange sound. Before Bi Siming could react, his eyes turned white, and he fell from the air to the ground and passed out. Zhou Tianming threw out the soul knife in his right hand and cut off Bi Siming's head.

“It’s over?” Lu Yang asked in surprise.

Zhou Tianming’s face turned pale for a while, and said: “It’s over, my body is the body of the extraterritorial demon, the Nightmare clan’s talent spells and the extraterrestrial demon talent and spells attack together, and this soul-suppressing bell is an ancient artifact, I also used you. The six median god-level magic crystals given to me, it’s too easy to kill him in one hit.”

“Well done, I’m really curious, why didn’t this three-faced clan elder wake up the others, is he arrogant enough to think that he can easily kill us?” Lu Yang’s curious right hand threw a red flame, and threw Bi Siming’s The body burned into red flame crystal.

“The inherent arrogance of you humans made him pay the price.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang smiled, looked at Zhuojiu, Zhou Tianming, and the others, and said, “Let these enemies pay a higher price. Let’s go back the same way, and it’s time for our brothers to arrive.”

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others nodded, and followed Lu Yang into the inner demon formation. When they were out, they happened to be in the area 100 meters outside the fog and saw De Buchan’s Corpse, Liu Ruohuai, and the Pluto King.

“Boss, the brothers are here, and they are hiding in the forest.” De Buchan’s body pointed to the dense forest behind him.

“Xue Lingwei first come in with me, and when we break the Heart Magic Array, you can come in again.” Lu Yang said.

Not every human being can withstand the Heart Magic Array. Only people with near-perfect minds like Lu Yang and Zhuojiu can resist it. De Buchan Corpse and Pluto Suppression are still slightly worse. It can be done by maintaining their own heart, but their strength cannot be fully exerted. Let them walk through the magic circle, and the price is that the general magic power is spent on fighting the inner demon, which is not suitable.

The blood spirit guards are different from them. Although the more than 3,000 blood spirit guards will lose their nature when they enter the heart magic circle, they are in Zhou Tianming's dream before they enter, and they will not be affected by the heart magic circle.

In fact, this is similar to a scam. Zhou Tianming used his extraterrestrial demon body to deceive other extraterritorial demons, as if to tell them that these human beings have been controlled by him, and other extraterritorial demons should not be robbed.

The extraterritorial demons do not fight with each other, so other extraterritorial demons will not invade the Blood Spirit Guard controlled by Zhou Tianming.

"The Blood Spirit Guard is ready." Xiao Liang, as the commander of the Blood Spirit Guard, came to Lu Yang and Zhou Tianming. Even in the area 100 meters outside the fog, the energy of the Heart Magic Array fluctuated. . uukanshu.com still let Xiao Liang and other Xue Lingwei surging.

"Starry Array, get up!" Zhou Tianming waved his right hand, and the six median * magic crystals in his chest glowed, and more than 3,000 blood spirit guards fell into a dream instantly. influence.

Xiao Liang's face became obviously calm, and the more than 3,000 Blood Spirit Guards hiding in the forest also stood up one after another.

"Boss, it's alright." Zhou Tianming said to Lu Yang.

"Let's go." Lu Yang turned and walked into the mist.

Zhou Tianming followed closely and gave his name in the illusion. More than 3,000 Blood Spirit Guards marched in neat steps, and entered the inner demon formation together with him and Lu Yang.

The full release of the demon formation made Lu Yang, who entered the second time, feel uncomfortable. The voices of ghosts and wolves kept ringing in his ears, and the expressions of the three thousand blood spirits kept changing back and forth between anger and calm. .

Every step Zhou Tianming takes, he seems to be using all his strength, bringing more than 3,000 brothers to the heart-piercing magic circle, and always maintaining the illusion of such a huge number of people, even if there are starry magic circles and six median gods. With the help of the magic crystal, Zhou Tianming's soul is still under a huge load.

A mouthful of blood spurted out of Zhou Tianming's mouth. Before Lu Yang could ask, Zhou Tianming said, “I'm fine, I'm about to pass through the fog. I can hold on.”

Lu Yang introduced pure source energy into Zhou Tianming's body to help him share the pressure. The two moved forward simultaneously. After half an hour, they finally penetrated the heart magic circle again. Similarly, three thousand blood spirit guards It also penetrated the heart magic circle.

In an instant, Zhou Tianming lifted the illusion, and each of the blood spirit guards raised their two-handed swords when they saw the three-faced strongmen sitting cross-legged on the ground in front of them.

Chapter 2526: the price of arrogance

Just as Lu Yang and Zhou Tianming were in a bitter battle, there was a piercing sound of breaking the air in the distance, and tens of thousands of sharp arrows with white tips flew over. Above the arrow tips, there was a strange purple-black light. .

The sound of arrows piercing the armor and then piercing the flesh is incessant. Countless three-faced powerhouses flying in the air looked at the arrows piercing their chests in disbelief. One of them pulled the arrows out and saw that the arrows were blank. expression.

“Dragon bone arrow, no wonder, no wonder, but why? Why do human beings have the most cherished dragon bone arrow?” Before the three-faced strongman could react, his body had turned purple-black.

The poison of the arrow was researched by Old Jones, the shadow snake clan elder that Lu Yang rescued from the Tearless Camp. After Jin Buhuan became his apprentice, he learned this formula and used it in the dragon orc warehouse. Poisons made from carried plants.

How did the monarchs of the Three-faced clan know that the human race had so many means? The first wave of arrows killed thousands of the three-faced clansmen, and the rest of the 100,000 people who were frightened hurriedly fell into the distance without redness. on the foggy ground.

“Dragon orc army, kill it!” Liu Ruohuai’s roar came from not far away.

Five thousand dragon orc warriors held keel guns and rode on the monarch’s terraces, madly rushing towards the more than 100,000 three-faced powerhouses.

“Dragon, dragon orcs? How did they mix with humans?” The three-faced clansmen were stunned, but a few of the three-faced clansmen responded.

“Something’s wrong, this is not a dragon orc! This is a dragon orc that a human has become. Damn, the dragon orc was killed by a human and plundered the blood of the dragon orc. Look at their size, it’s the size of a human.”

Countless three-faced clansmen looked intently, only to find that the dragon orc warriors rushing over in the night were a little smaller than normal dragon orcs. The first quarter moon of silver light means that they have all evolved into silver moon dragon orcs!

Silver Moon Dragon Orc, under the illumination of the moonlight at night, the strength has increased by more than 30. Now every Silver Moon Dragon Orc in the early stage of the monarchy is almost the combat power of the middle stage of the monarchy.

“Stop them with earth magic, don’t let them approach.” The powerhouses in the three-faced clan roared loudly.

Tens of thousands of three-faced clan mages who knew earth spells read out magic at almost the same time.

“Earth Dragon Technique!”

On the land in front of the dragon orc army charging, tens of thousands of mud-like giant dragons suddenly emerged, carrying hundreds of tons of earth and crashing into the dragon orc army.

“Earth Xinglong, jump!” Liu Ruohuai rushed to the front and gave an order with a loud roar. The two hind legs of the ground Xinglong stomped on the ground while running, and jumped to a height of 100 meters, easily dodging the earth dragon. At the same time as the attack, he also jumped into the mage group of the three-faced tribe.

“Give me death!” Liu Ruohuai’s keel spear stabbed in all directions, and every blow was accompanied by a violent tearing force, and every three-faced strongman who was stabbed was torn apart on the spot!

The powerhouses of the three-faced clan have not yet realized that humans are no longer a race they can fight. Facing the death of their clansmen, in their rage, they wanted to release magic against Liu Ruohuai, but they did not wait for their spells to hit. When they came out, more dragon orcs jumped into the lineup of the three-faced tribe on the ground.

The two sides fought hard together. The mages of the three-faced tribe thought they were strong, but when they fought, they discovered that there was almost no difference between humans with dragon orc blood and dragon orcs themselves.

The characteristics of dragon orcs are that the dragon skin and scales have great resistance to magic. When the magic of various lines hits Liu Ruohuai and other dragon orc warriors, it can hardly cause much damage. Anti-mountain doesn't do much damage either.

If you want to attack with high-damage spells, you can't use it at such a close distance, so that the three-faced monarch-level powerhouse of hundreds of thousands of people is disrupted by the formation of 5,000 dragon orc warriors.

The three-faced strong man who was furious and wanted to fly into the air was instantly shot to the ground by countless arrows, because the archers who shot the arrows were the archers of the Hell King, and they who possessed the strength of the lords were pulled away by the dragon. The keel bow in the orc treasury has extremely powerful arrows. If the arrow does not hit the target, the arrow will fly several kilometers away before exhausting, so there is no case of hurting one's own people.

This made the remaining 100,000 three-faced warriors bewildered. Now they only have three choices. One is to crash into the blood mist and fight against the Blood Spirit Guards. The second is to fight the dragon orc army desperately.

These two paths required them to pay a great price, so they chose the third path. I don't know who started first. The monarch-level powerhouses of the three-faced clan secretly started to escape!

Hundreds of thousands of clansmen fled for their lives in such a sloppy manner, which made Zhuojiu, Bai Shi, Liu Ruohuai and others all stunned.

"This, this will collapse?" Liu Ruohuai said in disbelief.

"Catch up with them and leave none of them." Lu Yang's voice came from the air. He couldn't leave a single one alive. They were all of the monarch rank. Once they escaped, there would be a huge hidden danger to the human race.

"Dragon orc army, kill me!" Liu Ruohuai roared and rushed out with an army of five thousand dragon orcs.

In the battle just now, none of the dragon orcs died in the battle, and their powerful strength allowed them to kill countless three-faced mages in a melee combat process.

Seeing this scene, Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others had to admit that the dragon orc army was too powerful, but they didn't want to just watch it.

"The Holy Light Warrior Legion, block the enemy's right side, and don't let them run away." Doujiu shouted.

"Ghost-faced roar army, our single strength is stronger than the dragon orcs, we can't lose to them, kill!" The white lion roared, transformed into the ghost-faced roar form, and jumped into the three-faced clan with 108 ghost-faced roars among the fleeing army.

Xia Yuwei and the 3000 Void Warriors even activated the space jump ability, constantly chasing and killing the three-faced powerhouses who wanted to hide.

The chase lasted a whole day and night, and in the end, the remaining hundreds of thousands of people from the Three Faces were all slaughtered, and none of them went to other races alive to report the news.

When Lu Yang ordered the legions to return to the Three-faced Clan camp, huge cheers resounded in the wilderness. One hundred thousand soldiers went out to fight against two hundred thousand monarchs. The loss was less than 500 people. They dared not to dare. Believe it is true.

The turbid wine and the white lion also felt a trance for a while. Once upon a time, human beings had to be cautious when facing red and green skins such as the Sigmar and the Grand Clan, but today, human beings have destroyed a powerful monarch with millions of monarchs. Race.

Although this is not a war that is purely won with strength, it is already very powerful. Lu Yang first killed the dragon orcs with a conspiracy, and then used the treasures and blood in their warehouse to strengthen himself, and then attracted the Void Mother Worm to attack the three The face clan camp caused heavy losses to the three-face clan. In the end, Lu Yang brought the strength of the entire Jagged Brotherhood to give the three-face clan a final blow. This proves that Lu Yang used his own resourcefulness and the desperate help of his brothers to have a showdown. God's racial power.

“The team is not resting, and the whole army turns around. We will start attacking the ghost-faced clan today.” Lu Yang decided to strike while the iron was hot and wiped out the ghost-faced clan!

Chapter 2527: The misery of ghosts

This is the name Lu Yang gave to the ghost-faced camp. Compared with the dragon beasts who entered Bandarsburg and was ambushed as soon as they arrived, the three-faced tribe hurriedly built a camp by the lake. The location the ghost-faced tribe looked for was The best, they are also the most prepared.

In the middle of the Songhua River, in an area called Tianze Lake, they used their own tree species, the Ghost King Tree, to turn the surrounding area into a ghostly atmosphere. The houses they built were also made of this special wood.

Lu Yang brought an army of 100,000 troops to the outside of this ghost town's grand formation. He led Zhuojiu, Bai Shi, Xia Yuwei, Kuai Bansheng, Zhou Tianming, Liu Ruohuai, the lovely queen, the underworld king, Xiao Liang and De. Without tasting the corpse, the commanders of the various legions flew into the magic circle.

"The basic operating rule of this magic circle is that the souls of the past patriarchs and elders of the ghost-faced clan are used as the eyes of the magic circle, supplemented by 108 median * magic crystals to provide energy. The beliefs that were imposed before death were killed by foreigners with all their might.

I don't know what method the Dark Moon Young Master used. It might be the belief that the gods imposed on the gods, and the magic circle was reversed, causing the souls of the previous patriarchs and elders of the ghost-faced tribe to be deceived and think that the creatures under the protection of the magic circle. It is their enemy, so it is very easy for outsiders to enter the formation, but the natives of the Ghost Face Clan can't do it if they want to come out of the formation, even the current Grand Elder of the Ghost Face Clan at the peak of the quasi-god rank can't do it. arrive. "Lu Yang led them to fly into the formation, while introducing the situation of this formation, all of which were told to him by the Blazing Flame God.

De Bu taste the corpse and asked in shock: "How many ghost-faced clan chiefs and elders souls must be in this formation? Even quasi-god-level powerhouses can't get out."

As soon as the voice fell, a terrifying energy group came from a distance, with a piercing ghost scream, making the pores of the whole body stand up.

"Don't make any aggressive moves, they're not here to kill us," Lu Yang said.

De Buchanshi, Liu Ruohuai and others quickly dissipated the magic power they had accumulated, but they all stood in front of Lu Yang, for fear of an accident.

“Wow!” Dozens of ghosts with quasi-god-rank peaks flew past Lu Yang and the others quickly, just as Lu Yang said, without launching any attacks on them.

“I actually think that we are companions. I feel that my speed has increased a lot. It was given to me by the ghosts of the ghosts.”

“The last time I came here, I did a little calculation. There are more than 800 ghost-faced patriarch-level powerhouses, and more than 80,000 elder-level powerhouses. There are 102 areas, including 100 living areas, each with 10,000 people, and the other 2 areas are the elder living area and the treasure house area.” The first area Lu Yang went to was the No. 1 area he marked. Living Area.

The large defense formation of the ghost-faced clan can not only block the entry and exit of the ghost-faced clan’s own people, but also has a thick dark fog to prevent people outside from seeing the inside, but the result now is that Lu Yang led the team to the formation. When the inner edge area is used, you can see the situation in the living area.

“Ah! God will kill us! God will kill us!”

“I don’t want to die! Who will save me, I’m already a monarch, I have a thousand years of life, I don’t want to die!”

“Why do we rebel against God? Why do we rebel against God?”

The cries of madness in the residential area are endless, and countless ghost-faced powerhouses roam the streets, no matter whether their strength is the beginner of the monarch rank or the peak of the monarch rank, all of them are confused, their eyes are dull, and their mouths keep talking about God. Such things as punishment and death.

“What happened to them?” The white lion was a little curious, and he thought it was another * battle on the way.

Lu Yang thought about it for a while, and some came to his senses, he said with a smile: "They thought that God punished them for coming, but in fact, the gods from the other world couldn't come at all. I used the magic crystal that Young Master Dark Moon gave me to reverse them. Magic circle."

The sigh of the Blazing Demon God came from Lu Yang's body, and said: "Such things are very common, the gods betray the gods, or some races are punished by the gods, under normal circumstances, gods will not directly kill them. , but will slowly torture them to death, and let other races take a warning. Since they are attached to the gods and become the gods, they must be absolutely loyal. They want to gain benefits and do not want to contribute. The final result is to be The gods were killed in the cruelest way."

Malthus said: "According to the time the ghost-faced tribe existed, they should have seen no less than a hundred times of betrayal by the gods, and as a result, they were slowly tortured to death by the gods. The most recent one was decades ago. Most have seen it."

Once the divine punishment is activated, the gods will force all the divine races under him to watch. The most recent one was the war between the new gods and the old gods. The gods among the new gods rebelled and was slaughtered by the new gods. .

Lu Yang did not become schadenfreude because of seeing all this, but his expression became even more solemn. He looked at all the brothers around him, including Zhuojiu and De Buchan's corpse, and said, "If we don't work hard, today they, It is us in the future, although we are not the race of gods, but we are the people that the new * will destroy no matter what."

In a few years or decades, when the lower gods among the gods of the other world can normally come to the earth through the passage of time and space, the Jagged Brotherhood will be punished the most severely by the gods of the other world.

De Buchan's corpse, Pluto and the others had some happy experiences with the ghost-faced clan, but they understood Lu Yang's words in an instant, and everyone's faces became solemn.

"Everyone spread out to investigate the situation, and then drew a detailed map of the city. Remember, I want a detailed map." Lu Yang said.

Zhuojiu, Zhou Tianming, Kuai Bansheng, and Xia Yuwei all have the ability to fly. Although Bai Shi and De Bujushi couldn't fly, he transformed into a 100-meter-tall giant, and he could see the situation below from the height.

For a time, everyone moved separately and went to an area to draw a detailed map of the city, including the width between the houses in each area, as well as all the defense equipment in the area, which were carefully drawn by them.

one week later.

The detailed map of the ghost town was handed out to each team leader, and Lu Yang issued an order requiring every thousand people to form a team and attack a living area.

In the team, all professions such as Dragon Orc, Blood Spirit Guard, Holy Light Warrior, Ghost Face Roar, Void Warrior, Shenhua Mage, Water Elemental Mage, Archer and Wood Mage must participate in the battle.

It seems that before the advent of another world, players played the game and entered the dungeon, but in fact this is the most reasonable professional match.

Dragon Orcs riding on the ground can attack and resist beatings, Blood Spirit Guard and Ghost Face Roar can be on their own, Void Warriors can sneak attack, Shenhua Mage, Water Elemental Mage and Archer can attack from a distance, Wood Mage and Holy Light Knight can give Teammates recovering their bodies can also play a role in restraining them.

It took Lu Yang a month to get the various legions to run in battle. If he hadn't been worried about the sneak attack by the powerhouses of other divine races, Lu Yang would have given his subordinates more time, but he really didn't dare to give it. .

"Attack, we must eliminate the ghost-faced clan in the city within a month at the least cost." Lu Yang gave an order and watched the 100,000 army walk into the 100 living quarters around the ghost town.

Chapter 2528: Instant kill quasi god

Lu Yang didn't ask them to decide the outcome of the battle, but let them use a steady advance method to rush into the living area of the ghost-faced clan to kill some enemies every day, and with the cooperation, they would fight with the ghost-faced powerhouses. , the battle damage of the Jagged Brotherhood will be minimized.

"Let's go in too." Lu Yang released the Yanyang cable, grabbed Bai Shi and Liu Ruohuai, and beside Zhuojiu, Xia Yuwei, Kuai Bansheng, Zhou Tianming and others flew into the air with their spells. The elders of the ghost town flew in the direction of rest.

The seventeen elders of the Ghost Face tribe have never fought a battle since they came to Earth, and they are all trapped in the central area of the ghost town.

The voice of the Blazing Demon God entered the souls of Zhuojiu and the others, and said, "Be careful, don't release soul-type attacks in the face of the ghost-faced clan, especially Zhou Tianming, it is strictly forbidden to use any soul-type spells."

"Ah? I haven't used my strongest move, Song of the Underworld." Zhou Tianming was a little stunned, his attack moves were basically all soul-like.

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said, "Ghost-faced clan, ghost-faced clan, why are they called ghost-faced clan? It's not because they look like ghosts, but because they are born with souls, and they rely on cultivating their souls to improve their strength, especially their bodies. The ghost thorns are specially designed to restrain the extraterrestrial demons, and this race can become a * race, the main reason is here."

"Then I'm useless." Zhou Tianming said speechlessly.

"Don't be disheartened, you can be the bait. The ghost-faced clan is extremely persistent in eating extraterrestrial demons. For them, you are especially delicious." The Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and the others were speechless and laughing, but no one thought that after the Blazing Demon God became a kind teacher, he would tell them jokes.

“Actually, the Blazing Demon God is right. Zhou Tianming can indeed act as a bait. Although he can’t release soul-type attack spells, he can still release illusions. Once attacked by illusions, the ghost-faced tribe will pretend to be attacked and slowly approach. Sneak attack,” Malthus said.

“Is this okay?” Lu Yang had to admire that it was convenient to have a Pepsi-like general subject like Malthus.

Malthus said with some pride: “Don’t think that the ghost face is very strong, they are born with a soul body, they can’t make the soul body hard, so their melee defense ability is very poor, if they encounter a physical attack above the seventh rank, it may be a blow. shatter their souls.”

Lu Yang patted Zhou Tianming on the shoulder and said, “The task of baiting is left to you.”

“No problem.” Zhou Tianming nodded.

Malthus continued: “Once the seduction is successful, Lu Yang is responsible for trapping the target with the chaotic demon flame pillar, and the white lion takes this opportunity to rush over and smash the opponent’s soul core. The full blow of the lion.”

Bai Shi has the bloodline of Ghost Face Roar. Although he is only at the peak of the monarch rank, in terms of strength alone, even Liu Ruohuai, who has been promoted to a demigod, is not a match for White Lion. Among the ancient chaos beasts, Ghost Face Roar’s natural divine power can be ranked in top ten.

“I will do my best.” A * battle axe appeared in the right hand of the white lion, which was the * roar of the peak level weapon of the monarch.

Malthus looked at Xia Yuwei and said, “Once the attack starts, you must instantly release the space barrier to block the sound from reaching inside.”

“Leave it to me.” Xia Yuwei said.

Malthus looked at Zhuojiu and Liu Ruohuai again and said, “Your mission is to protect the white lion. If he misses a hit, Zhuojiu will release the holy light barrier to block the magic of the ghost-faced clan, and Liu Ruohuai will attack as a substitute to break the ghost-faced clan’s Soul core.”

“Yes.” Zhuojiu and Liu Ruohuai said together.

“We’re about to get there, everyone, get ready.” The voice of the Blazing Demon God reached everyone’s ears.

Lu Yang looked back at these brothers. Once upon a time, on such a battlefield, he was the only one who fought alone. Now the brothers have become so powerful that they can share a lot of pressure for him.

“Let’s go.” Lu Yang waved his hand and led the crowd towards the bottom. They had already arrived at the location of the ghost-faced clan elders.

Through the heavy fog, Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and others landed in a forest of ghost king trees. Not far in front, there was a huge wooden palace made of ghost king trees, five or six kilometers wide and even longer. There are more than ten kilometers, and a large number of powerful ghost-faced monarchs are like crazy at the gate of the palace.

“God Punishment! God Punishment!”

Lu Yang waved his hand and signaled everyone to choose their own targets. He took out the double-headed bird warhammer, walked slowly forward, aimed at the head of a powerful monarch and smashed it down.

“Crack!”

The sound like a broken walnut sounded, and the soul core of a powerful ghost-faced monarch was smashed by Lu Yang with a hammer. In an instant, the ghost-faced powerhouse died!

With a crisp clicking sound, Zhuojiu and Baishi also completed their attacks on their respective targets, and the monarch-level ghost-faced powerhouses at the door were all dead!

“The monarchy!” The white lion sighed softly and said, “How difficult it is to cultivate to this level.”

Lu Yang felt a little sigh in his heart, and said, “The * they originally believed in gave them too much pressure. Let’s go to the door and see.”

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others nodded, followed Lu Yang to the gate, and looked inside. In a house directly opposite the gate, through the open gate, you could see a 5-meter-tall ghost-faced quasi-god. Sitting there in the hall.

It seemed that he closed his eyes and rested, but Lu Yang felt clearly that the magic power in the opponent’s body was very disordered. Obviously, he was in an extremely uneasy state.

Lu Yang pulled everyone to hide behind the gate, and said to Zhou Tianming, “If you construct a scene of divine punishment, he will definitely be fooled.”

Zhou Tianming also thought that this illusion was the most suitable. After seeing that the white lion was hiding on the other side and getting ready, he stepped out to the gate, aimed at the ghost-faced quasi-god in the distance, and chanted a spell in his mouth.

In an instant, a purple-black light shot into the mind of the ghost-faced quasi-god, and the ghost-faced powerhouse who was sitting on the ground stood up abruptly, with a look of horror on his face.

“I am a sinner!”

“God, please forgive me.”

“Let me come back to you.”

“Give me another chance.”

In begging loudly, the ghost-faced quasi-god gradually approached Zhou Tianming's direction, with the intention of kneeling down to Zhou Tianming and treating Zhou Tianming as the * they believed in.

Zhou Tianming pretended to be fooled, stood there with a smile on the corner of his mouth, staring at the ghost-faced clan who gradually walked in front of him. A soul knife appeared in his hand, but just when Zhou Tianming was about to do it, the quasi-god-rank powerhouse of the ghost-faced clan showed a sneer on his face. , stopped one meter from the door.

“What a delicious extraterritorial demon, I, Kami Yang, are welcome.” The ghost-faced quasi-god turned into a black light and rushed towards Zhou Tianming.

“Pillar of Chaos Demon Flame”

Lu Yang's body emitted 108 chains of purple demon flames, which instantly wrapped around the body of the ghost-faced quasi-god-rank powerhouse.

“Damn, do you think you can trap me like this?” The quasi-god-rank powerhouse of the ghost-faced clan roared, and terrifying magic power burst out from his body, wanting to break the 108 chains of chaotic demon flames, but right here moment.

The white lion turned into a white light and rushed out from the side, raised his blood roar with both hands, and slashed down hard, accurately slashing into the chest of the ghost-faced powerhouse.

“Kacha!” A sound rang out, and the quasi-god-level powerhouse of the Ghost-faced tribe stared at the white lion with unbelievable eyes. In the next second, his body collapsed and dissipated, a golden and black bead with a strange pattern engraved in it. The second fell to the ground.

“Quite god? Dead?” Xia Yuwei pushed aside the noise barrier in an instant, looked at the beads blankly and asked, “This is incredible.”

Malthus said: “Don’t take quasi-gods too strongly. They are not gods. To put it bluntly, they are top-level monarch-level powerhouses with some god-like abilities, which are very different from real gods.”

Blazing Demon God said: “Pick up the beads, I have a lot of use for this thing.”

Lu Yang nodded, picked up the beads and said, “Let’s continue. With this speed, the elders of the Ghost Face Clan can clean up today.”

A smile appeared on the corners of everyone’s mouth, and they followed Lu Yang to the depths of the palace.

Chapter 2529: Decisive battle with the elders of the ghost-faced clan

Keep going.

Through the perception of the Blazing Demon God, we can know that each elder of the ghost-faced clan rests in their own courtyards and does not move around with each other.

Lu Yang led the turbid wine and they killed the elders of the ghost-faced clan one by one. Each one was like the one at the door. Zhou Tianming was in charge of attracting, Lu Yang was in charge of control, and Bai Shi was in charge of the final blow.

After killing sixteen elders in a row, finally, Lu Yang and the others came to the last courtyard and saw the elder of the Ghost Face Clan.

Just when Lu Yang and the others thought this could be easily killed, they looked at the appearance of this ghost-faced clan elder through the crack of the door, and everyone was a little silent.

“Why is the elder of the Ghost Face Clan wearing a suit of armor?” The white lion looked at the other party’s dark silver armor, and then at his own axe.

Lu Yang was also a little surprised. The big elder of the ghost-faced clan in the distance was about six meters tall, which was taller than any elder he had seen before, and this big elder obviously had a strong melee ability, not only wearing a melee armor, He also held a dark silver long sword in his hand.

Malthus’s voice sounded in the minds of Lu Yang and the others, and said, “Be careful, this elder is only one breakthrough away from becoming a god. The ghost-faced people have two choices to cultivate to the god-level, one of which is the physical incarnation. , This guy’s body is almost finished, there are at least ten ghost heads and twenty ghost thorns on his body.”

“What is a ghost head?” Lu Yang asked, feeling a little bad.

Malthus said: “The ghost head is the head of the patriarch of the ghost-faced tribe who have become gods in the past. After death, the head of the lower-level god-level powerhouse of the ghost-faced tribe will become a huge ghost head, and all the divine power is stored in this ghost head. Therefore, he If the ten ghost hairs attacked, each blow is the strength of the lower * level, and you will die if you are hit.”

Lu Yang gritted his teeth and said, “It’s my turn to kill him this time. I can kill him with one blow.”

“Do you want to use the Earth Demon Sword?” asked the Blazing Demon God.

Lu Yang nodded and said, “His armor shouldn’t be able to withstand the attack of the Earth Demon Sword.”

“I will control the Chaos Demon Flame Pillar for you, and be sure to kill him with one strike. Otherwise, none of you will want to leave alive.” Blazing Demon God said.

“Fight, if we let him become a lower god, this party will not be able to trap him. We have already started to slaughter the ghost face clan. Even if we leave now, he has to come to kill us when he becomes a god.” Lu Yang said.

Doojiu, Bai Shi and the others nodded together, and Malthus said, “I’ll help you too.”

The rays of light flickered, and Malthus’s body got into the two-handed sword of Holy Light’s Wrath in the hands of Zhuoshu. Although the light ball on the sword did not emit a dazzling light, everyone felt that this Holy Light’s Wrath had become artifact.

The Holy Light restrains all the methods of the ghost-faced clan, and if Zhuojiu launches an attack of Holy Light’s wrath, it can also instantly restrain the elders of the ghost-faced clan.

Seeing that everyone was ready, Lu Yang said, “Let’s start.”

Zhou Tianming nodded and walked to the gate of the courtyard in one step. A purple light flashed from his right hand, hitting the forehead of the ghost-faced clan elder who was cultivating in the middle of the courtyard.

“Ah!” The elder of the ghost-faced clan let out a wailing, staring at Zhou Tianming and walked over, but the light in the eyes of the ghost-faced clan elder made Zhou Tianming, who had seen the eyes of the sixteen pairs of ghost-faced elders, understand it. It’s not being controlled, it’s greed.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

The six-meter-high body of the ghost-faced clan elder seemed to possess infinite power. The ground trembled with every step he took. When he came to the 10-meter position in front of Zhou Tianming, two rays of light suddenly appeared in his eyes, and Zhou Tianming was in the middle. eyebrows.

“Ah!” Zhou Tianming let out an extremely miserable cry, and fell to the ground stiffly.

“I was discovered, and I killed him with one blow.” The voice of the Blazing Demon God rang in Lu Yang’s ears.

“A group of idiots, they still want to sneak attack on me and see me kill you all.” The ghost-faced clan elder laughed wildly, swung the dark silver long sword horizontally in his hand, and the purple-black sword light swept towards the door.

“I’ll block this attack.” Zhuojiu and Liu Ruohuai roared at the same time, and jumped in front of Lu Yang. Relying on the armor on their bodies, they were lower-level god-level armor scavenged from the three-faced camp. I want to hold on to this blow.

“Pillar of Chaos Demon Flame” Blazing Demon God released 108 chaotic beast bones in Luyang Bandarsburg, and the chain-like purple light trapped the body of the ghost-faced chief elder at the same time.

“Death to me!” Lu Yang took out the Earth Demon Sword, and in an instant, all the spiritual power and magic in his body was sucked away by the Earth Demon Sword.

Lu Yang slashed out with the only remaining strength, hitting the chest of the ghost-faced chief elder, and while smashing the dark silver armor, a slight clicking sound sounded.

The ghost-faced chief elder glanced at his chest blankly, then looked at Lu Yang, let out a roar unwillingly, his body shattered and his soul rolled into a dark golden bead.

Lu Yang dared to catch the beads before they landed, and then knelt on the ground. The feeling of being hollowed out of his whole body’s magic and spiritual power was very uncomfortable.

He looked at Zhou Tianming and asked, “Are you alright?”

Although Zhou Tianming no longer screamed, his whole body fell into a strange state, as if he was in a vegetative state, completely unable to move.

Malthus flew out of the turbid wine, frowned and said: "It's hard to do, Zhou Tianming was hit by the spiritual attack of the ghost-faced clan elder, we can't help him solve it, you have to go to the darkness of another world. Moon area, find a few things to heal him."

Normally, Malthus could easily dispel spiritual attacks by using holy light spells, but Zhou Tianming was the body of an extraterritorial demon.

Blazing Demon God said: "You should also go there. I have a feeling that you are going to be promoted to Quasi-God."

Just when Lu Yang hit the Earth Demon Sword with all his strength, his soul was touched a little bit, and he also felt that he seemed to be promoted to the quasi-god rank.

"Okay, let's go back first, and we'll set off when I slow down." Lu Yang carried Zhou Tianming on his back, but he himself was a little unsteady.

Zhuojiu took Bai Shi and Liu Ruohuai, and the group flew out of the foggy formation and rested in the open space outside.

Blazing Fire God and Malthus did not leave in a hurry. After they searched for the ghost-faced elder's remnant in the dark golden beads, they opened the ghost-faced treasure house and directed the unconscious fire spirits to be loaded into Bandarsburg.

Chapter 2530: The method of quasi-god promotion

In the evening of the second day, inside a cave outside the ghost mask camp.

Lu Yang returned from the Void Hall. In order to recover to a full state as quickly as possible, he used the original soul crystal to restore his body. After a whole year in the Void Hall, he has fully recovered to his peak state.

If it was in the past, Lu Yang would definitely not be willing to waste the original soul crystal like this, but this time, the Jagged Brotherhood has obtained too many treasures by winning the three clans.

On the other hand, it is not clear whether there are strong men from other races who will come to explore the ghost-faced camp. He must recover as soon as possible and prepare for the next battle.

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi, and others have been sitting cross-legged at the entrance of the cave, staring at the fighting situation of their brothers in various areas of the ghost town in the distance. They heard movement behind them, and when they looked back, they found that Lu Yang had returned, and they all left excitedly. come over.

“Boss, everything is going well on the battlefield, and our brothers haven’t died yet,” said the white lion.

Zhuojiu said: “The two great gods, the Blazing Demon God and Malthus, are sensing the surrounding area over the ghost town. So far, no other powerful races of the gods have come to investigate.”

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief. This was what he was most worried about. Since no one came, he was relieved and asked, “How long will it take to kill all the Ghost Faces.”

White Lion said: “At this speed, that is, in about ten days, most of the ordinary people of the Ghost Face Clan have collapsed. They only know that unconscious attacks are easy to kill.”

According to the original plan, Lu Yang was ready to complete the war in two or three months, which was several times faster than the previous idea.

Lu Yang said: “Be patient, don’t urge the brothers, let them advance at their own pace, after each battle, bring out the ghost face clan’s soul orbs when conditions permit. I’m also useful.”

Since he obtained the red flame, Lu Yang has never encountered a creature from another world that cannot burn magic crystals with flames. The ghost-faced race is the first. They are a race that turns into a golden bead when they die. It made Lu Yang feel very strange.

The Blazing Devil God had told him before that he didn't know what to use to collect these pillars, but he always felt that the Blazing Devil God was of great use.

"I'm going to replace the Blazing Demon God and Malthus. You guys go to Bandarsburg to count the loot of the ghost-faced tribe, and finally give me a list." Lu Yang opened the portal.

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and others were also anxious to know the loot, which involved their brothers' cultivation and the chance of survival in battle, and they all walked into the portal.

After seeing that they had all entered, Lu Yang put away the portal and jumped into the sky. As soon as he reached the top area of the ghost town, he saw the flaming devil and Malthus using flames and holy light. .

"Have you recovered?" Blazing Demon God asked excitedly.

Lu Yang nodded and said, "It has fully recovered, and a few of them have also entered Bandarsburg."

The Blazing Demon God said: "That's good, I can't tell anyone what I'm going to tell you next, you have to listen carefully."

Lu Yang felt that the Blazing Demon God and Malthus had something to tell him separately, so he let the turbid wine and the others enter Bandarsburg and said, "Tell me."

The Blazing Demon God looked at Lu Yang carefully, nodded and said: "You are very good, you finally got the opportunity to be promoted to a quasi-god, now for you, there are two directions for promotion, and you need to choose by yourself. "

Lu Yang was a little surprised and asked, "There are two directions for promotion to Quasi-God?"

Malthus said: "A quasi-god is a state of preparation before becoming a god. The * has two states, one is to become a * from its origin, and the other is to worship an ancestor and become a god."

"What do you mean?" Lu Yang asked.

The Blazing Demon God stopped Malthus, he let out a sigh of relief, and said, "Let me explain, becoming a * from the source means that through your own hard work, you can achieve the promotion conditions for becoming a god, and worship your ancestors and become gods. It belongs to gods. The treatment is only available to the gods belonging to the race or higher. After the gods of other worlds die in battle, their spirits will be taken back. In the future, when someone from the clan is about to be promoted to a demigod, they will use these spirits. The chance of improvement is even higher. Big."

Lu Yang said: "I don't have an ancestor who became a god, of course, I have to become a * from the source."

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said, "Have you forgotten that you still have me, you and I have the same bloodline, I am your ancestor, let me fight for the position of the * king again, I have no interest anymore, living in I don't know how many millions of years in this world, you children are the first place that makes me feel at ease, I can choose to use the heart of the devil to help you become a god."

"What are the consequences?" Lu Yang asked.

Blazing Demon God said: "The consequence is that you and I are integrated, but I will give up the dominance of consciousness and let you control the body."

As soon as the words fell, the ancient fire element spirit between heaven and earth has appeared. This is the oath of the blazing devil telling Lu Yang that he did not have the idea of robbing Lu Yang's body and consciousness, but voluntarily gave up his body and became Lu Yang's consciousness. a part of.

Lu Yang shook his head, waved his hand to disperse the ancient fire elemental elves in the air, and said, "Why do you do this?"

The Blazing Demon God sighed and said: "When you have lived for millions of years, you will know my pain. Being a * king is not so easy. You have to deal with various things every day, which annoys me. Now, it's better to be a free spirit, wandering in this world."

Lu Yang still shook his head and said, "No way, brother, I have tried my best to kill this way, that is, I fought with my life for my life. This is my Dao heart, my true soul. Yuanyuan, you suddenly gave me everything that I need to fight in the future, I am afraid that my Dao heart will collapse and I will lose the courage to go all out in the future, I can't accept it."

This is the truth of Lu Yang. From the struggle of a mortal to today, the Blazing Flame Demon God has indeed helped a lot, but more is Lu Yang's own life. The will, or belief, that knows that he has to work hard to have a chance to survive.

If he uses the heart of the Blazing Demon God in exchange for the opportunity to improve his future strength, then what is his previous efforts, and what is the motivation for his future efforts? Will he worry about gains and losses when facing a strong enemy, and will he face relatives and family members? The clansmen were afraid to avoid them when they died. On that day, when he gave up everything, there was no need for others to kill him. The demons alone could easily occupy his soul, so he absolutely couldn't accept it.

Seeing Lu Yang's determination, Malthus showed a smile on his face, and said to the Blazing Demon God, "You lost, I said Lu Yang would not agree."

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said a little embarrassedly: "There are people in this world who don't want this god-king spirit. Your kid is really special."

Lu Yang was speechless and said with a smile, "It's still a bet."

"It's boring, you look at the current situation of me and Malthus, you know that you don't know the shortcomings of millions of years of living, now Malthus wants to become me, I want to become him, but if the two of us After we both become each other, we are still tired of life, what do you think we should do?" The Blazing Demon God shook his head, his expression very lonely.

Lu Yang couldn't answer this question for the Blazing Demon God, because he didn't have such a long life experience, and said, "Let's take revenge first, and spend all your energy on cultivating us. This is also a kind of fun."

"Okay, then you are ready to accept the most difficult test. Fortunately, your life is good, and you can have so many treasures to protect yourself before heading to the test place." Blazing Demon God said.

"What is the test place?" Lu Yang asked.

"This place is special, listen to me tell you slowly." Blazing Demon God said with some emotion.

Chapter 2531: test place

The place of testing, also known as the place of burial of gods, has hundreds of them in other worlds, including the nine element gods, the twenty-six dragon emperors, and the outer areas of the hundred forbidden areas.

Every ten years, there will be a special substance that can be promoted to a quasi-god. After drinking it, it can quickly condense the soul and reach the standard of being promoted to a quasi-god. The area is strictly controlled. Even the * races under the new gods and dragon emperors cannot provide enough promotion treasures for every member who is about to be promoted to quasi-gods, let alone the powerhouses of non-god races. Therefore, the top 100 restricted areas have become the common choice of all the powerhouses.

Every forbidden area in another world is an area where the origin of another world overflows. There are countless children of ancient gods, fierce beasts, and fierce insects. That is to say, the place where quasi-god promotion treasures are produced, but there are not many beasts, vicious insects, and there is not even one of the children of the ancient gods.

Whenever this day arrives, the * kings and dragon emperors of other worlds will send their middle and lower gods to join hands with each other on the periphery of the major restricted areas. Once a single beast or insect appears, they will be responsible. Killing, if there is a son of the ancient gods, even if this batch of demigods who are promoted to quasi-gods is unlucky, the middle gods and the lower gods will immediately flee with their own family members, and the rest will die.

Blazing Demon God said: "In order to ensure that you can advance, I discussed with Malthus and agreed that the Thunder Fire restricted area is the most suitable for you to go. At the same time, if you are lucky, you can also get a Thunder Fire Seed."

"What is the fire seed of Thunder Fire, and what is the Thunder Fire restricted area?" Lu Yang was a little curious, he didn't know anything about it.

The Blazing Demon God said: "The Thunder Fire Restricted Area is a very violent flame restricted area. Flames with a temperature of up to one million will emerge from the ground at any time. At the edge of the restricted area, there will be something called Thunder Fire Tree. It is possible to get Thunder Fire Liquid, which is the treasure you need to advance to the quasi-god, if it bears fruit on the Thunder Fire Tree, if you are lucky, it will be Thunder Fire's fire seed."

Malthus said: "After you enter this area and activate the Great Nirvana Technique, although the flame will also hurt you, it can also quickly improve your strength. In many restricted areas, this is the place that is most kind to you. "

Blazing Demon God continued: "The luckiest thing for you is that Malthus and I have both been to that area, and we know how to go there and where is the safest, which is something that other races do not have, because I am in the gods. Wang Jie went, and almost never came back."

"Really or not?" Lu Yang was a little surprised. If the Blazing Flame Demon God couldn't win at the peak of the Divine King, this place would be really terrifying.

"You don't need to know this kind of secret for the time being. It won't be too late to tell you when your strength is reached." The Blazing Demon God didn't want to talk too much about this, and said with a self-deprecating self-deprecation: "The edge of the restricted area is also It is the area near the Thunder Fire Tree that I am very familiar with, and the new Vulcan God now has Thunder Fire seeds in his body, which I got for him back then."

Come to think of it, this is another betrayal!

"What are you talking about? Let your apprentice avenge you in the future." Malthus rolled his eyes and said.

“That’s right.” Blazing Demon!” Blazing Demon God was no longer entangled in this matter. With a move with his right hand, a burst of black light lit up, and ten football-sized ghost heads appeared beside him, each with ten heads on it. Ghost thorn.

“This is the treasure of the ghost-faced clan. It is a one-time artifact made from the heads of the previous patriarchs. Each blow has the attack power of the peak of the lower gods. Don’t use it easily. Each ghost head has ten opportunities to use it, ghost. Not even one thorn is used.” The Blazing Demon God said with some regret.

Lu Yang took the ghost head and played with some excitement. This was different from the weapons and armor of the lower gods. Even if Lu Yang had weapons and armors of the lower gods, he at most relied on the sharpness of the weapons and the armor of the lower gods. The hardness of the armor could not bring out the full strength of the divine weapon, but this ghost head had the attack power of the peak of the lower gods, which means that Lu Yang could now use 100 attack spells of the peak of the lower gods.

“Let’s study the map of the Leihuo forbidden area, and you two will explain the taboos to me.” Lu Yang took the Blazing Devil God and Malthus to study it over the ghost town.

For ten days, Lu Yang thoroughly researched the map outside the Leihuo restricted area. At the same time, his 100,000 brothers also killed all the ghost-faced powerhouses in the ghost town.

Millions of silver and golden beads were brought out by the warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood. These are the soul cores left behind after the death of the powerful ghost-faced monarchs and above.

Seventeen dark golden beads appeared in the hands of the Blazing Demon God and handed them over to Lu Yang. At the same time, a spiritual sense penetrated into Lu Yang’s soul and said, “After the death of the powerhouse below the * level of the ghost-faced clan, can only form beads, which contain great resentment. After being sacrificed, it will form something called resentful soul beads. When thrown by the enemy, a large number of enemies will fall into a frenzy, although It can’t let you kill the enemy, but it can effectively prevent a large number of enemies from chasing you. I have taught Hei Yan how to make this bead sacrifice. You can send some people into the Demon Temple and let Hei Yan teach Go down, I’m too lazy to teach one by one.”

“Thank you very much, as expected of the king of gods, all you throw out are treasures.” Lu Yang praised excitedly.

“I went to study the transmission route with Malthus, hurry up and prepare for the teleportation.” Blazing Demon God was very proud, and returned to Bandarsburg with Malthus to study how to teleport to the restricted area of thunder and fire. .

Lu Yang quickly returned to Fengshi with the 100,000 brothers such as Zhuojiu and Baishi, covering up all their traces along the way. Moreover, after arriving in Fengshi, the 100,000 army was divided into six legions and returned to Anshi, Fushi, Donghai, Xishi, Danshi and Daqinggou defensive fortresses.

As if the Jagged Brotherhood had never fought abroad, the disappearance of the three clans had nothing to do with them.

“Starting today, everyone will concentrate on cultivation, and it is strictly forbidden for brothers to go out. Taking advantage of the fact that the gods in other regions look down on us, we must speed up the progress of cultivation, and strive to promote all of you to demigods before I come back, and there are more brothers under my command. Promoted to the peak of the monarchy.” Lu Yang looked at Zhuojiu and Bai Shi and said.

The cultivation resources of the Jagged Brotherhood are now too abundant. The cultivation materials of the three races and 3 million people are all concentrated in the hands of these 100,000 people. Pile up to the pinnacle of the monarchy.

Chapter 2532: red night home

Zhuojiu and Baishi are also full of confidence. All the materials of the three clans are placed in front of them, and they are all materials of the gods, enough for them to be promoted to the demigod rank in a short period of time.

“Don’t worry, boss, within three months, at least half of the 100,000 brothers will be promoted to the monarch rank.” Zhuojiu issued the military order.

Lu Yang nodded and said, "I'll leave the specific things to a few of you to arrange. I won't make any more arrangements. I will go to the imperial capital tonight to discuss with Fu Yun, how to make these gods and races mess up. stand up."

There are still more than a dozen gods in the Huaxia region. If they do not fight with each other and continue to develop in such a comfortable way, a year later, a lower * will emerge.

This was the case with the Ghost Face Clan. If it wasn't for Lu Yang's raid, the Ghost Face Clan's patriarch would really become a * in two months. At that time, the other * races would be finished, and so would the human race.

Lu Yang felt that this was something that could cause chaos among the gods, and Zhuojiu and others also felt that this was a good proposal.

That night.

Lu Yang came to the imperial capital and discussed with Fu Yun and others. From the next day, rumors began to appear in the area where humans trade with the major gods.

"Have you heard? The Great Elder of the Blood Spirit Snake Clan has been at the pinnacle of the quasi-god for thousands of years, and he is only one opportunity away from breaking through. He is willing to come to the human world because he has already found this opportunity to be able to make a breakthrough within a month. He quickly became a * within."

"The same is true of the multi-armed clan. Their patriarch is about to evolve, but he needs a quasi-god's arm to attach to him. According to legend, he wants the arm of the Storm clan to gain the power of wind and thunder."

In the border area of China, the dozen or so divine races that have been sent over have always maintained a relatively peaceful state, and they can even trade with each other, but after the rumors spread for a week, the relationship between the various races changed.

In the trade area between humans and various ethnic groups, various ethnic groups have met each other, and there is no longer the enthusiasm of the past. Even greetings are holding weapons. Obviously, problems have arisen between various ethnic groups.

Lu Yang never thought that this kind of trick that had been used in China for thousands of years would be so easy to use on the gods of other worlds.

“The power of such rumors is too great. Creatures belonging to the race of gods rarely tell lies, and they naturally believe that what humans say is not a lie.” The Blazing Demon God was very emotional when he saw such a situation.

Lu Yang smiled and said: “Not all, if it is a simple lie, it is easy to be exposed, but with the guidance of you and Malthus, I know the secrets between the major races, and use these secrets to convey some truth. Fake and indistinguishable news, even we humans may be deceived.”

The Blazing Demon God nodded, and he learned another trick. Since Lu Yang resolutely did not want his Demon God’s heart, he would continue to seek revenge and return to a different world in the future. This trick he felt could be used.

“The teleportation array is ready, and now you can teleport at any time.” Blazing Demon God said.

“The major races of the gods are already going to fight, and I don’t need to stay here anymore. Let’s leave tonight.” Lu Yang turned into a phoenix and flew back to Fengshi quickly.

He entered Bandarsburg in a place where no one was outside the city. Malthus was waiting in front of a teleportation formation outside the castle. When he saw the two approaching, he said, “The opposite area is the border area of the fire dragon. Remember, try not to provoke the dragon clan, they are not easy to provoke.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Don’t worry, I don’t have the habit of causing trouble.”

Both the Blazing Demon God and Malthus rolled their eyes. If Lu Yang doesn’t like to cause trouble, then he doesn’t like to cause trouble.

“I’ll stay here to teach them, so I won’t accompany you. If you have something to call me, if there is a situation in the East China Sea, I will use this thing to call you. If I send a message, you will Come back immediately.” Malthus handed a holy light pick to Lu Yang.

Lu Yang was a little curious and asked, “What is this?”

Malthus said: “The gadgets I made myself found in the warehouse of the Three-faced Clan can contact you in any space. As long as I vibrate the pick, no matter where you are, the pick will resonate. ”

Lu Yang nodded, took the holy light pick into the Demon Temple, looked at Malthus and said, “Then I’ll leave now, and the brothers will hand it over.”

“Remember not to be impulsive.” Malthus asked again, he always felt that Lu Yang was going to come back in trouble this time.

Lu Yang clasped his fists and jumped into the teleportation tunnel. In an instant, he began to spin. After an unknown amount of time, a ray of light flashed, and he appeared on a ground full of red soil.

“boom”

A blazing flame erupted from the ground in the distance, and at the same time there was a 10-meter-tall behemoth similar to a scorpion. .com swooped down a red flying dragon in the air, swallowing the fire scorpion in one bite.

“Fire Demon Form”

Lu Yang’s whole body burst into flames and turned into a pure fire element with a height of less than two meters. This was taught to him by the Blazing Demon God. Walking in the area of the fire dragon family, the form of the fire element is the biggest life-saving charm, because the dragon family is also Creatures evolved from elements.

The ancestor of the fire dragon is the fire element. Therefore, the fire dragon family basically does not actively hunt and kill the fire element. As long as the fire element does not actively attack them, the fire element will be allowed to move on this land.

really.

After the flame flying dragon ate the fire scorpion, he glanced back at Lu Yang, and after confirming that it was the fire element, he ignored it, turned and flew towards other places.

“Which direction is the Thunder Fire restricted area?” Lu Yang asked.

The Blazing Demon God turned into a flame, flew to Lu Yang’s side, pointed to the front right and said, “Just go over there.”

“Om!”

In the Demon Temple, Hong Ye suddenly became restless and said, “Master, I want to see my parents, but I don’t know if the master can agree.”

Lu Yang was stunned for a moment, he couldn’t refuse this request. From birth to now, Hong Ye has accompanied Lu Yang through countless fierce battles, and has always been loyal. Now that he is so close to his home, he is not allowed to go home and take a look. Some are unreasonable.

“Okay, I’ll accompany you, no matter what you see, you can’t be impulsive, you know?” Lu Yang shook his head.

Even if another world doesn’t value family affection anymore, being able to throw their children onto the earth is definitely not something that normal parents can do. Either Hong Ye’s parents are dead, and he was chosen by the elders to throw them there, or It’s just that Hong Ye’s parents have other conditions, but no matter what kind of situation, they are not kind to Hong Ye.

Chapter 2533: secret

Lu Yang also has another concern. When he caught Hong Ye, Hong Ye told him his origins. His father was the Fire Dragon King, and his mother was the queen of the demon race. From the current racial bloodline of Hong Ye, Red Night does not seem to be a descendant of these two creatures.

Hong Ye does have the bloodline of the demon family, but it is very weak. After so many years of cultivation, the bloodline of the demon family has gradually disappeared in the strong bloodline inheritance of the dragon family. Therefore, Hong Ye now has no ability to summon demons at all. .

As for Hong Ye's own dragon bloodline, the Fire Dragon King should logically be a sacred dragon, but Hong Ye's bloodline is an ordinary fire dragon, which is obviously unreasonable.

Hong Ye will not lie to Lu Yang, the only problem is that when Hong Ye was still in the egg, someone lied to him, which would cause Hong Ye to think that he was the child of the Fire Dragon King. As for why, There may be other things here.

The Blazing Demon God said in Lu Yang's consciousness: "There may be another reason, that Hong Ye is indeed the child of the Fire Dragon King, but his sacred bloodline was taken away and turned into the bloodline of an ordinary dragon family."

Lu Yang was a little surprised and asked, "Is this okay?"

"The strong eat the weak is the law of the world. In the war between the new gods and the old gods, a Red Dragon King died in the battle. It may be the father of Hong Ye. If it is true, Hong Ye has a deep relationship with me. My father has learned a lot of spells from me, and he is half an apprentice." The Blazing Demon God said.

"Then I really have to take a look." Lu Yang couldn't watch his brother being bullied. For so many years, he and Hong Ye were called master and servant, but in fact Hong Ye was his younger brother. After flying, Hong Ye was rarely summoned to come out, not because he was too slow to fly, but because he was given enough sleep time to make up for the problem that his physical development did not keep up with his rapid increase in strength.

If Hong Ye's blood was really taken away by other dragons, he would have to find justice for his brother, of course, if Lu Yang could beat him.

"Can I know where your home is?" Lu Yang asked Hong Ye consciously.

"Southwest!" Hong Ye's voice was a little lonely.

"Roar!" There was a dragon roar in the air, and a huge red dragon skipped the sky and flew towards the southwest.

Lu Yang looked to the southwest. There was an area shrouded in dark clouds in the far distance. He continued to pretend to be an unconscious fire element and flew over there.

The Blazing Demon God said to Lu Yang in his consciousness: "I will teach you a spell, which is a unique trick of mine, which can make you deceive any powerhouse below the God King at a critical moment. If it is a special area, God The king can't find you."

"What spell?" Lu Yang was a little surprised.

The Blazing Demon God said: "It's a stealth technique. I named him Spirit Fire Form. With your current strength, you can't use it, but you have the fire soul of the undead bird and the Great Nirvana spell, but you can barely use it. Take it for a while."

The feature of this spell is to shrink the energy of the whole body into its own space, leaving only the form of a fire element, which emits a shimmer like a firefly and floats in the sky at will, which will definitely not arouse the suspicion of any strong person. , of course, if it is too deliberate, it will still be discovered.

But this spell looks simple, but it is actually very difficult to use. Before the lower gods, the things that are cultivated are how to get bigger, but after the lower gods, the things that are cultivated are how to become smaller.

To turn Lu Yang into a kilometer-high giant, he can be transformed into it, but to turn him into a firefly, he has to use the spirit of the phoenix bird and the great nirvana spell.

The former allows Lu Yang's soul to be smashed into countless firelights, while the latter allows each firelight to hide Lu Yang's soul.

Lu Yang listened to the explanation of the Blazing Demon God as he walked. When he first arrived in the area shrouded in black mist, he learned it. Looking at the magma pits all over the place, the thick black fog was emerging from these magma pits.

Around each magma pit, there are more than a dozen demigod-rank red flying dragons. If you look around, there are tens of thousands of them. They are all about 100 meters in length. The huge green eyeballs are full of cunning and viciousness. Staring at the surrounding magma area, once a giant flame creature jumps out, it will immediately be killed and swallowed into the stomach. It seems that this area is their eating area.

Lu Yang found that the flying dragons around him were watching him, the uninvited guest. In order not to be suspected, he jumped into the magma, and at the same time a piece of magma was splashed, he turned into a fire element the size of a firefly and flew towards the sky. past.

The surrounding flying dragons stopped paying attention to Lu Yang, the fire element, and continued to stare at the nearby speech pit, which allowed Lu Yang to escape the first catastrophe.

He flew to the foot of a high mountain in front of him, looked up, the mountain was several thousand meters high, and the black mist formed a protective layer around the mountain, and the real situation of the mountain could not be seen from the outside.

The height of the mountain is several kilometers, and the mountain is not sharper as it goes up, but becomes a huge cylinder halfway up the mountain. width in kilometers.

The most incredible thing is that there is no snow on the top of the mountain. It is different from the higher the human world, the colder the area, the higher the area, the hotter, because the flame star is very close to the other world, and the mountain is so high. , as if the top of the mountain is connected to the flame star, so the top of the mountain is burned red by the high temperature of the flame star, as if there is magma flowing down from the top of the mountain.

“Shenzhu Mountain, according to legend, before I was born millions of years ago, the other world was connected with the flame star, the polar cold star, the holy light star, and the dark moon star, and the connection points were the four Shenzhu Mountains. Later, the battle of the god-king was interrupted. The powerful people above the lower gods all lived on the four gods. The creatures of the lower gods and below mainly lived on this planet that you called another world. “The Blazing Demon God explained.

Lu Yang asked: “Why does the dragon race occupy this place? I don’t think this is the central area of another world.”

Blazing Demon God said: “The top of the mountain here is the closest place to the flame star, and the elemental energy of the flame star obtained is also the most abundant. It stands to reason that this kind of treasure is impossible to give to the dragon clan, but the dragon clan’s power is too great, and , they are too united.”

This Lu Yang can understand that the Dragon Emperor is in the same position as the Blazing Demon God, but the * kings under the Blazing Demon God may not all listen to him, and there are betrayals by his subordinates, but the Dragon Clan does not. All the dragon kings are the children of the Dragon Emperor. .

If it weren’t for the fact that the number of dragons was too small compared to the ten thousand races in another world, the dragons were the rulers of this world.

There was a cry of pain not far away, and Lu Yang looked over curiously. Halfway up the mountain, there was a group of handsome men and women of all races. Their bodies were bound by spells like Yanyang cables. The chains burned scars on their bodies.

“This is the slave of the red dragon family. The huge dragon family needs someone to wipe their bodies, and there are all kinds of tedious things. It is estimated that the slaves who have made mistakes are being punished.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang was a little curious. Instead of continuing to fly upwards, he floated to the vicinity of the group of slaves and gathered with a large group of fire elements emerging from the nearby magma pit.

“What are you going to do?” Blazing Demon God asked.

Lu Yang said: “I’m looking for someone, and if I want to know about Hong Ye’s past life experience, the best way is to ask these slaves. If there are still slaves who served the Fire Dragon King, they might know what happened.”

“That’s right.” The Blazing Demon God agreed with Lu Yang’s point of view, and his consciousness swept across this area. He found that the highest-level dragon clan was the lower * rank, and there was only one, and the rest of the dragon clan were flying dragons of the monarch rank. Then there are the other slaves.

Among the more than 1,000 slaves, the most special is a female demon who was imprisoned in a dungeon. It seems that she is very old and will die at any time.

“Go in and have a look.” The Blazing Demon God printed the information he saw into Lu Yang’s head.

The fire element that Lu Yang turned into pretended to fall naturally and entered the magma. He walked through the magma underground and came to this prison.

The woman of the demon race is extremely beautiful. It can be said that this woman is a fascinating character even if it is not a disaster for the country and the people, but at this time the female demon fell into a coma, half of her body was immersed in the magma, only the neck is above the neck. On the magma, the two arms and abdomen were also strangled into the flesh by the yanyang chain. Originally, the demon had a strong regeneration ability, but the woman was already dying, and the recovery ability was insufficient.

Lu Yang didn't dare to wake the woman up. Without knowing her identity, he rashly asked if he might be in danger. He put his right hand on the woman's head, and the magic power surged in his body, launching the Thirty-Three Heavens. fantasy.

"Buzz!"

The illusion was instantly rebounded, and the demon woman also woke up. Although she was on the verge of death, her eyes were full of ferocity. She stared at Lu Yang in front of her and said, "If you want to steal my memory, don't think about it!"

Lu Yang stared at the woman, frowned and said, "Who are you? Why do you have such a powerful illusionary rebound ability in your head? It shouldn't be."

"Who are you? I haven't seen your race?" The woman stared at Lu Yang and said.

Lu Yang didn't speak, but passed the woman's appearance to Hong Ye's mind through consciousness, and asked, "Do you know him?"

"I'm a little familiar with this breath, it seems to be very close to me." Hong Ye's voice was a little excited.

Lu Yang made a move with his right hand, and Hong Ye appeared beside him with a size of two meters. In an instant, the demon woman was stunned, and Hong Ye was also stunned.

"You, you, you are the child of Her Royal Highness." The demon woman pointed at herself excitedly and said, "I am Gagarie, the captain of the guard of Her Royal Highness, and your guardian."

Hong Ye's eyes were filled with confusion, and she said, "When I went to Earth, I was still an egg. I'm sorry, I can't remember you."

"No, you should remember me, but you were severely injured. The * current Fire Dragon King took away your sacred blood and erased your memory of this period." The demon girl Gagari said angrily.

Lu Yang is always testing whether what Gagarie said is a lie. He has a test method taught by the Blazing Demon God, which is to use magic power to sense the other party's mental fluctuations. Now, although Gagali's mental fluctuations are great, it is different from the state of lies. Completely unrelated.

"Hong Ye, I have everything about you in my mind, and the property left to you by Her Royal Highness, my life has come to an end, take it away, I finally waited for you, Your Highness, Princess, I have lived up to your expectations, and the devil is also loyal..." Gagarie laughed wildly and tilted her head. Obviously, Gagarie died because her mental power was exhausted by torture. One of the cruelest ways to die.

As soon as Hong Ye found a relative, she lost it again, which made Hong Ye's heart completely unacceptable, and roared angrily: "Who is it, who is it that hurt you so much, tell me."

Lu Yang stroked Hong Ye's back lightly and said, "Don't let Jiajiali's painstaking efforts take away the memory in his head as soon as possible. It's not safe here, we have to leave quickly."

The sudden death of a prisoner with a big secret like Gagarie is likely to attract the attention of his captors.

Hong Ye also knew the urgency of the matter. Although Gagarie didn't tell him what to do, he had his own memory. He bit his finger and dripped the first blood on Gagarie's head. In an instant, a cloud of black The ball of light flew out of Gagarie's head and went straight into Hong Ye's head.

"Boom!"

"Boom!"

"Boom!"

...

The sound of heavy footsteps came from above his head, and Lu Yang felt that something was wrong, so he hurriedly put Hong Ye into the Devil's Temple, then he swept away the blood on Jia Jiali's head, and then took Hong Ye's breath when he first appeared. After covering it up, it turned into a fire element light spot and fell into the magma.

It didn't take too long, a half-dragon, half-demon creature appeared, but when Lu Yang saw the other party, he instantly fell into a panic. Because, the other party actually has the breath of a * king!

Chapter 2534: weird event

"Gagali, you're finally dead, I've waited too long for this day..."

"Your soul has been tormented to pieces by me. Although I really want to imprison you for another 10,000 years, there is no place for you to be tortured by me..."

"Even though you have the opportunity to become a high-level god, but you have to keep the secret for Calgardello and Shia, what's the use?"

"Their son was drained by me and thrown into the earth. He is dead now, or he has become the mount of some inferior race."

The half-dragon and half-demon creature radiated blazing flames all over its body, illuminating the surrounding space clearly and allowing Lu Yang to see his appearance clearly.

This is an extremely ferocious and cunning face. What is even more terrifying is that he has two heads. The second dragon head is completely black and is shrouded in a thick fog. Only two strange red lights emerge from the black fog. shot out.

Lu Yang's phantom fire element was swept away by the red light, and it was almost annihilated directly. That is to say, Lu Yang resisted the urge to flee into Bandarsburg, and still pretended to be unconscious in the form of fire element. ups and downs.

"What's wrong?" the red dragon head asked.

"I felt a little strange, but I couldn't tell what was wrong." Hei Longtou's voice came from the black mist.

"I am a * king, and you are also a * king. Can anyone in this world deceive you and me, exist?" The Red Dragon King showed a sarcastic smile.

"Forget it, destroy the corpse and destroy the traces and leave here as soon as possible. You haven't received the approval of all the elders of the red dragon. This matter has been discovered, and the price is something you can't afford." Heilongtou said.

"Don't worry, the dark magic in Gagarie's body is the best supplement for my son. It's better for my son to eat her." The red dragon head whispered.

A red light burst out from the side of the red dragon's head, followed by a half-dragon man with two heads, but his strength was very weak, only a demigod.

"Father, what are you looking for from me?" asked the half-dragon man of the half-god rank.

"Let your dark dragon eat Gagarie," said the half-dragon man of the god-king rank.

"I can't wait." The half-dragon man of the demigod level showed an excited expression, and the dark dragon head suddenly flew out like a snake, came to Jiagali, and ate her completely, and then the darkness The breath of the dragon head could not be concealed, and it was already in the middle stage of the quasi-god.

"How many times have I told you how to cover up the quasi-god aura of your black dragon head, how come you don't have a long memory, and if you can't do it again, don't follow it this time." The half-dragon man of the god-king rank roared stand up.

“I’m too excited, father, please rest assured, I will do this operation perfectly.” The half-dragon man of the half-god rank showed a cruel smile at the corner of his mouth.

“Don’t let down the sacred blood that I grabbed for you.” The half-dragon man of the god-king rank waved his hand, and both dragons disappeared.

Lu Yang suddenly felt relieved, but he did not act. After waiting for about two hours, he sank into the magma.

After receiving so much news, Lu Yang has probably guessed what happened. On the other hand, Hong Ye also left the illusion from Jiajiali’s soul. He knew what was going on, and he told Lu Yang all about it. come out.

It turned out that the god-king just now was called Valshlik, the father of Hong Ye and the younger brother of the previous dragon king Calgado, the demigod was called Valdo, the son of Valshlik.

In the battle between the old and the new gods, the dragon clan originally adhered to the principle of stillness and did not participate in this kind of war, but a war broke out unexpectedly near Shenzhu Mountain. Hong Ye’s father had a good relationship with the Blazing Demon God, and participated in the war as a person to help the old god. As a result, after the war, his body was severely injured, and he was attacked to death by Walshlik when he returned to Shenzhu Mountain to cultivate.

It stands to reason that when Hong Ye’s father died, Hong Ye should inherit the position of the Red Dragon King, but Walshlik took this opportunity to take away the sacred blood of Hong Ye, framing Hong Ye as having only the blood of the demon family and not worthy of being a member of the Hong Ye family. New Patriarch.

Hong Ye was still a dragon egg at the time. After being checked by the elders, they found that Hong Ye did not have a sacred bloodline, so they thought that Hong Ye was their shame. Taking advantage of the connection between the other world and the coordinates of the earth, they threw Hong Ye onto the earth.

Hong Ye’s mother Shia had already discovered the problem of Valshlik, so when Hong Ye was born, half of his bloodline was sealed, and all the treasures that were originally prepared to enhance Hong Ye’s strength were stored in a special In the space, the coordinates are known only to her, Red Ye's father, and her maid, Gagali.

After the death of Hong Ye's father, Shia committed suicide. Jiagali thought that she was a servant and would not be treated too harshly, but she did not expect that Walshlick used the secret method of the demon family that he did not know where to find out Jiagali. The secret realm in Gary's head was only imprisoned to death because Gagarie did not reveal the contents of the secret realm.

"I want revenge!" Hong Ye looked at Lu Yang and the Blazing Demon God with tears in his eyes.

"Your father died because of me. From now on you will be my disciple of the Blazing Demon God, and I will teach you all my skills." Blazing Demon God is already extremely angry. If he is still a god-king rank, he has already fought with Walshlik. Rick got up.

Lu Yang said to Hong Ye: "In a while, we will find a place where no one is free to open a special space, take out the treasure left by your parents, and slowly improve your strength. There will be a day when you will take revenge."

Walshlik is the king of gods, and Hong Ye is now a peak of the monarchy.

Hong Ye is also clear, nodded and said: "I will work hard, master."

Lu Yang waved his hand and removed the servant mark on Hong Ye's forehead, saying, "I have never regarded you as a servant, and I have never regarded you as your master. I have always regarded you as a younger brother, since you are with the Blazing Demon God. With this origin, we are more like brothers, and I will not have any restrictions on you in the future, but you can't be impulsive."

Hong Ye never thought that one day Lu Yang would take the initiative to remove the mark of master and servant from him, and he felt even more grateful and said, "I am willing to be your mount forever."

Lu Yang smiled and stroked Hong Ye's forehead, and said, "Calm down, we're ready to go."

You can't stay here for a long time, the red dragon family has a big problem now, how can there be a pure fire dragon blood and an extra black dragon head, it can only prove that the new fire dragon king is cultivating some strange exercises, and seeing him follow him His son's words were still carrying on some kind of secret thing.

I don't know how many epochs the Red Dragon family has inherited. They can't be all idiots. Haven't the other elders found the problem?

Either it is found that the problem cannot be solved and it is eliminated, or it is assimilated, or it is secretly accumulating strength. Staying in such a complex environment, one more second may fall into danger.

Blazing Demon God said: "It sinks to an area two thousand meters underground. There is a magma belt. You can escape to a lava area two thousand kilometers away from Shenzhu Mountain, and from there go to the Thunder Fire area."

Lu Yang nodded and swam quickly along the lava area. In the lava area, there are all kinds of creatures with different strengths, but none of them attacked Lu Yang. The eye-catching fire element is like a fish in the water seeing the water flow away from it.

Nearly a day later, Lu Yang found an area ahead where lava erupted outwards. He quickly leaned over. At the same time, he sensed the situation above and confirmed that there were no creatures.

"boom"

Lu Yang spurted out a mass of magma and landed on the land. The magma slowly flowed down from him. At this time, he had turned into a fire demon form, and his strength had also risen to the demigod realm. He looked around. , here is a scorching swamp-like magma belt.

For humans and most creatures from other worlds, this is an unlivable area, but for flame creatures, this is their hotbed, and they feel comfortable lying down.

Lu Yang released Hong Ye, let him open the space coordinates, and took out the inheritance left to him by his parents, among which there were indeed many treasures, just enough for Hong Ye to be promoted from the monarch rank to the lower god.

“Why isn’t there a higher one?” Lu Yang was a little curious.

Blazing Demon God said: “For a large race like the Dragon Clan, all the treasures are in the hands of the elders. In a hurry, it would be good to have so many left.”

Hong Ye looked at Lu Yang and said, “Boss, use these training treasures first.”

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile, and said, “Don’t spoil my Taoism. You can keep your own practice, go to the spring in the Temple of Demons, and improve your strength, I won’t call you in the short term already.”

“Okay.” Hong Ye knew that Lu Yang was not hypocritical, so he entered the Demon Temple with the supplies to practice.

Lu Yang looked left and right, and after confirming that there were no enemies around, he turned into a phoenix and flew forward quickly.

The Leihuo restricted area is far away from here. If he walks away, it will take at least half a month. If he flies, only one day is enough. After being promoted to the quasi-god rank, Lu Yang in the form of a phoenix can fly faster than before. several times.

The Blazing Demon God also agreed with Lu Yang using the form of an undead bird to fly in, because all races with creatures above the lower gods have guarded the secret realm in their own region, and will not let the clansmen come to such a dangerous thunderfire secret realm. Therefore, there is no need to worry about Lu Yang being attacked by a stronger person. Furthermore, if he enters the quasi-god state, unless a strong person above the main * comes in person, even the upper gods can’t take away Lu Yang’s undead bird soul.

But not long after he flew, a strange howl in the distance and the fast flying creature made him frown.

“What is this thing, how come it has a donkey face, a human body, and bat wings, it’s so evil.” Lu Yang said speechlessly.

As he described, a creature with a length of just over two meters and a donkey face approached at a faster speed than Lu Yang. When it stopped 30 meters away from Lu Yang, the donkey-faced creature He laughed and said hello in Elvish language: “Hey, buddy, you’re going to the Leihuo restricted area, right? How about walking together?”

“Is it so familiar?” This is the first time that Lu Yang has seen a creature from another world so approachable and chatty. It doesn’t seem right!

Chapter 2535: restricted area rules

The Blazing Demon God said in Lu Yang’s consciousness: “He is a Dongke demon, you should call him a donkey-faced man, this thing really has the same face as a donkey on the earth, but don’t underestimate him, this thing It is one of the ten fastest races in the demon race, especially good at sudden acceleration, which can reach 1.5 times the flight speed just now.”

Lu Yang was a little stunned and said, “Then he kills me, I have no ability to resist.”

Blazing Demon God said: “It’s almost the same, after all, it is a rare race among the gods, and the number of its own ethnic groups is very small. It is specially used to transmit news during the war, and its strength is much more tyrannical than ordinary demigods. You are five It looks like five.”

Lu Yang was a little wary, looked at the donkey-faced man, and did not laugh at him because of his face. He greeted him with the chest beating salute of the Fire Demon tribe: “My name is Huoya, what’s the matter with you?”

“It turned out to be Brother Huoya, my name is Deedila.” The donkey-faced man looked familiar, but still kept a safe distance, and said with a smile: “Look, brother is also going to the Leihuo restricted area, how about we go together together? I am also a person without race.”

Lu Yang was delighted and said, “You are a winter devil, how can you have no race?”

“This is a tragic thing. I was kicked out by my clan, so I, who have reached the pinnacle of demigods, can only go out to the restricted area of thunder and fire by myself. Are you interested in going with me? Let me tell you, this year The thunder and fire restricted area is not ordinary, I heard that there will be many powerful races coming, and it is very disadvantageous to act alone.” The donkey-faced man Dedilah said mysteriously.

Lu Yang was a little curious, but he shook his head with a smile, and said, “Sorry, I’m used to being alone, so I don’t cooperate anymore.”

“It doesn’t matter, it’s normal for you not to cooperate with me now, but when you get to the assembly town outside the Thunder Fire restricted area, you will know that what I said is true or false. I hope you will not refuse to invite you at that time.” The sluggishness caused Lu Yang’s suspicions, and he turned around and flew away with a wave of his hand.

Lu Yang looked at his back and became more and more curious. After Deidara flew far away, he continued to fly forward, and arrived at the periphery of the Thunder Fire restricted area a few hours later.

Looking from the air, in front of you is a huge palace group that stretches as far as the eye can see, and the endless lava on the ground rolls and flows like small streams.

On both sides of the lava flows, there are strange trees everywhere. The trees bear crimson fruits, and there are many flame grasses with crimson rays on the ground, which illuminate the entire palace complex very dazzlingly.

Blazing Demon God said: “This is the restricted area of thunder and fire. Even Malthus doesn’t know when the palace was built. It is said that this palace existed when the earliest generation of Fire God King appeared.

At that time, the creatures in the palace lost the battle with the first generation of * kings, and activated the prohibition of the thunder and fire restricted area, which formed what it is today. Remember, you can only fly close to the ground when entering the thunder and fire restricted area, and if it exceeds 10 meters, the thunder and fire prohibition will be triggered. Attacked by god-king spells. ”

Lu Yang was a little stunned, and said, “The attack of the * king? Then my Nirvana technique is useless.”

The Blazing Demon God said: “The attack of the god-king rank is to kill the body and kill the soul. Therefore, in the thunder and fire restricted area, although there will be battles between the various race powerhouses, they are very restrained, unless they encounter thunder and fire seeds.”

Lu Yang nodded. He understood why this place was called a forbidden area where the gods and kings would fear. He asked, “How do we get there?”

The Blazing Demon God said: “Don’t worry, the Thunder Fire restricted area can only be entered in two days. At that time, a ceremony will be held in the restricted area, and the children of the ancient gods in the restricted area will gather there. Only at this time will the outside of the restricted area be unguarded.

Before the time is up, you can go to the villages in the southwest first. At this time of year, most of the strong people will gather in a village first, on the one hand, to exchange some useful things with each other, on the other hand, to look at each other for details. , let’s go over and take a look, we have a plan in mind. ”

Lu Yang was also curious about what kind of powerhouses were there. He flew towards an open space 20 kilometers southwest of the Leihuo forbidden area. The auras of various demigods were condensed there. Obviously, a large number of powerhouses were gathering there. .

There is a rule in another world. If you want to enter a village of a race, unless you want to be an enemy of this village, you have to walk in from the entrance of the village to show respect for all the strong people in this village.

At present, the lowest level of the powerhouses in this temporary village is the pinnacle of demigods, and the strongest are lower-level gods.

“The evil soul stone is exchanged for the dark crystal, and the rest are not required.”

“Six-hoofed beast mounts, obedient and obedient, can only be traded with high-end items.”

From the beginning of the village, there were a large number of demigods of different appearances hawking. Lu Yang observed them one by one, but what he was looking at was not the item, but the race.

After some exploration, he discovered some situations, but just as he was about to discuss with the Blazing Demon God, a figure appeared beside him, grabbed his arm, and said, “Follow me.”

Lu Yang broke free and was about to attack, but found that it was the donkey-faced man he met on the road. He frowned and asked, “What are you doing?”

“Don’t hang out here, it’s dangerous here.” The donkey-faced man said with a good-for-you look on his face.

Lu Yang was very happy. If the donkey-faced man had no plans for him, he would never talk to him like this. It just so happened that Lu Yang also found something wrong, so he had to chat with the donkey-faced man.

“Lead the way ahead.” Lu Yang said.

The donkey-faced man’s eyes lit up, he turned around and took Lu Yang out of the market. After passing through the ruins, he entered a house similar to a temple.

“Phew! It’s safe at last. Let me introduce you first. They are my teammates this time.” The donkey-faced man Dedilah pointed to the three different-looking strong men beside him with excitement and said: “lan of the Fire Ghost Clan, Park of the Red Armor Clan, Mia of the Wind Clan.”

The appearance of the fire ghosts is just like his name. They are creatures between the demons and the flames. The red armors look like half-humans and half-insects. Parker’s lower body has six legs, and Mia of the Lanfeng tribe is A female demon with an extremely ugly appearance.

“You can also see that Ian is fierce in melee combat, Parker runs the fastest in the penalty area, and Mia is the best support, which allows us to have a higher temperature flame when we fight against the fire element, and there are you and me like this. The strong flying fast on the ground, we” Deedila described the appearance of entering the restricted area eloquently.

Before he could finish, Lu Yang interrupted Deedila’s painting and asked with a frown, “You haven’t told me why you were in danger just now.”

Didiera was stunned for a moment, he didn’t expect Lu Yang to be so bad at fooling around, and said with a dignified expression: “Didn’t you notice the situation in the village? But they really want to be assassinated by them.”

“Four great clans?” Lu Yang heard this word for the first time.

“Oh my god, you don’t even know about the four major clans in the restricted area, right?” Deedila showed a shocked expression, covered her head and said, “From the time you entered the village, you should have found that the four corners of the village were covered with blue The ghost clan, the red demon clan, the red dragon clan and the evil head clan occupy them, they are the four major clans.”

When Lu Yang entered the village, he did see several powerful and numerous races, one was the blue ghost with blue flames all over his body, the second was the red devil with red flames all over his body, and the third was The Red Dragon clan of Hong Ye’s family, the last evil head clan is the most strange, with three heads, but only one head is working, and the other two heads are dead.

He could clearly perceive that in the corners of the four villages, there were powerhouses at the lower * level among the four races, but he didn’t feel the tension.

“Every year before entering the Thunder Fire Restricted Area, demigods of wandering races will disappear for no reason. Therefore, most of the wandering races will gather together to prevent them from being attacked by the four major clans.” Ian of the fire ghost clan’s voice is very simple and honest, which makes people willing to believe.

Lu Yang was even more disbelieving. He shook his head with a smile, and refused: “Thank you for your kindness. I’m used to being alone, so I won’t cooperate with you. Goodbye.”

Deedila saw Lu Yang leave, but she didn't know how to keep Lu Yang, and she didn't know how to open her mouth when she could talk for a while.

It wasn't until Lu Yang disappeared not far in front of methat Mia of the Lanfeng Clan said, "Let's find someone else, it's impossible to lack someone."

"Oh, it's a pity." Deedila shook her head and walked out.

the other side.

Lu Yang returned to the street and continued to wander. He stopped at each booth for a long time to discuss the details of the purchase and sale of items with the other party. In fact, he was using his perception ability to scan every strong person in the past to confirm the true strength of the other party, and through the Blazing Demon God to know what fire spells the opponent is using.

It took ten hours for Lu Yang to confirm that, except for the clansmen of the four great clans who had not probed, he had probed the rest. There was no one who could kill him one-on-one on the bright side, and there were seven who could beat him. One, the rest are not his opponents.

"This trip seems to be quite safe, as long as we take the road we are familiar with," the Blazing Demon God just relaxed, and suddenly, his consciousness locked on a group of strong men flying over outside the village entrance.

The unique coercion of the dragon clan all raised their heads involuntarily, but when they saw that the dragon clan headed was a median god, the anger in the hearts of all the powerhouses was suppressed, and the dragon clan left the village from the top of the head. It flew over and landed in the northeast corner of the village.

Lu Yang and the Blazing Demon God both looked surprised at the same time. What they were surprised was not that a median * took the lead, but that among the numerous demigod-level giant dragons, they sensed that they were in the prison of Shenzhu Mountain yesterday. The breath of the dragon king's son, Waldo, especially the dark dragon head breath hidden on the other side, could not be concealed after being locked by the peculiar perception ability of the Blazing Demon God.

“It’s not right, this time there is a major event in the Thunder Fire restricted area.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang nodded in agreement, his expression even more solemn!

Chapter 2536: Ancient magic secret method

It stands to reason that the son of the fire dragon king like Valdo should enter the treasure area controlled by the fire dragon family to improve his quasi-god strength. He should not take risks in such a public thunder and fire restricted area. At that time, Valdo told the Fire Dragon King that he would complete this task perfectly.

“What task could it be? Did they discover anything special about the Thunder Fire restricted area?” Lu Yang was a little curious.

The Blazing Demon God said: “Follow me tomorrow and have a look.”

Lu Yang nodded, and continued to look at a few stalls while pretending to be looking for items. He found an abandoned house near the Dragon Clan area and rested.

Silent all night.

On the second morning, inside the Thunder Fire Restricted Area, there was a sudden drumbeat of shocking spirits, followed by the sound of a low incantation, and the coercion released together was even more powerful than the god-king rank.

When Lu Yang was on the battlefield of Chaos Beasts, he didn't have such pressure against the two * kings, which shows how terrifying the sound of the spell was.

in a temporary village.

Countless demigods were shocked by the sound, and they all got up and came to the north exit of the village, and Lu Yang was also among them.

The flame stars in the sky became extremely fiery, and the magma on the ground became extremely violent. A crimson magma surged up from the periphery of the Thunder Fire restricted area to a height of 100 meters, and the sound of the explosion made everyone shudder.

This is not simple magma, but the power of thunder and fire. Once these demigods touch these millions of degrees of high temperature lava, they will also be seriously injured.

“Roar!”

The roar of the dragon that was deliberately suppressed resounded through the village, and a five-hundred-meter-sized red fire dragon flapped its wings and blocked it in front of everyone. The fire dragon in front of them had known each other yesterday, the mid-level god-level sacred dragon Bir Gai.

“All quasi-gods, get out!” Bill Gai showed his ferocious fangs, and the terrifying sacred flame was already in his throat, ready to spurt out at any time.

There were a lot of quasi-gods hidden at the scene, and at the same time, he felt that he was locked by the spirit of Bill Gai, so scared that he did not dare to say a word, turned into a streamer and flew away into the distance.

The median * is terrifying. Not only does he have super strong combat power, he is also a commander on the battlefield. He has a very smart mind. No quasi * dares to play tricks in front of them.

Bill Gai showed a satisfied expression, looked at the rest of the thousands of powerhouses sarcastically, and said: "Some descendants of my dragon clan will enter the restricted area of thunder and fire, if they encounter danger, I hope everyone will help, and the fire dragon clan will definitely reward them. , but if anyone dares to harm my Fire Dragon Clan, if I know it, I will let him and all his clansmen taste the wrath of my Fire Dragon Clan."

"Yes." No one at the scene dared to refute, not even the lower gods of the Blue Ghost Clan, the Red Devil Clan and the Evil Head Clan did not dare to refute.

This is a ceremony that is held every time before entering the restricted area. The major races with powers above the lower gods will inform the powerhouses and wandering powerhouses of other races in advance, and they are not allowed to hurt their clansmen. If they can help, they will also will gain their friendship.

After Bilge finished speaking, he stepped aside, followed by the lower gods of the Blue Ghosts, followed by the lower gods of the Red Devils and the Evil Heads. When they were all finished, the strong men of the four clans took their clansmen with them. Go to the edge of the Thunder Fire Exclusion Zone.

At this time, a large amount of red thick fog rose up on the ground of the Thunder Fire Forbidden Area, covering almost the entire Thunder Fire Forbidden Area. The red thick fog is very special. Within a range of less than two kilometers, it is impossible to see even 2 meters away from the line of sight.

"What kind of fog is this?" Lu Yang asked.

The Blazing Demon God said: "The method of the thunder and fire restricted area is designed to prevent foreign creatures from entering. When the fog appears, there will be a large number of thunder and fire beasts and lava worms. Among them, the thunder and fire beasts attack with thunder and fire attributes, quasi-god. It's hard to beat them, the demigods only have the chance to escape, the flames spewed by the lava worms, the temperature is above 500,000 degrees, although they can't cause any harm to you, but don't provoke them easily."

Lu Yang nodded, his consciousness swept around, and found that the four major clans had found their respective entry points. Obviously, they had come many times and already had their own common passages. Some strong people from other races were alone, and some Several people formed a team to prepare to go in together.

Lu Yang did not choose a team, but turned into a fire element in the area close to the Fire Dragon Clan, and flew into the Thunder Fire restricted area at a low altitude.

“Roar!”

In the thick smoke, a black shadow suddenly rushed sideways, slapped the fire element that Lu Yang had transformed into with one claw and flew out, and followed the black shadow to stop and watch left and right.

The little fire element that Lu Yang disguised as was extremely light, and stopped after a few laps in the air. He took a closer look and saw that he was attacked by a strong monster with red and blue light all over his body, about 5 meters tall. With a wolf head and ape body, the skin seems to be made of lava, and it is very different from lava.

“This is the Thunder Fire Beast, which is completely formed by the ancient thunder element and the ancient fire element. It is similar to the Chaos Beast and the Void Mother Insect. It looks like a demigod, but it has the strength of a quasi-god peak, and is good at releasing thunder and fire dual-system spells. “The Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang nodded. He didn’t dare to fight the Thunder Fire Beast at all, especially in this smoky area. He didn’t react at all to the Thunder Fire Beast’s attack just now. Obviously, the Thunder Fire Beast would rush over because Lu Yang was entering. Before reaching the Thunder Fire restricted area, the aura emanating from his body was locked by the Thunder Fire Beast, but he quickly turned into a fire element, which made the Thunder Fire Beast rushing over to lose his target, and replaced it with a demigod without a secret technique. The blow just now, not dead is also seriously injured!

“I’d better go to the Fire Dragon Clan and follow them to be safe.” Lu Yang floated towards the right front.

Although the fire element is not easy to be found, there is still a risk of being found. It is better to follow a group of powerful creatures, fight them when they fight, and just avoid it.

After half an hour.

Lu Yang came to the entrance area of the Red Dragon Clan, and it happened that the Red Dragon Clan had not yet entered the Thunder Fire restricted area.

Waldo and the other seven demigod-rank fire dragons have all turned into demigods. Standing in a magic circle, the middle-rank god-rank sacred dragon is chanting spells against them, and there is also a colorless liquid. sprinkle on them.

“This is the thunder and fire liquid of the fire dragon family. The spell is a spell to dispel grievances. With the blessing of these two things, Waldo and the others will enter the thunder and fire forbidden area and will not be tracked by the thunder and fire beasts and lava worms.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang nodded.

“His Royal Highness Waldo, I really don’t understand why you are doing this. Although your character is very noble and I admire it from the bottom of my heart, I am still worried about your risky behavior. I hope you can get Thunder Fire Liquid smoothly.” The sacred fire dragon of the median * level, Bill Gai, no longer had the arrogant look he had just now, and said humbly and respectfully looking at Waldo, who had turned into a half-dragon in front of him.

Waldo’s second head actually disappeared and did not appear on his shoulders. With only one head, Waldo had a handsome face. From the aesthetic point of view of the human race, he was also a charming handsome guy, matched with his humble expression, As well as the elegant posture, the dragons around him admire him very much.

“As the prince of the fire dragon clan, I should do more for the race. Don’t worry, Bill Gai, I won’t die in battle, and my brothers are also by my side, they will help me.” Vaal With a smile, he looked at the several demigod dragons around him. They did not have sacred blood, but were extremely loyal to Waldo.

“I’d rather die in battle and protect the prince’s safety.” The seven demigod dragons said in unison.

“Okay, I’ll wait for your news here. The powerhouses in the restricted area have already left their positions. Just be careful of the Thunder Fire Beast and the Flame Demon Bug,” Bill Gai warned.

“Wait for our good news.” Valdo saluted Bilge and the other lower * dragons gracefully, turned around and brought seven dragons who were also half-dragons into the Thunder Fire Restricted Area.

Lu Yang pretended to be unconscious and secretly followed behind Valdo, but what surprised Lu Yang was that Valdo was not in the depths of the Thunder Fire restricted area, but after entering the city gate, he was leaning against the wall. Quickly flew to the area where the blue ghosts were located.

The distance between the two races is not very far. Valdo’s flying speed is fast, and the flight resistance is close to the ground. There are no other races between the two races. Therefore, it didn’t take too long for Valdo to come to the Thunder Fire Restricted Area. near a dilapidated house.

“The blue ghosts are coming, everyone is ready.” Valdo issued an order.

On the shoulders of the seven demigods, a second pitch-black head grew out at the same time, and the color of the body became half red and half black, and outside the dilapidated house, the demigods of the eight blue ghosts were cautiously Explore.

The fog made it impossible to see the distance of two meters around, but Valdo and his seven men seemed to be able to see through the fog and aimed at their respective targets at the same time.

Waldo waved his hand, and his body turned into a black mist, which merged with the surrounding thick smoke, and slowly floated behind the blue ghost demigod headed by him. In an instant, Waldo appeared and his limbs were tightly entangled. At the other side, he followed the jet-black dragon head and bit the back of the neck of the blue ghost demigod.

“Uh!” The demigods of the Blue Ghost Clan fell to the ground without any resistance, and died!

When Valdo stood up, the jet-black faucet became clearer, even showing a weird smile, and said excitedly: “I’m about to be promoted to a quasi-god, continue to kill, continue to kill!”

There was also a satisfied look on Waldo’s face, and he closed his eyes and said with enjoyment: “Going to the restricted area of the dragon race, how can there be such a public restricted area, the abundant power of makes my soul change. Refresh, are you ready? My warriors?”

“Ready.” The seven dragon warriors stood up one after another, and they also absorbed their respective goals. Everyone’s face was full of satisfaction, and every ghost’s head also had an excited smile.

The Blazing Demon God reacted abruptly, and said excitedly: “Damn, the Red Dragons are breaking tabs, and Valdo is learning the exercises of the ancient demons.”

“Is that ghost head?” Lu Yang asked.

“Yes, it’s the ghost head. At first I thought they were the second avatars who had cultivated the spells of the extraterrestrial demons and formed the second avatar with negative emotions. I was wrong. They learned the spells of the ancient demon family. The ghost head just now, is a more ferocious exercise than Hongyan, which can instantly disperse the soul of the attacked body, and turn it into energy to be absorbed.” Blazing Flame Demon God cursed a little angrily.

“So domineering.” Lu Yang was a little surprised. His red flames can only burn people to death, and are almost ineffective for living people.

The Blazing Demon God said: “Doge is domineering, but the second black dragon head that can be cultivated is the evil thoughts of the dragon clan. They will infinitely magnify the desire of the dragon clan and eventually want to destroy everything. Back then, a dragon king who cultivated a black dragon head almost killed him. Dragon Sovereign, since then the Dragon Clan is strictly forbidden to study, this Fire Dragon King is courting death.”

Lu Yang said: “Then I will let Hong Ye tell the Dragon Emperor about this matter, will it be resolved?”

The Blazing Demon God shook his head and said, “Dragon Emperor has disappeared for tens of thousands of years, so it’s useless to look for him.”

“Then we have to take revenge ourselves.” Lu Yang was a little moved. He wanted to kill this Waldo and secretly followed behind them.

“I’ll tell you the weakness of the black dragon head.” Blazing Demon God also wanted to avenge his dead friend.

Chapter 2537: assassinate

The biggest weakness of Heilongtou is that before he was promoted to the next god, he had no eyes. Although he had nose, eyes, and ears, this thing was a collection of evil thoughts. In Longtou's eyes, all he sees are phantoms that are malicious to him or have energy surging. Once a creature approaches it, it does not have any evil thoughts, nor does it emit magic power, and the black dragon sees everything. No, even if you meet him face to face, he doesn't know you exist.

Lu Yang's current practice is just to restrain the black dragon head, and the transformation into the fire element does not have any magic fluctuations. As long as Lu Yang can fly in the direction of the black dragon head calmly and without any malice, the black dragon head will not be able to find it. he.

Waldo and the other seven red dragon warriors marched forward in a vertical line. The normal dragon head looked at the front, and the black dragon heads of each red dragon warrior in the back looked to the left and right in turn, and the red dragon warriors at the end of the line. Looking behind with black faucet.

In an area surrounded by dense fog, this is the most ideal formation. No matter if there is any enemy sneak attack, the black dragon head can perceive it in advance, even the thunder and fire beasts are no exception.

Lu Yang followed behind the last Red Dragon warrior. He didn't launch a sneak attack rashly. Now that he had a way to restrain the enemy, he didn't rush to do it.

There are nearly a thousand demigods entering this area. It seems that Waldo is going to kill all the demigods to upgrade their black dragon heads. In this case, he might as well follow behind these red dragons slowly. , When fighting, it is more convenient for him to sneak attack, and it may save the trouble of robbing Thunder Fire Liquid with other powerhouses.

“Strange, why is there one missing?” Waldo’s voice came from the front. He held a black eye in his hand. The white light from this eye floated on Waldo’s chest, forming a three-dimensional picture.

There are a lot of red light spots in the picture, as well as some blue and red light spots, which makes the seven red dragon warriors look curious.

“His Royal Highness, what is this?” a red dragon warrior asked curiously.

“The devil’s eye, when I was in the village, I used this eye to scan all the demigods, and their evil thoughts were recorded in this eye. This time, there were 998 demigods who entered the Leihuo restricted area. We just killed them. After 8 blue ghosts, there should be 990, but now there are only 989 light spots on it, where did the missing one go?”

“Will it be eaten by Thunderfire Beast?” a red dragon warrior asked.

“There is such a possibility, it’s really trash, even Thunderfire Beast can’t resist.” Waldo was a little annoyed, these demigods are the nutrients for his black dragon head, and dying in the hands of Thunder Fire Beast will affect his black dragon head.

“We are going to speed up, there is a team in front, everyone is ready to fight.” Waldo said.

The seven red dragon warriors nodded, and together with Waldo, they turned into a fog of ghosts and flew forward quickly.

Lu Yang didn’t speed up deliberately. He was afraid of being discovered by Waldo, so he slowly chased after him in the form of a fire element. By the time he caught up with Waldo and the others, more than twenty demigods had already been killed. .

“At this rate, in less than a week, these more than 900 demigods will have to die in the hands of Waldo and the others.” The Blazing Demon God said to Lu Yang in his consciousness.

“Same feeling.” Lu Yang continued to follow behind Waldo and the others.

For five days, Valdo was slaughtering. On the periphery of the huge thunder and fire restricted area, more than 500 demigods died in their hands, and more than 200 of the remaining 480 demigods also disappeared on the magic eye. , Obviously, either was killed by other demigods, or died in the hands of Thunder Fire Beast.

At this time, it was still half a day away from the area where the Thunder Fire Tree grew, and there were more and more Thunder Fire Beasts nearby. Fortunately, Valdo and the others had magic eyes in their hands, and they could detect the approaching creatures with hatred in advance.

Thunderfire beasts are natural beasts with great hatred. At the same time, they are pure life forms formed by thunder and fire elements, that is, creatures without souls, and black dragon heads cannot absorb their energy. Therefore, Waldo Has been hiding from the Thunder Fire Beast.

“Be careful, the closer you are to the Thunderfire Tree, the more likely you are to encounter lava worms. We still can’t stand the 500,000-degree high temperature.” Waldo walked forward, carefully staring at the surrounding situation.

The seven red dragon warriors also looked vigilant, but at this time their strength was almost twice as tyrannical as before they came in. When the black dragon head absorbed the soul, it also poured other energy into the red dragon warrior’s body, so that their The body becomes extremely strong.

“His Royal Highness, we have a dragon scale shield and a dragon tooth sword in our hands, and we will never be killed by lava worms.” A red dragon warrior pulled out a large shield covered with purple dragon scales hidden in his backpack, and another A sharp white longsword.

The divinity emanating from the shield and the long sword is at the level of the median god. Obviously, this is the shield and weapon made of the scales and dragon teeth of the fire-type median * after the death of the giant dragon. The released flame is far more than 500,000 degrees, and there is no problem in resisting the attack of the lava worm.

“Don’t be careless, most of them came out of their feet, and they have no hatred.” Valdo was very cautious, and he also drew out the dragon tooth sword and dragon scale shield, which made the rest of the red dragon warriors also have He took out his shield sword and became cautious.

Suddenly, a purplish-red hot magma spurting out from under Valdo's feet, followed by a huge red bug, and a mouthful of magma sprayed towards Valdo, who jumped to the side.

"Top shield!" Valdo roared and took the lead to put the shield in front, and at the same time, his body floated up to a height of 2 meters.

The dragon scale shield is a large shield, more than 5 meters high, which completely protects Valdo's body, and also forms a red flame shield. Let the magma of 500,000 degrees hit the shield, even a little red. Even the magma passing around the shield was blocked by the flame shield, and not a drop fell on Valdo.

After the lava worm took a mouthful of magma, seeing that Valdo was not dead, he also showed a surprised look, followed by another mouthful of magma, and then he aimed his head at the other seven red dragon warriors who rushed towards him, and sprayed out The second lava.

The seven red dragon warriors originally wanted to help Valdo kill the lava worm, but they did not expect the lava worm to respond so sensitively, so they quickly raised their shields to resist, and they were in a hurry. On the top of the lava worm's head, a 30-meter-long red light suddenly appeared from the Dragon Tooth Sword in his hand.

"laugh!"

As if it was the sound of the cloth being cut, the head of the lava worm was cut in half, and the lava that was spewing exploded in an instant.

Valdo had to carry the dragon scale shield and escape to the side to resist, and the seven red dragon warriors who resisted the shield raised their magic power to the limit. The lava seemed ferocious, but it could not cause damage to any of them.

"But that's it." A red dragon warrior was so excited that he let out a long howl.

The other red dragon warriors also roared and used the rank of demigods to fight the lava worms who were about to run for their lives if they saw the quasi-gods, which made them very excited, but just as the lava worms were about to finish spraying, Lu Yang quietly touched the back of a red dragon warrior.

A fire element the size of a light spot instantly turned into Lu Yang's body. He launched the Great Nirvana without any malice, absorbing the 500,000-degree high temperature and causing an explosion.

The lava shield released on the dragon scale shield is to withstand high temperature, not impact. Lu Yang's self-destruction blew the shield on the spot, and even the red dragon warrior was blown away, just in the direction of the body of the lava worm. .

In an instant, the body of this red dragon warrior was gone!

Seeing that he succeeded in one strike, Lu Yang did not go to kill the second Red Dragon Warrior, because time had not allowed him, and he was afraid of exposing his body, so he disguised himself as a fire element and fell into the nearby magma.

the other side.

Valdo had just blocked all the lava, and when he put away his shield and looked at his men to cheer, he was stunned.

"Ignore! Ignore?" Valdo jumped to the front of the remaining six red dragon warriors.

The six red dragon warriors were also stunned. They searched left and right but did not see the silhouette of Ignore. Suddenly, a red dragon warrior pointed to the dead lava worm's body and said, "Why is there a dragon scale shield there?"

Waldo's eyes widened, hurriedly flew over the lava worm's corpse, looking at the dragon scale shield floating on the 500,000-degree lava, he cursed furiously: "Who did it? Tell me Me, what did you see just now?"

The six red dragon warriors shook their heads one after another. They were all desperately resisting the lava at the time. They didn't have the energy to look around. There were black dragon heads observing the surroundings. Without malicious intent, they didn't worry about being attacked at all.

"No malice, maybe he made a mistake." The black dragon head on Waldo's shoulder showed a sarcastic look.

"Trash." Valdo took back the dragon scale shield and led the remaining six red dragon warriors to move forward.

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief. It seemed that his sneak attack just now was perfect and was not suspected by Valdo, but he did not dare to fly into the air in the form of fire element and continue to follow. Now it is Valdo who is most suspicious. At that time, a fire element kept following them, which was definitely not a normal fire element, so Lu Yang chose to swim in the magma this time and followed closely behind Valdo and the others.

It can be seen clearly in the lava. There are a lot of lava worms hidden in this flowing magma, and the temperature of the lava is also above 100,000 degrees. If he is not the fire element transformed from the body of the * of flames, he can't bear it at all. The high temperature, but even so, he felt very painful.

"Hold on, there is a Thunder Fire Tree in front of you, and two groups of demigods are fighting." Blazing Demon God said to Lu Yang in his consciousness.

Lu Yang was a little surprised. Although Valdo and the others were mainly focused on killing people these days, they were also approaching the Thunder Fire Tree area and were able to arrive before the fire dragons with demonic eyes. Usually, he swam over quickly, wanting to find out.

Two kilometers ahead.

In front of a relatively complete ancient building, there is a small piece of blue-red soil. This soil is the necessary landform for planting Thunder Fire Trees. Only the magma that is still flowing underground can make the Thunderfire Tree survive.

At this time, there was a blue-red tree less than 10 meters high on this soil. There was no fruit on it, but the leaves were lush, and each piece contained terrifying thunder and fire energy.

In front of the Thunder Fire Tree, two groups of demigods were fighting, but they were very restrained and did not use any tricks to destroy the world.

One of the group of people was known to Lu Yang, the donkey-faced man Deedila and a few wandering demigods who tricked Lu Yang into joining the group, and the other group belonged to the Red Devils.

In a battle of this intensity, the two sides can't tell the difference, and after another round of chaos, Deedila stood in front of his own personnel and roared: "Don't fight any more, or neither of us will be able to survive."

The many wandering demigods behind him stopped, and the red demons on the opposite side also stopped, and the headed demigod stared at Dedilah and said: "The thunder and fire liquid on this tree, we are going to fix it. If you don't want to die, change your place, otherwise, if you go out, you will be endlessly hunted by my Red Devils."

"If we are afraid of this, we will not come to this restricted area of thunder and fire. Don't use your race to scare us. If you can come here, you are not important people in the clan. Be smart and be half of the thunder fire liquid. Otherwise, our group The wandering demigods have to bury your group of demigods of the Red Devils together." Dedilah still has the courage, the magic in the body surges wildly, and starts to prepare for the big move. It will be damaged, but it will burst into a splendid light like fireworks, attracting all the powerhouses in the restricted area of thunder and fire to run here.

"Are you crazy?" The powerhouses of the Crimson Demons became sullen and sullen. No matter how bad they are, they still have racial support and a lot of servants to serve them. Unlike these wandering demigods, who are alone and have nothing, so they are unwilling to do it. Such a mortal thing.

“Isn’t it death? We can come here because we are not afraid of death.” Ian, the demigod of the fire ghost tribe, came up behind Dedilah, his huge body blocked the sight of the red devil tribe, and the Lanfeng tribe Mi Mi behind him Ya, quietly approached a demigod in the same team, and stretched his right hand into his chest.

In the eyes of the wandering demigods on his side, Mia’s behavior was a bit abnormal, but no one thought there was a big problem, but the demigod who was stretched into his chest by Mia’s hand showed a strange look.

Seeing this scene, the Blazing Demon God said to Lu Yang who was hiding on the heads of both sides: “This Mia of the Lanfeng clan is disguised, in fact she should be a collection of the demon clan and the Lanfeng clan, this woman is vicious Ah, he used charm magic to confuse the demigod. He stretched his hand into his chest not to make him mutate and have stronger strength, but to absorb all the energy in his body, and then use the formation under his feet to transmit the energy to him. Dedyla, Ian and others in the body, in a short period of time, let them have more power than the peak of demigods.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “If I had promised them to travel together, the dead person should be me now.”

Blazing Demon God said: “Mia’s formation is increased according to the ability of the target, and the demigod absorbed by him is also known for his speed. It is estimated that Dedilah found you at the beginning because of your speed. ”

“It’s shady enough.” Lu Yang didn’t have time to bother with Deedila, and slowly floated in the direction of the Thunder Fire Tree. He is now in the form of a fire element the size of a soy bean, and there are fire elements like him everywhere. element, no one will notice.

At this time, there was a strong killing intent not far away. Before Lu Yang could get close to the Thunder Fire Tree, Waldo and the other six Red Dragon Warriors arrived, and they rammed in the direction of the Red Devils in the form of black mist.

At this time, the fog in this area was no longer so thick, but Valdo and the others were too fast, and in the blink of an eye, they collided with the Crimson Demons.

After screaming, the seven demigods of the Crimson Demons died on the spot, with not even the ash left.

“Damn Fire Dragon Race, what did you do, do you want to cause a racial war?” A demigod of the Red Demon Race was furious and wanted to use all his strength.

“Are you still in time?” A sneer appeared on Waldo’s face. He is now more than 50 demigods, and the speed of his body is enough to kill the red demons before they can arouse all the demigods’ strength.

The powerhouses of the Red Devils are not fools, they immediately launched spells to avoid attacks, but their speed was too slow in the eyes of Valdo and others.

“You go and kill those wandering demigods, and leave all the red demons to me.” Waldo showed a hideous smile, his body turned into sixteen shadows, and at the same time he fought with the remaining sixteen demigods. stand up.

The six red dragon warriors turned into black mist and rushed towards the more than 20 wandering demigods who were dumbfounded. This kind of play style of disregarding the ancient gods in the restricted area of thunder and fire made them completely at a loss as to what to do. They really released the demigod level. full strength, then they will not be able to survive.

Deedila said that before, to scare the Red Devils, but not really want to die, if they really want to die, why would they come to the Thunder Fire restricted area to die? Not for promotion to quasi-god.

For a time, all the wandering demigods didn’t know what to do, so they could only rush to fight, but in this case, how could they beat the Red Dragon Warrior.

The bizarre black dragon head can be divided into multiple clones. Anyone who is bitten will die instantly, even if it is hard to resist with armor, the black dragon head is an evil thought, not an entity. Evil thoughts shake the soul, and no demigod can stop it. .

“Isn’t it okay? Hurry up!” Deedila’s voice came from the battlefield.

“That’s it, get up!” Mia roared, the demigod who was still standing beside Mia instantly turned into a pile of flying ashes, and the magic power and divine soul that had been cultivated for thousands of years entered Didi at the same time. Pulling the bodies of several of them, in an instant, Deedila’s speed was about half faster than before, flapping his wings like a streamer to avoid the attacks of all the red dragon warriors, and came to the tree trunk of the Thunder Fire Tree, shining a light on the trunk. Punch down.

The trunk of the Thunder Fire Tree released a thunderous explosion, which made everyone present look terrified. The next second, the Thunder Fire liquid sprayed out from the trunk, and Dedere took out the bottle that had been prepared for a long time. All liquids were collected.

“Damn it, retreat!” Seeing this scene, Waldo did not choose to chase and kill Deedila, but shouted and turned into a cloud of black mist and escaped.

“Roar!”

Before the rest of the wandering demigods could react, the ground shook frantically, and suddenly, dozens of lava worms emerged from the nearby magma, one of which was more than twice as strong as the other lava worms.

“Eldor!” The stronger lava worm roared, spewing out a mouthful of lava with a temperature of 700,000 to 800,000 degrees.

The red dragon warriors had already chosen to withdraw from the battle, but they were still sprayed by lava, but they had shields to withstand it. The demigods were not so lucky. Seven or eight demigods could not escape and were burned by the lava. half body.

Dedyla ran very fast. After he snatched the thunder fire liquid at the first time, he flew towards the exit. Mia, Ian and others also fled, and they were the luckiest.

Lu Yang was interested in chasing Deedila, but he knew that it was impossible to catch up, so he could only target the remaining Red Dragon Warriors. It just so happened that two Red Dragon Warriors were sprayed by lava and could only do so. Resisting with a shield, he flew behind the two of them.

“Great Nirvana”

Lu Yang only absorbed a drop of 800,000-degree lava, and his body exploded instantly. The powerful shock wave shattered the shields of the two red dragon warriors, and pushed them into the mouth of a lava worm. Then, he continued. Become a fire element, flying in the air.

Dozens of lava worms never saw Lu Yang’s figure from the beginning to the end. Seeing that the demigods who rushed in were divided into two groups to escape, they also divided into two teams and chased towards the distance. At the same time, the lava worms also roared, attracting more lava worms to drill out.

Lu Yang originally thought about chasing and killing Valdo, but seeing the lava worms burrowing out of the ground everywhere along the way, he didn’t dare to move, and could only continue to float in the air at a height of 5 meters.

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said, “Enter that house. There is an underground palace entrance in the corner on the southwest side of the first floor. After passing through the underground palace, you will see more thunder and fire trees.”

Lu Yang’s eyes lit up and said, “Is there such a place?”

Blazing Demon God was a little proud and said: “When I came here, but at the peak period, you can come in at will in the surrounding areas, and there is no lava worm who dares to trouble me. When I arrive in this area, I need to be more cautious. So, starting from here, I know several hidden underground palaces and paths, so let’s go.”

Lu Yang nodded hurriedly flew to the hut on the southwest side of the ancient building. In an inconspicuous corner, there was something similar to a pull ring. Pull it hard, and a piece on the ground The giant square brick disappeared out of thin air, revealing the entrance to the underground palace.

“There are no creatures in it.” The Blazing Demon God said through a consciousness scan.

Lu Yang jumped into the underground palace, this is a very narrow passage, only 5 meters wide on the left and right, it doesn't look like the ancient gods are walking together, he asked curiously: “What is this passage for?”

The Blazing Demon God said: “This is the passage prepared by the ancient gods for the slaves. The direct direction is a garden of the ancient gods. I didn't understand it at the time. After talking with Malthus this time, I based on the results of his exploration. , We have come to the same conclusion. When the ancient gods were strong, they also had a system of honor and inferiority. They did not allow low-level slaves to enter their area on the ground, but only allowed them to come in from the ground.

When the ancient gods were sleeping or cultivating, they would tidy up their gardens and clean the sanitation, and then these slaves had to leave the tunnel before the ancient gods woke up. Logically speaking, these slaves could not open such passages in their own homes, I guess The owner of this house is not a slave, but a person who manages the slaves. Many slaves first come to their house to gather, and then the leader brings the slaves into the garden.

At present, all the ancient gods should be in the center of this restricted area. There is a high probability that the garden is unguarded, but you have to be careful, don't be careless, if you don't pay attention, you may be wiped out.”

Lu Yang nodded and flew forward cautiously. It didn't take too long. He came to the end of the passage and looked at the ring in front of him. He transformed into a clone and controlled it to pull the ring.

The masonry above his head disappeared in an instant, and in an instant, the power of the source, which was so abundant that it was almost suffocating, poured into the secret passage. Lu Yang controlled the clone and jumped out of the secret passage. Looking around, he couldn't help but widen his eyes.

There is not a single creature on the ground, there are thunderfire trees with a height of more than 100 meters everywhere, and a large number of fruits with blue-red light grow on the branches, the smallest ones are like jujube pits, and the big ones are like a watermelon.

"That's the Thunder Fire Fruit." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang sighed with a depressed look on his face, and said, "Isn't this forcing people to commit suicide!"

Although he really wanted to jump into the air 100 meters high to pick up those Thunder Fire seeds that had been mature for an unknown number of years, but he was dead!

Before entering the Leihuo restricted area, the Blazing Demon God told him that flying in the Leihuo restricted area would be attacked by a god-king spell at a height of more than ten meters. He couldn't bear it!

"Go forward, there is a low thunder and fire tree there." The Blazing Demon God said with a smile, which reminded him of the way he saw the advanced treasure when he was promoted.

Lu Yang shook his head and disbanded his clone. The body turned into a fire element and floated into the Thunderfire Forest. Among the tall Thunderfire trees on the north side, one was blocked from the light, and the ground was also covered with light. There are not many low thunder fire trees through which thunder fire magma flows.

Even so, this Thunderfire tree is more than ten meters high, and only one branch is below ten meters high, with several Thunderfire fruits on it.

Lu Yang slowly changed his body and reached a height of eight meters. He raised his hand and grabbed the end of the branch and pulled it down, causing the entire branch to be lowered, and gently plucked all the six thunderfire fruits on it. The largest of them is the size of a cantaloupe, and the smallest is the size of a palm.

The Blazing Demon God said: "Eat a thunderfire fruit, take out the core inside, hollow out the core and insert it on the trunk, the reason why this thunderfire tree makes such a loud noise is not because of the injury, but the sound of the fire. It is because of the foreign things that hurt him that the sound is made. If you insert the core into the trunk, the Thunder Fire Tree will only think that his seeds depend on his body to germinate."

Lu Yang ate the largest fruit, the size of a cantaloupe. The delicious taste was like eating fruit. Until the core was left, he burned the center of the core with scorching rays according to the requirements of the Blazing Devil God. , and then he slowly inserted into the trunk of the tallest Thunderfire tree that was over 100 meters away.

Sure enough, the Thunder Fire Tree didn't make any thunder-like sound, just a grunt, and the red and blue thunder fire liquid flowed out from the center of the fruit core.

Every drop of thunder and fire liquid has a terrifying high temperature. Nothing in existence can hold thunder and fire liquid. He can only open his mouth and drink it first.

The lightning liquid with a high temperature of more than 100,000 degrees melted in the mouth and turned into the purest energy attached to Lu Yang's soul. Although the temperature of this lightning liquid was high, it did not hurt the soul, but gradually merged with the soul. , When each piece of divine soul was completely enveloped by thunder and fire liquid and fused with it, Lu Yang's divine soul showed a stable state, even the Blazing Demon God was surprised.

"In a month, your soul will be completely stabilized, and then you will absorb energy to make your flame temperature reach a stable high temperature of 100,000 degrees." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang nodded and said, "I feel that there is another red and blue flame seed in the soul sea. How to use this thing?"

"Don't worry, let you use thunder fire liquid to advance, just to learn the exercises corresponding to thunder fire seeds, but your strength is too weak now, forcibly use thunder fire seeds, it may make your realm fall, or even die, wait for the quasi-god The state is stable, I will teach you again.” Blazing Demon God said.

“Okay.” Lu Yang wasn’t in a hurry, he was very satisfied that he could be promoted to Quasi-God so smoothly. Looking at the liquid of thunder and fire that was still flowing, he asked, “What should I do with this thing, my brothers, in the future Promoted to Quasi-God, I don’t worry about letting them come.”

The Blazing Demon God was also a little worried, and said: “Thunderfire liquid is not easy to store. You can temporarily store it in Bandarsburg. If it takes a long time, this thing will be invalid.”

Lu Yang nodded, took off the core inserted in the tree, and the magic power surged in his hand. In an instant, the core punched holes in the hundreds of thunder and fire trees around him, and then he ran the magic power, so that all the thunder and fire liquid would move towards him. Fly by his side.

“Bandalsburg”

Lu Yang opened the space portal and sent the liquid fire to the top floor of the castle in Bandarsburg. It didn’t take half an hour for one room to be filled with liquid fire, and all the liquid fire in the surrounding trees were also filled with liquid fire. Most of it was extracted, and it couldn’t spew out automatically.

“Let’s go, there is still a chance to come later.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang nodded, followed the original road of the tunnel, and got out of the small door of the ancient building, but when he looked outside, Lu Yang was a little confused.

Countless thunder and fire beasts are running towards the exit area in groups, as if they were startled by something. What is even more terrifying is that those who lead these thunder and fire beasts are not lava worms, but a gray-white body. A ruthless, cruel-faced humanoid.

“That’s the son of the ancient god, quickly transform.” Blazing Demon God hurriedly reminded.

“Fire Element”

Lu Yang instantly turned into a fire element and floated in the window. In an instant, the son of the ancient * turned his head and glanced at it, and then continued to float forward.

Lu Yang didn't dare to do anything, just floated quietly near the window. After dealing with creatures from other worlds for so many years, he concluded a truth. Anyone who shows people with a large body has a low IQ, and anyone who is two or three meters tall. Those who move within the body are all beings with extremely high IQs. The son of the ancient * must have sensed it just now, and it is absolutely impossible to leave like this.

"Hulika~!" The roar of the son of the ancient * suddenly exploded in the room, and he suddenly appeared in the room with a stream of light in black armor, and smashed to the ground with a punch.

"Boom~!"

The punch of more than one million high temperature turned the walls of the entire room black and red. At that moment, Lu Yang was hit by the energy rushed in by the son of the ancient * and hit the ground outside the window, avoiding the high temperature on the front.

The ancient buildings have a strong ability to resist high temperature. Such a high temperature did not cause the house to collapse. The terrifying high temperature had nowhere to spread, and all rushed out of the window, less than two meters away from Lu Yang's head.

If he was sprayed from the front, Lu Yang's great nirvana spell would not be able to withstand it at all. It is possible that his soul would be charged with energy in this blow, but fortunately he escaped.

Right now, he doesn't dare to have any actions or thoughts at all. He just falls on the ground so quietly as an ordinary fire element. After carefully scanning the room, the son of the ancient * in the room has an evil and charming smile on his face. came out.

More than a dozen thunderfire beasts jumped in front of the Son of the Ancient God and let out a low roar, obviously urging. The Son of the Ancient God floated into the air and led them towards the exit of the restricted area.

Seeing that the children of the ancient gods flew to the corner of the building 500 meters ahead, Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief, and said in a bit of horror: "Why did the children of the ancient gods come out, shouldn't they be in the depths of the restricted area?"

"It must have been other demigods who disturbed the ancient gods, so they sent the sons of the ancient gods to leave here quickly. It's too unsafe," said the Blazing Demon God.

Lu Yang nodded and flew towards the exit on the other side in the form of a fire element. He didn't dare to fly too fast. The ground was full of thunder and fire beasts, and from time to time there were lava worms from the magma. Drill out.

But before he could fly for too long, in the midst of the ruins, he encountered two people who were desperately holding their shields to block the magma spewed out by the lava worms.

Lu Yang had already killed three red dragon warriors before, and there were still four left. If he killed the two in front of him, there would be none of the red dragon warriors who helped Valdo.

Lu Yang was a little moved. He always wanted to kill Waldo. Hong Ye had been with him for so many years. It was no longer a simple master-servant relationship, but more like his younger brother. Waldo stole his blood, and Lu Yang wanted to help Hong. Take it back at night.

"Great Nirvana"

Lu Yang turned into a streamer and came behind the two red dragon warriors, absorbed a drop of thunderfire lava, his body exploded instantly, and the collapse of the two red dragon warriors flew into the giant mouth of the lava worm, and he became a fire again. Element, continue to fly towards the front.

Although the Dragon Tooth Sword and Dragon Scale Shield are made of the body material of the median godare top treasures, but he really can't beat the lava worm, and he can only watch the median * level. The treasure slipped out of sight.

"Hurry up, Your Highness, we'll break for you." The voice of the Red Dragon Warrior came from not far ahead.

Lu Yang looked surprised. He flew over quickly. At the edge of the dense fog, Valdo and the two red dragon warriors were targeted by six lava worms. The terrifying lava one

It was sprayed over and over again on the shields of Valdo and the two red dragon warriors. Seeing that they could no longer support it, the two red dragon warriors actually held the shield forward and protected Valdo behind them.

“Damn, I, I...” Waldo wanted to rush forward and fight side by side with his men, but his dark dragon head kept roaring: “Run, run.”

The black dragon heads on the shoulders of the two red dragon warriors are also forcing the red dragon warriors to escape, but the two red dragon warriors swear allegiance to Valdo. did not run.

Valdo is different. He is the object of allegiance. Therefore, he is not bound by oath. He can be used as the alternative Fire Dragon King of the new generation of the dragon family. His honor does not allow him to leave his loyal warriors and escape for his life, but the enemy is too powerful. Valdo can't win at all.

“Run~!”

“Run for your life, they are your subordinates, and they should die for you. If they don't leave, they escape, and you are the one who will die.”

...

The black dragon head on Waldo's shoulder kept provoking, and at a certain moment, Waldo's footsteps moved, he abandoned honor and dignity, and abandoned his subordinates.

Chapter 2540: Run for your life!

Lu Yang showed a sneer and followed behind Valdo into the thick fog. Then, he aimed at Valdo in front and launched a spell attack.

“Thirty-three Heavens”

In an instant, Valdo’s soul fell into an illusion. This was not a simple illusion, but a combination of reality and reality, because what Valdo saw in front of his eyes was no different from the real thing. Lu Yang took this opportunity to slowly come. by Valdo.

He didn’t have any killing intent, Hei Longtou stared wide-eyed and looked around, but he didn’t notice Lu Yang’s existence.

“Bandalsburg!” Lu Yang chanted the incantation lightly, and in an instant, a special space opened beside him, and 108 chains formed by chaotic demon flames flew out, trapping Valdo and pulling him into the class. Inside Dalsburg.

“Bang”

Valdo’s body slammed heavily on the stone of prisoners placed in the castle hall. The next second, Valdo broke free from the illusion, but he and his black dragon head screamed hysterically at the same time.

“Ah! What is this?”

“Let go of me, I’m going to die!”

“God Prisoner Stone, how can there be a God Prisoner Stone! Damn it, I’m not reconciled, I’m not reconciled!”

The black dragon head on Valdo's shoulder was actually refined by the Prison God Stone within a few seconds, which made Lu Yang's face show a relaxed look. What he was most afraid of was the black dragon head of Valdo, once bitten, all the cultivation base is gone.

"Who are you?" Valdo tried to break free, but now his weak body was completely unable to break free from the chains, so he could only stare at Lu Yang and say, "Let me go, our Fire Dragon Clan will give you a lot of treasures, let me You become a true god."

Lu Yang smiled, released his mana with his right hand, snatched the magic eye from Valdo's hand, and said, "You don't know your situation yet, I'll find someone to talk to you about."

With a move with his right hand, he summoned Hong Ye from the Demon Temple. Hong Ye, who was wearing pajamas, still didn't know what was going on, and asked in a daze, "Boss, what did you ask me to do?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Look who this is?"

Hong Ye looked at Valdo, and the closeness in his blood made him widen his eyes and said, "I don't know him, but I feel that his blood is very close to me."

"Of course, it was his father who stole your blood and put it on him," Lu Yang said.

"Waldo, your family killed my parents, and you also killed the captain of the bodyguard that my mother left for me. I killed you." Hong Ye was furious.

The Blazing Demon God appeared beside Hong Ye and said, "Child, I'll retrieve your bloodline for you."

A crimson light shot out from the flame of the Blazing Demon God, hitting Valdo's forehead.

"Ah!" After Valdo let out a scream, a layer of strange crimson appeared on his entire body, and the next second, as if a dragon soul had been drawn from Valdo, it entered the hands of the Blazing Demon God.

The Blazing Demon God pointed at Hong Ye with his right hand, and the dragon soul flew into Hong Ye's body instantly. The instant fusion, there was no slight rejection, because this was originally Hong Ye's.

"Old friend, you were murdered for helping me. From now on, your child will be the child of my Blazing Devil God, and I will make him the new Dragon Emperor." Blazing Devil God's left hand pointed to Blazing Devil God's head with a purple light of soul. After injecting it, he said, "This is a dragon spell that I researched back then that is suitable for you to learn. If you feel it carefully, ask me if you have any questions."

"Thank you, Your Highness, Blazing Demon God, thank you, boss!" Hong Ye's eyes were full of tears. He finally got his bloodline back, but what made him even more happy was that he gained two relatives.

Lu Yang and the Blazing Demon God really took him as a family member, otherwise they would not avenge him and kill the child of the current Fire Dragon King. You must know that Lu Yang's interests are the greatest by handing him over to the current Fire Dragon King. .

"Go and practice, time waits for no one, I have to run for my life." Lu Yang said.

Now is not the time to chat and reminisce, the Thunder Fire restricted area is not a safe place, not to mention that he captured the son of the Fire Dragon King, even if no one knew that he did it, but every demigod who entered the Thunder Fire restricted area, He will be chased and tortured by the Fire Dragon Clan, and he must leave quickly.

The light flickered.

Lu Yang left Bandarsburg. This time he changed back to his original body, holding the magic eye in his hand. He could clearly see the positions of all the Thunderfire Beasts and the Children of the Ancient God in the Thunderfire Restricted Area.

"Phoenix Form"

A ray of light emerged from Lu Yang's body, turned into a blue phoenix, and flew towards the exit quickly.

It took Lu Yang six days to enter the Thunder Fire restricted area to find the Thunder Fire Tree, but for six days he followed behind Valdo in the form of a fire element, and his movement speed was slow.

Now that he left the restricted area of thunder and fire, he stared at the magic eye and flew at full speed, dodging all the thunder and fire beasts and the sons of the ancient gods along the way, and it took only a day and a half to arrive at the city wall area near the exit.

“Finally survived.” Lu Yang secretly rejoiced, hiding behind the city wall, he tried to perceive the situation outside the restricted area, the middle * of the fire dragon clan and the lower gods of the other three clans would not leave, he had to find one He left the area away from the four great clans, but when he released his perception, he was a little stunned.

Lu Yang’s perception was bounced back, as if he had hit a steel plate, and he couldn’t penetrate it at all, which surprised him, and asked the Blazing Devil God, “There is something wrong outside, please help me to see.”

“I have already sensed that the outside thing is called the Yanlong Formation, which is the standard formation method during the Dragon Clan War. The internal flame is transpiring, the external is resistant to prying eyes, and the rank is the upper god, and something happened outside.” Blazing Flame Demon God said.

“I’ll go out and have a look.” Lu Yang wanted to make a clone.

Blazing Demon God shook his head and said, “This formation can trap your soul attached to your clone, go and ask Valdo.”

Lu Yang sucked in a breath of cold air, his soul was trapped, it was like his body was trapped. Once the soul was damaged, there would be problems with his promotion to a quasi-god. He disbanded his clone and entered Bandarsburg.

“Let me out, my father won’t let you go.” Valdo was locked on the Prisoner Stone and struggling frantically but to no avail.

Lu Yang didn’t bother to talk nonsense with Valdo. A ray of light penetrated into Valdo’s head and directly grabbed Valdo’s memory. After reading it, he realized how dangerous the trip to the Thunder Fire restricted area was. What happened again.

“The dragon clan united with the evil head clan to fight the red demon clan and the blue fire clan. The Fire Dragon King came in person and led all the fire dragon clan. In name, the median * dragon Bill Gai, who was sent to Valdo, was assassinated by the red demon clan. , In fact, the Fire Dragon King did it, and blamed the Red Devils for this. Now the magic circles deployed in the four directions are all of the upper gods. Divine soul, in a short period of time, the dragons who cultivate the black dragon head will become stronger at an extremely fast speed.” Lu Yang shook his head and said.

The Blazing Demon God frowned and said: “With your current strength, once you enter the magic circle, it is very difficult to escape, so wait for a while, I will teach you a spell, and when the four sides are a little tired, you can wait again. go out.”

“What spell?” Lu Yang asked.

“Leveraging the power of the Thunder Fire Seed to temporarily increase your flying speed, the spell is called Thunder Fire!” The Blazing Demon God transmitted the release method of the spell to Lu Yang’s consciousness.

The spell is not difficult to learn, but simply relies on the instantaneous explosive power of the thunder fire seeds, compresses the magic power in the body, and suddenly bursts out, generating two to ten times the thrust, making Lu Yang’s speed faster.

The greater the thrust multiplier generated by this move, the greater the consumption of Lu Yang’s spiritual and magical power. Even a quasi-god like Lu Yang who has completed the promotion immediately can only release ten times the thrust ten times.

Lu Yang is lacking the ability to escape, and the fire dragon itself is good at flying. With the blessing of the gods, it must be faster than Lu Yang in the state of the phoenix, but with this thunderbolt, he believes that as long as he takes the initiative to show weakness , If you do not lead to the pursuit of the higher gods, you will not be able to die easily.

Immediately, Lu Yang started studying in Bandarsburg!

one day

Lu Yang studied for seven days, and also waited for seven days on the edge of the penalty area. In fact, he learned the thunder in just one day. The rest of the time was waiting for the situation outside the penalty area. After seven days of bombardment, the battle showed no sign of weakening, and Lu Yang couldn't help it.

Because the restricted area is also very dangerous, Lu Yang transformed with the element of fire and escaped six raids led by the sons of the ancient gods at the city gate, but the activities in the restricted area of thunder and fire are coming to an end, and a large number of children of the ancient gods are about to return. Their residences will also be guarded by the sons of the ancient gods on the city walls.

"You have to leave today, otherwise, when the ancient * returns home and sees the Thunder Fire Tree being robbed, he will definitely search frantically. At that time, he will really not be able to leave." Blazing Flame Demon God said worriedly.

Lu Yang nodded and said, "I'll try."

"It really doesn't work, I have to reveal my identity." The Blazing Demon God still has a backer, so he can summon the upper gods he stayed in another world to come to help, but in that case, the upper gods who come will die, and Lu Yang and the Blazing Demon God will die. It will also be endlessly pursued by the new fire gods, and it will also affect the entire East China Sea.

This is the first time that Lu Yang has been forced into such a desperate situation. He sat cross-legged on the ground and restored his mental state to the best. He turned into a fire element and slowly flew out. The broken city wall of the Thunder Fire restricted area came to the outside of the fog.

“Om!”

A huge flame mask is next to the edge of the thunder and fire forbidden area. Lu Yang entered the flame circle of the upper * level as soon as he left the thunder and fire forbidden area. God-ranked fire dragons and hundreds of thousands of demigod-ranked fire dragons, under the command of nearly a thousand lower gods, fought frantically with the Red Devils. The battle area between the evil-headed clan and the blue fire clan was at the exit of the Leihuo forbidden area. side.

The powerhouses above the median * level of the Quartet are in the sky above the Thunder Fire restricted area, completely covering the exit of the Thunder Fire restricted area.

“Huh? There are still wandering demigods alive? It’s really strange!” A thunder-like sound came from overhead, and a low-level god-level fire dragon swooped towards Lu Yang.

Lu Yang thought he had been discovered. He was about to turn into a phoenix to speed up his escape, but to his surprise, five wandering demigods suddenly appeared in the area two kilometers to his right. It was Lu Yang’s old acquaintance Didila and his four brothers. Obviously, all of them had just accepted the sacrificial circle, and their stature and magic power were abnormally inflated.

“Escape for your own life!” Deedila roared, and took the lead in flying toward the northeast.

The mid-level * dragon let out a low roar, and the terrifying soul power fluctuations spread to the five of them. Ordinary quasi-gods couldn’t withstand such a soul attack at all, but these five were not ordinary, they all resisted, This made the mid-level * dragon even more surprised and chased after him himself.

Lu Yang secretly breathed a sigh of relief, and he was almost exposed. He didn’t expect Deedila to endure the attack of the median * for him. He looked around and continued to fly towards the edge of the magic circle in the form of fire element.
