Chapter 2580: Blazing Demon's Error

After half a month.

A huge purple teleportation formation was built in the center of the square in the East China Sea. The purple light flickering on the formation made millions of people in the city look there curiously.

“People of the East China Sea, today is a day worth celebrating. The East China Sea has officially established links with the imperial capital, the magic capital and other southern cities.”

“In the future, anyone who wants to go to these few cities can apply to the teleportation array area in advance, and the teleporter will transmit them uniformly. Of course, the price is not cheap~!”

“This teleportation array is not only open to domestic, but also to foreign countries. Although another world has come to this world, human beings have not surrendered. Not only China has blocked the invasion of other worlds, but many cities in the United States and European countries have also blocked the invasion. If you want to go abroad to see, this teleportation array can also be teleported at any time.”

The host's magnetic voice sounded on the radio and TV, and the people in the whole city became excited. Originally, they thought that only a few cities in China survived, but they did not expect that many foreign countries have also survived. For ordinary people, this is a moment worth celebrating.

In the sky above Donghai City, a huge purple-red magic circle was gradually formed. This was a magic circle, and it was an insurance that Lu Yang gave Donghai.

On the top of the Donghai Underground City, Lu Yang looked at the gradually closing magic circle and said to the Blazing Demon God: “I have a feeling recently that going to the place you mentioned this time may be dangerous.”

“Why?” The Blazing Demon God flew out of Lu Yang’s body and said, “I also feel a little uncomfortable, it seems to be too smooth.”

Lu Yang closed his eyes and didn’t speak. He was reviewing what he had experienced for so many years, and he always felt that something had been left behind by him, but he just couldn’t remember it.

suddenly.

Lu Yang suddenly opened his eyes, looked at the Blazing Demon God and said, “I know what the problem is.”

“Where?” The Blazing Demon God asked.

Lu Yang said, “Can you still perceive the location of the remaining pieces of your Demon God’s Heart Fragment?”

The Blazing Demon God suddenly reacted and said angrily, “Damn it, I seem to have been deceived.”

“What?” Lu Yang asked.

Blazing Demon God said: “I have always been able to perceive the location of the Demon God’s Heart Fragments, and the larger one is in the extreme north area, but it also exudes lower-level god-level ice magic energy. I didn’t tell you if I was in danger, but it’s not right, go and see, with your current ability, even a lower ice * can’t beat you.”

“That’s what I meant.” Lu Yang turned into a phoenix and flew towards the north quickly.

Now Lu Yang’s flying speed is extremely fast, and he can reach the speed of sound without using explosive seeds. After flying for a day, Lu Yang came to a huge island near the Arctic region.

“A mere quasi-god peak, dare to trespass my territory?” A mocking voice came from an iceberg on the island.

Lu Yang stared at the other party and said, “I can sense that the fragments of the Blazing Demon God are with you.”

“Shard of the Blazing Demon God?” The mocking voice came again, roaring: “Damn bastard, don’t mention the Blazing Demon God to me, I’m going to kill him, I’m going to kill him, roar~!”

The whole island shook, but the owner of the voice didn’t come out. Lu Yang glanced at the Blazing Demon God who flew out from his side, and quickly flew to the iceberg of the island, passing through a cave at the foot of the mountain, he came to the center of the iceberg.

In a huge cave, an orangutan-like creature was trapped by five golden chains, one of which passed through his lute bone, and the other four holes through the orangutan’s hand and leg bones. All of a sudden pain.

“Damn it, I was really deceived.” Blazing Demon God was furious. With a move of his right hand, he took the five chains back into his hands, and followed him to launch a soul search technique on the white-haired orangutan.

Lu Yang and the Blazing Demon God have the same consciousness, and whatever the Blazing Demon God finds will be presented in his head.

In the perspective of the white-haired orangutan, a human with flames all over his body, a human with thunder and lightning all over his body, and a human with gray-black rays of light walked into the cave, made a sneak attack, and trapped the white-haired orangutan with flame chains. .

“This move must be able to deceive the Blazing Demon God for a long time. We can use this time to collect the pieces of the Demon God’s Heart as soon as possible.”

“I’m the real Blazing Demon God, that * should abdicate.”

“Yes, we are the new gods. Sooner or later, we will swallow our own gods and become the gods of these two worlds.”

The three of them chatted without any scruples, and Lu Yang could see their faces clearly. UU Kanshu www.uukanshu.com was the human who had obtained the fragments of the heart of God who attacked him a few years ago. They were not the new gods of another world. The disciples of God are not believers of the old gods, but the consciousness formed after the large pieces of the heart of the gods were separated from the body, combined with these human beings, and bewitched the minds of these human beings.

Lu Yang looked at the Blazing Demon God beside him and said, “You said, where are they going to ambush us?”

Blazing Demon God shook his head and said: “I don’t know, I don’t even know how many pieces of Demon God’s Heart they have collected now. Damn, there must be a lot of them. You and I may not be able to get together. beat them.”

Lu Yang said, “It shouldn’t be so pessimistic.”

The Blazing Demon God sighed and said, “It’s not that I’m pessimistic, but that’s the truth. Damn it, this piece of my body is the root of the Devil’s Temple. Originally, there were a lot of artifacts in the Devil’s Temple, all of which I used back then. They can even use red lotus chains as bait, so it can be seen that they must have got my stronger weapons.”

Lu Yang looked at the chains in the Devil’s Temple and couldn’t help sighing. The chains were completely god-king-level weapons. The opponent could even throw such weapons here, and the rest of the weapons were definitely terrifying-level.

“Why didn’t they come to kill me?” Lu Yang asked curiously.

The Blazing Demon God snorted coldly and said, "Because the fragment I am in is the root of the Demon Temple, and the Demon Temple controls all the artifacts, that is to say, no matter who they come to fight me and dare to show their weapons, they will I will take it away."

Lu Yang nodded clearly and said with a smile: "I also have an advantage, that is, I can act as a shield for them. With me in front of them, they can search for other fragments unscrupulously, right?"

"That's right." Blazing Demon God was extremely annoyed.
