

Rebirth of Wild Fire - Chapter 3

Chapter 3 - Reentry game

“Ahem, someone will not be a idiot,” Lu Yang said suddenly.

Shen Mengyao blushed instantly. The thing that has been Lu Chi since she was a child is the biggest distress in her life. I never thought she was pierced. Fortunately, she arrived at the girl’s dormitory.

Shen Mengyao hurriedly walked to the door and turned her head to look at Lu Yang angrily. The little beauty said she was in a bad mood now.

“Crybaby, thank you for sending me back to the dormitory.” Shen Mengyao said with a small mouth, standing in front of the girl’s dormitory.

“...” Lu Yang was embarrassed.

“I didn’t cry, I really just lost my eyes.”

“Uh-huh ~, I know ~ I know.” Shen Mengyao said so, but the small expression on her face made it clear that she didn’t believe it.

“Well, crying ghosts are like crying ghosts. My name is Lu Yang, the land of the mainland, and the sun of the sun.”

“My name is Shen Mengyao. I am very happy to meet you today. I hope we can meet again. The roommate is still waiting for me. I can’t talk to you any more. I will go up.” Shen Mengyao said sorry.

“Come up.” Lu Yang said.

Looking at the back of Shen Mengyao walking into the dormitory, Lu Yang thought happily: “Stupid girl, we will meet soon, because we are classmates, and you will come to me soon.”

In fact, it was only 5 minutes from the school gate to the girl’s dormitory, but Lu Yang took Shen Mengyao around the school for a small circle, I believe this girl will soon find out.

In the memories, the fate of the two in their last life began with asking for directions. It was unexpected in this life that Lu Yang could not help but clenched his fists, and in this life he must not leave regrets.

However, suddenly Lu Jie’s sneer appeared in Lu Yang’s mind, thinking that Liu Jie would take everything that belongs to him after 5 years. Lu Yang’s heart was full of urgency. He must be stronger to protect him. All this, and all he can do now, is to enter the Second World as soon as possible.

Looking at the phone, only half an hour before the game started, Lu Yang turned back to the game helmet store in front of the school.

The gaming helmet is divided into three levels of A, B, and C, which correspond to the screen clarity.

The cheapest C-level can only enjoy 70% of the game screen, but it needs 1000 credit points. Lu Yang has money in his hand. Not much, enough to buy a C-class.

After returning home to lock the door, Lu Yang lay on the bed and put the game helmet on his head. For a moment, the biological radio waves in the game helmet were connected with Lu Yang’s brain.

“System testing ...”

“First login, EEG scan, binding ... information entry ...”

“Bind your bank card ...”

After a series of familiar and unfamiliar voices from previous lives, Lu Yang entered a hall with golden light.

A huge screen appeared in front of him, and a mechanical sound appeared from the screen.

“Dear player, welcome to” Second World “, the game helmet has been bound to your basic information, the game will start in three minutes, may I ask if you have an account.”

“Yes.”

The screen flickered and three flagged castles appeared in front of Lu Yang.

“Please choose your race.”

There are three major races in “Second World”. The first is St. Gall, the main city of human races with blue and white flags. The second is the ruling fortress of the orc main city, which is flying the blood-colored battle flag. The main city of the elven tribe, the city of gold.

“Human race”

Seven distinctive characters appear on the screen.

“Choose your profession: Mage, Warrior, Rogue, Hunter, Priest, Warlock, Paladin (human only),” asked the mechanical voice.

“Mage.”

In the last life, Lu Yang used a mage and a fire specialization. For this profession, Lu Yang invested too much, and he was familiar with all the skills, all professional tasks, and all the skills of fire. For fire, he With a near paranoid enthusiasm.

“Once a career is selected, please name it ...”

“Lu Yang.”

“Whether to adjust the appearance.”

Players can adjust the appearance of the game by themselves, but there is only one chance. Lu Yang thought about it and decided to change to the appearance of the previous life. Where he fell, Lu Yang would get up.

“The face has been modified.”

“The system is automatically generated, please be patient ...”

Three seconds later, a human mage character wearing an apprentice’s cloth and holding an apprentice staff in his hand appeared on the big screen.

Next to it are the attributes of the mage.

“The game has begun, may I enter the game?” Asked Mechanical Voice.

Lu Yang said firmly, “Yes.”

Once the picture turns, Lu Yang is integrated with the character, and is teleported to an extremely huge city-the city of St. Gall.

The familiar pictures of last life are once again in front of me, the towering blue mage tower, the solemn golden cathedral, the warrior training ground full of blood and passion, the cold and solemn assassin base, and the magnificent king castle.

“Wow, it’s so pretty.”

“This city is so big.”

Many players appeared on the square, admiring the beauty of the buildings in St. Gall.

Looking at the surroundings from the square, the four straight streets can’t see the head at a glance, and there are NPCs chatting, trading, etc. that are no different from ordinary people.

“This character is too realistic.” A player tried to talk to the NPC and found that the NPC’s dialogue mode is almost no different from the real person. He can answer all your information about the holy city he knows. If there is no other person, the player It is very likely that this is the reality.

Looking at more and more players and the constant sentiment, Lu Yang’s smile appeared on his face.

Without much sigh, Lu Yang ran towards the north of St. Gall. Lu Yang knew all the initial novice tasks and locations of the monsters, but Lu Yang did not intend to do these tasks.

Isn't it too good to be born again and do mission upgrades like ordinary people?

What Lu Yang is going to do now is a mission that he regretted for 10 years in his last life. Only after receiving the reward of this mission can Lu Yang have the opportunity to save himself and his family, which can be regarded as lifting the fateful curse on himself.

The city of St. Gall is located on the vast plain of Huayu. There is a huge bottomless canyon at the junction of the city gate on the north side of the city and the plain ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Lu Yang runs all the way to the cliff, Looking at no one left and right, I came to the place in my last life's memory and jumped decisively.

The bottomless cliff is theoretically bound to die if you jump down, but soon after Lu Yang fell, he was blocked by the branches growing on the cliff.

The "click" branch was broken.

Although he couldn't stop Lu Yang, he stopped the speed of falling and continued to fall, and soon broke a thick branch.

Every time he bumped into a tree branch, Lu Yang would be injured once. Just before Lu Yang was about to die, he finally landed on the ground. A heavy -20 damage left Lu Yang with just one last drop of blood.

Lu Yang couldn't help but pat his chest, and thought to himself, fortunately, he remembered where he fell from in his last life, otherwise, he would have to fall to death five or seven times before he could come down.

System Tip: You Found the Grand Canyon at Sunset

Looking at the environment of the valley, as in my previous life, the valley is surrounded by cliffs.

Below the cliff there is a huge golden tree with golden round fruits. The outer skin is thin and transparent. The juice is clearly visible, and even the thirsty people have an appetite to see what they want to taste the fresh juice.
