

Wild Fire 461

Chapter 461 - St. Galle 1

The crater is a level 50 map.

Sun Yu took 3,000 people to drive the acceleration scroll and the wind elves ran for more than 2 hours before they ran to the place.

Dig pits, bait, ambush, catch the lion king.

“Brothers, come on, don’t make a loophole, the boss is so kind to us, we must not let him down.”
Shouted the black note.

“Everyone cheer together,” Hongye Feiwu shouted.

None of the 3,000 players expected that Lu Yang could be so generous and gave each of them a horse reins worth 30,000 credits.

30,000 credit points is equivalent to the annual net income of many adults. In this era of overpopulation and lack of resources, it is a lot of money.

In the game, everyone who rides the horse is a rich boss, regardless of the level, it will be favored by the beauty in the game.

Now they also have mounts, or high-end mounts such as the Red Flame Lion. It can be imagined how sensational their actions will be in the holy city in the future.

The black note successfully captured a Red Flame Lion, and clicked to ride immediately.

A red light flashed.

Black notes appeared on the mount.

“Wow, haha, brother I’m handsome.” The smile on the black note’s face never faded.

Hongye Feiwu looked envious and continued to squat beside his trap and waited.

Sun Yu felt that the speed was still too slow. He sent a message to everyone and said, “All those who don’t have a mount come over and dig a big pit together. I will lead the Red Flame Lions.”

Everyone’s eyes brightened.

“The boss is doing a good job, let’s come over here.”

Only about 500 people got the mount, and the remaining 2,400 people gathered to dig a pit, digging a giant pit, enough to hold 3,000 lions.

“Hello ~!”

In the far Taniguchi, more than 20 lions came out leisurely.

Sun Yu opened the wind elves and went straight to the valley. More than 20 lions immediately flew towards Sun Yu, but under the accelerated state of the wind elves, Sun Yu was moving at a speed of 2.5 times the normal speed, and the lions could not catch up.

The goblin in the valley was very wide. Sun Yu took a circle and ran back with more than 2,000 lions.

Rushing out of the valley to the trap position, Sun Yu jumped back and easily jumped to the other side of the trap, and more than 1,500 lions all fell into the trap.

“Catch the lion, only the lion is the fastest.” Sun Yu shouted.

“Yes,” the crowd cheered.

...

Sun Yu took a rest, and the black notes took over. In less than half an hour, 3,000 people won the Red Flame Lion.

“Boss, I’m done here.” Sun Yu said to Lu Yang in a message.

Flower fortress.

Lu Yang was chatting with Jiang Ze and said with a smile: “The speed is good. In this way, you take the team to the inner city of the warm water fortress, and Han Fei will tell you what happens next.”

“Drip, drip, drip”

Wang Teng sent a message and said: “Chairman Lu Yang, the big troops on my side have been combined, and now I am going to pass by you, can I?”

Lu Yang said with a smile: “I’ll see you off in person.”

“Ah, that’s so embarrassing. We don’t have to, we can go on our own.” Wang Teng said.

Lu Yang said: "How can that be, without watching you leave the area of St. Gall city in person, where can I rest assured."

Lu Yang was telling the truth, Wang Teng was speechless by Lu Yangyu.

After closing the dialog box, Lu Yang said, "Let's go, brothers, come to 100,000 people and follow me out of the city.

Jiang Ze, White Lion, Xia Yuwei, Zhou Tianming, and half-loving half-life all smiled. They each led a 20,000-strong troop following Lu Yang's Huayu Fortress, and the muddy wine poured in to stay behind.

Different from the past, each of the 7 army commanders under Lu Yang has a gold army of nearly 30,000, and the 20,000 people selected are the elite among the commanders of various legions.

When they came to the city below, 100,000 people were divided into 10 squares, each of which was neat in appearance, like a soldier.

far away.

Wang Teng came from a distance with more than half a million troops such as Bloodthirsty and Eternal Spirit, and everyone's face was disappointed, frustrated, helpless and unwilling.

Although the players of the four major guilds came to this guild because of money, they all have their own pride. I thought that the four guilds had more than 200,000 gold players and more than 300,000 silver players. Together, they could easily destroy Lu Yang.

In the four world wars, they were scattered by Lu Yang's spirits, like a bird of surprise.

"Is a member of the Brotherhood of Jagged Brothers.

"Be careful, don't restrain yourself."

“Calm, as long as they don’t do it, we endure.”

“Scolded and endured.”

...

As the team gradually approached, the middle players in the four guilds began to issue orders to the players.

Each order was issued, and his men gradually changed from flustered to calm, to anger.

Bloodthirsty Domineering, Eternal Soul, Black Blood, and Spring and Autumn several times each took 20,000 of the most elite players to confront Lu Yang’s troops.

Jiang Ze was unhappy with the expression of bloodthirsty bully and black blood, and said to Lu Yang, “Would we like to hit them now?”

Lu Yang sneered and said, “Can’t fight now, look at the bloodthirsty bully expression.”

“I just wanted to hit him just because he looked so upset.” Jiang Ze said.

Lu Yang laughed and said, “This is not okay, brother. The bloodthirsty bully sees my expression as not anger, but fear and forbearance, like springs, which have been compressed and deformed quickly. Once touched at this time, if you touch it, you will definitely hurt yourself, which is inappropriate. “

“What to do then,” Jiang Ze said.

Lu Yang said, “Of course it is a gift.”

Half an hour later.

Wang Teng's 500,000 people walked past the Huayu Fortress, and Lu Yang waved his hand, and led the troops closely behind him 100 yards away.

Bloodthirsty Batian and Divine Eternity, etc., personally led the troops behind, and everyone's face was heavily guarded.

With a smile on Lu Yang's face, she dialed Sun Yu's phone and said, "Are you ready?"

"It's all ready." Sun Yu said.

At the warm water fortress, Sun Yu got the 3,000 engineering parachutes handed over to them by Han Fei and Han Sha, and after they were distributed, they were assembled on the cloak.

Lu Yang sent a map to Sun Yu and said: "Departing from this route I gave you, you must reach Beifeng City's 35-level map horror canyon within three hours, and prepare for ambush on both sides. "

"Yes, I promise to complete the task." Sun Yu said excitedly.

Lu Yang closed the dialog box and continued to follow with 100,000 troops.

Sent to Black Wolf Hills, Laterite Plains, Luma Mountain ...

Three hours later, more than 500,000 people from Wang Teng came to the Sempinlin River, which is a shallow river, with the player's waist at the deepest point.

On the other side of the Seperin River is the area of Beifeng City.

During the crossing of his men, Wang Teng was on the shore with bloodthirsty domineering, eternal spirit, black blood and several spring and autumn, and 80,000 gold troops.

Wang Teng looked at Lu Yang Gongshou and said, "President Lu Yang, thank you for sending us out of St. Gall, please come back."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "No rush, I see you guys say it in the past."

Taking out the goblin robot from his backpack, Lu Yang clicked to build a large sentry tower.

A goblin robot made of steel immediately began to build a sentry tower. Within 10 minutes, a 100-square-meter, 10-meter-high sentry tower was built.

Wang Teng's team crossed the river for more than an hour. I personally saw Lu Yang constructing 10 sentry towers at a distance of 500 meters from the river bank, and each sentry tower was 100 meters apart. All are under Lu Yang's surveillance.

The players of the Jagged Brothers Alliance saw these towers, everyone was anxious to yell.

The players of the four major guilds are even more discouraged when they see this scene.

People such as Bloodthirsty Heaven and Eternal Spirit never said a word. They knew that Lu Yang was warning them and humiliating them.

These 10 sentry towers are evidence that they were driven out of the city of St. Gall. In less than half an hour, the matter of Lu Yang building sentry towers along the river will spread throughout the game.

"I swear, I will fight back, I will never let Lu Yang humiliate me so much." The bloodthirsty bully cursed.

Wang Teng gave a scornful glance at Bloodthirsty. From this moment on, Bloodthirsty has lost his last trace of value ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ reported to President Wang, all crossing the river. "Qu Han said.

Wang Teng nodded with satisfaction. It took more than an hour for more than 500,000 troops to cross the river. Qu Han was a personal talent.

Wang Teng raised his hand and said, "The whole army crosses the river."

The 80,000 gold troops slowly passed the river. When the opposite bank was reached, Wang Teng said to Lu Yang again, "President Lu Yang, we will have a period later."

"There will be a period later." Lu Yang smiled and arched his hand, and said loudly, "From now on, the city of St. Gall will be unified."

100,000 players of the Iron Brotherhood were unified by Lu Yang and shouted in excitement.

"St. Gall is unified."

"We won."

"We finally won."

"No one dares to bully us anymore, we can finally play the game and upgrade."

...

Xia Yuwei, Jiang Ze, bitter love half-life, Bai Shixiong and others came to Lu Yang.

"Boss, congratulations." Xia Yuwei said.

Xia Yuwei never thought about it. At first, because of losing the bet and joining the Jagged Brothers Alliance, originally this little guild thought it would not take long for him to fail. However, after 22 wars, Lu Yang took them from weak to strong. Now, Defeated the four major guilds, and completely unified the city of St. Gall.

"My congratulations, boss."

Thinking back at the beginning, half-hearted love was just a downcast youth. When I entered the game, I wanted to accompany Han Liu and guard her silently, but every night, when I think of Han Liu, he will fall in love with other people in the game, even in him. Falling in love in front of him, his psychology is full of unwillingness.

However, he just had better tactics and was unable to stop all this. Their five-member squad was even chased by several bloodthirsty hegemony at the worst time.

Chapter 462 - Terror Canyon Ambush

The white wolf, the white lion, and the white tiger together said, "Boss, congratulations."

The three were brought back by Lu Yang in the arena. They joined Lu Yang's guild just because they lost to Lu Yang. At first, the three did not look at such a weak guild. The three just wanted to fight. After winning Lu Yang, he left the guild.

However, with the battles between Lu Yang, watching Lu Yang's powerful strength and the guild's growing step by step, the three truly fell in love with the guild, willingly brought their men to upgrade, and shared their sufferings with their brothers. .

Today, under the leadership of Lu Yang, the Brotherhood of Iron Blood has taken over the two main cities of the human race. Lu Yang has become a legend, the Brotherhood of Iron Blood has become a legend, and the three of them have become part of the legend.

Jiang Zexuan landed on Yang's shoulder and said, "Brother, I really admire you and admire it extremely."

Jiang Ze entered the game just with a play attitude. However, playing with it, he found that he had become a legion leader and a guild shareholder. Although he didn't care about money, he was not very optimistic about his dad's investment. 1 billion in cash, now, he really admires his dad, and even more admires Lu Yang.

The holy city is unified, and the emperor's city is also unified, and the emperor's city is still below the city of saint gal, within the protection circle of the holy city. problem.

In this way, the nine fortresses of the two main cities will continue to make money for them, and their investment will be fully recovered by the end of the year.

Lu Yang looked at them and said, "Thank you for your brothers' help. Without you, I can't do all of this, thank you."

Lu Yang bowed them sincerely, and everyone hurried to avoid it.

"Boss, this is what we should be." Said bitter love for a long time.

Lu Yang said with emotion: "In the future, we can usher in a relatively stable development period, but do n't be lazy, everyone is in Beifeng City, only 8 hours away from us. If we do n't work hard, In less than a month, everything we have now may be returned to others. "

Everyone nodded.

Xia Yuwei said: "Today is over, we will take a break to immediately lead the team to upgrade, and strive to bring our men to level 40 in the shortest possible time."

Lu Yang nodded and said, "Still the same, as long as there are enough 50,000 people, I will take you to the Orc Slaughter City, regardless of who it is, I only look at the level."

Xia Yuwei, Jiang Ze, and others looked at each other, showing their expressions of victory.

"By that time, I must be the most under me." Bitter love said proudly.

"Hey, my average level is 35, you fight with me," said the White Lion.

Han Fei sent a message and said, "Brother, we have reached the designated position and have laid an ambush."

Lu Yang said, "Very well, I'll be there."

Horror Canyon, a 35-level map, with a wide passageway in the valley that can accommodate 500 people walking side by side. The two sides of the canyon are bluestone cliffs, 50 meters high. Because of the wind that roars through here all the year round, there are whimpering ghosts, Hence the name Terror Canyon.

On the cliff on the right side of the canyon, Han Fei just used Lu Yang to build a small sentry tower for his goblin robot.

A flash of light flashed, Lu Yang appeared next to the sentry tower with a teleportation staff.

"Boss."

"Brother."

Sun Yu, Han Fei and Han Sha said together.

Lu Yang nodded, looked at the ambush around, and said, "Yes, you arrived on time, and the ambush was well designed."

Sun Yu said happily: "Thanks to the parachute given to us by our boss, we jumped from the top of the mountain and saved half of the journey."

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Today we gave Wang Teng one last surprise, making him unstable in Beifeng City."

Sun Yu nodded.

far away.

Countless players appear at the entrance to the canyon.

“Come here, everyone ambush, no show up without my permission.” Lu Yang said.

“Yes.” Sun Yu and Han Fei and others immediately led the player back to the back of the cliff, leaving only 12 killers such as Han Sha and Han Yu to watch over the cliff.

Within the canyon.

After nearly 500,000 ordinary players passed, Wang Teng appeared with his troops.

Through Han Sha’s video sharing, Lu Yang clearly saw that the team was headed by Wang Teng himself, the bloodthirsty domineering and eternal spirit four people were walking beside him, and everyone’s face was pleased.

“Mr. Wang, you are really expecting things. Lu Yang didn’t hit us. I was really convinced.” Hei Xue said charmingly.

Wang Teng proudly said, “It’s just a little trick. Lu Yang is still young.”

Han Sha asked, “Brother, how do I kill him?”

Lu Yang said, “No, it doesn’t make sense to kill him in the game. It would be useful to kill his 50,000 gold troops. Find out, where are their healing troops?”

Han Yu said, “I found it. At the end, there are not only priests, but also shield battles and mages. The battle configuration here is very complete.”

Lu Yang said: "This group of people is the group who just guarded us from attacking. The lineup is quite neat and morale."

Han Yu scratched his head and said, "Brother, this group of people is very depressed. They are almost out of line, and are dragging in groups."

Lu Yang smiled and said: "Simple, when I was under surveillance just now, they had to fight to protect themselves, and Wang Teng and Bloodthirsty Batian led the team in person, and now they know my big army. Did not keep up, Wang Teng and they left again. Naturally, this group of people became low morale again. "

The crowd nodded.

Lu Yang said to Sun Yu and Hei Yan around him: "Let them leave their front team and focus on the last 50,000 of their back team, forcing them to flee."

"Yes." Sun Yu and Hei Yan set out immediately.

Inside the valley.

Wang Teng's former team has reached the end of the canyon and is about to step out of the canyon, while his back team of 100,000 people has just entered Lu Yang's attack range.

Wang Teng looked back at the horror canyon and laughed.

Hei Xue asked: "General Manager Wang, what are you laughing at?"

Wang Teng said, "I laugh. Lu Yang is really a fool. If he orders an army to stay here in advance, I'm afraid we won't be able to get out of this canyon."

The spirit eternally waited for someone to laugh, and the sound shook through the valley.

In their laughter, Lu Yang, Hei Yan, Nanfeng Zhiyi, Black Knight, and Mu Yu chanted the spell at the same time, and 140 secondary forbidden spells also chanted the secondary forbidden spell.

Suddenly ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ The wind screams in the horror canyon, the sound of the wind passes through the canyon, making a harsh scream, making people sound cold.

For a moment, the sky was clouded with dark clouds, the sun was covered by dark clouds, and the whole land was in darkness.

“What’s going on.” Wang Teng asked frowning.

The bloodthirsty bully and the eternal soul shivered.

“Forbidden curse is forbidden curse, run away.” The spirit shouted eternally, the scene in front of him was exactly the same as when he was guarding the Black Stone Fortress.

Wang Teng said in horror: “How is that possible?”

As soon as the words fell, on the cliff, five people, Lu Yang, Nanfeng Zhiyi, Hei Yan, Black Knight, and Mu Yu, simultaneously pointed at 100,000 hostile players in the valley.

“Hei Yan prison”

“Crazy Thunder Prison”

“The flames burn out”

“Static Storm”

“Black hole”

Five major curses appeared at the same time, the dark clouds in the sky turned red, a terrible white skull on the ground appeared in the blazing flame, a black hole formed in the sky, and a lightning-like magnetic field spread among the crowd.

100,000 players are crying and lingering in the gorge, running madly towards the front. The players in front are afraid that they will be affected by the skills, and they also speed up.

“Meteor Fire Rain”

“Ice Storm”

“Heaven and Earth”

“Space Cut”

140 secondary forbidden mages also released their skills at the same time, blocking the way of 50,000 people, and wrapping them in their skills.

The players of the four guilds were in a chaotic formation, their morale was low, and they were caught off guard. In a panic, no one took care of the life and death of the players behind, and all ran out of the canyon.

After 30 seconds, looking at the countless equipment on the ground, Lu Yang said to Hei Yan and Sun Yu around him: “Use the earth dragon and the space-time barriers to block the canyon, the mage team went down to pick up the equipment, and others prepared . “

Chapter 463 - Go all out

Half of the players who came this time were wearing Level 40 Master Sergeant suits and used parachutes to jump into the valley.

There is a crack in the canyon that was torn by the earth and earth. It is 500 meters long and 30 meters deep. It just cuts the ground canyon into two sections.

3000 people came to the shield array 30 yards in front of the crack to open the shield array, Lu Yang came to the forefront of the shield array, read the spell in his mouth, and spread a large fire dragon on the ground opposite the crack.

Hei Yan brought the mage to pick up the equipment and came to Lu Yang, saying, "Harvest more than 50,000 pieces of gold equipment."

Lu Yang said, "The sea of fire."

"Yes." Hei Yan and the fire mage laid a large sea of fire on Lu Yang's fire dragon, and filled the crack with the sea of fire.

When Wang Teng reacted and rushed back with his troops, he could only see the raging flames and countless energy fire dragons spraying fireballs, and countless 40 level gold players behind Lu Yang.

"Lu Yang, you didn't keep your promise." Wang Teng growled.

Lu Yang snorted and stared at Wang Teng and said, "Fortunately, you're lucky. This time, you only killed 50,000 people. Wait in your Beifeng City. Wang Teng, one day, sooner or later, I will settle. Beifeng City, let you be like a funeral dog. "

Wang Teng couldn't help but have a chill in his heart, looking at Lu Yang's eyes, he didn't know how he offended Lu Yang, so he let Lu Yang look at him with such eyes.

The spirit went to Wang Teng forever and received: "Let 's withdraw first. The longer the delay, the worse it is for us. Only 100,000 people sent us out of the city, and the remaining 100,000 gold troops may be on their way, and we must not be They are stuck in the canyon. "

Wang Teng suddenly opened his eyes and said, "The whole army retreated."

"Yes." The troops of the four major guilds quickly exited the horror canyon. Players who died on the ground chose to return to the city. The light flashed and the bodies of 50,000 people disappeared on the ground.

Sun Yu shouted excitedly and said, "Boss, we won."

Who would have thought that they really did 3,000 people to scare away hundreds of thousands of troops from Wang Teng.

Lu Yang stared at Wang Teng's back. Numerous nights, Lu Yang was awakened by the nightmare. In the dream, he returned to the scene of drunkenness at home after the fortress of the last life was destroyed.

That night, Lu Yang knelt in his parents' hall of worship, desperate, helpless, sad, sad, and regretful. He thought his parents were an accident because he helped pay his debts, but Wang Teng appeared and pointed him with a gun. His head told him that everything was done by him.

At that time, Wang Teng's eyes, as well as the sound of gunfire, and his brother Xiao Liang's eyes before blocking his death, Lu Yang would never forget.

In this life, he wanted to kill Wang Teng, but it was too cheap to kill him like this. Lu Yang wanted to let Wang Teng taste all the pain in this life, and then send him to the road in person.

With a sigh of relief, Lu Yang worked hard to calm his mood and said: "Back to St. Gall and sending a message online, Wang Teng's 50,000 people will either use the free teleport to other main cities or die in St. Gall City, there is no third way."

"Yes." Sun Yu opened the forum to post.

Very open, a post called “Terror Canyon, Iron Blood Brothers League 3,000 people scared Wang Teng 500,000 people” was officially topped.

Sun Yu told them in detail the ambush of Wang Teng’s troops in the horror canyon, accompanied by pictures and text.

When Wang Teng saw this news, he learned that Lu Yang could only kill the spirit eternal when he had only 3000 troops.

“Lao Tzu makes people joke, completely makes them play. You are a waste forever.”

“General Manager, I ...”

On the way.

Wang Teng scolded: “No need to say anything, eternal spirit, bloodthirsty, black blood, a few spring and autumn, starting today, you don’t have to participate in the daily affairs of the guild.”

“Mr. Wang, what do you mean?” Bloodthirsty Batian asked.

Wang Teng said, “Isn’t my meaning clear enough? Starting today, I personally took over the four guilds, and all of you were merged into the Celestial Guild.”

“Don’t you agree to let us be vice presidents or manage their respective guilds?” Hei Xie said excitedly.

“Never use it now, do you understand?” Wang Tengli ignored them and ordered: “Qu Han, Che Yu, bring the troops into the city and bind back to the city system.”

“Yes,” the two said together.

The bloodthirsty domineering, eternal soul, several times spring and autumn and black blood dumbfounded, they did not expect that Wang Teng even unloaded and killed the donkey.

Red fortress.

Lu Yang was sitting in the fortress hall, all the people were present, such as muddy wine pouring, Xia Yuwei, White Lion, bitter love half-life, Jiang Ze, Sun Yu, Zhou Tianming, shooting Sirius and Tu Feng.

The heads of the 8th Army and Tu Feng, the vice-presidents in charge of internal affairs, stood up and said together, "Congratulations to the boss for successfully scoring the main city."

Lu Yang nodded with a smile and said, "From today on, all five fortresses in the Holy City are open for business. All players are welcome to settle in and upgrade ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ How much is the relevant facility auction house, restaurant, warehouse, bank Uniform told Tu Feng, including the four fortresses of the Imperial City, the same is true. It requires the submission of money, and Tu Feng unifies the method. "

"Yes." Xia Yuwei and Sun Yu nodded happily together.

The fortress will open a large amount of revenue for external operations. Currently, more than 3 million players in the Holy City have risen to level 30 or so.

Being able to enter the fortress to recover, rest, and buy and sell equipment is a very good thing when you are tired.

These facilities could have been built originally, but any of the facilities built by players in the fortress can be destroyed by others. Lu Yang had previously worried that the fortress could not be maintained, so he had not built these things.

"This time we make a lot of money." Tu Feng said with a smile.

At present, Tu Feng speaks with the most confidence. There are more players at the level of 30 or above, with more than 5 million people. They have been upgraded in the four fortresses. There are thousands of gold coins every day just for hotel rest and medicine purchase Net profit.

The white lion said, "Boss, how about we go directly to Hannibal City. With our current strength, there should be no problem with Hannibal City."

"Yes, boss, let's just lay down the four strongholds in Hannibal City." Said bitterly for a long time.

The unprecedented strength makes everyone in the Jagged Brothers League very confident and eager to trade for guild points.

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "No, for now, our biggest problem is the level. Do you know what the average level of the orcs is?"

Zhuoju pouring and Xia Yuwei and others shook their heads.

"You shoot Sirius." Lu Yang said.

Shooting Sirius nodded and said: "At this time, various consortiums have temporarily stopped stepping up the escalation of foreign wars. At present, more than half of the players in major guilds have reached level 35."

Chapter 464 - Sin City

"So fast?" Xia Yuwei asked.

Shooting Sirius said: "It's so fast. It is difficult for casual players to upgrade, but for Grand Guild players, they can team up to a map within 10 levels to upgrade. The more level 10 the monster experience increases by 2 Times, plus less experience in upgrading now, it will soon rise to level 40. "

Lu Yang said, "Now there is no barrier between the human race and the orc race. Only Liu Jie 's group knows. If other guilds are known, it will be necessary to attack Sirius Fortress. If we continue to attack other main cities, we will not be able In half a month, the enemy's level will be above 40. We have to be in more than 30 levels. It will be difficult for us to resist when Liu Jie or other enemies come. "

Everyone nodded.

"Then we continue to lead the team to upgrade," White Lion said.

"You first gather your team, and each army group first gathers 30,000 people. I will take you to a new map for a mission in a while. The upgrade experience in that place is very high." Lu Yang said.

"Okay." The crowd said together.

Lu Yang took out the back to the city to return to upgrade the love, and replaced the Red Flame Lion King to the goblin camp in the west of the city.

Bissell was pacing back and forth in the middle of the camp, with an anxious expression on his face, and only a little more than a meter tall green-skinned goblin. This pair was very interesting.

"Bissell, what are you doing?" Lu Yang shouted at the gate of the camp.

Bissell looked up and saw Lu Yang's eyes light up, greeted him excitedly, and shouted, "Hey, brother, why are you here?"

Lu Yang came to Bissell and jumped down the Red Flame Lion, saying: "I just won the war and I have gained control of the five fortresses in the Holy City."

Bissell praised, "That's really congratulations."

"Master Craftsman Obak asked me to come to you. Do you have any questions?" Lu Yang asked.

Bissell said angrily: "I'm worried about this, you know, my family has always wanted to re-establish a goblin race fixed living place, but only two of the Seven Goblin Princes are willing to help us , The remaining four are unwilling to help, at most they only provide money, I can only ask you for help. "

Lu Yang asked, "What can I do for you?"

"We have chosen the place where the nation was founded, just in the city of Lotrick, where our ancestors once lived," said Bissell.

Lotrick, a small city in the desert of the middle of the orcs, was the place where the goblins were born. However, in several wars thousands of years ago, the goblins failed in the war and were driven out of there.

Later, there were several wars there. At present, the races are ruled by several races, such as the Sagittarius, the Wolfwolf and the Sand elements.

"At present, the troops in the hands of our three princes' families have to maintain the family business and protect the company. The soldiers that can be drawn out are limited, so we hope to hire you and your troops to lay the entire Carter for us." Bissell said.

System Prompt: Goblin Founding Mission (Prologue), whether you are willing to accept the commission of Bissell

Lu Yang clicked willingly and said, "No problem."

These tasks are tasks with great rewards. After level 30, the official tasks are less and less. Players can only go to the field to upgrade monsters. If they can undertake the tasks of the grounded elites, Lu Yang's level Can be quickly raised.

Bissell cheered and said, "Brother, I know you'll be willing to help. The airships of our three princes' families will be open to you free of charge. At present, we have established a base there, and you can always open up for us . "

Lu Yang said, "I'll mobilize people."

Opening the simulation group, Lu Yang shared the task to all team members such as Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei.

"Goblin founding the nation?"

"Boss, you can even receive such a task, you are too god." Said bitter love for a long time.

Lu Yang said, "Tell my brothers, who are willing to upgrade quickly, go to the goblin camp in Saros city, where the airship will send them to the goblin stronghold for free, there are a lot of tasks to do."

"Yes, let's inform it." Xia Yuwei and Zhuo Jiu and others organized their own efforts.

"If you have any problems that you need to resolve after you get here, contact me in time." Lu Yang said.

"Boss, won't you come with us?" The White Lion asked.

Lu Yang said, "I still have something to do. I'll go when you have completed the first stage of the prologue."

After closing the dialog box, Lu Yang sent a message to Lan Yu and said, "Girl, what are you doing?"

Lan Yu said, "I just happened to go to the goblin camp with sister Yu Wei."

Lu Yang said: "Don't go, accompany me to a place, I will take you to upgrade."

"Okay, where can I find you?" Lan Yu asked happily, she hasn't been with Lu Yang alone for a long time ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Crimson Fortress. "Lu Yang took out the fortress and returned to the city. He flew to the inner city of the fortress. On the side close to the city wall, 90 female worms continued to spit out self-explosive worms. This became a fixed upgrade point for the guild to reward elite players every day.

A flash of light flashed, and Lan Yu appeared beside Lu Yang.

“Brother.” Lan Yu went to Lu Yang and asked, “Where are we going?”

Lu Yang looked at Lan Yu’s small appearance and really wanted to hold her in her arms, and said, “I’ll take you to a fun place. Do you have any research on chess?”

“A little bit,” Lan Yu said.

“That’s good. I’ll take you to chess in a while.” Lu Yang took out his teleportation scepter and flew to the Level 60 Map Psychic Academy with Blue Feather.

The two changed into the Red Flame Lion King and ran towards the northeast. They ran for 2 hours using the acceleration scroll and came to the front of an abyss.

System prompt: you found the city of sin domain

Standing next to the cliff and looking down, you will see a huge underground city with houses, churches, hospitals, pharmacies and so on. However, the people in the city are all indifferent.

“What is this place?” Lan Yu asked.

Lu Yang said, “This place is called the City of Sin Realms. According to the official data of the game, everyone here is a prisoner in exile. Eventually they came together to build the city.”

“Ah, there is such a place.” Lan Yu said.

Lu Yang said, "Yes, follow me later. This place is very strange. The contents of your backpack may be stolen by pedestrians at any time. You may also be attacked by strangers. There is no safe zone here."

Lan Yu's face showed an excited expression and said, "How is this place like the Valley of the Wicked?"

Lu Yang said with a smile: "It's apt, it's the Valley of the Evil."

Chapter 465 - Only 1 mission

The house is made of bluestone, moss has grown on the exterior, and some parts are darkened, which looks very worn.

An indifferent old man was standing at the door, looking coldly around.

"Hello old man," Lu Yang said.

The old man glanced at Lu Yang, without a word, turned and prepared to enter the door.

In the "Second World" game, the action of the old man is typically something that the npc with the plot will do.

Lan Yu looked at Lu Yang in surprise. Lu Yang nodded and walked behind the old man, and said loudly, "I heard that the old man is a master of chess. I don't think you look like anything at all, and dare not follow me.

The old man turned around fiercely, his cold expression changed, and he looked arrogantly at Lu Yang and said, "Only you?"

Lu Yang said, "Yes, just me. Don't you dare to follow me, just speak up."

“Go down, I’m afraid you won’t do it.” Dross went into the room angrily and said, “Come in, the chessboard is on the table.”

Lu Yang entered Dross’s house and saw a chess board on the table in the living room. The chess pieces had been placed on it, in black and white.

Dross sat on the white * side and said proudly: “Boy, if you lose to me, you will lose the rank.”

Lu Yang sat indifferently to the black * and said, “Please.”

According to the rules, Chess went white first, and Dross took the lead to take a step forward.

Lan Yu stood curiously beside Lu Yang and said, “Are you sure?”

Chess is a classic casual game of the last life and the beginning of a special task.

When the previous player found this task, countless people were curious to try this task. However, Dross, who released the task, was officially set to be a chess player at level 7. Chess is divided into 15 levels. , Level 10 is considered amateur, but level 10 is professional.

Level 7 is a watershed. Players need to exercise for a long time to reach this level. As a result, countless players in the last life have lost a level here.

At that time, it was already a level 80 player, and it took a month to practice a level drop.

According to the habit of “Second World” official missions, the more difficult the task, the better the reward. Some players invited a chess master to do this task. No one thought that when the task was completed, it was given. The reward is so high.

The pirate captain's defensive mission.

On the uninhabited island of the endless sea, the life savings of the world's first One Piece is buried, but this treasure was discovered by his enemy, the Black Sea Murloc.

Therefore, the Black Sea Murlocs are gathering troops to attack the uninhabited island where One Piece is located. One Piece cannot transport the treasure for a while, and they are also doing their best to make fortifications. If someone can complete this task, they can bring the team to One Piece Above the small island, help One Piece defend the city.

The experience of this mission is very high. The level of the Black Sea Murlocs is all above 80. If you can upgrade there, you can quickly increase the level.

If defending the city is successful, you can also start a mission to get a sub-legendary set. Lu Yang always wanted to come here, but this is the only mission. After you start the mission, you cannot leave here for a few days. Once you leave the mission, the mission will fail So, he didn't have time to come until he defeated Wang Teng.

At this point, the chess pieces of both sides have reached the middle. In chess, whoever can control the center grid and who can occupy the open line can take the lead.

Lu Yang happened to have both of them, but Dross lost his thoughts for a long time but was replaced by Lu Yang's elephant. The overall situation was basically laid.

"Well," Dross slaps his thigh in dismay.

Lan Yu's admiration glanced at Lu Yang's chess moves. He did not expect Lu Yang to play chess so powerfully.

"Brother, you are so good." Lan Yu said.

Lu Yang said proudly: "It's okay."

After the chess master of the last generation won the game, many people came to try the game. Although there is no longer the One Piece mission, they can still get the same small gifts. After a long game, some players have found a way to crack the Dross chess. Methods.

Lu Yang is an amateur go player himself. Using this method, after a few steps, he knows how to play Dross, so he can seize the opportunity.

Continuing to play chess, Dross lost the queen's mental confusion. After a few fights, he fainted. Lu Yang successively struck out two cars and two elephants, and then slaughtered.

There was a queen on Lu Yang's side, but Dross did not. He could walk horizontally, vertically, and diagonally. The queen who had no limit on the number of steps easily wiped out Dross's soldiers.

"I lost." De Ross said helplessly, watching his king besieged by Lu Yang's soldiers.

"Great, we won." Lan Yu said happily.

Dross looked at Lu Yang and said, "Boy, look at your strength. I have a task here and I don't know if you want to accept it."

System prompt: Captain William's help

As soon as Lu Yang's eyes brightened, he clicked to accept ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ and said, "No problem, of course I am willing."

"This is a teleportation stone. Please pass as soon as possible. Captain William will not treat you badly if you can complete the defense." Dross said.

Lu Yang took a black stone with a mysterious purple rune on it.

"Okay, I'm ready to go over here." Lu Yang left the room with Lan Yu, came out, and said, "We'll go back to the Red Fort first, and then pick up Han Ying and let them upgrade together."

“Well, okay,” Lan Yu said.

The two flew back to the Red Fortress together, and Lu Yang sent a message to Han Ying and asked him to bring 150 paladins with him.

During this time, 150 Paladins have been upgraded in the large cemetery. The Paladin’s Holy Light skills have doubled the damage to undead monsters. Lu Yang has equipped them with gold equipment to upgrade especially quickly, and now they have reached level 33.

After a burst of light, the three sisters Han Ying, Xiao Liang, and Mu Yu came out of the teleportation team with 150 people.

“We’re here,” Han Ying said.

Lu Yang took out the black stone and clicked to open it. A blue light portal appeared. At the other end of the portal, you could see the island.

“What is this place?” Mu Yu asked.

Lu Yang briefly explained the situation and said, “Follow me first, and then I will teach you how to do it.”

The crowd nodded and entered the portal with Luyang.

Trina.

A huge wooden square portal was glowing with blue light, and Captain William stood anxiously pacing in front of the portal.

“Strange, why don’t people come?”

The light flashed.

Lu Yang led the team out of the portal and came to Captain William. He looked at the captain's black captain's cap, one-eyed, hooked hands, and a blue captain's suit.

Chapter 466 - Guarding treasure

Captain William showed a happy expression, but saw Lu Yang and the level of players behind him, frowning and said, "You are the reinforcements recommended by Drose?"

Lu Yang said: "It's us."

Captain William with a contempt expression on his face said, "Some of you are more capable to participate in the defense, and others will be the logistics team to take the task."

After speaking, the captain turned and left.

Han Fei looked at the captain's deep red 80 level and said to Lu Yang, "Brother, we are going to play 80 strange this time."

Lu Yang nodded and said, "Yes."

"Have we ever fought?" Xiao Liang said.

Lu Yang said: "Normally, it can't be beaten, but I have a way. Let's go to the camp to pick up the task first."

The fortifications built by Captain William are very simple, just a 10 cm round wooden fence and four simple turrets at the main entrance.

His main defense was still more than 20 pirate ships parked in the bay, each with 20 cannons.

In the camp, Chief Heavis and more than 20 sailors had mission symbols on their heads. Lu Yang pointed at Chief Heavis and said, "These people are all tasks to send things. Han Fei, you boys, do n't pick up. For the rest, take the task of carrying stones. "

"Yes." Han Fei and Han Yu took 150 players to pick up the task.

"Lan Yu and Han Ying, go to the forest above the island to kill the stab ball tree demon, pick up 200 stab * and branches and come back." Lu Yang said.

"Okay." Lan Yu and the three girls Han Han and Mu Yu entered the forest happily together.

"Brother, where are you going?" Lan Yu asked.

Lu Yang said, "I'm going fishing to please that green parrot."

In the center of the camp, a green parrot stands on a log that is over one meter high.

"Uncle Toms is very upset today. Someone wants to * my boss's treasure. You all listen to me and work hard, otherwise I will let the boss send you to the sea to feed the sharks." Green parrot with his unique voice Said with high toes.

Mu Yu didn't hold back, chuckling his mouth and said, "Brother, this parrot is so fun."

Lu Yang gestured with a whispered gesture, saying, "Be quiet, this parrot is the second-hand leader. He has more rights than the first officer. We can't offend him."

The three blue women nodded together and turned into the forest.

Lu Yang took the fishing rod from his backpack and walked towards the middle of the island.

The uninhabited island is very large, there is a high mountain in the center of the island, and a clear spring at the foot of the mountain. The spring water gushes all year round to form a natural lake. In the lake, there are many fish.

Lu Yang found a spot, sat down, and started fishing.

There are many casual games in Second World. One of them is fishing. Many people think that fishing is just an ordinary accessory for cooking. In fact, many fish have their special functions.

For example, Lu Yang is now fishing for red fish.

Lu Yang threw the fishing line hard, waited quietly, and waited for about 10 minutes before a 20 cm long red fish got out of nowhere and slowly approached the bait.

The bait is made of earthworms and struggles in the water. The favorite thing for red fish is earthworms. They gradually approach the earthworms, pierce the mouth forward, eat the earthworms into the mouth, and bite the fishing hook at the same time. Into the mouth.

The fishing rod sank violently, and Lu Yang quickly pulled the rod to fish the red fish out of the water. Do not look at the small size of the red fish but the power was very large.

Lu Yang pulled for 10 seconds and felt wrong when pulling the red fish up half a meter. He quickly reduced his strength so that the red fish struggled less violently. After waiting a few seconds, Lu Yang continued to pull the rod. .

Repeated five times in a row, Lu Yang pulled the red fish near the water surface. Taking a chance, he pulled the red fish out of the water.

System prompt: you caught a red fish

“I was caught.” Lu Yang put the little red fish in the bucket and continued fishing.

An hour later, Lu Yang caught five red fish and slaughtered them and brought them back to the camp. At this time, the three blue feathers had returned to the camp and were firing.

“You are fast.” Lu Yang said.

“The spiny ball demon was originally a chestnut tree. We killed 200 chestnut trees and got 200 spiny ball chestnuts.” Lan Yu said proudly.

“Brother, have you caught the fish?” Mu Yu asked.

Lu Yang put the bucket in front of the three and said, “Of course, watch me cook a delicious fish soup for you.”

Opening the mall, Lu Yang chose to buy a fish pot and clear water, and put the fish and the peeled chestnuts in the pot together.

After a while, the aroma came out of the fish pot, and the deliciousness of chestnut fish soup was scattered in the camp.

The green-haired parrot smelled scented and became fascinated. He couldn't help but flew to Lu Yang, looked at the fish soup pot, and said with a high toe, “Master Tom orders you to give me this pot of fish soup.”

Lu Yang looked at the parrot around him and said, “We are not your subordinates, why?”

The green-haired parrot blinked, and these people only came to help when they reacted, and walked back without a word.

Lan Yu's eyes were pleasantly surprised, and obviously, the green parrot was a hidden task.

"Wow, this fish soup is so fragrant. It is stewed with red fish and chestnuts. It is delicious." Mu Yu shouted deliberately at the back of the parrot.

The parrot's footsteps could no longer move, stopped in place for 5 seconds, ran back to Lu Yang, gritted his teeth and asked: "You say, what do you want me to exchange? . "

Lu Yang looked at the parrot and said, "If you can give me the construction command of this fortress, I will give you this pot of fish soup."

The green-haired parrot jumped back fiercely, looked at Lu Yang suspiciously and said, "What do you mean?"

Lu Yang said: "You are pirate brothers. You are good at attacking and not good at defense. You should be responsible for the construction of fortresses. Look at the construction of your fortress. It is too crude, I am afraid that even a wave of attacks Can't stop it. "

The green-haired parrot paced back and forth on the ground with a sharp throat and said, "You really make sense. I also watched the camp awkwardly. The boss personally directed the gunboat on the ship to hand it over to me. I must not let down the trust of the boss. Do you have any good solutions. "

Lu Yang said: "I have 9 fortresses in the Terran and have experienced more than a dozen wars. If you ask me to help you build the fortress, I can help you build a strong and strong fortress to ensure that the Murlocs will not take it away. Your darling. "

The green parrot thought about it and said, "Well then, for the sake of this pot of fish soup, I believe you once, you are responsible for the construction, here is the token."

Lu Yang took the token. In a split second, the names of all npcs in the camp became green.

Chief Hevis stepped in front of Lu Yang and bowed respectfully, saying: "It turned out to be the well-known President of the Holy City, Lu Yang. We are willing to obey your assignment."

Lu Yang said: "I hope to suspend the defensive construction of the camp. All defensive towers will be built near the entrance on the north side."

"You can choose any location, as long as we have enough stones and cannons," Heves said.

Lu Yang said, "Mr. Heavis, please go and tell Captain William, I hope he can lend us a cannon that is not in the cabin to us to defend his treasure."

There are spare cannons inside the pirate ship.

Heves said, "Of course, that's a good idea."

This idea was not come up by Lu Yang, but was announced by the chess master of the last generation. When they poured the power of the elite guild players to help the defense, they only managed to defend the sixth wave of attacks and reached the seventh wave. At the time of the wave, the guild could only continue to convene players to use people to pile.

By the end of the eighth wave, everyone in the guild knew that the ninth wave could not stand it. When they were thinking hard to find a way, by chance, a player's supply was gone, and they got this series by accident when they were cooking. Task.

At that time, the player only used the arrow tower, and when the twentieth wave was defended, the guild player accidentally found that there were a lot of artillery on the bottom of the pirate ship that could be transported away.

With these artillery, they had a tough time holding the camp and gained a lot of experience. However, because they did not explore the gameplay carefully in the early stage, using humans to defend the monsters ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ resulted in multiple deaths and did not get too With much experience, this is the last regret of the chess master.

Lu Yang watched Davis take the pirates in the camp and returned 60 cannons. When he clicked the dialog box, two defense towers appeared: one was a turret, and the other was an arrow tower.

Turret: 1000 Stones to build

Arrow Tower: 300 Stones Needed to Build

The pirate camp is located in a place surrounded by mountains on three sides and one side facing the sea. In all fairness, this position is very good. Captain William only needs to defend the enemy on the sea. Amphibious fish people.

The camp surrounded by mountains on three sides has a 50-meter-wide passageway on the north side, from which the Murloc troops will attack.

Lu Yang and Han Ying brought them to the aisle entrance on the north side and opened the construction interface. At this time, Han Fei had already carried 1500 stones.

At the entrance of the passage, Lu Yang built a turret on the left, a turret 5 meters high, and a pirate operating on it.

After waiting for 500 stones, another turret was built on the other side.

Level: 80

Damage: 200,000-300,000

Effect: Area Damage

"The damage is so high," Mu Yu said.

Lu Yang said, "All the level 80 monsters are here."

Everyone was relieved.

System prompt: 5 minutes before attack time

Lu Yang said, "Let everyone stop collecting stones and come to me to gather."

Han Ying sent a message to Han Fei, and soon, Han Fei, Han Yu, and Xiao Liang brought 150 studio members to the camp gate.

"Woo ~ woo ~ woo ~" The sound of conch sounded, and a warship with a skull flag appeared above the distant sea.

Chapter 467 - Troyard Sword

"For treasure, attack." A 2-meter-tall green merman raised his steel fork in his hand and shouted loudly at the end of the passage.

Fishman pirate

Level: 80

Qi and blood: 500000/500000

Countless green mermaids poured into the passage and rushed towards the location of the landing sun.

“Ordinary blame has so much blood.” Han Ying said.

Lu Yang’s heart was also relieved. The player from the previous life just recorded some information in words, but did not describe the strange health and defense too much. Now he only sees 500,000. Come down.

The length of the passage is 200 meters. The attack distance of the two turrets is 150 meters. The mermaid just ran into the range and the two turrets fired.

“噔”

“噔”

Two black spherical bombs landed precisely in the merman community.

“38696”

“39686”

...

A piece of damage appeared on the head of the Murloc, and after two shells, all Murlocs within 30 yards were killed.

System prompt: You killed the fishman

You get 1056 experience

...

A series of experiences suggest that everyone in the dialogue bar area has a surprised expression.

“Upgrading together with 156 of us can give such a high experience.” Han Fei said.

Everyone showed a happy expression.

Lu Yang stood under the tower and watched the countless green fishmen attacking forward, but they were blocked by two turrets. No matter how many fishmen were killed by the two turrets.

Half an hour later, 150 studio players rose to level 34 at the same time.

After an hour, he reached level 35.

The first wave of monsters attacked for 3 hours. By the time they stopped, 150 people had risen to level 36.

“Hundreds of thousands of monsters have to be killed.” Han Fei said.

Lu Yang nodded and said, “It should be.”

“The two turrets are amazing.” Han Yu said.

Lu Yang said: "Then you will go to collect the stones and strive to build more arrow towers before the next attack."

"Yes." Han Fei and Han Yu left with 150 people.

one hour later.

Lu Yang successfully built two other turrets, plus two previous ones with a total of four turrets.

System prompt: second wave of offense begins

"Mermaid warriors, attack," shouted a green mermaid wearing armor.

Murloc Pirate Warrior

Level: 83

Qi and blood: 620000/620000

Increased 3 levels, 120,000 more blood, the two turrets have no ability to blame.

"Fortunately, there are four turrets, otherwise this attack is really difficult to fight." Han Fei said.

Lu Yang nodded, no wonder the guild where the chess master of the last generation played so hard, each wave of monsters has been strengthened much more than before.

If Lu Yang still has two turrets, it may be a bit difficult to defend the second level, but it can also be maintained, but the third wave is difficult.

“Brother, do we want to find some more people to carry the stone, just pull 10,000 people to build 60 turrets.” Han Fei said.

Lu Yang said with a smile: “How can it be so easy? This task also increases the difficulty with the number of people. The more people there are, the higher the health. The more than 160 people are another level. Don’t worry, insist on the end of 3 waves of attacks. Even if it’s over tonight, I’ll take you to the mount. “

Everyone nodded.

The second wave of offensive ended, Lu Yang and Han Fei rose to level 51, Blue Feather rose to level 43, and 150 studio members rose to level 39.

...

In the evening, Lu Yang built 6 turrets and successfully defended the third wave of offense.

Captain William’s ship returned to the port, and he laughed and said to Lu Yang: “You guys, you did a good job, Dross did not read the wrong person.”

System prompt: Captain William will be more friendly to you

Lu Yang said, “It should be.”

“Today’s war is over. The fishermen have poor eyesight at night. They will not launch an attack at night. You can rest.” Captain William said.

“Okay, I will arrive on time tomorrow morning.” Lu Yang led the team back to St. Gall.

Take out 15,000 gold coins from Han Zhong and take the whole team to the crater to arrest 150 Red Flame Lions. Unfortunately, this time, although the Red Flame Lion King was caught in the trap, it was summoned for more than 3 hours to be successful At that time, the Red Flame Lion exploded.

After looking at the time, it was 11 o'clock in the evening, and Lu Yang said with regret: "The next time we have a chance, we will come again, and everyone will return to the Holy City to rest."

Disbanding everyone, Lu Yang sent a message to Zhuo Jiu and asked, "How about upgrading today, is there any problem?"

Zhuo Jiu said, "Today, our 7 regiments are divided into 7 directions to look for upgrade maps. There is a lot of experience here. One of my men upgraded with all their strengths. I upgraded to a level in a day. Just a few of us discussed it. Just a moment, no problems were encountered. "

After reaching level 30, it is almost difficult to improve one level a day. It can be seen that this map does have a very high experience, which is half faster than other guild players.

Lu Yang asked a few other things. After nothing, he quit the game and took off his helmet. Lu Yang saw Han Zhongzheng and Han Ying and Mu Yi chatting.

Han Zhong said, "Xiao Yang, I'm afraid you have to prepare in advance."

Lu Yang asked, "What's wrong?"

"Our business has spread to 16 main cities of Terra. According to your requirements, I bought a lot of people as spies. According to the information collected so far, Luo Cheng, who was rushed to Beifeng City, just integrated the guild and will All 7 guilds, including Sky Realm, Bloodlust League, Blue Crystal, and Shenwu Tribe, have all merged into one guild. "Han Zhong said.

Lu Yang said for a moment, "So fast?"

Han Zhong said: "Wang Teng and Liu Jie started viciously. The price of gold equipment and materials at level 30 was pushed to a set of 33 gold coins. All 6 guilds suffered heavy losses in this war. This price made them unable to afford it at all. , The only choice is to merge. The only sunset union that has not lost faced Wang Teng and did not dare to resist the merger. "

Lu Yang asked: "How about the bloodthirsty domineering and eternal spirit?"

Han Zhong smiled and said: "All of them were idle by Wang Teng. I heard that Bloodthirsty Batian was relegated to the rank of head, and his level is not as high as Qu Han's."

Lu Yang said, "Wang Teng is scolding someone."

Han Zhong said: "Yeah, so humiliating the bloodthirsty domineering, he quit his game directly. In addition, the presidents such as Eternal Spirit and Black Blood were suspended as vice presidents, and they did not have any real power in their hands. Replaced by Wang Teng's newcomer, the entire guild has a new weather and is fully upgrading. According to the situation of our spy, Wang Teng's first offensive target is us. "

Han Fei said: "It looks like there will be another fierce battle sooner or later."

Han Zhong said: "Not only that, the tyrants and late twilights we driven away have already controlled all the fortresses in the two main cities, and they are currently upgrading with full force, and the direction is unknown."

Lu Yang thought of Wang Teng's face and sneered, and said, "He will not come to me and I will go back to him. As for Xiong Ba and Chi Du, they must not be convinced, but they have been too far away this time and cannot live for the time being. Come, I have a lot of time. "

Han Zhong nodded and said, "At present, your first task is to kill Wang Teng. Do you have any ideas?"

Lu Yang thought for a while and said, "Master, like this, you first purchase a large amount of gems and enchanting materials, no matter what level you buy, at least enough to collect 150 pieces of 10 sets of gems with 18 sets of equipment."

The smithy and pharmacy stores were full of 16 main cities, which allowed Lu Yang to make a lot of money, and his daily income even exceeded the total of 9 fortresses.

"That's fine," Han Zhong said.

“Brother, do you want to equip those 150 studio members with new equipment?” Han Fei asked.

Lu Yang nodded and said, “Yes, everyone rests and upgrades. If I foresee it is correct, the war will be a month later.”

Everyone nodded.

“This time they come again, I must make them lose even more.” Han Fei said.

...

After one night, the next morning.

Lu Yang got up early to enter the game, and took Han Fei and Lan Yu again to Triana.

Captain William is ordering his subordinates to send ammunition to the ship in the center of the camp. When he sees Lu Yang coming, he walks over and says, “Boy, we are still the same as yesterday. You are responsible for the shore and I am responsible for the sea.”

Lu Yang said, “No problem ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ We must help you keep the treasure.”

“Thank you, if you can keep it, I will thank you again.” Captain William happily took the team on board.

The system prompts: The fourth wave of attacks begins after 2 hours.

Lu Yang looked back at Han Fei.

“Let’s go now.” Han Fei clicked to summon, the red light flashed, and the Red Flame Lion appeared as he sat down.

At the same time, 150 studio players summoned the Red Flame Lion at the same time, and everyone sat down and saw the Red Flame Lion.

“Collect the stones, everyone will follow me.” Han Fei shouted loudly, moving twice as fast as before, and more than 150 people flew to the quarry.

Lu Yang said, “You take a break here, and I’ll go out.”

Taking out the teleportation scepter, Lu Yang flew outside the Level 60 Ogre Empire and ran south along the road.

An hour later, a huge black active volcano appeared in front of Lu Yang. The volcano was several hundred meters high, and the top of the mountain was emitting thick black smoke.

System prompt: You found Black Dragon Mountain

This is one of the most famous places of war in the last century. Heilongshan is rich in a type of ore called Troyat meteorite.

This kind of ore is extremely rare, producing a maximum of 10 pieces per day, but the role of this ore is very single, and it can only make one weapon, and the name of this weapon is Troyad’s holy sword.

This is the only legendary weapon capable of mass production at level 60. Therefore, since this ore was exposed, Heilongshan has not been in war for a moment, and countless people kill each other for this ore every day.

Even the major guilds have no ability to control this place, and can only repeat the same war every day.

However, Luyang in this world had a cheap one. He was the first to arrive. Before the next war, Luyang was ready to dig for ore once a day.

Chapter 468 - Asshole Legion

Walking into the Black Dragon Mountain, five black young dragons flew over from a distance, and the huge wings formed a huge shadow to cover the sun over Lu Yang.

Black Drake (Elite)

Level: 60

Qi and blood: 1000000/1000000

The young dragon's ability is to spit black flames, and the damage is higher than the steel hammer ogre elite. If Lu Yang is stared at by a team of black young dragons, he can only escape.

Lu Yang bowed his head and hid in the grass. After the black baby dragon flew away, he continued to walk towards the Black Dragon Mountain. The ore can only be found in the cave halfway up the mountain.

Lu Yang, who was in this place in the last life, has not been here, and snatching these treasures is not something he is qualified to do, but he has seen related strategies on the forum.

There are two problems to get into the Black Dragon Mountain without getting a monster. The first one is the 24 black dragon squads circling the mid-mountainside of the Black Dragon Mountain. The distance between each two squadrons is only 200 meters.

The black dragon's field of vision is 80 meters, and the player has only 20 meters to rush into the cave from the foot of the mountain.

The second problem is that the ore is in the middle of the cave. There is a team of black flying dragons passing by every 1 minute, and there are also 6 black flying dragons around the ore. As long as they wake up and report to the police, half of the black dragon dragons will run. come.

The boss of the guild of the last life threw the ore out in a cooperative way with six thieves, but Lu Yang didn't need to do so.

Lu Yang came to the foot of the mountain and looked at the cave at a distance of 300 meters in a straight line. Twelve black young dragons just flew through the mouth of the cave, and a team of black young dragons was still 200 meters away.

“Remnant Flame”

A reddish afterimage generally flew to the entrance of the cave. At this time, the dragons of the rear team just flew to the position of 100 meters, and the young dragons of the front and back teams were both 100 meters away from Lu Yang.

“activation”

After leaving a remnant flame in place, Lu Yang turned into a red streamer, flew to the opening where the reign flame was, and walked into the opening in one step while no enemies were around.

The cave is very large, the height of the cave entrance is 20 meters, and the surrounding rocks seem to be scorched with abnormal black.

“Boom”

“Boom”

...

The heavy footsteps sounded inside the cave, and Lu Yang slowly moved toward the cave. When he reached the corner, Lu Yang looked inside and a black dragon just walked away.

Black Dragon Hakazette (Lord)

Level: 100

Qi and blood: 11000000/11000000

Lu Yang hurriedly shrank his head back. This big guy is not something he can fight now. Hakazette can kill him with only one breath.

After waiting for a minute, it was determined that Hakazette had gone far according to the vibration of the ground, and then Lu Yang looked again into the cave.

The cave has a lot of space inside, just like a giant beehive. Lu Yang walked through the passage according to the memory and entered the second hole on the right.

“Hello ~!”

A group of black dragons flew out of the fifth hole on the right, and Lu Yang hurriedly hid behind the corner to avoid a crisis.

The black baby dragon glanced suspiciously at the second hole on the right, and then flew into the hole on the left.

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief and continued to walk towards the front. After avoiding 5 batches of black baby dragons in a row, Lu Yang came to a large hall.

Under a flame light on the right wall of the cave lobby, a huge Troyade meteorite is being set there obliquely.

Around the meteorite, twelve black dragons lie on their backs.

Black flying dragon (boss)

Level: 65

Qi and blood: 3000000/3000000

It happened that another team of dragons came out of the cave on the left and returned after a round of inspections in the hall.

“10”

“9”

...

Lu Yang counted down the movement distance of the patrol black dragon. When the count reached 0, he read the spell in his mouth.

“The Great God of Fire”

After 10 seconds, Lu Yang’s left black finger pointed in front of the 12 black dragons.

A gap was opened in the cave, and a giant fire meteor appeared, in the middle of the heads of 12 black flying dragons.

The dragon was stunned immediately.

Lu Yang threw the escape dagger from his body, and the blue light flashed in front of the ore. He took out the pickaxe to dig hard, and dug 3 pieces of meteorite at a rate of 3 seconds.

“Hello ~”

Twelve flying dragons woke up and spit black flames towards the landing sun with a roar.

A white light flickered behind the 12 dragons, and Lu Yang emerged from the light.

“Yan Yang Suo”

Twelve flying dragons were entangled in red flame chains, and Lu Yang ran back to the ore to continue digging.

After 10 seconds, Lu Yang sent out three meteorite again, and at this time 12 flying dragons resumed operation.

“Hello ~!”

Twelve angry roars rang through the cave together, and the dragons collectively ran towards the landing sun.

“Remnant Flame”

“Blazing Blaze”

Leaving a shadow on the spot, Lu Yang ran out of the cave, ran straight for 30 seconds, and the dragon behind him chased for 30 seconds.

“Set fire”

Lu Yang's body turned into a red streamer and flew past the bodies of 12 black dragons and appeared on the afterimage beside the ore.

Taking out the pickaxe, Lu Yang continued to dig. After 12 seconds, the meteorite ore protruding on the wall was dug out by Lu Yang.

"Brother, the battle is about to begin."

Lu Yang smiled and took out the teleportation scepter. He looked at the dragon in front of him screaming at the distance and said, "I'll come back."

The blue teleportation array emerged at the foot of Lu Yang. Five seconds later, Lu Yang appeared next to the portal on Trina.

Lu Yang, who owns the token, controls the fortifications on the shore of Trina, which is equal to the place he owns, so he can fly over using the teleportation scepter.

"Brother, you are back." Lan Yu ran over and said.

Lu Yang nodded and asked, "How long does the enemy have to attack?"

"About 10 minutes," Lan Yu said.

Lu Yang nodded, opened the construction interface and took a look. He already had more than 3,800 stones. Together with the rest of yesterday, he could build 4 turrets.

Click to build, 4 turrets appear 5 yards behind the previous 4 turrets. In this way, Lu Yang has 8 turrets, and the turrets and turrets can also be separated from each other without wasting shells.

System prompt: the fourth wave of attack begins

A mermaid with a green leather body armor holding a spear jumped out of the forest at the end of the passage. The spear pointed at the sky and shouted, "Warriors of the Murloc, attack."

Countless pikemen rushed towards the landing sun.

Murloc warrior

700000/700000

"There is so much blood," Han Fei said.

At a distance of 80 meters, the four turrets fired together, and the four turrets attacked together could kill 800,000 blood, just killing all the fishmen in the range, and the four turrets behind did not fire.

System prompt: You killed the Murloc warrior

...

When Lu Yang led the team here to upgrade, on the other side, three orc players appeared in the arena.

"Unbearable." An orc shaman easily hacked down a tribal paladin with an axe.

Players watching the surrounding game were amazed.

“The three orcs have reached the highest position in the arena, it’s great.”

The orc player Fenglinshanhua glanced proudly at the killed player and said, “Who else wants to compete with our brother, come out.”

The orc player predator Zhebei looked at the people around him and said, “Whether it’s heads-up or two-player or three-player, our three brothers are here to accompany you.”

None of the players in the arena dare to play against three people.

“Haha.” The orc player Mu Huali laughed and said, “Originally, the Terran players are all garbage. I heard that your Terran has a Luyang called Lu Yang. Tell him to come out. Don’t be a turtle.”

These words were spoken on the World Channel, and Lu Yang saw the news the first time.

“Brother, someone provoked you.” Han Ying said.

“I’ll kill him.” Han Fei said.

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile and said, “If anyone accepts the challenge, I don’t have to do anything else, don’t bother him and continue to upgrade.”

This man Lu Yang knows that he is not a frivolous man, but the boss of the * legion of the last generation, who together with the other two brothers created the Red Name Legion ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Red Name Legion: As the name suggests, his team Each of them is a big name, with a total of 5,000 people in the regiment. They specially accept the rewards issued by the major guilds of the orcs. They only recognize the money but not the others, and give money to kill them.

At this point Mu Huali spoke, so the other two are estimated to be in the arena with him, the three of them are not weak.

For the moment, Lu Yang ignored them and wanted to air dry the three of them to see what their purpose was.

After Mu Huali made the news, he and Fenglin Shanhua and Zhebei carefully stared at the World Channel to watch the transcript. After waiting a few minutes, they did not receive any reply from Lu Yang.

“Lu Yang didn’t hear from us?” Zhebie asked.

“No, I shouted on the World Channel. Even if I didn’t see it, his friends would tell him when he saw it.” Mu Huali said.

“Then what does he mean? Do you look down on us?” Zhebie asked.

Mu Huali nodded and said, “It should be that he still doesn’t know our three brothers’ names in the orcs. In this case, continue to curse, until he responded.”

Zhebie nodded and scolded: “Lu Yang is a tortoise, human player, Lu Yang is a tortoise ...”

All three players are level 40 players. On average, a message can be sent every 5 minutes. The three players take turns to send messages. The game forum is quickly occupied by this topic.

“This is not a * legion. It actually came to the human race to challenge Lu Yang.”

“Lu Yang is careful, these three are pure bastards.”

“I don’t know which consortium is rewarding the task. I deliberately asked Lu Yang for trouble to get his demon heart.”

...

All the people on the forum were talking for Lu Yang, which surprised the original Terran players. After inquiring, they knew how * these three were.

“Chairman Lu Yang, don’t go, these three people have premeditated.”

Chapter 469 - Lu Yang Zhi Qiang

World Channel.

Terran players have sent messages scolding Mu Huali, but unfortunately, this level of scolding has no effect on the three, and the three just stared at the landing wars.

“Lu Yang rolls out. If he doesn’t come out, he will shrink the turtle and green hair.”

...

Xia Yuwei sent a message and asked, “Boss, how about I let Hansha and look at the dim light to kill these three people.”

Lu Yang said, “No, just a few of the muddy wine and the white lion have sent a message. The Baixiong Sanxiong took people.”

arena.

Mu Huali, Fenglin Shanhuo, and Zhebei were scolding in the field, and they didn't care that the players around them scolded them shamelessly.

When the crowd was helpless, the white lion, white wolf, and white tiger all came in with a team of players.

"Look, here are the three brothers of the Bai family."

"It must be from Lu Yang."

Mu Huali listened to the sound and turned to look at the entrance to the arena, seeing the sneer expression on the face of the white lion.

"It looks like Lu Yang is hooked." Mu Huali said.

"As long as three of them are killed, Lu Yang is expected to show up." Feng Lin Shan Huo said.

Zhebie laughed aloud: "The three of you were sent by Lu Yang. What about Lu Yang, why didn't he dare to send you to die?"

The White Lion walked to the forefront of the arena. Some players automatically gave up three chairs. The three brothers of the White Lion sat down, and the red leaves flying, black notes, and the flame knife stood behind the three brothers.

"It's you who are mentally retarded and want to challenge our boss, right?" Bai Lang asked.

Zhebie's face was embarrassed and he pointed at the white wolf and said, "Dare to come down and fight with Lao Tzu."

"It's up to you?" White Wolf looked at Zhebei with a mockery, and asked, "What qualifications do you have to fight with me? The president of an Orc 5000 people's guild runs this outfit. It's really a pig's nose with green onions Pretend. "

Mu Huali said coldly, "Since you know our guild, you dare to say that, believe it or not I slaughtered your fortress."

"Are you funny?" White Wolf asked with a laugh: "With your 5,000 people, please trouble you first to find a way to run from the Orcs to the Humans, don't run half tired."

At present, the path from the normal orc to the human race is only from the main city of the lion to the elven, and then to the human. At least 5 days have passed when the place is waited.

The three Mu Huali looked at each other, and the three secretly understood that Lu Yang's side should not have found the way from the red fort to the Sirius fort.

Mu Huali sneered and said, "It's useless to tell us less and ask your boss to come out. If you don't come to fight with us, you will shrink your head."

"Yes, Lu Yang is a tortoise." Feng Lin Shan Huo shouted with Zhe Bie.

The white wolf looked at the three with scorn and said, "Our boss just said, if any cat and dog challenge him, he will have to fight, wouldn't he be too despised for them, so the boss asked us three brothers to come."

Mu Huali's eyes brightened and he asked, "So, as long as the challenge wins you, will Lu Yang fight us?"

Bai Lang said with a sneer: "What qualifications do you have to challenge us? The 50,000 brothers of the three of us are ten times as many as yours. Let's play against the brothers of the three of us first, and win them before we talk."

Autumn leaves, black notes and flame knives jump into the arena.

"It's a waste of time. I also have 10,000 brothers. I really lost my identity with the three of them." Flame Knife said.

The players watching the game laughed.

The three Mu Huali did not expect that Lu Yang despised them so much that he did not even dispatch a commander of the army, but only let the commander of the 30,000 regiment fight with them.

“Well, don’t dare to fight with us. If we don’t even dare, roll back early, don’t be embarrassed here,” said the black note.

The three Mu Huali were shameless, so that the three of them would be scolded here for a day. The three would not frown, and would only continue to scold Lu Yang.

“What to do, if you don’t fight with these three, Lu Yang will not show up.” Zhebie asked quietly.

“Forget it, the boss’s task is first. Since the guild was bought by others, let’s do it first.” Mu Huali said.

“Okay.” Zhebie said with Fenglin Mountain Fire.

Mu Huali looked at the three flame knives and said, “Okay, then I will play a fight with you three garbage, one on one or three on three.”

“You can choose 5 or 5. You can call us at any time and both of you can abuse your three wastes.” Flame Knife said.

Mu Huali found that Bai’s Sanxiong’s men were less virtuous than the three of them. Where do they know that the Flame Knife is an authentic master who followed Bai’s Sanxiong in playing the arena? What kind of enemies have never seen it, especially the garbage Yes, he hasn’t played against the white wolves in this regard, but according to players who have both pk’d, both of them have the same rubbish.

“Then three to three.” Mu Huali said.

The trio of red leaves flying indifferently stood on the side of the arena. After 10 seconds, the game began.

The three of Mu Huali's side were all transferred Shaman priests. Among them, Fenglin Mountain Fire was a Skywrath Shaman, and it was a melee attack.

Farewell to the ancient shaman, remote healing.

Mu Huali is a Spirit Wind Shaman, a long-range spell attack.

Since the opening of the two-ethnic arena, Hongye Feiwu and others have already known the shaman's skills, while Mu Huali has not known the skills of Hongye Feiwu.

Watching Mu Huali's three approaching slowly, Hongye Feiwu hugged the staff with both hands and said, "Two, I'll let you try the three of them first, and you cover from the side."

The black note said: "Welcome, we also want to see how to get the boss's true biography pk."

Hongye fluttered a smirk, and a flaming bird appeared in his hand, watching the white light flash on the three of them who had reached 30 yards away.

"flicker"

"Resistant Fire Ring"

A reddish ray of light flew from the flying leaves and rushed to the surroundings, and the three Mu Huali who were within range involuntarily backed away by 5 yards each.

“Flame Storm”

A black ripple appeared under the three.

“boom”

A crimson beam of light lit up and Mu Huali’s three were stunned.

“Blazing Bird”

The big red bird flew straight to Dzhebbe.

“Destroy the Sky”

“Pyroblast”

A large fireball whistled past in the air, and Zhebei’s head, who had just woke up from the dizziness, took a step back.

It happened that a crimson flame fell from the sky on Zhebei’s head.

“6486” (Critical)

Zhebei was attacked by a set of tricks and died on the ground without even responding!

“Farewell,” Mu Huali and Fenglin Shanhuo shouted together in horror. They did not expect, but were stunned by the attack for two seconds. When they woke up, their treatment had fallen to the ground.

There was a flash of light.

Zhebei revived in place using Shaman's unique skills, looked at Hongye Feiwu in surprise and asked, "How many levels do you have and how can you hurt so high?"

The level of Hongyefeiwu is 41, which is exactly one level for Gao Zhewu. The equipment on Hongyefeiwu is a full set of 40 master sergeant gold suits, and it is filled with 5 gems, and the total damage is more than 5000.

"The three of you still want to challenge our boss in this way. I'm not joking. I can kill you all within three seconds if I pick one of them." Hongye Feiwu said.

Zhebei didn't feel embarrassed for a while, gritted his teeth and said, "I just missed by accident just now. Don't be too proud."

The black note sneered, his left hand was raised above his head and five fingers spread out, a green glowing bead slowly flew into the air, suddenly turned into a giant rock with green flames, and smashed towards Zhebei.

"Reiki"

Mu Huali pointed Zhebei in his right hand, and a blue light entangled Zhebei's body, increasing the movement speed by 100%.

Zhebei quickly ran away to the right, but he was already slow, smashing the green rock to the ground, and stunned Zhebei for 2 seconds.

"Hello ~!"

The Lord of Hellfire stood up from the dust of the sky, and stepped in front of Zhebei, and the Fist of Fire smashed heavily.

“1624”

Fenglin Shanhuo ran towards the black note with a big axe.

“Sky Wrath”

A sacred light appeared above the axe.

“Fear”

A black note hit a spell on Fenglin Shanhuo’s head, and Fenglin Shanhuo ran away blankly.

The Flame Knife took advantage of this opportunity to launch the charge skills at Mu Huali, and rushed towards Mu Huali with a welcome.

The moment he rushed to Mu Huali, Mu Huali took a step to the right and said a spell in his mouth.

“Sky Wrath Purification”

“Reiki”

Fenglin Mountain Fire released control ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ and was added with haste, and ran to the black note in two steps and chopped down with an ax.

Three consecutive phantoms appeared on the axe, and at the same time, black notes were cut.

“2268”

“2286”

“2291”

Black notes fell to the ground instantly!

The surrounding players sighed, at the same time, at this moment, the Lord of Hellfire disappeared, Zhebie just sighed, and Hongye Feiwu appeared in front of Zhebie, another set of tricks, Zhe don't die!

“Hey, it's 2 to 2 now, next time you attack, who do you say I'll kill you.” Feng Lin Shan Huo stared at Hongye Feiwu tightly.

With the same number of people, the instant burst of Skywrath's shaman is better than that of fighters and mages. When the two of them smiled and waited for the next skill recovery, suddenly, the body of the black notes lit a black light.

“Hey, who told you it was 2 to 2 and you are blind, we are still 3 people.” The black note stood up proudly.

“You, how can you be resurrected.” Feng Lin Shan Huo asked dumbfounded.

The Flame Knife came to the two of them, and said with open arms, “Not only does he have it, I also have the resurrection. Come try it out.”

In Arena pk, one side even opened his arms to let the other side attack. Obviously, this was an extremely insulting action. Fenglinshanhuo and Mu Huali were extremely angry.

“You're looking for death.” Feng Lin Shan Huo chopped a large axe towards the flame knife.

“charge.”

The flame knife opened its arms and directly hit the body of Fenglin Mountain Fire, with both hands held up, the right hand pulled a sword flower in the air and the sword straight down. The moment when the hands held the sword in Fenglin Mountain Fire and reacted, it would bring flames. The long sword was inserted into his neck.

“10898” (Flame Slash + Triple Critical Strike)

Wind forest fire, die!

Chapter 470 - Evil eye ghost knife

This is the game developed by the Flame Knife. It uses the rules of the game to kill by hand.

Everyone in the stands couldn't help but take a breath, and even the white lion and the white tiger were surprised.

“Flame Knife still has this kind of operation. Gaoming, our brother can't stand it if he gets hit like this.”
Bai Hu said.

White wolf said depressedly: “I tried with him. I singled him out and tied him. I couldn't find a way to deal with this move.”

When it comes to this, the white wolf is depressed, and the taste of being inserted into the back of the neck by the opponent's close-handed backhand sword is uncomfortable.

Inside the arena.

Fenglin Mountain Fire resurrected in situ, looked at the white wolf in horror, and said, "What did you do just now."

He didn't even know how he died.

Flame Knife opened his arms and said, "Come, I'll show you again."

Feng Lin Shan Huo quickly put the giant axe in front of him, staring vigilantly at the flame knife.

Hongye Feiwu said: "Is there a need to fight? The three of you admit defeat and apologize. Even the three regiments we randomly found out from the Brotherhood of Brotherhood have beaten, but there are still seven regiments above, and even more upward President Boss, are you too overwhelmed? "

Mu Huali and Fenglin Mountain Fire were in a fierce fire. The purpose of their visit this time was to humiliate Lu Yang, but they did not expect to be humiliated by the subordinates of Lu Yang's subordinates. .

Fenglin Mountain was angry and stared at Hongye Feiwu and said, "How old are you, who dare to order me, Lu Yang is a tortoise, and dare not come to send some of you in person."

"Wild Fight"

Fenglin Mountain turned into a phantom and appeared in front of Hongye Feiwu, and stunned it for 1 second.

"Sky Wrath"

The axe in his hand smashed down with the sacred light. If three consecutive swords are hit on the red leaf flying, the red leaf flying will die. At this critical moment, the flame knife will charge the wind and forest fire.

"Want to kill my teammate, no way."

The Flame Knife slammed into the back of Fenglin Shanhuo with a phantom, and a proud expression suddenly appeared on Fenglin Shanhuo's face. The moment the Flame Knife hit him, he swung his body and took a step to the side, not only hiding. Opened the charge of the flame knife, the axe took advantage of the maneuver to slash with 1.5 times the crit.

"Sky Wrath"

The Flame Knife did not expect that the purpose of Fenglin Mountain Fire was itself, and in a hurry, he could only raise a long knife to cover his head.

"when"

"puff"

"puff"

For three consecutive axes, the flame knife only blocked the first axe of Fenglin Mountain Fire, and the remaining two axes were cut diagonally like shoulders.

"1869" (parry)

"3998" (Critical Strike)

"3996" (Critical Strike)

The fiery knife's residual blood inspired his ferocity.

"Thunder Stomp"

The Flame Sword reduces the movement speed of Fenglin Mountain Fire by 50%, quickly retreats three steps to launch the interception skill, and the sword comes with flames.

“Flame Slash”

One sword cut off, Fenglin Mountain Fire raised an ax to resist but was cut diagonally in the arm.

“2896”

At the same time, Hongye Feiwu woke up in vertigo, took a step to the left and forward, and after the flame knife slashed, the spell was spoken in his mouth.

“Resistant Fire Ring”

Fenglin Mountain Fire was struck forward 5 yards diagonally.

“Pyroblast”

“Destroy the Sky”

“Meteorite Impact”

After three consecutive strokes, Fenglin Mountain Fire was killed on the ground and can no longer be resurrected.

The Flame Knife looked at himself with less than 1,000 HP remaining, and said, “This kid is overcast, and almost killed me.”

The black note looked at the last person, Mu Huali, and said, “Are you still playing?”

Mu Huali said with regret: “Unfortunately, we did not use our own exclusive equipment this time, so you are lucky, but you are only temporary, and it won’t take long. Main city, at that time I will let you see our true power. “

System prompt: black notes, flame knife, and red leaves fly and win!

The flame knives returned to the three white lions, and the flame knives said, “Report the boss, we won.”

The White Lion said: “Good job, I will report to the boss.”

Hongye Feiwu said, “The man named Mu Huali said just now that he would bring the Predator Legion to the Terrans. Is this Legion very powerful?”

The White Lion said: “The races are too closed, and there is not much news about them in the forum. I ask the boss.”

Trina.

Lu Yang’s fourth wave of defensive defenses has come to an end. He received the news of the White Lion’s victory, saying: “He didn’t lie to the Flames. With their unique red-name equipment, they are super-class masters. “

The White Lion asked, “Boss, what equipment are they using?”

Lu Yang said: “Have you heard of evil eye ghost swords, join the simulation group, let me and everyone say?”

Lu Yang silently wrote the attributes of the evil eye ghost knife into the simulation group.

Evil Eye Ghost Sword (Gold)

Level: 40

Damage: 0—562

Strength: 0—90

Constitution: 0—90

Additional attack power: 0-200 points

Effect: Each attack has a certain chance with the evil light effect.

Slots: 3

“Well, what kind of weapon is this, boss, the attributes are so amazing,” said bitter love for a long time.

White Lion said: “I saw this weapon on the forum and this post disappeared. It seemed to be two months ago. This weapon is too special. The minimum value of each attribute is 0. “

Lu Yang said: “This weapon once had a name called Suiyuan Sword. It looks at the face as much damage as possible. Fortunately, the maximum damage is more than 800. The effect of the evil eye light has a chance of 2,000 shadow damage. More than 2,800. “

Xia Yuwei said: “So high, my level 40 gold sergeant chief has a total of more than 500 two-handed swords.”

Bai Lang said: “Fortunately, this knife is random, if the knife triggers the upper limit, other people will not be able to play.”

Lu Yang said: "The bad thing is that this knife can really achieve the maximum upper limit of the knife."

"Boss, don't make fun of us, if that's the case, you can't fight them." Said bitter love for a long time.

The crowd expressed their astonishment.

Lu Yang said: "It's not to tease you. I got the message from the orc side. I want to change the attribute of this knife to the upper limit of the knife and trigger the effect. There is only one way to kill people."

"Kill?" Everyone asked.

Lu Yang said: "Yes, you know, there are not only lucky values but also curse values in the game. The maximum limit is 10 points. As long as the curse value reaches 10 points, their weapon damage will be able to play the highest limit. The knife triggers a special effect. "

Zhuo Jiu said, "I remember officially saying that if you want the curse to reach 10 points, you need to kill more than 300 players, and every once in a while, the curse value will automatically decrease by 1 point."

Lu Yang said: "The reason they are called * legion in the orcs is that in order to increase the curse to 10 points, they need to keep killing."

Jiang Ze asked: "How many people now have such weapons?"

Lu Yang said: "This kind of weapon has drawings that can be forged. I guess that's right, there are at least 3,000 more."

"How is that possible? This is a 40-level weapon." Sun Yu asked.

Lu Yang said, "Do you know how many people they killed, these 5000 people slaughtered nearly one million of their own players on the orcs side, robbed the players of the same race countless equipment, and sold the money to collect materials for manufacturing these equipment? . "

"Sure enough, the * legion, fierce enough, killing players of the same clan, even we dare not do so, at most, they are fighting a guild, they are not afraid of being surrounded by all players." Bai Hu said.

Lu Yang said, "These 5,000 people are all shamans. You know, the biggest feature of shamans is that they run fast. Wild smashing allows Skywrath Shaman to move forward for 40 yards in an instant. Mu Huali I still have wind elves, so this group of people has not been caught by players of all races. The strongest one was that more than a dozen grand guilds with a consortium background jointly surrounded them in four main cities, sending nearly 2 million players, or Let them run more than half. "

Zhuo Jiu and Xia Yuwei were a little surprised.

"I can't think this * legion is so powerful." Bai Lang said: "Boss, Mu Huali said before he conceded. After a while, he would bring troops to the clan, it seems they are coming to trouble us ~ www.mtnovel.com ~ Sun Yu said: "I have wind elves too, chase them to death. "

Lu Yang said with a smile: "If they dare to come to St. Gall, I will let them lose. This time I will tell you that this thing is just a wake-up call. Do n't forget that we won the black blood before. , Bloodthirsty bully and eternal soul, these people are just clowns, the real enemies have only appeared one by one from now on. "

What St. Gall is a small corner of the human race, what a human race is, is only one of the three races, what Huaxia's entire server is, it is only one of the 26 servers in the world.

The real big world has just begun.

"Boss rest assured that we will not relax." Zhuo Jiu said indignantly.

Everyone promised one by one.

Lu Yang nodded and said, "That's good, let's level up."

After closing the chat box, Lu Yang saw that the fourth wave of monsters had ended. Lu Yang and Han Ying's brothers and sisters had been upgraded to 52 and 150 studio members to 43.

The three Han Fei were carrying 150 people to transport the stones. Lu Yang said to Han Ying and Mu Yu: "The next wave is the fifth wave. I will go back and prepare."

Taking out the roll back to the city, Lu Yang returned to the city of St. Gall, flew to Saros through the portal, and then took an airship to the Goblin City, Lotrick.

Lotrick just now had a general look like a capital. Houses, fences, and sentry towers were all under construction. Monsters were everywhere on the periphery of the city. Players from the Brotherhood of Iron Blood were cleaning up monsters everywhere.

Lu Yang even saw Zhuojia and Sun Yu in the distance.

The airship just docked, and Lu Yang jumped down from the 30-meter-high airship tower and headed southwest of the capital, where the future goblin king Bissell lived.

Chapter 471 - Global competition

In front of a magnificent building, the green-skinned goblin Bissell was wearing a white coat with a gold coin sign on his right chest. When he saw Lu Yang came and beckoned and shouted, "Brother, I am here."

Lu Yang laughed and walked in front of Bissell, saying, "It looks good."

"Thanks to your help, there are more than 100,000 people helping us, and we have hope of building a city." Bissell waved his arms excitedly and said, "Thanks for your help to us this time, I take the future goblin The King's status authorizes you to buy any military supplies with us. "

The purpose of Lu Yang's visit this time is for this. More than 100,000 people do the task. Every time they complete a task, Lu Yang's reputation in the Goblin royal family increases by one point. Now he has more than 100,000 reputation.

A purchasing interface appeared in front of Lu Yang, and Lu Yang looked backwards, and found the wood skill-vine binding in the column of the magic scroll.

"Vine Bundling": Within 50 yards, vine-entangled enemies continue to grow for 30 seconds.

The fifth wave of pirate defensive missions is a special monster that moves extremely fast. If they are not restricted, 20 turrets will not be able to stop it.

Lu Yang bought 50 vine scrolls, bid farewell to Bissell, and returned to Trina. Before the attack, Han Fei brought back 4,000 stones with 150 people.

Lu Yang clicked to build, and the total number of turrets became 14.

"With so many turrets, it feels not only to hold the fifth wave, but it is no problem to keep it until the tenth wave." Xiao Liang said.

Lu Yang gave the vine scrolls to Xiao Liang and Han Fei one by one, and said, "Don't take care, this level is not easy to pass, and I will arrange it later."

"Is there anything special?" Han Fei asked.

System prompt: Fifth wave of attack begins

"Brothers of the Murloc, when we came out, give them some color to see." A small purple mermaid with a height of only 60 cm raised his short sword in his hand and shouted.

"Kill ~!"

At the end of the passage, tens of thousands of little mermaids appeared, rushing to the middle of the passage in a blink of an eye at a very fast moving speed.

The Little Mermaid (Elite)

Qi and blood: 500000/500000

Four artillery fired at the same time, and the shells hit the Little Mermaid lineup at an extremely fast speed. Countless Little Mermaid were killed. However, because of the extremely fast moving speed of the Little Mermaid, the attack interval of the turret was quickly used to Before running.

The subsequent four turret attacks did not hit the front murmur, nor did the rear turrets miss. In this way, the turret always stared at the front murmur to launch the artillery in the automatic attack mode.

However, the little mermaid was too fast to run, and the subsequent little mermaids were not attacked except after being killed by the first wave of artillery.

Five seconds later, the first wave of the little mermaid was about to run 30 meters in front of the turret, and was about to run out of the aisle.

“flicker”

A flash of white light on Lu Yang’s body appeared inside the passage, crushing the seal on the scroll, the green light penetrated into the ground, and countless green vines emerged from the soil.

The group of little mermaids closest to Lu Yang can rush to Luyang in just one second, but this one second, the vines on the ground blocked all the little mermaids in place.

Subsequent little fishmen entered the vine range and were also tied up. At this point, the little fish talent was blocked, and 14 turrets finally had fixed targets. Artillery was fired in succession, killing all the little fishmen in place.

Lan Yu, Han Fei, and others saw that Lu Yang was blocking them, and they all breathed a sigh of relief, paralyzed by the previous easy crossing, and the sudden appearance of the little fishman just caught everyone by surprise.

Lan Yu saw Lu Yang come over and said, "Frighten me, this wave of little mermaid is too fast."

Lu Yang said: "This is a special monster. Every fifth wave in the future will have a special monster. Even lords will appear. You must be mentally prepared. You have scrolls in your hands. Every 30 seconds you go to the front to release."

Everyone nodded.

After 30 seconds, Xiao Liang used the second vine scroll relay to release 30 consecutive scrolls, and the wave of offense ended.

"The battle ended 21 minutes in advance, and this wave is not bad." Han Fei led the team to continue mining.

Lu Yang laughed, but the chess master of the last life clearly wrote, how difficult it was for the Little Mermaid to defend them. Fortunately, these Little Mermaids had low attack power, and the pirates on the island helped them to pass this. .

But when he was holding it, the next wave of monsters had already arrived, making him very passive, but if he could hold it ahead of time, there would be 20 minutes more stone collection time, and Lu Yang could build an extra turret.

The next defense became much easier. Two hours later, Lu Yang built 19 turrets.

System prompt: The sixth wave of strange attacks begins

"Naga warriors, follow me," shouted a naga with a green handle and a long-handled sword.

“Kill!” Tens of thousands of Naga appeared at the entrance of the passage.

Naga Pirate

Level: 90

Qi and blood: 700000/700000

Naga’s movement speed is not fast ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ No vine scroll help is needed, the turret can easily hit the first row of Naga.

Nineteen turrets attacked one after another, and the pirates of Naga did not pass halfway through the passageway, all of them were killed.

The same is true for the seventh to the ninth waves, all of which were easily killed by the turret. By the tenth wave, Lu Yang had built 35.

A flash of gold flashed, 150 studio paladins rose to level 47, and Lu Yang and Han Fei also rose to level 55.

“The upgrade is too fast here,” Xiao Liang said.

Everyone nodded.

“I don’t know what the tenth wave is, will it be difficult?” Mu Yu asked.

Han Fei said, “No, we have vine scrolls. Whatever comes is what will entangle.”

Mu Yu thought for a while and said, “That’s right.”

System prompt: the tenth wave of attack begins

A group of sturdy, 3-meter-tall, heavily armored Naga emerged from the forest at the end of the passage.

Shouted for the first big Naga with a trident: "The whole army is attacking and robbing the treasure."

Big Naga didn't move fast, and as soon as she reached the middle of the passage, she was violently attacked by the turret. None of them could get out of the turret's range, how many died.

Mu Yu blinked his eyes and said, "Well, why is this wave so simple?"

Lu Yang said: "That's because we build all turrets. If it is an arrow tower, this wave will be difficult. Bows and arrows face very heavy armor, and the damage is very low."

"Oh."

[System Tip]: Full service notification. Global competition will be held in 10 days. Players are welcome to register.

[System prompt]: Full service notification ...

Chapter 472 - King of Fighters—K

Han Fei asked, “Brother, are there global competitions, do we participate?”

“Participate.” Lu Yang forced his excitement and said in a flat tone.

He has been waiting for this global competition for a long time. Global competitions are divided into individual, double, three- and five-person competitions. The three world championships are all awarded with 100 million cash prizes.

Lu Yang is very confident that he can win the first place in this game, but the money in this game is not the main thing, the main thing is a huge bug in the global arena.

This bug is not officially considered by the government anyway. In the past field PK, such as five-player players, it often appeared that they were running out of medicine, and they would find their teammates to replenish it. If they used trading The way, in the arena is tantamount to death, so they choose to throw items on the ground for teammates to pick up.

Such a simple method seems to be nothing, but it is a major bug in the global arena.

Take Huaxia server and European service as examples. Meteorite, which is very rare in Huaxia, is only a high-grade ore in European service, which is not rare.

“Second World” was originally designed to encourage players to invade each other to make the game more interesting. However, in the previous game, starting from the global qualifiers, European players found that they You can pick up each other’s medicine thrown on the ground.

Therefore, starting from the second round of the qualifiers, several top European teams began to quietly trade each other’s scarce items in the arena, causing these teams to greatly increase their strength when they returned to China.

Although the official found this problem, the main brain of “Second World” chose to modify the rules at the end of the first competition after performing its own calculations.

Lu Yang is now short of scarce materials such as meteorite. He wants to build a 150 knight paladin with a 60-level orange long sword, this time relying on this global competition.

Captain William disembarked and came in front of Lu Yang, and said, "Brother, you are good at defense. You are here today. Please be here on time tomorrow morning at 8 am."

"Okay." Lu Yang took Han Fei and they left Trina. After Han Fei let them go to rest, Lu Yang returned to the Red Fort.

Inside the hall.

The white lion, bitter love half-life and others are discussing the matter of this competition, seeing Lu Yang coming, his face is full of joy.

"Boss, did you see that there are global competitions?" White Wolf said excitedly.

Lu Yang said: "I came to you for this matter, and whoever wants to sign up."

The White Lion said, "Hey, our three brothers are coming to the trio."

"Half of us are going to take part in a five-person competition."

In the previous generation, the Baixi Sanxiong was the global trio champion, half-life lovers and Hanliu were domestic five-player champions. If it was n't for half-life lovers, Hanliu 's defeat was badly hit, maybe five of them have the opportunity to win World championship in the men's group.

Lu Yang said: "Very well, this time we strive to win championships in various events together."

The white wolf frowned, looking at Lu Yang with a depressed face and said, "Boss, do you participate in other competitions besides the individual competition?"

The bitter love reacted for a long time and looked at Lu Yang and said, "Yes, boss, if you take those people from your family to participate, we don't make much sense."

Han Ying, Han Fei, Han Yu, and Xiao Liang are any of the top players, and each of them is a special transfer job. If Lu Yang and the four of them are combined, there will be almost no One can match.

Lu Yang said a little embarrassed: "Some of them have signed up. Don't care, just work hard."

Everyone had a black line in their heads.

The white wolf said frustrated, "Boss, you can kill all three of us alone, I don't want to live."

Lu Yang laughed and said: "Don't make trouble, this time I participated in this competition for a different purpose. For the time being, don't ask, just a word, and go all out to reach the global finals."

People such as Xia Yuwei and Zhuojiu were surprised.

"Then we will join the competition, too," said Zhuo Jiu.

Lu Yang nodded and said, "Tell my brothers that they can participate in the competition, but don't tell them that I have another purpose."

"Okay." Zhuo Jiu said with Xia Yuwei and others.

Lu Yang chose to quit the game, took off his helmet and came to the conference room. Han Zhong is summing up the situation of the studio today.

Han Zhong saw that Lu Yang was about to speak, and Lu Yang said, "Master, I'm going to Thailand tonight by two o'clock."

“Go to Thailand?” Everyone said in surprise.

Lu Yang said: “As soon as I can fly back tomorrow afternoon.”

“Okay, call me in time if you have any questions.” Han Zhong asked Lu Yang without asking more.

Han Fei said, “Brother, we want to go with you too.”

Han Ying, Mu Yu and Xiao Liang nodded together.

Lu Yang said with a smile: “Thailand is fine, I will go to Belgium in a few days and take you to Europe to play.”

“Brother you are so nice.” Han Ying and Mu Yu said cheerfully.

Lu Yang smiled and touched their little heads, packed their clothes and left the house. He taxied to the Donghai International Airport overnight. He obtained a passport when Jiang Ze’s father was financing for this international competition.

I took a plane at two in the morning and landed at Bangkok Airport the next morning, and then Lu Yang took a taxi to a slum on the outskirts of Bangkok.

According to the number plate, Lu Yang found a low, small cottage.

In the yard in front of the room, a group of dark-skinned, messy-haired, thin-skinned boys are constantly practicing short dodge training under a rope.

This is the basic skill of Muay Thai. Every child who wants to learn Muay Thai must practice this training well, because as long as the enemy reveals flaws, the short-dodged boy can use his body to shrink together and quickly exert force like a spring. One knee can knock the enemy to the ground.

While Lu Yang was watching with interest, suddenly, a young man was pushed out by a group of people.

“Get out, you dead bitch, you are already a waste. Don’t come to me again.” A short, sullen man scolded.

“Please, sir, give me a job sweeping the floor, you know, I can’t go without a job.” The lame young man pleaded on the ground and begged.

“You know how much you lost me. I didn’t kill you. It’s your luck. Give me a roll. Don’t let me see you again.” The short man was angry and stomped his legs.

The beaten youth could only hold their heads and mourn, and did not dare to evade. Many people gathered around them, all pointing.

Lu Yang was a mercenary in Southeast Asia. He could barely understand the official Thai language of short men, but he could not understand the Thai language of people around him. However, the person he was looking for had been found.

K, the singles champion of the “Second World” arena of the previous world.

The address, family background, and appearance are exactly the same as the person in the memory of Lu Yang of the first life. When he first heard about K’s identity when he was interviewed, Lu Yang only felt his life was miserable. Much more miserable.

K was originally a young Muay Thai master. He was notorious in Thailand. His boss often took him to participate in the competition, which is the short fat man in front of him. However, in a competition, K was defeated unexpectedly and was interrupted by the opponent. The kneecap completely cuts off the possibility of participating in the competition again, and even walking will become a problem in the future.

K’s family is very bad. He lives in a slum. There are seven or eight siblings in the family. The family thinks that he can become a boxing champion in the future and will bring a lot of income to the family. But he did not expect it to be like this.

His parents were very disappointed with him, and for this reason he was even reluctant to accept him to return home to recover, and in desperation, K could only sleep under the bridge hole.

I accidentally picked up a game helmet that was discarded by someone and was about to be damaged. He entered the "Second World". As a result, the Muay Thai-based K was out of control in the game. With his superb stature and reaction speed, In the case of only one level 10 trumpet facing many level 40 players, he broke into the top 100 in the Thai individual competition, ranking 97th.

In the second year, K made a comeback. With the support of a special person, he easily won the Thai championship with a 100-level account, and later won the global championship.

Unfortunately, that account was for the studio. K gave it to the studio in the most glorious years, but then he was trapped in prison because the studio owner didn't want to give him more money. When he was released, he was already The torture lost the spirit of the past, and it is no longer that razor-K.

Thinking back to the past, Lu Yang boomed ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ walked in front of K and said to the fat man, "If you fight again, you will be killed. You don't want to get into a lawsuit."

The chubby man saw Lu Yang frown, and asked, "You are his friend."

Lu Yang asked, "How much did he lose from you?"

"100,000 Baht."

Lu Yang opened his mobile phone Alipay and handed it to the chubby, "I paid it back for him, and you shouldn't ask him for trouble in the future."

The chubby stunned and shouted, "Bring my phone."

The man handed over the fat man's cell phone. After the transaction, the fat man smiled, and his hands were complimented and said, "This gentleman, you are really a kind person. Are you interested in visiting my boxing gym?"

Lu Yang said with a smile: “No, I’ll take him for treatment first, and I’ll visit again if I can.”

The fat man knew that Lu Yang didn’t want to talk to him, looked at the K next to him, kicked him on K’s stomach, and cursed, “It’s your luck, don’t let me see you again in the future.”

Lu Yang was about to stop. The short fat man turned around and entered the room. He shook his head. Lu Yang came to K’s side and squatted down and asked, “How about, can you still walk?”

K collapsed and cried, looking at Lu Yang and said, “Sir, I don’t know you. Why do you help me, I’m already a waste.”

Lu Yang said: “Have you heard of” Second World “, in my opinion you are not a disused person, man, don’t cry, you are not qualified for decadence now, you can only walk out of your misery by following me all the way forward Do you know what happened? “

K looked at Lu Yang confusedly. He didn’t know what Lu Yang was talking about, but he knew that he was indeed not eligible for decadence. Moreover, he owed Lu Yang 100,000 baht, and he felt uneasy without paying back the money.

“Okay, I’ll follow you.” K wiped away his tears, and stood up with a crutch.

Chapter 473 - Hurricane Killer

The people around me pointed at k, and Lu Yang couldn’t understand what they said, but apparently they didn’t bother.

K’s face went dimly, but just after taking a step, his body fell forward uncontrollably. Just as he was about to fall to the ground, Lu Yang reached out and supported k 摑.

“It’s okay,” Lu Yang asked.

K's tears, nose, and dust on his body all touched Lu Yang's clothes. Scared K quickly pushed Lu Yang away, but Lu Yang grabbed it hard.

"Sir, I'm too dirty to stain your clothes." K's tears shed again.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "I was miserable than you when I was miserable. It was nothing. The clothes were dirty and washed. Just go with me."

K nodded fiercely, his face resolutely said, "In the future, you will be my boss. I swear in the name of a god. I will do whatever you want me to do in the future."

Lu Yang didn't say anything, he knew that k regarded him as a kind of person who sold that kind of thing, smiled and shook his head, took him out of the slum, returned to the taxi, and asked the driver to take him and k to find a hotel casually .

Lu Yang bought two game helmets. Taking advantage of k washing, Lu Yang connected to a Thai server and chose a Chinese translation. All Thai words were converted into Chinese.

Enter the game's official website auction house, which specializes in selling various items in the game, including weapons, equipment, babies, and even player accounts.

Lu Yang clicked on the account option, selected the rank order, and found a 45-level thief account with complete equipment, gems, and enchanting. The price is 2,000 gold coins, which is about 300,000 baht.

After clicking the purchase, Lu Yang recorded the account password and sat in the lobby for a while. After a while, he changed his clothes that Lu Yang had bought for him and appeared on Lu Can with a cane.

In front of Lu Yang's eyes, k looked very good. Although the skin was darker, but the edges were clear, he was a proper handsome boy.

"Boss, what do you want me to do, I'll do it." K said.

Lu Yang asked with a smile: "I'm not asking you to help me traffic in any prohibited items. I came to you just to get you into the second world game."

"Second World?" K said confusedly, "I've heard of this game, but what can I do to get in."

Lu Yang handed the helmet and account password to k and said, "Log in with this account, and I will tell you how to do it in the game."

K took the helmet curiously and wore it on his head like he learned to land.

After 1 minute.

Lu Yang appeared in the game. After adding k as a friend, he found the position of k.

K was surprised to try kicking, and when he saw Lu Yang coming, he said in surprise: "Boss, this game is so amazing, I don't feel any lameness here."

Lu Yang said, "Do you want to compare it with others in the game?"

K nodded quickly and said, "Of course, I have long wanted to play against people. This is my life. I can't lose the game."

"Follow me." Lu Yang took k to the arena, pointed at one of the players and said, "Go and fight with them, and win a show for me."

Inside the cage of the arena, a player called the Tiger is showing off challenges to the people around him, and the players around are screaming and screaming, but none dare to fight.

"Yes." K jumped into the arena's cage.

“Boy, look at your equipment and see if you can pick me up.” The tiger said arrogantly.

K has not used the physical response of the rogue account, ignored the tiger, and continues to try to coordinate with the game characters.

The Tiger used to provoke opponents with words before the game. When the opponent was angered and lost his mind, he took the opportunity to attack the opponent’s weakness.

However, the tiger has provoked k several times in a row, and k has not looked up at the tiger, and the angry tiger has lost his mind.

“Boy, I want you to regret it.” The tiger threw a sword flower in his hand and rushed towards K.

At this point, k has coordinated his body, and is preparing to see the meaning of the skills. He saw the tiger rushing with a phantom, and k evaded sideways, hitting his knee on the belly of the rushing tiger and hitting him The bow became shrimp.

System prompt: Free attack, the damage is determined as the base attack, with a stun of 0.05 seconds

Seeing his easy hit, K looked at the head sent by the tiger, and subconsciously used the standard action of Muay Thai’s 13 cubits.

System prompt: Free attack ...

...

A series of free-mode attacks determined that k drove the tiger 5 meters away, and the tiger's health was killed by one-tenth.

The tiger was snoring, and he got up from the ground and watched the k in Muay Thai 's standard moves in the distance. He said in surprise: "You, you are Muay Thai."

K nodded and said, "Exactly."

The tiger said with a grimace, "Don't think that learning Muay Thai is great, this is" Second World. "

K said confidently, "Come again."

While the speed effect has not disappeared, the tiger ran towards K's side again and spun around him at high speed. This is his famous trick. The speed of the tiger who has a special transfer profession speed thief is twice that of ordinary people.

"Boy, let you see how big the gap is between you and me." The tiger raised his dagger proudly as he ran.

K did not move in place, and did not follow the Tiger in a circle. He closed his eyes and listened with his ears. The complicated footsteps carried his inherent laws.

After 5 seconds.

K opened his eyes suddenly, and kicked his side with the middle of the tiger's belly running at high speed.

System prompt: Free attack ...

The tiger was taken out 5 meters away.

K looked up at Lu Yang in excitement and shouted, "Boss, this game is too suitable for me. My reaction speed can give full play here."

Lu Yang smiled and gave a thumbs up. So many Thai boxing masters joined the game in the late Thailand. Why no one can win k because the reaction speed of k is faster than ordinary people. His body was interrupted during the growth process. The leg bones cannot be played, but they can be played in the game.

"Come back, don't fight him, I will take you to do a task, it is more effective for your strength." Lu Yang said.

"Yes, boss." K jumped out of the arena and headed for Lu Yang.

The tiger looked at the leaving k in confusion, and even if he walked out of the arena, he would admit defeat. If k did not leave, the tiger's qualifications would never be beaten by him, and the tiger had previously bet all his net bets on his victory. No, he doesn't understand why k is leaving.

"This brother, what's your name, I will thank you for the opportunity in the future," said the tiger.

K turned back and said chically: "My name is k, and I hope to have a chance to learn in the future."

Lu Yang laughed. The boy really liked the name k. After leaving the arena, Lu Yang transferred 2000 gold coins from his account to k and said, "Take it."

"I don't want to," k said quickly.

Lu Yang said, "This is money for changing your name and doing tasks. Don't be polite with me, you can earn it back for me sooner or later."

"Thank you, boss." K scratched his head and took the gold coin embarrassed.

After changing the name, the name of k officially became the name of the thief.

Lu Yang took K to an ancient temple and said, "There is a master in the back of the temple who can make you a job and become a hurricane killer. Go and talk to him."

"Boss rest assured, I will be able to succeed." K went in.

Lu Yang looked at the back of k with some emotions. Just like the white snake swordsman of Huaxia, the Thai server also has their exclusive occupation-the hurricane killer. This is the turn career of the last k.

Taking advantage of this time, Lu Yang opened a rental website to help K rent a good house. The air conditioner and bathroom were not bad. I bought a mobile phone and everything necessary for normal life.

When Lu Yang was busy here, not long after, k also came out of the temple. At this time, k was no longer a dark thief, but a boxer full of masculinity ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Boss, I successfully transferred, this hurricane boxer is really suitable for me. "K shouted to Lu Yang very happy.

Lu Yang nodded with satisfaction. When k approached, he took 1,000 gold coins from his backpack and gave them to k, saying, "This is your salary this month. I will give you so much salary every month."

"So much." K said in shock, 1,000 gold coins is equivalent to 1.5 million baht.

Lu Yang said: "It's not much. I only have one requirement for you. After signing a formal studio contract with me, I will concentrate on preparing for the next global competition."

K said: "I swear to the gods, I will follow your boss in my life, I will never betray, I will sign with you no matter what contract."

Lu Yang patted K's shoulder and adjusted the contract. This is a very fair studio contract. Lu Yang pays k. K concentrates on playing the game. The bonus is divided into four or six. Lu Yang takes four. k takes six contracts for five years.

k did not look at the contract and signed his name directly.

After uploading the contract, Lu Yang said, "I rented a new house for you and settled in half a month. Before that, you live here. I delivered the money for 15 days. You raise a wound and wait for the end of the year. At the end, I will take you to Huaxia for treatment. "

K asked in surprise: "Boss, are you leaving?"

Lu Yang said, "I have a lot of things to do at Huaxia, and I will leave in a moment."

K bowed to Lu Yang gratefully and said, "Boss, thank you."

Lu Yang patted him on the shoulder, and opened the auction house to choose unlimited acquisition of meteorite, blood of angels, and nucleus of light, and quit the game with 3000 gold coins.

After a brief chat with K about his situation, Lu Yang flew back to China and returned to the studio.

Chapter 474 - Hertos\'s Treasure

Time does not wait for people. It is not that Lu Yang does not want to talk to k for a while, but that the enemy is getting stronger and stronger, and he has no delay.

It was already late at night when I returned to the studio, and Han Ying and others just quit the game and saw Lu Yang coming around.

"Brother, you are back." Han Ying and Han Fei said one after another.

Lu Yang touched their little heads and asked, "How are you today? Are there any questions?"

Han Ying said: "It 's going well today. The defense is on the 19th wave. The 60 turrets have just been built. 150 Paladins have been upgraded to level 49. Several of us have also been upgraded to level 56. The only problem is the vine scroll It's not easy to use. "

Lu Yang asked, "What's wrong?"

"We have encountered more than 100 monsters, and the vine scroll sometimes can't trap the monsters. However, we have many turrets and are fine for now."

Lu Yang nodded and said, "I'll think of a way tomorrow."

The controllable magic scroll has a level limit. If it exceeds the target level, the scroll will have a chance to fail.

Lu Yang originally thought that he would only be able to hit the 19th wave tomorrow. I didn't expect Han Ying to fight too fast, but he had a solution in this regard.

Han Zhong said: "A few of you should go and rest. Lu Yanggang will come back and let him rest for a while. You will talk again tomorrow."

"Oh, okay." Han Ying and a bunch of little guys reluctant to bid farewell to Lu Yang and went back to their rooms to rest.

Lu Yang was also really tired. He fell asleep quickly in bed. After waking up the next day, Lu Yang took Han Ying and they entered the game.

Trina.

After starting the mission, Xiao Liang, Han Fei and Han Yu took 150 people to carry the stones, and Lu Yang continued to catch fish and feed parrots.

After half an hour.

The green-haired parrot ate the chestnut stew with satisfaction and said with its unique voice, "Nice."

System prompt: Parrot favors you +5

Your favorability with parrot reaches 15 points

"Boy, for the sake of serving your Uncle Parrot so sincerely, as long as you help me kill the stupid snake in the forest on the back of the island, I will tell you a secret."

System prompt: Uncle Parrot's mission, whether to accept

The pirate treasure mission has a certain probability of a special event. To trigger this event, the green-haired parrot's favorability must reach more than 10 points. This is his third time to send red fish to the parrot, just over 10.

In the highly hand-written Raiders of the last game, the special event rewards he encountered were the Frost Tower, the Flame Tower and the Lightning Tower, which helped the defensive fortress greatly.

Lu Yang clicked to accept, and said, "No problem, I'll kill the stupid snake to avenge you."

"I'm waiting for your news." The green parrot's eyes looked away and said.

Lu Yang took out the reins and flung, the light flashed, and the Red Flame Lion King appeared under his seat.

"Follow me, I will take you to do the task." Lu Yang said.

“Okay.” Lan Yu, Han Ying and Mu Yu each replaced the Red Flame Lion and ran into the forest of the island with Landing Yang.

After 10 minutes.

Lu Yang reached the depths of the forest, at this time all were surrounded by green dense trees.

“rustle”

The wind blew and the trees swayed with the wind.

The moving Lu Yangmeng held the Red Flame Lion King and said, “All stop.”

“Brother, did you find a stupid snake?” Mu Yu asked.

Lu Yang pointed at the green trunk in the dense tree in front of him and said, “Look there.”

In the first 10 yards, a grass-green python is lying on the trunk, blending with the big tree.

The body of the python was as thick as a bucket, with a length of more than 80 meters. At this time, the snake’s head was heading in the direction of the four people, and his eyes were full of cold blood.

Boss of the Jungle

Level: 80

Qi and blood: 2000000/2000000

“This snake just wasn’t going to ambush us,” Han Ying asked.

Lu Yang said: "Should be, some of you slowly retreat to the open space just 500 meters away, and then be ready to export."

Han Ying, Mu Yu and Lan Yu nodded and slowly retreated.

The python king of the jungle saw Lu Yang stop and did not move, but the others behind had to leave, knowing that the ambush had been spotted, the body protruded from the trunk, and slowly approached the landing sun in the air.

In the face of a thick bucket of python approaching him like this, even the game is scary to watch and Lu Yang is no exception.

Lu Yang opened his right hand, and a crimson bead rose into the sky, bursting a crimson spark.

"Neighing"

A level 8 fire phoenix appeared in the air, and a series of large fireballs spewed against the python's head.

"1"

"1"

...

Fire Phoenix with up to 5000 points of damage can only deal compulsory damage in the face of the 80-level high-definition python king.

“丝丝”

The Python King looked up at the sky and found that Phoenix was 50 yards above him, and his body suddenly moved upward.

“唰”

The 80-meter-long python jumped into the air by the strength of the trunk, and the python king opened his mouth to swallow the fire phoenix into his stomach.

“Blazing Blaze”

“The Path of Fire”

The two skills were released continuously, and Lu Yang turned and ran back.

After the python king landed, he saw that Lu Yang was about to run, and the tail circled and chased him towards Landing Yang, moving at twice the speed of normal players.

Lu Yang did not dare to turn around and ran. His movement speed was 285%, faster than the Python King. He ran down the flames and ran to the huge open space behind him.

This is a circular open space with a diameter of about 500 meters. When Lu Yang came here, Han Ying, Mu Yu and Lan Yu were standing in the middle.

“Ready to export, I have pulled the hatred.” Lu Yang said, his magic penetration is as high as 70%, and he has more than 5000 spell injuries. Using the path of the fire has caused a lot of damage to the python king.

“Okay.” The three Han Ying immediately output according to the Python King.

Anaconda King is not a lord, has no special skills, and is a melee monster. Only melee skills, such as Lu Yang flying a kite. With the output of the three Han Ying, the Anaconda King couldn't bear and soon died on the ground.

System prompt: you killed the python king

You get 39808 experience

Lu Yang came to the python king, picked up a level 80 black iron equipment and a quest item, and said, "Let's go back and hand in the quest. The reward is so bad."

The three women nodded together.

Back at the camp, Lu Yang handed over the quest item to the parrot and said, "The task is complete, I killed the snake."

"Really, this is the thing, you guys are really great." Parrot said happily.

Lu Yang said, "However, that's not a dull snake, but an 80-level jungle snake king. You parrots are not honest."

The parrot showed an embarrassed expression and pointed his throat and said, "Ah ~ oh, when I knew him, he was a deadhead snake. Don't pay attention to those details, I will give you more rewards. You see, I give you 4 That reward is enough. "

Four drawings appeared in Lu Yang's hands.

"Upgrade drawings of Frost Tower, Flame Tower, Lightning Tower, and Turret." Lu Yang looked at the last turret upgrade drawing in surprise.

Han Fei happened to be transporting the stones back, and cheered when he saw the drawings in Lu Yang's hand: "Brother, these 4 drawings are too important."

Lu Yang nodded. The regular drawings should be the first three copies of the Raiders. As for the last drawing, Lu Yang guessed that when he just complained about the parrot, the parrot gave it.

There is a unique setting in the game. Every npc that speaks dishonestly, if it is disassembled, has a certain chance to increase the reward. Lu Yang just tried it, but did not expect to give a special reward.

Click to learn, there are four more models in Lu Yang's construction dialog box, which are:

Frost Tower: Reduces target movement speed by 50%, damage: 500 points, duration 3 seconds, cost: 500 stone

Fire Tower: Ejects targets within fire attack range, damages 30,000 points, and consumes 500 stones.

Lightning Tower: release chain lightning, damage: 10,000 points, have a chance to paralyze the target for 5 seconds, cost: 500 stone.

Turret upgrade: The ordinary turret was upgraded to a higher turret, which caused 300,000 to 500,000 damage, and consumed 2,000 stones.

“It is expensive to upgrade the turret.” Han Fei said.

“I don't think we can upgrade all the turrets at 50 waves.” Xiao Liang said.

Lu Yang said, “I'm not in a hurry to build turrets. This wave is very strange. I will first build some frost towers to defend them. This thing slows down by 50%, just like we have 60 more turrets.”

Everyone nodded.

With 2 minutes left in the battle, Lu Yang used the residual flames to fly to the tops of the mountains on the left and right sides of the tunnel. The stone had 4,000 points. Lu Yang built four frost towers 10 meters before the range of the left and right turrets.

The shape of the Frost Tower is not much different from that of the turret ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ except that the top of the turret is blue, braving the cold.

System Tip: The 20th Wave Attack Begins

“Naga is close to the guard, charge.” A blue Naga mermaid raised the emperor fork and shouted.

Countless big blue mermaids slammed their tails and rushed over the end of the passageway. Everyone’s tail carried water waves, which meant to increase the speed of 150%.

Naga Guards

Just within the range of the Frost Tower, 8 Frost Towers fired Frost Arrows at the same time, reducing the target’s movement speed by 50%.

The fishermen in the front row slowed down and the speed of the fishermen in the back row became slow. When the turrets were in front, 60 turrets were fired in succession, killing the Naga Guards.

Tens of thousands of monsters were quickly destroyed by the turret, and Lu Yang's golden light rose to level 56.

Lu Yang said: "Everyone cheer, we are ready to defend the next wave."

Everyone nodded.

...

For the next three days, Lu Yang was doing a pirate defense mission on Trina. Until noon on the fourth day, Lu Yang completed the last wave of defense missions.

At this point, his level rose to level 61, Han Ying's three siblings, Mu Yu and Xiao Liang rose to level 62, and Lan Yu and 150 Paladins rose to level 57.

Captain William came down from the boat and came to Lu Yang with a smile on his face, and said, "Brother, thank you very much. This task of defending me, this is a thank you."

System prompt: You have completed the pirate defense task

You got a treasure map

Treasure Map: Legacy of Hertos

Lu Yang made a strong fist, and that's what he wanted.

Chapter 475 - Stealth Flying Snake

Hertos's Treasure.

In the official history of the "Second World", Hitos was the seventh child of Vulcan. He was born ugly and stomped another leg.

He loved the daughter of Luna deeply, but because of his appearance, he humbled himself and did not dare to court the daughter of Luna, only willing to guard silently.

Once, the daughter of Luna turned into a mortal to sneak into the world to play, and Hertos also went to mortal to protect her and became a magician.

At this time, the gods and the gods of the other world are at war. There are many creatures in the world. The daughter of Luna has several times of distress, and Hertos has come forward to save him. At this point, the daughter of Luna falls in love with Hertos.

The two returned to the divine world together. Before leaving, Hetos created a set of equipment from human materials and left it in the world, called the Hetos Vulcan suit.

This is a sub-legendary 90-level suit. There are no level restrictions, only intellectual requirements. As long as it reaches the standard, even 0 level can wear this equipment. Before level 100, this is the top level of the fire magician. Asian Legend Set, no one.

In the last life, Lu Yang really wanted to get this set of equipment, but this set of equipment can only be opened by getting a treasure map. Now, Lu Yang finally got it.

Open the treasure map, which says that in the second year after the end of the demon war, the trolls invaded the human capital, and Hertos' helmet and necklace were snatched by the trolls. If you want to find them, go to the troll seventh Look for the big city of Rostock.

"Where is Rostock?" Xiao Liang asked.

Lu Yang said: In the 90-level map. “

“Brother, let’s go with you.” Han Fei said.

Lu Yang shook his head and said, “I’ll go alone. You take the team to the goblins to do the nation-building task, and strive to take them to level 60 earlier.”

Han Ying, they knew Lu Yang’s power and said, “Well, we must complete the task.”

Lu Yang explained to Han Ying them a few words, took out the teleportation scepter, and flew to the city of sin domain. After the pirate defense task was completed, he could use the treasure map to find Dross for the task.

The official did not give a hint, this is one of the few official special task groups that the players in the past have been most criticized.

As long as any player receives the task released by the city of sin domain, no matter how good the reward given after last night, as long as he returns to the task publisher of the city of sin domain, he can open the task group of the city of sin domain.

Lu Yang also saw in the Raiders of other players above. There is a chance to complete magic runes when completing tasks in the city of sin domain.

This rune is placed inside the backpack and does not need to be worn on the body. Some can add attributes, and some can also have active skills.

Lu Yang came to the door of Dross’s house. In the courtyard, Dross still looked around indifferently. When he saw Lu Yang, Dross’s face showed a friendly smile.

“Lady, I have received a letter from Captain William. He said that you successfully helped him keep the fort.” Dross said with a smile.

Lu Yang said: "Fortunately, the task you entrusted to me is finally completed."

Dross said with satisfaction: "Boy, you have got my respect, and the city of sin domain welcomes you."

System Tip: Prestige of Sin City

Your reputation in the city of sin domains is friendly

The npcs passing around looked at Lu Yang with friendly smiles.

Lu Yang said, "Thank you, Mr. Dross."

Dross said: "Don't thank me, if you are interested in this city, you can walk around, there are many people who need your help."

Lu Yang said goodbye to Deros and rode the Red Flame Lion King to a castle in the southwest corner of the city.

System prompt: you found Asmar Castle

This is a castle made of bluestone, where the owner of the city of sin domain lives.

Lu Yang walked into the castle along the suspension bridge over the moat, and at the gate stood a middle-aged man with an elegant manner, named Truy, who was a steward.

Lu Yang came to Truy and said, "Dear Mr. Housekeeper, Hello, I have just been recommended by Mr. Dross."

Truy looked at Lu Yang and said, "I can get a recommendation from Dross to prove your strength. I have a mission here to help me kill those * stealth flying snakes. They always invade the city to kill civilians. . "

Task Tip: Kill the Stealth Flying Snake

Lu Yang clicked to accept the task, went to the grocery store in the city of sin domain, found the boss and said, "I want to buy some invisible eyes."

"Of course, two gold coins each."

One can only be inserted into the ground to control the range of 30 yards. The duration is only 2 minutes, and the 2 gold coins are 600 credits, just like stealing money. However, it is worth completing the task.

Lu Yang spent 100 gold coins to buy 50 invisible eyes, and rode the Red Flame Lion King to the grass outside the castle.

There is endless black grass outside the castle. Lu Yang I did this task. The stealthy flying dragon will pass through this black grass every evening, but the exact location cannot be determined.

Looking at the time, just at dusk, Lu Yang placed an invisible eye on the grass every 30 yards, and placed a total of 10.

The stealth flying snake has a small courage, and once it is known that someone here ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ they will escape from here and escape to other places.

Lu Yang hid in the grass and waited. He couldn't help recalling the predicament of the previous life when doing this task. At that time, many people knew the task. However, they searched the entire city of the sin domain and did not find the stealth. Flying snake.

It wasn't until a shooter player accidentally used a flare and a thief to pk on the grass outside the castle, which inadvertently found a stealthy flying snake. At that time, countless players scolded the official for lack of morality.

After 2 minutes.

The stealth flying snake did not appear, Lu Yang re-inserted the invisible eye and continued to wait.

After waiting for nearly 10 minutes, just before the last batch of invisible eyes was about to expire, suddenly, a black flying snake ghost appeared in the range of the second detecting invisible eyes.

Black Flying Snake (Special Elite)

Level: 55

Qi and blood: 200000/200000

“Remnant Flame”

Lu Yang sent out a reddish shadow, appearing in front of the black flying snake with an advance.

“activation”

A reddish light flashed.

“噤”

Lu Yang appeared in front of the black flying snake.

“Yan Yang Suo”

A reddish chain trapped the flying snake.

“Flame Storm”

“Resistant Fire Ring”

“Meteorite Impact”

“Destroy the Sky”

After a series of actions, the black flying snake had blood, and Lu Yang’s white light flashed behind the black flying snake.

“The Sun Fist”

“16898” (Critical Strike)

The black flying snake died on the ground.

System prompt: You have completed the stealth flying snake mission

Lu Yang picked up the magic core of the black flying snake and returned to the trump butler, saying, “I have completed the task.”

Chapter 476 - Space rune

Truy said in surprise: “You found the stealth flying snake so quickly. It’s incredible. I want to thank you. This is a space rune, please take it.”

System prompt: you get space runes

A golden rune of triangular prismatic metal texture appeared in Lu Yang's hands.

Rune of Space: After 5 seconds of triggering, he will let you enter the void.

Lu Yang carefully put the rune into his backpack and said, "Thank you."

When this rune first appeared, everyone thought he was useless, because this thing had to wait for 5 seconds to be effective. Who would give you 5 seconds when confronting the enemy.

Another thing is that you can't move after the trigger. Once you move, the player will appear from the void, so everyone gets this rune and throws it into the warehouse as a toy.

Lu Yang is also a toy. Until a long time later, Lu Yang accidentally triggered another plot in the city of sin domain, and then found the secret of the space rune.

Saying goodbye to the housekeeper, Lu Yang rode the Red Flame Lion to the only house on the south side of the city called Ronande.

The hotel is large. The first floor is a restaurant. The wooden dining table and benches are made according to the European medieval style. At this time, six mercenaries are chatting loudly in the restaurant.

"Haha, tomorrow we will go there again, we will definitely find the treasure." Said a big man with a two-handed sword on his waist, laughing.

"Brother is right, we'll go again tomorrow, toast." A thief-like NPC echoed.

Six people toasting and drinking together.

Lu Yang came to Dahan and said, "What are you talking about, this big brother?"

The big man glanced at Lu Yang and said, "Nothing, walk away."

Lu Yang was speechless. The trigger of this task was the big man in front of him. There were not 10 million or 8 million players here in the last life, and no one thought that a few stray NPCs could release the task.

However, this cargo release task is not as happy as others, but it is luck, commonly known as face.

Some people will chat with Dahan for the first time, and Dahan will post the task to you, while others will need to chat with Dahan multiple times to trigger this task.

The first question was triggered by Lu Yang in the previous life. I did not expect this time to be unlucky, so I had to continue chatting with Han.

After more than 10 minutes, the big man was annoyed by Lu Yang and said, "Boy, look at your strength, can you help us find Locke's treasure in the cave outside the city?"

System Tip: Finding Locke's Treasure

Lu Yang said, "Of course you can."

Putting on the Red Flame Lion King, Lu Yang ran out of the city of sin domain, found a cave north of the city, and just entered, 12 Shadow Warlocks wandered around.

Shadow Warlock (Elite)

Level: 50

Qi and blood: 350000/350000

As soon as Lu Yang's eyes lighted up, when he came here in the last life, the cave was cleared thousands of times. The shadow warlocks that appeared at that time were ordinary monsters. I didn't expect to see the elite monsters full of caves.

A crimson fire spirit pearl rose in Lu Yang's left hand, and a level 8 fire phoenix appeared.

"Neighing"

The fire phoenix came to the shadow warlock's head, and the fireball spit out continuously.

"5000"

"5000"

...

The shadow warlock was attacked, and the target was aimed at the fire phoenix. Just as they were preparing to output, Lu Yang's white light flashed in front of the 12 warlocks.

"Yan Yang Suo"

A reddish light burst from Lu Yang's body, trapping 12 warlocks in place, and at the same time, each of them was interrupted by Lu Yang's casting action.

"Meteorite Impact"

A crimson meteorite broke into the air and landed on 12 warlocks, while continuing to roll backwards.

"5218"

“5286”

...

As the meteorite was about to roll over the 12 warlocks, Lu Yang said a spell.

“Resistant Fire Ring”

The crimson light burst forth from Lu Yang’s body, pushing 12 warlocks back, just in the middle of the attack range of the meteorite.

“5218”

“5218”

The meteorite rolled forward 10 yards, and the 12 warlocks moved back 10 yards. They just ate all the meteorite’s skills and suffered a total of more than 100,000 injuries.

While Yang Yansuo’s skills did not disappear, Lu Yang continued to use the meteorite impact and put two more meteorite impacts before killing all 12 warlocks.

System prompt: You killed the Shadow Warlock

Lu Yang watched the warlock fell to the ground and shook his head. If he can have a set of sub-legendary equipment of level 90, only a meteorite impact can kill them all.

Walking to the side of the 12 warlocks, Lu Yang looked at the ground. Suddenly, Lu Yang’s eyes brightened and he saw a golden-colored book cover.

Spell: Soul Stone

Lu Yang was amazed. He never thought that the soulstone skill book would burst here. Picking up the skill book and putting it in his backpack, Lu Yang continued to explore.

This cave Lu Yang hates familiarity. It is divided into two layers. The rightmost corner of the upper cave is the destination of the mission. Lu Yang did not rush there, but continued to kill elite shadow warlocks.

There are more than 3,000 shadow warlocks in the two-story cave. When Lu Yang finishes killing, he has obtained a total of 100 soulstone skill books.

“Drip, drip, drip”

Lu Yang opened the intercom and saw that it was Xia Yuwei. She couldn't help laughing, and pressed the connection key to ask, “What's the matter.”

Xia Yuwei said, “Boss, I ask for compensation.”

Lu Yang Yile asked, “What is the compensation?”

“Lan Yu's level is all 55. My army commander is only 46. You can tell me how to compensate me.” Xia Yuwei said.

Lu Yang said, “I'm not bringing my wife to upgrade, you can't pick on this matter.”

When Xia Yuwei saw Lu Yang dare to resist, he hummed and said, “Even if Lan Yu marries you, I will be the bridesmaid on the day of her marriage. Believe me, there are a hundred ways to keep you from entering the door?”

Lu Yang was speechless. In this respect, you really couldn't bother her. When the bridesmaid blocked the door and asked for it, you had to promise anything.

“I confess my fate. In a few days, I will go to the goblin camp to take you to upgrade. In addition, I just hit 100 soulstones in my hand, and I will send you 20.” Lu Yang said.

Xia Yuwei nodded with satisfaction and said, “It’s pretty much the same, and I’ll tell you, most of your brothers’ grades are around 37.”

“Dududu”

After a busy tone, Xia Yuwei hung up the phone.

Lu Yang laughed and hung up the phone, thinking with a smile, now that most of his brothers are at level 37, it won’t be long before he can take his hand to the orcs to slaughter the city.

However, this time the city slaughter is different from the past. He needs to prepare well. Once the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood is dispatched to slaughter the main city of the beasts, the players in the service will surely know the same thing as St. Gall and Sirius. There are many people who want to come to Luyang.

While thinking about the solution, Lu Yang returned to the first floor of the cave and walked to the upper right corner.

“Hello ~!”

A green monster more than two meters high appeared ten meters in front of Lu Yang, roaring again and again.

Mutant Beast (Elite)

Level: 50

Qi and blood: 360000/360000

Lu Yang's right-hand staff pointed a mutant beast, and read the spell in his mouth.

"Pyroblast"

Pyroblast after burst fired from the front end of Lu Yang's staff to the head of the mutant beast.

"嘭"

The mutant beast did not dodge in time, and stepped back in the middle of the door.

"10016" (Critical Strike)

In the case of his own level advantage, Lu Yang * one monster uses Pyroblast technology is the easiest method. With the cooperation of Phoenix, the mutant beast was killed on the ground in less than one minute.

A round box fell to the ground.

Locke's Treasure

Lu Yang picked up the round box, put on the Red Flame Lion, and ran back to the city of sin domain. He came to the hotel, and the six mercenaries were still drinking. When he saw Lu Yang returned, he ignored him.

Lu Yang walked to their table and put Locke's treasure on the table and said, "What are you looking for?"

The two-handed swordsman mercenary stood up and took a round box to look carefully, and said excitedly, "That's it, boy, you did a good job, this is for you."

System prompt: you get space runes

Lu Yang took the rune and took another rune from his backpack and put it together.

A flash of light

System prompt: you have synthesized a new rune

Rune: Space Walk

Description: Players holding this rune can walk in the void after launching the rune for 30 seconds and a cooldown of 2 minutes.

Lu Yang shook his fist vigorously. With this rune, he would be able to get the suit and walk out of the hotel. Lu Yang replaced the Red Flame Lion King and ran out of the city of sin domain, and ran north along the road to enter Frostland.

Six hours later ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Liu Yang is in front of a huge ice city. He covers an area of hundreds of thousands of square kilometers. The house made of white boulder is covered with white snow. This is Rostock.

At the main entrance of Rostock, there is a very high step with almost 300 steps. On both sides of the bottom of the step, there are white statues of giant snakes.

Above the stairs, there are two Frost Trolls with long swords every 10 steps.

Frost Troll

Level: 90

Qi and blood: 800,000 / 800000

As a branch of the ancient trolls, Frost Trolls are more than 3 meters tall, nearly one meter taller than ordinary trolls. They are more bloodthirsty and more acute than ordinary trolls.

At Lu Yang's current level, killing these trolls is very difficult. The only way to find the treasure quickly is to use the space walking rune to run in.

No player in the last life has done this like Lu Yang. However, Lu Yang has trained here for a long time and has a deep understanding of the map here.

Walking 30 meters from the doorway, the two frost trolls standing at the doorway looked at Lu Yang at the same time.

“An enemy attack, an enemy invades.” The two frost trolls looked like wild beasts, and leaned over towards the landing sun.

The trolls above the steps were startled, and all ran towards the landing sun.

“Remnant Flame”

A crimson flame figure flew to the top of the steps at the speed of light, and flames appeared at Lu Yang's feet.

“Blazing Blaze”

Lu Yang ran back quickly after the Frost Troll rushed to him within 10 meters. His movement speed was much faster than the Frost Troll. He took the troll to the distance, and soon, the trolls on the steps ran. Came down.

“Remnant Flame-Activated”

Chapter 477 - Get treasure

“An enemy attack, there is an enemy invasion.” The 12 Frost Trolls patrolling the top of the steps found Lu Yang and raised their long swords towards him.

Lu Yang glanced at the situation above the steps, surrounded by a huge platform, there was a corridor at 10 o’clock in the upper left corner, and from there was the only way to enter the central area of Rostock.

“flicker”

A white light flashed, and Lu Yang escaped the long swords of 12 Frost Trolls, just landed, and ran hot toward the passage with his feet scorching.

“Kill the invaders.” Hundreds of Frost Trolls standing in front of the passage found Lu Yang drew long swords and rushed towards him.

“Spacewalk”

Lu Yang activates the rune skill, and his body is instantly hidden into the void.

Hundreds of Frost Trolls immediately searched around the platform.

Lu Yang sneaking into the void is in another space. Looking at the hundreds of frost trolls in front of him, he quickly runs towards the passage.

At this time, he still has a blazing fast state bonus, the movement speed is normal 285%, plus the movement speed bonus provided by the space rune, he quickly ran through the 500-meter long corridor to the high The step sacrifices the ice bat area guarded by Eric.

There are very few buildings in the ice bat area. In addition to the trolls’ barracks, parliament halls, and sacrifice sites, there is also a wine cellar. A humble corner near the city wall. The bluestone steps are almost invisible.

A shadow passed in the sky, a group of huge blue bats flew through the sky, and a frost troll stood behind each bat.

Ice Bat Troll Knight (Elite)

Level: 90

Qi and blood: 2000000/2000000

The attack method of the Ice Bat Troll Knight is long-range. You can throw Frost Spears within 50 yards. Lu Yang can only resist three. No matter how many Spears attack him, he will undoubtedly die.

At this point, there was only 5 seconds left in the space walk, and Lu Yang ran to the left into a cellar in the middle of the ice bat area.

System prompt: you found the wine cellar

Just after entering the door, Lu Yang appeared from the void, and a team of ice bats flew in the sky without seeing Lu Yang in the wine cellar.

This is a bug location in the game. Icebats and trolls are sharp-smelling creatures, but the wine cellar can completely cover the player's breath. Unless you see Lu Yang in front, you can't find it. This is the last life. Experiences from players who have passed here.

The wine cellar is large, with three Frost Trolls inside it, which are located in three corners of the wine cellar. This position where Lu Yang is standing now will not let the three Frost Trolls see, nor will it let the ice bats outside see.

"Damn weather, it's still comfortable to drink in the cellar." A troll's voice came from the cellar.

"Shut up and forget that we are stealing alcohol. If someone is found we will be miserable. Remember, don't make a noise, don't go to the door," said another troll.

"Yes."

"Ok."

Said the two trolls together.

There was a smile on the corner of Lu Yang's mouth, and he waited in peace, watching the time for the Batman Knight in the sky.

After 5 minutes, the blazing rapids and space runes had cooled down, and Lu Yang also found the law of the ice bat knight. He continued to wait for 30 seconds, and a team of ice bat knights flew in the sky.

"Blazing Blaze"

Lu Yang ran out of the wine cellar with flames of flames. There was no Frost Troll around, and the Frost Troll in the sky also flew away. Taking this opportunity, he quickly ran forward.

In front of it is a large open area, with 30 groups of trolls, 24 in each group training there.

“An enemy attack, destroy the invaders.” A frost troll found Lu Yang, shouted, raised his long knife and slashed at the landing Yang.

“flicker”

Lu Yang jumped behind the Frost Troll and continued to run to the open land. 24 groups of Trolls discovered Lu Yang at the same time.

“Destroy the invaders,” the Frost Troll leader shouted.

More than 600 Frost Trolls rushed over.

Lu Yang waited until the other side approached, and opened the rune.

“Spacewalk”

A phantom enveloped Lu Yang into the space, and Lu Yang continued to run forward through the frost troll who was still in place, all the way to a small river.

System prompt: you found Wenquanhe

The river is 10 meters wide, and there are countless pure white hot spring snakes in and across the river.

Hot Spring Ice Snake (Elite)

Level: 90

Qi and blood: 2000000/2000000

Many players in the last life did not touch the hot spring snake when they came here to upgrade, because the hot spring ice snake is highly toxic, even if it has anti-toxic agents, it cannot block the cold snake of the ice snake. The odds are very low.

Lu Yang also didn't want to provoke these snakes, but if he wants to quickly reach the location of Rothor's final lord, taking a hot spring is a shortcut.

Lu Yang found a remote corner to hide and waited for the next time the skill cooling time was over. Lu Yang walked to the hot spring.

“丝丝”

More than 30 hot spring ice snakes in the river found Lu Yang, twisted the snake body, spit red letters and rushed towards the landing sun.

Lu Yang was unmoved and continued to walk towards the river, waiting to enter the attack range of the ice snake.

“Emerald Heart”

A pale green light wrapped Lu Yang in it.

“Miss”

“Miss”

Lu Yang was in a state of nothingness, and the ice snake attack was invalid. Taking advantage of these 10 seconds, Lu Yang swam into the river.

Numerous hot spring snakes on the river and across the river were attracted by Lu Yang, entered the river and swam to Lu Yang.

The escaped dagger with blue light fell precisely in the mud across the river, a blue light flashed, and Lu Yang appeared beside the dagger.

“哇”

The hot spring snakes in and around the river looked at Lu Yang and rushed towards him.

“Blazing Blaze”

“Spacewalk”

Lu Yang opened the rune and concealed into the void, and quickly ran into the sixth area of Rostall in the white snake, and the area of Voodoo priest Hennorisi.

Behind the alchemy of the voodoo priest Hennorisi is the temple of the ultimate lord grand wizard, Rostall.

A flash of light flashed, Lu Yang appeared in shape.

“Remnant Flame”

A crimson ray flew up the cliff behind the altar, outside the temple on the top of the mountain.

“activation”

Lu Yang flew to the top of the altar in an instant, and at this time, Hanolisi, who had just stepped down from the altar, had just walked back and found no Lu Yang.

Lu Yang was relieved and looked around the temple.

The shape of the temple is very magnificent. This is a temple built on a high mountain. It is as high as 5 floors and the ancient runes are carved on the white rocks.

There are two guards at the main entrance of the temple. According to Lu Yang’s memory, there are no guards inside, only Lord Rostor is alone.

“Spacewalk”

Lu Yang opened the rune and entered the temple from the main entrance.

The temple had only one floor, divided into 3 rooms. When entering the main hall, Rostol stood in front of the statue with a wand of magic.

There is a room on each of the left and right sides. Lu Yang walked into the first room on the left. This place was the place where the Hatos hat and shoulder armor were stored in the last life.

The room is very large, about 500 square meters. Lu Yang entered the door and went straight to the slate on the left corner of the room. As long as he stood there and took out the treasure map to read the spell above, he could get a helmet and shoulders.

When Lu Yang ran to the center of the room, suddenly, Lu Yang felt that he was locked by something. Looking to the right, two golden circular pillars were standing on the back wall in the middle of the room. The pillars are 3 meters high.

At the top of the pillar, a black vortex is emitting a magenta glow.

Lu Yang frowned. He didn't remember mentioning this thing in the Raiders of the previous generation. The magician who got this thing in the previous generation was over 100 levels. It came after other guilds opened up wasteland here.

Lu Yang searched and remembered that there are two final bosses in this temple, one is Lord Rostall, and the other is Demi-Taraka.

“This will not be Talaka.” Lu Yang scratched his head and thought, for the first time, he felt a bit reckless.

Slowly backed to the corner, and came to the front of the slate mentioned in the guide, Lu Yang opened the treasure map and chanted.

A flash of light flashed, Hertos' helmet and Hertos's shoulder armor appeared in front of Lu Yang, Lu Yanggang showed a surprised expression, the black vortex suddenly emitted a fierce light.

“Ignorant humans, you dare to steal in front of God.” A teasing voice came from the black vortex.

“Roar ~!” An angry roar came from the hall ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Rostall suddenly appeared at the door of the room, his eyes glared at the landing sun, and said, “Damn human, I will let you cost.”

Lu Yang took a sigh of breath. He didn't expect to lead Rostall here. Now he is trapped in the room. If Rostall hits him, he will die.

Lu Yang looked around, and there was only a window on the left and rear that allowed people to drill out.

“Remnant Flame”

Just as he launched his skills, Rostall moved.

“Cursed Spirit”

The staff waved forward, and a purple light hit Lu Yang instantly.

Lu Yang's eyes were dark, and a 3-second dizziness appeared.

“flicker”

A flash of white light on Lu Yang's body moved 30 yards forward, and at the same time relieved his vertigo.

“Cursed Grip”

A purple light hit Lu Yang, and Lu Yang's status bar appeared a curse superimposed on one layer.

“Cursed Fist”

“Remnant Flame-Activated”

Lu Yang picked up two Hertos suits to launch his skills, and at the moment he was hit by the cursed fist, the light flew out of the window to the outside.

Immediately after landing, Lu Yang immediately released a second remnant of flames and flew down the cliff and fell behind the altar of Henolisi. Rostall roared and climbed down the cliff. At this time, Henolisi was Come here from a distance.

“8”

...

When reading for 1 second, Heinolisi found Lu Yang, pointing his right hand at Lu Yang, and a purple electric ray shot towards him. At the same time, Rostall also climbed down the cliff and stood up. Leaped and punched Lu Yang.

“0”

The white light flashed, and Lu Yang disappeared in the purple electric mang and fist shadow.

Chapter 478 - Hitos suit

Immediately after landing, Lu Yang immediately looked at his blood, leaving less than 30 points.

Lu Yang sighed that he was lucky. If he was a little later, he would be dead, but this time, he got two pieces of Hertos equipment.

The two pieces of equipment burning red flames seemed to have a striking power.

Hertos' Helm (Asian Legend)

Level: 90

Defense: 65-87

Intelligence: +160

Stamina: +110

Spell damage increased: 501

Increased spell critical strike: 306

Description; the treasure left by humans

Outfit effect:

Set of 4: Spell critical strike chance increased by 20%

8-piece set: Fire skill level +1

Hertos' Pauldrons (Asian Legend)

Level: 90

Defense: 55-71

Intelligence: +150

Stamina: +110

Spell damage increased: 501

Spell critical strike increased: 300

Description: The Treasures of Hertos for Humanity

The spell damage of these two pieces of equipment adds up to more than 1,300 points. If 8 pieces can be made up, the spell damage can reach more than 5000. In addition, the magic damage of two rings, jewelry and a necklace and staff can reach around 7000 .

If you add a full set of 18 level 10 intelligence gems and the heart of the demon god, Lu Yang's total damage can exceed 10,000.

The chess master who got this set of equipment in the last life had more than 100 levels when he got it. He didn't realize the benefits of this set of equipment. Whenever he mentioned this set of equipment, the master's words were full of annoyance and remorse. .

If he can get this equipment at level 60, he will not lose so badly in the first global competition.

In the first global competition, when most players were looking forward to seeing various top players show a variety of clever tricks to defeat their opponents, major consortia, major studios and guilds joined forces to contribute a money match.

From the moment the official launch of the gold coin exchange experience mission, all wealthy players use a lot of credit points to exchange gold coins for this ring mission.

The way of the task is very simple, and you can gain a lot of experience by purchasing the high-priced items specified by the task publisher.

A limited number of 300 ring tasks are performed in a week, and the experience of the 300 ring tasks is gradually accumulated. Starting from the 100th ring, there are more than 100,000 points of experience for each completed task.

Take level 40 players as an example. After completing 300 rounds of experience in a week, you can get hundreds of millions of experiences and easily rise to level 49. There are smart, the 299th ring that you ran failed to choose a task. You can run again from the beginning and you can rise in a week To level 53.

In less than a month, the slowest credit players can also rise to level 60. Of course, this will cost tens of thousands of credits.

For ordinary people, this is out of reach, but for rich players, it is too easy. They can not only upgrade themselves, but also upgrade the nearby ones.

When the global competition starts, ordinary players will be able to reach the level of level 40, and those who participate in the competition, the consortium sons, the presidents and vice presidents of major guilds, the studio's high play, each It is around level 60.

Dressed in a wild boss or bought gold equipment from the studio, the whole body played 10 or more advanced 15-segment gems to participate in the competition.

One of the most ironic matches was when the top three players of the three races were played, the 39 players of 5 human races faced the 60 players of 5 orcs. An orc warrior let 5 human players attack casually, only Can forcibly drop 1 point of blood. At that time, the desperate eyes of 5 human race players at the time could not be forgotten by Lu Yang.

Right now, everything seems quiet and peaceful, without any conflicts. Actually, those who have the strength are struggling to upgrade.

Lu Yang had the experience of the last life. He would not be blinded by the illusion in front of him, and put two pieces of equipment on his body, and replaced the Overseer helmet and shoulders.

Looking at the time, it was already late at night. Lu Yang entered the game again after taking a break, digging 10 meteorite ore at Heilongshan, and then rested.

The next afternoon.

Lu Yang returned to the game after class and clicked on the treasure map to find the location of the next two equipment.

System reminder: In the long history of mankind, it has suffered numerous sufferings. One of the most violent battles was the invasion of Rain City by the son of the ancient * Estero.

Million people in the city of Rain were slaughtered by more than half of Estero, and the rest became Estero's slaves and rations. Today, there is already a dead city, and only Estero is there. If you want to find Hertos's magic robe and handguards, go to the magic palace of Falling Rain.

It is another level 90 map. In the memory of the last life, Estero's most famous incident was the incident of being killed by Sun Yu alone.

At that time, Sun Yu had just reached the 80th level. In the face of Estero who could only physically attack, the boy ran 20 maps with a monster and it took 10 hours to kill Estero.

After Sun Yu uploaded the video, it caused a great sensation, so many players wanted to learn from Sun Yu to kill the lord. After all, this is a single kill lord monster.

Lu Yang rides the Red Flame Lion King and recalls Estero's skills while running.

"Drip, drip, drip"

The intercom sounded, and Lu Yang opened it and saw it from Sun Yu. He smiled and pressed the connect button.

“Boss, I want to ask you for help.” Sun Yu said.

Lu Yang asked, “What’s the matter?”

Sun Yu sighed and said, “I want to change the summoning beast.”

Lu Yang guessed that Sun Yu was looking for himself for this reason. He had long wanted Sun Yu to change the summoning beast. However, when he summoned Thunder Eagle, it took so much effort. Later, Thunder Eagle repeatedly made achievements in the war. Dozens of them were reluctant to give up, and Lu Yang did not continue to persuade.

However, players gradually upgraded, and the monsters faced gradually increased the amount of blood. Thunder’s ability to thunder can only hit 500 points of blood, this point of injury has not kept up with the times, apparently, Sun Yu themselves realized this.

Lu Yang said: “There are many summonable beasts that can be replaced. The boss has already prepared for you. First, I completed the transfer job of the wind and lightning shooter. After becoming a transfer shooter, I went to the Honghua Plain to kill the yellow sheep. Look for me in the best yellow mutton. “

“Okay.” Sun Yu hung up the phone to go to transfer job. At present ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Sun Yu has reached 200 players with Thunder Eagle in hand, all of which have become collectively after the transfer. Wind laser shooter.

Tu Feng was taking Huang Xiang, Mo Long and others to calculate the guild expenditures, and just saw Sun Yu transferred to become a lightning striker, dialed Lu Yang’s phone and said: “How do you persuade the kid to change jobs, it’s too easy Now, he is the last one in the 7th Army Chief. “

Lu Yang said with a smile: “No way, Lei Ying’s output is too low. He took the initiative to find me. Huang Xiang is beside you.”

Tu Feng glanced at Huang Xiang, and found that Huang Xiang was watching him secretly, turned and walked outside, and whispered, “Beside me, don’t worry, I won’t give him the core things of the guild.

Lu Yang said, "That's good. It's not long before this boy betrays me. You quietly keep an eye on him."

Han Sha, Han Yu, and other 12 little guys have been arranged by Lu Yang around Huang Xiang recently. Just yesterday, Han Sha saw Huang Xiang in contact with a strange man. From the photos taken by Han Sha, Lu Yang was sure. This middle-aged person is Wang Teng himself.

If Lu Yang did not want to use Liu Teng's * to kill Liu Jie in the future, he would personally kill Wang Teng and Huang Xiang.

Chapter 479 - Rain City

"You can rest assured." Tu Feng nodded earnestly, whoever Lu Yang can talk to him three times about the same thing, he must be 100% vigilant.

"Is there anything else?" Lu Yang asked.

Tu Feng patted his head and said, "One more thing, just got the news, Wang Teng shot, and 10 sentry towers were also set up on the side of the Sepanlin River that belongs to Beifeng City, which are opposed to us."

Lu Yang's eyes became fierce and he said, "Someone under Wang Teng has started the Goblins mission. What's his strength over there?"

Tu Feng said: "The overall strength is improving very quickly, and his past 290,300 or more players can reach level 40 at the end of the month."

Lu Yang said: "Send a confidant to Brisbane City behind Beifeng City and let me explore the situation there."

“Do you want to attack Beifeng City from behind?” Tu Feng asked.

Lu Yang said, “If I’m not wrong, the Dominion fortress across the Sepin River must be Wang Teng’s tightest defense. Try it first. I want to know what’s happening in Brisbane.”

Since Lu Yang laid down the holy city and the imperial city, the situation of the previous life in his memory has greatly deviated from this life. Wang Teng of the previous life started the goblin race mission half a year later, but this life began at this time. And, Lu Yang doesn’t know which Goblin Prince’s mission he started. This requires Lu Yang to explore carefully.

Furthermore, the city of Brisbane in the previous life was not unified. It was divided up by more than a dozen forces like the current city of Hannibal. However, in this life, except for the city of Hannibal, all other main cities have the shadow of a consortium.

At present, the major consortiums that have sneaked into the orcs have found the switch of this game after the battle between Lu Yang and Wang Teng. They have followed the example of Liu Jie in the Human and Elven Investment Guilds, which is much earlier than the previous life.

Many things in the last life have changed. Lu Yang needs more detailed information and information about the cities. After discussing the ideas in this regard with Tu Feng carefully, Tu Feng immediately set about doing it.

It wasn’t until Lu Yucheng talked that Lu Yang turned off the intercom.

The system prompts: you found the rain city

In the sight of the city gate of the rain, in addition to the broken wall, only the dead black undead remains.

Demonic Undead (Elite)

Level: 90

Qi and blood: 870000/870000

An evil spirit appeared on the side of Lu Yang's body. The dark shadow had no human shape, only two glowing eyes and a mouth.

"There is a living person here, everyone ate him." The evil spirit yelled loudly, referring to Landing Yang.

The undead wandering at the gate of the city looked at Lu Yang's location at the same time, and flew towards the landing sun.

"Blazing Blaze"

"Spacewalk"

Lu Yang turned on the space rune and accelerated running skills, ran into the void and ran through the undead toward the gate, and the surrounding undead dispersed after losing their targets.

It is not difficult to quietly enter Falling Rain City. Falling Rain City produces blood spider silk. In the past, a thief player posted a video of how to sneak in to kill Rain Blood Spider.

In Falling Rain City, there are 22 places where NPCs will not pass. The first place to enter the city through the gate is the roof.

Lu Yang ran into the city gate, and just a team of undead passed by him, because he was in the void and the undead couldn't touch him.

When the undead passed 50 yards in front of him, Lu Yang followed behind the undead, and when the time for stealth came, he came under the eaves of the first house inside the gate.

The undead in front did not find Lu Yang, nor did the undead pass by.

Lu Yang took out the escaped dagger and threw it back. With a blue light dagger, he traced a perfect blue arc and landed on the roof.

With a flash of blue light, Lu Yang appeared on the roof with a dagger in his left hand, received the dagger in his backpack, and walked forward on the roof.

Most of the houses in Luoyu City are three-storey bluestone flat-roofed houses. Lu Yang ran forward along the roof for 5 minutes and came to the front of a fountain. A black evil spirit 3 meters high was looking around.

Heartless Boss (boss)

Level: 90

Qi and blood: 3000000/3000000

If it was a heads-up, Lu Yang had the ability to hit the shadow, but he does not have that time to lead the shadow to the roof now.

Taking out the escape dagger, Lu Yang came to the front of the eaves and threw it hard to a * on the left, and at the position of 30 yards, the blue light flashed, and Lu Yang appeared in mid-air.

“flicker”

With a flash of white light, Lu Yang volley moved forward 30 yards and landed at the bottom of the slope.

“There are living people.” Dozens of undead around rushed towards the landing sun at the same time.

“Blazing Blaze”

“Spacewalk”

Lu Yang entered the void, avoiding the undead and quickly ran towards the top of the slope. There was a broken mage tower at the top of the slope. Lu Yang must run into the tower within 30 seconds to reach the top of the tower. He failed this mission.

Fortunately, Lu Yang is no longer familiar with the map here. When encountering a high level, Lu Yang’s memory becomes clearer. Following the memory of the previous life, Lu Yang quickly ran into the tower and ran along the spiral staircase. After going up to Tower Five, after crossing a corridor to the other stairs, I ran to the bell tower above Tower Seven in front of countless evil spirits.

The bell tower is very small, only about 20 square meters. Lu Yang came to the right corner of the bell tower, just right, when the time for walking in space came, he appeared from the void.

Countless undead walked back and forth at the entrance of Tower Six to Tower Seven, and Lu Yang hid in the corner and waited quietly.

After 5 minutes, all the skills had cooled down. Lu Yang looked to the right of the tower, and there was another tower there, except that a 70-yard-wide Plague River was separated.

Normally, it is impossible to swim through the river, and the plague river will die immediately after entering ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Only a small bridge bypassing the far left side can pass and want to go to the tower There is a long way to go above. Jumping to the tower is the fastest shortcut.

Lu Yang gasped, and backed to the entrance.

“There are living people there!”

The evil spirit downstairs found Lu Yang and rushed up towards the tower.

Lu Yang drew a slight arc from the corner of his mouth, sprinted quickly, took off at the edge of the tower, and jumped to the top of the tower on the other side.

When Lu Yang was about to fall, Lu Yang threw out the escape dagger and jumped 30 yards in the air. At the moment, Lu Yang flashed with his skills and landed on the eaves on the edge of the 7th floor of the tower opposite.

Lu Yang immediately grabbed the eaves with both hands and jumped up to the top of the tower.

“There are living people there!”

Before waiting for Lu Yang to stand firmly, the evil spirits under this tower also found Lu Yang. Just as they were about to rush over, Lu Yang continued to sprint and jumped out of this tower. When he fell quickly, Lu Yang opened Parachute.

Chapter 480 - Nokoko Kogami

Slowly descending from the sky, below is the slum of Rain City, countless blood spiders are crawling back and forth in the middle of the road with six legs.

The blood spider is one person tall, with blood-red whole body, black head, six blood-red eyes and a pair of sharp mouthparts, which makes people feel a creepy feeling.

Blood Spider (Elite)

Level: 90

Qi and blood: 920,000 / 920000

When Lu Yang was about to land on the ground, more than 10 blood spiders found him and ran towards the landing place of Landing Yang.

“flicker”

Lu Yang flashed white light in the air and landed on the ground in advance.

“Blazing Blaze”

“Spacewalk”

Before the blood spider rushed over, Lu Yang entered the void and ran quickly along the avenue. This road went straight to the innermost part of the slum. He only had 30 seconds. If he cannot reach the designated place, he will surely die.

The blazing speed increases the movement speed by 285%, and the space walking increases the movement speed by 30%. When the two are combined, Lu Yang’s movement speed is increased by 315%.

When Lu Yang was running at full speed, the lights on both sides of the road flickered. After 30 seconds, Lu Yang ran to a wall up to 50 meters high.

System prompt: you found the sacred wall

The sacred wall is the official name, and it is also an extremely ironic name. Behind this wall is the rich man district of Luoyu City, which is also the site of the Luoyu Cathedral.

The wall is 35 meters thick, and even the mage can’t jump over with flashes. It is even impossible to climb up. On the wall, it is the slum lord blood spider queen.

Blood Spider Queen (Lord)

Level: 90

Qi and blood: 9000000/9000000

The upper body of the Blood Spider Queen has evolved into a human form. She is an elegant woman, with red hair, a nice face and a white body, which can make people look away. Of course, you have to look at the lower body. can.

The Queen's lower body was completely blood spider's body, how disgusting and how disgusting.

Generally speaking, you can only fight with the queen when you come here. After killing the queen, you can find a way to climb up. However, a thief player in the previous life found a secret. On the wall under the queen, as long as the queen is opened, The Queen's cobweb can easily climb to the top of the wall with a hook lock.

Some mage players have also found a way. The thickness of the wall is not uniform at the wall under the queen. When the son of the ancient * invaded the rich area of Luoyu City, the ancient * with a height of 80 meters stepped on and his heel was just right. Rub the wall on the side of the rich area, stepped down by 1 meter, and the position is just under the queen.

The light flashed in the void, and Lu Yang's space walking time came, and he appeared in shape.

"There is an intruder, kill me." A * expression on Queen Bloodspider's face, she pointed to Lu Yang with her finger.

Countless blood spiders came in from all directions, and the blood spider queen rushed towards the landing sun at a faster speed through the cobweb above her head.

Lu Yang pinpointed where he was going, and he couldn't help shaking. This was not fear, but excitement.

The Blood Spider Queen can reach him after 3 seconds, and the other Blood Spiders can reach him after 4 seconds. Now he is allowed to think for only 2 seconds.

The sacred wall is only 1 meter wide, and the entire wall is hundreds of meters long. Lu Yang must not have the slightest deviation. If he misses it, he will never cross the wall again and can only be killed by the spider queen.

And he is 35 meters away from the Queen of Spiders, that is to say, even if Lu Yang flashes, he has to run another 5 meters. If there are other blood spiders blocking the road, Lu Yang will die.

"1"

Lu Yang's mouth counted down. When he reached 2, the escape dagger was thrown in his hand, and the escape dagger in the blue light passed through the spider queen's body and landed precisely after 30 meters.

When Lu Yang counted to 1, the spider queen was less than 0.5 meters away from Lu Yang, and in less than 0.1 seconds, the spider queen could kick him to death.

The moment the Spider Queen was about to attack, Lu Yang flashed blue and appeared beside the escape dagger.

Two blood spiders were less than 2 meters away from the escape dagger and found that Lu Yang appeared and turned towards the landing sun.

Lu Yang heard the sound of wind behind his ears, and grabbed the escape dagger with his left hand to roll forward. When he made a circle, he jumped forward with his two pedals.

The tentacles of the two blood spiders hit the vacant at the same time. When the blood spider rushed towards the landing sun again, Lu Yang's back just leaned on the wall, watching the two blood spiders smile.

“flicker”

With a flash of white light, the scenery in front of Lu Yang changed, and he appeared in a broken garden in front of a huge and magnificent cathedral.

“Damn humans, if you dare to appear in front of me again, I must kill you.” The Blood Spider Queen screamed at Landing Yang at the top of the wall, but he did not dare to take a step here because this is the ancient * Territory of the Son.

Lu Yang put his finger on his mouth and made a kiss goodbye gesture, leaving a remnant flame, walking to the side of the cathedral with a smile.

System prompt: You found the Cathedral of Rain

It used to be a place of worship in the rich area, and it is here that the sons of the ancient gods killed the last resistance of Luoyu City.

According to the memory of the previous life, Hertos's magic robe and handguards are in the basement of this church. As long as you find the basement and read the spell on the treasure map, you can enter it and get two level 90 sub-legend equipment.

“Boom”

“Boom”

There was a violent vibration from the ground. In the distance, Estero, the son of the ancient god, 80 meters tall, was walking towards this side step by step.

Estero (Lord)

Level: 90

Qi and blood: 11000000/11000000

Beside Estero, followed by 12 boss monsters, each with a health of 5 million.

If you want to enter the basement silently and avoid Estero easily, the hardest thing to hide is the boss strange Douglas beside him.

“Master Estero, I smell fresh.” Douglas said.

Estero frowned, and said, “Huh? Go find him.”

Douglas made a right-hand move, and two black-purple lights appeared in the void. He was summoned by two level 90 elite * dogs.

“Go, look around.”

Two * dogs searched around, and finally locked their eyes together at Lu Yang behind the church.

Through the window, Lu Yang watched the two * dogs running towards him quickly, and looked at the cooling time of the skill, there were still 10 seconds.

He hurried to the corner of the wall. Three seconds later, two * dogs 2 meters tall ran across the corner and saw Lu Yang.

“Hello ~!”

The moment the two * dogs were about to launch an attack, Lu Yang uttered a spell.

“Yan Yang Suo”

Two crimson chains trap the * dog.

“Damn, I want to see who dared to invade my Estero’s territory.” The son of the ancient * saw the * dog trapped, and ran loudly towards the back of the church.

Lu Yang immediately ran to the side, and at the same time he watched the cooling time of space walking, with 5 seconds left.

“4”

“3”

When Lu Yang counted to 3, the son of the ancient * appeared in front of Lu Yang and smashed with a punch.

“Emerald Heart”

Lu Yang’s body turned into nothingness, and he escaped the punch with a slight difference.

“Miss”

At the same time, the rune cooldown on Lu Yang’s body is over.

“Spacewalk”

Before other boss's magic skills hit him, he plunged into the void and successfully avoided all skills.

"What about people? Strange, why are they missing?" Estero asked.

The 12 bosses shook their heads together.

"Look for me, he must be here," Estero growled.

The whistle of the hunter sounded, and after the two helldogs released control, they roared into the church and searched, and other bosses searched around the church.

Lu Yang entered the church and went to the underground ground floor. He breathed in the room on the far right. This is the entrance to the basement.

Hearing the sounds in the church, the search for * dogs was irregular, and Lu Yang could not be sure when they came here. At present, the sounds ran upstairs.

Lu Yang took the treasure map from his backpack, and read it out according to the spell above. A light flashed, and the slate on the ground automatically opened, revealing a stone step leading to the ground.

Lu Yang took out the crystal lamp and followed the stone steps into the basement.

The basement is small and the surrounding walls are yellow bluestone. There is a small table on the north side with a dress and a pair of gloves on it.

Lu Yang's two pieces of equipment emitting red light could not help but flickered to the table.

"Hello ~!"

The two * dogs did not know when they appeared at the doorway, glaring at their fangs and glaring at the landing sun.

Lu Yang threw out the escape dagger and appeared beside the two * dogs.

“Yan Yang Suo”

Two flame chains trapped the hellfire.

“Ahhh ~”

Two hellhounds chanted at the same time.

Lu Yang only felt that the vibration of the feet was getting more and more intense, and Estero and his 12 men quickly ran towards the church.

With such an earthquake feeling, Estero must be not far from here. If he uses the city roll or escapes, he will undoubtedly die.

However, Lu Yang had his own way of evasion. After waiting for 5 seconds, Lu Yang said a spell in his mouth.

“activation”

Lu Yang’s body turned into a crimson streamer and instantly flew under the wall outside the church ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ where there was the residual flame left by him.

After landing, Lu Yang took out his teleportation staff and recited the spell.

Estero and his 12 men had just arrived in front of the church at this time. Estero, standing 80 meters high, stood in front of the church as if a giant looked at a sand-made castle. Torn apart, the two * dogs were also killed by his fists.

“Where are you?” Estero frowned.

The 12 bosses are more than 10 meters in height. Looking at the church, none of them found the position of Lu Yang.

The hunter looked around and suddenly saw Lu Yang hiding on the side of the wall behind the church, shouting: “There!”

Estero was so angry that he punched him towards the landing sun.

Before the fist hit Lu Yang, Lu Yang’s shirt fluttered when the fist hit him. The moment the fist touched Lu Yang, Lu Yang’s blue light flashed and appeared in the red fortress.
