

Rebirth of Wild Fire - Chapter 8

Chapter 8 - Leapfrogging

Xia Yuwei nodded and said, "This man is indeed unusual. He has a strong sword-like momentum but gives a very calm feeling. He must be a master in the future. Right, did you tell me how to get the electric eel meat? . "

Blue Feather nodded.

"Great, let's go back to the city immediately, get rid of the people around us, gather under the big tree in the south of Xinshou Village and do the task together to see if the method given by this person is true." Xia Yuwei was afraid of other players. Hear, everyone sent a short message.

The crowd nodded and promised, but Zheng Yuan still said stubbornly: "I don't think he can tell us the real way. It doesn't make sense to go."

Everyone who was about to leave couldn't help but listen to Zheng Yuan's words. Several players who signed the contract looked awkwardly at Zheng Yuan and Xia Yuwei and didn't know who to listen to.

Xia Yuwei frowned and looked at Zheng Yuan in disappointment. "You can't go."

Seeing Xia Yuwei's anger, Zheng Yuan didn't dare to make trouble again, and quickly accompanied the smiley and said, "Go, I can't go yet."

Lu Yang returned to the town and disappeared into the crowd. From the north gate of Giant Town, he followed the crowd out of the city and walked all the way to the level 5 strange area. With the electric eel meat, Lu Yang finally had to kill 5 Level monster ability.

Of course, Lu Yang will not go silly to fight with level 5 monsters. In the setting of "Second World", each level of monsters will increase the attributes a lot. Normally, the level 0 player face There is no doubt that a level 3 monster must die, not to mention Lu Yang, a 0 level trumpet, to kill a level 5 monster.

However, Lu Yang has his own unique method. After running for more than an hour along the avenue of Xinshou Village, Lu Yang arrived at the Silent Plain. This is the junction area between the second-level monsters and the third-level monsters. So far, only a small number of players The team came here to fight.

Lu Yang found the shepherd Flake in a tent in the plains. At this time, Flake was annoyingly blaming himself.

"Why, why didn't I tie it up, oh my God, how can I live without him ..."

Lu Yang approached Flake and asked, "Sir, what's wrong with your frown?"

"My lovely mare was snatched by a wild horse on the prairie. Who can help me and get my mare back? That's my only mount." Flake said remorsefully.

Lu Yang said sadly, "Although I want to help you, I have no tools."

Flake hurriedly handed a long sling from the waist to Lu Yang and said, "Dear adventurer, please, be sure to help me. This is the rope for my sling."

"Relax, leave everything to me."

The system prompts: You accepted the shepherd's commission to look for his lost mare.

You get a shepherd's masso.

Looking at the sets of horses in Lu Yang's face, he showed an excited expression. The props given by this task were actually a bug. Lu Yang had seen an article on Raiders in his life, discussing various aspects of "Second World". Such a magical role of props, among them this set of masso.

There is a steep mountain at the junction of Level 2 and Level 3 monster areas. Normally, players can't climb up with their bare hands.

In the last life, a player followed the mare and came to the cliff. The mare did not cover it, but he put the rope on a protrusion on the cliff.

The player did not expect this situation to occur. When bored, he tried to climb up with a rope. The result was really on the top of the mountain. After arriving at the top of the mountain, he found that the other side of the mountain is actually a level 5 wild monster area, and it makes The player is surprised that standing on the top of the mountain and hitting the level 5 bison below does not count as an attack.

This made the player overjoyed and immediately used the bug to brush it up. Although this player entered the game 3 days later than others, but relying on this bug to quickly catch up with the players in the first echelon and rushed into the top ten of the ranking list.

Lu Yang trot along with the rope, carefully passed through the secondary monster area to the bottom of the cliff, threw the rope up and caught a protruding rock on the cliff, and immediately climbed up. After reaching the top of the mountain, Lu Yang Finding the intaglio terrain mentioned in the Raiders, looking at the fifth-level bison under the cliff, Lu Yang couldn't help getting excited.

The grumpy bison is the monster with the highest output in the physics department at this level and the most capable person. Generally, when there are no professional players such as warriors or knights to play with, no one will fight.

Bisons charge, and like to walk with three or five together. After encountering the enemy, three or five cows charge together. The mage occupation is directly stopped. The poor soldiers can't afford it, but now Lu Yang can use this. The bug is single here.

Of course, it will be much slower than the speed of attacking level 1 monsters, but there is an experience bonus for leapfrogging monsters. Lu Yang's level of killing level 5 monsters is definitely faster than the number of level 1 monsters from outside. Much faster.

Aiming at a strong bison, Lu Yang decisively rubbed fireball.

Fireball

Type: Fire Spell

Cost: 12 mana

Cast time: 3 seconds

Distance: 30 yards

Description: Fires a glowing fireball at the target, inflicting 14-22 Fire damage to the target.

A bit of intelligence in the game is equal to a point of magic damage. Since Lu Yang has 10 points of intelligence, the heart of the demon has added 10 points of intelligence, plus a 5 point intelligence bonus of crispy electric eel meat, which is 25 points when converted into magic damage. Therefore, the actual damage caused by fireball is 39-47 points.

Three seconds later, a fireball formed from Lu Yang's hands, hitting the nearest bison accurately, killing 42 health.

The buffalo who was grazing was suddenly attacked by fireball, hissing intensely in pain, turning his head fiercely, and staring at Lu Yang with blood-red eyes.

The surrounding bison was also awakened by the hissing, and their blood-red eyes stared in the direction of Lu Yang. Then, six or seven bisons launched an attack on Landing Yang at the same time.

If it is on flat ground, players with low psychological quality face such a collective charge of the bison, I'm afraid that even if they can't do defense or evasion, they will be hit by the bison, but Lu Yang is not worried.

With a bang, all six or seven bison hit the wall below the cliff and bounced back. The bison had a low IQ. When he saw the charge was not within Lu Yang, he could only rush back and forth under the cliff, but there was no way.

The level 5 bison's health is 580 points. Lu Yang released 15 fireballs in a row to kill the bison in the valley.

System: You killed the bison and gained 75 points of experience (among which 25 points are for killing monsters with a higher rank).

The experience of level 0 to level 1 is 5000 points ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Lu Yang calculated that there are 75 points to kill a bison, and it takes 45 seconds to kill an bison on average, that is to say, the recovery Time, about 2 hours, Lu Yang can rise to level 1, which is several times faster than normal players need more than 4 hours.

Especially when most players are helpless in the level 1 or level 2 monster area, Lu Yang can level up in the level 5 monster area without any damage, and it feels cool.

At the same time as Lu Yang's rapid upgrade, Lan Yu took Xia Yuwei and other members of the Frozen Studio to the Luhe Bridge.

Lan Yu said, "It's here."

Xia Yuwei said with a wave of her hand, "Come and see if there are any electric eels."

The crowd nodded, and immediately two players hired by the studio jumped to the bottom of the river and looked for it.

On the river bank, Zheng Yuan couldn't bear the temper of his brother again, and said jealously: "I don't think there can be any one at the bottom of the river. That person must have deceived us. You wait, I will meet him next time, I will Learn from him. "

Xia Yuwei, Lan Yu, and others ignored Zheng Yuan. As Zheng Yuan continued to chatter, a studio member raised his head from the bottom of the river, holding an electric eel in his hand and said excitedly, "I found it. There are electric eels at the bottom of the river. "

Zheng Yuan stood awkwardly in place.
