

Winner Takes All Chapter 1081-1090

Chapter 1081

Kill!”

The sound of shouting and killing rose to the sky.

In an instant, in Chen Dong’s sight, a cold light stirred the long sky, and a war sword was sheathed.

The majestic killing intent swept across the sky, even silencing the wind and snow overhead.

With Wang Yu’s command, the guards did not hesitate.

Without hesitation, the surrounding guards all drew their swords and charged straight at the closed city gate.

Rumble .....

The ground trembled and the horses neighing.

All of them wielded their swords with the determination to die and charged at the closed gates.

Chen Dong’s gaze was deep, and at this moment, his chest was clogged up.

The scene before him was undoubtedly that of a trapped beast fighting for its life!

But he knew that there was no way out but to fight like a trapped beast!

This was the Huns’ home turf, and with the time difference not being successful, this worst-case scenario before him was destined to happen.

As the guards drove their horses towards the city gates.

Chen Dong’s crotched horse went along with them.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh .....

A dense, piercing whistling sound suddenly rang out from the sky above.

Chen Dong leaned his head up, and saw a rain of arrows pouring down from the sky.

“Young Master, catch the sword!”

Wang Yu's stern shout suddenly exploded in his ears.

Chen Dong jerked awake, his right hand lifted straight up and grasped the battle sword that Wang Yu had thrown across the air.

At the same time.

After Wang Yu threw the sword to Chen Dong, he directly pulled off his black robe and used it as a blade, raising it above his head and waving it around, blocking the rain of arrows above his head with a brutal gesture.

Clang clang clang .....

The surrounding secret guards also wielded their swords, blocking the rain of arrows that poured down on them.

They are all former mercenary battlefield leaders, and their overall abilities far exceed those of ordinary people.

The rain of arrows that poured down from the sky seemed to be so powerful, but in reality, it did not have the slightest effect on them.

While Chen Dong waved his battle sword and blocked all the arrows above his head, his left hand directly wrapped around Barbara, who was trembling in his arms.

Even though he had tied Barbara tightly to his body with his belt, he was still a bit uneasy.

While blocking the rain of arrows, Chen Dong and his secret guards rushed towards the city gate.

However.

Bang!

On the towering and lofty city walls, a gunshot echoed through heaven and earth.

Chen Dong's expression suddenly changed drastically and his sweat trembled.

Almost simultaneously.

He then felt the whistling sound of a bullet sweeping through the air, brushing against his side and disappearing directly behind him.

BOOM!

A sound of a bullet piercing through came out of nowhere.

Chen Dong almost instinctively looked back, but saw a dark guard behind him sitting pensively on top of his horse, but at this moment, the dark guard's face was rapidly pale, and his eyes full of killing intent were rapidly darkening.

And on the dark guard's forehead, a walnut-sized hole was incomparably oozing, and fresh blood with yellow-white brain pulp was flowing out from his brain, quickly staining the dark guard's pale face red.

This scene.

Looking at it, Chen Dong's eyes fluttered and his scalp exploded.

He knew clearly that this bullet, just now, was aimed at him!

It was only because of the driving horse charge that allowed him to run past the bullet, and also allowed this dark guard behind him to catch it!

Bang Bang Bang .....

Almost simultaneously, the towering and lofty walls of the city were filled with the sound of intense gunfire.

There was even machine gun fire, which poured down like a fierce wind and rain.

“Charge!”

Wang Yu bellowed, “Charge under the city gates to stay alive!”

To rush towards the closed gates of the city in order to survive might seem absurd and ridiculous.

But at this moment, the only way to escape the cannon fire from the city walls was to be in front of the gates and underneath the holes in the gates.

The sky was full of bullets, pouring down.

At this moment, everyone, including Chen Dong, pressed their bodies as close as possible to the backs of their horses to reduce their area as much as possible, so as to reduce the risk of being hit by bullets.

When faced with the rain of arrows, the dark guards, as usual, all wielded their swords to block.

But when faced with the rain of bullets pouring down, none of them ever thought of taking a domineering stance and blocking the bullets.

Such a sleight of hand is not something everyone can possess!

The difference between a cold weapon and a hot weapon, there it is!

The first thought, surely, is to dodge as much as possible, rather than meet it with bravery.

As the warhorse galloped on, Chen Dong's expression was cold and stern, his eyes narrowed to slits and a cold aura shot out.

The rain of bullets whistled past him, and some of them even grazed his skin and hit the ground.

He knew it well.

He knew clearly that the firing of the bow and arrows earlier was in fact a cover for the hail of bullets at this moment.

After the guards had blocked a round of arrows, their defences were lowered, and then they were quickly reaped with hot weapons at no interval.

This was not a bad idea.

But it did have a huge effect at the moment.

A miserable scream echoed in the ears in an endless stream.

From time to time, Chen Dong glanced out of the corner of his eye and saw some of the hidden guards being shot and falling straight off their war horses, their lives uncertain.

Such a scene was a complete one-sided massacre.

It was just like the autumn wind sweeping away the wheat saplings, without the slightest ability to resist.

Even Wang Yu and Zhang Chao, who were at this moment, ran wildly on their horses, frantically rushing towards the city gates.

Chen Dong was on his horse, lying as low as possible, but also holding Barbara in his arms tightly, he could be shot, but not Barbara!

In sight.

The city gates were getting closer and closer.

But the gunfire that whistled overhead, answering the night sky, also grew more and more intense.

The sweeping fire of the machine guns was at the moment a machine for reaping heads.

Dense fire, horrific killing power.

It was like a big hand that was brutally and quickly pushing the situation to the point of death!

“Charge, hurry up, hurry up!”

Wang Yu’s eyes were twitching with blue veins at the corners of his eyes.

This was the situation he had initially feared.

Losing the advantage of time difference and not being able to escape from the Hun kingdom at breakneck speed, what he was facing was a world of difference in combat power!

Not to mention the fact that we are still only in the King’s Castle!

Outside, there was still a chain of twelve star cities forming a blockade!

The time spent here would be enough for the twelve Star Cities to organise their most elite and powerful armies and wait for them!

Whoosh!

Suddenly, Wang Yu’s ears twitched as an extremely clear and ear-piercing whistling sound was coming towards him at great speed.

The moment the sound rang out.

Wang Yu’s expression suddenly froze and his face quickly turned white.

Even his eyes froze for a moment.

It was over!

In a flash of lightning, Wang Yu was desperate to the extreme.

Facing the bullet, even he was only qualified to fall into the Yellow Springs!

And yet.

Whoosh!

In the nick of time, a cold light suddenly appeared from a diagonal.

With a terrifying whistling sound, it was like lightning and swept directly towards Wang Yu's face.

In an instant, the cold light bursting out from the face of the combat knife pierced Wang Yu's eyes.

Clang!

Just as the combat knife straddled in front of Wang Yu, the bullet struck the surface of the combat knife.

Sparks erupted.

But the bullet was directly blocked by the rigid force of the combat knife and flew away.

Wang Yu's eyes widened, and a slight bulge could be seen on the face of the blade that was stretched across his vision.

But at this moment, a frightening chill ran from the bottom of his feet to the sky.

He had just prepared himself for death, but the sword in front of him was like a stroke of God, dragging him back from the Yellow Springs to earth in an instant.

As the warhorse galloped wildly, Wang Yu's gaze slanted askance when Chen Dong's cold face appeared in Wang Yu's line of sight.

Wang Yu's heart contracted fiercely.

"Young master ....."

Chen Dong retracted his battle sword, facing Wang Yu's frightened and awe-inspiring gaze, but his expression was cold and unchanged as he coldly said, "If you take me home, I will also take you home, charge!"

Chapter 1082

Chen Dong's cold words, however, burst into a prairie fire in Wang Yu's body at this moment.

Wang Yu was in a trance for a moment.

It even felt like his blood was gradually boiling up.

Go home!

Take the young master home!

Young Lord take us home too!

“Charge!”

At this moment, Wang Yu's eyes swooshed red and his features were fierce as he brazenly took the long sword from Chen Dong's hand, waved it, and charged into the city gate hole with fearlessness.

A round of strafing.

The dark guards broke quite a few.

But for a short distance, with fast horses, the dark guards also rushed quickly into the city gate hole.

The angle and line of sight were lost.

The lofty walls, thick with long guns, were also rendered useless.

“Give me smash, smash!”

As soon as Wang Yu entered the city gate hole, he directly dismounted from his horse, waving his battle sword in his hand and ruthlessly slashing at the city gate in front of him, “Go home, everyone ..... go home!”

Knock knock knock .....

The war knife landed on the lofty and thick city gate, merely causing an extremely shallow trace, and even a cluster of sparks would shoot up the moment the war knife landed on the city gate.

Meanwhile.

Zhang Chao and a group of other secret guards also jumped off their war horses and clustered towards the city gates.

Together with Wang Yu, they wielded their swords and slashed at the gates with great effort.

Only, the result was the same as Wang Yu's!

The sturdy and heavy city gates were now like the towering walls of the city in front of the swords.

The assassins were unable to shake the gate even though they were slashing hard!

This scene made the hope in everyone's heart quickly extinguished.

A group of elite dark guards were in a state of complete despair at this moment.

They were clearly a group of elites, but at this moment, when they faced the lofty city gate, they were as small as ants.

Knock knock .....

The guards didn't stop slashing, because everyone knew that if they didn't break through the deadly gate in front of them, everyone would stay here and be wiped out!

But as they hacked, the looks on the faces of the guards changed rapidly.

There was panic, there was resignation, and there was also anger and hideousness .....

Chen Dong looked at all this in front of him in silence, holding his horse with one hand and cradling Barbara in his arms with the other, his gaze profound.

The faces of the dark guards fell into his eyes one after another, and the different expressions on each face were clearly captured by him.

Life and death, in this moment, it was as if a red-hot dagger was aimed at his heart, as each face entered his sight, then slowly, little by little, stabbed into his heart, piercing it whole.

"Back off, all of you!"

Suddenly.

Wang Yu let out an explosive shout.

The dark guards who were struggling to slash at the city gates backed up as Wang Yu bellowed.

In full view of everyone.

Wang Yu pulled out his waist pistol and pointed it at one of the city gates, quickly pulling the trigger.

Bang Bang Bang .....

The bullets shot out of the chamber one after another, hitting the city gate and quickly embedding a deep hole.

Compared to a sword slash, such a level of destruction was simply horrifying!

In the blink of an eye, Wang Yu finished all the pistol bullets.

Looking at the holes shot by the bullets in front of him, Wang Yu's face was drenched in sweat, and the veins in the corners of his eyes were beating wildly.

"Damn it!"

Wang Yu angrily threw his pistol on the ground.

"Chief, let's all come together!"

Zhang Chao let out a shout, then he and the secret guards all pulled out their pistols and fired a burst of shots at the city gate.

However, even if all of them were shooting in unison, they were not shooting randomly and indiscriminately, but rather following the point where Wang Yu had shot before, and concentrating their fire in a large area.

It would be a fool's errand to try to break through this mountainous gate with a pistol!

The secret guards were all former leaders in the mercenary battlefield, and they knew this better than anyone else.

If they couldn't blast open the gates, then they could only use all their strength to blast an escape route above these gates!

"Uncle ....."

Faced with this scene, Barbara in her arms poked her head out and looked at Chen Dong blankly, "Can we ..... really go to that starry sky that belongs to uncle?"

Chen Dong, who was lost and dazed, suddenly had a brilliant aura burst out of his eyes.

Just now, facing the scene of the dark guards being as small as ants, he had inexplicably fallen into a loss of concentration.

Now, with Barbara's words, he woke up with a start.

He looked back at the street behind him, lit up like daylight by lamps, and it was empty.

Even the city walls above his head were silent.

This scene was so strange and weird.

But Chen Dong no longer cared why the Xiongnu army had stopped attacking, he quickly pushed his way into the crowd.

And at that moment.

The dense gunfire had stopped.

In front of the city gate cavern, facing the lofty and thick city gate, all the dark guards were plunged into silence.

There was an intense firestorm.

The city gate was only a patchy area, but there was no way to break through the gate!

The faces of the secret guards all looked desperate.

They were indeed not afraid of death and were willing to die to save Chen Dong.

However, the scene before them was one of powerlessness and despair.

“Are there no explosives?”

Chen Dong asked calmly.

Even though the look on the faces of the dark guards had now pushed the situation to the point of precariousness and panic.

But on Chen Dong’s cold face, there was still no hint of panic.

For he knew clearly that only with absolute calmness could he survive!

“No!”

Wang Yu shook his head in dismay, “In order to enter the city disguised as a caravan, we had removed our heavy armour and explosives in advance, and the only things we could bring into the Hun city were our war swords and pistols.”

Troops have the look of troops.

A caravan has the look of a caravan.

A caravan, walking through the snowy plains in crisis, does need protection, but a combat knife and a pistol, is enough.

Had they infiltrated the Huns' city in the first place, it would have been impossible to get through the security checks at the gates without unloading their heavy armour and explosives.

But for the troops, removing the heavy armour and explosives was undoubtedly pulling the claws and teeth off the tiger!

Faced with the looming but heavy city gates in front of them, even the most elite troops would have to look up to the sky and fall into despair.

“Or else, let's protrude from the city walls?”

Zhang Chao suddenly suggested.

“Reckless man!”

Wang Yu gave Zhang Chao a sidelong glance.

The words had just fallen.

A suspicious voice suddenly rang out from the crowd, “Strange, why hasn't the Xiongnu army moved for a while?”

At those words, the crowd was stunned.

They, too, had noticed the difference that Chen Dong had detected just now.

After the bodies of their companions lying on the ground, the dark and quiet streets of the Xiongnu were behind their eyes.

The time they had just spent blasting the gates had been enough time for the troops on the walls or inside the city to come around and kill them.

Instead, until now, as far as the eye could see, there was still no one there!

The crowd was in awe.

The Huns' palace, in the king's hall.

“No hot weapons! Damn it, is the noise not loud enough to attract attention?”

The King of the Huns was like a lion in his twilight years, his energy was not intact, but at the moment he was extremely angry: “Tell them not to use hot weapons as a last resort, use cold weapons, use the army, cut all those bastards to pieces, don't make a big fuss, let the people of the thirteen cities all watch!"

Bang!

The Hun King viciously slammed the phone on the table, his chest heaving violently.

The intense gunfire that had just come from the south city gate was so intense that he could hear it clearly even when he was situated in the royal palace.

So he immediately ordered that hot weapons be banned!

It was true that hot weapons were deadly, but at a time when the life and death of the Huns and his clan was at stake, one had to think in terms of noise!

Too much noise would inevitably attract more attention.

The troops sent out for curfew would be pointless!

As long as he could achieve his goal, he would not hesitate to use cold weapons, even if it would cost more lives!

As for Xixing, at this moment still lost in thought, sitting paralyzed on the ground, the top line of her stunning face, bloodless, forlorn and forlorn, tears quietly flowing .....

Winner Takes All Chapter 1083-1084

Chapter 1083

Because the Hun King had ordered it.

This led to a strange "dumbing down" of the defending army on the city walls, after a round of attacks, when the Chen Dong guards entered the cave.

In front of the city gates.

Chen Dong and Wang Yu did not know what had happened in the meantime.

At this moment, as they gazed at the deep, dark streets, they could not help but feel a sense of trepidation as their sweat hairs stood on end.

The strange changes were so elusive.

But as Chen Dong's voice rang out, the dao's gaze all focused on Chen Dong.

"I need a weapon!"

Chen Dong slowly spoke, while unbuckling his belt and slowly lowering Barbara back to the ground, holding Barbara in one hand, but his gaze was fixed on Wang Yu.

Wang Yu, Zhang Chao and the others gazed at Chen Dong.

Following closely, Wang Yu glanced down at the long knife in his hand and did not wait to make a move.

Chen Dong then shook his head, "Not this unusual battle sword, I need a heavier weapon, it can be a sword, it can be a gun, but the only thing I want, is that it is heavy enough!"

"Young master, what are your plans?"

Wang Yu looked at Chen Dong in dismay and confusion.

Chen Dong turned around and gazed soberly at the lofty and heavy city gate in front of him, "Perhaps, I can blast open this gate!"

As he said these words, Chen Dong's deep gaze fluttered and flickered for a few moments.

Even he himself, at this moment, did not know why he had such a firm thought.

But he was not used to waiting for death, nor was he willing to fight like a trapped beast!

With his strength, it was worth a try!

Even if he couldn't blast open the gates with his normal strength, what about ..... the state of being alone without a king?

Without the augmentation of hot weapons, all that could be desired was a heavier cold weapon!

As soon as Chen Dong's words were spoken.

Wang Yu and a host of other dark guards have revealed a look of surprise.

What?!

The young master wanted to blow open the city gate by himself?

What he was asking for was just a heavier cold weapon?

In a flash, dao's shocked and horrified eyes swept back and forth over Chen Dong and the city gate.

The marks from their slashes were still on the gate, and even the honeycomb marks from the pistol fire were still there.

Only, the combined strength of all of them could not shake the city gate a bit.

The young master alone ..... could really blast it open?

“Uncle, can you really open this city gate?”

Rao Barbara, at this moment, also raised her head and looked at Chen Dong with astonishment and uncertainty.

Although she had been lying in Chen Dong’s arms just now, she had also seen the desperate image of a group of people attacking the city gate without success yet.

Uncle was only one person, could he really do it?

“Uncle is not sure.”

Chen Dong shook his head, but his eyes were bursting with essence, with a vague flame churning, “But uncle knows the saying, my fate is mine, not heaven’s!”

Boom!

The sound was like a thunderstorm, booming on the bodies of every dark guard.

In an instant.

The eyes of the dark guards became firm.

The dark guards, who had originally looked different, now became firm and stern.

Yes!

They were all a group of people who had died once in the mercenary battlefield, so why should their hearts surge and wail in despair when faced with such circumstances?

My life is mine, not mine!

It was once so in the mercenary battlefield, so why should it change now?

“Good!”

Wang Yu’s tongue thundered: “Don’t worry, young master, this heavy weapon, Wang Yu will personally present it to the young master!”

A group of secret guards didn't have one, but that didn't mean there wasn't one in the Xiongnu army!

The Hun army had strangely failed to attack, but that did not mean the situation would remain strangely stagnant.

The situation had come to a head, and the only way to fight was to die!

And it was at this point.

Rumble .....|

A roar finally rang out from the deep, quiet streets in the distance.

The mountain roared, shattering the silence around them in an instant.

As the roar appeared, the ground trembled violently.

Chen Dong and Wang Yu, among others, raised their eyes to look.

At this moment.

Whether it was Chen Dong, or Wang Yu and the rest of the secret guards, their expressions were all stern and cold.

There was no more of the previously panicked situation where each person's face looked different.

Wang Yu slowly wiped his battle sword on his robe, "Young master, the weapons deliverer is here!"

"Good!"

Chen Dong calmly responded.

At the same time.

A distant booming sound rolled like explosive thunder, becoming clearer and clearer.

The sound moved heaven and earth.

But when the Hun army was exposed to the light, it became completely clear.

The stern and indifferent dark guards froze at the same time!

There were no troops with hot weapons as expected, no chariots and tanks.

Not even a single hot-weapon lance could be seen at a glance!

As far as the eye could see, there was only a huge crowd of people and a mighty war horse!

The strong lights illuminated the area like daylight.

The cold weapons were reflected in the light with an ominous chill.

“Strange, are the Huns fools? Trying to fight us in close quarters?”

Zhang Chao gave an offhanded, startled eek.

This one sentence could represent the hearts of almost all the dark guards.

Now that they were trapped in the cave of this southern city gate, the Xiongnu could wipe out their entire army as fast as they wished.

The easiest way would have been a tank with a cannonball or a few bombs thrown into the cavern, and after the boom, everyone would be dead.

Instead, the Huns chose the “primitive” and most inefficient way!

“They gave us a chance, don’t we treasure it?”

Wang Yu dropped his words coldly, but with his battle sword in hand, he quickly swept out of the crowd: “Young master, wait, the weapons will be delivered later!”

As Wang Yu walked towards the outside of the city cave.

The group of dark guards, with their majestic killing intent, followed closely behind.

A war sword, in the hands of the dark guards, reflected the cold light of death.

If it was a hot weapon massacre, they could only sit and wait for death!

But, close combat, this was a strength for every Dark Guard!

If they had the chance to die, why not fight to the death?

As each of the guards stepped forward, their footsteps were determined and their figures stretched out in the light.

Chen Dong slowly crouched down and faced Barbara: “Barbara, Uncle may have to rush out too, so stay where you are.”

“I’m with uncle.”

Barbara shook her head, a little stubborn.

Having personally experienced the destruction of his village and the tragic death of his parents, Barbara knew exactly what was going to happen next.

“Do as you are told!”

Chen Dong’s expression sank as he said, “Remember uncle’s words, once uncle and these uncles, are dead, when you face Auntie Xixing, you must remember to say that you were coerced into leaving by uncle, you cannot say that you willingly went with uncle!”

In a situation of absolute death, he had to consider all the possibilities.

Even if he and his guards all died on the spot, he would not allow little Barbara to go with them.

Facing Chen Dong, Barbara’s eyes misted up and tears flowed quickly, not responding to Chen Dong.

And at that moment.

“Kill!”

Wang Yu had just reached the entrance of the city gate with a group of dark guards.

In the distance, the vast, endless Xiongnu army, with a shout of killing, rushed directly towards this side like an avalanche on a great snow plain, with a mountainous cry.

The scene was silent.

As the troops charged, it went straight to white heat in an instant!

Chapter 1084

Secret guards, charge!”

With a shout from Wang Yu.

A crowd of dark guards, led by Wang Yu, charged bravely and without fear of death into the vast, endless Xiongnu army.

The disparity in this scene was so huge that it could be discerned at a glance.

It was a scene that could not be described as less than tragic!

But all the guards did not hesitate, wielding their swords and riding their horses, fearlessly charging forward!

It was like a torrent swallowing a stream.

In a flash, the two sides came together!

It was a fierce battle!

The disparity in numbers, with no terrain advantage, meant that every member of the Dark Guards had to face all the enemies on all sides at every instant!

But the elite strength of the Secret Guards was also on full display at this moment.

Whether it was Wang Yu, Zhang Chao, or any of the other Dark Guards, wielding their battle swords, they were bursting out with an incomparably terrifying fighting ability in the Xiongnu army.

They were charging left and right, and their swords were reaping the rewards.

The bloodshed was incomparable.

Chen Dong, with Barbarian in tow, stood at the entrance of the cave and watched the scene.

Barbara had already been scared to death and did not dare to look any further, burying her head in Chen Dong's lap.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, was constantly watching the Dark Guard members in every corner of the battlefield.

The difference in numbers was huge.

However, each and every Dark Guard was exploding with terrifying combat power at this moment.

Not only did they simply charge and kill, reaping the heads of the Xiongnu soldiers.

It was even that with their few numbers, it was as if they had formed a net that could be pulled, dragging all the Xiongnu soldiers into place, like they were stuck in a quagmire, unable to have anyone charge towards him and Barbara.

This was the most terrifying part!

Even Chen Dong was secretly smacking his lips as he watched.

Even Chen Dong could not help but smirk as he watched, for this did not only require the extreme fighting ability of each of the guards, but also the terrifying coordination and tacit understanding that they had trained over the years to achieve!

The sound of shouting and killing was so loud that it split the sky.

On the battlefield, the Hun army, like a torrent, engulfed the guards.

Each of the guards was systematically divided up to form a small, separate encirclement.

Such a tactic was enough to drag each of the hidden guards to death even if they were dragging!

Chen Dong saw with his own eyes that a hidden guard had cut off the head of a Hun soldier with a single slash, and the head flew high into the air with a gush of blood.

Chen Dong also saw that there were dark guards who continued to fight in blood after being slashed in the back by a Xiongnu soldier.

This scene could not be described as tragic.

It could not be described as not tragic.

Even Chen Dong's heart cut like a knife as he watched.

In a trance, he even wondered if he had been wrong in refusing Wang Yu's request three days ago.

Only when he felt the trembling of that small hand in his hand, Chen Dong recovered from his trance and once again turned his gaze to the middle of the battlefield.

Because both sides were intertwined with each other, so much so that even the bows and arrows and gunfire above the city walls were rendered useless.

This was a naked sea of people killing each other!

It was only a matter of time before the Dark Guards were wiped out!

If they could not break open the city gates behind them as soon as possible, no one would survive.

Chen Dong's gaze tightened as he locked onto Wang Yu in the middle of the battlefield.

As the leader of the Dark Guards, Wang Yu was not only smart, but his strength was also definitely the best among the Dark Guards.

At this moment, Chen Dong clearly saw that Wang Yu was the deepest in the Xiong Nu army among all the hidden guards!

He was riding on his war horse, his sword swinging bravely in his hand, fending off attacks from all sides while reaping the lives of Xiong Nu people as if he was the god of death.

It was clear to Chen Dong that Wang Yu's move was to help him find a weapon!

Only at this moment, Wang Yu was stuck in place by countless Xiong Nu soldiers, dead in their tracks.

"Where the hell are the weapons ....."?

Chen Dong murmured softly, his eyes flickering sharply as he quickly searched through the chaotic battlefield.

He needed a heavy weapon, only a weapon heavy enough to rely on the destructive force created by gravity would have a chance to break through the lofty and thick city gate.

But as far as the naked eye could see, there were only ordinary blades.

Swords, spears and halberds, just ordinary!

"Hm?!"

Suddenly, Chen Dong let out a startled cry, his eyes suddenly shining brightly, but locked onto the rear of the battlefield, that is, the rear of the Xiongnu army, stood a ..... crossbow cannon!

In the cold weapon era, it was the king of the battlefield, the most terrifying reaper of human lives!

The enormous size and huge crossbow arrows gave this fierce weapon an unparalleled and terrifying killing power!

At this moment, however, Chen Dong's gaze was locked on the thick arrows on top of the crossbow, which were thicker than his wrist!

The long and thick crossbow arrows could be used as a lance.

But it was definitely heavier than an ordinary lance!

“If we can rush through, even if we can’t get the crossbow arrows, we can still easily break through the certain death gate behind us by unleashing the crossbow cannon to blast the city gates!”

With a decision in his mind, Chen Dong quickly pulled Barbara and walked to the corner of the cave wall, “Barbara, stay here and wait for uncle to return!”

After saying that, Chen Dong turned around decisively and directly stepped onto the war horse.

“Uncle .....

Ah Man’s eyes were filled with tears, and he looked at Chen Dong with fear and reluctance.

Chen Dong turned his head and smiled, “Uncle will definitely come back!”

The moment the words left his mouth.

Chen Dong’s smile suddenly disappeared and was replaced by indescribable determination and resolve.

As his legs clamped down on the horse’s belly, the warhorse stood up with a fierce cry.

The moment the front hooves hit the ground, the warhorse charged straight towards the chaotic and tragic battlefield.

“Coming out, he’s coming out, kill him for me!”

At the rear of the army, a Xiongnu general, his spirits now lifted, hissed and roared.

“Young master!”

Noticing the movement of the Xiongnu soldiers, one of the dark guards also noticed Cheng Dong, who was charging towards the battlefield alone on horseback.

This moment.

Both the secret guards and the Xiongnu soldiers were focused on Chen Dong.

One man and one horse, tearing through the wind and snow, came in a determined and fearless manner.

As he approached the battlefield, Chen Dong leaned down and swept across, holding a battle sword stuck in the body of a corpse in his hand.

The next second.

With a neigh from the warhorse.

It charged straight into the Xiongnu soldiers.

Poof!

A Xiongnu soldier's head flew straight up into the high air, blood like a fountain.

But Chen Dong, however, did not pause for a moment, galloping wildly, wielding his war sword all the way, not at all attached to the battle, driving straight through the Xiongnu soldiers, destroying them.

Only those who stood in his way were worthy of being reaped with his sword.

The rest of the Xiongnu soldiers were not in Chen Dong's sight.

The scene was as swift as thunder.

In just a few seconds, by the time the Xiongnu soldiers regained their senses, Chen Dong had already rushed more than twenty metres into the battlefield.

"Surround him, surround him!"

"Heavenly Wolf is on top, madman, simply madman!"

"Damn, worthy of being the general of the triple crown glory, so fierce, so brave!"

.....

The scene of Chen Dong rushing into the battlefield just now caused all the Hun soldiers who had regained their senses at this moment to be frightened and scared.

However, as the crowd reacted, the tide of Xiongnu soldiers surged towards Chen Dong at the same time.

This caused the speed of Chen Dong's charge to drop dramatically!

At the same time.

In the Xiongnu King's Palace.

Kui Gang's face was sullen, no longer smiling in triumph as before.

Although he was not the number one warrior of the Xiongnu anymore, it was easy for him to inquire about the situation over at the South Gate.

It was only the situation over at the South Gate at this moment that made Kui Gang unable to smile.

“Damn it, can’t they run faster? Couldn’t we have broken out earlier? Why do we have to wait until we are surrounded and killed, do we all want to die?”

While cursing angrily in his heart, Kui Gang turned around and quickly walked towards the beast fighting cage.

Winner Takes All Chapter 1085-1086

Chapter 1085

The wind and snow cover the city.

Compared to the southern gate of the kingdom, the palace was relatively quiet and calm, despite the rush of people.

Kui Gang was in a hurry, like a ghost, taking advantage of the night and the wind and snow to wander quietly through the shadowy corners of the palace, dodging surveillance and heading quickly for the beast cage.

He wanted Chen Dong to leave, the only outcome he wanted most was to leave!

It was also the outcome that would maximise his interests.

It was just that the situation over at the South City Gate really made him uneasy.

Without exposing himself, he was even willing to open the door wide for Chen Dong and that mercenary, or to be precise, for that mercenary team to retreat peacefully.

For example .....

The beast in the fighting cage!

And that, the ..... snowy lion that returned his heart to Chen Dong’s beast king!

The more chaotic the situation, the more difficult it is to control.

At the moment, in the information that Kui Gang had learned, Chen Dong was taken hostage by the mercenaries and was to be brought back to the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army to be executed by military justice, a deal he had made to cooperate with the mercenary team.

But ..... Kui Gang only wanted the end result.

To reclaim his former glory and status at any cost.

By any means necessary, even ignoring the deal, it was enough that he ended up with a mouth full of grease anyway, dead poor.

As long as Chen Dong and the mercenary team were allowed to escape without incident, it did not matter whether it was Chen Dong who died or the mercenary team after leaving.

Even if it ended up in the wilderness and Chen Dong killed all the mercenaries, with his injuries, it would be as hard as hell to get back to the Thirteen Cities of the Huns in the middle of the extreme night, and the chances of dying would be even greater.

Letting that team of waste mercenaries, take Chen Dong out of the Thirteen Hungarian Cities, was the way to go!

Finally.

Kui Gang avoided all the surveillance, avoided all the crowds, as if he was a ghost, and silently arrived outside the fighting cage.

Because of the special nature of the cage, it was rarely opened at ordinary times.

Only some of the beast slaves are in the cage all year round, taking care of the beasts.

Therefore, the surveillance and protection of this place is also the weakest.

For example, Kui Gang could stand in front of the cage without worrying about being detected by the surveillance or seen by people passing by.

Knock, knock.

There was a knock on the door.

Soon a window opened in the door: "A withered, lifeless face appeared on the window."
,

"I am Kui Gang, I want to come in!"

Kui Gang spoke calmly, even looking at the withered face before him without the slightest pity.

In the Huns, and even in the Hundred Tribes, for slaves, it was never different from animals, or even more humble than animals.

As he spoke.

Kui Gang's right hand quietly fished out a cold dagger from his waist.

Facing Kui Gang, the beast slave nodded, without the slightest intention to ask, and then opened the door of the beast fighting cage.

Only a crack was opened.

The look on Kui Gang's face was as vicious as an evil spirit that had emerged from hell, and he pounced directly on the beast slave inside the cage.

Poof!

The beast slave did not even have time to scream before he fell into a pool of blood.

Kui Gang turned around quickly and closed the door, which had only been opened by a human slit, once again.

The beast's cage was a reaping of death, like a reaping of death.

.....

The south gate of the royal city.

The battle was so tragic.

It was like the Nine Phenomenal Purgatory.

The sound of wailing, screaming, shouting and killing is like a tidal wave that rises to the sky.

Even without the loud noise of the hot weapons, it was not enough to scare the whole kingdom, but it was enough to scare all the Huns near the southern gate.

But under the King's orders, all the frightened and terrified people were kept under "curfew" by the army and could not be investigated.

At this point, if one could look down on the city from above.

You could see clearly that the streets of the city were lined with armour and soldiers, and that even the stragglers were in clusters in certain places.

And in one street, an army could be seen, as if a hundred rivers were returning to the sea, heading towards the southern gate of the kingdom.

It was hard to imagine.

That one man, a small army, could draw so many troops from the Huns at the same time!

And at the South Gate, looking down, it was like looking down on hell.

The smell of blood, with the killing, was filling the battlefield fast.

Although the secret guards were all elite in the battlefield, they were unable to maintain the terrifying state of fighting with one against a hundred, given the huge disparity in numbers.

After a short period of stalemate and tug-of-war.

One by one, the guards were cut down in the midst of the chaos.

But as fierce as the dark guards were, even if they died, before they died they would definitely take a Hun soldier with them in their own way, if not more than one!

Boom!

On the battlefield, there was a loud bang.

A small mushroom cloud shot up into the sky.

This explosion cleared the battlefield directly.

As Chen Dong swung his sword and charged wildly, his heart suddenly clenched when he heard the explosion.

It was clear to him that a secret guard must have died and detonated the bomb carried by the Hun soldiers.

The concealed guards were disguised as caravans in order to enter the thirteen Hun cities and were unable to carry heavy weapons and explosives.

But among these Xiongnu soldiers, there were mountains of people, and there were always three or two of them who were carrying bombs, after all, the incident happened suddenly, and some soldiers might not really be all armed with cold weapons.

To Chen Dong, such a scene did not surprise him.

Because just a few seconds ago, he had witnessed a concealed guard bite a Hun soldier to death as if he was a ferocious beast before he died, and then that concealed guard was then hacked to death by countless Hun soldiers.

“Hurry up, hurry up, the sooner we break the city, the fewer people will die!”

Chen Dong looked stern, his body exuding a monstrous killing intent: “They want to take me home, I want to take them home too!”

With his conviction, Chen Dong’s battle sword in his hand swung down like a fierce wind and rain, and a fountain of human blood rose high into the sky as screams of misery were heard all around.

It had only been a short time since the charge, but Chen Dong was already drenched in blood.

Countless Xiongnu soldiers came towards Chen Dong to kill him, but in the face of Chen Dong’s overwhelming combat power, they continued to push a little closer to the crossbow.

“Kill them, kill them for me, cut them to pieces!”

At the back of the battlefield, the Xiongnu general straddled his horse in a mighty manner and roared sternly, “Kill them all, cut them down to pieces!”

A roar echoed across the battlefield.

Chen Dong, who was advancing slowly and firmly amidst the tide of people, was now distracted by the sound.

“Roar!”

Suddenly, Chen Dong raised his voice to the sky and let out a long roar, a monstrous killing intent that swept across the field, causing the surrounding Xiongnu soldiers’ faces to change and their movements to stutter at the same time.

“Noisy!”

As Chen Dong’s tilted head snapped down, his pair of cold, haunted eyes instantly locked onto the Xiong Nu generals at the back of the battlefield.

Immediately afterwards, his right hand brazenly threw the battle sword in his hand.

Whoosh!

The sword tore through the air, swift as lightning, and broke through the air.

The Xiongnu general who was hissing and roaring suddenly had his sweat stand on end.

His pupils suddenly constricted as he saw a war sword coming from the air at great speed.

“Ah!”

In his panic, the Hun general’s mind went blank and he only managed to let out a shriek.

Poof!

The cold battle knife, breaking through the air, slashed, directly piercing through the neck of the Xiongnu general.

Blood splattered.

Immediately afterwards.

Terrified screams rang out.

“The Lord General, the Lord General has been beheaded, the Lord General has been beheaded!”

Boom!

This scream, so terrified that it scared the hell out of them, instantly swept across the entire battlefield like a rolling thunder.

The Xiongnu soldiers, who had been fighting bravely, were all in a state of panic at this moment.

Chapter 1086

On the battlefield, the decapitation of the main general is absolutely shocking and bad news.

This is especially true for troops fighting with cold weapons!

The main general ..... is like the lynch pin of the whole army!

The beheading of a general in front of a battle, whether ancient or modern, can play a vital role in a battle!

With the main general fallen.

The Xiongnu soldiers, who had been in a frenzy of killing intent, were in a state of panic.

Having lost their backbone, the Xiongnu soldiers, even though they had an absolute advantage in numbers, became weak in their attack with this panic.

This made Wang Yu and the rest of the secret guards feel much less stressed.

“Young master!”

Wang Yu, his face stained with blood, raised his hand to wipe a handful of blood from his face, but his eyes burned as he locked onto Chen Dong’s location and let out a loud roar, “Mighty!”

After he had rushed into the Hun soldiers, he had intended to rush deeper to find weapons for Chen Dong, but the Hun soldiers were so aggressive that they soon left him in a quagmire, making it difficult for him to advance.

But Chen Dong’s appearance was a long drive, destroying everything, and in front of tens of thousands of Xiongnu soldiers, directly cutting down the general with a single slash.

Such a domineering gesture was enough to ignite the beastly blood of every man on the battlefield!

As Wang Yu’s roar echoed across the battlefield.

All over the battlefield, Zhang Chao and the other secret guards focused their attention on Chen Dong.

After a second of silence.

“Mighty!”

A mighty roar emanated from the mouths of each of the dark guards, converging together to break the sky.

The beheading of the general in front of the battlefield had caused the Xiongnu soldiers to be terrified and caught off guard.

But the remaining guards were also killed, their blood boiling and their energy soaring.

The sound of their mighty voices echoed across the battlefield, and their pride and vigour rose to the heavens.

The roar of a few dozens of men was deafening at this moment, like a roar of the sea.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, was riding on his war horse, his head in the wind and snow, his expression cold.

It was as if all this had nothing to do with him!

With the battlefield in turmoil, the secret guards shouted.

As Chen Dong's legs clamped down on his horse's belly, he charged straight towards the crossbow cannon, his sword in his hand whipping up streaks of shadow like a fierce wind and rain, rapidly falling on both sides along the way.

The terrified Xiongnu soldiers, facing Chen Dong, were like ghosts and gods, and in their panic and fear, they did not even have the courage to resist and were killed by the swords.

Blood gushed out and heads flew.

The screams of misery followed Chen Dong as he charged forward.

No one could stop him!

The battle was overwhelming!

A domineering and overwhelming gesture, like entering the realm of no one.

The Huns, already terrified and confused, had their guts ripped out.

"Stop him, stop him now!"

At this moment, the roar of a Xiong Nu lieutenant finally rang out from the chaotic battlefield.

However.

Faced with Chen Dong, who was unstoppable at the moment, all this Xiongnu lieutenant had the luxury of doing was just stopping!

"Noisy!"

At the same time, Chen Dong slashed a Xiong Nu soldier along the way, and at the same time, he picked up the Xiong Nu soldier's sword into the air, and with a twist in the air, Chen Dong's sword struck the end of the Xiong Nu sword's hilt.

Whoosh!

The sword stirred the air with a whistling sound.

The Xiong Nu lieutenant, whose face was full of fear, suddenly had his sweat hair explode.

A terrifying sense of death swept through his body.

In his vision, a battle sword was coming like the sword of death, coming at breakneck speed.

As his pupils tightened, it was fast approaching.

It was so fast that ..... the adjutant general could not even react in time.

Poof!

The war knife directly penetrated the vice general's chest, and blood flew across his body.

This scene, once again, bombarded the entire battlefield like a thunderclap.

The clamour and clamour was like a rolling wave that shot up to the heavens.

First the main general, then the second.

With such a fierce and overwhelming killing, even the remnants of the vice-generals were so pale that they dared not speak out again to control the battlefield.

Chaos!

The ultimate chaos!

With Chen Dong's two slashes, the morale of the Xiongnu soldiers was completely shattered, and while the hearts of the Xiongnu soldiers were terrified, some of them even ran for their heads.

There was clearly a difference in numbers by hundreds or thousands of times, but at this moment there was a scene so bizarre that one's jaw dropped to the ground.

The guards, who had been involved with dozens of men, were now wielding their swords and driving their horses across the battlefield, killing at will!

Chasing and killing the enemy, hundreds and thousands of times over, in a flurry of killing!

It was as if the dozens of dark guards had turned into tigers and lions, leaping into the herd of sheep and slaughtering them indiscriminately!

Chen Dong, on the other hand, was destroying everything in his path, his only sight was the towering crossbow cannon!

The thick and heavy crossbow arrows were the key to bringing his hidden guards home!

On the other side.

The Xiongnu Palace, in the King's Hall.

A curtain draped over the king's palace, a deafening sound of wailing and screaming as light and shadows flashed from above.

It was the sight coming from the southern gate of the king's city.

The Hun King looked at the battlefield, the absurd scene that was now appearing.

His expression was bleak and pale, and his gaze was so obscure as to be unimpressive.

Gaze!

All eyes on!

But silently, the Hun King's eyes filled with tears and his body trembled vaguely.

Two swords had cut down the courage of an army of soldiers!

To make even a few dozen men chase and kill tens of thousands!

This is the shame of the Huns!

"O demon lady ....."

The Xiongnu king suddenly lamented, slowly raising his finger to point at the curtain, "Look at this, how powerful and domineering this Xiongnu's sidekick is, with the strength of one man, he has shaken our Xiongnu army to its knees!"

"Father ....."

The demon lady's face was full of tears, her father's words were like a sharp knife lingering on her body.

This absurd and bizarre scene, how good should it be if it happened on the battlefield of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army?

Why, it was .....

"It's just, it's just ah, my king's demon lady is indeed discerning, this person's bravery is indeed the best match against Huo Zhenxiao na!"

The king of Xiongnu was in tears and raised his hand to wipe his face, "I blame my father for promising too much and being too hasty, such a dragon among men is a double-edged sword, and now my father has eaten his own fruit!"

The King of the Huns lamented his despondency.

At this moment, Xixing had never realised that his father was so old!

The curtain was still showing the strange and absurd scene at the southern city gate.

With one man's strength, the Huns had been nailed to the pillar of shame!

And this, she, Shying, had carefully chosen!

Guilt, anger, hatred .....

In a trance, Xie Xing's eyes suddenly became determined and ruthless.

At this moment, the stunningly beautiful and charming face was even colder than the extremely cold sky outside.

Silver teeth clenched, squeezing out a sentence from between her teeth.

"Father, he was chosen by me, and his life, I will also end it with my own hands!"

Saying that, Xixing got up and walked towards the outside of the king's hall.

The Hun King, however, did not stop.

This man had shaken the Xiongnu, and the Xiongnu royal court!

This was the first disgrace in the thousands of years of Xiongnu's existence!

And yet.

Just as Xixing was about to step out of the king's palace, a strange change occurred.

"Ow-ho!"

Suddenly, a beast roar exploded into the sky and shook the royal palace.

The moment the beast's roar reached the king's palace, it rang in the ears of Xixing and the King of Xiongnu.

Both father and daughter, at the same time, were horrified.

“Something has happened to the beast fighting cage!”

Winner Takes All Chapter 1087-1088

Chapter 1087

The roar of the beast rises to the sky.

The roar of the beasts was so loud that it added another wave to the thirteen cities of the Huns today.

With the city under an immediate curfew, the majestic roar of the beasts swept across the city and even washed over the twelve star cities.

And within the royal palace, it set off an uproar.

“Something’s wrong, something’s happened to the beast cage! The royal palace guards, go to the cage immediately!”

“Damn it, damn it, why did something happen to the cage? Isn’t the place where the beasts are being held heavily guarded?”

“My God, what’s happened to the kingdom today?”

.....

In the royal palace, people were on edge.

Everyone knew that the beasts in the cages were all fierce beasts.

Any beast that hadn’t gone through a lot of trouble and paid with its life would not have been eligible to be held in the cage.

When the beasts are out of the cage, it’s a catastrophe for the palace!

The cage was a tradition in the Huns, a place for the truly capable warriors to change their fate.

Since the cage appeared in the Huns, it has been handed down to this day, and there are really only a handful of times in history when something has happened to the cage, you can count them on one hand!

The area around the cage is deserted and even less monitored and guarded.

However, every time the cage is renovated, the building itself is greatly strengthened and fortified.

As a result, the cage itself has been fortified.

Today, however, the cage was broken and the beasts came out!

In the palace, the forbidden troops were rushing to the cage and people were in fear.

Outside the cage.

The wind and snow howled.

With a deafening roar of beasts rushing out of the cage.

A figure rushed out of the cage door and then dashed towards the slanting darkness as fast as lightning.

Almost backwards and forwards.

Boom!

The door of the beast fighting cage was brutally smashed open.

Even half of the door was knocked out of the cage and landed heavily on the snowy ground outside.

The light was shrouded in flames.

The white mane of the snowy lion stood at the gate of the cage in a domineering manner, like a king.

Behind him, the silhouette of a fierce beast looms large.

Without exception, the eyes of each beast are endlessly cold.

For the beasts, being held in the cage means losing their freedom.

Who is not a king of a fierce beast that can roam the Great Snowy Plain?

Now that they are free, the desire for freedom is in the nature of every fierce beast!

But with the presence of a fierce beast king like the Snowy Lion, all the fierce beasts felt a powerful oppression.

If the Snowy Lion does not move, no beast dares to charge!

“Ow!”

The Snowy Lion let out a lion's roar like a thunderclap, as if the wind and snow were silent.

The snow-white mane, at this moment, was even more awe-inspiringly dancing.

The next second.

The Snowy Lion leapt out of the cage and headed for the outside of the palace.

At the same time.

“Roar!”

“Roar!”

“Roar!”

.....

A fierce and ferocious beast, deprived of the suppression of the Snowy Region Lion, seemed to have gone mad at this moment, roaring and rushing out of the beast fighting cage, and then the stars scattered in all directions.

This was a royal palace catastrophe.

At this moment, it burst forth with a bang!

In the darkness in the distance.

Kui Gang did not leave, but raised his hand to wipe a handful of blood from his chest, and the sharp pain that pierced his heart and bones made him grimace.

The wound on his chest had been inflicted by the Snowy Lion when he had escaped too late when he had unleashed it earlier.

However, at this moment, not a trace of annoyance could be seen on Kui Gang's face; instead, there was excitement, grimace and anticipation.

He slowly raised his hand, put his blood-stained finger to his lips and sucked on it, and said with uplifting excitement, “If you still can't get out after helping to this extent, then I'm not to blame for disregarding the cooperation deal, O Heavenly Wolf, bless me and bless them!”

As he spoke, Kui Gang's eyes looked askance at the royal palace guards who were raging with morale and rushing at breakneck speed.

It was just that the crowd, which was in great numbers, was in instant chaos as several fierce and ferocious beasts rushed in.

There were screams and shouts of death.

In an instant, the barren and desolate expanse outside the beast fighting cage was transformed into a human purgatory.

However, none of this was of any concern to Kui Gang!

In his heart, it was far less important than the success of this deal and the restoration of his former glory!

He didn't know the exact relationship between the Dark Guard and Chen Dong, but it didn't affect him in any way at the moment!

As far as he was concerned, the more chaotic the water, the greater the chance of Chen Dong's death!

Once Chen Dong was dead, who else would the Xiongnu have left without him, Kui Gang?

The beasts were out of the cage.

The few fierce beasts that the royal palace guards faced were but a handful.

In total, there were only a few dozen beasts in the cage.

But the fighting power of each of them was not something that a few ordinary people could resist!

As each beast scattered around the palace, a scene of tragedy was unfolding in all parts of the palace.

Ordinary people, when faced with these fierce beasts, were not even qualified to resist.

With a single roar, they were already split to pieces, and then their necks were snapped by the beasts, and they were bitten to pieces with several bites!

The royal palace army was fighting the fire.

Outside the palace, fierce beasts broke out of the palace and scattered into all parts of the kingdom.

The stragglers were the first to be hit by the beasts.

They were followed by the common people who had been forcibly curfewed by the army.

Wherever there was a beast, dogs and chickens flew and people were miserable.

The whole palace.

The whole kingdom.

At this moment, dozens of ferocious beasts were turning the world upside down, and people were on edge!

And outside the palace, on the main street leading to the southern gate of the kingdom.

The lights were magnificent.

The cold wind was biting and the snow was flying.

Fear still pervades this main street.

The Snowy Lion was running wildly along this street.

Everywhere they passed, countless terrified eyes gazed at the huge, imposing body of the Snowy Lion.

The people huddled in the darkness, shivering.

The soldiers of the army, too, were chilled to the bone and did not move.

At this moment, even the soldiers were too bold to go forward and snipe the Snowy Lion.

This king of the fierce beasts, with supreme domineering might, drove straight through the main street, running wild.

Fear pervaded everywhere it passed.

After they left, everyone breathed a long sigh of relief and felt weak.

No one knew why this king of beasts had abandoned them as a piece of delicacy to run wildly in that direction with his mouth and nose spouting wild breath.

Only the Snowy Lion himself knew.

His master was in trouble!

He had to guard it!

The King of Beasts, in times of crisis, can ignore everything and is willing to die!

The most powerful beast in the cage, when it escaped from its trap, showed a very different reaction to all the fierce beasts.

Beasts of prey, for freedom.

And the Snow Lion, for his master!

South City Gate.

The chaotic battlefield was now incomparably tragic.

Dozens of dark guards, led by Wang Yu and Zhang Chao and others, had formed into small groups, charging left and right, creating the horrific killing power of a meat grinder, brutally reaping the confused and terrified Hun soldiers.

It was a battle so full-blooded, so reckless in its reaping of human life, that it made the blood of every dark guard boil!

A few dozen men, hunting down and killing tens of thousands, how majestic should this be?

But they knew that all these transformations were made possible by the unstoppable figure on horseback!

The young lord ..... is powerful!

At the same time.

After slashing three Xiong Nu soldiers in a row, Chen Dong leapt onto the crossbow with his tongue thundering and his feet slamming his horse.

On the huge crossbow cannon, a crossbow arrow was loaded at this moment, aiming right at the direction of the city gate!

Clearly, the army had come prepared.

It was just that the situation had changed so suddenly that the loaded crossbow was too late to send out!

“Brothers, let’s go home!”

Chen Dong shouted, and at this moment, without hesitation, he raised his battle sword in his hand and dropped it bravely, slashing at the trigger of the crossbow.

Boom!

The two-metre long, thick crossbow arrow, with the crossbow cannon's firing, came out with a bang, like a dragon, with an ear-splitting whine, shooting straight at the city gate with terrifying momentum!

Chapter 1088

The crossbows roar.

Like pale dragons, they tore through the long sky.

Boom!

A loud sound echoed across the battlefield.

At the southern city gate, under the cave, smoke and dust rolled and debris flew about.

It was just like a cannonball bombardment.

Barbara was so frightened that she crouched on the ground and curled up in a corner.

And with this loud sound echoed.

The dozens of secret guards who were reaping the Xiongnu soldiers with reckless abandon locked their eyes on the city gates in unison.

For them, that was the way of escape, the door of certain death!

If the gate was broken, the way of life would be revealed; if the gate was there, death would be certain!

Even Chen Dong, at this moment, had his eyebrows knitted together as he watched the city gates with a deadly gaze.

Only.

Such a gaze was shattered with a loud roar.

It also exploded like thunder in the ears of every single Xiongnu soldier in the confusion.

“They want to escape, kill them for me!”

“This is a supreme military achievement, whoever wins it, the king will reward him with glory!”

Two explosive roars in quick succession, but they created an unspeakable sensation on the chaotic battlefield.

There will be brave men under heavy rewards, and at this moment, it was interpreted to the fullest!

Supreme military achievement!

A great reward for glory!

A few simple words tugged at the heartstrings of every brave Xiongnu soldier at this moment.

Some of the brave and courageous ones came to their senses in an instant.

One by one, wielding their swords, they pounced directly on the dark guards and also on Chen Dong.

Chen Dong’s expression was hostile, and he instantly locked onto the deputy general who had made the sound.

However, after the deputy general made his voice, he instantly converged into a house not far away, hiding his form.

There was no way to kill him!

“Retreat to the city gates!”

Chen Dong made an immediate decision and roared at Wang Yu and the other dark guards.

Almost simultaneously.

He kicked a heavy crossbow arrow into the air with a fierce “bang” with his right foot, catching it with his right hand in the air.

The thick arrow, nearly two metres long, was as heavy as iron in his hand.

It lifted Chen Dong’s heart and soul.

To him, this crossbow arrow, which was like a heavy spear, was even smoother than the war sword in his hand!

“Kill!”

The sound of shouting and killing resounded in his ears.

As Chen Dong stood on top of the crossbow, he saw a dozen Xiongnu soldiers with red eyes lunging directly at him.

In a flash of lightning.

Chen Dong’s killing intent tumbled, and it was as if flames were spitting out from his eyes.

Boom!

The crossbow arrow in his hand, like a python turning over, as Chen Dong turned in the air, directly roared and swept across the week.

Bang Bang Bang .....

The heavy crossbow arrows, augmented by the terrifying power of Chen Dong’s flesh, were incomparably terrifying at this moment.

A dozen Hun soldiers who got close were swept away on the spot, and some even spat blood directly in the air, screaming in agony.

Forcing back the surrounding Xiongnu soldiers, Chen Dong did not hesitate to leap onto his horse, turn it around and charge straight towards the city gate.

His absolute sanity made him clear.

This was not the time to get attached to a battle.

All battles should be fought for the sake of escape.

Not for the sake of fighting, so to speak.

They were, for the sake of staying alive!

Not to fight to the death against these Hun soldiers!

Meanwhile.

Wang Yu and Zhang Chao and a group of other dark guards had also formed up and rushed towards the city gates long ago.

At this moment, whether the city gates were broken or not, it was by no means the time to continue galloping into battle.

The confused Xiongnu soldiers had come to their senses.

Morale was broken, but the heavy reward had inspired blood courage.

To continue to fight would only plunge them deeper into the mire, pulled into hell by these wolf-like Hun soldiers.

Dozens of men galloped wildly on horseback, and at this moment also presented a terrifying sight of destruction and long drives.

“Heavy reward! Kill one man, heavy reward, the king’s order himself! All beings are equal!”

The deputy general, who had hidden in his house, now rushed out from his house again as the situation on the battlefield changed, giving a stern order to take control of the situation.

His face was full of determination and bravery.

His eyes were red.

Only while giving the order, the corners of his mouth could not help but rise.

Just now, Chen Dong had swept through a thousand troops, cutting down two generals with two swords, which had indeed shattered people’s liver and guts.

But he was not stupid, high risk came with high reward.

The main general and one of his lieutenants had been killed in battle, and the rest of his lieutenants had their livers and guts broken. At this moment, he stood out, and if he resolved everything in front of him, then the future would be a million miles of glory for him!

And yet.

Just as the corners of his mouth rose to the extreme.

A terrifying and vicious chill that pierced deep into his soul appeared out of nowhere, running from the soles of his feet straight to the sky.

Such a change caused the Vice Admiral’s body to stiffen and his expression to freeze.

Behind him, he could even feel a fiery exhalation of breath.

In his panic, the lieutenant stiffened and slowly turned around.

As behind him came into view, his face instantly went white, and his pupils plummeted to the breaking point out of fear.

A huge lion face was towering over him, leaning down to his face.

When he turned around, his eyes met the lion's eyes exactly.

That kingly look of disdain was felt to the fullest by the deputy general at this moment.

"Ow-ho!"

With a hissing roar from the Snowy Lion, the bloody maw fell down brazenly.

The deputy general, who was standing in place, still immersed in great fear, was left standing in place with only his waist and legs.

As the snowy lion tore violently, blood and guts flew out, raining blood on this small area.

After finishing the lieutenant in one bite.

The Snowy Male Lion fiercely tilted his head up and let out a kingly roar.

"Ow-roar ....."

The lion roar swept across the battlefield.

The chaotic battlefield seemed to have the pause button pressed instantly at this lion's roar.

A trail of frightened gazes shifted and focused on the Snowy Lion's body.

Fear pervaded!

That great terror that originated from the depths of the bloodline, at this moment, with the appearance of the Snowy Lion, was like a gloom descending from the sky, enveloping every soldier.

The might of the Beast King!

Ten thousand people were silenced!

"Great White, it's Great White!"

Fearful Barbara's eyes lit up at this moment when she heard the roar of the Snowy Region Lion, and after getting up and seeing the Snowy Region Lion, she hurriedly jumped up and waved, "Great White, I'm over here with Uncle!"

The faint voice of a child was not enough to stand out in the chaos of the battlefield.

But at this moment, this faint voice echoed in the ears of everyone.

In the silence, even the faint voice was like thunder!

"Snowy Lion?!"

As Chen Dong rushed towards the city gate, he turned back with a jolt along with the sound of the lion's roar. When he saw the mighty Snowy Lion at the back of the battlefield, Chen Dong's eyes blazed with fervour and his tongue burst into thunder: "Come on!"

This was a loud roar.

To the Snowy Lion, it was like a command.

The next second.

The Snowy Lion leapt forward, its huge body like a mountain, and smashed into the battlefield, its thick four feet instantly trampling several Xiongnu soldiers to death.

Then, the Snowy Lion ran straight towards Chen Dong.

Along the way, the lion roared, its paws danced and its mouth swept.

The Xiongnu soldiers, faced with the great terror of the Snowy Lion, did not even have the courage to resist, and those who stood in the way were reaped by the Snowy Lion!

With the appearance of the Snowy Lion, it was as if a heavy bomb had been dropped on the battlefield!

With the power of a single beast, the battlefield was turned upside down.

Even those Hun soldiers who had been inspired by the heavy reward for their bravery threw away their armour and fled in fear!

Meanwhile.

The city's gates, which were gradually dispersed by the smoke, were the focus of all eyes as Chen Dong, Wang Yu and a host of other secret guards rushed out of the battlefield envelope.

Winner Takes All Chapter 1089-1090

Chapter 1089

On the battlefield, the snowy lions slaughtered in all directions.

Blood and flesh flew about.

Compared to the Snowy Lion's killing, Chen Dong and his guards' killing just now was just like a child's play.

Back then, the King of Xiongnu captured the Snowy Lion with an elite team of 10,000 men at a heavy cost.

At this moment, the Snowy Lion once again showed its bravery and might.

A one-sided slaughter!

There was no suspense!

At this moment, Chen Dong and the others had already rushed under the cave.

The smoke and dust had finally faded away.

When Chen Dong jumped off his horse with his crossbow and sword, Barbarian hurriedly came up and hugged Chen Dong, despite the blood on his body: "Uncle, Barbarian is afraid."

"Ah Barbarian is good, Uncle is here, I'm not afraid!"

Chen Dong rubbed Barbara's hair.

The words had just fallen.

"Slot!"

A furious curse from Zhang Chao exploded beside him.

Chen Dong's heart thudded and he raised his eyes to look at the city gate.

By now, the smoke and dust had cleared and his vision was clear.

However, the crossbow cannon that had just been blasted out was stuck straight up on top of the city gate.

The terrifying destructive force had caused the crossbow arrow to be set into the city gate.

With the crossbow as the centre of the circle, a spider web of cracks spread out in all directions, the widest of which was even as wide as a fist.

But even so, the imposing and heavy city gates remained unmoved.

Although this crossbow arrow had caused terrifying damage, it was far from the effect of breaking the city gate with a single arrow!

“Damn it, how can we live with this? Is this one city gate going to exterminate us?”

At this moment, Zhang Chao’s whole body was in a parched rage, stamping his foot fiercely: “Since we’re going to be exterminated, I might as well go back and kill a few more Hun dogs!”

“Reckless man!”

Wang Yu gave Zhang Chao a furious look.

“You .....

Zhang Chao’s face was red and he was about to retort, but he saw Wang Yu walking towards Chen Dong, and his words came to an abrupt halt.

“Can the young master ..... do it?”

Wang Yu asked in a deep voice, on his chin, as he spoke, fresh blood gathered and was dripping towards the ground.

With these words out, all the expectant gazes of the road focused on Chen Dong.

“Should ..... work!”

Chen Dong nodded his head, and then it was time to hand Barbara over to Wang Yu.

Looking back at the Snowy Lion, who had held the entire battlefield by himself, Chen Dong secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

Then he gestured for Wang Yu and the others to retreat.

After the crowd had retreated, Chen Dong dragged the end of his crossbow backwards and stood loftily in place.

In his line of sight, he stared intently at the city gates.

At this moment, Chen Dong's aura seemed to rise up like a mountain being pulled up from the flat earth.

The majestic oppression caused Wang Yu and the others behind him to have their throats tightened, and even the war horses around them were agitated and restless at this moment.

Break the gate and go home!

If they don't, they will die!

So .....

"It must be broken!"

Three words out, Chen Dong's eyes suddenly exploded with essence, as if it was going to turn into a substantial light and come out of his eyes.

The next second.

Boom!

The crossbow arrow dragged upside down in his hand was like a python dragon, with a dragon whistle.

The wind suddenly rose.

As Chen Dong danced his crossbow, the wind howled and sand flew away.

Wang Yu and the others narrowed their eyes at the same time and retreated again.

And under the cover of the whistling wind.

No one noticed that while Chen Dong was rapidly dancing with his crossbow, the muscles all over his body were rapidly squeezing and writhing, even making a subtle sound.

This subtle imperceptible change, however, was as Chen Dong danced his crossbow and quickly built up momentum, every inch of muscle, at this moment, was rapidly building up strength.

"Give me ..... to break through!"

Boom!

In a flash of lightning, Chen Dong's wildly dancing crossbow instantly trembled and slashed the city gate in fury.

At this moment, Chen Dong and the crossbow arrow seemed to fuse into one.

The force started from the ground, and as each muscle exploded, the layers piled up until they were all poured into the crossbow along his arms.

Boom!

A loud sound was heard, comparable to a crossbow cannon blasting a door before.

Smoke, dust and debris instantly engulfed Chen Dong.

Even the ground trembled violently for a moment under this furious strike.

The terrifying wave of air, wrapped in smoke and dust, swept towards Wang Yu and the others, forcing them to close their eyes and retreat quickly.

After avoiding the wave of Qi, Wang Yu and the others stood still, their eyes full of curiosity and expectation, staring at the raging smoke and dust at the city gates.

At this moment, inside the cave of the city gate, there was silence.

The air seemed to stand still.

Everyone held their breath, their bodies tense.

Compared to the tragedy on the battlefield behind them, it was a different world.

Boom!

A buzzing sound suddenly rang out from the smoke and dust.

It was Chen Dong who waved his crossbow and dispersed the smoke and dust around him with his astral wind.

As the smoke and dust cleared, Zhang Chao's eyes lit up.

Zhang Chao's eyes lit up and he roared with joy, "It's light, I can see light!"

"It's broken open, the young master has broken open!"

"There's help, we're saved!"

"Young master is mighty, young master is mighty!"

.....

At this moment, as the broken open city gate was revealed, the crowd of secret guards all became ecstatic and excited.

With his crossbow in hand, Chen Dong slowly walked back to the crowd and said with a cold expression, "We ..... can go home now!"

"Go home!"

Wang Yu and the others clenched their fists and said.

These two words, as if they were vows, were incomparably firm.

"Da Bai, let's go!"

Chen Dong let out a roar, while leaning down and picking up Barbarian, re-binding him to his chest in his arms with his belt.

"Barbara, wait and hide well in uncle's arms, uncle is here, it's alright!"

Chen Dong said firmly, and after a pause, his gaze flickered for a moment, "Remember what uncle said to you just now before he charged out!"

This was supposed to be a gamble on life!

Breaking through the King's City did not mean that it was out of the trap and safe.

There were still twelve more star cities outside .....!

During all the time consumed at the city gate, Chen Dong really dared not imagine what happened to the twelve star cities outside at this time!

Therefore, he had to think of a way to live for Barbara!

"Ow-ho!"

Hearing Chen Dong's call, the Snowy Lion, which was sweeping across the battlefield, let out a roar and ran wildly towards Chen Dong.

The huge beast's body, even if it was running wildly, came with a terrifying killing power!

Meanwhile.

Wang Yu and the others quickly mounted their war horses, formed up and prepared to charge outwards.

Only, as the Snowy Lion approached.

The terrifying pressure of the beast king swept across.

A war horse was now emboldened and weakened, not moving in place and trembling.

This scene.

It left Wang Yu and the others dumbfounded.

On the other hand, Chen Dong let out an explosive shout at the oncoming Snowy Lion, "Great White, gather yourself!"

This was something that he had fumbled out during his brief time with the Snowy Region Stallion!

This vast and terrifying Beast King's mighty pressure was something that he and Barbara had never felt from the Snow Region Stallion since the Beast King had returned to his heart.

Obviously, this kind of might was something that the Snowy Lion was able to control!

Sure enough, with Chen Dong's stern cry, the warhorse, which had stood motionless in fear, had the courage to move.

And when the Snowy Lion rushed closer, the group of war horses did not show too much fear.

After all, they were horses that had been through battle, and their courage was in no way comparable to that of ordinary horses!

When the Snowy Lion rushed closer, Chen Dong directly leapt into the air and jumped onto the back of the Snowy Lion.

At this moment, Chen Dong no longer cared about how the Snowy Lion had gotten out of the fighting cage!

"Home!"

With a loud roar.

The Snowy Stallion took the lead and charged towards the outside, while Wang Yu and the other dark guards, also spurred their horses to follow.

Behind them, countless Xiongnu soldiers were rushing in like a tidal wave at this moment.

But, at this critical moment, something changed.

There was a sudden change.

Boom!

Just as Chen Dong and the others were rushing towards the city gate.

Above the city cave, a thick, muffled sound suddenly sounded.

Chen Dong, who was riding on the back of the Snowy Lion, looked up sharply and his scalp immediately tingled.

Above the original arch-shaped cave of the city gate, there was now a huge, deep, dark opening.

It was as if it was the mouth of a fierce beast that was about to devour a man.

And as the opening appeared, a heart-stopping and chilling booming sound came out from the opening.

“Broken, broken dragon stone!”

Wang Yu’s face changed drastically, his features were hideously twisted and he roared, “Charge, it’s the Dragon Breaker Stone, if it falls, it’s over!”

Chapter 1090

The Dragon Breaker Stone.

It comes from the ancient method of defending a city.

It was hovered above the city gates, and when the enemy entered the city at a crisis, the machine was opened and expanded, weighing as much as ten thousand pounds, and suppressed to completely cut off the city from the outside.

Once it has fallen.

Even guns and cannons can stop it!

And everything under the Dragon Breaking Stone will be smashed to pieces under the huge force of ten thousand catties!

Even a real dragon will not be able to survive under the Dragon Breaker Stone.

This is how the Dragon Breaker Stone got its name!

But neither Chen Dong nor Wang Yu and the rest of the secret guards had ever expected that such an ancient object as the Dragon Breaker Stone would suddenly hover above the gates of the Xiongnu City!

“Run, run!”

Wang Yu’s face bulged with blue veins as he hissed and roared.

If he didn’t run out before the Dragon Breaker Stone fell, whether he lived under the Dragon Breaker Stone or inside the city, he would end up dying!

As the Dragon Breaker Stone slowly descended.

Chen Dong and the secret guards all ran wildly towards the outside of the city with all their might.

The Snowy Lion, riding first, was the first to rush out of the city gates.

And the dark guards behind them, galloping wildly, rushed out one after another.

Only the Dragon Breaker Stone was falling faster and faster, and inside the cave of the city gate, it was like the sky collapsing.

Wang Yu’s heart was about to explode.

Because of the formation, everyone was trying to protect Chen Dong, so when they left the city, they deliberately stretched out the line a bit, leaving people to guard against the Xiongnu soldiers rushing behind them.

But at this moment.

The Broken Dragon Stone was falling, and it was impossible for the team to escape all together!

“Damn it, damn it! Why the hell do the Huns still have this old crap!”

Wang Yu cursed, and ran his horse furiously, but with his speed, he was only able to get out of the city, and the consequences for his companions behind him were unimaginable.

Although he was cursing, his words were filled with endless fear and despair.

And yet.

Just at that moment.

Phew .....

A war horse's harsh neighing sound exploded violently inside the city gate hole.

Wang Yu then felt the wild wind whistling beside him.

As he gazed, he saw Zhang Chao's left hand holding his war sword and stabbing it into the horse's buttocks, inspiring the war horse to explode its potential and charge out.

As he neared the shattered gates, Zhang Chao leaned down and swept his right hand across the ground, but pulled into his hand the crossbow arrow that had been fired from the initial crossbow.

Immediately afterwards, the warhorse rushed under the Broken Dragon Stone.

Zhang Chao stopped his horse and turned around, a smile appearing on his face.

Wang Yu's heart leapt wildly at this scene.

He hissed and growled, "Zhang Chao, what the hell are you doing?"

"Hahahaha ....."

Zhang Chao threw back his head and laughed out loud, "Brother Yu, didn't you call me a reckless man? Today, I'll be a reckless man to show you all! Give everyone, a way out!"

Dang!

The next second.

Zhang Chao brazenly pushed the crossbow arrow towards the Broken Dragon Stone above his head.

"No, no! Crazy man, you're fucking crazy!"

Wang Yu rushed in front of Zhang Chao and immediately tried to drag him away, but Zhang Chao kicked the butt of Wang Yu's war horse, which let out a neigh and was not under Wang Yu's control, charging straight out.

Almost simultaneously.

As the Dragon Breaking Stone fell rapidly, Zhang Chao's horse sat down with a hiss.

With a hiss, Zhang Chao's war horse collapsed to the ground with a crash as all four hooves went limp at the same time.

Zhang Chao, on the other hand, did not move a muscle, his hands were on top of the crossbow arrows, his muscles graved up, but he still could not stop trembling.

“Mang ah!”

As the huge force of the Dragon Breaker Stone crushed down, Zhang Chao let out a roar, but blood spurted out of his mouth.

Around him, a group of secret guards, but relying on Zhang Chao to stop the Dragon Breaker Stone, have spurred their horses to run wildly, bending down on the back of the war horse, rushing out of the King City at a very fast speed.

Rumble .....

The Dragon Breaker Stone slowly pressed down, seemingly at a slow pace, but it took only a few seconds.

It seemed slow, but the force of ten thousand pounds was filled with desperation and domination.

“Let’s go! Zhang Chao, you reckless man, give me a ride home!”

After charging out of the King’s City, Wang Yu immediately wanted to turn his horse’s head and re-charge towards Zhang Chao.

However, he was yanked by Chen Dong, who had a sullen look on the side, and tugged the reins of his war horse.

“Young master, let go, please let go!”

Wang Yu’s eyes were red, snotty and tearful, no longer the strength of an iron-blooded man, crying and begging Chen Dong: “I want to save that mangler, I want to save that mangler .....

His voice was as loud as a desperate child’s.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, was sullen and determined, not letting go of the war horse’s reins.

In the line of sight.

One by one, the dark guards rode out.

Zhang Chao, on the other hand, was standing tall under the Broken Dragon Stone, relying on his crossbow arrows to forcefully stop the 10,000 pounds of the Broken Dragon Stone from falling down.

Only such a scene could not be described as stopping, but rather as stalling for time with his life!

To buy the other hidden guards a chance to live!

The rest of the hidden guards all understood this, so at this moment, some even went out of their way to stimulate the war horses to burst out of their potential with injuries and increase their speed.

Click!

There was a loud sound.

The thick crossbow arrow was like paper mache in front of the Dragon Breaker, and the tip of the arrow shattered with a sound.

Immediately afterwards, the entire crossbow arrow, as the Dragon Breaker Stone pressed down, was like bamboo, rapidly breaking apart.

The Dragon Breaker Stone pressed down a little.

Whether it was Zhang Chao or the crossbow arrow, it was only slowing down the downward pressure.

That was all!

But for the sake of his companions' smooth escape, Zhang Chao ..... was reckless!

“Zhang Chao, you fucking bastard! Doggone scumbag, doggone reckless!”

Wang Yu couldn't let go of Chen Dong's hand when he begged, and now, with a face full of fear, he cursed at Zhang Chao, who was already gradually bending down under the Broken Dragon Stone.

The more he cursed, the more tears there were on Wang Yu's face.

Chen Dong witnessed this scene, but his body was as if he had fallen into lava.

Even his nasal cavity was so sour that it was as if his chest was stuffed with stones and blocked.

As the Broken Dragon Stone fell, Zhang Chao's body became more and more stooped, blood gushed wildly from his mouth, and his face became paler and paler.

Only, the smile on his face never waned.

When the last concealed guard abandoned his warhorse and ran out of the Broken Dragon Stone.

Zhang Chao's smile became even bigger, spitting blood from his mouth as he shouted with laughter, "Brother Yu, Laozi ..... Mang has won!"

"Remember to tell my parents that Zhang Chao is not an outlaw, Zhang Chao died on the battlefield killing Xiong Nu dogs! Apologize to them for me, unfiliality is a big deal! My child ..... is unfilial!"

"Brothers, I ..... will go home first!"

Boom!

The aftermath of the sound was still there.

But the Dragon Breaking Stone, which weighed as much as ten thousand pounds, crushed down at this moment, crushing Zhang Chao completely, raising smoke and dust that spread out and blurred everything.

Only Chen Dong saw that the moment before the smoke and dust lifted, there was clearly countless flesh and blood, splashing out!

"Zhang Chao ....."

Wang Yu cried and hissed, "Reckless man, you fucking reckless man ....."

An atmosphere of sadness permeated the entire Dark Guard.

It was clear to everyone that without Zhang Chao's final recklessness with his life, perhaps Zhang Chao would not have been the only one to die!

It was Zhang Chao, who used his life to give everyone a way to live!

"Let's go!"

Chen Dong was the quickest to break out of his grief, he fiercely tugged on the reins of Wang Yu's war horse, and as the Snowy Lion turned, he drove Wang Yu and the war horse to turn with him, "He's going home, we ..... have to go home too!"
