

Winner Takes All Chapter 1451-1460

Chapter 1451

In the office, silence could listen to a needle.

Elder Long and Zhuge Qing were completely dumbfounded.

Both of them stared at the blueprint on the table with their eyes wide open, somewhat at a loss.

“What’s wrong?”

Chen Dong raised his eyebrows and smiled teasingly.

“Brother Dong, didn’t you just bring us a piece of land that needs to be auctioned out?”

Zhuge Qing returned to his senses and looked towards Chen Dong in bewilderment and confusion.

Chen Dong rubbed his nose: “Is there a conflict between buying one and selling the other?”

“No, there is no conflict, but this operation of yours

Zhuge Qing scratched his head.

Long Lao, who was sitting in his wheelchair, on the other hand, had his brows lowered and stared at the blueprint, pondering.

Chen Dong shrugged his shoulders and spread his hands out, “Originally, this blueprint took some time before I gave it to you guys, but Zhang Lidong’s appearance pushed my planning process straight forward by a large step, dozing came to send a pillow, a banquet directly dried up the southwest region, so I gave it to you guys in advance.”

A gift of pillows when you doze off?

Zhuge Qing smashed his mouth for a moment and snapped awake, “You still have Zhang Lidong to thank for this?”

“That is.”

Chen Dong nodded with a smile, “I had thought of all the ways to make people look down on me, and was worried about how to kick out the final kick to make everyone’s mindset collapse, but Zhang Lidong helped me out!”

As he said this, he settled down on the sofa and lit up a cigarette.

Zhuge Qing stood in place and watched Chen Dong.

He could feel that Chen Dong, who was smoking a cigarette at the moment, was not at all dishevelled and dejected, and his handsome and resolute face was full of vigour!

There was silence.

Long Lao unfolded the blueprint with trembling hands and examined it carefully.

Zhuge Qing sensed it and turned to examine it together.

As time passed, their faces were very different.

Zhuge Qing still looked confused.

Long Lao, on the other hand, gradually had a brilliant look in his eyes, bright as a star!

Snap!

Suddenly, Elder Long heavily slapped the map on the table and looked towards Chen Dong with ecstasy.

“Young Master, did you play this hand?”

Zhuge Qing: “???”

Chen Dong raised his eyebrows and smiled, saying somewhat helplessly, “I have no choice, if I don’t do this, developing the entire southwest region will be difficult, after all, even though I have been driven out by the Chen family, I am still being watched by the world, even if I secretly cooperate with Rothschild, there will still be a group of tiger and wolf forces sniffing around, and as usual, the overall land price of the southwest region will also be pushed to a very high A position which is extremely detrimental to our development.”

“Wonderful, wonderful!”

Long Lao was trembling with excitement, and his eyes were filled with tears under his ecstasy: “Young master’s move is brilliant, buying, selling and buying to swallow the southwest.

The master and servant looked at each other and smiled.

Zhuge Qing was still confused and asked impatiently after him, “Mr. Chen, Elder Long, what exactly is the situation?”

Elder Long smiled and pointed at the map, explaining to Zhuge Qing, "The young master was worried that he was attracting the wind by making a big tree, and even if he secretly developed the southwest region, he would still attract the world's magnates and giants, and between them, they would inevitably bog down the development, and they would not be able to form their own blueprint outline quickly."

"That's why the young master announced the news to the public one after another with great fanfare in the first place, in order to create momentum, create enough momentum to directly attract the world's giants and giants to come over and compete for it directly in the open."

Zhuce Qing was dumbfounded, his mouth so open in shock that it could fit into his fist, but his eyes were still confused.

When Elder Long saw Zhuce Qing dazed, he was instantly furious: "At least you are a member of the Zhuce family, why can't you still react?"

"Isn't this getting yourself into trouble?"

Zhuce Qing's face was full of incomprehension.

The words had just fallen.

Chen Dong smiled and explained, "If we tell them, they will come and grab it, if we don't tell them, they will still come and grab it, it's just a difference between light and dark."

He got up and walked over to his desk, his right fingertips falling onto the map as he continued.

"Everyone is grabbing, there is always a time when the land is almost grabbed, and the funds are almost used up, but fighting in secret, everyone is calculating and guessing, there is less fervour and impulsiveness."

"Publicize the world, directly let the robbery promote to the white-hot stage, quickly promote the land price up, and then I then frequently show decadence, to induce everyone to calm down to calculate scruples, re-let the land price cool down, we then thunderbolt sweep the land, acquisition of our planned land, so that not only can use the land price to purchase land, but also allows us to avoid falling into the land price surge, and the resulting development We can't afford to fight a protracted war!"

After hearing these words, Zhuce Qing's eyes fell to the ground, his scalp tingled, and a chill ran through his body from time to time.

In his dumbfounded state, he could not help but ask out of turn, "Are you just sure that everything will go according to your plan?"

Only as soon as the words were out of his mouth, his gaze flickered for a moment, revealing a look of shame.

Because he reacted that this statement was really a bit idiotic!

With just the name of Chen Dong, the young master of the Chen family, once the southwest region was developed, the giants and giants of the world, not to say all of them, but definitely some of them would flock to converge.

“Their focus is on me, what I do, of course they will come, money is the raw power of capital, enough to make them explode with beastly impulses.”

Chen Dong smiled teasingly, but a bitter chill was revealed between his brows, “Instead of slowly circling around with them and resisting them persistently, we should just end it all in one pot with a thunderous force!”

One pot!

Zhuge Qing’s body shook.

Elder Long was also staring at Chen Dong in horror.

Three simple words, but the contents of them were heart-stopping.

Not to mention the calculating plan, this bravery alone was enough to make Elder Long and Zhuge Qing’s scalps tingle!

Chen Dong rubbed his nose, his eyes gradually narrowing as a chill churned.

“Moreover, those people from the Chen family have always seen me as a thorn in their side, even if I proceed in secret, they will still step in and plant their flags on the plots of land I am planning blueprints for by any means necessary, this operation now will also greatly prevent them from discovering my planning attempts, after all, it will be difficult to delve deeper into the details when everyone is grabbing land in the heat of the moment.”

Elder Long and Zhuge Qing’s eyes changed completely.

The look in Chen Dong’s eyes was not just one of awe, but even at this moment, with fear.

One hand had pushed up the Southwest Region, and the other hand had pressed himself into the abyss, and the ultimate aim was to push the Southwest Region to forge itself into its own base camp.

The experience of which they all watched.

The courageous decisions they made and the patience they endured during the process were hard for them to bear, let alone the fact that Chen Dong had to endure it himself!

“I’m afraid that even when the old master was as young as the young master, he wouldn’t have been able to make such a plan, would he? The blue is better than the blue!”

Long Lao secretly lamented in his heart.

Dang!

Chen Dong landed his fist on the blueprint and his aura changed dramatically.

At this moment, in the eyes of Elder Long and Zhuge Qing, in a trance Chen Dong’s figure was rapidly drawing up.

Intense and ambitious.

Chen Dong’s voice then resounded in the two men’s ears.

“Yike’s entry into the southwest region is sucking the blood of other regions, and this time I want the world’s giants to do my dowry for me!”

Chapter 1452

You want the world’s giants to help you do the graft?

Inside the office, the aftermath of Chen Dong’s awe-inspiring and domineering voice was incessant.

Elder Long and Zhuge Qing’s faces turned red as they choked for a moment.

Earlier, they were both curious about what Chen Dong was plotting with his manipulations.

Personally pushing himself into the limelight and then pressing himself into the abyss with his own hands, a series of operations that were bewildering and inscrutable.

Now after Chen Dong personally cleared up their doubts.

Instead of a sense of relief and pleasure, the two men’s minds were shaken and their scalps exploded.

How bold, how deep, how ruthlessly determined should they be to come up with such a plan?

There was a full minute of silence.

Zhuge Qing's body trembled as he jolted awake.

As if he had thought of something, he stared at the map pressed by Chen Dong's right fist blade in fear and confusion.

"Wait! Mr. Chen, there is a very crucial issue here!"

Chen Dong and Elder Long looked at Zhuge Qing at the same time.

Zhuge Qing's face turned red and his breath caught as he dropped his right hand to the map and circled around the plot of land marked on the map.

"If you do this, you will indeed be able to bring the land prices in the southwest region down to freezing in a short period of time, and several of our major powers will be able to complete the harvest quickly in a short period of time with a blistering thunderstorm."

After a pause, Zhuge Qing's eyes rounded and burned as he stared at the map, "But what should we do with the remaining land parcels? The plots we need, as long as the world's magnates and giants hang out, we will definitely buy them, but the rest no one will take over, those magnates and giants are originally looking for profit, they won't do it for us for no reason!"

The corners of Long Lao's eyes twitched, and two beams of brilliant light erupted from his eyes.

Zhuge Qing's words were like a sharp sword, striking straight at the heart of the matter!

What they wanted to develop was the entire southwest region, with the aim of scrapping the old Chen and forging a new one.

According to Chen Dong's current planning, he could indeed create his own base camp in a very short period of time.

But what should be done about the southwest region outside the main base camp?

The world's giants and power giants have come sniffing around, aiming to get a piece of the pie in this development, no one is stupid, knowing that they are doing the graft for Chen Dong and there is no profit to be made, no one will be foolish enough to continue to pour money into the southwest region to promote the development!

"So there is still a very crucial step to take."

Chen Dong turned around expansively, confident and smiling proudly.

“What?”

Zhuge Qing asked, lost in thought.

Elder Long also knitted his brows, curiously looking towards Chen Dong.

This final step was the key to deciding the fate of the entire Southwest Region!

Chen Dong had initially attracted the world’s hot money into the Southwest Region with the hope of borrowing the money of the world’s giants, so that the Southwest Region could directly enter the take-off stage in a short period of time.

If the world’s giants were to stop, it would be enough to rely on Chen Dong’s forces and Rothschild’s power to build Chen Dong’s base camp, but if he wanted the entire Southwest region to develop rapidly in a short period of time, it would be as difficult as climbing to the top!

If he could not take the final step, everything before him would be a dream – an empty one!

Facing the burning gazes of Zhuge Qing and Elder Long.

Chen Dong rubbed his nose, squinted his eyes and smiled playfully, “Secrets!”

Elder Long: “.....”

Zhuge Qing: “.....”

“Alright, telling you all is also to allow you to be sufficiently prepared to carry out the land harvest in a short period of time during the follow-up, making sure that you do not move like a mountain, but move like a thunderbolt.”

Chen Dong smiled confidently, while rolling up the map and handing it over to Elder Long, while leaning down and gazing firmly at Elder Long: “This time, it will not disappoint Elder Long, because this time it is not a reversal of the Qiankun, but a Qiankun in hand, turning the hand over to the Qian, turning the hand over to the Kun, even if the world’s giants and giant forces are dissatisfied, they will definitely grit their teeth and push up the huge wheel of development of the southwest region for me in one fell swoop!”

The words were strong and resounding.

At this moment, Chen Dong’s aura was like a sheathed sword, pointing straight at the sky.

Even Elder Long was dazed and lost in thought when he looked at him, his heart beating wildly.

He could hear the firmness, but it was also this firmness that made his heart leap.

Long Lao murmured and asked, "Young Master has he really thought about it?"

The moment the words left his mouth.

Zhuge Qing frowned, feeling that Long Lao's question was odd, somehow meaningful, but leaving him unsure.

"Zhuge Qing, please go out for a moment."

Chen Dong bowed his body and waved his backhand at Zhuge Qing.

Although Zhuge Qing was curious, he did not dare to disobey.

When the door to the room was closed.

Chen Dong straightened up and moved to sit on the office chair, turning to look out the floor-to-ceiling window with a deep gaze.

"Young master have you really thought about it?"

Long Lao looked complicated, seeing Chen Dong's silence, he once again pursued the question.

"Have you thought about it!"

Three simple words, issued from Chen Dong's mouth, but resounding and firm.

"But this is a direct cross to the giants and giants of power in the world!"

Elder Long gripped his hands on the armrests of his wheelchair, the bruises on the backs of his hands protruding and trembling vaguely.

He did not know exactly what methods Chen Dong had to get Qiankun in his hands, so that the world's giants would endure their unprofitable resentment to help him develop the southwest region.

However, he was clear that once he did so, all the magnates and giants gathered in the southwest region, one by one, would inevitably harbour a grudge against Chen Dong, and the root of the trouble would grow deep!

The world is full of people who want to make a profit!

The world is full of people who are motivated by profit!

When there is a violent clash of interests, the greatest salvation for the losers is to clump together and resent the gainers.

“The weak eat the strong!”

Chen Dong’s gaze was deep as he spat out four words coldly.

“But it’s not just about the weak and the strong, it’s also about the human condition!”

At this moment, Elder Long no longer had the elation he had felt before, there was pain: “It is unwise to cross the world with evil! Every seed of resentment that is planted will suddenly burst out one day in the future and trap the young master in a swamp, making it difficult to move forward! One more friend is better than one more enemy!”

“I know all these!”

A bitterness suddenly appeared on Chen Dong’s firm face as he slowly turned his head and looked at Elder Long, “But Dong’er would like to ask Elder Long, if not, how can I protect Little Shadow and the baby?”

Elder Long was speechless for a moment.

The atmosphere in the office was so frozen that it was suffocating.

Elder Long knew that Chen Dong’s ultimate goal in this operation was that he did not want to become the same person as his father.

But

“There is no room for compromise!”

Chen Dong withdrew his gaze and narrowed his eyes, coldness surging as he gazed out of the window, “When I put on my scale armour and become strong enough, the world will have to bow down for me, and will have to make way for me, for the sake of Little Shadow and the baby, I have no way back, even if I cross the world, it won’t matter, as long as I am strong enough to make them not dare to point their spears at my wife and children, that will be enough! ”

Long Lao was stunned, his old eyes filled with tears and red.

Remorse surged up.

He shook his head with a bitter smile, "Young master, old slave really regrets that he advised you to think of another way, he should have advised you to follow the old master's path at that time!"

"Elder Long."

The sunlight enveloped Chen Dong's face, as if a layer of light had been born.

As Elder Long focused on Chen Dong, Chen Dong slowly turned his head sideways and looked askance at Elder Long.

At this moment, it was in Elder Long's line of sight.

That handsome and resolute face suddenly became domineering, stern and fierce.

"Didn't you teach me that one will make all the bones dry up?"

Winner Takes All Chapter 1453-1454

Chapter 1453

Inside the office.

It was as silent as a puddle of stagnant water.

Sitting in his wheelchair, Elder Long gazed at Chen Dong, that domineering and ruthless face, like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, blasted him brazenly.

In an instant.

Elder Long's mind went blank and his strength seemed to be emptied as he completely collapsed in his wheelchair.

The Chen Dong in front of him, in a trance, gave him a feeling as if he had changed into a different person.

The young master in the past, the city, the wrist, all the top, but the words and actions, still left room for maneuver.

But now he had changed!

"Does it feel like I've changed?"

Chen Dong pulled up the corner of his mouth and smiled faintly, his deep eyes seemed to see through Long Lao's mind.

Sitting paralyzed in his wheelchair, Long Lao did not hide and nodded in response.

“I also think I’ve changed, I used to be against the idea that one will make all the bones dry.”

Chen Dong shrugged his shoulders and deflated his mouth and laughed, “But for the sake of Little Shadow and the baby, one general will wither ten thousand bones then so be it.”

At the end of his words, it was a lengthy sigh.

Elder Long muttered, “The road is narrow!”

“My path is not wide by nature.”

Chen Dong shook his head and narrowed his eyes, “Ever since I was a child, there was only that one road, just enough for my mother and I to hold each other up and forge ahead to find the light, and the same thing happened to me when I grew up, even though you came to my side, Elder Long, to change my fate against the odds, but to this day, has my road ever been wide?”

“Even when I became the young master of the Chen family, has the path ever changed? I wanted to live a good life, but they wouldn’t let me!”

“From the day Chen Daolin began to alter my genetic sequence, it was destined that my path in this life would not be as wide as it could be, the path was narrower but could go deeper, I don’t care how I end up, but I will never let my wife and son repeat my mistakes!”

The voice was calm, but so determined that no one could refute it.

Long time.

Elder Long bowed his head, “Old slave always follow!”

Chen Dong did not respond, but gazed out thoughtfully.

This battle, if successful, then he would no longer have to worry about the safety of his wife and children for some time to come, and he would not even have to worry about his beloved family and friends around him.

.....

The south-western region is in turmoil.

Every day the sun rises and the sun sets, the land that is hung out for auction is skyrocketing at a sensational rate.

The humble and dusty behavior of Chen Dong at the banquet at the Four Seals Clubhouse, as the banquet dispersed, swept across the world's giants and giant powers like a blistering wind and rain.

The development of the south-western region depended on Chen Dong.

From the beginning, it was clear to everyone that it was all concocted by Chen Dong.

But now that Chen Dong is going down, if the land in his hands is not given away as soon as possible, not only will he end up not getting a share of the pie, he will even be smashed in his hands with a blood loss.

To the world's giants and giants of power, the loss of one or two pieces of land can be ignored, after all, it is only a drop in the bucket for them.

But from the moment the southwest region was brought to the attention of the world.

The giants and giants of power under the heavens had not just grabbed a few pieces of land or two in their hands!

Not to say that they had broken their bones, but the losses were painful enough!

In just a few days' time, the Southwest region, which had been in high demand and regarded by the world's capitalists as a hot potato, had become feared like a snake and scorpion.

As a large amount of land was re-listed for auction, the high property prices in the southwest region, which had been driven into an avalanche of land prices, also went into an avalanche of collapse.

It is not just the giants who are bidding against each other to sell off their land.

Even the local community, as the wind passed through, became filled with public discontent and grievances.

Whether it was during the renovation of the shantytowns in the west of the city, or after Chen Dong announced the development of the southwest region, countless people flocked into the southwest region to buy houses and invest.

And now, with the collapse of land prices collapsing, house prices have also ushered in a cold winter.

The people in the community, cursing at Chen Dong, went from morning to late at night.

There were even those who were too aggressive and chased directly under the office building of Din Tai, pulling banners, throwing paint and howling

Every morning and evening, all the major media were filled with news about Chen Dong and Dingtai.

The intensity of the story was overwhelming.

It's no exaggeration to say that it's a phrase that is reviled by millions!

.....

The Chen family.

"What should we do? The land price has collapsed, Brother Dao Cheng, make a decision quickly!"

A man rubbed his face hard with his right hand, urging anxiously.

Several other people were also worried and on pins and needles.

In order to crush Chen Dong, they had invested a large amount of money in the southwest region, grabbing land to besiege Chen Dong.

But now the avalanche of land prices in the southwest region had collapsed, and if they didn't stop their losses in time, they didn't know if Chen Dong would die, but their wallets would definitely deflate by a large margin!

"According to the land bidding in the southwest region, I presume that several of our families have taken the most land in the southwest region, if indeed the southwest region is played to death by Chen Dong, I don't know if that kid will die in the end, but in the end we will definitely have to be hurt!"

"How about hanging up the land auction right away? If we don't stop the losses in time, hundreds of billions are definitely going to be lost out!"

"Brother Dao Cheng, don't be sullen, now everyone is waiting for you to take a decision!"

.....

Bang!

Chen Daocheng angrily slapped the table in front of him and said in a stern voice, "What are you all blowing up for? The sky hasn't collapsed yet, that wild bastard Chen Dong is definitely hiding something else, he has trillions of assets that Chen Daoye's few dead guys have scrambled out, there's no way he'll play himself to death so quickly!"

"But now the situation is that the southwest region is collapsing, the major powers and giants, are all frantically putting up auctions for land, planning to stop their losses and pull out!"

A man clenched his teeth, trying his best to keep himself calm.

Chen Daocheng's brows were lowered, his eyes flickering with ferocity and fury.

At this moment, he was like a raging lion that wanted to eat people!

He didn't care about the hundreds of billions of losses, what he cared about was whether he could crush Chen Dong to death and make him never recover!

Sensing Chen Daocheng's anger, the crowd did not dare to say anything more.

In the room, there was silence.

After waiting for a long time.

Chen Daocheng suddenly opened his voice.

"Grab the land!"

Boom!

The crowd in the room was dumbfounded as if they had been struck by lightning.

Are you crazy?

He was already close to collapse, but he still didn't stop his losses and wanted to go deeper?

Is he too rich to be a scatterbrain?

"Give me the robbery, we are not short of money, money can be lost, but Chen Dong must also not be able to turn over!"

The words were resolute, a final word.

In the old lady Chen's mansion, it was a different story.

Old Mrs Chen was lying weakly in a recliner, listening to Chen Daoping's report about Chen Dong and the Southwest region.

From the beginning to the end, the old lady did not show any sign of sadness or happiness, and only weak, steady breathing came from her mouth and nose.

Chen Daoping bowed, "Mother, Chen Dong should be completely finished this time!"

"The family is finished, but the person is still alive. Chen Daocheng and the others are playing the front, but I can only play the back!"

The back side?

Chen Daoping was stunned.

"Daoping, go out."

Old Madam Chen instructed Chen Daoping to leave.

A long time later.

Only then did she pull out her mobile phone and dialed the number.

"Sister, help me out!"

As soon as the words left her mouth, a startled eek came out of Old Mrs. Chen's mouth and nose.

Her cloudy eyes fiercely burst out with a refined aura.

"Oceanic Lidong Group, Zhang Lidong? Sister, when did you arrange this?"

Chapter 1454

Old Mrs. Chen's voice, a mixture of surprise.

Half a day.

A rare smile finally appeared on Old Mrs. Chen's tired face.

"I've been focusing on that wild bastard Chen Dong, but I didn't expect that my sister was even better, she had already secretly done so, with Zhang Lidong as a pawn to firmly grasp the vitality of that wild bastard, we will definitely be able to laugh until the end!"

Pop!

The phone hung up.

Old Mrs. Chen exhaled a heavy breath of foul air.

This was perhaps the only good news she had heard in the recent past!

Her resentful and irritable mood was now much more relaxed.

She knew what kind of person Chen Dong was!

A man who could ignore the Chen family's ironclad laws for the sake of his beloved family and friends, who was willing to put his own future on the line and bring his sword to the Chen family to force him to die, might have been courageous and heartfelt.

But in her eyes, he is no different from a stupid pig!

Those who have achieved great things do not mind the smallest things, and it is never just a matter of words.

Emperors have always been cold-blooded, and children are reckless!

With his sister's arrangement, it was the same as pinpointing Chen Dong's key points.

In the end, Old Madam Chen had full confidence in forcing Chen Dong, a foolish pig, into submission!

"Hm?!"

In her elation, Old Madam Chen's eyes suddenly narrowed as a cold light appeared.

The next second.

Qi energy swept through her entire body, and Old Lady Chen directly left the recliner and moved out sideways.

"It's annoying, when will this end?"

Bang!

The qi energy pitches were like a dragon, flying out across the air and blasting through the window with a palm.

A miserable scream ensued.

Blood splattered onto the broken window.

A palm kill!

Old Lady Chen, however, took a step back with her feet, her right hand covering her heart, her brow knitted in exhaustion.

“This body must hold up!”

As she murmured and lamented, Old Lady Chen’s eyes were filled with resignation.

This is her plan a century ago, she will never allow herself to end up with hate!

.....

Time passed.

The situation in the southwest was getting worse and worse.

The people’s grievances have suddenly risen, and there is a lot of discontent, and people spit on them.

Chen Dong, in the southwest region, had been nailed to the pillar of shame!

If words could kill, Chen Dong would have been executed by the people of the southwest region a million times over!

The people’s grievances were raging.

However, the gentry and powers did not stop auctioning land.

Every day, the amount of land put up for auction was rocketing upwards.

It is even more fierce than the month-long scramble for land in the first place.

Compared to the amount of land put up for auction, the amount of land purchased at auction is in inverse proportion.

Every day, only a few plots of land are sold.

Compared to the amount of land put up for auction, it was a drop in the bucket.

While millions of people spurned Chen Dong, there was no shortage of people who planned to take a risk and gamble.

Wealth is not just a matter of words.

The few plots of land that fall under the hammer every day are the masters of powerful families and giants with this in mind!

As the storm rages on.

At Tianmen Mountain Villa, it was a different story.

It was early in the morning.

Inside the villa, Zhao Ru, Zhuge Qing and the others were busy.

The villa was decorated with lights and colours, and the inside and outside of the villa were decorated in a festive manner.

Even the unpredictable Zhao Baolu dragged Chen Dong to pacify the Snowy Lion, and then tied a pink bow around the Snowy Lion's neck.

This caused the corners of Chen Dong's mouth to twitch one after another.

When I think back to the days of the Huns, the snowy lion was the king of beasts, majestic and fierce.

Now it's cute!

"Brother Dong, what do you think of Little White's look?"

Zhao Baolu asked Chen Dong's opinion as he tidied up the bow of the Snowy Region Lion.

In the process, he didn't notice the Snowy Lion's eerily chilling gaze at all.

Chen Dong rubbed his nose and turned his head sideways, "As long as you're happy, I won't get you on today's big day anyway."

The reason why there was a festive atmosphere early in the morning.

There was no other reason.

After such a long time of recovery, Elder Long, Fan Lu and Zhao Baolu were all able to get back on their feet, and although their injuries varied, none of them affected walking and standing anymore.

The other thing is that Jiang Qilin is also being discharged from the hospital today.

Thinking back to the scene when the Empty Master descended, Chen Dong's heart palpitated for a moment.

The scene where Fan Lu, Zhao Brezhong and Elder Long were injured made Chen Dong complain about himself even to this day.

Master Empty Sky was that ruthless, for just to get him into the demon!

Now that the rain has finally passed and the people are free, Chen Dong feels that it is only right to celebrate.

“Say, the reed went to pick up Jiang Qilin, when will he be back?”

After finishing tidying up the Snowy Lion’s bow, Zhao Breru walked over to Chen Dong and asked, “Brother Dong, do you think the two of them will be able to get it on?”

“Why are you so gossipy?”

Chen Dong gave Zhao Breru a white look.

Zhao Baolu shrugged and smiled sarcastically.

Chen Dong raised his eyebrows and looked to his left and right to make sure that Wu Chang was not around before he softly asked Zhao Breru, “Say, how much have you kid mastered of the Eight Formation Diagram of Gods and Ghosts?”

“Hehehe

Zhao Breru blinked and laughed oddly, and was about to speak.

His pupils shrank and the words that had reached his mouth were swallowed back into his stomach.

“There is a killing aura!”

Chen Dong raised his eyes and saw that somehow, Changeless was standing at the entrance of the villa, half of his body hidden in the gloom behind the door, looking this way.

He instantly looked at Zhao Broken in surprise, this kid’s six sense perception was so powerful?

At that very moment.

The sound of a car engine came from outside.

Chen Dong turned around and saw that it was Chu Reed and Jiang Qilin who had returned.

The car pulled into the garage.

Chu Reed was the first to get out of the car, her face was gloomy as she took a step towards the villa.

Jiang Qilin followed with an aggrieved face and got out of the car, walking over to Chen Dong and Zhao Broken.

“How did you offend someone again?”

Chen Dong had already seen the strange, Jiang Qilin did not know the world, the whole a closed-door giant baby, offend people that is just a matter of seconds.

“I said the reed is a good friend and tried to pull her hand, and she called me a rogue.”

Jiang Qilin said bitterly.

Chen Dong was stunned.

Zhao Breru’s eyes glared, “Jiang Qilin, do you fucking not understand human feelings? Or do you know too much about the world? Are all girl chasers so direct?”

“Chasing a girl?”

Jiang Qilin looked blankly at Zhao Breru, “Reed didn’t run away, why would I chase her.”

“Gan Lin Niang!”

Zhao Baolu raised his middle finger, furious.

Chen Dong was also speechless for a while, patting Jiang Qilin on the shoulder and giving him a few words of comfort, before several people entered the villa and helped set up together.

It was a long day of work.

Night fell.

The whole villa was colourful and beautiful.

Fan Lu and Wu Chang had set up a huge table of food.

The crowd was about to celebrate when a guest arrived inside the villa.

When Chen Dong opened the door and looked at Lord Meng in front of him, he was a little baffled.

“Uncle Meng, what brings you here?”

Lord Meng’s face was gloomy, his hands behind his back as he gazed at Chen Dong, “What wind did you say blew me here? The entire southwest region is blowing a typhoon because of you and is about to turn the sky upside down!”

Winner Takes All Chapter 1455-1456

Chapter 1455

Chen Dong smiled sarcastically.

Lord Meng walked into the villa on his own, looked at Gu Qingying and the others in the dining room, and raised an eyebrow.

“The wind is rising outside, but you, the originator, have the leisure to party at home na?”

Chen Dong gave Lord Meng an up-and-down look.

His face was haggard, and the bags under his tired eyes were drooping.

It was obvious that Lord Meng was not actually relaxed at all these days.

“Of course Dong’er knows exactly what has happened outside.”

Chen Dong smiled apologetically and made an inviting gesture, “Uncle Meng has come at the right time, please invite Uncle Meng to join us for a dinner.”

“It’s just a matter of time, it just so happens that we haven’t eaten dinner, let’s eat first and then talk.”

Lord Meng waved his hand and said wearily.

Lord Meng’s arrival did not affect the atmosphere of the celebration dinner in any way.

Lord Meng also intended to blend in with the crowd and did not talk about work-related matters throughout.

After three rounds of wine and five tastes of food.

Chen Dong then went up to the rooftop with Lord Meng, while Gu Qingying and the others continued on.

The night breeze was refreshing.

Lord Meng's face was a little drunk, his exhaustion from the intense work he had been doing had been catalyzed by the alcohol, making him drowsy at the moment.

However, he still managed to sit up in his chair and looked at Chen Dong with a deep gaze.

Chen Dong stopped at the edge of the rooftop, looking out at the lights in the distance, and inquired, "Is Uncle Meng boarding the door to say something?"

"The entire southwestern region has changed, everywhere is selling off listed land like crazy, land prices have collapsed in an avalanche, hitting down heavily by thirty percent in just this period of time, and it isn't stopping."

Lord Meng said in a deep voice.

"I know all of this."

Chen Dong smiled, "Not only are land prices collapsing, even house prices are collapsing, and it's all my leading manipulation."

"You"

Lord Meng was stunned for a moment, anger flooded his eyes and he slapped his thigh heavily: "I really regret standing up for you in the first place, now I'm really eating my own words!"

Chen Dong smiled apologetically, "I've put Uncle through all this trouble for a while now."

To Lord Meng, he did feel guilty.

Moreover, as a senior official, the collapse of land prices in the southwest region was a huge mountain of pressure for the senior officials of the entire southwest region.

Lord Meng is also carrying a huge mountain on his shoulders!

And this, too, was concocted by his own hand, Chen Dong, and pressed upon Lord Meng!

"Public discontent, land prices, if these are not curbed in time, the southwest region will enter a cold winter."

Lord Meng raised his eyes towards Chen Dong, his eyes full of prayer, "Dong'er can you stop?"

"Uncle has already received pressure from above?"

Chen Dong revealed a look of dismay.

“No.”

Lord Meng shook his head and said bitterly, “But as a party official, there is now such a collapsing collapse in the area under our jurisdiction. What is even more irritating is that I personally stood up for you for those ten plots of land you initially auctioned off, and now I have to watch as public discontent The people’s grievances are rising all over the place!”

The words were full of guilt and remorse.

Chen Dong walked up to Lord Meng and said firmly, “Uncle, this time, I can’t stop because I have to protect my wife and children!”

What?!

Lord Meng was horrified.

He looked at Chen Dong incredulously, “What does this series you’ve pulled off have to do with protecting Little Shadow and the child?”

He had come tonight with the intention of persuading Chen Dong to call it quits as soon as possible.

Because he was clear that Chen Dong’s bottom line was not at all as embarrassing as the outside world had rumored.

Everything was clear to him from the time he stood up for Chen Dong that it was just a charade.

The situation of the southwest region does not allow him to continue to let Chen Dong act recklessly.

In his eyes, the people were his blood and bones.

It was his duty as a senior official to protect one side.

If it was not against his principles, he would be willing to help Chen Dong, but now, in this situation, he must abandon everything and stand up to stop Chen Dong!

“Uncle has had a hard time recently.”

Chen Dong avoided talking about it and gently clinked the beer bottle in Lord Meng’s hand, saying, “I hope uncle can hold on a little longer, when the time is right, everything will be reversed!”

He could feel Lord Meng's exhaustion and the guilt and self-blame welling up in his heart.

So at this time, Chen Dong did not want to continue to hide from Lord Meng.

"Keep on holding on?"

Bang!

Lord Meng's eyes widened, anger rising to his head as he angrily rose, "Chen Dong, I am informing you, not discussing with you, the people are now complaining, you have single-handedly concocted all this and have put their lives in jeopardy, those magnates and powers I can ignore, but the people, I cannot ignore!"

"Uncle, if the people also survive this period of time, they will be worshipping you."

Chen Dong smiled faintly and said with a firm gaze, "Give me a little time, at most until the 19th of May, a month's time, I can make the southwest region rise to the sky, as long as the people insist on not selling off the properties in their hands, they will be the happiest people at that time!"

"You are meddlesome!"

Lord Meng pointed at Chen Dong angrily and was about to break into a scolding.

Chen Dong's eyes abruptly burst into a different color, and said in a deep voice: "The southwest region is already like this, and all the big officials have already hung their heads from the beam and stabbed their heads to put out the fire, but why is it just the southwest region, uncle still doesn't understand?"

Boom!

The words were astonishing.

The angry Lord Meng instantly froze, his eyes brightening and wavering.

Chen Dong's words were like a sharp sword that pointed straight to his throat.

In an instant, he fell into deep thought.

The situation in the south-western region was already precarious.

The giants and magnates were frantically putting up auctions to sell off the land they had previously bought.

The news was spreading to the common people.

If it collapsed completely, it would be a catastrophe!

It's not just the bigwigs in their southwestern region who are working furiously to save the day.

The rest of is calm!

It is impossible for the outside world to not hear of such a catastrophe!

It is also impossible for other forces not to intervene!

"Uncle, one month time, please uncle must hold on!"

Chen Dong clasped his fist and bowed to Lord Meng with unparalleled respect.

Lord Meng was thoughtful, and as the night breeze hit him, he shook his head to clear his head for a few moments.

"That's just it, I'll just boil to death and help you last until May 19th."

Lord Meng looked in a trance and slowly turned around, not stopping any longer, and left straight away.

Chen Dong did not see him off, but turned around and stopped at the edge of the rooftop, looking up at the stars and the moon in the night sky, his eyes shining.

"When autumn comes on the eighth day of the ninth month, a hundred flowers will kill me after I blossom May 19, the southwest region is set in one fell swoop!"

The words are slight, but powerful and bold.

Chapter 1456

Time passes.

The days passed by day by day.

The entire south-western region is in deep water as the world's giants and giants of power are frantically putting up lots for sale.

The auctions and sales did not have any impact.

But the chain reaction caused by the massive auction and sale is the most terrifying.

At the beginning, the impact of the auctions and sales was only felt among the upper echelons of the south-western region.

As time went on, the storm gradually swept through to the general public.

The rapid collapse of land and property prices is something that can be concealed for a while, but not for a lifetime, and there will always be a time when things go wrong.

As the people learned the details.

The entire southwest region completely exploded into a frenzy.

Countless people cursed Chen Dong, pouring all their grievances and hatred and anger on him.

Even the Zhuge Family, the Zhang and Chu families in Kyoto, Zhou Zunlong and Zhou Yanqiu, the forces under Chen Dong's command, were also wracked with anger.

An unprecedented shock.

Not only was it confined to the southwestern region, but even the stock market, the listed companies under the Zhuge Family and the Zhang and Chu families, were also hit hard one after another.

As soon as the market opened each day, it did not take long for it to fall straight to a halt.

Such a tragic situation was like a sharp sword hanging over the heads of the Zhuge Family, the Zhang and Chu families in Kyoto and Zhou Zunlong and Zhou Yanqiu, which could fall at any time and kill them all.

This huge pressure, which could collapse and kill them at any moment, was like a gloom that hung over the heads of these families.

But against such a situation, even the Zhuge family was powerless to turn back the clock.

They were all forces that followed Chen Dong.

The creation of such a situation was the work of Chen Dong.

If they wanted to undo it, only Chen Dong could turn his hand over and reverse it.

As the situation intensified, even Zhuge Qing, who knew the details of the situation, was on pins and needles every day, suffering immensely.

Such a huge gamble had staked the entire southwest region and the fate of the major forces that followed Chen Dong.

No matter who it was, it was hard to bear this monstrous pressure.

Elder Zhuge would call Zhuge Qing every day to ask him about it.

But Zhuge Qing was ordered by Chen Dong, and could only verbally stall and avoid talking about it.

The more people know about the blueprint, the better, once the word gets out, then all the previous plans will be in vain.

Perhaps Chen Dong is the only one who can maintain a calm and relaxed state of mind.

During this period of time, Chen Dong also no longer went to Dingtai.

The only thing that Chen Dong did was to stay at home every day, accompanying Gu Qingying to raise flowers and feed fish, take a walk and talk.

The only proper thing he did was to train in martial arts every day without slacking off.

The starry night was in the sky.

Chen Dong sat on a stone bench in the villa's garden resting after his high-intensity training.

Under the light.

His upper body was naked, and his well-proportioned muscles were covered with crystal beads of sweat.

As he breathed in and out, white practice spurted out from his mouth and nose, visible to the naked eye.

Just sitting like this, he also gave people a feeling that they could not be ignored.

"Mr. Chen has refined his martial art very quickly."

A voice rang out behind him.

Chen Dong looked back at Jiang Qilin and smiled, "Even if I were faster, I wouldn't be able to catch up with you."

"That's natural."

Jiang Qilin nodded seriously.

Chen Dong was speechless for a moment, he was really taken seriously by this guy even though he was just being modest.

However, knowing Jiang Qilin's past, he did not care at all.

Jiang Qilin had been following behind Chu Reed for a while now, so he should be getting to know the ways of the world as well.

Jiang Qilin walked up to Chen Dong and settled down: "I myself am different from Mr. Chen, so it makes sense that Mr. Chen can't catch up with me, not to mention, how long has Mr. Chen been training altogether? However, Kirin has been in seclusion since he was a child, and the energy and time he has spent is countless more than Mr. Chen, but with Mr. Chen's rate of progress, it is only a matter of time before he surpasses Kirin."

Chen Dong looked at Jiang Qilin in surprise and smiled teasingly, "Following the reed for a while now, you have improved a lot, you can even say compliments now."

"It's not a compliment, it's the truth."

Jiang Qilin shook his head calmly, looking at Chen Dong with a curious look in his eyes, "Even I am curious as to how powerful the core of the Pan Gu Project is, to actually be able to actually compare to a god with Mr. Chen's mortal body after transformation."

"I am curious as to how exactly you trained."

Chen Dong rubbed his nose and looked solemn, "You are the top genius I have ever seen in my life, so genius that I have the feeling that you are not real at all times."

What Jiang Qilin had shown, if there was a shortcoming, was perhaps only the point of not knowing the human condition.

In other aspects, Chen Dong felt, just by thinking about it, that this was no longer a point that could be reached by one's desperate efforts!

Facing Chen Dong's enquiry.

With a smile on his lips, Jiang Qilin slowly tilted his head and gazed out at the starry sky.

"White Jade Capital in the sky, twelve floors and five cities."

Boom!

Chen Dong was struck by lightning and sat waxing on the spot.

In a trance, Chen Daogun's murmuring voice echoed in his ears, overlapping with Jiang Qilin's voice, as if a magical sound was filling his ears for a long time.

Isn't this Chen Daojun's mantra?

"What's wrong? Mr. Chen."

Jiang Qilin sensed Chen Dong's strange appearance and looked towards him.

Seeing that Chen Dong was motionless, he raised his hand and waved it in front of Chen Dong's eyes, calling Chen softly once again.

Chen Dong's body trembled for a moment, finally coming back to his senses and smiling reluctantly, "So Mr Jiang also likes Li Taibai's poems? I'm fine, Mr. Jiang continue."

"Li Taibai?"

Jiang Qilin raised his eyebrows and nodded his head, smiling, "Not bad, this is indeed a poem by the poet immortal Li Taibai, but the closer we get to the present in the long history, the less such immortal style and ethereal verses there are."

Chen Dong frowned tightly, not knowing why, he always felt that there were words in Jiang Qilin's words.

Whirling.

Jiang Qilin tilted his head and continued to look at the starry sky, muttering to himself, "One generation is worse than the next, how can the poems nowadays still have the immortal style of the past?"

At the same time, he lamented.

Jiang Qilin, however, closed his eyes to himself.

The next second.

A light wind swept up from beneath Jiang Qilin's feet, blowing his robe and hair to dance.

As he was pondering, Chen Dong was suddenly stunned, staring at Jiang Qilin in front of him in disbelief.

With such a simple action of closing his eyes, he had the feeling that someone else had changed in front of him!

Buzz!

Almost at the same time, a thin layer of light glowed all over Jiang Qilin's body.

The light golden glow covered Jiang Qilin's body, instantly making his entire aura ethereal and ethereal.

Chen Dong's eyes were filled with dismay and his jaw dropped.

As he gazed at the Jiang Qilin before him, one word came to his mind – not falling into the mortal world!

That ethereal and ethereal aura, untouched by any trace of mortal dust, was as if it was a deity that had fallen from the nine heavens, giving people a feeling of awe.

Followed closely by.

On Jiang Qilin's face, a rare expression of compassion for the heavens and earth appeared as he lamented.

"Heaven and earth are unkind and take all things as ruminants, humanity is in decline, the immortal dao is long and rainbow, if there really is a world like the one described by the poet immortal Li Taibai's verses, I really want to take a look at it."

Winner Takes All Chapter 1457-1458

Chapter 1457

A muttered lament.

It was full of pity and pain.

This caused Chen Dong to be somewhat baffled, and it was even more difficult to understand Jiang Qilin's change in mood.

"Mr. Chen do you believe that there are immortals in this world?"

Jiang Qilin closed his eyes, his expression still compassionate, and spoke slowly.

Chen Dong was stunned and smiled sarcastically, "The education I have received since I was a child does not allow me to believe that this world is that light and strange."

Jiang Qilin slowly opened his eyes, a pale golden glow lingering in his eyes as he looked towards Chen Dong.

The four eyes met.

Chen Dong's sweat suddenly stood on end, and a strong heart palpitations arose.

The look in Jiang Qilin's eyes made him feel like he was facing the ancient starry sky, and the feeling of being withered and alone made his heart and soul tremble.

"But what if there are immortals in the world?"

Jiang Qilin pulled up the corner of his mouth and gave a quirky smile.

Immortals?

Chen Dong's heart contracted fiercely, and quietly, his hands clenched into fists, lost in thought.

As if Jiang Qilin did not notice Chen Dong's difference, said: "You see Pan Gu opened the sky, Nuwa created man, the three emperors set the country, the five emperors opened the frontier, ancient mythology, the Shan Hai Jing, folklore, ancient poetry inheritance Why are there gods and immortals, but by now, they are gone? "

Xu Xu murmured sound, coupled with Jiang Qilin's state at the moment, giving people an extremely powerful sense of oppression.

Even Chen Dong, for his part, fell into contemplation at these enquiries.

Jiang Qilin's every word seemed to be sharp needles, piercing his eardrums.

He did not believe that there were immortals in the world, but it was Jiang Qilin's enquiry that left him irrefutable.

Ancient myths, spectacular as they are, started the human race.

Pan Gu opened the heavens, Nuwa created man, the Three Emperors and Five Emperors, all of which have been passed down to this day.

And in the Shanhaijing it is even more glorious.

There are also all kinds of folk legends, ancient poems and novels, all of them.

Chen Dong had been interested in these for a while during his junior high school days, and had even spent some time immersed in the Shanhaijing, and at that time he was also tsk-tsk-tsk-tsk and fascinated by everything in the Shanhaijing.

It was just clear to him that it was all just a virtual fabrication, a mere bubble.

But now being questioned by Jiang Qilin in this way, he suddenly had some doubts.

Could there really be immortals in this world

“Sorry, I can’t answer your question.”

Chen Dong shook his head and said with some loss.

“The Three Emperors, the Five Emperors, the Xia, Shang and Zhou, and the Feng Shen Pang are all untalkable, so how do you explain these folklore miscellanies and legends such as Xu Fu seeking immortality, Zhuge Kongming renewing his life with the Seven Star Lamp, Wei Zheng dreaming of beheading the dragon, and Yao Guangxiao capturing the dragon

Jiang Qilin guffawed and asked again.

Chen Dong was completely dumbfounded, these were all legends that he had heard and seen in detail since he was a child.

On the contrary, in this situation, he was asked a question by Jiang Qilin.

He suddenly felt at a loss for words, too confused to respond.

As he stared at Jiang Qilin, the ethereal and ethereal aura made Chen Dong lose his mind in fear.

There was silence around him.

After Jiang Qilin asked the question, he did not say anything more, as if he was waiting for Chen Dong’s answer.

Chen Dong, however, did not know how to answer.

The night breeze was slightly cool.

There was a long time of silence.

Chen Dong rubbed his nose, moved his eyes to the position of Jiang Qilin’s chest, avoided the oppressive feeling and smiled teasingly.

“You are trying to say that you are not a legacy of martial training, but a divine legacy, right?”

Jiang Qilin’s gaze flickered for a moment, and suddenly his aura changed drastically as the glittering light dissipated.

He laughed out loud, “Hahahaha joking with Mr. Chen, in fact, we are all the same kind of people, no need to take it seriously.”

While saying that, he also raised his hand and patted Chen Dong's shoulder.

Chen Dong then laughed, that ethereal ethereal feeling disappeared, but his smile was still somewhat forced, a leathery smile.

I don't know what happened.

Something that clearly felt impossible to exist.

Yet he felt that Jiang Qilin's words just now were so false and real that they seemed to exist as if they were true!

"Mr. Chen, I have an unpleasant request!"

Jiang Qilin turned his words around, "When Mr. Chen trains every day, can you join Qilin? My grandfather, father and the elders have taught me that if I don't advance in martial arts, I will fall back.

"What kind of ungrateful request is that?"

Chen Dong deflated and gave Jiang Qilin a white look, "You can naturally join me if you want to."

Jiang Qilin smiled awkwardly, "Sorry, it's really because I used to retreat alone and train alone, so I feel a little presumptuous about this."

.....

The day after that.

In the morning and evening time, Chen Dong had specially vacated his training time to train with Jiang Qilin.

However, what surprised Chen Dong a little was that Jiang Qilin's training style was very different from his.

There was no systematic training, nor were there any wide open stances.

Jiang Qilin's movements even gave Chen Dong the feeling of fooling around!

He had seen the way the grandparents in the park worked out and practiced Tai Chi, and when it fell on Jiang Qilin, it simply overlapped perfectly.

Such training really works?

Astonished as he was, Chen Dong did not ask.

Everyone has a training style that suits everyone, and the best is always the one that suits you best.

In contrast to the tranquility and peace within the Tianmen Mountain villa area.

Time has passed, but the outside world, the southwest region to be precise, has become more and more intense and flooded.

Public opinion was building up and fermenting.

It has reached a stage where it is difficult to suppress.

The curses and grievances are overwhelming.

The giants and giants of the world who have converged on the southwest region have already been frazzled, unable to sleep at night.

The collapse of the south-western region has led to the fact that even if they were to sell their land at auction in time, no one would take them up.

All the plots of land are in an awkward position of having a price but not a market.

However, land prices and property prices are collapsing at a terrifying rate.

In such a situation, every day that the land is in hand means that every second of that day, the land is suffering horrific losses in a state of collapse!

In the blink of an eye.

The time came on the 10th of May.

Early in the morning.

Chen Dong was dressed in a suit and arrived at Dingtai Company.

The company staff were busy as usual, but the atmosphere of tension and trepidation that pervaded the staff could be felt clearly even when they walked through the corridor.

When Chen Dong settled into his office, about ten minutes later.

Elder Long, Zhuge Qing, Chu Reed, Zhou Yanqiu, Zhou Zunlong and Jiang Qilin, then walked into the office together.

Chen Dong was focusing on the plot quotes displayed on the computer screen, flicking the mouse.

Only after seeing everyone come in did he turn his attention to them.

Not too many words were spoken.

Chen Dong smiled a bitter smile and said coldly, "Senior hunters usually appear as prey and only shake when the prey gets close, so everyone, wake up, hunting time!"

Chapter 1458

The moment of the hunt?

Elder Long, Zhuge Qing, Chu Reed, Zhou Yanqiu and Zhou Zun Long, all had their hearts and souls lifted.

They had been waiting for this day for a long time!

From the day Chen Dong decided to sell the land, they had been under monstrous pressure all the time.

Not only do they have to constantly face a situation that could collapse at any time, but they also have to endure the scolding of public opinion at all times.

Physical, mental, double damage!

Now they have finally been able to vent their anger and see the light of day.

However.

Long Lao raised his eyebrows and hesitantly said, "Young master, there are still nine days until the 19th of May as you planned, is it too early for us to start harvesting the land right now?"

From the day he got the planning blueprint, it was clear to him that the whole plan would eventually come to this moment now.

But Long Lao knew better than that, this harvest must be done quickly and with the force of thunder.

Nine days is too long, and no one can be sure exactly what variables will appear in it!

"No matter, in nine days, no more variables will appear."

Chen Dong smiled faintly, his eyebrows revealing an unparalleled confidence, "During this period of time, all the forces are frantically dumping land to stop losses, they have long been dizzy, and because of those previous incidents, they all think that I am completely finished, and the attention on us has greatly decayed, we are only harvesting a small portion of the land according to the blueprint, even if they react, Even if they reacted, we'd have already sealed the deal!"

Long Lao frowned and pondered for a moment, before his doubts faded away.

Chen Dong lifted his hands and gently patted them.

"Gentlemen, this battle, whether it is a success or a failure, depends on how you all perform on the Harvesting Battlefield during these nine days!"

Zhuge Qing, Chu Reed and the others all revealed overpoweringly confident smiles.

Only Elder Long was still frowning.

As he grew old, he had seen all the red dust of the world, and his mind had become more mature and serious.

His perspective on things was more comprehensive and thorough than that of the people present.

Now the situation was developing towards what Chen Dong expected, but Elder Long still caught a very crucial point in this plot.

That was the development!

This was something that he and Zhuge Qing had been considering when Chen Dong had revealed the blueprint to him and Zhuge Qing earlier.

It was just that compared to Zhuge Qing's youthful naivety, Elder Long was still worried even now.

It was true that this plot could create a major base camp in one fell swoop.

But the key was that the world's giants and power giants could not stand by and watch Chen Dong swallow all the benefits in his stomach.

Once the plan succeeds, the giants and giants will see that there is no profit to be made and will probably end up putting all the land in the southwest region in their hands and hoarding it, waiting for a successor to appear.

But this will also lead to a large area of vacant land in the southwest region that cannot be developed, and it will be difficult to develop the southwest region.

Worried as he was, Elder Long did not raise his objection in public.

The business world is like a battlefield.

When fighting on the battlefield, if one drum is used, two will fail and three will be exhausted.

Now that Zhuge Qing and the others were all in high spirits, it was most appropriate for them to enter the mall in such a state.

Once he raises his objection, it will become a thorn in their side and they will inevitably act with forethought, increasing the chances of something going wrong.

After Zhuge Qing, Chu Reed and the others left the office.

Only then did Elder Long ask: "Young master, the way to clean up the mess, have you really thought it through?"

The tone of his voice was heavy and dense with worry.

Their aim was to promote the development of the entire southwest region in one fell swoop while building the new Chen family, only then could the new Chen family's waters rise.

With the whole situation at stake, Elder Long did not dare not ask!

"Elder Long."

Chen Dong leaned back in his chair, gazing at Elder Long with a determined expression, "Xiao Qian, will definitely be able to complete her mission, she will not let us down!"

Qin Xiao Qian?

Long Lao was stunned and lost in thought, with some surprise in his eyes.

He hadn't seen Qin Xiao Qian for a long time.

Qin Xiao Qian had left very suddenly, and had hidden the situation from everyone, except Chen Dong.

But when they had asked Chen Dong about Qin Xiao Qian's whereabouts, Chen Dong had always been secretive and avoided talking about it.

"What has Xiao Qian gone to do?"

Elder Long asked curiously.

"Do something, Elder Long."

Chen Dong said calmly, his eyes bright as stars, "Xiao Qian holds the lifeline of the whole situation, as long as she succeeds, then your worries will vanish."

After a pause, Chen Dong smiled brightly, "Judging from the current reaction to the situation, Xiao Qian should have already succeeded!"

Elder Long: "???"

After a moment's hesitation, Elder Long smiled helplessly and sighed, "The speed at which Young Master has grown up is increasingly surprising to the old slave!"

After saying that, he turned around and left.

He still had to lead the Dingtai Company and secretly reap the rewards of the other plots!

Inside the office.

Chen Dong smiled blandly, "In nine more days, I will be unstoppable again when I cast New Chen!"

Time passes.

The trend of selling off listed land in the southwestern region did not have the slightest tendency to be curbed.

Every day at dawn, a large amount of land was again put up for sale at auction.

The declining trend shown by Chen Dong moved the entire southwest region.

It was not only the magnates and giants who were terrified and disoriented.

In the private sector, there was even more panic and sleepless nights.

The collapse of land and property prices may be a mere loss of investment for the gentry or giants.

But for the ordinary people, it is undoubtedly a tumble in the sky.

Such fear and anxiety seemed to dominate the whole of the southwest region, haunting it.

It was precisely in the midst of such panic and anxiety, which was almost frantic.

In the land market, however, several forces have quietly emerged to buy against the trend.

Compared to the market situation in the entire southwest region, the sudden emergence of these counter-trend forces was inconspicuous.

After all, during this period of time, while everyone was selling like crazy, there were also people who were desperate enough to gamble on a wave of heavenly luck.

These few forces were none other than Zhuge Qing, Chu Reed and Zhou Yanqiu and Zhou Zunlong.

However, several people obeyed Chen Dong's orders, and even if they acquired, they hid their identities and did so quietly in secret.

It was as if they were the Grim Reaper under the night, harvesting their targets bit by bit and perfecting the blueprint outlined by Chen Dong.

As several forces began to harvest, the owners of the acquired land, instead of being the least bit suspicious, felt as if they had been blessed by the heavens and were grateful.

Time passed day by day.

Every day, Chen Dong would check the completed acquisition maps of several forces, and under this kind of brocade harvesting, his blueprint was being filled in rapidly.

In the blink of an eye.

It was the 17th of May.

It was early this morning.

Chen Dong, who was sleeping, was awakened by a sharp knock at the door.

Chen Dong frowned slightly and hurriedly checked on Gu Qingying to make sure that she was not frightened before he got up to open the door.

As soon as he opened the door.

Zhuce Qing, who was standing at the door, said in a panic, "Brother Dong, our land resumption matter has been exposed!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 1459-1460

Chapter 1459

Exposed?

Chen Dong was a little surprised.

Zhuge Qing and the rest of them had been cautious enough when harvesting the land, how could they still be exposed?

However, from the moment he decided to harvest, Chen Dong had already prepared himself mentally.

He raised his hand to pat Zhuge Qing's shoulder and said soothingly, "It's alright, it's already the 17th of May, and there are only two days until the 19th, even if we are exposed, it will be hard for those people to react."

"But there's still a piece of land that hasn't been purchased!"

Zhuge Qing said with some panic, "That piece of land was just now, and the auction has been withdrawn!"

Boom!

Chen Dong was struck by lightning and his mind could no longer be calmed.

The blueprint he had sketched out was the most favourable situation for the new Chen family in the future, and once it had been forged, it was no surprise that his fate was completely tied up with the entire southwest region.

But now a piece of land was missing, and this would have a huge impact on his planning!

"Go to the study first."

Chen Dong said in a deep voice, closing the door and heading towards the study.

The harvesting process did not occur to him that several forces would hide the process perfectly, the chances of that were very slim.

There was no impermeable wall under the sky.

A few forces bucking the trend of successive harvests would inevitably be sniffed out over time.

But he expected the best situation, also similar to now, is very close to the nineteenth when it was detected, then the world's giants even if they want to have a move, it is too late.

Bias Chen Dong did not expect to end up missing a piece of land!

Inside the study.

Long Lao and Chu Reed were already waiting, and even Jiang Qilin was rarely present.

When he saw Jiang Qilin, Chen Dong was a little surprised.

Elder Long explained, "Things are a little tricky, so my old slave has taken the liberty of inviting Mr. Jiang to lend the Jiang family's hand in times of need!"

Chen Dong did not deny it.

After taking his seat, he said in a deep voice, "In whose hands is that piece of land?"

Several people looked at each other.

Zhuge Qing had a complicated expression and said helplessly, "In Zhang Lidong's hands."

"Zhang Lidong?"

Chen Dong was surprised for a moment, and then his face quickly clouded over with a chill.

He remembered what had happened at the banquet that night.

He thanked Zhang Lidong for helping him out, but he could not forget the humiliation of being as humble as dust at the banquet that night either.

For the sake of the greater good, Chen Dong could hold back.

But now, the last piece of land had actually fallen into Zhang Lidong's hands, and that was what deserved to die!

"Careless, we didn't even put Zhang Lidong in our eyes."

Zhuge Qing had witnessed Chen Dong's humility at that banquet, so at this moment, his heart was even more indignant: "When that Zhang Lidong collected the land before, we didn't even know about it, after the banquet that night, he had already put up the land, but the news really spread too fast, after we learned that we were exposed, the auction of the land in Zhang Lidong's hands had already been withdrawn. "

"A piece of land that shouldn't be much of a problem if you don't buy it, right?"

Chu Reed pushed the glasses on the bridge of her nose and analyzed.

As soon as the words left his mouth.

Jiang Qilin then shook his head and said, "Involving a whole body, a planned situation, just like a star fall chess board, one less piece and one more piece, those are two variables, a big problem!"

Chu Reed glanced at Jiang Qilin in surprise.

While Chen Dong nodded in agreement with Jiang Qilin: "I have detailed plans for each piece of land, one piece is missing, and if one piece is missing, the future situation of the entire southwest region cannot be controlled."

Jiang Qilin smiled at Chen Dong and nodded his head, with a sense of sympathy.

In the study, the atmosphere was frozen.

After a few moments of silence, Chen Dong suddenly rose, "Zhuge Qing, come with me to see Zhang Lidong."

The crowd was stunned for a moment.

Zhuce Qing thought of that night's scene and hurriedly said, "Mr. Chen, why don't I go, to approach Zhang Lidong, you don't need to do it yourself yet."

"Yes!"

Chen Dong's gaze was profound and he smiled oddly, "When I was weak, the world's giants gathered in the southwest region, all speculating on my strength, there were many people stronger than Zhang Lidong, why did Zhang Lidong, who was only worth more than ten billion, dare to organise that banquet and embarrass me in public?"

A shocking statement.

Several people in the audience changed their expressions and woke up with a start.

A mole would not dare to bite an elephant, but when there was a hunter standing behind the mole with a sharpened knife, the mole would have the guts to swallow the elephant alive, not to mention biting the elephant!

In fact, there is a very crucial point that Chen Dong did not reveal because he was afraid of letting Gu Qingying know.

That is Zhang Lidong knows the recent situation of his father-in-law and mother-in-law!

The three thousand and six hundred doors of the Hong Society, day and night to investigate, are nowhere to be found, a mere existence of more than ten billion dollars, also carrying the premise that there is a former suspicion with Qing Ying International, actually knows the recent situation of his father-in-law and mother-in-law.

This is unbelievable!

Otherwise, Chen Dong would not have called Yuan Yigang directly!

“Depart now.”

Zhuge Qing no longer hesitated.

The two of them left the villa.

While Elder Long, Chu Reed and Jiang Qilin remained in the study, a piece of land was the key, but they still had many things to arrange out.

Jiang Qilin saw that Chu Reed was worried and could not help but say soothingly, “Reed is fine, don’t worry, it’s not possible, I can ask for help from home.”

Chu reed squeezed out a smile, “Thank you.”

Jiang Qilin grinned broadly and wrapped his hand around Chu Reed’s shoulder, while his right hand beat his heart: “Friends should help each other.”

As he said this, he did not notice that Chu Reed’s expression had froze.

At the side, Elder Long sensed that something was wrong and was about to speak up to stop it.

However, Jiang Qilin continued, “As friends, friendship is most important.”

While saying that, he also gestured for Chu Reed to beat his heart with his hand.

“Jiang Qilin

Chu Reed’s face completely darkened, with a blush on her cheeks, “You stinking rascal!”

At the same time as she sternly shouted, she directly pushed Jiang Qilin away and ran out of the study.

Jiang Qilin stood in place with a bewildered expression and asked Elder Long in fear, “Elder Long, did I do something wrong again?”

“I’m afraid that Mr. Jiang has some misunderstanding about the perception between men and women and between friends.”

Elder Long smiled awkwardly, thought for a moment, and said, “It’s fine, Mr. Jiang doesn’t know how to deal with people, if this time the tripod is successful, after the celebration, I will take Mr. Jiang to some places where the lights and the wine are green to see, I believe that Mr. Jiang will soon be enlightened.”

“Wine and light?”

Jiang Qilin was pleasantly surprised, “Then it must be possible for me to learn a lot?”

Long Lao narrowed his eyes and smiled blatantly, “That’s for sure, the growth of a boy to a man is perhaps just that one time away from the lights and the wine.”

Pah!

Jiang Qilin snapped his fingers excitedly and said with a longing face, “To learn so much, please Old Man Long must take me there!”

“Don’t worry, don’t worry, old man has said his words, he will not go back on his word.”

Elder Long waved his hand with a smile, with the look of an old driver.

Chapter 1460

As news of Chen Dong’s land acquisition was revealed.

In the first instance, it reached the ears of the heads of the major magnate families and giants of power.

In a flash.

Everyone was dumbfounded and sat waxing on the spot.

No one had expected that the peaks and valleys would actually turn around.

“Quickly, revoke it! Undo the land we threw out!”

“To practice what you preach and to conceal it, Chen Dong, Chen Dong, this young master of the Chen family is a true dragon among men, he has actually concealed it from all of us!”

“How on earth did he do that? Goodness, southwest won’t collapse, quickly undo it, quickly pinch down all the plots we threw out!”

.....

The heads of powerful families and giants of power were terrified and had the feeling that it was like a dream.

But at their level, even if they were shocked, they had a decision in the first instance and made the most appropriate decision.

They had gathered in the southwest region with the aim of promoting the development of the southwest region by Chen Dong and Rothschild, and had come here for profit.

The sale of the land in their hands was also stopped in time because Chen Dong had shown time and again that he was declining and making people desperate.

Now Chen Dong is taking advantage of the chaos to secretly collect land, although covertly enough, and the forces collecting land are still the Zhuge family and the Zhang Chu family, but everyone is clear, these families are all under the command of Chen Dong vassals, they also represent Chen Dong!

The signal released by the secretly taking advantage of the chaos is something that can be understood with a little thought.

The southwest region has never been decadent!

The so-called decadence is just a deliberate display of Chen Dong to everyone.

The magnate family heads and power giants could not understand for a while why Chen Dong had this series of operations, but it was clear to them that everything in the southwest region would not completely collapse!

Holding the land in their hands will get the value it deserves in no time!

It was also at the time when the major magnate family heads and power giants were making their decisions.

In the market, some of the most powerful families and giants were quick to buy up the land that had been put up for sale in a very short time.

This morning alone, several families were happy and several families were sad.

There was an undercurrent among the gentry.

Those who had withdrawn their land auctions in time were patting themselves on the back and crying out for luck.

Those who snatched the land in time were delighted and excited, laughing.

Those who were too late to cancel the auction and had their land purchased were as pale as charcoal and in pain.

.....

The gentry are fighting for profits among themselves.

Chen Dong doesn't care, all he cares about now is how to get that land from Zhang Lidong!

As far as he was concerned, the plot of land outlined in the blueprint had to be in his pocket.

As for the other plots of land, the major giants and powers are now jealously fighting for them, with some people rejoicing and others crying, but when the time comes for him to make his move, I'm afraid they won't be able to laugh.

The current scramble, in Chen Dong's eyes, is simply harmless to his plan!

"Brother Dong, how should we talk to Zhang Lidong later?"

Zhuge Qing asked worriedly as he drove the car.

"Talk about what?"

Chen Dong gave Zhuge Qing a sidelong glance, his aura blazing and his mouth chilling, "I'm not going to talk to him, but to inform him!"

Brutal and overbearing, rampant to the extreme!

Even Zhuge Qing's gaze flickered and his mind was in a panic.

Along the way, he was still pondering how he should conduct the negotiations.

Never did he expect that Chen Dong was already planning to be simple and brutal!

Inside the hotel.

Zhang Lidong was stationed in front of the floor-to-ceiling window in a nightgown, his eyebrows deep and cold.

His right hand gently shook his red wine glass: "Chen Dong ah Chen Dong really underestimated you, openly repairing the stacks and darkening the silos, almost let you play all the world's gentry, but also good news spread fast, otherwise this time I really was played by you, alas... ..Gu Guohua has been short-sighted all his life, but his daughter's vision has won him a lifetime!"

The phone rang.

Zhang Lidong glanced at the caller ID and his expression was instantly incomparably respectful.

He picked up the call straight away, even bowing slightly at the waist: "Master, what are your orders?"

If such words were heard by others, their jaws would definitely drop.

A man with a tens of billions of dollars in his hand had become a slave?

On the contrary, when Zhang Lidong shouted out these words, his words and actions were respectful to the extreme, and there was not the slightest feeling of discomfort.

There was a silence for two seconds.

Zhang Lidong respectfully responded, "Master don't worry, I already know the news, the first time I withdrew the pending auction out of the hand, there will be no loss, in addition you asked me to reveal to Chen Dong Gu Guohua couple, I also followed your instructions to reveal to him."

There was a pause.

Zhang Lidong responded again, "At the necessary moment, I will be the first to act according to your instructions, with this killer app in place, Chen Dong is destined to be unable to make waves in the southwest region."

Pop!

The phone hung up.

Zhang Lidong's bowed body reared up and looked out of the window at the city, draining his glass of wine with a bitter smile.

"Gu Guohua, your daughter has the luck of being from the dragon, which has allowed you to overpower me in the shopping mall, the wind and water have turned, this time I've gotten close to the big ship, the Gu family, I'm afraid you never dreamed that one day your life and your wife's would be in my hands, right?"

The sound of laughter was piercingly cold.

At that moment.

There was a clamour of smashing figures from outside.

Zhang Lidong's eyebrows knitted in some anger.

He hated the feeling of being disturbed in the middle of his springtime.

"What's going on outside?"

Zhang Lidong chided loudly.

When he moved into the hotel, he had already chartered the rooms on this floor for the sake of quietness, and on this floor, apart from him were his bodyguards.

The rebuke had just come out.

Bang Teen!

The door to the room was kicked open with a loud bang.

Zhang Lidong, who was sulking, froze on the spot as his expression froze.

"Chen, Chen Dong?"

Chen Dong's face was as cold as frost as he stopped at the doorway, his suit wearing a suit, giving off a stern and unmistakable sense of oppression at the moment.

Behind him, Zhang Lidong's bodyguards, however, were lying on the ground in a heap, wailing and tumbling.

Zhuge Qing settled the last bodyguard and walked up behind Chen Dong: "Mr. Chen, all done!"

"You, what are you doing?"

Zhang Lidong came back to his senses and looked at the bodyguards lying on the ground, he was instantly frightened and terrified, "Chen Dong, I can tell you, if you want to mess around, you have to be careful, I am not just some cat or dog that you can take advantage of!"

Chen Dong narrowed his eyes, his coldness flickering.

He did not make a sound either, and stepped directly into the room, settling down on the sofa.

The process was slow, but the powerful sense of oppression emanating from Chen Dong's body made the temperature in the room seem to have plummeted by a large margin.

And Zhang Lidong stopped where he was, his heart racing and his expression terrified.

In a trance, a layer of cold sweat even rose on his back.

At this juncture, Chen Dong breaking into the room in this manner was definitely not a good thing!

Finally.

Chen Dong raised his eyes and looked at Zhang Lidong, breaking the dead silence in the room.

“Want life, or want land?”
