

Winner Takes All Chapter 1491-1500

Chapter 1491

A calm murmur echoes slowly through the Buddha Hall.

Buzz!

The fierce and violent qi that surrounded his body just now, along with this strong wind, also gathered back into his body.

“Hm?!”

Almost at the same time, Gu Cang Yue, who had leapt onto the roof with Old Lady Chen, turned back in surprise and gazed at Chen Dong below, “Strange, how can his aura suddenly change?”

For martial artists, aura varies from person to person and from gong method to gong method, either feminine, fierce, or domineering

This kind of aura is ingrained in the martial artist’s bones and blood from the time he or she first enters the martial arts path, and is difficult to change, only becoming more and more violent and powerful as the martial artist becomes stronger.

To Gu Cangyue, it was inconceivable that his aura could change so drastically in a short period of time that he was like two other people!

Just as Gu Cangyue was gazing at Chen Dong in astonishment.

Chen Dong, who was standing tall, slowly raised his head, while his eyes slowly opened.

This process seemed to be deliberately slowed down, but as Chen Dong raised his head and opened his eyes, a majestic sense of oppression, like a waterfall rolling backwards, surged onto the roof.

At the same time, Chen Dong opened his eyes.

Scarlet and blood-coloured, they covered his eyes, cold and indifferent to the point of being emotionless.

A line of veins and veins protruded from his neck and spread to his entire face, hideous and terrifying, like a ghost.

In an instant, a sinister, brutal aura burst out from Chen Dong’s body like a tidal wave.

The temperature inside the entire Buddha Hall plummeted, and the solemn atmosphere also became sinister and cold with a bang.

“This is”

Gu Cang Yue’s pupils tightened to the extreme, staring bloodily at Chen Dong, the face that resembled an evil ghost was like a heavy hammer booming against his eyeballs.

The bone piercing gloomy coldness made Gu Cang Yue’s scalp instantly numb and terrified.

In a trance, as Chen Dong’s aura boomed, he even felt a monstrous sea of blood rising behind Chen Dong, in which white bones were capped and evil spirits cried out!

“Go, Cang Yue, go!”

The old lady Chen’s face was covered in blood, but her face was pale and terrified to the extreme, her eyes were wide with fear: “Go, if you don’t go, you won’t be able to leave!”

The words just fell.

“Heh”

Chen Dong, who was standing still, suddenly pulled up the corner of one side of his mouth, smiled bitterly and let out a hoarse voice: “Already can’t get away!”

Boom!

The ground beneath Chen Dong’s feet exploded and collapsed, and his entire body was like a cannonball, as fast as lightning, rushing directly towards the roof of the room.

Surrounded by qi, Chen Dong’s hands brazenly grabbed at Gu Cang Yue and Old Lady Chen.

“Get down!”

In a flash of lightning, Gu Cangyue looked fierce, his Qi energy surging, and he brazenly slapped his palm down directly towards Chen Dong who was close at hand.

With the Qi energy, this palm directly condensed into a one-metre transparent palm print, like a big seal that was boldly suppressed.

“Ow!”

Chen Dong opened his mouth and roared, forming his hands into claws and tearing them in front of him.

There was a bang! The transparent palm seal exploded in response, dispersing into smoke!

“How has his battle power skyrocketed so much?”

Gu Cang Yue’s scalp exploded and his entire body was slightly confused.

When he had shown up to save Li Danggui when he had exterminated the entire Qin family, the battle power Chen Dong had displayed at that time was not even on the same level as him.

If Chen Dong hadn’t been so ruthless, using the method of injuring 800 enemies and losing a thousand, he wouldn’t have been injured at all, and even at that time, if the Thief Saint Xu Qingfeng hadn’t shown up to save the day, he could have taken Chen Dong’s life directly in that battle!

And this palm just now, if he had faced the previous Chen Dong, not to mention injuring him, but he had full assurance that he would have forced Chen Dong back with one palm!

But Chen Dong easily cracked it with a casual tear.

Was this guy really the same person that he knew before?

“Cang Yue

Suddenly, Old Lady Chen’s astonished voice exploded in Gu Cang Yue’s ears.

The first thing that happened to him was that he felt cold, like he had fallen into an abyss, and in his vision Chen Dong was already close to him, and his hands were grabbing towards him and Old Lady Chen.

In his heart, Gu Cangyue screamed, “Not good!

In a flash of lightning, he even felt that the Qi surrounding Chen Dong’s hands was faintly tinged with an ominous blood colour!

“Go!”

Gu Cangyue’s expression sank as his qi burst out, and he was about to take Old Madam Chen with him and flee.

Bang!

There was a muffled sound.

“Ah!”

Immediately afterwards, Old Lady Chen’s miserable scream exploded into the night sky.

Gu Cangyue’s expression changed greatly, and when she looked down, she found that Chen Dong’s large hand had already grabbed Old Madam Chen’s right ankle.

And Old Lady Chen was full of pain, her eyes full of despair and fear: “Save me, Gu Cang Yue save me old body for the Gu family planning for a century you... ..”

“Save your mother!”

Not waiting for Gu Cang Yue to speak, the corners of Chen Dong’s mouth pulled up a sinister smile, and his right hand twisted violently.

Ka!

Old Mrs. Chen’s right wrist was directly crushed off, and a miserable scream then resounded through the night air.

“Come down!”

With Chen Dong’s hoarse explosive roar, his right hand lashed out, and the majestic qi, instantly rewinding, engulfed directly towards Old Lady Chen and Gu Cangyue above him.

The majestic force instantly caused Gu Cangyue’s face to change drastically, and Old Lady Chen even screamed miserably.

“Cang Yue!”

Feeling herself being yanked towards the ground, Old Lady Chen pleaded in fear for help.

“Wild bastard, let her go!”

Gu Cang Yue’s heart was racing, the strength Chen Dong had exploded out with was something that even he could not support.

At the same time as he burst out, a flash of determination emerged in his eyes.

Boom!

Gu Cang Yue turned his body in the air and directly turned his head downwards, slapping his palm at Chen Dong below.

“You’re not worthy!”

Chen Dong smiled fiercely, and while his right hand tugged at Old Lady Chen, his left hand met him directly with a palm!

Boom!

The palm collided with the palm, Qi energy wreaking havoc in all directions, and the entire roof of the Buddha Hall was directly overturned under the impact of the Qi energy.

The entire roof of the Buddha Hall was directly overturned by the impact of the qi, and under this palm, Gu Cangyue was also directly shaken and sent flying backwards, spraying a mouthful of blood in the air.

Almost simultaneously.

Chen Dong dragged Old Madam Chen down towards the ground.

His scarlet and bloodshot eyes stared at the terrified Old Lady Chen in front of him, “Smashing my mother’s spirit tablet, do you like it?”

Old Mrs. Chen’s body was tense, and as Chen Dong’s bloodshot eyes gazed at her, she seemed to forget the pain of her broken bones for a moment, and a possibility suddenly came to her mind, and she was scared out of her wits.

“No, don’t Chen Dong, I, I am the Chen family elders, you”

The words had not yet fallen.

Chen Dong twisted his waist in the air, the wind whistled, but his right hand tugged on the broken ankle of the old lady Chen, like a broken pocket, and threw the old lady Chen to the ground with a bang.

Boom!

The ground shook with a loud sound, and smoke and dust rolled out in all directions.

“Wild bastard!”

Everything was in a snap of her fingers, and Gu Cang Yue, who had been shaken out of the way, landed firmly on top of the wall, just in time to witness the scene, and was instantly jaw-dropped.

The smoke and dust gradually cleared.

Old Lady Chen's entire body was sprawled on the ground, the ground cracking and spreading out inch by inch with her as the centre.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, was standing beside Old Lady Chen.

Just as Gu Cangyue cursed, Chen Dong slowly raised his head, his bloodshot eyes sweeping through the smoke and dust, locking onto Gu Cangyue and smiling provocatively.

"Come and fight!"

"I"

Gu Cang Yue's pupils tightened, even though the black cloth covered his face, but his eyes alone, he was fearful to the extreme.

The next second.

Gu Cang Yue eyes determined up, without the slightest hesitation, turned and leapt, disappeared in the night on top of the wall

Chapter 1492

Outside the courtyard.

There was silence.

The roar that erupted from within the courtyard just now was like thunder in everyone's ears, and the roof that had been overturned and blown to pieces had sent chills down the spine of everyone.

Even Chen Daoye, Chen Daocheng and the rest of the Chen family's rulers were shaken to their cores and their pupils tightened.

"The knot, is it over?"

Chen Daocheng was dazed and lost in thought, and when he came back to his senses, his heart thumped, but on the surface, he lamented in mock regret, "Who actually won? The young master, or the old lady?"

With a single word, the dead silence outside the courtyard was broken.

Several people in power in Chen Daocheng's faction revealed looks of anticipation.

No matter who lived or died, whether it was Chen Dong or Old Madam Chen, to them, it was all about reaping the benefits!

It was only a matter of how much benefit the life and death of the two would bring!

“Chen Daocheng, can you erect your pagoda any higher?”

Chen Daoye’s gaze was sullen as he stared at Chen Daocheng and the others with disgust.

The few people in power behind him also glared huffily at Chen Daocheng and the others.

They were from the family head’s faction, and were the only people in the Chen family who wished Chen Dong well these days, so they could naturally distinguish the purpose of Chen Daocheng’s presence there.

“Dao Ye, why are you always throwing fire at me?”

Chen Daocheng raised his eyebrows and laughed sarcastically, “It was the old undead who smashed the spirit of Young Master Chen’s mother, Young Master Chen himself wanted to kill the old undead, it has nothing to do with me, as a member of the Chen family, I naturally want everyone to be at peace with each other, you are so angry, why didn’t you stop Young Master from killing the old undead just now?”

The words just fell.

Creak

The heavy courtyard door suddenly opened slowly.

The sound of the door opening was very soft, but under the dead silence of the whole room, it was like a thunderclap, instantly attracting the attention of thousands of people.

The lights shone.

A shadow stretched long and long and was the first to come through the doorway.

Who had actually won?

For a moment, everyone, including Chen Dao Ye and Chen Dao Cheng, stared with eager anticipation and unblinking eyes.

Finally.

When the door opened and Chen Dong’s face was revealed, everyone was shaken.

“The young master has come out!”

The gloom on Chen Daoye’s face was swept away, and a small smile appeared as if he was relieved.

And the few people in power behind him also relaxed.

Chen Daocheng and the others were first surprised for a moment, and then a few of them revealed a look of loss.

Compared to Chen Dong winning, they wanted Old Lady Chen to win even more!

Almost simultaneously.

“Hiss~”

The whole room suddenly resounded with the sound of a backward intake of cold air, converging together like a tidal wave.

In an instant.

The eyes of everyone looking at Chen Dong became fearful, like they were looking at a ghost or god.

Even the faces of Chen Daoye, Chen Daocheng and the others suddenly froze.

Under the light, Chen Dong looked indifferent, his body was still stained with blood, his right hand was dragging the bladeless heavy sword upside down, and it was his left hand that was holding Old Lady Chen’s head that really made the entire crowd’s faces turn pale and suck in cold air!

In full view of the crowd.

Chen Dong’s footsteps were slow and leisurely, but the old lady in his left hand, with her eyes wide open and dead, made everyone’s heads go blank.

As Chen Dong moved forward, blood also kept dripping down, leaving a trail of blood.

The scene was eerily seeping.

To the thousands of bodyguards present, it was even more sensational, shattering their livers and guts!

They knew that just before, Old Lady Chen was an elder that the entire Chen family had to respect, but in one night, her head had fallen to the ground!

To these Chen family servants and bodyguards, the sky was no doubt turned upside down!

The man who had forged all this was now feared to the extreme in the eyes of thousands of bodyguards!

Who would have thought that the “highest” ranking man in the Chen family would end up like this?

As Chen Dong stepped forward, the faces of Chen Daoye, Chen Daocheng and the others in power became embarrassed.

The looks they gave Chen Dong varied in complexity.

Even they had not expected that Chen Dong would be so rampant and brutal, actually strutting around the Chen family like this, carrying Old Lady Chen!

“Uncle Dao Ye, Dong'er will go to the clan ancestral hall first.”

Chen Dong looked calm to the extreme, glanced at Chen Dao Ye and the others, but directly swept past the crowd and headed towards the clan ancestral hall, “I still have to pay my respects to my mother.”

In a calm voice, each word seemed to carry an endless chill that eroded everyone present.

Paying tribute to her mother?

Take Old Lady Chen's head?

“Not a single injury?”

Chen Daocheng snapped awake, his heart guilty of muttering, but his expression was as hard as it could be.

What Chen Dong was displaying now was clearly not even a single wound!

To Chen Daocheng and those in power under him, this was not good news at all, it was simply bad news!

They had anticipated that even if Old Lady Chen died, Chen Dong would still be injured, so that they could delay the development of the Southwest Region and minimise their faction's investment in the Southwest Region in a short period of time.

But now, old lady Chen died, but Chen Dong didn't suffer any injury at all!

What the hell good is this?

The few people in power behind Chen Daocheng also woke up at this moment, staring intently at Chen Daocheng in front of them with complicated expressions.

If the development of the southwest region is not hindered, then the price that their faction will have to pay in the next six months will be sky high and still be a dowry for Chen Dong!

Seeing Chen Dong leave.

Chen Daocheng suddenly looked gloomy and sobbed with grief: "Aiya God, the Chen family family is unfortunate, old lady yo"

This cry, incomparably piercing, echoed in the ears of the crowd.

The few people in power behind Chen Daocheng looked aghast and were about to echo it.

Just at that moment.

Boom!

A fierce wind exploded.

Under the light, a bitter cold light suddenly slashed across the faces of Chen Daocheng and the others.

Bang Teen!

The bladeless heavy sword flipped in the air a few times and plunged straight into the ground in front of Chen Daocheng's men with such force that it even made the ground tremble.

Chen Daocheng's men suddenly stiffened.

Immediately, Chen Dong's cold voice came out, "Want to add tribute to my mother?"

With a single word, the entire crowd of several thousand people suddenly paled.

The faces of Chen Daocheng and the others even turned red to the colour of pig's liver.

Their lips mumbled, wanting to retort, but once they saw the head in Chen Dong's hand, they all swallowed their words!

No one dared to doubt whether Chen Dong dared to continue with his killing!

Chen Daocheng and the others didn't dare to gamble any further either!

Inside the ancestral shrine.

The incense was eerie.

Chen Dong placed the tattered spirit tablet engraved with Li Lan's name on the divine platform respectfully.

He gently wiped the dust off the spirit tablet before holding Old Lady Chen's head and placing it in front of Li Lan's spirit tablet.

"Ma child is unfilial and has already killed his enemy with his hands."

After the guilty murmur, inside the clan ancestral hall, it returned to silence.

Chen Dong stopped in front of Li Lan's spirit tablet, silent, just like a statue.

This scene was broken with the sound of footsteps coming from outside the ancestral hall!

Chen Dong's gaze flickered for a moment, and he turned around to see Chen Dao Ye walking in.

"Dong'er"

Chen Daoye called out lightly, his expression somewhat complicated.

"Uncle Dao Ye, the southwest is set."

Chen Dong squeezed out a pleased smile and looked out at the fish-belly white that had gradually risen in the sky: "After today, a new Chen will rise, and this dreary and rotten Chen family can fall!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 1493-1494

Chapter 1493

A calm murmuring voice.

But it was as if a holy voice descending from the nine heavens, blasting in Chen Daoye's ears.

He had come to Chen Dong because he wanted to pacify him, and he also wanted to discuss with Chen Dong about what would happen afterwards.

The successful finalisation of the Southwest was indeed great news for Chen Dong and their faction!

But tonight, as the storm clouds were changing and the Southwest was being finalised, the Chen family had such a change of heart.

Chen Dong had killed Old Lady Chen in public, and if word of this got out, it would not have a half-hearted impact!

The moment the sun rises.

The moment the sun rises, both the Chen family and the outside world will be in shock!

“I’m afraid that there will be another shuffle within the Chen Family.”

Chen Dao Ye picked up an incense stick, lit it and inserted it in front of Li Lan’s spiritual tablet, wrinkling his brows and said, “When the old undead was alive, the Chen Family still had a superficial leader, looking calm and not losing face to outsiders, but now that even the old undead is gone, the various factions of the Chen Family have no scruples at all.”

Chen Dong’s heart understood.

When his father had disappeared and the Chen family had undergone a drastic change, he had been expelled from the Chen family and Old Lady Chen had been given the throne, in fact, to sit as an elder in the Chen family, so that the Chen family, which was already falling apart, would still look like the Chen family, at least on the surface.

It was a mascot, or a puppet face.

For the sake of face, the various factions were also unmindful and did not say too much about Old Lady Chen’s ascension to the throne.

Now that he has personally beheaded Old Lady Chen, the pearl has disappeared and the future of the Chen family will depend on the struggle between the various factions!

In short, without the elders of the previous generation, or their peers, to set the Chen family in motion, all the major factions are bound to be locked in a state of anxiety and strife.

Even the face of the Chen Family, the world’s most powerful family, would fall into the mud!

“However, this has nothing to do with me.”

Chen Dong shrugged his shoulders, his expression indifferent, "If the old undead does not insult my mother, I can let her live for some more time, now that the Southwest is set, nephew speaks to you from the bottom of his heart, how the other factions fight with each other in a deadly and vicious manner, nephew does not even bother, if they want to target me directly, Chen Dong, I am not afraid."

After a pause, an untamed look emerged on Chen Dong's cold face, his gaze blazing.

"But Uncle Dao Ye you few are my father's loyal supporters and have helped my nephew, so my nephew reminds my uncle that after today, several uncles can plan to move their base to the southwest region, Dong'er will definitely not treat several uncles poorly."

Chen Daoye's eyes flickered for a moment, hesitating.

Chen Dong did not rush, lit a cigarette and smoked quietly.

There was a pause.

Chen Daoye suddenly asked, "Dong'er, you have successfully settled the southwest, uncle has one more thing, can you clear up the confusion for uncle?"

"Uncle Dao Ye, but there is no harm in saying so." Chen Dong said.

Chen Dao Ye pondered for a moment and said, "Southwest definitive this can indeed turn your situation around astoundingly, an edict from the domain lord, but also let you Qiankun in hand, uncle also believe that in the next six months time, the entire southwest region will undergo a sea change.

But southwest territory is southwest territory, you are you, even though you hold the favorable land parcels of southwest territory, everything is advancing according to your planning, but want to establish a new Chen, still have to think about how to finally get enough financial power from this huge cake of southwest territory to rival today's Chen family!"

At the end of his speech, Chen Daoye's voice couldn't help but lower, his brows locked in a frown.

From his point of view, Chen Dong had already had enough capital to sing against the current Chen family when he settled in the southwest region.

But this capital, in the end, was a matter of financial power!

Having established the southwest region is the same as Chen Dong pinching out the cake, but it is still unknown whether he will be able to get enough "cake" from it.

And this was the key to the key!

Chen Dong rubbed his nose, met Chen Dao Ye's puzzled gaze and smiled confidently.

"Uncle Dao Ye, didn't you guys already help me prepare the tools to make money?"

"What?"

Chen Dao Ye was confused for a moment, and suddenly his eyes exploded with a sharp aura as he reacted violently.

"Hahahaha"

He threw back his head and laughed out loud, the last trace of worry in his eyes dissipating at this moment, "Fine, fine, uncle will go and discuss with a few of them right now, the plan to relocate to the southwest! There is no need to worry about your mother's spirit, uncle will proceed to reset it!"

"Thank you, Uncle Dao Ye, with this matter over, my nephew must also return to the southwest, there is still much to do there as the tripod has just been settled."

Chen Dong cupped his fist to Chen Daoye, and then the two of them

Inside the Chen Family Ancestral Hall.

At the early sunrise, it had finally become peaceful.

It was just that Chen Dong and Chen Daoye had not been gone for long.

A figure stepped quietly into the ancestral hall.

As soon as he entered the ancestral hall, his gaze fell on the head of Old Lady Chen in front of the spirit of Li Lan.

Old Mrs. Chen's eyes were still open and her face was covered in blood.

This scene was so horrifying that anyone else would have been so scared that they would have gone weak.

But Chen Daocheng, like a sulking lion, walked up to Old Lady Chen's head and spat directly at it with a face full of indignation.

"Old man, you are really an old useless wimp, you worked so hard to make you the acting head of the family, but you couldn't do a thing, and when you are about to die, you can't even hurt that wild bastard Chen Dong a bit.

Chen Daocheng gritted his teeth, his face full of indignation and disdain, "Just an old woman like you, if you can hide it from others, how can you hide it from me? I deliberately teased you by making you the acting head of the family, and you were still happy with yourself. Now that you're dead, you still have the face to die in peace?"

As he spoke, Chen Daocheng impatiently raised his hand and wiped it directly across Old Lady Chen's round eyes.

Only as soon as the hand slipped off, Old Lady Chen's eyes returned to their rounded state once again.

"Damn it, old, immortal trash, can't even close her eyes, bah!"

Chen Daocheng cursed fiercely, and with a fist in his right hand, he directly smashed Old Lady Chen's head out with a bang, letting it roll like a basketball to the corner.

The old lady's head was smashed into the wall like a basketball.

Chen Daocheng glanced at the spirit of Li Lan with resentment: "Bastard, your bastard, you really have the guts, but this time, it's my turn to say something about the Chen family!"

The words fell.

His expression became solemn as he moved to the incense burner in front of the altar and silently lit a pillar of incense and inserted it into the incense burner.

Then, Chen Daocheng knelt solemnly on the futon in front of the incense burner and kowtowed three times to the ancestors of the Chen family on the divine platform.

"Your ancestors are above, now that the Chen family has that evil son Chen Dong, resulting in the disappearance of the family head and the death of the old lady, Dao Cheng is here, kowtowing to the blessings of the ancestors, this time Dao Cheng will definitely help the Chen family at the time of its collapse, I hope the ancestors will be gracious and forgive Dao Cheng for not following the iron law of the Chen family head selection this time!"

After saying this, he heavily kowtowed three times on the ground with immense devotion.

Meanwhile.

After bidding farewell to Chen Daoye, Chen Dong took a special plane directly back to the southwest region.

Only as the special plane lifted off, the Chen family was already chilled with armour and murderous intent.

At the same time, a team of bodyguards, like a torrent, swarmed towards the mansions and residences of the Chen family's rulers!

Chapter 1494

The Chen family in the early morning.

With Chen Daocheng's order, it suddenly became a murderous and dark place.

All means of access to the outside world were blocked.

Even communications were interfered with at the first opportunity!

Chen Daoye returned to the courtyard and was busy asking his son to summon several other people in power over to discuss plans to relocate to the south-west.

Their relocation would mean the complete departure of the family head's faction from the current Chen family.

There is a lot at stake, and one cannot be too cautious!

The relocation was not just about them going there, but also about finding a way to scavenge as much of the family head's faction as possible!

Soon, everyone in power arrived.

A stormy night had left everyone with a tired look on their faces.

However, once Chen Dao Ye called for them, several of the people in power did not dare to be slow.

However.

When the last of the rulers rushed into the courtyard, Chen Dao Ye and the others were all stunned.

This was because this person in power had a hasty look and a frightened face.

"Brother Dao Ye, it's not good, it's not good! Chen Daocheng and the rest of them have gone crazy, completely and utterly crazy, and they are gathering their bodyguards to blockade the mansions and residences of the major power holders!"

Boom!

The sound of rushed words, every word like thunder.

Chen Dao Ye and the others were horrified and startled.

“Damn it! Are Chen Daocheng and the others trying to forcefully seize power by invading the city?”

“That mad dog, does he even have no qualms about this superficiality now?”

Several of the people in power angrily rebuked.

Chen Dao Ye hurriedly raised his hand to signal the crowd to be quiet, and then ordered in a deep voice.

“Immediately gather your respective bodyguards to come to this side of the residence, make sure to block Chen Daocheng’s gang, in addition to calling you all here, is to discuss the complete relocation of our family head’s faction out of the Chen family and to the young master of the southwest region!”

At those words, the crowd was shocked beyond belief, but the immediate task was to contact the bodyguards at their respective mansions.

“Brother Dao Ye, there’s no contact, the communication has been completely cut off!”

A man was the first to put down his mobile phone and looked towards Chen Daoye in despair.

Chen Daoye’s pupils shrank, and the blue veins at the corners of his eyes bulged and twitched.

The courtyard.

There was a dead silence.

Several people looked at Chen Daoye with apprehension and trepidation, desperately waiting for Chen Daoye to make up his mind.

“Hehe this Chen family can’t stay after all, I’m afraid the young master has already predicted it when he mentioned the relocation matter!”

Finally, Chen Daoye pulled up the corner of his mouth and gave a bitter laugh: “It’s just that, raise my house bodyguards, now temporary protection, my son immediately sneak out of the residence, go to contact the bodyguards of your uncles’ homes, let them protect the family members of your uncles, find a way to close over.”

There was a pause.

Waiting for his son to leave.

Chen Daoye swept his gaze morosely over the several people in power.

“Everyone, now that the arrow is on the string, we must either stay stuck in the Chen family and look up to Chen Daocheng and the others, or throw in the towel and run to where the young lord is, any objections?”

Several of the people in power looked at each other.

In the end.

“Run to the Young Master!”

“Run to the Young Master!”

“Run to the Young Lord!”

Chen Daoye nodded solemnly, and the momentum in his heart loosened, but his brows still did not stretch: “Chen Daocheng those crazy dogs came with ferocity, I am afraid that this time, the bottom of the barrel that can be relocated out is very little, if it can replace everyone leaving safely, so be it, this Chen family with the family head The family is really going to fall apart with the disappearance of the family head!”

The last thing he said was that Chen Daoye’s voice became sad.

Several people in power were also saddened.

Who would like to see this situation now?

Even though the family had fought against each other, they were still able to maintain the name of the Chen family.

But today, it is about to collapse completely!

.....

Across the ocean, on an isolated island overseas.

On the calm sea level, a helicopter hovered, the powerful air currents formed by the propellers, sending ripples across the sea, spreading out in all directions, only gradually weakening when they hit a ship.

The deserted island, which should have been isolated from the world, was now enveloped by a sky full of helicopters and surrounded by countless ships.

The roar of the boats completely shattered the tranquillity of the island.

On the beaches around the isolated island, if one looked down from above, one could see a dense tide of people swarming towards the centre of the island from all four beaches, and even the tide of people remaining on the four beaches was still dense, giving people an extremely strong sense of oppression!

The 3,600-strong elite force of the Hong Society had swarmed here at the command!

There are no more than a handful of forces in the world that could use such a force!

Strangely, apart from the roar of helicopters and boats, the only sound in this part of the world was the sound of footsteps.

And everyone looked stern and kept their mouths shut.

In a jungle on an isolated island.

At this moment, a column of Hong Society members is surrounding an old fortress.

There are corpses scattered around, and the air is thick with the smell of blood, in addition to the disgusting smell of decay.

Inside the castle.

At the moment it is a different story.

It is a metal cell, cramped and so dark that you can't see your fingers.

The air is filled with an extremely pungent and strong disgusting smell.

There was the stench of shit and urine, the sour and bitter smell of stale food, the smell of decay and blood.

The silence was oppressive to the extreme.

Only a little dim light came in through the open iron door, giving a glimmer of life to the room.

And outside the door, in the corridor.

Ye Yuanqiu and Yuan Yigang were leaning against the wall as if they had lost their strength, and despite their status, their faces were as white as paper, and their eyes were even more frightened and lax.

Even breathing, the two men seemed to be using all their strength, their chests heaving violently and their bodies twitching uncontrollably.

If this scene was seen by onlookers, their jaws would definitely drop in shock.

If the three thousand six hundred doors of the Hong Society outside saw it, they would be even more dumbfounded and struck by lightning.

An ancestor of the Hong Society, a leader of the Hong Society!

Who is not a ruthless horn of cultivation floating in a sea of corpses and blood?

Who is not a ruthless man floating in a sea of corpses and blood? Not even enough to look like this in the face of a thousand armies, but now scribbled down to the extreme!

Clap clap clap

At one end of the corridor, the sound of hurried footsteps stumbled, interspersed with the sound of several heavy falls.

As soon as this sound rang out.

Ye Yuanqiu and Yuan Yigang's bodies shook at the same time, their lax pupils quickly regaining focus.

As if they were electrocuted, they both looked in the direction where the sound came from at the same time, and vaguely, a figure was stumbling and running, holding onto the wall.

Long Lao stumbled, the dizziness in his head causing him to walk forward, always with the unrealistic feeling of stepping deep and shallow on the surface of the sea.

He stumbled several times, but his sanity still forced him to stand up and keep going.

A sharp pain came from the back of his head, leaving Elder Long in a very poor state at the moment.

Stepping forward, he felt the sky spinning and his breathing became like a torn bellows, but this ragged panting was the very thing that forced him to barely adjust his consciousness and vision.

Finally, he saw Ye Yuanqiu and Yuan Yigang.

"Damn it, old immortal, you backstabbed old me, what the hell did you start?"

Old man Long gritted his teeth and staggered a few steps, pounced in front of Ye Yuanqiu and grabbed him by the neck.

“Old man Long, I’m doing this for the greater good, for Mr. Chen to set the Southwest!”

Ye Yuanqiu’s face turned red from suffocation and squeezed out a sentence with great force.

Yuan Yigang, who was at the side, immediately wanted to stop Old Man Long, but was signalled to stop by Ye Yuanqiu.

“The big picture? Bullshit big picture! My young master’s big picture is his father-in-law and mother-in-law, without making sure that they are safe, you call this nasty and lowly!”

Long Lao gritted his teeth, his hands strangling Ye Yuanqiu’s neck as he slowly pushed harder.

On the way here, in the helicopter he had been caught off guard and directly knocked unconscious by Ye Yuanqiu’s stifling stick, only just now did he finally wake up.

This made Elder Long furious!

Of course he knew what Ye Yuanqiu’s purpose of knocking him out was, but he could not tolerate this matter!

This matter was about the lives of Gu Guohua and his wife, but also about Chen Dong, about Gu Qingying!

“The general situation in the southwest has been decided, Mr. Chen has successfully set the pawn!”

Yuan Yigang, who was on the side, said in a deep voice.

What?!

Elder Long was instantly shocked, and the strength of his hands could not help but weaken a few points.

He was happy to see that the Southwest was settled, and he was also happy for Chen Dong.

But

“Where are the young master’s father-in-law and mother-in-law?”

Long Lao asked, baffled and lost in thought.

Yuan Yigang's brows lowered and he lowered his head.

Ye Yuanqiu, on the other hand, reluctantly took a deep breath and pointed a backhanded finger at the room with the open iron door next to him, "Inside."

Long Lao was instantly surprised and let go of Ye Yuanqiu to step into the cell.

Suddenly, Ye Yuanqiu's words, which were so decadent that they stopped Long Lao in his tracks, caused his mind to go blank and the sky to spin.

"We lost the bet!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 1495-1496

Chapter 1495

The silent corridor.

Ye Yuanqiu's dishevelled voice seemed to echo.

Elder Long froze completely, his features taut and open, frozen in place.

And Yuan Yigang couldn't help but take off his gold-rimmed glasses at this moment, pinching the bridge of his swollen nose in exhaustion and dismay, his eyes covered in red blood.

While in a trance of horror, the complex stench from the dark cell gradually rushed into Elder Long's nostrils.

A hint of the unspeakable stench, as if a sharp needle, ruthlessly provoked Long Lao's nerves.

Bang Teen!

Elder Long's body went limp and fell violently askew against the large open iron door, the sound of impact, exploding like thunder in the corridor.

"Old man Long!"

Ye Yuanqiu tilted his head suddenly, looking worried and terrified.

Yuan Yigang was even faster and took a step forward to hold the limp Old Man Long.

At this moment, Long Lao's face was pale and terrified, his eyes were filled with tears and covered with blood, his lips were even trembling, while his right hand was trembling, as if with all his strength, he raised it and pointed towards the dark cell.

“He them

The two simple words were used with all their might, and even so, the sobbing that was interspersed with them could not be stopped.

Yuan Yigang was silent, looking gloomy.

Ye Yuanqiu’s obscure gaze emerged with a hint of luster, nodded, and then whirled his head back down, not daring to meet Long Lao’s eyes, while saying remorsefully.

“On the inside sorry, really sorry! It’s me who lost the bet, it’s me who underestimated the Gu family and overestimated the Hong Society’s three thousand six hundred sects, I can hardly be blamed for this matter, old man Long

“Ah!”

A strong wind suddenly exploded out of Old Man Long’s body, drumming up his robes and letting out a roar, directly interrupting Ye Yuanqiu’s apology.

A sudden change of events.

Rao Yuan Yigang was also shaken by the strong wind drummed up from Long Lao’s body, and staggered back two steps.

Almost simultaneously.

Long Lao turned around bravely, his robe rattling with the strong wind, and his pale white hair dancing in the air.

He stared at Ye Yuanqiu with fierce fury.

“Ye Yuanqiu ah Ye Yuanqiu! Here are my young master’s parents! Where did you get the guts to gamble with their lives?”

Boom!

As he gritted his teeth, Elder Long’s feet suddenly launched himself like a cannonball, wrapped in a fierce wind and a great deal of anger, and rushed towards Ye Yuanqiu!

“Elder Long!”

Yuan Yigang immediately tried to stop him.

But Long Lao suddenly rose up, and with the short distance, even Yuan Yigang’s strength was too late.

Bang Teen!

Long Lao's big bushel-like hand brazenly pressed Ye Yuanqiu's face, brutally and roughly pressing him directly to the wall with one hand.

At the same time.

Long Lao suddenly turned his head and his eyes were wide open, as if he was in a vajra's rage, and he forced himself straight at Yuan Yigang who was about to step forward.

"Little brat! I am an ancestor of the Hong Society's Ming Dynasty, I am your old ancestor in life and in death, and you still dare to disobey and violate the law?"

The words were so hard and furious that they resounded in the corridor.

Yuan Yigang's expression changed greatly, and his aura instantly shriveled up a great deal.

There was no other reason.

In the Hong Society, the Yuan generation was the ancestor.

In the Hong Society, the Ming generation was also an ancestor!

Even with his status as the leader of the Hong Society, he would not dare to disobey them!

Even he, the leader of the Hong Society, did not dare to overstep the boundaries of the word "seniority"!

But looking at Ye Yuanqiu, who was unresisting and bleeding from the impact.

However, looking at the unresisting Mr. Chen, who was bleeding from his mouth, Yuan Yigang slowly persuaded him, "Elder Long, naturally, I dare not disobey him, but Elder Ye is also thinking of the overall situation.

"The big picture? Don't give me the big picture!"

Elder Long sneered and slowly turned his head to look angrily at Ye Yuanqiu through a gap in his fingers, "Your self-righteousness is truly disgusting, it was then and it is now, are you going to take your self-righteousness to the grave?"

While scolding angrily, Elder Long's right hand slowly increased its force, and his eyes grew sharper and sharper.

From the beginning to the end.

Ye Yuanqiu did not even put up the slightest resistance, and even when he felt the strength of Elder Long's right hand feeling like his facial bones were about to shatter, he gritted his teeth and held back, meeting Elder Long's gaze without resisting or speaking a word.

Yuan Yigang witnessed the scene in front of him, anxious and his body was like cooking oil.

With his strength, he could have stopped Elder Long!

But with his seniority here, he didn't dare to make a move, not to mention that this scourge was originally due to his and Ye Yuanqiu's final decision!

If he hadn't knocked out Long Lao in advance and lied to Chen Dong, perhaps Southwest wouldn't have been set, but Chen Dong's father-in-law and mother-in-law
.....

"Ahem!"

Suddenly, a painful cough sounded within the sword-drawn corridor.

This cough, however, was like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, instantly blasting in the ears of Long Lao's three people.

It was

Elder Long's right hand slackened some of its strength and turned his head abruptly.

And Yuan Yigang, who was closest to the cell, was also horrified and looked back in horror at the dark and foul smelling cell.

There was silence.

A series of sharp and painful coughing sounds came out of the dark cell.

When they fell on the ears of Elder Long, they sounded like heavenly music.

"No, not dead?"

Elder Long was overjoyed, and the tears that were in his eyes flowed straight down.

As for Yuan Yigang and Ye Yuanqiu, they were also surprised at this moment.

Not waiting for the three to react.

Inside the dark cell, Gu Guohua's terrified and eager call suddenly rang out.

"Wanqing, Wanqing"

The voice echoed, like a sledgehammer smashing against Long Lao's heart.

If Gu Guohua and his wife were alright, then this would be a real double whammy!

"Quick, save the people, save the people!"

Long Lao let go of Ye Yuanqiu and hurriedly urged Yuan Yigang, while turning around and stumbling excitedly towards the cell.

Ye Yuanqiu and Yuan Yigang were still somewhat unconscious.

They had not entered the cell after opening it, but the dark silence inside the cell, and the strong stench emanating from it, made their scalps go numb straight away and they despaired on the spot.

Given their status, even if the stench was extremely unpleasant and intermingled with multiple, they were still extremely sensitive to some of the smells and could distinguish them!

But the scene in front of them made the two of them feel a bit unreal as if they were dreaming.

Really did not die?

Just as Long Lao took a step into the cell, suddenly, Gu Guohua's shrill and harsh cries and wails came violently from the darkness.

"Wanqing, Wanqing you wake up! Ah! Ah!"

Immediately afterwards, there were cries of grief and pain.

This cry instantly made the ecstatic Elder Long's heart suddenly clench, and his footsteps gave a pause as the result came to his mind!

Even with his determination, Elder Long could not help but breathe heavily and sharply at this moment.

With a trembling right hand, he pulled out his mobile phone and flicked on the light with a shudder, then carefully shone the light into the darkness inside the cell.

When the light swept up to Gu Guohua and Li Wanqing's couple, the scene before him instantly crashed into Elder Long's eyes like a thunderbolt.

“The Gu family, the Gu family, the Gu family!”

Long Lao’s hideous hiss of gnashing teeth, interspersed with Gu Guohua’s cries, exploded together within the cell!

And Ye Yuanqiu and Yuan Yigang at the entrance, witnessing the scene inside the cell, were also bloodless, revealing a flash of horror.

Forgive them for their experience, the scene before them was by no means a small psychological shock to them!

Chapter 1496

For a whole day.

The entire south-western region was immersed in the frenzy of an imperial edict.

The giants were shaken.

The giants were furious.

As the news spread to the people, the people were even more ecstatic, and they ran around telling each other about it.

For a while, Chen Dong and Dingtai became the most dazzling “stars” in the entire southwest region.

The previous scolding of Chen Dong disappeared into obscurity as the news spread.

The people were full of praise for Chen Dong, as if for one day, it was already the southwest that was down with Chen Dong, and the southwest that was up with Chen Dong!

The content of the edict was harvesting the gentry and giants.

But to the people of the southwest, it was an unspeakable boon!

This will mean that in the next six months, the Southwest will be in the limelight!

The Zhuge family, the Zhang and Chu families, and even Zhou Zunlong and Zhou Yanqiu were unable to sleep through the night and were overjoyed, unable to control themselves.

After the previous depression and worries were swept away, they were replaced by the joy of seeing the moon shining through the clouds!

Chen Dong left the Chen family's home and after getting off the plane, he did not go to the company, but went straight back home.

He knew what was going on at Dingtai today, and all the things had been arranged in advance, so all he needed was for Xiao Ma to take the company's staff and gallop together.

However, Chen Dong still told Xiao Ma in advance by weibo that a large sum of money would be allocated as a bonus for all the staff in the company and would be paid out at the end of the day.

Whether it was the pressure the staff had endured with him in the past few days, or the effort they had put in at work, Chen Dong felt that the staff deserved the sky-high bonus!

All day long.

Chen Dong was at home with Gu Qingying, because in one fell swoop, Zhuge Qing, Chu Reed and Jiang Qilin were all busy with their own affairs, so the house was inevitably a bit cold.

Zhao Brocade spent the day in a daze.

And Wu Chang "spied" on him all day.

Fan Lu knitted a jumper and watched them both all day.

Everything was so uneventful, but it made Chen Dong feel that this was how life should be.

It was what he had wanted!

As for the breakup within the Chen family, Chen Dong did not know about it and had no way of knowing.

The moment Chen Daocheng and the few people in power under his command decided to launch a power change, they had already closed all their contacts at the first opportunity. The Chen family was completely isolated from the world for the rest of the day!

Night falls.

After dinner, Chen Dong escorted Gu Qingying for a short walk and went home to soothe her to sleep before he walked up to the rooftop alone.

Sitting on a chair, looking out at the starry night sky, the corners of Chen Dong's mouth curved into a quiet smile.

It had been a long time since he had been this relaxed.

Southwest was set, and this gave him the foundation to build a new Chen, and gave him more possibilities to flex his muscles in the future!

And while there are waves in the advancement of all this, all is well and calm.

The fact that his parents-in-law, the ones he was most worried about, were safe and sound was the happiest thing that happened to him in this incident!

If his father-in-law and mother-in-law were to make the slightest mistake, he really did not know how he would face Gu Qingying, who was pregnant.

What's more, this would determine whether he would "give up" or not!

He doesn't want to become like his father, but if the situation has really come to a point where this is the only way out, he will bite the bullet and repeat his father's mistakes!

His wife and children are his lifeblood!

He can guard it with his life, or he can make the most disgusting decision for the sake of his wife and children's well-being!

"Brother Dong."

Zhao Breaker's voice rang out behind him.

Chen Dong raised his eyes to see Zhao Broke-Ru walking over carrying two bottles of beer.

"Why don't you even greet everyone to celebrate something so happy today?"

Zhao Breru opened a bottle of beer and handed it to Chen Dong while settling down to one side.

"Yes, I should celebrate, but there are still too many things to do, everyone is busy and there are not enough people, so I'll have to postpone it."

Chen Dong deflated his mouth and tilted his head to take a sip of beer.

It was a hot summer day, and this mouthful of beer made him feel comfortable.

"It's going to be hard to get everyone together for such a big event, Qin Ye, Kunlun, Lin Lingdong and Lone Wolf won't be back for a while."

Zhao Broke-Ru rolled his eyes.

Chen Dong smiled, "I mean that Elder Long hasn't returned yet."

"Where the hell has Elder Long gone?"

Zhao Broke-Ru asked in confusion.

"Hehehe"

Chen Dong gave a strange laugh and continued to drink his beer.

"If you don't say it, then don't say it, what's the deception?"

Zhao Breru shrugged his shoulders and tilted his head back to "gulp" his wine.

Chen Dong was a bit surprised and asked, "You're a strong drinker, aren't you?"

Zhao Baolu said helplessly, "I can't help it, I can't sleep until dawn if I drink."

As he said that, he took out a few bottles of two-two bottles of high white wine from his pocket.

Chen Dong was a bit surprised, but did not ask more questions.

The two men chatted idly, and in their words Chen Dong's state was in a relaxed and happy state.

It was only when one person walked onto the rooftop that the atmosphere was completely broken.

Dragging his heavy body, Elder Long slowly walked up to the rooftop.

Under the dim light, his shadow was stretched out long and long.

Under the light, his face was as pale as paper, and when reflected by the dim light, he looked even more withered and decrepit.

His bloodshot eyes fell on Chen Dong and Zhao Brelu, who were chatting away, and guilt raged in his chest like a monstrous tsunami.

Tears, too, swished out and swirled in his eyes.

He could not forget that scene in the cell, one of the few most horrific images he had ever seen in his life!

But he dared not continue to linger on the other side of the ocean, the news had to come first, to Chen Dong himself!

Chen Dong and Zhao Breaking sensed someone coming up the stairs at the same time, their voices abruptly beating.

Without waiting for the two to turn around.

“Young Master!”

Long Lao shouted sadly, while his knees went weak and he fell to the ground with a thud.

Chen Dong and Zhao Breru stared in surprise at the sudden return of Elder Long.

“Elder Long!”

Zhao Breru exclaimed in surprise.

“Why are you kneeling?”

The relaxed pleasure on Chen Dong’s face was instantly gone, and his brows were furrowed into a “Chuan” frown as he stared at Elder Long, looking him up and down.

In Ye Yuanqiu’s phone call, it was clearly stated that Elder Long had been injured during the rescue, but the Elder in front of him did not look injured at all!

This caused Chen Dong’s heart to stutter!

“Young master, the old slave is incompetent!”

Long Lao cried, and under his grief and guilt, he directly knocked his head heavily on the ground.

Chen Dong and Zhao Breru were stunned at the same time, both of them clearly seeing that blood was rapidly flowing out from the ground where Long Lao had kowtowed!

“Zhao Breru, you go down first!”

Chen Dong’s face suddenly turned gloomy as an ominous feeling arose, like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, causing him to scold Zhao Breru directly.

“Brother Dong”

“Go down!”

After waiting for Zhao Breru to leave, Chen Dong meditated and gazed at his senses some more, making sure that Zhao Breru did not linger in the shadows to eavesdrop, before he said in a deep voice, “Elder Long, what is going on?”

Elder Long slowly got up, teary-eyed, staggered and dragged his heavy mountain-like body to Chen Dong, and handed the phone to him.

Chen Dong's right hand could not help but tremble a little as he took the phone.

He slowly picked up the phone with a stiff expression.

On the phone was a video, which was already playing.

But once he saw the content of the video on the phone.

Chen Dong couldn't help but take a sudden deep breath in his nostrils, then his entire body froze, and even his breathing stopped.

His mind went blank.

In an instant, there was a feeling that the sky had fallen into the ground.

Bang!

Chen Dong fell heavily on his chair.

"Young master"

Elder Long hurriedly stepped forward and tried to help.

However, Chen Dong's eyes were scarlet and tearful as he waved his hand and said hoarsely, "No, it's not a problem, it's just the wine, the wine is a bit intoxicating"

As he said this, Chen Dong's beer bottle was lying next to him, and under the dim light, the beer bottle was clearly still half full!

Winner Takes All Chapter 1497-1498

Chapter 1497

Nightfall.

On the rooftop, the lights are dim and the breeze is cool.

It was sad and deadly silent.

Long Lao was filled with guilt, like a tidal wave, and his scarlet, tearful eyes were always watching Chen Dong with worry, his lips mumbling to comfort him, but he did not know how to speak.

As a servant, he knew Chen Dong better than Chen Daolin, who was a father!

The word filial piety had always been Chen Dong's ties.

The image of Chen Dong defying all odds for the sake of his mother, time and again, was still vivid in his mind.

Now that he was Chen Dong's father-in-law and mother-in-law, Elder Long knew that even a thousand words would not be able to soothe the monstrous waves in Chen Dong's heart at this moment.

Suddenly.

Long Lao was stunned, and his scarlet and tearful eyes revealed a trance of dismay.

Out of sight.

Chen Dong, who was sitting in silence and withered, his eyes filled with tears, his body suddenly trembled, and immediately, a burst of laughter emitted from Chen Dong's mouth.

"Young Master"

Long Lao's expression changed greatly and he knelt down in fear: "It is the fault of the old slave, it is the old slave who failed to save the young master's father-in-law and mother-in-law, young master"

"Elder Long!"

Before the words were finished, Chen Dong leaned his head back and gazed at Elder Long with tears in his eyes, "My parents are safe and sound, and the phone call that reassured me to set the Southwest was made by Ye Yuanqiu, the details of which, I presume, this matter, has nothing to do with you!"

Long Lao's gaze flinched and he instantly became helplessly bitter.

If he hadn't been knocked unconscious by Yuan Yigang and Ye Yuanqiu, he would never have allowed Yuan Yigang and Ye Yuanqiu to gamble on this matter, even if he had to risk his life!

Even if Ding Ding Southwest failed, Elder Long believed that Chen Dong would not have the slightest complaint!

It was the presumption of Ye Yuanqiu and Yuan Yigang that had caused this "human tragedy"!

The content in the mobile phone video was filmed by Long Lao, after personally experiencing the tragic scene in the cell, even Long Lao did not dare to recall that scene again.

Not to mention, that was Chen Dong's father-in-law and mother-in-law!

Under the dim light.

Chen Dong was smiling, gently shaking his head, but tears had long since come to his eyes.

"It's just that, it's just that"

He kept murmuring under his breath, his voice so hoarse that it seemed to come from countless gravel rubbing against his throat.

Long Lao watched this scene, weeping as his heart twisted like a knife.

He dared not imagine how much pain Chen Dong was suffering at this moment.

But he knew clearly that when one's grief is so extreme that one's body itself cannot bear it, one's emotions will also become out of control!

"I have made a plot and calculated the whole world, but I never thought that I would ultimately lose at the hands of my own people!"

Chen Dong said with a smile, rubbed his hands heavily on his face, and looked at Elder Long with a determined gaze, "Elder Long Could it be that breaking away is really the will of God?"

"Young master"

Long Lao's body trembled, his lips mumbled: "This matter old slave has not yet told young lady, still waiting for you to decide!"

"Tell?"

Chen Dong raised his eyebrows and slowly stood up with his hands propped on his knees, "How the hell am I supposed to tell Little Shadow? How dare I let her know? I fixed the entire southwest in one battle for the sake of the world, for the sake of Chen Daojun Chen Daolin and their unknown laborious scheme, whaling on the blood of the world's gentry, and then I'm told to tell Xiaoying: wife, the price this time is your parents?"

Long Lao looked dumbfounded as he choked.

Suddenly.

A stiff qi force broke out from Chen Dong's body, directly cracking the recliner beside him as he tilted his head, gazing at the night sky.

"Heaven's will? What the hell is the will of God! I just won't do this break, I just want my wife and son by my side, I want to see whether I, Chen Dong, am tougher or this thief God is tougher!"

The words were strong and resounding.

The kneeling Long Lao's mind went blank.

After two seconds of stagnation.

The old man leaned his head back and said with a sobbing voice, "Young master what the old man chose back then might be the best solution!"

"Bullshit optimal solution!"

Chen Dong blatantly lowered his head and looked down at Elder Long: "What I went through, I will not let my wife and child go through again, I can be a stray dog and beg for food in the streets, I can also snuggle with my mother and take steps towards that glimmer of light in the darkness, but all this, I will not allow to fall on Little Shadow and the child!"

The words fell.

Chen Dong waved his right hand brazenly, "Immediately contact Ye Yuanqiu and Yuan Yigang, they owe me this time! If you want to atone for your sins, immediately mobilize the 3,600 clans of the Hong Society, as well as the Zhuge Family in Western Shu and the Zhang and Chu Families in Kyoto, pour everything you have into finding out the location of the Gu Family's mountain gate for me at all costs!"

After saying this, Chen Dong stumbled towards the stairs with steps as heavy as a thousand pounds.

Elder Long turned back and pleaded, "Young master, the most urgent task at hand is everything in the southwest, please hold off on the matter of revenge!"

"Revenge?"

Bang!

Chen Dong smashed his feet heavily on the ground, lowering his head with a fierce expression, picking up the corners of his mouth and smiling coldly, "You are wrong,

Elder Long, I am not seeking revenge, I am seeking to find the Gu family and exterminate their clan!"

Boom!

The last four words were like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, blatantly blasting at Elder Long.

Elder Long's body slumped and he sat down directly on the ground, dumbfounded, his expression terrified to the extreme.

The death of the clan and the extinction of its seed!

Was the young master planning to pour everything on to deal with the Gu family?

In a trance, Long Lao raised his head, looked at the white moon and stars in the sky, and murmured heavily, "Madam no one can stop young master, you must bless young master this time!"

When Chen Dong said these four words, Long Lao understood that a thousand words would not be enough to quell this anger.

Even if Li Wanqing died and Gu Guohua went mad this time, the price, in Chen Dong's mind, must be the ambush of all the lives of the entire Gu family!

Perhaps only in this way can Chen Dong's heart get a trace of "solace"!

"The Gu family is ready to die." Long Lao's murmuring voice gradually became more and more murderous.

On the way back to his room, every step Chen Dong took was extraordinarily slow, and the contents of the mobile phone video kept surfacing in his mind, making his whole body muddled.

Guilt, self-blame, anger, hatred

All kinds of negative emotions, like maggots on his tarsus, eroded his whole body, making him unable to breathe and making him feel as heavy as a thousand pounds, and all he could do with all his strength was to lift his legs.

Standing in front of the door, Chen Dong took a deep breath and wiped his eyes, trying to appear calm.

Only after he was ready did he slowly push open the door of the room.

Creak

In the room, only a dim light was lit on the bed.

Gu Qingying had already fallen asleep.

Chen Dong tiptoed and approached carefully, afraid of making a little noise to wake up Gu Qingying.

If the content of the video were to be seen by Gu Qingying, Chen Dong dared not imagine how great the impact on Gu Qingying would be, and he was sure that Gu Qingying would definitely not be able to bear it.

When he got under the covers.

Next to her, Gu Qingying gave a cry and rolled her body, like a kitten, into Chen Dong's arms.

"Honey, go to sleep."

"Mm, good, good, this, this is sleep."

Chen Dong turned off the bedside lamp and the room was finally plunged into darkness, but he was lying on the bed with no intention of sleeping, the scene about the video kept surfacing in his mind like a nightmare, making his mind jumbled up.

And at the same time, he was thinking about the road behind him and how he should go!

Chapter1498

The land of extreme cold outside the domain.

After the end of the long night, this extremely cold land outside the realm cannot put an end to the howling snow and wind.

Silver is the dominant colour of this barren land from the beginning of time!

Beneath the snowy plains, the bones of the dead may be buried.

The cruel and harsh environment has created the closest thing to nature's law of survival – the weak eat the strong.

It has also created a twisted sense of "happiness" that comes from being subordinate to a powerful tribe and gaining a sense of security.

With the abolition of slavery in the Xiongnu, the happiness level of all the people in the Xiongnu skyrocketed, far surpassing that of other tribes across the land.

Who does not want to live with a straight back?

No one wants to be sold like cattle, horses and livestock with their back broken.

It was also this decision that gave Queen Xixing, the Hun, unprecedented adulation and praise in the hearts of ordinary Huns.

In such an environment, it was these ordinary people who were most likely to become slaves.

A royal decree from Xixing allowed them to live in peace, no longer fearing what was going to happen tomorrow.

The King's Palace of the Huns.

Inside the king's palace, a warmth filled the air.

Even at the gates, where the howling wind and snow rushed in, there was not the slightest chill.

Xixing's eyebrows and eyes are still beautiful, but she no longer has the charming attitude of the past, with every smile and every knit.

Her eyebrows reveal a heroic and resolute look, which in turn adds a bit of queenly majesty.

But at this moment, sitting on the throne, facing a report on the desk, she looked piteous, her eyebrows furrowed and her eyes still resentful.

It was a report from the domain!

On it was written that man!

"Chen Dong Chen Dong"

The face of Xixing gradually cold down, a bitter smile: "worthy of my Xixing fancy man, no matter where he is, always with a dazzling world, shining brightly, set the southwest, this back and forth planning, really a wave of three twists and turns, the world's giants and forces are all pinched in the hands!"

There was a pause.

Bang!

The right hand of Xixing clenched his fist indignantly and slammed it on the desk, his eyes resentful: "But you were able to go straight to heaven and ask the help of the domain lord of the domain to crush the world's worldly merit, that was obtained by stepping on me, on my father's corpse, on the bodies of my Xiongnu's ten thousand people, have you ever felt ashamed of this at some point late at night?"

Gritting his teeth, his resentment was overwhelming.

At this moment, Xixing's entire being was in a manic state.

If onlookers were to see it, their jaws would definitely drop in shock.

At this very moment.

"Auntie Xie Xing!"

A call came from outside the hall.

Shying's expression quickly returned to normal and she raised her eyes to look at Barbara who was running happily into the king's hall.

"Little Barbara, come to auntie's side, your face is freezing red."

Shying revealed a gentle smile and waved at Barbara.

Barbara quickly ran to Shying, who unfolded her king's robe and swept her into her arms, while rubbing Barbara's frozen red little face.

After all this time, Barbara had changed a lot, no longer the yellow skin and cracked face she used to have.

Instead, his face is pink and soft, white and red, and his eyes are no longer as frightened as they used to be.

The little Barbara, who had recuperated well, was a veritable beauty!

"Hee hee thank you aunty."

Barbara flashed her big eyes and playfully spat her tongue at Xixing.

She said, "I told you to follow Grand Master Khongkong properly, are you playing around again?"

"No, I came with the Grand Master, but Barbara missed her aunt, so she ran faster."

Barbara explained with a smile.

The words had just fallen.

“Amitabha Buddha!”

A Buddhist hymn came from outside the hall.

Xixing picked her eyes and saw Master Kongkong, wrapped in a beast’s robe, with his hands folded and kind brows, slowly step into the hall.

“Little Barbara, you don’t even take care of this old bones of the poor monk, running so fast and not waiting for the poor monk.”

Master Empty Sky said with a fake helpless smile to Barbara.

Barbara spat out her tongue, “The Grand Master is so great, even the Kui Gang is no match for the Grand Master, where are you old?”

Master Empty Sky smiled calmly, before bowing respectfully to Shying.

“Khang Khong pays his respects to the Queen’s Lord.”

“Grand Master Khong Khong, there are no outsiders here, so why pay attention to the prosperity red tape.”

The look in Shying Xing’s eyes at Grand Master Khongkong was not the least bit condescending, but instead full of respect.

In the highly hierarchical extra-territorial world, for the Queen of the Huns to give such a look to someone from the top down was a sign of having received a gift from heaven!

“Yes, yes.”

Master Empty Sky nodded his head and smiled softly, raising his hand with a benevolent frown.

There was a pause.

Master Empty Sky said gratefully, “It is all thanks to the Queen that the poor monk has survived, and it is also thanks to the Queen’s grace that he has been given the gift of heaven to enlighten the 72 Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies.

If outsiders had seen them talking, they would have been dumbfounded.

I am afraid that even Chen Daojun would not be able to calm down if he knew the identity and strength of Master Kongkong!

A man who stood tall at the pinnacle of martial arts in the world, there was actually a time when he was so calm and grateful, even lowering his status.

“It is a great blessing for the Huns to have a talent like Grandmaster. If not for Grandmaster’s presence, how could the strength of the Hun army have developed so rapidly?”

Xixing let go of Barbara, slowly rose and solemnly clasped his fist to Master Kongkong: “On behalf of all Xiongnu, Xixing thanks the Great State Master!”

Master Kongkong smiled faintly, but did not show too much excitement.

He folded his hands and nodded slightly: “The poor monk has come to inform the Queen that Lord Kui Gang and the three hundred and sixty selected Xiongnu soldiers with excellent martial dao talents have improved their enlightenment on the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, and in addition the battle power of the entire Xiongnu army has now improved by leaps and bounds after the poor monk has broken down the martial dao inheritance of the first twelve Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies and taught them. ”

“This trip is to report this good news to the Queen, and to ask the Queen if she wants me to decompose the martial heritage of the later Heavenly Dao martial bodies and teach them to the whole army?”

“Really?!”

Shying’s eyes shone brightly and his voice rose a few decibels in excitement, “Master has shown great kindness to Xiong Nu, please accept Shying’s obeisance!”

As she spoke, Xixing moved to an open space and knelt down and kowtowed directly to Master Kongkong!

“Your Majesty, please don’t do that!”

Master Empty Sky’s face changed greatly and he hurriedly stepped forward to assist him.

After Shying got up, her cheeks flushed red with excitement, and she was busy pleading again, “If the Grand Master can understand the inheritance of the decomposed Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, naturally it is best for the whole army to learn as much as possible. If I can have the entire army learn the 72 Heavenly Wolf Martial Bodies by the end of the 300 days of mourning for my father, I will be willing to give my life to the Grand Master!”

“Amitabha Buddha! The real Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body inheritance is as vast as the ocean, and the further you go, the more difficult it becomes.

Master Kong Kong said seriously.

If you want to continue, you don't need to ask the king, you are the Grand Master of Xiongnu and you are above all others."

The words just fell.

Barbara, who had been standing in front of the throne, behind the desk, suddenly let out a cry of surprise.

Xixing and Master Kongkong were instantly drawn to attention.

Shying saw Ah Man's face suddenly stiffen when he looked at the zheng report about Chen Dong on the desk.

It was because the zheng report not only contained Chen Dong's recent movements, but also a picture of Chen Dong!

Almost simultaneously.

Ah Man pointed at the report and looked up with big eyes, which instantly filled with tears, and looked at Xie Xing, crying, "Auntie Xie Xing, it's uncle, it's uncle!"

Chapter 1499

The sound of sorrowful cries echoed in the king's hall.

Within Barbara's big crystal eyes, a tear, like a pearl breaking a thread, flowed down.

"Uncle this is uncle"

Barbara grabbed the zheng, deflating her mouth, "Barbara misses uncle"

Xixing's face stiffened and his gaze was complicated.

And Master Kongkong's eyes showed surprise when he looked at Barbara.

Ever since becoming the Grand Master of Xiongnu, Xixing had handed Barbarian over to him, after all, in the great Xiongnu, there was no one better suited to take care of and protect Barbarian than Master Empty Sky.

Master Kong Kong also knew something about Barbara, a "special being" in the Xiongnu royal palace.

After Barbara had followed him, he had taken care of him and guided him.

It had been a long time since he had seen Barbara in such a state of pain and sorrow.

“Lord Queen, what is the reason for this?”

Master Empty Sky folded his hands and asked Shying Xing in disbelief.

Shying’s eyes flickered indefinitely for a few moments and smiled sarcastically at Master Empty, “Grand Master, I’m sorry, there’s nothing wrong with Barbara Nothing?

The little barbarian, who was sculpted like a porcelain doll in his sight, had already turned into a tearful person, and this was still called nothing?

“Amitabha Buddha.”

Master Empty Air recited the Buddha’s name in a solemn manner and asked Barbara, “Little Barbara, tell the poor monk, why are you suddenly crying?”

Xixing: “.....”

A wave of anger sulked between her brows.

Whether it was Barbara or Grand Master Kongkong, she did not want the two of them to have too much involvement with Chen Dong.

For no other reason than that Barbara was too close to Chen Dong because she was too close to him and Barbara had always wanted to go in search of Chen Dong.

Grand Master Kongkong, on the other hand, belonged to the same domain as Chen Dong!

Not waiting for Xixing to stop.

Barbara, who was crying into tears, then slowly raised the zheng report in her hand and lit it up at Master Kongkong.

“Woo woo woo Grand Master, Barbara misses her uncle, he said he would pick Barbara up to go under his piece of starry sky, but why hasn’t he come yet?”

At the end of the sentence, Barbara cried out in mourning and begged at the top of her voice.

At this young age, there was no longer the light-hearted smile of the previous moment, but instead the collapse of unfulfilled expectations!

Boom!

Master Empty's pupils suddenly tightened as he stared at the photograph on the report.

In a flash, a fierce surge of energy burst out from his body, violently puffing up his heavy animal robe.

The impact of the qi even caught Sze Sing off guard and caused her to stagger back two steps.

The anger that had sulked on Shying's beautiful face instantly turned into surprise.

Almost simultaneously.

Master Empty Sky's brows lowered as he squeezed out a sentence from between his teeth, "It's him! Chen Dong?!"

Xixing's delicate body trembled lightly, and her heart instantly thudded.

A sense of foreboding struck her heart.

She stared at Master Kongkong with a complicated gaze and asked after him, "Grand Master, know him?"

"Know, of course I do!"

Master Empty Sky's complex expression immediately sank, his eyes were so deep that they looked like two black holes, and he smiled meaningfully, "The poor monk was stranded in the Great Snowy Plain and almost passed away, he accounted for most of the karma!"

Not a friend but an enemy?

Xixing's eyes glowed with a different color, and the worry in her heart was swept away.

When Master Kongkong called Chen Dong by his name just now, she was afraid that Master Kongkong had an old relationship with Chen Dong. If that was the case, then asking Master Kongkong to be appointed as the Grand Master of Xiong Nu and allowing him to enlighten the 72 Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies would not be the same as treating Chen Dong back then – all leading wolves into the house?

Luckily, Master Khongkong's words allayed her fears.

"I never thought that the Grand Master would have such hatred for Chen Dong?"

Xixing put on a calm face and responded.

Hatred?

A poor monk and Chen Dong have hatred?

Master Empty Sky was suspicious in his heart, but did not show it.

At his age, having reached the top of the martial arts pyramid and having seen the world, he had managed his surface emotions quite accurately.

He was involved with Chen Dong because he was the one who carried out Chen Daogun's "Pan Gu Plan", and it was also his pursuit of the ultimate in martial arts that led him to find Chen Dong.

As for being stranded in the Great Snowy Plain, that was also the result of a battle with Chen Daojun when he went to the Black Prison and was seriously injured.

Master Kong Kong did not feel any hatred towards Chen Dong.

It was all because he wanted to pursue the ultimate in martial arts!

It is said that is obsessed with the appearance!

"Amitabha Buddha, Little Barbarian come here to the poor monk."

Master Empty Sky's right hand gestured for Barbara to come.

He wiped his tears and stared at the photo of Chen Dong on the zheng newspaper, then called out to his uncle and gave him a gentle hug before he put down the photo and moved to walk in front of Master Kongkong and Xixing.

The tears that had just been wiped away were now coming out again.

"If you have a karmic bond with Chen Dong, you will meet each other. If you don't have a karmic bond, there will be no future relationship.

Master Empty Sky raised his hand to wipe away the teardrops from the corner of Barbara's eyes and added, "The Queen treats you as her own, your future will no longer be dark and gloomy.

The words were calm.

When it fell on Shying's ears, it was to persuade Barbara.

This made Shying's heart glad.

However.

However, Barbara wailed and cried, "But Barbara only wants Uncle."

Once the words came out, Xixing's expression suddenly stiffened.

Even Master Kongkong was again a bit dumbfounded.

There was a long silence.

The empty air master smiled calmly and said, "Little Barbara wait for the poor monk outside the hall, okay?"

Barbara nodded with tears in her eyes and walked out of the King's Hall.

Shying watched Barbara walk out, her gaze deep and complicated, somewhat pained.

"This king, after all the trouble he has gone through, is unable to even redeem a little girl, how ridiculous."

A soft voice murmured, but every word tapered to the heart.

Master Hollow folded his hands, "Amitabha Buddha, may the poor monk ask the Queen's lord, what was in that zheng report about Chen Dong?"

Xixing returned to her senses and shrugged indifferently.

"With a world of merit straight to the heavens, he invited the domain lord to descend on the imperial edict, squeezed all the world's giants in his hands, settled the southwest region in one fell swoop, made it his home base, and made the world do his bidding."

"The domain has reached this level?"

Master Empty Sky was somewhat astonished, "As expected of a member of the Chen family, his gestures are actually so magnificent, if such a person could emerge from the snowy plains outside the domain, in time, I am afraid that it would not be difficult for all the hundred tribes to return to one!"

A word of surprise.

But it was as if a red-hot knife had stabbed Xixing in the heart.

Xixing's complexion suddenly turned gloomy.

He laughed at himself, "Yes, Master, why did I not think like that at first? But my shame was all caused by him alone. My father, the great changes in Xiongnu, were all just stepping stones for him to forge his world-wide success!"

Master Empty Sky stared in disbelief.

During his time in Xiongnu, he had naturally heard the bad news about the previous changes in Xiongnu.

But he had never bothered to delve into it, after all, he was the Great State Master, and the matter was about cherishing the stars and keeping it a secret for the venerable.

But he had never imagined that everything in Xiongnu had been brought about by Chen Dong!

Followed closely by.

In time, when my Xiongnu army has been sharpened enough in the hands of the Grand Master, why should the hundreds of tribes in the snowy plains outside this domain not worry about being united? At that time, the king will certainly make the people live and work in peace and happiness, just as he did in the domain, and this will also be a great merit for the Great Master!"

"Amitabha Buddha, a monk should be universal."

Master Empty Sky, with a solemn appearance, folded his hands and gave a nod to Xixing, then turned to leave.

When Grandmaster Empty Sky had taken Barbara far away.

"Grand Master, it is not that the King deliberately hid this from you, the enemy of an enemy is a friend, you and I both have an enemy with him, then we are the best allies!"

Xixing's expression was gradually covered with a layer of frost, his eyes narrowed with a chilling light.

"When my Xiongnu army has built up enough momentum, and when the 300 days of my father's condolences are over, the day will come when the army will press in and crush Zhenjiang City, waving its whip south! I will take control of all those ten thousand miles of fertile land and mountains with my own hands!"

Chapter 1500

The wind and snow cry.

The wind was as cold as a knife.

Master Khong Khong, with a kind face, led a sad-looking Barbara into his palace courtyard.

As a great master of the Xiongnu state, he was above all others and had a very high rank in Xiongnu.

However, because of his special status, Master Kongkong did not have a residence outside his home like Kui Gang and other Xiongnu officials, but lived directly in the royal palace.

“Greetings to the Great State Master.”

As soon as he entered the residence, the servant knelt down respectfully to pay his respects.

Master Empty Sky was not used to such scenes.

Although slavery had been abolished in Xiongnu, it was still within the royal palace, and it was difficult to change some of the bad habits overnight.

When he was at the Hanging Monastery, the monks in the monastery did salute him.

But that was also because of their seniority, not because of the scene before them.

But after saying it a few times and these people didn't change, Master Kongkong stopped saying it.

All the way there, Barbara was sullen, with crystal tear stains hanging from the corners of her eyes the whole time.

After walking into the study.

The door to the room was closed.

Master Khung Khong sat himself down behind the desk and picked up a pen to draw some sense of the inheritance of the 72 Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies.

After receiving Xixing's permission, he no longer hid his clumsiness.

He had almost finished teaching the first twelve Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies in the army, and now he was drawing the second twelve Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies.

For the sake of the chance to enlighten the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies inheritance, a job like this, teaching the entire army, was something that Master Khong Khong could only bore himself with.

There is never a free lunch in the world.

When one obtains something, one must always give something.

Not to mention that the 72 Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies that were hidden in the Huns had finally given Master Khong Khong a glimpse of opportunity!

Inside the study.

It was quiet.

Master Empty Sky's brows were lowered and his expression was focused on drawing the pattern of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body inheritance he had comprehended.

Barbara, on the other hand, sat by the side, looking depressed and sullen, beaming, her large crystal eyes filled with longing and expectation.

However, she did not make a sound to disturb Master Kongkong.

The scene continued like this for nearly two hours.

Finally, Master Kongkong put down his pen and, raising his eyes to see that Barbara's mood had not changed for the better in the slightest, he smiled amiably.

"Little Barbara, are you still holding on to Uncle Chen Dong?"

"Uncle promised he would come to pick me up."

Barbara's eyes finally regained focus and she looked pitifully at Master Empty, "Uncle will definitely not abandon Barbara, Barbara will definitely be able to wait until Uncle takes me under his piece of starry sky."

"Why are you so eager to go under his starry sky?"

Master Empty Sky asked, puzzled.

Barbara's eyes glowed with longing, "Because under that star, Abba and Abba and Abba will not die, and Barbara will not be sold into slavery, there is still Uncle under that star, and Abba and Abba and Abba can watch us from the sky as well. "

Master Empty was stunned, his heart was filled with mixed feelings for a while, and the look he gave Barbara was complicated.

At such a young age, how much had he experienced to be able to say these words?

A moment later, however, Master Empty moved his gaze elsewhere, his gaze hollow, thinking, "In this world, where is it that people don't eat people?"

But he was only saying these words in his mind, not enough to tell Barbara directly.

At such an age, Barbara should have been blossoming and childlike, and Master Kong Kong did not want to let Barbara's sky be darkened at such an age.

"Grand Master"

The first thing you need to do is to get to the top of the sky. take me to my uncle?"

"That"

Grand Master Emphyrean was hesitantly silent.

Faced with the pitiful Barbarian, he did not refuse, but responded with a smile, "If there is a chance, the poor monk can take you to Chen Dong's."

Barbara's eyes instantly shone with surprise and excitement as she said, "Thank you, Great Master, thank you"

With a smile on his face, Grandmaster Empty Sky gently stroked Barbara's little head, but the look in his eyes was full of compassion.

.....

The other side.

The land of the far north, the ice and snow.

The Black Prison, standing on the ice plain, was lofty and tall, black and oppressive, giving people an extremely powerful and oppressive feeling.

The harsh, extremely cold environment has made this part of the ice field a rare place to visit, and it is always silent.

At this moment, the Black Prison's central control room.

Chen Daojun sat indifferently in his chair, his feet folded on the desk of the centre console, his right hand gently twirling a cigarette.

The smoke curling upwards, making a smoky smell linger in the central control room at all times.

However, the members of Black Prison in the control room did not dare to make the slightest remark, and the eyes that fell on Chen Daogun from time to time were incomparably awe-inspiring.

To them, the man in front of them was as lofty as a mountain and unreachable.

As long as he was in the Black Prison, there would be peace and quiet in the ten prison districts.

One man was a powerful force that could not only be used against the inmates in the Ten Regions, but also against the staff of the Black Prison!

“Master Daojun.”

The silver-haired old man, dressed in his tuxedo as always, walked up behind Daojun Chen with a solemn expression.

“Something wrong?”

Chen Daogun did not move a muscle, his gaze always fixed on the central control screen, where Kunlun, Lin Lingdong and Lone Wolf were in prison.

During this period of time, he had seen the sudden progress of the three in their martial arts, and he had especially praised Kunlun in his heart.

All this, however, he did not show.

“The domain has been shaken, regarding Young Lord Chen.”

The old man bowed his head and reported back solemnly.

“Oh? What has that boy done again?”

Chen Daogun’s indifferent expression finally rose with a ripple, turning his head to look sideways at the old man.

The old man clasped his fist and reported, “Young Lord Chen has established the Southwest Region in one fell swoop, swallowing up the world’s powerful clans and forces to do his dowry, and with the help of the Domain Lord’s edict, the world’s powerful clans that have converged on the Southwest Region will help Young Lord Chen jointly promote the development of the entire Southwest Region within half a year’s time.”

Chen Daojun was stunned for a moment and then smiled, “This kid is much stronger than his old man!”

“However

The old man wanted to say something but stopped.

“Hm?” A sound came out of Chen Daojun’s nostrils.

The old man said, “The Chen family is falling apart, Chen Daocheng’s faction launched a power grab overnight, and according to reliable information, also on the same night that Young Lord Chen settled the southwest region, overnight, Young Lord Chen ordered all the forces under his command to put all their efforts into investigating the location of the mountain gate of the Gatekeeper Gu family, it looks like is going to make a move against the Gu family Move!”

When the last word came out, the entire central control room seemed to fall silent.

Chen Daojun’s expression suddenly went cold and stern, his eyes were deep and thoughtful.

With this change, a powerful sense of oppression instantly pressed across the entire central control room.

It caused everyone, including the old man, to stiffen like a man’s back.

Five minutes later.

Chen Daogun got up and walked towards the outside.

“Master Daojun

The old man shouted out in confusion.

Chen Daogun kept his footsteps, raised his right hand and waved: “Watch Black Prison yourself, take care of the three Kunlun, I’m going out for a walk to get some air!”
