

Winner Takes All Chapter 881-890

Chapter 881

Rumble

Amidst the wind and snow, the iron hooves were hideous.

The ground seemed to tremble.

A black torrent, tearing through the wind and snow, swept towards this side at great speed.

But Chen Dong's five men were standing tall in their place.

The war horses under their hips neighed and their iron hooves trod gently, ready to charge.

A stern and murderous intent permeated this part of the world.

It was as cold and bitter as the wind and snow in the sky.

When a decision is made, the order is like a mountain.

Even Zhou Yao and Sun Kong, who were initially hesitant, looked determined and their killing intent rose.

When a man's military order is given, even if there is a mountain of swords and a sea of fire ahead of him, he must go ahead and level everything in his path.

This is the iron blood of a soldier!

Rumble

The heart-stopping sound of horses' hooves echoed in this side of the world.

It was as if it struck at the heart of man.

In the silence.

The wind and snow swept by.

Suddenly.

"Charge!"

Bai Qi raised his Dragon Rider's war sword, his voice like an explosive thunder, and rose to the sky.

At this moment.

With this charge, Chen Dong and the others went forward as if they were five fronts, facing the flood of iron riders and shaking hard.

"Hahahaha A mere five-man squad, you also want to launch a charge against us?"

The leader of the Walla tribe, riding on his war horse, laughed wildly and unabashedly: "This is really the style of the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry! A bunch of reckless men who don't know what they're doing, brothers, with iron hooves, trample the five of them to a pulp!"

"Kill!"

Twenty men raised their battle swords at the same time and let out a thick burst of roar.

The killing intent instantly seemed to converge into a long rainbow that shot up to the sky.

It made the winds and snow of this side of the world, silent.

Rumble

Iron hooves shook the ground, tearing the wind and splitting the snow.

Chen Dong coldly and sternly rode across the war horse, holding the Dragon Rider war sword in his hand, at this moment, facing the 20-member Walla squad in front of him, his blood seemed to be burning and boiling.

Is this what it feels like on the battlefield?

It really is addictive!

Hearing the shout of the leader of the Wala squad, the corners of Chen Dong's mouth could not help but curl up into a teasing smile.

If the other side continued to fight with their Ugandan steel arrows, or even with hot weapons, this charge would all become fierce and dangerous.

But if the other side were to launch a charge against them in close combat

During the charge, Chen Dong gave a sidelong glance at Bai Qi beside him.

If we were to let these Walla tribe people know that the leader of this group of our soldiers is the former head guard of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, would they regret this decision to charge?

“Kill!”

On the other side, deafening shouts of killing swept in like a tidal wave.

In contrast to the shouting and killing of the Walla tribe, the five men on Chen Dong’s side were very unhappy.

The five men on Chen Dong’s side were extraordinarily silent.

A stern and murderous spirit was raging quietly.

There was no shouting and killing, only the advance of iron hooves.

The distance drew closer at a rapid pace.

“Brothers, twenty to five, this is a rich battle, trample them to pulp!”

The captain of the Walla tribe was still shouting and arrogant.

However.

Between the shouting, Chen Dong and the others had drawn extremely close to each other.

Suddenly.

Bai Qi let out a roar, “I, Bai Qi, lead the charge!”

Boom!

The sound was like rolling thunder as it crashed into the small group of the Waratah tribe.

With this roar, the captain of the Walla tribe, who had been rampantly rampant, changed his expression, his face filled with horror and terror.

“Bai, Bai Qi? Fuck, the leading guard of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army? Since when did he become a Wood Leader?”

As the shouts of shock rang out, the rest of the soldiers from the Waratah clan also revealed a look of horror.

As a former leader guard, one man under ten thousand people, Bai Qi's name was a deterrent to the hundred tribes outside the domain, just like Huo Zhenxiao!

Only, the Walla tribe had been killed by the Great Snow Dragon Riders three years ago!

Now, three years had passed, and they had barely had the courage to come back, but they could never have imagined that Bai Qi, once the leader of the northern frontier, had actually become a commander!

And right in front of them!

What the hell

What the hell has happened?

Three years of subjugation and the sea has changed? The head of the dragon became a military commander?

In an instant, the charging momentum of the twenty-man squad of the Warrat tribe could not help but sharply decrease, and even the war horses sensed the change in their master's momentum, and the momentum of their charge, somewhat weakened.

Just then.

Chen Dong and the others had already arrived in front of them.

It was as if they were five razor-sharp blades that pierced directly into the 20-man squad of the Waratah tribe!

Boom!

There was an explosive sound.

The Dragon Rider's battle sword in Bai Qi's hand swung brazenly, directly using the force of the charge to cut off a soldier of the Warrat tribe at the waist, blood flying and bodies falling to the ground.

But Bai Qi's momentum did not stop there.

With the force of his charge, the Dragon Rider battle sword in his hand waved like a fierce wind and rain, sweeping directly through the crowd with the domineering aura of a god of killing.

"Counterattack, quickly give me a counterattack!"

The squad leader of the Walla tribe was crying at this point.

He had thought he had a rich battle of twenty to five, but instead he had met Bai Qi, the god of killing!

This was not a battle of plenty, this was a descending blow from the Great Snow Dragon Riders!

“Follow me and surround Bai Qi!”

The leader of the Wallach team reacted decisively and immediately led ten of his men to surround and kill Bai Qi.

This was a descending strike, and only by taking care of Bai Qi first would there be any chance of victory in this encounter!

However.

Just as the Walla soldiers surrounded and killed Bai Qi, the pressure on Chen Dong's four men was suddenly reduced.

Of the four soldiers Chen Dong had originally faced, only two were left to tangle with him at this point.

Buzz!

A long spear, cloaked in snow, whistled and stabbed directly towards Chen Dong.

Chen Dong did not dodge, but brazenly held his Dragon Rider Sabre in front of him, blocking the lance with a clang, then his arms swung violently, blocking the lance, and then the Dragon Rider Sabre in his hand was directly drawn out in a horizontal motion!

The Dragon Rider's Sword is incredibly heavy.

It was also the result of the fact that once the Dragon Rider's Sword could be swung freely, the killing power that could be inflicted was astonishing.

Not just a slash, but when it is swung, even a slight clash can have the force of a thousand pounds!

Bang Teen!

There was a loud bang.

The Walla soldier holding a spear in front of him was directly knocked out by Chen Dong's Dragon Rider War Sword, his chest dented and blood splashed into the air.

“Death!”

In a flash of lightning.

Chen Dong's expression was cold, his eyes stirred with killing intent, but the Dragon Riding Sword in his hand seemed to be as light as a feather, when he turned the direction and slashed directly towards another Warlord soldier.

“Ah!”

The Walla soldier's face paled, and as he roared, he crossed his sword in front of his chest, trying to resist.

However, the Dragon Rider's sword, with the force of a thousand pounds, in Chen Dong's hand, in a domineering and overwhelming manner, slashed the Warlord's sword into two, and then landed brazenly on the Warlord's chest.

Bang!

The sword broke and the man flew, spilling blood into the air, staining the snow-capped ground red.

In an instant.

There was no one around Chen Dong, standing tall on his horse with his sword.

The leader of the Walla squad, who was killing Bai Qi, heard the soldier's screams and immediately drew his horse back and looked at the sound.

The moment he saw Chen Dong, his heart felt as if it had been cleaved by the Dragon Rider's war sword on the spot.

The whole man was dumbfounded

This five-man army of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, what the hell kind of divine team is this?

Chapter 882

Shock, trepidation.

It enveloped everyone in the squad of the Waratah clan from the very beginning of the engagement.

At this moment.

The reckless and rampant temper of a few moments ago had been cut down by Chen Dong and Bai Qi, several times with their Dragon Rider swords, and had vanished into thin air.

Even though the number of the Walla tribe was still far greater than Chen Dong and his five men.

But the strange thing was.

All of them, including the leader of the Warlord squad, could smell the threat of death!

Chen Dong quickly finished off two of the Walla soldiers and raised his eyes to look at Bai Qi who was under siege.

To his astonishment, even against ten men, Bai Qi wielded his Dragon Riding Sword like a god of killing, and he was not even outgunned!

The Dragon Rider's Sword buzzed and whistled, sweeping across a thousand armies.

In Bai Qi's hands, it exploded with terrifying killing power.

In the face of ten soldiers of Warrat, Bai Qi did not just defend, but fought back and forth with the ten soldiers!

This scene.

Even Chen Dong could not help but marvel at Bai Qi's combat ability!

Facing a siege of ten men, and with enemies on all sides.

Even if Chen Dong himself had relied on his terrifying fighting instincts when he fought Bai Qi, he would never have been able to do what Bai Qi did when faced with such a situation!

This is not only a matter of personal strength, but also a result of rich battlefield experience!

On the other hand.

Meng Dabiao was still in a good position, fighting one against two, and was temporarily locked in a stalemate.

Zhou Yao and Sun Kong, on the other hand, were in danger.

They were only proficient in one area, but when they encountered a situation like this where they were fighting against many, even if they were experienced in battle, their lack of personal strength was not enough to solve the situation.

Even if they were one against two, the two were still in a state of complete suppression.

Even Zhou Yao had been injured!

In an instant, Chen Dong was able to determine the situation in front of him.

Without hesitation, Chen Dong drove his horse straight into Zhou Yao's fighting circle.

Zhou Yao was already down and even wounded, so if he didn't take care of the enemy in front of him as soon as possible.

Perhaps this battle would come at the cost of bloody human lives!

While the warhorse galloped wildly, Chen Dong's right hand was carrying the Dragon Rider's war sword upside down.

He did not know the blade technique used in the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army with the Dragon Riding Warblade, but with the Dragon Riding Warblade in his hand, the Dragon Riding Warblade could explode with enough killing power with his strength being able to do it like his arm!

Amidst the wind and snow.

Chen Dong's face was filled with a solemn killing intent, a majestic killing intent that swept through with reckless abandon.

As if he was a god of killing, he charged towards the battle circle Zhou Yao was in!

"Be careful!"

A Walla soldier who was attacking against Zhou Yao spotted Chen Dong, but he directly abandoned Zhou Yao and charged directly at Chen Dong with his sword.

In a flash of lightning.

The Long Rider's sword, which had been in Chen Dong's hand for a long time, was thrown backwards, from the bottom to the top.

Bang!

This backwards jerk directly struck the war horse's neck with the back of the blade.

“Phew

With a loud sound and the war horse’s painful neighing.

Amidst the wind and snow.

The Walla soldier who was rushing towards Chen Dong directly stood up with the war horse.

This slash directly broke the war horse’s neck!

At the same time as the horse stood up with the Warlord in pain.

Chen Dong’s Dragon Rider Sword swung out again.

Bang Teen!

A slash struck the chest cavity of the Warlord soldier, and blood flew out.

A single slash killed him!

This scene was overwhelming, bloody and shocking!

It was as if the entire battlefield had been shaken by Chen Dong’s two slashes in quick succession!

In an instant, all eyes were instantly focused on Chen Dong.

The captain of the Waratah squad, witnessing Chen Dong at this moment, felt a great terror of death.

In an instant, cold sweat rained down and his heart chilled!

A former leader guard of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, an unknown terrifying little soldier, waved his hand to bring the hegemony of the Dragon Riding Battle Sword to its fullest extent.

How else could this battle be fought?

After a short moment of panic and hesitation.

The captain of the Wallach squad made an immediate decision.

“Retreat, retreat! All of you retreat immediately!”

Escape!

This was the only response that the leader of the Waratah squad could think of at this instant.

He had originally anticipated that he would lead his soldiers to besiege Bai Qi, and even if he could not kill him, he could still serve as a delay.

The rest of the soldiers, fighting two against one, would also be able to settle the battle quickly, and in the end, with all the soldiers surrounding Bai Qi together, it was not impossible to overwhelm Bai Qi and the others!

But now, a nameless man wielding a Dragon Rider battle sword became the variable of the whole battle.

It was as if Chen Dong's successive slashes with the Dragon Rider's Sabre had struck at the heart of the leader of the Warlord squad.

With such a variable, his plan was a complete failure!

Chen Dong's combat prowess was like a tiger entering a flock of sheep, killing them in every direction in the eyes of the Walla squad leader!

Compared to Bai Qi, his strength was not at all inferior!

A five-man squad hiding a fierce beast was not enough to make people despair.

But a five-man squad with two beasts hiding in it is truly a great terror, a great despair!

Rumble

With a command, the remaining soldiers of the Waratah squad all turned their horses decisively and fled into the distance.

There was no more arrogance, only a scattering of birds and beasts!

"Is this the end?"

Chen Dong was a little stunned as he looked at the blood-stained Dragon Rider's battle sword in his hand.

This was just the beginning of the fight, and it was over?

However.

Bai Qi's thick, thunder-like voice suddenly echoed across this side of the world.

"Everyone, follow me and surround them!"

Chen Dong's gaze flickered for a moment, and when he raised his eyes, he saw that Bai Qi had already pursued towards the still dozen or so remaining Wallachian squads.

As far as the sight could see, Bai Qi alone was chasing and killing a dozen people.

There was something odd about this image.

And Bai Qi's words also caused the corners of Chen Dong's mouth to twitch.

This comparison of numbers in the siege was a bit odd!

"Charge!"

In the next second, Meng Dabiao took the lead and went after Bai Qi.

Following closely behind, Sun Kong also rushed up.

Chen Dong's eyes were filled with battle spirit and he was about to follow him with his sword.

Instead, a cry of thanks from Zhou Yao rang out behind him, "Thank you, Brother Dong!"

"Our own brothers, why say thank you? Together, surround them!"

Chen Dong laughed out loud and drove his horse wildly!

With the overbearing momentum from Chen Dong's successive slashes just now, the battle had also brought out the morale, and at this moment, in the five-man squad, the morale was as strong as a rainbow, and the momentum was as strong as a bamboo!

In the cold wind and snowy sky.

The wind was howling.

But Chen Dong's five men were chasing after the dozen or so members of the Wallachian squad!

On the battlefield, morale is the most crucial.

Once a drum is set in motion, it will fail again and again!

At this moment, the dozen or so Walras retreated without the slightest bit of courage, as if they were frightened lambs, running desperately and wildly, facing Chen Dong's five men behind them, but without even the slightest bit of courage to resist.

The chase was on in the snow and wind.

Chen Dong straddled his warhorse, the battle spirit in his eyes raging as if the blood in his body was boiling.

“Is this the charm of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army? Perhaps I have chosen to come to the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army on this trip, I have chosen the right one!”

Winner Takes All Chapter 883-884

Chapter 883

A short encounter.

The dozen or so remaining soldiers of the Waratah squad were no longer emboldened.

It was like a scattering of birds and beasts.

Facing Chen Dong's five men behind them, it was a one-sided massacre!

Bai Qi was the first to catch up with the Walras, and with a single stroke of his sword, he killed a Walras soldier without any hindrance.

There was no resistance, and even in the midst of the mad dash to his death, the Walla soldier only let out a desperate scream.

Chen Dong witnessed all of this, and the wariness in his eyes tumbled.

Perhaps this is the true defeat of a soldier!

In the past, he still had a somewhat vague perception of this phrase.

But now that he was experiencing it first hand and witnessing the scene in front of him, he found that the phrase was simply too apt.

In quick succession, Meng Dabiao followed Bai Qi and caught up with the Waratah squad.

Chen Dong, Sun Kong and Zhou Yao, too, followed close behind.

A battle in which the few surrounded the many, with no suspense.

A pure reaping!

Amidst the wind and snow, the shouts of murder were deafening.

It was only a matter of moments before a siege battle came to an end.

When the battle was over.

Chen Dong sat on his war horse and calmly scanned everything in front of him.

Blood, corpses, even the corpses of war horses, and soldiers' armour all over the place
.....

Everything, after the feverish blood had cooled down, suddenly made him feel a bit like a dream.

The short battle, which seemed to be frightening and uneventful, was actually extremely taxing on everyone!

Bai Qi and Meng Dabiao all dismounted from their horses and sat down on the snow to recuperate.

Zhou Yao and Sun Kong were in the weakest condition of the five men, and were already panting and sweating as they sat on the ground.

Meng Dabiao was a little better, and after a few big breaths, he took out his medical gauze and began to dress the wounded Zhou Yao.

After resting for a few moments, Meng Dabiao, Zhou Yao and Sun Kong then began to clean up the battlefield.

These are all military achievements!

Bai Qi sat in place from start to finish, his gaze profoundly looking at Chen Dong who was always straddling his war horse.

From time to time, the deep eyes would reveal a look of appreciation.

In the relationship between men, sometimes conflicts are resolved in just a moment.

This is especially true for men of the army!

Perhaps a single battle can make the two sides clear their differences.

It was like the state of mind Bai Qi had when he looked at Chen Dong now. The brief encounter he had just had, the domineering stance Chen Dong had displayed, made Bai Qi fade away that incident at the beginning.

“Indeed, a true genius can shine no matter what place they are put.”

Bai Qi murmured softly, in a voice that only he could hear clearly.

Unlike Meng Dabiao's trio, he was completely aware of Chen Dong's background and knew everything about it.

It was also this understanding that led to this heartfelt sentiment now.

“Chen Dong, drink up!”

Bai Qi ripped off a sheepskin bag hanging from his waist, opened the stopper and tilted his head to take a sip, then tossed it directly to Chen Dong.

Chen Dong raised his hand to catch it, smelling the tantalising aroma emanating from the sheepskin pouch, and asked with some hesitation, “Chief Bai, we are on a mission, is it inappropriate to drink?”

“Why is it inappropriate? When I say it's appropriate, it's appropriate! How can we get rid of the chill without some wine on this cold day?”

Bai Qi waved his hand and said with a bold smile, “Don't worry, I know all these rules, at least I've been there before.

He explained with a hint of self-deprecation.

It made Chen Dong a little embarrassed.

He was the one who had taken over Bai Qi's leadership guard!

Seeing that Chen Dong was still hesitant, Bai Qi said with a smile, “Don't worry, this is our first battle, everyone has performed very well, it's worth drinking to celebrate!”

With that, Bai Qi looked at Meng Dabiao, Zhou Yao and Sun Kong and said with a smile, “Brothers, Chen Dong took the lead in this battle today, so there's only so much wine, he'll have a few more sips, you don't mind, right?”

“As long as I have something to drink!”

Meng Dabiao said with a simple smile.

Zhou Yao and Sun Kong also smiled and shook their heads.

The fight just now was obvious to anyone.

Although the five of them were together, it was Chen Dong and Bai Qi who really played the decisive role.

Bai Qi alone had entangled most of the troops and relieved the pressure on all of them.

Then Chen Dong took on a dark horse stance, dominating and killing the Walla soldiers in quick succession, completely crushing their morale, which sealed the victory in this small encounter.

The wounded Zhou Yao, in particular, knew very well that if Chen Dong hadn't arrived on his horse, he might have been more than just slightly wounded, and might even have perished on the spot!

No one refuted Bai Qi's words.

They even felt that Bai Qi's words were very reasonable.

That was the way it was in the army, whoever got the most credit deserved more!

There were no human feelings and calculations in normal life, everything was based on merit!

Faced with the laughter of the crowd, Chen Dong also laughed, tilting his head back and taking a big gulp of wine.

The cold wine, with its stimulation, entered his stomach along his oesophagus, and then returned up with a blazing warmth.

In this nine-nine cold day, this feeling was very comfortable.

Immediately afterwards, Chen Dong threw the sheepskin bag to Meng Dabiao again.

After Meng Dabiao, Zhou Yao and Sun Kong drank one after another.

The small portion of the wine left in the sheepskin bag also all fell into Bai Qi's stomach.

After a short rest.

The men continued their scouting patrols in depth.

It was as if the battle was just a small stone smashed into the calm water, which soon returned to calm after a wave was created.

This is very rare in the army.

Meng Dabiao, Zhou Yao and Sun Kong didn't find it surprising.

What's more, this was in the middle of the cruellest and most treacherous Northern Territory!

Battles like this happen all too rarely!

However, after the battle just now, Bai Qi was also clearly more careful and alert, or at least not as he had just done, leading Chen Dong and the four of them, running recklessly and wildly, but slowing down a bit.

“Chief Bai Wu, I found something just now, I think it’s a bit odd, take a look.”

Sun Kong caught up with Bai Qi and pulled out a token with a sheepskin wrapped around the edge and threw it to Bai Qi.

Chen Dong was the closest to Bai Qi and could see the token clearly.

It was a very ordinary token, made of wood, with sheepskin wrapped around it, and it seemed to be engraved with some kind of writing.

Because of the distance and the wind and snow, Chen Dong could not see it clearly.

However, no matter how one looked at it, the token was too ordinary to be a soldier’s identity token at most.

To be honest, if the person who had just cleaned up the battlefield was not Sun Kong, who was good at scouting, even Chen Dong, asking himself, would have missed out this token.

However.

Just after Bai Qi caught the token and took a few glances at it.

He suddenly looked solemn and halted his horse.

“Phew

The sudden scene caught Chen Dong’s four men off guard.

So much so that the four men’s war horses all rushed out some distance.

When the war horses hissed and came to a halt.

All four of them turned back to look at Bai Qi in confusion.

Bai Qi suddenly said in a deep voice, “The reconnaissance patrol mission is terminated immediately, return to Zhenjiang City immediately!”

Chapter 884

Terminate the scouting patrol mission?

Bai Qi's sudden decision caused Chen Dong's four men to look at each other in disbelief.

"Chief Bai Wu, is that the token?"

Sun Kong raised his finger in astonishment and pointed at the token that Bai Qi was holding tightly in his hand.

The moment the token arrived in Bai Qi's hand, such a decision was made.

Obviously this token was not as simple as it appeared to be.

"Hm."

Bai Qi picked up the token and shook it in his hand, smiling meaningfully, "If I hadn't been a former leading guard, perhaps this first scouting patrol mission of ours would have continued deeper, but now, it will have to be terminated early."

Chen Dong's brow furrowed, doubt in his eyes.

Bai Qi's words made him curious to the extreme about the token in Bai Qi's hand.

According to Bai Qi's meaning, I was afraid that only the Twelve Golden Guards, or only he and Huo Zhenxiao, knew what the token meant.

An ordinary wooden token, but with such high authority!

The meaning behind it was perhaps even more terrifying.

"Let's go, listen to Chief Bai Wu."

Chen Dong exhaled a mouthful of cold air and snickered, "It happens to be cold as well, so going back sooner will count as being able to report military merit sooner."

As soon as he heard about military merit.

Meng Dabiao, Sun Kong and Zhou Yao all looked uplifted.

They had willingly put aside everything they had done in the military to come to the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry because they wanted to build up their merits.

Now that they had just joined and carried out their first mission, they had killed a squad of Walla tribe spies and captured a significant token, so this military achievement was no small feat!

“Hahahaha We’re off to a good start here in the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, I guess other recruits will be envious when they find out that we’ve got a military achievement on our first scouting patrol, right?”

“Yes, yes, yes, today’s harvest is really great, with this first military achievement to start with, it will definitely get better and better in the future!”

“But we still have to thank Chief Bai Wu and Brother Chen Dong for taking care of us today without any problems.”

The three of them laughed one after another and spoke up.

When the wounded Zhou Yao said the last words, Meng Dabiao’s gaze was deep and meaningful as he looked at Chen Dong, and gradually his eyes became a little fiery.

“It’s still me, Da Biao, who is smart enough to know that Brother Dong is a crouching tiger and hidden dragon, from now on we have to hold on to Brother Dong’s thighs.”

This was the thought in Meng Dabiao’s mind.

As Bai Qi made his decision.

Immediately, the five-man team turned their horses around and headed back towards Zhenjiang City at great speed.

The wind and snow continued to blow.

When the team passed by the site of the previous battle, they found that the corpses everywhere had gradually been buried by the snow.

“Perhaps it won’t be long before the snow covers down and the traces of this battle are completely buried.”

Chen Dong murmured.

Bai Qi, who was laughing at the side, said, “This is how it is in the northern frontier, the wind and snow are always there, a battle will be over, perhaps just for an hour, and the traces of the battle will be covered by the wind and snow, in the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry Army, those who are able to return to their roots with their horses’ flesh are all lucky in life, there are many more, who are buried under the wind and snow.”

Although he was smiling, Chen Dong could clearly hear the sorrow in Bai Qi’s words.

The battlefield was cruel, and if one was lucky enough to return to their homeland to return to their roots after making the sacrifice, it was indeed a luxury.

Returning to one's roots is engraved into one's bones and fused into one's blood for everyone.

On the way, everyone rushed along with their heads bored and cloaked in snow.

Meng Dabiao and the three of them were immersed in the joy of military success.

Chen Dong always observed Bai Qi, he was new to the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army and had a lot to learn, and Bai Qi was also his best teacher.

I guess Huo Zhenxiao also had this meaning when he made this arrangement.

On this journey, however, Chen Dong was always paying attention to Bai Qi's expression.

He was so serious!

An unprecedented gloom!

Compared to Meng Dabiao's mood, Bai Qi seemed to be in a different world.

Such an expression also caused Chen Dong's mind to float.

Although Bai Qi was now only a military commander, he had once been a serious leader of the guards, a man above all others.

In such a high position, he had also fought and fought in the battlefield.

Such a man could have fluctuations in his state of mind, but the Bai Qi in front of him was clearly fluctuating too much!

And it was still unconcealed.

What did that wooden token mean behind the scenes?

All the way back to Zhenjiang City, just after entering the city gates, Bai Qi told the four of them, Chen Dong, to return their equipment to the Quartermaster's Office, and then wait for him to collect their military honours together.

After the explanation, Bai Qi went straight to his armour and horse and headed for Huo Zhenxiao's residence.

He sped along and soon disappeared at the end of the street.

"Brother Dong, let's hurry up and turn in our equipment, once we've done that, we'll wait for Chief Bai to take us to receive our military honours!"

Meng Dabiao called out to Chen Dong.

“Okay, coming.”

Chen Dong withdrew his gaze, turned his horse around and headed towards the quartermaster’s office.

After handing in all the equipment.

The four of them stood at the gate of the Quartermaster’s Office and waited.

After they had taken off their armour and unloaded their equipment, they were all lighter.

At this moment, they were standing at the gate, joking and chatting with each other.

When the Great Snow Dragon Riders were in Zhenjiang City, no one would care if they took it easy like this when there was no mission.

Only Chen Dong was always frowning, his mind always lingering on that wooden token.

“Brother Dong, we’ve all got military honours, why are you still frowning?”

Meng Dabiao asked with a smile as he approached Chen Dong.

He knew that Chen Dong was not an ordinary person, and in order to draw closer to Chen Dong, so his attention stayed on Chen Dong more and more from time to time.

“No, it’s nothing.”

Chen Dong shook his head and stretched his back.

Sun Kong at the side smiled and asked, “Is Brother Dong thinking about that token?”

Chen Dong gave Sun Kong a look, as expected of someone who specialized in scouting, but he didn’t respond directly, he just smiled noncommittally.

He waited for about half an hour.

Bai Qi finally rode in on his war horse and came in a hurry.

When he saw Chen Dong and the four of them, he didn’t stop and went straight into the quartermaster’s office and handed in his war horse equipment.

When Bai Qi walked out.

As on the road before, there was always a halo of gloom on his face that could not be dispersed.

Even in Chen Dong's eyes, Bai Qi's frown seemed to have deepened.

"Let's go, take you all to collect your military honours."

Bai Qi said, before leading the four Chen Dong towards the Military Merit Office.

Along the way, Meng Dabiao and the three of them were talking and laughing with a spring in their step.

Obviously, to them, it was such a smug and happy thing to have a military achievement as soon as they entered the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army!

However, Chen Dong and Bai Qi were unusually calm.

Bai Qi was because he had something on his mind.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, was curious about what was on Bai Qi's mind, but he did not care about the military achievement.

He would only be in the Great Snow Dragon Rider Army for three months, and would have to leave it by the time of his father's birthday.

Not to mention his tang leading guard, with or without military merit, it does not seem to mean much now

Winner Takes All Chapter 885-886

Chapter 885

The Military Merit Office was within Zhenjiang City, and was dedicated to recording the collection of every soldier's military merit.

When Chen Dong followed Bai Qi to the Military Merit Office, the four of them were already lined up.

There was already a long queue at the large Military Merit Office.

With 300,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders, military merit existed every day.

The cruel and harsh environment had also created a huge reward of military merit.

"Chief Bai, on the first day our new recruits joined the camp, we took military merit, this is considered unique in the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, right?"

Meng Dabiao suddenly stepped forward and proudly inquired about Bai Qi.

Bai Qi nodded, "Not exactly unique, but it's still very rare."

The new recruits had just joined the battalion and just had to quickly settle into the rhythm of the Great Snow Dragon Riders, and the first mission arranged was just a seemingly simple and safe scouting patrol.

But there are always exceptions to everything, and situations like today's were not expected even by Bai Qi.

But in the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, on this northern frontier, it seemed to make sense.

"Then this is enough bull for us to blow, hahaha"

Meng Dabiao laughed wantonly.

However.

Just at this moment.

A surprised voice came out, "Bai Qi, why are you here?"

Chen Dong and the others looked at the voice, but it was a powerfully built, sturdy officer who was looking at Bai Qi with dismay at this moment.

"Commander Xiao, I have brought my brothers here to receive military honours."

Bai Qi cupped his fist at the stout officer and smiled.

"Military honours?"

Commander Xiao suddenly laughed uncontrollably and pointed at Bai Qi, not hiding his sneer, "Hahaha" Bai Qi, are you joking? If I remember correctly, you're just the leader of a new recruit army, and you're only leading them on a scouting patrol today, what kind of military merit are you bringing them here to collect?"

As he spoke.

There were also quite a few sergeants around them echoing and laughing.

From their point of view, to carry out the easiest and safest scouting patrol, with the fierce reputation of the Great Snow Dragon Riders on the northern frontier over the years, this scouting patrol was simply an outing on horseback!

Without risk, how could there be military merit?

Faced with the ridicule of the crowd.

The smiles on Meng Dabiao's face disappeared.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, glanced at Bai Qi.

Obviously, there was a problem between Bai Qi and this Commander Xiao.

Otherwise, he would not have done such a disgraceful thing by grabbing such a "trivial matter".

Even if Bai Qi had become a military commander and had been jerked off to the end by Huo Zhenxiao, but the name of a man is a shadow of a tree, ordinary officers would still have coveted and respected Bai Qi.

If he hadn't had a problem with it.

If this Commander Xiao did this, it was purely a case of having a bag for brains.

In the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, if he really had a brain, he probably wouldn't have made it to the position of commander!

However.

Faced with the sneers of Commander Xiao and the others, Bai Qi smiled faintly and ignored them.

"Come in with me."

Bai Qi said to Chen Dong and the others.

But just as the five of them were walking towards the military achievement office, Commander Xiao suddenly crossed over the crowd and crossed in front of Bai Qi, blocking the way.

"This Commander is asking you words, and you ignore me?"

The figure of Commander Xiao was not inferior to Bai Qi's, and while the two were standing face to face, Commander Xiao was somewhat fierce and brutal.

For a time.

Even the soldiers who had just joined in with Commander Xiao's sneers shut their mouths, all sensing the smell of gunpowder in the air.

“Commander Xiao, I am not under your banner, there is no need to report to you in detail, this military merit should be ours, naturally there are people from the military merit office responsible for judging it is.”

With a faint smile, Bai Qi intended to swipe past Commander Xiao.

Pah!

Suddenly, Commander Xiao shoved his palm against Bai Qi’s shoulder.

The force was so strong that Bai Qi was caught off guard and even staggered backwards a step.

Wow!

The crowd around him, waiting to receive their military honours, was in an uproar.

The smile on Bai Qi’s face was gone as he was pushed and shoved.

The four men, Chen Dong and Meng Dabiao, were about to step forward at once.

But Bai Qi suddenly raised his hand and tugged Chen Dong: “You can’t make a move.”

“Make a move?”

The corner of Commander Xiao’s mouth tugged as he sneered loudly, “Hahahaha I’m laughing my ass off, just four new recruits and they still want to make a move against me, the commander?”

As he spoke, Commander Xiao took another step forward, laughing and scorning at Bai Qi.

“As expected of the soldiers led by the Dragon Head Guard, they are all bold and domineering!”

“Commander Xiao, you are the elder and I am the younger, if you really want to deal with me, I have nothing to say to Bai Qi, but if you are thinking of the past gap and want to take advantage of this time to spill your guts and take the opportunity to clean me up, I ask you to respect yourself!”

Bai Qi didn’t back down anymore, he took a step forward, and in an instant his majestic killing intent crushed down on Commander Xiao like a tidal wave: “Although I’m not a Dragon Head Guard anymore, I still understand the rules within the Great Snow Dragon Riders’ army, if you want to take personal revenge, then I, Bai Qi, don’t mind asking Commander Xiao to go to the Dragon Breaking Platform!”

Boom!

A single sentence instantly exploded like a big thunderbolt in the military service.

As soon as Bai Qi's words were spoken, a series of shouts of surprise rang out from the surroundings.

Some of the soldiers' faces even turned pale.

Even Chen Dong was the closest to Bai Qi and Commander Xiao, and with Bai Qi's words, he could clearly see that Commander Xiao's eyes had changed, and even though he was trying his best to hide it, he still couldn't hide the strong fear.

"What is the Broken Dragon Terrace?"

Meng Dabiao inquired in a low voice.

Zhou Yao slowly explained, "Before I came here, I had heard that there was this Dragon Breaker in the Great Snow Dragon Rider Army. Unlike our previous Rongwu, this Dragon Breaker is somewhat like a life and death ring, but anyone who has an entangled hatred gap, no matter if they are a commander or an ordinary soldier, can go to the Dragon Breaker and fight on the Dragon Breaker to clear all the grudges and entanglements."

"Crap, there is still such a rigid place?" Meng Dabiao was instantly stunned.

When Chen Dong heard Zhou Yao's explanation, he was also stunned for a moment.

The Great Snow Dragon Riders were a regular army, so it was hard to imagine that there would be such a place to settle personal grudges.

But he also understood what the fear in Commander Xiao's eyes was about!

Once on the Dragon Breaking Platform, although Bai Qi's position was only that of an army commander, his strength was still that of a former Dragon Head Guard, and beating Commander Xiao would be purely for nothing!

Zhou Yao continued in a low voice: "Moreover, there are very few rules on the Dragon Breaker Terrace, and there can be no differences, regardless of the difference in status and rank, which means that as long as Chief Bai is really ruthless and invites Commander Xiao to the Dragon Breaker Terrace, it is really possible to fight for life and death together!"

"Moreover, this Dragon Breaking Platform, it seems that even if we are a new recruit, we can still invite Sovereign Huo Zhenxiao up there to fight, and this Dragon Breaking Platform was even designed by Sovereign Huo himself!"

“Hiss~”

Meng Dabiao and Sun Kong simultaneously sucked in a breath of cold air.

Meng Dabiao even whispered, “Who the hell dares to challenge a Sovereign who can destroy a city? He’s a werewolf, a little more than a vicious man!”

Several people whispered as they did so.

The battle of qi between Bai Qi and Commander Xiao had already reached a white-hot stage.

But in Chen Dong’s eyes, when the first hint of fear passed through Commander Xiao’s eyes, the contest had, in fact, already been divided between the winner and the loser.

Snap!

Bai Qi raised his hand and directly pushed Commander Xiao away with a palm in full view of everyone: “So, in order to not get onto the Dragon Breaking Platform, please also ask Commander Xiao to cherish his life and make way.”

Chapter 886

Undisguised dominance.

Even though Bai Qi has shed the glory of his former leading guard, the domineering nature hidden in his bones has still not disappeared.

At this moment, his entire aura was like a mountain being pulled up from the ground, crushing the entire military service.

Even Commander Xiao could not help but be lowered by his aura, and after being pushed away with a slap, he even froze in place.

Chen Dong and the others, on the other hand, followed behind Bai Qi without a glance, heading towards the Military Achievement Office.

Meng Dabiao and the three men were even more fervent in their hearts.

Feeling the gaze of the crowd, they could not help but feel even more excited and secretly happy.

They were Bai Qi’s soldiers, and when Bai Qi could run amok, they naturally felt good too.

And the surrounding soldiers, at this moment, all whispered.

“Tsk A Dragon Head Guard is a Dragon Head Guard, even if he’s been jerked around by the Sovereign to the end, it’s not something that anyone can infringe upon.”

“The Dragon Breaking Platform..... heck, even if Commander Xiao had a hundred guts he wouldn’t dare to go up to the Dragon Breaking Platform with Bai Qi, he would still be hammered to a pulp by Bai Qi if he went up there, right?”

“Alas,..... this Xiao Commander is also, all is the previous feud, this time encounter Bai Qi, have to grasp not to let go, instead of their own face is lost, the Dragon Break platform that place, he three Xiao Commander is not enough for Bai Qi a person to fight.”

Even if it is whispering, but once the number of people is large, the voice becomes dense and loud.

One by one, the words discussed by the soldiers fell on the ears of Commander Xiao.

In an instant, it made Commander Xiao’s face tumble with depression, and his eyes fiercely became resentful.

The comments were as if they were knives cutting into his body.

It made him feel like a manacle on his back, and his body was on fire

The first thing you need to do is to make things difficult for Bai Qi, who was once a leading guard and is now the lowest of the low, so what does it matter if he steps on him?

Now that he was being watched by everyone, his face was completely lost.

Anger, resentment and resentment haunted Commander Xiao.

Looking at Bai Qi’s five men walking towards the military merit office, Commander Xiao suddenly gritted his teeth fiercely.

“Bai Qi you stand still!”

With an explosive shout, the whole room fell abruptly silent.

Everyone stared at Commander Xiao in astonishment.

Commander Xiao, did he really want to go to the Dragon Breaking Platform with Bai Qi?

Bai Qi paused in his steps and slowly turned around, sweeping past Chen Dong and looking straight at Commander Xiao with his tiger eyes, "Is Commander Xiao changing his mind and wanting to try out the Dragon Breaking Platform with me?"

A hint of panic flashed across Commander Xiao's eyes.

After hesitating for a moment, he said sternly, "Bullshit! There are so many people waiting here to receive their reported military merits, why should you, a mere army commander, lead four new recruits to rush into the merit office without any rules?"

At these words.

The gazes of the crowd suddenly became strangely complicated.

Even the eyes of some of the sergeants looking at Commander Xiao became somewhat contemptuous and disgraceful.

If they had been on the Dragon Breaking Platform, the people present would not have looked at Commander Xiao in such a way.

Which of the men in the army did not have hot blood?

On the contrary, Commander Xiao did not dare to go to the Dragon Breaking Platform with Bai Qi, but he still wanted to use such a simple thing that could almost be ignored to put Bai Qi in his place again, this is simply underhanded!

The commander said this in public, where is the style?

"Commander Xiao, is that how underhanded you are?"

Bai Qi asked coldly, "The Dragon Breaking Platform doesn't dare to go up, and now the titular commander is here to teach me to line up?"

"That's the rule!"

Commander Xiao had already lost face, and at this moment he only wanted to vent his grievances in public, not bothering to care about the opinions of the people around him, "Everyone is waiting in line for military honours, why should you be an exception? You can't rely on the connections you've built up as a leader and open up the back door, how can you lead the army?"

The words were so eloquent, as if every word was righteous.

But to everyone's ears, it was extremely uncomfortable.

Men in the army have hot blood, but their bones are equally hard!

The way Commander Xiao was acting and speaking now, in everyone's eyes, felt that he was losing face.

"It seems that you and he have a gap that is not small, all of them already have no skin and no face to embarrass you."

Chen Dong gave a light laugh.

Bai Qi gave Chen Dong a helpless glance, then crossed the crowd and scolded Commander Xiao in a stern voice, "Commander Xiao, you are a Commander, don't you know the difference in treatment between Heaven and Earth, Xuanhuang, the fourth rank and thirty-six feats?"

A single word.

Instantly, the crowd's expressions changed greatly.

They gazed at Bai Qi with shocked eyes.

Even Commander Xiao was a bit baffled by Bai Qi's words.

His eyes fluttered and flickered for a few moments, and for a while, Commander Xiao's heart was a little beaten up.

"Say it!"

Bai Qi bellowed, his face full of anger at this moment.

Commander Xiao's eyes flickered for a moment, but he still strained his neck and responded, "Heaven and Earth, Xuanhuang, four words, thirty-six merits, of course I know that merits above the word Earth can ignore the ranks and directly enter the military merit office to receive priority reporting!"

As he said these words, Commander Xiao's heart was even more in a state of turmoil.

Even the surrounding sergeants were looking at Bai Qi and Chen Dong's five men with astonishment and suspicion.

The thirty-six merits of the fourth order of heaven and earth, the thirty-six merits of the fourth order, were the sizes of military merits that Huo Zhenxiao had drawn up single-handedly.

The ninth yellow merit, the smallest, and the first heavenly merit, the largest!

And the watershed in the middle is precisely the word earth merit.

Once the merit exceeds the Earth Merit, one can ignore the long queue at the Military Merit Office and enjoy priority directly.

But if it really reaches the level of the Earth Merit, then it will definitely alarm the entire Great Snow Dragon Riding Army!

After so many years of the 300,000 Great Snow Dragon Cavalry Army, there would simply be no such thing as a calm and quiet ground merit!

“Bai Qi, do you take me for a scared man?”

Commander Xiao’s gaze turned, suddenly ruthless, and he snorted loudly, “The four characters of Heaven, Earth and Xuanhuang are thirty-six merits, and the Earth merit upwards does enjoy priority! But once the Earth character merit is released, it is something that can alert our Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, and has already been recognized by all as meritorious, before it has this priority and enters the military merit office directly.”

“The five of you want to enter the Military Merit Office just because the wind is calm, I’m afraid you even have to let the people at the Military Merit Office determine the size of your merits, right? You really think you can make a fortune by taking a few new recruits out for a walk?”

“You don’t want to eat shit!”

With a bit of verbal sparring.

The many soldiers who were already in a state of shock and disbelief also began to echo what Commander Xiao said.

This was the same doubt that lingered in everyone’s mind!

The first scouting patrol mission for the new recruits was supposed to get the recruits used to the rhythm of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army quickly.

Safety with little risk was what everyone knew about their first mission!

Even if something goes wrong in the process, to the extent that it is enough to receive a military merit, it is unlikely to rise to the level of a ground merit.

Even if a scouting patrol wanted to earn a ground merit, it was indeed a fart!

Bai Qi’s expression turned cold and stern.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, looked at Bai Qi in puzzlement.

And after some words, a smug smile could not help but appear on Commander Xiao's face.

He had already disgraced himself before, but now Bai Qi's reaction was enough to humiliate him in public, as long as he was sure it wasn't a big credit!

As long as he could humiliate Bai Qi, his Commander Xiao's loss of face would be a loss!

"Oh, a patrol's merit, how big can it be? This is Bai Qi you made your own death"

This was the thought in Commander Xiao's mind.

Just as Bai Qi was about to speak in a stern voice.

Suddenly, outside the military merit office, the sound of horse hooves came.

At the same time, a thunderous sound, booming like thunder, bombarded everyone present.

"By the Sovereign's own command, Bai Qi's five-man army, military ranking"

Winner Takes All Chapter 887-888

Chapter 887

Boom!

A loud roar.

Like a rolling thunder, it exploded in the military service.

Everyone looked out at the sound, their faces full of shock.

It was as if this roar was also like a heavy hammer, hitting everyone's heart fiercely.

The Sovereign's own words!

This was a military achievement personally graded by the Sovereign!

Could it be that

At this moment, Commander Xiao's face also changed drastically, the smug smile on his face disappearing in an instant, leaving only a face full of panic.

He turned around brazenly, looked at the soldiers who rushed in, and said in a stern voice, "How big a merit is it that you still have to have the Lord personally grade it? This, this"

The soldier rode across on his warhorse and did not fall from his horse.

Looking down on Commander Xiao from a high position, he calmly said, "Commander Xiao is the Commander, why are you questioning such a stupid question?"

Commander Xiao's tiger body shook and he lowered his head in fear.

Constantly shaking his head, he murmured, "Impossible, there's no way this could happen, it's just a scouting patrol ah, it's just the first mission for new recruits"

At this moment, all thoughts went up in smoke.

The whole of Commander Xiao was in a state of panic and disorientation, his head even buzzing.

"What level of merit are we, exactly?"

Chen Dong stood behind Bai Qi and inquired in a low voice.

At the sound of his voice.

The three men beside him, Meng Dabiao, also revealed a look of excited curiosity at the same time.

After returning to Zhenjiang City, it was Bai Qi who went to find Huo Zhenxiao alone.

As for the military merit rating, Bai Qi should also have had it in mind, which was why he had brought them over directly.

This later soldier, on the other hand, was informed to the Military Merit Office in accordance with Huo Zhenxiao's rating.

"It's still quite high."

Bai Qi smiled faintly as he gazed towards the shocked and terrified Commander Xiao, his eyes full of contempt, "Commander Xiao, he's just like a clown, today is the day that the Commander's face was completely smashed!"

The next second.

The soldier riding on top of the war horse announced loudly.

“The Lord himself set the rank, Bai Qi five people Wu, all five people are the first merit of the word earth!”

Rumble

When the “first merit of the word earth” echoed in the military merit office.

It was like a thunderstorm that was passed out in layers.

Boom!

The crowd present at this moment also burst out in an astonished uproar.

“Earth, the first merit of the word earth? My, my God, what exactly did they do, why would the Sovereign award such a high grade of military merit?”

“My, my God, what on earth has happened? Earth, the first merit of the word earth? Shit, I joined the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army back then thinking that I could retire to my hometown and return to my homeland after achieving an Earth Word Merit, and they, a few of their new recruits, have already done something that I haven’t done in almost ten years on their first mission?”

“Bai Qi, you wouldn’t have taken four new recruits, gone out of the city on a patrol and slaughtered the head of the leader of that extra-territorial barbarian tribe in the process, would you?”

.....

For a moment, there were shouts of astonishment.

Everyone was in a state of shock.

The fact that an Earth Merit could have the privilege of being in the Military Merit Office was proof enough of how difficult it was to obtain.

What’s more, but any piece of Earth Word Merit was something that happened to shock the entire 300,000 Great Snow Dragon Riding Army.

So quietly obtained the Earth word merit, moreover the Earth word kuih first merit, this is not run out and assassinate the chief of the rabbit tribe, what else can it be?

“The earth, the earth word first merit?!”

The already terrified Commander Xiao’s eyes were even more filled with horror at this moment, and in an instant it was as if the strength in his body had been emptied as he staggered back a step.

The soldier's announcement was Huo Zhenxiao's rating.

This was something that no one would question.

But the simple five words of the First Earthly Merit seemed to be a titanic mountain that came crashing down from the sky, crushing Commander Xiao's entire body.

His body trembled, and his hands were shivering uncontrollably.

Apart from the intense shock, at this moment, Commander Xiao's mind was blank.

He had to know that even though he had been the Commander, he had only obtained the Seventh Earthly Merit three times in all these years, and it was with this merit that he had finally taken the position of Commander.

The First Earthly Merit!

He hadn't even thought about it.

But now, Bai Qi and the four new recruits had actually gotten it the first time.

There was a fucking ghost, wasn't there?

Thinking about all that had just happened, at this moment, Commander Xiao's entire being felt as if he had fallen into a pit of fire, being burned by a great fire.

The five of them are the first merit of the word earth, so what the hell did I just do?

"Commander Xiao, what else do you have to say now?"

Bai Qi let out a stern cry.

It was instantly like a thunderclap, shaking Commander Xiao's body.

Shame!

A great disgrace!

A disgrace that he had sent to his door!

With his eyes full of resentment, Commander Xiao couldn't even care about his military achievements, he no longer had the face to stay in the military achievements office, so with a fierce grit of his teeth, he stifled his head and ran outside the military achievements office.

"The first merit of the word earth?"

Chen Dong was a little stunned.

While beside him, Meng Dabiao, Sun Kong and Zhou Yao, gradually came back to their senses.

Snap!

Meng Dabiao slapped himself fiercely, and the intense pain instantly made him ecstatic.

“No, it’s not a dream! This first scouting patrol of ours is really, really the first merit of the word earth?”

Because he was so excited, so much so that Meng Dabiao’s voice stuttered.

“Earth, the first merit of the word earth? I, we’ve really been pie in the sky!”

“Hahahahaha This time, the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army is really worth coming, men build a career, this First Merit of the Earth Word is enough to make my parents proud in the old home, hahaha

Sun Kong was marveling.

Zhou Yao at this time, on the other hand, his eyes were flooded with hot tears.

“Let’s go, take you guys to collect your military merits!”

Bai Qi turned around with a smile, and at this moment, spare himself, his face was glowing with spring.

This was the moment.

Envious gazes enveloped Bai Qi, Chen Dong and the others.

No one said a word, apart from shock, there was only envy.

The first merit of the word “earth” should have been their privilege!

What the hell was going on?

A few new recruits on their first mission, the simplest and safest of all scouting patrols, and they were able to take such a great military feat?

How unbelievably lucky must they be?

Under Bai Qi’s leadership, Chen Dong and the others soon boarded their military achievements.

These military achievements would follow them throughout their military careers, and one day, they would receive their due rewards!

When the five of them walked out of the military service again.

They were greeted by the envious gazes of everyone, as well as a chorus of congratulations.

“Bai Qi, you’re really something this time! Convinced, really convinced!”

“Congratulations, congratulations, the first merit of the word earth, you few recruits went out on a trip and accomplished a goal that I estimated I would never be able to accomplish in my lifetime, it’s really too impressive!”

“Bai Qi you took these four recruits this time, it’s really divine, the first merit of the word earth, good boy good boy, really congratulations to you guys!”

.....

Listening to the words of the crowd, Bai Qi responded with a smile.

But Chen Dong was unable to smile, following closely behind Bai Qi, with a heavy heart.

On the contrary, Meng Dabiao, the three of them, responded more happily to a congratulatory voice.

Chapter 888

Leaving the military merit office.

The five of them, Chen Dong, did not stay too long and returned directly to the barracks.

Originally, Meng Dabiao had proposed to celebrate.

After all, the first merit of the word “earth”, such a great merit was indeed worth celebrating.

However, Bai Qi shook his head and suggested that they should just buy some wine and food to celebrate at the barracks.

This not only made Meng Dabiao and the others freeze for a moment, but even Chen Dong found it odd.

The first merit of the word earth, and further up the ladder was the word heaven.

How could Bai Qi be so low-key?

Sensing the gazes of the four people, Bai Qi smiled and said, "I am not wanting what happened to Commander Xiao just now to happen again, once when I was a Dragon Head Guard, I offended many people, and now that I have been jerked off by the Sovereign to the end, although I have the contacts of the Golden Guard in place, it is inevitable that someone will take the opportunity to retaliate like Commander Xiao did, and going to the tavern in Zhenjiang City is too much of an invitation."

After a pause, Bai Qi shrugged again, "Moreover, the military merit we picked up this time is too big, so there might be many people who are holding unfair anger in their hearts."

An explanation made Chen Dong and the others relieved.

Indeed.

It was so easy to pick up the first merit of the earth.

One couldn't really expect everyone to genuinely congratulate them!

The entire 300,000 men of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army could be twisted into an indestructible lance by Huo Zhenxiao on the battlefield, and on a regular basis, things like the hearts of people were inscrutable to anyone.

"Da Biao, you guys go and buy the wine and food, I'll go back to the barracks first with Wu-chan Bai."

Chen Dong said.

Meng Dabiao and the three of them nodded and went to buy and serve the food and wine.

Bai Qi, on the other hand, gave Chen Dong a look and smiled helplessly, "I knew you would have to ask for sure."

"Let's go and talk as we go."

Chen Dong smiled and shrugged, "At least you can give me face and talk about it."

Bai Qi smiled and did not refuse.

Even if he didn't tell Chen Dong, Huo Zhenxiao would tell him about this matter.

But along the way, Bai Qi did not say anything right away.

Instead, when he was almost back at the barracks, he smiled and asked, "What do you want to ask?"

“What exactly is the origin of that token?”

Chen Dong asked straight to the point, the five people’s first merit of the word earth must be on that token.

“That token is very ordinary, but the meaning behind it is very different.”

Bai Qi deliberately sold a story and said in a deep voice, “Let me tell you this, the only person who can know what that token means in the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, apart from the twelve Golden Guards, is Master Huo, and even we only learned the true meaning two years ago, it has always been a secret in the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army!”

“Such a high level of authority?”

Even though he had already guessed it, but after receiving confirmation from Bai Qi’s mouth, Chen Dong could not help but be astonished.

“The influence is too great, I’m afraid it will disturb the army’s mind!”

Bai Qi uttered heavily and carefully looked around to make sure that no one was there before he whispered to Chen Dong, “That is the Hundred Clans Order!”

The Hundred Clans Order?!

Chen Dong was stunned and somewhat puzzled.

Bai Qi continued, “The Hundred Tribes outside the domain have always been oppressed by our Great Snow Dragon Cavalry Army across the board, and whoever dares to venture into the Northern Frontier, our 300,000 Great Snow Dragon Cavalry Army will be bound to turn their long swords towards them and suppress them back in the most ferocious manner.”

“You have seen the environment of the Northern Frontier? Even our Zhenjiang City here is perennially windy and snowy, and continuing deeper north, the environment that the hundred tribes outside the realm are in is even worse, which is one of the reasons why they keep trying to move south!”

“But after so many years of suppression, which clan has suffered at the hands of our Great Snow Dragon Rider Army, also just two years ago, we found that the frequency of warfare on the northern frontier was slowing down, so Master Huo took our Twelve Golden Guards to quietly go deep into the northern frontier to poke around once.”

Chen Dong frowned tightly, “It was that scouting trip that made you guys aware of the Hundred Clans Order?”

“Yes!”

Bai Qi nodded, his eyes even flushed with scorn, “We found that the Hundred Tribes outside the realm had been suppressed by us for so many years, who had suffered, who could not get an advantage in our hands, so two years ago, they already had a vague tendency to join forces, the Hundred Tribes joined forces and this Hundred Tribes Order appeared

Boom!

When this sentence out.

Even if Bai Qi had already suppressed his voice to the extent that only Chen Dong and himself could hear it.

But Chen Dong, there was still a sense of shock that was like thunder in his ears.

The hundred tribes outside the domain had joined forces

This really had to be a great event that the sky was falling!

The biggest reason why the northern frontier has remained solid all these years is because of Huo Zhenxiao and the 300,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders!

The second reason is that the hundred tribes outside the realm are scattered, each fighting on their own, and there are even feuds between them.

This has created an awkward situation where the hundred tribes have been in internal conflict, and at the same time, they all want to go south and bang their heads against the iron gate of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army.

Once they had crashed into the iron gate, they went back to the deep north to fight with the other barbarians.

Even if the few barbarian tribes could manage to join forces, they would still be crushed back by Huo Zhenxiao and the 300,000 Great Snow Dragon Riding Army.

But this time

hundreds of clans joined forces!

If all of the hundreds of barbarian tribes really abandoned their prejudiced grudges and joined together to attack the southern border city together, perhaps

“I know why you guys don’t dare to say anything to the public.”

Chen Dong looked grave: “If this matter is told out, the military heart of the 300,000 Great Snow Dragon Riding Army will probably be in a mess!”

Bai Qi squeezed out a helpless smile, "In these two years, we have also been watching this matter, but the hundred tribes outside the domain have been extremely secretive about joining forces, so it is difficult for us to discover the clues, and we are unable to determine the specific movements of the hundred tribes, but fortunately, the hundred tribes are also attacking each other, leaving behind many worldly and deadly feuds, so it is difficult to join forces for a while, and this has been two years. "

"That's why you reacted so strongly when you saw the Hundred Clans Order, and immediately returned to report it to Master Huo?" Chen Dong asked.

Bai Qi nodded, "The Walla clan is a not so big clan in the Hundred Clans, having been rubbed on the ground by our Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, having already killed their guts, this time they actually came to scout our Southern Border City, carrying the Hundred Clans Order with them, this released a message that was not good at all."

Chen Dong's gaze flickered for a moment as he came to a clear understanding.

A tribe whose guts had been broken by the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army was no different from a dog in mourning.

When the bereaved dog came back with the Hundred Clans Order to ruffle the tiger's whiskers of the tiger that had once broken their guts, with such guts, you couldn't say that they were committing death, you could only say that they had someone backing them up again!

"Maybe it took them two years to finally join forces and succeed."

Chen Dong murmured out.

Bai Qi nodded heavily, with scorn in his eyes, "So when I reported this matter to Master Huo, spare him a moment of shock, this matter, set us into the first merit of the word earth is far from enough, even taking a heavenly merit is enough, Master Huo is also thinking of hiding your identity, so also deliberately lowered our military merit rank! "

Winner Takes All Chapter 889-890

Chapter 889

What was at stake was the peace and tranquillity of the frontier.

Chen Dong had no doubts about what Bai Qi had said about setting a ranking for military merit.

In this matter, setting a military rank of the word Heaven was indeed enough!

The hundreds of barbarians outside the northern frontier had been invading the northern frontier for years, and before the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army had appeared, the northern frontier had often been lost, allowing the barbarians' war horses to swing their troops southwards as if they were in no man's land.

Since the establishment of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, Huo Zhenxiao came out of nowhere and forged the Northern Frontier's supreme defence line with a town and a horse, destroying a city and completely shocking the Northern Frontier's hundred tribes.

If we talk about threats, all the major frontiers within the entire territory combined are far less threatening than one northern frontier.

Elsewhere, there are dangers to rely on, dangers to defend, strategic depths to manoeuvre in and out of!

But in the Northern Frontier, there is no danger and no depth.

If Huo Zhenxiao hadn't come out of nowhere and turned a city into a "heavenly danger" in the eyes of hundreds of barbarians, once the war horses of the hundred tribes were allowed to march south, it would have been a matter of galloping ten thousand miles and a flat river!

For the entire 300,000-strong Snow Dragon Cavalry, the lack of strategic depth also meant that there was no way back for anyone but to go forward and fight to the death!

The joining of hundreds of barbarians is a matter of stability within the entire territory.

This alone is a great achievement for the army!

The Great Snow Dragon Riders are the iron-blooded lions of the frontier, the elite of the elite.

The hundreds of barbarians they are trying to crush are not mere peccadillos.

The most clear way to look at a man is to look at his opponents.

The Great Snow Dragon Riders and the hundreds of barbarians outside the realm have always been "foils" for each other!

When the hundreds of barbarians were fighting on their own, the Great Snow Dragon Riders were able to use thunderous methods, fast horses and sharp swords to destroy them.

But when the hundreds of barbarians are able to put aside their deadly feuds and join forces, even the 300,000-strong Great Snow Dragon Riders have to be treated with caution.

This is why Huo Zhenxiao willingly kept this heaven-defying news to himself and the Twelve Golden Guards for two years.

The hundreds of barbarians who have gradually joined forces are undoubtedly a thundercloud that has gradually gathered on the northern frontier.

When the dark cloud succeeds in building up momentum and pours down, wild thunder shakes the sky.

Zhenjiang City will also be in jeopardy!

In this instant, Chen Dong pondered much, much more.

With his mind's experience, after Bai Qi's detailed account, it was only a matter of moments before he was able to figure out the powerful relationship.

"I know your nature, don't worry, discounting Meng Dabiao and the others' merits because of you, the master will find a way to make it up for them in the future."

Seeing Chen Dong's silence, Bai Qi thought that Chen Dong was still pondering over the matter of military merit and was busy explaining in a placating manner.

"Military merit is as light as a feather compared to the safety and security of the frontier."

Chen Dong shook his head with profound eyes and looked at Bai Qi, "What does the Sovereign intend to do about this matter?"

"What do you think?" Bai Qi asked with a raised eyebrow.

"Me?"

Chen Dong was a little confused.

Bai Qi wrapped his robe around him and pulled Chen Dong towards the barracks, "The wind and snow outside are still the same, go inside and have a detailed chat over the fire."

As the smoke and fire rose from the fire pit, the coldness in his body seemed to be dispelled somewhat.

Since entering the house, Chen Dong had been sitting by the fire pit, frowning and pondering.

It was only when Bai Qi finished building the fire and sat beside Chen Dong that Bai Qi said, "You are the leading guard, above all others under one person, and your opinion is necessary in such matters."

Chen Dong raised his eyes to look at Bai Qi.

At this moment, suddenly his shoulders felt heavy.

Bai Qi's words were like a lofty titanic mountain, blatantly pressing down on top of his shoulders.

When Bai Qi asked him what he meant just now, he was still a bit confused.

But now, the phrase "one man under ten thousand people above all others" has described the responsibility he should shoulder in the best way possible.

But what should he do about the matter?

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get the best out of your own home.

The heavy shoulders made his throat a little tight, not knowing what to say.

If it is the company, the shopping mall, he can speak freely and express his opinion.

But this matter was not about a mere business battle, not about a company, not about a clan, but about everything within the frontier!

All living things, clan bloodlines!

Any word from him might lead to a butterfly effect within the entire frontier!

"Is this the true meaning of being under one person and above all others?"

Chen Dong smiled bitterly, his gaze deep to the point where he looked at Bai Qi, as if he was squeezing his throat with all his might to make a sound.

Bai Qi froze for a moment, staring at Chen Dong, a few more vicissitudes and depths suddenly appearing on his stalwart face.

"Back then, when I achieved Dragon Head Guard, the Sovereign said something to me."

"What?"

Bai Qi smiled faintly, "When you stand above ten thousand people and bear the admiration of ten thousand people, you should also do the same, bend down, drop your big hand and shelter ten thousand people a peace and prosperity, even if with your life.”

Chen Dong smiled.

He shrugged, “Actually, I didn’t have so much righteousness at first, Senior Brother Huo is pulling me straight up and down, and I’m starting to doubt his purpose of jerking you around to the end in the first place and then helping me to the top.”

Bai Qi laughed and raised his hand and punched Chen Dong in the chest.

“You’re the one who’s getting the better end of the stick.”

Chen Dong laughed bitterly.

Bai Qi waved his hand, “It’s alright, I won’t ask you anymore, you’re a new recruit to the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, you haven’t even figured out the ways of the battlefield yet, the master and the other Golden Guards will discuss this matter.”

Chen Dong felt the tightening of his throat relax a little.

This impending shocking and bad news on the northern frontier was too much.

Therefore, Chen Dong directly digressed, “By the way, that Commander Xiao, what exactly is the gap with you?”

Bai Qi’s expression suddenly became deep and cold and stern, “When I was not the leading guard of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, I personally slaughtered his younger brother.”

There was no hesitation, no winding, straightforward words.

It caught even Chen Dong a little off guard.

“His younger brother? Also of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army?”

Chen Dong’s expression changed, “This is impossible, the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army’s military law is like a mountain, it would never allow the generals under its command to kill each other.”

“Military law is like a mountain, indeed.”

Bai Qi shrugged and gave a meaningful smile, "But what if I told you that it was also this matter of killing his brother that made me enter the eyes of the master, thus leveling up and going straight to the Dragon Head Guard?"

"This"

Chen Dong suddenly froze, somewhat dumbfounded.

The 300,000 Great Snow Dragon Cavalry Army was in charge of Huo Zhenxiao alone, and the military law was enforced and followed Huo Zhenxiao's will.

As a member of the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry, Bai Qi had killed Commander Xiao's brother, which was already killing each other and had touched the most deadly bottom line in the army.

And so, instead of blaming Bai Qi, Huo Zhenxiao?

Instead, he sent him a flat-out victory?

Chapter 890

Looking at the dumbfounded and disbelieving Chen Dong.

Bai Qi smiled gently, "I was actually prepared for certain death at that time, but when I learned the result, I had the same reaction as you do now."

"What exactly happened?" Chen Dong asked.

Bai Qi's gaze was deep, but he got up and took out a pot of strong wine from the barracks cupboard.

Without a word, he opened it straight away and tilted his head and poured some more into the firepit.

The flames in the fire pot shot up very high.

The blazing heat even made Chen Dong subconsciously back up a little.

Bai Qi, on the other hand, sat loftily in his place, letting the blazing fire tantalise his entire body.

"The cruelty on the battlefield, you should have gotten a glimpse of it after following a scouting patrol today, right?"

Chen Dong nodded his head.

In today's battle, he had indeed appreciated something of the battlefield.

Naked killing, the ultimate in bloodshed and cruelty.

Following closely, Bai Qi added, "Actually, I am quite reluctant to remember this, because it is, I guess, even more cruel than the battlefield."

After a pause, Bai Qi smiled sadly.

At this moment, Chen Dong even felt that the Bai Qi in front of him was a different person.

A hard man with iron bones also had such a tender and poignant scene?

"It was a great battle, and the battlefield was cleared and cleaned up afterwards, a tribal group of the barbarians, a small city of sorts."

Bai Qi said slowly, "On the battlefield, it was a fight between warriors, not the old, the weak, the women and the children, what could they do? A group of old and weak women and children are full of fear in their eyes and have already been scared to death, just like them, who would expect them to break out in a vow to fight back before their clan is exterminated?"

Chen Dong's eyebrows knitted tightly, his eyes bursting with shrewdness.

Perhaps the reason lies in the old and weak women and children!

The next second.

The next second, Bai Qi "bang" force, the hands of the wine jug crushed, wine splashed everywhere.

Bai Qi gritted his teeth and said, "That Commander Xiao's bastard brother, when he was clearing the battlefield, he directly cleaved two children and an old man with his war sword, and even coveted a young woman of the barbarian tribe, do you think he should be killed or not?"

Boom!

Chen Dong was struck by lightning, Bai Qi's words were like a heavy hammer hitting hard on top of his nerves.

In an instant, even the three views were somewhat shaken.

The old, the weak, the women and the children, these four categories of people were the weakest and most innocent in a war!

The fact that the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry had the opportunity to purge and clean the battlefield of that small tribal group meant that those who remained had actually surrendered and were considered prisoners of war.

Instead, Commander Xiao's brother was ruthless and cold-blooded, treating the old, the weak, the women and the children like grass!

Such a man was no different from a beast!

Even if Bai Qi's words were extremely brief.

But a picture of incomparable bloodshed and brutality, even perversion, emerged in Chen Dong's mind.

"He should be killed!"

Chen Dong blurted out.

"Yes, indeed, they should be killed, the Sovereign said the same thing!"

Bai Qi nodded, "The Great Snow Dragon Riding Army is an iron-blooded lion, how can it be tainted by such filthy dregs? If such dregs are not cut down, won't it tarnish the prestige of my Great Snow Dragon Riding Army? Let everyone think that my Great Snow Dragon Riding Army is a triad of dregs?"

Chen Dong did not retort.

By this point, he already knew why Huo Zhenxiao had allowed Bai Qi to level the playing field.

Huo Zhenxiao had always been known for his strict and harsh rule of the army, with military orders like mountains and his words following the law.

How could such a man have any room for sand in his eyes?

He would never tolerate the presence of such dregs and trash in the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army that he had built with his own hands!

On the contrary, Bai Qi's approach was most to Huo Zhenxiao's liking!

But any general with true insight and style would have a clear and decisive verdict on this matter.

"I, Bai Qi, can do anything stupid in my life, but I can't touch or dare to touch the old, the weak, the women and the children, after all, who can guarantee that I don't have a father or a mother? Who would dare to guarantee that he has no father or mother, no wife or child? That bastard, actually beast to such an extent, chopping eighteen sections is considered less.”

Bai Qi said slowly, and at this moment, his cheeks were a little drunkenly red.

However, Chen Dong knew clearly that this was a case of wine not getting drunk.

“That Commander Xiao, he has always been jealous of me for not covering up his brother in the first place, and also cynical of me for using killing his brother as a stepping stone to take the opportunity to rise to power.”

Bai Qi shrugged helplessly, “When I became a leading guard back then, Commander Xiao had been insulting me in the army, I knew all this, but I was too lazy to care, after all, I was a leading guard, even if he hated me, there was nothing he could do to me, and of course I didn’t let the Sovereign interfere.”

Rubbing his face, Bai Qi looked at Chen Dong helplessly, “Unfortunately, I had calculated a thousand things, but I just didn’t calculate that I would fall into your hands because of Jiang Chaotian, after being jerked to the bottom by the Sovereign, in the Great Snow Dragon Rider Army, Commander Xiao’s suppression and humiliation of me became even more undisguised, believe it or not, if he didn’t covet the deep friendship I had made with the rest of the Golden Guards when I was once a leading guard, he If he hadn’t coveted the deep friendship I had with the rest of the Golden Guards when I was the Head Guard, he would have secretly planned to cut me down with a knife!”

Chen Dong laughed indifferently.

Is there any need to believe or disbelieve this?

The titular commander was able to disgrace Bai Qi, a small army commander, at the military merit office because of an old grudge from the past, even at the risk of losing face.

This kind of narrow-mindedness, hurting others against oneself, hurting the enemy 800 times and hurting oneself a thousand times, what else can one not do?

He took a deep breath.

When Chen Dong looked at Bai Qi again, his eyes were a little different.

He said slowly, “Today is the first time I’ve met you, I’m sorry for taking away your leading guard because of that incident back then, and for making you so embarrassed now.”

“Which is not true, it was me who was larded up and did something I shouldn’t have done in the first place, the master was right to punish me.”

Bai Qi smiled and waved his hand, tilted his head and took a deep breath, when he looked down to face Chen Dong again, the misery and sorrow on his face just now were swept away, he smiled, "Don't worry, I'll protect you for three months this time, when you leave, the Sovereign will not treat me badly, if the Sovereign can level me once, he can do it a second time, he, Commander Xiao, will be like that in this life. "

At this time.

The three men, Meng Dabiao, who had gone to set up the food and drink, returned.

The three of them were cloaked in snow, and all of them were covered in white snow.

When they entered the room, Meng Dabiao stammered and said, "Aiya, Aiya, it's freezing to death, quick, quick, set the small table, let's start!"

Chen Dong and Bai Qi looked at each other and smiled.

A conversation had released some of the hard feelings in the hearts of both sides.

At this moment, the five men opened up together and soon set up a formation around the fire pit, eating and drinking.

The first merit of the word "earth" is worth celebrating among soldiers of any rank and file.

The Great Snow Dragon Riders were particularly open to celebrating their meritorious achievements when they were not in battle.

Compared to the calmness of Chen Dong and Bai Qi.

Meng Dabiao, Sun Kong and Zhou Yao were extraordinarily exuberant.

But the price of their exuberance was that they soon fell into bed drunk.

In the original noisy and lively barracks, only Chen Dong and Bai Qi were left in the blink of an eye.

Although they were not so drunk, they were still inebriated and their eyes were drifting.

Sitting in front of the fire pit, Chen Dong carried a bottle of wine in one hand while staring blankly at the flames dancing in the fire pit.

After a few seconds of silence.

He suddenly smiled softly with drunkenness, "Bai Qi, didn't you want to hear my opinion on that matter just now? Now, I should have thought of it."
