

Winner Takes All Chapter 951-960

Chapter 951

A vast procession came galloping in.

The war horses' iron hooves stamped on the street floor with a clear, crisp sound.

The majesty of the group was extraordinary.

Chen Dong and the others were the first to notice this "massive" procession.

"What kind of mission is this?"

Chen Dong was somewhat puzzled.

Meng Dabiao and Zhou Yao at the side were also curious.

"It looks like a team of 500 commanders, it must be a big mission."

"It needs to send out a commander-in-chief team, in all probability, it is related to capture and hunting."

However.

Bai Qi, however, shook his head and laughed lightly, "This is a scouting patrol!"

What?!

Chen Dong and the three of them all looked at Bai Qi in dismay.

Bai Qi raised his finger and pointed at the team, "You guys have only been in the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army for a short time, many details are still unclear, the missions and tasks are different, the look on the faces of the generals will be different, there is also the running speed of the war horses, if it was really about the capture and hunting mission, these war horses would have already trod without a trace, as fast as lightning, which would have run over so neatly. "

"Only a safe mission like a scouting patrol would have made it possible for everyone to be so calm and have the presence of mind to organize their teams." |

Chen Dong's three people instantly revealed a dazed look.

The next second.

The team arrived at the West City Gate in full force.

He ordered the team to stop, and then a single man on a single horse went forward to hand over to the general in charge of the city.

During the process.

There was silence in the procession of five hundred men.

Both the men and the horses remained absolutely silent.

This alone was enough to show the military quality of the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry!

“To be able to labour five hundred scouting patrols out, the situation is not good now!”

Meng Dabiao said in a low voice to Chen Dong and the others.

Chen Dong and Zhou Yao both nodded their heads.

They had been on two scouting patrols since they had entered the Great Snow Dragon Riders, and although both of them had been extremely dangerous, in the end, it was common knowledge that five men were on a scouting patrol, whereas the number of scouting patrols from the Commander’s team was already a hundred times greater!

“Now that dark currents are surging in the snowy plains, and we are entering the season of deep winter and extreme cold, this season will also see the emergence of extreme night, the hundred tribes outside the domain are most likely to cause trouble, it is necessary to increase the size of the scouting patrol team.”

Bai Qi’s gaze was sunken, as a former leading guard, his knowledge of the Northern Domain far surpassed Chen Dong’s three.

At those words.

Meng Dabiao and Zhou Yao nodded their heads.

Chen Dong, however, had a heavy brow and a clear understanding in his heart.

The sudden increase in the size of the scouting patrol team might have something to do with the extreme night, but the most fundamental reason was also because of the dark currents that had emerged from the Hundred Clans Order on the snowy plains nowadays, right?

“Safe journey!”

After handing over the formalities, the general in charge of stationing the city’s defence gave a military salute to Commander He.

After Commander He responded, it was time to ride across to his war horse and wave his right hand, "Depart!"

Rumble

The vast procession headed for the outskirts of the city.

The speed was significantly faster than when they had just arrived at the West City Gate.

And as Commander He took the lead in charging out of Zhenjiang City, his warhorse rode even further, straight up in a frenzy.

The procession behind him, too, was just like that!

"Let's go, we'll have to take it easy for another two days, and I guess we'll have to go out on reconnaissance patrols along with the Commander's team."

Bai Qi shrugged and was about to leave with Chen Dong and the others.

But just at that moment.

"Wait!"

Chen Dong caught a glimpse of the scouting patrol and his pupils tightened to the extreme.

Boom!

With a single word, Bai Qi, Meng Dabiao and Zhou Yao were instantly struck by lightning.

The three of them looked up at the city gates at the same time. At that moment, the 500-strong commander team had already swept out of the city gates and the majestic gates were slowly closing.

The one Chen Dong saw was the one who had fallen to the very back of the group.

Only when Bai Qi and his trio raised their eyes to look, they only saw a mere back!

In a flash of lightning.

With a stern look, Bai Qi shouted, "Commander Xiao!"

This shout instantly caused the generals stationed at the city gates to freeze for a moment and look sideways.

And with this shout.

The four of them clearly saw that the man who had fallen to the end of the line had clearly buried his head down a little.

This action, at this moment, was inevitably a bit of a weak-hearted gesture!

Bai Qi's heart and soul shook.

His mind suddenly became clear.

Last time when he was on patrol, he had seen Commander Xiao leaving the city late at night with the supply convoy together with Meng Dabiao and the others.

And now, the city was being cleansed of insiders, and the timing was exceptional.

More crucially, Bai Qi was certain that the Golden Guards under Commander Xiao's command had not been on scouting patrol duty recently!

Then

"Commander Xiao is the mole!"

Bai Qi dryly and decisively spat out a sentence, and in an instant, was rushing towards the West City Gate.

The three of them, Chen Dong, also changed their faces at the same time and rushed directly with Bai Qi.

As a matter of urgency, no matter if that person was Commander Xiao just now, but as long as he was suspected, he must stay first.

It was fine if it was a wrong look.

But if it was the right one, once Commander Xiao left the city and ran far away, it would be difficult to catch him again!

The position of commander was not a high position in the Great Snow Dragon Rider Army, but it could touch on some secrets of a lesser level!

When Chen Dong's four men rushed to the city gate.

The stunned city defensive general also jolted awake and hurriedly greeted Bai Qi: "Chief Bai Wu, what's wrong?"

There was no hint of superiority in his words.

After all, Bai Qi was once the leading guard.

Bai Qi's face was red and he raised his hand to point at the city gates that were about to close, "Capture and bring back that scouting patrol commander team immediately, there is a mole there, disguised to follow the commander team out of the city!"

"Huh?"

As a general, he knew exactly what was going on in Zhenjiang City.

If the mole escaped from his hands and got out of the city that would be no less than a great disaster!

In an instant, the partial general turned around brazenly, his face pale and terrified as he yelled, "Recall the scouting patrol commander team, come 1,000 men, go out of the city with me and chase them!"

The West City Gate, which had been calm and uneventful, suddenly exploded at this moment.

"They won't be able to catch up!"

Amidst the chaos, Chen Dong spoke coldly and sternly to Bai Qi, then raised his hand and pointed at a military SUV not far from the city gate.

"Da Biao and Zhou Yao stay behind, Chen Dong and I will stay together!"

Bai Qi instantly understood, and directly rushed towards the military SUV with Chen Dong.

The troops defending the city were not equipped with too many war horses or military buggies at all.

Even if the general was terrified, it would be futile to gather a thousand men to chase them out of the city.

A man's legs are no faster than a four-legged warhorse!

As for recalling the scouting patrol commander team, a proper team could come back, but if Commander Xiao really hid in the team, would he be foolish enough to follow along and come back?

Since he dared to hide in the scouting patrol commander, he naturally had already made plans for when he left the city!

In the midst of the coaxing chaos at the West City Gate.

Boom!

A violent roar of the throttle engine exploded.

In full view of the crowd.

The military SUV directly drifted in a tailspin, with the tailpipe even spewing out flames visible to the naked eye, directly taking the lead and rushing out of the West City Gate, chasing towards the scouting patrol at great speed

Chapter 952

Outside Zhenjiang City.

The snowstorm is raging.

The shouts of the defending general and Bai Qi were concealed by the sound of the wind and snow and the wild gallop of the war horses.

So the scouting patrol led by Commander He did not notice anything unusual.

It was only with the arrival of an urgent telegram.

The whole patrol instantly exploded.

“Commander He, someone has infiltrated our team and is a mole in the army!”

The correspondent’s words instantly caused Commander He’s scalp to explode like a thunderstorm.

“Stop the march!”

He waved his whip and gave the order.

This was the main cause of the boiling pot in Zhenjiang City!

The Sovereign had personally ordered the three Golden Guards to join hands in sifting through the situation, and he had even taken the stance that he would rather kill by mistake than let go.

This is proof enough of the seriousness of this matter!

If they had let the mole infiltrate their ranks, just helping the mole leave the city would have been enough to make him lose his head on the spot!

With a bang, the marching party came to an abrupt halt on the snowy plains.

However.

Instead of stopping, a war horse turned around with great speed and headed straight for the deep north.

This scene.

It instantly drew the attention of Commander He and the others.

“Give me chase!”

Commander He roared with fear and anger as his jaws cracked.

Rumble

With a call to arms, the group ran up in a vast and frenzied manner.

However, because of the pause just now, in this short period of time, the team had been separated from the journeying horsemen by a long distance.

Almost at the same time as the group was running wildly again.

In the direction of Zhenjiang City, a military chariot roared and rushed over like a fierce beast.

“Turn around, he’s exposed!”

Chen Dong, who was sitting on the passenger side, looked cold and stern to the extreme, narrowing his eyes as he gazed at the back of a horse running wildly across the vast snowy plains in the distance.

Crunch!

Bai Qi braked hard and steered, directly causing the four convoys to drift and shake off against the ground.

A big blast of throttle followed, and the military SUV hissed like a beast, directly leaving the scouting patrol commander team behind and rushing towards Commander Xiao.

“Damn, damn, why did this have to happen to me?”

“Son of a bitch, capture it back, capture it for me at all costs, and if necessary, directly kill it on the spot!”

“Damn it, who the hell is this mole? Who the fuck did I piss off?”

.....

As he led the troops in pursuit, Commander He cursed with a twisted face and a mixture of shock and anger.

The communication soldier beside him seized the pause in his cursing and reported loudly, "Commander, the mole is Commander Xiao!"

Boom!

A thunderous sound.

The frightened and enraged Commander He's tiger body shook, and in a flash, his eyes went black and he almost fell off his war horse.

After stabilising himself, Commander He's eyes turned red: "Bastard! Bastard! Commander Xiao, you and I are comrades in arms, you dirty mole, why are you trying to harm me?"

The sound of his voice wailed and echoed across this snowy plain.

It even drowned out the sound of the wind and snow and the sound of the war horses galloping wildly.

Meanwhile.

Zhenjiang City, West City Gate.

Silence reigns, and a stern and murderous mood sweeps across half the city.

The defending general was leading his soldiers, all of them pale and terrified, kneeling on the ground.

On top of the city walls, the soldiers on guard also knelt in fear.

Only a few men stood like a great mountain.

The slaughter of half the city emanated from these men.

No, to be precise, it was the one in the middle who emanated from them.

"Sovereign, it has been ascertained, Commander Xiao has indeed disappeared."

A Golden Guard reported back in a deep voice, his face filled with a monstrous murderous intent.

“Slow, slow after all, surprisingly, it wasn’t us who found out, but he exposed himself after running out of the city.”

Huo Zhenxiao had his hands behind his back, his body standing like a lance, his monstrous solemn killing intent forming a vast and wildly domineering aura that brutally pressed across this half of Zhenjiang City, and then laughed at himself, “This has humiliated me, Huo Zhenxiao, my face has completely fallen to the ground.”

The laugh came together.

The three great Golden Guards behind him simultaneously knelt down in fear.

“Please forgive me, Sovereign!”

“It’s just that, it’s just that.”

Huo Zhenxiao waved his hand, “Since we have already chased him out, as long as we can bring his head back and hang it on the banner at the West City Gate, all those involved today will be exonerated, if the head does not return, then

At this point, Huo Zhenxiao’s voice came to an abrupt halt.

But a terrifying, bone-chilling coldness raged out from his body and shot straight to the heavens.

It even, instantly, made the heavens and earth change colour.

From the three Golden Guards down to the ordinary soldiers, they were all enveloped by this vicious chill, their hearts chilling with fear and fright!

The three Golden Guards were even more aware.

If the heads were not returned, Huo Zhenxiao’s words might mean that even the three Golden Guards, who were responsible for the cleansing, would be punished for their crimes!

“Who chased out?”

Huo Zhenxiao followed up by asking.

One of the gold guards was busy reporting in fear: “Bai Qi and Chen Dong, and the scouting patrol commander team that went out, the incident was sudden, or Bai Qi took the lead in calling out, at that time the team had already left the city to speed up, the defending general with people wanted to chase, but it was too late, Bai Qi and Chen Dong chased out in a military SUV.”

“The two of them?”

Huo Zhenxiao lightly raised his sword eyebrows and turned around, looking down at the three Golden Guards in front of him with a cold smile, “You should be glad that they chased them out, otherwise I wouldn’t have spared any of you, from the Golden Guards down to the ordinary soldiers guarding the city, in this punishment!”

In his words, he was obviously certain that Chen Dong and Bai Qi would be able to catch up with Commander Xiao!

As Huo Zhenxiao’s words left his mouth.

The three Golden Guards all bowed their heads in shame.

The Three Great Golden Guards were busy with their men cleaning the mole, but they had allowed the mole to quietly rush out of the city along with the scouting patrol and run away in a dignified manner.

This was also a great shame for the three Golden Guards!

Immediately afterwards, Huo Zhenxiao gave another order.

“Pass down the order for your three Golden Guards to carry two Golden Guard teams and go out of the city to meet Bai Qi and the others!”

What?!

With a single word, the three great Golden Guards all raised their heads in shock.

In the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry, the ranking of the military ranks was strict and clear.

Unlike ordinary soldiers, the Golden Guards in the Great Snow Dragon Riders were unique, and their full power was second only to Huo Zhenxiao, and higher than that of a general.

In the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, the 300,000 men are divided into twelve units based on the twelve Golden Guards, each of which is commanded by a different ranking lord.

A general can only command ten thousand men in the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, while a Golden Guard commands twenty-five thousand men.

Two Golden Guards, in other words, is a whole 50,000 men!

In order to hunt down an insider, three Golden Guards and 50,000 troops were directly dispatched, wasn’t this gesture too big?

Feeling the gaze of the three great golden guards.

Huo Zhenxiao's expression was cold and his eyes were stern: "What, a chance to redeem yourselves, and you still want to refute something? This kind of insider, if it reaches among the hundred tribes outside the domain, to our Great Snow Dragon Cavalry Army and Zhenjiang City, although it is not considered a fatal blow, but it can definitely make us hurt our bones!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 953-954

Chapter 953

Half an hour later.

The 50,000-strong army, led by the three great Golden Guards, marched out from the northern city gates in a mighty rush of troops.

The sound was immense.

The procession stretched like a long dragon.

Half an hour was already the limit to get 50,000 men out of the city in such a short time.

You know, when marching to war, provisions aside.

Even in a single hasty march, not only do you have to organise your troops in a short period of time, but you also have to allocate armaments for each and every one of them.

This series adds up for a force of 50,000, not for a few hundred or a few thousand.

When the 50,000 strong army left Zhenjiang City.

With the call of the three great golden guards.

The vast 50,000-strong army instantly spread out like a torrent, like a dark cloud crashing down onto the vast snowy plains, advancing at breakneck speed towards the depths of the Northern Domain with the terrifying oppression of a great mountain moving across the land.

This is a rush march to receive Chen Dong and others, with 50,000 troops, to receive hundreds of people, there is no need to strictly follow the square formation march.

The first goal is to be fast!

The 50,000-strong army is seeking to find Chen Dong and Bai Qi and others as quickly as possible.

The army that stretched away, like a long dragon, hurriedly headed outside the northern frontier.

No one was worried about what the consequences of crossing the border would be.

In recent years, this had become a rare occurrence on the northern frontier.

A scouting patrol of five men would dare to leave the frontier a hundred miles deep to scout and patrol the homes of the Yi clan, let alone an army of 50,000!

With the strength of the 50,000 strong Great Snow Dragon Riders, even if they encountered resistance from the barbarians, they could still push right through!

Zhenjiang City.

Huo Zhenxiao stood tall, with his arms folded and his face as cold as frost.

In his sight, the 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders were like a black cloud rolling deeper and deeper into the Northern Domain, gradually disappearing from sight.

After they had completely disappeared into the wind and snow.

Only then did Huo Zhenxiao slowly raise his head, coldly closing his eyes to meet the wind and snow, hiding his gruff voice, in the wind and snow.

“Master this northern frontier, this time I don’t know if my apprentice can stand up to it!”

The tone of voice is low, and even more so with a strong sense of melancholy.

It’s hard to imagine that Huo Zhenxiao, who is the God of War, who oppresses the Northern Territory and commands 300,000 Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, would say such words.

If these words had not been hidden in the snow and wind, but had been heard by the generals of the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry Army, perhaps the whole army would have been shaken!

The snowy plains are vast and endless.

The wind is like a sword, cutting the skin and plucking out the flesh.

Goose feather snow poured down.

In the midst of the wind and snow, the men and horses were in the lead, riding in the dust.

Commander Xiao was lying on his horse, trying to reduce the wind resistance, but also to avoid the unpleasant wind and snow pounding on his face.

Beneath his helmet, he looked grave, with a hint of panic.

While lying on the horse's back, his left hand was tugging at the reins, while his right hand was holding a mobile phone and a whip, sometimes slapping the horse with a fierce whip, and sometimes staring at the mobile phone, agitated.

The horse was at its speed limit.

But the military buggy, which was speeding along behind him, seemed to be haunted by a fierce ghost, falling close behind.

This caused Commander Xiao to feel the urge to break down and storm off.

"Damn it, damn it, why has it been lost to this point?"

Commander Xiao gritted his teeth and a seeping, fierce light suddenly tumbled into his eyes, "Bai Qi, are you the fucking nemesis of our Xiao family in this life? The whole city has been cleansed because of you, and I have already absconded from the West City Gate, but why did I still meet you?"

"When I escape to the Xiong Nu Royal Court in the Northern Region, one day, I swear to lead the Xiong Nu Royal Court and the hundred tribes outside the region to crush Zhenjiang City, I will personally lynch you, Bai Qi, to avenge my brother and to wipe out today's revenge!

Hatred, killing intent, anger, at this moment, almost turned into substance and gushed out from Commander Xiao's body.

He had planned everything.

He had replaced one of his soldiers perfectly, and everything was just as he had planned, leaving the city unharmed.

But how could he have ever imagined that he would be unlucky enough to meet Bai Qi!

Everything had gone perfectly and safely, but because of Bai Qi, it had turned into what it was now!

What's worse, he knew that Bai Qi was driving the military SUV in the back!

The roar of the military buggy's engine echoed in his ears.

Even in this extremely cold weather.

Dense beads of sweat seeped out of Commander Xiao's forehead, and his eyes were scarlet as he stared at the mobile phone: "Wang Ting Tian Wolves, meet me, meet me! I have already been taken by Timur on this only path, I have already willingly knelt at the feet of the Sky Wolves, if you cannot save me at this time, then who else will you rely on to understand the inner situation of Zhenjiang City? I, I don't want to die, I don't want to die ah"

As a commander, he knew Bai Qi's strength.

Even at that time, on the school grounds, he had fought against that new recruit named Chen Dong.

Both of them, he was no match.

It was a good thing that both were inside the military SUV behind him at the moment.

He had no doubt that once he was caught up by the military SUV, there would be no suspense at all about what would happen to him.

Snapping

Frightened and apprehensive to the extreme, Commander Xiao brazenly waved his horse whip and ruthlessly smacked the war horse.

"Hurry up, you beast, hurry up for me!"

At this moment, Commander Xiao's face was fierce to the extreme, and the whip in his hand was as merciless as a rainstorm of pears.

The horse screamed and hissed as it ran with all its might.

The speed had increased by a fraction!

The military buggy sped across the snowy plains, sending waves of snow behind it.

Inside.

The atmosphere was solemn and heavy.

Chen Dong sat on the passenger's side and looked ahead at Commander Xiao with a sullen face.

Bai Qi, on the other hand, stepped on the accelerator to the bottom, his arms muscles taut, controlling the direction with a deadly grip.

The reason why war horses were common in the extremely cold lands of this northern region was, more than anything else, because they were better to handle.

A military chariot, on the other hand, could go out of control after extreme speed, and the consequences would be even more terrifying than a war horse losing its hoof on a snowy plain.

“I should have thought it was him, Da Biao and I clearly saw him leaving the city with the supply convoy that night!”

Bai Qi suddenly broke the silence in the car.

Chen Dong gave Bai Qi a look, “It’s not too late to find out now.”

Bai Qi shook his head, “If I had been a little more suspicious at the time, perhaps our previous patrols would not have gone so wrong, and Sun Kong would not have had to wait three months before he could go into battle again.”

Not waiting for Chen Dong to say anything.

Bang!

Bai Qi then slammed his fist on the steering wheel, full of guilt and self-reproach, “At least I was once a leading guard, but I actually made such a low-level mistake, I really deserve to die!”

“Then go after him, finish him off and carry his head back, it’s also revenge for Sun Kong!”

Chen Dong understood Bai Qi’s feelings, the better he was, the more calculating he was about the details, and the more he saw every mistake as a mistake and repented of it.

Chen Dong looked back at the rolling wave of snow behind the body.

Even if his vision was blurred, he could hear the voluminous hoof beats of the scouting patrol commander team behind him.

Just

Just as he turned back, the sound of horses’ hooves echoing in his ears suddenly became dense and booming.

“What’s going on? Why doesn’t it feel right?”

Chen Dong's eyebrows knitted in confusion.

The words had not yet ended.

Bai Qi, who was driving, suddenly said in a deep voice, "Look ahead, there's an avalanche."

Chen Dong jerked his head back and looked ahead, and instantly goose bumps rose up all over his body.

At the end of the line of sight ahead.

The overwhelming waves of snow layered on top of each other and lifted up more than ten metres in height.

It was as if a tsunami wave was rolling towards this side.

Vaguely, beneath the snow waves, one could still make out a line of black torrents that stretched across the landscape.

That was the cavalry column!

"It's at least a 10,000 man squad!"

Bai Qi's voice caused Chen Dong's pupils to suddenly tighten to the point of no return.

At the same time.

Commander Xiao, who was tired of running for his life, was ecstatic when faced with the vast wave of snow rolling in.

"Heavenly Wolf, Heavenly Wolf is above, there's help, I'm finally fucking saved!"

Chapter 954

Rumble

Ten thousand horses galloped across the boundless snowfields, shaking the sky and earth.

Rolling waves of snow cover the sky.

"I am here! Great Sky Wolf, I am here, I am your most loyal subject!"

Faced with the vast army coming, Commander Xiao waved his hand in ecstasy and shouted.

From the beginning of the purge within Zhenjiang City, from the moment he decided to escape from it, this was the only path before him!

So at this moment when he shouted out these words, Commander Xiao did not hesitate in the slightest, let alone feel half uncomfortable.

“Vertical son of a dog, betraying human decency!”

Inside the military SUV, looking at Commander Xiao who was waving his hand, even though he could not hear his voice, Bai Qi still cursed indignantly.

Chen Dong’s expression also went cold and stern.

The entangled feud between the domain and the hundred tribes outside the domain had been building up for a thousand years, if not thousands of years.

The two had long since become like water and fire.

What lies between the Inner and Outer Hundred is not only the question of territory, but most crucially, the question of survival!

The environment inside the domain, compared to the extreme cold outside the domain, is more suitable for human habitation.

This is the key reason why, for thousands of years, there have been constant confrontations between the inner and outer domains.

This is the key reason why the two have been at loggerheads for thousands of years, and there is no limit to how far they can go in terms of commerce on the frontier.

There is no limit to what can be explored further outside.

Betraying the domain and committing adultery against the hundred tribes, this is something that is absolutely intolerable in the hearts of everyone in the domain.

And now Commander Xiao is doing just that!

Suddenly.

Chen Dong’s tightly fixed gaze suddenly flickered, “It seems that it is not a clan of ten thousand people.”

In the line of sight, the vast troop came rushing wildly, hidden amidst the flood of snow waves that could not be seen at a glance.

But there was still a large flag flying in the air beyond the snowy waves.

Compared to the 10,000-strong Wala tribe seen on the last scouting patrol, the flags in the 10,000-strong group appeared to be more disorganised this time.

At a glance, Chen Dong swept past at least a dozen tribal banners!

“The allied forces have already shown the first signs!”

Bai Qi’s voice was low to the point where he pulled the corners of his mouth and smiled despondently, “Usually, it is impossible to have a dozen tribes forming a 10,000-man contingent of our allied army.”

With a single word, Chen Dong’s heart sank to the bottom as well.

Now the sudden appearance of the 10,000 man squad was obviously because of Commander Xiao.

And now, the 10,000 man squad formed by a dozen tribes was clearly releasing what everyone feared, and the situation between the hundred tribes outside the domain was heading towards the most terrifying and serious consequences.

Meanwhile.

Behind the military buggy.

Commander He led the army of 500 Great Snow Dragon riders on a wild and non-stop run.

When they saw the 10,000-man squad, all of the troops, including Commander He, were frightened and dared to take a breath of cold air.

“Commander He, what should we do?”

One of the centurions asked in fear.

“The White Dragon Head is right in front of us, if he doesn’t retreat, how dare we retreat?”

Commander He’s gaze flickered for a few moments, then suddenly became resolute.

“Commander, he is no longer a Dragon Head Guard now, he is only a district military commander!” The Centurion’s expression changed dramatically.

The gazes around him also gazed at Commander He with fear and trepidation.

Five hundred men against a team of ten thousand.

This was simply an impossible task.

Even if Bai Qi was there, one man would never be able to turn the tide in such a desperate situation!

Yet.

“How many men do we have?”

Commander He suddenly asked.

These words caused the dissuasive centurion to freeze for a moment, but he still reported, “Five hundred!”

“Fuck them!”

Commander He spat out three words in a dry and decisive manner.

Boom!

As soon as the words left his mouth, all five hundred of the Great Snow Dragon Riders were struck by lightning.

Had Commander He gone mad?

Why would he give such an order?

But without waiting for the people to answer, Commander He roared, “This is a military order! Even if there is a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood, since someone is leading the charge ahead of us, we must go ahead and level the mountain of corpses and fill the sea of blood, this is our Great Snow Dragon Rider Army!”

A word that echoed through the ranks like rolling thunder.

Yet in this instant, it set everyone’s blood on fire.

The fear and trepidation that had gathered on the faces of the people now quickly receded and was replaced by a brave determination to die!

“Draw your swords and kill!”

Commander He took the lead in drawing his sword, the heavy and huge Dragon Rider battle sword, the cold light of which swept through the air at this moment.

In the next second.

Clang clang clang

In the ranks, swords and spears shone and cold light burst out.

At the same time.

The ecstatic Commander Xiao finally rushed into the 10,000-strong team of the joint forces of the rabble.

Without the slightest hindrance, an opening suddenly parted in the vast formation of the 10,000-strong team, as if it was a python devouring its prey, easily swallowing Commander Xiao.

“There’s salvation, salvation! The great Heavenly Wolf is above, from now on, I am the most loyal subject of the Heavenly Wolf!”

As he entered the 10,000-strong group, even though the crowd around him looked worlds apart, Commander Xiao felt nothing and was overjoyed to express his loyalty in front of the many barbarians with all his heart.

“With Your Excellency’s participation, the Hundred Clans will be wielding the whip and trampling on Zhenjiang City!”

A middle-aged man smiled joyfully at Commander Xiao.

Commander Xiao, on the other hand, took a deep breath at this moment and tried to calm down.

Then, he turned his horse’s head and rushed towards the military buggies and the scouting patrol of the commander at the same time as the army.

His eyes were eerie, and Commander Xiao was full of a fierce smile.

“Bai Qi, just now you tried to hunt me down, now it’s your death coming!”

Commander Xiao brazenly raised his right hand and pointed at the military buggy, “I hope that you, these Great Snow Dragon Riders in front of you, will tear apart and split their bodies, this is the greatest luxury I can hope for when I enter the Hundred Clans!”

“No problem!”

The middle-aged man smiled and nodded, then he pulled out a scimitar with a clang and raised it into the air, “Follow the will of the Great Wolf, and slaughter all the people in front of you!”

“Kill!”

In the snowy sky, the shout of killing seemed to silence the wind and snow.

The next second.

The military SUV in which Chen Dong and Bai Qi were riding was rushing into the 10,000-strong group of the barbarians in a brutal manner.

Clang clang clang

Countless swords and spears landed on the military buggy, erupting in large sparks and quickly distorting the sturdy military buggy.

Chen Dong and Bai Qi, however, were sitting inside the vehicle with cold faces.

Boom, boom, boom

Bai Qi steered with all his might, driving the military buggy through the mass of people, ignoring the slashing attacks of the barbarians.

When there is no way back, the only way back is to go forward!

The company has already had one experience against 10,000 people, and Chen Dong is not afraid of the scene in front of him.

You know.

Last time it was five of them against ten thousand people.

This time, well, it was still five hundred people, a hundred times more!

“Kill!”

It was also just as Chen Dong and Bai Qi drove their military chariot into the 10,000 man squad and rampaged through it.

Commander He also led the five hundred Great Snow Dragon Cavalry troops, brazenly, as if they were burning red sharp knives, and plunged directly into the 10,000-strong ranks of the barbarians.

The melee erupted with a bang!

Winner Takes All Chapter 955-956

Chapter 955

As Commander He leads his army of 500 Great Snow Dragon riders into the 10,000-strong rabble.

A melee breaks out!

Compared to the 10,000 troops of the barbarians, the 500 Great Snow Dragon Riders are few in number!

But the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry had already developed an extremely powerful fighting force after years of battling the hundred tribes outside the realm.

Therefore, the moment the 500 Great Snow Dragon Cavalry rushed into the 10,000-strong Yi army, they did not scatter and kill each other as if they were caught in a quagmire.

Rather, it was as if a red-hot knife had been plunged into the lard, and they charged straight into the centre of the mass of people in formation!

Shouts and screams echoed across the battlefield.

Blood, corpses and mutilated limbs were even more instantly splashed across the battlefield.

The cruelty on the battlefield was even more evident when the scale of the battle was larger.

A soldier of the Great Snow Dragon Riders slashed down the head of an Eboshi soldier, but in an instant, there might be a few lances that pierced right through the body of a soldier of the Great Snow Dragon Riders!

As the Great Snow Dragon Riders penetrated deeper into the centre of the battlefield, even though Commander He had the intention to lead the 500 Great Snow Dragon Riders to join Bai Qi and Chen Dong on the military buggy, the momentum of the charge gradually slowed down under the siege of the Yai soldiers, and they were completely divided into two battle circles with Bai Qi and Chen Dong.

crunch crunch

The military buggy had been completely deformed long ago, and at this point, while rampaging, it was already making unbearable sounds.

Although under Bai Qi's control, the military buggy had used its capabilities to the utmost, it wasn't just the rabid barbarians that were ramming, but the majestic war horses!

"Get ready!"

Sensing Bai Qi's gaze looking at him, Chen Dong rubbed his nose and said in a deep voice.

The next second.

Bang Teeny!

Chen Dong kicked the passenger door out, and the door flew out, directly knocking the two nearest Ebony soldiers off their war horses.

At almost the same time, Chen Dong leapt out of the car, like a tiger into a herd of sheep, and as soon as he landed, he rushed to the nearest one of the rabbit soldiers with a thunderous force.

"Get off your horses!"

With an explosive roar, Chen Dong kicked the war horse in the air on the neck.

With a loud bang, the horse stood up and hissed to the heavens, and the Yai soldier on its back was dropped straight down.

Chen Dong took a step forward and his right foot was like a battle axe, breaking the sternum of the barbarian soldier, and then his hands were as fast as lightning.

All this was done in one go, as fast as lightning.

Then, with his sword in hand, Chen Dong rushed into the nearby barbarian soldiers.

On the almost ruined military buggy, Bai Qi took in everything Chen Dong had just done, and at this moment, he raised his eyes to the army that could not be seen, and smiled bitterly.

"How good would it be if you could still enter the state of the Daoist mind this time?"

The image of Chen Dong sweeping through thousands of troops in the midst of a 10,000-strong army of the Warlord tribe was still vivid in my mind.

Now, how similar was it to the last time?

It was just that Bai Qi understood that at that time, Chen Dong was able to enter the state of the Daoist Mind and Demon, nine times out of ten, it was related to Sun Kong's injury, and this time, it was obviously impossible to enter the state of the Daoist Mind and Demon again by that coincidence.

"Hoo Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, Bai Qi hereby swears that he will kill Xiao Yun even though he dies!"

Spitting out a sentence in a deep and cold voice, Bai Qi's eyes steeply shot out with a sharp aura, above the battlefield, instantly locking onto the position of Commander Xiao.

Boom!

The throttle under his feet slammed to the bottom, and he directly drove the almost scrapped military SUV towards where Commander Xiao was.

"Stop him, stop him now, he's trying to kill me!"

Commander Xiao was constantly paying attention above the battlefield, and when he saw Bai Qi driving towards him, his scalp immediately tingled.

Although he had a deep blood feud with Bai Qi.

But the shock that Bai Qi had left on him when he was a Dragon Head Guard had long been engraved into his bloodline, forming that bloodline suppression between animals in general.

"Don't worry, Commander Xiao, even if Bai Qi is present today, he will definitely die a miserable death on the spot!"

The middle-aged man who had ordered the 10,000-strong team before patted Commander Xiao's shoulder with confidence, "I have come to lead this 10,000-strong team precisely to protect Commander Xiao!"

At these words.

Commander Xiao secretly breathed a sigh of relief, but his tightly furrowed brow still did not loosen.

Sure enough.

When Bai Qi drove his car towards Commander Xiao, the surrounding barbarian soldiers pounced on the military buggy like a tidal wave, regardless of the cost.

With the majestic stance of their war horses, they forcibly blocked the military buggy from moving forward.

Crunch crunch

In the face of the ramming, as well as the frantic slashing and hacking of the Ebony soldiers, the military buggy was rapidly breaking down, even as the engine bonnet had risen into a rolling cloud of smoke, with faint sparks shooting out.

"After all, I'll have to go over and take your life myself!"

Bai Qi exhaled fiercely, and in a flash of lightning, he kicked open the driver's door with a bang, sending the enemy flying in front of him, and like Chen Dong, Bai Qi leapt forward, instantly putting down two soldiers and grabbing his sword to stand on his feet.

Meanwhile.

Chen Dong, with a knife in one hand and a gun in the other, followed Bai Qi as he rushed in the direction of Commander Xiao.

His aura was like a rainbow, overwhelmingly domineering.

With his sword and spear in his hand, he brought up a bone-chilling light, just like the God of Death descending, and when his sword fell, it brought up a large amount of blood, and at the same time, one of the Yi soldiers fell.

Chen Dong knew very well the principle of capturing a thief to capture a king.

This melee was all caused by the traitor Xiao.

As long as he killed Commander Xiao in the melee, it did not really matter what happened afterwards.

Commander Xiao had spent many years in the Great Snow Dragon Riders' army and was unable to probe into high level secrets, but he definitely knew all about low level secrets and some of the matters within Zhenjiang City.

Such a moth-eaten termite would have entered the allied army of the Extra-territorial Hundred Tribes.

The extra-territorial Hundred Clans had joined forces and had already put Zhenjiang City and the 300,000 Great Snow Dragon Riding Army under the heavy pressure of pouring heaven.

If they were to be assisted by Commander Xiao, when the time came for the allied army of the Hundred Tribes to move south, it would only be a matter of time before the majestic Zhenjiang City was trampled down!

However, with this certainty in mind, Chen Dong's progress to reinforce Bai Qi had not yet progressed far.

Suddenly, a cold light blasted out from a slanting angle, and the wind howled.

Chen Dong, who was immersed in the killing, was suddenly shaken to his core.

A strong sense of crisis arose.

Without the slightest hesitation.

He blocked the spear in his hand and at the same time bullying his way up, he slashed his sword down towards the incoming barbarians.

Clang!

Sparks flew everywhere as the spears collided.

But Chen Dong's speed was not reduced at all, and the sword in his hand slashed at the soldier in front of him.

However.

However, Chen Dong clearly saw that as he got closer, the corners of the soldier's mouth in front of him suddenly curled up into a chilling smile.

It was bizarre, absurd and eerily cold.

The next second.

Buzz!

A strong wind buzzed.

The left hand of the soldier in front of him suddenly came out behind himself, but it was a heavy battle axe in his hand, slashing at Chen Dong's battle sword in a domineering and brutal stance.

Clang!

Sparks erupted.

The sword broke into two on the spot.

At the same time, a strong and fierce force was transmitted directly to Chen Dong's body.

Chen Dong's face changed drastically and he staggered back five steps on the spot before he could stand still.

What a strong force!

Feeling a tingling in his right hand, Chen Dong's eyebrows knitted together, his expression solemn, his heart thudding faster at this moment, his eyes staring deadly at the sturdy Yai soldier holding the battle axe opposite.

In terms of strength.

Ever since Chen Dong entered the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army and took to the battlefield, this was the first rabbit soldier who had made him feel the pressure!

Chapter 956

As Chen Dong's battle sword broke, he staggered back.

It was as if the barbarian soldiers around him had all stopped lunging at him.

Instead, they gathered around with their blades in hand, watching intently.

This also created a gap between Chen Dong and the mysterious barbarian soldiers on the opposite side, as if it was a ring.

Chen Dong's heart and mind were tightened, and he frowned at the mysterious Ebony soldiers opposite him.

With his physical strength, even on the battlefield, it would be difficult to find someone who could stand up to him.

Although he was cloaked as a new recruit on the battlefield, he was strong enough to arm-wrestle with the leader, Wei Bai Qi!

By chance, such a demon had now appeared among the ordinary soldiers in the rabble's allied army!

In sight.

The barbarian soldier was about one meter eight tall, not unattainable, but his entire body was thick and sturdy like a brown bear, and his entire body gave off a rugged, bursting with power feeling.

His face was covered with a golden beard, especially his tiger eyes with golden pupils, which invariably conveyed a majestic and fierce aura.

Under Chen Dong's gaze.

This rabbit soldier slowly took off his upper body beast robe, revealing his bronze coloured, majestic muscles with inch by inch grooves.

And Chen Dong clearly saw that at the heart of this Ebony soldier, there was a wolf tattooed with its head tilted up to the sky!

“The great Heavenly Wolf has ordered us, the dead soldiers, to come and take the lives of your dogs!”

The rabbit soldier slowly placed his left fist on the tattoo of the wolf at his heart, his face full of devotion: “The Wolf Death Soldiers will spare their lives to complete the task entrusted to them by the Wolf!”

The words had just fallen.

Chen Dong’s body suddenly tensed up.

Out of the corner of his eye, he saw three more soldiers of the Eboshi tribe who were no weaker than the one who had cut his sword.

The Skywolf Dead Soldiers?

Chen Dong’s heart sank to the bottom when he felt the four of them surrounding him in the middle.

This was the first time he had ever perceived a legion on the battlefield regarding the Hundred Clans.

But from the words of the soldiers of the Ebony Clan, he had understood some information.

A legion of dead soldiers that belonged solely to the Sky Wolves of the Hundred Clans!

If every dead soldier was as strong as the rabbit soldier in front of him, such a legion would have a killing power on the battlefield that would be so terrifying that it would make people’s bones shudder.

You know, not only do they dare to charge into battle and kill, they can even not even take their lives!

The other three rabbit soldiers who stepped out also slowly took off their upper body beast robes as this rabbit soldier did just now, revealing their bronze-colored terrifying muscles that were not in the least bit weaker than their companions.

With that.

The three of them simultaneously clenched their fists and placed them in the position of the Heavenly Wolf at their hearts.

“The Heavenly Wolf Deadly Warrior Corps, will spare no lives to complete the mission entrusted by the Heavenly Wolf!”

The words had not yet fallen.

Yin hostility exploded in Chen Dong's eyes, and his entire aura changed dramatically.

In a flash of lightning.

Without waiting for the three dead soldiers of the Sky Wolf Dead Soldiers to get up, Chen Dong directly waved his spear and charged at the ordinary soldier in the slash.

Poof!

“Ah!”

Blood splattered and miserable screams exploded.

After killing a barbarian soldier with one shot, Chen Dong directly seized the war sword from the corpse's hand.

Immediately afterwards, his waist twisted like a python dragon, forcibly deflecting his direction and charging directly towards the battle axe-wielding Sky Wolf Dead Soldier.

Almost simultaneously.

The four Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers simultaneously had a vast aura, holding their weapons and charging towards Chen Dong to kill him.

Even the War Axe wielder did not have the slightest intention of dodging and retreating when facing Chen Dong's attack, but wielded his War Axe and directly met him.

Clang!

The slash was as powerful as a thunderclap.

However, this time, Chen Dong was prepared, but he deliberately left a backhand, and in the moment when the blade slashed against the battle axe, he directly struck the blade sideways in a smooth manner, rubbing a large spark with the blade surface, and slashed directly towards the right hand of the Wolf Death Soldier.

However.

Buzz!

Buzz!

Buzz!

In a flash of lightning, three directions behind him, left and right, simultaneously resounded with the whistling of the astral wind.

In an instant, Chen Dong's body tensed up and his sweat hair exploded.

With a fierce clench of his teeth, he directly bullied and turned, and at the moment when he was about to clash with the Skywolf dead soldiers in front of him, he bent down fiercely and weaved through, while turning around bravely, wielding his sword and spear in a frontal stance, and once again met the four Skywolf dead soldiers.

Clang clang clang

The sword and spear brought up a large streak of shadow, just like a fierce wind and rain, directly attacking the four Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers in front of him.

The sweeping scene on the battlefield just now, where corpses would fall with the fall of a sword, was now completely ended in the face of the four Sky Wolf Dead Soldiers.

Even Chen Dong had the feeling that he had fallen into the mire for a moment.

In the face of the four deathly wolves, the sword and spear attacks in his hands seemed a little weak, while the four deathly wolves were even able to counter-attack from time to time after they had defeated all of Chen Dong's attacks.

At the same time, Chen Dong was caught in a stalemate.

On the other side.

Bai Qi, who was heading straight for Commander Xiao, also encountered the same Sky Wolf Death Soldiers.

Just like Chen Dong, the appearance of the Sky Wolf Death Soldiers also caught Commander Xiao off guard and frightened him.

By now the ordinary soldiers of the Yi tribe around him had tacitly retreated backwards.

Instead, it was a full six Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers who were tangled up with Bai Qi!

However, with Bai Qi's fighting strength, it was easier for him to deal with the six Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers at the same time than Chen Dong.

One must know that Chen Dong's true terrifying combat power was in the madness state of the Daoist Heart Demon.

Without entering that state, his strength would still be somewhat lower than Bai Qi's!

Not far away.

Looking at Bai Qi, who could no longer make an inch of progress, a smug smile appeared on Commander Xiao's face.

At this moment, he said with undisguised appreciation, "I really didn't expect that there would be such brave men outside the domain, today has really opened my eyes!"

The middle-aged man beside him said proudly, "These are the loyal and brave soldiers of the Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers, the warriors of the hundred tribes who have followed the Heavenly Wolf with all their hearts and formed a legion loyal to the Heavenly Wolf, each one of them is a proud son of the Snowy Plains!"

"I want them all to become meat paste and stay in this snowy plain."

Commander Xiao clenched his fists, his expression cold as he narrowed his eyes and stared deadly at Bai Qi.

"As you wish, the Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers will complete your mission perfectly." The middle-aged man smiled smugly.

Compared to the stalemate between Chen Dong and Bai Qi's tangle.

On the other side.

The 500 Great Snow Dragon Cavalry troops led by Commander He, with the appearance of the Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers, their situation was an instant and drastic turn for the worse.

"Return to defence, return to defence, form up!"

In the midst of the killing, blood flew everywhere, and as he watched his comrades fall one by one, Commander He even felt a sense of panic as his soul was in danger.

He had been fighting with the Hundred Extra-terrestrial Tribes for many years.

He had already had a good idea of the strength of the Hundred Tribes.

But the dozen or so soldiers that appeared in front of him had completely shattered his courage.

It was completely different from his impression of the strength of the Hundred Clans in battle.

When facing the soldiers of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, they were simply like tigers killing wolves, with their swords falling, even if they had to be wounded, they would still kill the soldiers of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army in front of them.

The bravery and fearlessness of life and death seemed like a black cloud that crashed down on the top of Commander He's head.

Even he had to make an immediate decision, telling everyone to retreat and form a formation to defend against the dozen soldiers who had suddenly appeared!

Winner Takes All Chapter 957-958

Chapter 957

Ah!"

"Help me, help me!"

"Commander He, what should we do? What the hell should we do?"

.....

In his ears, there were constant screams and panicked wails.

He, riding on his war horse, was in a kind of spinning trance, and his body was shaking on his war horse.

He looked around him at the devastating defeat.

Never in his wildest dreams had he imagined that the soldiers of the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry would one day be in such a tragic situation on the battlefield.

Blood was gushing out like a spring.

With each gush, the limbs and even the heads of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army's soldiers flew straight up into the air!

This scene was like hell!

The dozen or so soldiers of the Yi tribe who had suddenly appeared, reaped the momentum with a devastating reaping, decimating the 500 Great Snow Dragon Riders most violently.

On the northern frontier.

The Great Snow Dragon Riding Army had long been used to being arrogant!

Under the leadership of Huo Zhenxiao, no matter how big the battle was, they were always victorious in every battle, invincible, indestructible, and unique in their wildly domineering stance.

As a matter of fact, when Commander He initially led the five hundred Great Snow Dragon Riders into the massed ranks of the barbarians, he did indeed bring out the usual fighting strength of the Great Snow Dragon Riders, as he had done in previous battles.

That is, until the dozen or so soldiers of the barbarians appeared before them.

As if they were evil shuras crawling out from the depths of the Nine Underworlds, not only did they put Commander He in a trance, but even the soldiers of the Great Snow Dragon Riders were near collapse and in a state of extreme fear.

Even though Commander He had already called for a contraction of the formation for defence.

Each and every soldier of the Great Snow Dragon Riders was no longer fighting alone, but had comrades to support them.

But in the face of the sudden appearance of a dozen “Evil Shura”, the so-called contraction of the defence formation actually became ridiculous.

Not only could they not stop them, they could not even maintain a minimum defensive formation in the face of these dozens of soldiers!

Each and every soldier, fearing life and death, tore a hole in the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army’s formation by killing them with blood and desperation, tearing out a hole to the ground, and killing the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army present with their liver and guts broken.

“This, where the hell did this evil spirit come from?”

Looking at the constant sacrifice of the soldiers under his command, Commander He straddled his war horse, his tiger’s body trembling and his eyes turning red: “This is simply a battle force that cannot be found in an extra-territorial army, let alone in formation... damn, damn ah... ..”

Angry to the extreme, Commander He looked up to the sky and let out a wail.

“Commander save me, save me

“For the sake of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, who will go to hell if I don’t go to hell?”

“A group of extra-territorial barbarians, even if I die today, I will drag you all down to hell with me!”

.....

There were soldiers of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, some wailing for help, some generously dying, and even more, there were those who still maintained their blood and courage and pounced on the dead Wolf soldiers without fear of life or death.

There were wrecked bodies all over the place.

Corpses of the Great Snow Dragon Riders fell in pools of blood, staining the snow red and filling the air with a disgustingly thick smell of blood.

If word of this scene were to get out, it would definitely shock the jaws of the entire world!

The fighting strength of the Great Snow Dragon Riders was recognized as the top legion in the whole world!

How could anyone have ever imagined that the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army would also have a scene of being reaped by human fish?

The ordinary Eboshi soldiers nearby were transformed into spectators at this moment, or rather their only function was to form an encirclement to facilitate the hunting of the dozen or so Heavenly Wolf Death Soldiers.

Commander He's pale face was stained with blood.

His gaze drifted, sometimes bright and determined, sometimes dark and low.

His body, constantly trembling.

The miserable wails of his fellow comrades echoed in his ears.

There was even the occasional splash of blood on his face.

Just now, he dared to lead his comrades to charge in without fear of life or death, because he knew clearly the fighting power of the Great Snow Dragon Riders, and it was true that there would be damage and death when he rushed to kill the 10,000 troops of the barbarians.

But that was only a few!

Bai Qi and Chen Dong had already charged into the 10,000 man squad, and if they didn't, the two of them would face 10,000 men crushing them!

If they didn't rush in, they would be faced with 10,000 people crushing them. If they charged in and spread out their forces, they could at least delay until reinforcements arrived!

The matter of hunting down the traitor, the traitor, was bound to cause a large army to be sent from within Zhenjiang City soon.

As long as they delayed until the army arrived, the tide would turn!

But the scene in front of him was a bloody purgatory, a living demonstration of the defeat of the soldiers!

Looking at the soldiers who were falling, even if they were brave enough to attack together, when they faced the dozen or so deadly soldiers of the Wolf, their weapons were broken and they died on the spot under the heavy weapons such as heavy swords and battle axes.

After all, there were really only a handful of Great Snow Dragon Riders who could use heavy Dragon Rider swords!

At least, these five hundred men under Commander He's command, plus himself, were only a handful!

Facing a dozen or so Heavenly Wolf Death Soldiers, it was really hard to match!

"Hoo for the sake of the people, for the sake of Zhenjiang City, and for the glory of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army!"

Suddenly, Commander He straightened his body, and there was a determined fierceness in his eyes: "You and others, follow me to kill!"

With this explosive roar.

With this roar, Commander He's legs clamped down on his warhorse, and in a charging stance, he charged boldly at the nearest Sky Wolf dead soldier.

"Ah!"

At this moment, Commander He just went crazy.

The moment he reached the Skywolf Deadman, the Dragon Rider's sword in his hand slashed down on him with the fury of a tarzan.

With the impact of the war horse.

The Wolf Soldier hurriedly raised his broad and heavy sword to resist!

Bang!

Under the terrifying force, the Dragon Rider's war sword directly crushed the broad and heavy sword, and the heavy sword landed on top of the Sky Wolf Death Soldier's shoulder, then violently crushed the Sky Wolf Death Soldier to the ground on both knees.

"Ah!"

With another explosive roar, Commander He wielded the Dragon Rider Battle Sword in his hand and directly reaped the life of the Sky Wolf Death Soldier in front of him.

However.

The next second.

On the left and right sides, cold light burst out at the same time.

"Commander He beware!"

The soldiers' warnings rang out around them.

Poof!

Bang!

A battle axe brazenly chopped over the war horse under Commander He's crotch.

At the same time, another cold battle sword passed through the air.

In full view of everyone, Commander He flew up.

Only his legs, however, remained on top of the fallen war horse

Bang Bang Bang Bang

Chen Dong held his sword and spear, forcing back the four Heavenly Wolf dead soldiers in front of him.

Hearing an explosive roar coming from not far away, he turned his head unexpectedly, just in time to see the sight of the upper half of Commander He's body flying into the air.

The raging grimace was still present on that lifeless, miserable white face, and his eyes were determined to the point of determination!

"Commander He"

Chen Dong's heart gave a violent twitch.

His eyes hurriedly swept past the tide of Ebony soldiers and locked onto the battle circle where the Great Snow Dragon Riders were.

Tragic!

Brutal!

Blood and broken bodies flew everywhere.

The soldiers of the Great Snow Dragon Riders were like lambs to the slaughter when they faced the dead soldiers of the Heavenly Wolf.

This scene.

Looking at it, Chen Dong's body trembled greatly.

The next second.

He closed his eyes.

This scene, however, caused the four Heavenly Wolf Death Soldiers to simultaneously freeze and stop in their tracks.

The fierce battle was in full swing, and to close his eyes, was he going to wait for death?

However.

Suddenly.

A monstrous and hostile aura enveloped the four Heavenly Wolf Death Warriors.

As the top warriors of the various clans, the four Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers instantly changed their expressions, and even became frightened.

In a trance.

It was as if they saw that behind Chen Dong, who was standing in place with his eyes closed, a mountain of corpses and blood rose up!

"This is"

"Skywolf is above, he, he is not an ordinary soldier"

"Damn, this, this rage, is he, is he an evil spirit that is going to crawl out of hell?"

The four Heavenly Wolf dead soldiers were all shocked and terrified.

Under the terrified gaze of the four.

Chen Dong slowly opened his eyes.

Chapter 958

When Chen Dong's eyes slowly opened.

It was as if the pause button had been pressed all around.

His red-blood eyes were so deep and demonic that they seemed to be enveloped in a sea of blood and a mountain of corpses, majestic and sinister as if the heavens were overturned and suppressed into the sky.

The corners of his mouth gradually turned upwards, revealing an evil smile.

And his body, too, trembled vaguely.

From the nape of his neck, a sinewy vein protruded, winding and gnarling, climbing directly onto his face.

Swish!

Almost simultaneously, the surrounding soldiers of the Ebony tribe stepped backwards with fearful expressions, hardening the blank battle circle and widening it by two circles.

This moment.

Everyone looked at Chen Dong with a look of horror to the extreme.

Is this man a ghost?

How could a person have such a change when the Heavenly Wolves were on top?

Even though the four Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers were ready to kill themselves when they entered the Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldier Corps, a sense of fear still rose up in their hearts when they faced Chen Dong at this moment.

Some even began to swallow incessantly, their throats tightening with nervousness.

They were indeed dead soldiers, and they were indeed not afraid of death.

But when a demon god really stood before them, that feeling of facing death head-on would definitely shake even the most determined deadly warrior at heart!

“Ho ho

Chen Dong let out a ragged gasp from his mouth, the wind and snow blowing his robes hunting, and the black hair on his head gently dancing.

At this moment, it was as if he was the focus of the battlefield.

Not glamorous.

Rather, it was killing intent!

“Ow-ho!”

Without waiting for the crowd to regain their senses, a terrifying beastly roar, like a tiger roaring in the mountains, fiercely emitted from Chen Dong’s mouth, shaking the sky and the ground, startling the wind and snow.

The ordinary soldiers of the Eboshi tribe around him, those who were closest to them, even revealed a painful look at the same time.

In a matter of moments.

The roar did not seem to stop yet.

Chen Dong was already wielding his sword and spear, whipping up waves of snow beneath his feet, rushing towards the four Heavenly Wolf dead soldiers like mountain fire and thunder.

Poof!

The knife was as fast as lightning, directly crossing the neck of one of the Sky Wolf Dead Soldiers.

A human head full of dumbfounded fear had not even changed its shocked expression before it spurted blood into the sky.

The remaining three Skywolf Dead Soldiers’ torsos trembled.

The moment they regained their senses, the three of them brandished their heavy swords and battle axes in their hands and slashed directly towards Chen Dong.

However.

At this moment, Chen Dong was extremely hostile and violent.

In the face of the three men's attacks, he did not dodge or evade, but directly met them with a brutal and domineering stance.

The deadly wolf warrior did not fear life or death.

But Chen Dong, after his madness, did not know what life and death were!

Clang!

Under the tremendous force, the sword and spear in Chen Dong's hand instantly knocked the blades in the hands of the two Heavenly Wolf Death Soldiers away.

In an instant, with a stance as exquisite as a gazelle, his waist twisted like a python, and his back swept narrowly past the vertical chopping battle axe, then bullying his way up, he slammed his head into the chest of the Heavenly Wolf Deadly Warrior in the middle.

Bang!

There was a loud bang and a scream.

The chest of the Heavenly Wolf Deadly Warrior almost exploded, and the white ribs broke off, piercing the skin and exposing it to the air.

Chen Dong, however, did not pause, as if the God of Death had descended, brazenly wielding his sword and spear, directly attacking and killing!

.....

The other side.

On the other side, Bai Qi, who was alone to deal with the six Heavenly Wolf dead soldiers, suddenly heard the roar of the beast echoing in this part of the world, and at once his eyes shone brightly, his heart and soul lifted up.

It's coming!

Here we go again!

Chen Dong's Daoist heart planting demons had come at just the right time!

Having experienced it once in person, Bai Qi could not have been clearer about the earth-shaking roar.

If it was any other time, he would have been worried about Chen Dong entering a state of madness.

But in the current situation, Chen Dong's madness was a godsend, a saviour from heaven!

If he, Chen Dong and the 500 Great Snow Dragon Riders were to face the 10,000-strong rabbit army, there might still be a possibility of tangling and killing them.

But these suddenly appearing Sky Wolf soldiers were all the top warriors of the various barbarian tribes.

With the combat power that had erupted, he and Chen Dong were able to temporarily stalemate.

However, Bai Qi knew clearly that the 500 Great Snow Dragon Riders of Commander He and his troops had already suffered an avalanche of defeat in front of the Sky Wolf Death Soldiers!

When Commander He and the others were completely wiped out.

With all the power poured onto him and Chen Dong, even if he was as arrogant as Bai Qi, he could not see the slightest chance of survival!

"Chen Dong, kill Commander Xiao!"

After forcing the Heavenly Wolf Deadly Warrior back with a single slash, Bai Qi used all his strength and let out a long whistle from the sky.

He knew that Chen Dong was in a state of madness at this moment and was simply irrational.

But at this moment, killing Commander Xiao was the most crucial thing!

In Bai Qi's heart, he and Chen Dong could die, but Commander Xiao must die too!

"What's going on? What the hell is going on here?"

At this moment, Commander Xiao's face was terrified and confused, his eyes fluttering in fear as he stared at Chen Dong who was killing him in the distance.

Even they had heard the roar just now.

The overwhelming, violent and violent aura of evil was so clear that even they could feel it clearly.

"He's just a new recruit, why would he be like this? Why is it like this?"

Commander Xiao's heart chilled as he grabbed the middle-aged man beside him, "Did you see that? Did you see it? What the hell is going on with him?"

A series of questioning revealed his great panic at this moment.

The middle-aged man who was being questioned was also sunken to the core at this time, with an indescribable gloom in his eyes.

Chen Dong's change had caused everyone, including him, to have a chill in their hearts.

That sinister and violent aura was like a big invisible hand, pressing across the battlefield.

At this moment, Chen Dong's combat power was like a thunderbolt from a clear sky that struck the middle-aged man's body.

The God of Killers had descended, a man could kill a God, a Buddha could kill a Buddha!

This was the only adjective the middle-aged man could find in his mind after seeing Chen Dong's outburst.

This was because he had witnessed with his own eyes that the Sky Wolf Death Soldier that he was so proud of in his heart was killed with a single slash when he faced Chen Dong.

He also saw with his own eyes that the three remaining Heavenly Wolf Death Soldiers, in Chen Dong's hands, could not even block a single move and were directly reaped!

Such a scene was a world away from the tangled stalemate just now.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, was even more of a judge of two.

How could a mere new recruit have such terrifying combat power?

"Kill him, kill him now!"

Without waiting for the middle-aged man's response, Commander Xiao instead pointed fearfully at Chen Dong who was killing and reaping lives in the distance.

At this moment, in his heart, the change in Chen Dong made him feel a more terrifying threat than Bai Qi!

A roar of Chen Dong's voice kept coming.

Like a heavy hammer, it ruthlessly smashed on top of Commander Xiao's nerves, causing his entire being to be terrified and confused.

And it was at this moment.

The correspondent, however, approached the middle-aged man, "General, an urgent telegram from Skywolf!"

The middle-aged man's eyes stared, and after returning to his senses, he took the satellite phone from the correspondent's hand.

"Skywolf, Commander Xiao has been successfully picked up, but there was a change in the process, the Great Snow Dragon Riders came after me, and one of the new recruits, surprised me."

A short and concise report.

Two seconds of silence followed.

The middle-aged man's face changed abruptly, filled with horror, "Skywolf, are you sure?"

There was another two-second pause.

This caused Commander Xiao to sweat in anxiety.

Only this time there was a pause, and in the end the middle-aged man only responded with two words, "As ordered."

After hanging up the phone.

Commander Xiao hurriedly asked, "How is it?"

The middle-aged man, however, frowned morosely and ignored it.

Instead, he said to the lieutenant beside him, "Pass the order down, everyone surround that new recruit and capture him alive at any cost"

Winner Takes All Chapter 959-960

Chapter 959

Boom!

The agitated Commander Xiao was struck by lightning.

He stared at the middle-aged man with round eyes, not daring to believe: "Are you crazy? This guy isn't even human, why would Skywolf want to capture him alive? That's the price"

He was not stupid, as the commander of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, he was not all that proficient in matters on the battlefield, but he was still experienced.

Chen Dong's change, the straight-line surge in combat power.

It was like a dominating stance of taking the enemy's head in the midst of 10,000 armies like taking something out of a bag.

At this point, how could he still capture the enemy alive?

The price to be paid would be unbearably high!

But before he could finish his sentence.

The middle-aged man gave a cold, stern glance at Commander Xiao: "How can you influence the Sky Wolf's decision? We are willing to give our lives for the Sky Wolves, and if we say to capture them alive, then it is a military order like a mountain!"

With a single word, the words that Commander Xiao was about to say were blocked in his mouth, and his face turned blue and red as his lips mumbled.

The middle-aged man waved his sleeve and robe, "Commander Xiao, we do need you, but"

He raised his thick arm and pointed straight at Chen Dong who was sweeping a thousand armies across the battlefield with unstoppable power, and the words he slowly spat out were the words that made Commander Xiao's heart and soul tremble for an instant.

"He is more valuable than you! If as a last resort, we will abandon you and capture him!"

These words were said by Skywolf just now!

Even the middle-aged man was astonished, but at this moment, when facing Commander Xiao, he did not hide it and spoke straight out.

Commander Xiao froze, terrified and lost his mind.

While his face turned blue and red, he looked towards Chen Dong's location in the battlefield with a morose frown.

At this moment, even if he had the greatest discontent in his heart, he did not dare to say another word.

There was no way back, and from the night he had joined Timur, he had already set out on the road of no return.

Back in the domain, he would face the thunderous wrath of Huo Zhenxiao and his 300,000-strong army of the Great Snow Dragon Riders.

The only thing he could rely on was the Xiongnu tribe, the royal court of the hundred tribes outside the domain.

When he left the city, he was worried, apprehensive and fearful.

But at the same time, he was longing for the glory and wealth of the Xiongnu royal court.

But now the middle-aged man's words were a slap in the face that shattered his dreams!

He was actually worth less than a new recruit?!

"Ow-ho!"

Above the battlefield, Chen Dong's beast-like roar exploded once again.

The tiger roared in the mountains and forest, and all things were frightened!

Commander Xiao's heart twitched fiercely as he raised his eyes to look at Chen Dong, who was surrounded in the very centre.

But with this look, he instantly turned pale to the extreme.

"Coming over, he's coming over!"

In his line of sight, Chen Dong, whose face was as fierce as an evil ghost, was wielding his battle sword like a killing god sweeping across, directly pushing across all the enemies in front of him and blatantly rushing towards this side.

Because of the middle-aged man's order, a vast tide of soldiers surged towards Chen Dong.

Although it slowed Chen Dong down as if he was caught in a quagmire, it still could not stop him.

What was even more crucial was that the middle-aged man conveyed that the order of the Heavenly Wolves was to catch them alive!

This caused all the people in the 10,000-strong Allied Army team to be constrained at every turn when they moved their hands, and they were afraid of every inch.

The middle-aged man paid no attention to the fearful wails of Commander Xiao.

Looking at the overbearing Chen Dong, the middle-aged man's eyebrows tightened into a "Chuan", his gaze deepening to the extreme.

Above the battlefield.

With his sword and spear in hand, Bai Qi was as powerful as a thunderbolt, directly killing a Heavenly Wolf dead soldier on the spot.

With a loud roar, his sword and spear picked up the corpse of the dead Wolf soldier and threw it at the five dead Wolf soldiers on the opposite side.

Taking advantage of this short pause, Bai Qi turned his head to look over the battlefield where Chen Dong was.

With this look, he was frozen in his expression.

"Really came over?"

With his martial arts realm, although he did not know much about the Daoist Heart Planting Demon, he had some exposure to it.

After the dao heart planting demon, once the demon goes crazy, it is the loss of reason, only the vicious killing intent like a vicious ghost.

Just now, when Chen Dong went mad, he shouted at Chen Dong to "kill Commander Xiao", but it was actually an impulsive "casual shout".

Trapped in the midst of a 10,000-strong allied army, the Great Snow Dragon Riders led by Commander He were suffering a horrific defeat.

The only one he could rely on was Chen Dong, who had gone mad.

Bai Qi really didn't expect that a "casual shout" would really make Chen Dong, who was now frantically rushing towards this side!

Buzz, buzz, buzz

The sound of the wind whistling behind your head.

Bai Qi's expression was stern and his gaze was fixed.

His waist was like a python, and he instantly leaned back, while his right foot hit the ground with a fierce "bang". With this force, Bai Qi slid backwards with his feet firmly on the ground.

As he leaned back, the upper half of his body nearly hit the ground, five swords and axes came down on him at the same time, just like a tarzan pressing down on him.

Poof!

Poof!

Two clusters of blood splashed in all directions.

Scarlet and warm blood splashed onto Bai Qi's face.

Boom!

Bai Qi brushed and swept past the five Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers, stomping his foot on the ground, his body standing straight up like a python.

On the opposite side of him, the five Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers also paused at the same time.

The movements of both sides seemed to be frozen in time.

But the sword and spear in Bai Qi's hand were slowly dripping blood downwards at that moment.

Boom!

Boom!

Two of the five Heavenly Wolf dead soldiers suddenly fell to the ground.

As the two fell to the ground, the freeze was also instantly broken.

The remaining three dead Wolf soldiers turned around and stared at Bai Qi with a fierce gaze.

Their cold, piercing eyes were like those of wolves roaming the snowy plains on the hunt.

Bai Qi slowly shook the sword and spear in his hand and smiled coldly and disdainfully, "If you want to kill me, Bai Qi, since you are a dead soldier, you have to be prepared to pay the price of more human lives."

The other side.

Bang, bang, bang

A succession of explosive sounds, like the beating of drums and jars of gold.

The battle knife in Chen Dong's hand was like a meat grinder at this moment, waving as if it was a violent storm, bringing up pieces of residual shadows.

The sword was just a normal battlefield-style sword, and could not be compared to the Dragon Rider's sword.

However, with Chen Dong's horrific increase in strength after his insanity, the normal battle daggers exploded with overwhelming and terrifying killing power.

The surrounding soldiers of the barbarians, facing Chen Dong, all had a look of fear and horror on their faces, but after hesitating and remembering their military orders, they all ended up clenching their teeth, like moths to a flame, and surrounded Chen Dong to kill him.

But at this moment, Chen Dong is already difficult to resist.

In addition to the military order to capture live, so that these barbarian soldiers rushed up, but became a real moth to the flame!

"Ho ho"

In a very short time, Chen Dong was already covered in blood, panting raggedly under his breath as he marched forward to slaughter.

Because of the suddenness of the incident, when he and Bai Qi were chasing after Commander Xiao, they were both dressed in light clothing, and at this moment, they were bathed in blood, making their robes wet, and blood was pouring down the corners of their robes, clattering to the ground.

Poof!

The sword and spear in his hand chopped up another barbarian soldier.

Without waiting for Chen Dong to take a step, his red-blooded eyes burst into a fierce flash.

At a diagonal, a dozen of Heavenly Wolf dead soldiers, like vicious wolves, pounced directly towards Chen Dong to kill him.

Amongst the soldiers of the Yi tribe behind them, each and every one of the Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers was rapidly emerging from the crowd, killing at least a hundred of them at breakneck speed!

Chapter 960

With a command from the middle-aged man.

All the Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers swarmed towards Chen Dong.

Only the three Skywolf Dead Soldiers who were tangled with Bai Qi remained unmoved.

As for the Great Snow Dragon Riders, with the fall of Commander He on the spot, the remaining Great Snow Dragon Riders lost their backbone and immediately contracted their formation to defend themselves to the death.

After being bloodied by a dozen Skywolf dead soldiers, there were only a few left.

There were only a few dozen of them left!

At this moment, they were also cowering in a group, tangling with the ordinary barbarian soldiers around them.

It was only a matter of time before they were defeated!

It was only a matter of time before they were defeated, but they were still fighting, and what was engraved in the bones and blood of every soldier in the Great Snow Dragon Riders was that never sat back and waited to die!

Even if they fight to their last breath, they must use it in battle!

“Kill

The knot in Chen Dong’s throat surged as he let out a voice that was low and hoarse to the extreme.

In the face of the raging Heavenly Wolf dead soldiers, his eyes were as red-blood coloured as a blazing flame, his killing intent tumbling!

A majestic Yin hostile aura erupted from Chen Dong’s body.

It was as if the gates of the nine hells had been opened, and a sea of corpses and blood tumbled out, covering the sky and overwhelming the entire field.

Even the Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers who were pouncing on Chen Dong, when they felt the hostile aura pounding on their faces at this moment, they also looked frightened, their bodies were cold, and in a trance, they felt like a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood was engulfing them, and a million ghosts were crying in their ears.

However, from the moment they joined the Skywolf Death Warriors, they had given their lives to the Skywolves, and death had long since been a thing of the past for them.

All for the sake of the Hundred Clans, all for the sake of the Wolf!

Therefore, even though their hearts were already trembling, the Skywolf soldiers did not stop their steps.

Ordinary soldiers of the Eboshi tribe were simply not enough to capture Chen Dong.

The only thing they could do was to sacrifice Chen Dong's sword with human lives and blood, and use the sea of human deaths to wear down Chen Dong's strength.

The fighting strength of the Sky Wolf Death Soldiers was far higher than that of ordinary rabbit soldiers!

Boom!

Just as the Heavenly Wolf Dead Soldiers rushed towards Chen Dong.

Chen Dong brazenly unleashed his body, as swift as the wind and as powerful as thunder, dragging his blood-soaked battle sword backwards and charging directly towards the Sky Wolf Dead Soldier.

“Ah!”

Facing the charging Chen Dong, a fierce look steeply appeared on the face of the Sky Wolf Deadman as he brazenly waved his battle sword and slashed directly towards Chen Dong.

However.

There was a flash of cold light.

Poof!

Blood spurted up like a gush.

Chen Dong was as fast as lightning, and after settling one of the Sky Wolf Dead Soldiers with a single slash, he backhandedly snatched the battle sword from the dead Sky Wolf Dead Soldier's hand.

With his sword in both hands, the wind whistled, bringing up a large streak of shadow, as if he was in no man's land.

Once again, the killing spree erupted.

Only before, it was against ordinary soldiers of the Yi tribe, but now, it was the Sky Wolf dead soldiers.

The difference.

To the mad Chen Dong, it wasn't too obvious.

It was nothing more than using one or two more slashes!

Dozens of Sky Wolf Dead Soldiers swarmed to Chen Dong, swords and axes in their hands, fierce and domineering, whistling and slashing directly at him.

The two swords in his hands were dodging quickly, but in a ghostly manner, they appeared in the middle of the necks of each and every one of the dead Wolf soldiers.

Blood gushed out.

Screaming and wailing.

One by one, the dead Wolf soldiers easily fell in front of Chen Dong.

All the surrounding soldiers of the barbarian tribe had their guts and liver shattered.

Is this guy still human or not?

The ghosts and gods descending to earth are probably no better than this, right?

The great terror stained with blood and death enveloped everyone on the battlefield.

Even the middle-aged man and Commander Xiao were no exception.

Looking at Chen Dong, who was cutting people down like mud, Commander Xiao's gaze froze as he muttered, "Back then, when I fought him, he definitely wasn't this strong!"

There was a strong sense of doubt and disbelief in his tone.

He saw the fighting strength of the Sky Wolf Deadly Warriors in his eyes, even the former leader, Wei Bai Qi, was still in danger when facing six Sky Wolf Deadly Warriors at the same time.

But Chen Dong was now facing hundreds of Heavenly Wolf Death Soldiers!

In the eyes of Commander Xiao, Chen Dong was merely a new recruit.

Even if he was excellent and top-notch in his original army, if he was this strong in combat, after entering the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, he would not have stayed in the recruit battalion, but would have been promoted up by Huo Zhenxiao in the fire line!

Not to mention, he had fought against Chen Dong!

The battle prowess Chen Dong displayed at that time, although it terrified him, the shock it brought was nowhere near as great as it is now!

“A blood-soaked god of killing, unstoppable, with such bravery, it was no wonder that he had gained the favour of Sky Wolf!”

The middle-aged man’s face turned red as he gritted his teeth and squeezed out a sentence from between them.

The hundred tribes outside the realm all respected the law of survival of the weak and the strong, and revered the strong.

Facing Chen Dong at this moment, the middle-aged man’s heart and soul were shaken, and he understood why Skywolf had just given the order to capture him alive on the phone.

Only, the middle-aged man’s gaze gradually tightened.

Compared to the great terror of Commander Xiao at this moment, as the commander of this allied 10,000-strong team, he had more than one point of reason.

In his line of sight, the rampaging Chen Dong, even though he was surrounded by hundreds of Heavenly Wolf dead soldiers in the centre, killing and slaughtering at the same time, was leaning a little closer towards their side!

Even the Heavenly Wolf Death Soldiers, who were not afraid of life and death, could not stop him with their lives!

Faced with the siege of the dead Wolf soldiers, Chen Dong, who had fallen into a state of madness, held his twin swords and slaughtered like crazy.

But the dead Wolf soldiers around him were far beyond the reach of ordinary barbarian soldiers!

The difference between the two was not only in strength, but also in attitude when facing life and death!

When Chen Dong swung his sword to finish off the two Sky Wolf dead soldiers in front of him.

He did not wait to pull his battle knife out of the bodies of the Sky Wolf dead soldiers.

Poof!

There was a flash of cold light in the air, and a battle sword was slashed brazenly above Chen Dong's shoulder.

"Ow!"

The pain was so great that Chen Dong instantly let out a long whistle from the sky.

Above his left shoulder, fresh blood spurted into the air like a fountain.

However.

With this long roar, the red-blooded light in Chen Dong's eyes was fiercely bright.

The twin swords in his hands were pulled out from the body of the Heavenly Wolf Deadman, and with a blatant slash, he directly split the Heavenly Wolf Deadman who had slashed him in two on the spot!

Immediately afterwards.

As if he could not notice the huge pain on his left shoulder, Chen Dong let his combat swords set into his left shoulder and continued to wield his twin swords as he fought with the Sky Wolf Death Soldiers.

This scene was like a bolt from the blue.

It made everyone's face change and they were terrified.

The battlefield was cruel and the battle of life and death was all about strength and courage.

But even these barbarians had never seen anyone so brave on the battlefield!

If someone else had been hit by that slash, they would not have died instantly, but they would have been seriously injured.

But Chen Dong did not even notice!

After resisting the slash, the only change was perhaps that the speed of swinging the slash with his left hand was slightly affected by the battle knife embedded in his left shoulder!

At this moment, all people were scared!

The whole battlefield was filled with fear!
