

Winner Takes All Chapter 991-1000

Chapter 991

So what's my name?"

Chen Dong suddenly stopped in his tracks and turned to look at Xixing.

The moment she met Chen Dong's gaze, a hint of panic flashed in Xixing's eyes and she hurriedly lowered her head, but a blush was quietly haloed on her cheeks.

She was able to make the decision to impersonate her wife the moment she was certain that the man in front of her had lost his memory, and she was also able to choose to fabricate a memory for this amnesiac man by any means necessary.

But she was, after all, a young woman who had not married Yunying, and the sudden appearance of the man she had once dreamed of and longed for day and night, the thumping of her heart as her eyes met, still made it difficult for her to restrain herself.

However, as she bowed her head, it was Shying who spat out a name.

"Greedy Wolf, it's your name."

"Greedy Wolf?"

Chen Dong smashed his mouth for a moment, recalling the name and smiled teasingly, "That's quite a domineering name for me."

"Yes, you are the best man in the Great Snowy Plain!"

Xixing turned sideways and retook Chen Dong's arm, as if she was a little petite wife, her eyes full of love and admiration as she said, "The man who can marry me, Xixing, must be the most excellent man in the Great Snowy Plain!"

Sensing Xixing's gaze.

Chen Dong could not help but smile faintly.

One had to say that Xie Xing was really good at picking up on men's minds.

"Let's go, it's windy outside, go inside and rest with Barbara, I'll go pack my gifts, we'll go to the house later, after you and Barbara have both recovered a bit, I'll take you to see father."

Xixing didn't last long with her love and adoring eyes for Chen Dong, and after saying this, she returned to her room with Chen Dong on her arm.

Ah Man had already fallen asleep.

However, when Chen Dong and Xixing entered the room, they saw Barbara's delicate and frail body trembling faintly, and even in her sleep, a slight cry was still coming out of her mouth, and two lines of hot tears were flowing down from the corners of her eyes.

"Little Barbara has closed herself up."

Xixing looked heartbroken, she already had a deep hatred for young slaves, and after knowing what happened to Barbara, she felt even more sympathy for her: "Honey, you go stay with Barbara, I'll clean up."}

Chen Dong did not refuse, nodding his head, he went to the side of the bed and laid down on his side, carefully swept Barbara into his arms, while arranging Barbara's blanket and gently wiping the tears from the corners of Barbara's eyes.

He had actually sensed Barbara's behaviour after she had awakened.

People would instinctively shut their emotions away after suffering a succession of unbearably large stimuli.

Barbara had experienced the massacre of her village, the death of both her parents and the tragic death of her brother, but she had become exceptionally calm after waking up again, as if her body had instinctively closed off her emotions.

It was only in the most relaxed state of being asleep that the emotions that had been closed off would brew and explode.

As Chen Dong patted her, gradually Barbara's weak body trembled less and less, and the wailing and sobbing in her mouth disappeared, her breathing became steady and even.

.....

The rest of the week.

Chen Dong, Xixing and Barbara all stayed in the courtyard rented by the female guards.

The three of them were like a family of three, living a small life.

Every day, Xie Xing would tell Chen Dong a story about what happened before he lost his memory, and the "memory" that he had conceived overnight was, in Xie Xing's opinion, in perfect logical order.

And the result was just as she had expected.

Chen Dong had no doubts about the memories she had made up, as if he had listened to them and believed them.

The relationship between the two was heating up fast, like glue.

As for Barbara, she remained calm and collected, but her closed emotions broke out late at night after she fell asleep.

Late at night, Chen Dong and Xixing would wake up as a matter of routine, take Barbara into their arms and soothe her to sleep.

Both of them knew very well that it would take a long time for Barbara to completely come out of her emotions, and that it was a watery process.

Over time, the two of them also got used to sleeping in the same bed with Barbara.

However, Chen Dong also learned from Xixing's mouth that the two had just gotten married and had not yet had a garden room, so he could hear some resentment from Xixing.

But with Barbara around, the two of them had their garden room, and it was constantly postponed.

The days went by slowly.

Under the careful care of Xixing, both Chen Dong's and Barbara's bodies were recovering rapidly.

Chen Dong's injuries were so severe that his recovery was not obvious in a short time.

Barbara, however, had undergone a huge change.

Her face was free of chapped wounds, allowing Barbara's face to return to being like a tender egg, white and red, the little girl's appearance instantly became cute and pretty, and with a pair of clear, innocent eyes, this cute and pretty was raised several notches.

Under the cover of the freeze, even Chen Dong and Xixing did not expect that Barbara's bottom turned out to be so good.

It was also while the three were living a small life in the small courtyard.

On the Great Snowy Plain, it was a different story.

The 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders, led by Bai Qi and the three Golden Guards, swept across the snowy plains, causing the dozen or so extra-territorial tribes close to Zhenjiang City to be frightened and terrified.

Only, with the passage of time.

Between Bai Qi and the Three Great Golden Guards, a strong despair lingered.

“Chief Bai Wu, it’s been so long, these fifty thousand of our men and horses have lifted this large territory south of the Qilian Mountains over and over again, and there is still no news of the Chen leader, could there be?”

One of the golden guards said in a deep voice with a heavy face.

“Whether it will or not, as long as it’s not the time of the very night, we have to carry on with it!”

Bai Qi’s gaze was firm, and his right hand, which was subconsciously holding the reins of his warhorse, tightened up, the veins on the back of his hand protruding like earthworms.

As soon as the words left his mouth, another Golden Guard said, “Chief Bai, according to the calculations, tomorrow will be the time when the night falls, according to the Lord’s order, we have to return to Zhenjiang City.”

“Tomorrow is the time when the night falls?”

Bai Qi was stunned for a moment, and after secretly calculating the time, his expression fell down, but there was some reluctance in his eyes.

He knew clearly that the descent of the Extreme Night was the greatest danger on the Great Snowy Plain.

For Zhenjiang City, it was even more so!

Every year, during the Extreme Night, the Hundred Clans outside the domain would be on the move, and it was the time when Zhenjiang City faced the heaviest pressure from the Hundred Clans’ army.

In previous years, the Hundred Clans had acted alone, but this year, the Hundred Clans Order was like a heaven-breaking sword across Zhenjiang City, and Bai Qi knew clearly that Huo Zhenxiao’s decision was made for Zhenjiang City’s defence against the Hundred Clans joining forces!

In the end, Bai Qi sighed and ruthlessly gritted his teeth: “Tonight, we will search for more, and tomorrow, at dawn, the army will move back to the city, and by the time they reach Zhenjiang City, it will be almost nightfall.”

“Good!”

The three Golden Guards answered in unison.

Chapter 992

The moon rises and sets.

When the sunrise once again spilled over the Great Snowy Plain, bringing light.

Bai Qi and the three Golden Guards ordered the 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders to set up camp.

The whole night's search had left the men and horses sleepy.

But the results left Bai Qi and the Three Golden Guards in despair.

In the army tent, the campfire danced.

The marching pots hanging above the campfire were boiling water and gurgling.

Bai Qi and his four men sat around the campfire, all holding cups of water in their hands, but they were silent.

The atmosphere in the entire army tent seemed to be frozen by the harsh cold.

Every now and then, the three golden guards would look up at Bai Qi.

Although Bai Qi was now the head of the army, his former love for the Dragon Head Guard still existed, and he was also the one who was personally involved in Chen Dong's disappearance this time, so from the beginning to the end, the 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders and the three Golden Guards all obeyed Bai Qi's orders.

"Chief Bai Wu tonight, it is the extreme nightfall."

One of the Golden Guards couldn't help but speak up.

What was agreed upon yesterday, now that the big day was approaching, could not be delayed any longer.

With a total of 300,000 men, this 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riding Army galloping across the Great Snowy Plain was worthy of being a living force.

Once the extreme night falls.

Whether it was to Zhenjiang City, which was short of 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders, or to the 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders still on the Great Snowy Plain, the risk and pressure would skyrocket.

In the meantime, the 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders are riding across the frontier, galloping through the frontiers of the major tribes south of the Qilian Mountains.

The majestic momentum has frightened the hearts of all the tribes.

This was indeed a demonstration of the intimidating power of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army.

But the manifestation also meant that there were countless pairs of eyes watching in the shadows.

For those tribes that have not been blessed by the horses of the Great Snow Dragon Riders in the past, this is exactly what happened.

When the very night falls.

Not only is sight obstructed, but even the environment is greatly altered.

If the 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders had not returned to Zhenjiang City by that moment, there might be a wolf showing its claws on this snowy plain.

As this Golden Guard spoke, the remaining two Golden Guards also looked at Bai Qi.

Sensing the gaze of the three of them.

Bai Qi put down his cup, lifted his hands and rubbed his face full of fatigue, then said in a deep voice, "Order the return to the city, but I want to spread the formation of the 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders as far as possible on the return journey, and plough the road back to Zhenjiang City once more, I really don't believe that a big living person would suddenly disappear from the Great Snowfield!"

In his opinion, Chen Dong was in a state of madness at that time, and chasing after Commander Xiao was simply as simple as slaughtering fish on an anvil.

Even if the worst outcome was that the two directly fought to the death.

But if someone lives, someone has to die with a corpse, right?

In the past few days, the 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Army had ploughed this area of the snowy plains back and forth several times, but there was not the slightest trace of them.

This gave Bai Qi a feeling that Chen Dong had disappeared into thin air.

But is this possible?

“It’s possible, but I’ve actually always had a suspicion.”

One of the Golden Guards nodded in response to Bai Qi’s proposal, and after a pause, added, “Do you guys think it’s possible that Chen Longtou went straight to the depths of the snowy plains outside the Qilian Mountains? That’s why we’ve been looking in the places south of the Qilian Mountains and have never been able to find them.”

Only as soon as this guess was made, it was dismissed by another Golden Guard.

“Impossible!”

The Golden Guard said in a deep voice, “Don’t you think about it, how far away from Qilian Mountain is the place where the battle took place? With Qilian Mountain as the boundary, it is also the largest search radius, further north, crossing Qilian Mountain directly would be a death sentence at this season, bypassing Qilian Mountain would again take a long time, there is no way that Chen Longtou would not consider these risks when he is simply chasing after Commander Xiao.”

The voice was decisive and dry, but the words were such that the speculative Golden Guard could not refute them.

“Let’s go, Zhenjiang City still needs us, if we can’t find it again on this road back to the city, we can only willingly go back to the city and return to the Lord with empty hands and prepare for the Lord’s punishment.”

Bai Qi got up, his face full of gravity and helplessness, and his eyes were thick with resignation.

At these words.

The three great golden guards, however, looked at each other.

They had no doubt about Bai Qi’s words.

They all knew the relationship between Chen Dong and Huo Zhenxiao. Without mentioning anything else, the fact that Huo Zhenxiao was able to directly jack Bai Qi to the bottom and pull Chen Dong up to the position of the second person in the Great Snow Dragon Rider Army with a wave of his hand was enough to show how much Huo Zhenxiao valued Chen Dong.

Now that Chen Dong was nowhere to be found, it was a foregone conclusion that those of them who were responsible for searching for him would bear the wrath of Huo Zhenxiao!

Just as the 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders spread out their formation and marched towards Zhenjiang City.

On the Great Snowy Plain, one by one, small caravans appeared among the tribal villages.

These caravans had all come from within the domain at the beginning of Chen Dong's disappearance, and had fallen scattered, their sole purpose – to find Chen Dong!

Only like the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, after days of rushing around in the snow and wind, poking around, all of them had come up empty-handed.

This left the leaders of the caravans all baffled, how could a living man simply disappear?

They had to know that the way their caravan searched was more stealthy than the overbearing Great Snow Dragon Riding Army.

One of the advantages of being covert was that the extra-terrestrials were much less defensive of their caravans and were more able to pry information out of the mouths of the extra-terrestrial barbarians.

On the contrary, nothing was heard!

As the very night was about to fall, not only did the 50,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders begin to retreat, but even the various clans of the Hong Society's Northern Domain gave up and retreated in unison.

This suddenly made the domain, which had become lively for a while, a little less lively.

The only ones still persisting in their painstaking search were those sent out by Chen Daolin.

The western side of the Qilian Mountains.

A group of black-cloaked horses were running wildly through the snow and wind.

There were about a hundred of them, all in black cloaks, and as they galloped furiously in a muffled voice, they invariably gave off a suffocating oppression of killing intent.

This team of horses was clearly the secret guards sent by Chen Daolin.

They were the only well-trained unit in this 100,000-strong search force, apart from the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry!

The strength accumulated by this hundred-strong team, which had been under intense training for years and years, might seem a little weak when faced with single-handed expert assassinations, but when faced with larger-scale assassinations, their abilities could all be revealed.

Over the years since they were trained by Chen Daoling's organisation, they had already helped Chen Daoling resolve crises in secret and silently countless times.

"Chief, are we really going to bypass the Qilian Mountains and go deeper into the Great Snowy Plain?"

At the front of the group, one man asked worriedly.

The man being questioned, slowly faded the black hood on his head back to his back and said with a cold and stern expression against the wind and snow.

"In order to find the young master, the family head can even disregard his own life. We have searched all over the land south of the Qilian Mountains, but there are no clues to the young master, and now the only way is to go deeper into the Great Snowy Plain."

As he said this, he looked askance at the inquirer with a cold gaze and picked at the corners of his mouth, "What? The family lord has spared his life, and you are still worried about the risk to your life?"

The man being stared at by the chief instantly had a hair on his back.

He shook his head hastily and said, "Chief, we will die for the sake of the family head, but we are the only force that has bypassed the Qilian Mountains, and the area north of the Qilian Mountains is vast and endless, so if we search aimlessly, it is like looking for a needle in a haystack.

The man's brow knitted: "Go to the Hun king's court, he is the centre of the Hundred barbarians in the snowy plains, go to the king's court, if you can afford it, you can always get some clues!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 993-994

Chapter 993

The Huns' court?!"

As soon as the words were spoken, several of his companions around him looked at the man.

One of them said in disbelief, "Chief, are you sure you're going to the Huns' court? With the speed we're going, we won't make it to the 13 cities of the kingdom before nightfall! Besides, if we enter the Thirteen Cities of the King's Court, we will be no different from entering the mouth of a tiger!"

A small, formed force could appear in a frontier land.

But if it crossed the Qilian Mountains and went deep into the snowy plains, it would be as conspicuous as a white moon in the dark night.

The thirteen cities of the royal court would never allow such a force of inlanders to appear.

They might even be strangled by the Hun army as they approached!

“If we can’t make it, we’ll make it overnight, it’s better to wait until we’re close to the Thirteen Cities of the King’s Court, then we’ll simply disperse the group and gather around them once we enter the city.”

The man snapped with a stern look and roared loudly, “All listen to the order, target the Thirteen Cities of the King’s Court of Xiongnu, even if you run your horses to death, use your legs to get me to the Thirteen Cities of the King’s Court as soon as possible, and find the young master at any cost!”

“As you command!”

As the hundred men shouted in unison.

The speed of this team steeply increased, the horses trampling through the wind and snow as fast as lightning.

On the vast snowy plains, this team of one hundred men was like a pitch-black battle knife, plunging straight towards the Thirteen Cities of the Royal Court.

Inside the Thirteen Cities of the King’s Court.

In the small courtyard.

Early in the morning.

Chen Dong woke up, naked, in the courtyard, facing the wind and snow, for his morning exercise.

Even he himself did not know why he had this habit.

When his body was weak, he was able to restrain himself, but as his body gradually recovered, this habit slowly came to the fore.

The recovery of the body, then the exercise, then the promotion of the recovery of the body, this is originally a virtuous cycle.

So Chen Dong did not deliberately restrain this habit!

As his morning exercise proceeded, Chen Dong's body was covered in crystal beads of sweat, as if the wind and snow and severe cold did not work on him at all.

What was even more smacking was that the rolling heat rose up from his body, even making the flying snow above his head, much smaller.

Because of the heat, the falling snow was attenuated by the heat even before it could stick to his body.

Bang!

Bang!

Bang!

.....

A series of punches and kicks reverberated with ear-splitting air bursts.

Even the flying snow changed direction with the astral wind that was set off by the fists and kicks.

However, because of the injury on his shoulder, even when Chen Dong was exercising, he only performed some basic and simple movements that did not affect the wound.

It was also while Chen Dong was indulging in his exercise that on the courtyard corridor, a white-robed Xie Xing was walking in holding Barbara's hand.

Seeing Chen Dong who was exercising in Chen Dong's courtyard.

With a shining essence in her eyes, Xie Xing could not help but reveal an infatuated smile as she looked lost in thought for a moment, "Worthy of being my man!"

Barbara raised her eyes to look at Xixing, then calmly looked at Chen Dong who was exercising.

That sound of fists and kicks swinging in the astral wind, as well as the sound of the air bursting time and again, made Barbara's eardrums sting a little and she could not help but frown.

Immediately following, Barbara but murmured in a low voice, "If uncle was not too weak before, perhaps brother would not have gone to see Abba and Abba, if uncle was in our village, perhaps the village would not have been trampled down, and Abba and Abba they would not have flown to the sky and turned into stars. "

Barbara is a child after all, and she knows exactly what her village and Abba and Brother are going through.

But when expressing it, it still breathes a childish innocence of a child.

Shying's eyes, who was admiring Chen Dong, flickered for a moment and became a little gloomy.

She squatted in front of Barbara and smiled gently, "Barbara, one day in the future, I will let you see a more peaceful Great Snowy Plain, there may still be slaves at that time, but the appearance of slaves will never rely on bloody killing and plundering, and there will be no young slaves at that time. wild beasts killing each other."

"Really?"

Barbara looked at Xixing, but her clear eyes were full of disbelief, "Will there really be that day in the Great Snowy Plain?"

"Well, Auntie swears to you!"

Xixing solemnly raised three fingers: "Auntie, will make the Great Snowy Plain as Auntie said, and from now on, Auntie and Uncle will always guard Barbara, whoever dares to bully Barbara, Auntie will let the Heavenly Wolves rain down misfortune on him!"

The words were strong and resounding!

When she said these words, there was no longer a trace of charm on her body, there was only unspeakable determination!

She is the one who is regarded as the Heavenly Wolf by the Hundred Tribes!

She was the one who had single-handedly brought the Hundred Clans together!

She has a vision in her heart that is far beyond that of the leaders of the Hundred Clans!

She was able to fabricate Chen Dong's memories by any means necessary to make Chen Dong work for her, even at the cost of physical marriage.

But the Barbarian before her was a child of the Great Snowy Plain.

It was one of the beings in distress on the Great Snowy Plain.

When she banned the young slave, she saw the key to it.

She had brought about the joining of the Hundred Clans in order to achieve a more ambitious goal for the future. Only by twisting the Hundred Clans together with the domain that way would it be possible to bring the beings who were all suffering, step by step, out of the quagmire of suffering and killing, like beasts.

“Thank you, Auntie.”

Barbara’s clear gaze rippled as she spoke in a soft voice.

Xixing spread her face and smiled, her stunning face once again regaining all its charm.

Dotingly, she rubbed Barbara’s head.

“Let’s go, go and call Uncle, we’re going home today.”

“Mm.”

As Xixing and Barbara walked into the courtyard.

Chen Dong, who was concentrating on his exercise, also noticed the duo and stopped exercising.

“It’s so windy and snowy, why are you two running out?”

Chen Dong greeted the duo.

“Uncle, Auntie said she’s taking us home.” Barbara said.

“Go home?”

Chen Dong froze for a moment, some confusion in his eyes.

Xixing nodded and looked up at the sky, “Tonight the extreme night will fall, then this great snow plain will be in darkness, you have all recovered a bit, so it’s time to go home and recuperate.”

“Good!”

The confusion in Chen Dong’s eyes disappeared and he no longer hesitated.

In his opinion, since the wife in front of him was deciding to go home, there was nothing to argue about.

“However, before going home, there is still one more thing to do!”

Xixing's gaze was suddenly soft as she looked at Chen Dong, and at this moment, her gaze was infatuated to the extreme.

Even Chen Dong felt his breath stop because of the change in his gaze.

Xixing's appearance and temperament were unmatched by anyone in the entire Great Snowy Plain.

If she wanted to, she could make any man in the Great Snowy Plains fall under her skirt, and it was with this capital that she was able to make the chiefs of each tribe sit down calmly on the surface and negotiate a little to make the hundred tribes join hands.

"You have returned from disappearance, or this posture, is the same as living again, before going home, I want to talk to you"

I'm going to have to marry you once more, since you're living again!"

Chapter 994

The warmth of the room.

On top of the incense burner is an offering to the Sky Wolf, the faith of everyone in the Great Snowy Plain.

Tributes are displayed and two red candles with dragons and phoenixes dance in a vigorous flame.

A very old-fashioned way of getting married.

But for the backward Great Snowy Plains, it was perfectly normal.

There were no phoenix crowns and capes, no fancy dresses and brocade clothes.

Chen Dong just wore a plain animal robe, while Xixing was wearing the same white robe she had just worn, except for a red veil draped over her head.

The two of them knelt right in front of the Heavenly Wolf incense case.

Barbara then stood aside, as the marriage celebrant.

"This marriage, isn't it too simple and crude?"

Chen Dong looked at Xixing helplessly.

"I am your woman, I need your promise, I want you to never leave me and swear to Sky Wolf."

Xixing looked at Chen Dong solemnly, her gaze soft as water, "If you live again, I will let you marry me again and continue to be your woman, do you know the rules in the Great Snowy Plain? When a brother dies, a brother or a friend marries his wife?"

"You know, I've lost my memory."

Chen Dong laughed awkwardly, but his gaze was directed towards Barbara.

Ah Man nodded, apparently there was indeed this rule on the Great Snowy Plain.

Following closely.

Tears suddenly filled Shying's eyes, and her red lips trembled as she said, "So, do you understand how nervous I really was during this time when you were missing? Now, it's time for you to keep your promise!"

"It's my fault for aggravating you!"

Chen Dong swept Xixing into his arms.

Although he felt that this rule was poor, when he thought about it carefully, the environment on the Great Snowy Plain was perhaps the only way to greatly increase the possibility of people surviving.

But Xixing had said that her family had a strong background, so there was no such thing as surviving or not surviving.

But a rule is a rule.

This disgusting rule, because of his disappearance, was enough to change everything in Shying's future in a short time.

"Worship Heaven and Earth and the Heavenly Wolf, from now on, I am your woman and you are my man!"

Shying Xing burst out of Chen Dong's arms and raised her jade hand, wiping away the tears from the corners of her eyes.

"I, Covetous Wolf, swear to Heavenly Wolf that from now on, if I ever neglect Xixing again, I implore Heavenly Wolf to send down five thunderbolts, so that Covetous Wolf will never be allowed to live forever!"

The vow was spelt out in words.

Immediately afterwards, amidst Barbara's childish shouts.

Chen Dong and Xixing slowly bowed three times to the Heavenly Wolf.

Only Chen Dong, who was focused on the marriage ceremony, and Barbara, who was young and shouting the rituals, did not notice that a smug smile had appeared at the corner of Xixing's mouth as she bowed down for the first time.

She knew that the memories she had fabricated for Chen Dong would always have a chance of being untouched as Chen Dong's memories returned.

Xixing, who was good at taking advantage of men, had come up with this solution.

Only by taking advantage of Chen Dong's memory loss and identifying her as his wife, and working step by step to deepen her impression in Chen Dong's mind, could she possibly make Chen Dong, who suddenly regained his memory one day in the future, fall head over heels for her.

Love, family.

These might not be enough to wear down the generals and golden guards of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, but they were enough to make a district recruit, who had just joined the army, give up that faith that he had entered the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army!

When the three kowtows were over.

The rite was over.

The ritual was completed.

Chen Dong held Xixing's hand and stood up.

Before Chen Dong could say anything, Xixing was looking at Barbara with a meaningful and strange smile: "Little Barbara, when you go home tonight, auntie will send a little auntie to sleep with you for one night, okay? Auntie wants to sleep with uncle"

A word that instantly caused the corners of Chen Dong's eyes to tremble lightly, a manic red sweeping from his neck to his face, as if on fire.

And Barbara nodded her head in a seemingly understanding way, sort of responding.

Meanwhile.

In the King's City, which is held in high esteem by the Twelve Cities, it was a different story.

As the King's City, it was far more prosperous than the other twelve cities.

Of course, the iron rules are even stricter than those of the other twelve cities.

At this moment, in the majestic royal palace in the centre of the city, it was a different story.

“What? Xixing has already married that man in front of the Heavenly Wolf?”

The Hun king sat high on his throne, staring with astonishment and anger at the female guards kneeling below.

“In reply to the king, the princess has indeed married that man in front of that man, and this is why the princess has asked my humble servant to come and report to the king that after the wedding ceremony is over, the princess will return to the palace with Greedy Wolf, so please make arrangements for the king to be ready.”

As she said this, the female guard was already drenched in sweat and lowered her head to the extreme, her face full of fear.

She did not dare to meet the King of Huns’ eyes, for she knew to what extent he would be annoyed upon learning this news.

Even at this point she had restrained her posture as much as possible.

But she could still sense the majestic oppression coming from above the throne, the vast horizontal pressure.

After all,..... whether it is Demon Lady or Shy Star, both are the names of princesses, both are daughters of the titular Hun King, an existence worshipped by millions from on high.

Whether it is in the capacity of the Hunnu princess, or the identity of the Heavenly Wolf given by the hundred tribes.

The wedding of Princess Xixing should have been an unprecedented event that would have swept the entire snowy plain.

Instead, it was now held in a small courtyard, unblessed and unnoticed, in an almost childish manner.

If the King of the Huns had suppressed it, it would have been calm and quiet.

If not, word of it would have shattered the majesty of the Huns’ court, which had continued for thousands of years!

It would have dragged the Xiongnu royal court from its lofty perch into the mud, losing face and being laughed at by all the tribes of the Great Snowy Plain, nailing it to the pillar of shame!

The next second.

“Report back? Meaning to inform my king? Good, good, good, very good! The Demon Mother is big, so big that she can ignore me as her father, to actually just inform me of such a heavenly event as a marriage?”

Bang Teen!

There was a loud bang.

The Hun King rose up in anger and dropped his palm, slapping the table in front of him so hard that it exploded on the spot and broke into pieces.

The loud sound even scared the long-terrified female guards, whose bodies trembled, and fiercely fell to the ground in all five directions.

“Good, you are worthy of being my king’s only daughter, worthy of being the Heavenly Wolf of the Hundred Clans who was able to bring the Hundred Clans together! She can even ignore me as her father, and she can even scorn the majesty that my Hun royal court has accumulated for thousands of years... How good, I have given birth to a good daughter!”

“Good, the tactics are impressive, the princess of the Xiongnu King, for a person from the domain, still just a new recruit of the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry, she went out of her way to trash herself so much, to pay backwards, really opened the eyes of this king as a father!”

“You want to make the hundred tribes join forces and wave the whip south, my king supports it, but this time, my king can’t support it anymore, I want to see how great you are, who is so determined to fall back on your own!”

With a series of angry words, the Hun King’s face was red, his teeth were bared, his chest rose and fell, and his tiger eyes looked as if they were about to eat someone!

He stood tall and looked down at the female guard who was sprawled on the ground.

“Go to the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard and call my Xiongnu First Warrior here, that disobedient girl can’t look at Kui Gang, then this time, this king will see how far that new soldier within the domain is compared to my Xiongnu First Warrior!”

At those words.

The female guards lying on the ground instantly paled.

“King, the princess has already paid her respects to that man, so do this

The Hun king waved his sleeve robe: “This king is also informing you that you are not qualified to disobey this king’s order! Xixing is disobedient and unfilial, if that man is no match for Kui Gang, today this king will let Kui Gang directly kill that man in front of Xixing! It would be better to leave Xixing a widow than to subject my court to this great shame!”

Winner Takes All Chapter 995-996

Chapter 995

The Heavenly Wolf Courtyard.

Located on the side of the King’s Palace, it covers a vast area.

Anyone who is inside the King’s Palace knows how special the Wolf House really is in the King’s Palace!

It resides in the palace and is not subject to the orders of the hundred officials, but is only driven by the orders of the King of Xiongnu alone!

As the top martial arts academy in the entire Xiongnu royal court, it covers thousands of years of martial heritage of the entire Xiongnu.

Not only is it producing top warriors for the Xiongnu who laugh at the Great Snowy Plain.

It also nurtures generals and military masters who lead troops into battle and make decisions over thousands of miles for the Xiongnu.

In a place like this, on a normal day, ordinary people would not even be qualified to approach!

As the female escort walked warily outside the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard.

She wiped a handful of sweat from her forehead, and the trepidation on her face diminished by a few points.

Just now in the King’s Hall, the King of Huns’ thunderous rage was still vivid in her mind.

Leaving the King’s Hall and coming to the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard, it was only now that her mind had calmed down a little.

“Who is the visitor? Without the king’s order in your possession, immediately retreat ten metres away from the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard, or else you will be considered an offender!”

Without waiting for the female guard to move forward, a thick, thunderous rebuke came from within the Skywolf Courtyard.

The female guard was not annoyed.

This was the power and preferential treatment of the Wolf House!

Even if she was a mere escort, even if a great general or even a first-ranking official from the palace came, she would have to be reprimanded like this!

The female escort pulled out the King of Xiongnu’s token: “By order of the King, I have come to pay my respects to Lord Kui Gang!”

“Enter!”

The mellow voice threw out a word coldly.

The female escort immediately stepped into the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard.

A sturdy, bare-chested man, showing off his rugged and terrifying muscles, suddenly appeared in front of the female escort.

It was so fast that a hint of panic and astonishment flashed in the female guard’s eyes.

“Lord Kui Gang will be waiting for you in the main hall, remember to follow this straight path straight ahead within the Skywolf Courtyard and do not pry into the rest of the place, or you will have to ask the king to bail you out.”

The stout, rugged man said with a cold, stern expression.

The structure of the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard was very special, upon entering the Courtyard, it was a straight path leading to the main hall, with high walls built on both sides, along the way there would be openings in the high walls that led elsewhere, but only those within the Courtyard could freely enter and exit, the rest of the people, had no right to enter at will.

“My lord, I understand the rules.”

The female guard smiled and nodded, not daring to show the slightest sign of dissatisfaction.

She was clear that all those who entered the Skywolf Academy had unlimited future prospects.

The talent of a general and a military master.

These were the pillars of the future Xiongnu, and it was precisely because these people were entrusted with high expectations within the Heavenly Wolf Academy that they had created the strength to look down on all officials!

“Well, go on.”

The stout, rugged man let out a snort and stepped aside, “I’m just reminding you as a matter of routine, it’s best to know the rules.”

The female escort hurried off down the straight path.

It took nearly ten minutes of walking before they finally entered the large main hall.

The main hall was empty, but on the walls around it were long paintings of the Huns fighting in all directions, all of them showing the glory of the Huns in the past.

In the corners, there are also rows and rows of weapon racks, displaying a single weapon.

Each weapon was blossoming with a bone-chilling cold aura, standing coldly, but invisibly forming a cold and majestic killing intent, intimidating the whole main hall.

Even though it was not the first time they came to the main hall.

However, the female guard was still attracted by one of the blades.

She knew very well that all these weapons were polished to a spotless state, but before entering the main hall, every single one of them had drunk enough blood and had countless dead souls!

“You seek me?”

A muffled voice came out.

The female guard turned back to her senses and saw a tall, mountain-like man slowly enter the main hall.

The man was more than two metres tall, lofty as a mountain, and his bare upper body was as if his muscles were cast in brass, each one full of explosive power, but not as rugged as the man at the door, instead he was more proportionate, as if he was the world’s best sculptor, carved out bit by bit, finely.

There is nothing superfluous, everything is just right.

Even his features, which simply match his figure, do not have the usual ruggedness of the warriors of the great snowy plains.

Awe-inspiring and imposing!

It is the most appropriate description for a hanyou.

Even when he is standing still, the untamed majesty of his brow makes people stand back.

He is the number one warrior of the Huns, Kui Gang!

The female guard faced Kui Gang, her gaze not daring to meet his, her cheeks burning a little as she lowered her head and busily said, "Lord Kui Gang, the king has urgently summoned you over because of the princess' affairs."

"The Demon Lady?"

Kui Gang's sword brows knitted as he asked sharply, "What danger is the demon lady in?"

He knew how much the Hun King really doted on Demon Niang, so at this moment, because Demon Niang was urgently summoned by the Hun King, the first thing he associated with was that Demon Niang was in danger!

But.

"No, there's no danger."

The female guard shook her head and busily said, "Yes, it's because the demon niang has married someone privately, and the king was enraged and summoned Lord Kui Gang over to compete with the person the demon niang has married!"

Ka!

As soon as the words left his mouth, the worried look on Kui Gang's face abruptly turned into majestic anger.

His hands even fiercely clenched into fists, his knuckles exploding with an explosive sound.

Suppression!

The ultimate suppression!

In an instant, the female guard was chilled to the bone, as if her throat was being strangled to death by a large invisible hand, suffocating to the extreme.

“What exactly does the demon lady think?”

Kui Gang gently pulled the corners of his mouth, but his voice was low and cold and harsh to the extreme.

With that.

“I instantly go to the king, also just to see, my Xiongnu first warrior Kui Gang can not even enter the eyes of the demon mother, in the end what kind of dragon and phoenix heavenly pride, but let want the demon mother directly with its marriage?”

Kui Gang slowly turned around, his lofty body could give people a great oppression even if he turned around.

Just.

When the female guard raised her head, her pupils tightened and a “boom” exploded in her mind.

Where Kui Gang was standing just now, the stone paved ground was now cracked to the bone, shocking to the eye!

The female guard was certain that the slabs were intact when she came in just now, and this main hall was dedicated to the reception of people in the Heavenly Wolf Academy.

Then there was only one possibility!

The place where Kui Gang was standing, the verdigris slab under his feet when he was flip-flopping in anger just now, had been shattered by a hard trample.

“Lord Kui Gang’s qi has become so strong to this extent?”

The female guard’s face was full of shock, and her heart was even more agitated.

She did not know qi energy, but she knew about it.

How terrifying should it be to be able to control Qi energy to the extent that it shattered the green stone slab without a sound?

Followed closely by.

Dense worry surfaced on the female guard's face as she murmured softly, "Lord Kui Gang's strength has refined a lot more, to be able to control Qi energy to such an extent, that man is afraid that it will be hard to escape death!"

Chapter 996

The female escort had seen Chen Dong's skills.

The image of Chen Dong escaping from his trap and suddenly killing all sides that day remained in the female guard's mind for a long time.

At that scene, even the female guard was amazed at how powerful Chen Dong was.

However, it was different when compared to Kui Gang.

From the female escort's point of view, that man was able to kill in the street and was indeed strong, but he was only facing the people of the slave caravan, those people had strength, but only strength.

There was no comparison with the first warrior of the Huns!

The same killing, replace that man with Kui Gang, Kui Gang could also kill all the people of the slave caravan as if he were killing chickens and dogs.

But.

However, when comparing that man and Kui Gang together.

The female guards felt that Kui Gang had a better chance of winning!

To be able to control his qi to the point of silently shattering the green stone slab was already a very high level of mastery of qi!

To be able to explode his power like a mountain and a tsunami was indeed powerful.

But to be able to control one's own power at will, sometimes like a mountain whistle, sometimes like a ghostly, invisible force, is clearly a higher level of skill!

In a trance, beads of sweat seeped out of the female guard's hands.

"Demon Lady, you've really gotten into big trouble this time!"

With a murmur, the female guard hurriedly followed the dragon-moving Kui Gang.

The Hun King was thundering with rage and Kui Gang had struck out in anger.

To the female guard, these were the two swords that stood in front of the Demon Lady and the man called Greedy Wolf.

There were only two paths before the demon lady and the man.

Either the man defeated Kui Gang and gained the approval of the Hun King.

Either the man would die a gruesome death at the hands of the Kui Gang.

Of the two paths, the first was a one in a billion chance of extinction in the mind of the female guard!

All the way forward, the female escort was always one length behind Kui Gang.

At this moment, Kui Gang was walking with a dragon and a tiger, moving quickly forward, and although he was silent, he exuded a terrifying killing intent that was so oppressive that people were scared to death.

It was as harsh as a sword, superior to the snow and wind in the sky.

It was so majestic and domineering that no one dared to resist.

When Kui Gang stepped into the king's hall, the female guards breathed a sigh of relief and did not follow him in, but stood at the entrance of the hall and waited.

"Kui Gang, pay my respects to the king."

As soon as he entered the palace, Kui Gang knelt down on one knee and placed his right hand in a fist over his heart.

"Just in time!"

The Hun King was sitting on his throne, the remnants of the table he had just smashed were scattered in front of him, without the slightest hesitation, he waved his hand directly and said, "This King orders you, when the Demon Lady brings that man to pay his respects later, you must kill him!"

"King, have things come to this point?"

Kui Gang forced down his anger and asked the King of Xiongnu.

He was the first warrior of the Xiongnu, and the youngest first warrior.

Brutal at heart, he looked askance at the hundred tribes of the snowy plains.

Once he thought that a Snowy Plain heavenly pride like him was the only one who could match the Demon Lady.

But when the Hun King tried to set him up, she rejected him on the spot.

Now, she was looking for another one, and had caused the Hun King to become so furious.

Although he was unruly and now angry, he was not stupid.

He had personally experienced the eyes of the Demon Lady, and anyone who could enter her eyes was no ordinary person, so it was better to know more about the matter.

“Disobeying this king, disregarding the majesty that the Xiongnu royal court has accumulated for thousands of years, and privately married that man hastily in front of the Heavenly Wolf, you tell me with this king, how serious is this matter?”

The Hun King leaned forward slightly, his tiger eyes looking angrily at Kui Gang, his gaze forcing.

Kui Gang’s eyes narrowed abruptly to a slit, killing intent bursting forth, and his teeth clenched even more instantly.

Shame!

Shame!

This moment was like a volcano that wanted to explode out of Kui Gang’s chest.

He was the number one warrior of the Xiongnu, even when facing the warriors of the hundred tribes, he could still stand proud and dominate the group!

A heavenly pride like him could not enter the eyes of the demon maiden and was scorned.

But now, a man, who actually made the Demon Mother give up all nobility, just like this, directly before the Heavenly Wolf to pay his respects and get married?

“How bad am I, Kui Gang, really? Demon Mother, do you have to humiliate me like this?”

At this moment, resentment and anger seemed like a tidal wave that enveloped Kui Gang, causing him to breathe heavily.

The next second.

He gritted his teeth fiercely, "In obedience to the king's order, Kui Gang will definitely send that man to the Heavenly Wolf!"

"For the sake of Xiong Nu, Kui Gang this battle, you can only win and not lose."

The King of Xiongnu's anger and killing intent was so great that his words plunged the entire king's palace into the ultimate cold: "Even if that dead girl Xixing is widowed, the king will never condone such a disgrace!"

"As you command!"

Kui Gang got up and slowly moved to stand aside.

But as he stepped forward, his naked upper body muscles were slowly writhing, and his trousers underneath were rattling without wind.

This scene made the Hun King's eyes light up.

"Kui Gang, you have refined your martial art again?"

The Hun King asked offhandedly in surprise.

After Kui Gang stood still, he said in an unassuming manner, "Indeed, there has been an improvement. As of now, Kui Gang has lived up to the King's high expectations, and has already comprehended fifty-two of the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies."

"Really?!"

The Hun King's eyes flashed with surprise.

The seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies, which were the essence of Xiongnu's martial dao inheritance for thousands of years, were set up within the Heavenly Wolf Academy for those in the Academy to enlighten.

It was also because of the existence of the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies that it was one of the reasons for the special nature of the Heavenly Wolf Academy!

Thousands of years of accumulation by the Huns, this is a rich treasure that one cannot ignore!

You know, once upon a time, the Huns were in charge of hundreds of tribes in the Great Snowy Plain, a true and deserved royal court of the Huns!

It was a real kingdom of the Xiongnu!

The Xiongnu court is still one of the top 100 tribes in the Great Snowy Plain, despite its declining status.

The 72 Heavenly Wolf Martial Bodies were created by the Xiongnu Royal Court when it was at its most magnificent, when it unified the hundred tribes and combined the strengths of the hundred tribes!

To put it politely.

The seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies are rather an accumulation of thousands of years of Xiongnu's martial dao, rather than an accumulation of thousands of years of martial dao essence of all the tribes in the Great Snowy Plain.

It was because of the existence of the Heavenly Wolf Academy and the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies, such a secret essence, that created even the present-day Huns, the number one warrior of all generations, to be able to laugh at the herd and treat the warriors of the hundred tribes as mere dogs!

When the Xiongnu King asked this question, it was with a choked expression and a sudden self-deprecating smile.

If he hadn't enlightened the 52 Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies, Kui Gang's aura wouldn't have reached this level, right?

The next second.

The Hun King's body straightened out and said in a majestic manner, "Kui Gang heed the order!"

"Yes!"

Kui Gang knelt down on one knee.

The next second, the Hun King's words, however, caused Kui Gang's blood to boil.

"Later, if you must kill that man, the king will order that Xixing be promised to marry you, and this matter will be decided by the king, and Xixing must not disobey the king's order!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 997-998

Chapter 997

Seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies?

A puzzled look appeared in the eyes of the female guard standing quietly at the entrance of the King's Hall.

She didn't know anything about the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies, and apart from a hint of doubt, she didn't even have the courage to be curious.

The Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body must be a secret within the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard, and probing into such secrets was no less than probing into the highest secrets of the Xiongnu Royal Court.

She was just a mere guard, if she had such a mind, she would not die a hundred times.

What really made her forehead sweat were the Hun's words.

"Has it come to this? The demon lady has really touched the king's bottom this time."

These were the thoughts in the female guard's mind.

She knew better than anyone how much the King of Xiongnu favoured Demon Lady.

Although the emergence of the Hundred Clans Order was managed by Demon Niang, the Hun King had also put in a lot of effort for Demon Niang's sake.

At least, in the early days, Demon Lady was relying on the prestige of King Xiongnu to act outside.

To be able to make the Hun King put aside the feud between the hundred tribes and help to such an extent was proof enough of how much this father doted on his daughter.

But now, it was to ask Kui Gang to kill that man and directly order Demon Niang to marry Kui Gang, which in the past, the King of Xiongnu would never have been so determined towards Demon Niang to this extent.

Invariably, the female guards even felt that the heaven and earth had become austere and stern.

In the king's hall, there was silence.

But a biting, bone-chilling killing intent swept out like a tidal wave.

The female guard lifted her head and looked out at the wind and snow, murmuring softly, "Is the king's palace about to be stained with blood just after the extreme night has fallen?"

On the other side.

After gathering her rituals, Xixing gleefully led Chen Dong and Barbara towards the king's city.

All along the way, Xixing was happy, springing to life and glowing red.

In her right hand, she clutched Chen Dong's hand and did not let go.

The man she had longed for had now finally come to her side, a gift from the Heavenly Wolf and a blessing for her.

She believed that as long as she firmly grasped the man in front of her, then in the future when the allied army of the Hundred Clans waved their whips south, this man would definitely become a sharp sword that would not lose out to Huo Zhenxiao at all!

"Greedy Wolf, my father must be very happy to see you."

Xixing looked at Chen Dong with eyes full of tenderness, her crimson lips outlined in a light smile.

Chen Dong looked at Xie Xing and his expression could not help but choke.

It had to be said that Xixing's appearance was truly worthy of being the number one in the Snowy Plains.

Between her brows and her smile, there was a million different styles.

And it was the kind that belonged exclusively to the Great Snowy Plain, charming and enchanting in its coolness.

Noticing the change in Chen Dong's expression, Xixing was even more comfortable in her heart.

As long as I take advantage of this man's memory loss and slowly cultivate it, if I can get pregnant, even if he regains his memory in the future, can he still leave his family behind for the sake of the domain, for the sake of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army?

Family ties, in Shying's heart, are just like a great killing blow!

There must be a man of great righteousness in the Great Snow Dragon Riders!

But definitely not a new recruit who hadn't been in the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army for long!

"Am I beautiful?"

Xixing's brows lowered as she revealed a delicate look.

Chen Dong's gaze flickered for a moment and returned to his senses, but he smiled awkwardly and slowly moved his gaze out of the car, through the glass, he could even clearly see the biting wind and snow outside, as well as the gradually darkening weather.

He had lost his memory, but after so many days in the thirteen cities of the King's Court, he still understood some of the basics.

Maintaining a car for use in such an extremely cold and harsh place was an extreme luxury and far less cost effective than horses, cattle and sheep.

So anyone who could own a car in one of the thirteen cities of the King's Court was a member of the upper echelons of the thirteen cities!

Through the car, he was also able to get a glimpse of Xixing's family background.

"Auntie Shying, is your home in that city?"

As the car drove out of the city, Barbara pointed to the majestic and magnificent King's City, which stood majestically in the distance, surrounded by the twelve cities with stars in the centre.

"Barbara's so clever."

Xixing smiled and scratched the bridge of Barbarian's nose.

Barbara lowered her head, but was silent.

It was only this action of Xixing's that landed in Chen Dong's eyes, but it made his eyes freeze.

Why do I feel so familiar with this action?

Chen Dong's heart froze, his brow frowning slightly as he subconsciously revealed a thoughtful look.

It was with this thoughtful recollection that that indescribable sharp pain suddenly reappeared in his mind.

"Ah"

Chen Dong's face changed drastically and he let out a light scream, followed by his hands hurriedly covering his head, while sucking in a deep breath of cool air backwards, forcibly stopping himself from remembering.

Chen Dong's change startled Xixing and Barbara.

Shying hurriedly raised her hands to rub Chen Dong's temples, while saying in a gentle voice, "Don't try to remember, take your time, take your time, it will get better"

The gentle voice was as if it was a heavenly voice, extraordinarily pleasant to the ear.

On the side, Barbara also hurriedly rubbed Chen Dong's heart and said worriedly, "Uncle it doesn't hurt, it doesn't hurt, uncle be good"

Soon, the sharp pain in Chen Dong's mind slowed down and disappeared.

However, this brief pain still caused dense beads of sweat to seep out of his forehead.

Seeing that Chen Dong had eased off, Xixing and Barbara's expressions also followed suit and relaxed.

Xixing gave Chen Dong a scornful look, "Why do you still want to remember when you know it will give you a splitting headache?"

"I don't know."

Chen Dong shook his head with a blank gaze and murmured, "It's just that the action you took just now to scrape Barbara's nose that made me feel so familiar, as if I had often done that to someone."

The words were thick with doubt and suspicion.

But that's all, Chen Dong didn't dare to remember, once he did, the sharp pain in his head that seemed to explode was like a nightmare, containing his guts to death.

How is this possible?

Shock flickered in Shying Xing's foxy eyes.

Quietly, both of Shying's hands, hidden under his sleeved robe, clenched into fists.

Hadn't he lost his memory?

Why would he feel a familiarity with such a simple action?

To whom had he often done this action before?

For a moment, Xixing's heart rippled, and his eyes were even brighter and brighter.

For a long time.

Shy Xing suddenly felt a little funny.

All the memories were gone, yet he remembered such an action, was this funny?

If that was really the case, then the people who used to be happy by him doing this action a lot should be very happy, right?

What she didn't know was that this pampering action of scratching the bridge of her nose was exactly what Chen Dong used to do to Gu Qingying when they were together.

As Chen Dong fell into a daze.

Even Barbara was dumbfounded and said in a childish voice with disbelief, "Uncle, you don't even have any memory left, how could you still remember this action?"

Chen Dong's gaze flickered for a moment.

Xixing came back to her senses and hurriedly took advantage of Barbara's remark, smiled sweetly, took Chen Dong's arm and chimed in, "Barbara is right, you have lost your memory, how could you remember this one action, it should be because you were in a trance and got it wrong, right?"

Chen Dong's gaze was deep and he said uncertainly, "Maybe maybe."

Chapter 998

A low, hesitant voice echoed in the car.

What had been a relaxed and harmonious atmosphere was made odd with an inadvertent gesture that turned the car into an odd atmosphere.

Barbara was confused and uncomprehending.

Xixing, however, curbed his smile and turned his head to look out of the window, his gaze deep and thoughtful.

As the car entered the King's City, the scenery of the city streets changed abruptly.

The King's City, as the location of the King's Palace, was at the head of the thirteen cities in the King's Court.

The level of prosperity was simply not comparable to the remaining twelve star cities.

Chen Dong and Barbara were soon attracted by the magnificent view outside the window.

Barbara even leaned on the window glass and exclaimed offhandedly, "Wow is there really such a beautiful place in the Great Snowy Plain?"

As the extreme night was about to fall, the sky was getting darker and darker.

It was as if a black curtain was slowly pressing down from the heavens above.

So the streets were already brightly lit.

The streets were already lit up, and there was still a steady stream of people.

Having been born and bred in the snowy plains, they were already used to the extreme nightfall.

But the lights and neon signs around them made Barbara feel as if she had come to another world.

“Little Barbara, you will live here from now on, yo.”

Shying came back to her senses and said to Barbara with a gentle smile.

Barbara glanced back at Xixing and her eyes lit up.

But in a flash, she suddenly thought of something and the brightness in her eyes dimmed as she murmured, “Thank you, Auntie.”

The smile on Xixing’s face froze, and she knew that Barbara was thinking of her parents and brother again.

It was just that she didn’t know what to do in the face of Barbara, who had been living in the small courtyard she had rented in Star City for the past few days. Although Barbara had gradually adapted, her closed emotions had still not opened up, and she was still somewhat resistant to her.

“Barbara, when night falls, there will be many, many stars.”

Chen Dong suddenly smiled and said, “Abba, Abba and brother, they have all turned into stars and are accompanying you in the sky, and if it is extremely night, they will accompany you for a long, long time.”

“Really?”

Barbara raised her head again and looked at Chen Dong with a face full of expectation.

Chen Dong nodded and pointed out the window, “You will be able to find them when the stars come out, the brightest stars are them.”

Barbara nodded, but a rare smile appeared at the corner of her mouth.

He then leaned over the window glass with relish, but his eyes no longer looked at the charming lights along the way, but upwardly gazed at the gradually darkening dome of the sky.

The woman was amazed at Chen Dong and said in a low voice, "I didn't expect you to be quite good at this."

Chen Dong, however, smiled noncommittally.

In fact, Barbara was already at an age where she slowly understood things, and understood birth, old age, sickness and death.

With a lie to temporarily distract her from her grief, Barbara herself should also be clear about it, right?

"By the way, where is our home?"

Chen Dong did not pay any more attention to Barbara, but asked Xixing.

Xixing, however, smiled slightly and pointed forward, "At the end of this road, is our home."

"The end of this road?"

Chen Dong pondered for a moment and was instantly distracted, "If I saw it correctly just now, the end of this road should be the King's Palace, you"

"Right, I am the Hun princess and you are the Hun horse in harness."

Without hesitation, Shying nodded and smiled.

Boom!

The sound was like a thunderclap.

Chen Dong was instantly dumbfounded and confused on the spot.

Even Barbara, who was expecting the star to come out, turned back with a jerk, her pink puffy little face filled with shock.

"A, aunty you, you're the Hun's, princess?"

Stammering out a question, Barbara even almost screamed out, hastily raising her hand to cover her little mouth.

How could she have never imagined that a few days ago she was almost sold, and a few days later, she was calling the Hun princess auntie.

It was such a drastic transformation that at Barbara's young age, her mind went blank for a moment.

"As far as that goes?"

Xixing stared at Chen Dong flirtatiously, "Greedy Wolf, you were originally our Xiongnu's horse-in-law, why do you have to act so surprised?"

"No, I just didn't expect that I would be so high up in the hierarchy with your family!"

Chen Dong shook his head, suppressing his voice as he uttered these words.

From what Xixing had told him before, and from rare things like cars, he was certain that Xixing's family had a strong background, but how could he have not expected that Xixing was actually the Lord of a country in Hun!

No matter how noble the upper class is, it's definitely no match for the person in power of the entire Hun!

"Hee hee It's not because you've lost your memory, but now that you're home and recuperating well, you'll be able to remember later."

Xixing took Chen Dong's arm and leaned her head on Chen Dong's shoulder.

During the conversation.

The car was already close to the Royal Palace.

The gates of the royal palace were tightly closed and hundreds of guards stood around.

As the highest authority of the whole Xiongnu, the palace was so heavily guarded that it was impossible for ordinary people to approach it, even in the middle of the royal city.

It was only the moment when the car approached and Xixing poked his head out.

Boom!

Hundreds of looming Hun soldiers instantly dropped to one knee in unison.

Immediately afterwards, all the soldiers placed their right hands in the position of their hearts and shouted in unison.

"Greetings to Her Highness the Princess!"

The sound rolled out, deafening.

This scene shook both Chen Dong and Barbara, who were dumbfounded, as if they were dreaming.

Rumble

Soon, the lofty and tall palace gates were opened.

The car slowly drove towards the palace.

“I will take you to see my father.”

Xixing said with a delighted face, “He will be very happy to know that you have returned.”

“Mm, good!”

Chen Dong nodded, and although he was shocked at his status, he quickly adapted to it.

Within the royal palace, the high walls were glorious.

A palace was lined up one after another, but it was permeated with a sense of solemnity and austerity.

In the palace, pedestrians walked with their heads bowed and in a hurry.

From time to time, there are teams of army soldiers wrapped in animal robes, carrying cold weapons and hot weapons on their waists, patrolling back and forth.

The presence of both cold and hot weapons on the soldiers was a bizarre combination, but in the Great Snowy Plains it had long been the norm.

Although the Great Snowy Plain is closed, barbaric and believes in the prey of the weak, it is by no means completely unconnected to the outside world.

Even when the Hundred Clans attacked Zhenjiang City, they were mostly using hot weapons, with cold weapons only being used when they were charged by the Great Snow Dragon Riders to fight in close quarters.

However, this was not clear to Chen Dong, who had lost his memory at this time.

At this moment, Chen Dong, sitting inside the car, was just as curious as Barbara, surveying everything inside the royal palace.

Crunch!

The car came to a halt.

“Let’s go, Father is waiting for us in the King’s Palace.”

Xixing wrapped the white robe around her body and took the lead in opening the car door to get out of the car.

Subsequently, Chen Dong led Barbara and got out of the car together.

This scene.

It happened to be overlooked by the female guards standing outside the king’s palace from above.

In the entire royal palace, the only person who could drive a carriage and horse up to the steps of the king’s palace was the demon lady who had such a privilege!

Only

The female guard looked back worriedly at the killing intent stirring inside the king’s palace, the fear and panic in her eyes could not be dispersed.

She saw the look on Xixing’s face and guessed that Xixing was still unaware of the situation within the king’s hall at this time.

As her eyes gazed at Xixing, who was leading Chen Dong and Barbara up the steps, the female guard’s red lips were mumbling, hesitating whether she should warn Xixing.

Suddenly.

A soft cough came from within the king’s hall behind them.

Immediately afterwards, the King of Xiongnu’s low voice rang out, “Do your duty well, if you don’t do it well, the King will put you in the company of lowly slaves!”

Winner Takes All Chapter 999-1000

Chapter 999

Because the three of them were still far away.

Therefore, the King of Huns’ low cry was only heard by the female guard.

But hearing these words, the female guard's body instantly froze, dripping with cold sweat, and instantly discouraged the idea of reminding Xixing.

"Have you spoken to Father?"

Shying asked with a smile when she saw the female escort.

The terrified and disoriented female guard hurriedly bowed her head and said, "Demon Mother, both the King and Lord Kui Gang are waiting for you inside."

"Kui Gang?"

A flash of doubt surfaced in Xixing's eyes, "Why has Father called him over?"

After murmuring, Xixing didn't think too much about it, and dragged Chen Dong and Barbara into the palace.

The female escort watched the three enter with a gloomy expression.

When her eyes fell on Chen Dong, a hint of sympathy flowed out.

It had been so hard to survive, but he would soon have to die at the hands of Lord Kui Gang.

When Xixing and Chen Dong walked into the palace, the two clearly sensed that something was wrong within the palace.

The awe-inspiring coldness that emanated from the Hun King and Lord Kui Gang was unmistakable and made people feel like a mane on their backs, like hair on their bones.

Even Barbara, with a look of alarm on her pink little face.

It was not only because of the sense of oppression, but also because of the Hun King sitting high on his throne.

In the past, Barbara had thought that her father was already the most powerful.

The Hun King, only existed in the stories her father told her, and she never thought that one day she would be standing in front of the Hun King.

"The Demon Mother pays her respects to her father."

Xixing's heart was suspicious, but she still forced down the doubts in her heart and bowed to the Xiongnu King on the throne.

However.

“Kui Gang, do it!”

What?!

The delicate body of Xixing, who had just knelt down, shook abruptly.

Boom!

Almost simultaneously, an explosion sounded abruptly within the silent palace.

The wind rose suddenly and was fierce and fierce.

It was as if a mountain was crying out like a tsunami, in a fierce stance, pushing straight across from within the slant.

It was a flash of lightning.

When Xie Xing turned his head in panic, he saw that Kui Gang, who had been standing next to him, was like a mountain at that moment, lifting up the air currents visible to the naked eye and rushing directly towards this side.

“Brother Kui Gang!”

Xixing screamed in fright.

However, Kui Gang’s face was full of fierce killing intent, and his right hand swung his fist like a python emerging from a cave, roaring as he blatantly blasted at Chen Dong.

The terrifying air currents set off around him even pushed Barbara away.

It was a close call.

In the face of Kui Gang’s fist, he hastily raised his right hand to block it.

Bang Teen!

There was a loud sound.

Like a broken pocket, Chen Dong flew backwards five metres in the air and landed heavily on the ground.

“Poof!”

As soon as he landed on the ground, a mouthful of blood spurted out from Chen Dong’s mouth.

His expression was cold, and his eyes were even colder, but he could not hide his shock in the depths of his eyes and blurted out, "How fast!"

The moment the Kui Gang burst forth, he could only raise his hand to block it. The majestic aura was like a great mountain pushing across, and even Chen Dong was scared.

A sharp pain struck his right arm, causing the veins in the corners of Chen Dong's eyes to bulge out.

"Uncle!"

Just as Chen Dong landed on the ground, a terrified Barbara pounced over with a face full of tears.

"Uncle, are you alright, are you alright?"

While crying and asking, Barbara used her petite and frail body to help Chen Dong up.

On the other hand, on the other side.

Xixing, however, had already stood up, glaring angrily at Kui Gang, and then was turning around to scold the Hun King, "Father, what do you mean by that?"

She was not stupid, without the Hun King's order, it was impossible for Kui Gang to suddenly rise up like this.

The aura just now was clearly directed at Suo's life!

Clearly, this was an order from her father to Kui Gang!

If he wanted to save this man, he could only convince his father!

"Demon lady, what do you mean only?"

The Hun King looked sulking, even though he had already suppressed his anger with utmost restraint, he still gave off a fierce and berserk feeling, "Kui Gang, this king is asking you to kill him, not to give him a punch!"

A look of shock and horror abruptly surfaced on Shying Xing's stunning face.

She turned around abruptly and angrily rebuked at Kui Gang who was about to launch himself, "Kui Gang, how dare you!"

Kui Gang's qi surged all over his body, but the corners of his eyes narrowed fiercely with Xixing's stern shout, looking at Chen Dong with eyes full of resentment and anger.

“Demon Lady, your man, that must be the strongest man, since you insist on it, then today let Kui Gang test it out properly, if he can beat Kui Gang, then everything will be according to you!”

The Hun King sat atop his throne, majestic, with anger between his brows.

He would not allow such a thing to happen.

Even if he had already known that Xixing wanted to get this man, to join forces for the Hundred Clans to go south and find someone to counter Huo Zhenxiao.

However, what Xixing had done was too disobedient and disregarded him as a father, not to mention the majesty of the whole Xiongnu.

If word of this got out, the whole Xiongnu royal court would no longer have a royal court, and Xiongnu would be crucified and ridiculed by the hundred tribes.

What's more, after learning that Kui Gang had already comprehended the 52 Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao bodies, the Hun King already had the best person in mind to fight against Huo Zhenxiao!

“But he's injured now, he's not at all in full strength... Father, you're bullying! It's taking advantage of someone's danger!”

Xixing was shocked and furious, her eyes filled with tears.

She didn't know why her father would suddenly do this, when he had been told in advance, when it was for the sake of the Huns and for the sake of the Hundred Clans!

Bang!

The Hun king slammed his fist on the armrest of his throne: “There is no such thing as taking advantage of someone in battle, only the victor is king!”

“You

Chen Dong sat on the ground, his right arm was in a sharp pain like tearing.

But looking at the scene of Xixing and the Hun king arguing in front of him, a look of confusion and doubt appeared in his eyes.

Wasn't I the Xiongnu's horse in harness?

Didn't I follow Xie Xing home?

Why would the scene before him happen?

In front of him, Barbara cried tears, but did not move an inch to stop Chen Dong.

Her thin, frail body, but at this moment as if it were a small mountain, stood in front of Chen Dong, facing the opposite Kui Gang.

Barbara cried out and threatened, "Go away, you go away, I forbid you to hurt my uncle"

Inside the palace, Barbara's cries and howls echoed at the top of her lungs.

"Barbara"

Chen Dong looked profoundly at Barbara's back, but the image of Barbara's brother before he died in the alley that night came to his mind.

Barbara, however, did not even turn her head back and cried, "Barbara doesn't have a father or a mother anymore, Barbara doesn't have a brother anymore, woooooooooooo" Barbara only has" uncle... .."

Chen Dong's body shook, his eyes steeped in sullenness, his chest clogged to the point of exploding.

Barbara's hoarse cries seemed like burning red sharp knives cutting into his body.

This scene also made the Hun King and Xixing stop arguing and look at the thin and frail Barbarian.

No one had expected it.

A child of a few years old would actually have the courage to stand in front of an adult and shelter him in a time of danger.

Kui Gang's eyebrows knitted together and his harsh, resentful gaze was like a sharp knife as it swept right past Ah Man and stabbed at Chen Dong, the corners of his mouth turning upwards with a contemptuous, disdainful smile.

"Quite a strong man, to actually hide in front of a small child and let it take shelter, how brazen."

These words were despised by Chen Dong, and they were also ridiculed by Xixing.

A man who had to take shelter from little children was comparable to him, Kui Gang, the number one warrior of the Huns?

Shying you can even look at such a man in your eyes, but you can't see my Kui Gang's overwhelming might, are you" blind?

The silence of the palace echoed with Barbara's cries.

Snap!

Suddenly, under the watchful eyes of Xie Xing, the Hun King and Kui Gang.

A large hand, the back of which was stained with blood, landed on Barbara's shoulder.

"Barbara, go and stay aside, uncle can win him!"

Chapter 1000

A cold, harsh voice suddenly exploded within the palace.

Barbara turned back around and looked at Chen Dong with teary eyes, "Ooooooooooooo Uncle, Barbara doesn't want you to get hurt, don't fight this big bad guy, okay?"

Meanwhile.

Xixing and the Hun King, however, had a gaze.

Especially Xixing was full of surprise.

Ever since she and Chen Dong had come together, because this man had lost his memory, he often looked dull, bewildered and mute, but at this moment this man had changed!

Face like frost, cold to the extreme, eyes depressed gas raging.

Sitting there, it was as if it was an iceberg.

Especially that pair of eyes, sharp as a sharp knife, look at the shy star heart frightened.

Such a feeling, she had felt when she faced Cang Wolf.

"Are you really just an ordinary recruit?"

Doubtful thoughts surfaced in Xie Xing's mind.

She did not know the real name of the man in front of her, so she took the name Greedy Wolf, and in order to gain this man's affiliation, she even went out of her way to make up memories of the man in front of her at the cost of herself.

But at this moment, Chen Dong gave Xixing an extremely different feeling.

"Heh"

Kui Gang's pupils tightened for a moment as he also noticed the change in the man in front of him, but then came a snort of laughter, "Finally giving up and burrowing out from under the little girl's arm?"

The mockery was thick.

As far as Kui Gang was concerned, the fact that a man from the domain who had appeared from nowhere could easily obtain the Shy Star was simply the greatest humiliation to him, the number one warrior of the Huns!

At the age of sixteen, he was selected to enter the Skywolf Academy, and in another three years, he became the first in the Academy and was awarded the title of the No. 1 warrior of the Xiongnu.

He then immersed himself in the enlightenment of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, making unhindered and unstoppable progress in the martial arts, and in just four years, now at the age of twenty-four, he has enlightened the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body to the fifty-second seat.

Such speed, such an achievement, is enough to make a mark in the history of the Huns.

Even if he were to leave the Heavenly Wolf Academy in the future, he would still be a general and commander, commanding thousands of troops and horses and sweeping the snowy plains.

Yet, as outstanding as he was, he could not enter the eyes of Xixing!

In the past, there was always speculation in the Xiongnu royal court that the most likely person to marry Xixing was Kui Gang, who was the number one warrior in Xiongnu!

If it had been a Hun, no, not even one of the hundred tribes, he would not have been so angry.

But if it had been a Hun, no, not even one of the hundred tribes outside the realm, he would not have been so angry.

The feud between the domain and the Great Snowy Plain was unending, and now he, the number one warrior of the Xiongnu, was losing to a little-known man from the domain?

That's ridiculous!

"Shut up, you big bad man!"

Barbara turned back suddenly and cried out to Kui Gang.

However.

Chen Dong, however, gently raised his hand and wiped the tears on Barbara's face, saying gently, "Barbara doesn't cry, Barbara is good, didn't you promise your brother?"

Barbara froze for a moment, her lips mumbling, "But, but the big bad guy is going to hit uncle."

"Not afraid, you watch from the side, uncle beat the big bad guy to show you!"

Chen Dong calmly placated, cloudy and calm, taciturn.

This relaxed and leisurely aura saw Kui Gang's pupils tighten.

It also made the Hun king on the throne, who was in a rage, wrinkle his brows.

Could this kid really beat Kui Gang?

Impossible! His left shoulder was injured and he only had the strength of one arm, how could he possibly beat Kui Gang, who had comprehended the 52 Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao bodies?

For a moment, the Hun King was calm on the surface, but his heart was in turmoil.

It was a seemingly impossible thing, but now, under Chen Dong's cloudy and light-hearted aura, it made the Hun King wonder.

Barbara nodded and said no more, clenching her little fist indignantly, "Uncle must beat him up hard!"

"Good!"

Chen Dong smiled gently and gestured for Barbara to stand aside.

With that, he got up and slowly walked towards Kui Gang.

Not far away, Xixing's eyes shone brightly as he looked at Chen Dong and said firmly, "Go for it!"

"Mm!"

Chen Dong nodded calmly.

From start to finish, he acted incomparably calm and collected, as if he regarded Kui Gang as non-existent.

This scene.

Not only did it leave Xie Xing and the Hun King in a state of shock and disbelief.

Even the female guard standing at the entrance was also suspicious at this point, and could not help but murmur in a low voice, "Could it really be possible to win? But how is this possible? A single arm, in a weakened state, beating Lord Kui Gang? It's a fantasy!"

In an instant, many possibilities flashed through the female guard's mind, but for every one of them, with her martial realm, she could not see any hope of Chen Dong winning!

"You're ignoring me?"

Kui Gang's face revealed a depressed air, his brows locked in a frown as he looked at Chen Dong as if he wanted to eat someone.

He wanted to humiliate the man in front of him, and he also wanted to ridicule Xixing.

But the man suddenly became calm and collected, not even looking at him more than once, which was like an invisible heavy punch that ruthlessly blasted him in the heart.

The words had just fallen.

Chen Dong slowly raised his right hand and pointed it at Kui Gang, then clenched his fist with five fingers with a "bang".

Provocation!

A naked provocation!

This scene made King Xiong Nu, Xixing and the female guard's faces change greatly.

Kui Gang's face was even more gloomy, his anger spurting out.

"Give me death!"

Boom!

As Kui Gang let out an explosive roar, a ring of air currents visible to the naked eye abruptly lifted up around him, wrapping around his entire body like a tornado.

The next second.

Like a human-shaped cannonball, Kui Gang shot straight towards Chen Dong.

Everywhere he passed, the strong wind raged and roared.

Everywhere the Kui Gang passed, the Chinese white jade floor beneath his feet exploded.

The sound was immense.

The aura was overwhelming!

In an instant, it was as if he dominated this side of the palace, making time stand still as only the Kui Gang moved forward in a domineering manner.

However.

In the face of the overbearing Kui Gang's aura.

Chen Dong's next move was one that shocked the jaws of Xixing and the others.

In the shocked gazes of several people.

Chen Dong's body, slowly bowed up, his right hand clenched into a fist, still facing the oncoming Kui Gang.

His expression was cold and his gaze was stern.

"If I can get into that state again, I'll win!"

His lips and teeth were lightly opened, but his voice exploded like thunder in the ears of Xixing and the female guards.

With that, Chen Dong faced Kui Gang and slowly closed his eyes.

"Heh, seeking death!"

Kui Gang's chest was furious, his right hand clenched his fist at this moment, every muscle's explosive power was stored to the limit, he wanted to punch this trash in front of him and completely blast him to death!

And on the throne, the Hun king was full of dismay and said in a deep voice: "No one dares to face Kui Gang with his eyes closed yet, the way to take death, arrogant person!"

Only Shying Xing and the female guards were left alone.

In this flash of lightning, they were caught in a daze.

In both of their minds, a scene from the street where Chen Dong had stormed off to kill all sides came to mind.

Clearly, the state Chen Dong was referring to was that state!

At a time of extreme weakness, yet he was able to buck the trend and was invincible.

It was even clear to Xixing that the man in front of him, the reason why he was unstoppable in that video, should have entered that state as well.

“Perhaps can really work!”

At the entrance of the hall, the female guard's expression finally gripped, and the look in Chen Dong's eyes was no longer as sympathetic and compassionate as before, but had a hint of expectation!
