

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 821

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children

Chapter 821

Chapter 821

Adina did not understand how she could lose her memory.

She had completely forgotten what happened in the past twenty minutes. She lowered her head and looked at the man who was handling the wound on her index finger. She felt guilty. "I'm sorry, Duke. I didn't forget on purpose." Duke sighed in relief only after he carefully cleaned the bloody scab for her and put on the bandage.

He reached out to stroke her slightly messy hair and softly said, "Addy, you don't have to apologize to me. Should we go to the hospital for an examination later?"

It was very abnormal for someone to just lose her memory of a certain period.

If this had been the only time she had acted strangely, it would have been fine. But Addy had abruptly walked to the balcony and nearly jumped off at night not long ago.

Most importantly, Addy forgot about that incident too.

Adina nodded gently. "When I first gave birth to the four kids, my memory would suddenly appear faulty. People have said that pregnancy can lead to cognitive issues for some time. But even though my memory was bad at that time, it was never this bad. Have I also been hypnotized by Catherine?"

Duke subconsciously chuckled. "Your condition doesn't resemble hypnotic amnesia. You don't have to think about it. We'll find out after we go to the hospital later."

Adina wrapped her arms around his neck and gazed at his exquisite features with her calm gaze. "If I lose my memory and become a completely different person, will you still love me?"

Duke held her more tightly. "Don't say such foolish things. This won't happen."

"I'm just asking. If I really become a woman with an eccentric personality, not only will I have a bad personality, but I'll also look ugly. Will you still love me?" Adina insisted on asking him.

Duke answered her with his actions.

He kissed her deeply and affectionately, his kiss landing on the scars on her face.

The kiss grew more passionate, and the temperature in the bedroom gradually increased. A kiss could no longer satisfy their physical desires.

The two of them only finished when the sky turned dark and the bedroom became darker. By the time they exited the bedroom, the servants had prepared dinner.

The four children sat at the dining table while they stared at the two of them.

George gently cleared his throat. "I told you that Mommy was just acting cute. Now you believe me, right?"

Melody blinked. "I want to learn from Mommy too."

T

Harold rested his chubby chin on his arm. "Mel, you're not acting cute. You're just bullying others with your cuteness."

As soon as Melody acted cute, he would immediately surrender without a fight.

"What are you talking about?" Adina walked to the dining table and pretended to speak calmly. "The food today's quite good. Go ahead and call your grandma downstairs for dinner."

Alden obediently said, "Papa Brown delivered the dinner upstairs for Grandma just now."

Mabel rarely came downstairs to eat with them, so Adina did not say anything else.

After dinner, Duke went to get the car key. Harold immediately hugged Adina's thighs. "Mommy, it's really late now. Where are you and Daddy going? I want to go too."

"We're going on a date," Duke said coldly. "Do you still want to follow us?"

Harold immediately let go of Adina.

He did not forget the time his daddy glared at him for many days when he just gave his mommy a kiss.

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 822

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children

Chapter 822

Chapter 822 His daddy's desire for his mommy's exclusivity was terrifying.

"Okay, enjoy your date." Harold waved in pain. "Mommy, remember to bring me some delicious food."

Melody blinked . "Daddy, you have to protect Mommy. We'll wait for you to come back."

The four children stood at the mansion's entrance and watched the two of them leave.

The car then headed straight to the hospital.

Some clinics were closed at night, but Duke had made a call in advance and booked an appointment with the best doctor.

Adina took the list and underwent various examinations before she brought the examination report to the outpatient clinic.

The doctor carefully flipped through the five checklists." There aren't any big issues with the data in the report. Suddenly forgetting something that just happened is known as temporary memory impairment in medicine. This impairment will slowly disappear with time, but it will also become increasingly severe with age. Under normal circumstances, the symptoms will become more and more obvious only when the patients have reached the age of forty..." Adina barely understood. It meant that her situation was normal, and she would slowly recover. Duke pursed his lips and asked, "The personality that she shows when she temporarily loses her memories is completely different from her usual personality. It's like two completely different people. That can't be explained by temporary memory impairment."

"If that's the case, you might need to go to the Psychiatric Department ," the doctor seriously advised.

After they stepped out of the outpatient clinic, Adina had a complicated expression. "Duke, I don't have schizophrenia, do I?"

That could be why her personality would change drastically and she would not remember anything she had done.

“Don’t overthink it.” Duke held her tightly and softly said, “When that incident happened to me some time ago, you experienced too much mental stress. Now that you’re suddenly relaxed, maybe your mind still isn’t used to it. That’s why this is happening. Didn’t the doctor say you’ll be fine after some time? Don’t put too much pressure on yourself then. You’ll get better.” Adina leaned on his chest and nodded gently. “I’m not afraid of anything when you’re here with me.”

Duke gently stroked her soft black hair.

Addy had been to Hestia Border before. There were all kinds of crimes in that kind of place. He was worried that some people might have secretly plotted against her.

He had to invite a doctor from that place to come over and check what was going on. However, it had to be done secretly so that no more pressure was put on Addy again.

The night silently passed by. When the curtains were drawn the next day, Adina’s eyes glinted. It actually snowed last night.

Heavy snow had covered the entire courtyard. Snowflakes and frost blanketed the trees, and everywhere she looked, it was sparkling white. It was absolutely stunning.

Adina pushed open the window on the balcony and grabbed a handful of snow before she entered the room. Then, she climbed onto the bed and stuffed it into the back of the man’s neck.

“You little naughty girl!”

Duke took her by his arms and pinned her under him.

“Are you purposely provoking me early in the morning so that I’ll punish you?”

“Oh, no. Don’t kiss me! It tickles!” Adina avoided his kisses. “I’m sorry. I’m really sorry. How about you stick the snow on my neck too?”

“You clearly know that I can’t do that.” Duke kissed her on the face. “It’s snowing today, it’s freezing. Maybe you shouldn’t go to the banquet?”

“The reunion banquet was set a long time ago. How can I not go?” Adina nestled in his arms and spoke lazily. “It’s still early now. I’ll take a short nap.”

She closed her eyes and rested, but the man’s hands restlessly moved around her waist.

Adina patted him. “Don’t…”

There was a tough battle ahead at the Jones family's reunion banquet. She had to recuperate and build up her strength.

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 823

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children

Chapter 823

Chapter 823

Adina still did not escape Duke.

When she looked at the few dark red ickeys on her neck, she almost wanted to cry without tears.

"Duke Winters, you b*stard!"

She put on her makeup while she gritted her teeth and cursed.

Duke slowly put on a suit and seemed very satisfied with himself. "I'll send you over later."

Adina snorted and ignored him.

Luckily, the dress that Dillon had custom-made for her was relatively conservative, and it covered the hickeys on her neck. Hence, she was not afraid of people gossiping about her.

By the time she dressed up and went downstairs, Mr. Brown had sent the four kids to preschool. It was the end of November now. The kids would have a winter break in half a month, and it would be a brand-new year following the second half of that month.

Speaking of which, this was the first New Year's Eve that Adina would be spending with the kids in Cairnstan, and she secretly looked forward to it.

Duke sent Adina to the entrance of the hotel.

"Give me a call when it's almost over. I'll come and pick you up."

She heard the man's deep and husky voice in the car.

He actually wanted to attend the reunion banquet with her, but he knew that she had her own plans, so he could only let her go in alone to face everything.

“Don’t worry about me. Everything’s under control.”

After Adina gave him a goodbye kiss on the face, she pushed open the door and got out.

As soon as she stepped out of the car, the winter wind swept over her with bone–chilling coldness. She could not help but shiver.

It was freezing. Luckily, it had stopped snowing, or else that man would have definitely tried to stop her from attending the banquet.

Knowing that Duke was staring at her back, Adina held her breath and straightened her back. Then she walked toward the banquet hall calmly. Before she reached the door, she ran into the Xavier family members.

She had told Richard and Ethan long ago not to let Grandma come over. After all, Grandma was old, and it was freezing outside. If she came out, she would suffer.

Unexpectedly, Grandma still came, and Richard and Ethan supported her on each side.

“Grandma, why aren’t you resting at home?”

Adina quickly went forward, and Richard gave away his position on the left.

Mdm. Xavier held Adina’s hand, chuckled, and said, “It’s a big day for you. Of course I have to come and support you.”

Adina smiled helplessly. “Let’s go inside now. It’s warmer.”

As soon as she said that, she heard a sneer.

When she turned around, she saw Sophia’s mocking expression.

Sophia initially did not want to come, but the Gardner family insisted on her presence. They told her that the Jones family was big in Sea City, and it would be best if she could seek a connection.

It happened that the Xavier family was also attending the banquet, so she followed them.

However, when she saw how exquisitely and stunningly dressed Adina was, she felt uncomfortable again.

There were clearly two scars on Adina's face, and she clearly did not look as good as she used to, but why was she still the most dazzling one?

Adina smiled faintly, and her eyes shone brightly. "What are you scoffing at, Sophia?"

She had put on heavy makeup today to cover up her two scars, so only faint dark marks were visible.

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 824

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children

Chapter 824

Chapter 824 Her features were delicate and decent. She looked even more elegant and radiant with heavy makeup. Her face was gorgeous and dazzling as if she had just stepped out of a painting. Sophia felt more jealous, and she said with a fake smile, "Now I realize that pregnancy before marriage is inheritable. No wonder people always say, like mother, like daughter. Addy, you and your mother really come from the same family,"

Slap!

Halfway through her sentence, a crisp slap rang out on her cheek.

Sophia widened her eyes in disbelief. "Are you crazy, Adina? How dare you slap me?!"

She was about to rush over with her arms raised, but Richard yelled, "You just came to make a fool of yourself. Why do I have a daughter like you? Ethan, send her back to the Gardner family!"

Ethan quickly went forward. He pressed down Sophia's arms and softly said, "Sophia, there are many people here today. Don't cause trouble. I'm sending you home."

Adina rubbed her slightly numb fingertips and nonchalantly said, "Ethan, let go of her. Let her mess with me. We'll see if I'm more embarrassing or she is."

Sophia was furious.

This was not Adina's first time slapping her. It was fine the last time because it was in the Xavier family's mansion, so it was not that embarrassing.

However, countless eyes were watching them in public now. She was Mrs. Gardner, and her own cousin actually slapped her.

"Everyone knows that you hate me, but as a junior, you shouldn't talk badly about my mother," Adina said indifferently. "I have two bottom lines. The first is my kids, and the second is my mother. Do you remember them clearly?"

Her condescending tone was filled with an implied threat, which enraged Sophia even more.

Before she could curse back, Ethan pulled her away." Sophia, don't make a fuss here. The bigger the fuss you make, the worse it will be for you. The Gardner , Xavier, Jones, and Winters families will despise you."

Ethan put Sophia in the car and drove away.

Mdm. Xavier shook her head and sighed. "Sophia is getting more and more unreasonable. Ever since she married into the Gardner family, she no longer sides with the Xavier family."

Richard said, "I asked her to get an early divorce, but she refused. If this goes on, I don't know what will become of her in the future."

Adina did not want to show too much concern about Sophia's matter.

She supported Mdm. Xavier into the venue. As soon as they reached the entrance, Dillon quickly went out to receive them. He was welcoming the guests inside when he heard from a servant that something had happened at the entrance. Feeling upset, he suddenly felt that he should have waited at the entrance and personally brought Addy in.

"Addy, are you alright?" Dillon greeted Adina first before he looked at the Xavier family members. "Mdm. Xavier, Mr. Xavier, thank you for coming."

Mdm. Xavier looked at Dillon closely.

She did not understand why her well-behaved daughter had gotten involved with Dillon before getting married.

However, it had happened more than two decades ago, so she did not have to question Dillon about it.

Dillon then led Mdm. Xavier and Adina into the banquet hall.

Adina thought that other Jones family members would not attend. Unexpectedly, she saw Mr. Jones and Zhenny, as well as Jasmine, greeting the guests.

Due to Mr. Jones' presence, the reunion banquet was held on a big scale. Almost half of the noble and reputable rich ladies in Sea City were there.

As soon as Adina walked in through the door, nearly everyone cast their sights on her.

There were two scars on the face of the former most beautiful woman in Sea City as the news said.

The scars were slightly faded thanks to her makeup, but they still made her gorgeous face a little less pretty.

People in the banquet hall subconsciously started whispering into each other's ears.

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 825

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children

Chapter 825

Chapter 825 "Her face is really ruined. She isn't as beautiful as before."

"Even if the scars can be repaired with plastic surgeries, she won't have that natural face anymore. What a shame."

"I didn't expect Adina to be the illegitimate daughter of the Jones family too. This is breaking news."

"Most importantly, we didn't hear anything about it before the reunion banquet. I only realized that the Jones family was holding a reunion banquet after I arrived at the banquet hall."

"Adina's current status is amazing. She's the only daughter of the Jones family, a relative of the Xavier family, and Mdm. Winters..."

"Mdm. Winters? I don't think so. No one from the Winters family came tonight. Clearly, Adina's falling out with them."

"It's true! We've been here so long, but I haven't seen a single member of the Winters family."

"They aren't divorced, are they?"

Adina did not even raise her brows as all kinds of whispers came from her surroundings.

When she decided to hold the reunion banquet, she already expected this situation, and she did not care. Dillon lowered his voice and asked, "Addy, why isn't anyone from the Winters family coming?"

Adina smiled faintly and said, "Dad, don't worry. Duke and I are very close. I asked him not to come."

Dillon silently sighed.

He guessed that Addy made up such a white lie to make him feel at ease.

He would need to treat Addy much better and find her a better man...

At this time...

About four reporters carrying cameras and microphones suddenly rushed over from the corner of the banquet hall.

"Ms. Daugherty, it's rumored that you and Mr. Winters are already divorced. Can you tell us what the real situation is?"

"Mr. Winters didn't show up for an important occasion like the Jones family's reunion banquet today. Does this mean there's a problem in your marriage?"

"Ms. Daugherty, you're still wearing a wedding ring. Does this mean that you're still holding on to this marriage?"

The questions from the reporters came one after another.

Adina cast a glance at the oceanic blue diamond ring on her finger, and she smiled faintly.

The ring had been properly placed in the cabinet previously, and she only put it on again after Duke returned.

That man's original wedding ring had long been lost, so she custom-made a new identical ring for him.

When she lowered her head and looked at the ring, everyone could see the reluctance, nostalgia, regret, and gloom she felt. There had to be something wrong with their marriage for her to wear such an expression.

“Who allowed you to come in? Security guards, kick these reporters out!” Dillon yelled in anger, and about eight security guards instantly rushed in to bring the four reporters out.

He had enhanced the security measures in this banquet because he was afraid that reporters would rush in and ask some strange questions. Unexpectedly, something still went wrong.

He looked at Adina apologetically. “I’m sorry, Addy. It’s all because of my negligence.”

Madam Winters’s Fight For Her Children Chapter 826

Madam Winters’s Fight For Her Children

Chapter 826

Chapter 826 “Uncle, what does the reporter’s intrusion have to do with you? What did you do wrong?” Jasmine smiled and said, “It’s mainly because the divorce between Addy and her husband is too confusing. Everyone is curious. Addy, why don’t you take this opportunity today to solve the puzzle for us?”

She called Adina “Addy,” but her voice was filled with a hidden coldness.

Adina curled her lips into a bright faint smile. “Jas, if you can tell everyone about your pursuit of men, I don’t mind sharing with everyone about what happened between my husband and me.”

Right after she said that, Jasmine’s expression completely darkened.

She had always been the one courting Flint, but she never won him over at all. If that was exposed, she would be totally embarrassed.

Jasmine was afraid that Adina would expose her private business, so she obediently stopped talking.

Dillon then led Adina to the spotlight.

He held a microphone and spoke in good spirits, “Hello. Thank you for attending the Jones family’s reunion banquet despite having a busy schedule. I've invited you here today because I want you to witness a very important thing for me."

He took a deep breath before he held Adina's hand and said, "This is my long-lost daughter, and after so many years, she has officially returned to me. From today onward, she will become a part of the Jones family." "Congratulations on having a daughter!"

"Congratulations on having found your long-lost daughter, Mr. Dillon Jones!"

"Congratulations on having one more granddaughter, Mr. Jones!"

Everyone rejoiced and congratulated them. Regardless of whether they were sincere or hypocritical, it looked like a joyful occasion at least.

Since Mr. Jones attended the reunion banquet, it meant that he had already convinced himself to accept his long lost granddaughter. He took out an antique sandalwood box from his pocket. "This is something that all descendants of the Jones family have. You can keep it."

Adina did not hold back either. She accepted it and spoke with a smile, "Thank you, Grandpa."

When she called Mr. Jones "Grandpa," his expression improved slightly.

The Jones family only had one descendant, Daniel. He did not have any siblings. Now that there was one granddaughter, the Jones family had become more prosperous.

"Addy, this is my gift for you." Zhenny flashed her a friendly smile. "We've known each other through conflicts, but we're a family now. If you need any help, just let me know."

The plagiarism incident had been a big fuss, and many people in Sea City knew about it. When Zhenny said that, the incident was easily put behind.

Adina did not mind it too and accepted the gift. "Thank you, Aunt Zhenny," she said with a smile.

She fiddled with the two gifts in her hands, and after she paused for a few seconds, she continued to smile and say, "Am I considered a member of the Jones family now?"

"Of course," Dillon quickly answered. "If you like 'Jones,' we'll change your family name tomorrow. If you don't like it, you can continue using 'Daugherty' as your family name. Our family doesn't mind it."

When Jasmine heard his words, she pursed her lips.

Since her family name was Yackley, her grandpa did not trust her. He even told her that she had to change her family name to Jones after she officially became the heir of Jones Corporation.

Grandpa still treated her as an outsider and only allowed her to be the heir because Daniel was a disappointment.

Adina stopped smiling and seriously asked, "May I ask, aside from being a member of the Jones family, are there any other additional conditions to compete for the election of the Jones family heir?"

Despite her soft tone, her question struck Jasmine and Zhenny's heart like a heavy hammer.

1

Even Dillon was stunned. He stuttered when he asked, "Addy, what—what do you mean?"

Adina chuckled. "I'm just wondering if I'm qualified to run as one of the family's heirs."

"You wish!" Jasmine instantly lost her cool. "You're just an illegitimate daughter with low status, but you want to become the heir of the Jones family. Who gave you the audacity?"

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 827

Chapter 827 Jasmine's response made Dillon's expression turn completely cold. "Even you can run for the heir position when you're not a member of the Jones family.

Why can't Addy?" His gaze was disapproving.

"Besides, Addy is the real Ms.

Jones.

If I hear the term 'illegitimate daughter' again, I'm going to ask you to stop calling me 'Uncle.'" T Jasmine widened her eyes in disbelief.

Uncle Dillon had always pampered her the most, and he would give her the best.

However, he was saying such cruel things to her now.

Adina was clearly an illegitimate daughter.

Why could she not say that? LLLLL Just as she was about to refute, Zhenny stopped her.

Zhenny's expression was also sullen.

She knew that nothing good would come of it when Adina suddenly wanted to return to the Jones family.

Despite that, she did not expect the little b*stard to actually have such a plan.

Dillon and Zhenny had been close siblings about twenty years ago, and she knew slightly about Dillon's relationship with Olivia.

She even knew that Dillon pampered and protected Olivia like a treasure, but she did not know why Olivia ended up marrying another man.

When Dillon discovered that Olivia was married, he became depressed for at least two years.

Upon Olivia's accidental passing not long after that, Dillon felt dejected for about eight years.

During that time, Zhenny slowly gained her father's trust and gradually took over Jones Corporation's core project.

She was aware of how much Dillon loved Olivia, so she knew how much he would love their daughter just as much.

Therefore, as long as Adina wanted something, Dillon would definitely give it to her.

Zhenny breathed in before she calmly said, "Addy, you've just returned to the Jones family, and you haven't settled many things.

We'll talk about being the heir later." Her words snapped most of the people out of their daze.

Daniel's withdrawal from the competition some time ago had also been on the local news in Sea City.

In the end, Jasmine, the niece, became the only candidate for the heir.

Now, the first thing that the family's illegitimate daughter asked following her return was about being the heir.

Everyone in the hall watched the show.

“Adina’s so shameless.

It’s only her first day back with the Jones family, yet she wants to be the heir.

How shameful can she be?” “She’s really using all means to get the Jones family’s property.

I can tell she’s been raised in the wrong way.

Mr.

Jones must regret holding this banquet.

She has embarrassed the Jones family.” “In that case, Adina and Duke have truly gotten divorced, or else she wouldn’t want the Jones family’s property.” “Even if she wants their property, she should take it slow.

She’s in such a hurry to be the heir.

Isn’t she afraid of other people knowing her intentions?” The guests discussed it in low murmurs, but Dillon still heard their voices.

Dillon indifferently said, “Addy is the descendent of the Jones family, so she is qualified to be in the running.

It’s what Addy deserves, so outsiders can stop barking.” “Unde, can’t you see Adina’s intentions?” Jasmine could no longer hold back.

She angrily said, “She’s only willing to rejoin the Jones family because she wants to be the heir! Her ambition is so obvious.

You’re the one who still believes that she wants you to be her father!”

“What about you? Why are you trying to be the heir, then?” A displeased Dillon asked her in return.

As an elder, he did not want to confront his junior in public, but Jasmine really let him down.

His love for her LIL for so many years had been a waste.

Jasmine was stumped by the question, but it did not take long for her to firmly reply, “That’s because Daniel gave his chance up, so I have to take his place.

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 828

Chapter 828 "Haha!" Adina could not help but laugh. She did not expect Jasmine to be so shameless. Jasmine had done something to force Daniel to quit the competition, yet she managed to make herself sound righteous.

"What are you laughing at?" Jasmine glared at Adina as though she wanted to kill her.

"I'm laughing at your tainted perception because you think everyone is the same as you." Adina smiled and spoke leisurely.

"Jones Corporation should be succeeded by the members of the Jones family, not by a Yackley.

In my opinion, no one is more suitable than Daniel to be the heir.

It doesn't matter if he has quit.

I'm his sister, so I have the obligation to keep the position for him."

Her words were sonorous and powerful, which caused Daniel's heart to tremble.

He would not have expected Adina to say something like that.

He recalled the situation when he ran into Adina in the Jones family's mansion that afternoon, and she just asked him about this.

She suddenly told their father that she wanted to hold a reunion banquet only after he admitted the reason he quit trying to be the heir.

At that moment, Daniel suddenly understood why she wanted to run for the heir.

Perhaps she wanted to keep this position for him, but she actually did not want to owe him.

Was she considering him as an outsider or was she sincerely protecting this half-brother? Daniel's expression looked slightly complicated.

"You're really good at defending yourself!" Jasmine angrily said, "Daniel and you are stepsiblings, and you didn't see him for so many years.

Would you have a sibling for him? You're saying this shamelessly because of your own desire and wanting to inherit everything of the Jones family..." "Jasmine!" Daniel coldly interrupted her.

“Of course you wouldn’t know whether my sister and I have the brotherly camaraderie.

I can protect my sister, so my sister will naturally stand up for me.

We are the true siblings, and you...

are just an outsider.”

“You...

You!”

Jasmine angrily stomped.

Zhenny pulled Jasmine in time.

She was afraid that Jasmine would blurt out something irreversible again.

“Mom, why are you stopping me?” Jasmine took a deep breath and angrily asked, “I’ve pampered this cousin of mine for many years, yet he’s cooperating with an outsider to push me out.

I won’t spare him so easily.” “Do you want him to expose the reason he quit the competition for the heir?” Zhenny gritted her teeth and said softly.

“Even if he exposes it, so what? Adina is the one who gets embarrassed.

She cheated in her marriage.

She’ll be drowned by people’s criticism!” Jasmine ruthlessly said.

“Even if she is exposed, you can just laugh at her for a few days.

Do you know what you will lose? You set your cousin up with a method, and this is a capital offense for your grandfather.

You will lose the position of the heir!” Zhenny said in disappointment.

Jasmine suddenly understood it.

Daniel had always been the most important to her grandpa

If her grandpa found out that she had forced Daniel to compromise, he would hate her.

Stop quarreling,” Mr.

Jones spoke in time, and his gaze was indifferent and dignified.

“Addy is the descendent of the Jones family, so she is qualified to run for the heir of Jones Corporation.

Madam Winters’s Fight For Her Children Chapter 829

Chapter 829 Zhenny’s expression instantly darkened.

When that b*stard, Adina, mentioned Daniel’s name, she knew that her father would agree.

Indeed , Daniel was the most suitable candidate to him.

“Dad is right,” Zhenny softly added. “Jasmine is still young and immature, so please don’t mind her, Dad. Regarding the matter of the heir, we can confirm the details when Jones Corporation has a meeting later. What do you think?”

Mr. Jones nodded. “We’ll discuss the matter later.”

Adina smiled faintly.

She brought this up at the banquet because she was afraid that the Jones family would go back on their word.

Now that many people were witnesses. Even if Mr. Jones changed his mind later on or Zhenny cheated, it would be impossible to change anything.

She was determined to obtain the heir position.

The farce ended hurriedly, and the banquet continued , but people in the banquet hall looked at Adina with more disdain and curiosity.

Mdm. Xavier held Adina’s hand and whispered, “Addy, even if it’s for your brother, you shouldn’t have been so rash and made yourself everyone’s target.”

“Grandma, I never care about what people think.” Adina smiled and softly said, “Since I grew up, I have been discussed by all kinds of people. If I cared about these comments, I would have been drowned by their criticism.”

Mdm. Xavier sighed. “Is it worth it to help a half brother?”

Adina had also asked herself before if it was worth it.

Perhaps the warmth she experienced over these years was too little, so she would be touched because of what Daniel did.

She was running to become heir not only for Daniel, but also for Dillon.

Dillon was dispirited for nearly ten years because her mother accidentally died, and he lost the right to speak in the Jones family. He had been suppressed by Zhenny.

Her father was not very capable, but he was doing his best to protect her.

“Please rest assured , Mdm. Xavier. I will protect Addy.” Dillon walked over and seriously promised, “Addy is the only daughter Olivia and I have. I will protect her with my life.”

When Mdm. Xavier looked at Dillon, she suddenly became absentminded.

When she saw Dillon, she remembered her daughter, and her emotion instantly became gloomy.

Richard softly said, “The banquet is almost over. I'll send you back first.”

Mdm. Xavier was old and ill, and she was a little tired after she came out for so long. She just nodded and let Richard help her to leave first.

Dillon's gaze was complicated as he said, “Addy, you should've told me about this in advance.”

In that way, he would be able to arrange the matter related to the heir perfectly so that Addy would not become the target of public criticism.

Adina smiled faintly and said, “Dad, Zhenny is controlling Jones Corporation. Even if you secretly handle it, those experienced shareholders can still vote me down when there is a shareholder meeting. It is only when being watched by so many people that I can properly enter Jones Corporation and run for the heir. Don't worry, Dad. I'm not interested in the position of the heir.

I just think that Daniel should not be suppressed by Jasmine.”

“Addy, if have what it takes to become the heir, then the position should belong to you,” Dillon said earnestly.” Daniel has his own opportunities and life. You don't have to think about him.”

LLLLL

Adina indifferently smiled and said, "We'll talk about it again. I might not be able to become the heir." She had Daugherty Corporation and LaStar Technology Corporation under her name, and the children's companies required her management sometimes. She was so busy every day that she simply did not have the energy to manage Jones Corporation.

She came to run for the heir merely because she had a personal grudge against Zhenny and Jasmine.

The feeling of settling her grudge with official work was really good.

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 830

Chapter 830

Adina pursed her lips and took a sip of the champagne. It was a fine wine with a mellow and refreshing taste.

The reunion banquet ended quietly.

Dillon wanted to send Adina back, but she rejected him with a smile. "Duke is waiting for me outside. Dad, you better talk to Grandpa. He's been watching you."

Dillon turned around and saw that Mr. Jones was really looking at him. He helplessly said, "Be careful on the road. Send me a message when you get home."

Adina nodded. She lifted the hem of her dress while walking out of the banquet hall.

At this time, almost all the guests left. As soon as she reached the door, she was stopped by someone.

LI u

She raised her eyebrows slightly. "Jasmine, what are you doing?"

Jasmine gritted her teeth and said, "Adina Daugherty, you insist on standing up against me, right?"

Adina chuckled, "I don't understand what you're talking about."

"You stole Flint, fine. Why do you still want to compete against me for the position of heir?" Jasmine said in

The guests left, and only the members of the Jones family were there.

Mr. Jones looked very stern. He stared at Dillon. "Is this your idea?"

"Addy is excellent, and she is also suitable to be the heir of the Jones family." Dillon did not deny it. He indifferently said, "She started her own company, and she acquired and integrated Daugherty Corporation. LaStar Technology Corporation is gradually emerging in Sea City now, so we don't have to question her business ability at all."

"But her status is slightly awkward," Zhenny indifferently said, "If an illegitimate daughter becomes the heir, the outsiders will definitely say there is no other member in the Jones family."

Dillon cast an indifferent gaze over. "If we let Ms. Yackley become the heir, will the outsiders not criticize US?"

Zhenny's words were stuck in her throat.

Jasmine knew that she could not act unreasonably, so she started acting pitifully. "Uncle, now you have your own daughter, so are you not going to pamper me anymore?"

"Addy is your cousin. If you respect her, I will naturally pamper you," Dillon indifferently said.

Jasmine angrily clenched her fists.

Adina was really too b*tchy! She did not just steal the one she loved, but she threw her family into a mess!

She would not reconcile with Adina!

1

1

1

Adina wanted to compete for the heir, right? Oh, Jasmine would rather both of them lose than let that little b*stard succeed!