

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 946-950

Chapter 946

Adina's gaze turned dark. She raised her leg and kicked Sean in the stomach.

She did not want to defend Sophia, but she hated seeing a jerk who protected his mistress and abused his wife like that.

She exerted 90% of her strength into her leg, kicking Sean onto the road. It forced an oncoming car to stop.

"Adina... Adina Daugherty... You... Have I offended you?" Sean covered his chest and seemed furious. "The news was right. You have a tendency to act violently. You simply hit anyone as you like with the support of the Winters family."

Duke clenched his fists gently, and the sound of his knuckles cracking was clear. "Since you know that the Winters family supports her, you better keep your mouth shut." He smiled maliciously.

Sean was enraged.

He could take Adina on, and he would be even less of an opponent if Duke got involved.

He covered his chest and lay on the floor as he groaned in pain.

Duke looked to the side at Adina. He saw that she was staring ahead in a daze and her fists were tightly clenched.

He sighed and walked over. "It's fine. Let's go home."

He did not think that Addy was wrong. They did not have to show mercy when dealing with a man like Sean!

"Aria, hurry up and call me an ambulance!" Sean lay on the floor and had a feeling that the kick had broken his ribs. His mistress, Aria, walked over and coldly said, "You offended Mr. Winters and his wife, so the Winters family won't spare you. This is the end of our relationship." "You!" Sean could not believe it. "All this was because of you..." "Don't say such nonsense!" Aria stared at him with disdain. "We were just a monetary transaction. Since you've offended the Winters family, you'll definitely be poor in the future. Do you think I'll still be with you? Seany, I'm going to leave first. Take care."

She then walked away proudly. "B*tch! Winch!"

Sean nearly fainted from anger.

Sophia had been enjoying the show. She walked over and stepped on Sean's lap before she bent down with a chuckle and said, "This is your karma! Sean Gardner, this is karma! Haha!"

Sean had abused her for so many years, and this was the first time that she ever felt avenged! Sean wanted to raise his hand and slap her again, but when he moved, there was a ripping pain in his chest. He could not move at all!

He was finally certain that Adina's kick must have broken his ribs.

He took a deep breath "Call the ambulance! Call the ambulance now!"

"Haha! If you think I'll call an ambulance for you?" Sophia patted his angry face. "Sean Gardner, I'm divorcing you after your discharge."

She had already made up her mind. She did not want this kind of marriage anymore!

She stood up, turned around, and slowly walked far into the distance,

Sean's anger was about to knock him out.

He turned around and looked at the luxurious car, which had been forced to stop. "Hurry, call me an ambulance!" The driver was also a nearby resident, so he naturally knew Duke as well.

Chapter 947

Besides, this man had a mistress and beat his wife. A jerk like that was undoubtedly despicable! Therefore, the driver started the engine, and the car immediately disappeared into the distance.

Sean could not breathe deeply, and he nearly suffocated. After lying on the ground for more than ten minutes, a cleaner finally found him by the roads and sent him to the hospital.

The night sky grew darker, and Duke held Adina's cold hand as they walked on the winding mountain road.

Adina only spoke after a long time. "Duke, I realize that I'm losing control over my emotions. I should go and see a doctor tomorrow."

She had actually seen many doctors and eaten plenty of medication, but nothing alleviated her symptoms at all. "Addy, you're a sympathetic girl. Whenever you see a situation like that, you naturally can't control your emotions. I don't think you were wrong." she heard Duke whisper softly. "If the same thing happens again, I still hope that you'll step in." Adina was stunned for a second. "Do you think I lose control over my emotions and have a tendency for violence? Aren't you afraid that I'll punch you one day?"

Right after she spoke, she chuckled in resignation. When she was manipulated by the biochip, she would always bite him. There were still tooth marks on the back of his hand, his shoulder, and his chest.

This man was not afraid of being injured by her.

“Addy, no matter what you become, you’ll still be the person I love. No matter what happens to you, I’ll always be with you, just like...” Duke’s voice grew more tender. “Just like a month ago, when you brought the kids abroad to look for me. You just had a tiny hope, yet you were able to find me from a sea of people. Now that I can hold you and have you for real, why would I leave you?”

Adina’s anxious heart finally settled.

After they went home, Duke held Adina in his arms, and they enjoyed the night once more. It was a quiet night, but the news on the Internet started to brew again. It had been less than three hours since Zhenny’s clarification during the day, and Adina’s name was in the headlines again.

Sean’s ward was surrounded by countless reporters. He did not allow the security guards to chase them away. Instead, he found a comfortable sitting position as the reporters interviewed him.

“Mr. Gardner, are you telling the truth?”

“Haha! There are surveillance cameras on the road. If you look into this, you’ll find out whether I’m lying or not.” Sean covered his chest and angrily said, “Adina Daugherty really has a tendency for violence. She kicked me and broke two of my ribs. Every word of mine is real and supported by the injury assessment report!” “May I ask why Ms. Daugherty hit you?” Sean pulled a face. “I’m not going to mention the exact reason. Anyway, it’s true that she hit me, and I’m really injured! Didn’t Mdm. Jones, the former CEO of Jones Corporation say the same thing this morning? Adina likely has some sort of violent personality disorder. She even dares to hit her own aunt, more so a passerby like me! Gardner Corporation isn’t a big company, so we’re too afraid to stand up to Winters Corporation. My interview will definitely be removed tomorrow. If I suddenly show up and apologize tomorrow, the Winters family must have threatened me.”

Sean’s interview spread to every corner of the country through the Internet. Most of the younger crowd would stay up till 2:00 am. Tonight, this news and numerous hot topics related to Adina trended repeatedly. Due to Adina’s emotional agitation, Duke would turn off their phones when they went to sleep. Nothing was more important than Addy’s health. Therefore, Duke only discovered that the incident last night had ended up on the news the next morning.

He checked on Adina who was still sleeping before he gently walked to the study. There, he saw Alden sitting in front of his desk while speedily tapping across the keyboard.

Chapter 948

Alden was wearing a pair of checkered pajamas, yet the lazy, casual outfit could not hide the ruthlessness in his eyes.

He pursed his lips and coldly said, "I've already blocked the surveillance footage, but Sean Gardner's interview has been reposted more than millions of times, so it's incredibly hard to delete it completely."

Every time he removed one, a few hundred would pop up at the same time, so he could not remove them all.

Duke walked over and calmly said, "Removing the footage isn't the solution for this." Alden nodded. "If Mommy isn't cured, this will keep happening. Daddy, you won't be able to cover it up one day."

Duke cast a glance at Alden.

It looked like Alden still had not given up on the blood replacement treatment.

Duke pursed his lips. "Let's solve this first."

He sat in front of the desk and made a few calls.

"Jake, acquire 20% of Gardner Corporation's retail shares in three hours. Don't worry about the price."

"Mr. Gardner, you should know why I'm giving you a call without an explanation."

"Mdm. Xavier...."

Mdm. Xavier rarely watched the entertainment news in the Xavier family's mansion. She only knew that something serious had happened after she received a call from Duke. No wonder Sophia had returned to the Xavier family's mansion last night and stayed overnight. It turned out that this incident had occurred.

After Mdm. Xavier hung up, she saw Sophia walk down the stairs with an anxious face. Her expression turned cold. "Come here." "Grandma." Sophia walked over. "I still have many things to do. I'll come and talk to you later."

"Tell me what you're planning to do." Mdm. Xavier leaned back in her chair, and an imposing aura filled her blurry eyes. "What happened last night? Explain everything clearly!" "I..."

Sophia lowered her head and bit her bottom lip. She only saw the news when she woke up and scrolled through her phone in the morning. (Sean has been admitted to the hospital with severe injuries, and he has been interviewed by the reporters. Adina's violent personality is once again being discussed by the netizens.) It had been five hours from midnight until now, and this news had already surpassed the scandals of popular celebrities because it was ranked number one on the trending list.

“Duke just called me,” Mdm. Xavier said indifferently. “Addy hit Sean, her cousin-in-law because he and his mistress mistreated you. Now that Addy is being criticized by the netizens, you know what you should do, right?” Sophia pursed her lips. “I was going to see the reporters in the hospital. Grandma, I would do it even if you didn’t ask me.”

She did hate Adina and disliked Adina’s self-righteous behavior. She even hated Adina for receiving all of their grandma’s love despite the fact that her family name was not Xavier. However, all that was beside the point since Adina had helped her vent her anger and avenged her last night, she had an obligation to explain things for Adina today, The hospital where Sean stayed was surrounded by reporters.

It was only when Mr. Gardner came with the bodyguards that the reporters were finally chased.

“B*stard!” When Mr. Gardner walked into the ward, he gave Sean a hard slap on the face. “Do you know how seriously you’ve messed up?”

“Grandpa, my ribs were broken. You didn’t ask me if I’m in pain after you arrived in the hospital, but you slapped me instead. Am I your grandson?” Sean angrily said, “Since the Gardner family isn’t seeking justice for me, can’t I think of a solution?”

“This is your so-called solution?! Gardner Corporation is going bankrupt because of you!” Mr. Gardner slapped him again. “Get an interview and openly apologize now. Just say that Duke Winters hit you because you offended Mdm. Winters!”

“Wow! The surveillance camera shot everything clearly. It’s useless even if I lie and apologize!” Sean said through gritted teeth.

“The surveillance camera on the road was broken last night, and it wasn’t repaired on time, so it didn’t film that scene,” Mr. Gardner took a deep breath and said, “Just apologize. Don’t go against the winters family. The Gardner family can’t afford it.”

Sean was not willing to, but he was forced to go with it because of Mr. Gardner’s glare.

Right then, the bodyguard outside hurriedly walked in. “Mrs. Gardner is being interviewed by the reporters in front of the hospital.”

Mr. Gardner narrowed his eyes. “What is she doing here?”

“That b*ich wouldn’t dare say anything!” Sean snorted and said, “I had an affair a few years ago, but she never made a scene in order to continue being Mrs. Gardner. I’ve cut off ties with the mistress, To please me, she’ll definitely defend me in front of the media. Besides, her relationship with Adina is horrible. This is the time for her to add fuel to the fire!”

Mr. Gardner’s expression changed. “Go and stop her from being interviewed now!”

If the situation worsened, a conflict would be formed between the Gardner family and the Winters family!

Winters Corporation now had more than 20% of Gardner Corporation's retail shares. If they did anything, Gardner Corporation would instantly go bankrupt.

"Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Gardner doesn't seem to be defending the Gardner family."

The bodyguard handed him the live stream video.

Sophia's face was zoomed in on the screen, and her tears were streaming down her cheeks.

"I'm Sophia Xavier, and I'm also Mrs. Gardner. Many people envy me, but they don't know how my life has been.

"Ever since I married Sean Gardner, I've suffered. The year that I got pregnant, I found out that he had an affair for the first time. I was pregnant with the Gardner family's descendant, and he was afraid that I would give birth prematurely out of anger, so he was slightly restrained. But after the baby was born, he became completely fearless. He would always bring other women back to the Gardner family's home. Whenever his mistresses entered our house, my parents-in-law would never criticize him at all.

"I was worried that my parents would worry and my old grandmother would fall sick in anger because of me, so I didn't dare tell anyone about this. I've been bearing all of this secretly. Perhaps people will ask me why I didn't get a divorce. When you become a mother, you'll realize how difficult it is to get a divorce when you have a kid. Everyone hopes for their children to grow up in a complete family unit and have both parents

"I'm just an ordinary woman and mother. I put up with everything each day for my child's sake.

"But today, I can't take it anymore!"

Sophia wiped her tears, and her gaze became firm. "What happened last night finally made me understand that if I really love my child, I should cut ties with a man like this. I should divorce him and leave with my child!"

The reporters caught the key phrase and kept asking, "Mrs. Gardner, may I know what happened last night?"

"I was there when Sean was hit last night," Sophia said softly. "I heard that the surveillance camera nearby was broken, so let me restore the truth for you.

“I drove there to meet Addy. Then, we met Sean hanging out there with his mistress. I’m his wife, so when I saw him flirting with his mistress, I instantly lost it. Hence, I rushed over without thinking. Look, there’s still a palm print on my face. Sean slapped me.”

Chapter 950

“Sean enjoys drinking. Every time he drinks, he tends to act violently. He has beaten me up many times in the Gardner family’s mansion. Each time he beats me up, others in the Gardner family just coldly watch. Aside from my son, nobody protects me, but last night... Addy shielded me.” Sophia chuckled in resignation. “I’m actually not on good terms with Addy, but when I was abused, she was the first to stand up for me.

“Besides slapping other women and me, Sean tried to slap Addy too. Addy was forced to hit Sean to protect herself and me.

“Sean’s an adult male. When a weak woman like Addy kicked him, he flew to the road. I have reason to suspect that he faked it. He probably wanted to take advantage of the Winters family.”

When Adina woke up, she saw Sophia’s live stream interview.

She was really surprised about Sophia showing up to clarify things on her behalf.

After all, ever since her return from abroad, Sophia had mocked her every time she visited the Xavier family. She even thought that Sophia would just watch the show from the side.

Adina put on a jacket and exited the room as she heard sounds of tapping on the keyboard from the study next door. She leaned on the door while she watched Alden tirelessly remove the news related to her online.

While Sophia had shown up to clarify, the heat from the news did not dissipate.

Many netizens were shocked.

(Zhenny was hit yesterday morning, and Sean was hit last night. It was the same person who hit them. It was Adina!)

(I think Adina really tends toward violence. There’s a term for those with a violent personality. Whenever her emotions are triggered, she solves the problem with violence.)

(I’m a staff of the company next to LaStar Technology Corporation. A week ago, Adina lost her temper with her staff during a company meeting. The head of the Technical Department was nearly admitted to the hospital as a result of being hit.)

(What the f*ck?! Is she that violent?) (Does she have any disorder?) [She looks quite pretty, but unexpectedly, she has a personality defect.] (Living with a person like that must be terrifying. I pity Duke Winters.] [Those four poor kids.) Adina stood in the corridor of the study, and her heart suddenly felt empty.

She kept causing trouble, while Duke and the kids kept cleaning up her mess.

Her life was quite calm, but the lives of Duke and the kids were chaotic because of her.

She looked down and walked downstairs.

“Mommy!” George called out to her. “Daddy made breakfast. Come on and eat, Mommy.” Adina smiled faintly. “Thank you, Georgie. Where are Hal and Mel?” “They went to build a snowman in the courtyard.”

Adina only noticed that it was snowing again when she raised her head. The weather in early spring was warm and cold. When it snowed, it felt like late winter again.

The house was very well-heated, but Adina suddenly felt a little cold.

“Mommy, put on this thin blanket.” George took a thin blanket and put it on her back. Adina caressed his head. “Mommy’s been neglecting you recently. Are you afraid of me now?”
