Chapter 18

Zhao Tong glanced at the office area and went back to the Secretary's office. He put down his bag and sat down.

The papers from the Ministry of personnel and the Ministry of finance were all piled up on the desk. Just as she wanted to pick up the one on the top and look through it, she suddenly realized something unusual.

Looking up, countless pairs of eyes are dripping at her body.

Xiao Li Zheng of the Secretariat gave her a silly smile. An accountant was pretending to be drinking water. Seeing that she noticed herself, she choked a few times and helped her forehead to look away, pretending to be calm.

What's going on here?

Why is everyone staring at her?

Zhao Tongxin doesn't care any more. She just feels that her mouth is dry. She picks up the tea cup on the table and goes to the tea room -

"I guess it's true. How many people can enter Jin's secretary department without an interview? People really come out by sleeping! A girl who looks pretty. I didn't expect to do this kind of business just after graduating from university

"Yes, but who would have thought that Mr. Jin, such a rich and mature boss, would have such an eye on such a small dish?"

In the tea room, the discussion goes on and on.

Zhao Tong Xin slowly stopped at the glass window, a look, see a few young women wearing tight hip skirt around the water dispenser to discuss what.

Around them, Mia was wearing a red windbreaker, tightly holding the cup in her hand, and her long narrow eyes burst out a sharp light.

The two who talked freely seemed to notice Mia's change and gave her a light push.

"Mia, don't be too angry. It's impossible for a rich boss like Mr. Jin to be idle to raise a small vegetable tooth. It's estimated that when he's tired of playing, he will naturally pay attention to you!"

After hearing this, Mia's face was even more blue.

If Zhao Tongxin doesn't understand who they are talking about, she is an idiot!

She is the only one who has just graduated from the University in the whole secretary department. She is the only one who is fresh and not charming. Do they regard her as a person who relies on the body?

She stroked the broken hair between her forehead to the back of her ear, bit her lip, took a few deep breaths, and stepped into the tea room.

Just then, Shi Shi ran, who had finished the rest in the tea room, walked out and bumped into his face awkwardly - except Mia, the other people's faces changed!

"Cough, by the way, I suddenly remember that I haven't finished the report that Secretary General ye asked me to make! I'll go first

"Oh! I have a pain in my stomach! How painful! I'll go to the bathroom. Hey, hey, talk slowly Slow down... "

I can't bear to look directly at my grandiose performance!

The women left one after another, leaving only Mia and Zhao Tongxin.

Zhao Tong's heart doesn't seem to see Mia's poisonous eyes. He plans to bypass Mia and go directly to the water dispenser.

But she just took a step, Mia took a right step, just stopped her.

her tall figure completely surpasses Zhao Tongxin's petite figure, and her five fingers hanging on her side are pinching tightly, which is obviously extremely angry.

When did she know that MIA had been wronged?

She used to be in the secretarial department for wind and rain, but today she has to be excluded by these women! Say something respectable, but which one is not laughing at her?

And all this is because, Zhao Tong heart!

"Secretary mia, excuse me. I'm thirsty. I want a glass of water." Zhao Tong's heart is neither humble nor overbearing, and he does not shy away from the provocative eyes of upper MIA.

She doesn't want to make trouble here, and even if these people speak ill of her behind her back, she doesn't want to retort.

Jin Zhengting said, this is her duty!

"Thirsty? Good Mia grins coldly and raises her hand. The hot coffee in the cup goes straight to Zhao Tongxin's face.

"I'll make you drink enough!"

Zhao Tong subconsciously closed his eyes and tilted his head. The warm coffee fell on her chest.

A few drops of coffee splashed on her smooth face, and her white shirt was stained with coffee and stuck to her skin.

Burning, she nearly bit her lower lip.

Seeing the appearance of Zhao Tongxin, Mia felt very happy in her heart. She said to Zhao Tongxin, "but she's just a bitch who depends on being raised by a man. She really treats herself like a green onion! Ah... "

The corner of MIA's mouth went up a radian unconsciously, and then she drank coldly, "good dog is not in the way, get out of the way!"

Said, she directly bumped into Zhao Tongxin's shoulder.

After a burst of pain, Zhao Tongxin only felt that her whole body had been knocked open, and she staggered two steps to the side.

When she came back to her mind, Mia had already left with her ponytail.

"Stop!" But just as MIA leisurely wanted to turn a corner and go to the rest room to pick up something, a slender hand suddenly pulled her arm from the back forward. Zhao Tong Xin quickly walked to her, regardless of the wet coffee juice, eyes firm, "you can't go!"
