

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 1181

Inside the courtyard, three figures soon appeared out of thin air, it was Lin Ran Li Ba as well as the old woman.

“Alright, the mother-in-law is in the courtyard, you guys can go straight there!”

The old man said calmly, and then turned to leave.

“Many thanks!”

Lin Ran bowed at the old woman before turning around and leading Li Ba towards the courtyard.

Inside the courtyard, Granny Plum Blossom was still sitting on her recliner, her face very peaceful.

If one were not in the Plum Blossom Sect, anyone in her place would not have thought that such an old woman would actually be the head of a sect.

“Arrived? Come in!”

Suddenly, Granny Plum Blossom sat up straight and shouted out at the courtyard.

“Granny really has good ears!”

A voice came over, followed by Lin Ran and Li Ba walking straight over.

“Granny has good ears, but unfortunately her eyes are as good as blind, otherwise she wouldn’t have missed a good talent like you a few years ago!”

Granny Meihua said with a bitter smile.

“Granny is joking!”

Lin Ran laughed helplessly.

“I’m not joking!”

Granny Plum Blossom, however, had a serious face as she recalled.

“The first time we met, it was still at the Ten Thousand Ren Ren Mountains, back then who would have thought that a kid with no clan or sect would dare to confront the Compulsion Pavilion, and even later overthrow it?”

“It was just a fluke!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“A fluke? If overthrowing the Compulsion Pavilion was a fluke, then punching the Yue Family was also a fluke?”

Granny Meihua laughed.

Back then, during the journey to the Ten Thousand Ren Mountains, their Plum Blossom Sect belonged to one of the three great powers.

And what about Lin Ran at that time? It was just a small ant that anyone could crush.

Not to mention the Yue Family at that time, even the Compulsion Pavilion could easily trample on him.

But such a small person had not only destroyed the Compulsion Pavilion, but now he had even defeated the Yue Family and dared not speak.

As for their Plum Blossom Sect, there was even less to say.

“Whenever I think of these things, I am deeply grateful that old woman, I am grateful that Lindsay and you were good friends back then, and that our Plum Blossom Sect did not cross paths with you!”

Granny Meihua lamented.

“Granny is joking, I’m sure granny knows what I’m here for this time, so why not tell me where she is?”

Lin Ran got straight to the point!

“She’s in our Plum Blossom Sect, only she can’t meet with you yet!”

Granny Plum Blossom said.

“Why?”

Lin Ran frowned.

“Because she has a choice to make!”

Granny Meihua looked at Lin Ran with determination in her eyes.

“What choice does granny want her to make?”

Lin Ran not only blushed ugly at the sight, he asked after her.

“It’s simple!”

Granny Meihua’s words also turned a few degrees colder as she spoke.

“I want her to inherit the position of the head of my Plum Blossom Sect!”

“That’s a good thing! But why are you imprisoning him?”

Lin Ran questioned.

To be able to inherit the Plum Blossom Sect, this was definitely a great opportunity for Ling Sa, but Lin Ran just couldn’t understand why he had to imprison Ling Sa when it was clearly a good thing.

“Because of you!”

Granny Plum Blossom looked at Lin Ran.

“Because of me?”

Lin Ran was stunned, not understanding why.

“For hundreds of years, my Plum Blossom Sect has always had a female headmaster, and when it came to my area it was no exception!”

“But do you know what the downside of a female headmaster is?”

Granny Plum Blossom looked at Lin Ran.

“What do you mean?”

Lin Ran frowned slightly, as if he thought of something.

“You know clearly in your heart! The biggest disadvantage of a female Sect Leader is marriage!”

“Once Lin Ran becomes the Sect Head, if she is still involved with you, it will inevitably put my Mei Hua Sect in a dilemma, something that the ancestors will definitely not allow to happen!”

Granny Plum Blossom looked at Lin Ran and said seriously.

“That’s why every candidate for the head of my Plum Blossom Sect has strict rules!”

“Either, they can’t marry for the rest of their lives, or the man must also be a Plum Blossom Party son or daughter!”

Speaking here, Granny Plum Blossom looked towards Lin Ran and solemnly said.

“So, now you have two choices, either join our Plum Blossom Sect, so that Lin Ran can also gain freedom and inherit the position of Sect Leader!”

“Either that! Just wait until after Lin Sha inherits the headship before you can meet!”

“Absolutely not!”

Lin Ran sniffed and waved his hand in refusal.

“The Xingwu Mountain date is near, Lin Sha and I are teammates in a squad, so we must come with me to Xingwu Mountain!”

Lin Ran said seriously.

“Lin Ran! You’re thinking too simply!”

Granny Plum Blossom, however, laughed and waved her hand.

“Although our Plum Blossom Sect is not as powerful as the Mystic Alliance? And no one is more powerful than you, does Ken know why our Plum Blossom Sect still has a spot to enter the Mystic Alliance to cultivate?”

Granny Plum Blossom laughed.

“Your Plum Blossom Sect and the Mysterious Alliance have cooperation!”

Lin Ran frowned.

“That’s right! You’re very clever! But there’s one thing you definitely wouldn’t have thought of!”

Granny Plum Blossom laughed.

“Actually, every time our Plum Blossom Sect chooses a disciple to send over, they are all candidates for the Plum Blossom Sect’s Sect Head!”

“So! For Ling Sa, she has the right not to go to Xing Wu Mountain to participate in the battle, and this is also the privilege given to our sect by the Mysterious Alliance!”

“Not to go and participate in the battle?”

Lin Ran was stunned at his words.

This choice was definitely unacceptable.

For example, back then, Yue Qunshan, he had left Qiong Hua Mountain without permission and had no intention of going to Xing Wu Mountain, once the time had passed what awaited him would definitely be the Mysterious Alliance’s retaliation.

But now, Lin Lin is different, she has the right to choose not to participate in the war, so that her personal safety is naturally also greatly protected.

At this moment, Lin Ran even hesitated whether he should still persist or not, after all, what he insisted on might put Ling Sa in deep danger.

“Now! Do you still think you’re doing her good?”

Granny Meihua looked at Lin Ran with a smile in her eyes.

Lin Ran was silent, for a long time, and suddenly he raised his head, a cold aura shooting out of his eyes.

“I demand that she be allowed to come out and make her own choice! If she is bent on staying in the Plum Blossom Sect, I, Lin Ran, have nothing to say! But if she doesn’t want to, you can’t stop her! No one can! And no one can stop her!”

Lin Ran’s voice was icy cold, and there was determination in his words.

“Huh! Lin Ran do you think she would still be imprisoned now if she was willing?”

Granny Plum Blossom’s face also turned icy cold.

“My Plum Blossom Sect, we pay tens of millions of dollars every year to earn a place to cultivate on Qiong Hua Mountain, and no one can bargain with our Plum Blossom Sect when it comes to the choice of the headship!”

“Not even Ling Sa! She came from the Plum Blossom Sect and grew up in the Plum Blossom Sect, it was all her fate!”

Said Granny Plum Blossom, looking towards Lin Ran with determination in her eyes.

“You may be strong, but don’t presume to challenge a sect, especially if you’re still in one! A clan’s depths are not something you can imagine!”

“If you want to fight to the death, I promise you! Even if you risk your life, you won’t be able to take Ling Sa away!”

“You!”

There was anger in Lin Ran’s eyes.

But he was also clear that at this point, coming to blows would not solve the problem at all.

Granny Meihua was right, never underestimate any clan, they must have their own merits if they could stand for so many years.

“Granny! How on earth will you let me see Ling Sa!”

Lin Ran’s eyes were cold as he looked at Granny Meihua and questioned.

“I said! No one can see her until she chooses!”

Granny Meihua’s voice was firm and irrefutable.

Chapter 1182

Lin Ran smiled at his words but laughed.

“Granny! I’m not stupid, what exactly do you want from me! Just say it directly, no more beating around the bush!”

Granny Plum Blossom was stunned at her words, and then actually laughed.

“Haha! Lin Ran is really Lin Ran, mind tricks are really useless in front of you!”

“What does Boss mean?”

On the side, Li Ba was listening in the clouds, not knowing what the two were playing at.

“Granny, tell me straight!”

Lin Ran was too lazy to beat around the bush and said directly.

“Good! Then the old woman will say it straight!”

With a wave of Granny Meihua’s palm, an array appeared out of thin air and wrapped the two of them in it, so that even Li Ba was not qualified to listen to the conversation below.

“Shit! The old woman here actually doesn’t trust Master Eight!”

Li Bajie couldn’t help but say.

But there was nothing he could do about it,? He had to turn around and come to the side and wait patiently.

Inside the formation, Lin Ran stood with his hands folded, looking at the Plum Blossom Granny in front of him with a bland expression.

“Since the founding of my Plum Blossom Sect? Do you know how many years it has been?”

Granny Meihua suddenly spoke.

“I don’t know!”

Lin Ran shook his head.

“Then would you believe me when I tell you that my Plum Blossom Sect actually belongs to the same period as the Fire Family and the Li Family?”

Granny Plum Blossom laughed.

“What?”

Lin Ran was stunned at his words.

The Plum Blossom Sect actually belonged to the same period as the Fire Family and the Li Family, that was a bit of a time span.

“I’ve seen your surprised expression too many times, and many people don’t believe it! But our Plum Blossom Sect was indeed once a great sect alongside the Fire Family, the Li Family and even the Nan Yang Dragon Family!”

Granny Plum Blossom said proudly.

“But times have changed, and nowadays the Plum Blossom Sect has been reduced to a third-rate power, and still needs to wag its tail in front of the Mysterious Alliance!”

Granny Plum Blossom said with resentment in her eyes.

“It’s not that my Plum Blossom Sect didn’t have its glory, it’s just that nowadays the glory he doesn’t have!”

Saying this, Granny Plum Blossom looked towards Lin Ran with a serious face.

“For the next conversation, I want you to make a summer blood oath not to tell a third person other than Lin Ran, or you will be killed immediately! Your soul will be scattered! Do you dare!”

“Yes!”

Lin Ran’s eyes danced and he instantly made a blood oath.

“Good!”

Only then did Granny Meihua reveal a smile and said.

“In fact, I let Ling Sa succeed the Sect Head, but only because she has returned from her studies at Qiong Hua Mountain, which has greatly enhanced my Mei Hua Sect!”

“But likewise, as long as you can help me make one thing happen, I can choose someone else for this position of Sect Leader, and I can even agree to let Ling Sa continue to be a candidate for Sect Leader, and even in the future, you don’t have to join the Plum Blossom Sect, Ling Sa can be the Sect Leader just the same, and can be with you just the same!”

“But the premise of all this is that you have to help me to do one thing!”

“What is it?”

Lin Ran looked at Granny Plum Blossom, his eyes slightly narrowed.

“It’s very simple! Help me to fetch one thing out!”

Granny Meihua laughed, while waving her palm, and a map appeared in front of the two of them.

The map was a topographical map of a place, with many buildings marked on it, as well as some specially noted places.

Lin Ran noticed that there were a few small words written next to the map.

“Plum Blossom School Architectural Map!”

“Look here!”

Granny Plum Blossom said as she pointed to the very back of the Plum Blossom School buildings, a place marked with a red dot.

“I want you and Ling Sa to go here! You two go together, there is a cave out here and you two must help me bring out what is inside!”

“What’s inside?”

Lin Ran asked, frowning.

Although he had saved Ling Sa from getting out, he definitely wouldn’t run straight over there without asking anything, that was no different from seeking death.

“Inside is the supreme masterpiece of my Plum Blossom Sect, the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book!”

Granny Plum Blossom said excitedly.

“The Plum Blossom Heavenly Book?”

Lin Ran smiled but was stunned, he had never heard of such a thing in the Plum Blossom Sect at all!

“Since I’ve already told you, there’s no harm in telling you the origin of this Plum Blossom Heavenly Book!”

Granny Plum Blossom laughed proudly.

“This Plum Blossom Heavenly Book is the supreme mastery of my founding ancestor of the Plum Blossom Sect, Daoist Plum Blossom.”

“Back then, when my Plum Blossom ancestor founded the Plum Blossom Sect, at first many of his disciples were able to learn the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book!”

But later, as the power of the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book became too strong, many of the disciples did not have enough heart to fully master this power and eventually died violently.

So ever since then, the ancestors created the Plum Blossom Cave and put the supreme mastery of the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book inside.

The rules of the sect were set down so that only the successor to the head of the sect would be qualified to learn it, while other disciples who had an exceptional heart could also learn it.

“But this rule continues to this day, no one has ever been able to actually take out the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book from inside!”

Speaking of this, Granny Plum Blossom looked towards Lin Ran and said excitedly.

“As long as! As long as you can help me take out the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book from inside the Plum Blossom Cave, Ling Sa can leave with you, and I will even teach her the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book, after all, she is also a disciple of my Plum Blossom Sect!”

Granny Plum Blossom said excitedly.

“My Plum Blossom Sect always needs someone to guard it, and if Ling Sa is bent on going with you, then she can only be guarded by the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book!”

“I understand what you’re saying, but I have two questions!”

Lin Ran looked at Granny Plum Blossom.

“Speak!”

Only then did Granny Meihua calm down from her excitement and looked at Lin Ran with a serious expression.

“First, I am not a disciple of your Plum Blossom Sect, will it be dangerous for me to enter the Plum Blossom Cave without permission!”

“You don’t have to worry about that, you’ve already tested the Fate Testing Stone before you came in, that thing is to test if you can enter the Plum Blossom Cave! Obviously you passed it!”

Granny Plum Blossom laughed.

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, daring to say that if he couldn’t even pass the karmic test stone, I’m afraid that Granny Meihua wouldn’t even see him.

“What about the second one?”

Granny Plum Blossom looked at Lin Ran and urged.

“The second one is, this Plum Blossom Heavenly Book, can I learn it!”

Lin Ran asked.

Granny Plum Blossom had blown the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book out of the water, and Lin Ran was naturally somewhat tempted.

Moreover, even if he didn’t learn it himself, it would be good to write it down and pass it on to his own disciples.

“Haha!”

Granny Meihua laughed.

“This gong method? If you can learn it, you can learn it by all means! But I’m afraid that you won’t be able to understand the meaning of this technique at all!”

Granny Plum Blossom laughed.

“O? That’s my own business! ”

Lin Ran laughed.

“That’s fine! If you can find the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book, by all means, read it!”

Granny Plum Blossom laughed.

Lin Ran nodded his head and asked blandly.

“I can leave at any time, when can I see Lin Ran!”

“In an hour’s time! I will bring Ling Sa personally to the entrance of the Plum Blossom Cave, and you will meet there!”

Granny Plum Blossom said.

“As for this henchman of yours, he can’t go with you, so stay with the Plum Blossom Sect for now!”

Granny Meihua said with a wave of her palm, and instantly the two Lin Ran’s forms disappeared from the spot, while a voice rang out in Li Ba’s mind.

“I’m going to run an errand, you stay with the Plum Blossom Sect for a few days for now!”

The voice was naturally coming from Lin Ran.

At this moment, Lin Ran, however, had already appeared outside a cave with a vortex on one side, and Granny Meihua was standing inside the vortex.

“You wait here, I’ll go and find Lin Ran!”

After saying this, Granny Meihua disappeared with the vortex.

Chapter 1183

Standing at the entrance of the Plum Blossom Cave, Lin Ran could not help but be attracted by some ancient writing at the entrance of the cave.

The cave entrance was very ordinary, a completely natural cave.

However, the three words above the cave entrance caused Lin Ran to frown.

This was because he did not know these three words at all.

However, the aura that pervaded it guided him and made him understand that these three words were “Plum Blossom Cave”.

“Shit! Kid, these three words are the words of my world!”

The pillow’s voice suddenly came over.

“The writing of your world?”

Lin Ran was instantly baffled at the sound of it.

Previously, Pillowside Book had also brought out many scrolls and other things that had some words written on them.

It seemed to be very similar to the three words written in front of him at this moment.

“This is the writing of my world, shit! It looks like the ancestor of this Plum Blossom School is still a person who left from my world!”

The Pillow Book lamented.

Lin Ran nodded at his words.

In fact, after experiencing so much, he could vaguely feel it.

There seemed to be many outsiders on his own location sphere in the past.

Whether it was his own ancestors, the Nine Heavenly Mystic Maidens, the Pillow Book, and this time, the ancestors of the Plum Blossom School!

All of these people had left a lot of traces on the Earth.

Even Lin Ran and Pillow Book had both suspected it at one point.

When Elder Feng had arranged for Lin Ran to discover the Time Stone before he asked them to join the Mysterious Alliance, it was as if they were making an exchange with the Pillow Book.

They knew about the existence of the Pillow Book, but they didn't know if it was an enemy or a friend so they didn't dare to act rashly, so they could only use something like the Time and Space Stone to test the Pillow Book.

The three words written in the Plum Blossom Cave now once again confirmed what the two had thought.

That is, I am afraid that there are many more outsiders who came to Earth together with the Pillow Book back then.

And it is very likely that these people are still alive today.

Of course, there was no way to prove this, but as far as this Plum Blossom Cave was concerned, Lin Ran was already certain that his founder was definitely a person from the world of the Pillow Book.

“Be careful when you go in later!”

The Pillow Book reminded.

“Mhm!”

Lin Ran nodded his head.

He understood that what he was facing this time was a forbidden place set up by an outsider, and he feared that he would have to die inside if he wasn't careful.

Moreover, the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book that no one had been able to take out for so many years in the Plum Blossom Sect, how could he possibly take it lightly.

As he was thinking in his mind, suddenly there was a ripple in the space next to him, and Granny Meihua and Lin Ran had already appeared.

"Lin Ran!"

Upon seeing Lin Ran, Ling Sa's eyes instantly turned red.

"I knew you would come for me!"

Ling Sa jumped into Lin Ran's arms as soon as she could, tears unconsciously flowing down her face.

"Don't worry, I'm already here!"

Lin Ran rubbed Ling Sa's long hair, and his restless heart settled down.

"No! Lin Ran you have to go, you can't enter and Plum Blossom Cave, no one who has entered this has come out alive!"

Ling Sa suddenly reacted and rushed towards Lin Ran and said busily.

"Go? What will you do if I leave?"

Lin Ran said with a smile.

"Me!"

Ling Sa was stunned, not knowing what to say.

"Alright! Ling Sa, there is already an agreement between Lin Ran and I. You don't need to say much, since you like him and want to be with him, then this Plum Blossom Cave is the place where you must go in!"

Granny Plum Blossom said from the side.

"I will open the real entrance to the Plum Blossom Cave, you have one minute to think about it, if you don't go in, then I will have to completely cut the connection between you for the sake of the Plum Blossom Sect!"

Granny Plum Blossom said seriously.

"You!"

Ling Sa's fists clenched as she looked at Lin Ran with a face full of guilt.

"Don't worry, it will be fine!"

Lin Ran grabbed Ling Sa's hand and said comfortingly.

"That's right!"

Granny Plum Blossom laughed, while waving her palm, and immediately a vortex appeared at the entrance of the Plum Blossom Cave, so deep that the bottom could not be seen inside.

Obviously, without a special opening method, those who entered the Plum Blossom Cave without permission would not be able to see anything.

“You still have one minute to spare!”

Granny Plum Blossom spoke up and reminded.

“Let’s go!”

Lin Ran looked at Ling Sa and said indifferently.

“Mm!”

Ling Sa nodded, although there was some unease in her heart, but at least Lin Ran was still with her, so in the end she walked with Lin Ran towards the entrance of the Plum Blossom Cave.

A few moments later, watching the figures of Ling Sa and Lin Ran enter the Plum Blossom Cave.

Only then did Granny Plum Blossom let out a long breath of relief, with anticipation in her eyes.

“This is the closest step to success so far, as long as they can take out the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book, my Plum Blossom Sect will be able to rise from here, and it won’t be in vain for so many disciples who have died tragically from entering inside over the generations!”

.....

The surroundings were dim, what Lin Ran and the two of them had felt since they entered the vortex was that the sky was spinning, and at this moment, although the heaven and earth were not spinning, the surroundings were dim.

“Weng!”

Suddenly, the two felt a tremor in their ears, and then a bright light quickly appeared around them.

The bright light came from far away and soon lit up the area around them.

Only then did they realise that they were on an altar.

The altar was the size of a football field in length and width, and two huge stone pillars stood on top of the wide altar.

The pillars seemed to reach to the sky as if there was no end to them.

Above their heads was a black cloud, within which lightning rolled, a scene of hell.

“Where is this?”

Ling Sa’s heart chilled as she watched, she had never seen entered this Plum Blossom Cave before.

But the Plum Blossom School had many records about the Plum Blossom Cave, but this scene in front of her was something she had never seen before.

“Don’t worry, since this Plum Blossom Cave is the place of your ancestors, I don’t think there should be any malicious intent!”

Lin Ran reminded.

Lingyan smiled but shook her head.

“No you’re wrong! This Plum Blossom Cave is very treacherous,? Many senior sisters and junior brothers have died in here before!”

“Hm?”

Lin Ran was stunned.

“Isn’t this your ancestral land?”

“It’s the ancestral land, but the requirements for this Plum Blossom Cave are extremely harsh, as long as you can’t pass through, all that awaits is death!”

Lin Ran busily said.

Lin Ran was helpless when he heard this and cursed in his mind.

“Are all the people in your world so ruthless, harming even your own disciples and grandchildren!”

The Pillow Book sniffed and busily said.

“Don’t talk nonsense, this must be caused by the unequal strength of the two civilizations, for example, in my world, everyone is very strong, so the prohibitions set up are ordinary to them, but when it comes to your civilization, it becomes a very terrifying existence!”

“And!”

Lin Ran hummed disdainfully and didn’t bother to be bothered with the pillow book.

And at that moment, the originally quiet surroundings began to change.

The lightning within the black clouds was seen to be spreading rapidly down the stone pillar in the sky.

The lightning was as big as a giant dragon, and the thickness of the lightning was like a bucket of water, the scene was truly appalling.

“Weng!”

With another tremor, followed by a voice that actually sounded slowly within the space.

“Descendant of my Plum Blossom Sect, why did you lead outsiders into the ancestral land without permission? Great disobedience, I now order you to kill this person and bestow upon you the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book! Do not disobey!”

The voice rang out at the same time.

Only to see the lightning from the two heavenly stone pillars had coiled down and actually formed two huge dragon heads in mid-air, looking at Lin Ran and Lin Sha from afar with a mighty and domineering presence.

Chapter 1184

“Who! Who’s talking!”

The two Lin Ran looked around vigilantly.

But at this moment, the entire altar was no longer changed other than the two mighty dragon heads.

“Who the hell are you?”

Lin Ran once again opened his mouth and questioned.

“Who am I? I am the founding ancestor of the Plum Blossom Sect!”

The old voice rang out once more.

“Ancestor?”

Lin Ran’s entire body was stunned.

However, Lin Ran looked at Ling Sa in disbelief.

“What’s going on here? Didn’t Granny Plum Blossom say that after passing the test of the Fate Measuring Stone, I would be qualified to enter? How come now your ancestor actually wants you to kill me?”

“I don’t know either!”

Ling Sa was also confused.

“Shit! Your Sect Leader is so unreliable!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but say.

“She does seem unreliable some times!”

Ling Sa was also helpless.

“Don’t do anything yet!”

The ancestor seemed to be waiting a little impatiently and urged.

“There’s no way I’m going to kill him!”

Ling Sa looked to the sky and said firmly.

“What are you saying? How dare you disobey me!”

The ancestor’s voice rang out again.

“Ling Sa doesn’t dare, but it was the current Sect Leader’s intention to let him in, the fault doesn’t lie with him!”

Ling Sa was busy explaining.

“Nonsense! Is it my fault for trespassing in the ancestral land?”

The ancestor scolded, ? Notifying that his voice had gone a few degrees colder, he said.

“Now you are given two choices, either kill him or! I will kill you!”

“You!”

Lin Ran was so angry that her fists were clenched, what was this all about.

It was obviously Granny Meihua’s intention for Lin Ran to come in, but now the ancestor wasn’t buying it.

Ling Sa was simply speechless.

And as Lin Ran stood by, he too was frowning.

Obviously this was no longer a matter for him to decide, and now he was just thinking, ? Once the fight started, was he a match for this ancestor.

The other side must have already fallen,? But how much power this will left behind contained, Lin Ran didn’t know, so he still couldn’t take it lightly.

“Still not making a move?”

The ancestor’s voice rang out once again.

“I told you, there’s no way I can kill him!”

Ling Sa gritted her teeth and said, asking her to kill Lin Ran, she would rather choose to kill herself.

“And you dare to disobey me, great rebellion! Then prepare to die too!”

The ancestor’s voice was wildly violent.

Following this, the two gigantic dragons hovering on the stone pillar actually all flew out in an instant, heading straight for the two Lin Ran.

“Roll!”

Lin Ran’s face was ice-cold as he waved his palm!

But the next moment he froze.

His punch had actually gone straight through the giant dragon, hitting nothing.

On the contrary, the giant dragon had actually bitten Lin Ran’s arm, causing his entire body to shake, unable to move in the slightest.

“What the hell is this!”

Lin Ran couldn't help but be shocked in his heart at this point.

He couldn't hit his opponent, but his opponent was able to attack him easily, how could he still fight?

"Go away!"

On the other side, Lin Ran was also trembling with the giant dragons, but apparently her attacks could touch those giant dragons.

"Is it because she's a disciple of the Plum Blossom School?"

Looking at the situation in the field, Lin Ran suddenly said helplessly.

If that was really the case, then he himself wouldn't be able to help half as much this time, everything would have to depend on Ling Sa herself.

"Ling Sa! If you can't, you go first! Leave me alone!"

Lin Ran was busy speaking up to persuade.

"No!"

Ling Sa refused without even thinking about it.

"Let's go together, let's die together!"

Ling Sa said as she looked at Lin Ran, her eyes full of determination.

"But I can't even touch this dragon head right now!"

Lin Ran was desperate, yet helpless.

"I Ah!"

Linran was just about to reply,? The dragonhead in front of her was a fierce acceleration, reaching her in an instant.

The huge dragon head instantly opened up and directly bit down on Ling Sa's wrist, and instantly she too was firmly trapped in the stone pillar only, just like Lin Ran.

"Bringing outsiders into the ancestral land without permission, and disobeying the ancestor's orders, you both must die!"

The ancestor's voice resounded throughout the sacrificial sky.

"You're not an ancestor at all, you're a devil! It's not like we wanted to come in on our own, Lin Ran came in, it was all the Sect Leader's will, you didn't communicate well with each other, so why should you blame it all on us!"

Linran shouted angrily.

"Are you questioning me?"

The ancestor was surprisingly angry at his words.

“My disciple does not dare!”

Ling Sa lowered her head.

“But you have done so, against my will, and made a move with me! Today I will behead you!”

The ancestor said, and the dragon head that was biting Lin Ran had moved.

“Then let’s start with this brat! We’ll deal with you next!”

The voice rumbled, followed by lightning emerging from the huge dragon’s head only.

The lightning, which was as thick as an arm, seemed to spread down the dragon’s body as if it didn’t want money, and in just the blink of an eye, it had already reached Lin Ran.

“No!”

Tears had already appeared in Lin Ran’s eyes.

That lightning bolt was as thick as a bucket, if it struck a human body, I was afraid that it would shed its skin without dying.

The most crucial thing was that the ancestor had made it very clear that he was going to kill Lin Ran, and she was truly afraid that Lin Ran would be in danger.

“Bang!”

Soon after, the lightning bolt landed on Lin Ran.

In this instant, Lin Ran only felt that the bones in his entire body shattered.

The robe he was wearing turned into pieces with a bang.

At the same time, Lin Lin saw clearly that the skin of Lin Ran’s entire body had been slashed by the lightning, and blood marks had appeared on each of them, with blood dripping out.

“No! Don’t! He’s innocent!”

Lindsay’s eyes were red as she watched, her tears like a waterfall.

If she had known it would end up like this, she would have rather killed herself than let Lin Ran come along with her.

But it was too late to say anything now; at this moment, Lin Ran was suffering from the blasts of lightning over and over again, and his whole body was already stained red with blood.

The blasts of lightning first made Lin Ran’s whole body red with blood, and soon the blood was blasted dry by the lightning.

The blood scabs fell off,? Only then did Ling Sa see that Lin Ran’s skin inside had turned charred black.

Although Ling Sa was at a certain distance from Lin Ran at this point, she could still feel the pain that Lin Ran was suffering at this point.

“Lin Ran.”

Linza cried out in pain, her eyes filled with tears.

However, Lin Ran was gritting his teeth without saying a word, his whole body trembling from the lightning.

He gritted his teeth and looked straight at Ling Sa, as if he was saying.

“I’m fine! Must live!”

“Boom!”

Another thunderbolt descended from the sky, this time striking directly above Lin Ran’s head.

The huge lightning bolt surged down Lin Ran’s body directly to his entire body, and blood couldn’t stop flowing out.

And at this moment, Lin Ran was in so much pain that he was clenching his jaw and his eyes were tightly closed, as if he was making his last struggle.

“No! Don’t!”

The tears in Lin Sha’s eyes were about to cry dry as she raised her head with some blood in her tears and looked at the sky questioningly.

“Are you an ancestor or a devil! Why do you have to be so cruel, why!”

“Why? Just because he’s not from my Plum Blossom Sect! How can a sect’s heritage be obtained by an outsider!”

The ancestor’s voice rang out loud and clear, resonating throughout the altar.

Ling Sa sniffed but shook her head.

“An outsider gets it? If you are afraid! Why leave the inheritance behind, if you are afraid! Why even let him in! What the hell did he do wrong!”

“He didn’t do anything wrong! It was you who did wrong!”

The ancestor’s voice rang out again.

“He came here all because of you, so you’re the one who got him killed!”

Chapter 1185

“Because of me?”

Ringside sniffed.

“That’s right! It’s because of you!”

The ancestor’s voice rang out again.

“So it is you who needs to repent for his death!”

As the voice fell, one could only see that a huge thunderbolt had formed above the sky, the size of the thunderbolt was as if it was a divine punishment from the heavens, heading straight for Lin Ran's body.

"No! Don't!"

Lin Lin fought to hiss, but it was no use at all.

The huge thunderbolt still came crashing down, hitting Lin Ran's body heavily.

At this moment, Lin Lin heard clearly that something shattered with a bang.

At this moment, Lin Ran's entire body was filled with a violent aura that surged out in all directions.

At this moment, Lin Ran's entire body turned red, as if he was about to explode himself.

"No! No!"

Lin Lin already knew what it was that had just ruptured, it was Lin Ran's dantian.

Lin Ran's dantian had been blown apart by the thunder dan.

"He must be having a hard time right now!"

Tears fell from Ling Sa's eyes again.

For a cultivator, his dantian was his life, let alone Lin Ran, who had risen from the humble beginnings.

With his dantian shattered by lightning, how grindingly desperate he had to be at this moment.

At this moment, Ling Sa did not even dare to look up at Lin Ran.

She was afraid of seeing the desperate look in the other party's eyes, and she was even more afraid that she would be ashamed to face Lin Ran.

If she hadn't been so selfish as to have to wait for Lin Ran to arrive, if she had promised Granny Meihua to succeed the head of the Meihua Sect long ago.

If I had given up all this childishness.

Perhaps Lin Ran, would not have ended up where he is today.

"Why! Why are you doing this to me! To him, what have we done wrong!"

Lin Ran lifted her head to look at the mid-air, her eyes already completely red with blood.

She was angry, she was furious! She hated so much that she could wipe out everything in front of her eyes.

It was as if nothing had ever happened, as if Lin Ran was still in the distant city of Temperance.

But she knew that it was already too late.

Finally, Lin Ran lowered his head, his whole body seemed to have lost its strength, he was not speaking, and his face had lost its expression.

It was as if the whole man had lost his life.

Tears fell from Lin Ran's eyes, the blood-red colour of his eyes grew thicker and thicker, his hair was scattered over his shoulders by the lightning waves, and his whole body looked like madness.

"It was you! You are the ones who killed him! You are responsible! You will pay for your lives!"

Suddenly, the red light shot out from Ringside's eyes, as if they were two red pillars of light, and shot distantly at the dragon.

"Ba-dee!"

A drop of reflective red tears fell, which were tears shed by blood.

The tear dripped onto Ringside's arm and slid down his arm to where the dragon had bitten him.

"Bare!"

Suddenly, an ear-piercing corrosive sound rang out, and the giant dragon biting at Ling Sa's arm actually unconsciously loosened its mouth.

Ling Sa's entire body lost its restraint and instantly her heart fluttered as she lunged towards Lin Ran.

"Come back!"

The ancestor's voice rang out violently.

The huge dragon head once again lunged towards Ling Sa.

However, Ling Sa only turned her head, her pair of reflective red eyes looking distantly at the lunging dragonhead behind her.

"Get out!"

Ling Sa shouted angrily.

But it was this shout.

At once two pillars of blood-coloured light shot out directly from her eyes, blasting heavily at the dragon head only.

"Bang!"

The dragon's head was directly pierced by the pillars of blood-coloured light, and then shattered, falling to the ground, before turning into a tiny lightning bolt and dissipating.

"You! Liver dare to disobey me and strike at me!"

The ancestor's angry voice resounded through the heavens and the earth, while at the same time thunder clouds rolled above the sky! A huge bolt of lightning was brewing.

"Disobeying you? Strike at you? You are going to kill us, so what do I have to worry about, ancestor! I see that your so-called ancestor is a coward who is afraid of everything!"

Ling Sa said disdainfully, following which she turned around and hugged Lin Ran into her arms.

With a wave of her palm, which was stained with the blood of her eyes, she immediately split the giant dragon to pieces and the two of them landed on the ground.

“Yes! Bravo! What a disciple! In that case? Go and die, all of you!”

The ancestor’s furious voice rang out, and at the same time, within the dark clouds above the sky, a huge thunderbolt had already gathered.

The thunderbolt was so powerful that a dragon’s head, the size of a hundred feet, faintly emerged.

“This strike is enough to destroy the heavens and the earth! If you dare to disobey me, this is what will happen to you!”

The ancestor’s voice was incomparably angry.

At this moment, however, Lin Ran merely glanced at the huge dragon and paid no further attention.

She looked down at Lin Ran.

At this moment, Lin Ran’s eyes were closed and his face was filled with peace, as if he had been completely freed from pain.

“I’m sorry! I’ve dragged you into this!”

Ling Sa wiped the blood off the corner of Lin Ran’s mouth, her eyes filled with pain and remorse.

“Go to hell!”

And at that moment, as the voice of the ancestor rang out, the giant dragon above the sky had swooped down.

The huge dragon’s head, which was a hundred feet long, was heading straight for the two of them with the power to destroy the heavens and the earth.

“I’m sorry! Lin Ran! I’m really sorry!”

There were tears in Lin Ran’s eyes as she laid Lin Ran flat on the ground, and then slowly stood up, looking up at the rapidly approaching dragon’s head in the sky, her heart was actually incomparably calm at this moment.

“Although dying, probably with you is together, I’m happy! I’m sorry I’ve been a bit selfish! But I’m just a woman who needs to be loved too!”

Ling Sa slowly stretched out her palms, and a red light rose up in the sky in her eyes.

“Rumble!”

Red light and lightning collided.

There was a great madness all around, and the heavens and earth were dimmed.

All Lin Ran could feel was that everything around her was spinning.

She could no longer see where Lin Ran was.

She didn't know where she was either.

All she knew was that she had to hold on at this point, otherwise not only would she die, but I was afraid that Lin Ran's body would not even be saved.

"Come on! You so-called ancestor, come on! You can kill me and kill him, but you can never make us submit!"

Ling Sa hissed in anger.

But at this point the roar around her was so loud that no one could hear Ling Sa anymore.

She just stood there, using up the last ounce of strength in her body.

"Bang!"

Suddenly, something unknown blasted at Ling Sa's chest.

At once, her eyes went black and she directly passed out.

The surrounding area was still and gusty wind.

Only then, the bright light around was also dissipating rapidly, and soon the surroundings were quiet.

But equally, it was also dark.

I don't know how long had passed.

When Lindsay opened her eyes, she only felt that her lips were moist and cool.

Perhaps she was thirsty, or perhaps the coolness was soothing to her.

She kept swallowing and ate this refreshing coolness into her body.

Soon, the cool sensation spread throughout her body.

She only felt that her whole body was aching, as if she had experienced a rebirth, and the bones in her whole body were faintly aching.

"You're awake!"

Suddenly, a voice rang out in her ears.

At first hearing it, Ling Sa was stunned, but then her whole body couldn't help but tremble.

"That voice! This voice!"

Her whole body trembled with excitement and she desperately wanted to open her eyes, but she then realised that she actually didn't even have the strength to open them.

Suddenly, the voice sounded again.

"Don't move around, you are very weak now and need to rest!"

Hearing this voice, Ling Sa couldn't help but fall into tears.

This voice was too familiar to her, it was none other than Lin Ran's voice.

Chapter 1186

After a brief moment of wakefulness, Lindsay fell back into a deep sleep.

It was only after an unknown amount of time like this that Lindsay finally had the strength to open her eyes.

What met her eyes was a bright ceiling and a figure with its back to her, thinking about something.

"Where is this?"

Rinsa asked softly.

"You're awake!"

Lin Ran turned around and looked at Ling Sa, a smile tacked onto his face.

"Lin Ran you! It's alright!"

Seeing Lin Ran's appearance, Ling Sa's eyes instantly turned red.

"I'm fine! Don't cry!"

Lin Ran embraced Ling Sa into his arms and comforted her.

"I thought, I thought"

Ling Sa sobbed uncontrollably.

"Thanks to you, otherwise I'm afraid I would have really fallen here this time!"

Lin Ran laughed.

"Me? I didn't do anything!"

Lindsay was confused.

Instead, Lin Ran laughed and rubbed her head, saying.

"Fool, it was you who defeated that ancestor, otherwise we would have really died!"

"Me?"

Lin Ran was stunned, and only then did she remember that Lin Ran had been unable to attack the other side at all before, and that she had only been able to attack the other side after her eyes had turned blood red.

"By the way, what is this place?"

Linran asked busily, while looking around.

Following that she froze,? The place the two of them were in themselves seemed to be the same altar as before.

Only now the black cloud above the altar was gone, and it had also become a ceiling in one place.

And the two stone pillars on the altar had also shrunk a lot, only about a meter high at this point, and there seemed to be two wooden boxes sitting on top of them, so I didn't know what was inside.

"This"

Lingsha was dumbfounded, not knowing what to say.

"This should be the second weight! That should have been the first weight before!"

Lin Ran spoke.

"The first weight?"

Ling Sa was puzzled and looked at Lin Ran.

"I'm just speculating, a place like the Ancestral Land? There usually isn't just one test, if you divide it up one by one, the one before should be the first test, while the one now should be the second!"

Lin Ran said as he got up and went to the stone pillars.

Taking down the wooden boxes on both stone pillars.

"I hadn't touched them before, but now that you're awake, let's take a look first!"

Lin Ran said as he handed the two wooden boxes to Ling Sa.

"The Book of Heavenly Words? The Book of Earth Characters?"

Ling Sa looked at the names on the wooden boxes and couldn't help but be stunned.

"You know these words?"

Lin Ran was even more stunned at hearing this.

"These are all Chinese characters!"

Ling Sa was stunned.

Lin Ran listened but his whole body shook.

"That's strange, what I saw was not Chinese characters, but a completely unknown script!"

Lin Ran said busily.

When he had woken up earlier, he had noticed the two wooden boxes and seen the writing on them.

The writing on these two wooden boxes was not ordinary, they were both written in the script of the Pillow Book's hometown.

If Lin Ran had not possessed the Pillow Book, I am afraid he would not have been able to recognise what words they were.

But now, Lin Ran recognized it at a glance, and said it was Chinese.

“Could it be that this writing is in a different state for different people to read?”

Ling Sa looked at Lin Ran and asked.

“Most likely! But since you can read it, that’s all that matters! It means that the test of this ancestral land isn’t over yet!”

Lin Ran said as he got up and went to the middle of the two stone pillars, took out a piece of parchment scroll and brought it back.

“Take a look at it, it should have the way to pass the test written on it!”

“Mm!”

Ling Sa did not delay immediately picked up the parchment scroll and read it.

“Existing, the Wonderful Book of Heaven and Earth! The Heavenly Scroll and the Earthly Scroll, only by cultivating the two Wonder Books to the extreme can one pass the test!”

Lingsha looked at it and read it out.

“Cultivate two strange books?”

Ling Sa frowned slightly.

“I’ve read it before, these two strange books are one day and one earth, concealing the art of yin and yang, cultivating a single book seems very simple, but if you cultivate both books, I’m afraid it will be quite difficult!”

Lin Ran said from the side.

“But we don’t seem to have a lot of time! The matter of Xingwu Mountain”

Lin Ran worried.

Lin Ran, however, waved his hand and said.

“This isn’t the time to worry about that, if we’re trapped in this ancestral land, Xingwu Mountain will just be a joke, so the first priority is to solve the matter at hand!”

“Hm!”

Ling Sa nodded at her words, and then asked.

“By the way, since you’ve read it all, have you learned it?”

“No!”

Lin Ran shook his head.

“Why didn’t you learn it?”

Lin Lin wondered, this Heaven and Earth Wonder Book was extraordinary at first glance, since Lin Ran had come here, of course it was better to learn it.

“I’m not learning it because I feel there’s danger!”

Lin Ran said with a frown.

“Haven’t you noticed that I was arranged to come here, and it seems that none of the opportunities here have anything to do with me!”

“What do you mean?”

Lin Lin did not understand.

Lin Ran, however, smiled bitterly and said.

“You forgot that before, that ancestor of yours asked you to kill me, which was a test for you, but I didn’t get anything.”

“And at that time, I tried to resist, but I couldn’t touch him at all!”

“So I feel that by being placed here, I might just be assisting you to break into the ancestral land, and I won’t be able to take away any of the things in here!”

As he said this, Lin Ran recalled Granny Meihua’s words from earlier.

“At that time, when I spoke to Granny Meihua about the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book, she once said that I could learn it, but it was up to me whether I could learn it and leave! So I think, this ancestral land of yours, I’m afraid that only the disciples of the Plum Blossom School will be able to get something if they come! And I won’t be able to take anything away with me this time!”

“Then you …..”

Ling Sa looked at Lin Ran with some guilt.

“No matter, I didn’t need this in the first place! You cultivate well, and we’ll try to get out soon!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Mm!”

Lin Sa nodded, not delaying, and immediately began to pick up the Heavenly Scroll and cultivate.

Lin Ran, on the other hand, was bored and sat aside, quietly waiting.

The contents of the Heavenly Scroll and the Earthly Scroll, with the translation of the pillow book, Lin Ran also knew some of the contents roughly.

The so-called Heavenly Scroll and Earthly Scroll were actually somewhat similar to the inheritance Lin Ran had received, the Xuan Yang Pill Canon, and the Chao Heavenly Pavilion’s inheritance, the Xuan Yin Pill Canon.

They were two distinctly different, yet inextricably linked merit methods.

For example, this Heavenly Scroll, as Lin Ran roughly understood, was to have the practitioner condense a hundred divine lines outside his body, and each divine line was a layer of realm.

It was equivalent to experiencing a full hundred realms before one could achieve great success.

However, this Earth Scroll is about deciphering these hundred divine lines again and studying their reverse composition.

Overall, the two books were like two arm-wrestlers, and what Ling Sa had to do was not only to maximize the power of the two people.

At the same time, she also had to ensure that the two would not appear to be one against the other, focusing on only one release.

But as for what would happen in the end, when the two books could be cultivated to hit completion and fused, Lin Ran did not know.

After all, he hadn't actually cultivated them, everything was just a projection in his mind.

"I just hope there's no danger!"

Lin Ran prayed in his heart.

Even though there were many opportunities in this ancestral land, he understood.

Only if he got out alive could he truly master it, otherwise even if he got more, if he couldn't get out of this ancestral land, everything would be for nothing.

Chapter 1187

Time passed day by day.

Inside the Ancestral Land, it was impossible to sense the time in the outside world, and Lin Ran could only judge the passage of time based on his senses.

A month had passed in a flash.

And this month of retreat for Ling Ran had gradually started to bear fruit.

She had already cultivated most of the Heavenly Scroll, and could already condense a full fifty divine lines outside her body.

And because so much time had passed, it was clear that Xingwu Mountain could no longer keep up with things.

So the two of them were completely relaxed.

Without the worry of Xing Wushan's affairs, Ling Sa's cultivation speed was also gradually increasing.

Another month passed, and at this time, Ling Sa's Heavenly Scroll cultivation was nearing its end.

At this time, around Ling Sa, a divine pattern was like a circle of light, surrounding Ling Sa.

Upon careful counting, there were actually ninety-nine of them.

"It's almost a hundred!"

Lin Ran had excitement in his heart.

The Heavenly Character Scroll looked like it was about to be cultivated.

“Weng!”

With a final buzzing sound, the last divine pattern actually appeared around Lin Ran.

At this point, the cultivation of all one hundred divine lines had been completed.

These one hundred divine lines coiled around Ling Sa, as if they were a circle of light, reflecting Ling Sa beautifully.

Soon, Ling Sa’s palm that was forming a seal slammed to one side, and only then did all the one hundred divine patterns dissipate.

“Well?”

Seeing Ling Sa open her eyes, Lin Ran hurriedly stepped forward and asked.

“I didn’t let you down, I’ve mastered all of this Heavenly Scroll!”

Ling Sa laughed excitedly.

“Hmm! How about resting for a day? Start cultivating the Earth Character Scroll again?”

Lin Ran asked.

However, Ling Sa shook her head and immediately picked up the Earth Scroll and began to cultivate it.

“Time is short, I’ll start right now!”

Lin Ran smiled and didn’t say anything more.

However, this time, just ten minutes after Ling Sa began to cultivate the Earth Scroll, a change occurred.

The hundred divine lines that had originally wrapped around Ling Sa actually began to rapidly collapse as she began to cultivate the Earth Scroll.

One, two, three

The original hundred divine lines were quickly reduced to sixty.

Lingsha also noticed that something was wrong and hurriedly stopped.

“What’s going on here?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

“I don’t know either!”

Ling Sa shook her head.

“This Earth Scroll is all about deciphering each divine pattern, but as soon as I decipher one, this divine pattern will dissipate, and I find that the speed of deciphering this Earth Scroll is getting faster and faster!”

Lingsha said, doing the math, and finally came to a conclusion.

“At the current speed of decoding, I’m afraid that in just half an hour, all the white dao divine patterns from the previous cultivation of the Heavenly Scroll will be decoded away!”

“Let’s ignore that for now! Since you’ve already started cultivating the Earth Scroll, let’s finish cultivating them all!”

Lin Ran frowned slightly and said.

“Alright!”

Lin Lin nodded at his words, and only then did he continue to start cultivating the Earth Scroll.

At this time, Lin Ran, on the other hand, hurriedly went to the pillow book to ask about the situation.

“What did you say? The Heavenly Character Scroll and the Earthly Character Scroll go against each other?”

Hearing Lin Ran’s statement, Pillow-side Book could not help but frown slightly.

After pondering for a moment, he spoke.

“This kind of situation you’re talking about is not unheard of in that world of mine, it belongs to a kind of reciprocal art, that is, the shield builds itself and the spear also builds itself, whether the shield is stronger or the spear is sharper, it all depends on oneself!”

“I’m thinking of knowing now, if that’s the case, then when will Lin Ran’s Heaven and Earth Scrolls and Earth Scrolls all be cultivated to great completion!”

Lin Ran said eagerly.

“It’s really hard to say, but one thing is for sure!”

The Pillow Book said firmly.

“Since this is something left behind by their Plum Blossom Sect ancestors, it naturally has a purpose, so just wait and see what happens!”

“Shit!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but curse, what was the difference between those words and not saying anything.

Over here, he was chatting with the pillow book, while outside, the divine lines around Lin Ran’s body had sharply decreased to less than ten.

But at this moment, she seemed to be completely unaware of it, and was still continuously following the contents of the Earth Scroll, deciphering the divine patterns one by one.

“Weng!”

Finally, as the last divine pattern was cracked off by Ling Sa.

Her entire body also trembled, and she quickly awoke.

“Well?”

Lin Ran busily asked.

“It’s all forgotten!”

Ling Sa laughed.

“Forgotten?”

Lin Ran was stunned, unsure of what she meant.

“I’ve forgotten all the contents of the Heavenly Scroll, so it seems that I need to practice it all over again!”

Lin Lin spat out her tongue helplessly.

“Alright, then you continue!”

Lin Ran could only come to the side and sit on the ground and wait quietly.

The Heavenly Scroll and the Earthly Scroll were contrary to each other, cultivate the Heavenly Scroll and the Earthly Scroll would be forgotten,? And by practising the Earth Scroll, the Heaven Scroll would likewise be forgotten.

Lin Ran didn’t know why, but the pillow book was right, the ancestor of the Plum Blossom School had obviously had his own intentions when he left such things behind.

Since he couldn’t guess, it was better not to guess at all, and let Lin Ran take his time to experiment.

A little bit of time passed, and the second time he cultivated the Heavenly Scroll, Lin Ran noticed.

The speed of cultivation of the divine patterns outside of Ling Sa’s body was significantly faster than before.

Lin Ran remembered that the first time he had cultivated the Heavenly Scroll, it had taken two months for Ling Sa to become fully cultivated, but this time it had taken just one time to become fully cultivated.

Moreover, this time, the divine pattern was clearly more solid and powerful than the previous one.

A month later, Ling Sa once again began to cultivate the Earth Scroll.

And this time, it only took fifteen minutes for all of the hundred divine patterns to be deciphered by Ling Sa.

And without realising it, Lin Ran also discovered that Lin Sha’s strength was also rising rapidly.

The gathering of the divine tattoos and the cracking of the tattoos still continued.

From two months at the beginning, to a month later, to now being able to coalesce hundreds of divine tattoos in just one day.

Lin Sha’s entire cultivation process? It was even shorter.

Nowadays, hundreds of divine lines would collapse in an instant with almost a single thought.

Cultivating these divine lines, on the other hand, only took half a day to a day.

Even though these speeds had been compressed to the extreme by her.

But she still felt that she hadn't reached the end of her cultivation.

Helpless, Lin Ran could only continue to wait in peace.

After another full month had passed.

One day, Lin Ran sat to the side cultivating himself.

Suddenly, a hundred divine patterns actually suddenly appeared on Lin Ran's body next to him.

"Again?"

Lin Ran looked at it helplessly.

As expected, the next moment these divine lines began to rapidly collapse.

However, just as Lin Ran was about to turn his head and continue his cultivation.

Suddenly after those dissipated, before the other divine lines had a chance to disappear, the previously obliterated divine lines actually reappeared.

It was as if a hundred divine patterns were being reborn as if they were a circle of waves.

Your side had just been destroyed, and my side had been reborn.

A cycle was actually formed, a cycle of destruction and birth.

"Weng!"

Suddenly, the earth trembled, and a stone platform appeared out of nowhere on the ground in front of Lindsay.

This stone platform was only one person high, and on it were two designs carved respectively, precisely the designs of the Heaven and Earth Scroll and the Earth Scroll.

Chapter 1188

And in the middle of the stone platform was also written a line.

"Inject the power of Heaven and Earth to open the final test!"

Ling Sa looked at Lin Ran and followed without saying a word, she directly injected one side of the Heavenly Scroll power and Earthly Scroll power she had cultivated onto the stone platform.

"Weng!"

With a buzzing sound, followed by the stone platform actually cracked open from the middle, followed by a food item emerging from within.

It was covered with a red cloth, so it was not clear what it was, but the general outline looked surprisingly like a ladle.

Yes it was the same ladle used to hold water in a water tank

“What is this thing?”

Lingsha also frowned as she looked at it, she had thought of countless possibilities, but how could she have never thought that it would be one of these things.

“Pick it up and take a look!”

Lin Ran advised, although the two were somewhat unable to accept it, much less explain it.

But when this thing really appeared, it was still something that had to be faced intuitively.

“Hm!”

Linran took a long breath and followed, unwrapping the red cloth.

Sure enough, it was a dipper that appeared in front of the visitor.

Only this dipper was very extraordinary at first glance.

The ladle was covered with divine patterns, and at a rough count there were even a hundred of them, surprisingly very much in line with the Heavenly Scroll.

“What’s going on here?”

The two of them looked dumbfounded as Lin Ran looked on, not really knowing what this meant for a moment.

“Hey hey, there are lines of words here!”

Suddenly, Lin Ran said, pointing to the stone platform at the bottom of the scoop.

Lin Ran looked and indeed found this small line of writing on the stone platform at the bottom of the ladle.

“One person holds the ladle, one person drinks the poison, the day the poison breaks out is the day the ladle is taken, if you want to get out, the ladle must be taken quickly!”

A few simple words, but the two people were stunned.

“What do you mean, what one person holds the ladle and one person drinks the poison?”

Ling Sa looked at Lin Ran, somewhat puzzled.

However, Lin Ran’s gaze at this moment fell behind this small line of words.

“Look here!”

Lin Ran pointed to a bulge behind the kid.

“What’s this?”

Lin Ran frowned and just wanted to touch it.

Instead, her palm was stopped by Lin Ran.

“Don’t move!”

With that, Lin Ran blew gently at the bulge, and a glass vial actually appeared in front of the two.

It turned out that the outside of this glass vial had been covered up all by dust, and was only revealed when Lin Ran blew on it like this.

“This”

Lin Ran looked at the vial and only felt a chill run through her heart.

“This should be the poison!”

Lin Ran said, while carefully taking the vial of poison out.

However, the moment Lin Ran took the vial of poison out, a strange change occurred.

The entire stone platform trembled rapidly.

The two stone pillars that were originally standing collapsed in an instant.

The whole altar rumbled.

At the same time, the whole stone platform listed away directly from the middle.

A green shoot actually burst out from beneath the ground.

The shoot grew extremely fast, and in almost the blink of an eye, it had grown as if it were a huge tree.

Green leaves sprouted, and a single flower bones emerged quickly, which soon became flowers.

The flowers roamed the sky, and it was actually a plum blossom tree.

“This!”

The two of them were looking at the Ling Sa stayed.

This plum blossom tree was so big that I was afraid that even if a grown man encircled it, he might not be able to hold it.

The main thing was that with the plum blossom tree appeared.

Next to the plum blossom tree, a small pool has surprisingly appeared.

The pool was so shallow that to the naked eye it looked as if it was only a few centimetres deep and could easily be touched by the palm of your hand at the bottom.

And then, in the middle of the pool, there was a very inconspicuous lattice.

This lattice has a pattern on the outside and the outline can be roughly seen.

And because it was so close to the surface of the pool, it gave the impression that it could be touched by raising one’s hand.

“Could the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book be inside here?”

Lingsha was excited as she looked at the hidden compartment in the middle of the pool.

“I don’t know, but it should be inside here!”

Lin Ran said, while unconsciously looking at the bottle he was holding.

“I’ll try it first!”

Lin Ran obviously didn’t think about it that much, and immediately raised her hand to touch the hidden compartment.

But just as her palm touched the surface of the water, she could not go any deeper.

Although the surface of the water was very close to the hidden compartment, it was such a close distance that it became an insurmountable chasm.

“Looks like we’ll have to use this!”

Lin Ran pointed to the scoop in Ling Sa’s hand.

Ling Sa froze and couldn’t help but remember the words she had seen earlier.

“I’ll try it first!”

Without saying much, Ling Sa instantly picked up the ladle and started to hold water.

Sure enough, the ladle was able to hold water without any problem, but it couldn’t carry it away with it.

“This

Ling Sa was at a loss.

“Looks like you have to follow the hints to do it!”

Lin Ran laughed helplessly, while holding the glass bottle up.

“Don’t!”

Seeing this, Ling Sa was busy stopping Lin Ran.

“One person holds the ladle and one person drinks the poison, if we don’t do this, I’m afraid we

Lin Ran spoke.

“But

Lin Ran was a little hesitant, how much hardship had Lin Ran gone through on this journey for himself.

If she had to ask him to drink the poison for herself by now, she was really a bit unforgiving.

“There aren’t that many buts, we’ve already arrived here, if this is the last realm, do we have to choose to give up?”

Lin Ran looked at Ling Sa.

“But you have to drink the poison!”

Ling Sa persuaded.

Lin Ran, however, smiled blandly.

“Don’t you forget that? This is the land of your Plum Blossom Sect’s ancestor, there will definitely be a silver lining left!”

“Ancestor and you still believe in him?”

Ling Sa shook her head.

“You’re thinking wrong, what if the First Heaven is just a test for you?”

Lin Ran laughed.

“A test? Is there such a test?”

Ling Sa said helplessly.

“As things stand now, we have no choice, Xingwu Mountain has already missed the time, and I’m afraid that if we don’t get out of here, that would be the biggest regret!”

Lin Ran persuaded.

“But I’m not sure! I’m afraid that I won’t be able to before you get poisoned.”

Lin Ran voiced the scruples in her heart.

Lin Ran, however, just smiled.

“How will you know if you don’t try?”

....

“Bang!”

The bottle cork opened, followed by a strange fragrance wafting into the nostrils of the two.

“Let’s begin!”

Lin Ran smiled at Ling Sa, following which he poured the contents of the bottle into his mouth in one gulp.

“How do you feel?”

Ling Sa asked busily.

Lin Ran, however, waved his hand, gesturing for Ling Sa to hurry up and serve water.

Gritting her teeth and holding back the worry in her heart, Ling Sa turned her head and began to use the ladle to hold the water.

And this time, the ladle finally left the pool with the water.

In one smooth motion, Ling Sa poured it onto the ground to one side.

After that, she continued to hold the water.

At this time, Lin Ran was sitting on his knees, quickly checking the condition of his body.

As soon as the poison entered his mouth, he felt his entire body's true qi dissipating rapidly.

If true qi was cotton, then the poison at this moment was something that could melt away the cotton.

Lin Ran only felt that the true qi in his body was rapidly draining away.

However, this didn't affect his absorption from the outside world.

"It's just that the speed of this dissolution is too fast, even if I were to fully absorb it from the outside world, I'm afraid that it would only last for a month!"

Lin Ran muttered to himself in his heart.

"This final test is really perverse!"

There was nothing else he could do now, he could only hope that Lin Ran would be able to complete this final test within a month!

Chapter 1189

There wasn't much water in the pool.

At first, not only Ling Sa but also Lin Ran was full of confidence.

Although the ladle was not large, there was very little water after all.

In the two men's opinion, it would take at most three days to fill the pool with all the water.

And by then, they could open the hidden compartment at the bottom of the pool and take out the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book inside.

But the ideal was good, but the reality was a heavy blow to the two men.

Three days later.

The water in the pool had not even shown the slightest sign of descent.

"What the hell is going on here?"

Lindsay looked at the wet ground beside her, and then at the markings she had made on the wall of the pool; the water had clearly not descended at all.

"Don't worry, it's only been three days, maybe we haven't got the hang of it yet!"

Lin Ran spoke up to reassure.

In three days, the toxins in his body had had a limited effect on him, only making him look slightly pale, but his essence was still good!

“Mm!”

Lin Ran adjusted her mood and began to serve water again.

It looked like Lin Ran had been poisoned, so he should have been more anxious than Ling Sa.

But in fact, the pressure in Ling Sa’s heart was not the least bit less than Lin Ran’s.

After all, Lin Ran’s life was now in her hands.

If she could successfully obtain the Plum Blossom Book of Heaven within a month, Lin Ran’s poison would be lifted.

But if she could not, what Lin Ran would lose would be his life.

Time passed day by day.

In the blink of an eye, three more days had passed.

In these three days, Lin Ran could not remember how much water she had filled up.

All she knew was that? She had been holding water day and night, and even under the aegis of her true qi, her arms had begun to become numb.

But she did not dare to stop, let alone delay in the slightest, and just kept on holding the water, not daring to slacken off in the slightest.

But after six days, the ground beside her had become muddy, and yet the water in the pool had not diminished in the slightest.

The markings originally marked on the wall of the pool were still across the place, not increasing or decreasing.

“Lin Ran!”

Lin Ran finally could not bear the torment in her heart and looked towards Lin Ran.

At this moment, Lin Ran was sitting cross-legged on the ground, his entire body trembling.

Because of the rapid flow of true qi in his body, he only felt an abnormal coldness all over his body at this moment.

But at least he could still hold on now.

He hadn’t reached the bottom of the mountain yet.

“Don’t give up! We’ve come this far, it wouldn’t be worth it to give up!”

Lin Ran spoke.

However, Ling Ran shook his head, his face full of pain.

“Are we using the wrong approach, at this rate, before you get poisoned, I’m sure”

Ling Sa did not dare to go on.

“What are you afraid of, I’m not even afraid!”

Lin Ran forced down the icy cold inside his body and comforted.

If even he had no confidence at this point, then who else could give Ling Sa information?

“Remember my words, make sure you hold on, this is the ancestral land your ancestor left behind, he won’t harm you!”

Lin Ran said as he slowly closed his eyes.

The icy cold within now had made it impossible for him to keep speaking, the only way to reduce the consumption of true qi within his body as little as possible was to meditate and concentrate.

“Mmm!”

Ling Sa also knew that there was no way back now, either they kept moving forward to get the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book.

Either that or all that awaited them was death.

Moreover, this death was still Lin Ran in front of her.

“I can’t give up! I can’t!”

Ling Sa admonished herself in her mind, if she gave up at this point, then Lin Ran would have lost his life for nothing.

She persevered and kept holding the water, again and again, even in her exhaustion, she held on and did not give up.

Time passed day by day, and in the blink of an eye, a full half month had passed.

During this half a month, Lin Lin did not stop in the slightest, she kept on holding water, she could no longer feel the presence of her arms at this time, she just kept on holding water mechanically.

When she looked at Lin Ran on the other side, tears flowed unconsciously down her face.

Two days ago, Lin Ran was lying on the ground, unable to even maintain a sitting or standing position.

The icy cold all over his body had caused a layer of frost to form on him.

At first he was able to use his True Qi to resist each time, but as the frost condensed more and more frequently, he eventually had to choose to resist every break in time.

Now, five days had passed since he had last resisted.

Looking at Lin Ran’s appearance, Ling Sa’s heart ached.

But there was nothing she could do about it now, and as soon as she stopped moving her hands, she would be lost in her thoughts.

To stop herself from thinking, she kept on holding the water.

Time passed day by day.

In the blink of an eye, twenty-five days had passed.

And in fact, the poison was far more potent than Lin Ran had thought.

He, who was expected to last a month, was now lying motionless on the ground, unable to even finish his speech.

Linran finally stopped moving her hands.

She was desperate.

It had been almost a month since she had stopped holding the water, but the pool had not even lost any water.

The ground was completely wet, but the water in the pool was as if it was endless, never seeing the day when it would dry up.

“Ka ka ka!”

Just as Ling Sa was nearing despair, the frost all over Lin Ran’s body began to crack rapidly.

Ling Sa was busy coming over, she knew that every time the frost cracked, that was when Lin Ran was fending off these chills, and it was only at this time that they could say a few words.

Soon, the frost on his body cracked layer by layer, revealing Lin Ran’s features inside.

At this moment, his face was so white from the ice and snow that there was no trace of blood on his entire face.

If it wasn’t for the hot air coming out of his mouth, I’m afraid people would have thought he was a frozen dead man.

“Lin Ran, how are you?”

Lindsay was busy coming over and asking, her eyes full of tears.

“I’m fine!”

Lin Ran replied with all the strength he could muster.

“Let’s get out of here, okay! I can’t hold on any longer!”

Linran said in pain as she lay on top of Lin Ran.

Every day she watched Lin Ran’s body get worse and worse, while the water in the pool was not decreasing in the slightest.

This made her almost desperate.

What the hell was she doing every day? Watching Lin Ran dying right in front of her, but she couldn’t do anything about it.

If she had known this was the case, she would have let Lin Ran hold the water in the first place because she had come to take the poison herself.

At least with Lin Ran's qualifications the likelihood of success was definitely much higher than his own.

"Leave? Where can we go?"

Lin Ran barely managed to squeeze out a smile.

"A month's time is almost up, so it seems I can't carry on!"

"But I'm sure this is definitely not the outcome your ancestor wanted, you must hold on!"

"Maybe we're not going about it the right way, but at least we're all doing what he wanted, maybe we're not understanding it well enough!"

"But no matter what, you must persevere!"

Lin Ran looked at Ling Sa, with determination in his eyes.

"Persevere? Is it really meaningful to persist like this?"

There was confusion in Ling Sa's eyes.

Lin Ran, however, looked incredibly calm at this moment.

"What can I do if I don't persist? If you don't persist, you're still dead, but if you persist, there's at least a little hope, isn't there?"

"But"

Lindsay was still like to say something else.

Lin Ran, however, shook his head.

"I can't carry on, you must persevere, otherwise I will really die in vain!"

After saying the last sentence, Lin Ran helplessly closed his eyes, the coldness within his body had already started to erode his sanity, causing his consciousness to start to become blurred.

Chapter 1190

Desperation enveloped Lin Ran, and she couldn't help but tremble all over as she knelt on the ground, her sobs echoing throughout the small pool.

I don't know how long she knelt like this, until Lin Ran's voice completely dissipated into space.

Only then did Lin Lin stand up from the ground.

At this moment, it was as if she had aged by dozens of years.

Her hair was scattered over her shoulders, making her look extremely haggard.

She came to the pool in a mute manner and sat down quietly.

Picking up a ladle from the side, she proceeded to start filling it with water.

One ladle, two ladles, three ladles,

As she continued to fill the water, tears slowly flowed down her face.

Her mind was blank at this point.

She didn't want to think about anything, and from the moment Lin Ran closed her eyes, the door to her heart closed.

She didn't know what she was holding on to by doing so.

But she knew that if she did nothing, she feared that the thoughts would consume her completely.

Behind her, the plum tree blossomed and fell, year after year.

A layer of plum blossoms had fallen all over Lindsay's entire body, and only her arms were free of them, for her arms were still holding the water.

At some point, the ground outside the pool had been submerged by water.

The plum blossoms scattered on the surface of the water were beautiful in patches.

But Lindsay was in no mood to admire those plum blossoms.

The plum blossoms, which were the faith of the Plum Blossom School, were like petals of longing these days, reminding her of the person next to her every time she saw them.

Turning her head to look, the place where Lin Ran was was already wrapped in countless petals.

Only the outline of a person could be vaguely seen.

Since Lin Ran had last closed his eyes, he had never woken up, while a full ten years had passed.

Perhaps even Lin Ran himself did not know that he had been holding the water for ten years.

Suddenly, a gentle breeze blew by, scattering the plum blossoms on the tree.

Countless plum blossoms scattered in the pool, creating ripples in layers.

It made Lindsay look mesmerised for a moment.

"After all these years, the water in the pool still hasn't diminished just yet! What exactly is the ancestor testing?"

Ling Sa was puzzled in her heart.

She turned her head to look at Lin Ran, she didn't know how many times she had pondered this question over the past ten years.

The ancestral land of the Plum Blossom Sect, but why did Granny Plum Blossom have to let Lin Ran in.

Even if it really was dangerous within the ancestral land, there was no sense in letting an outsider in.

This was definitely a great taboo for a sect.

"But Granny did it anyway! Why on earth did she do it?"

Ling Sa was puzzled in her heart.

She began to think about the things that had happened to the Plum Blossom Sect over the years, recalling them one by one, no matter how big or small.

She went from why Granny Meihua had asked herself to be the head of this sect.

Thinking about why, in the end, Lin Ran was allowed to enter the Plum Blossom Cave.

Together with some of the things Lin Ran had said to herself earlier.

She suddenly realised a problem.

Historically, it seemed that all of the Plum Blossom Sects were headed by women.

And a long time ago, it seemed that the Plum Blossom Sect only accepted female disciples as well.

It was only later, for reasons unknown, that this gradually began to recruit male disciples.

But there is an iron rule in the Mei Hua Sect, that is, those who can become a candidate for discipleship will always be male.

And once they became the Head Master, unless they found a man who was also a disciple of the Mei Hua Sect to marry, the Head Master could not marry outside the school for the rest of his life!

“But now that Lin Ran and I have entered the Plum Blossom Cave, it means that he and Granny Plum Blossom must have struck some sort of deal!”

“If I help Granny Meihua find the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book, I can leave the Plum Blossom Sect, and that outcome holds true!”

“But why do you still want me to come in?”

The more Ling Sa thought about it, the more confused she became.

But there was one thing she was up in doubt about.

Letting herself in too, that meant that Granny Meihua was prepared to let herself learn this Plum Blossom Heavenly Book.

There were only two kinds of people who could learn the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book, either they were gifted disciples or candidates for the Master.

Gifted and oneself were not related, so there was only one possibility, to make oneself a candidate for the master.

“Did Granny promise that Lin Ran would help find the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book, so that I could both stay with him and inherit the position of Sect Leader?”

Ling Sa suddenly felt her heart jolt.

That was one possibility, and if that possibility didn't hold, then there was only one other possibility!

“This Plum Blossom Heavenly Book can only be taken by two people, and they must be two people who love each other!”

Lindsay instantly felt a sudden realization dawn on her mind.

She hurriedly turned her head to look at Lin Ran.

“Could it be that his current state is also a test?”

Ling Sa remembered the first weight.

The ancestor at that time had told himself to kill Lin Ran.

This was contrary to Granny Meihua’s original intention of letting them in.

In other words, Granny Meihua knew that the ancestor wouldn’t let herself really kill Lin Ran, and this was clearly a test of the relationship between the two of them.

“It’s really true!”

Ling Sa immediately felt that she understood her ancestor’s intentions.

“But what does testing feelings have to do with this pool of water?”

Ling Sa was puzzled again.

Suddenly, another breeze blew by.

The plum blossom tree swayed and a piece of plum blossom fell.

Suddenly, Ling Sa saw that the water in the pool actually rippled.

Followed by a very shallow whirlpool actually appeared on the surface of the pool’s water.

“This is?”

Looking at the vortex on the surface of the water, Ling Sa’s heart twitched as she smelled the air of the outside world.

“This vortex leads to the outside world?”

Ling Sa’s heart thumped.

As long as she jumped into this vortex she could leave this place and regain her freedom.

“But Lin Ran!”

Ling Sa hesitated.

“Weng!”

Suddenly, the dipper in her hand actually flew up and returned to her hand.

“Choose!”

Suddenly, an old voice rang out, if not the ancestor or someone else.

“Ancestor! You!”

Lingsha froze in her tracks.

“You have tabulated my intentions, now is the time for you to choose!”

“Pick up the ladle, and it will take you a full hundred thousand years to fill the pool with clean water!”

“And jump into the whirlpool and you will leave immediately, both choices you will get the Plum Blossom Heavenly Book!”

“Choose!”

The ancestor’s voice drifted throughout the space.

“One hundred thousand years?”

Ling Sa froze.

It had only been a mere ten years since she had started!

Instead, the ancestor was telling himself that it would actually take a hundred thousand years to fill the pool clean!

“A hundred thousand years can change a lot of things, wrapping people’s feelings! Are you willing to wait a hundred thousand years for him?”

The ancestor said indifferently.

The voice, however, was as if it was full of magic, making Ling Sa unconsciously want to choose to jump into the whirlpool.

“No! I can’t go! Lin Ran is doing this for me, I must not fail him!”

Ling Sa said as she hurriedly picked up the ladle in her hand and reached towards the pool.

“Have you thought it over? Once the ladle is like water, you will have no choice!”

The ancestor’s voice rang out again.

“I don’t need to think about it!”

Linran’s palm did not stop, she was afraid that if she hesitated even slightly, her settled heart would be in great turmoil.

She knew that she could not leave Lin Ran behind, for she loved him.

“It’s only 100,000 years! I can still carry it!”

Lingyan said, gently holding the ladle of water up.

A ladle full of water was poured outside the pool.

But at this moment, an unexpected scene appeared, the water inside the pool actually dried up completely at this moment.

The pool was finally empty!

“Ten years of enlightenment and only one scoop of water is taken!”

“You have passed!”

The ancestor’s voice slowly drifted away, and at this moment, the plum blossoms on the ground flew backwards piece by piece.

The frost covering Lin Ran’s body also began to melt at this moment.
