

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 1431

“What are you doing here!”

As soon as Elder Feng entered the quadrangle, five figures immediately rushed over quickly and directly surrounded Elder Feng.

These five people were clearly the five Elders of the Chao Heavenly Pavilion.

Of the original eight elders of the Chao Heavenly Pavilion, the Second Elder had died, the Third Elder had defected to the Dragon Family, and the Fourth Elder was still imprisoned on the island and not allowed to go out, and now only these five were left to preside over the Chao Heavenly Pavilion.

And the elders, who were usually hard to see even one of them, were all gathered in Wu Zhen today.

“Elder Feng! What’s wrong with Lin Ran?”

A woman’s stern voice came out, followed by four figures coming out from within the quadrangle.

It was none other than Song Nuan, Qin Bing Luo Qiqi, and Su Rou.

Looking at the four women and the five elders in front of him, there was guilt in Elder Feng’s eyes.

“Lin Ran is dead!”

“Impossible!”

Song Nuan shouted in a stern voice, while the four women’s eyes instantly turned red.

“I want to say it’s impossible too, but his life lamp has gone out!”

Elder Feng said, while taking out Lin Ran’s Fate Lamp.

Only to see that the life-light had already gone out by now.

Looking at this Destiny Lamp, Song Nuan and the others only felt that the entire sky had turned grey and dull.

“Then what are you doing here!”

The Eldest Elder looked at Elder Feng, his voice icy cold and tinged with anger.

Elder Feng looked at the five of them blandly before saying.

“Can we go in and talk? The dead are dead, but the living still need to live!”

Elder Feng said.

“You’d better give us an explanation!”

Song Nuan gave Elder Feng an icy glance, followed by turning around and walking towards the room.

Only in the moment of turning around, tears slipped down from her eyes.

.....

A few moments later, inside the room.

The crowd was standing in front of a table, and on the table at that moment was Lin Ran's already extinguished life lamp.

Song Nuan and the others did not speak as they looked at the life-light, each with red eyes and biting their lips.

The five elders also stood beside each other, likewise each with their fists clenched tightly, not saying a word.

"Ai!"

Elder Feng couldn't help but sigh.

"I know you're all very sad and it's hard to accept this news for a while, but those who are alive still have to live, and I'm sure if Lin Ran were here he wouldn't want to see you all like this!"

"Is that what you came here to say?"

Song Nuan suddenly turned her head to look at Feng Lao, with anger in her eyes.

"I didn't come just for that, I came to tell you that the Mysterious Alliance has finally chosen the Dragon and Yue families, so you should be prepared in your hearts!"

Elder Feng said.

"The Dragon Family and the Yue Family?"

The Grand Elder's face was icy cold at his words as he chided.

"Good! What a mysterious alliance, so you guys are going to openly make enemies of our Chao Heavenly Pavilion, are you?"

"No!"

Elder Feng shook his head.

"The Mysterious Alliance of and the Dragon Family will cooperate, but will definitely not interfere in the feud between you and the Dragon Family, you will solve your own problems!"

"In addition, the Mysterious Alliance might join forces with the Dragon Family to cultivate its own back-up medical team!"

"Dubbing your own? What will you take to cultivate!"

The Grand Elder's eyes were icy cold as he said in a cold voice.

"Don't tell me that you guys are planning to let that beast of a Third Elder deliver!"

"I think so, this is what Elder Fire and Elder Li want!"

Elder Feng said.

“Dream on!”

The Grand Elder was instantly furious.

“The Xuan Yin Pill Canon is something left behind by my Chao Heavenly Pavilion Master, and no one who is not from my Chao Heavenly Pavilion can ever learn it! The Third Elder has rebelled, and sooner or later our Chao Heavenly Pavilion will kill him! By doing so, your Mysterious Alliance is no different from declaring war directly on our Chao Heavenly Pavilion!”

“Right! What’s the difference!”

Several other elders also looked at Elder Feng with righteous indignation.

“Things are in the hands of people, and the fact that things have come to this point is not what I want to see, but the Mysterious Alliance is an alliance after all, and there are times when I alone can’t make a difference!”

Elder Wind said helplessly.

“And I hope that you can stay and continue to help the Mysterious Alliance and deal with the foreign devils together!”

Elder Feng looked at the Grand Elder, even though he knew the other man would hardly agree.

“Do you really think that our Chao Heavenly Pavilion is a charity? You pull our traitors to train others, and ask us to stay and help you, don’t you think you are too naive?”

The Grand Elder said in a cold voice.

“I tell you, as long as the Mysterious Alliance dares to do this, our Chao Heavenly Pavilion will definitely not sit back and wait for death, the Third Elder will have to die, and so will the people from the Dragon Family who plotted against the Pavilion Master with him in the first place! We will not spare any of them!”

“And your Mysterious Alliance will never get help from our Chao Heavenly Pavilion again!”

The Grand Elder had determination in his eyes, and the others even more so.

“Ai!”

Elder Feng sighed helplessly, he had expected this to be the case.

“What about you guys? That too?”

Elder Feng suddenly turned around to look at the four Song Nuan.

The three Qin Bing did not speak and turned their heads to look at Song Nuan, who was the only one who could represent the four, or even the Chao Heavenly Pavilion, at this moment.

In fact, during the six months or so that Lin Ran had been away, almost all of the actions of the Chao Heavenly Pavilion had been arranged by Song Nuan, and now Yan Ran was already the true head of the Chao Heavenly Pavilion.

Song Nuan looked at Elder Feng with a bitter smile on her face.

“It’s not that we have to be like this, but you guys are forcing us to be like this again!”

“But you have to know that all these personal grudges can be put aside before the war, if the foreign devils attack in, the whole world will be finished by then,? Do you think these grudges and entanglements still matter?”

Feng Lao said in a serious tone.

Song Nuan smiled at his words but smiled.

“I’m sorry, I’m just a woman, I don’t understand what you call grand principles, I don’t want to understand either, I only know that my man has been forced into the foreign devil domain, and his life and death are still unknown, you want me to help you? I can’t do it!”

“Besides, I don’t believe Lin Ran is just dead, I firmly believe he is still alive!”

“We’ll stand with the Chao Heavenly Pavilion, your Mysterious Alliance won’t be meddling in matters, but you also remember what you said, we’ll deal with the Dragon Family and your Mysterious Alliance won’t interfere either!”

“Don’t throw away your Mysterious Alliance, the last shade!”

“Hey! Why are you suffering, the Dragon Family is a hidden family after all, if you really want to go to war with them, even if you end up killing the Third Elder, you will lose a lot of money yourselves!”

Elder Feng sighed.

“Don’t worry, we’re not that stupid!”

Song Nuan said in a cold voice.

“We will sink into silence and will find all those who were involved in framing Lin Ran in the first place!”

“Five years!”

“After five years, if Lin Ran hasn’t returned! We’ll start a war with the Dragon Family, that’s my final line!”

“Why do we have to wait five years? Can’t we just reconcile?”

Elder Feng looked at Song Nuan.

Song Nuan, however, laughed coldly.

“Five years is the time I give ourselves, I believe Lin Ran is not dead, within five years he will return, those people will naturally be cleared by him personally, but if he doesn’t return in five years, I, Song Nuan, will clear it for him!”

“Send the guest!”

Song Nuan turned around and scolded.

“Elder Feng please put!”

The Grand Elder looked at Elder Feng with a cold and stern voice.

“Ai!”

Elder Feng sighed helplessly and finally glanced at the Life Lamp on the table and said.

“Let you go, I’ll leave this Destiny Lamp to you, it’s a reminder!”

After saying that, Elder Feng left the place with a sigh.

Chapter 1432

“Sister Nuan, what do we do next?”

Luo Qiqi looked at Song Nuan, her eyes red.

Song Nuan swept her gaze over the four of them and spoke.

“I’ll continue to live here and wait for him for five years! You guys can choose yourselves!”

Song Nuan didn’t say any more turning around and coming to the table.

The three women all had determination in their eyes as they turned their heads to look at Song Nuan.

“We won’t leave either!”

“Yes! We’re not leaving either!”

“Mm!”

Song Nuan nodded and held up the life-light.

“I want to give this to Ling Sa, do any of you have any objections?”

Song Nuan asked.

“For ....”

Luo Qiqi gritted her teeth and didn’t ask in the end.

“I know you want to ask why!”

Song Nuan looked at Luo Qiqi and said.

“It’s the only thing that can prove Lin Ran’s life or death, anyone would want to keep it around, not just us, I’m afraid Ling Sa wants it too!”

“But think about it, at least we have each other to keep company, what about Ling Sa?”

The crowd was silent.

“She’s alone in the Skywolf Domain, facing killing and bloodshed with her enemies every day, she hasn’t left until now, isn’t she also waiting for Lin Ran to return?”

Song Nuan said.

“We can still talk to each other, while she is the one who doesn’t even have someone to talk to about her heart!”

Finally, all three women nodded their heads not saying anything more.

“Grand Elder, please go away!”

Song Nuan wrapped Lin Ran’s Life Lamp properly and handed it to the Grand Elder.

The Grand Elder nodded heavily and said no more as he immediately turned around and hurried towards the Skywolf Domain transmission formation.

.....

The sky wolf domain, a struggle is already nearing the end.

At this time, a group of generals such as Fire One Sword Li Mu Di Fire Three were all standing in place, while not far in front of them.

A figure was holding a fiery red longsword in his hand.

As the sword swung down, blood spilled out and stained her armour.

It was as if she was a machine that only knew how to kill, killing the enemies that were fleeing one by one, leaving no one behind.

“She’ll go off the rails if she continues like this!”

Li Mu Di looked very worried.

“What can you do, just about to go to war and that kind of news comes in, it’s already good that she hasn’t gone mad!”

Fire One Sword said helplessly.

“Look at that Leng Xuan and the others, which one is not playing hard to kill!”

Fire One Sword pointed to the side.

At this moment, the three Leng Zhangs, including Li Sheng, were all covered in blood.

They were all more or less related to Lin Ran, and the news of Lin Ran’s death that came earlier had undoubtedly touched them the most.

“Forget it! Let’s find a way to comfort and console them later on!”

Li Mu Di sighed.

None of them wanted to believe that this news was true, but now it seemed to be certain that it was true.

Ling Sa walked back with her red longsword, her armour was now red with blood, and the long red whip strapped to her waist was dripping blood outwards.

“Collect your troops!”

With a cold shout from her, everyone around her moved, one by one, quickly organising themselves into formation and rushing back towards Heavenly City.

To say who all had changed the most in the past six months was undoubtedly Ling Sa.

In over half a year’s time, she had become the new commander of South City, and her strength had even soared under her almost playful outbursts.

Over here for more than half a year, since Lin Ran had entered the Fey Demon Domain, she had not missed a single battle in tens of thousands of battles, big and small.

Even though she was wounded, even though she was bleeding, she didn’t even flinch.

She was afraid! She was afraid that after she retreated, Heavenly City would be overrun by the enemy, and then she wouldn’t be able to wait for Lin Ran to return.

Even she dreamed of killing her way into Wolf City, even if it was just to look at that teleportation array from afar.

In order to fight and kill, she put away her long whip and had a red longsword specially forged for herself.

Because for her, since she was waiting here for Lin Ran to return, and since she had to kill the enemy the long whip was naturally not as handy as the sword.

The group returned to the Heavenly City in great haste.

The people in the city did not cheer either, they just opened the city gates to welcome Lin Ran and the others back.

As soon as they entered Heavenly City, they saw Liu Feng, the city lord.

He was standing not far from the entrance of the city gate, quietly looking at Ling Sa, while next to him was standing the Grand Elder.

“Go back to South City!”

Ling Sa instructed, and then she herself took the lead and walked towards the South City.

“Let’s go too!”

The Grand Elder wasn’t angry either, he understood Ling Sa’s feelings very well, and sighed as he immediately walked towards the South City together with Liu Feng.

South City, inside the City Lord’s Mansion!

Ling Sa stood at the entrance, not going inside, she didn’t even bother to wash the blood on her body, she just waited here.

“What are you doing here?”

Suddenly, Ling Sa opened her mouth to question.

And just then, the Grand Elder and Liu Feng had also arrived on top of the pavilion.

“Ai!”

The Grand Elder sighed helplessly and spoke.

“Miss Ling Sa, I understand your feelings very well, I came here this time because of Song Nuan’s wish, she asked me to give this to you!”

Ling Sa was stunned at her words, and then turned to look.

Just in time to see the Grand Elder holding out the wrapped Destiny Lamp.

“This is the Life Lamp of the Pavilion Master, sent by Elder Feng! Song Nuan felt that you needed it more, so he asked him to send it here!”

The Eldest Elder said, handing this Life Lamp, solemnly, to Ling Sa.

Ling Sa’s eyes instantly turned red as she looked at the Destiny Lamp in front of her, her body unable to stop trembling.

A moment later, she gripped the Destiny Lamp tightly in her hand, and then wiped the tears off her face and walked towards the side.

The Grand Elder had wanted to follow her over, but was pulled back by Liu Feng at the side.

“Don’t go over there, that place is the holy land of the Southern City!”

Liu Feng said.

The Grand Elder was a little puzzled, what holy place of the Southern City.

But at this time, Ling Sa, who was holding the bright lamp in both hands? , step by step, she walked towards the South City pavilion only up.

After Lin Ran left, Liu Feng took over from Long Mo and became the guardian general of this Heavenly Wolf Domain.

Lin Ran then built a separate pavilion in this South City.

There were people here all year round to guard the outside, and inside were placed those who had previously died in battle for the Skywolf Domain.

There were those plaques that used to be parked in the courtyard, and even more, there were all the generals who had died in battle for the Skywolf Domain over the years.

After arriving at the pavilion, Ling Sa wiped Lin Ran’s life lamp clean and solemnly placed it in the middle of the bar.

She looked at the life-light for an unknown amount of time, until it was all dark outside,? before she dried her eyes and prepared to leave!

“Just be good here, as long as you are here the generals of the South City will never retreat, you are the eternal commander of the South City, watch out inside, I won’t let you down!”

Lingsha said to herself as she looked at the Destiny Lamp, before turning and leaving the loft.

“Creak!”

The door to the attic was closed and the façade became quiet again.

It was as if everything had been set in stone like that.

For the next five months, Ling Sa remained the same as usual, constantly going to war and killing the enemy, as if she didn't know the skin roll.

And in Wu Zhen, the four women of Song Nuan also returned to their lives as usual, except that the Chao Heavenly Pavilion had completely delineated its relationship with the Mysterious Alliance.

The Long Family had completely become part of the Mysterious Alliance, and even the Third Elder had started to walk around the Mysterious Alliance.

It didn't even take long for news to arrive that made Song Nuan and the others and the Chao Heavenly Pavilion furious.

The Third Elder had gone so far as to openly accept disciples and teach the Xuan Yin Pill Canon that belonged to the Chao Heavenly Pavilion.

Chapter 1433

The Xuan Yin Pill Canon is an inheritance left behind by the Nine Mystical Maidens.

Moreover, back then, in order to prevent this Pill Canon from spreading out, the Nine Specters Maiden had even placed world worms on all the elders.

It was also because of the existence of the world worm that these elders could not really betray the Chao Heavenly Pavilion, and would not even age.

And this time, the Third Elder openly came forward to help the Chao Heavenly Pavilion, naturally he also understood this point, so he accepted disciples and handed over people's medical skills, never explaining them to each other positively.

He always taught as a bystander.

Although this was less efficient, at least it would not endanger lives.

For five months, Song Nuan and the others did not take any special action, but continued to gather news about the Long Family every day.

As well as all the participants who had forced Lin Ran to enter the Fey Demon Domain in the first place.

And so did Ling Sa, who every day, apart from conquering, just went to the South City pavilion to keep Lin Ran's life-light company and talk.

Everything seemed to have quieted down so much.

Everyone also seemed to gradually accept the fact that Lin Ran had died.

.....

And at this time in the Foreign Devil Domain, in the middle of the Endless Sea of Blood.

Today was exactly one full year of its Lin Ran had taken the Immortal Emperor Pill.

At this moment, his body, which had sunk to the bottom of the sea of blood, trembled violently, and the small red insects attached to his body surface were all frightened and fled away.

But soon, the trembling body quieted down again, and the aura of a strong person at the Dan Creation Realm also dissipated in an instant, becoming only the peak of the Creation Realm.

The red insects quickly attached themselves and wrapped Lin Ran's entire body in three layers.

.....

In the outer world, time passed like flowing water.

One month, two months, one year .....

In the blink of an eye, three years had passed.

If Lin Ran was still alive at this time, he would have been able to pass the three years of weakness brought on by the Immortal Emperor Pill and start cultivating again.

It was a pity that he was now out in the cold.

Apart from some people who really cared about him, such as Lin Ran Song Nuan, who would still mention him from time to time and couldn't let go of him, it was as if everyone else had already faded into oblivion.

The Chao Heavenly Pavilion had completely faded from the world's attention, and in its place was a force created by the Third Elder, probably only a few hundred people, the medical experts he had trained for the Mystic Alliance over the past three years.

The Third Elder had a very comfortable life these three years, and he even named his strength "Zhan Yi (yue)!"

What is Zhan Yi?

Chao Tiange, the word Chao means "above the word" and "below the sign", which is how the name "Chopping the Day" was derived.

But in the eyes of Chao Tiange and Song Nuan, this clownish act did not excite them at all.

Three years after the five-year agreement, they were already planning their revenge against the Long family.

The Mysterious Alliance, on the other hand, was unable to care about them at all at this time.

This was because just a month ago, the Fey Demon Domain had begun a frenzied attack.

Whether it was the Skywolf Domain battlefield, or even other battlefields, they all suffered powerful attacks from the other side.

The other side had suddenly become extremely strong, and their attacks were extremely fierce.

In the past, perhaps one fight a day was more than enough, but now the battlefield of the Skywolf Domain, where Ling Sa was, had not stopped fighting for a full three days.

“What exactly do the foreign devils want? To start the Great War early?”

At the headquarters of the Mysterious Alliance, Elder Fire, Elder Li and Elder Feng were sitting within a secret room.

Elder Feng’s face was indifferent, unable to see the slightest fluctuation in expression, while Elder Fire was exceptionally angry.

In the recent month, the battles in the various battlefields had intensified.

It had caused the Mysterious Alliance to suffer heavy losses.

“Old man Fire you take it easy, what this Third Elder has been up to chopping up the day is only three years after all, how can it be compared to such a huge base of the Chao Heavenly Pavilion!”

Old man Li said helplessly.

“Can’t compare does it not care? So many cultivators are injured down here and they can’t actually get medical treatment! No amount of us can put aside such consumption!”

Fire Elder said angrily.

“This can’t be helped, when we first decided to pull in the Dragon Family, didn’t we already anticipate this situation!”

Elder Li said.

Fire Elder smiled but his face turned a few shades more ugly.

“But we didn’t anticipate that the Dragon Family would actually contribute, look at the people they sent, how many of them can be of great use? This follower of the Yue family is even more useless!”

Elder Fire said angrily.

“What do you think, Elder Feng?”

Elder Li asked as he looked at Elder Feng.

Elder Feng shook his head at his words.

“Not much, even with the help of the Chao Heavenly Pavilion now, we can only slow down the pressure for a while! I’m afraid that the foreign devils are really preparing for a showdown this time!”

“I don’t think so!”

Elder Li frowned.

They had been fighting with the Other Demons for a long time, and once the final showdown really started, no matter who won in the end, the price would be very cruel.

“Humph! Open it if you want, we’re really afraid of him!”

Fire Elder stormed out.

“Now is not the time to be impetuous, we must stabilise the battlefields before we know what the foreign devil is really up to! Even if it’s a real showdown, we still have to resist this onslaught first!”

Elder Wind said.

“If you can’t, send them out!”

Elder Li suddenly spoke up.

“Now?”

Elder Feng frowned slightly at his words.

On the side, however, Old Fire said with a clap of his hands.

“Right now, if we drag on the whole battle line will have to fall, then our Mysterious Alliance will not be broken without a duel!”

“I’ll go and arrange it now!”

Said Fire Elder, directly turning around and leaving the secret room.

“Ai!”

Elder Feng sighed helplessly.

“This is our last bottom card, it’s too early to reveal it now!”

Old Man Li then said upon hearing this.

“No harm, I’ll go and talk to Old Man Fire later, your Wind Family will stay put for now, our two families will first put up half of their forces to stabilize the battlefield and see what happens before we talk!”

“Mm!”

Old Man Feng nodded, this was all he could do now.

For a long time, being the three major ones in charge of the Mysterious Alliance, how could Elder Wind and Elder Li and Elder Fire’s respective clans not have a little bit of heritage.

But this was their last card, and they would never use it as a last resort.

The situation is already forced to this point.

.....

The South City, Skywolf Domain.

“I’m here to see you again! But this time you can’t be greedy, I can only stay for two minutes before I have to leave!”

Ling Sa said with a smile as she looked at the lamp of Lin Ran’s life in front of her.

If someone had been here they would have been astonished, for Ling Sa had never smiled outside.

Outside, she seemed to be an iceberg, trying to freeze everyone she came across.

And it was only here that she would reveal her long-lost smile.

For three years, she had gotten used to talking to herself like this, telling everything about herself in front of a life-light.

Even though this bright light had no response at all.

“Commander! It’s time to depart!”

Suddenly, the voice of Fire One Sword came from outside the attic.

“Got it!”

Ling Sa returned, and immediately reached out to touch the Destiny Lamp, with satisfaction in her eyes.

“I don’t know how many days I’ll be able to return from this trip, so wait here well and I’ll come back to see you!”

Ling Sa laughed, the next moment the smile on her face had been frozen, her eyes were icy cold! Grabbing her longsword, she turned around and left.

“Creak!”

The door to the attic was closed again, no one could come here, except for Ling Sa!

The entire attic was also quiet again, as if no one had ever come before.

I don’t know how long passed, but suddenly!

The life-light that was placed on the bar table suddenly trembled.

Then, inside the lamp, which had been extinguished for more than three years, a little flame the size of a green bean lit up.

The flame was very faint, as if it would be blown out by a breeze.

But the flame burned for a long time, but in the end it did not go out! It burned and burned quietly.

Chapter 1434

The Alien Demon Domain, the Sea of Blood!

Three years are enough to change a person.

A teenager held a bone sword in his hand, which he had made from a skeleton that had been killed, and although it was not much sharp, it had been used for three years.

The teenager was none other than Yue Beishan, who had been locked up here by the foreign devil for closed-door training.

When he first came in, he still had a long sword in his hand, but unfortunately it didn't last long before it broke, so he made a bone sword himself.

But it was this bone sword that was able to fight those skeletons as if they were chopping and slicing.

Occasionally, Yue Bei Shan would even stop and close his eyes!

A shockwave would then fill the air directly, shattering the iniquitous souls that came running from afar.

Now that he was here, there were simply no more opponents, and he had finally survived three years.

“Weng!”

Suddenly there was a ripple in space, while a voice resounded throughout the Sea of Blood space.

“Yue Beishan! You can come out now! It's time for you to see your merit and establish your career!”

“Eh?”

Yue Beishan suddenly looked up at the sky with a start, and at this moment his fists clenched in excitement and his whole body trembled.

Three years! Three years! He had waited here for a full three years!

Yue Bei Shan took one last glance back at the endless sea of blood behind him, as well as Lin Ran's corpse in the depths of that sea of blood.

The next moment, he turned around and left the place without looking back.

.....

The Sea of Blood space soon returned to its usual calmness.

“Rumble!”

There was a sudden loud sound, followed by the entire sea of blood churning up.

Soon a behemoth figure emerged from the depths of the Sea of Blood, and heck that was none other than that? Like Lin Ran, the gigantic figure that had been suppressed here.

The figure looked towards the sky, his blood-red eyes unable to see any emotion, and he just looked on for a few moments before returning to the sea of blood again.

And in this endless sea of blood, there was a very strange object.

This object was white in colour and only the size of the palm of his hand.

It was a polygonal shape with nine sides in total, yet only one of them was opaque, and the other eight sides had more or less hollowed-out patterns.

This thing is commonly known as a lingon, and is also known as a nine-sided lingon ball.

And strangely enough, the blood around it could not enter it at all through the hollowed-out decoration on the surface of the Linglong Ball, and everything was white inside the entire Linglong Ball.

“Hmm?”

Suddenly, a muffled sound rang out inside the Linglong Sphere.

Following this, a bright light was gradually replaced in front of his eyes, and a pair of eyes opened up.

He looked blankly at everything around him, so blank that he didn't even know who he was and why he was here.

“Weng!”

A sudden stab of pain came, followed by a sudden plunge into darkness again before his eyes.

And this time, a day and a night passed before the light came back into the eyes.

“Where is this? How did I end up here?”

Looking at the unfamiliar surroundings, this wisp of divine consciousness was a little nervous.

That's right! This strand of divine consciousness was none other than Lin Ran's.

He hadn't died! He had carried it over.

“Kid! You've got a hell of a life! This isn't even dead!”

Soon the pillow's voice came through.

“Where am I? Where's Qing Zi?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

“What time is it, you're still thinking about her, don't worry she's properly in your mind, only she can't communicate with you at this time!”

The pillow said.

“Why?”

Lin Ran asked in wonder.

The pillowside book smiled at his words, however.

“Because you're just a wisp of consciousness right now, and your physical body is still floating in that nook of this Sea of Blood!”

“Shit!”

Lin Ran cursed in a particularly feeble manner.

“Are they all alright, Dead Fatty!”

Lin Ran asked.

“Nonsense, even Master Shu is fine, can they be fine, but you yourself! You're really lucky! Even I thought you'd be dead for sure this time!”

Pillow Book said.

“Is that so? What exactly happened?”

Lin Ran asked with a bitter smile, what exactly happened before was actually unknown even to him, all he knew was that he had been thrown into the Sea of Blood by the foreign demon and had quickly lost consciousness.

Waking up again he had already appeared in this place.

“You kid, what can I say about you! You’ve really gotten lucky this time this fucking time!”

Pillow Book laughed.

“Blessed by misfortune? What do you mean?”

Lin Ran asked.

“Do you know how long you’ve been in a coma this time?”

“How long?”

Lin Ran asked.

“Over three years! You’re so fucking good at business, I gave you an Immortal Emperor’s Pill, you ate it and went crazy in this foreign demon domain for most of the year, then rolled off to sleep! That’s three years of sleep! You’ve had a good time, and you’ve slept through the final period of weakness, so you’ve made a great fucking profit!”

The pillow said.

“Roll!”

Lin Ran was a little speechless, while his heart was filled with emotion.

It had been three years, and he didn’t know what had become of the outside world, he didn’t think he was still trapped in the Fey Demon Domain.

“Kid it’s really not me talking about you, you are indeed lucky this time, your soul was almost popping from being tortured by the Fey Demon before, and then you caught the three years of weakness brought on by the Immortal Emperor’s Pill, it’s really a miracle that you survived like that!”

The pillow book said.

Lin Ran smiled but sighed and said.

“So what if I can survive, I can’t leave this foreign devil domain not still for nothing, and maybe when the foreign devil finds out, when the time comes ....”

“Bullshit! Before the foreign devil came to pick up Yue Beishan to leave when not at all intended for your consciousness!”

The pillow book was busy saying.

“I suspect that even the foreign devils may not even know that this space exists!”

“Really?”

Lin Ran couldn't help but frown at his words, while also becoming more curious about this space.

Even the Fey Demons didn't know about the existence of this space, so what kind of place must this be?

As he thought about it, Lin Ran looked around.

At this moment, he was within this exquisite space, and when he looked outside, it was all red.

The sphere he was in was like a prison buried in a sea of blood, where the demon blood outside could not enter and he could not get out.

As his eyes retracted inside the Linglong Sphere, Lin Ran then saw that all eight sides of this Linglong Sphere were engraved with hollow patterns, except for the side he was standing on, which did not have hollow patterns.

“What is this?”

Suddenly, Lin Ran's gaze was drawn to an object in the middle of this side of the Lingling Ball.

In the middle of this Ling Ling ball, there was a rectangular pillar.

This pillar protruded high from the ground and was as tall as a person and wide enough for two people to lie down side by side.

It looked very strange.

“Why does this thing look like a bed! Could this place be the bedchamber of some great power?”

Lin Ran frowned.

“Bedchamber your sister, have you ever seen a bedchamber with holes all around it? You live here not to mention your daughter-in-law's family, even if you go to the toilet, people will have to look at you!”

The pillow book was not good enough to say.

“Which is what is this for?”

Lin Ran was a bit puzzled.

Pillow Book smiled but pondered for a moment and spoke.

“I feel like this thing is like a pendant! Like a nine-faced lingering pendant, and it's as if you're inside this pendant at the moment!”

“A pendant?”

Lin Ran frowned slightly at his words, but it felt as though what Pillowbook said was quite reasonable.

Chapter 1436

Outside, the war continued, and no one noticed that in the attic of the southern city of the Skywolf Domain, Lin Ran's lamp of destiny had been lit up.

In fact no one would notice this place at this time either.

This was because the frequent battles outside had kept this place uninhabited for a long time.

Time was like sand between fingers, always passing unnoticed.

Three months have passed in the blink of an eye.

In these three months, it was as if the ordinary people in the earthly territories, the metropolis, did not even realise what kind of changes had taken place around them.

In the domain of the Heavenly Wolves, Lindsay once again withdrew with her own men.

After three months of fighting and killing, she had lost a great deal of weight and her eyes were bloodshot.

There were times when she was so desperate that she could not hold on, but in the end, the sacrifice of her comrades kept her alive until now.

In these three months of war, more than half of the 20,000 soldiers of the Southern City were lost, and many of them were buried in the Skywolf Domain forever.

How many people have returned from the war since the ancient times?

At this moment, looking at those brothers who had survived tragically around her, Ling Sa couldn't help but tear up.

"Go back to the city!"

Ling Sa gritted her teeth and finally shouted out these two words.

After three months of fighting and killing, the foreign devil side had finally withdrawn, and Ling Sa could finally return to Heavenly City with her people.

In these three months, in addition to the more than 10,000 generals who died in battle, Fire Three even died in battle.

Li Mu Di was severely wounded and has yet to awaken, his life or death unknown.

Fire One Sword even had his arm cut off by Yue Bei Shan.

Li Sheng, Leng Xuan, Old Cat and Ah Zhan had countless wounds on their bodies. Even though they were retired special forces soldiers, they could not help but be moved in the face of such a tragic battle.

Many of their comrades and brothers had left, leaving them with a heart full of grief.

No one knew better than Leng Zhan how desperate and self-condemning the departure of such comrades made people feel, as they had experienced it before.

The gloom of war finally came to a bite of rest as the three months passed.

This was the case in almost every war domain.

But no one knows what the foreign devils are thinking and how long this short break after three months will last.

.....

In the sea of blood in the foreign devil domain.

Lin Ran was sitting in his lingering space, after these three months of cultivation, his strength had recovered to the half-step God Creation realm.

At this moment, the form his consciousness had coalesced into was sitting on top of a stone bed.

Around him was an endless amount of True Qi.

After three months of cultivation he had rocketed from the Bone Touching Realm all the way up to the half-step God Creation Realm today, thanks to his powerful sense of the Dao.

At this moment, his divine sense was incomparably powerful,? It was even a few points stronger than what he had before.

And at this moment, within his illusory divine sense, a red-gold inner bile was slowly levitating.

The original Red Flame Golden Pill had completely transformed into gold.

For at this moment, he was about to do exactly what he did not dare to do before.

Breakthrough!

Previously, within the Lost City Ruins, he had used the two pools of Yin and Yang to raise his perception of the Dao to the God Creation Realm.

He was unable to break through because of the Immortal Emperor Pill at that time, but now he was free of the restraints.

Blessed by misfortune, the three-year weakness period of the Immortal Emperor Pill had been slept over by him, and he was now fully capable of breaking through this final layer of barriers.

“Let’s begin!”

There was a sharpness in Lin Ran’s eyes, and the next moment his eyes were tightly closed.

The originally illusory divine Sense Void had become even more illusory at this point, and the true Qi around him continued to surge in, enveloping his entire body along with the stone bed below.

“Weng!”

The pure golden inner dan within his dantian trembled for a moment and slowly began to change.

The golden pellet was soon elongated, and then dents still appeared on it, and from the initial blur, gradually a human face actually began to appear.

Then came the arms, the legs.

It all started as a vague outline, gradually becoming more detailed, and eventually becoming exquisitely detailed.

He didn't know how many times he had demonstrated this process, he had tried it in the ruins of the Lost City.

Only at that time he did not dare to take the final step, so he stopped at the half-step God Creation realm level.

But now he was finally able to take that step.

Looking at this little golden figure in front of him, Lin Ran felt like a lifetime ago.

This little golden man, with a body that had the form of only a hollow in its eyes, had no soul!

“To draw a dragon, we must dot our eyes, and create a god to follow my heart!”

Looking at the little man in front of him, Lin Ran laughed lightly, followed by a slight click of his finger, and immediately two rays of light instantly shot into the eyes of the little golden man.

“Weng!”

In an instant, the golden little man's entire body glowed with golden light, and immediately a golden ray of light swept out in all directions with him as the centre, sending all the surrounding true qi flying out.

Following this, the golden little man fiercely opened his eyes, and at once two streams of brilliant light shot out, as if he could see through everything in heaven and earth.

“God-making God-making God! I am my god!”

Lin Ran looked at the little golden man in front of him and instantly smiled.

All along the way, he had finally crossed into the God Creation realm, how many people had stopped there, but he had finally crossed over!

“One step away, a thousand differences!”

Lin Ran's heart was filled with emotion, both his strength and his divine sense had long since been unrecognisable at this point.

If he were to go on the Grindstone of Life and Death again now, Lin Ran was confident that he would be able to resist at least a hundred times without annihilation.

But compared to a foreign devil, this strength was indeed still somewhat inadequate.

“The God Creation Realm is only on the Extreme Realm, and the God Creation Realm already has such divine abilities, so how terrifying must the Extreme Realm be?”

Thinking about this, Lin Ran couldn't help but sigh, being reborn naturally made him excited, but the thought of how to climb over this huge mountain in front of him gave him a headache.

“Kid! Be content with what you have, you are now a soul body after all, once you fuse with your physical body, along with the strength within your original body, you will be able to stabilise at least at the middle stage of the God Creation realm.”

“It’s only one realm away from the Extreme Realm of that foreign devil!”

“You have to eat your food one bite at a time, there’s no rush! The most important thing is to think about how to leave this place and the Fey Devil Realm!”

Pillow Talk spoke up.

“Hm!”

Lin Ran nodded at his words.

Indeed, Lin Ran had been in this Endless Blood Sea for over three years, and now he didn’t even know what was going on outside.

Furthermore, even if he left this Lingering Space now, it was then a question of how he was going to get out, he didn’t know where the exit of this Blood Sea Space was.

After getting out, it was also a question of whether the original four satellite cities’ teleportation arrays were still there.

Even if they were, I was afraid that they had all been controlled by the foreign devil, and if he found out, I was afraid that I would be dead.

Thinking about this, Lin Ran felt a headache.

“Forget it, let’s start with this Lingering Space first!”

Lin Ran sighed and didn’t think too much about it, and then he began to carefully survey this Linglong Space.

Nowadays, Lin Ran’s divine sense was even sharper and more powerful than before.

His divine sense spread out and quickly enveloped the entire Linglong Space.

However, under the detection of his divine sense? He was to discover that this Linglong Space did not even have an exit.

It was as if it was a completely closed space.

Chapter 1437

“Impossible, there’s something wrong with this place!”

Lin Ran’s heart directly seized up.

Under divine sense probing this Lingering Space was a completely closed place.

However, Lin Ran was clear that it was absolutely impossible for this place to be truly completely closed.

Otherwise, how else did the true qi that he had cultivated come in, that simply didn’t make sense.

“I’m afraid that the true qi in this place has been gathering for a long time, it definitely couldn’t have been here from the start, and I’ve absorbed so much from my previous cultivation, but the true qi here is still expanding, there is definitely an entrance and exit!”

Lin Ran thought in his mind, and immediately stood in place differently, using his divine sense to envelop the entire Linglong Space.

One minute, two minutes, half an hour .....

Finally, when Lin Ran stood motionless in the same place for a full hour passed.

The true qi within the entire Linglong space finally came to a complete standstill for the first time.

But following that, Lin Ran noticed that the true qi that had been exquisite had actually started to slowly rotate again.

It was just that the speed was very slow, so slow that if it was someone else with a slightly weaker divine sense, I’m afraid they wouldn’t have been able to sense it at all.

“It’s really there!”

Lin Ran was excited in his heart.

No wonder he couldn’t find it no matter how much he searched for it before, the true flow of air within this Linglong Space was so slow that if he hadn’t looked carefully I’m afraid he wouldn’t have been able to find the tip at all.

Previously, Lin Ran had been cultivating here, so naturally he could not have found that this true qi was actually flowing.

Concentrating his mind, Lin Ran immediately began to probe with his divine sense, and soon he was looking in the direction of the flow of true qi, in the opposite direction.

After just a few moments, he was surprised to find out.

The true qi in the entire Linglong space was actually flowing in more than one place, but all around the stone bed, the true qi was slowly flowing.

And this stone bed that stood in front of Lin Ran only surprisingly had countless holes in it.

These holes were so small that they could almost be ignored, but the number was indeed very large.

They were densely scattered all over the stone bed, and the surrounding true qi was constantly pouring in along the stone bed.

It was as if there was an air purifying organ inside the stone bed, filtering the true qi from the sea of blood outside and sending it into this exquisite space.

“Could the exit be in this stone bed?”

Lin Ran was overjoyed and immediately went to the stone bed, quickly invading his divine sense inside along the hole in the stone bed.

The divine sense quickly followed the hole and reached the inside of the stone bed.

However, when Lin Ran saw clearly what was inside the stone bed, he was startled and his entire body directly retreated towards the back, his face filled with shock.

“You kid have seen a ghost?”

Pillow Book said in no good humour.

“I’ve really seen a ghost!”

Lin Ran said, his face at this moment pale and without a trace of blood, purely because the image of the clothes he had just seen had scared him.

“What the hell is going on?”

Pillow asked busily.

Lin Ran swallowed his breakthrough and pointed at the stone bed.

“Where inside! Inside ..... There’s a man lying in there!”

“Shit! I actually did my cultivation on the bed before! You fucking came up with the slutty idea!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but curse.

Previously, Lin Ran had been cultivating on the stone bed, but the more he looked at the stone bed at this moment, the more it looked like a coffin instead.

“This thing can’t be a coffin, right!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but ask.

“Look at you, even if it is a coffin, so what? Are you still afraid of the dead with this strength?”

The pillow said speechlessly.

“What do you know!”

Lin Ran was also furious.

“Fuck! Do you know who’s in there?”

“Who is it? Hardly yourself!”

The pillow laughed disdainfully.

Lin Ran, however, shook his head and said.

“That .... Where’s the person, it’s Wind Elder!”

“Weng!”

Pillow Book also exploded at his words.

“You’re kidding, how could it be Old Man Feng! That old man is seventy or eighty years old, it’s hard to believe that he’s still a fraud!”

“Nope!”

Lin Ran suddenly shook his head.

“He’s not Windy Old Man! He’s ....”

“What on earth!”

Pillowbook asked.

Lin Ran, however, was busy swallowing before saying

“Do you remember the figure you saw under the Prison Mountain Desolate Swamp back then?”

“You mean that monster?”

Pillow Book asked.

“Yes!”

Lin Ran nodded his head.

“That’s him! That monster looks exactly like him, except that monster is too big and has a lot of those red compulsions on its face, so you can’t see it very clearly!”

“But I can be sure that the one in here is definitely him!”

“That’s strange, if the person in this stone bed is him, then what is that thing outside?”

Pillow Book asked in wonder.

“And how does this man look so much like Elder Wind?”

“I don’t know!”

Lin Ran shook his head.

He was puzzled too, when he first saw which figure under the Prison Mountain Desolate Swamp, he thought it resembled Elder Feng!

This time, this person that he saw here also resembled Wind Elder.

Lin Ran gritted his teeth and penetrated his divine sense into the stone bed again.

And this time, he could see clearly that the figure lying within the stone bed was clearly not human, he had no physical body and his body was suspended in mid-air!

“That! That’s a wisp of a soul!”

Lin Ran was instantly frozen in his tracks.

No wonder he had only his soul come to this Lingering Space, I dare say that this place could not be entered by the flesh at all, only the soul could enter.

“Hmm? What’s that?”

Lin Ran suddenly noticed that next to that soul, these few words were actually carved on the wall inside the stone bed.

These few words were carved very shallowly, as if they had no strength left.

The words on it read.

“Whoever you are! Please take the Linglong Pearl and leave!”

“Linglong Pearl? Leave?”

Looking at these words, Lin Ran’s heart was somewhat bewildered.

Who exactly was the other party? And what exactly was his relationship with Elder Feng? Why was he here? And what exactly did he mean when he told whoever it was to take him away?

“It seems like we must find Elder Feng to talk to when we go out!”

Lin Ran said.

“Alright, hurry up and find out if there’s an exit, since they left a will, you can just take this Linglong ball and leave!”

The pillow book was busy urging.

“Get out! This soul is obviously alive, its breath hasn’t even been cut off, what do you mean by a will! Beware of the fraudulent corpse coming out to bite you!”

Lin Ran said without good humour.

“Fine, I’m sorry! You hurry up and find it!”

The pillow said, “It’s really not good to talk about people like that.”

Without further ado, Lin Ran immediately continued to search inside the stone bed.

Sure enough, within a short while, he saw that on the wall above the soul’s head, there was an arrow carved into the wall, with the arrow pointing straight down.

Lin Ran was busy going over to check it out, and immediately saw a thumb-sized hole, the inside of which was so dark that he couldn’t even see the end of it.

“It should be even here!”

Lin Ran’s mind moved without any nonsense, and immediately his divine sense drilled in towards the empty hole.

This was the advantage of divine sense, it was invisible and not too much, drilling a hole Jane was like playing.

“Weng!”

Everything around him instantly darkened, and Lin Ran found that his surroundings had all turned a pitch-black colour.

At the same time he felt that his divine sense was moving rapidly, not knowing where it was leading.

Chapter 1438

I don't know how long it took, but Lin Ran felt like he was falling asleep.

Finally, a bright light began to appear in the endless darkness around him.

At first it was white, but soon the white turned into red.

The red light kept coming, and at a certain moment it was as if the window paper that was blocking Lin Ran's face had broken.

In an instant endless redness struck, sweeping Lin Ran's consciousness towards the back.

Lin Ran was quick with his eyes and turned around to grab the lingering pearl in the sea of blood behind him, and almost at the same time, his divine consciousness was swept away by the surrounding demonic blood and glanced out towards the back.

“It's finally out!”

A moment later, Lin Ran steadied his body and looked at the Linglong Pearl in his hand, with a feeling of joy in his heart.

After three years of dreaming, he was now finally alive again.

“Go!”

Lin Ran shouted and rushed straight towards the distant sense of flesh.

Amidst the endless sea of blood, Lin Ran's flesh body seemed like a flat boat, constantly drifting with the surge of the sea of blood.

“Weng!”

There was a sudden spatial ripple around him, and suddenly Lin Ran's divine sense appeared.

Looking at the body in front of him, which had been completely covered in red compulsions, Lin Ran had a sourness in his heart.

“I've made you suffer, old friend!”

Lin Ran stretched out his palm and slowly probed towards the flesh.

A surge of power instantly filled the air, and the red parasite that was originally attached to the body tried to flee.

The next moment it was already completely annihilated.

“Come back!”

Lin Ran had a smile on the corner of his mouth, and the next moment his entire body was directly drilled into it.

“Weng!”

The body that hadn’t moved for a long time suddenly trembled at this moment, and countless red blood mist erupted along the pores.

It was emanating from the compulsions within his body that had all been shattered by Lin Ran.

Inside his body, Lin Ran quickly repaired his meridians, and the true qi of the God Creation Realm quickly repaired every part of his body.

This body, which hadn’t moved in three years, finally took on a new life at this moment.

The golden little man, at this moment, was cheering inside his body, as if Lin Ran was very excited to reunite with his flesh substitute.

Looking at the golden little man, Lin Ran could not help but feel a sense of disappointment in his heart.

This was because on the head of the golden little man, there was a very hidden divine pattern.

Every time he saw this divine mark, he would recall the heart locking pill that Elder Feng had made him take when he had joined the Mysterious Alliance.

For so many years, he had never betrayed the Mysterious Alliance, and this Heart Lock Pill had never been triggered.

But when he did, he knew that this Locked Heart Divine Pill was ultimately a scourge.

And he didn’t know when he would be able to get rid of it.

“Kid! You must be thinking about this Locked Heart Divine Pattern!”

Suddenly, the pillow spoke and laughed.

“What?”

Lin Ran asked in wonder.

“There’s actually a surprise that I haven’t told you about!”

The pillow-side book laughed.

“A surprise? What surprise?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

With a smile, the pillow-side book said.

“This is also something I just discovered, this Heart Locking Divine Rune is also known as the Burning Heart Divine Rune, if you dare to betray the Mystic Alliance, this Burning Heart Divine Rune will burn you to ashes!”

“But this rune has a fatal weakness, that is, if there is no induction, it will be useless on its own after a long time!”

“Before you were in the Linglong Space, sleeping for a full three years, this Burning Heart Divine Pattern has long since broken the connection, and is now just a decoration!”

“Then does Elder Feng he know?”

Lin Ran busily asked.

Once this Burning Heart Divine Pattern of his own was broken, wouldn't that Feng Lao have sensed it as well.

“Shouldn't know, after all, as long as this thing isn't activated, he'll never know! But the premise is that you can't betray the Mysterious Company Alliance, otherwise I'm afraid that he will know about the uselessness of this divine tattoo!”

The pillow said.

Lin Ran nodded at his words, and suddenly he remembered something and asked busily.

“Then is the effect of this heart-locking divine tattoo still there?”

“Effect?”

The pillow-side book smiled crossly and said.

“It should still be there, after all, the medicinal effect of this Heart Locking Pill is still there, but this kind of thing you'd better pray never happens, otherwise in case it doesn't work you'll really be cold!”

“Mm!”

Lin Ran nodded at his words.

It was indeed true that it was better for this kind of thing not to happen, or else he might really be out cold.

At the beginning, when Elder Feng had asked Lin Ran to take the Heart Locking Divine Pattern, he had told him.

This Locked Heart Divine Tattoo, although there was a restriction that one could not betray the Mystic Alliance, had an advantage as well.

That was that if a person died, it was possible for them to be resurrected after a thousand years.

The power contained within this Locked Heart Divine Pattern could completely protect a person's heart and soul from being destroyed, and they could be resurrected again after a thousand years.

It was just that no one had ever tried this effect at all, so there was no way to know whether it was true or not.

“Weng!”

With a tremor, soon Lin Ran's body had been completely transformed.

And when he opened his eyes, there were clearly two brilliant rays of light shooting out of them.

“How refreshing! It’s been three years, and I’ve finally come to life!”

There was a stirring in Lin Ran’s heart, and immediately his entire body leapt up and rushed straight out of the sea of blood.

“So refreshing!”

Breathing in the air outside, Lin Ran’s entire body was incomparably soothed at this moment.

Although this was a devil blood space, and although there was still boundless devil blood around him, this moment of breathing with his body felt very soothing to him.

“Weng!”

Suddenly, just as Lin Ran was about to leave.

The endless demon blood below him actually trembled suddenly, followed by a huge figure quickly emerging from the sea of blood.

His aura was incomparably powerful, and at this moment Lin Ran felt a moment of fright even when facing him.

“He must be at least half-step Extreme Realm in strength!”

Lin Ran guessed in his heart, ? This huge figure in front of him was obviously not as strong as the foreign devil, but such a feared aura also showed how extraordinary it was.

Only the strength of Half-step Extreme Realm could explain his existence.

“What does he want?”

Lin Ran looked at him, motionless.

With the strength of the other party, if he wanted to kill himself, I was afraid that Lin Ran would have some difficulty even if he fought for his life.

But at this moment, he had no choice but to quietly watch what the other party was actually up to.

However, the huge figure just looked at Lin Ran silently, without saying anything! A moment later he suddenly raised his arm and pointed a distant finger at the left.

“Hm?”

Lin Ran looked a little puzzled, not knowing what he meant.

But then, the figure slowly sank back into the sea of blood, and soon the entire lake returned to calm again.

“Left! What does he mean? Could he be showing me the way?”

Lin Ran's heart twitched, although he was a little puzzled, but since the other party had already done so, he didn't bother to think too much about it at that moment, and turned around and rushed towards the left.

He didn't have a clue what to do here, so instead of bumping around like a headless fly, he might as well try to the left, maybe the other party would show him the exit.

And at this moment, just as Lin Ran was rushing towards the left, in the Extreme Realm space of the Fey Demon Domain.

"My lord! That Lin Ran kid really isn't dead, he's heading towards the blood path! Shall we!"

Daoist Sanyuan suddenly appeared and said respectfully.

Chapter 1439

The Other Devil was looking at the arrow tower in front of him with a smile on his face and laughed blandly at his words.

"If he died so easily, he wouldn't be the one who could kill your doppelganger twice!"

"My Lord!"

Daoist Master Sanyuan's old face reddened for a moment at his words.

"All right, go and activate the Blood Road Boundary so that he can find out as early as possible to leave the Fey Demon Domain!"

The Other Demon suddenly said.

"My Lord? You are joking right, let him go?"

Daoist Master Sanyuan froze in his tracks.

Lin Ran had killed so many people in the Fey Demon Domain, even two of the four generals had died, but now .....

"Do you think I have a lot of time?"

The foreign devil turned his head to look at Sanyuan, his voice icy cold.

"No ..... I dare not!"

Sanyuan Daoist was so frightened that a cold sweat appeared on his face and he hurriedly turned away.

"Humph!"

The foreign devil snorted coldly before he bricked his head and continued to look at the arrow tower in front of him.

And at this moment, on the arrow tower only, those nine lattices had been lit up five times, with only the four remaining lattices at the top being grey.

No one knew what strange things would happen if these nine grids were completely lit up.

“Three months to light up the first five lanes, the Mysterious Alliance hasn’t let me down! The last four lanes are just waiting for the showdown!”

Eagerness danced in the eyes of the foreign devil, as if it was very much like lighting all nine of these lattices as soon as possible.

“Lin Ran!”

A smile suddenly appeared on the corners of the foreign devil’s mouth.

“I was worried about how to delay for a while, but I didn’t expect you to come out now, so good! It’s just as well for you to open up a bloody path and prepare for the showdown!”

The foreign devil had a morose smile in his eyes.

“Leave? You think you’ve come to the Other Demon Domain and you’ve left completely? Back in the outside world, you can still integrate into the Mysterious Alliance?”

“Haha!”

There was a cold smile on the corners of the foreign devil’s mouth.

.....

But at this time, in the middle of the endless sea of blood, Lin Ran rushed all the way towards the left, but all the way over, there was nothing strange at all below except the endless sea of blood or the sea of blood.

“Hmm?”

Suddenly, just as Lin Ran was having some doubts in his mind.

A transparent soul suddenly appeared in front of him.

That still soul was transparent all over, and only had a burning fire flame in its head.

“What is this?”

Lin Ran frowned as he looked.

“It’s a resentful spirit, this party didn’t expect there to be such a thing!”

The pillow spoke.

“A resentment spirit?”

Lin Ran frowned slightly at his words, he had heard of this thing.

It was said and grievance spirits were only born in places where Yin Qi coalesced, usually in the pile of the dead, those who were unwilling to die eventually manifested themselves.

Against such things unusual attacks were useless at all, one had to use divine sense.

Fortunately, Lin Ran’s divine sense was very powerful nowadays, and his divine sense instantly swept away, directly shaking this grievous spirit into oblivion.

“Hm?”

Following that, Lin Ran’s eyes lit up, right after he had killed this grievous spirit, a continent unexpectedly appeared at the end of the sea of blood ahead.

Although the continent was also red, Lin Ran could see very clearly that it was clearly a continent, not a sea of blood.

Lin Ran immediately increased his speed and rushed up, and just a few moments later he was standing on this red continent.

“This continent!”

Looking at the red continent beneath his feet, Lin Ran couldn’t help but be stunned as he realized that this continent had actually appeared from the solidification of demonic blood.

“Look ahead!”

Suddenly the pillow’s voice came over.

Lin Ran looked up, only to see that on the continent in front of him, there was actually a skeleton crawling out of the ground, each of these skeletons had a green glow pulsating within their heads, looking very ominous.

“How could there be such things in this place!”

Lin Ran frowned slightly as he watched, followed by a wave of his palm, and a wave of powerful Qi swept out, instantly shattering all the skeletons in front of him into pieces.

However,? Although those skeletons were annihilated, the green light inside them was fine and pounced towards Lin Ran once again.

“Roll!”

Lin Ran roared, and the next moment his divine sense pervaded, directly shattering these grievous spirits.

After sweeping his eyes around and seeing that no other skeletons were appearing, Lin Ran then alertly walked towards the front.

However, as he walked past, Lin Ran’s heart gradually lifted.

He found that there were very many weapons and battle robes scattered all over this continent.

Although many of the battle robes were weathered and broken, the material could still be seen, while the weapons had all turned rusty.

In the midst of this endless sea of blood, it was a miracle that these weapons had been preserved until now.

“Something’s wrong!”

Suddenly, Lin Ran stopped in his tracks, flames of fire dancing in his eyes.

“What’s wrong?”

Pillow asked busily.

“Do you remember what Master Empty said earlier!”

Lin Ran said, his whole body already trembling.

“What words?”

Pillow Book asked.

“Master Empty used to say that when they entered the Fey Demon Domain, it was a bloody path that they walked out on.”

“This bloody path only had many enemies on it, and they fought for a long time before they killed their way in!”

Lin Ran said and pointed around.

“Are you saying that the blood road is here? It can’t be, the skeletons and grievances are so weak, so it’s possible to use wrestling to kill them!”

The pillow said.

“It’s true that this skeleton and grievance spirit are weak, but what if there are still enemies here?”

Lin Ran suddenly said.

Pillow Book fell silent at his words.

“I think we can go take a look!”

Soon Pillowbook spoke up.

“Hm!”

Lin Ran nodded at his words, and then continued walking towards the front.

Apart from the wave of skeletons he had encountered at the beginning? Further on, Lin Ran was not seeing any skeletons.

It seemed that those things didn’t dare to come out.

After walking on this bloody path for about half an hour, Lin Ran froze in his tracks as a layer of red ripples blocked off the entire space in front of him.

The ripples stretched from the ground to the sky.

It was as if a wall had been placed in front of him, blocking off the road.

Looking at this layer of ripples in front of him, Lin Ran’s heart was pounding.

Having come this far, he was more and more certain that the path in front of him was probably the path of blood that Master Khongkong had spoken of.

Why else would the foreign demons have blocked this place off?

Perhaps on the opposite side of the ripples was the exit to the outside world.

“Try it!”

Lin Ran said excitedly, and with a whirl, he drew out his Condensing Frost Sword, and in an instant, the sword was cold, and a wisp of seven-coloured sword aura charged straight ahead.

“Bang!”

There was a loud sound, and instantly the ripples in front of him were actually chopped open by a gap.

As his eyes passed through the gap, Lin Ran instantly saw that on the opposite side of the ripples were actually countless black clouds and lightning bolts.

The appearance was simply no different from the sky of the Skywolf Domain.

And in front of the countless black clouds and lightning bolts, there was a very tiny light.

That light was all too familiar to Lin Ran, it was exactly the colour of the sky, the sky belonging to the outside world, not the one of the Fey Demon Domain.

At this moment, even a faint smell of grass was blowing in the air. Lin Ran’s whole body was excited, and there were even tears of excitement in his eyes.

It had been more than three years! He had finally found the exit to leave.

Opening up the blood path, he could finally go back!

“Let’s go!”

As soon as Lin Ran gritted his teeth, without any more nonsense, his feet lashed out and he charged straight in towards the ripple gap.

Chapter 1440

Not long after Lin Ran’s figure rushed within the ripples, a figure suddenly appeared out of nowhere where he had been standing before.

“Humph! What a bargain for you, but you think you can get out like that? Have fun in there, I hope you get out alive!”

Daoist Sanyuan had a cold smile on his face as he looked at the rippling gap in front of him.

Then, he only saw his palm wave, and the spatial gap directly closed up.

That was right, he was the one who had just helped Lin Ran open this gap, how could a ripple that could separate the foreign demon domain from the outside world be so powerful that Lin Ran could split it with a single sword.

And Lin Ran had noticed this before.

But at that time, he simply couldn't care less, having spent more than four years before and after in the Fey Demon Domain, he had long since had enough of this place.

He was going to get out, even if there was a trap ahead, he was going to try, he really wanted to get out.

.....

And at this time in the Heavenly Wolf Domain, Ling Sa, with her own men, finally rushed back to Heavenly City.

The three months of battle had left them exhausted, and some of them even fainted straight away as soon as they returned to the city.

Ling Sa arranged for the men to hold each other up, and only then did she return to South City with less than 10,000 South City troops left.

"Commander, or you can go and rest first, leave the rest to me!"

Li Mu Di had already woken up by now, although he was still weak, but at least he had rested on this journey back, while Ling Sa had not rested at all.

"Mm!"

Ling Sa nodded, with a deep leathery roll on her face.

She slowly returned to the commander-in-chief's residence, only she did not go inside, instead she walked towards the distant pavilion.

It had been three months since she had left, and all she wanted to do at this moment was to go and see Lin Ran's Life Lamp!

"Open it!"

Arriving at the door, Ling Sa commanded.

"Yes!"

The man guarding the attic quickly brought it to life.

Only after Ling Sa had entered the attic did he close the door again.

The attic was very bright, and in order to let in bright light often, Ling Sa had very thoughtfully made many holes above the attic so that the place would not be dark when he was not there.

Ling Sa swept her gaze over the bar in front of her, very tired she actually did not notice for a moment that Lin Ran's life lamp had been lit.

"Flutter."

She sat down on a futon to one side, physically and mentally exhausted she leaned against the pillar behind her and whispered.

"I'm back, are you alright? A lot of people died this time, but it was without me!"

“How I wanted to be there for you! Are you all right where you are?”

Lindsay’s eyes were red as she spoke, and she couldn’t hold back the tears.

She hadn’t shed a tear in three months of battle, but sitting here now, she was no longer the commander of those outside, she was just a woman, a woman who also longed to be protected.

Soon, in her exhaustion, Lindsay fell asleep.

She dreamed, dreaming of her first meeting with Lin Ran in the past, of the time she and Lin Ran had lived in the village.

“Hmm?”

Suddenly, Lin Ran woke up from her sleep, she didn’t know how long she had slept, but at this moment she suddenly remembered that when she entered this attic, she had clearly seen a bit of light!

This attic was all filled with tablets, and there was only one life lamp, which was Lin Ran’s.

But it was all extinguished before, so how could there be a bright light.

She was busy rubbing her eyes and slowly turned around to look.

Upon this glance, she froze in her tracks.

Only to see that on the bar in front of her, the only lamp of life was truly emitting a red light, burning with unparalleled fervour.

“The lamp ..... He ..... He’s not dead!”

At this moment, Ling Sa’s tears instantly like a waterfall slipped down, her witness even curled up, her body couldn’t stop trembling.

A full moment of crying ah before she stabilized her emotions and shouted at the door.

“Go and inform City Master Liu! Lin Ran is not dead! Tell him to bring Song Nuan and the others over!”

“Yes! Commander!”

The voices of his men came from outside, quickly moving away.

Peace returned to the pavilion.

However, the entire Heavenly City was shaken.

The news that Lin Ran hadn’t died was like an abnormal earth formation that first began to tremble in the Skywolf Domain.

It soon spread to Wu Zhen, followed by the Mysterious Alliance headquarters, followed by the other battle domains.

Finally, it reached the Nanyang Dragon Family.

At this moment, some people were happy and some were sad.

But Song Nuan and the girls couldn't manage it, neither could the Grand Elder and the others, and the same could not be said for Elder Feng.

At this moment, countless people were converging towards the Skywolf Domain, and Elder Feng was among them.

"Creak!"

The door of the pavilion was pushed open!

Four figures rushed in one after another.

When they saw the life lamp placed on the bar in front of them, their eyes were all red at the same time.

There were tears on each of their faces.

At this moment, the tears they shed were tears of joy.

Three years! Three years! They had finally waited.

"Thank you!"

Song Nuan looked at Ling Sa in front of her and spoke.

The four of them could at least comfort and support each other, but what about Ling Sa? She was all alone.

Looking at the situation in the attic in front of them, they could imagine.

How Ling Sa had survived these three years.

The way she sat alone in the attic, talking to herself, must have been heartbreaking.

But they had gotten through it after all, and they had waited for the result they wanted to see.

Lin Ran was not dead!

"Where's the Life Lamp!"

Suddenly a voice came out, followed by the figure of Wind Elder rushing in.

Seeing the Destiny Lamp in front of him, there were tears sliding down Wind Elder's pale cheeks.

His heart was trembling.

Yes! He was one of the three great elders of the Mysterious Alliance, and he had his own unavoidable hardships.

He could only watch as Elder Fire and Elder Li chose the Dragon Family and even gave up on the Chao Heavenly Pavilion.

But he was likewise a human being.

In his heart, Lin Ran was as if he was his disciple, and although Lin Ran had not worshipped him as his master, he had treated Lin Ran as a disciple.

He had despaired when Lin Ran's life-light went out, just as he was incomparably excited and happy now after Lin Ran's life-light was re-lit.

.....

The news that Lin Ran was not dead soon spread throughout the cultivation world.

Because the war had been temporarily halted by the withdrawal of the foreign devils, soon even Elder Wind and Elder Li, and even Long Yue came to the Skywolf Domain.

Nowadays, the Long Family had enough say in the Mystic Alliance, so it was only natural that Long Yue should come here.

It was just that he was also smart enough to know that this was not the time to be nosy, so he had been hiding on the sidelines without saying anything, just watching quietly.

The crowd carried Lin Ran's life-light out of the pavilion and placed it in the Southern City Commander's residence.

None of them opened their mouths to ask when Lin Ran would return.

They knew that no one could answer this question, but they still waited here.

Because they didn't want to miss out, they wanted to be in the Skywolf Domain, waiting for him to come back! Pick him up and bring him back!

“Weng!”

Suddenly, the entire Skywolf Domain trembled violently.

A violent tremor put as if the heavens and earth were about to collapse!

Song Nuan and the others were on the city walls at this moment, and when they looked up, they suddenly found that a crack had exploded in the thunderclouds in the sky of the Skywolf Domain.

At this moment, there was a red light shining in the crack, as if there was blood in the sky trying to rush out from the crack.

Seeing this scene, Elder Feng froze, and after that he shouted out!

“The blood path is open! Lin Ran is coming out!”
