Wonder Doctor Chapter 1731

Qiu Mo lay on his bed contentedly, contemplating how to get closer to Lin Ran tomorrow, while imagining a better future for himself and Lin Ran.

Lin Ran, who had left the room, was on his way back to his room, his brow furrowed as he said nothing.

Like? A heartbeat? There was no trace of it on his face at the moment.

There was only a frown!

He didn't understand what Qiu Mo was thinking, but he simply wasn't interested in children's love at the moment, nor did he have the time to be interested.

Even if Qiu Mo was as beautiful as a fairy, even if she was still very active!

But for a man like Lin Ran, who had been reborn after death for a thousand years, could a woman's beauty and initiative really mess with his mind?

What a joke!

When he returned to his room, Lin Ran continued to practise his sword dao, as if the previous incident had never happened.

The repairs to the mine continued, and after yesterday's day of cleaning and repair, the passage outside the mine had basically been cleared of any safety hazards.

Only the cracked areas inside the pit need to be reinforced and rechecked.

Wang En had been given a good training by Chen Shan in the past two days, and the training was in fact a lesson, so that he could remember his lesson, and if he dared to use his true qi to blast inside the pit, he would be killed.

To ensure that this would not happen again, Chen Shan even made a rule that whenever Wang En was about to enter the pit, he must seal up his strength and unlock it when he came out.

Although this would invariably make Wang En's digging more difficult, it was better than having this happen again.

And technically speaking, Wang En was already wearing a sin, so if he got comfortable in the pit, I'm afraid Lin Ran wouldn't approve!

The next day passed in a hurry, and it was already the evening of the third day.

After nearly three days of repairs, the pit was finally back to normal and ready for use.

The pit had collapsed before, so all of them, including Tianhu, were reluctant to continue working in the pit.

Although Chen Shan and Han Qiqi had done a lot of work, they were still unable to convince them.

It was only when Lin Ran stepped in and offered to swap the pit that the matter was put to rest.

At first, Han Qiuxian did not agree, but he had no choice but to do so, and Lin Ran repeatedly insisted.

Only after settling these matters did Fang Tang move to the room where Qiu Mo was.

After nearly three days of rest, I think her leg was basically fine, but if she wanted to recover to go digging, I'm afraid she still had to rest for a few days.

When he arrived at the room, Lin Ran was prepared to see if there was no major problem with her leg and then leave straight away.

After all, he had delayed for three days and was anxious to return to the mine to continue his fishing for the shining eels.

But when he arrived at the room, Lin Ran couldn't help but frown slightly, because the bed was empty, Qiu Mo didn't know where she had gone!

"Qiumo?"

Lin Ran shouted, but no one answered him, the room was unusually quiet.

Suddenly, just as Lin Ran was about to leave to look outside to find out if this nun had run away, a faint wind sound blew over from behind him.

The sound of the wind was so faint that even Lin Ran might not have heard it if the room had not been so quiet.

Noticing something strange behind him, Lin Ran reflexively raised his hand and struck a hand slash towards his back.

"Ah!"

A woman's cry of alarm came from behind him just as his palm struck, and Lin Ran was busy staring at it.

Who else was standing behind him, if not Qiu Mo.

"Be careful!"

When Lin Ran saw Qiu Mo, he was busy stopping his palm and spoke at the same time.

But he was too fast, and although his palm stopped, a strong wind blew in Qiu Mo's face.

This girl was so frightened that she closed her eyes and her body unconsciously fell towards the back.

"Hey!"

Seeing this, Lin Ran was busy catching her with an arrow step, his palm passing just below her neck and holding her in his arms.

At this moment, the two of them were facing each other, and Qiu Mo actually wrapped her hands around Lin Ran's neck in a very natural way.

The soft fragrant breeze kept eroding Lin Ran's sanity, the person in her arms was too beautiful.

The person in his arms was so beautiful, and so bird-like, that if it were anyone else, he would have fallen into this woman's beautiful eyes in an instant.

"You're scaring people!"

Qiu Mo unleashed her strongest attack, a voice that was gentle but complaining caused Lin Ran's whole body to shake, and he only cursed in his heart that this woman in front of him was really seductive enough!

"Are you alright!"

Lin Ran settled down and helped her up, ready to let go, however who knew that Qiu Mo was wrapping her arms around Lin Ran's neck and wouldn't let go at all, complaining.

"I was fine, but I seem to be in some pain again after being scared by you just now, you have to carry me back!"

"!!"

Lin Ran was immediately blocked from arguing, although he knew that this Qiu Mo was afraid that he was faking, but indeed it was also himself who had scared the other party.

In the end, the good man did what he was told to do, and sent the Buddha to the west, so Lin Ran immediately gritted his teeth and picked up Qiu Mo and walked towards the bedside.

"Thank you!"

Qiu Mo saw this with a cheeky smile and a smug look in her eyes.

"Your arms are so strong!"

When he reached the bedside Qiu Mo said, while actually poking at Lin Ran's arm, looking very mischievous and cute.

"Rest well, I'm leaving!"

Lin Ran didn't want to stay much longer turned around and was about to leave, this nee-san's killing power was too great, Lin Ran's mind was already very calm even though he had slept for a thousand years.

"Don't!"

Seeing that Lin Ran was about to leave, Qiu Mo was so anxious that she directly grabbed Lin Ran's neck again.

"Let go!"

Lin Ran saw this and could not help but frown slightly, his voice colder by a few degrees.

"You can't leave?"

Qiu Mo's heart sank at the sight, knowing that the time had come when he had to show his hand, whether he could turn around or not would depend on his next performance.

“You have something?”

Lin Ran looked at her, his expression bland gaze but with a sharpness.

“I I’m afraid!”

Qiu Mo said with a resigned face, while looking outside the room.

“You see it’s so dark outside, people are really scared to be alone, or else you can stay tonight!”

As she said that, Qiu Mo actually moved towards Lin Ran’s ear, exhaling her breath like an orchid, the fragrance and heat waves constantly tantalizing Lin Ran.

“There are people around, there’s nothing to be afraid of!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, while raising his hand to pluck away Qiu Mo’s hand from his own.

But who knew that Qiu Mo would grab Lin Ran’s hand first and put it on his neck, and instantly their cheeks were pressed together and the tips of their noses even touched.

The warmth and softness of the water on his arm and the exhale of his nose made the waves in Lin Ran’s heart even bigger.

“Stay okay, no one will come at night, can I let serve you properly?”

Qiu Mo exhaled like an orchid, followed by actually one side of the shoulder, instantly the tulle gently slipped down.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1732

Watching Qiu Mo act like this, Lin Ran couldn’t help but frown slightly, the palm of his hand fiercely sent instantly from behind her neck and drew back, at the same time smoothly lifted up Qiu Mo’s slipping clothes.

“I’m not interested in throwing you, in this way later life or death has nothing to do with me!”

Lin Ran untied Qiu Mo’s hand around her neck and looked at her indifferently without the slightest warmth in his voice.

“You!”

When Lin Ran said that, Qiu Mo’s face instantly turned red, only this time it was not scarlet but red.

“Lin Ran, I really like you, don’t you like me at all?”

Qiu Mo said as she undyingly ran into Lin Ran’s arms and leaned on the other party’s chest.

How could she say that she was still a beautiful woman, and who didn’t know about her beauty in Baki Mountain.

Although those really powerful disciples of Baki Mountain never looked at themselves, but she was clear that those people were all wooden and only had cultivation in their hearts.

Even if they were replaced by a fairy, they still would not be moved.

And apart from these disciples,? Which of the other people in Baki Mountain were not scheming against her, even people like Wang En who had already made it to the middle and upper levels had harassed her before.

What she wanted was someone strong enough to give her everything she wanted.

She wanted someone strong enough to give her everything she wanted, and this Lin Ran had clearly met her expectations so far.

If it had been someone else and she had taken such an initiative or even hinted at it, she was afraid that the others would have already been unable to resist.

As a result, who knew that Lin Ran had actually managed to keep his wits about him and even pushed himself away! This simply made her somewhat doubt her own charm.

“No!”

Faced with Qiu Mo’s question, Lin Ran blandly replied, while directly pushing her onto the bed and turning around to leave.

“Don’t you go!”

Seeing this, Qiu Mo immediately became anxious and directly hugged Lin Ran from behind, not caring at all about the contact they only saw.

“Lin Ran, I really like you, you stay OK, as long as you stay tonight you want to do whatever I I promise you everything!”

Qiu Mo said, there is even more determination in his eyes.

If Lin Ran really leaves tonight, she knows very well that she will not have another chance in the future, and even and Lin Ran will be strangers, she does not want to give up and does not want to miss this opportunity.

If she could become his woman, her status would no longer be that of a disciple.

“You’re really willing to go out of your way!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but smile at his words.

Back in his hometown, he had seen the kind of people who would sell their position for money, and even when he was abandoned by Zhao Yu it was because of money.

When he arrived at this Immortal World, the world of cultivators, he had originally thought that people here would at least have their blood on their hands, but who knew that even in the Immortal World, there were actually such people who would do anything to get to the top and even willingly degrade themselves.

“Lin Ran! I really like you, I only treat you like this, let me be your woman okay, I will dress you up with all my heart and soul!”

Qiu Mo said, while raising his head and turning Lin Ran around, looking at him and saying.

“Don’t you have any interest in me at all? Whether it’s soul or flesh, as long as you like it, I can give it to you tonight!”

Qiu Mo said, there was hotness in her eyes, a woman saying such words and a beautiful woman at that, I’m afraid if it was any other person, she would have been moved straight away.

But Qiu Mo was wrong, her mistake was that the person she chose was Lin Ran.

“I admit it,? You are very pretty, as long as a man is afraid that he will have some thoughts about you, I am not a saint naturally too!”

Lin Ran looked at Qiu Mo and said blandly.

“I can give you that, I really do! As long as you stay tonight, I’m yours!”

Qiu Mo sniffed and said busily, and had even taken the initiative to stick close to Lin Ran’s arms, not avoiding suspicion in the slightest.

Lin Ran looked at her but smiled, and as he pushed her away, Lin Ran said indifferently.

“You are willing, but I am not!”

“Why? You said yourself that you have thoughts about me too!”

Qiu Mo pursued her relentlessly.

Lin Ran smiled blandly at his words and said.

“I remember a saying I used to say to Han Seven Years, a person with a temper isn’t a skill, being able to control one’s temper is the skill!”

“This saying is also very appropriate for you! It’s equally true when applied to me!”

“Your good looks are not your capital, being able to conquer others with your strength is your capital!”

“And me! Having thoughts of you and being able to get them is not a skill, being able to control my desires is the skill!”

After saying that, Lin Ran turned away from looking at Qiu Mo and said with an icy cold voice.

“I am not the same as you, not now and not in the future, put away your little thoughts, I can pretend that nothing has happened!”

“Otherwise you lose not only what you have now, but also what you already had!”

After saying that, Lin Ran turned around and was about to leave.

Qiu Mo looked at Lin Ran’s resolute steps, her heart completely cold, but she was unwilling she was really unwilling.

“Why, why can’t you even look at me when I’m so pretty! Why?”

Qiu Mo asked in an angry voice as she rushed towards Lin Ran.

Lin Ran smiled as he stopped in his tracks and said.

“Because you don’t know how to love yourself!”

Lin Ran said in a cold voice.

“Self-love? Haha! You’re talking to me about self-love? Lin Ran I’m telling you, if you dare to leave tonight, I’ll ruin you!”

Qiu Mo said angrily, Lin Ran’s familiarity with her had completely angered what was left of her self-esteem.

“Really? I’ll wait!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, and then continued to walk forward.

Seeing this, Qiu Mo’s fists were clenched and her eyes were bloodshot, and suddenly she actually shouted out loud at the outside.

“Indecent assault! Help! Lin Ran, you son of a bitch, why are you trashing me! I molested you!”

This shout of hers was instantly like throwing a bomb into the lake.

First, there was the sneak attack by the Dark Origin Musk Eagles, and then there was the explosion in the mine, which had put the whole camp in a tense state, and this shout was like a bolt from the blue, causing a crowd of people to rush towards the pavilion.

Lin Ran also couldn’t help but stop in his tracks when he heard her say this, he didn’t turn around just said blandly.

“I originally just thought you didn’t love yourself, but I didn’t think you would even want to lose your face!”

“Haha! Face? Can face be a meal? If you don’t agree to be my man tonight, I’ll make you lose your reputation! You won’t be able to get along in Yaki Mountain anymore!”

Qiu Mo said icily, there was actually madness in her eyes at this moment.

“You’re dreaming!”

Lin Ran’s voice was bland as he finally said back to her, then he stopped talking and walked straight towards the chair at the side before sitting down.

He quietly watched as Qiu Mo tore her clothes there, faking the crime scene and waiting for the storm to come!

As expected, just a few moments later Han Seven Years arrived with Tian Hu and the others, followed by Chen Shan and a host of other armoured generals.

When Chen Shan saw Lin Ran in the room and Qiu Mo, who had torn her clothes and was hiding on the bed and crying, he could not help but sink his face and said angrily.

“Seal off the scene no one is allowed to come in!”

“Yes!”

A group of generals smiled and one by one walked towards the perimeter of the loft, directly blocking off anyone who hadn't arrived behind them.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1734

"Weng!"

Qiu Mo's side had been silent, suddenly the pavilion in front of him only on but a tremor, followed by the window on the first floor of the pavilion opened out of thin air, followed by a figure had appeared in front of the window, not Li Yuan or who.

"Lin Ran!"

When Qiu Mo saw that Elder Li Yuan had actually come out, he immediately became anxious.

"Don't you go too far!"

Qiu Mo looked at Lin Ran and said angrily.

"You have defiled me, although I am not an expert, Qiu Mo is not considered a prodigal woman since I ask myself, is it possible that I am not worthy of you!"

Lin Ran did not say anything, but the group of people around him were looking a little helpless and shaking their heads, how they wished that it was themselves who were standing in Lin Ran's place at this moment.

Qiu Mo had said so, if it were them, I'm afraid they wouldn't have the slightest hesitation in saying yes directly.

"Qiu Mo!"

Tian Hu looked anxious and angry, how could he like Qiu Mo and watch Qiu Mo really follow Lin Ran.

"Elder Li!"

Qiu Mo saw that Lin Ran kept silent, knowing that it was useless to say anything, he was ready to move Elder Li to say something.

"Although I, Qiu Mo, am not a core disciple of Baki Mountain, I am at least a member of your Baki Mountain, can I do whatever I want just because Lin Ran is a guest minister?"

"How do you mean by that?"

Li Yuan asked, frowning.

"How so? Isn't it plain to see! If you're using a reshaping stone to reshape here, then I, Qiu Mo, might as well just die!"

"Wasn't it enough to be defiled by this bastard once? Do you want everyone to see it again in public?"

Qiu Mo said angrily.

"This!"

Li Yuan was also dumbfounded when he heard that.

He hadn't really thought of this.

"Simple! Just let Elder Li Yuan see for himself!"

"No way!"

Li Yuan immediately waved his hand when he heard that, he was a big old man, if he really saw any images then what the hell, and he wouldn't be able to do such a thing!

"Lin Ran! I'm not asking for much, you've defiled me, I've bowed down many times and expressed my willingness to follow you, things have come to this point, what more do you want from me!"

Only then did Qiu Mo look at Lin Ran and say.

Lin Ran still didn't look at her, and only said in a bland voice.

"I don't want anything from you, I just want you to return my innocence!"

Lin Ran said.

"Since Elder Li Yuan doesn't want to see it, it's perfectly fine to get some female disciples to come over and see it, the right and wrong back to the Shaping Stone will tell the people the truth of everything!"

"On the contrary, it's you who has been not allowed to, isn't your own heart weak?"

"You!"

Qiu Mo was so angry that his fists were clenched, and his mind was quickly thinking of a response.

"Lin Ran! You've really let me down too much!"

Suddenly Qiu Mo spoke up, tears even flowing from his eyes.

"That's enough!"

Lin Ran suddenly turned his head to look at Qiu Mo, there was an icy coldness in his eyes, things had come to this point he was also completely disappointed with this woman with a stunning face in front of him.

He could change his power and his dog's eyes, but to slander him like that had already touched his bottom line.

Growing up under his grandmother's tutelage,? He didn't understand what high-mindedness and nobility were the major doctrines, he only knew that one had to behave properly, and that one's body was not afraid of the shadow!

"Elder Li! Gentlemen, I, Lin Ran, can make a poisonous oath that if I defile Qiu Mo, I, Lin Ran, will not be allowed to die, and I will be an ant to be trampled on for the rest of my life!"

"But Qiu Mo, do you dare?"

Lin Ran said as he already fished out two Heavenly Dao Stones and looked at Qiu Mo.

“You!”

Qiu Mo was stunned, she hadn't thought that Lin Ran would actually be so determined.

“Do you really have to be so heartless?”

Qiu Mo questioned.

Lin Ran looked at her icily and finally said.

“I have already made a blood oath, either return to the plastic or you can tell the truth yourself, I, Lin Ran, only want innocence!”

After saying that, Lin Ran said no more, turning his head and waving his palm instantly ten shadows flew straight out and shot straight to the first floor.

Seeing this, Li Yuan waved his sleeve robe and instantly caught the ten shadows, the ten shadows were no other than ten Heavenly Origin Crystals!

“I've already paid the price for the time reshaping, will you speak for yourself or watch together!”

Lin Ran looked at Qiu Mo and said in a cold voice.

These ten Heavenly Origin Crystal Stones were precisely the price for activating the Time Return Shaping Stone, one should know that a single Heavenly Origin Crystal Stone could be exchanged for one of the highest ranking techniques at the Eight Qi Mountains...? Ten pieces of that could not be earned by ordinary people for most of their lives.

But for the sake of innocence, Lin Ran resolutely took it out anyway.

“Lin Ran!”

Qiu Mo looked at Lin Ran, this moment is really desperate, softly and hardly and even beauty, all methods she has tried,? But the end result was still the same.

She knew in her heart that she had lost, and lost very completely, not only her future, but also the man she had wanted with everything she had.

As soon as the time reshaping began, her Qiu Mo's name would also be completely dirty.

“Haha! Haha!”

Suddenly, Qiu Mo actually laughed out loud, there were tears of blood in her eyes, and she raised her head to look at Lin Ran, looking as if she was insane.

“Lin Ran, you remember! You are the reason why I am here today! You did this to me!”

Qiu Mo turned around and walked away. The people around her were stunned at her appearance, and then they understood.

The blood oath was not daring to be made, and the return of the plastic was not daring to be seen, so it was obvious what the truth of the matter was.

“All right! Let’s all go back, let’s pretend that today’s incident never happened, if there is a next time, I will definitely punish you severely!”

Li Yuan scolded the crowd, and then with a wave of his palm, ten celestial yuan crystals immediately shot back towards Lin Ran, while the window closed itself with a bang.

“Hey! Now that Qiu Mo is completely cold!”

“Who says so? It’s just a pity that such a nobody, why didn’t he see me?”

“You? You’re nothing!”

“Hey! You’re saying that, I’m a man too!”

The crowd chattered and soon dispersed.

“Brother are you alright!”

Han Seventh Year was busy running over and looked at Lin Ran.

“It’s fine, let’s all go back!”

Lin Ran said.

“I knew it, it must be that Qiu Mo who slandered you, I’ll get rid of her when I turn back!”

Han Seven Years said indignantly.

“Don’t!”

Tian Hu, who was at the side, sniffed and busily stood out, his old face flushed red.

“Lin Ran, I’m sorry! I misunderstood you before, but you can’t drive Qiu Mo away, in fact, her family’s conditions are average, if she can’t stay at Baji Mountain, she’s afraid she’ll”

Tian Hu spoke up, he really liked Qiu Mo, and didn’t want to see Qiu Mo being driven away.

“Forget it, let’s pretend this never happened, if she is willing let her stay in the mine to dig and carry!”

Lin Ran said, while patting Han Seven Years on the shoulder, following which he turned around and left the place.

Although things had not turned out the way he wanted, he was relieved to have proven his innocence.

At the same time, Lin Ran also lamented in his heart that this woman Qiu Mo was really decisive and ruthless in her actions, if she hadn’t left in this way before, the outcome would only have been more unfavourable for her.

In other words, although the outcome was the same now, Qiu Mo’s loss was the least, after all, if the truth was really shaped back out, then people around her would not look at her only as lightly as they do now.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1735

As the night passed, the storm of the matter seemed to have calmed down, or perhaps it was because Qiu Mo was indeed beautiful to look at.

So the matter did not cause too much of a stir, and after the night there seemed to be no one left to even discuss it.

Qiu Mo didn't intend to leave either, perhaps she had expected this outcome, and apart from her quieter personality, everything else went on as usual.

Lin Ran went straight to the restored pit the next day for retreat, while Han Qiuxian and the others went to the same pit where Lin Ran had been before.

As for Wang En, he was also taken along by Han Qiqi. He would not forget that he had to punish Lin Ran by digging the mine for his revenge.

After this incident, Lin Ran was too lazy to bother with Qiu Mo and the others. After entering the pit, he directly waved his hand to seal the pit and focused on his retreat.

After a delay of three days, plus the previous two months, Lin Ran had already spent more than two months inside the pit.

If he was unable to make any progress on the flash eels, Lin Ran was afraid that he would also go crazy.

After the experience of seeing the red-backed lightning eel last time, Lin Ran wasn't concentrating on two things this time, as he had already made great progress in his sword dao, so he could put it aside for now.

He quickly sealed the small hole in the rock wall, leaving only one exit, and then pressed his hands all over the rock wall.

This time, Lin Ran not only sent his true qi in, but also his divine sense into it.

These lightning eels were very vigilant, so Lin Ran was prepared to hide his divine sense in advance to avoid being discovered by the lightning eels.

The true qi was sent in very deep, while Lin Ran's divine sense only penetrated about ten metres into the rock layer, and then he hid himself and waited patiently.

After five days in a row, the number of eels inside the rock wall increased significantly, and there were all kinds of eels, big and small, but Lin Ran never saw any red-backed eels again.

But compared to the previous cave, the situation here was much better, and there were significantly more lightning eels in the rock wall, which seemed to give Lin Ran some hope.

"Has that red and white lightning eel from last time sensed the danger and hid?"

After another five days, the ten days of persistence had made Lin Ran a little tired and ready to stop and rest.

But the fact that he never saw the red-backed eel made him a little discouraged.

However, just as Lin Ran was about to stop and rest, the place where his divine sense had invaded suddenly flashed red and a red-backed lightning eel burst out.

Lin Ran could see clearly that the red-backed eel was identical to the one he had seen last time, both in size and appearance.

The red-backed lightning eel seemed to have been frightened by the commotion last time and was hiding in one of the small holes, hesitating to come out, as if it was afraid that it would be caught once it came out.

Lin Ran red easily found it, and immediately dared not move, not even daring to breathe a breath, and just waited patiently.

After a full hour had passed, the red-backed shining eel saw that there really didn't seem to be any danger around, and only then did it tentatively burst out of the small hole, and then leisurely burrowed towards the other side.

Lin Ran held back the excitement in his heart and waited until the red-backed eel was about to disappear out of sight before he let his divine sense follow it.

Due to the distance, the red-backed lightning eel didn't notice anyone staring at it as it bored its way towards the front.

Lin Ran followed behind him and soon discovered a problem.

The small holes within this rock wall were like a maze, but the red-backed lightning eel was very nimble and even seemed to know where it was going, very purposeful.

Lin Ran was shocked at the sight, and continued to follow with a sense of calm and excitement.

Last time when he was chasing this red-backed eel, Lin Ran had tried it before, but his divine sense could only penetrate a distance of about a hundred meters behind the rock wall, once it exceeded a hundred meters his divine sense would be uncontrollable and he would not be able to investigate.

At this point he had followed the red-backed lightning eel almost 70 or 80 metres into the rock wall.

The place where he found it at the beginning was only about ten metres from the rock wall, but at this moment the red-backed lightning eel had already penetrated almost seventy to eighty metres behind the rock wall, which made Lin Ran a little puzzled.

The red-backed lightning eel fed on the spiritual stones in the rock layer, so it was reasonable to say that it could feed wherever it was, and the closer it was to the outside, the more true qi it had, so it should have been used to staying close to the rock layer.

But now how did it run so far away.

As he saw the distance getting deeper and deeper, Lin Ran's divine sense felt a hint of pressure when suddenly the red-backed lightning eel in front of him finally came to a halt.

Lin Ran followed him, and when he got close to the red-backed eel, he was shocked.

He saw that in front of the red-backed eel, a hollow had appeared.

Inside the hollow, there were flickering figures, and there was actually a large number of lightning eels in a dense mass.

There were even a dozen of them, all of them red-backed lightning eels.

“Whoosh!”

The red-backed lightning eel that Lin Ran followed entered the space in front of him in a flash.

Lin Ran was busy reaching the end of the small hole and looked inside.

The whole person froze at this look.

At the end of the small hollow, there was a hollow about the size of a basketball court.

There must have been tens of thousands of lightning eels crisscrossing each other in the hole.

Lin Ran took a closer look and found that the number of red-backed lightning eels alone was more than a hundred.

Now that he could see it clearly, he couldn't help but feel a surge of joy in his heart.

The rock walls around the entire space were densely packed with small holes, just like a beehive. Fortunately, Lin Ran was not densely-phobic, otherwise he would have fainted after just one look.

After surveying the surrounding rock walls, Lin Ran then looked inside the space.

At this moment, he could only see that in the centre of the space, there was a huge sphere of ten metres high on the ground.

This sphere seemed to have been formed by the rock wall, as the entire body was made of rocks, but Lin Ran only took a glance at it and realised that these rocks were actually a type of ore.

It just had a charred appearance, and it looked very bizarre, as if a particularly high temperature had been used to melt away the surrounding rock walls and then build a huge sphere.

At this moment, countless lightning eels were all around this sphere, constantly blasting it with their beast thunder, not knowing what they were doing!

But Lin Ran could see it clearly, after the lightning eels' beast thunder touched the sphere, they immediately swam around the surface of the sphere and then entered it.

Seeing this scene, Lin Ran couldn't help but gulp.

If he replaced that mysterious sphere with himself and allowed these lightning eels to attack, wouldn't his plan to quench his body with beast thunder come true easily!

“No I'll have to think long and hard about it!”

Lin Ran immediately withdrew his divine sense so as not to disturb these lightning eels.

Today's discovery had given him hope, but the more hope he had, the more he warned himself that he must not rush, once he alerted the snakes his plan to quench his body with beast thunder would be abandoned.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1736

Lin Ran retracted his divine sense, the discovery had made him very excited, and he wasn't about to leave the mine at that moment.

He brought some of the ores around him over and began to absorb them directly and lavishly, quickly recovering his strength.

At the same time, he calculated in his mind how he could get as much of the beastly thunder of those flashing eels as possible without alerting them.

"What exactly is in the large orb in that bizarre space?"

Lin Ran didn't understand in his heart, but he knew that if he could enter inside that large orb, perhaps the beast thunder quenching he wanted would be achieved.

Earlier, he had seen clearly that those lightning eels, whether they were ordinary or red-backed, were all constantly releasing lightning to blast that big orb.

If he could enter inside that big round ball to cultivate, wouldn't he just be able to borrow the beastly thunder of those lightning eels outside to temper his body.

"What would it take to enter the great orb?"

Lin Ran mulled it over in his mind.

In the entire space, there was nothing other than that large orb, and Lin Ran had observed it carefully enough before; it was as if the large orb had been scorched out of thin air, except for the top and bottom which were fused with the rock layer, and there was nothing to hold on to all around.

"If we want to get in without alerting the shining eels, I'm afraid we'll have to dig a tunnel!"

Lin Ran calculated in his mind that the top and bottom of the big orb were fused with the rock, so if he could cut a tunnel through the rock wall and dig directly into the top or bottom of that big orb, he could enter the big orb unnoticed.

This was also the only way, if he dug the pit directly into that weird space, he was afraid that the lightning eels inside would also be alarmed, and then scatter as birds and beasts, which was not the result he wanted.

"The bizarre space is about a hundred metres deep into the rock wall,? I'll start with the fifty metres first!"

Lin Ran calculated in his mind, seeing that he had recovered his strength a bit,? Without any further ado at that moment, he got up and started digging.

Where he was at this moment, he had to be at least a hundred metres away from that bizarre space, such a long distance even if Lin Ran wanted to dig an exact tunnel straight to the bottom of that big spatial orb, he was afraid that it would be a bit difficult.

Therefore, he was prepared to dig the pit out 50 metres first, and then start digging the tunnel in the last 50 metres, so as not to get too close to the weird space and alert the snake.

When he said he would do it, Lin Ran didn't hesitate in the slightest and started digging straight away.

However, Lin Ran was the only one in the mine, so even if he was strong enough, it would take him a few days to dig the mine 50 metres out on his own.

While Lin Ran was digging the mine, the pit next door was also in a similarly orderly manner.

The last explosion almost buried them alive, so Han was watching him almost the entire time for safety's sake.

As for Qiu Mo, she didn't say a word and dug the mine herself, as if the last incident had nothing to do with her.

Although Han Qiuxian hated her for framing Lin Ran, she hadn't done anything wrong in the last two days, so he didn't have the chance to take revenge for Lin Ran.

Time passed day by day, and three days had passed in the blink of an eye.

On this night, Han Qiqi and the others had already left the pit, and Lin Ran was the only one who remained in the pit.

In a dark corner outside the pit, Wang En was squatting on the ground, holding a black jade piece in his hand.

The jade piece was black in colour and it was impossible to tell what kind of material it was made of.

He then squeezed his palm, and the black jade piece instantly shattered.

However, the next moment, within the black jade piece, there was actually a black light that shot up into the sky and disappeared in an instant in the dark night sky.

"Wang En! What are you doing!"

The jade piece in Wang En's hand had just shattered to the ground when a scolding voice came from the side.

The voice rang out, frightening Wang En's face instantly changed and a layer of cold sweat instantly appeared on his entire head.

He was busy turning his head to look, and when he saw that the person coming was actually Qiu Mo, he couldn't help but have his face sink.

"Why are you here!"

"Why can't I be here!"

Qiu Mo looked at Wang En with an ice-cold expression.

"You're following me!"

Wang En's face was icy cold and there was a vague killing intent in his eyes.

Qiu Mo couldn't help but look at it and said with a smile.

“You better put away that look, now that your strength is sealed at 70%, you can’t kill me at all!”

“Is that so?”

Wang En’s face became even colder when he heard that, indeed what Qiu Mo said was the truth, but if his secret was told by this dead woman, what awaited him would still be the end.

As the saying goes, if Qiu Mo really wants to reveal himself, then he can only drag this woman to his death to take his back.

Qiu Mo seemed to have seen Wang En’s mind and spoke.

“You don’t need to be nervous, I won’t expose you for the time being, but you have to do one thing for me!”

“Blackmail me? You’re afraid you’ve got the wrong person!”

Wang En said in a cold voice, although he was now down and out, he was after all a disciple of the Baji Mountain Elders before, so he naturally had his arrogance.

Qiu Mo smiled blandly at his words, however? said.

“It’s not too late for you to hear me out on the conditions before you answer!”

Said Qiu Mo, giving Wang En an up-and-down glance before saying.

“I just want you to help me kill Lin Ran! That’s a condition you should be happy with!”

“Kill Lin Ran?”

Wang En smiled at that, he had heard about what happened between Qiu Mo and Lin Ran, and at this moment, Qiu Mo proposed this kind of condition, how could he not guess the reason for it.

“You should also hate Lin Ran to the bone, this condition even if I don’t say it, you should also do it! So is this still blackmail to you?”

Qiu Mo laughed blandly, the beauty of her brows and smile made Wang En couldn’t help but look twice more.

Just now, when Qiu Mo got up and got up for the night, she noticed Wang En’s abnormality when she passed by this place, originally she didn’t know how to deal with Lin Ran, but when she saw Wang En’s abnormal behavior, she immediately had an idea in her mind.

Lend a knife to kill!

Wang En looked at Qiu Mo and didn’t say anything for half a day, but in his mind he was quickly analysing the situation in front of him.

Suddenly he raised his head and looked at Qiu Mo and smiled blandly.

“If you want me to help you, don’t you have something to give?”

“Hm?”

Qiu Mo could not help but frown slightly at his words.

“Wang En you highest get the situation clear, it was me who discovered your plot, that black jade talisman if I guessed correctly I’m afraid it was you”

Qiu Mo did not say further, that black jade talisman in the end is what they both know in their hearts.

“If you don’t promise to help me deal with Lin Ran, I’ll go and expose you! You should know better than me what the charge of betraying Baki Mountain and colluding with Wanshou Mountain means!”

“Haha! Jokes!”

Wang En smiled at this but laughed as he looked at Qiu Mo with a greedy gaze and said.

“I say, Big Beauty Qiu, you’re afraid that you’ve been hurt in the head by Lin Ran, I betrayed Barking Mountain? Do you have any proof? Why do I suspect that it was you who colluded with Wanshou Mountain?”

“Do you think that if I tell the truth about this, will Elder Li and the others believe you or me?”

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1737

“You!”

Qiu Mo’s face instantly turned pale at his words.

It was true that although Wang En had given Lin Ran small shoes, he was after all Elder Li Pan’s disciple, and no one would think that he was a traitor just because of this relationship.

However, he was different, because the incident with Lin Ran had gone too far, and although no one had said anything, Qiu Mo understood in his heart.

Once Wang En bit the bullet and decided that he was a traitor, then more people would end up believing him than himself.

“Qiu Mo, you are also a smart person, even if this matter goes big, in the end, it will just end up being a non-issue, but you have to think about it, I still have my master Li Pan, who do you have?”

“If things go too far, do you think Baki Mountain will still keep you?”

Wang En looked at Qiu Mo and pressed on step by step.

“Your reputation has already stunk in the mine pit, do you still want to stink back to Baki Mountain? Tsk, think about it yourself!”

Wang En had smugness in his eyes.

“What exactly do you want!”

Qiu Mo smiled with an icy face and said.

“Forget it if you don’t want to help, just pretend I never said anything! I won’t tell anyone about you, but I won’t tell anyone about me either!”

Qiu Mo said and turned around and was ready to leave, since we couldn't talk about it then there was nothing to talk about.

"Stand still!"

She wanted to leave, but Wang En was not necessarily, at this time the night was dark and windy there was not even a ghost around, looking at the beauty in front of him, Wang En had already gotten the wrong idea.

"What more do you want!"

Qiu Mo turned to look at Wang En and said in an angry voice.

Wang En, however, smiled blandly and said.

"Since you have already bumped into me, you are now a grasshopper in the same boat as Laozi, so I have to believe you even if you say you won't say anything!"

"Then what do you want!"

Qiu Mo frowned slightly at his words, originally he wanted to blackmail Wang En with this matter, but who knew that this guy was actually blackmailing himself instead.

However, Qiu Mo also thought about it at this time, just now he was indeed a bit impulsive, Wang En is also right, after all, he does not have a backstage, if really make a big deal of this matter, the one who will suffer is himself.

Wang En looked at Qiu Mo, the greed in his eyes was well not concealed.

"It's very simple, I naturally have to deal with Lin Ran, but not now, and since you found out my secret, you can't pretend you didn't see it!"

"Dealing with Lin Ran whether you asked for it or not, I will do it, after all, I have a grudge against this guy too!"

"But who am I to be used as a gun by you, so I've changed my mind now, either you come up with something to pay and join me! We'll deal with that kid together!"

"Or, I'll tell the world about it and destroy you first!"

"You!"

Qiu Mo was so angry at her words that her pretty face turned iron, she didn't expect Wang En to be so shameless.

"Wang En, you are also too shameless, I have said that I can pretend that nothing happened, why do you still treat me like this!"

Qiu Mo said angrily.

At this moment, she was really regretting, she should have known that she had just pretended that she didn't see anything, now she couldn't even do it if she wanted to pull out.

“Haha, yes! I’m just shameless, but I won’t do a deal that loses money!”

Wang En laughed coldly.

“It’s fine if you didn’t find out, but now that you have found out, it’s impossible to pretend that you didn’t see it!”

“What exactly do you want!”

Qiu Mo looked at Wang En with anger in his eyes.

Wang En, however, did not care at all, his gaze wandering recklessly over Qiu Mo’s body, before licking his lips and saying.

“It’s simple, be Laozi’s woman and make Laozi feel good! I’ll help you deal with Lin Ran! When we kill him in the future, we’ll both open the Barking Mountain!”

“You’re dreaming!”

Qiu Mo refused straight away without even thinking about it, asking her to be Wang En’s woman, how could she possibly agree.

“Ao? Is that so? You’d better think about it, once I call someone over, then you won’t just have a bad name, you’ll even be considered a traitor to Yaki Mountain!”

Wang En looked at Qiu Mo with a cold smile in his eyes.

He had already made up his mind that he would definitely leave Baki Mountain as soon as he had struck out at Lin Ran.

But why should he take out his anger for this woman Qiu Mo for nothing? It’s fine if you didn’t find out, but if you did, then you can’t blame yourself for dragging you down too!

“Wang En, you bastard!”

Qiu Mo looked at Wang En, her whole body trembling with anger, and turned around to leave.

Wang En saw this but smiled blandly, and immediately rushed to Qiu Mo in front of God with an arrow step, and before she could react she had already hugged her from behind.

“Ah! You let go!”

Qiu Mo was startled and shouted.

However, before she could finish her sentence, her mouth was covered by Wang En.

Wang En came up to Qiu Mo’s ear and whispered.

“You can scream, as long as you want to die, I have no problem with it! Let’s see who we believe when Elder Li and the others come later!”

With that, Wang En gently loosened his grip on Qiu Mo’s mouth, expecting that Qiu Mo would not dare to scream.

As expected, once Wang En's palm was released, Qiu Mo immediately struggled and was about to run, not daring to make a sound.

"Want to go!"

Wang En's eyes flinched at this, instantly stopping Qiu Mo's waist and directly pulling her entire body into his arms.

"You bastard! Let go of me!"

Qiu Mo's eyes were bloodshot, her heart regretting to the extreme.

"Qiu Mo! You're so beautiful looking, that Lin Ran kid really doesn't have this blessing!"

Wang En said as his head pressed towards Qiu Mo, the fragrance coming from the tip of his nose made him lose his mind instantly.

"Wang En, stop it! Stop it!"

She wanted to give herself to Lin Ran, but who knew it would end up like this.

"Qiu Mo I really like you, as long as you follow me well and become my woman, I will kill Lin Ran for you! We will go to Wanshou Mountain together, won't we be free!"

"Stop it!"

Tears were streaming down Qiu Mo's eyes at this point.

But she didn't dare to call out to anyone, let alone strike out at Wang En, she was afraid! She was afraid that Wang En would really stir things up.

If she compromised now, she would only lose her innocence, but if she didn't, she would lose her life!

Qiu Mo hesitated, she didn't want to die, she really didn't want to die!

Seeing that Qiu Mo gradually gave up her resistance, the greed in Wang En's eyes grew even stronger, and the whole man opened his hands and kept violating Qiu Mo.

Under the night, next to the mine, the picture was unpleasant to look at, and the transaction began with coercion and baiting, but this transaction was really a dirty dog.

Half an hour later, Wang En finished dressing and, with an impatient look at Qiu Mo, who was in tears, pursed his lips and smiled.

"Tomorrow night, I'll still be here waiting for you, don't let me down little baby!"

Only after saying this did Wang En, with a satisfied smile, walk towards the distance.

Qiu Mo sat alone on the floor and froze for a long time, until the night wind made her feel a little cold, then she got up and straightened her clothes, she lowered her head without saying a word and walked straight towards her room.

But no one could see that there were tears on her face and despair, anger and resentment in her eyes!

“Lin Ran! It’s all because of you! It’s all because of you that I’m in this situation! I want you to die! I want you to die!”

Qiu Mo’s heart kept roaring, the damage Wang En had done to her was actually all blamed on Lin Ran.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1738

In the pit, Lin Ran’s digging life continued. In a week’s time, he had pushed the pit to forty-five metres, and according to the previous plan, he only needed to dig five metres more before he could start digging the tunnel.

“We’ll get this five-metre distance done today!”

Lin Ran’s heart felt relieved, and he immediately started to dig again.

He dug until late in the evening and finally advanced the depth of the pit by another five metres.

At this point, he had pushed the entire bottom of the pit a full 50 metres closer, and the next step was to dig the tunnel.

“Let’s go out and rest for the night and continue tomorrow!”

Lin Ran nodded in satisfaction, and then headed towards the exit.

He had stayed in this retreat for half a month without resting, and although there were countless ores here for him to absorb, his mental exhaustion could only be recovered through rest.

The remaining fifty metres of tunnel, according to the speed of Lin Ran’s strength should be broken through soon, and what exactly was inside the beating ball in that weird space, even he himself did not know.

So he also wanted to make sure his strength was at its peak before he went to find out.

When he left the pit and came outside, it was already evening, so Lin Ran walked straight towards the loft he was in.

Just before he took two steps, he saw a man and a woman arguing to one side, and he walked up to see if it was Wang En and Qiu Mo.

“Why are the two of them arguing here so late at night?”

Lin Ran wondered in his heart, but didn’t think much of it turned around and walked over.

“Lin

When they saw Lin Ran walking over, Wang En and Qiu Mo’s faces both changed, especially the latter unconsciously lowered his head, as if he was afraid that Lin Ran would see the red marks on his neck.

“It’s so late, what are you guys arguing about here, hurry up and go back to bed!”

The two people in front of him didn’t have much of a good feeling about him, so he directly spoke up and scolded them.

Qiu Mo didn't say a word at his words, he just nodded his head and immediately ran back as if he was running away.

When Wang En saw the duck fly from his mouth, he had no choice but to give Lin Ran an arch of his hand and leave as well.

Lin Ran looked at the two men, feeling puzzled, and then he didn't bother to think too much about it and walked towards his loft.

In fact, after Wang En had gotten his hands on Qiu Mo for the first time, he had been thinking about the latter day and night.

He wanted to come and have sex with her again, but Qiu Mo was not willing to do so and kept avoiding Wang En.

After all, Wang En is a man, and he is very reluctant to be denied what he wants, but he is also reluctant to destroy Qiu Mo.

After all, he could still get what he wanted by keeping him, but if he was really destroyed, he would have nothing left.

So tonight, he was here to block Qiu Mo, only to be bumped into by Lin Ran just before the blocking had started here.

"This is fucking bad luck, but sooner or later I'll have a good time at it!"

Wang En sneered in his heart, remembering Qiu Mo's exquisite figure, he couldn't help the evil fire rising up.

He arrived at the entrance of his pit and was just about to go in when suddenly the voice of Han Seven Years opened up next to him.

"Brother! You wait!"

Lin Ran turned his head to look, only to see Han Qiuxian running towards him with a large bag of things, and shoving them all in front of him as soon as he got close.

"What's this?"

Lin Ran was stunned at the sight and asked.

"These are all good wine and meat that Li Yi has asked someone to bring to you! From the Drunken Immortal House in Baki City!"

Han Seven Years laughed.

"This!"

Lin Ran smiled a little helplessly, but this Li Yi was really good to himself, he really treated him like a brother!

"You take these, I can't finish them myself!"

Lin Ran gave out a portion to Han Qiqi, when he also gave some of the delicacies to Tianhu at the side, before he was ready to turn around and enter the pit.

Only when Han Qiqi saw Lin Ran leave did he greet Tianhu and prepare to go digging.

However, when he turned his head, he saw that Tianhu had wrapped up the food Lin Ran had given him and didn't bother to eat it!

"Why don't you eat it, this gourmet food is all non-supplementary from the Drunken Immortal House!"

Han Seven Years asked in confusion.

Tianhu smiled at his words but smiled awkwardly and said.

"I was going to save it for Qiu Mo to eat at night, she doesn't look too good recently, I'm afraid she's overworked!"

"You're really infatuated!"

Han Seven Years didn't bother to care much, he knew what Tianhu had in mind for Qiu Mo, so he let him be.

The time soon arrived in the evening, and after everyone had gone back to the pavilion to prepare for their rest, Tian Hu walked towards Qiu Mo's room, holding the Drunken Immortal's delicacies that Lin Ran had given him in the morning.

However, before he reached the door, he saw that the door to Qiu Mo's room was hidden and not closed.

It was late at night and everyone was very tired after a long day, so it was logical that Qiu Mo should have gone to bed, but the door was not closed.

Tianhu quickly stepped forward and was about to knock on the door, when suddenly a man's voice came from the room.

"Bitch! You're still fucking hiding from me, are you? I'll see where you can hide! I'm going to make love to you tonight!"

"Hurry up! This is a dormitory, let's get out of here!"

Then came Qiu Mo's anxious voice, and some strange sounds.

Tianhu's whole body trembled as he heard it, and his whole body froze in place.

Qiu Mo's voice was very familiar to him, but that man's voice was also familiar to him, right? Wasn't that none other than Wang En's voice.

"No! No! Qiu Mo is not this kind of person, absolutely not!"

Tianhu admonished himself in his mind, thinking that he had misheard and that they were probably just talking about something!

But as he approached the hidden door of the room and looked inside, the next moment the image that appeared in front of him was one that completely shattered his last illusions.

The room was so fragrant and desperate that Tianhu's whole body instantly froze in place as if he had been struck by a bolt from the blue.

How could he have imagined that Qiu Mo, whom he liked so much, was actually being crushed by Wang En at this moment

"Why! Why!"

Tian Hu's eyes turned red, he turned around with despair in his eyes, at this moment he wanted to rush in and question Qiu Mo, why he would rather give himself to Wang En than accept him, where was he inferior to that bastard Wang En!

But then he heard Wang En's words inside.

"That's right, serve me well and we'll deal with Lin Ran together later! I definitely won't let him go!"

"When the hell are you going to do it!"

Qiu Mo asked angrily, if Wang En hadn't promised her that he would deal with Lin Ran, she wouldn't have compromised once again!

"Don't be in a hurry, when he leaves, that's the day he'll be buried!"

Wang En sneered.

"They're going to backstab Lin Ran!"

Tian Hu's heart trembled as he heard this, and his entire being didn't know what to do.

He stood frozen in place for a moment, when suddenly the movement in the room actually diminished, and soon came the sound of Wang En's contented laughter again.

"That was fucking awesome! Qiu Mo you're a real siren, not only are you beautiful but your skills are top notch, leave the door open for me tomorrow night or don't blame me for not being polite!"

Wang En said.

"You get lost! This is the dormitory, the usual place tomorrow night!"

Qiu Mo also gave up, as long as she could deal with Lin Ran, she didn't care about anything else, she had already lost her innocence anyway, she didn't care about one more time!

"Filth! Scum!"

When Tian Hu heard this, he was so angry that he turned around and left, hating himself for being blind and falling for such a watery woman!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1739

When he returned to his room, Tianhu took a big gulp of wine and then fell to the floor with a thud.

There were tears in the corners of his eyes, and his mind was in turmoil.

At this moment, he did not want to think about anything, he just lay on the floor and looked at the ceiling, as if he had lost consciousness.

Gradually the anger, resignation and bewilderment in his heart receded and another question emerged.

“Do I have to tell Lin Ran myself?”

Just now he had heard truly that Wang En and Qiu Mo had obviously joined forces, and had even made such a dirty deal in order to join forces against Lin Ran without washing.

It would have been fine if he hadn't heard it, but now he had heard it and already knew what the two were planning, but he was still hesitant.

Like someone, especially one who can easily say break? Even if that person had hurt him or her deeply.

Up until this point, Tianhu had believed that it was all Lin Ran's fault that Qiu Mo had become the way he was today!

“Aren't you the least bit responsible for Qiu Mo being in the state he is in today?”

Tian Hu's fists were clenched, he really couldn't let go of Qiu Mo, if he told Lin Ran about this, then Qiu Mo would be completely

He didn't care if Wang En lived or died, but what about Qiumo? He didn't want to! He didn't want to watch Qiumo get ruined as well.

In the end, he compromised, he decided not to tell Lin Ran about this matter, as if he had never seen it, and buried it deep into his heart.

.....

The night was late, but in the pit, Lin Ran was still working on his body hardening project.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the rock wall in front of the pit and see that a passage, only half a person high, has just been opened up. It stretched all the way in towards the sloping bottom.

There was only a distance of fifty metres left, a distance that was acceptable to Lin Ran.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of where you are.

Digging a tunnel and mining were two completely different concepts. Mining ore could only be done with special tools because the integrity of the ore and the safety of the entire vein had to be guaranteed.

However, tunneling was purely for the sake of hurrying, Lin Ran absorbed all the true qi within the ore in front of him directly along the way, and only after the ore lacked spiritual qi and turned into pieces directly, did he continue on his way.

The speed of the journey was naturally much faster, plus Lin Ran also released Li to help him absorb the spiritual qi from the ores, so the speed was naturally faster.

Although Li was a magical beast, it was very special, and absorbing the spiritual energy within these ores was also very beneficial to it. Although this fellow found it boring, he acted as a small worker for the sake of increasing his strength.

The two of them dug all the way to the last 50 metres, and in just one night they had already dug in more than 40 metres.

Seeing that they were almost at the location of the strange space, Lin Ran dared not slow down and immediately found a place to rest, while sending a ray of divine sense into the surrounding holes to check if the digging was off.

From time to time, he would position himself along the way so that he would not dig out of the way and alert the snake, but at this moment, he found that he had not dug out of the way once again, so he could not help but feel happy.

Even in that mysterious space, the countless lightning eels played without noticing, still attacking the huge rock ball non-stop.

After so many days of observation, Lin Ran also found a pattern, these lightning eels seemed to be very interested in the huge rock ball, and they would release all the beastly lightning in their bodies towards the rock ball.

Only after the lightning in their bodies had weakened would they enter the small hole to feed and return again when they had recovered.

It seemed that there was something inside this huge rock ball that they cared about very much.

Lin Ran watched for a while, and then began to adjust his state with all his might, and at the same time, he also put Li away, as he didn't know if there would be any danger on this last journey, and he didn't want to risk this little one along with him.

After only half an hour, Lin Ran opened his eyes from his meditation, and there was a bright light in his eyes at this moment, obviously he was fully prepared.

"Let's begin!"

Lin Ran had a vague sense of anticipation in his eyes, after being busy for so long, whether or not he could make use of the beast thunder of these flashing eels depended on this last leg of the journey.

He quickly packed everything up before continuing on towards the ones ahead.

These last few metres were simply too easy for him,? After just a few minutes he already felt like he had dug in to a distance of fifty metres.

He stopped and looked up at the rock formation above him, if he was correct at this point he was exactly below the huge sphere within this mysterious space.

Without delay, Lin Ran began to carefully take down the ores above his head one by one, and then set them aside.

As expected, just a few moments later, a grey-black rock layer appeared behind the ore.

The texture of this rock layer was clearly different from the surrounding rocks, and it was clearly curved, much like one of the curved sides of a huge sphere.

“It really is here!”

Lin Ran’s heart was agitated as he busily pressed his palm against the rock only, and soon felt a faint electric current, obviously left by those lightning eels outside that were constantly attacking this huge orb.

Sitting on his knees, Lin Ran quickly calmed down his excitement, after nearly three months in this mine, he finally saw the hope of quenching his body with beast lightning.

The more excited he was, the more likely he was to go off the rails. After he had calmed down, Lin Ran slowly got up and pressed his palm against the rock layer again.

How to get inside the sphere was the biggest problem Lin Ran faced.

He had to find a way to get inside without letting the shining eels around him notice, and he also had to make sure that the huge sphere was not destroyed.

Although it seemed difficult, it wasn’t really that hard as long as he could find a way to break through this rock wall.

“The first order of business is to determine whether this sphere is hollow or solid!”

Lin Ran thought in his mind.

Indeed, if this huge sphere was a hollow one, then as long as he made an opening in it, he would be able to enter it unnoticed.

But if the huge sphere was solid, then he would have to find a way to pull out a space inside it.

Only Lin Ran felt that the possibility of the sphere being hollow inside was very high,? Because if it was solid, having dug himself here, a tunnel had already formed underneath, and this sphere was so huge that if it was solid it was afraid that its own weight would be so great that this tunnel would have been collapsed by it long ago.

These thoughts only flew around for a moment, followed by Lin Ran, he took out his dagger to break the tip, poured a strand of true qi into it, and then he gently stabbed it towards the rock wall.

“Bang!”

There was a crunching sound, and the dagger’s broken tip was only embedded in the rock wall by a small distance.

But Lin Ran was in no hurry, he was almost scraping the rock wall layer a little to be on the safe side, trying to make an opening in it.

Ten minutes, twenty minutes, an hour.

Finally, with Lin Ran’s persistent efforts, after two hours, he finally scraped a crack the size of a fingernail cap out of the rock wall layer.

Following this, Lin Ran felt that there were actually air currents swirling around him towards the rock layer.

Lin Ran was instantly surprised at the sight.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 1740

Through the only crack, Lin Ran looked towards the inside, but just as his eyes were pressed against the crack, suddenly there was a flash of red light within the entire crack, followed by a huge electric current instantly slashing towards his eyes.

“Holy shit!”

Lin Ran was startled by this sudden movement, and was busy dodging it with a side-step.

He then saw that a lightning bolt visible to the naked eye had actually struck out from the tiny crack.

If he had not dodged quickly, I am afraid that his eyes would have been struck blind in that instant.

At this moment, Lin Ran couldn’t help but feel a pang of fear in his chest. If he had been slow to react, I am afraid that he would have become a one-eyed dragon.

Thinking of this, Lin Ran’s heart could not help but rise up with a nameless fire!

But this rock wall hadn’t been completely broken open yet, and he didn’t even know what the lightning shooting out of it or the red light he had just seen was, which undoubtedly made him extremely stifled.

“Let’s go and explore first!”

Lin Ran put his heart into it and immediately sent a wisp of his divine sense in to check it out.

The divine sense quickly seeped through the crack and followed by the situation inside surfaced in front of Lin Ran’s eyes.

The entire huge rock ball was empty, but it was a bit dark inside and Lin Ran was not sure of the exact situation, but what made him different was that.

After his own divine sense entered this space, he didn’t see anything red.

“Why is it missing? Was that red light just now a thunderbolt?”

Lin Ran was astonished in his heart.

However, he did not find any strange red light in this space.

The space was dimly lit, so Lin Ran did not dare to probe too deep, and immediately withdrew his divine sense before continuing to start opening holes in other locations.

As the size of the rock layer above his head was limited, Lin Ran was afraid that if the hole he made was too large, it would cause the structure of the spherical space to become unstable and collapse, so he only made a second crack next to the first one, which could probably fit a person.

He soon made an opening in the rock wall above his head, and without delay, Lin Ran dug in directly, while blocking the opening with his backhand to avoid being discovered by outsiders.

Only after this was done did Lin Ran turn around and take a closer look at the situation inside the spherical space.

He saw that the entire spherical space was dimly lit, with only occasional bright lights appearing around it.

Lin Ran only took a general glance and guessed that these bright lights were the beast thunder released by the lightning eels outside when they attacked the huge sphere.

After those beastly thunderbolts were absorbed by the rock wall, they formed a flickering bright light in this space.

With this faint bright light, Lin Ran kept surveying the space around him, and gradually his eyes adjusted to the dimness of the place.

He saw that the whole space wasn't big, but it definitely wasn't small either, the distance between the front and back alone must have been five or six metres, and it was particularly dark in here, even with the constant flashes of lightning, Lin Ran's visual range was very limited.

Lin Ran stayed here quietly for a few moments, seeing that there was indeed no weird red light appearing, before he slowly fished out two ores for illumination from his arms.

These ores were very bright, and had been used for illumination when they were in the mine before.

Lin Ran placed the two ores on each side, following which the entire space was instantly illuminated.

However, once the space was lit up, Lin Ran was a little unsettled.

He found that not far in front of him was a raised stone platform, and on it was a figure sitting with its back to him.

The figure was very thin and his clothes had collapsed, and even his body was densely covered with dust, and in some places his clothes appeared scorched, as if he had been burned by something.

"Senior!"

Lin Ran saw this man sitting motionless on the stone platform, and was busy arching his hand and saluting while saying.

"Senior has unintentionally discovered this place, please forgive me if I have offended you!"

Saying this Lin Ran was watching the other person's movements.

However, what puzzled him was that the man didn't have any reaction, he didn't even raise his head.

Lin Ran felt puzzled, so he took a closer look, and at this glance his heart was instantly shocked.

For it was discovered that the figure's exposed palms were actually withered bones!

"Could it be that it was already dead?"

Lin Ran's heart twitched and he immediately walked around the figure to the side.

As soon as he reached the side Lin Ran was stunned, and as expected, the figure with its back to him was actually really a corpse.

Lin Ran saw that it appeared to be a middle-aged man, his entire body had been reduced to nothing but withered bones, and if he hadn't been wrapped in clothes he was afraid that it would have been shattered long ago.

It was just the posture of this man that really made Lin Ran's heart later.

This man was sitting cross-legged on a stone pillar, with obvious burn marks on his clothes in many places, while his arm was raised and he was pointing ahead as if he was an old man giving directions.

Lin Ran was amazed and looked up towards the front and was struck by the fact that not far in front of the corpse was a rock wall, which had obviously reached the end of the space.

But at this moment, on the rock wall, there were many words written in a dense manner.

These words were scribbled, obviously the other party had left them in a hurry in order to record something down.

Lin Ran fixed his eyes on them and quickly understood the story.

It turned out that the owner of the corpse in this space was called the Falling Sword Mortal! He was an elder of a great power called the Sword Pavilion.

According to the information left behind by this Falling Sword Mortal, this Sword Pavilion was very extraordinary and was a prestigious sect even in the Immortal World Continent.

Unfortunately, when he was away from home, he was seriously injured by an enemy and had no choice but to disappear here.

He wanted to take revenge after his injuries had healed, but he was attacked by a massive attack of lightning eels here.

Originally, these eels were no threat to him, but the fault lay in the fact that he had come to this vein.

He could have recovered quickly from his injuries in the vein, but the fault lay in the vein, and he didn't dare to use his true qi, otherwise he would have been blown to death if the vein was detonated.

The consequences of detonating such a long stretch of veins would be unimaginable.

The lightning eel's attack was weak after all, so he gritted his teeth and looked for a place to hide while defending himself.

He had no choice but to burn his own essence to dissolve the surrounding ore in a rock wall and then form a separate space to hide from the attack of the eels.

Who knew that a red-coloured lightning eel in the group of lightning eels would pursue him, and then rush in when he was dissolving the rock wall?

That red eel seemed to be the leader of the eels.

As a result, he was imprisoned in his own space by the Falling Sword.

And so his nightmare began.
