

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 207

“Yeah, it’s only been a couple of years, I’m too old and lazy to get it treated and save the kids some stress! It’s not that I can’t see at all, I’m just a bit nearsighted!”

The old man laughed, although his eyes were inconvenient, but this cheerful personality, to really rare.

“Grandpa, don’t worry, this disease of yours can be easily treated!”

Lin Ran laughed.

Cataracts could still be treated very well through surgery, and now that medicine was so advanced, it wasn’t difficult to get a cure.

It was just that surgery was torturous after all, so Lin Ran thought that he could use the acupuncture method of Chinese medicine, which could also give quick results and did not require surgery.

As he walked and chatted with the old man, the two of them were soon on their way upstairs.

With the old man’s guidance, Lin Ran soon arrived at a thirteen-storey building and sent the old man back home.

And just as Lin Ran was about to leave and turn back in to help the boss cure his illness, the person who opened the door was the one who made Lin Ran look stunned, it was no other than Hu Ming.

“Lin Brother Lin Ran?”

Seeing Lin Ran, Hu Ming was also stunned, he had waited for half a day and did not expect Lin Ran to actually come back with his own father.

“I ran into the old man downstairs, so I came up together!”

Lin Ran laughed, he wasn’t prepared to talk about what happened before.

“Good! Come in first!”

Hu Ming greeted, and promptly let the two in.

Not long after sitting down, Wang Yifeng ran in from outside, it turned out that this guy was waiting for the other door of the cell, not the same door as the one Lin Ran had come from.

“You guy, why are you so slow!”

He had been waiting for almost an hour, but Lin Ran hadn’t even gone through that door.

“Took care of some business, got delayed!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Brother Lin Ran, then we”

Hu Ming was a little impatient to ask about the Thousand Mile Quest.

“There’s no rush, I see that the old man has had cataracts for some time, why don’t we help him treat them first!”

Lin Ran said, while already taking out the cloth that stored the silver needles.

“This”

Hu Ming was a little hesitant and Lin Ran looked at it with a slight frown, the former’s attitude was a little unacceptable to him.

“Brother Lin Ran, it’s not that I don’t trust you, my father has been suffering from this illness for two years, and during that time, he has not gone to the hospital much, but he just can’t be cured repeatedly, now at this juncture, would it be too much of a delay?”

Hu Ming still said what he was thinking inside.

“No, half an hour will do!”

Lin Ran said, with the Xuan Yang Pharmacopoeia, treating a cataract really didn’t take very long.

“Good! That’s good!”

Hu Ming’s hanging heart dropped at his words.

On the side, Elder Hu Sanqi also heard Lin Ran’s words and worried.

“Or else forget it, Xiao Ming’s matter is important, this old problem of mine doesn’t matter!”

“It’s really nothing, it’ll be fine soon!”

Lin Ran laughed, while greeting the old man and lying down, he was ready to start applying the needles.

However, at this moment, there was a knocking sound at the door.

Seeing this, Hu Ming rushed to open the door, while Lin Ran did not stop and began to apply the needles.

To treat cataracts, needles were applied to the head, and Lin Ran repeatedly told the old man not to move around, as there were many acupuncture points on his head, and one mistake could cause the silver needles to shift.

Lin Ran needed to apply a full nineteen stitches this time, so he needed to concentrate on each one and not deviate in the slightest.

However, just as Lin Ran was dropping the third needle, a noise came from the doorway.

“Haha, Old Hu, this time I’ve brought a good product for the old man, it’s guaranteed to help his condition!”

“Really? Thank you very much then!”

Hu Ming laughed.

Two figures walked in, Lin Ran frowned and looked, one was Hu Ming while beside him was a young man he didn't know.

"Old Hu, who is this friend?"

The youth asked with a frown when he saw Lin Ran.

He had short hair and a fairly well-built body, but there was a few cunning tones between these brows.

"Ao! This is Lin Ran, my friend!"

"Brother Lin Ran, this is Qibao, a staff member of the community!"

Hu Ming hurriedly said.

Lin Ran frowned at the two men and interjected.

"Brother Hu Ming, the old man is being treated over here, if it's alright please also go to the next room to talk, I need quiet!"

"Good! Good!"

Hu Ming hurriedly nodded his head while greeting the Seven Treasures on the side and preparing to leave, but the latter's face sank and he spoke.

"Old Hu, you're simply being nonsensical, I've been following the old man's condition for two years, is this eye disease that easy to treat?"

"What's all the yelling! Didn't you hear that Lin Ran wants to be quiet?"

Wang Yifeng scolded at this.

Lin Ran had already prepared to drop the fourth needle, but was interrupted again when the two spoke.

"Lin Ran? May I ask this Lin Ran, what is your status? Are you an expert professor from any hospital? Or a famous national doctor?"

Qibao said with a disdainful look on his face.

"Does it have anything to do with you?"

Lin Ran turned his head, his voice icy cold.

"Of course it's related!"

Seven Treasures said smugly, while raising his hand to raise the box of things he was carrying in his hand.

"The old master's illness is of great concern to our community, and I have always been the one to follow up on his treatment... have you popped out of nowhere to treat the old master, with my consent?"

"You are the old master's guardian?"

Lin Ran asked directly in return.

“No... No!”

Seven Treasures was a little embarrassed, but quickly tilted his head and said.

“Although I’m not Old Master’s guardian, Old Master is from our community, so I have an obligation to help Old Master recover his eyesight!”

After saying that, Qibao turned to look at Lin Ran suspiciously.

“On the contrary, it’s you, your origin is unknown, who knows how good your medical skills are, how dare you administer needles to the old master, who will be responsible once something happens!”

“Are you fucking looking for a twitch!”

He knew Lin Ran’s medical skills best, how could he be the so-called unknown source?

“What! You’ve been exposed and you’re furious!”

Seven Treasures said smugly.

“You!”

Wang Yifeng’s face turned red with anger, this was the first time he had been deflated by someone else’s words.

“Shut up!”

Lin Ran suddenly spoke up and scolded, following which he looked at Hu Ming.

“You know the old man’s illness well yourself, today I will only listen to the old man’s words on this illness, if he says no treatment, I will no longer care, if he says yes, whoever is in the way, don’t blame me for being ungracious!”

“This”

Hu Ming is a little difficult, one side is the help he invited, while the other side is the community staff, offending anyone is not good for him, the key is that both sides are also for the good of his father, a time he is a little difficult.

“Okay, okay! I trust Lin Ran, so let him try it. The medicine you brought also stays here, I’m too old to toss and turn!”

Hu Sanqi, who was lying on the bed, spoke up.

“But old man, do you really know this man? Random acupuncture can kill you! Have you forgotten the incident not long ago where the old granny in the district died from acupuncture?”

Qibao was busy to, even talking about the example.

“All right! I’m so old, can I still look away? I trust Lin Ran, just let him try!” |The

The old man insisted.

Seven Treasures wanted to say something else, but Lin Ran on the side grabbed his wrist and said in an icy voice.

“From now on, shut up, if there’s anything, when I’m done administering needles, we’ll still discuss it properly!”

Chapter 208

Lin Ran’s words were not very loud, but every word was like a brand, hitting Qi Bao’s heart so hard that he could not give up a single thought of resistance.

The look in Lin Ran’s eyes even raised goosebumps all over his body. Those eyes were as cold as two sharp swords, and just one look at him sent chills down his spine.

Lin Ran turned around and continued his acupuncture. Although Qibao was very unconvinced in his heart, he did not dare to say one more word when he remembered the frightening feeling he had just felt.

The atmosphere in the room became tense for a moment, as everyone’s eyes fell on Lin Ran, wanting to see how he was going to treat him.

One by one, the silver needles fell quickly, and soon Lin Ran had already dropped nine stitches, leaving ten more to go.

The nine needles that had fallen, however, had taken up the vast majority of the top of the old man’s head, and the remaining ten needles were really trembling to see, not knowing where else they could fall.

“Hmph! You’ve played badly! If the needles fall like this, two heads won’t be enough for you, let’s see how I’ll deal with you later!”

Seven Treasures said with glee in his heart, at this point he had already classified Lin Ran as a liar and a quack.

Lin Ran naturally did not know what Qibao was thinking, at this moment he was paying attention to his whole body, his true qi flowing in his body, preparing to drop the tenth needle.

In the treatment of eye diseases, acupuncture is all about Yin and Yang, so Lin Ran performed this set of acupuncture techniques, which was a branch of the legendary Taiyi Hua Needle Technique, called the Return to One Needle Technique.

The previous nine needles were like nine blooming lotus flowers, eight of which were coiled in eight directions, and one of which was the pivot of the eight, acting as a link.

This tenth needle is to activate the lotus formation, causing it to gradually merge into one.

Around the final silver needle, Lin Ran quickly dropped the tenth needle, followed by the eleventh and twelfth needles

It was only when the nineteenth needle finally fell that the crowd realized that the last ten needles were actually all falling around the middle one silver needle, looking as if the stars were holding the moon.

“This”

Hu Ming looked shocked, he had seen acupuncture on TV before, but the falling needles on there were simply untraceable and even looked a little disorganized.

In contrast, Lin Ran’s falling needles in front of him were in order and could be understood at a glance, although he did not understand the subtlety of it, but at least it was very reassuring.

“Seconds! Brother Lin Ran, this method of acupuncture of yours, just now I actually looked at it with a vague understanding!”

On the side, Wang Yifeng couldn’t help but exclaim in admiration.

“The method of acupuncture actually also implies the art of feng shui, so it is normal for you to have an understanding!”

Lin Ran laughed, following which he got up and wiped his hands, the needles had already fallen, all he needed to do now was to wait.

“What! Is this the end of it?”

At the side, Qi Bao had long been waiting impatiently, at this moment, seeing that Lin Ran had the time to joke, he directly came over.

“You have something?”

Lin Ran turned around and looked at Seven Treasures, with a hint of disgust in his eyes.

“Nonsense! You’ve finished dropping the needle too, so I just want to ask, which hospital are you from?”

Qibao asked directly.

“Does it have anything to do with you?”

Lin Ran asked rhetorically, this Seven Treasures in front of him gave him a very bad impression, Lin Ran didn’t want to deal with him at all.

“I have already said, this is our community, if you come here to see a doctor, you have to report to me, otherwise this responsibility, who bears it!”

Seven Treasures moved out to talk about the community, but Lin Ran heard a laugh.

“Now you’re talking about the community? Then I would like to ask, when the community advertising space was leased, were the profits ever transparent? Has it ever been given to the owners of the community to share?”

“This This is not my responsibility!”

Seven Treasures’ face changed and he hurriedly said.

“O? This matter is not under your control? Then who comes to the community to see and save people comes under your control?”

“Right!”

Seven Treasures nodded hastily.

“Then I’m curious, when someone died from acupuncture the other day, how did you manage it? If the community seeing and saving people was under your control, was the death the other day a dereliction of duty on your part?”

Lin Ran asked one question after another, actually confusing Qi Bao for a while.

“You You don’t have to talk nonsense, our community only has the obligation to remind, we are not responsible for accidents”

Seven Treasures did not finish his words, he was suddenly baffled, his own words were inconsistent, obviously not any convincing ah, he said the wrong thing completely.

“The obligation to remind? Then who am I? Does it matter to you?”

Lin Ran asked indifferently, a smile tacked onto his face.

“You!”

Qi Bao was so angry that his face turned blue, and on second thought, he spoke.

“Don’t talk to me about these useless things, I’ve been following Master’s condition for over a year, if you don’t make your identity clear today, you won’t be able to get close to Master in the future, there’s no way I’ll let an unknown person like you endanger Master’s health!”

“That’s a righteous thing to say, you said you’ve been following Master’s illness for more than a year, why has Master’s illness never healed?”

Lin Ran asked rhetorically.

“Is it that easy to get well from an eye disease?”

Seven Treasures said in a cold voice.

“Is eye disease hard to cure? Or is the stuff you brought simply useless!”

Lin Ran said, snatching the box that Seven Treasures was carrying from his hand, and laughed at just one glance.

“What are you laughing at! Give it back to me now! Can you afford to pay for it if you break it!”

Seven Treasures hurriedly scolded.

Lin Ran, however, placed the case on the table without a care in the world, and then laughed.

“Can’t afford to pay for it? Is this box of health products of yours hardly worth tens of thousands of dollars?”

“You... What are you talking about, this is medicine! Real medicine!”

Seven Treasures hurriedly argued.

“Medicine? Why does medicine have a health product logo printed on it?”

Lin Ran said and pointed to an inconspicuous logo in the corner of the package, the very logo of a health product.

“Seven Treasures!”

Hu Ming listened with an ugly look on his face, Qibao was a community worker who used to come to the house to sell medicines, blowing them out of proportion, but for the sake of him being a community worker, none of them had ever suspected him.

But now, Lin Ran actually said that this guy’s medicines were health products

“Brother Hu, you heard me, I’m definitely not a health product, it’s really a medicine!”

Seven Treasures hurriedly explained, but Wang Yifeng on the side was quick-eyed, already opened the box and took out a box of medicine, looking at the instructions on it and reading it out.

“This product is a health product and should not be used to treat diseases”

“Don’t read it! You stop it!”

Qibao was so anxious that he was on the verge of tears, but Wang Yifeng would not listen to him, and continued to read to himself.

On the side, Hu Ming listened with a grimace and looked at Qibao and scolded.

“That’s enough! Seven Treasures didn’t expect you to be such a person!”

“Brother Hu, it’s really not what you think”

Seven Treasures wanted to explain, but Hu Ming worshipped his hand and then said.

“You go away, don’t come in the future, and I won’t buy this medicine!”

“Big Brother Hu!”

Seven Treasures scratched his ears in anxiety and hurriedly looked to Hu Sanqi who was on the side, but the latter had his eyes closed, shook his head indifferently and said.

“Let’s go, old eyes are dizzy, no one else can be blamed!”

Seven Treasures was now completely desperate, he looked at Lin Ran with anger in his eyes, grabbed his “medicine” and glared at Lin Ran, saying.

“Wait for me!”
