

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 227

The Divine Dragon Axe, a magic weapon specially refined by Qi Tianhe for Qi Yin, used the very same fury.

Lin Ran placed the Divine Dragon Axe in front of him at this moment, but he was in a difficult position.

“If you want me to say forget it, wouldn't it be a pity to destroy such a good magic weapon?”

Wang Yifeng said beside him again to discourage him, he really liked this magic weapon a little.

Lin Ran knew what this guy was thinking, so he ignored him and directly raised his hand to infuse his true qi and slap his palm on the divine Dragon Axe.

However, what neither of them expected was that Lin Ran's slap did not move the divine Dragon Axe, leaving not even a trace of it, let alone destroying it.

“Haha! Look what I said, it's difficult to destroy such a good thing if you want to!”

Wang Yifeng said with a laugh beside him again.

Lin Ran, however, didn't bother to pay him any mind, and directly picked up the divine Dragon Axe, before coming to the side of the bedchamber and using all his strength, even pouring his true qi into it, he smashed it towards the hard wall of the bedchamber on one side.

“Hey hey! Don't you mess around”

Wang Yifeng wanted to stop him, but it was already too late.

With a loud “boom”, the divine Dragon Axe had already hit the wall of the bedchamber with a heavy thud.

What Wang Yifei and Lin Ran did not expect was that the Divine Dragon Axe was so hard that it was astonishing.

Even though it had hit so hard, it hadn't damaged the wall of the palace, but had directly made a hole in it, and the whole axe head had gone into it.

“Rumble!”

Suddenly, a series of loud noises came out, and with the hole as the centre, countless cracks spread out in all directions as if it were a spider's web.

“Quickly collect the Divine Dragon Axe!”

Seeing this, Lin Ran hurriedly greeted Wang Yifeng, who didn't hesitate and collected the Divine Dragon Axe into the Magic Buddha with a single move.

This magic weapon was excessively hard, he couldn't destroy it for a while, so he could only let Wang Yifeng put it away for the time being.

“Let's go, this place is going to collapse, let's hurry to save the people!”

Wang Yifeng greeted, the Divine Dragon Axe was in his hands, his heart was naturally happy, as for whether Lin Ran wanted to go back later, it would depend on whether he would still think about it later.

Just as Lin Ran was about to turn around and follow Wang Yifeng to transport the people out.

Suddenly there was a loud “rumble” behind him.

Then, something that neither of them had expected happened.

The huge palace split open through the hole, and with a bang, the entire top of the palace collapsed.

Wang Yifeng opened his mouth, but before he could utter a single word, the entire top collapsed where Lin Ran was, burying him alive.

“Lin Ran!”

Wang Yifeng rushed up like a madman, trying to pluck the rubble and dust away, but the collapse had only just begun, and other places around him began to collapse one after another.

“Lin Ran!”

Wang Yifeng was so anxious that tears were streaming out of his eyes, but he had to start backing up, and finally turned around with determination and chose to transport the hostages out.

The entire collapsed area was so large that he would not be able to save Lin Ran in time, let alone dig him out from under the collapse, which would be almost impossible.

And most importantly, there were still a dozen lives waiting for him to save, while Lin Ran was only one person.

The collapse soon stopped and the entire chambers were almost filled with rocks. Fortunately, Wang Yi acted quickly and moved everyone into the canals, otherwise the consequences would have been unthinkable.

Just Lin Ran

Half a month later, inside the clinic in front of a neighborhood in Temperance City.

“Sister Qin Bing, it’s been so long, this guy won’t really become a vegetable, right!”

Song Nuan sat by a hospital bed, her face full of sorrow.

She hadn’t been to class for half a month since learning of Lin Ran’s accident, but luckily she was in the dance department, so taking time off didn’t affect her too much.

“Don’t worry, this guy is the undefeatable little strong one, when have you ever seen him get beaten up!”

Qin Bing laughed, while taking out the Chinese herbs that she had prepared, and said.

“I’ll go out to decoct the herbs first, you keep an eye on him!”

Turning around after saying that, she left the ward, what no one noticed was that she couldn't help but sneak a glance at the person on the sickbed as she left the ward, with the same strong worry on her face.

Song Nuan returned to her senses and looked at a figure on the hospital bed with bandages all over her body, and couldn't help but have her eyes turn red.

She slowly stretched out her palm and took hold of the other person's hand, unable to stop the tears from falling down.

"You bastard! You promised to protect me and take care of me, but now you've become like this yourself!"

Song Nuan complained as she cried.

The person lying on the hospital bed was no other than Lin Ran.

Only now he was a bit miserable, his whole body was wrapped in bandages, except for his eyes, but they were tightly closed at the moment.

That day, Wang Yifeng got a dozen people out of the tomb and was already paralysed with exhaustion.

Luckily, Song Yujiang arrived soon afterwards with his men, and after learning that Lin Ran had been buried alive in the collapsed tomb, he immediately organised a rescue mission.

Fortunately, the place where Lin Ran was at that time formed an arch, which enabled him to escape and not be crushed directly into flesh.

But even so, he had multiple fractures all over his body, but this guy was like a little strong, and in just a week in hospital, the bones all over his body recovered on their own.

He just never woke up and had no choice but to be discharged and transferred to the clinic here.

And Qin Bing, even more directly resigned from her job at the hospital to come and take care of him.

"Sister Qin Bing quit her job for you, and Qiqi even went around to help you search for the most precious medicinal herbs, but I can't do anything, I can only keep watch here!"

Song Nuan was very remorseful in his heart, and at the same time, he felt a bit guilty.

The hostages had been saved, and his father had saved his future, but Lin Ran had ended up in this situation.

"The doctor said you may never wake up, if you don't wake up, then what should I do"

Song Nuan's tears couldn't stop falling, wetting Lin Ran's arm.

"Everyday said you want to marry me, is this how you come to marry me?"

Song Nuan couldn't help but lower her head, burying her face deep into Lin Ran's arm, as if she wanted to lift it up when the guy was intact and alive, not like this now.

"Are you in a hurry? If it's urgent, I'm ready to go to the civil service anytime!"

Suddenly a very weak voice rang out.

“Go to the Civil Affairs Bureau? How can I go? Carry you”

Song Nuan subconsciously returned, but before she could finish her words, her whole body sat up and looked straight at Lin Ran.

I don't know when, the tightly closed eyes have opened, only the gaze with a leather scroll, leather scroll also penetrated a trace of tenderness.

“You! When did you wake up!”

Song Nuan's pretty face reddened, a little embarrassed, but the joy on her face was overwhelming.

“I woke up when I heard you say that you would marry you!”

Lin Ran tried to squeeze out a smile, but Song Nuan couldn't see it, she could only see his eyes that had completed the crescent moon and pouted.

“What time is it and you're still poor, why don't you just bury you alive!”

“Burying me alive, wouldn't you be overly sad, and being a widow is so miserable, how could I let you live alone!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Rascal!”

Song Nuan gave him a blank look, her pretty face was really red, and she got up to leave, but was grabbed by Lin Ran.

“Don't go, I want to drink some water!”

Chapter 228

After drinking the water, Lin Ran and Song Nuan chatted for a while and soon fell asleep again.

When he woke up again, it was already noon the next day, and this time when he woke up, his entire appearance looked significantly better.

What even made Qin Bing and Luo Qiqi and even Song Nuan very speechless was that after this guy woke up, he actually took off all the bandages himself.

It wasn't until this guy sat on the ground for a dozen push-ups and bounced a few more times that everyone was sure that this guy was fine, and then they were relieved to leave him alone.

“Half a month, that's too much!”

Learning that he had been in a coma for half a month, Lin Ran couldn't help but be staggered.

“It's not exaggerated at all, don't you see the clinic has been renovated!”

Qin Bing said as she brought the medicine over.

Lin Ran was very surprised, I'm afraid it hadn't even added up to a month before the clinic had been renovated, this speed was considered divine.

"It's me, I found the owner of the renovation pair and gave him extra money to have them work overnight to rush it out!"

On the side, Luo Qiqi smiled proudly, seeing that Lin Ran was fine she was also very happy in her heart.

"Why are you in such a hurry to finish it?"

Lin Ran asked as he took his medicine, he had only been in a coma for half a month, but it felt like the whole world had gone off the rails, there were so many changes that even he didn't know about.

"Because of Sister Qin Bing ah, she resigned in order to take care of you, she can't always live in Sister Nuan's house, so she simply renovated the place overnight, it's convenient to take care of you too!"

Luo Qiqi laughed.

Qin Bing was a little embarrassed at the side and said in a hurry.

"It's not just me, Li Zheng and Liu Wenjuan and the others have also submitted their resignation letters and are ready to come to your place!"

"Ah? No way, then wouldn't Dean Yang want to kill me!"

Lin Ran was a bit speechless, he didn't like the work in the system, so he was ready to come out and find something to do on his own, this time following himself to leave so many people, I'm afraid Dean Yang would be heartbroken to death.

"Don't worry, Dean Yang is very smart, he is going to unite the Chinese medicine department in Tanjiang City with this clinic of yours, in the future, any patients that can't be solved will be sent directly to you!"

Qin Bing laughed.

Lin Ran nodded at his words, although this would increase the workload of the clinic, but at least there would be an explanation on Dean Yang's side, so that he wouldn't feel too guilty.

Having just woken up, Qin Bing and the others didn't bother Lin Ran much and let him rest early in the afternoon.

But this guy couldn't sleep when he was lying in bed, so he chatted with Song Nuan.

That's how he learned what had happened after he was buried alive.

"By the way, my father specifically instructed me to let him know when you're okay, I've already informed him and I believe he'll be over by the evening!"

Song Nuan said.

"It's worth it!"

Lin Ran smiled at his words.

"What's worth it?"

Song Nuan heard frowned, not understanding what he meant.

“To be thought of so much by my old man, it was worth it to be buried alive this time!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Nasty, what a time to take advantage!”

Song Nuan gave him a blank look, then said.

“During the half month you’ve been in a coma, Li Wansan and Luo Cheng and the others have come to see you, but you never woke up, so they didn’t bother you!”

“Mm!”

Lin Ran nodded his head in agreement.

“Where’s that Wang Yifeng guy?”

Lin Ran suddenly asked, he didn’t seem to have heard any news of Wang Yifeng coming to visit him, could this guy have gotten the divine Dragon Axe and run away with it?

“You mean that silly kid who is out of tune, he’s at the Heritage Bureau!”

Song Nuan said.

“The Heritage Bureau? Why did he run off there?”

Lin Ran was amazed, this guy was usually out of tune, how come he was now running to such a serious place as the Heritage Bureau.

Song Nuan sniffed helplessly and sighed.

“It’s not because of you!”

“Because of me?”

Lin Ran was puzzled.

“Right! It’s because of you, because you when to collapse the chambers, so many artifacts inside were damaged, this guy was just caught to volunteer to help out!”

Song Nuan said.

“So! That’s the right thing to do! This guy had a part to play in this!”

Lin Ran instantly laughed.

If he wasn’t afraid that this fellow Wang Yifei was too fond of the Divine Dragon Axe, he wouldn’t have wanted to destroy it in a hurry.

“By the way, when are you going to start opening this clinic? My classmate Yulan has been waiting for it!”

Song Nuan suddenly spoke up.

“Just these two days!”

Lin Ran laughed, he knew who Song Nuan was talking about, the nee-san that he had saved by hand in Building Materials City.

“By the way how is his father’s condition? If he’s still not well, he can come to the clinic and take a look!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“He’s almost well enough, and I just found out that he took the opportunity to give her a sum of money, so I didn’t think that you’d look rash in normal times, but you’ve done quite well!”

Song Nuan couldn’t help but praise.

“Well, I don’t know who’s looking at the man, how can I drop the ball on this!”

Lin Ran said with a smile.

“You’re the only one with a poor mouth!”

Lin Ran’s body was still a bit weak, and Song Nuan was too lazy to fight with him, so she didn’t refute him.

The two of them chatted for a while, and then Lin Ran went to sleep.

He slept until late afternoon, when Song Nuan woke him up, and only then did he realise that it was Wang Yifeng and Hu Ming who had arrived.

“Brother Lin Ran, thank you so much!”

As soon as he saw Lin Ran, Hu Ming knelt down straight away, and looking at him, Lin Ran was busy going forward to help him up.

“No need for that, it’s all I should do!”

Lin Ran said, but at the same time, he noticed that Hu Ming looked very poorly, and seemed to have aged several years as a whole.

“What’s with you?”

Lin Ran asked in surprise, Hu Ming’s condition was definitely not the aftermath of the Thousand Mile Quest, but was caused by too much emaciation.

“Lin Ran, Hu Ming’s father has gone!”

To the side, Wang Yifeng said in a low voice.

“Pops is gone? Why so sudden?”

Lin Ran asked, but in his heart he had a vague guess of what was going on.

“I only found out later, the day we went to Wan Ren Mountain, old man left!”

Wang Yifeng said.

“My condolences!”

Lin Ran looked at Hu Ming with sympathy on his face.

Hu Ming seemed to see the complicated look in Lin Ran’s eyes and spoke.

“Brother Lin Ran I know, it must have been my father who stole the blood, he was always very clever, I just”

Hu Ming’s eyes turned red as he said, and he couldn’t help the tears that flowed down his face.

“I’m just heartbroken, he was the most doted on Xiao Tian, but in the end even go, did not even look at his own grandson!”

Hu Ming cried in pain, and Lin Ran couldn’t help but have red eyes as well.

“Don’t worry, the old man must have seen it!”

Lin Ran said as he tried to squeeze out a smile.

Hu Ming and Wang Yifeng were puzzled and looked at him.

Lin Ran laughed and said.

“That day, when I was saving Little Tian, I heard the old master’s voice, and he must have been watching over Little Tian after he left!”

“Really?”

Hu Ming looked at Lin Ran with hope in his eyes, he didn’t know if what Lin Ran said was true or not, but that didn’t matter now.

The old man was already gone, even if what Lin Ran said was false, at least it would be a bit of psychological solace for him.

A father’s love is like a mountain, this saying is not just a simple one. Hu Ming was willing to use thirty years of his life to perform a thousand-mile search for the sake of Hu Tian.

Hu Sanqi was also willing to give up his life for Hu Ming. Isn’t this the most valuable aspect of human nature?
