

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 251

In the evening, the lights in Lin's Bay are gradually becoming less and less.

At home, the three of them, Lin Ran, sat down to eat dinner together.

"How was it, did Old Seven catch it?"

Granny Lin asked as she ate. Lin Ran had also run off to help in the afternoon, but returned with a slight frown, seemingly with little progress.

"Didn't catch it."

Lin Ran shook his head with a bitter smile.

The whole village had gone to his house back and forth, but the old thing had actually disappeared.

Even the villagers found his luggage all packed, but they just couldn't find anyone.

"This old seven, who has also lived in Linjiawan for more than ten years, really didn't think he would actually do such a thing!"

Granny Lin said bitterly.

Lin Ran, however, shook his head with a bitter smile.

"It's normal, he's a lazy person, picking herbs to sell is certainly lucrative, but he can't necessarily bear the hardship, just finding some grass to pass off as herbs, this is still something he can do!"

"Hmm!"

Grandma Lin nodded her head in agreement, then said with a sigh.

"People are doing what they want, good and evil will be rewarded in the end."

As she said this, a hint of sadness clearly leaked from Grandma Lin's eyes.

Lin Ran understood that his grandmother's words meant something else, it was just that he did not want to stir up this matter now.

Because the time had not yet come, when the time came, he himself would take the initiative to find his grandmother and say it, after all, this was what he had come back for this time.

"You guys eat first, my stomach hurts, I need to go to the toilet!"

As he was talking, Song Nuan at the side was standing up with a somewhat painful expression covering her stomach.

"What's wrong?"

Lin Ran hurriedly asked, but Song Nuan had already turned around and ran into the toilet.

"Is it because you're not used to eating?"

On the side, Grandma Lin hurriedly asked, in order to adapt to Song Nuan's taste, she had been very careful in cooking these days, but now

"I don't think so."

Lin Ran said with a frown, Lin Jiawan belonged to the jurisdiction of Tanjiang City, and the distance was not far, even though ten miles were different from eight miles, but it would not be a problem after only a few meals.

With this in mind, Lin Ran did not have much of an appetite, so he got up and went to wait patiently.

Seeing this, Lin's grandmother couldn't eat any more either, so she quickly cleaned up the dishes and hid in the kitchen to wait.

Luckily, Song Nuan soon came out of the toilet, but by now her face had turned white, as if she was severely dehydrated.

"What's wrong?"

Seeing this, Lin Ran hurriedly carried Song Nuan back to her room and checked her body condition.

Song Nuan was lying on the bed and said very weakly.

"I didn't know earlier, it's just that I feel very nauseous and regurgitated when I eat!"

"Alright, don't talk yet."

Lin Ran hurriedly reminded, while quickly checking Song Nuan's body, followed by a frown not there.

"What's wrong Ranzi?"

On the side, Grandma Lin was very uneasy and hurriedly came over to ask.

"It's food poisoning!"

Lin Ran said with a frown.

"Food poisoning? No way, we both ate it too, so how come it's fine!"

Grandma Lin asked in confusion, while carefully recalling the meal she had cooked tonight, there didn't seem to be any dishes that could be.

"Forget about that for now, you go and boil some herbs to induce vomiting, I'll massage her first!"

Lin Ran said.

"Good!"

Grandma Lin nodded and followed, and went to work in the kitchen.

"What's wrong? Is it serious?"

Song Nuan asked as she lay on the bed, breathless.

"No, don't worry, it will be fine later."

Lin Ran smiled and comforted, while sitting down on the edge of the bed, rubbing his hot palm and pressing it on the small of Song Nuan's back.

"What are you doing?"

With her small belly pressed, Song Nuan shrank somewhat unconsciously, and her pale pretty face flushed a faint blush.

"Massage!"

Lin Ran explained as he did the massage.

"Your intestines are too fragile, food poisoning has symptoms after just a few bites, you must massage and treat it, otherwise it will leave after-effects."

"Does it hurt?"

Song Nuan asked with a red face, she was somewhat afraid of pain, ever since she was young, the only time she wasn't afraid of pain was, I'm afraid, the time when she and Lin Ran first met at the Temperance Hospital.

"Don't worry, it won't hurt!"

Lin Ran looked at Song Nuan and smiled.

"Mmm!"

Song Nuan nodded her head slightly, but her pretty face turned even redder.

The warmth coming from her belly at this moment made her feel very comfortable, and the person smiling in front of her was so gentle that it gave her a feeling of being mentally grounded.

There was even a moment when she felt that this person in front of her was someone she could completely rely on.

"Lin Ran."

Suddenly Song Nuan spoke up.

"Hm? What's wrong?"

Lin Ran asked suspiciously as he continued his massage and looked up.

"Do you really want to marry"

Song Nuan closed her eyes and asked with some embarrassment, but before she could finish her words, a noisy clamour came from outside, followed by Granny Lin shouting from the courtyard.

"Ranzi it's not good, there are other villagers who have also developed food poisoning!"

Lin Ran's face instantly turned ugly at his words, followed by a hasty get up and rushed out, turning back and shouting on his way out the door.

"Don't go then either, I'll be back soon!"

Song Nuan looked at him without speaking, and only after Lin Ran had left the room did he whisper to himself.

“..... Marry me?”

Although there was regret that Lin Ran did not hear the whole sentence, she was relieved, as the saying goes, good things come in small packages, perhaps she and Lin Ran had not yet reached the time to pierce the window.

“Come on, drink the medicine first!”

Just as Song Nuan was lost in frustration, Lin Ran came running in with another bowl of medicine.

“Eh!”

Song Nuan was a little embarrassed, wondering if this guy had heard the last three words she had just said.

Her pretty face flushed red and somewhat embarrassed as she took the medicine, Song Nuan quickly drank it down.

“Huh? Why are you blushing?”

Lin Ran asked with a difference, he hadn't heard of food poisoning also causing a red face.

“Er... That one is probably because the medicine is too hot!”

Song Nuan hastily found an excuse to put it off.

At this moment, the outside was in a mess, and Lin Ran didn't have time to dwell on this, so he hurriedly reminded.

“If this one is vomit inducing, you will feel like vomiting later, pay attention!”

After saying that, Lin Ran rushed out of the room once again and went outside to help.

Song Nuan was lying alone on the bed, ashamed and angry, ashamed of how she had just said that, and angry that at the very moment she had gathered the courage to say it, another change had occurred in the village.

In the village, Lin Ran and his grandmother are distributing the vomiting medicine to everyone, and this time the food poisoning has spread to almost the whole village.

Old Seven has disappeared again, so almost the whole group has run to Lin Ran's house.

Those who had drunk the vomiting medicine were all squatting at the head of the village, waiting to vomit, and the rows of people really looked quite spectacular.

However, just as everyone was queuing up in an orderly manner to receive the medicine, suddenly a shout of surprise came from the area where they were waiting to vomit.

“It's Lao Qi! I just saw Lao Qi! He hasn't left yet, he's still in the village!”

The old village headman on the side had just regained a little strength and when he heard this, he shouted.

“All those who are fine are coming with me, it must be this old thing that’s up to no good, let’s go and catch him!”

“Good!”

Immediately, someone followed beside them.

And the mountain village, which was already peaceful, was destined to become unsettled on this night.

Chapter 252

The operation to catch Lao Qi continued into the latter part of the night, and eventually the villagers, led by the old village chief, caught him in the dry well of Lao Qi’s house.

Interrogated overnight, Lao Qi finally admitted that he had been responsible for the food poisoning.

After Li Tian told him about leaving samples yesterday afternoon, he felt that something was wrong and rushed off.

The herb problem was indeed caused by him being lazy and finding some random grasses to act as herbs.

But the food poisoning was caused by the resentment that grew in his heart because of his discontent with Lin Jia Wan and the fact that the herb issue had fallen through.

In the end, under the leadership of the old village chief, a group of people twisted Lao Qi and took him to the police station. The food poisoning was so serious that it could no longer be solved by forgiveness.

After this incident, the villagers saw through Lao Qi’s character and no one would seek him out in the future.

The villagers with food poisoning did not leave until almost dawn, and before Lin Ran had time to sleep, Li Tian and the others returned.

Only this time he did not come on his own, but was escorted over by the town mayor himself.

After a phone call from Song Nuan, his position as administrator of the herb market was completely over.

Originally, the mayor and the village headman talked about things without Lin Ran having anything to do with it, but in the village headman’s eyes, Lin Ran was no longer the brat he used to be. Yesterday, he told himself that Li Tian was finished, and today he was really finished.

Lin Ran had no choice but to accompany the village chief to receive the mayor again. Luckily, things went smoothly, and the marketing of the village herbs was settled in one morning.

Even at the end, the town mayor personally named Lin Jiawan, saying that he wanted to get Lin Jiawan out of poverty as soon as possible and not to fall behind on the way out of poverty.

Lin Ran had little say in these matters and went straight home to catch up on his sleep after the mayor had left.

This sleep lasted until late in the evening, when Song Nuan came running to shout at him for dinner, before he woke up.

“Now you’re a credit to your village!”

As he ate, Song Nuan teased with a smile from the side.

First, he solved the problem of herbs entering the market, and even the town mayor himself came over, and said that he would get Lin Jiawan out of poverty, these two things alone were enough to establish Lin Ran’s image in Lin Jiawan.

“I’m also taking up your light here!”

Lin Ran laughed bitterly, how could this have gone so smoothly if it wasn’t for Song Nuan.

“Ranzi, you’ve grown up!”

On the side, Grandma Lin looked at Lin Ran, with relief in her eyes.

“Grandma, I actually came back this time”

Lin Ran’s face suddenly became solemn as he looked at his grandmother and said, now that the village’s affairs were settled, it was time to solve his own problems instead.

“You want to know what happened to your parents back then!”

Grandma Lin put down her bowl and chopsticks, as if she had known this day would come.

“Mmm!”

Lin Ran nodded, he didn’t want to wait any longer when things had come to this.

“I’ll go wash the dishes!”

Seeing this, Song Nuan got up and said, what was going to be discussed next was Lin Ran’s family matter after all, she didn’t quite feel like getting involved.

“No need, just sit down!”

However, what both Lin Ran and Song Nuan didn’t expect was for Grandma Lin to speak up and stop Song Nuan.

“It’s not something shameful, since you and Ranzi have come together, there are some things that are better to face together!”

Grandma Lin said in a serious tone.

Song Nuan, however, listened with a blush on her pretty face and sheepishly lowered her head, but out of politeness, she still nodded her head.

“Ask away, what do you want to know!”

Grandma Lin took out the welding tobacco she hadn't smoked in a long time and lit it up to take a drag.

The people of Lin Jiawan were used to smoking welding cigarettes, and in the past, Grandma did not smoke, but ever since Lin Ran's parents' accident, she always had nothing to smoke, staring at the sky, not knowing what she was thinking about.

Looking at his grandmother, Lin Ran couldn't help but feel a pain in his heart. He knew that his grandmother must have never let go of it all these years, but had only buried it in her heart.

Although his heart ached for his grandmother, there were still some things he had to face after all, so Lin Ran took a deep breath and asked.

"What really happened back then? I want to know all of it!"

"All of it?"

Grandma Lin was stunned at her words, and then laughed bitterly.

"I'm afraid no one knows all of it, I only knew a few things back then when I went with the feng shui master to pick up your parents' remains!"

Said Grandma Lin, taking a sharp puff of welded smoke, as if she had made up her mind of some sort, and spoke.

"I'll tell you all I know, but as for the rest, you'll have to find out for yourself!"

At this point, Grandma Lin looked at Lin Ran and said in a serious tone.

"Ranzi, no matter what things are really like, but people have to face life after all, you mustn't fall too deep!"

"Grandma, I understand!"

Lin Ran nodded his head, but in his heart he was a little vaguely worried, even Grandma said that, could it be that the accident back then really hid a lot of things?

"Back then, Mr. Feng Shui and I went to pick up your parents' remains, we were considered to be there relatively early, at that time the whole site cleanup had just started, the ground was full of corpses"

Grandma Lin recounted.

It turned out that she had gone to the construction site with a feng shui gentleman back then, it had only been a day since the incident had happened, and because there were so many construction sites in trouble and so many people had died, even the clean-up work was moving forward very slowly.

The grandmother and the feng shui master found the bodies of her parents in a corner of the construction site, the masks were already completely unrecognisable and they were still identified by their clothes and some tokens on their bodies.

The grandmother and the feng shui master settled the bodies down and brought them back overnight.

But what no one expected was that the body stank the day after it was brought back. The stench was so unbearable that the body was not even stopped for three days and was buried in a hurry the next afternoon.

There is a saying in Lam Ka Wan that a person who dies at the end of his or her life needs to rest for five days so that the deceased can be prepared for the transition from the yang to the netherworld before being coffined.

For those who died accidentally, the corpse had to rest for three days, but there is no way to find out why it was less than those who died at the end of their lives.

And Lin Zhanran's parents had an accident at that time, and it would have been customary to hold the corpse for three days, but it didn't happen because the corpse stank very badly.

"At that time, after the coffin was put into place, that feng shui master approached me and talked about something that still sticks in my mind!"

Grandma Lin said as she smoked her cigarette.

"What was it?"

Not only did Lin Ran's whole spirit tighten up, he knew that what came next was the point, the point that even he didn't know.

Grandma Lin took a sharp puff of her cigarette and then looked at the smoke that she exhaled and said.

"The reason for holding the corpse for three days is so that the soul can be guided by the physical body to find its way home and join the physical body in the ground!"

"And normally the flesh doesn't stink for three days, and there is only one explanation for your parents' bodies stinking and losing so fast!"

"What explanation?"

Lin Ran hurriedly asked.

Grandma Lin took a sharp puff of her cigarette, and then her body actually couldn't help but tremble a little as she followed.

"That is, your parents' souls are no longer there, or rather your parents' souls are no longer able to find guidance in their physical bodies!"

Chapter 253

In feng shui, it is all about the unity of heaven and man. Everyone has an essence and a spirit, which, in layman's terms, means that a person is alive because of the existence of his soul.

When a person dies, the soul is separated from the body, the latter decomposing and turning into dust, while the former goes to the underworld to be reincarnated.

Of course, it is impossible to verify the truth of all this, but some things do exist.

For example, flesh that guides the soul home does not rot in just one day, while flesh without a soul rots very quickly.

“At the time, I also found it unbelievable, after all, I don’t know feng shui either, but then that feng shui master did a puja and followed him to disprove his suspicions!”

When Grandma Lin said this, her face turned very pale, as if she had remembered something terrible.

“Grandma, what’s wrong?”

Lin Ran asked worriedly.

“Nothing.”

Grandma Lin revealed a bitter smile, and then continued.

“The spell that feng shui master did was called the spirit-seeking method, and its purpose was to find your parents’ souls!”

“So has it been found?”

Song Nuan, who was on the side, asked, hearing this she was also a little curious about what had happened back then.

“No!”

Grandma Lin shook her head.

Lin Ran smiled but was a little puzzled and opened his mouth to ask.

“If you didn’t find it, isn’t it the same as the initial speculation?”

“No! Not finding it is consistent, but there is one thing that is inconsistent!”

Grandma Lin shook her head.

“What is inconsistent?”

Lin Ran hurriedly asked.

Grandma Lin smiled and gave Lin Ran a look, then said.

“One of the last of the spirit-seeking methods is to make something called a mermaid soul lamp, this thing can detect whether a person’s soul is still alive!”

“What about the results?”

Lin Ran asked, but his heart was already a little fried, and the results were not consistent that didn’t mean that the results given by the Mermaid Soul Lamp were

“That’s right, the mermaid soul lamp shows that your parents’ souls are still alive! Or that their souls are not reincarnated and are still alive!”

“How can this be!”

Lin Ran couldn't remain bashful any longer and directly stood up from his chair.

The soul was still alive, but the flesh was decaying rapidly, which could only mean one thing, and that was that the parents' souls and flesh were incapable of making a connection.

And this situation, to give an example, was like the Magic Buddha in Wang Yifeng's hands, as long as the soul entered the Magic Buddha, it was completely isolated from the outside world.

But why would the soul appear in which kind of place when one's parents had clearly only had an accident?

"Let's go, I'll take you to see something!"

Grandma Lin suddenly got up and said.

Lin Ran and Song Nuan looked at each other, then nodded and followed along.

The three of them walked through the courtyard and then came to the backyard, which used to be a place for raising poultry, and then when their parents left, the place was left empty.

Led by their grandmother, the three arrived at a broken tiled room in the backyard, and the moment they opened the door, the two Lin Ran could clearly see a lot of dust falling down, indicating that no one had been here for a long time.

"It's inside!"

Grandma Lin said, while pulling off and carrying out a large wooden box from inside.

"This thing is afraid of the light, it can only be seen in here!"

Grandma Lin said to herself, while opening the large wooden box.

The large wooden chest was placed closer to the door, where it could be viewed with the help of bright light, while the moonlight from outside could not shine on it.

After the large wooden box was opened, there was a smaller box inside. Grandma Lin carefully opened the smaller box and a very beautiful fish tank appeared in front of the two of them.

The fish tank was transparent, but the walls were very thick, and it looked as if the material was made of transparent branches.

There was a pool of clear water inside, and four small fish of different sizes were swimming happily in the water!

"This is a mermaid soul lamp?"

Lin Ran looked staggered, although these four small fish were all small in size, he could tell who each one represented just by looking at them!"

"Right! This is the Mermaid Soul Lantern!"

Grandma Lin said, while looking at Lin Ran and saying.

"The oldest one inside is me, the youngest is you, and the other two are your parents!"

When she said this, Grandma Lin couldn't help but sigh and mutter to herself.

"I've kept this secret for so many years, I wanted to bring it into the earth, but I never thought that you would finally know about it!"

"Grandma!"

Lin Ran's eyes were red, not knowing what to say.

"It's alright, you've grown up and are capable of taking charge on your own, you can look into what happened back then if you want to, but you have to promise Grandma that you must protect yourself first!"

Grandma Lin said in a serious tone.

"Mhmm!"

Lin Ran nodded heavily at his words, he understood his grandmother's good intentions, the reason he hadn't told himself all these years was because he was afraid that he would go and investigate what happened back then on impulse.

What happened back then was definitely extraordinary, whether it was the clues provided by Song Yujiang or the clues he got from his grandmother, they all signified that there were a lot of secrets hidden back then, and if he investigated without sufficient power and without permission, I was afraid that he would only push himself into a dangerous situation.

"That's all I know, if you want to investigate, you'll have to rely on yourself for everything else!"

Grandma Lin said with a sigh.

"I understand, Grandma, can I take these four mermaid soul lamps with me?"

Lin Ran said.

"As you wish!"

Grandma Lin sighed and turned around to prepare to leave.

Lin Ran suddenly remembered something and hurriedly opened his mouth to ask.

"Right, Grandma, that Feng Shui gentleman back then, do you still have his contact information?"

"No, he happened to travel to our village back then, it was a blessing of sorts!"

Grandma Lin said, but then she seemed to think of something and spoke.

"If you want to find him, you can look for your uncle in Tanjiang City, back then I remember that feng shui master saying that there was a destiny with your uncle, maybe he still has the other person's contact information!"

"Uncle?"

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, he had never known he had an uncle.

“Your mother came from a very high background back then, and willingly went to work on a construction site for your father, so she was cut off from her family, and only your uncle who cared for his sister still had contact with her!”

Grandma Lin laughed bitterly, followed by a shake of her head and turned to leave the backyard.

“Uncle?”

Lin Ran’s heart could not calm down for a long time, he never knew before that he actually had an uncle.

“Forget it, let’s collect the mermaid soul lamp first!”

Lin Ran shook his head with a bitter smile, although knowing that he had an uncle, he might be able to find the feng shui master back then.

But now that he was in Lin Jiawan there was nothing he could do, he could only be patient and take it one step at a time.

After putting away the mermaid soul lamp, Lin Ran went back to his grandmother to ask for his uncle’s contact address.

However, his grandmother and his uncle were not in contact with each other, but when his parents got married, they knew the address of his uncle’s house, and it was hard to say whether he still lived there.

Chapter 254

For the next few days, Lin Ran and Song Nuan stayed at home, idly going to the mountains to look at the scenery and touching the fish in the rivers around them, the days were uncomfortable.

She hadn’t spent so much time with her grandson since Lin Ran had gone away to study.

After spending five days at home, Lin Ran and Song Nuan set off on their journey back to Tanjiang City.

Before leaving, Lin Ran copied some of the more simple and easy-to-understand Chinese medical treatments from the Xuan Yang Pharmacopoeia and left them with his grandmother, so that she could find something to do during the day and help out as much as possible with the villagers in case of disasters and floods.

It was not that Lin Ran hadn’t thought of letting his grandmother go and set up a life with him, but he knew her too well.

She had lived in Linjiawan all her life, and it would be a torment for her to go and live in the city with herself, and she would soon feel very uncomfortable without her acquaintances.

So Lin Ran chose to let his grandmother stay behind. What people seek in their old age is long past any enjoyment, but the ability to live each day in comfort.

Lin Ran left several tens of thousands of dollars and hid them under his grandmother’s pillow. He did not dare to give too much to an old man, after all, he still understood the principle of “the sin of the jade”.

With the Mayor’s “kind” care in the village, Lin Ran was not worried and returned to Tamagawa City with Song Nuan.

When they returned to the clinic, it was already late afternoon.

The two of them wanted to go straight home and rest, but just as they arrived home, the doorbell rang at the back.

“You guys are back, I’m going to call the police if you don’t come back!”

As soon as the door to the room opened, Luo Qiqi rushed in with a look of impatience, followed by Qin Bing.

“How did you guys know we were back?”

Song Nuan was very surprised, the news of their return had not been told to the two of them, how did they know about it, and they rushed over in the first place.

“You, you really didn’t protect yourself from this trick of Kiki’s!”

Qin Bing said with a smile at the back, while taking Song Nuan’s mobile phone and pulling up a screen, Song Nuan couldn’t help but laugh at a glance.

It turned out that Luo Qiqi, this ninny, had taken Song Nuan’s phone and set it to location sharing mode, this ninny could factually watch her location wherever she was.

“Alright, let’s go, let’s go I’ve booked a place nearby, it’ll be too late if we don’t go!”

Luo Qiqi urged.

“What booked a spot? What’s the point of going?”

Song Nuan said in amazement.

“Barbecue, she has booked a barbecue stall nearby!”

Qin Bing said helplessly.

“A barbecue? It’s almost New Year’s Eve, why are there still barbecue vendors?”

Lin Ran asked in confusion as he finished packing up his things and walked out of his room, sniffing at his words.

“You don’t understand this, it’s called the tail end of summer, eating barbecue in the opposite season, hurry up and go, it’s very hot, if you go late you’ll be robbed!”

Luo Qiqi hurriedly urged, Lin Ran had no choice but to simply pack up with Song Nuan and follow Luo Qiqi and Qin Bing out the door.

On the way, Lin Ran learnt that Qin Bing had not been idle recently, running to the job market several times and recruiting two or three receptionists to prepare for the opening of the clinic.

Since the clinic was so large, it was simply changed to a model where the ground floor sold medicine and the first floor saw patients.

“And me! I’ve worked hard for the opening ceremony, okay?”

Luo Qiqi said discontentedly from the side.

Lin Ran smiled helplessly at this and said.

“Fine, you’ve put in a lot of effort too, I’ll give you some more loin for your tonic later!”

“Go aside, that’s for you men to eat, I don’t want it!”

Luo Qiqi said with a pout.

As the group chatted, they soon arrived at the barbecue stall, which was really crowded.

The New Year was just a month away, but the place was still as crowded as summer.

“Go and order, we want to chat!”

Once seated, Luo Qiqi said with a pout of dissatisfaction.

“Fine! I’ll go.”

Lin Ran laughed helplessly, but he was still very happy in his heart, he was quite upset about leaving the clinic to Qin Bing and Luo Qiqi, so he naturally didn’t have a problem with a small thing like ordering food.

Lin Ran went to order the food, and the three women were chatting feverishly after not seeing each other for a few days.

But just as the three of them were chatting away, suddenly two figures came up next to them and stopped on Qin Bing’s side.

“Big beauty Qin? What a coincidence, I didn’t expect to run into you here!”

A young man with long hair said with a smile, his name was Li Long who was the administrator of the talent market.

Next to him stood a thin, lecherous-looking young man named Liu Shi, who was his colleague.

“Li Long? What a coincidence!”

Qin Bing laughed, while turning his head to explain to Song Nuan and the others.

“He’s from the talent market, I went to the talent market to recruit a few days ago and met him a few times.”

“O? He’s so average looking, not as good looking as Lin Ran!”

Luo Qiqi mouthed to, although her voice was not loud, it still reached Li Long’s ears.

Li Long’s eyes narrowed slightly and there was a hint of anger in his eyes, but it was well concealed.

“These two are both your friends, huh?”

Li Long asked with a smile.

“Yeah!”

Qin Bing smiled back, but her heart was a little embarrassed, she did not have a deep impression of this Li Long, only a nodding acquaintance, originally to say hello also a busy, but this guy does not seem to have a hint of intention to go.

“Can I take a picture with you?”

Li Long suddenly said with a smile.

“A photo?”

Qin Bing smiled and wondered, he was not a star, how could he take a picture with himself?

“It’s like this, three beautiful students don’t often see each other, I want to take a photo together for a souvenir!”

Li Long said with a smile.

There are no beauties who don’t like to hear compliments on their beauty, once Li Long said this, before Qin Bing could reply, Luo Qiqi had already posed for a photo, seeing this Qin Bing couldn’t say anything and had to nod her head in agreement.

Li Long handed his mobile phone to Liu Shi, asking him to help take the photo, while he himself came next to Qin Bing and placed his palm behind Qin Bing.

However, just as Liu Shi was about to take a picture, Li Long’s hand, however, unconsciously touched towards Qin Bing’s waist.

Qin Bing was wearing a lace top that was thin at the waist and was outlined very nicely.

“It’s so damn pretty!”

Li Long mumbled as he leaned his palm towards Qin Bing’s waist.

But just as his palm was about to touch Qin Bing’s waist, suddenly a hand actually reached over from the side like lightning and firmly grabbed his wrist, followed by a voice exploding in his ears.

“Do you really want to touch it?”

“You!”

Li Long was taken aback and struggled to take his hand back, but the other party’s palm was like an iron vise, making it impossible for him to break free.

“Lin Ran?”

The movement of the two people caught the attention of Song Nuan and the others, who all looked over, and when they saw Lin Ran’s face unkindly grasping Li Long’s wrist, Qin Bing instantly reacted and hurriedly took two steps backwards, distancing himself from Li Long.

“He What’s wrong with him?”

Qin Bing was a little less clear on exactly what had happened and looked at Lin Ran as he asked.

Lin Ran looked at Li Long for a moment and then said.

“This kid just tried to touch your waist!”

Chapter 255

“What?”

Hearing these words, Qin Bing’s face instantly went icy cold, and his eyes were filled with disgust as he looked at Li Long.

“No... No, I didn’t! Don’t listen to his nonsense!”

Li Long hurriedly explained, but his palm was raised high by Lin Ran.

“No? Then what are you doing with your palm? Scratching an itch?”

Lin Ran asked.

“You!”

Li Long was so furious that his face turned blue, staring at Lin Ran with his eyes filled with anger.

“I didn’t expect you to be such a person!”

Qin Bing was so furious that he stepped forward and slapped Li Long’s face, immediately the hot sensation was like a fuse, which also triggered Li Long’s anger.

He had used this trick to mooch off many young girls, but he never thought that today he would run into three beautiful girls and be ruined by a kid who was even younger than himself.

“Spill it for me!”

Li Long exerted all his strength to break free, but Lin Ran’s palm was like an iron grip, holding him firmly, so he had no hope of breaking free.

“You’re fucking looking for death!”

Seeing this, Li Long was enraged and lifted his other hand towards Lin Ran’s face and slapped him.

The two were right next to each other, and the slap reached the front of Lin Ran’s face in almost an instant.

The commotion here also drew a group of people from the surrounding area, and when they saw this scene, the onlookers could not help but suck in a breath of cold air.

At such a close distance, if it landed on his face, it would have left five fingerprints, if not knocked out two incisors.

After all, a man is different from a woman. A woman’s strength is still small after all, and Qin Bing’s angry slap just now did not even leave a mark on Li Long’s face.

But if Li Long’s slap had been swollen, the result would have been completely different.

Just as the crowd was watching in amazement, a scene that suddenly took them by surprise appeared.

They saw Lin Ran lift his palm violently and followed it with a slap on the back of Li Long’s hand.

It was as if Li Long's hand wasn't his at all, and he slapped it backwards, before landing on his own face with a "pop".

This was a very difficult move, but the key was that this guy made a very crisp sound, and everyone was frozen at this scene.

"You!"

Li Long covered his face, his eyes full of shock, how could he not expect that his hand would actually give himself a backhand slap without obedience.

"Who the fuck are you?"

At this moment, Liu Shi, Li Long's colleague, ran over from the side and pointed at Lin Ran, cursing.

Lin Ran turned his head to look at him and asked.

"You're talking to me?"

"Nonsense, if I don't talk to you should I talk to a ghost, I'm warning you to let go of my friend or I won't be polite!"

Liu Shi shouted, he was not big but he had a big temper, pointing at Lin Ran without the slightest pestle.

"Are you finished?"

Lin Ran looked at him and said indifferently.

Liu Shi was stunned, not knowing what Lin Ran meant by this.

Lin Ran, however, looked and continued to say.

"When you've finished, get lost!"

The words fell, followed by a flash of black shadow, at once, only to hear a "bang" muffled sound, immediately Liu Shi's entire body flew backwards, fell heavily to the ground to the side, covering his stomach and rolling.

"You"

Seeing this scene, Li Long was also not calm, a single kick had sent his companion flying, what kind of skill must this be.

At this point, Li Long's heart was completely scared.

"Let... Let me go, I'll give you money!"

At this point, he couldn't think of any other conditions, he was just a man who had just joined the workforce and had no other backstage other than a little money.

"Do you think I'm short of your money?"

Lin Ran looked at him and laughed disdainfully.

"Then I I"

Li Long stammered and couldn't find an excuse to excuse himself, but just then, Liu Shi, who had fallen to the ground in the distance, was exerting all his strength and shouted.

"I... My cousin! My cousin!"

The crowd was all baffled by his words, what your cousin? Who is your cousin? What's he for?

"Yes! Yes! His cousin!"

Suddenly, Li Long remembered something and his nervous heart couldn't help but calm down a little as he looked at Lin Ran and stammered.

"You... You'd better let me go, his cousin is a notoriously ruthless character in this generation, you... You'd better be smart and let us go! Or else... When his cousin finds out and comes looking for You... You won't get away either!"

"Cousin?"

Lin Ran looked at Li Long, but like looking at a fool, he picked up his collar directly, then dragged him to Liu Shi like a dead dog, and then threw him to the ground with one hand.

"You... What do you want!"

Li Long was a little overwhelmed by the shock and lay on the ground making his way behind Liu Shi.

"You... You'd better apologise to us, or else when my cousin comes, you... You just kneel down and beg me, old me won't even let you go!"

Liu Shi said stiffly, that kick from Lin Ran just now had really cast a small shadow on his heart.

But when he thought of what his cousin had told him before, that no one dared to mess with him here, he couldn't help but have a little more courage at this moment.

"Cousin, right?"

Lin Ran looked at Liu Shi and smiled.

"Yes! If you're smart, get lost, or I won't be polite!"

The more Liu Shi said, the more he had a bottom in his heart, and at this moment, he couldn't help but sit up with the pain, with an arrogant attitude that I have a backer, you don't dare to do anything to me.

However, what he didn't expect was that Lin Ran suddenly turned his head to look at him, and then raised his hand and gave him a slap.

"Is your cousin very good?"

Lin Ran asked, a smile tackling his face.

"You!"

Liu Shi was a little dazed by the blow and said hurriedly, covering his face.

"My cousin is the bearer of this generation, you"

“Slap!”

There was another crisp slap.

“The bearer?”

“Kid you’re dead, old me won’t spare”

Liu Shi once again shouted.

“Slap!”

“Won’t spare me?”

Lin Ran looked at him with a faint smile still tacked on his face.

“You...”

“Snap!”

“How am I?”

Lin Ran continued to ask.

“I’m”

“Snap!”

“How are you?”

Lin Ran continued to ask.

This time Liu Shi really wilted, covering his face and crying.

“Don’t... Don’t hit it”

Lin Ran looked at Liu Shi and then looked at Li Long who was at the side.

“What about you? Got a cousin?”

“Huh?”

Li Long was stunned, then shook his head like a rattle and hurriedly said.

“No I don’t have one!”

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you want to do.

But just put down less than a second, followed by “pop” a slap to stay directly on his face.

Li Long said with a sobbing face.

“I already said no, why are you still hitting me?”

Lin Ran looked at him and said with a disdainful laugh.

“This slap is for the pretty girl!”

The words fell, followed by another backhanded slap from Lin Ran, and this slap directly jerked Li Long to sit up from the ground, before falling heavily to the side again.

Lin Ran got up and looked at Li Long and said in a cold voice.

“This slap is only my own, in the future if I ever see you standing girl cheap again, I will beat you once I see you!”

Chapter 256

Back at the stall, the boss had already brought out all the dishes Lin Ran had ordered. It was still very surprising to Lin Ran that such a big thing happened over here but it didn't affect the boss's speed in serving the food.

“That man just now looks familiar to me!”

Lin Ran had just sat down when Song Nuan spoke up at the side.

“Familiar? You've seen him before?”

Qin Bing asked, originally Li Long had an average impression in her mind, and after what had just happened, that impression had sort of collapsed completely.

“It's better to look at him wrong, this kind of scum is simply spicy to the eyes, it's better not to know him!”

Luo Qiqi said again beside her, while giving everyone a bit of food to share.

“No, this person is someone I seem to have seen at school!”

Song Nuan explained.

“School? Is it hard to believe that he's still a student?”

Qin Bing said in confusion.

“How is that possible, he looks like a socialite at first glance, how can he be a student! Even if he is a student he must be a school slag!”

Luo Qiqi said indignantly.

“That's right! It's the school, he's a student of the civil engineering department of Temperance University!”

Song Nuan suddenly spoke up.

“Department of Civil Engineering? Then how did he become a talent marketer?”

Qin Bing wondered, but then it dawned on her after that, how many university graduates could do jobs corresponding to their major nowadays.

“I'm sure that's him, I've seen his picture on the list of outstanding graduates from the civil engineering department before!”

Song Nuan said.

Both Qin Bing and Luo Qiqi couldn't help but look at Lin Ran when they heard that, and spoke almost simultaneously.

"You actually beat up your own senior!"

Lin Ran was eating, when he heard that he lifted his head to look at the two of them and wondered.

"What's so strange about that?"

"He's your senior, and you actually beat him up!"

Luo Qiqi said with her mouth wide open.

Lin Ran, on the other hand, said dully as if he hadn't been touched in any way.

"So what? In my eyes there are only good guys and bad guys, there is no such classification as senior!"

It had been a long time since he had eaten the barbecue near the school, and the taste really made him miss it.

The next time the group did not continue to discuss Li Long and the two of them, but talked about the clinic.

Only then did Lin Ran realise that under Qin Bing's arrangement, the clinic had been open for business since the day, but of course it was a trial run and the official opening would have to wait until after the opening ceremony the day after tomorrow.

As it was too late and several people had been drinking, Lin Ran had no choice but to arrange for everyone to go home and sleep.

It was almost midnight when they arrived home and arranged for the three girls.

Fortunately, the three girls had not yet broken through the window, otherwise he would not really know how to deal with them.

The next morning.

Lin Ran was sleeping soundly when suddenly the door to his room was opened, followed by Luo Qiqi's voice coming in.

"Get up, hurry up it's too late!"

"What's too late?"

Lin Ran looked confused, not knowing at all what was happening, how could it be too late.

"School! We have to go to school, hurry up!"

Luo Qiqi urged.

"Go to school for what?"

Lin Ran was dumbfounded, why did she suddenly have to go to school? Didn't this nee-san graduate a long time ago?

"Sister Nuan said it, there's a basketball match at school today, it seems to be your Chinese Medicine Department versus the Civil Engineering Department!"

Luo Qiqi hurriedly said, while turning around and running off to wash up.

"A basketball match?"

Lin Ran was dumbfounded, but then his whole body trembled as he remembered a tradition, and instantly lost all sleepiness as he hurriedly got up and ran to wash up.

There was a notorious pact prevalent in Tamkang University that as long as a student of TCM, regardless of whether they graduated or not, regardless of their basketball skills, as long as the school held a basketball tournament for students of their department, they had to go to it as long as they had time, then just cheer and cheer.

After a quick wash, the three drove straight to Tamkang University, and in the car Qin Bing was curious and asked.

"How come you still have such odd rules in the Chinese medicine department?"

"It's not because they're a Chinese medicine department!"

Song Nuan laughed beside her, she was also bored in the morning browsing the school forum, which only found out that there was a basketball tournament in the school today.

"Ai!"

Lin Ran sighed and said with an expression of hatred and disdain.

"It's not because the TCM department is full of medical students!"

"What does this have to do with studying medicine?"

Luo Qiqi was puzzled, and Lin Ran could only explain helplessly.

"There are basically only two types of students in the Chinese medicine department, the first type is those who are studying, and the second type is those who are on their way to study!"

"Chinese medicine is very difficult to study, and to graduate successfully one must put in enough time to study, in addition to the fact that those who study medicine are concerned with composure, which leads to a lack of masculinity, and sports are also the shortcomings of our department!"

"And in order to make up for the embarrassment of not having enough people for every basketball game, that's why this tradition has been created!"

Lin Ran explained helplessly.

However, Qin Bing and the others were not listening at all, and Luo Qiqi even asked directly.

"So that means that you can play today too?"

Lin Ran smiled awkwardly at his words.

“If the TCM department is short of manpower, theoretically it’s possible!”

“Great, you must go up and show your hand today!”

Luo Qiqi said excitedly.

Qin Bing on the side also couldn’t help but look at Lin Ran twice more, as if she was imagining what it would be like for this guy to play ball.

The three of them soon arrived at the school, and went straight to the basketball court without stopping.

At this moment, the basketball court was crowded with many handsome and beautiful women, many of whom had already graduated from school.

Although they had graduated, this did not affect their enthusiasm in any way, after all, such a grand scene, even if you do not watch the basketball, look at the handsome and beautiful girls, take the opportunity to talk about friends or something, is also a very good choice.

“I say, we’re not going to seek revenge on that guy to get back on the field, what the hell are we doing here at this school watching a basketball game!”

In the corner of the crowd, Liu Shi covered his face and said impatiently, the few slaps he received from Lin Ran last night had not healed up to now, although he could not see it with the powder he had applied, but the pain in his cheek from time to time was really a bit unbearable.

“What’s the hurry, your cousin won’t be back until tomorrow, I’ve asked around, that kid has opened a clinic nearby, it’s opening tomorrow, we’ll kill him at the opening ceremony, let him make a fool of himself, that’ll be a relief!”

Next to him, Li Long said with a smile, but his eyes were unconsciously darting back and forth, stopping for a moment when he saw a pretty beauty.

“Even if we take revenge tomorrow, that has nothing to do with coming to the basketball game!”

Liu Shi said impatiently, his heart was full of anger and he had no desire to look at beautiful women.

“The first thing you need to do is to look at a beautiful woman and take revenge, both of which are important.

Li Long casually argued, but his eyes were already staring at a certain beauty with a straightforward harrumph.

“Look, all you fucking know is to look at beautiful women!”

Liu Shi said speechlessly, following his gaze also couldn’t help but look back and forth, his mouth scolding Li Long for his lack of talent, but his eyes were dishonest and ruthless.

“Hmm?”

Suddenly, Li Long noticed that at the entrance of the court, there were actually three stunningly beautiful women walking in, and when he fixed his eyes on them, his head was suddenly confused as he realized that he actually knew these three people, they were the same three that were beside Lin Ran last night.

Then, before Liu Shi could react and tell Li Long, Lin Ran followed the three women and walked in.

Chapter 257

“Hey hey! That kid’s here too!”

Liu Shi hurriedly greeted Li Long and looked over.

“Eh? How come he’s here too?”

Li Long couldn’t help but frown slightly when he saw this, he hadn’t recovered from yesterday’s incident, but he didn’t expect to run into him again today at school.

“Hey, hey! Look, the crowd is rushing to them!”

Liu Shi suddenly exclaimed, and Li Long also noticed that ever since Lin Ran’s trio had entered, the crowd that had been sitting quietly had surged towards them.

“Hey hey! Beauty, what’s going on here?”

Li Long took the opportunity to pull a female student who also wanted to run over and asked.

“Don’t you all know that? Lin Ran is the legendary senior of Tamkang University, and the one beside him is the current school flower of Tamkang University, simply a divine couple for people to envy!”

Said the beautiful colleague also hurriedly ran over.

“What divine couple? Bullshit chivalrous couple I think it is!”

Li Long said disdainfully, but in his heart he was a bit angry, he didn’t expect to see a basketball game today can be this kid to get a belly full of anger.

“Fuck, what now? I told you not to come to the basketball game, but now I’m pissed off again!”

Liu Shi said angrily.

The anger in Li Long’s heart was not much less than his, he was at least an outstanding graduate of the civil engineering department of Tamkang University, and had also received an award interview from the school back then.

But now that he was back at school, no one knew him at all, and even the security guard at the entrance didn’t even look at him directly.

But what about Lin Ran now? The moment he appeared on stage, he became the centre of attention, this was too big a difference.

“Humph! I’ll see how long you can be complacent!”

Li Long’s face was gloomy and he sat down directly in his seat.

“What else do you have for this method?”

Seeing that Li Long had no intention of leaving, Liu Shi could not help but ask.

Li Long smiled a cold smile at the corner of his mouth and said.

“Today is the basketball game between the Department of Civil Engineering and the Department of Chinese Medicine, their Chinese Medicine Department Nyang has Ba Ji not to mention the game, it’s a problem to get a team together, later on I want to see if he, as a graduate of the Department of Chinese Medicine, can hold up his face!”

“That is also the problem of the whole department, ah, if you can go on the field to teach him a good lesson, that would be a relief, I remember you practice ball playing quite well ah!”

Liu Shi said again beside him, and Li Long sneered at his words.

“You don’t say, there might be a chance, depending on whether they can get enough people from the TCM department!”

The two of them were calculating on their side, while Lin Ran’s side was already blocked to the ground.

“I didn’t expect ah, you’re still so popular in school!”

Qin Bing covered her mouth and laughed, although she was also caught up in the ripples, but looking at Lin Ran’s current awkward stage, she also felt the amusement.

“Stop being so sarcastic and hurry up and help me out!”

Lin Ran said helplessly, he had only graduated five or six months ago, how come he had suddenly become the school’s celebrity, this guy had made himself simply more interesting than the basketball game.

“Hey hey! The basketball game has started!”

I don’t know who suddenly shouted from the crowd, following everyone’s gaze, they found that the players of the basketball game had already entered, and only then did they all reluctantly return to their seats.

The three of them casually found an out-of-the-way seat, followed by a scan of the entire court, Lin Ran could not help but frown and sigh.

“What’s wrong?”

Song Nuan asked in confusion, and Luo Qiqi and Qin Bing also looked over, not understanding Lin Ran’s meaning.

“Look at that, you guys!”

Lin Ran pointed to the rest area below, only to see that there were at least four substitutes sitting in the rest area of the Civil Engineering Department, while in the rest area of the Chinese Medicine

Department, it was empty, with only one person who looked like a coach, while there were actually none of the substitutes.

“No way, the Chinese Medicine Department is really this miserable!”

Qin Bing couldn't help but say, before she thought Lin Ran was all joking, but she didn't think it was all true.

“Hey, that's really miserable, as long as one of them gets sent off, won't there be no one left, they'll have to play more with less!”

Luo Qiqi said from the side.

It was not known whether this nee-san was born with a raven's tongue or if it was true that Old Master Sky was also cooperating with her, as soon as her words fell, a commotion came from the court below, which had only just started playing for less than a minute.

Lin Ran rushed to look, only to see the players below twisting into a ball and actually fighting.

“Holy shit, it can't be that accurate!”

Luo Qiqi couldn't help but speak up.

“You're talking out of your ass!”

Lin Ran couldn't help but say that the situation below had been brought under control by the coach and the referee, and it seemed that the commotion was caused by a physical altercation between the two when they were defending against each other.

The college students were at the height of their bloodlust, and with so many people around at the moment watching, neither one of them wanted to lose face, and this was how it developed.

However, as if to accommodate the fact that no one was in the Chinese medicine department, the referee did not directly send the two men who were in conflict off the court, but only gave a warning, and the game then continued.

The university basketball game was only played for two quarters of fifteen minutes each, the first half and the second half respectively.

As the overall strength of the Chinese Medicine Department was too weak, it was already down by nearly twenty points after only five minutes of play in the first half.

And by the time the game reached ten minutes, it was even more terrifying to have opened up a forty-point gap directly.

The huge difference in points made the TCM team feel angry, but they couldn't fight, so they all felt very uncomfortable.

“Hey, hey!”

Finally, towards the end of the first half, the conflict erupted, and the two players who had been at odds before, this time got into a direct fight.

And this time the referee wasn't being polite and sent both of them off directly, but the hearts of those watching the game around them couldn't help but feel half cold.

The Chinese Medicine Department had no substitutes at all, so how could they play in the second half if they were sent off directly?

"Chinese Medicine Department, if you don't have any substitutes, the second half will be over!"

The referee looked at the few remaining members of the Chinese Medicine Department and spoke.

Several people had their heads down and looked downcast.

"There's still someone from the Chinese Medicine Department!"

Suddenly, to everyone's surprise, a figure in the stands stood up, followed by another sentence.

"Lin Ran is from the Chinese Medicine Department!"

"Hey!"

Lin Ran was dumbfounded and was just about to pull Luo Qiqi, who had stood up, down, but who knew that this ninny had already blurted out.

"Come on, come on, I'm watching you play, I've got a chance!"

Luo Qiqi was excited, and Qin Bing and Song Nuan at the side also cast an expectant gaze.

"You guys!"

Lin Ran was very speechless, even if he really wanted to go up and help, there was no need to make it so public knowledge!

"That guy's going up!"

In the distance, Liu Shi hurriedly pulled Li Long and said.

However, Li Long was already on his feet, his eyes urgently staring in Lin Ran's direction as he spoke.

"I see it, let's see how I play him to death!"

With that, Li Long followed suit and got off the spectator stand, heading towards the replacement area for the civil engineering department.

Chapter 258

"Lin Ran! Lin Ran! Lin Ran!"

Throughout the entire dome, thunderous cheers erupted from the moment Lin Ran appeared on the court.

This was not only because of his now super high popularity within the school, but also because after changing into his basketball jersey, the guy's handsome and sunny appearance immediately set off the kind of beautiful women watching the game.

A lean body, but a sense of strength, a knife-sharp face cold with a hint of sunshine, making people very comfortable to look at.

“Really didn’t think that this guy could be so handsome in his basketball uniform!”

In the stands, Luo Qiqi had an undisguised look of nymphomania on her face.

“Come on, can you restrain yourself, the harrumphs are coming out!”

Song Nuan said helplessly, and Qin Bing also shook her head along with her, although Lin Ran was indeed very handsome like this, but she couldn’t be such a nymphomaniac.

“Humph! A bunch of blind bitches, I’ll show you who is the king of this court!”

Inside the civil engineering bench, Li Long had already changed his clothes, he had made a lot of connections in order to get on the field and beat Lin Ran, whether he could get out of this bad temper would depend on how he played in this game.

“Play with me, see how I play you to death!”

With a cold smile on his lips, Li Long followed and took to the field.

“Silence, the second half of the match will now begin!”

With the referee’s command, the whole court followed and fell silent as countless eyes were all glued to the court.

Lin Ran was playing point guard and started off directly behind him, while everyone on the TCM side was basically a section shorter than the other side.

This also led directly to the fact that the ball was stolen straight away from the other team as soon as the game started, with Li Long playing the same guard and coming up to get the ball straight away.

“Hmm?”

Lin Ran naturally played against Li Long, and when he saw him, Lin Ran couldn’t help but be stunned to recognise him.

“Kid! Let’s see how I’ll play you to death!”

Li Long took the ball and said in a voice that only two people could hear, following which he charged towards Lin Ran with the ball, actually trying to play hard.

At this moment, the two were still outside the three-point line, and Li Long was actually hitting Lin Ran directly, which directly made the crowd on the court confused.

And in the stands, some people from the civil engineering department soon recognised Li Long and exclaimed.

“Hey hey! Isn’t that Li Long, the legendary dark horse of basketball in the Civil Engineering Department back then, he’s actually back too!”

“Yeah! I admire him a lot, but I didn’t expect him to come here today!”

“Oh my God! That’s awesome...”

The whole civil engineering department was abuzz with the myth of Li Long as a dark horse in basketball when he was at the school, which no one could break.

“Li Long? Why does that name sound so familiar?”

At one end of the stands, Luo Qiqi and the three of them frowned slightly at his words.

“It’s not familiar, it’s the guy who tried to take advantage of Sister Bing last night!”

On the other side, Song Nuan said, she also recognized Li Long.

“What? Why did this guy come over here too!”

Qin Bing’s face looked ugly.

“He must have come over to try to take advantage of him!”

Luo Qiqi said with a pout full of disgust, followed by shouting at the field with her voice.

“Lin Ran, don’t let him get a point or you’ll be punished by the family law tonight!”

Luo Qiqi didn’t mean anything else, but as soon as those words left her mouth, the whole court was silent, and even Lin Ran was confused.

“Big sister, this is a public place in the school, are you sure you still want to leave after shouting like that?”

Lin Ran’s heart was bitter, even Song Nuan and Qin Bing couldn’t help but cover their faces, only Luo Qiqi was the only one who acted as if nothing was wrong, still looking at the field and cheering.

In the middle of the field, Li Long smiled coldly at the corners of his mouth as he looked at Lin Ran and said disdainfully.

“Looks like you’re good with women, but it’s going to be broken from today, and I’ll show her that you’re just a piece of trash!”

With that, Li Long held the ball and was ready to break through Lin Ran, the other players were still immersed in what Luo Qiqi had just said at this point, none of them had come back to their senses, at this point, as long as Li Long could break through with the ball, a layup was basically a sure shot.

Lin Ran looked at him and shook his head, a helpless smile tackling the corners of his mouth, and said.

“Whether I’m rubbish or not I don’t know, but today you’re still other points!”

With that, Lin Ran went straight to meet him.

“Just you?”

Li Long’s eyes were unremitting and jealous, he was also considered an outstanding graduate, and he even played a good game, but he didn’t even have a girl as pretty as Luo Qiqi around him, and Lin Ran?

He was just a poor loser, but he had not only Luo Qiqi, but also Song Nuan and Qin Bing, two beautiful girls with very different personalities, this alone was enough to make Li Long jealous.

“Just wait and see, when I beat you into a dog, the beauties will naturally abandon you then!”

Li Long thought in his mind, while he had already brought the ball close to Lin Ran.

Lin Ran didn't bother to talk to him at this point, his attention was on the ball, just waiting for him to come over with it.

“Kid, watch how I'm going to tease you!”

Li Long shouted strangely and followed with his hands open, a crotch dribble and a turnaround dribble, playing so handsomely.

“Li Long! Li Long!”

At this moment, the surrounding stands could not help but erupt with wonderful cheers, such a skilful dribbling technique simply made their blood pounding to watch.

However, just as the crowd was cheering and Li Long himself was feeling pleased with himself, a black shadow flashed violently and the ball in Li Long's hand disappeared.

“What?”

The spectators, who were still excited, were stunned and speechless, their faces full of surprise.

On the contrary, Li Long himself was frozen in place, slow to react.

He didn't react, but Lin Ran didn't hesitate at all, and the moment he stole the ball, he threw the ball directly to the front court.

At this moment, a teammate had already rushed over and received the ball and directly put it in with a layup.

“Wow”

A burst of cheers erupted from the scene, while also bringing Li Long back to his senses.

“You How could you have robbed me of the ball!”

Li Long's face was full of surprise, unable to believe that his ball had just been snatched by Lin Ran.

At first in school, he was known as an iron hand in ball control, unless he missed, basically no one could snatch the ball out of his hands, but just now Lin Ran had very easily snatched his ball.

“Your skills are nothing more than that.”

Lin Ran turned to look at Li Long and laughed blandly.

“You!”

Li Long was so angry that his face turned blue, and his hands were unconsciously clenched into fists as he secretly gritted his teeth.

“Wait for me, damn it, if I don’t beat you out of your mind today, my name is not Li Long.”

At this time in the stands, Luo Qiqi had already cheered like a little elf, just now Lin Ran robbed Li Long, simply made her excited almost jumped down.

“Alright, just calm down, the game is starting again!”

Song Nuan said helplessly.

Luo Qiqi sniffed and hurriedly got up to look at the field, finding that the game had indeed started again, and immediately shouted at the top of her lungs.

“Lin Ran don’t forget, don’t let him score a point!”

In the middle of the field Li Long was about to go to defend Lin Ran when he heard this and stumbled, almost not falling over.

He looked up at Luo Qiqi and cursed in his heart.

“Bitch, wait for me, let’s see how I score a double very smack you in the face!”

The second half of the match continued.

And with the addition of Lin Ran and Li Long, the match really became full of attractions.

The civil engineering team were chanting Li Long’s name from time to time to boost their morale.

The Chinese medicine department, on the other hand, was all chanting Lin Ran’s name, and with even more momentum. Although the Chinese medicine boys were generally not good at sports, they were no less popular than the civil engineering department.

“Kid, if you can get past this fucking ball, I’ll eat shit!”

On the court, Lin Ran held the ball and was facing Li Long.

“Are you serious?”

Lin Ran looked at Li Long with an evil smile on the corner of his mouth.

“Why don’t you believe me? Then you can come and try!”

Li Long’s silver teeth were clenched and his face was very solemn, just now he had been robbed by Lin Ran resulting in a loss of points, which was like a slap on his face, making him very annoyed in his heart.

At this moment, he couldn’t help but exert a lot of strength, vowing to hold Lin Ran’s shot so that he could get back a set for himself.

“Then I can come!”

Lin Ran looked at Li Long with an even bigger smile on his face.

“Come on!”

Li Long bellowed, as if to cheer himself up.

Lin Ran couldn't help but shake his head and smile at this, but then he froze and looked to the side and spoke.

"Qin Bing, why are you down here?"

"Qin Bing?"

Hearing that name, Li Long's mind came back to that silhouette, if it wasn't for Lin Ran's interruption last night, he would have gotten it.

Thinking of this, Li Long reflexively looked to the side, wanting to see what Qin Bing's expression was now, he might still have a chance.

But it was this turn of his head that was a disaster.

The moment he turned his head, Lin Ran broke straight through with the ball in his hand, followed by a three-step layup, and sent the ball into the basket unimpeded.

"What the fuck are you doing!"

Conceding two goals in a row, the other civil engineering players couldn't take it anymore.

They had been playing with a lot of momentum in the first half, and although they had been sent off a player, it didn't have much of an impact.

However, this guy Li Long had to come over and insisted on playing, but this time he came up and gave away two points in a row, and made the others suddenly full of opinions towards him.

"Mistake, mistake!"

Li Long hurriedly smiled, but in his heart he hated Lin Ran with a passion.

"Is that all the fucking filth you know."

The hatred in Li Long's eyes was overwhelming as he looked at Lin Ran.

"How stupid do you have to be to be able to fool you with this little trick!"

Lin Ran glanced at him and said with disdain.

"You!"

Li Long was so angry that he had to cut his teeth together and said in a cold voice.

"If you're a man, fight me head on, if you can score more than ten points from me today, I'll call you father!"

Li Long issued a challenge, which the other players heard so well that they couldn't help but sweat for Lin Ran at this point.

Many people had heard about Li Long's basketball career at Tamkang University, while Lin Ran was a famous school bully who had never heard of playing well.

I'm afraid Lin Ran would be the one to lose out if these two were to go at it hard.

"Give me all the balls later, I'll beat him up today!"

Li Long looked at the other players and said, the civil engineering players all nodded at this, they were ahead by a large margin, since Li Long said he wanted to take revenge, they naturally wouldn't stop him, and Li Long's reputation was too loud back then, although he came up and performed a bit badly, but everyone still trusted him.

"Senior, what should we do?"

The players from the Chinese Medicine Department came over and asked, they were all worried about Lin Ran, Li Long dared to place this battle note, obviously he had full confidence.

"Are you guys scared?"

Lin Ran asked rhetorically, looking at his teammates.

"Not afraid!"

"Not afraid!"

Each and every one of his teammates shook their heads and said.

Lin Ran was satisfied with the situation and smiled.

"That's good, give me all the same balls later and let's have a Jedi comeback!"

"A big comeback? Is there enough time? There's less than ten minutes left until the end of the game!"

A teammate said worriedly.

Lin Ran smiled at his words but shook his head and said.

"It's enough!"

.....

If a professional player were to say this, I'm afraid a few people would still believe it, but when Lin Ran said it, it didn't feel so reliable.

But since Lin Ran had said it, they could only try, after all, it was almost impossible to expect the few of them to overtake the score.

"And a big comeback, don't die too badly after washing you!"

Li Long sneered, his face full of disdain.

Lin Ran laughed similarly at the sight.

"I don't know where you get this confidence from, how many goals have you conceded? Don't you have any points in your own mind?"

"You!"

These words just hit Li Long's sore spot, making him look very ugly.

"You can be proud of yourself for now, let's see how I'll kill you later!"

With that, Li Long stopped talking and turned to run to serve.

The confrontation between the two began and the smell of gunpowder in the arena became heavier and heavier.

Even the people watching the ball from the sides felt a whiff of tension spreading.

"Don't blame grandpa for not giving you face, kid!"

Li Long got the ball as he wished, and this time he played with a few changes of direction and was ready to break through Lin Ran directly for a basket.

However, Lin Ran was following closely, and just at the moment he was about to jump, he decisively took a shot and slapped the ball straight out.

"Quick attack!"

Taking the ball Lin Ran let out a cold cry and followed it up by throwing the ball upcourt. Almost like last time, the fast break player had been waiting for a long time and took the ball and scored directly on the basket.

"Being robbed twice, tsk tsk why do I get the feeling you're here to be funny?"

Lin Ran smiled smugly at Li Long.

"Brother can you do it, don't lose again!"

On the side, even his teammates were starting to get a little suspicious.

"Don't worry, I was too nervous just now, I'm sure I'll play him to death this time!"

Li Long hurriedly defended, but his heart was already starting to panic.

He had been robbed twice and broken up once, although it only added up to three times, but it was something he couldn't bear.

This time, Lin Ran didn't even take a shot, as he was so nervous that he fumbled the ball and almost sent it straight to Lin Ran.

Without any doubt, Lin Ran scored a straightforward breakaway layup and the score was pulled in again.

"Still want to play?"

Lin Ran looked at Li Long with a faint smile on the corner of his mouth.

"Play!"

Li Long's face was grim as he angrily said back.

But the next confrontation was simply one-sided, with steals, breakaways, caps...

Lin Ran was completely interpreting the standard demonstration of what happens if you leave your opponent without the ball.

“Li Long, can you fucking do it or not, it’s just two fucking copies away!”

In just seven minutes, Lin Ran had hardened the deficit to two points, and at this point Li Long’s entire body was already blinded.

“Hold your horses! Hold on, isn’t there still the last twenty seconds left, he definitely can’t win! He can’t win!”

Li Long said hurriedly, and in his heart he kept telling himself.

As long as Lin Ran couldn’t make the last shot, as long as he could defend this last shot, then all the previous mistakes could be seen as a disdain for Lin Ran.

Chapter 260

“Right! As long as this last shot is defended, he’ll still be just a joke even if he tosses it up, and a loser will always be a joke!”

Li Long kept telling himself.

But Lin Ran’s next move was one that completely confused him.

He only saw Lin Ran standing motionless with the ball in his hand, just slowly tapping it, as if he was just waiting for time.

“You! You attack!”

Li Long couldn’t help but chortle.

Lin Ran looked at him but laughed as if he was looking at a fool.

“Are you here to be funny? Why should I attack in the last ten seconds or so?”

“I’m funny? I think you’re the one who’s fucking funny, you’re still two points short!”

Liron laughed, not even bothering to play defense as he watched the clock tick down to the last five seconds.

“It takes at least five seconds to get from here to under the basket, I’ll see how you play this time!”

“Lin Ran!”

“Lin Ran what are you doing!”

At this point a group of teammates, and the three women in the stands, Song Nuan, were all confused and shouted loudly.

But Lin Ran was just indifferent.

“Haha! Kid, you’re really stupid, I’ll see how you end up this time!”

Li Long laughed wildly, looking at the time with only two seconds left, as if he had seen the hope of victory.

“Is that so?”

Suddenly, Lin Ran spoke up, just as the last second of time was left.

“You?”

A bad feeling suddenly arose in Li Long’s heart at his words, and following that he saw Lin Ran move, and in this last second of time he raised his hand and threw the ball out.

“You’re absolutely fucking crazy!”

Looking at Lin Ran’s move, Li Long couldn’t help but curse, at this point they were located on this side of the half-court, even almost to the three-point line on this side.

But from such a distance, Lin Ran actually threw the ball out directly.

As soon as the ball was shot, all eyes were on it, and the entire dome fell silent.

One second, two seconds, three seconds, the basketball was still flying in mid-air, and the game clock had stopped at that moment.

But everyone didn’t relax, the rules of basketball were still very popular and the crowd knew that as long as the basketball was in play before it hit the ground, even if the time had expired, it was still valid.

“It won’t go in! Absolutely it will go in!”

Li Long’s teeth were clenched so tightly that blood was even faintly coming out of his gums.

By now, the stands had fallen into complete silence, with everyone staring straight ahead at the basketball’s trajectory.

“In! Goal! Goal!”

Suddenly, I don’t know who took the lead and shouted, and at once the whole crowd rushed to shout.

This caused Li Long to be blinded, but he was still reluctant, this goal in or out was simply two results for him, heaven and earth.

“Don’t score, don’t ever score!”

Li Long kept chanting in his mind.

But it turned out to be the opposite of what he wanted after all.

The ball in mid-air, perfectly traced a parabola, followed by a precise hit in the middle of the rim.

“Bang!”

The sound of the basketball hitting the rim was like a perfect tone, hitting everyone’s heart, and at this moment they even shielded their breath.

“Bang!”

“Clang!”

“Brush!”

At that moment, the basketball hit the basket like a bullet that tugged at the heartstrings of thousands of people, and followed and fell inside the basket.

The moment the basketball fell, the sound of friction with the basketball net was so clear that countless people remembered it.

“Ah!”

In the next moment, thunderous cheers erupted from the entire arena, and countless students from the Department of Chinese Medicine were completely triggered.

On the contrary, on the side of the Civil Engineering Department, they were all ashen, especially Li Long who was located in the middle of the arena.

“It’s over! This is completely finished!”

Li Long sat down on his butt, his head in a daze, at this point he had no idea what he was doing, or even why he had come to this basketball tournament.

“Li Long!”

Finally, the other players from the civil engineering department could not hold back any longer, and one by one they rushed towards Li Long, and the scene suddenly became even more chaotic.

“Move!”

Lin Ran greeted several other teammates, and a group of people hurriedly retreated from one side.

And at this moment, the entire court was already surrounded by students from the civil engineering department, and even some students in the stands couldn’t help but rush down at this point.

Originally this was supposed to be a showcase for the Civil Engineering Department, but now it had turned into a complete and utter Jedi comeback because of the two people who had joined in.

And the main character was someone from the Chinese Medicine Department, a Chinese Medicine Department that was not very good at sports.

This incident today was destined to become the legend of the entire Temperance University, and Lin Ran’s appearance would push this legend to a very high level.

“Lin Ran!”

An angry roar came out from the crowd, but at this moment, Lin Ran had already quietly skipped away from the side together with the three girls.

Naturally he couldn’t be afraid of Li Long, but of the enthusiasm of the many beautiful women at the moment.

This last shot, the whistle plus the super long range three, in addition to Lin Ran's previous breeze, until the last second to take a decisive and confident shot.

I don't know how many young girls' hearts were conquered for a while.

"Where's Lin Ran? Yeah where's Lin Ran?"

It was only when the four Lin Ran left the gymnasium that a kind of schoolgirl reacted, but at that moment Lin Ran had already left.

"Go, go, Lin Ran must have left, let's go see Li Long first!"

Unable to find Lin Ran, the group of people naturally locked their eyes on Li Long.

At this moment, the latter's situation was simply not much better than that of a rat.

The rat was so well off that people were shouting at him, but Li Long was just sitting there and everyone was shouting at him.

For a while, many of the TCM students felt sympathy for him.

What's wrong with being alive? He had to provoke Lin Ran, and now, he had been turned over by a ball, and he had directly become a sinner for the ages.

"Run!"

Liu Shi dived headlong into the crowd, taking advantage of the chaos to rip Li Long out.

"It's over! It's all over!"

However, Li Long was still talking to himself, like a log, Liu Shi pulled him before he took a step, if not, he simply stood straight in place, his eyes were dull.

"Wake the fuck up, what's the point of losing face on the pitch, we'll get it all back tomorrow!"

Liu Shi scolded angrily.

But how could Li Long listen at this point.

"Fuck you!"

Liu Shi was also angry and raised his hand and slapped Li Long directly on the face.

The slap was so solid that Li Long stumbled and almost fell to the ground.

But it was this slap that brought Li Long to his senses.

"Hey, hey! Li Long is here!"

"Stop him, he's running!"

The sound of the slap was so loud that it actually attracted all the surrounding onlookers, and a crowd of civil engineering students in the arena immediately surged over towards Li Long.

The two of them did not dare to delay, and immediately spread their legs and ran towards the outside of the dome, while behind them was often followed by a line, all shouting and scolding.

Liu Shi's heart was bitter, he had not done anything, but now he was running with Li Long, just like a street rat, everyone shouted at him.

Thinking of this, Liu Shi couldn't help but curse.

"You fucking idiot, dish like a dog, and still go to seek revenge on others, really angry at me!"

"I ..."

Li Long's heart was equally bitter, but at this moment, he could not find any reason to refute Liu Shi.
