

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 311

“What are you talking about?”

Long Tian’s voice became even more hoarse, and even the eyes that leaked out from behind the black cloth turned a few shades more sinister at this point.

“It really seems to be related to you!”

A cold smile appeared at the corner of Lin Ran’s mouth, although he had found the imprint of the jade flute in the ghost space earlier, but that was only speculation after all, at this moment, seeing Lang Tian’s reaction, he was able to fully confirm that the fake jade was this guy’s doing.

“You know too much!”

Lang Tian’s eyes suddenly became sharp, and a murderous aura filled the air without concealment.

“What’s the matter? Want to kill and silence me? Not a chance dog!”

Sensing the killing aura, Wang Yifei’s eyes likewise narrowed slightly as he shouted in a cold voice.

“Hm!”

Lin Ran, however, hurriedly gave him a wink, signalling him to stop talking nonsense, now that Jiang Sansi and the others over there were definitely not gone yet.

If Long Tian found out that there was still the Jiang family involved, he was afraid that he would turn his spear against the Jiang family, after all, an ordinary large family was still too easy to deal with than two Feng Shui masters.

Wang Yifeng understood Lin Ran’s concern and shut up at once, but then felt resentful and changed the subject.

“Today I just destroyed one of your nests and reported it to the police, now even if you go there the yellow flowers will be cold!”

Speaking of this, Wang Yifeng was still afraid that this kid would not believe it, and even gestured and laughed.

“That poor devil statue in there is really fucking ugly, and the parasites in there are really fucking stupid!”

“That’s enough!”

Finally, Lang Tian couldn’t hold back going down either, he initially thought that the two Lin Ran were just blowing themselves up, but when he heard this, he already understood that these two had really trashed one of their strongholds.

“You guys know too much, since that’s the case then let’s die!”

Lang Tian suddenly made his move, his whole body's killing aura all exploded at this time, actually vaguely causing the temperature of the surrounding space to drop a few points.

"Be careful, this guy's strength is extraordinary!"

Lin Ran opened his mouth and warned, following which he took the lead and met him, while Wang Yifeng hurriedly drew out his divine Dragon Axe, having suffered a loss last time he had become very cautious and used his killing stance straight away.

"Die!"

Long Tian moved very fast, and even though Lin Ran had mobilised his true qi to the limit, he could only barely overpower him.

He had to know that Lin Ran had never used his full strength before, but this Long Tian in front of him had forced him to use his full strength to deal with him.

"Is this pressure?"

Such a thought suddenly came to Lin Ran's mind.

Ever since he had obtained the Xuan Yang Pill Canon, every person he had encountered that was worth using his true qi on was invariably an ordinary person.

And with the help of his true qi, he had invariably dissolved them with great ease.

But on several occasions when Lin Ran had finished using the True Qi in his body, he clearly felt that the wonders of True Qi were by no means limited to this.

Each time he finished using his true qi, when it was restored again, it was clearly much thicker than before.

This was the first characteristic Lin Ran had discovered so far, but it was this one characteristic that was causing him to think of many things, the most important of which was.

"Is it possible for true qi to become stronger, does it require something external? Or did it require constant honing by oneself?"

Regarding this idea Lin Ran had also done some experiments, he deliberately leaked all his true qi outwardly, but it did not strengthen after he recovered later.

So Lin Ran found that only when he had to use his true qi and also use it up would his true qi become stronger, deliberately leaking it away was useless.

And before, when he came across situations where he had to mobilise a large amount of true qi, they were after all a minority, so Lin Ran hadn't found a way to do it with one finger.

And this time, Lin Ran had found it, in his encounter with Lang Tian.

"The strength of the opponent!"

That was the problem.

“After all, I’m only halfway through my career, and what I know about the Feng Shui path is limited to the basics, perhaps in the future when the people I come into contact with are at a higher level, I’ll be able to find the answers I want!”

Lin Ran calculated in his mind.

The situation at this moment did not give him much time to think about these things, and all these thoughts were just passing through his mind in a hurry, followed by Lin Ran pressing them into the bottom of his heart.

“It’s hard to come across an opponent that I can look good against, so let’s have some fun!”

Lin Ran laughed out loud, following which he wrestled with Professor Long Tian.

“Just you? You’re worthy of being my opponent!”

Lang Tian smiled with disdain, while his palm clenched into a fist and swung straight out, pulling away from Lin Ran.

Although it was only a moment of hand-to-hand physical combat, he was to discover that Lin Ran’s strength was even stronger than his by a few points.

“Eccentric brat, it’s better to kill it quickly!”

Lang Tian’s mind moved, followed by a trident thorn appearing in his palm.

The trident thorn split into two, and Lang Tian held one in each hand, and at once his entire body was as fast as lightning as it came straight at Lin Tian.

“Hm? What kind of magic weapon is this?”

Lin Ran frowned as he watched, the trident thorns in Lang Tian’s hands were not ordinary dark ones, they looked very odd, the trident thorns that should have been very hard and sharp, were held in his hands, but became very soft, as if they were made of gumdrops.

“Ranzi, dodge!”

Just as Lin Ran was wondering in his mind, thinking of how to deal with it, Wang Yifeng behind him had already rushed over, blocking directly in front of Lin Ran as he turned sideways, and the divine Dragon Axe in his hand slashed down directly with a majestic aura.

“This trident thorn of his is alive, don’t let it get close enough to trap you and you’ll be finished!”

Wang Yifeng hurriedly warned.

And as he spoke, the divine Dragon Axe in his hand had already smashed heavily on the trident thorn.

“Clang gear!”

A violent metal clash sounded, and the barbed hook of the trident thorn was directly bent, while Lang Tian’s entire body also took several steps backwards.

However, Lin Ran followed and noticed that during this fellow's retreat, the trident stinger in his hand was gradually recovering again.

"A compulsion?"

Lin Ran's mind moved and had already guessed the subtlety of it.

"Ranzi, this trident thorn of his is very odd, you can only break the spell with force, Jue Throw cannot let him get close!"

Wang Yifeng picked up the fallen Divine Dragon Axe from the side, and was ready to blast against Lang Tian once again.

However, at this moment, Lin Ran was smiling and waved his hand.

"You step aside first, I'll do this strike!"

"You do it?"

Wang Yifeng was stunned at his words, but when he saw that Lin Ran was confident and did not look like he was joking, he immediately did not think too much about it and stood aside with his divine Dragon Axe, ready to wait for an opportunity to make a move.

"Simply seeking death!"

Seeing Lin Ran actually come over in person, the ferocity in Lang Tian's eyes intensified, with a hint of disdain.

Wang Yifeng had a magic weapon that just happened to restrain him, giving him a bit of a headache, but Lin Ran was the one who had no magic weapon at all with his bare hands.

How dare he fight against himself? He was simply looking for death.

"Go to hell!"

Lang Tian's hand didn't show the slightest bit of mercy, and with a twist of the trident stab in his hand, he stabbed straight towards Lin Ran's chest here.

However, to both his and Wang Yifeng's surprise, Lin Ran actually stood still without dodging.

And then, when the trident stab was less than a metre away from him, he slowly stretched out his palm.

The palm of his hand formed into sword fingers, and amidst Wang Yifei's astonished gaze, and the wooden light of Lang Tian's eyes that looked like a fool, he met the tip of the three-pronged thorn straight ahead.

Chapter312

"Ran-ja! You're crazy!"

Seeing this scene, Wang Yifeng's face broke out in anxiety, and he hurriedly copied the Divine Dragon Axe and was about to help.

"Haha! A death-seeking deed!"

Long Tian laughed coldly, followed by speeding up and snatching the trident thorn before Wang Yifeng could get there.

“Is that so?”

However, Lin Ran was as calm as if he was nothing.

“Ranzi!”

Wang Yifeng was utterly desperate and raised his hand, ready to fling the divine Dragon Axe out, for if he couldn't catch up, Lin Ran would probably be seriously injured or even die.

After all, using one's flesh to fight against a trident thorn would undoubtedly be a mantis seeking death.

However, the next scene that emerged left everyone stunned.

The moment Lin Ran's slowly raised finger was about to touch the Three-Forked Thorn, a stream of air rushed out.

The moment this airflow appeared, the tip of the originally powerful trident thorn bent instantly and then stabbed towards the side of the finger.

And Wang Yifei and Lang Tian also noticed that all of the trident thorns that were close to Lin Ran's finger actually all quickly squirmed towards the back, as if they were afraid of Lin Ran's palm.

“Holy crap! What the fuck is this move of yours, Rangzi!”

Seeing this scene, Wang Yifeng couldn't help but exclaim in shock, while even dropping the divine Dragon Axe in his hand to the ground.

A single hand made the Trident Thorn retreat on its own, this Rang Tian still had a line, it was simply complete abuse.

“You! You How can you!”

Lang Tian looked astonished, standing in place for several seconds, followed by a reaction.

“You have true qi!”

“True Qi?”

Wang Yifeng was first stunned at his words, followed by a look of disbelief in his eyes, his book on feng shui had a record about true qi, so he understood some of it.

The so-called true qi is actually the vital energy in a person's body, and everyone has a breath of qi in their body when they are alive.

With this qi, a person will show a variety of emotions, such as happiness, anger, sadness and so on.

In Feng Shui, the cultivation of true qi is regarded as fundamental. It is said that when this qi is cultivated to the extreme, it is the most natural and valuable thing to ward off evil, as long as one has it in one's body, all poisons will not invade and evil demons will retreat.

“It’s impossible, people with this kind of true qi are at least too old, I’ve never heard of anyone in their early twenties cultivating true qi!”

Wang Yifei was puzzled in his heart.

He knew no less about true qi than Wang Yifei, and there was doubt in Lin Ran’s eyes at that moment.

If he were to cultivate it on his own, I’m afraid that it would be a great achievement if he could cultivate it before he went into the ground.

“Who the hell are you? How can there be true qi in your body!”

Long Tian began to become cautious, vaguely worried that there might be a huge force behind Lin Ran, and if he offended this force, I was afraid that the Compulsion Pavilion would be wiped out as a result, let alone protect him.

“Is it any of your business? Either return the stuff or die! Take your pick!”

Lin Ran looked at Lang Tian indifferently, which made him feel a little more uncertain in his heart.

“This guy clearly possesses true qi, but when he fought before, his stances were all very crude, simply using his speed to suppress me, could it be that he hasn’t mastered how to use this true qi at all?”

Long Tian pondered quickly in his mind, it was common knowledge that true qi was difficult to cultivate, yet Lin Ran had it within him, yet the series of fights just now had caused doubts to arise in his mind.

“Could it be that this kid just got lucky?”

Long Tian kept reckoning, and soon his eyes micrometered, and the trident stab in his hand actually stabbed over again.

“Whether or not he’s really capable, just try it and find out!”

Long Tian’s mind moved, but the trident thorn in his hand gave a violent shake, followed by the tip of the trident thorn, which directly and directly fell off a section and stabbed towards Lin Ran.

“Be careful, Ranzi!”

Seeing this, Wang Yifeng spoke up and warned.

Lin Ran was unmoved, and when half of the trident thorn was still a metre away from him, Lin Ran suddenly moved.

He raised his palm again, this time slapping it directly.

True Qi infusion covered his palm, and the next moment his palm slapped directly onto the trident thorn.

“Bang!”

With a dull sound, immediately a section of the trident thorn directly exploded into black mist and turned into pieces.

“Death!”

Lin Ran's face turned cold as his feet lashed out and his entire body lunged straight at Lang Tian.

At this moment, on the other hand, a disdainful smile appeared on Lang Tian's face behind the black veil.

"Such a shallow response, you are indeed a fledgling, so what if you possess true qi, I will kill you today, then you refine the compulsion!"

With a thought, Lang Tian's entire body followed suit, and in an instant he was seen twisting and fighting with Lin Ran again.

This time, however, the level of their fight was significantly more intense, and it was clear that neither of them was holding back.

This time, Lin Ran even mobilised his true qi to the extreme, pressing Lang Tian at every turn and for a while, he could only defend and could not attack at all.

"Damn it, the true qi restraint is too great, if I had practiced my compulsion king, it wouldn't be like this!"

Lang Tian cursed angrily in his heart, the Compulsion King might be able to resist the suppression of true qi, but he himself was unable to do so at all.

Defence was not invincible after all, finally after a few moments of stalemate, Lin Ran caught a hole in Lang Tian's defence and kicked him straight backwards.

But Lin Ran was not going to stop there, his feet lashed out and his entire body followed, before slapping out with a palm strike directly onto Lang Tian's back.

"Hit him!"

Lin Ran suddenly shouted at Wang Yifeng.

When Wang Yifeng took a look, Lang Tian was actually thrown directly towards himself by Lin Ran's blow, he was immediately overjoyed to copy the divine Dragon Axe in his hand and slashed over with it.

"Taste this axe of Laozi!"

Wang Yifeng shouted.

Lang Tian reacted too late, the divine dragon axe had already reached his brain, and in his haste he had to set up the trident spike in his hand to resist.

However, the Divine Dragon Axe was already a restraint on the Trident Spike, and this collision instantly splintered the Trident Spike and prevented it from condensing again.

"Death!"

Following this, the Divine Dragon Axe in Wang Yifei's hand struck directly at Lang Tian's shoulder, but after the weakening of the Trident Thorn, there was very little power left in the Divine Dragon Axe at this point, and it only managed to slice in a few centimeters before being blocked by Lang Tian.

"Fuck!"

Wang Yifeng cursed at the sight of this, followed by a flying kick towards Lang Tian.

Seeing this, Lang Tian didn't dare to hesitate, he also hurriedly raised his foot to meet it.

"Bang!"

The two feet clashed, but Lang Tian was able to use the reaction force to break free from the divine dragon axe, and with his palm covering the wound on his shoulder, he turned around and jumped onto the wall.

However, his movement was too reluctant, and as he jumped onto the wall, his belongings spilled out onto the ground, and he wasn't even sure if the jade flute had fallen out with him.

However at this point he didn't dare to go down and pick it up, and looked at the two men and cursed angrily.

"Son of a bitch, you two wait for me!"

With a fierce word, Lang Tian turned around and jumped off the wall, following which he disappeared at the end of the alley.

Wang Yifeng still wanted to chase after him, but he was stopped by Lin Ran.

"He's bent on leaving and won't be able to catch up, so it's better to hurry up and see if there's a jade flute in these things!"

Chapter 313

"Damn it, let's spare this kid's life for now, next time we run into each other we'll definitely kill him!"

Wang Yifeng cursed reluctantly before he and Lin Ran rummaged through the items dropped by Lang Tian together.

Items were scattered all over the place, and Lin Ran and the two of them now collected everything before finding a place to slowly rummage through.

There were many items, but most of them were carved jadeite, Lin Ran found that these jadeite did not have holes carved for wearing, so they should not be offered for sale, instead on the back of each jadeite was carved a fireplace like design.

"What's this thing for? This guy shouldn't be enriching himself and hiding some for his honey, right?"

Wang Yifeng said as he rummaged around.

"Fuck you, you think everyone is like you, with women on your mind!"

Lin Ran said helplessly, then counted the number of emeralds and said.

"These emeralds should be used to collect grievance Qi, there are twelve pieces in total, according to the four directions of Tanjiang City, east, west, north and south, three pieces for each direction is exactly twelve pieces!"

"Collecting grievances?"

Wang Yifeng smiled and thought, before he wondered how the grievance qi would be collected when so many jadeite pendants were released for people to wear, but now that he saw these jadeites he could understand.

“What are all these things?”

Wang Yifeng asked as he fluctuated this piece of black silk.

Lin Ran picked one of them up and looked at it, and couldn't help but frown.

“This is a recipe for refining a compulsion, destroy it!”

With that, a mouthful of true qi mobilised out, and instantly all the pieces of silk turned into ashes.

Wang Yifei was not too interested in these methods of cultivating compulsions, so he did not care too much.

“Hey hey, you can't burn this stuff, this looks like good stuff, maybe it records this guy's bank card confidence!”

Wang Yifei suddenly plucked out a piece of A4 paper from the pile of items and held it in his hand as if it were a treasure, hastily opening it.

“But when it was opened, he was dumbfounded, because the paper was blank.

“Idiot!”

Lin Jean gave him a look like a fool, before rummaging around on his own.

Once and for all, things were quickly rummaged through, and just when Lin Ran and the two of them were a little frustrated that no trace of the jade flute had been found.

Suddenly a piece of vellum-like paper caught the two men's attention.

It was a piece of vellum that had been rolled into a ball, with a string tied around the outside, and looked very antique.

“Open it and take a look?”

Wang Yifeng asked Lin Ran.

“Mm!”

Lin Ran nodded, and Wang Yifeng immediately picked up the vellum and shook it open, and immediately a line of blood-red words on it was reflected in the eyes of the two.

“Limited to one month, refine the King of Companions, if you fail, end it yourself!”

A simple line, but the two of them had a chill in their hearts, because the line was written in a strong and powerful manner, and even carried a strong aura, as if the proud king of the world was looking at them.

“Snap!”

Wang Yifeng hurriedly closed the scroll, his heart thumping.

Lin Ran couldn't help but gag as well.

"Holy crap, this guy isn't very strong, why is his writing so domineering!"

Wang Yifeng couldn't help but spit out.

Lin Ran, however, shook his head and said.

"He definitely didn't write this!"

"He didn't write it? Then who wrote it?"

Wang Yifei asked busily.

"It should have been written by the Pavilion Master of the Compass Pavilion!"

Lin Ran said.

Just as soon as he said this, both of them fell into silence, neither of them opening their mouths to speak.

If these words were really written by the Google Pavilion Master, then what level of strength the other party must have reached, the two didn't dare to think about it, but they did know that if this was true, then whether or not they should be fighting with Lang Tian would have to be reconsidered.

"Ranzi, this is my own business, or you'd better not"

Wang Yifeng was silent for a moment and spoke, but before he could finish those words, he was interrupted by Lin Ran.

"Bullshit, now your business is Laozi's business!"

"I"

Wang Yifeng was speechless for a moment, but after thinking about it he still said stiffly.

"I know that this jade flute may also be a clue, but I'm afraid that the strength of that Compass Pavilion Master is simply not something we can fight against, and"

When he said this, Wang Yifeng couldn't help but lower his head, but he still continued.

"Moreover, now that you also have a clue from the Jiang family, you may not be unable to check it out, so why take the risk?"

"All right! Does I look like someone who's greedy for life and death?"

Lin Ran said with an ugly look on his face.

"But"

Wang Yifeng was about to say something else, but Lin Ran directly interrupted him.

"But what but, don't be a mother-in-law, aren't you a man, isn't it just a compulsion pavilion? Besides it was Long Tian who robbed you first, I still don't believe that their compulsion pavilion is so unreasonable!"

“Right!”

Wang Yifeng also came to his blood when he heard that, and looked at Lin Ran with a hint of gratitude in his eyes as he said.

“It’s just the Compulsion Pavilion, so what if their Pavilion Master himself comes, so what if we both fight with him! The two of us together are really not afraid of them!”

“Haha, yes! That’s the Fatty Wang I know!”

“Fuck you!”

Wang Yifeng stifled his laughter and cursed.

Both of them looked at each other and couldn’t help but laugh.

“So what’s next?”

Wang Yifeng asked with a bitter smile, the guts were there, but the truth still had to be faced, and how to deal with it would depend on Lin Ran’s arrangements.

“For the time being, this guy shouldn’t come to trouble us!”

Lin Ran mused.

“After the big loss he suffered this time and the injury to his arm, he shouldn’t come looking for trouble again for a while!”

Said Lin Ran as he brought the piece of cowl paper over and said.

“And the other has a mission to refine the compulsion king within a month, there should be about half a month left!”

“He doesn’t have much time either, this last half month should die down a bit, when his compulsion king is practiced, that’s when he’s ready to leave, then maybe he’ll find us for one last battle!”

“How do you know he still has half a month to go?”

Wang Yifeng asked, frowning at his words.

Lin Ran smiled at his words, followed by pointing to his head and said.

“Think for yourself, wasn’t it exactly half a month ago when something happened on Wan Ren Mountain!”

Wang Yifeng smiled and suddenly dawned on him, and busily spoke.

“You mean that he only noticed the Wan Ren Mountain after the initial accident, and that’s why he happened to appear there later and bumped into me coming out from getting the Jade Flute!”

“You’re not stupid!”

Lin Ran smiled and nodded, then got up and gathered his things up to greet him.

“Let’s go, there’s still half a month to go, let’s go back and discuss how to deal with this guy!”

Wang Yifeng nodded at his words, and the two of them then directly tumbled out of the fence and jumped out.

It was already afternoon when they returned to the clinic, during which Lin Ran called Jiang Sansi and told him not to get involved in the fake jade matter, and to try not to get involved in this matter.

The latter understood what was at stake and naturally nodded his head in agreement.

However, not long after returning to the clinic, Lin Ran's mobile phone rang and he picked it up to see that it was from Old Third, whom he had not seen for a long time.

"Third brother, you finally called, I thought you had forgotten about my brother!"

Picking up the phone, Lin Ran smiled and joked.

"Ranzi, Third Brother has been busy lately too, are you free this time? I want to talk to you!"

On the phone, a young man's slightly pale voice came out.

Chapter314

Early the next morning, in front of the clinic.

"Why do you suddenly have to go to An County?"

Song Nuan looked at Lin Ran and asked worriedly, at this moment Qin Bing was also standing by the side with worry on her face.

"Brother Ranzi called, he ran into something, let's go take a look!"

To the side, Wang Yifeng poked his head out and explained.

"Go aside, you weren't asked!"

Qin Bing scolded from behind.

"Hey! You ice lump, have you not been around for a few days?"

Wang Yifeng did not finish his sentence, Qin Bing's eyes instantly became icy cold, scaring him so much that the latter half of his sentence was directly given back.

"Not with you in general, in general!"

Wang Yifeng muttered and went straight to the car.

"Something has happened to three families, it seems to be quite serious, I have to go over there!"

Lin Ran looked at Song Nuan and said.

"Will it be dangerous! Do you need me to give"

Song Nuan worried, but before she could finish her words, she was interrupted by Lin Ran.

"It's no harm, so don't bother Uncle Song, I'll be back in two or three days at most after this trip!"

Lin Ran said, then glanced at Qin Bing at the side to signal her to come over, and then rushed to the two women.

“Qiqi is not here, turn around and you guys remember to inform her that she should never go shopping for jadeite ornaments these days, also get off work early in the afternoon, if anyone is sneaking around, just call the police!”

“Mm!”

“Good!”

The two nodded in response, although Lin Ran didn't say much about the specific situation, they could both feel the seriousness carried in Lin Ran's words.

“Alright, it's getting late, so we're off!”

Lin Ran rushed to say goodbye to the crowd, and then got into the car with Wang Yifeng.

.....

“I say, what's wrong with your brother's family? How come they're still in trouble with loan sharks?”

The first thing you need to do is to get on the highway, and Wang Yifei asked as he drove.

“The first thing you can do is to get married.”

Lin Ran laughed bitterly, last night on the phone, Lao San told him about the situation, Lin Ran then knew what Lao San had gone through in the past six months.

He was Lin Ran's best friend in college, and was the third oldest in the dormitory, so he was nicknamed Lao San.

His family was better off than Lin Ran's, but it was only average, and even in the dormitory at the time, it was only a little better than Lin Ran's, who was from a mountain valley.

After graduating, he went back to An County to work in a hospital. With such a decent job, life should be full of hope, but later, because of the matter of finding a daughter-in-law, the whole family was in turmoil.

“I've been a plane and a cannon for many years, but I've never had a girl look at me!”

When he said this, Wang Yifeng couldn't help but look up to the sky and sigh.

“God is not fair, I've been given the capital to fight, but I can't find a target at all.

Wang Yifeng said and wiped his tears, his face overflowing with grievances.

“Come on, come on! This kind of virtue is still looking for a girlfriend, looking for a sow is afraid that people are not willing!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

The time passed quickly as the two of them chatted while rushing along.

It was just that Tanjiang City was not much closer to An County than Lin Ran's home, and it was a three-hour drive, so the two of them had to make do with it.

After driving for more than two hours and not much further from An County, Wang Yifeng couldn't take it anymore and found a rest area to rest temporarily.

The rest area was very large and was the largest rest area in the remaining hour of the journey.

The two of them rested for a while, ate something, and then prepared to continue their journey.

However, when the two arrived at the car park and were about to get into their car, there was a woman's cry of alarm not far away.

"Help! There's a robbery!"

"Robbery?"

Wang Yifeng and Lin Ran glanced at each other, and immediately the two of them ran towards the place where the sound came from.

After bypassing two cars, the two saw that in front of a red BMW, there was a group of people blocking the area, and in the crowd was a young woman in red, shouting for help from time to time.

"Stop it! What about it? What about it? In broad daylight, think this is a bandit's den!"

Wang Yifeng saw this and directly spoke up and scolded.

The group of people stopped what they were doing and then turned to look over.

There were about seven or eight people in the group, all wearing black suits, while the leader, a youth, was wearing a white suit, and the moment he turned around, the two Lin Ran clearly saw that there was a very obvious tattoo of a scorpion on his neck.

The youth had inch hair and with this scorpion tattoo, he looked gangly and was not a character to be messed with at first glance, while the few men around him were all stout and very strong in stature.

"Kid, are you talking to me?"

The young man with the scorpion tattoo, lit a cigarette to himself and asked Wang Yifeng, while a group of men walked slowly over.

"Nonsense, there is only one group of you here, if I'm not talking to you, should I be talking to a ghost?"

Wang Yifeng was not the least bit afraid and said with a cold smile.

"What a crazy kid, daring to talk to Laozi like that, it's the second time I've encountered him in this An County territory!"

The scorpion tattooed youth snorted coldly, followed by a junior standing out next to him, showing a smile.

"Fatty, do you know who this is? I think you've been alive too long!"

"I've never heard of the Scorpion Master, but I've heard of Xie Cai, why are you Xie Cai's brother?"

Wang Yifeng asked with a serious face.

Master Scorpion's face sank when he heard that, and the one beside him, Xiao Di, saw this and cursed directly and angrily with a roll of his sleeves.

"You are simply looking for fucking death!"

As he said that, he had already reached Wang Yifeng and raised his hand and slapped him directly.

Wang Yifeng used to be a ghost hunter and had lived a life of licking blood from the tip of a knife, so how could he be afraid of him?

"Bang!"

The clash between the slap and the fist was crisp and clear.

Master Scorpion even raised his palm to applaud, but his hands just lifted up, but he could not clap down.

At some point, Wang Yifeng had already grabbed his man's neck from behind, and what even made them all wonder was that at some point, there was an unmistakable slap mark on his man's cheek.

Seeing this scene, Master Scorpion couldn't help but frown slightly, his eyes fixed on Wang Yifeng with a deadly gaze, and opened his mouth to ask.

"Who the hell are you?"

"I'm your Fat Master!"

Wang Yifeng cursed.

"You!"

Master Scorpion's face was grim with anger and he was just about to speak when Lin Ran, who was at the side, took two steps forward and spoke with a smile.

"Friend, bullying a woman in broad daylight, no matter what the reason is, it's not very nice!"

"Hm?"

Master Scorpion smiled and looked at Lin Ran, his brow followed with a frown, just now the latter had been standing by the side without speaking, he had thought it was that fatty's follower.

But at this moment, when he stood out to speak, that fatty didn't say a word, as if he was the follower, which made Master Scorpion's heart sink, it was the first time he had looked at someone out of place in such a long time.

"Kid, who are you again? Do you really want to meddle in my affairs?"

Chapter 315

As Master Scorpion spoke, his face had turned gloomy and a few chills began to show in his eyes.

"Since we've run into each other, we naturally have to manage."

Lin Ran said calmly.

“Good! Good boy, you have guts!”

A cold smile appeared on Master Scorpion’s face as he swirled and said to his men at the side.

“You two go watch that stinking bitch, don’t let her get away, and the others, go and give me a good cleaning to sober them both up!”

“Yes! Master Scorpion!”

A group of men respectfully returned, followed by two of them running towards the back, while the others all pounced towards Lin Ran and Wang Yifeng.

When they said they would do it, Lin Ran and Wang Yifeng didn’t expect this guy to be so unreasonable.

“Fuck you!”

Wang Yifeng cursed angrily and pushed the punk he was holding towards the front with one hand.

He was extremely strong, and as a group of punks had already rushed to the front, this push immediately knocked down a large group.

There were only two or three of the seven or eight punks who were still standing at the moment.

But this was just the beginning, as the fallen punks hurriedly helped their companions up, and then a group of them pounced towards Lin Ran again.

One of them ran at the front, seemingly to show off his authority in front of Master Scorpion so that he could be reused in the future, and rushed the fastest and made the most effort.

“Kneel down for me!”

This man had just rushed in front of Lin Ran when an angry rebuke came over, followed by a stick in his palm directly towards Lin Ran’s head.

However, Lin Ran did not dodge or evade, as if he was not the one about to be beaten.

“I thought it was something, but it turns out he’s a wimp too! He’s too scared to move even before the fight has started, haha!”

On the side, Master Scorpion, who was smoking a cigarette by himself, saw this and could not help but reveal a cold smile.

Only this smile lasted for less than a second, followed by a stiffening.

Just as the stick in his men’s hands was about to land on Lin Ran’s head, the latter moved.

A black shadow was as fast as a ghost, and the next moment no one could see clearly what was going on.

The stick in his men’s hands smashed backwards and landed directly on his own head with a bang, breaking into two pieces afterwards.

“This!”

Master Scorpion looked directly frozen in place, and even the cigarette in his hand was directly pinched off due to the sheer force.

The few punks who had originally pounced on Lin Ran also froze in place at this moment, each looking at each other for a moment, not knowing what to do.

“What are you waiting for, don’t go! If anyone can defeat him, I’ll reward him with 100,000!”

Master Scorpion shouted angrily at this situation.

What he was relying on at this moment was a mouthful of guts, if he couldn’t mobilise the guts of his men, I’m afraid there would be no need to fight later, and that was because Lin Ran’s move was too shocking.

“One hundred thousand!”

When they heard this amount, all of their men’s eyes were red, they were following Master Scorpion, how much money could they get in a month, they were licking their blood on the tip of a knife every day, if they could get this 100,000, it could be worth several months of their harvest.

“Damn it, I’ll fight for this 100,000!”

Soon there were people who couldn’t stand the temptation and chose to take the plunge.

And with the first person, there was soon a second person, and with just a slight hesitation the next moment almost everyone rushed towards Lin Ran and the two of them.

“This group of guys really want money and don’t want to die!”

Wang Yifeng couldn’t help but lick his lips as he watched, a hint of sharpness swept through his eyes.

“Don’t make a scene!”

Lin Ran saw this and was busy speaking up to warn.

“Don’t worry!”

Wang Yifeng smiled and nodded, following the two of them with a glance at each other before they went straight to meet them.

Two people against seven or eight people was already considered easy for the two of them, after all, the opponents they had faced before were not comparable to these shrimps and crab soldiers at this moment.

In just a few breaths, half of the seven or eight punks had already been knocked to the ground.

“A bunch of trash!”

In the distance, Master Scorpion, who was still waiting to see what was going on, finally couldn’t help himself and threw the cigarette butt in his hand on the ground and shouted behind him.

“Watch that stinking bitch for me!”

Saying this, he himself drew out his stick and lunged towards Lin Ran.

“Get lost!”

With a slap, Lin Ran slapped the last punk in front of him away, followed by seeing Master Scorpion himself charging towards him.

“And he’s doing it himself.”

Seeing this, a cold smile appeared at the corner of Lin Ran’s mouth, following which he rushed over with a single arrow step, Scorpion coming over by himself saved him the trouble of looking for the past.

“Bastard, see if I don’t kill you!”

Master Scorpion was furious at this moment, waving the stick in his hand towards Lin Ran’s head, without the slightest intention of showing mercy.

The latter’s raised palm didn’t even fall, and his entire body flew backwards with the stick.

“Give me down!”

Lin Ran was quick on his feet, and as the Scorpion Master flew out, he directly followed him with a single step, and then grabbed the latter’s ankle with his palm and violently let the ground fall.

A “bang!” was heard. With a loud sound, Master Scorpion smashed into the ground from the air, causing his entire body to bow up.

“Waaaah!”

A moment later, Master Scorpion couldn’t help but wah wah wah wah at the ground as he rolled over.

It wasn’t really his fault, vomiting was a very natural reaction when one’s back was slammed.

Lin Ran looked up at Wang Yifeng and saw that he had also taken down the last punk on his side, so he immediately turned his head while walking towards Master Scorpion.

“You Don’t you come over!”

Master Scorpion wiped the vomit involved in the corner of his mouth while looking at Lin Ran nervously, at this time his legs couldn’t help but shiver.

“Why are you shaking so badly, this doesn’t seem like the reaction you should have, Master Scorpion!”

Lin Ran laughed disdainfully, following which he squatted down beside Master Scorpion.

“Master Scorpion? I’m afraid this is a complete break!”

Wang Yifeng also ran over with a laugh, his eyes filled with disdain.

“You... Who the hell are you guys?”

Master Scorpion looked at the two men nervously, fear in his eyes, his seven or eight men had all been knocked to the ground in one shot, this was something that in his perception, no one could do.

“Who are you?”

Lin Ran looked at Master Scorpion and asked with a smile, not enough to see that the latter's whole body was shivering, so he must not be able to ask a question, so he simply shouted at the only two remaining punks in the distance.

"Bring the men here!"

These two punks had already been scared out of their wits, standing over there shivering, and when they heard Lin Ran's greeting, they hurriedly carried the woman they were carrying over.

The woman was only in her early thirties, a young woman with a very good figure and a very pretty face, and when she was carried over by the two punks, she was still a bit scared and her whole body only shivered.

"Beauty, don't be afraid, he's looking for trouble with you, you should know him, tell me who he is and what kind of grudge you have against each other?"

Lin Ran asked as he looked up at the other party.

Chapter316

The beautiful girl seemed to have suffered quite a shock just now, her body was still trembling uncontrollably at this moment, and when she heard Lin Ran's words, she looked over still trembling a little.

"Beauty, seeing that you are not too old, I'll call you big sister, we are both good people, did he molest you just now? If you tell the truth, you don't have to be afraid if I'm here today, Fat Master!"

On the side, Wang Yifeng said with a smile, Lin Ran heard but speechless, this beautiful woman is at least in her early thirties, you a person in his twenties called others big sister, really

"He They are are loan sharks!"

The beautiful girl stammered, saying the words while also looking at the scorpion master on the side from time to time, seemingly very afraid of him.

"Loan sharks?"

Hearing this word, Lin Ran and Wang Yifeng couldn't help but be stunned, they had come to An County just because Old San's family had run into a loan shark, but they didn't expect to run into another loan shark on the highway at this time.

"Big sister, you're from An County, right?"

Wang Yifeng asked suspiciously.

"How do you know?"

The pretty girl was startled at her words.

"It's true!"

Wang Yifeng was instantly happy, he just said that and didn't expect to be really blindfolded right.

“You An County, you are really flooded with loan sharks!”

Wang Yifeng couldn't help but say.

“An County is in the early stages of development, many people borrow to start their own business, so there are indeed more loan shark transactions!”

The beautiful woman was a little embarrassed, and by now her trembling body had calmed down after two sentences of conversation.

“So you and they are?”

Lin Ran asked with a frown.

The pretty girl's eyes suddenly turned red as she sniffed and said in a sob.

“My husband ran into some problems with his business, so he went and borrowed from a loan shark and mortgaged my car, and they are the ones who came to collect it!”

Speaking here, the beauty, also clearly a little agitated, continued.

“But this is on the highway, they took my car away, how can I go back, and I've been trying to raise money for the past two days!”

“Raising money? Don't think I don't know you're planning to run away, your husband can't be reached at all, and when I find him you won't have a chance!”

Master Scorpion said in a cold voice, his words full of threats.

“What a lot of bullshit!”

On the other side, Wang Yifeng raised his hand and slapped Master Scorpion directly on the face, causing him to cover his cheek and scream in pain.

“I'm a serious loan collector, what the hell do you two want!”

Master Scorpion couldn't help but scream and curse.

“A loan collector? A serious one?”

Wang Yifeng smiled with disdain, and then raised his palm again, ready to slap another side.

“Stop! Fatty, do you know who the fuck I am? If you dare to hit Laozi you won't leave the boundaries of An County!”

Master Scorpion was very annoyed, who didn't know his name in An County, Master Scorpion always walked sideways, but now he was actually being slapped left and right by a dead fatty, this was simply more unbearable to him than killing him.

“You're threatening me?”

Wang Yifeng smiled at his words.

“Lay off, you don't even look at who you're in now, threatening me, I think you haven't taken enough!”

With that, Wang Yifei raised his hand and gave another slap, causing Master Scorpion to spin around on the ground.

“You!”

Master Scorpion was so angry that he gnashed his teeth and cursed angrily.

“It’s only right to pay back what you owe, but you also have to take care of me collecting loans!”

“It’s only natural to pay back a debt, but loan sharking is illegal!”

At the side, Lin Ran spoke up and sneered.

“Illegal? Do you know who’s behind me, kid?”

Master Scorpion said angrily, and then he was about to stand up, when Wang Yifeng saw this and kicked him out.

“I don’t care who’s behind you, if you dare to do something illegal, even the King of Heaven can’t protect you!”

“You! Do you know who is behind me? I’m behind Brother Dragon. Do you know who Brother Dragon is? You must not know, bitch you tell them who Brother Dragon is!”

Master Scorpion said angrily.

“Brother Dragon? Wang Shilong?”

The pretty girl’s face changed at the words.

“What’s wrong? This Wang Shilong is very powerful?”

Lin Ran smiled at this and asked.

“No... It’s not powerful, he’s the red man of An County, offending him will cause public anger!”

The pretty girl said with a miserable white face.

“The wrath of the people?”

Wang Yifei also listened with amazement, how could a loan shark cause public anger?

“You don’t know, this Wang Shilong is very cunning, many people know that he is a loan shark, but he also does charity work, so many people who don’t know the inside story treat him as a great good man!”

The pretty girl was busy explaining.

“That’s interesting!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but reveal a smile as he listened.

“Now that you know who I belong to, why don’t you hurry up and get the hell out of my way!”

Master Scorpion listened with satisfaction and hurriedly got up from the ground with an arrogant face, no one in An County dared to disrespect Wang Shilong yet.

“You mean get lost?”

Wang Yifei turned his head to look at Master Scorpion and asked in confusion.

“Yes! Just get lost, I’m fucking here to collect the loan for Brother Long, if you don’t want to die, get lost!”

Master Scorpion shouted, with Wang Shilong as his talisman, he spoke with a bit more stiffness.

“Alright, since you like it so much, I’ll send you packing!”

Wang Yifeng stretched out his hand, indicating that he was also helpless, followed by pulling Master Scorpion with one hand, and then kicked him with his foot, at once the latter rolled on the ground in a donkey’s roll, following which he actually rolled out towards the front.

“Still collecting loans?”

Wang Yifeng followed and walked over.

“Damn you, I’m really one of Brother Long’s men, and you dare to do it!”

Master Scorpion was so angry that his face turned blue, and he managed to get up from the ground, but then a black shadow flashed by, and with a “pop”, a slap was already greeted.

“Are you still collecting loans?”

Wang Yifeng continued to ask.

“Old me...”

Master Scorpion was so angry that he was on the verge of tears, but the words came out of his mouth.

“Slap!”

Wang Yifeng gave another slap.

“Still want to collect the loan?”

“You!”

Master Scorpion was so angry that he gritted his teeth, but this time he didn’t dare to say anything.

“Slap!”

“Say it!”

Wang Yifeng, however, did not relent and greeted him with another slap, asking.

“I am a loan collector!”

Master Scorpion was really crying, he was a loan collector, and he was beaten up even if he said so.

“And fucking loan collectors!”

Wang Yifeng cursed angrily, and then slapped him again.

“You still want to collect loans?”

Wang Yifeng continued to ask.

“Brother, what do you want me to say!”

Master Scorpion really didn’t know what to say back.

“Don’t you want to collect a loan? Go on, there just happens to be one over there!”

Wang Yifeng smiled and pointed to the side, which happened to be a rubbish pile with a lot of plastic bags inside.

“I”

Master Scorpion was furious at the sight of this and was tickled by the pressure, but when he thought of how dizzy he was from those few slaps just now, he still compensated with a smile.

“Yes yes, I’m a plastic bag collector!”

“Then why don’t you hurry up and get lost!”

Wang Yifeng scolded.

“Get lost! Get lost! Get out now! Get out now!”

Master Scorpion was so frightened that he hurriedly turned his head and ran away, while one of his men, who were originally lying on the ground, saw him running away and instantly all stood up and hurriedly followed a past.

“A bunch of rice buckets!”

Master Scorpion was furious at the sight of this, daring to say that for so long, his men were all playing dead.

“Wait for me, if I don’t get this back, I won’t be called Master Scorpion!”

After getting into the car, Master Scorpion shouted at the two Lin Ran outside the window, followed by a kick of the accelerator, and immediately got onto the highway.

Chapter 317

“Finally, they’re gone!”

Watching Master Scorpion and the others leave in a huff, Beauty couldn’t help but sigh with relief, but how at least the current dilemma was considered over.

“Well beauty, we’re leaving too, take care of yourself!”

Wang Yifeng said with a smile.

“Hey!”

The beautiful woman still wanted to say something, but Lin Ran was already pulling him into the car and left straight away.

“I said that the human beauty is so easy to take the initiative to call out to me, why are you pulling me!”

In the car, Wang Yifeng was very dissatisfied, seeing a beautiful woman hitting on him, which might solve his happiness problem for the rest of his life, but in the blink of an eye, he was spoiled by Lin Ran.

“People are already married, what else do you want? Still want someone’s husband to chase you with a stick?”

Lin Ran gave him a blank look and joked.

“This Although the famous flower has an owner, I came to loosen the soil, this is called not abandoning, not giving up, you little kid don’t understand!”

Wang Yifeng babbled, Lin Ran didn’t bother to pay him any mind and simply leaned straight back in his chair and rested.

The last hour of the journey passed in such a quiet degree

The average population is just over 100,000, which is not too big or too small, and the development of the whole county is very uneven, with a big gap between the rich and the poor.

When he arrived in An County, Lin Ran called Lao San directly and then, according to the address he sent, rushed all the way towards An County City Hospital.

An County City Hospital, located in the most prosperous part of An County, was the place where the development of the whole An County county started the most.

He had the privilege of working here as a trainee doctor, but of course, he had only been in the job for six months and his position was only that of a trainee doctor.

The two of them drove, and soon arrived at the An County Chinese Hospital, then asked for the location, and went straight upstairs, and then found Lao San in an intensive care unit.

“Old Six, good work!”

Seeing the two Lin Ran arrive, Wang Yi’s face had bitterness and relief, the former could come so quickly, to be honest it was a bit out of his expectation, although the two had the best relationship when they were in college, but after all, they had already graduated for half a year now, and their own family was in this kind of trouble, at this time, there were few who were still willing to stand up for themselves, long ago.

“It’s alright, this is Wang Yifeng, my friend.”

Lin Ran explained with a smile, and then looked inside and asked.

“What’s going on? That’s your blind date in there?”

Inside the intensive care unit, a tall woman, who was sitting on the edge of the bed, her face covered in tears, while next to her on the bed lay a middle-aged woman who seemed to be her mother.

“Yes!”

Wang Yi nodded his head heavily, but his eyes were tinged with a bitterness.

“What’s going on? Tell me!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but sigh and asked.

The three of them whirled around and came to the end of the corridor, Wang Yi took a deep breath and spoke.

“As you all saw, the one inside is my blind date and my primary school classmate, named Caiyu, and that’s her mother on the hospital bed!”

“What’s wrong with his mother?”

Wang Yifeng asked busily.

“Acute cerebral palsy, the probability of curing it is only one in a thousand!”

Wang Yi said pretending to be bashful, but there was a deep exhaustion in his eyes.

“Tell me the details!”

Lin Ran said with a frown.

Wang Yi nodded at his words, and then recounted the story.

It turned out that after he had returned to An County, he had joined the hospital as a trainee doctor through his own efforts, and it was after this that he had met Caiyu, who had come to see him.

Caiyu was a primary school teacher and Wang Yi was working in the city’s Chinese hospital. It was supposed to be a beautiful love story for a pair of jade lovers, but everything changed half a month ago.

After half a year of getting to know each other, Wang Yi and Caiyu even set up a marriage contract, and both parents agreed to it, and it was then that the accident happened.

Once, when Caiyu’s mother went to purchase wedding supplies for her, she accidentally had a car accident and the driver died on the spot, while her mother, who did not die because she was lucky, ended up like this.

The driver, who was supposed to be responsible for the accident, ended up with no one to blame, and all the burdens were placed on Caiyu and her father, who still works at the construction site to earn money for her mother’s medical treatment.

“She even quit her job at school to take care of her mother!”

Speaking here, Wang Yi couldn’t help but leave tears in his eyes.

“Don’t worry, everything will be fine now that Sixth Brother is here!”

Lin Ran’s eyes also followed the red circle and patted Wang Yi’s shoulder to comfort him.

Wang Yi’s emotions calmed down slightly and then continued.

“Later Caiyu broke up with me, I knew she was afraid of continuing to drag me down, but I really loved her, so I took out all my savings and even borrowed from my family!”

“But... But by now, my family’s money is basically tied up in it too!”

Speaking of this, Wang Yi couldn’t help but cry in pain, Lin Ran handed over some paper, Wang Yi just wiped it off while continuing.

“Later Later I really had no choice, I went to borrow loan sharks, to now the interest rate more and more Zhang, I have”

Things said here, Wang Yi in also said down can’t, and Lin Ran two people also almost all listen to understand.

“It’s okay, everything will be fine!”

Lin Ran will Wang Yi hugged in the arms, kept comforting, a side of Wang Yi life is also full of sympathy, eyes vaguely a little red, not a word.

He just kept hugging, and only after Wang Yi had almost finished crying and his emotions had calmed down, did Lin Ran release him and looked at him and said.

“Lao-san, do you trust me?”

“I do!”

Wang Yi looked at Lin Ran with some doubts in his eyes.

“Good, since you believe me then take me in to see her mother first!”

Lin Ran said solemnly.

“Good!”

Wang Yi didn’t hesitate, he then got up and wiped the tears from his face before leading Lin Ran and the two of them towards the intensive care unit.

There was a nurse in the ICU who was checking on Caiyu’s mother’s condition throughout the day and was quite familiar with Wang Yi. The latter said a few words and then allowed Lin Ran and the two of them to enter the ICU together.

Wang Yi introduced Lin Ran and Wang Yifeng to Caiyu. Lin Ran took a look at the woman in front of him, she was very sweet looking and very calmly facing, a good girl of sorts, but there was an air of bad luck between her eyebrows, it was obvious that this calamity was destined to happen.

“Can I see my aunt?”

Lin Ran sought Caiyu’s advice, and the latter was stunned at the words and hesitated a little.

“Ranzi is also a graduate of a Chinese medicine university, it’s fine!”

Wang Yi explained beside him again, and only then did Caiyu nod her head.

Lin Ran smiled faintly at this and followed, then walked towards Caiyu’s mother’s hospital bed.

However, when Lin Ran’s gaze landed on the latter’s cheek, he couldn’t help but tighten his whole body, followed by his face changing.

Chapter318

A middle-aged woman, just in her early fifties, was lying quietly on the hospital bed, while around her cheeks was a blackness that was clearly filling the area, staining her entire skin below her head ebony black, as if it had been stained with ink under the skin above her head.

“When did this condition appear on your mother’s head?”

Lin Ran asked, frowning.

“It was there when the accident happened, the doctor said it was caused by bleeding under the skin!”

Caiyu said with a distressed look on her face.

Lin Ran, however, listened with a slight frown.

“What’s wrong Old Six? Is there something wrong? I’ve seen this before, and it is indeed caused by bleeding under the skin!”

Wang Yi then beside busy to explain, he is also a doctor although internship, but some again chat eventually can see.

However, at school, Lin Ran was known to be a bully, so at this time he also carried a hint of luck in his heart, hoping that Lin Ran could cure this disease.

“It’s alright, I’ll take a look first!”

Lin Ran shook his head, pretending to be relaxed, and then continued to look around.

Caiyu’s mother’s condition was not good, Lin Ran reached out to probe the other party’s pulse and found that it was extremely weak and almost somewhat imperceptible, if it wasn’t for the fact that her pupils were still normal, I’m afraid that it could really be concluded that she was dead.

However, Lin Ran would not jump to conclusions so easily. A strand of true qi quickly invaded the patient’s body along his finger, and the situation inside his body was clearly presented to his mind.

Caiyu’s mother’s body functions were completely normal, and her internal organs had not suffered any huge damage, only some minor trauma, which must have been caused by the day of the car accident.

And as true qi surged into his mind, Lin Ran’s brow furrowed afterwards.

The brain is the most important part of a person’s body. If the heart is the foundation of a person, then the brain is the foundation of a person who is considered alive.

If a person’s brain is dead, even if her body is still functioning, she can still be classified as dead, because she is no longer conscious.

In Caiyu’s mother’s mind, however, it was deadly silent at this moment, almost frighteningly quiet, and a large amount of black mist filled the entire cranial cavity, as if it was deep in a miasma-filled forest, and even Lin Ran’s true qi was affected.

“Break!”

As soon as Lin Ran's mind moved, even more majestic true qi poured into Caiyu's mother's mind, quickly forcing the black fog back and continuing on towards the front.

These black fogs were very strange, as if they were maggots that could slow down the advance of Lin Ran's true qi, but fortunately, Lin Ran had recently accumulated enough true qi, so he was not afraid.

"What is he doing?"

To the side, Caiyu asked worriedly, Lin Ran was motionless at the moment, his palm pressed against his own mother's head, making her very worried.

"Don't worry, he's my brother, he won't do anything nonsensical!"

Wang Yi explained in a hurry beside him again.

And at this moment, the nurse also came over from the side and frowned at the situation.

"Tell your friend to hurry up and come over, I've been informed that Director Huang will personally come over later to check the situation, you know his temper, if he sees your friend like this, I'm afraid he will get angry!"

"Okay!"

Wang Yi hurriedly nodded, but did not immediately go forward to wake Lin Ran, he still wanted to wait in his mind to see what Lin Ran wanted.

On the other hand, Wang Yi was standing by the side, not saying a word, staring at the patient on the hospital bed, from the moment he entered this intensive care unit, his gaze had never left Caiyu's mother, because he felt a vaguely familiar aura coiling around the hospital bed.

This aura might not be felt at all to others, but to him it was familiar to you because it was exactly the aura that only the dead had, and it was a hint of the aura of the dead that arose after being dead for a long time.

"Wang Yi!"

Caiyu was a little worried and wanted Wang Yi to go and call Lin Ran over, however the latter shook his head and said.

"Wait on, I trust him!"

Seeing this, Caiyu didn't say anything more, and for a while the whole ward fell into silence again.

At this time, Lin Ran's brow was furrowed and sweat was faintly visible on his forehead. At this time, he was controlling the true qi in his body, constantly impacting the black fog, advancing a little bit in the sticky black fog and approaching the core of his brain.

Soon, when Lin Ran felt the slightest hint of strain, his true qi finally passed through the black fog and reached the core of his brain.

However, the scene that appeared in front of him made Lu surprisingly look dumbfounded, only to see that the brain in front of him was still covered with a layer of black fog, and this time, the black fog was even more viscous and directly formed a mucous membrane, firmly trapped on top of the brain.

“It’s really this black mist that’s doing this!”

Lin Ran was delighted in his heart, having understood what was wrong, but just as he was about to approach the brain, suddenly there was an angry rebuke thundering in his ears.

“Who is this man, why is he here, and what is he doing!”

This voice rang out so suddenly that it jolted Lin Ran’s consciousness back in a flash, but because it was so fast, even Lin Ran felt some vague pain in his brain this time.

“Director Huang! Director Huang, this is my friend, my friend!”

Wang Yi hurriedly stepped forward and explained, he didn’t expect this Director Huang to come so quickly either.

“Your friend?”

Director Huang’s face was ugly as he glanced at Wang Yi and said in a cold voice.

“As a trainee doctor in the hospital, don’t you know the rules of the intensive care unit? Simply nonsense!”

Said Huang He, turning to look at Lin Ran and scolded.

“Don’t you want to go out, waiting for me to call security?”

Lin Ran’s consciousness had just returned and he hadn’t had the chance to speak yet, but Wang Yifeng, who was at the side, couldn’t stand it anymore and spoke in a cold voice.

“Why are you so loud? Laozi is not a fucking cage, who are you talking to?”

“Fatty!”

Lin Ran hurriedly opened his mouth to interrupt Wang Yifeng’s words, and then looked at the so-called Director Huang.

This Director Huang was only about forty or fifty years old, his hair and beard were a bit white, and his whole body was still in good spirits, but he had a taut face that looked like he was rejecting people.

His upside-down eyebrows had left a deep impression on Lin Ran, and this kind of eyebrow shape was indeed rare.

“You’re Director Huang?”

“What? You know me?”

Director Huang frowned at his words and asked rhetorically, this also young man in front of him he did not know.

“I don’t know him, but I do now!”

Lin Ran said with a smile, while extending his hand to shake Director Huang's hand, after all, he used to be a doctor at Temperance Hospital too, and the two were considered peers.

But who knew that Director Huang trended to not even raise his arm, and even turned his head away with a disdainful look.

"Sorry, I'm a doctor, I can't just shake hands with people who don't want to do it, you guys can go out first if you're okay, I still have to see patients!"

"You!"

Wang Yifeng was instantly furious at this, he and Lin Ran were together, this guy's actions clearly didn't take Lin Ran into account, it was no different from insulting him.

Chapter 319

"Fatty!"

Wang Yi was just about to explode, but Lin Ran spoke up and stopped him, then smiled at Director Huang.

"Director Huang, this friend of mine is a bit reckless please don't be offended, we are also friends of Wang Yi's, we came over this time to see if there is anything we can do to help!"

"Friends? Help?"

Huang He couldn't help but laugh at his words.

"How come you're also a graduate of Tamkang University?"

"Yes!"

Lin Ran looked with a slight frown, but still nodded.

"Ai! Nowadays, college students really don't know how great they are, thinking that just because they are graduates of Tamkang University, they are so great, and don't they still have to start as intern doctors when they enter An County Chinese Hospital?"

Huang He's words seemed to be said carelessly, but the surrounding kind of people were very upset, especially Lin Ran and Wang Yi, these words were obviously directed at them.

"Trainee doctors are a process that everyone must go through, didn't you also start out as a trainee doctor back then? Don't lean on the old man here!"

Lin Ran's face was calm, and his words were spoken in an unsavoury manner.

"What did you say?"

Huang He's face sank at his words, and his palms couldn't help but clench into fists.

In An County Chinese Medicine Yuan, he, Huang He, was also considered a number one person, in charge of the intensive care unit, and every patient who came here, whether it was himself or his family, was always flattering to him.

And the one who dared to ridicule him like Lin Ran was really the first one.

“Wang Yi.”

On the side, Caiyu looked worried, she was really afraid that Lin Ran and the two of them would anger Huang He, because once they did, the latter’s temper would definitely put on small shoes on her.

As the hospital side, just a slight move by Huang He to increase the cost of governance a little would be fatal to them.

“Don’t worry, he is not an impulsive person!”

Wang Yi was busy persuading, but his face had also become very nervous, after all, he had not seen Lin Ran for almost half a year.

This half year of social practice was again enough to change a person’s character, at this point he couldn’t tell what Lin Ran really wanted, he was just relying on this trust in the latter and was constantly persuading Caiyu.

“What I said, Director Huang should have heard it clearly, you want to see the patient, then please put!”

Lin Ran side-stepped to make way and followed, dragging Wang Yifeng to Wang Yi’s side.

Seeing this, Huang He wanted to explode, but suddenly he noticed a pair of ice-cold gazes falling on him, none other than Lin Ran’s, and immediately swallowed back the words that were still on his lips.

He was scared by a look from Lin Ran, which made Huang He feel a bit annoyed, he was also the director of An County Chinese Hospital, while the other party was just a fresh graduate, which made him feel a bit embarrassed.

“If you want to stay, stay well, don’t talk nonsense, or even if you are Wang Yi’s friend, you still have to get out!”

“You!”

Wang Yifeng was so angry at his words that he was itching to press his roots, but Lin Ran grabbed him by the side again, so he couldn’t let out any anger.

“Old Six, don’t take it personally!”

To the side, Wang Yi said in a low persuasive voice.

Lin Ran smiled at his words and shook his head without speaking, and the guardianship room fell into silence again for a while.

Huang He saw the crowd Lin Ran two people did not speak, and thought that is to admit weakness, immediately smiled smugly, turned his side towards the hospital bed and walked over, while walking also pretended to blandly asked.

“How is the patient doing? Is there anything strange going on?”

“No abnormalities, still the same as before.”

On the side, the nurse in charge of the patient, hurriedly said.

Huang He nodded in satisfaction at his words and followed.

“Well, then it’s still the same as yesterday, two injections of tranquiliser, plus some blood-vitalising and blood-cleansing medicine for treatment!”

With that, Huang He signed a checklist in his hand, and then handed it to the nurse.

The nurse took the slip and handed it directly to Wang Yi, saying.

“Go and pay for it!”

“Okay!”

Wang Yi didn’t hesitate and took the slip and was ready to go out, but just then, Lin Ran stopped him and then took the slip in his hand.

“What’s wrong?”

Wang Yi asked, puzzled at the sight.

Lin Ran raised his head at his words and looked at him before asking.

“You’re asking me what’s wrong? Where did you go to university? With her mother in such a condition, the blood-vitalizing medicine you actually didn’t have doubts? Just go and buy them?”

“I

Wang Yi smiled and was at a loss for words, not knowing how to answer instead.

“Activating blood circulation said already obvious, I am really unclear, what does this have to do with treating cerebral palsy, Director Huang He can you explain it?”

Saying that, Lin Ran’s pair of cold eyes then looked at Huang He, looking at him immediately shivered, and then pretended to be calm and said.

“Explain Explain what! Are you dissatisfied with the prescription prescribed by old man?”

Huang He asked rhetorically.

“No no it’s not dissatisfaction, it’s great dissatisfaction!”

Lin Ran also stopped holding back and directly threw the list aside as he looked at Huang He and questioned.

“The patient’s condition, I believe your hospital’s internal medicine department should all have very detailed examination information!”

“Yes, but so what!”

Huang He said with a frown.

“Very well!”

Lin Ran smiled and nodded, then to pick up the list and looked at Huang He and asked in a cold voice.

“Then I would like to know why this blood activating medicine is here, the patient’s body doesn’t have any Qi or blood stagnation at all, so why should he take this medicine?”

Saying this, Lin Ran raised an eyebrow and questioned.

“Or is it that taking this medicine is purely for your pleasure, Director Huang He, at random!”

“Unbridled! How are you talking to the old man!”

Huang He’s face instantly turned cold and he was also angry, these words were simply a questioning of his medical skills, which he could not tolerate.

“Just talk like that, what’s wrong! If you can’t show a reason for prescribing this kind of medicine today, I’ll make you understand how the blood-vitalising medicine works!”

At the side, Wang Yifeng had been waiting for a long time, seeing this, he copied the bruising wine in the first aid medicine cabinet next to him and raised it at Huang He, while clenching his fist, as if he was going to take action at any time if he was not satisfied with the answer.

Huang He was also jumped by Wang Yifei’s action, and hurriedly took two steps back and said.

“What are you doing, this is a hospital!”

“No what, hurry up and answer the question, otherwise today even if the king of heaven comes, he can’t save you!”

Wang Yifeng said viciously.

Wang Yi and Caiyu on the side were both dumbfounded, they both never dreamed that Wang Yifeng would actually go straight to work with Huang He.

“Ranzi!”

Wang Yi instantly became a little anxious and hurriedly came over to try to persuade Lin Ran.

However, Lin Ran stopped him with one hand and spoke.

“If you believe me, don’t say anything!”

“I

Wang Yi was at a loss for words, but seeing that Lin Ran’s expression did not look like a joke, he finally nodded seriously before retreating back.

“Wang Yi!”

Huang He saw this and became even more annoyed, at the hospital in An County, Wang Yi was still a trainee doctor here, but at this moment, he was actually helping an outsider, how could he tolerate this.

“Director Huang!”

As soon as Huang He’s voice fell, Lin Ran chided him directly, followed by a cold gaze as he said.

“You’d better answer my question quickly, this friend beside me, patience has its limits, and he’s surprisingly hard hitting, with a body like yours, I’m afraid that one punch will break apart!”

Chapter320

“You!”

Huang He was so angry that his face turned blue, he couldn’t help but glance at Wang Yifeng, seeing that the latter was fist pumping and ready to make a move, he was really shocked and couldn’t help but gulp and say.

“Good! You want to explain, right, I’ll give you an explanation!”

With that, Huang He turned and pointed directly at the cheek of the middle-aged woman on the hospital bed, and then said.

“The face is dark and there is a clear collection of bruises under the skin, is that reason enough? Or are you blind and can’t see it!”

Huang He’s words struck the crowd, especially Wang Yifeng, who had also seen it just now and could not help but be struck by the words at that moment.

“Could it be that Ranzi really looked off-eye? It shouldn’t be!”

“Ranzi.”

Just as Wang Yifei’s heart was wondering, Wang Yi on the side also hurriedly came over, his face with doubt this worry, he had some difficulty believing that the former school bully would overlook such an obvious situation, even just now he had personally asked Caiyu’s.

“It’s alright!”

Lin Ran waved his hand at the two of them, and then looked at Huang He, who was currently looking at him with a smug look on his face, and sneered at the situation.

“Is this reason still satisfactory? There is bruising under the skin, is there anything wrong with the medication taken to invigorate the blood?”

Said Huang He, his face full of smugness, as if he had already trampled Lin Ran under his feet at this point.

“I really don’t know what you’re so proud of!”

Lin Ran laughed and shook his head, then looked at Huang He like a fool and said.

“Who told you that what’s under the patient’s skin is bruised blood?”

“Hm?”

Huang He was stunned at his words, and then couldn’t help but laugh.

“Haha! So it’s an idiot, the patient’s skin is dark, what is it if it’s not bruising under the skin, how can you not understand such a simple truth and still have the face to claim to be a graduate of Tamkang University, are all the students of Tamkang University now so shameless!”

“Director Huang, aren’t you going too far with that!”

On the side, Wang Yi could not bear to listen to this, he was also a student of Tamkang University, so Huang He scolded him with these words.

“Shut up! Do you have the right to speak here?”

Huang He glared directly over, his eyes cold.

“You!”

Wang Yi was so angry that his face turned blue, but he didn’t dare to say anything else, after all, he still had to work here in the future, if he really offended Huang He, I’m afraid that this job would be completely lost.

“Kid, is there anything else? If not, get lost, I’m going out!”

Huang He turned around and looked at Lin Ran with a smug expression, his words full of disdain.

“Director Huang is in such a hurry to leave, are you afraid?”

As soon as Huang He’s feet rose, Lin Ran spoke up.

“What did you say?”

Huang He’s face sank as he looked at Lin Ran with an icy gaze, not knowing what the latter meant by this.

“Did I say that Director Huang was afraid?”

Lin Ran laughed lightly.

Huang He’s face sank at his words and he said in a cold voice.

“Afraid? Why should I be afraid? Even with a hairy boy like you, only old me has to be afraid?”

“Of course I’m not worth it, but looking at the wrong disease I think it should be worth it!”

Lin Ran laughed indifferently.

“Full of nonsense, someone blow him out of my sight!”

Huang He chided directly, his face turning iron blue at the same time, as if he had been caught in the crosshairs.

“Wait!”

On the side, Wang Yi stood out directly at his words and looked at Lin Ran and asked.

“Ranzi, what do you mean by that? What looking at the wrong disease?”

“Looking at the wrong disease naturally means”

Lin Ran was just about to explain, but Huang He snapped out.

“Wang Yi, go back to work, this is a hospital not your home!”

“Director Huang!”

However, this time, Wang Yi was not listening to him, instead, he came out with a direct rebuke, followed by his eyes burning at him.

“What do you want! Rebellion!”

The latter was, after all, a trainee doctor at An County Hospital, and he had the right to decide whether he would stay or go.

“Director Huang, please explain what is the case of seeing the wrong patient, even if you dismiss me today, you still have to explain clearly!”

Wang Yi chided, and with these words he undoubtedly picked Huang He’s bottom card straight out.

“Fine! Good for you Wang Yi, you’re playing tough with me, aren’t you?”

Huang He said angrily, and then he was about to take out his mobile phone to call security.

But as soon as he took out his mobile phone, a figure arrived directly in front of him, followed by snatching his mobile phone away without saying a word.

“You!”

Seeing that the person coming was actually Wang Yifeng, Huang He was immediately startled and hurriedly took two steps back before speaking.

“What are you doing!”

“Nothing, if you don’t make it clear today, don’t even think about giving me the chance to get out!”

Wang Yifeng looked at Huang He and sneered, following which he put the phone into his pocket.

“What say clearly, I have already said clearly, what more do I need to say!”

Huang He said angrily.

Lin Ran smiled at his words but laughed.

“I don’t think so, I suspect that the dark substance under the patient’s skin is not bruising, I would also like to ask Director Huang to bring the original examination sheet!”

“Joke! What is your status, what right do you have to ask to see the patient’s examination sheet!”

Huang He chided, however, just as his words fell, Wang Yi, who was on the side, stood out.

“What about me? What about my fiancée? We always have the right to see it, right!”

“Right! I demand to see it too!”

Caiyu smiled and also stood out, as things had developed to this point, she no longer had a choice, Huang He had also been offended, since she wanted to see it then she would just see it to the end.

At this moment, she could only choose to trust Lin Ran.

“You guys!”

Huang He was furious when he saw the situation, let him that checklist, how can he go get it, the initial checklist was not kept at all, there are more ways than just what you see in front of you, if he really let him take it out I’m afraid that he, the director, will have to be replaced.

“What’s wrong, Director Huang? Are you unable to take it out, or are you afraid to take it out?”

Lin Ran continued to pursue the question.

“Who... I would like to take it, but the doctor who was in charge of the examination has already left, and this examination list has also disappeared!”

Huang He simply played dumb and shrugged off the responsibility.

“The checklist is missing? There is a law that says you have to keep it, and you’re saying that the checklist is missing? Don’t you think it’s ridiculous?”

Lin Ran said in a cold voice.

“Then it’s out of your hands, since you don’t trust our hospital’s technology, why not just go home and come see a doctor!”

Huang He said icily.

This time, not only was even Wang Yi angry, but even Caiyu, who had always had a good temper, could not help but fume.

“Director Huang, are you saying these human words!”

“You don’t care if what I said is human or not, if you don’t want to see a doctor, then get lost, if you don’t like it, go sue me, I really don’t care, just because you stinky fish and prawns still want to fight with me? Are you worthy?”

Huang He said with a smile on his face, he did not bother to disguise himself at this point, he directly showed his true nature.

“We are really blind!”

Wang Yi couldn’t help but say, he used to respect Huang He, after all he was a senior, but at this moment all he had in his heart was disgust and disgust.
