

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 441

“It’s been a long time, little friend Lin Ran!”

Ignoring the embarrassment of the Hu family’s father and son behind him, Luo Ming smiled as he stepped forward to shake Lin Ran’s hand.

“Long time no see!”

Lin Ran laughed, while also walking over.

At this moment, the people around them all came over, wanting to make friends with the three Lin Ran, especially Qin Bing, a girl that the crowd was eager to get to know immediately after learning that she was the thousandth daughter of the Qin family in the imperial capital.

Those who could attend business dinners of this level were among the top entrepreneurs in the entire Temperance City, and their business had already started to extend outwards, so this high branch of the Qin family in the imperial capital was obviously of great importance to them.

“Don’t be in a hurry, you all have plenty of opportunities to get to know each other later, and please let me talk to my young friend alone!”

Luo Ming opened his mouth and smiled, his face naturally had to be given, so the crowd all dispersed somewhat unhindered.

“Please, little friend!”

Luo Ming said with a smile, however, just as Lin Ran was about to speak, Luo Ming’s body trembled violently, following which he almost fell to the ground, fortunately Lin Ran was quick-eyed and helped him.

“Uncle Luo, are you not feeling well?”

Lin Ran asked, frowning.

On the side, Luo Qiqi also came up nervously.

“Dad, what’s wrong with you?”

“Nothing, nothing, just a little tired!”

Luo Ming said with a smile, but Lin Ran was clearly noticing that the former’s cheeks were permeated with a gloomy black aura, as if he had been poisoned.

“Lin Ran, my dad

Luo Qiqi asked nervously.

“Find a room first, it might be poisoned!”

Lin Ran said without delay, directly interrupting her.

“Good!”

Luo Qiqi smiled and directly led a group of people towards the hall and ran outside.

The Hu family, who were already a bit desperate, stood up again, especially Hu Yang, who said in his heart, “Heaven help me! Heaven help me!”

“Father, let’s go, it’s too humiliating!”

Hu Fei couldn’t help but say, there were still many people looking at them from time to time, which made him feel very uncomfortable.

“What are you ashamed of, you’ve ruined the business this time, you still have the face to feel ashamed!”

Hu Yang cursed angrily, while looking towards the direction Lin Ran and the others had left, and hurriedly greeted them.

“Call your brother immediately and tell him to come up! This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, if your brother can cure Luo Ming, there will still be hope for our business between the Hu family and the Luo family!”

“Brother? Can he do it?”

Hu Fei couldn’t help but say, this younger brother and he were a bit at odds, and he didn’t want the latter to make a name for himself at heart.

“If he can’t, you can! He’s not good enough to eat anything, he’s not good enough to do anything! Your brother is at least a returnee!”

Hu Yang scolded, followed by his own mobile phone to call out, counting on his eldest son, I’m afraid the Hu family will be completely finished.

“Father, you’re looking for me?”

On the phone, a young man’s voice asked calmly.

“Come up immediately, Luo Ming seems to have been poisoned, it’s time for you to show your talent!”

Hu Yang said directly.

The youth sniffed without any nonsense and hung up the phone directly, following which he went upstairs.

.....

Inside a suite, Wang Yi ordered Qin Bing as well as Luo Qiqi and a few bodyguard-like people to stand on one side, while on the other side were Lin Ran and Luo Ming.

At this moment, Luo Ming was lying on the bed and Lin Ran was taking his pulse.

“Phew!”

A moment later, Lin Ran let go of his palm and let out a long breath, his face a little ugly.

“Lin Ran, my father him?”

Luo Qiqi hurriedly came up and asked, her face full of worry.

“It’s rather complicated, I’m afraid it’s the same as the kid we met this afternoon!”

Lin Ran said with a frown.

“What do you mean?”

Luo Qiqi was stunned at her words, not understanding what Lin Ran meant.

Qin Bing was busy explaining.

“In the afternoon, we came across a little boy near the Temperance Hospital that was very similar to your father’s condition!”

“That little boy was struck with the Tarsal Bone Poison, as well as the resentment into his body, it”

Before Qin Bing had finished speaking, Luo Qiqi had already turned her head and pulled Lin Ran’s hand, asking eagerly.

“Then will my father his life be in danger?”

“Not for now, but the focus of this illness is not here, but”

Before Lin Ran could finish his sentence, suddenly the door to the suite was opened, followed by a voice coming in.

“That’s not even the point, so what is the point?”

As the words fell, three figures had walked in, and it was clearly Hu Fei, father and son, as well as a young man Lin Ran had never seen before.

This young man had a fair face, short hair, and looked very competent, especially when he was wearing a suit, his overall look was even more handsome.

Moreover, Lin Ran and the others also noticed that at this moment, his body carried an aura that was different from all the others, and his eyebrows carried absolute confidence.

“This is Hu Fei’s own brother, Hu Tianyou is said to be studying abroad, why has he suddenly come back!”

Luo Qiqi was busy explaining in a low voice, but she herself was also a bit puzzled.

“Qiqi, how is brother Luo’s condition? Tian You also studied medicine abroad, if these few friends can’t do anything, why not let him try?”

Hu Yang smiled and spoke, pressing the situation without even asking, and then directly giving Lin Ran and the others the label of looking bad.

“I say, old man, if we can’t even do it, you think this son of yours can? This is China, not abroad, that foreign cure is no good!”

On the other side, Wang Yifeng opened his mouth and laughed, he was not used to seeing Hu Yang's dog's eyes looking at the bottom of people.

"Whether it is good or not, the effect will naturally explain everything, only moving your lips here, I'm afraid you can't do anything about it!"

Hu Tianyou looked at Wang Yifeng, his expression was bland, but his words were full of disdain, hearing Wang Yifeng's face sink, a little angry.

"Fatty!"

Lin Ran waved his hand to indicate Wang Yifeng not to be impulsive, then looked at Hu Tianyou who was looking at the side and said indifferently.

"It's good for young people to be confident, but my friend wasn't wrong, this is China, not abroad, Uncle Luo is in a very bad situation, I don't have time to rub it in with you here!"

Saying this, Lin Ran walked towards the hospital bed, but before he could take two steps out, Hu Tianyou spoke up.

"What are you afraid of? Afraid that if I cure Uncle Luo's illness, you'll lose your current position?"

Lin Ran smiled at his words as his feet gave a hint of a smile.

"I just don't want to waste time with you, since you said that, let's give it a try, but I'll only give you three minutes!"

Lin Ran said as he had taken out his phone to lock the time.

"Three minutes is enough for me, Hu Tianyou, to see a doctor!"

Hu Tianyou smiled blandly and followed him to the bedside.

With his white palm poking out, he first checked Luo Ming's eyes, forehead temperature, and pulse.

Chinese medicine is all about seeing and hearing, while Western medicine is relatively dependent on instruments, but at this moment there were no instruments here, so there was nothing Hu Tianyou could do.

Soon ten minutes had passed, Hu Tianyou withdrew his hand and got up, glanced blandly at Lin Ran and the others, and then said to Luo Qiqi.

"Sister Qiqi, Uncle Luo just has a fever, it's not a serious illness, I'll go buy some medicine and give him a shot later and he'll be cured!"

After saying that, Hu Tianyou instead looked at Lin Ran and sneered disdainfully.

"As for the Tarsal Bone Poison, I've never heard of it, and there is no such poison in the entire medical field, I'm afraid some people are deliberately trying to scare people.

Chapter 442

"Who are you calling an alarmist?"

Qin Bing also became a little angry at his words, this guy didn't see the end of the story when he looked at the doctor and actually slandered them as alarmist, it was simply too shameless.

"Lin Ran!"

Luo Qiqi turned her head to look at Lin Ran, her heart somewhat unsure of what to do.

"It's alright, don't worry!"

Lin Ran nodded with a smile when he saw the costume, then looked at Wang Yifeng the same and said.

"Keep an eye on the few of them, if anyone dares to come over, do it directly!"

"Okay!"

Wang Yifeng had long been displeased with the Hu family, so when he heard this, he immediately took the divine Dragon Axe out of his arms and smashed it on the ground with a "bang".

"You heard that, didn't you? If you want to come over and have a competition, just come over, I haven't had a good time with this divine dragon axe for a long time!"

"You!"

Hu Yang was furious, and Hu Fei Du and Hu Tian You were so scared that they gagged!

The axe was so big that if it struck his body, he would have to lose his skin without dying.

"What do you mean by that, Lin Ran? You want to take away the credit for my son's illness? If brother Luo wakes up later, do you really think your wishful thinking will come true!"

Hu Yang said stiffly, he really didn't believe Lin Ran wouldn't be able to figure out such an obvious thing.

"Is it my wishful thinking, or yours?"

Lin Ran turned his head to look at Hu Yang and said blandly.

"Technically speaking, you still have to thank me!"

"Thank you?"

Hu Yang was stunned at his words, not understanding what Lin Ran meant by this.

"Kid, you're out of your fucking mind, you still have to thank you, I'll thank you to death believe it or not!"

Hu Fei cursed angrily, he had a lot of anger in his heart and had no place to vent it, so he found an opportunity to vent it now.

"Shut up!"

Hu Yang suddenly spoke up and scolded.

"Father, you!"

Hu Fei was furious when he saw this, but Hu Yang glared at him and dared not let out another fart.

“Don’t you think you’ve caused enough trouble for me?”

Hu Yang said in a cold voice, then looked at Hu Tianyou, and lowered his voice.

“What the hell is going on?”

“I don’t know either!”

Hu Tianyou waved his hand, he didn’t know what was going on at all, but he knew that this time it was about the Hu family’s business, and immediately looked at Lin Ran and asked him drily.

“Kid, what exactly do you mean, can’t you really see that I can’t see Uncle Luo’s illness, as my father said!”

“You can shut up, how shameless!”

Lin Ran was holding a silver needle in his hand and was about to apply it to Luo Ming, when he heard this he couldn’t help but turn his head and glare at Hu Tianyou.

“A doctor, or a returnee, gloating just because you see a fever, and afraid that others will steal your credit, do you still have a face?”

“You!”

Hu Tianyou instantly turned blue with anger and was incomparably embarrassed.

“What’s more, what you can tell is only skin deep, I’m afraid that if you were an ordinary person, you would know by taking your body temperature!”

Lin Ran continued, following which he turned away from paying much attention to him.

“Who are you to say that, he just has a fever am I wrong!”

Hu Tianyou said unconvincingly, but this time Lin Ran was not paying attention to him.

“You’re obviously just scared and weak-minded, right!”

Hu Tianyou continued, with an unforgiving look.

“You shut up!”

On the side, Qin Bing finally couldn’t stand it anymore, Lin Ran obviously didn’t want to waste time, so he didn’t pay any attention to him, but this guy was still shamelessly talking nonsense, so he was really annoying.

“Lin Ran doesn’t care about you because your medical skills are so lousy and you want people to say it, don’t be ashamed!”

Qin Bing said in a cold voice.

“You! Who are you to say that my medical skills suck and talk as if he’s great!”

Hu Tianyou said unconvincingly.

“Right, my brother is a student of a famous medical university, and he? Just a student of Tamkang University, what qualifications does he have to compare with my brother?”

On the side, Hu Fei couldn't help but say, although he didn't deal with this brother of his in normal times, at this moment when dealing with Lin Ran, the two of them were naturally on the same side of the battle.

“Two idiots!”

Qin Bing glanced at the two indifferently, not bothering to argue with them.

It was said that one only fought with fellow soldiers, not with fools.

“You! Stupid woman!”

Hu Fei could not help but curse at his words, while Hu Tianyou was relatively more educated and looked at Qin Bing and said in a cold voice.

“Tell me clearly, doesn't Uncle Luo have a high fever!”

Qin Bing glared at Hu Fei, then looked at Hu Tianyou and said blandly.

“For a condition as simple as high fever, do you still need to look at it for three minutes?”

Said Qin Bing, pointing at Luo Ming on the hospital bed, and rushed to Hu Tianyou.

“What he has is the Tarsal Bone Poison, do you know what is the Tarsal Bone Poison? If you know, come and tell me, if not, shut up immediately!”

“The poison of the hock?”

Hu Tianyou's face sank when he heard that, at the beginning he said, this what is the poison of the tarsal bone, he had never heard of it at all, moreover, it was something that was not even recorded in Western medicine.

“There is no such poison at all, I am familiar with Western medicine, if there is how can I not know about it!”

Hu Tianyou said in a cold voice.

“Stupid!”

Suddenly, Lin Ran, who was treating Luo Ming at the side, was the one who spoke up, holding a silver needle in his hand that was still visibly stained with a black stain.

“You are now standing in the country, not the West, you don't even know the way of Chinese medicine of your own ancestors, and you still go to study Western medicine, you learn it, and you still feel that you are already invincible, you are really stupid!”

“You!”

Hu Tianyou was so angry that he was speechless.

Lin Ran snorted coldly, and then the silver needle in his hand was flung out with a whoosh, and then landed steadily on the wooden wall next to Hu Tianyou.

“Look at yourself! I didn’t say you were stupid for no reason!”

Lin Ran said in a cold voice, while turning around to continue his work.

Hu Tianyou turned to look at the silver needles, and immediately couldn’t help but cover his mouth, while sucking in a breath of cold air in his heart.

“My god what’s that smell, so smelly!”

On the side, Hu Fei and Hu Yang also couldn’t help but cover their mouths while quickly backing up towards the back.

“What the hell is this thing!”

Hu Tianyou turned his head to look at Lin Ran, then the latter was in the middle of healing and didn’t pay any attention to him, so he helplessly looked at Qin Bing at the side again.

“This is the poison of the tarsal bone, a poison that can only be found in dead people!”

Qin Bing said indifferently, and these words instantly sent the Hu family’s father and son into a cave of ice.

“On a dead person? How could my father have this poison on him!”

Luo Qiqi asked.

However, Qin Bing did not answer this time, as she did not know either.

“I’m afraid that this poison is not only on your father, but also on you, and your brother?”

Lin Ran had by now put away the silver needles and slowly walked back, but at this time his face was very unpleasant and there were even beads of sweat on his forehead.

“My brother went out years ago, from what my father said, he went away for further training!”

Luo Qiqi said with a sniff.

Lin Ran nodded at his words, while taking out a few talisman seals from his pocket and handing them to Luo Qiqi.

“Your father is already fine, but he needs to rest, now you give these talisman seals to the clan members who have been active in the Wan Ren Mountain recently, have them drip blood on them, and if black blood appears, bring it here immediately!”

After saying that, Lin Ran then turned his head to look at Hu Tianyou and said in a cold voice.

“I don’t have a problem with you learning Western medicine, but don’t think you’re much more superior to Chinese medicine, the way of Chinese medicine is vast and profound, with a thousand years of cultural heritage, can’t it be compared to Western medicine, frog at the bottom of the well!”

“Now you can leave!”

Chapter 443

There were many talisman seals and Luo Qiqi immediately arranged for them, while she herself took one out immediately and bit her finger to put a drop of blood on it.

The blood quickly melted away, and soon the blood on top of the talisman seal was blackened, while a fishy smell wafted out.

“This”

This scene made Luo Qiqi’s face look so shocked that she couldn’t speak.

“Why aren’t you few leaving!”

On the side, Wang Yifeng saw that Hu Fei and the others actually didn’t leave yet, and lifted his divine Dragon Axe and was ready to go up and drive them away.

Coincidentally, at that moment, a talisman seal floated in from outside the door, supposedly the men who had just left had accidentally dropped one.

Hu Tianyou was undeterred and immediately picked up the seal and bit through his finger and dripped it on, but a few moments later there was still only a little red mark on the seal, no black colour at all, not to mention the fishy smell.

“I’ll try it!”

Hu Fei was also not willing to give up and likewise dripped a drop of blood on the remaining empty space.

But a moment later the faces of all three of them, father and son, changed, only to see that the spot where Hu Fei had dripped blood actually appeared as black as Luo Qiqi’s, along with an unpleasant fishy smell.

“This How is this possible!”

Hu Fei couldn’t help but gulp, and cold sweat was already breaking out on his forehead.

“Give me your hand!”

Hu Tianyou also downward jumped, busy dodging Hu Fei’s palm, followed by a closer look, and then looked at the cheek, and suddenly his face became ugly.

“What’s wrong? Brother, you don’t scare me!”

Hu Fei asked busily when he saw this.

“You’ve been poisoned too!”

Hu Tianyou said with a sigh.

“How could this happen? How did your brother get poisoned!”

Hu Yang was puzzled and Hu Tianyou was busy explaining.

“He has the same black spots at the corners of his eyes as Luo Ming, at first I thought they were age spots, but now it looks like they should be toxin spots!”

“I don’t want to die I don’t want to die!”

Hu Fei was so frightened that his face turned white and he pulled Hu Tianyou’s hand tightly, but the latter was full of difficulties and was busy saying.

“I’ve never seen this kind of disease before, there’s no way to cure it!”

“You”

Hu Fei’s heart sank as he heard this, and suddenly remembered Lin Ran.

“Right! Lin Ran, Lin Ran can definitely cure it, get out of the way!”

Hu Fei pushed Hu Tianyou away, followed by rushing to Lin Ran, without saying a word, he knelt down with a thud.

“Brother Lin Ran, help me! I don’t want to die, help me!”

“Hey? The sun has come out of the west, weren’t you very arrogant before?”

Wang Yifeng couldn’t help but laugh at the situation.

“Brother I’m wrong, I’m really wrong brother, I’m not arrogant, I’m just a dog who doesn’t dare to be arrogant, save me save me!”

Hu Fei was so anxious that tears were streaming down his face.

Wang Yifeng wanted to say something else, but was stopped by Lin Ran.

“All right, ants are still greedy for life let alone people!”

“You go wait outside the door, later when the rest of the Luo family arrives, treat them together!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

“Yes! Yes, I’ll go out here right now!”

Hu Fei was overjoyed, and busily ran out, waiting honestly at the door, at this moment his heart was both regretful and thankful.

He regretted that he had made things difficult for Lin Ran earlier, and was glad that the other party was willing to treat him despite the past, for if it were anyone else, I’m afraid it would have been easier to throw stones down the well.

“Why are you still saving him!”

Luo Qiqi said unhappily.

Lin Ran smiled helplessly and guffawed.

“A doctor’s heart is benevolent, it is my duty to heal the sick and save others, he can’t joke around with his life even if he is not losing it.”

Said Lin Ran rubbed Luo Qiqi's head and laughed.

"Okay, you lie down first I will cure you!"

"Or else wait, you look so pale, are you really alright?"

Luo Qiqi was a little worried, but Lin Ran smiled and said he was fine.

.....

The other poisoned people from the Luo family soon gathered at the entrance, there were about a dozen of them, naturally Lin Ran couldn't treat everyone one by one, if that was the case I'm afraid he would have to die of exhaustion.

He wrote a prescription and gave it to Qin Bing, who took it out and informed the people.

Compared to Lin Ran's personal treatment, the effect of the prescription was obviously much slower, but it would only take three to five days to heal, but of course, the most important thing was that they must not go near the Wan Ren Mountain in the near future.

After treating Luo Qiqi, Lin Ran and Qin Bing went to the balcony, and Lin Ran even called Song Yujiang, asking him to help seal off the Wan Ren Mountain so that more people would not be poisoned.

After Song Yujiang learnt of Lin Ran's idea, he naturally cooperated and had people seal off the Wan Ren Mountain overnight, while also evacuating some villagers in the vicinity in an emergency.

"What now?"

Qin Bing looked out the window at the Wan Ren Mountain, which was hidden in the darkness, and couldn't help but ask. The situation was so complicated that she too could not help but feel a tinge of worry.

"Don't worry, didn't Elder Sage say that there would be a change in the Wan Ren Mountain in another half a month, it's like the cold winter before spring, although it's freezing, it will always pass!"

Lin Ran smiled and said comfortingly, but his heart was not the least bit relieved.

After receiving the prescription, Hu Fei's father and son left. Lin Ran had already made them grateful for not falling on their sword this time, and they would not come back for revenge in the future.

Of course, as for the cooperation between the Hu and Luo families, it would depend on their own abilities in the future.

That night, as both Luo Qiqi and Luo Ming had just finished their treatment and were both weak, Lin Ran and the three of them stayed at the hotel as well.

However, having made an appointment with Dean Yang to check on the village the next day, Lin Ran naturally could not stay for long.

As for Luo Qiqi and Luo Ming, they were fine after a night's rest.

.....

“I go, why is this village dead!”

At nine o'clock in the morning, Lin Ran, Wang Yifeng, Qin Bing, and the medical team sent by the Temperance Hospital arrived at the village on time, but standing at the entrance of the village, everyone could not help but be moved.

The village, with nearly 100 families, was dead and dreary, with only a handful of people walking around, and more people sitting on the ground or dead or dying.

“Hurry up!”

Lin Ran saw this and was busy urging, while leading Wang Yifeng and the others to run straight into the village.

“Look, Ranzi, these people's symptoms are exactly the same as Luo Ming and the others!”

As soon as they entered the village, Wang Yifeng immediately shouted out.

Lin Ran and the others looked and indeed found that all of these people's faces were black with a high fever at the same time.

“You help tell everyone to hurry up and boil medicine for these people to take!”

Lin Ran greeted Qin Bing, who nodded and immediately ran to greet the medical team to hurry up and boil the medicine and water.

These people's conditions could not be treated by normal means at all, so Lin Ran could only input true qi into the heavier ones one by one to give them a lifeline, and then have the medical team pour in the medicinal water to slowly bring them back.

The seemingly simple process took all morning, and at that moment Lin Ran was so tired that he fell to the ground, his lips dry and cracked, without saying a word.

Nearly a hundred people, each with a strand of true qi, could not even hold a cow, let alone Lin Ran as a human being.

“Ranzi, this guy is the village chief!”

In the distance, Wang Yifeng dragged an old man over, none other than the village's chief.

The old man was still sober and when he saw Lin Ran, he called out “Thank you”.

Lin Ran was too lazy to talk to him and asked directly.

“When did this situation start to appear in your village? When this happened, was there anything unusual in the village?”

Chapter 444

“It's just that the mountain behind the village cracked the other day. As you know, our village is separated from Wang Tian Men by a mountain range.

“Who knew that such a thing would happen afterwards?”

The old village chief said with heartache.

Lin Ran, however, frowned as he listened, and immediately got up and walked towards the place where the crack had occurred.

By now, the village's condition was basically under control, and many people had recovered slightly after drinking herbs and vomiting, so Wang Yifeng followed him with Qin Bing.

Behind the village was a ring-shaped mountain, a few dozen meters high and very steep, almost impossible to climb, and at this time in a mountain range, there was a crack four or five meters wide, up through the top, as if a line of sky.

"Holy shit, why does it stink so bad in here!"

Just as they reached the mouth of the crack, the three of them hurriedly covered their noses, and Wang Yifeng could not help but curse.

There was a small gust of wind blowing out of the crack, along with a foul stench that made people gag.

"The poison of tarsus should be coming from here!"

Qin Bing couldn't help but say.

"It's possible!"

Lin Ran nodded, while holding back the huge stench as he looked inside the crevice.

It was a little dark inside the crevice, and at first it was a little hard to see clearly, but soon after adapting to the light inside, his vision cleared up.

But as soon as his vision became clear, Lin Ran was surprised to see that not far inside the gap, there was a woman lying on the ground, wearing a white sari, looking as if she was a tourist who had mistakenly entered the gap.

"Ranzi what are you doing!"

Seeing Lin Ran suddenly wanting to go into the crevice, Wang Yifeng and Qin Bing were both startled.

"There's someone inside I have to go in and save her!"

Lin Ran said, while already flipping over and jumping onto the debris at the mouth of the crevice, followed by a long jump.

"Fatty go and find a rope to meet me outside!"

As soon as he landed, Lin Ran greeted him. Wang Yifeng wanted to follow him in, so he nodded and ran to find a rope.

The light inside the crevice was not good, but luckily Lin Ran had the increase of the Xuan Yang Pharmacopoeia, which minimised the impact.

He walked slowly towards the other side, enduring the huge stench, and the closer he got the clearer he could see, while his heart was beating faster.

“Gulp!”

Lin Ran couldn't help but gulp, he found that the woman lying on the ground not far from the other side, wearing a white gauze that was actually classical in style, was lying here at the moment, surrounded by rock walls, and for a while it really looked like an ancient beauty was lying here.

“Girl, are you alright?”

Lin Ran shouted as he moved over.

But the other party was not responding to him at all, still lying on the ground.

Lin Ran was afraid that the other party was really a tourist who had fallen off in full, so he couldn't help but speed up his feet a few notches in order not to delay the rescue.

In the Wanren Mountain Scenic Qu, there are still a lot of old-fashioned photo-taking items, so it's not surprising to have such thoughts.

Quickly arriving behind the woman, Lin Ran raised his hand and was ready to help her up.

But just as his palm touched the other woman's clothes, a white shadow suddenly flashed, followed by a white gauze that actually covered Lin Ran's head directly, while a white palm directly strangled his neck.

“Not good!”

Lin Ran instantly understood in his heart that he had been trapped, and obediently fell backwards and struck his palm towards the other party's chest.

“Pop.”

The other party seemed to have been prepared for this, so Lin Ran's palm actually hit the other party's hand, and immediately their palms became entangled.

When one is caught by the neck, one would normally use one hand to lock the other's hand around the neck, but that was precisely what was not working.

As one hand tangled with the other, Lin Ran naturally freed his other hand and slapped it again towards his opponent's chest.

The woman, who was holding Lin Ran's neck, did not expect Lin Ran to give up his neck and attack him directly.

She was immediately hit in the chest with a slap from Lin Ran.

But when this hit went up, both Lin Ran and the woman were instantly confused.

“This”

Lin Ran felt a softness in his hand, and as soon as he remembered that the other party was a woman, he immediately understood where he had hit.

“No pretty girl, listen to my explanation, I didn't mean to do it!”

“Bastard, how dare you touch me! I'll kill you!”

An angry voice tinged with shyness rang out, followed by a force that kicked Lin Ran directly in the chest, instantly cutting him out on the ground a few meters away, and Lin Ran's entire ass almost didn't get rubbed with fire.

"Hey! I'm here to save you, even if you don't let me save you, you're still attacking me!"

Lin Ran hurriedly ripped the white gown off his head, and only then did he see the other party's real face.

There was no white classical beauty, it was clearly a woman wearing a tight black dress and a black mask.

But honestly, this woman's figure was really nothing to speak of, a black leotard on her body, simply not much worse than even Su Rou.

What was more crucial was that this woman's eyes were cold and stern, and there was a wild beauty all over her body.

"Goo dong!"

Lin Ran couldn't help but gulp as he watched, muttering to himself.

"I let go earlier, what a loss!"

"What did you say!"

The woman's face became even colder at her words, looking at Lin Ran with murderous intent in her eyes.

"Er Nothing nothing, beautiful, since you are not a patient, then I will leave first, I won't bother you!"

Saying that, Lin Ran turned his head and was about to leave.

However, the woman revealed a cold smile and followed, saying.

"You want to leave just like that? I've been waiting for you here all day!"

With that, the beautiful woman flung her palm, and a fiery red whip appeared out of thin air, with an iron hook, and flung it directly towards Lin Ran.

"Fuck me! Can we talk properly!"

Lin Ran was startled, and he quickly drew out a talisman seal and struck it with his backhand.

But the woman's whip was very long, and almost the instant Lin Ran struck the talisman seal, the whip had already wrapped around Lin Ran's body.

"Get the hell over here!"

The beautiful woman let out a cold cry, and the fiery red whip in her hand flew back with Lin Ran.

However, at this moment, the talisman seal in Lin Ran's hand had already been activated and was about to explode, but Lin Ran couldn't shake it off at all, the talisman seal was thrown out in the same direction as he flew backwards, and it stuck to his hand as if it was a dog's poultice.

“Beauty, get out of the way!”

Seeing that the talisman seal was about to explode, Lin Ran didn't care about his own comfort and hurriedly opened his mouth to warn, while slapping his palm out directly, trying to slap it against a side mountain wall.

But being wrapped by the long fiery red whip and spinning all the way around was already a muddy blackness, it was already not easy for him to still strike this palm, and he didn't even notice that he had struck it there.

“Bang!”

With a loud bang, the talisman exploded, and a cloud of flame was followed by wisps of black smoke.

Lin Ran wobbled from the ground and climbed up, easily steadied himself and said.

“Beauty, are you alright, let's talk properly, don't do it”

However, before he finished his sentence, Lin Ran froze, only to see the beautiful woman standing in front of him, with her hair already standing up.

A fair face was covered with paper ashes left behind after the charms had been burned, and the mask that should have been worn on her face had also disappeared.

“Er This might... It was an accident An accident!”

“I killed you!”

Chapter 445

The beautiful woman was furious and her palm rushed towards Lin Ran's chest.

“Hey! Beauty, let's talk properly, besides, your chest”

Lin Ran was busy saying, but before he could finish his words he was interrupted by a slap from the beautiful woman, and in his haste he had to dodge away in a hurry.

“Little lecherous thief, at this point still dare to point at me!”

The beautiful woman was on the verge of a rage, her chest under her black tights was heaving with anger, watching Lin Ran become even more unnerved.

“Beauty, you misunderstood, I mean your chest”

Lin Ran hurriedly explained, but every time the words were about to get to the point, they were interrupted by the other party.

“How dare you say misunderstanding, dare to molest the old lady so blatantly you are really the first, no wonder you dare to go against the Compulsion Pavilion!”

“Originally I respected you as a man and wanted to leave your body intact, but I didn't expect you to be a lecherous thief too, go to hell!”

The beautiful woman said, and with a flip of the whip in her hand, she rushed towards Lin Ran's neck.

Seeing this, Lin Ran dared not delay and turned his body and hands towards the long fiery red whip and met it.

He found that his opponent's strength was not bad, and even his speed and strength vaguely surpassed his own, but the true qi in his opponent's body did not seem to work, and every time it touched his own, it would simply collapse, which made his heart very excited.

"Bang!"

With his palm steadily tugging on the long whip, Lin Ran was then free to look at the beautiful woman.

"Little lecher, let go!"

The beautiful woman chided, this fight big she gasped more frequently, the sight of Lin Ran's mouth went dry and he couldn't help but gag.

"I said beauty, can you hear me out, your chest is on fire!"

"What did you say?"

The beautiful woman was stunned at her words, followed by a hurried look down, and she indeed found a small flame on her chest, which should have been a spark left over from when the talisman seal burst into flames earlier, setting her clothes on fire.

"Bastard!"

The pretty girl slapped the fire on her clothes out as soon as she could, following which she turned to look at Lin Ran, who knew that this guy had already turned and run away.

By now, it wasn't far from the exit either.

The sky was already dark by now, and he didn't know if it was going to rain or what, he was not that far away from the exit, but at this moment he just couldn't see Wang Yifeng and Qin Bing outside.

"Fatty, where the hell have you been!"

Lin Ran shouted, but no one responded to him at all.

"Stop shouting, this Wan Ren Mountain's formation is activated! It's useless if you just shout through your throat!"

The beautiful woman behind him had already run over, but with a bit of panic on her face, and instead of striking out at Lin Ran, she tugged at his clothes and pointed to a pit in the mountain wall next to him.

"Go in!"

"On what grounds!"

Lin Ran asked rhetorically, following uncomfortably.

"I'll go in if you let me, I don't want to lose face?"

"If you want to die don't drag me down with you, if you have the guts you can stand here, if you dare to make a sound later, you're not the one with the handle!"

The beautiful woman was furious and instantly turned around and dug herself into the pit, before looking at Lin Ran playfully.

Lin Ran scratched his head, always feeling as if he had been pitted.

At this moment, he was standing alone and cold inside a gap in the mountain that was only four or five metres wide, with a fierce wind blowing around him, and the sky was terribly dark, as if it would rain at any moment, a situation that really scared him.

“If you die, you die!”

Lin Ran gritted his teeth and followed, turning around and also burrowing towards the deep pit.

“Make room for me!”

Lin Ran said as he pushed his way in.

The deep pit was only palm-sized, and the beauty was already stained with seventy to eighty people who had gotten into it alone, so it was simply too difficult for Lin Ran to squeeze in.

“Where are you putting your hands!”

Suddenly, Lin Ran exerted too much force a careless palm came off, not knowing where to press on the other side, but the feeling was similar to the first time, also soft.

“Sin, sin, I didn’t want to!”

Lin Ran said bitterly, but the more anxious he was, the harder it was to squeeze in, and in the end Lin Ran himself didn’t know how many times he apologised and how many times the exterminating girl threatened to kill himself.

Anyway, Lin Ran saw that when he too squeezed into the deep pit, the other party’s black tights were almost covered with his own handprints, and even a few very sensitive places were patronised by his own palms.

“Your name is Lin Ran isn’t it, remember this, as soon as you get out of this crevice, I will kill you!”

The beautiful woman almost gritted her teeth as she said this, clearly furious to the point of anger at this guy Lin Ran’s rude actions.

“Beauty, don’t be angry, scientists once said that forces act on each other, although I placed this palm in a bad position, but all the same, I also suffered a loss didn’t I, so”

“So you big man, immediately shut up!”

The beautiful woman was so angry that she really wanted to slap Lin Ran to death with worry, but in the end she held back.

The majestic rain hit the mountain wall, causing the whole valley to rumble, and it was really like the roar of ten thousand armies killing each other.

The whole valley rumbled as Lin Ran and the mysterious beauty hid in the deep pit without saying a word, but they did not feel the least bit embarrassed as the pouring rain pelted their faces, making them both suffer.

Lin Ran was fine, after all, the big man had thick skin and flesh and could still resist, but the beauty could not, the rain did not take long to beat her, and even the paper dust on her cheeks was washed away.

Lin Ran turned his head to look and was frozen in his tracks.

The mysterious woman beside him had breathtakingly beautiful cheeks, with finely carved features paired with delicate cheeks, her beauty was incomparable.

If it wasn't for the fact that the other party was still wearing a straitjacket, Lin Ran would have thought that the person next to him was a fairy from the nine heavens descending to earth.

On her cheek, located below her left eye, there was also a very small red plum blossom mark, which looked exquisite and added a little more demonic beauty to the whole person's appearance.

"What are you staring at?"

The beauty gap Lin Ran kept staring at herself and turned her head to ask in a cold voice.

"Is this plum blossom of yours a sticker or a tattoo?"

Lin Ran subconsciously asked, the plum blossom was simply the finishing touch to his entire face, and to be honest he really wanted it to be there forever.

"You!"

The beautiful woman was shocked at the words, and only when she touched her cheek did she realise that the mask on her face had actually disappeared, so she covered her cheek in a hurry and chided.

"If you're looking, I'll gouge your eyes out!"

Lin Ran smiled at that but laughed.

"Beauty, calm down, isn't looking this good just for people to look at? And just now you were afraid in your heart that you already wanted to hide my hands away, do you think I still care? You can see such a beautiful face, so dig it if you want!"

After saying that, Lin Ran even laughed, but at that moment, the beauty was the one who covered Lin Ran's mouth while making a no-sound gesture.

The slender fingers of the other party pressed against his lips, causing Lin Ran's mind to feel indistinct, feeling like he was in the clouds.

But in the midst of this wonderful sensation, he was shocked to feel the whole ground tremble violently.

The rumbling of horses' hooves came from deep within the gap and was rapidly approaching his position.

Chapter 446

The beautiful woman covered her face with one hand and Lin Ran's mouth with the other, which made Lin Ran feel a bit puzzled, not only was she a bit better looking, why was she still so afraid of others seeing her? Are all beautiful women so shy?

This thought flashed in his mind, and at the same time the trembling of the entire crevice became significantly more intense. Although the majestic sound of the rain suppressed a large part of the roar of the horses' hooves, deep inside the crevice, this sound was still unusually clear.

"Hmm?"

Suddenly, Lin Ran noticed that this beautiful woman beside him had let go of the hand that was blocking him, and was busy looking, only to find that the rain had actually washed over the mask that had fallen earlier, and had by now reached a short distance in front of the two of them.

The beauty reached out to grab it, but almost at the same time, a roar of horses' hooves behind the mask arrived almost instantly.

Following this Lin Ran was shocked to see.

In the already narrow gap, a warhorse swept past, all wearing armour, and on it sat a lofty figure, also wearing armour.

The war horses in the forefront had a huge banner on them, but the speed was too fast for Lin Ran to see what was written on it.

"Hmm?"

Suddenly, Lin Ran felt that something was wrong, he realised that whether it was the war horses or the generals, everything was actually transparent, he could even see the opposite rock wall through the war horses' bodies.

"Is this the Yin soldiers?"

Lin Ran was shocked in his heart, but then he denied himself of this idea.

Earlier, this beautiful woman had said that this was the activation of the formation of the Wan Ren Mountain, could it be that these warhorse generals were all transformed from the formation guarding the Wan Ren Mountain?

Lin Ran's heart became even more appalled for a moment, the formation taking form this was definitely beyond what he could understand, at least in the Xuan Yang Pill Canon there were very few records about the formation taking form at all, it was only briefly mentioned that this formation attainment had long since transcended the realm of Yin and Yang reincarnation.

"This smell?"

Following this, Lin Ran noticed that as these warhorse generals swept past, the rainwater in front of him began to rapidly turn black, accompanied by an unpleasant stench, precisely the same as the poison of the tarsal bones that the young boy and the Luo family's father and daughter had been hit with earlier.

"This really is the source!"

Lin Ran's heart suddenly dawned on him, finally figuring out where the source of the village's toxin was coming from.

"No!"

Suddenly, the beautiful woman next to him gritted her teeth and at the same time, ignoring the galloping horses' hooves ahead of her, reached out to retrieve her mask.

"Stop!"

At the moment of a thousand troops, Lin Ran couldn't care less about anything else, if this stupid woman touched the war horses or the generals, I was afraid that she would immediately trigger the formation, and such a terrifying transformation formation was simply beyond their ability to resist.

However, although Lin Ran's reaction was quick, he was still a step too slow.

The moment the beautiful woman's palm touched his mask, a horse's hoof stepped on it, and with a "bang", the whole mask was instantly turned into pieces and scattered in all directions.

One of the fragments even hit Lin Ran's face with a loud bang, which made him feel very depressed.

I didn't steal it, why did you hit me?

Lin Ran was so depressed that he was dumbfounded when he saw that when the horse's hoof was raised, there was a black breath coming straight at the beauty.

The beauty was unable to react, and the black breath shot into her shoulder, with a "stinging" sound, the clothes on her shoulder were torn, and the skin behind the clothes was even cut with a bloody wound.

"Don't move!"

Lin Ran saw this and reached out to hold down the beautiful woman's hand, afraid that she would press her palm through it.

"What do you want!"

The beautiful woman lowered her voice and chided, her face had turned a little pale.

"Shut up if you don't want to die!"

Lin Ran didn't care to explain, as he ripped the clothes off the beautiful girl's shoulders, and a large area of snowy white immediately came into view.

"Little lecher, what the hell do you want!"

The beautiful woman's face turned even paler in anger, but at this moment, having been struck by the poison in her tarsus, her entire body seemed to have been drained of strength, and she was powerless to retort.

"I can cure this poison, if you don't want to die then be honest!"

Lin Ran said as he slapped down on the rock wall next to him, cutting his palm, before pressing it directly onto the beautiful woman's shoulder with blood, a wisp of true qi invading the other party's body along his palm.

Where the true qi passed, the poison of the hock was quickly expelled, but Lin Ran also discovered at the same time that this beautiful woman actually did have true qi in her body as well, and it was a completely different type of true qi from the Sage that he had encountered back then.

"What the hell are these people all about, how come they all have true qi in their bodies!"

Lin Ran's heart became even more puzzled, he had originally thought that only he had the existence of true qi within his body, but as the people he had come into contact with recently became more and more mysterious, he realised that his previous self seemed to have been sitting on the fence a little.

"Have you touched enough!"

Seeing that Lin Ran had still launched into a daze, the beautiful woman scolded with a gloomy face.

"Er That's enough!"

Lin Ran was filled with embarrassment and hurriedly withdrew his hand, following which he reacted and said breathlessly.

"Hey! Who's touching you, I'm detoxifying you!"

"Little lecher! I'll kill you sooner or later!"

The beautiful woman got up and rushed straight out of the deep pit, by now the war horses and generals outside were all gone and even the pouring rain had stopped.

"Hey! You haven't said thank you yet!"

Lin Ran said helplessly as he saw the beautiful girl running towards the depths of the gap, once the rain stopped the light was better, Lin Ran then realised that it was not actually dark, dare I say it was all caused by the activation of the formation just now.

"Thank you, I'll kill you next time I see you!"

The beautiful woman was so angry that she had to cut her teeth, covering her shoulder and quickly disappearing into the depths of the gap.

"It's really inexplicable, I just touched her a few times, what's the point, besides I did it to save you!"

Lin Ran said helplessly, but then on second thought, he couldn't help but laugh.

"But this beauty has a really nice body, too bad I didn't ask for her name!"

As he said that, Lin Ran felt an itch on his face, and when he reached out to touch it, he realised that it was a fragment of that beautiful woman's mask that was still stuck to his face just now.

When he took off the fragment and took a look, Lin Ran was stunned.

On the back of the fragment, which was about the size of a thumb cap, there were two very inconspicuous words engraved on it, "Ling Sa".

"Could her name be Ling Sa?"

Lin Ran thought to himself as Ming immediately shouted from the depths of the gap.

"Hey! Is your name Ling Sa!"

The voice rang out for a long time, and the echo of the other party really did come from inside.

"You die! Don't you dare shout my name!"

"So your name really is Ling Sa! My name is Lin Ran!"

Lin Ran shouted with a smile, only this time before he could wait for the other party's reply, a hand landed on his shoulder, followed by a man's sultry voice coming through.

"Lin Ran Hello, my name is Wang Yifeng!"

Lin Ran was taken aback, his whole body had goosebumps, turned his head to see that it was really this dead fatty, and immediately cursed.

"Fuck you, what the hell are you pretending to scare people!"

"I was worried about your safety because you didn't come out for half a day, and I didn't dare to come in because it was dark in the gap.

Wang Yifeng said.

"You're the one who's dead, crow's mouth, go out and talk!"

Lin Ran gave him a blank look and followed him towards the exit.

Wang Yifei, however, was in no hurry and followed behind, laughing.

"Who is Lin Ran? You kid didn't meet another beautiful woman here, did you?"

Chapter 447

"What are you thinking? Which is so much beauty, it's an ugly girl!"

Lin Ran was busy saying, and then even more so, he told them about his encounter here, of course the groping around, naturally he couldn't talk about it, after all, Qin Bing was still guarding the outside.

"Holy shit, so you mean, that woman was waiting for you on purpose, who the hell is this one and what's her purpose?"

Wang Yifei was busy asking, last time he was sneaked up on by Lang Tian and had a hard time snatching back the jade flute, he was really scared, afraid that this mysterious woman was also after his ancestral jade flute.

"Don't know yet, but you have to be more careful with this woman, she's not simple!"

Lin Ran frowned, pretty looking is pretty, but with true qi in her body this is not enough to underestimate, at least Wang Yifeng might have some trouble dealing with it.

“How come this guy doesn’t have true qi in his body, how strange!”

The more Lin Ran thought about it, the more confused he became, although he had the Xuan Yang Pill Canon, he was missing too much about the Daoist cultivation method, this was the consequence of not having a good teacher.

The two of them quickly left the gap and then piled up the stone pestles outside the gap a few points higher to prevent anyone from accidentally entering and dying.

Lin Ran then even set up a formation at the entrance so that the poison from the tarsus inside would not flow out and plague the village outside.

When they returned to the village, the medical team had already helped all the villagers to take the potion, and had even left behind a recipe for boiling the potion. The village people could all argue with the herbs and would soon be cured as long as the recipe was left behind, so the people left with peace of mind.

It was already late in the evening when he returned to the clinic. Midway through the day, Luo Qiqi called to express his gratitude for his father, but there were still a lot of social engagements at home, so he could not spare time for the time being, and the better to go see him when he was busy.

After a busy day, Lin Ran personally sent Qin Bing home to rest, and then returned to the clinic with Wang Yifeng.

It was just after nine o’clock at night, and Lin Ran sat on the sofa and lit a cigarette, a rare occurrence, and pondered over the recent events.

First he had found true qi in Jain Lao’s body, and then today this mysterious woman named Ling Sa had also found true qi in her body, which made him have a slight doubt in his heart, could it be that many people had true qi in their bodies just like himself?

“No!”

Lin Ran dismissed his thoughts, they did have true qi in their bodies that was very similar to his own, but if he thought back carefully he would find that their true qi was still different from his own.

At least if the true qi within Lin Ran’s body was the same as his own, then there would be absolutely no need for him to help with the poison, he would be able to handle it completely on his own.

This point would at least prove one thing, that the true qi in each person’s body would still be slightly different.

“Ding Ding Ding!”

As he was thinking, suddenly Lin Ran’s mobile phone was ringing, picking it up and looking at it he couldn’t help but smile, it was actually Song Nuan calling.

“What’s wrong dear? Did you miss me?”

Lin Ran was still in a good mood and asked with a smile.

“Bah! Greasy mouth, I know you haven’t slept, come to the nearby Ya Xiang Hotel, my cousin wants to see you!”

Song Nuan said somewhat reluctantly on the phone.

“Cousin? You have a cousin?”

Lin Ran was surprised, he had never heard Song Nuan say anything about her having a cousin.

“Yeah, I also just found out that I have a cousin, and he’s also a peer of yours, so be prepared, this guy’s eyes are higher than yours and might make you angry!”

Song Nuan cautiously reminded.

Lin Ran nodded at his words, followed by hanging up the phone, and then left the clinic with Wang Yifeng.

“I say, it’s a big night and Big Sister is inviting us to a restaurant, this is the rhythm of a midnight snack!”

Wang Yifeng said excitedly as he drove, his mouth unconsciously drooling at the corners.

“As soon as you mention food, you’re so out of breath, you’re a reincarnation of a hungry ghost!”

Lin Ran said helplessly, this guy simply could not give up only food and beauty, as long as he saw food or beauty, he immediately had to drool and could not walk.

But Wang Yifeng was justified and said.

“Why, the people to food for heaven, food is concerned about the colour and flavor, as the so-called food colour sex also, the nature of men”

“All right, all right, what calamity, here is the place!”

Lin Ran lazy to pay attention to him, reminded, the latter parked the car, and then the two of them got out of the car.

.....

The Ya Xiang Hotel, Lin Ran often came here, plus he had the Supreme Diamond Card here, so many people in the hotel knew him, after all, if such a valuable guest was not well entertained, then he would be out of a job.

Surrounded by a group of beautiful waiters, Lin Ran went straight to the private room on the first floor in a very high-profile manner, but Lin Ran wanted to keep a low profile, but his strength did not allow it.

When they arrived at the door of the private room, they easily sent the beautiful service eyes away, but the beautiful foreman refused to go at any time, and said.

“Mr. Lin, you let me wait here, in case you need it? This is also my job can also ask you to cooperate more!”

“Hey, people’s beautiful women have said so, so you can suffer, who made you Luo Ming’s son-in-law-to-be!”

Wang Yifeng flirted with a smile.

The next wall was Song Nuan, if this was heard, Lin Ran was afraid that going down to the frying pan and frying it wouldn’t be enough to explain.

“Fine, then you can stay here!”

Lin Ran had no choice but to push the door in with Wang Yifeng.

The private room was large and had obviously been purposely chosen, but what made Lin Ran differ was that there were only two people in the entire room, Song Nuan and a youth, which was really a little too deliberate.

In order to invite himself to dinner, he had specifically found such a large private room, was he showing off his wealth, or had his wealth already risen to such a high level.

“You’re here, have a seat!”

Song Nuan got up and smiled, Lin Ran and Wang Yifeng also didn’t make it polite, especially the latter seeing the table full of dishes, this eyes could not move away long ago.

“Xiao Nuan, I think this is the Lin Ran that uncle was talking about!”

The youth got up and looked at Lin Ran and smiled.

“That’s right!”

Song Nuan nodded her head at his words, but her face had a smile that she couldn’t help, she hadn’t seen him for so many days, she really missed Lin Ran too.

“Hey, you kid have good eyes, you can recognise him at a glance!”

Next to him, Wang Yifeng stuffed a large piece of roast pork into his mouth, his mouth full of oil.

“Not bad, it’s not hard to guess, the young talent that even Uncle Song has his eye on shouldn’t look like you!”

The youth laughed blandly, his expression was still kind, but there was contempt and dislike in his eyes.

“Hey, how can you say that? It’s a blessing to be able to eat, I love to eat and I’ve offended no one!”

Wang Yifeng said discontentedly.

Lin Ran noticed the contempt in the youth’s eyes and laughed blandly.

“This friend of mine is true to his nature and is quite to my liking, at least he is more truthful than some people who appear to be one thing but are one thing behind the scenes!”

With that Lin Ran let go of his hand, followed by wiping his palm with a tissue, before sitting down.

The words were not much, but they really made the young man in front of him look ugly for a few moments, and the later action of wiping his hands made his face even more gloomy.

Seeing that the atmosphere was a little off, Song Nuan opened his mouth full and laughed.

“Let me introduce, this is my cousin, Song Yuntian, the same age as us, graduated from the medical university in the imperial capital, and coincidentally, like you, also studied Chinese medicine!”

Chapter 448

“Imperial Capital Medical University, excellent graduate of the Chinese Medicine Department, I wonder if brother Lin Ran is?”

Song Yuntian asked with a smile, in fact he knew very well in his mind the school Lin Ran graduated from, but asked anyway.

“Didn’t my father say all that?”

Song Nuan looked at Song Yuntian in surprise, his father had only just left, he had said he wanted to meet Lin Ran earlier, but had a temporary meeting and left first.

“I don’t have a good memory, I forgot!”

Song Yuntian laughed, while looking at Lin Ran with no intention of skipping the topic.

Lin Ran’s comeback just now had made him uncomfortable in his heart, and as he had a high and arrogant personality, he naturally wanted to find an opportunity to return the favour.

“Since Brother Yun Tian wants to know, then I’ll just talk about it!”

Lin Ran smiled lightly and followed.

“The university I graduated from is near here, Tamkang University, Department of Traditional Chinese Medicine, and I’m not a merit graduate!”

“Ao!”

Song Yuntian smiled in a daze, but followed with a laugh.

“They say that the Chinese medicine department in Tamkang is not comparable to the one in the imperial capital, I am curious, what is the graduation rate of the Chinese medicine department in your school? Also how many of them are engaged in their profession after graduation?”

Song Nuan’s face suddenly sank at his words and interjected.

“Cousin, that’s an uncouth question, how many people work in their own professions after graduating from university, don’t many people switch to other professions to make a living, how can you ask that!”

“No, no, no, although what you said is also true, but from the graduation rate and the participation rate in their own jobs after graduation can still tell how good or bad a school is!”

Song Yuntian laughed, not giving Song Nuan the slightest chance to skip the topic.

“Haha!”

Lin Ran couldn't help but laugh at the situation and spoke.

"How many tier cities is Temperance City?"

"Third tier!"

Song Yuntian laughed.

"What about the Imperial Capital?"

Lin Ran asked again.

"Naturally, it's a super first tier existence!"

Song Yuntian said with a confident face, he had already trampled Lin Ran underfoot on this point alone.

Lin Ran did not care and continued to laugh.

"A super tier one existence has an entry score line that is at least a large amount lower than that of a third tier city like Tamkang, and the same goes for graduation scores, so naturally the graduation rate in the imperial capital is higher than that of Tamkang."

"Secondly, the super tier one cities are all crushing the third tier city of Temagami in terms of the number and quality of companies, or jobs, and the connections of students' families, so the essential employment rate after graduation is naturally much higher than that of Temagami!"

"So what do you think these figures tell us?"

Said Lin Ran, looking towards Song Yuntian and said blandly.

"If I remember correctly, when we graduated last year, the graduation rate in Imperial City was ninety-eight percent, while the rate in Temagami City was ninety percent!"

"The essential employment rate after graduation was sixty percent in the imperial capital, while it was forty percent in Tamagawa City!"

"Other things aside, it's true that the Imperial Capital's figures crush Temagami City, but what if we take into account the factors I just mentioned?"

Lin Ran said, pouring himself a cup of tea, while Wang Yifeng, who was on the side, said at just the right time.

"Think carefully! A place where there are family members arranging jobs and looking for connections right from graduation, the essential employment rate is only twenty percentage points higher than ours, how does this feel like we have glory despite our defeat!"

"You!"

Song Yuntian's face sank at his words, but he was somewhat speechless, Lin Ran's analysis was indeed justified, leaving him with no way to refute it.

"Moreover, data is just data, everything depends on yourself!"

Lin Ran put down his tea cup, looked at Song Yuntian and asked with a smile.

“In terms of the current number of famous Chinese medicine practitioners in China, has Brother Yuntian ever counted how many are from Temperance University and how many are from the Imperial City?”

“I

Song Yuntian was dumbfounded, how could he have counted this.

“I’ll tell you!”

Lin Ran smiled lightly before saying.

“There are eighteen famous Chinese medicine experts on the register of Temperance University, while the famous Chinese medicine experts on the register of Imperial Capital University are only eight! And these are still the ones trained by the Imperial Capital University before wrapping up the city of Temperance University!”

“You! How do you know so well!”

Song Yuntian’s face became even more ugly this time, Lin Ran’s words were simply a real slap in the face.

“Because, I’m an honours graduate and an even more humble student!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“A scholar from a humble family?”

Song Yuntian was stunned, somewhat confused as to what Lin Ran meant.

“The same are both first-class Chinese medicine universities, the score line in Tamkang City is nearly a hundred points higher than yours, try to ask if we have a chance to compare with you without fighting hard?”

“Whether it’s the employment opportunities after graduation or the ability to join a company in every aspect, Tamagawa City is not as good as your Imperial City, and the opportunities are far less than yours, if we don’t work harder, after graduation, even if you want to work in your own job, do you have a chance?”

“Lastly, do you know why Temagami City is not ranked as well as Teito, but is famous for twice as many experts as you are?”

“That’s because, basically, these experts come from humble backgrounds, they know from a young age that knowledge changes destiny and still study hard even when they enter the workforce, but how many of the students in the imperial capital still work hard after entering the workforce?”

“I don’t deny that there are some, but what if we take out 100,000 people for comparison? The base is large and the final result is stark!”

Said here, Lin Ran blandly glanced at Song Yuntian and finally said.

“It doesn’t matter where you go to school, what matters is whether you want to succeed or not, the school can only give you knowledge, its fame doesn’t really have much to do with you yet!”

“Good!”

After Lin Ran finished his words, Song Nuan couldn't help but clap his hands and shout in approval, even Wang Yifeng who was at the side couldn't help but put down his chopsticks and gave Lin Ran a thumbs up.

“Ranzi, when the hell did you become so eloquent, when you pick up girls, how come you always get picked up, this is not like you!”

Wang Yifeng couldn't help but say.

“I”

When Lin Ran heard this he suddenly screamed that it was not good, and sure enough, the next moment Song Nuan looked over and asked with a frown.

“Pick up girls? Since when did you pick up girls? And still being picked up? You're not losing your charm!”

“No No you listen to my explanation, I'm all passive, really!”

Lin Ran said busily, however it was obvious that this explanation would not be believed by Song Nuan at all.

“Humph! I don't have time to talk to you now, when I'm free to go back, we'll settle the score, you wait!”

Song Nuan said indignantly.

Lin Ran, however, listened to the black lines, his gaze fell on Wang Yifeng like a killer, he knew this guy was going to say something, and as expected, something really happened this time.

But luckily, when Song Nuan was done, I'm afraid this matter would be forgotten to the clouds, he himself just had to be careful at least not to be thrown into the frying pan and blown up.

“Well, I wonder if Brother Yuntian has any more questions?”

Lin Ran smiled and looked towards Song Yuntian, trying his best to digress from the topic.

Song Wen Yuntian was dazed by Lin Ran's analysis just now, but there was one thing he could see, he had sort of lost this round again, but rather, he had lost it quite thoroughly.

“Brother Lin Ran, forgive me for being nosy, I am curious to know your current income, after all, you also said that you are a student from a cold family, and you know what conditions our Xiaonuan is in!”

“I've heard slightly that you seem to be dating, so I had to ask a few more questions!”

Song Yuntian laughed, but there was a look of smugness in his eyes, coming from a cold family, comparing family to money, he could always win this round!

Chapter 449

“Cousin, my father doesn't even care about this matter, why are you still asking about it!”

Song Nuan said unhappily, how could she not see her cousin's small mind, having been defeated in front of Lin Ran, how could he swallow this anger, clearly wanting to take the opportunity to strike revenge.

"Hey! How can you say that, uncle loves you regardless of this, but I as a cousin naturally have to help you keep a strict eye on things!"

Said Song Yuntian, looking towards Lin Ran and laughing.

"Brother Lin Ran, you don't mind, you know clearly what status our little Nuan has, talk about your own!"

Lin Ran smiled helplessly as he shook his head and followed with a sip of tea before saying.

"I always thought that this question would be asked to me by Uncle Song himself, but I never thought it would actually be a cousin!"

Saying this, Lin Ran put his tea cup down and continued.

"My family is in Qinghewan, a small mountain village around Tanjiang City, my parents died at an early age, and my grandmother and I are dependent on each other, and that's all I have!"

"As for work, I run a clinic in Tamkang City, although my income is not high, I still have no problem with food and clothing!"

"I don't know, Brother Yun Tian, what else do you want to know?"

"Ranzi, you are worth a lot of money."

On the side, Wang Yifeng listened with a slight frown and was busy speaking, this guy talked a lot, but he skipped over his own body, just his body, I'm afraid if he took it out and casually talked about it, there would have to be a group of girls around, but this guy just did not talk about it.

"Eat your rice, if you keep talking nonsense, I'll make the waiter withdraw!"

Lin Ran glared at Wang Yifeng, this guy had just shaken out the story of himself being picked up and almost got himself killed, at this moment he actually dared to interject.

"Er I'll eat I'll eat!"

Knowing that he had just caused trouble, Wang Yifeng did not dare to talk nonsense, and immediately buried his head and ate.

"O, no more! People, living is work life, since the family and work are finished, then naturally I, as a cousin, must also say a few words!"

Song Yuntian laughed, followed by raising his finger and pointing at Wang Yifeng, who was on the side, and smiling at Lin Ran.

"Do you know how much this dish that your friend ate is worth?"

"I don't know!"

Lin Ran smiled back.

“This dish is called Fish Leaping Dragon Gate, it’s a signature dish of the Ya Xiang Hotel, using the finest large carp, the whole dish is priced at three thousand eight hundred, signifying Fa Fa Fa Fa!”

Saying that, Song Yuntian had pointed to another dish.

“This dish is called Fortune Tree, which is made from imported cherries from abroad with the finest snow lotus, priced at two thousand three!”

“There’s also this dish

Song Yuntian introduced all the dishes on the table one by one, before smiling.

“The total value of this table of dishes is at twenty thousand, I would like to ask, if my cousin married you, let’s not say every day, could we eat such dishes once a month?”

“Cousin!”

Song Nuan was upset at his words and retorted.

“I’m not a rice bucket, why would I eat so many dishes every day!”

“You don’t understand that!”

Song Yuntian laughed.

“How a woman’s taste is often related to the environment she lives in, it’s not that women make the goods, or the goods make the women, do you think an uncle wants to see the princess in his eyes, turn into Cinderella?”

“But I don’t care about that!”

Song Nuan said.

“You don’t care, but marriage is a matter between two families, can you guarantee that others don’t care? What do you make uncle’s relatives and friends think?”

Song Yuntian laughed, and Song Nuan was suddenly speechless.

“So, do you think you have what it takes to be with my cousin?”

Song Yuntian turned to look at Lin Ran and asked with a smile.

Lin Ran put his tea cup down and looked at the other party before laughing.

“Let’s not say for the moment that I can afford this, but there is one thing I can guarantee, all the dishes on this table, I can learn and make sure she can eat them at home!”

“Secondly, I also advise you to eat at restaurants less often, your own cooking will always be clean in the mouth!”

Saying that, Lin Ran took out a tissue and wiped his hands before saying.

“Lastly, you shouldn’t read the news often, especially the news of Temperance City!”

“News?”

Song Yuntian was stunned at his words, he indeed didn't watch the news for a long time, he was busy working at the hospital every day, and after work he was even surrounded by beautiful women at the bar, the news don't tease, it wasn't the way of life that a rich second generation like him liked.

"Looks like that's right."

Lin Ran smiled and got up, while looking at Song Yuntian afterwards and said.

"Young man, read more books, read more newspapers, drink less beer and sleep more! Otherwise, you will be a drop of water slapped to death on the beach in the future, and I'm afraid there is no place for you in the title of Chinese medicine expert!"

With that, Lin Ran snapped his fingers at the door, and immediately the beautiful foreman waiting outside walked in.

"Greetings, Mr. Lin, what can I do for you!"

The beautiful foreman said respectfully, this scene made Song Yuntian's face look stunned, when he and Song Nuan had come before they were only received by the beautiful waiter, where was the foreman.

The other party, with this look, had obviously been waiting outside the door for a long time, this treatment really surprised him.

Lin Ran glanced at Song Yuntian before smiling.

"I'll pay for the meal at this table!"

"But the money this young lady's father has already resulted!"

The beautiful foreman was a little hesitant, as the money for this table's meal was the one that had already been settled when Song Yujiang left.

"No buts!"

Lin Ran said as he took out the Supreme Diamond Card from his pocket and handed it to the other party, then said.

"Take the money my old man settled and refund it to my daughter-in-law, this card should have that right!"

The beautiful foreman took the Supreme Diamond Card and immediately sucked in a cold breath of fright as she hurriedly nodded and went out to make the arrangements.

She only knew that Lin Ran was a valued guest, but she had no idea that Lin Ran had such a card, if she had known, she wouldn't have asked these idiotic questions at all.

Lin Ran turned around and saw that Wang Yifeng had almost finished eating as well, and looked at Song Nuan and smiled.

"Go home early later, hurry back when you're done, there's not many days left until school starts!"

Said Lin Ran and greeted Wang Yifeng as he prepared to leave.

“Wait, who the hell are you?”

Song Yuntian saw this and got up to ask, this last gesture from Lin Ran was really not as poor as he had said before, which made him very suspicious and unhappy in his heart.

“Lin Ran!”

Lin Ran turned around and said indifferently, before straightening his clothes and smiling.

“Young man, just because someone’s family is poor and comes from a poor background doesn’t mean anything, you have nothing to be proud of even if you come from a good background, it’s all because your father made the kingdom, it has nothing to do with you!”

“You are rich to me, but do you know what I am to you?”

“What is it?”

Song Yuntian said with an ugly face, although what Lin Ran said was hard to hear, it was indeed so true.

“I’m the rich generation to you, it’s the next generation of Xiao Nuan and I that will be the rich second generation just like you!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“You!”

Song Yuntian was so angry at his words that his face turned blue.

Lin Ran, however, continued to laugh.

“For the sake of you being Xiao Nuan’s cousin, I don’t want to get into it with you, but next time bring your brain before you go out!”

Said Lin Ran, pointing at the table.

“Otherwise people will think you’re the same as tonight’s meal!”

“What do you mean?”

Song Yuntian frowned, not understanding exactly what Lin Ran meant by this statement.

Wang Yifeng, who was at the side, saw this and immediately laughed.

“Are you really stupid or not? He’s paying the bill for the meal, so you’re just eating for nothing! Do idiots understand? Do I need to explain?”

Chapter 450

“You!”

Song Yunwei was so surprised that he almost didn’t spurt out a mouthful of old blood, while Song Nuan couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

“I haven’t seen you for a few days, you’ve learned quite a lot!”

“Alright, go home early and rest, hurry back when you’re done with things at home!”

Lin Ran laughed, then came close to Song Nuan’s ear and whispered.

“I miss you!”

“Cut! I don’t believe you, just now you said you were being picked up by another woman, and now you’re saying I miss you!”

Song Nuan pouted with an I-don’t-believe-it look.

“Er

Lin Ran was helpless and scratched his head awkwardly, he thought this had already passed, but he didn’t expect Song Nuan to still think about it, it was really true to the saying, don’t offend women by offending anyone, I’m afraid this stunt will not pass for a while.

“So what, it’s getting late, we’ll go back first!”

Lin Ran laughed awkwardly, and immediately greeted Wang Yifeng as he prepared to leave.

But just then, Song Yuntian stepped out from his seat and blocked in front of the two.

“Wait a minute!”

Song Yuntian spoke.

“What’s the matter? Want to fight?”

Seeing the other party’s gloomy face, Wang Yifeng immediately rolled up his sleeves, having eaten and drank enough this was a good time to move his muscles.

“Who wants to fight with you!”

Song Yuntian gave Wang Yifeng a blank look, followed by fetching a card that resembled an envelope from his pocket and handed it to Lin Ran.

“This is the Chinese Medicine Forum to be held tomorrow afternoon at the Research Building, do you dare to attend?”

“A Chinese medicine forum?”

Lin Ran frowned slightly at his words, he had heard of this forum, every year the Chinese medicine community would hold such a forum, aiming to allow the younger generation of Chinese medicine students to exchange and showcase themselves at the same time.

One of the biggest features was the sharing and exchange of results, where everyone had to come up with their results papers and give a speech on stage, followed by expert comments, a sort of exchange meeting for the Chinese medicine community.

“That’s right, this year’s venue is in Tamkang City, and that’s why I’m here in Tamkang City!”

Song Yuntian sneered, then raised the invitation in his hand and sneered.

“They say you’re the little divine doctor of Tamkang City, I’d like to compare myself with you to see which of us has a deeper understanding of Chinese medicine!”

Just now he had taken the opportunity to search the internet, which made him realise what a reputation this Lin Ran in front of him had in Tanjiang City, he himself was equally high-minded and arrogant, so naturally he was not willing to concede defeat.

Lin Ran glanced at Song Yuntian indifferently, before saying.

“Sorry, I’m not interested!”

After saying that, he turned around and was about to leave.

“Are you afraid of not daring?”

Song Yuntian sneered at this, his heart couldn’t help but rejoice, he had been pressured by Lin Ran all night, and at this moment he finally saw the opportunity to trample his opponent under his feet in return.

He didn’t have much ill will towards Lin Ran after all, mainly because this guy had surpassed himself in everything, whether it was the school competition at the beginning or the price competition later on.

The only family competition he had was the rich generation, which really made him feel very stifled in his heart and wanted to find one he was good at to win against Lin Ran for once.

A man like him, with a high and arrogant heart, naturally did not want to admit that he was inferior to his opponent, which was simply worse than killing him.

Lin Ran smiled and raised his head to look at Song Yuntian, his eyes not wavering in the slightest as he said blandly.

“I’m very busy, this kind of interest class, I’m not interested in attending!”

With that, he turned around and left the room.

“I think you’re just scared, you were talking quite arrogantly just now, all sorts of reasoning, but now that you’re really going to compete, aren’t you still scared!”

Song Yuntian turned around and shouted, yet Lin Ran was simply ignoring him, which made him extremely upset.

“Wimp! You’re just a wimp!”

Song Yuntian shouted in mockery.

However, Lin Ran left the room as if he hadn’t heard him.

“Show it to me, Fat Master!”

Wang Yifeng, who was next to him, took the invitation as soon as he could and greeted Song Nuan, following which he also left the private room.

“This kid is so provocative, are you really not going to attend?”

Outside the hotel, Wang Yifeng raised the invitation in his hand and asked.

“Not going!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, without the slightest hesitation.

“Why?”

Wang Yifei was puzzled, according to Lin Ran’s character, if it was any other time, he would have said yes long ago, and this was still an exchange meeting of the Chinese medicine community, so it was reasonable to say that he should be interested in it too.

“No reason, there’s not enough time!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

“O!”

Wang Yifeng seemed to understand something at his words and stopped persuading.

The current situation in the entire Temperance City was extremely complicated, with the imminent change at the Ten Thousand Ren Mountains, the Compulsion Pavilion likely to be out in full force, even the Jain of the Imperial Qin Family had rushed over, as well as the mysterious Lin Ran that he had encountered in the crevice this afternoon.

All signs pointed to the fear that something big would happen in Tanjiang City, and it was really a bit of a bad time for him to go to an exchange meeting of the Chinese medicine community.

Although Elder Sage had said that the change at Wan Ren Mountain would take half a month, and there were still almost ten days until now, Lin Ran did not really want to focus on the Chinese medicine exchange at this time.

After all, there were still many things that he hadn’t fully understood.

Who exactly was that mysterious Ling Sa, what did the plum blossom pattern on her cheek mean, how many people would be deployed from the Compulsion Pavilion this time, and how many secret forces would come from Temperance City by then, in addition to the Jain Old Man and other such overt forces.

These were the things he was most worried about.

Most importantly, it had been a long time since Qingniu himself, the old son of Qinghewan, had been there, and whether the feng shui master from back then was still alive were all things he needed to consider.

Suddenly Lin Ran found that he seemed to have fallen into another whirlwind after obtaining the Xuan Yang Pill Canon. Although he possessed many skills that ordinary people did not have, he also seemed to have fallen into another, even more frightening, jianghu.

The next morning, Lin Ran and Wang Yifeng had just got up and opened the clinic’s door when Qin Bing Li Zheng and the others were already neatly guarding the door.

What surprised Lin Ran even more was that Dean Yang had also come over.

On the first floor of the clinic, Lin Ran personally made a cup of tea for Dean Yang, before smiling and asking.

“Dean Yang, why are you still here in person?”

“Haha, why can’t I come to you if there’s nothing wrong?”

Dean Yang took a sip of his tea before laughing.

“Of course not!”

Lin Ran laughed, although Dean Yang said that, he could still tell that the latter had a sad look on his brow clearly because he had something to find himself.

“Alright, old man I won’t beat around the bush, let’s get straight to the point, after the medical team went back yesterday I probably know the situation in that village, you did a good job this time!”

Said Dean Yang even saw the prescription out and laughed.

“This time this prescription of yours has saved a lot of lives, after I reported to the higher-ups, I did a mapping of the villagers around Wan Ren Shan, and found that there are many other villages where this situation has also appeared!”

“But today I’ve sent several medical teams out, as well as medical teams sent from other hospitals, so I think that soon the condition in these villages will be under control!”

“Is that so?”

Lin Ran was taken aback at his words, he hadn’t thought that there were other villages that had also experienced this situation, it was true that as the time for the change in the Ten Thousand Rengshan Mountains got closer and closer, the frequency of various situations had also increased.

“Alright, let’s not talk about that! Look at this thing!”

Dean Yang waved his hand with a smile before taking out an envelope-like item from his arms, and Lin Ran couldn’t help but frown at it at first glance.

This thing was a smudge of the same invitation as the one Li Yuntian had taken out last night, the same invitation to the Chinese medicine community exchange meeting.
