

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 521

“Lin Ran he is .....

Dai Yin’s face sank, before he could finish his words, followed by a “bang” sound, the door of the room of the people’s private room was immediately kicked open from the outside.

Three figures, one male and two female, walked in directly, and it was Wang Yifeng, Luo Qiqi and Qin Bing.

“Brother Lin Ran!”

“Ranzi!”

“Lin Ran!”

The three of them were in different moods when they saw Lin Ran in the room, but the same thing was that the three of them immediately had red circles around their eyes.

“Long time no see, did you miss me?”

Lin Ran looked at the three of them and smiled, his eyes were also red, having experienced life and death separations, only then did he understand how rare and precious it was to be together, perhaps this feeling could not be experienced by his group of high school classmates.

Lin Ran and the three hugged one by one, especially Wang Yifeng, after his own accident, the latter could imagine how much pressure he had taken on.

“You’ve got a tough life, and it’s a good thing it’s okay, otherwise I could have been glared at alive by the four of them!”

Wang Yifeng said with a handful of bitter tears.

“Well, since we’re back safely, let’s not talk about that!”

Qin Bing was busy changing the subject.

“Right, let’s not talk about that, let’s talk about the guy who barked on the phone just now!”

On the side, Luo Qiqi was holding Lin Ran’s arm, simply as cordial as she could be.

At this point, everyone present looked baffled, especially the few people who were targeting Lin Ran, led by Dai Yin, as well as Cai Peng and Wu Mengmeng.

It goes without saying how beautiful Luo Qiqi and Qin Bing were, but at this moment, they were standing next to Lin Ran, one on the left and one on the right, looking at the latter with a glowing gaze, especially Luo Qiqi who was even holding Lin Ran’s arm affectionately, not caring about the torn cotton jacket the latter was wearing.

This scene, simply how much to hit the face, a time Dai Yin Li Qiu and Ah Shui feel hot and hot on the cheeks, and Wu Meng Meng even look at the heart of a pain, is it true that they have looked away? The poor boy schoolmaster at the beginning had really made it big?

“Yes! I almost forgot about that, damn it! It was you who bullied my brother just now, wasn’t it!”

Wang Yifei took a glance at Ah Shui next to him, Dai Yin, a very cunning fellow, saw that things were not right and sat back in his place directly, only Ah Shui was still standing in the whole room, so Wang Yifei naturally aimed his spear at him.

“Who are you?”

Ah Shui asked in a cold voice with a grim face.

“Who am I? I am your grandfather!”

Wang Yifeng’s face suddenly turned cold, followed by an arrow step and arrived directly in front of Ah Shui, without any further ado, he raised his hand and slapped him.

“You!”

Ah Shui was also angry, but when he saw Wang Yifeng’s murderous gaze, the anger in his chest was held back.

“You’ve misunderstood, it wasn’t me!”

Ah Shui said with a red face, this fat man in front of him was not a frugal light at first glance, he was bending Dai Yin would not get this black pot for him.

“It’s ..... It’s him!”

Ah Shui pointed to Dai Yin who was sitting with his head down behind him.

“Bastard, you really fucking betrayed me!”

Dai Yin had that bitterness in his heart, but what else could he say, he had already been poked and prodded.

“Friend, I advise you to calm down a bit, we’re at a class reunion, you’re Lin Ran’s friend, we’re naturally friends too!”

Dai Yin was busy speaking up.

“Friends? A classmate reunion? You guys count as classmates too?”

Wang Yifeng swept his gaze over the crowd and instantly laughed.

“Mocking your own classmates, looking down on them in all sorts of ways, disliking them in all sorts of ways, and you guys have the nerve to call yourselves Renzi’s classmates? What, now that you’ve seen Master Fatty and are scared, you want to remember that you’re Renzi’s classmates? What the fuck have you been doing? Have you been eating shit?”

With that, Wang Yifeng stepped forward and pulled Dai Yin's collar, yanking him straight out of his position and scolding him.

"You're the one who just said that my brother is rotten to the core, right!"

"You .... What do you want!"

Dai Yin couldn't help but swallow his spit, no matter how bullying he was, he was only rich at home, where could he do anything halfway in the face of a socially mixed up asshole like Wang Yifeng.

"Not doing anything, I'll let you feel what it's like to be glued to the wall!"

Wang Yifei smiled brightly, then picked up Dai Yin and rushed over to the wall next to him, and with the force of his palm, he slapped Dai Yin against the wall with a "bang", his nose and teeth flowing all over the floor.

"You!"

Ah Shui was panicking and got up to help.

"Sit down!"

Wang Yifeng turned his head and scolded, and this shout directly scared Ah Shui's legs and made him do it again.

Seeing this scene, the crowd present couldn't help but gag, Lin Ran actually had such a humongous brother, but just now Dai Yin had taunted him like that, and he didn't even shout at someone in a rage.

Previously, the crowd still thought that Lin Ran was inferior and did not have any power, but now it seemed that perhaps he was the one who really treated them as classmates and was not willing to tear his face off, while all of them, who had previously disdained and mocked him, were simply like a jumping clown, acting out various jokes in front of others.

"Lin Ran, we're all classmates, tell your friend to stop!"

Li Qiu couldn't hold back any longer, she was the one who despised Lin Ran the most before, otherwise she wouldn't have urged Dai Yin to stop this reunion, she was also afraid that later on Lin Ran would turn the spear on herself.

"Fatty line up!"

Lin Ran spoke up.

"Damn, dare to bully my brother, next time I bump into you, shit will pinch out for you!"

Wang Yifei cursed with intent, then walked over to Lin Ran.

Ah Shui and Li Qiu rushed forward and snapped Dai Yin off the wall, and when they looked, holy shit! His teeth were almost finished breaking and he was covered in blood, it was as bad as it could be.

"Dingdong, the red packet is here!"

Suddenly, a sound that no one expected came over the table, and the crowd looked to find that it was actually from Dai Yin's phone.

"This is for your medical expenses, my friend beat you up, this is on me!"

Lin Ran looked at Dai Yin and said indifferently.

"You!"

Dai Yin gritted the few remaining teeth and looked at Lin Ran with anger in his eyes.

"Why aren't you convinced? Fight again?"

Wang Yifeng saw this and chided coldly, frightening Dai Yin so much that the ferocity in his eyes immediately turned into aggression.

"Alright, don't tease him!"

Lin Ran laughed and patted Wang Yifeng on the shoulder, before sweeping his gaze over the crowd and speaking.

"This is the end of today's matter, I still have something to do so I will leave first, as for whether or not you treat me Lin Ran as a classmate, it doesn't matter anymore, I have already seen clearly what kind of faces everyone here has, it is useless to say more, goodbye!"

After saying that, Lin Ran turned around and was about to leave, but to everyone's surprise, Dai Yin, who had been beaten the most, spoke up.

"No one is allowed to leave!"

"Something wrong?"

Lin Ran looked at Dai Yin and asked indifferently.

"You want to leave after beating me? Report your family if you have the guts, I, Dai Yin, am not beaten up for nothing!"

Dai Yin said in a cold voice, as a rich second generation, he was also proud of himself.

"I advise you not to ask again!"

Lin Ran said indifferently.

"What are you, declare yourself if you have the guts, or else I'll look down on you!"

"We don't need you to look down on us, because you're nothing in our eyes!"

To the side, Qin Bing said in a cold voice.

"Stinky bitch, who are you talking about ...."

Dai Yin cursed angrily, but before he could finish his sentence, a black shadow shot out with a whoosh, and then shoved it directly into Dai Yin's mouth.

Chapter 522

“Ranzi!”

On the side, Cai Peng saw what he really saw, that blow just now was exactly what Lin Ran personally threw out, this boldness and grasp of the force simply made him feel frightened.

“Watch your mouth, you can look down on me and mock me, but don’t aim your spear at Laozi’s woman!”

Lin Ran said in a cold voice, and as soon as those words left his mouth, everyone froze.

Laozi’s woman! These words clearly said Qin Bing and his Lin Ran’s woman again, what about Luo Qiqi who was holding his arm next to him? Could it also be .....

The reason why Lin Ran didn’t care about Wu Mengmeng’s attitude towards himself was because he didn’t care about her at all, and any one of these two people around him would be enough to throw Wu Mengmeng off by ten blocks.

“You want to know, right? Fine, I’ll introduce you!”

Lin Ran looked at Dai Yin and calmly said.

“This one, Wang Yifeng, my brother!”

“This one, Luo Qiqi my girlfriend!”

“This one, Qin Bing, also my girlfriend!”

“Wow!”

The moment these words were spoken, they instantly confirmed what everyone had suspected in their minds, and the gazes of the crowd all looked towards the two women, wanting to see if the two women would be moved to anger by Lin Ran’s excessive and even overbearing remarks.

However, they were all disappointed, the two women just stood there as if they hadn’t heard, still wearing a faint smile on their faces, as if this matter had nothing to do with them at all.

Followed by Lin Ran pointing at Qin Bing and rushing at Ah Shui.

“Don’t you suspect that the clinic is not mine, you should have seen her, she is the one in charge of the clinic!”

“You ....”

Ah Shui was momentarily speechless, he did recognise Qin Bing, he had seen the latter on several previous visits to the clinic.

Lin Ran pointed at Luo Qiqi again and smiled at Dai Yin.

“Don’t you want to work with the Luo family? She’s the princess of the Luo family, do you need me to introduce her to you?”

“Wow!”

As soon as those words left their mouths, everyone froze, the princess of the Luo family, this status made them gag.

As for Dai Yin, his mouth had grown in surprise, unable to utter a single word.

“O, he’s the one who just said he wanted to cooperate with our family!”

Luo Qiqi drifted off, glanced at Dai Yin, and shook her head afterwards.

“No, our family won’t work with him!”

“For ..... Why!”

Dai Yin was really panicked and asked busily.

This time back to China he just want to make a big show, and the target is exactly the Luo family, but now his own ambitions have not even started, but is about to fizzle out, where can he not be anxious.

Luo Qiqi smiled disgustedly and looked at him, and spoke.

“No reason, can’t see you, you’re too poor!”

You are too poor, what a simple and direct answer, but in the ears of the crowd it was sarcasm, the Dai Yin family is too poor, what about them? Wouldn’t they become a slum, but it was someone of that status who was Lin Ran’s girlfriend.

How high must Lin Ran’s status be then?

The crowd didn’t dare to think about how ironic the disdain, and dislike they had felt when they viewed Lin Ran before, was in retrospect.

“You’re talking to me about levels, is this the level you want?”

Lin Ran looked towards Dai Yin and said blandly.

“You!”

Dai Yin’s face turned red with anger, unable to utter a single word.

Lin Ran followed and swept his gaze over the crowd as he spoke.

“As usual, I treated you all as classmates, but you didn’t think so, so goodbye everyone!”

Saying that, Lin Ran turned his head to look at Cai Peng and smiled.

“Baozi, feel free to find me if you have any problems, old classmates, I’m still the same pickle-eating Lin Ran you know!”

“Ranzi!”

Cai Peng’s eyes were also red, how could he not see how much higher the current Lin Ran was than himself, but he didn’t have any attitude at all, and he even said such things.

“Lin Ran, we didn’t mean it either, don’t take it personally!”

Li Qiu was busy speaking up, by this point she was seeing how extraordinary Lin Ran was, then she was really posing to worship gold for so many years.

“No, thank you for your kindness, let me see clearly what face the so-called classmates are!”

Lin Ran laughed lightly and then asked curiously.

“I’m curious, I heard you got married to a coal boss, can you tell me the name?”

“Huh?”

Li Qiu was stunned at his words, followed by a slightly amused smile.

“That’s right, my husband’s name is Chen Niu, the chairman of Chen’s coal mining industry!”

“Hmm!”

Lin Ran smiled blandly at his words, followed by taking the business card out of his pocket and tossing it over.

“It’s him, right!”

“Huh?”

Li Qiu was stunned and busily took the business card to take a look, and immediately wondered.

“You .... How did you get his business card?”

“He gave it to me.”

Lin Ran said indifferently, then looked at Li Qiu with a sympathetic face and said.

“You’ve loved money all your life, but do you really know your husband? I’m afraid I don’t know him as well as I do, go back and ask your husband about that gold coloured Maserati, whether it was bought or rented!”

“You ..... What do you mean?”

Li Qiu’s heart trembled and a sense of foreboding rose up.

“Just go back and ask yourself!”

After saying that, Lin Ran stopped paying attention to her and turned to look at Wu Mengmeng on one side.

“Do you want to take revenge even on me?”

Looking at Lin Ran, there was complexity, and regret in Wu Mengmeng’s eyes.

Lin Ran shook his head and said blandly.

“Your condition is very serious, contact me anytime you need to, a doctor’s heart is unpleasant, seeing a doctor is urgent!”

After saying this, Lin Ran swept his gaze over the crowd once again, followed by a bitter smile as he turned around and walked towards the door.

Wang Yifeng and the others followed directly, not even bothering to glance at the crowd behind them.

“O yes!”

When he reached the door, Lin Ran suddenly stopped, turned around and said at Dai Yin.

“You don’t want to know what disease you have, I’ll tell you now!”

“On your wrists, on your neck, and on your exposed skin, there are many scar spots, it seems that your doctor abroad is not good, the smallpox is not completely cured, it will come back within the last month, take the time to go to the hospital!”

After saying that, Lin Ran turned around and left the private room.

“Smallpox?”

“You have smallpox?”

When the crowd heard this, they couldn’t help but take a few steps back, especially Li Qiu and Ah Shui, the two of them were closest to Dai Yin, and at this moment, they ran away as if they were running away.

“You guys! I don’t have smallpox, no!”

Dai Yin was busy explaining, but no one believed him at this point.

“Lin Ran, you bastard!”

Dai Yin cursed angrily in his heart, only he himself knew that he didn’t have smallpox at all.

“Stop right there!”

With his reputation at stake, he couldn’t hold back any longer and rushed towards the outside.

Seeing this, the crowd also followed, wanting to see what Dai Yin was up to.

However, as soon as the crowd rushed out of the private room and into the lobby, several security guards stopped the crowd.

Dai Yin thought he was going to pay for the meal and took out a pile of 100 and threw it straight over.

“This is still the meal money don’t need to find it!”

The crowd of security guards laughed at the sight of this, and one of the leaders laughed.

“You’re thinking too much, your meal money is free tonight!”

“Free? Why?”

Dai Yin asked with an icy cold face.

“Because Mr. Lin is our supreme member here, so it’s free, you can’t even settle the bill if you want to!”

The security guard laughed.

“Me!”

Dai Yin was so angry that he bared his teeth and looked towards the door, only to see that Lin Ran had already gotten into the car, accompanied by Wang Yifeng and the others.

It was a black Rolls Royce, a Phantom!

Chapter 523

“Hey hey, Ranzi, what kind of classmate are you, just now I heard that on the phone, you kid can actually put up with it for so long!”

In the car, Wang Yifeng said as he drove.

Lin Ran smiled helplessly at his words.

“They’re all high school classmates, we all come from bad backgrounds, except for that trouble-seeking Dai Yin, the others are actually quite nice, but they’re all just instigated by him!”

“Instigated? I don’t think so, if you are really upright, it’s useless to be instigated by others!”

Wang Yifeng held a different opinion.

“If many people make that choice, some of them will choose to do things they don’t like in order not to be isolated!”

Qin Bing expressed her opinion.

Luo Qiqi, on the other hand, was not listening at all, holding Lin Ran’s arm and playing with her phone by herself.

Lin Ran laughed and said.

“Actually, many of them aren’t bad in nature, it’s just that there are so two or three of them that keep mocking me!”

Said Lin Ran, digressing and laughing.

“By the way, who owns this Rolls Royce? It can’t be that it was driven especially for me!”

“Hey, you really don’t have to say it, it really wasn’t specially driven for you!”

Wang Yifeng laughed.

“The car is sister Kiki’s, this girl hasn’t been helping me much lately, she’s even gotten the family’s luxury car, really worthy of being my good sister!”

“Cut the crap, I don’t want to see you keep eating Brother Lin Ran’s for nothing!”

Luo Qiqi retorted as she put away her phone.

“Hey, what do you mean by that, what do you mean by eating him for nothing, when have I ever spent a penny of his money when I have hands and feet!”

Wang Yifeng was busy retorting.

“Alright, stop it, get down to business!”

Lin Ran laughed and interrupted the two, before Wang Yifeng laughed.

“We’ve been looking for you everywhere since your accident, but as you know, we couldn’t find you.”

“Luckily, later on, that Sage from Big Beauty Qin’s family came and said that you were still alive and should be able to come back on your own in a few days, so we just put our minds at ease!”

Speaking here, Luo Qiqi took over and continued.

“Later, we waited left and right and didn’t see you come back, instead, this fatty, idle at home every day, so I found a way to open a head company for him, so he could go out and make money, he can’t keep eating for nothing!”

“I’ll prove it, it’s true!”

Qin Bing laughed at the side.

“Open a company? What company!”

Lin Ran asked with a smile, he also wanted to know what kind of company Luo Qiqi had opened for Wang Yifeng, just this guy who couldn’t walk away when he saw beautiful food, who couldn’t do anything, who couldn’t eat anything left over, could still do a company?

“You listen carefully, the name of the company is, Tanjiang City Wang Fatty Psychic Consulting Co. Hey, isn’t it very handsome and nice!”

Wang Yifeng laughed smugly, and Luo Qiqi smiled at his words.

“Don’t listen to his bragging, it’s actually a company that specializes in solving all kinds of psychic events, this guy is not a professional ghost hunter, so he opened a professional counterpart to him!”

“Well, there’s nothing I’m not good at in face reading and ghost hunting!”

Wang Yifeng said proudly, but Qin Bing on the other side laughed.

“You’re just a detective, if you run into problems, you’ll still have to find Lin Ran!”

“I don’t like what you’re saying, what’s the relationship between me and Ranzi, if I run into problems, can Ranzi just sit back and do nothing? Besides, I’m also making money for everyone to spend, right?”

Wang Yifeng laughed, then stood up and looked at Luo Qiqi, smiling even wider.

“Sister Qiqi, didn’t you say yesterday that you were going to introduce me to my first client, who is it?”

“Who else could it be, my brother! He’s run into some trouble lately!”

Luo Qiqi said worriedly.

“Why didn’t you tell me earlier? I would have solved it for you!”

Wang Yifeng said, patting his chest.

“I’m just waiting for Lin Ran to come back, I don’t feel comfortable leaving you alone!”

Luo Qiqi said unapologetically.

“Hey, I’m sad you said that, I’m also very good, okay?”

Wang Yifeng said discontentedly.

Lin Ran was helpless when he saw that they couldn’t chat for more than a couple of sentences before they started to fight, but at the same time he enjoyed the comfort of this tête-à-tête, this was the kind of friend he knew.

“Qin Bing.”

Lin Ran turned his head to look at Qin Bing.

“What’s wrong?”

Qin Bing looked over, with joy in his eyes, as well as anticipation.

“Did Sage say anything when he left?”

Lin Ran asked.

He didn’t actually know how things had turned out back then at the Ten Thousand Rengshan Mountains, and he hadn’t seen whether Compass Yang had died or not after falling off the cliff with Ling Sa, as well as what happened to the other forces in the end.

“Sage didn’t say anything, at first he just asked me to go back with him, but I refused, then he just told me to be good and if I ran into something I couldn’t solve, I must go back to him!”

Qin Bing said and thought about it again, adding.

“O yes, Sage also said that you should always keep a low profile, it’s very important to you!”

“Keep a low profile?”

Lin Ran frowned slightly at his words, but he could vaguely guess what Sage meant.

Back then, when he had vaguely heard Compass Yang and the others chatting, he had said something about the branches of the Feng Shui forces, and it seemed that the central region was led by a few of their major clans, and Compass Yang’s Compass Pavilion as well as the Ghost Doctor Sect and the Plum Blossom Sect.

The whole of China is a vast place, and all kinds of masters are hidden in the crouching tiger, so it’s always good to keep a low profile.

“I’ll have to go out sometime, so I can get to know the so-called feng shui rivers and lakes!”

Lin Ran said in his heart, as far as he could see, the feng shui world was still too small, he only knew about the Compulsion Pavilion and other powers, as well as the Qin and Yue families in the imperial capital, but the rest was completely dark.

But he didn't know whether Compulsion Yang was dead or not, but one thing was clear to him, and that was that, at least for the time being, the Compulsion Pavilion could no longer afford to make any waves.

"By the way, Elder Sage also told me to tell you that Compulsion Yang is not dead, so that you should be more careful!"

Qin Bing suddenly spoke up, followed by a worried follow-up question.

"Who is Compulsion Yang? Is it someone who is against you?"

"It's alright, it's just a defeat under him, don't worry!"

Lin Ran laughed.

He didn't let the four girls know about these matters, the more he knew the more he would only worry about himself.

"Well, it's good that you have it in your own mind!"

Qin Bing smiled, she didn't want to interfere too much with Lin Ran's affairs, as long as the latter was safe and sound, she would be content.

"By the way, I just remembered a question!"

Suddenly, Luo Qiqi, who was having a heated discussion with Wang Yifeng, suddenly spoke up.

"What's the problem?"

The crowd couldn't help but look over, wondering what problem this nee-san had remembered again.

Luo Qiqi glanced at Lin Ran, then rushed to Qin Bing and said.

"Sister Qin Bing, did this guy just say that we all came to be his girlfriend?"

"Hmm? Seems like it!"

Qin Bing was busy nodding her head, following which both of their gazes looked at Lin Ran with an unkind look.

Chapter 524

"No ..... You guys listen to my explanation, I'm just pretending to be a bully, you guys don't take it seriously ah!"

Lin Ran was busy explaining, but at this point it was already a little too late to explain.

The two people up and down the hands, rushed Lin Ran and pinch and twist, and even tickled, a time to make Lin Ran cry and laugh, tears are flowing down.

"And bragging, two girlfriends, why don't you say you have four girlfriends!"

Luo Qiqi said indignantly.

"Four is too few, I'd say I'd have to say I have at least a dozen to make it work!"

Qin Bing chimed in.

“No, no, a dozen is too many, just seven or eight, I’m afraid I won’t be able to bear it since there are more!”

Lin Ran said busily.

The two women looked at each other, and then increased the strength of their hands a few more times, twisting Lin Ran to tears and laughter.

“Hey, hey, I protest, this is the car there are outsiders, can not consider the feelings of the fat master!”

Wang Yifeng said speechlessly.

“Protest is invalid, concentrate on having fun!”

Luo Qiqi casually said back, hearing Wang Yifeng dumbfounded for a while.

“You guys are too much, as soon as the guy comes back, you spread dog food, is it easy for me to lose weight, you guys are really, hey!”

The first thing you should do is to take a look at the website and see what you have to say.

It was eleven o’clock in the evening when they returned to the clinic. After sending Qin Bing and Luo Qiqi home, Lin Ran and Wang Yiming returned to the clinic.

On the way, Lin Ran also learned that Song Nuan and Su Rou had already started school, and the latter’s mood had also recovered, without the gloomy mood she had when she first returned, so she thought that she would be able to fully recover after a few days at school.

When he thought about Su Rou’s family affairs, Lin Ran also felt that there is no choice in family origin, so when it comes to such things, he can only help if he can, the rest still depends on Su Rou herself.

The next morning, there was no more talk.

Li Zheng and the others came to work at the clinic early, the clinic was more crowded after the New Year than before, after half a year of operation, the name was gradually made out, many citizens of Tanjiang knew that there was a clinic near the university city, with excellent medical skills and affordable prices, and they were all willing to come here for medical treatment.

“Let’s go!”

At the entrance of the clinic, Luo Qiqi greeted, Song Nuan and Su Rou couldn’t come over at school, and Qin Bing still had to look after the clinic’s business, so the three of them were left today.

“Let’s go!”

Lin Ran greeted Qin Bing and left the clinic with Wang Yifeng and Luo Qiqi, heading straight for Luo Cheng.

Speaking of Luo Cheng, Lin Ran hadn't seen him for a long time, ever since he started to undergo the family's test, this guy had been so busy that he hadn't seen his head, if it wasn't for Luo Qiqi finding him this time, I'm afraid that I wouldn't have known when we would be able to meet.

According to Luo Qiqi, her brother has recently been managing a holiday resort business, which seems to be a joint venture with others, and the family has let him take the lead on his own in order to sharpen his operational and management skills.

The three of them drove, under the guidance of Luo Qiqi, and arrived at the so-called holiday lodge an hour later.

It was said to be a mountain resort, but it was actually a mountain house built in the suburbs, but the surrounding environment was quite beautiful, so there were quite a few guests coming here, and there were even several luxury cars listening at the entrance.

"Brother Lin Ran!"

As soon as the car stopped, Luo Cheng ran over with a smile, having received news of his sister, he had come out especially to wait for Lin Ran.

"Brother Luo, long time no see!"

Looking at Luo Cheng, Lin Ran smiled, but then he frowned slightly and opened his mouth to ask.

"Has Brother Luo been troubled recently? There are so many bloodshot eyes."

"Ai, it's a long story, let's go in and talk about it!"

Luo Cheng sighed, and Lin Ran nodded at his words.

Although he knew that something was wrong with Luo Cheng's business this time, he didn't think that this problem could force the always competent Luo Cheng into this.

"It seems that this time, I'm afraid that things are not simple."

Lin Ran muttered to himself in his mind.

"Get lost! What the fuck is this place, I'll take your surname if I get any older!"

Just as the four were walking towards the inside of the mountain villa, suddenly there was a commotion coming from the entrance, and Lin Ran and the others saw that a cursing youth in dishevelled clothes got into a car and followed it away.

As the car passed by, a few points clearly all saw that the youth's clothes were not uncommonly unkempt, but seemed to have been torn by something, a white shirt with torn strips of cloth all along it, hanging from it.

"What's going on here, Brother Luo?"

Lin Ran asked in amazement, how such a thing could happen in a nice holiday lodge was a bit perplexing.

"Ai, I don't know either, if I knew I wouldn't have asked my little sister to bother you brother Lin Ran!"

Luo Cheng said helplessly.

“Let’s go, we’ll talk about it as we walk!”

Luo Cheng greeted, and the group swirled towards the inside of the holiday villa, while also telling Lin Ran the original story of what had happened.

It turned out that this mountain resort was not run by the Luo family, but by a partner family of the Luo family, called the Li family.

However, this Li family chose a person who was not capable of running the business, and the entire mountain resort was almost closed down. Since the mountain resort was jointly funded by the Li family and the Luo family, the Luo family took over the management rights and gave it to Luo Cheng to hone his management skills.

In less than a month after he accepted the job, the number of people at the lodge had increased significantly, and in just three months it had turned a loss into a profit, which showed the Luo family that he was capable.

But just a few days ago, the lodge was not at peace.

“At first there were guests saying that they had bumped into a ghost in the middle of the night and only had a head but no body, but then there were guests saying that they saw severed limbs of a human body when they were walking at night, this matter so time has spread!”

Said Luo Cheng sighed and continued.

“For this, I have not spared much effort, what geologist, feng shui master I have hired all over the place, ultimately still no result, and recently these strange things are also more and more, even in broad daylight!”

Speaking here, Luo Cheng stopped, looked at Lin Ran and solemnly said.

“Brother Lin Ran, the operation of this mountain villa is a matter of my future, I’m counting on you this time!”

With that said Luo Cheng actually bowed at Lin Ran.

“There is no need for Brother Luo to be like this, since I am here I will naturally do my best!”

Lin Ran smiled as he helped Luo Cheng up, while Luo Qiqi, who was on the side, laughed.

“Brother, you don’t want to settle things with one bow, now we are setting up a company, this is our first business for you to open, so hey you know!”

Luo Qiqi gestured at Luo Cheng with her hand outstretched, the meaning was obvious, but one had to pay out money.

“You nee-san, when has brother ever been stingy with you, don’t worry, as long as this matter is settled, I will definitely not return the price if you say how much!”

Luo Cheng laughed.

“That’s what you said!”

Luo Qiqi smiled brightly, as if she was ready to lionize.

Just as the four were talking and laughing, suddenly Lin Ran’s face however tightened and he looked towards an antique arch-shaped door in front of him.

Chapter 525

A middle-aged man dressed in the robes of a Taoist priest was walking out from inside with a floating dust.

The middle-aged man was dignified and looked very dignified, but Lin Ran noticed that this man had a wisp of fierce aura in his seal, and there were a few subtle hints of brightness between his hands and feet, making him extremely uncomfortable to look at.

Even the moment the middle-aged man walked out, Lin Ran clearly felt that the temperature around him had dropped a few points, as if a large block of ice was walking towards himself and the others.

“Such a dense Yin Qi, actually on a man!”

Lin Ran’s heart sank, and he vaguely felt that this time, he feared that things would not be troublesome, but would be somewhat tricky.

“He’s Daoist Master Sequoia, a feng shui master hired by the partner Li family, who is said to have some Daoist skills, but he hasn’t been able to find out anything after coming for two days!”

On the side, Luo Cheng explained in a low voice.

“Daoist Master Sequoia? That’s a pretty cool name! But Master Fatty, we are not vegetarians, if he can’t solve it, we can definitely solve it!”

Wang Yifei said disdainfully, since he had his true qi, his strength had also improved greatly, but in the end he was a casual practitioner like Lin Ran, without a special master to guide him, Lin Ran was lucky at least now he had his pillow book, as well as Elder Feng who he would not meet until three months later.

As for Wang Yifeng, it was much worse than him.

“Fatty!”

Lin Ran gave Wang Yifei a look, signalling him not to talk big, and then followed Luo Cheng towards Daoist Master Red Cedar.

“Daoist Master Sequoia, goodbye!”

Luo Cheng stepped forward and greeted him with a smile, yet the other party had no intention of returning the greeting, his eyes glanced over the crowd and said blandly.

“Manager Luo, who are they?”

“They are my friends and feng shui masters!”

Luo Cheng laughed.

Daoist Master Sequoia's face visibly sank at his words and he said in a cold voice.

"Nonsense! I told you that things are very tricky here, why did you still get these irrelevant people to come here, just what can they know at their age? This is nonsense!"

"Old man, what are you talking about? You're tugging like two-fifths of a million!"

Wang Yifeng immediately retorted, while looking at Lin Ran, seeing that the latter had no intention of stopping him, he immediately opened up and laughed.

"Besides, if I'm not wrong, you don't seem to have solved the problem here either, right? You're useless yourself and you don't let us youngsters come and try, what's the matter, you're afraid of being robbed by us?"

Wang Yifeng's words were very damaging, yet Daoist Master Sequoia listened without much change in his expression, still looking at the crowd with a gloomy face.

"Junior, it's useless to have sharp teeth, if you want to settle things here, you can't do it by having a sharp mouth!"

Daoist Master Sequoia said in a cold voice, then glanced at Lin Ran and said indifferently.

"I advise you to leave straight away, so that if something goes wrong later, you don't blame me, your senior, for not warning you!"

"I don't need to bother you, but it remains to be seen if you are a real senior, as the Feng Shui world respects what you can do, so it's better to weigh the word senior before using it!"

Lin Ran also said indifferently, and as soon as he said this, Wang Yifeng and the others could not help but look over.

But now he was saying this, and just from this they could tell that there seemed to be something fishy going on here.

"Humph! You don't know how to live or die, since you want to die, then go in, but let me say something ugly in front, don't blame old me if you lose your arms and legs inside later!"

Saying this, Daoist Master Sequoia sidled out of the way, but did not leave, as if he was prepared to follow along inside.

"Does Daoist Master want to come along?"

Lin Ran asked with a smile.

"How? This mountain villa is the property of the Li and Luo families, so I naturally have to keep an eye on you!"

Daoist Master Sequoia said blandly.

Lin Ran looked at Luo Cheng and saw that he stretched his hand to indicate that there was nothing he could do, so he immediately stopped thinking and took the lead and walked in.

The entire lodge was divided into four main sections, namely the leisure area, the accommodation area, the business area, and the liveliest shopping area, while the place where the accident happened this time was the accommodation area, which normally had the least number of people.

The lodging area is usually only visited at night, so there are hardly any people there during the day.

The accommodation area was very large and the group walked for ten minutes before arriving at the courtyard where the accommodation area was located, but as soon as they entered the courtyard, everyone could not help but shiver, as if the temperature around them had dropped a few more points.

“Brother Luo, how many exits does this accommodation area have in total?”

Lin Ran asked as he stood in front of the arch-shaped door of the accommodation area.

“There are four in total, one in the southeast and one in the northwest, and the accommodation area is the very middle of the entire building!”

Luo Cheng said busily.

Lin Ran nodded at his words and then looked at Daoist Master Sequoia.

“Why are you looking at me? Aren’t you yo capable? Look at it yourself!”

Lin Ran smiled at his words.

“You’re thinking too much, I just want to remind you to run away when you encounter danger later, after all, you’re a big old man, be careful of hitching yourself here again!”

“You!”

Daoist Master Sequoia was so angry that his face turned blue, but Lin Ran had already taken a step inside.

The whole accommodation area was not too big, not too small, it was the footprint of two five-star hotels, at this moment there were only two or three cars parked downstairs, for such a large mountain resort, the earth and looked a bit chilly.

“No way, the guests are scared away, business is miserable!”

Luo Cheng said with a bitter smile.

Lin Ran nodded while making a no-sound gesture at the crowd, and instantly the entire courtyard fell silent.

“Kid, there’s something wrong with this courtyard, and it’s not just a big problem!”

Suddenly the pillow’s voice rang out in his head.

“You weren’t in a deep sleep, why did you come out again!”

Lin Ran asked busily.

The pillow-side book smiled heatedly at his words and said.

"I can't come out unless I do, there's something in this courtyard that attracts me, I can't sleep at all!"

"What is it?"

Lin Ran asked busily.

"I'm not entirely sure yet, but it should be that thing! How about making a deal?"

The pillow book laughed.

"What kind of deal?"

Lin Ran asked, frowning at his words.

"There are at least sixteen places in this courtyard that have what I want, and even though your strength has now been raised to the Qi Watching Realm, your six senses are still too weak, so it would take at least a day to slowly figure out what's wrong with this place on your own, whereas with my help, it would only take ten minutes!"

"In return, of the sixteen places in here, fifteen of them go to me and the remaining one goes to you, how about that?"

The Pillow Book laughed.

Lin Ran smiled back at his words.

"I knew you didn't have any good intentions, it's not like I'm in a hurry, a day is fine!"

"Stupid, what's in here is of no use to you at all, leaving one for you is already generous of me, besides you think you have time, if I'm right, what's in here is going to explode tonight, by tomorrow? It'll be cold by tomorrow!"

Lin Ran smiled with a slight frown, thought about it and spoke.

"Yes, but I have a condition, when you get the stuff you must give it to me first, I decide when to give it to you!"

"Yes, you won't want the item when you see it, Master Shu I have plenty of time, you will give it to me sooner or later!"

Pillow Book laughed while a majestic aura filled out and drifted towards a place in the courtyard, Lin Ran instantly felt guided.

Chapter 526

Following the guidance Lin Ran quickly locked on to the direction and walked over quickly, and at that moment everyone's eyes fell on him.

"Eh?"

Looking at the direction Lin Ran was walking in, Daoist Master Sequoia's face sank, and there was a hint of a stern aura deep within his eyes.

Wang Yifeng and the others, on the other hand, revealed smiles, clearly Lin Ran had discovered the problem with this move.

In the corner of the courtyard, Lin Ran himself was stunned when he walked to this place, only to see that in the corner in front of him was a finger-thick Huai Lei wood that was fluttering in the wind, completely unnoticeable.

“Kid, what do you mean by that? Is it hard to suspect that the matter of the mountain villa has something to do with this tree?”

Daoist Master Sequoia walked over with a smile, his eyes full of disdain.

“What is going on with Ranzi?”

Luo Cheng and the others were also busy running over to ask.

Lin Ran laughed before looking at Daoist Master Sequoia.

“Daoist Master, did I say that the matter of the mountain had something to do with this tree? It’s growing beautifully, so I can’t even look at it?”

“You!”

Daoist Master Sequoia’s face sank in anger and he said in a cold voice.

“Claptrap, this many people are watching and you’re doing it because it’s good looking? This is nonsense!”

With that, Daoist Master Sequoia flung his sleeves and stopped paying attention to Lin Ran, but he stood by the side without the intention of leaving.

This made Lin Ran’s heart somewhat surprised, although this Daoist Master Redwood was a feng shui master sent by the Li family, there was no need for him to stay here to watch himself even though we were each doing our own work, was he afraid of something?

He was not able to think of any reason for the moment, after all, this was only his guess.

“Ranzi?”

Luo Cheng looked at Lin Ran with some doubt in his eyes, he didn’t believe that Lin Ran was just walking over just to look good.

“Don’t worry!”

Lin Ran smiled at Luo Cheng and then squatted down in front of the Huai Lei wood, a move that once again drew everyone’s attention to him.

He saw that Lin Ran carefully plucked away the weeds underneath the Huai Lei wood and soon vacated a clearing, and in this clearing, there were many broken branches of the Huai Lei wood, and one of them had been particularly thick, and Lin Ran saw it almost at a glance.

“That’s it!”

The voice of the pillow book came to Lin Ran's mind.

"Kid, that's it that's it, the extremely high quality ooze sink wood, I was right!"

"Wu Shen Mu?"

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, and then he understood what it was.

"Kid have you seen enough? If you're alright, then hurry up and leave, don't delay old me!"

On the side, seeing Lin Ran crouching on the ground, Daoist Red Cedar could no longer hold back and directly reprimanded him.

Lin Ran was deep in thought when he was interrupted by this voice from Red Cedar, he couldn't help but frown slightly and gave him an icy look.

"What do you mean by that, Daoist Master?"

"What do you mean? You've been squatting here for half a day, playing? Or are you playing in the mud? If you can't find the reason, then get lost, will you? I'm very busy!"

Daoist Master Sequoia said nonchalantly.

"Daoist Master, you're going too far with that!"

Before Lin Ran could reply, Luo Cheng at the side could no longer watch.

"There's still a share of the Luo family in this mountain, and you've been here for at least two days, have you found out why?"

"You!"

Daoist Master Sequoia's words were stunned, and he was suddenly a bit speechless.

"You what you, still the same words, either you find out the reason or shut up, you are a guest, but the people I invited here are not guests? If you're not happy, feel free to go to Master Li, I'll see what he has to say!"

Luo Cheng's tone was strong, the two partners naturally had to take into account the face of both families, but Daoist Master Sequoia's repeated prodding, as well as provocations, had also made him a little angry.

"Good! If you don't know how to behave, you'll have your work cut out for you later!"

Daoist Master Sequoia said angrily, then stood aside and was completely silent, turning into a complete bystander.

"That's right, you're so old, why don't you stay at home and enjoy your old age, why are you fooling around?"

To the side, Wang Yifei laughed, and Luo Qiqi was also amused by his remark.

Lin Ran ignored the crowd and cleaned up the weeds and branches on the ground, leaving only the thickest branch among them.

“On this, what a dense fierce aura, this is an iniquitous soul fury!”

Lin Ran suddenly exclaimed.

“Injustice Fury? What is it?”

Luo Cheng smiled and asked busily, Lin Ran seemed to have found some eyebrows with these words.

“Brother Lin Ran, what is the Injustice Soul Fury?”

Luo Qiqi blinked her big eyes and asked, while Wang Yifeng at the side was frowning slightly, seeming to understand what Lin Ran meant.

“Injustice Soul Fury is, as the name suggests, the injustice soul living on this!”

Lin Ran frowned and said.

“Inhabited by unjust souls?”

The Luo Cheng siblings were both startled at the words, and unconsciously took two steps backwards.

On the side, Daoist Red Cedar laughed at his words.

“Injustice Furies? If there were injustice spirits living up here, all of you would have been hit when you approached, but now what? I think you’re the iniquitous spirit!”

“You old bastard, you don’t know how to write the word “quiet”, do you?”

Wang Yifei’s temper flared up and he turned around to teach Daoist Master Sequoia a lesson, but he was stopped by Lin Ran.

“Daoist Master, you don’t believe me?”

Lin Ran looked at Daoist Master Sequoia and said indifferently.

“Believe? Ridiculous, naturally I don’t believe!”

“Well, since you don’t believe it, then tell me instead, what is this thing?”

Lin Ran asked with a smile.

“What what is it, it’s just a piece of wood, and you still want to lie to old me, do you really think that old me is the same as this group of wine bags like them?”

Daoist Sequoia laughed coldly.

Lin Ran smiled at his words but laughed.

“Daoist Master, I just thought you were quite annoying before, but now I realise that not only are you annoying, you are also very arrogant, can we stop talking nonsense without understanding?”

“You!”

Daoist Master Sequoia was so angry that his face turned blue, but Lin Ran did not say a word, took out a silver needle and inserted it next to the sunken wood in public.

Soon the crowd could clearly see that the silver needle, which was originally silver, was rapidly turning black, and in just a few breaths, it was already as black as a piece of charcoal, so that the original face could not be seen at all.

“This ..... This .....”

Luo Cheng and others looked at the eyes of the pocket, and the redwood daoist elder is even more old face red, but Lin Ran is found that this old guy has a trace of nervousness deep in the eyes.

“Old weed, what else is there to say?”

Wang Yifeng mocked without missing a beat.

“Humph! Even if it’s some kind of iniquitous spirit fury then so what, can’t it be because of this heel of wood that causes the mountain to be unsettled? It’s simply a joke!”

Daoist Master Sequoia said disdainfully.

Lin Ran smiled at his words, however.

“A single Injustice Fury might not be able to become a climate, but what if it was many?”

“Hm? What do you mean!”

Daoist Master Sequoia’s face visibly turned to one side as he frowned and asked.

“You heard me very clearly, didn’t you!”

Lin Ran laughed, not explaining, but turned his head towards another place, while rushing to Luo Cheng and barked.

“Don’t let anyone go near the Injustice Fury!”

Chapter 527

“Don’t worry!”

Luo Cheng responded, quickly shouting for two security guards to stand guard in front of the Injustice Fury in order to prevent anyone from approaching.

“Ridiculous!”

Seeing that Luo Cheng and the others had followed Lin Ran towards another place, Daoist Master Sequoia’s face was grim as he flung his sleeve robe and left the courtyard straight away.

Lin Ran didn’t care, and under the guidance of the Pillow Book, he walked towards the second place on his own, but just as he reached the place, the Pillow Book spoke up.

“Be careful, there’s someone outside the courtyard!”

“Who? Sequoia?”

Lin Ran asked, frowning.

“I don’t know, his aura has left just now, this aura hasn’t been seen!”

The pillow said.

Lin Ran nodded at his words, the other party was hiding outside the courtyard and refused to come in, clearly not wanting to meet with them and at the same time spying on them.

“Let’s ignore him for now!”

Lin Ran said to himself, following which he quickly stepped forward and plucked the vines off the wall, and immediately saw that a palm-sized piece of wu sink wood was also placed on the antique wall.

“I go, this is really rare, there is still wood growing on the wall!”

Wang Yifeng said with a smile.

Luo Cheng and Luo Qiqi were also puzzled and were busy asking.

“Ranzi, what the hell is this thing?”

“It’s wu sink wood!”

Lin Ran said with a frown.

“Woo sink wood? What is it?”

Luo Cheng still did not understand, and Lin Ran saw that he could only explain.

“Wuzhen wood is a kind of wood, but this kind of wood is very rare, it is something that is very soul nurturing, if the elderly can wear a pendant of wuzhen wood, it can have a calming effect on their souls.”

“But again, this stuff is Yin in nature and also very inviting to dirty things, so it needs special treatment!”

“Huh?”

Brother and sister Luo Cheng Lai not only took a few steps back upon hearing this, attracting dirty things, this alone made them a little uncomfortable, let alone getting closer.

“Brother Luo, I need some men, preferably sixteen!”

Lin Ran suddenly turned his head and said.

“Sixteen?”

Luo Cheng was stunned at his words, and then he couldn’t help but gulp.

“Ranzi, you don’t mean ....”

“That’s right, there are sixteen such places in this courtyard, I don’t think this is simple, I want to find them all!”

Lin Ran said directly.

“Good!”

Seeing this, Luo Cheng didn't say anything, and immediately had the security guards all brought over, exactly twenty of them.

Lin Ran asked one of the security guards to guard the place, and then searched again.

It only took Lin Ran ten minutes to find all of them, and when he looked at the different shapes of the sunken wood, Wang Yifeng smiled.

"I say, Ranzi, how come these sixteen pieces of wood look human, each one is still different!"

"Don't talk nonsense, if they really do look human, then there will be big trouble!"

Lin Ran frowned.

"How will?"

Wang Yifeng was puzzled.

Lin Ran pointed to the sixteen places, frowned and spoke after a moment of contemplation.

"These sixteen places are very cleverly located, and it's likely that your crow's mouth really did get it right!"

"Yah, did I really guess correctly, Master Fatty?"

Wang Yifeng laughed in triumph.

Lin Ran, however, shook his head.

"We can't be sure yet, I've only roughly judged it!"

Saying this, Lin Ran brought a stone and gestured on the ground, quickly pointing out the sixteen places that possessed the wu sink wood, and when he saw the divisions of these wu sink woods, Lin Ran's face changed at once.

"Ranzi, what's wrong?"

Wang Yifeng and Luo Cheng were busy coming over, their faces worried.

"Brother Luo, I'm afraid it's not easy this time!"

"It's alright you say, as long as we can find a way to crack it, I can consider whatever price to pay!"

Luo Cheng said solemnly, compared to his own future, as long as it wasn't costing him his life he could consider it.

"It's not a matter of the price, but it's likely that someone is targeting you!"

Lin Ran frowned, then pointed to the sixteen dots on the ground and explained.

"Look at these sixteen dots guys, what do they look like?"

"I can't tell!"

Luo Cheng said directly, and Wang Yifeng pondered for a moment and nodded as well.

“These sixteen places are cluttered, you can’t make out anything!”

Lin Ran shook his head at the situation and spoke.

“These sixteen dots represent a person!”

“A person?”

Luo Cheng’s three people were all startled at his words, not understanding the meaning of Lin Ran’s words.

Seeing this, Lin Ran only had to explain once more.

“A human being has five internal organs, six internal organs, plus the head, arms and legs, adding up to a total of sixteen places, and the distribution of these sixteen dots alludes to the five internal organs, six internal organs, as well as the head, arms and legs of a human being!”

“No, but what about the torso?”

Wang Yifeng asked rhetorically.

Lin Ran pointed to the wu sink wood on the side.

“The torso is exactly these wu sink woods! If I’m right, this should be the Soul-Splitting Bureau!”

“A soul-sharing bureau? Is there a way to break it then?”

Luo Cheng was busy asking, this was what he was most concerned about.

“Yes, but I need ten or six people to cooperate!”

Lin Ran frowned and said, a Soul Splitting Bureau made up of sixteen iniquitous soul drakes was not to be underestimated, if one accidentally had a problem in the process of dismantling it, the results would all be very serious.

“Yes, these guards are well-trained, they are absolutely fine!”

Luo Cheng assured.

Lin Ran nodded and immediately got up and arranged.

“Find sixteen of the most responsive security guards and have each of them guard one place and wait for my news!”

“Mhmm!”

Luo Cheng sniffed and quickly made arrangements, while Lin Ran led them to a corner of the courtyard, sort of away from these ebony woods.

“I’ll count to three, everyone pull out the ooze sinkers together with force, but remember, after you pull them out, immediately let go and lie on the ground, remember you must lie on the ground!”

Lin Ran barked again and again, making sure that these guards had heard him before he started counting down.

“Three ..... Two ..... One!”

Lin Ran counted down quickly, but in his mind he was always on guard against the person hiding outside the courtyard, as he didn't know who it was, so he had to be careful.

At the sound of the voice, the sixteen guards pulled out the wu shen wood almost simultaneously, and in a flash, the sixteen wu shen woods directly broke away from the hands of the people and flew towards the middle of the courtyard with a “whoosh”.

“Get down!”

The sixteen guards got down almost at the same time, and some of the sunken woods even flew over their heads. If they had moved a little later, they would have been injured if they were hit by these sunken woods, and even a badly placed one could have been fatal.

“Bang!”

The crowd was astonished to see that the sixteen originally untidy pieces of wood had actually formed a human form the moment they were gathered, just like a puppet, with a head, arms and legs, and even a torso.

“Holy crap, this is actually a real person!”

Wang Yifeng exclaimed, but Lin Ran looked on with a frown, for he had a vague feeling that there really seemed to be a human soul trapped in this wu shen wood!

That's right, it was a person, not sixteen people, which meant that the previous sixteen pieces of wu shen wood were each trapped with a part of a person's soul, while the sixteen pieces of wu shen wood combined were the complete soul of a person.

Chapter 528

“Who exactly is the person trapped on this oozing wood?”

Lin Ran muttered to himself.

“Kid, the person on this should be an old man, you're responsible for extraditing his soul, and Master Shu I don't want to eat wu shen wood with a soul!”

Pillow Book reminded.

Lin Ran smiled and said without good grace.

“Eat eat eat, you just know how to eat, wait until I figure out the original reason for things!”

Saying this, Lin Ran turned his head and admonished.

“You guys stay where you are, don't come over!”

Saying this, Lin Ran walked towards the wu shen wood.

“Brother Lin Ran, be careful!”

Luo Qiqi worried, Lin Ran had gone over alone which made her uneasy, but she also knew that no one could refute the decision Lin Ran had made.

Although the wood looked ordinary, the spirit living on it was a big killer, after all, no one knew who was living on it.

And there is another situation, that is, the soul of the person above is no longer conscious, then it is the same as a madman, there is absolutely nothing to say, just seal it directly.

As he thought about it, Lin Ran had already reached the sunken wood, and since he did not know what kind of soul was on it, he was prepared to seal it and find an opportunity to unseal it later.

But at that moment, the wood suddenly trembled with a loud “weng”, followed by a “whoosh”, and a black light shot out instantly, heading straight for Lin Ran’s chest.

“Not good!”

Lin Ran’s heart was shocked and he fell to the ground, the black light almost grazing his chest.

“Seal it for me!”

Lin Ran’s eyes were quick and he had just dodged this blow, he immediately got up and formed a quick seal with his palm and slapped it directly onto the wu sink wood with a bang.

“Done!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but breathe a sigh of relief, but at that moment, a voice came from behind him that made his heart tremble.

“Kiki! What’s wrong with you! Kiki!”

Lin Ran was busy turning his head, only to see that Luo Qiqi had, at some point, fallen to the ground, her face pale, her seal black, and right at her shoulder, there was a black patch.

It turned out that the black stream of light that Lin Ran had just dodged had actually struck her by mistake.

“Qiqi!”

Lin Ran’s eyes instantly reddened and he hurriedly rushed over, while shouting at Wang Yifeng.

“Fatty! Outside the courtyard at three o’clock, go now!”

“Good!”

Wang Yifeng didn’t think much of it and rushed out after him, and soon the sound of his shouting came from outside.

“Who the fuck are you, stop right there!”

Lin Ran couldn’t care less about the situation on Wang Yifei’s side, rushing closer he directly took Luo Qiqi into his arms, reaching out and pressing his hand on the injured shoulder, while a wisp of true qi poured directly into it.

“Ranzi, what’s wrong with Kiki?”

On the side, Luo Cheng asked urgently, it was originally his own business, but now it was hurting his sister, which made him feel very remorseful in his heart.

“She was injured in her soul by the iniquitous spirit within the Wu Shen Mu, she must find something to heal immediately!”

Lin Ran also blamed himself, just now he had dodged the attack, but he hadn’t thought that there was still Luo Qiqi behind him, at this moment, holding the Wu Shen Mu, Lin Ran unconsciously tightened his grip a few points.

Although Luo Cheng was nervous, he hadn’t lost his composure and hurriedly asked,

“Looking for something to heal? What kind of things do you need? I’ll have someone go find it immediately!”

“I’m afraid it’s not easy to find this stuff, I need to use the leaves of the Bi-Blood Flower, do you know where to find it?”

Lin Ran asked.

The injury to the soul, Lin Ran’s true qi could only temporarily stabilize Luo Qiqi’s soul, but it was not humanly possible to heal it.

The soul was the root of a person, and also the most fragile part of a person, and in order to heal the trauma to the soul, one must also need some external objects, and the Bi-Blood Flower was one of them.

“Bi-Blood Flower?”

Luo Cheng fell into contemplation, trying to remember.

“Let’s get out of here first!”

Seeing that Luo Cheng didn’t have much of a clue for a while, Lin Ran immediately got up and said.

The two of them had just walked out of the courtyard with Luo Qiqi in their arms when they came face to face with Wang Yifeng who was returning.

“That guy got away!”

Wang Yifeng said in chagrin.

“Let’s ignore him for now, let’s get out of here first!”

Lin Ran said, the most important thing was to find the Bi-Blood Flower and cure Luo Qiqi, as for the rest, they could only put it aside for now.

The three of them quickly walked towards the exit of the mountain villa, however, just as they reached the exit, they ran into Daoist Master Sequoia again, this guy was standing at the entrance with a bland expression, when he saw Lin Ran and the others, he couldn’t help but show a surprised look.

“What’s the matter? Someone’s been injured? What did I say in the first place, I had to come out and take the lead even though my skills were not good, now something has happened!”

“You’re fucking saying that!”

Wang Yifeng was furious when he heard that, he went forward and grabbed Daoist Master Sequoia by the collar, seeing that the two were about to fight, Lin Ran was busy speaking.

“Fatty, stop it!”

Wang Yifeng turned his head to look at Lin Ran, with unwilling anger in his eyes, but he still obediently let go of his hand.

“Daoist Master, a word to the wise, don’t let me find out any traces, or I won’t be so modest as I appear!”

Lin Ran said word for word, his voice not loud but with an unquestionable tone, hearing Daoist Master Sequoia frown slightly.

“Wait!”

Suddenly, just as Lin Ran was about to continue on his way to leave, Luo Cheng on the side stopped the two.

“What’s wrong?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

“I know where to find the Bi-Blood Flower!”

Luo Cheng said with joy on his face as he followed.

“There’s one at Elder Li’s house, when I first took over the business here, I went to Elder Li’s house, and his son even introduced me to that Bi-Blood Flower, how could I have forgotten about it!”

“Let’s go, let’s go straight there!”

Lin Ran said at Luo Cheng, while handing Luo Qiqi over to Wang Yifeng to greet her.

“Take her back to the clinic, don’t let anyone go near her, wait for me to return!”

“Okay!”

Wang Yifeng knew the seriousness of the matter, and without any nonsense immediately carried Luo Qiqi to the car, and then rushed back towards the clinic.

“Let’s go too!”

Luo Cheng was busy greeting, Lin Ran nodded at his words, but followed by looking at Daoist Master Sequoia who was on the side.

“What, Daoist Master Sequoia isn’t coming along?”

“Aren’t you afraid I’ll cause havoc?”

Daoist Master Sequoia sneered.

Lin Ran smiled at his words but laughed.

“You can try all you want!”

“Enough guts!”

Daoist Master Sequoia laughed and followed, also getting into the car.

Luo Cheng drove the car all the way towards Elder Li’s house, the atmosphere on the way was quite depressing, both Lin Ran and Daoist Master Hong Suan didn’t say a word, they just sat quietly in the back, but Luo Cheng was able to feel it, the oppressive killing aura.

“Kid, this some bullshit Taoist Master is not simple!”

Suddenly the pillow’s voice rang out in Lin Ran’s mind.

Lin Ran was stunned and hurriedly asked.

“How so?”

“This guy has a hidden aura on his body, I didn’t notice it from a distance just now, but now I can be sure that it was him who was hiding outside the courtyard just now and triggered the attack on you by the Wu Shen Mu!”

Pillow Book said in a cold voice.

Chapter 529

“I know.”

Lin Ran returned indifferently, his expression not fluctuating in any way, as if it had absolutely nothing to do with him.

“Holy shit, you’re not even going to kill him with your hands here?”

Pillow said in wonder, although he had only been with Lin Ran for a short time, he still knew more or less the latter’s character.

If put in the usual way, this guy would definitely have already made his move, but this time he was unresponsive, just saying that he knew about it.

“Why do you want to kill him, and do you have any proof?”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

“Shit, I still need proof for what I saw?”

The pillow said discontentedly.

Lin Ran, however, laughed.

“This isn’t your world, without evidence even if I believe you, others won’t believe you, everything needs evidence, got it?”

“Shit! Whatever, I’m just waiting for my oozing wood anyway! Don’t you forget it!”

Pillow reminded.

Lin Ran didn’t bother to pay him any mind, and instantly closed his eyes and stopped talking nonsense.

.....

The Li family was actually a very large family, except that Lin Ran had never heard of it, and this family was very low-profile, their branch strength in Tanjiang City didn’t even rank in the top ten, but this was such a family, but it had a power that everyone didn’t dare to underestimate, not even the Luo family.

The place where Master Li lived was located in a place in the old city of Tanjiang City, and it was known that the old city was usually congested, but Lin Ran found that the road to Master Li’s house was not at all gambling, although the route was a bit winding, but it seemed to be intentionally arranged.

When the car stopped at the entrance of a mansion in an urban village in the old city, Lin Ran was stunned, yes that was the mansion, a mansion built inside an urban village.

“Surprised, kid? Never seen it before?”

On the side, Daoist Master Sequoia scoffed.

“This mansion is a family property handed down from Master Li’s ancestors, when Temperance City was transforming the city, the plan was to raze the whole place and replace it with a high-rise, but it was frostily dissuaded by the Li family!”

On the side, Luo Cheng parked his car and opened his mouth to explain.

“What exactly is this Li family’s magic power?”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but be interested, knowing that it was generally impossible to change the planning and construction of a city just because of a certain person, but this mansion in front of him was a real thing.

“I’ll talk to you later, there’s too much involved!”

Luo Cheng laughed bitterly, while straightening his clothes, even his expression took on a bit of solemnity.

“Just who is this Li family that can make even Luo Cheng so solemn.”

Lin Ran saw this and became even more curious.

Under Luo Cheng’s leadership, the three of them quickly entered the mansion, not knowing whether they really liked the ancient Feng Ge or whether they deliberately imitated the ancient design, once they entered the courtyard Lin Ran saw that there were ancient buildings everywhere, with carved dragons and phoenixes, and the pavilions and buildings were so beautiful.

Even, at the entrance of each key courtyard, there were servants dressed in ancient costumes who were busy.

“What a grand gesture!”

Lin Ran couldn't help but sigh.

"Right Ranzi, if you see Li Sheng, the Li family's Duke, later on, remember to always address him as, Li Sheng, the Duke!"

Luo Cheng reminded at the side.

Lin Ran nodded at his words, but in his heart he wondered, were all the people in this Li family so retro? Or are they really that sophisticated?

As the two of them spoke, they had already reached the reception hall, and a middle-aged man dressed in a butler's robe seemed to have known about it all along, standing far away at the entrance to the hall and greeting him with a smile.

"Housekeeper Li, goodbye!"

Luo Cheng smiled and arched his hand, and Lin Ran naturally followed the cat's example, while as for Red Cedar, he did not stop and walked straight into the receiving hall and made himself at home.

"Little friend Luo Cheng, what is your so-called business this time?"

Butler Li was not polite and asked directly, while side-stepping to make way for the hall door and welcoming Lin Ran and Luo Cheng inside.

"To be honest, I do have a request this time!"

Luo Cheng said directly, not bothering to be polite.

But when Butler Li heard this, he frowned slightly, wondering.

"I'm afraid I can't this time, the old master has been bedridden for several days, he hasn't awakened yet I'm afraid he can't see you!"

"No, I am in need of the leaves of the blue blood flower just fine!"

Luo Cheng said subconsciously, before he looked back, his face changed and he was busy asking.

"What did you just say? Old Master Li was bedridden for several days? What's the situation?"

"It's a long story at this point, but if you only need the leaves of the blue-blooded flower, this is a good thing to talk about!"

Steward Li said and turned to enter the side hall, and soon came out carrying a potted plant, which was none other than the Green Blood Flower.

The branches of the Green Blood Flower were blood-red in colour, but the leaves were green and looked very exquisite when they were taken out.

"Holy crap, this blood flower must be at least five hundred years old, damn it, give it to me! It's a great tonic for me!"

Pillow Book suddenly said excitedly, Lin Ran smiled and was speechless, it was not easy enough to ask for a few leaves to save a person, and he still wanted to get his hands on someone's blue blood flower, unless God helped him.

"Go back to sleep, this thing is hopeless!"

Lin Ran directly rebuffed the pillow book, then took the two leaves handed to him by Luo Cheng and nodded his head.

"That's enough!"

"Good! In that case, then we won't bother! Make sure to let me know when the old man wakes up some other day, and we will definitely pay a visit then!"

Luo Cheng said with a smile, while the two of them prepared to leave.

But at that moment, suddenly Lin Ran stopped in his tracks and took out the Wu Shen Mu on his body.

"What's wrong with Ranzi?"

Luo Cheng saw this and asked, being in the Li family at this time, he was also afraid that Lin Ran was making a mess.

"The two of you?"

When Butler Li saw the two stop, he couldn't help but be a little puzzled.

On the other hand, Daoist Master Sequoia, who was sitting at the side drinking tea, had an ugly look on his face at this time.

"This Wu Shen Mu has sensed something, it seems that the owner of the spirit inside is not dead and is within this courtyard!"

Lin Ran was busy speaking to.

"What do you mean!"

Luo Cheng was shocked at his words, having vaguely guessed what was going on.

"That's right, the soul in this wu sink wood is most likely Master Li's!"

Lin Ran said solemnly, while turning to look at Housekeeper Li.

"Housekeeper Li, I must see your master for a moment, I might be able to save him!"

"Unbridled!"

Lin Ran's words had just fallen and before Housekeeper Li could reply, Daoist Master Sequoia on the side was unable to sit still and rose to say in a cold voice.

"Master Li is sick in bed, how can you see him just because you're a brat? Get lost, don't force me to get angry!"

“Daoist Master Sequoia, your anger is a bit strange, isn’t it? Do you have anything to do with me seeing Master Li, or are you afraid that I will wake him up?”

Lin Ran asked in a cold voice, Red Cedar’s reaction was too much, which could not help but make him suspicious.

“Nonsense, I’m the one treating Master Li’s condition, why do I need you to interfere with a brat like you! Who will be responsible if something goes wrong!”

Daoist Master Sequoia said in a cold voice.

Lin Ran smiled but said in a decisive manner.

“I’m responsible!”

“You’re responsible? Can you afford it?”

Daoist Master Sequoia sneered, his eyes filled with disdain and cold severity.

Seeing this, Lin Ran didn’t bother to pay any attention to him, raised his hand to raise the Wu Shen Mu and rushed at Housekeeper Li.

“There is a soul in this Wu Shen Mu, which I suspect is your Old Master Li’s, if you don’t want your Old Master to just walk away inexplicably, you better take me to see it!”

“This .....

Butler Li was in a quandary, it wasn’t that he didn’t want to take Lin Ran there, but their young master had specifically instructed before leaving home that no one was to be allowed near the old master’s residence, and he could only do as he was told.

“Who are you!”

Just when Butler Li was in some difficulty, suddenly, a crisp voice was heard from the side, followed by a youth walking quickly.

Chapter 530

The youth had clear eyebrows and long hair, and with the imitation ancient robe on his body, he looked very much like a youth who had crossed over from ancient times.

However, the youth was very handsome, and there was also a heroic aura between his eyebrows, which made Lin Ran look stunned and say in his heart.

“So oriented, he is indeed a man blessed by heaven, his future is unlimited!”

At the same time, Lin Ran also noticed that the other party’s eyes were very profound, looking at people as if they had a feeling of being able to see through them, this kind of profundity was probably something that could only be practiced by having appraised at least many treasures.

“Sir Li Sheng!”

Luo Cheng saw the other party and saluted respectfully, Lin Ran smiled as his heart dawned on him and followed suit at the same time.

“Greetings to both of you!”

Duke Li Sheng returned the salute, which made Lin Ran feel very surprised, seemingly high and mighty, yet he returned the salute like this, which was enough to show that the other party was not a domineering person.

“I just heard this little brother say that he can cure my father’s illness? To be honest, my father has been ill for a week now, I have asked many famous doctors but nothing has followed, recently it has been Daoist Master Sequoia who has been helping to look after him, I wonder if you are?”

Li Sheng asked directly.

“Sir Li Sheng doesn’t know, this is my friend Lin Ran, the little divine doctor who is famous in Tanjiang City!”

Luo Cheng busily explained.

“Ao? Little divine Doctor?”

Li Sheng secretly nodded his head at his words, he naturally knew the name Little God Doctor, but he had always been traditional and only thought that it was just someone else’s hype, so he had never thought of going to Lin Ran, but he did not expect the latter to come to his home.

“Sir Li Sheng, there is no need to say anything about the Little Godly Doctor, the only reason why I said I could save your father was because of this!”

Lin Ran said and took out the wu sink wood, at this moment, a faint green light was already glowing on the wu sink wood, and the whole wood was restless, as if something wanted to rush out.

“This is wu sink wood?”

Li Sheng’s face suddenly sank as he exclaimed.

“Sir Li Sheng knows this thing?”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but be curious, this Wu Shen Mu was rarely recognized even in the Feng Shui line, but he didn’t expect Li Sheng to recognize it.

“To be honest, although I am not a Feng Shui practitioner, I do know something about Feng Shui, especially the magic tools and treasures used in Feng Shui, there is almost nothing I don’t know!”

Li Sheng said, while the gaze he looked at Lin Ran also changed, not as cold as before.

“In that case, then I’ll be straightforward, there is a spirit locked inside this wu sink wood, and I suspect that it belongs to your father in time, so I need to see your father for a while!”

Lin Ran said directly.

“Yes, Sir Li Sheng, this black sunken wood was found precisely from within the mountain villa, I suspect that someone is secretly plotting against us!”

Luo Cheng was also busy explaining, things were so coincidental that he also felt the implication of a conspiracy.

Li Sheng frowned and did not make a statement, and it was only after a full tea time that he spoke.

“Come with me!”

“Li Sheng this won’t do!”

On the side, Daoist Master Red Cedar saw this and hurriedly spoke to stop it.

Li Sheng heard this but his face sank and he chided in a cold voice.

“Hong Suan, what did you say?”

Red Cedar lost his temper as he was glared at by the other party’s cold and stern gaze, and bowed his head and said.

“Sir Li Sheng, I’m sorry, I’m also worried about His Lordship’s comfort, I’m afraid it’s not right to let a random outsider see His Lordship!”

“I’m free to be measured, do your own thing!”

Li Sheng said in a cold voice, there was no room for argument in his words.

“Yes!”

Red Cedar nodded helplessly in response, but the gaze he looked at Lin Ran turned a few degrees colder, and even carried a bit of resentment.

“There’s something wrong with this old thing, so much that he doesn’t want you to see Old Li Tau, I’m afraid there’s something fishy about it!”

Pillow Book laughed

Lin Ran nodded his head to show that he was clear.

Li Sheng’s persona was a bit inscrutable to Lin Ran, but it was possible to see that this person had his own ideas and opinions, he just didn’t know what he actually did, and actually understood the items of Feng Shui.

With this in mind, the group had already followed Li Sheng to outside Master Li’s door.

Lin Ran found that the room where Old Master Li lived was very clever, with a side room adjacent to it all around, and I’m afraid there were quite a few people waiting inside, so that once Old Master Li had a situation he could immediately rush over.

“Housekeeper Li, keep watch at the door, no one is allowed to come in!”

Li Sheng instructed, then went forward and opened the door of the room.

As soon as the door to the room was opened, a strong fragrance wafted out, the smell was very strong seemed to be a medicinal fragrance.

“This is a calming incense, prepared by Daoist Master Red Cedar! It says it can calm the spirit!”

Li Sheng explained as he let the crowd in.

Lin Ran nodded in agreement, the tranquilizing incense did have the function of calming the mind and aiding sleep, but what he found ironic was that if Elder Li’s soul was no longer in his body, what use was this tranquilizing incense?

“Brother Lin Ran, my father is inside, I will accompany you inside!”

Entering the room, Li Sheng greeted him as he closed the door behind him.

“Yes!”

Lin Ran nodded his head and immediately followed.

“Sir Li Sheng, I .....”

Seeing this, Daoist Master Red Cedar was busy speaking, but what he waited for was an icy glare from the other side.

“This Daoist Master Red Cedar dislikes me a lot!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Don’t mind him!”

Li Sheng said blandly.

The two of them walked around the screen and came to the inner room, where they immediately saw Old Master Li on the hospital bed.

It was a man with white hair and a very old face, and if Lin Ran had not known that he was Li Sheng’s father, I was afraid that he would have taken him for a grandfather.

“We Li family members have been appraising and selling treasures for generations and are under a lot of pressure, so we are very old, in fact my father’s real age is only in his forties!”

Li Sheng said beside him as if he was talking to himself or introducing himself.

Lin Ran nodded secretly at his words, while walking quickly up to him.

When he came closer, Lin Ran really noticed that while Old Master Li’s face did look like he was sixty years old, the bare skin on his arms and so on was no different from that of a forty year old, which made his heart sink.

“Sir Li Sheng, I need to take the old man’s pulse!”

Lin Ran spoke.

“Please make yourself comfortable!”

Li Sheng nodded his head.

Seeing this, Lin Ran directly reached out and placed his hand on the old man's wrist, followed by a strand of true qi being poured into the old man's body, but he didn't notice that just as his true qi was being poured in, Li Sheng at the back clearly looked at him with a frown, as if he had discovered something.

After his true qi quickly wandered around the old man's body, Lin Ran was surprised to find that there were actually very many impurities in the old man's body, these impurities were constantly wandering around with the bloodline, and everywhere they went, they were actually absorbing away some of the anger.

If Lin Ran's strength hadn't advanced today, plus his own use of the true qi of the healing dao was more comfortable, I'm afraid he wouldn't have been able to sense the existence of these subtle breaths.

"Kid, it's not impurities in this old guy's body!"

Suddenly, the pillow spoke up.

"Then what is it?"

Lin Ran asked busily, these things that could absorb anger, he indeed couldn't tell what they were.

"It's a gold swallowing stone fragment!"

This side book said.

"This gold swallowing stone likes to devour gold veins the most, it's usually only found near gold mines, this Li family is ostensibly in the treasure appreciation business, but I'm sure they have something to do with gold mining!"

"Gold mining?"

Lin Ran was stunned, treasure appreciation and gold mining, the gap between them was a bit big!

But now was not the time to think about this, Lin Ran quickly mobilized his true qi to check around, and indeed, he did not find any fluctuation of breath soul in the old man's body.
