

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 681

“Stones?”

Lin Ran was stunned at the words, how could there be stones inside the pill box? He was suspicious and immediately looked inside.

He saw that there was indeed an herb inside the box, and Lin Ran looked at it carefully to make sure that it was the Tendon Exchange Herb, but next to the Tendon Exchange Herb, there was a small stone the size of his thumb.

The stone was earthy in colour, very round and the material was somewhat similar to emerald, and it was cool and cold in his hand.

Suddenly, Lin Ran felt a vast aura right inside the bead, while a thought instantly appeared in his mind!

“This is the earth spirit pearl!”

“Holy shit kid, what kind of bullshit luck do you have, finding the earth spirit pearl so quickly!”

At the same time, the pillow’s voice also sounded in Lin Ran’s mind.

“How did you know that?”

Lin Ran queried in wonder.

“Nonsense, Master Book is now a part of your body, that vast earth attribute aura just now, what else could it be but an earth spirit pearl!”

Pillow Book said without good humour, while still being a little envious.

“Tsk, what can I say about you kid, getting the five spirit stones is not enough, now you actually found the earth spirit pearl, there are only four other spirit pearls left in the five!”

“No need to be envious, follow me well, if there’s meat for me to eat, there’s soup for you to drink!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Ah shucks! Even if there’s meat, it’s me, Master Shu, who’ll eat it! You still want me to have the rest of your soup, daydreaming!”

Pillow Book said without good humour.

Lin Ran didn’t bother to pay him any mind, and immediately put the earth spirit pearl away, before saying to the two Wang Mao.

“Later on, you guys come in with me and thank Sai Hua Tuo properly, if it wasn’t for him, there’s no telling when this Tendon Replacement Herb would have been found!”

“Good!”

“No problem boss!”

The two men agreed with great alacrity.

After a few more moments, Lin Ran felt that it was almost time, and only then did he knock on the door again and walk in.

Sai Hua Tuo was in a much better mood by now, and was in the process of blending herbs to nourish his body. When he saw Lin Ran and the three of them enter, he immediately got up and bowed respectfully.

“Brother Lin Ran, no thanks for your great kindness! But whatever you need from me here, feel free to take it, and if you need anything in the future, feel free to greet me, I will not hesitate to help you on the mountain of swords and oil!”

“Brother Li Sai is serious, I’ve already got the Tendon Replacement Grass, so it’s time for me to say goodbye, here we also want to say thank you, this Tendon Replacement Grass is indeed very important to us too!”

Lin Ran led the way, and together with Wang Mao Ah Zhan, they gave Sai Hua Tuo a salute.

“Brother Lin Ran, you’ve broken my heart with this piece, you’ve fulfilled a great wish of mine if Ya Qiu can be cured!”

Sai Hua Tuo’s whole anger was obviously much better.

“Right, Brother Li Sai, I wonder what you are going to do next? After all, you know the after-effects of this treatment!”

Lin Ran asked.

Sai Hua Tuo, however, laughed with a wave of his hand and said.

“Longevity is irrelevant to me, it’s my greatest wish that Ya Qiu can live, I will take her away and go out for a spin when I return, and I hope to be happy and joyful in my lifetime!”

“Mmm!”

Lin Ran nodded his head, and then asked.

“Then, Brother Li Sai, will you still go out to save people in the days to come?”

“Hm?”

Sai Hua Tuo was stunned at his words, back then, because he couldn’t cure Ya Qiu, he sealed his pen and hung up his sword to leave his armour, now that Ya Qiu’s body was about to recover, he did need to reconsider this issue.

“If necessary, I will!”

Sai Hua Tuo said.

Lin Ran nodded at his words, and in the same breath, he took a book out of his arms and handed it to Sai Hua Tuo.

“There is still a stone in the medicine box of the Tendon Replacement Herb, which is equally important to me, and there is no way to return the favour, so I am giving you this book of excerpts from the Xuan Yang Pharmacopoeia, the medical skills on it will definitely benefit you greatly!”

Lin Ran said with a smile.

Lin Ran did not give him the entire Xuan Yang Pharmacopoeia, but only some of the more complicated ones at the back, in the hope that he could continue the way of Chinese medicine.

“Brother Li Sai, if you want to take on disciples in the future, this Xuan Yang Pharmacopoeia of mine must be passed on to disciples who are right-minded, so as not to disgrace its reputation!”

Lin Ran admonished.

“Brother Lin Ran, don’t worry, I, Sai Hua Tuo, will definitely agree!”

Sai Hua Tuo was excited, a pharmacopoeia book was a very precious thing, Chinese medicine was different from Western medicine, from ancient times to the present day many of the prescriptions were secretly kept secret, to be able to obtain this Xuan Yang Pharmacopoeia extract book given to him by Lin Ran, its value to him was definitely better than the earth spirit pearl, after all, it was useless for him to keep the earth spirit pearl, what’s more, he didn’t know that the stone was the earth spirit pearl!

“Right, brother Lin Ran, you said there was a stone inside the pill box, that was dug out together with the tendon replacement herb when I found it here, I saw that it looked strange and put it together in the pill box, you said it was important to you, what exactly was it?”

Sai Hua Tuo asked curiously.

Lin Ran, however, smiled at his words and turned around to lead the two of them, Wang Mao, towards the door.

As his neighbour opened the door, Lin Ran smiled blandly and said.

“That’s an earth spirit pearl!”

“Earth spirit pearls? What is it? Never heard of it!”

Sai Hua Tuo wondered.

Lin Ran, however, had already led the two Wang Mao out of the thatched hut and set off on the road back to the city.

.....

After a busy day, when Lin Ran and the others returned to the city, it was already ten o’clock at night. In view of the late hour, Lin Ran had to let Wang Mao and the two of them go back to rest first, and go to find Leng Zhan together in the morning.

Originally, the two were still a bit anxious to go overnight, but after hearing Lin Ran say that they had waited for so many years, it was not too bad for them to go back to rest this night.

Lin Ran arrived at the shop alone, at this time the shop decorator had completely left, the whole shop was decorated in a very simple and high-class way, but the only regret was that the tables, chairs and benches had not yet been set up, I think they had just been delivered.

“Ranzi, where the fuck have you been all day? You don’t even take Master Fatty with you!”

When he saw Lin Ran, Wang Yifeng pouted and complained.

“How can I take you with me? I’m going to be the boss soon, so I’m afraid I won’t be able to take you with me in the future!”

Lin Ran said regretfully with a stretched hand.

“Don’t! Don’t, this what manager Fat Master is not interested, it’s more interesting to go play with you!”

Wang Yifeng was busy saying, these few days in the shop had suffocated him, his whole body was going crazy.

“I think you are physically unable to bear it anymore, you have nothing to do in the shop, looking for Xiao Cui every day.”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Fuck you, didn’t I not go today, Fat Master!”

Wang Yifeng retorted.

Lin Ran, however, laughed.

“Today? I’m afraid you knew you couldn’t carry it off, that’s why you didn’t go!”

“You .... This ..... This forget it, Old Yu Tau is still waiting for you up there!”

Wang Yifeng was busy changing the subject.

“Mm!”

Lin Ran nodded his head and immediately went upstairs.

Master Yu was indeed still waiting for Lin Ran, seemingly afraid of falling asleep and not knowing how much coffee he had drunk.

“Master! You’re back!”

Master Yu was excited to see Lin Ran back.

“Alright, where are the things?”

Lin Ran asked.

Master Yu immediately took out two packages, one he would use for himself, while the other was something Li Sheng had asked him to bring back to Lin Ran, the very materials needed for the pillow book.

“You go and do it on the sofa, I’ll go and wash my hands and start!”

Lin Ran said, and immediately picked up the materials for the pillow book and went to the washroom, and when he returned, the materials in his hands were no longer there, instead, there was an extra pair of silver needles.

Chapter 682

Master Yu's strength was all cultivated by himself, and after cultivating for most of his life, he had only reached the half-step Watching Qi realm at an advanced age.

However, for a man who has no master, no teacher, and who has to rely on himself, this strength is not easy at all.

He had only fumbled through three of the nine meridians in his body, and the last six meridians were inaccessible, so he would not be able to reach the Qi Watching Realm no matter what.

"Master, wait ..... Will it hurt?"

Master Yu gulped and asked, the clothes on his back had come off, revealing skin as dry as tree bark.

"Who told you to take off your clothes, put them on!"

Lin Ran looked frowning, this old thing was quite self-conscious himself.

"Huh? Isn't it going to be acupuncture? No need to take off your clothes?"

Master Yu's old face flushed as he hurriedly put his clothes back on.

"Who told you that you needed to take off your clothes?"

Lin Ran said without good humour.

"That's not how they all act in martial arts films!"

Master Yu said awkwardly.

"That's not right, Ranzi, didn't you have to take a bath to change the bones and marrow for Big Sister and the girls before? How come when it comes to the male disciples, they don't even need to take off their clothes? You kid still can't be doing it on purpose!"

On the side, Wang Yifeng smiled and said.

"Go away, you don't know anything, is changing bones and cleansing marrow the same as opening meridians?"

Lin Ran didn't feel good, it was really different, there was an essential difference between not having opened a meridian and having opened three of them.

"Then who knows if it's the same, you always have a point anyway, but do you think that if Big Sister and the others saw you opening the meridians for your own apprentice without having to take off your clothes, would they think in their hearts that you were letting them take a bath on purpose?"

Wang Yifeng laughed beside him again.

"You're a dead fatty, don't I explain it all!"

Lin Ran said helplessly.

“This explanation of yours isn’t sincere enough, you should go back and explain it to Big Sister and the others!”

Wang Yifeng laughed heatedly and raised his phone at Lin Ran with a wicked smile.

“Holy shit! You fucking punked me!”

Lin Ran’s heart sank at the sight of this and he secretly said.

“It’s over, I’m afraid I’ll have to spend the night here too!”

“Don’t! I’m spicing things up for you, have fun when you get back tonight!”

Wang Yifeng laughed and ran downstairs with his phone, leaving Lin Ran alone to painstakingly open Master Yu’s meridians.

“Ding.”

“Ding!”

.....

Soon, three mobile phone rings rang almost simultaneously, followed by Lin Ran seeing three text messages pop up on his mobile phone screen.

The first one, Qin Bing “Come to the clinic later! I need to talk to you!”

The second, Luo Qiqi, “If you dare not come, you’ll be green!”

The third one, Su Rou, “Not only green you, but also cut you!”

....

“Huh!”

Lin Ran felt a chill down there and hastily clenched his legs.

“Master .... What’s wrong with you?”

Master Yu saw Lin Ran’s embarrassed face and quickly asked.

“Nothing .... Nothing, do well and don’t move around, I’m going to start!”

Lin Ran said, as he quickly took out the silver needles at the same time and dropped a needle on Master Yu’s head.

“Close your eyes and don’t move!”

Lin Ran reminded, then released the silver needle and pressed his single finger on it, followed by a surge of medical true qi that quickly invaded Master Yu’s body along the silver needle and surged towards the fourth meridian.

Master Yu had opened his meridians before, so Lin Ran did not need to search for them, he just needed to follow the fixed position of the meridians and use his true qi to penetrate them one by one, which was almost easy for him to do, after all, he had already experienced it three times before.

With the infusion of the true qi of the medical path, soon Master Yu's fourth meridian was opened up, and the whole process down, Master Yu actually did not feel a bit of pain, but was very comfortable.

He was different from Qin Bing Luo Qiqi Su Rou, he had cultivated for most of his life and his realm was long enough, it was only his physical limitations that had kept him from crossing into the Qi Watching Realm, now Lin Ran was helping him just like watering dry land, everything went very smoothly.

The three of them, Qin Bing Luo Qiqi Su Rou, on the other hand, had no cultivation base at all, so the process of reclaiming their meridians was naturally a little more painful for them.

One by one, the meridians were opened, and by the time Lin Ran had opened the last meridian of Master Yu, the time had already reached twelve o'clock at night, and at that moment, Master Yu's entire body was already covered in filth, as if he had just been dug out of the ground, dirty beyond touch.

"Go and wash up, I'll go first!"

Lin Ran reminded, and immediately greeted Wang Yifeng, leaving the shop and heading straight for the clinic.

"I hope I don't get played to death!"

Thinking about the four women in the clinic, Lin Ran couldn't help but swallow his spit, before igniting the car and driving off.

.....

"I'm back!"

When he returned to the clinic, Lin Ran immediately shouted, but to his bewilderment, there was actually no one on the entire ground floor.

"Where is everyone?"

Lin Ran did not understand, locked the roller shutter door and immediately went up to the first floor, but just before he reached the door of the first floor, he heard a "bang" inside, and at the same time came Qin Bing's voice.

"The youngest chicken! It's mushy!"

"How can it be that you've won five games in a row!"

Luo Qiqi's voice followed, as well as Su and Song Nuan's.

"Come in when you're back, does it look good standing at the door?"

Qin Bing's voice suddenly rang out.

"Er ..... That I'm a bit tired, so I'll go and rest first!"

Lin Ran walked in with an awkwardly fussed head and followed it towards his room.

“Stand still!”

Qin Bing fiercely spoke up and chided.

“You don’t need to take a bath if you’re opening your disciple’s meridians, but you need to take a bath if you’re changing our bones and cleansing our marrow, sisters, do you think this kid is doing it on purpose?”

Qin Bing asked.

“I think so!”

Luo Qiqi said.

“Absolutely, this stinking pervert, we can’t let him off easily!”

Su Rou echoed.

“I’m okay, I didn’t change my bones and wash my marrow!”

Song Nuan covered her mouth and laughed.

“Son of a bitch, lying to us about bone exchange and marrow cleansing, making us take a bath, this brat is so horny, go up and K him!”

Qin Bing shouted, and at once the four women pounced towards Lin Ran.

“Hey hey! Don’t, what do you want to do in the middle of the night!”

Lin Ran was about to run to his room, but when he reached the door, he wanted to open it and run in, but he heard a bang and hit the door directly.

“Who .... Who locked the door!”

Lin Ran’s entire body was pressed against the door and slid down the door.

Ten minutes later, Lin Ran, unkempt and with several red fingerprints on his face, stood by the side with a face full of aggression and a teapot squatting in the middle of said.

“Pour water!”

Qin Bing greeted as he played mahjong.

“Ao!”

Lin Ran hurriedly went up to the four women and poured full water, and then retreated, only this nose is unconsciously out of the nose blood.

“That .... Can I ask a question?”

Lin Ran said.

“Ask away!”

Qin Bing said blandly.

“If you guys are playing mahjong, why ..... have to take off your coats! Some of you even take off your shoes?”

Lin Ran gulped, somewhat unable to understand these four females.

“Brother Lin Ran, don’t you even understand this, we don’t play for money, the loser takes off one piece of clothing!”

Luo Qiqi laughed.

“Huh?”

Lin Ran froze at his words.

“What’s wrong? You have a problem with that?”

Song Nuan asked with a smile at this.

Lin Ran was busy shaking his head.

“No .... No problem, you guys continue, don’t stop continue!”

As he said that, Lin Ran’s nosebleed flowed down again.

Chapter 683

Perhaps it was because they hadn’t been together for too long, the four women played until 3am, and as they played, Lin Ran watched even more than they did.

“Luckily! Fortunately, I have the true Qi of the healing path, otherwise I’m afraid my body would have been drained!”

Lin Ran was busy wiping away the nosebleed that was running down his face, his eyes glowing.

“Come on kid, if you bleed any more you’ll go into shock!”

Pillow Book helplessly reminded.

“Uh ....”

Lin Ran was stunned to see that the four women were also tired and ready to rest, so he immediately ran back to his room first to save the four women from having another “overtime” later on.

.....

The next morning, Lin Ran got up early, although he slept late, but once in a while this kind of visual feast makes him feel quite good.

However, the four women were obviously a bit overwhelmed, apart from Qin Bing who was already used to this rhythm of sleeping late and waking up early, the other three were still sleeping in.

“Are we still going out today?”

Qin Bing asked as she finished washing up and saw Lin Ran sitting on the first floor balcony drinking tea, and went up to her.

The early morning sunlight sprinkled on her face, the whole person up like an iceberg bathed in sunlight, beautiful and cold, but also like a hibiscus out of water.

“Mmm!”

Lin Ran looked a little dazed and nodded his head.

“Be safe, I’ll go down and get busy first!”

Qin Bing smiled and turned around to leave.

“Qin Bing!”

Lin Ran suddenly spoke.

“Hm?”

Qin Bing turned her head and looked at Lin Ran with some confusion.

“I’m sorry to have wronged you!”

Lin Ran felt a little guilty, the Qin family in the imperial capital was so powerful, the family was so prominent, Qin Bing was even the pearl of the Qin family, if she hadn’t followed herself in this small clinic, I’m afraid that her life would definitely be more than a hundred times more exciting than it is now.

“I’m not interested in those passing clouds, I’m only interested in you!”

Qin Bing laughed, at this moment it was as if the entire glacier had melted.

Lin Ran smiled and spoke.

“I still like the crazy you from last night!”

“Bah! Rascal!”

Qin Bing gave Lin Ran a blank look and followed, then went downstairs.

Lin Ran sipped his tea to himself, and his mind was filled with thoughts.

It wasn’t that Qin Bing was too cold, it was just that she hadn’t met anyone who could make her feel good. Last night, she was absolutely different from her usual self.

“Isn’t Su Rou like that too?”

Lin Ran smiled, Su Rou’s family background should reasonably have an inferiority complex in her heart when she was with the other three, but apparently after such a long time together, she had forgotten about the disparity in status, a truly good friend and best friend could never be measured by these external conditions.

“It’s time for me to leave too!”

Lin Ran put the tea cup on the table, got up and went downstairs.

Wang Mao and Ah Zhan were already waiting at the entrance of the shop. When they saw Lin Ran coming down, they immediately greeted him and got into the car, and the three of them headed straight to Leng Zhan's residence.

The neighbourhood, still as peaceful as ever, was ready to go upstairs as the three arrived and parked their car.

But just as the three of them passed by the community square, they found that there were a lot of elderly people gathered here, and a familiar voice came from inside.

"It's Old He!"

Wang Mao said at once, he was a mercenary by birth, this voice basically had the ability to never forget, whose voice he could identify after hearing it only once.

"Go over and take a look!"

Hearing that it was Old He, Lin Ran immediately walked over, this black-hearted doctor, who had been cheating on Leng Zhan when he first saw him, still didn't know how many people he was going to screw over by sitting here at this time.

Since Lin Ran had come across this matter, it was only natural that he should take care of it.

"Auntie, your illness is not serious, but it is very urgent, headache, brain fever, fever and cold, none of them are easy to deal with, if you delay, it might lead to meningitis, and pneumonia!"

In the crowd, Old He sat at the consultation table, and said solemnly, with a bit of worry on his face, bluffing an old lady in front of him.

"So, Doctor He, what should I do about this illness?"

The old lady asked, her eyes very anxious.

The older people get, the more they cherish their lives, and this is an unchanging truth.

"No matter, I'll prescribe some medicine for you, take it back and eat it for a few days and you'll be fine!"

Old He said as he took out six medicine packs and handed them to the old lady.

"That's three hundred in total, two days to be absolutely cured!"

"Three hundred yuan! Good! I'll get the money for you right now!"

The old lady said and was about to touch her pocket, Old He was happy to see this and said.

"The old man's money is still good, that bastard has ruined my business, I have business all over the world, cold cut that single big deal I still do not do!"

But at that moment, a white palm was pressed on the old lady's hand, stopping her, and at the same time a voice came over with a smile.

“Doctor He, it’s been a long time!”

“Who .....

Old He frowned slightly and looked up, when he saw that it was Lin Ran who appeared in front of him, he was so scared that he stood up from his chair and was busy taking several steps back.

“Young man, what are you doing?”

The old lady looked at Lin Ran in confusion, not understanding why he was stopping himself from withdrawing the money.

“Madam, your illness is just an ordinary headache, just go to the pharmacy and spend twenty yuan to buy a few pills to take!”

Lin Ran said blandly.

“Spend twenty yuan? Young man, are you kidding, the old lady can be cured of this illness for twenty yuan?”

The old lady seemed unconvinced and frowned at Lin Ran.

While in the distance, Old He revealed a cold smile and said darkly.

“Still fucking coming to tear me down, let’s see what you do now, these old men and women, they don’t eat your shit!”

That’s right, people who are old love to save on a regular basis, but when they are really sick, as long as they have money they will find a way to see a doctor, Old He gave a quote of three hundred dollars, while Lin Ran only needed twenty dollars for his hand, the difference in price in between caused some disbelief in the old lady’s heart.

“Old lady, I’m also a doctor and used to work in the Chinese medicine department of Temperance Hospital, now you can believe me!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Tamkang Hospital? That’s a good hospital!”

The old lady was half convinced when she heard that, but Old He in front of her opened his mouth at just the right time and sneered.

“Kid, you should also pay attention to the occasion, bragging in front of the old man, you are not afraid that this cow hide will be blown!”

He took out his mobile phone and tapped it a few times, then waved it at the crowd and shouted.

“Everyone search the internet for themselves, is there still a person like Lin Ran who is an active physician in Tamagawa City now? He was fired from Temperance Hospital a long time ago!”

“What? Fired?”

The old lady was taken aback at the words and was busy looking at the phones of the other people next to her, and sure enough they didn't find anyone called Lin Ran in Temperance Hospital online anymore.

"Kid! You cheat people also adjust the place, in front of the old man to pretend what big head of garlic!"

Old He sneered, having been in the jungle for many years, he still had this ability to adapt.

"Young man, have you really been fired?"

The old lady looked at Lin Ran, and the trust she had just built up collapsed again.

Chapter 684

"It's not a start, I left my job on my own, and I've opened a clinic now too!"

Lin Ran said indifferently, but the words were obviously not very convincing.

"Opened a clinic by yourself? What, no business in the shop, so you're here to steal patients from the old man? That's ridiculous!"

Old He laughed coldly.

"Yes, young man, why are you here in our neighbourhood if you don't sit in your clinic?"

The old lady also asked in confusion.

"I'm here to see someone!"

Lin Ran said helplessly, he had made it so clear, but the other party still suspected, that old he was really cunning, it seemed that he could not be cured without a stone hammer.

"Hey, hey! Wait a minute guys, is his name Lin ..... Lin Ran?"

Suddenly, someone in the crowd spoke up.

"Yes, he's Lin Ran, what's up?"

Immediately, someone returned.

"It's true that I didn't find any serving physicians named Lin Ran, but I found out that there is an honorary specialist at Temperance Hospital who seems to be named Lin Ran!"

The man said.

"An honorary specialist?"

The crowd froze at the sound of this and immediately took out their phones to look it up again.

Even Old He, who had a disdainful look on his face, hurriedly picked up his phone and looked for him.

Soon, the crowd exploded.

"My God, it's really an honorary expert! Lin Ran!"

"These photos are all of him! It's the man himself!"

“An honorary expert, how high must that medical skill be!”

“Anyway, I know it’s very difficult to be a chief physician at Tamkang Hospital, let alone an honorary expert!”

.....

The crowd said one thing and then another, instantly making the matter clear.

The old lady at the side’s gaze on Lin Ran had changed at this time, previously with suspicion, but at this time it had completely turned into a smile.

“Expert Lin, this illness of mine, can it really be cured by spending only twenty dollars?”

“Naturally!”

Lin Ran smiled and nodded, he was still thinking about how to convince the crowd, but now he saw that it was completely unnecessary.

“Old He!”

Lin Ran turned his head to look at Old He.

“You’re not too young!”

“What’s it to do with you!”

Old He rebuked coldly, anger in his eyes.

“At such an old age, coming out to treat others to pit these older than your own age, aren’t you losing your heart? Don’t forget that you will have such a day in the future too!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

“Who pitched it, she just has a headache, did Lao Tzu see it wrong?”

Old He retorted, if he admitted it at this point, he would have lost the trust of not just one patient, but a community, and he wouldn’t have had the chance to see any of the patients in this one community.

“You’re not wrong, but you want three hundred for this medicine at every turn, how do you import it? Dare you open it and take a look?”

Lin Ran laughed.

“You .....

Old He was, however, dumbfounded.

“If I’m not wrong, more than eighty percent of what you have in this packet of medicine is of little use, only two or three types of herbs are used to treat illnesses, if you don’t believe me let’s open it now and take a look!”

Lin Ran continued.

Old He's face changed when he heard this, and cold sweat instantly ran down his face as he pointed at Lin Ran.

"You .... How did you know that?"

"The smell!"

Lin Ran stretched out his hand and fanned it in front of his nose.

"I can smell and identify herbs, so what the hell you have in mind can't be hidden from me!"

"For a disease that can be fixed in twenty, you ask people for three hundred, the price has doubled ten times and it's still not worth it, has your conscience been eaten by dogs?"

Lin Ran said here, his face obviously became a few degrees colder.

"You!"

Old He was so angry that his face turned blue, and he immediately packed his things and was about to leave.

"Boss!"

Wang Mao and Ah Zhan saw this and were busy looking at Lin Ran, the meaning was obvious, they obviously did not want to let this old greaser go.

"Forget it, just let him go!"

Lin Ran said, while laughing aloud at Old He, who had already run away.

"Doctor He, let's not change the green hills, don't let me bump into you next time!"

"Humph!"

Old He was so angry that he flung his sleeves and ran out of the district, clutching his belongings.

Lin Ran then wrote a prescription for the old lady and told her to take it and get the medicine, which would definitely not exceed thirty pieces, and then walked with Wang Mao and the three of them towards Leng Zhan's residence.

"Boss, why did you let that bastard Old He go?"

Halfway up the road, Ah Zhan was a little puzzled.

"What else can I do if I don't leave? He only took black money, but after all, he didn't harm anyone, and it's useless to call the police for such things!"

Lin Ran shook his head.

People like Old He were just greedy for petty cash, he didn't dare to really poison himself, he only played some small tricks occasionally, so this kind of thing was basically useless even if the police were called.

"But this old thing!"

Ah Zhan was still a bit furious.

Wang Mao, however, patted him on the side and laughed.

“Forget it, this kind of person will have bad luck sooner or later, so don’t take it too personally!”

“Alright!”

Ah Zhan sighed and didn’t say much, he had a violent temper, if Lin Ran hadn’t let him do it, I’m afraid he would have rushed up and given this old He a good beating.

The three of them arrived at Leng Zhan’s house, the door was unlocked and the three of them walked straight in, but just as they entered the door the three of them smelled a faint fragrance, this fragrance was very special, a bit like the fragrance of jasmine flowers, but at the same time it was somewhat like the fragrance of tea.

“This is the scent of cherry blossoms!”

Suddenly, a voice rang out, followed by the curtains of the balcony’s floor-to-ceiling window being opened, only to see a figure sitting in front of the floor-to-ceiling window, holding a red wine glass in his hand, smiling at the three of them.

“Shit! Brother Chop, what’s that game you’re playing?”

Ah Zhan couldn’t help but ask.

He could only see Leng Zhan wearing a suit, sitting on the floor and leaning against the wall, his whole body very neatly tidied up, as if nothing was wrong.

Lin Ran smiled at this and looked around, finding that the entire house had been tidied up immaculately, completely as if it had been changed.

“Brother Chop! You’ve really come back!”

Wang Mao reacted, rushing up and hugging Leng Zhan.

“Go go! Go aside, it’s not you two I’m waiting for!”

Leng Zhan looked at Lin Ran with anticipation in his eyes.

“Your transformation makes me appreciate it!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“I appreciate your words too!”

Leng Zhan said with the same smile, following which he drained the red wine in his glass and looked at Lin Ran without speaking.

“Are you ready for rebirth?”

Lin Ran laughed.

“I’ve been preparing for three years!”

There was blazing heat in Leng Xuan's eyes.

"Even if it hurts again, you're not afraid?"

Lin Ran asked with a smile.

"Is there anything more terrifying than death?"

Leng Xie laughed.

"Pack out a bed and get ready to begin!"

Lin Ran laughed and nodded his head.

The two of them, Wang Mao, quickly packed out a bed and carried Leng Xie up on it.

"Lie down! I'm going to say it again, your tendons are well connected but there's a big problem, I'm going to re-cut your faulty tendons and then put them back together, the whole process may be very painful for you, I hope you can hold on!"

Lin Ran took out the tendon replacement herb and put it aside.

"Come on, I've been waiting for three years, I can't wait a minute longer, the tendons are just tendons, it's not like I've never fucking broken them!"

"But before that, you have to ..... Take a punch from me!"

Leng Zhan said, he actually turned around with one hand propped up on the ground, and with his other hand he made a fist towards Lin Ran's face.

Chapter 685

"Brother Chop, you're crazy!"

"Brother Chop!"

Wang Mao and the two of them both looked dumbfounded, wasn't it about healing, how come Leng Zhaoge suddenly struck out.

Lin Ran, however, saw it for real, Leng Zhaoge's face was clearly hung with frenzy.

"Bang!"

Lin Ran casually swung out a punch and collided with Leng Zhaoge, at once the tremendous force directly blasted Leng Zhaoge off the bed, and the whole person immediately fell into a coma.

"Boss, you!"

"Boss!"

The two Wang Mao men were instantly dumbfounded.

But Lin Ran was just like nothing, smiling to himself and shaking his head.

“Alright, don’t worry blindly, pick him up, picking out the pain of the broken tendons will make him go crazy, he won’t wake up in an hour!”

Hearing Lin Ran’s words, only then did the two Wang Mao breathe a sigh of relief and busily lifted Leng Zhan up again.

As for why Leng Zhan had suddenly struck just now, they didn’t know, and obviously Lin Ran shouldn’t know either, so they didn’t ask.

This question, I’m afraid, can only be answered when Leng Zhan wakes up and asks himself.

.....

Since Leng Zhan had been knocked unconscious by Lin Ran’s punch, the entire treatment process, the guy had no impression at all, plus the fact that his senses were locked up with his Medical Dao True Qi, so that he didn’t feel any pain at all, the entire treatment was over.

“Goo dong!”

Wang Mao and Ah Zhan sat down paralyzed on the ground to the side and gulped at the same time, their heads covered in cold sweat.

To them, the treatment just now was nothing short of a torture, and although they were just watching, both of them felt their scalps tingle and their heels go cold.

“It’s horrible! Is the boss still human!”

Ah Zhan couldn’t help but mutter.

“Definitely not, cutting off Chopper’s hamstring so sharply, if this were an ordinary person, could he sit on this without even frowning?”

Wang Mao said.

“Don’t shout at me about offending the boss in the future, I still want to live a few more years!”

Ah Zhan couldn’t help but say, at this moment he just felt his mouth was dry.

“Me too! Damn it don’t offend the boss by offending anyone, a big brother who can do medicine is just too damn scary!”

Wang Mao was also busy saying.

“What are you two muttering about? Get up and get to work when you’re well rested!”

Lin Ran put out the butt of his cigarette and got up to greet him.

“Boss, isn’t the operation already over?”

Wang Mao and the two of them got up and asked, their faces full of respect. If they had only admired Lin Ran before, they were really scared now, what Lin Ran had done just now was no different from a demon who killed and divided corpses.

“Right boss, isn’t it over already?”

Ah Zhang was also busy asking, both of them looked very nervous at this point.

“What are you two nervous about? The operation is over, but he’s almost awake too!”

Lin Ran laughed helplessly and greeted the two men as they stepped forward to hold Leng Xuan’s head and legs and both arms respectively.

“Boss what are we doing?”

The two men asked in confusion.

“The effect of the medicine is about to pass, after he wakes up, he will definitely not be able to bear it because of the severe pain, let’s hold him down and not let him move around, otherwise the wound will be in trouble if it falls apart!”

Lin Ran said.

Wang Mao and the two of them heard this but were stunned and laughed afterwards.

“Boss, there’s no need for that, Leng Zhan is a soldier king, he can still hold up to these pains!”

“Right boss, Brother Chop I think can resist on his own!”

Ah Zhan also said.

Lin Ran, however, smiled blandly and said.

“Fine, then you guys can stand to the side and watch, if his wound is crumbling open, even if we find ten tendon replacement herbs, we won’t be able to save him!”

“This ....”

Hearing Lin Ran’s words, the two immediately ran over anyway, pressing down on Leng Zhan separately.

And almost as soon as the two pressed them, followed by Leng Zhan’s eyes opened, his eyes still a little dazed, as if he had forgotten where he was.

“Brother Chop, you’re awake!”

Ah Zhan said with a busy smile, followed by a look at Wang Mao who seemed to be saying, “Boss seems to have said it wrong, Brother Chop is not at all unharmed.

But the next moment, he felt a huge force surging from his hand, in looking at Leng Zhan, only to see that at this time his eyes were full of blood, the whole person seemed to have gone off the rails.

“Ah!”

Leng Zhan shouted out violently, followed by his whole body struggling violently, fortunately the three of them held Leng Zhan down at the same time, otherwise there was no telling what he would have done with such a great force.

“Hold it tight!”

Lin Ran said busily.

He was standing in front of Leng Zhan's feet at this moment, and his hands were like two iron pincers under the infusion of Medical Dao True Qi, firmly locking Leng Zhan's legs so that he couldn't move a bit.

"It hurts! It hurts! Ah!"

Leng Xuan shouted, and his body twitched, his whole body bowing from the intense pain.

"This ...."

Wang Mao and the two of them looked stunned in their hearts, they had thought that Lin Ran was wrong, but seeing Leng Zhan's reaction at this moment they realised that Lin Ran was right, they were the ones who believed in Leng Zhan's endurance too much.

But then again, what kind of endurance would it take to make a soldier king like Leng Zhan unable to carry the load, if it were the two of them, would they be able to carry it?

Time passed, and soon Leng Zhan gradually quieted down and stopped tossing and turning, just lying on the bed and panting heavily.

"Let go!"

Lin Ran greeted as he let go of his hand.

The two Wang Mao also let go, and only then did the three of them see that Leng Xie was looking at the ceiling with his eyes open, his face covered in beads of sweat, not knowing if it was because of the huge pain and sweating, or what.

"Oh .... Oh ....."

Suddenly, Leng Xie smiled, but the smile was tinged with tears.

"Brother Chop!"

"What's wrong with you, Brother Chop?"

Wang Mao and Ah Zhan were busy asking, their faces full of worry.

"I'm fine, I feel fine!"

Leng Zhan raised his hand to wipe off the water stains on his face, turned his head to look at Lin Ran and asked with a smile.

"Did I pass out from that punch just now?"

"Yes!"

Lin Ran nodded his head.

Leng Zhan nodded at his words, before putting away the smile on his face and asking.

"What about my injuries?"

“Rest in bed for a day today, you can go down to the ground early tomorrow morning, but no strenuous exercise, this is medicine, take it internally and apply it externally, change it every three hours, and don’t stop at night, it will definitely heal in two days!”

Lin Ran said as he took out two bottles of prepared medicine and placed them next to him.

“You guys go, I’ve hired a babysitter, see you in three days!”

Leng Chop looked towards the ceiling and said indifferently.

“Brother Chop, you ....”

Wang Mao sighed.

“Brother Chop, thank you has to be said!”

Ah Zhan said.

Leng Xie, however, did not pay any attention to him.

“Let’s go!”

Lin Ran greeted and instantly walked towards the door.

Wang Mao and Ah Zhan looked at each other, both a little uncomfortable, but they still followed.

The door to the room was quickly opened, and just as the three were about to leave, Leng Zhan spoke up.

“Lin Ran!”

“Speak!”

Lin Ran didn’t turn around, he just stood in place.

“I, Leng Xuan .... obey you! From now on .... I’ll hang out with you!”

Leng Zhan said after a moment’s pause, and then spoke again.

“Thank you!”

Smiles appeared on all three of Lin Ran’s faces.

“Recuperate well, I still want to see how strong you, the King of Soldiers, really are!”

Lin Ran laughed, following his steps and walking out.

In his heart, he understood that a person like Leng Zhan had an arrogance in his bones, how arrogant was the King of Soldiers of his generation, like a lone wolf in a pack, would he be able to give in that easily.

That punch was perhaps his test, and the one he used to make his decision.

Chapter 686

The atmosphere along the way was unusually relaxed, the matter of Soldier King Leng Xuan was finally resolved, and a stone in the hearts of Wang Mao and Ah Zhan had finally landed on the ground.

“Boss, what are we going to do next?”

In the car, Wang Mao was busy asking.

“Yes boss, I have already chosen the path of martial arts, what are we going to do next?”

Ah Zhan was also busy asking.

Previously, because of Leng Zhan, they still had a tie in their hearts, but now that Leng Zhan was about to recover as well, they naturally focused on Lin Ran’s side, after all, Lin Ran’s skill of wielding his hands to control things was something they also desired very much.

“Learn Feng Shui!”

Lin Ran laughed indifferently, and then stopped talking.

....

Back at the shop, Lin Ran directly gathered the crowd together.

The shop had basically taken shape by now and the tables and chairs were all in place, the only thing missing was the computers, something that Luo Qiqi had already arranged and just needed to wait for them to be delivered to his door.

“Good work!”

Lin Ran gave the tip of Luo Qiqi’s nose a scratch, very doting.

“As long as you like it!”

Luo Qiqi blushed pretty red and was very shy.

“I say Ranzi, almost, so many people are watching, and still show love, we young people can still carry it, how do you make old Yu head look!”

Wang Yifeng sat on the sofa, very upset said.

“Er .... I’ve already passed that kind of passionate burning years, Master and Senior Mother can ignore me!”

Master Yu said busily.

On the side, Wang Mao Ah Zhan and the two of them were unable to stop laughing at the sound.

“Alright, get down to business!”

Lin Ran cleared his throat and picked up a booklet that Luo Qiqi had prepared long ago at the side and handed one out to each person.

“What’s this?”

The crowd picked up the booklet and wondered a little, only to see a few big words written on the cover.

“Introductory Level Feng Shui Discipline!”

“Holy shit, this is an introductory feng shui textbook? There’s a textbook for this?”

Wang Yifeng pressed the booklet and was suddenly helpless, he only knew about the nine-year compulsory education, this feng shui textbook was really rare.

“This is my own big print!”

Lin Ran said, while looking at the crowd and saying.

“On it, there’s a full set of introductory beginner’s explanations on feng shui, very comprehensive!”

“Master, but I already know many of the things on here!”

Master Yu said with some embarrassment as he held the booklet.

Wang Yifeng even directly threw the booklet aside, not bothering to read it.

Lin Ran didn’t get angry when he saw this, and looked at Master Yu and Wang Mao as they laughed.

“Fatty Wang is an exception, you don’t need to care about him, he is not good at feng shui, but by chance he has already crossed into the Qi Watching Realm, and his path is basically set, whether he learns feng shui or not is his business, if he learns well he will have high achievements in the future, but if he doesn’t, he will be like this for the rest of his life! But you guys are different!”

“Holy shit!”

Hearing Lin Ran’s words, Wang Yifeng immediately picked up the feng shui booklet again, although he was very resistant to learning, he could not really let these few people of Master Yu surpass himself, this was something he still cared about.

The crowd couldn’t help but laugh at this, and Lin Ran didn’t bother to pay any attention to him, looking to Master Yu’s three men.

“This feng shui booklet, you must watch it carefully, those that Master Yu already knows can compare and contrast, those that don’t know can be considered as learning, as for Wang Mao Ah Zhan you two are learning completely from scratch, so you must watch it properly!”

“Yes boss!”

“Don’t worry pull down!”

The two solemnly nodded their heads.

“Also, you two can ask Master Yu first if you don’t understand anything, he still knows a lot, if you all don’t understand, come to me!”

Lin Ran said, and after he finished, he once again looked at Wang Mao.

“Old Cat, the three of you, Master Yu and Ah Zhan have all decided on your path, now you’re the only one who hasn’t! Here I am saying it again!”

“It’s very important to choose your own path, for example, Master Yu he is definitely the path of Feng Shui, while Ah Zhan is the one of martial arts, so you two should understand the main priority, especially Ah Zhan!”

“Studying Feng Shui is just to let you understand more, at the same time Feng Shui can open your eyes as well as help you improve your physical fitness, but Martial Arts is your fundamental path!”

“Boss, I understand!”

Ah Zhan nodded solemnly.

Lin Ran looked at Wang Mao.

“You haven’t thought about it yet, so study and learn Feng Shui first, then combine Feng Shui and Martial Arts, you might be able to come out of your own path!”

“Okay boss!”

Wang Mao nodded his head.

Lin Ran, afraid that he didn’t understand what he meant, added.

“You’re good at scouting, you require extremely high physical qualities, feng shui’s bone touching and face reading, and even the half-step looking qi realm, can all improve physical qualities, you can reach the half-step looking qi realm in feng shui first, and then turn to the physical path, this might suit you best!”

“Of course, that’s my suggestion, you’ll have to figure out how eventually as soon as possible! At least you must make a choice when you reach the half-step qi-watching realm, once you cross over to the qi-watching realm, you will have no choice, like Wang Yifeng!”

“Understood!”

Wang Mao nodded solemnly.

To be able to point out the path based on his own characteristics in a personal way, the boss did this, and it really convinced him.

“Alright, you guys watch first!”

Lin Ran dropped a sentence, and immediately took Luo Qiqi and went up to the first floor.

“What’s wrong with Brother Lin Ran?”

Luo Qiqi was a little bewildered, not knowing why she was going up to the first floor.

“These booklets, you also give one to each of Song Nuan and the girls, tell them that I don’t expect you to learn much, but at least some understanding, if in the future ..... I mean if one day I’m not around anymore, this is what you have to protect yourselves!”

Lin Ran solemnly said.

“Brother Lin Ran, don’t talk nonsense, you will definitely always be there!”

Luo Qiqi’s eyes flashed red and she flung herself into Lin Ran’s arms.

“We all know that you are actually torn in your heart, Sister Qin Bing and Sister Song Nuan have even told us that if you are really embarrassed, we ..... We could even do without the name!”

“Eh?”

Lin Ran was instantly baffled when he heard that, don’t want a name?

“What are you four talking about when you get together?”

Lin Ran was filled with helplessness and at the same time, he was also a little relieved.

“Am I that good? All four of you are so good, is it worth it for me?”

“Worth it! There’s no absolute value in liking someone, I just know that Sister Nuan and I and the girls all like you, so it should feel like everyone is worth it, just like me!”

Luo Qiqi said in a soft voice.

Lin Ran was dumbfounded and couldn’t help but think of that fiery red figure.

“Does Ling Sa feel the same way? It’s just that with her violent temper, I hope she doesn’t fight with Song Nuan and Qin Bing in the future!”

As the thought really crossed his mind, a dry cough suddenly sounded out.

“Ahem! I don’t want to interrupt your time together, but.... I don’t want to disturb your time together, but!”

Lin Ran the two were busy letting go and turned their heads to look at Wang Yifeng, speechless.

“Say something human!”

“That, this ..... There’s an old man who says he has business and is willing to pay a million, do you want to go down and take a look?”

Wang Yifeng said awkwardly.

“What has business? Quickly take me down!”

Before Lin Ran could make a statement, Luo Qiqi became excited and immediately pulled Wang Yifeng and ran down, jokingly, this was after all her first time doing business alone, just thinking about it was very exciting.

“This nee-san!”

Lin Ran shook his head helplessly and followed with a smile.

Chapter 687

In fact, this is also true, although the Luo family has a large family, but the more such a business, the more rules there are in the family, even Luo Qiqi does not have the right to interfere with the business of the family business, so this business is strictly speaking, it is really the first time she has received business.

When he got downstairs, Lin Jean immediately saw that an old man who was over half a hundred years old and had white hair was standing in the hall, he didn't sit either, he just stood, but his whole aura was very powerful.

"How do you address senior?"

Lin Ran asked with a smile, while walking forward.

"Old man Meng Wen, you can call me Elder Meng!"

The old man said blandly, while his gaze sized up Lin Ran's body, his expression not changing in any way.

"Lin Ran!"

Lin Ran smiled and extended his hand to shake the other party's hand.

However, as soon as this palm was shaken, Lin Ran felt that the other party lashed out, a huge force acting directly on his hand, but fortunately, Lin Ran also had the strength to completely defy such a provocative tactic from him.

"Haha! Not bad!"

Meng Lao suddenly let go of his palm and smiled at Lin Ran.

"Kid, a million dollar deal, take it or leave it?"

"Let's talk about the situation first!"

Lin Ran said indifferently, while sitting on the sofa and lighting a cigarette, as soon as this feng shui stuff was involved, he couldn't help but want to smoke one.

"Good!"

Meng Lao was also very quick and immediately sat down on the opposite side and spoke.

"It's very simple, there's a big family who died of a daughter, now they need to pick a good feng shui point for burial, I'll give you a deposit of one million first, and another one million after it's done!"

"Holy shit! Two million?"

Wang Yifeng's eyes went straight as he heard this.

Lin Ran glared at him, but then laughed.

"Isn't Elder Meng afraid that I'll take the one million and run away?"

"Not afraid!"

Elder Meng also laughed.

“If I dare to give it, I’ll dare to ask for it back, curiosity killed the cat, better not give me that chance!”

“Haha!”

Lin Ran also laughed.

“Time, place!”

“Departing now, location deep in the mountains west of the city!”

Meng Lao said.

“Yes!”

Lin Ran instantly nodded his head and agreed.

“Go and pack up, we’re leaving in an hour, we’re all going except for Kiki!”

“Okay Boss!”

“Okay Master!”

Master Yu and the three of them, Wang Mao, were instantly interested at the words, it was obvious that going on a field trip would be more enjoyable than reading feng shui pamphlets in a shop.

“Brother Lin Ran, I want to go too!”

Luo Qiqi said with a beak, that little look made people’s hearts ache.

“Stop it, you still have a job to do, hurry up and send the booklet back to Song Nuan and the girls, and at the same time bring them here for a visit, remember, you are not allowed to take any more orders without me!”

“Yes!”

Luo Qiqi nodded in response.

An hour passed quickly, Lin Ran and his group all got into Meng Lao’s car, and after saying goodbye to Luo Qiqi, they headed straight to the west of the city.

The western part of the city was the most backward area in terms of development, but it was only relative, mainly because there were many mountains in the western part of the city, but they were not big enough to have any tourist value, so they became a place that was temporarily abandoned.

This deep mountain in the west of the city, as Meng Lao calls it, is really deep.

Luckily there was a road leading to the destination and the road was just barely walkable.

“Old man, you look like you’re doing well, how come your master buried a real daughter so far away!”

Wang Yifeng teased.

“Master’s ancestry is from here, only later he made his fortune in Temagami City! You should be content, just this road was built at master’s expense, just to be able to get home easily!”

Meng Lao said without good humour.

“Which is not true, since your family is so rich, it would be better to buy a cemetery in the city directly, why bury it so far away, this is not a waste of time!”

Wang Yifeng wondered.

Lin Ran and the others were also bewildered, not knowing what was going on here.

“You don’t understand, for the sake of the grandfather’s family’s ancestral training, but all immediate family members must be buried back in the ancestral land, otherwise it is considered treacherous!”

Meng Lao Dao, seemingly saying too much, followed by adding.

“Don’t ask so many questions, when you get to the place and choose a good feng shui point you can take your money and leave!”

“Cut!”

Wang Yi saw the situation and did not bother to ask more questions, immediately leaned back in his seat and huffed and puffed.

The car went on its way, and it was almost noon before it arrived at the place.

This was a place with beautiful mountains, but in such a remote place, there were still many villages, and the place where Lin Ran and the others went up the mountain was at the edge of one of them.

“Let’s go, we still have to walk for an hour to get to our destination!”

Meng Lao seemed to be in a great hurry, and after saying this, he led the group to start climbing the mountain.

The mountains here were very treacherous, and the path up the mountain was still trodden out by generations of people walking here, and there was basically no path to walk on elsewhere.

“Hey hey, Master Yu, look at the mountain peak in front of you, isn’t it the Wanchuan Feng Shui Bureau written in the Feng Shui booklet?”

Suddenly, Wang Mao asked, pointing at the layered mountain peaks in front of him.

From here, the peaks in front of him were one layer after another, and at a rough glance, one could distinguish that there were more than ten peaks.

“Technically speaking, this is indeed the pattern of the Wanchuan Feng Shui Bureau, but there are still a few mountains and rivers, so it should not be enough for the Wanchuan Feng Shui Bureau!”

Master Yu stroked his beard and laughed.

“Then what is the pattern?”

Wang Mao asked in wonder, if it wasn’t the Wanchuan Feng Shui Bureau, could it be that there was no pattern?

Master Yu smiled at this and said.

“There are only dozens of mountains and rivers, saying ten thousand is too lofty, saying one is obviously insufficient, according to me it should be a residual pattern!”

“Don’t talk nonsense if you don’t understand, what remnants! The old master’s family’s ancestral grave is on this hill, if the stump can be buried here, tell you don’t understand don’t talk nonsense ah, the grandfather’s family’s immediate family are buried in this hill!”

In the front, Meng Lao couldn’t listen anymore and opened his mouth to scold.

Lin Ran saw this but laughed.

“The Meng family of Temperance City, they really do have some heritage!”

“You ....”

Meng Lao was stunned at his words, he had never said from the beginning to the end that his lord was from the Meng family, how did this kid guess that.

“Coming from the west of the city, the famous rich man of Temperance City, and buried the entire ancestral tomb and even his immediate family in this Hundred Birds of Prey Bureau, who else could there be but the Meng family of Temperance City with a handiwork?”

“You!”

Meng Lao was even more surprised now.

The Meng family of Temujiang City, although not as strong as the Luo family, was still shooting at the top of the second tier, and with the other information, it wasn’t hard for Lin Ran to guess who the rightful owner was.

“Master, you say this is the Hundred Birds and the Phoenix Bureau? Isn’t this mountain and river a bit less!”

On the side, Master Yu was the one who didn’t care about the Meng family at all, the feng shui bureau was what he was most concerned about.

“Yes, Boss, the feng shui booklet also says that there are at least nearly a hundred mountains!”

Wang Mao was also busy asking.

Lin Ran, however, laughed.

“All feng shui patterns in this world are relative, a hundred birds facing the phoenix doesn’t really have to be a hundred mountains, it can also be a hundred mountains and rivers, it’s just as good, and although there are only a few dozen mountains here, each of them can beat a hundred! Strictly speaking, the feng shui layout here can be called the Little Hundred Birds of Prey!”

“In fact, this is easy to judge, you pay attention to the vegetation on each mountain peak, although there are many kinds, but each one must have evergreen trees on it in all seasons, and the scale is still the most, this side is the feathers of a hundred birds, even in winter the mountains here will not turn bald!”

“Holy shit! That’s really true! Ranzi you’re simply divine!”

Wang Yifeng exclaimed in awe as he took a look.

“I said, let you read more books if you have nothing to do, you just know how to find Xiao Cui, she has a hundred birds in her body!”

Lin Ran said without good humour.

“That’s not true, but there are also two mountains on Xiao Cui, I have to study them properly, don’t I, Fat Master!”

Wang Yifeng laughed.

Chapter 688

Wang Mao and the others couldn’t help but laugh along with them.

On the contrary, Meng Lao, who was in front of him, laughed and said.

“Not just running a feng shui company, little brother Lin Ran has such eyesight, it seems that old man I didn’t choose the wrong person!”

“There’s no need for compliments, let’s hurry up and catch up!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

Although the feng shui bureau here was good, and the Meng family was buried on this Hundred Birds and Phoenix Bureau, there was one thing he didn’t understand, didn’t the Meng family know that.

The more people they buried, the greater the burden on this Hundred Birds Facing the Phoenix Bureau?

Each grave is like a tumour on the body of a hundred birds, and one day the Bureau will collapse because it is too heavy for the Meng family to bear, and when that happens, it is hard to say what the fate of the Meng family will be.

.....

The three of them benefited greatly, especially Master Yu, who after all had a foundation in feng shui and understood it quickly, although he only hurried for an hour, he gained the most.

At 1pm, the crowd finally arrived at the location, but after arriving here, Lin Ran and the others found that there were actually at least a few dozen people here, not at all like a procession preparing for the burial, but rather like a procession that was already on its way to the burial.

“What’s going on here?”

Wang Yifeng asked in wonder, it was not necessary for so many people to go up the mountain to choose a grave, and these people obviously did not look like they were here to choose a grave, they all had shovels in their hands, they looked like they were here to bury someone.

“Let’s wait and see!”

Lin Ran frowned, the situation was unclear now and he couldn't make a judgement.

"Elder Meng! You've come!"

No sooner had the crowd stood still than a young man ran over in front of them, surrounded by three or four large men, and when he saw Lin Ran and the others, he was visibly stunned before asking.

"Elder Meng, is this the solution you found?"

The youth pointed at Lin Ran and the others with some disappointment in his eyes.

"Young master, these people are from a feng shui company, they should be able to solve the problem at hand!"

Meng Lao said solemnly.

"Meng Lao, you're old and confused, that problem that no Immortal Niu can solve, a few of them can? I think this is about the same age as me!"

Meng Hang said with a disdainful face, he was none other than the Meng family's young grandson, the person in charge of the whole thing.

"Young master, now that things have come to this point, we can only treat a dead horse as a living one!"

Meng Lao exclaimed.

"All right, all right! Anyway, the people are here, bring them up first and have a look!"

Meng Hang was helpless and waved his hand or compromised.

"Young master! The Ox Immortal has been captured!"

At that moment, suddenly a noisy sound came from the side, followed by the sight of seven or eight big brawny men, grabbing an old man dressed in Daoist robes and running over, throwing him directly to the ground without saying a word when he got close, apparently it was the so-called Niu Xianren.

"Good old bastard, I told you to run! Let you run!"

Meng Hang saw the other party and was instantly enraged, stepping forward and punching and kicking him, not holding back at all.

"Don't! Don't fight, Young Master Meng, there's really nothing I can do about this in your family, your family's old ancestor won't accept her, there's nothing anyone can do about it! You have to blame your family's old ancestor for this!"

Immortal Niu said busily.

"Fuck you!"

Meng Hang was so furious at hearing this that he went up and punched and kicked again.

It took a full ten minutes of beating before he was relieved and cursed at Immortal Niu.

“You useless thing, fortunately I’ve found another Feng Shui master, if there are no accidents later, I’ll come down to clean you up!”

With that, Meng Hang greeted the people and prepared to go up.

“Other feng shui masters?”

Immortal Niu was stunned at his words, but then he laughed.

“That’s them? A bunch of raw eggs, you still expect them? I said, this is still your ancestor not accepting her, you can find a group of raw melon eggs? I’m laughing my ass off!”

“Fuck you!”

Meng Hang was so angry that he was ready to go forward to hit someone again, but fortunately he was stopped by Lin Ran.

“What do you mean by the Ancestor not accepting her?”

Lin Ran asked as he looked at Immortal Niu.

“What do you mean, not accepting her means not accepting her, you think the money here is easy to earn, the old man can’t even earn it, just a few of you rash people still want to earn it? Get lost early and go back!”

The Ox Immortal said disdainfully.

“Hey old bastard, you talk to me politely, your own strength is not good, and still do not allow others to make money ah, believe it or not I will easily set things right later fat master!”

Wang Yifeng stepped forward and said unhappily.

“Hmph! Just you guys? Don’t make me laugh, a bunch of hairy kids who don’t know the sky is the limit!”

Immortal Ox laughed coldly, following which he turned his head away from the two.

“Hey, I say, you old thing, are you looking for a fight!”

Wang Yifeng was furious at the sight of this, but fortunately he was stopped by Lin Ran.

“Alright, since he doesn’t want to say much, we’d better go up and see for ourselves!”

With that, Lin Ran gestured for Meng Hang to lead the way, and the group continued to walk in the direction of the mountain under the latter’s leadership.

This walk took another full twenty minutes, and finally, when they were about to reach the top of the mountain, Meng Hang stopped.

“It’s just up ahead, come with me!”

Meng Hang greeted.

Lin Ran nodded and immediately led Wang Yifeng and the others to follow him over.

This was a relatively flat hillside, at most 30 or 40 metres away from the top of the mountain. Around this place there was a lot of fresh soil that had been turned up, and seven or eight people with shovels were squatting on the ground smoking.

In front of them, there was a deep pit, which was obviously the tomb, but what made the difference was that the coffin was erected right above the tomb at this time, but it did not fall down.

“Elder Meng, Duke Meng, what’s going on?”

Lin Ran frowned as he watched, this was completely different from when Elder Meng had approached them for a chat earlier.

“Brother Lin Ran, listen to my explanation!”

Meng Lao busily stood out and said.

“It’s urgent, I lied to you, isn’t there a rule in your line of work that you don’t want to get your hands on the acupuncture points set by others, but now that things have gotten out of that Immortal Bull’s control, I had no choice but to trick you guys into coming here!”

“So what?”

Lin Ran looked frowning, the coffin hanging without falling this would be right not a good thing, I’m afraid this time the list is not so simple to eat.

“So I’m sorry, here’s the thing of being able to rely on you, I promise to give an additional million after the matter is completed, a total of three million!”

Meng Lao said.

“That’s enough! Don’t give me three million, I’ll give you five million, let’s see what happens first, okay?”

Meng Hang said impatiently from the side.

Lin Ran wanted to say that it wouldn’t be a matter of money, but before he could say anything, Master Yu on the side was the one who spoke first.

“Can you guys put the coffin on the ground first before talking about it, hanging it in the air like that is a great disrespect to the dead!”

“I want to, look at it!”

Meng Hang said in no good humour, while quickly stepping forward and directly pulling out the wood holding the coffin, at once one side of the coffin was completely suspended in the air.

“Now the coffin wasn’t even set up by these logs, it was floating in the air on its own and wouldn’t come down!”

Dreamhang was so angry that he didn’t know what to say.

“Coffins don’t go into caves, this .... This is not just the old ancestor not accepting her!”

Master Yu’s face was ugly and he slapped his thighs straight!

Chapter 689

“Little brother Lin Ran, do you have a solution to this situation?”

Meng Lao was busy coming forward to ask.

On the side, Meng Hang similarly stared at Lin Ran with a nervous face.

Lin Ran did not answer immediately, but turned to look at the two men and said with a frown.

“Elder Meng, if the two of you want me to get into this mess, you should at least tell me the ins and outs of the matter, you can’t just throw me a mess to deal with, don’t you think so!”

“This .....

Meng Lao hesitated a bit, and Meng Hang, who was on the side, also hesitated for a moment as well and spoke.

“Kid, it’s not that I can’t tell you the truth of the matter, but what if you’re a cheat who cheats on food and drinks just like that fairy cow outside? I can tell you things, but if you can’t solve the matter here, then how can you say that?”

Meng Hang’s face clearly became a bad look, as if the hidden story was not convenient for others to know.

“Aigoo, I’ll go! Kid, you’re fucking confused, are we the ones who went up the pole and asked to come? You invited us in the first place, and now you want us to fight without telling us the situation, do you really think I’m a rash man, Fat Master!”

Wang Yifeng cursed and scolded.

The faces of Wang Mao and Ah Zhan at the back also suddenly looked ugly, although they had only just started to understand feng shui, but Wang Yifeng had said so, it was obvious that the other party had done something rather excessive.

“Little brother Lin Ran, does this matter have to be the reason? The situation is already obvious, you just need to find a way to get the coffin into the ground and this matter will be over!”

Meng Lao was busy saying, he was the one who found the person, and at this point this conflict had arisen, he hadn’t expected it beforehand.

“If the coffin goes into the ground, the matter will be over? Elder Meng, you’re thinking really simple!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“This coffin weighs at least a hundred pounds in wooden planks alone, and it is now suspended in mid-air without even the slightest sign of shaking, so you’re telling me it’s simple? If it was really simple why would you come to me!”

“But!”

Meng Lao was instantly speechless.

“Come on kid, are you good at it or not! If you can’t do it, then get the hell out of here. There are plenty of feng shui masters in Tanjiang City, I don’t believe I can’t find one who can put a coffin in the ground without asking for a reason!”

Meng Hang said angrily.

Lin Ran laughed at his words.

“Haha, whatever! A coffin hanging without falling is like a sharp sword hanging over your head, the coffin will fall and people will die, so if you’re not afraid that your Meng family will be cut off, you can go and try looking for it!”

Saying that, Lin Ran turned around and was about to leave, Wang Yifeng followed without saying a word, Ah Zhan and Wang Mao did the same, on the contrary, Master Yu who was on the side was busy speaking.

“Master, you can’t leave, this kind of feng shui bureau can be a big deal if it’s not handled properly, if they still find a half-assed person like the Niu Xianren outside, this is a big hidden danger!”

“Hey I say, Old Yu Tau, people have said to find someone else, why are you so nosy!”

Wang Yifeng said discontentedly.

Lin Ran smiled but was relieved, the fact that Master Yu could say that at least meant one thing, this old man was still very kind at heart and didn’t want this to turn into a calamity.

“Fuck you! What storms have the Laozi Meng family not seen in Tanjiang City, it’s just that the coffin won’t go into the ground, who are you scaring .....”

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The sound was as if someone was scratching the wood with their fingernails, and the crowd was scared into a cold sweat and turned their heads to see that the sound was coming from inside the coffin.

“Young .... Young master, no ..... It’s not good!”

Someone next to him immediately exclaimed.

“What’s not good, if you have a fart, let it out!”

Meng Hang said impatiently.

The man shouted in panic, pointing at the ground.

“You ..... Look under the coffin, that ..... That ..... Is that blood!”

“What?”

Meng Hang was shocked at the words, the crowd was busy to see underneath the coffin, only to see that a puddle of dirty blood had appeared underneath the coffin at some point, and was sprinkling with a burst of stench, it was simply unbearable.

“How could this happen! Quickly find someone!”

Meng Hang hurriedly shouted, while turning to look at Lin Ran, but then choked on the words that had reached his mouth.

“Little friend Lin Ran, what the hell is going on here!”

Meng Lao was busy asking, they were all different from Feng Shui, and when they came across this situation they all thought from the bottom of their hearts that this was going to be a fraudulent corpse.

“If the coffin does not go into the earth, it is both evil and evil. If the coffin is stopped for three days, the corpse will become evil and the evil will gather, if the coffin is broken and the evil comes out, the brats will retreat.

Lin Ran said to himself, but none of the people, except Wang Yifeng and Master Yu, could understand what this meant.

“How long has the coffin been parked here?”

Lin Ran asked, frowning.

“I’ll do the math!”

Meng Lao said busily, following his fingers and calculating.

“Two days! Today happens to be the second day!”

“Oh no!”

Lin Ran frowned tightly and looked at Meng Lao and Meng Hang.

“If the coffin hangs without falling, it will definitely turn corporeal in more than three days, and it will be difficult to subdue it by then!”

“Ah? What should we do then!”

Meng Lao asked, and Meng Hang’s face was also full of worry, the sound of his nails scratching the coffin board was becoming more and more obvious.

“There’s still one day left, if you still want to save it, tell me the ins and outs, otherwise I can’t help!”

Lin Ran looked at the two men and said blandly.

“No! I don’t fucking get it, can’t you just solve this feng shui bureau? Why do you have to know the context?”

Meng Hang couldn’t help but curse.

Lin Ran wasn’t angry either, looking at him blandly as he slowly said.

“When you go to the hospital, does the doctor not ask anything and just give you a shot? Or just amputate a limb?”

“You!”

Meng Hang was speechless at the mouth.

“Feng Shui is not just a bureau, but also depends on the cause, or that sentence, not to say that the process love can’t help!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, while turning around and taking out his mobile phone.

“I give you a minute, do not say I immediately go, after tomorrow night at twelve o’clock, no one who stays here will survive!”

“You!”

Meng Hang was so angry that he gritted his teeth, and Meng Lao at the side was also shaking his head uncontrollably, finally he couldn’t tense up anymore and persuaded.

“Young master, just say it, if anything really goes wrong with the fork, Laozi won’t let you off!”

“Hey!”

Meng Hang was so angry that he slapped his thighs and immediately glared at a few of the underlings around him, who would turn around and cover their ears, before he said.

“I can talk about it, but you guys absolutely cannot say anything!”

Meng Hang gave Lin Ran and the others an icy glance and gestured a neck-wiping motion.

“Or else you guys know the consequences clearly!”

“Cut the crap, just say what you have to say, mother-in-law!”

Wang Yifeng said disdainfully, a family with a bit of money had a lot of farts, the pearl of a super big family like Luo Qiqi was hanging out with them, what was the point of you being arrogant about a Meng family.

Of course this was not said by Wang Yifeng naturally, because Meng Hang had already spoken.

“The one in the coffin is my own sister!”

“Holy shit!”

As soon as Meng Hang opened his mouth, the crowd couldn’t help but suck in a breath of cold air, although they had heard Meng Lao say on the way that the deceased was a woman from the Meng family, they really didn’t expect that the deceased was actually Meng Hang’s own sister.

“What’s going on? Murdering his own sister? Kid, you’re quite black-hearted!”

Wang Yifeng teased.

“She was killed by the Dragon King!”

Meng Hang said in a cold voice.

Chapter 690

“The Dragon King is claiming his life? I think it’s the Dragon King who is looking for a daughter-in-law for his son! What a load of crap! Why don’t you say it’s the White Haired Lady who has a crush on your sister!”

Wang Yifeng said disdainfully, this sounded too fake, what an age it was, the Dragon King of the Sea also claimed his life.

“Don’t even let me say it!”

Meng Hang was so angry that he glared at Wang Yifeng.

“Fatty!”

Lin Ran spoke up and stopped Wang Yifeng, gesturing for Meng Hang to continue.

“Three days ago, my sister took a break from school and asked a few friends to go hiking with her, and those few friends of hers knew that our Meng family’s ancestral home was near here, so they offered to come here to play!”

Meng Hang spoke up.

The mountain range where the Meng family’s ancestral home is located is very primitive, and because of the many rugged roads and treacherous terrain, it has never been developed. The natural resources on the mountain are exceptionally rich, and many people who like adventure will come here to play, but likewise, the frequency of accidents is also very high.

At that time, those few friends relied on the fact that Meng Jijia, Meng Hang’s own sister, was from here and must know a lot about this place, so they came boldly.

There were five of them, three men and two women, and they were having a great time, but before the first day was over, something happened!

They were lost, and after the Meng family found that they couldn’t contact Meng Jijia, they thought it was because of the bad signal in the mountains, so they didn’t care at first, but when they still couldn’t get in touch the next day they completely panicked, they sent people to look for them, and found the bodies of the five people that afternoon.

“And then what?”

Lin Ran asked with a frown, finding the bodies was the beginning of the real reason.

“When we found the five of them, they were next to a lake again, but they were all dead, and when they died, they ..... They were all ..... They all died of dehydration all over their bodies!”

“The skin was plastered to the bones, as if someone had drained the blood out of them!”

When Meng Hang said this, his eyes got red and he couldn’t stop the tears from flowing down.

“Afterwards, we found the Ox Immortal to choose the acupuncture point to prepare for the burial of my little sister, but the acupuncture point this guy chose the coffin never fell, he escaped last night, and today I caught him back! That’s what happened!”

“What about the other four?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

“The other is one has been led away by his family, I even asked an hour ago and they’ve all gone into the ground without any semblance!”

Meng Hang said, with puzzlement and confusion in his eyes, the same accident, but why only his sister’s side could not enter the ground, but the other four were not at all.

“I want to ask a question!”

Lin Ran looked at Meng Hang and said solemnly.

“Time is running out, if it really can’t be solved, can you accept a cremation!”

“No!”

Meng Hang refused outright without even thinking about it.

“Is this your family’s custom?”

Lin Ran asked, frowning.

“That’s right! It must be buried on this mountain, that’s my last line!”

Meng Hang spoke coldly, his eyes firm!

“Good, give me one afternoon, come over first thing tomorrow morning to get the coffin in the ground!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

“An afternoon’s time? You kid should run away even if you don’t return!”

Meng Hang looked at Lin Ran and said suspiciously.

“Don’t worry, I haven’t earned your money yet!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, while fetching a yellow talisman from his pocket, slapping it in the air and striking it towards the coffin.

“Bang!”

The yellow talisman shot out violently and landed heavily on the coffin, seemingly not weighing much, but it actually made an imprint on the coffin, as if an iron plate was firmly embedded in it.

“What are you doing?”

Meng Hang and the others frowned as they watched, not knowing what Lin Ran was doing.

“This is a corpse suppression talisman! The contents inside must not seize within a day, you guys send someone here to keep an eye on it, I will also ask Master Yu to stay behind to help look after it, I will come back here in the morning to meet you!”

Lin Ran said, turning to look at Master Yu, who nodded knowingly.

“Let’s go!”

Lin Ran greeted and immediately led Wang Yifeng and Wang Mao and the others towards the bottom of the mountain, and as he passed by where Half Immortal Niu was, the latter smiled when he saw Lin Ran.

“Kid, is there no way out! Haha, I’m laughing my ass off! Just a half-wit like you still wants to earn money here, you’re worthy of it!”

“My cao!”

Wang Yifeng was furious and went forward to beat him up, but luckily he was stopped by Lin Ran.

Lin Ran glanced at Immortal Niu and said blandly.

“If you have the chance you might as well run, what’s going on here isn’t something you can fix!”

With that, Lin Ran turned around and walked away, not bothering with him.

“You! What are you pretending to be a bully, if it’s not something I can fix, can you fix it!”

The Ox Immortal was furious and took advantage of the fact that the man watching over him was deserting, and immediately got up and ran over to the mountain.

“Stop him! Stop him now!”

The people behind him were busy chasing after him, but this Ox Immortal was also running fast, and in a few minutes he had already reached the coffin. When he saw the bloodstains underneath the coffin, and the yellow talisman on the coffin, his whole body immediately fell to the ground.

“It’s going to turn into a corpse! That’s a corpse suppression talisman, he can actually use a corpse suppression talisman to suppress this kind of feng shui pattern, he ..... Who the hell is he!”

The Niu Xianren’s head immediately broke out in a cold sweat, he also knew how to use the corpse suppression talisman, but his corpse suppression talisman could only suppress stray cats and dogs, dead people were definitely out of the question, and this one in front of him was a hanging coffin, this kind of corpse change could even be suppressed, what kind of strength did the other party have to be!

“Bastard, why is this guy coming here!”

Seeing the Ox Immortal, Meng Hang became furious and hurriedly shouted to set him up and prepare to drag him back.

Master Yu also noticed him at this moment and turned his head to look blandly at him, with disdain in his eyes.

“Old man, did you get this corpse-suppressing talisman?”

Immortal Niu asked busily, he really didn’t believe in his heart that Lin Ran had made it, after all, the latter’s age was just too young.

“No, it was my master!”

Master Yu said truthfully.

“Your master? Who is it?”

Immortal Ox asked with a frown.

“Lin Ran!”

Grandmaster Yu said blandly, not the least bit embarrassed, as he was already convinced by Lin Ran’s level of feng shui from the bottom of his heart.

“Impossible! How can it be him, how old is he! This is absolutely impossible!”

Immortal Niu’s face was filled with shock and disbelief.

“There’s nothing impossible, my master’s feng shui attainment is not something you can understand!”

Master Yu’s face was full of disdain and he was too lazy to be bothered with him, instantly turning away from him.

“Rack down!”

Meng Hang said impatiently, and at once someone set Immortal Niu down.

“Young Master Meng! Young Master Meng! For the sake of Old Ox and I helping you choose your cave, make sure I come and see that Lin Ran when he drops his coffin!”

Immortal Niu’s figure was fading away, but a voice came over.

He was reluctant, he did not believe that a person younger than himself was actually higher than even his own Feng Shui attainment, this was unacceptable to him and he wanted to see for himself.

....

Lin Ran naturally did not know about the subsequent happenings here, at this moment he was leading Wang Yifeng and Wang Mao both towards the mountain.

“Ranzi, where are we going?”

Wang Yifeng asked in wonder, the question was on the mountain, how come Lin Ran was going down the mountain at this moment.

“Go to the village at the bottom of the mountain and turn around!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.
