

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 791

“There’s something!”

Lin Ran thought of that word almost instantly.

But before he could react, a huge and pitch-black object poked out from inside the crack, it looked like one of the legs of some animal, and after appearing it landed directly behind the Yue family, blocking their path of retreat.

Following that, the thing slashed forward violently, just like a huge slab of stone, pushing all of the Yue family towards the inside of the crack.

“No! What is this thing, what the hell is it doing!”

Yue Feng’s entire body was dumbfounded, he didn’t know exactly what the other party was, but this power was simply not something he could fight against!

“Roar!”

Suddenly, a sharp voice shot straight up into the clouds, shaking the sky with dust, and Lin Ran finally saw it at that moment.

In the dust that filled the sky ahead, two things that seemed like ghostly fire appeared, seemingly the eyes of some kind of creature, which looked at his direction from afar, and suddenly actually opened its bloody mouth.

With that tentacle, it directly pushed all the Yue family members into its mouth, including Yue Feng.

Before Yue Feng could even make any response, the huge blood-basin mouth directly closed up, and a dozen Yue Clan members, including Yue Feng, fell without even making a single wave.

“Goo dong!”

Lin Ran and Li Sheng took several steps back at the same time as they watched, their faces filled with shock.

“This What the hell is this thing!”

Li Sheng asked nervously, he had never seen this thing before.

“I wanted to ask too!”

Lin Ran was equally dumbfounded, he had never heard of the Ten Thousand Treasure Spell Formation and this thing before.

Even the concept of magical beasts was something he had only heard mentioned in the Pillow Book when he had encountered a magical lynx before.

“Pillow Book!”

Lin Ran suddenly remembered this guy and hurriedly shouted in his mind.

“Don’t fucking sleep, hurry up and see what the hell that is!”

“What’s that?”

With a dumbfounded look, Pillow Book raised his head to look and his eyes suddenly lit up.

“Holy shit! A devil lynx this big, this is probably the Devil Lynx Ancestor!”

“Demon lynx ancestor? You can’t just say rat ancestor!”

Lin Ran said without good humour.

“I’m afraid a devil lynx this big was left over from the last war and has lived for such a long time to grow this big!”

Pillowbook marvelled.

“What now? Yue Feng has already been eaten by it!”

Lin Ran asked busily.

“What to do? Run, of course! Such a big devil lynx with a hard skin that no one but an Immortal Emperor can even fight it, touching it is your death!”

The pillow said.

“Of course, if you can guarantee that you won’t die if he swallows you, then you still have a chance.

Pillow Book laughed.

“Bah! Can’t you talk, I’ve got nothing to do, find him to swallow!”

Lin Ran gave him a blank look, followed by greeting Li Sheng to hurry up and run, while telling him about his encounter with the magic lynx.

“You said this is a magical beast?”

Li Sheng listened with a dumbfounded expression, he had never seen a magical beast before either, this was the first time he had seen one.

“Never mind what it is, hurry up and run, it’s just a rat and the ancestor of rats can easily get us killed!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

The two men had already run out several miles as they spoke, and the huge abyss behind them gradually faded out of sight.

But just as the two practiced taking a breath, the earth in front of them unexpectedly began to tremble as well, followed by a huge crack that fiercely appeared, apparently the demonic lynx ancestor had come again.

“Holy shit! This isn’t going to spare us both!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but curse, while pulling Li Sheng up and turning his head to run again.

“Kid, remember how I told you before that this devil lynx lives in packs? You got rid of a small one, looks like you’re being targeted by this big one here!”

Pillowbook laughed.

“Shit! It’s so big, that little one doesn’t know how many times heavier than its grandchildren, is it necessary to be so serious?”

Lin Ran cursed angrily.

“That can’t be helped, who let you kill someone’s grandson and run to their old man’s territory, if you don’t mess with you, who will!”

Pillow Book laughed.

“Don’t be smug there, you’re buried in its belly forever even after my death, by the time you get back your Immortal Emperor will have lost all his bones!”

Lin Ran disliked.

“You don’t need to use excitement anywhere, I already have no hope for the Immortal Emperor’s survival, otherwise with the Immortal Emperor’s ability I’m afraid he would have come to me already!”

Pillow’s indifferent attitude really made Lin Ran a little speechless.

“Why are you running this way, turn around!”

Suddenly Pillow Book’s voice rang out.

“What’s wrong?”

Lin Ran was stunned, he hadn’t run wrong ah, just now a crack appeared behind him that demon lynx ancestor must have come out from behind, where did he go wrong by running forward?

“Stupid, do you think that demon lynx is stupid? I told you they have a high level of intelligence!”

The pillow scolded.

As soon as his words fell, a gap opened violently in the ground in front of him, followed by a bloody mouth poking out directly, not even giving the two Lin Ran time to explain, a large area collapsed directly and poured in towards the devil lynx’s mouth.

“Cao!”

Lin Ran’s teeth bared, this Devil Lynx Ancestor had directly swallowed a large area of land just to mess with him, this was simply not prepared to give him a chance to live.

“What should we do?”

Looking at the sky rapidly darkening down, in the blink of an eye, he was about to enter the belly of the old devil lynx ancestor and become someone’s dung in two days, Lin Ran was also anxious.

“Looks like you really have to kill your way out of his belly!”

The pillow said helplessly.

“Brother Lin Ran!”

To the side, came Li Sheng’s terrified voice, by this point he was in utter despair.

“If you can get out, say to my father on my behalf that I’m sorry!”

“Cut the crap! You have to get out alive too!”

Lin Ran said angrily, while saying back.

“Don’t resist!”

He said as he grabbed Li Sheng next to him, his mind busy urging.

“Hurry up and take him into your space, or he’ll really die!”

“No problem!”

The pillow was not polite, and directly took Li Sheng in with a wave of her small hand.

“What about you?”

Pillow Book asked.

“I don’t know, if I go in too, then none of us will be able to get out!”

Lin Ran said helplessly, while hastily mobilising his entire body’s Healing Dao True Qi to protect his body, lest he be corrupted to death by the stomach fluids of this terrifying Demon Lynx Ancestor.

The endless land was swallowed by this Devil Lynx Ancestor straight away, and Lin Ran’s eyes were pitch black as he stumbled and fell, not knowing how long it would take before his surroundings completely calmed down.

But then he felt weightlessness, as if the old devil lynx ancestor outside was making a lift, and he also felt weightlessness clearly inside.

Luckily, the weightlessness didn’t last long and everything quietened down. The ground beneath his feet made Lin Ran’s heart slightly calmer, but as soon as there was the thought that he was inside this guy’s stomach at the moment, he got goose bumps all over his body.

He couldn’t help but think of the time when he was watching the Journey to the West and the Monkey King ran into the belly of Princess Iron Fan.

“I never thought that I, Lin Ran, could be the Monkey King once in my life. When will it end?”

Sitting in place, Lin Ran didn’t dare to move around, just wanting to adapt to the darkness here as soon as possible so that his eyesight could recover first.

His eyesight was good, but there was no absolute light source in his stomach, so he had to adapt slowly even if his eyesight was good.

Chapter 792

Darkness, darkness everywhere, and even terribly quiet, Lin Ran couldn't imagine that he would be in the belly of a huge magical beast all the time, the key was that he couldn't even hear this guy's heartbeat here, Lin Ran really doubted if this guy had a heart or not.

"Weng!"

Suddenly, there was a slight tremor and a hazy red light suddenly lit up around him, Lin Ran only felt an object on his body trembling rapidly, he was busy taking it out and found that it was Yue Feng's short sword.

He had grabbed this short sword at the hotel at first, and on his way to attend the Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation, Yue Shan had tried to take it back by force, not realising that here it was having a strange movement.

Holding the dark red short sword that kept trembling, Lin Ran noticed that the red light around him was getting more and more dense, and then the scene around him actually brightened up.

However, these red lights were all surrounding the dark red short sword, neither approaching nor moving away from it, as if there was something on this short sword that attracted them, but kept them from approaching.

"Hmm? What's that in front of you?"

Suddenly, Lin Ran noticed that not far ahead of himself, there was actually a long and very bright light, also red, and he hurriedly touched it, only to find that it was none other than another dark red short sword.

"Yue Feng is around here?"

This was Lin Ran's first thought, one of the two short swords he had, and the other was in Yue Feng's hand, at this moment the short sword appeared here, that could only mean that Yue Feng must be nearby.

"Wow!"

Lin Ran picked up the short swords, both of which were raised above his head, and immediately the scene around him brightened up.

He only saw that there was a large space here, making a basketball court size, surrounded by red flesh, so obviously he was really in the belly of the Demon Lynx Elder.

And at that moment, at his feet, there was still a piece of land left, but it was very small, and all around the land was black liquid, I don't know if it was the guy's stomach fluid.

And on one side, near the direction of the fleshy wall, there were a dozen corpses lying, none other than the Yue family members who had been swallowed by the devil lynx in one bite, Lin Ran rummaged around carefully and found that Yue Feng was also in there, but at this moment, these people had all started to decay, apparently they had been digested by this devil lynx old man's stomach fluid.

"Hmm?"

Suddenly, Lin Ran realised that something wasn't quite right.

"One has logically been in for half a day, but how come there are no signs of decay on one's body, and the two dark red short swords don't show signs of decay either."

Lin Ran looked at the pile once again and found that many of the magic weapons inside had decayed, but the two short swords in his own hands were the only ones that had not decayed, which was a little strange.

"Kid! Guess what I found?"

Suddenly the pillow's voice rang out.

"What?"

Lin Ran asked busily.

"These red mists... Guess what they are?"

"Don't be so secretive at this point, hurry up and tell me!"

Lin Ran said without good humour.

"How uninteresting!"

Pillow said helplessly and followed with an explanation.

"This red mist is the stuff you found at the herb exchange back then, the venom that was attached to the herbs!"

"What?"

Lin Ran was stunned to hear this, somewhat incredulous.

But then he seemed to understand something.

"Those herbs came from Fengling Town, and this devil lynx also has them in its body, could it be that all that venom was secreted by this devil lynx?"

"We don't know this for now, but those venoms are definitely unrelated to this Devil Lynx's old ancestor, and if you think about it, this Devil Lynx's venom is biased towards these two short swords of the Yue Family, doesn't this also hint at a problem?"

The Pillow Book said.

"You mean that the Yue family has something to do with this old devil lynx ancestor?"

Lin Ran said incredulously, the Yue family was always outside, and this Devil Lynx Ancestor looked like he was always in the Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation, how were they both connected? Lin Ran was puzzled.

"Don't think about it so much, just at least show that there is some sort of relationship, now is not the time to think about that!"

The pillow said.

“Hmm!”

Lin Ran nodded in agreement, no matter what relationship the Yue family had with this Devil Lynx Ancestor, now was not the time to think about it, right now he had to hurry up and find a way to get out of here, otherwise he could really become food for the Devil Lynx at any moment.

.....

“What now?”

Lin Ran asked, now that he was inside the devil lynx, he was really a bit helpless.

“This way, just screw him to death!”

Pillowbook laughed.

“I’ll guide you in the direction, you just kill it all the way there, once you break its heart, even the most bullish magical beasts will have to die!”

“Good!”

Lin Ran nodded, while preparing to take out his own dagger.

However, on second thought, no magic weapon could carry the load here, and only these two short swords in his hands could, so he simply didn’t use his own magic weapon either, and took the two dark red short swords and went straight to work.

“This is it! Let’s begin!”

Pillow Book chose a place and directly gestured for Lin Ran to begin.

Lin Ran also talked nonsense, his eyes narrowed slightly, his body while a true qi wrapped itself around him, followed by his hands opening up and slicing directly inside the Demon Lynx Old Man’s body.

“Stinging.”

A piercing sound sounded, each sound sounded at the same time, a piece of flesh and blood in front of him was sliced open a slit, blood sprayed everywhere, good thing there was a true qi protecting his body, Lin Ran this was not poured into a bloody man.

“Is this old thing about to die, it’s not even responding!”

Lin Ran killed all the way out a dozen metres away, but this devil lynx was as good as dead, not even half reacting.

“What do you know, this old thing is so big, it takes a long time for its nerve reflexes to work, so cut the crap and hurry up and kill it!”

Pillow Book urged.

Lin Ran nodded and went about his business once again.

In fact he really did mutter about the size of this devil lynx, at this time he opened a dozen meters of mouth, but to others is like an adult body by a mosquito bite, not at all painful or itchy.

Lin Ran saw this and didn't delay, running wildly all the way to "kill God and Buddha!" In just one hour, he had killed several hundred metres, but he still couldn't see where the heart was.

"Don't worry, if my calculations are correct, you've only just reached the stomach wall!"

Pillow Book laughed.

"Holy shit!"

Lin Ran was so angry that he simply wanted to curse, these few hundred meters had already made his hands and feet sore, but now the pillow side book said that he had only just killed the stomach wall, this was simply playing with himself.

"Don't worry, this thing's internal structure is very simple, you just need to kill out the stomach, above it is definitely the heart wall, kill it and find the core and you're not far from success!"

The pillow book laughed.

Lin Ran was helpless, what else could he do, he could only continue killing.

Sure enough, after just two minutes, Lin Ran did kill out of the stomach wall, and what appeared in front of him at that moment was a large mass of even stronger flesh wall, the very heart wall of this devil lynx.

"Go on!"

The pillow looked as if nothing was wrong.

Lin Ran was already exhausted and his clothes were soaked through, so he had no choice but to lie down in place and rest for a while, and only after his strength had almost recovered did he continue slashing.

When Lin Ran managed to squeeze into the heart of the devil lynx, the thing finally felt something and its whole body shuddered violently, followed by a violent tremor.

With Lin Ran inside it, he was knocked around so much that he was lucky to keep from falling out, not to mention continuing on.

"Hold on tight, this thing is very strong in life, after ten minutes the wounds behind it must have all healed, you hold on to your speed and soon you'll be buried alive by his heart!"

Pillow Book urged.

"If I'd known that was the case, I wouldn't have come in even if he'd bitten me to death! This is simply not human work!"

With a bitter look on his face, Lin Ran forced himself to steady himself and continued to kill his way towards the inside of the heart.

Finally, after Lin Ran didn't even know how long had passed, what appeared in front of him was no longer an endless flesh colour, but a very tough film.

"This is it!"

The pillow laughed.

"In the past, back home, I didn't kill many of these magical beasts, but I didn't expect to come to your world and turn around in its body, which is really funny when you think about it!"

"Come on, hurry up and get out, I want to vomit when I see meat now!"

Lin Ran cursed, the blood stinging on this journey had caused him to vomit until now.

As he spoke, Lin Ran had already picked up his dark red short sword and made a slit in the film.

As soon as the slit was made, a red light shone out.

Surprisingly, it was not a normal heart that appeared in front of Lin Ran's eyes, but a huge fire-red ball of light, which was as tall as half a building and looked like a small sun with its fiery red body.

"What is this thing?"

Lin Ran was instantly baffled, this was something he had never seen before at all, could this also be a heart.

"This is the Origin!"

Pillowbook laughed.

"In our world, the heart is combined with the origin, of course this is only the case for magical beasts as they are born with their own origin, this is what makes them strong, whereas our cultivators' origin is in the mind and needs to be cultivated later in life!"

"When a cultivator can cultivate until his origin and heart fuse, then his physical body is immortal, that's why humans came to dominate later, a magical beast is completely dead when its heart bursts!"

"Then what do I do? Walk straight over and stab him?"

Lin Ran was at a loss.

However, Pillowbook actually nodded and said in a serious manner.

"Indeed!"

"Shit!"

Lin Ran couldn't help but curse, walking over and stabbing it, not to mention whether or not its power could kill him after it exploded, I'm afraid that the black blood in his heart alone could disgust him to death.

"No way!"

Lin Ran shook his head straight away and changed his mind, letting me go over there was better than dying here.

Looking at his thoroughly soaked clothes, Lin Ran gritted his teeth, picked up one of the daggers and flung it straight in at the inside of the crack.

“Shit! Why did you just say do it!”

Pillowbook almost didn't get angry when he saw this.

“Or what?”

Lin Ran looked confused, what was wrong with himself again?

“You said something to me!”

The Pillow Book said without good grace.

“Say what?”

Lin Ran was dumbfounded.

“Nonsense, this thing is the energy source of the demon lynx, you stabbed him you say something, if you don't run your little fucking life will be lost!”

Pillow Book cursed angrily.

“Shit! Damn you, you didn't tell me earlier!”

Lin Ran cursed, turned around and ran.

But where else could he run at this point? The wounds less than ten metres behind him had already healed, and at this point Lin Ran had nowhere to run!

“Cao!”

Lin Ran cursed angrily, since he couldn't run, he didn't run at all. He crouched down on the ground and protected his meridians with his entire body's healing true qi, while taking out a thick pile of talisman seals and throwing them at his side in a last stand.

“Bang!”

Soon, there was a crisp sound from inside.

The sound of “click”, “click”, “click”, and “click”, followed by the sound of shattering, and the Devil Lynx Ancestor, who was originally resting on its back in its nest, instantly changed its temperament with bloodshot eyes!

It raised its head and hissed at the sky, but nothing could be done.

“Bang!”

A muffled sound came from inside the Devil Lynx's body, followed by a huge body that was like a balloon that had inflated to its limit and violently began to explode, with countless black blood mixed with flesh and blood splattering all over the sky.

Soon the entire body of the devil lynx became an empty frame, and the soil around it was blown up into the sky, leaving a mess everywhere.

"Rumble!"

The earth trembled, and there were signs of collapse everywhere. The body of the Devil Lynx Ancestor continued to sink, falling to the bottom of the valley, apparently already completely dead.

Lin Ran, on the other hand, had lost consciousness the moment the devil lynx's heart popped to pieces, becoming a flat boat in the ocean, not knowing where he had been swept away by the huge impact.

All he knew was that he seemed to be sitting in a huge spring ball, and although he stumbled and fell, it was good that he wasn't hurt much, only that he felt really uncomfortable being soaked in countless what seemed like water.

"Bang!"

I don't know how long it took, but there was another muffled sound, this time Lin Ran was awakened, he felt all the liquid around him, but soon the liquid got lower and lower, and finally it flowed out completely.

He opened his eyes and the scene before him left him completely speechless.

"I This is how I survived?"

Looking at the huge heart in front of him like a small mountain, Lin Ran was completely speechless.

Dare I say it, he was able to survive completely because of the huge heart of the devil lynx, the thick fleshy walls protecting him, which was only along with the heart being blown to this hellish place, and the liquid just now was obviously blood.

"I Ow!"

Lin Ran did not say a word, lying on his back next to him is wah wah wah, almost did not vomit out the bile.

Luckily, there was an underground river in this godforsaken place, and Lin Ran was busy taking off his clothes and jumping in to wash up and change his clothes before he came back to the shore.

At this moment, when he had calmed down, Lin Ran realised that he only had a dark red short sword left in his hand, and that one had already flown away to who knows where in the explosion just now.

"What the hell is this place?"

Lin Ran looked around with confusion in his eyes.

"Kid be content, it's good that you're not dead!"

The pillow book also jumped out at this point.

“Huh, why does this look like an underground rest area!”

Pillow Book exclaimed.

“Hell no!”

Lin Ran said, “Just now, Pillow Book was so unreliable that he almost lost his life, so he didn’t bother to pay attention to him at this moment.

As his eyes swept around, Lin Ran also noticed that this was very much like a rest area.

There were fortifications and a modest cave, very much like a temporary one.

“Hmm?”

Suddenly, Lin Ran saw a lot of magic weapons scattered in front of him and hurriedly walked up to them.

“This?”

When he rounded one of the walls and saw what was behind it, he froze in his tracks.

He only saw that behind the wall, there were a dozen corpses lying, the clothes on these people had all rotted away, but on the bones of each of them was a very clear mark carved, it was a circular pattern, and on the pattern only was carved a dried hand, much like the hand of a dry corpse.

“What the hell is this!”

Lin Ran frowned, such a horrible pattern carved on human bones, who was so boring.

The point was that this place didn’t seem to have been visited by anyone but himself at all, so how did these patterns appear on human bones.

“Hmm?”

Suddenly, Lin Ran saw that there were two corpses in a room as far as he could, and he rushed up to it.

The clothes of the corpses inside the room hadn’t decayed yet, but they were almost there.

Lin Ran saw that the two corpses near the door was a woman, while the one inside should be a man, the woman was wearing a red robe with a phoenix embroidered on it, while the man was wearing a black robe with many jewels inlaid on it, but it was all weathered now.

Chapter 794

“Who the hell is this man? And what is this place?”

Lin Ran was puzzled in his heart, but all the same he had a vague idea of what was going on.

“Could this be one of the areas where the battle was fought back then?”

No one could tell him, because this was history, what was left over from history, no one could tell you the exact truth, it was all up to Lin Ran to guess.

He had been doing this for a long time and had never figured out what this place really was, but since he was already here, he had to find a way to get out.

Lin Ran made a move and dug a hole nearby, ready to bury the woman. As for why he didn't bury the others, it was actually quite simple.

Firstly, ladies come first.

Secondly, according to the usual practice, the black-robed ones were definitely the bad guys, so Lin Ran naturally could not help the bad guys bury their bodies, so he naturally chose this woman.

But when Lin Ran arrived at this woman's side and was about to sort out her clothes, he realised that the other party's corpse bones had weathered quite badly, and just touching the bones had turned them into a sky of white ash.

"Hey! It's been so long, you can't blame me, so just hold a handful of ashes and your clothes as a token of appreciation!"

Lin Ran sighed and picked up the ashes and put them into the earthen pit next to him, and then opened the red robe on the woman's body, ready to fold it properly, as a final grooming for her.

However, the moment the red robe was opened, Lin Ran's whole body froze.

Only to see that on that red robe only, a phoenix soaring in the sky was shown in a subtle manner, while on the ground below the phoenix, there was a black flame, and in the flame stood a woman who looked at the phoenix above the sky with a bewildered expression, as if she was inquiring and gazing.

"This phoenix!"

Lin Ran looked dumbfounded at once.

"This phoenix gives me the same feeling as the old ancestor!"

Lin Ran exclaimed in shock.

When he had first received his ancestor's inheritance, it was the Nine Heavenly Mystical Maiden who had given him the Xuan Yang Pill Canon in her phoenix garment, but now he was actually seeing the same feeling of phoenix embroidery on this garment.

"Kid! Look at what's in the sleeve of that robe!"

Pillow Book's voice also rang out.

Lin Ran was busy pulling the sleeve over, and sure enough, he found it heavy inside. He quickly removed what was inside the sleeve, and sent down that it was actually a circle of metal bracelets, which should have been the woman's trinket during her lifetime.

"This is not a bracelet!"

Pillow Book dismissed it immediately, while his face became very shocked.

"You know this thing?"

Lin Ran asked, frowning.

"More than that, I know it, I've even seen it more than once!"

Pillowbook exclaimed.

“The Xuan Nui comes out of the nine heavens in the western mountains, and all the magical beasts look up to it. Ask people who do not know the way to their origins, a silver needle breaks the sky!”

“What does that mean?”

Lin Ran Neng’s heart trembled, vaguely feeling that this all seemed to be related to himself.

“You really don’t know?”

The Pillow Book looked at Lin Ran, with doubt in his eyes.

“What do I know?”

Lin Ran was completely confused.

“You don’t know who she is?”

Pillowbook asked.

“Nonsense how would I know!”

The Pillow Book was silent, and only after a few moments did he speak again.

“Give me the bracelet!”

Lin Ran did as he was told.

The pillow side book picked up the bracelet and gave it a gentle twist, only to see the metal bracelet fiercely “click” and with a “whoosh”, a silver aura shot out and directly into the opposite wall.

“This

Lin Ran was dumbfounded, he didn’t even get a clear look at what had been shot out before it had already entered the wall.

“Click, click, click!”

Without explanation, the pillow book gently rotated once again, following which the bracelet actually broke apart and was pulled into a metal band by the pillow book.

“Bang!”

With another sound, the metal band was flipped open, revealing rows and rows of silver needles that glowed with silver, all of which were of the ninth rank.

“This!”

Lin Ran was completely dumbfounded, he had never thought that the bracelet would contain ninth-grade silver needles, could it be that this woman was also a Chinese medicine practitioner before she was born?

“Sure enough, I guessed it!”

The pillow book closed the metal band and then made it into a bracelet and tossed it to Lin Ran.

“This bracelet is actually a silver needle storage spell, but the person who made it is the famous Nine Heavenly Mystic Maiden!”

The Pillow Book muttered to itself.

Lin Ran, however, felt his whole body tremble as he listened, looked at the bracelet in his hand and then at the phoenix robe on the ground, and instantly felt his head explode.

“This can’t be, this is absolutely impossible! How can this man be an ancestor! Absolutely not!”

“Nonsense, who said she was your ancestor!”

The pillow said breathlessly.

“Then you say!”

Lin Ran was completely confused.

“She’s indeed not the Nine Heavenly Mystical Maiden... the Nine Heavenly Mystical Maiden couldn’t have died in a place like this! And she could very well be the Nine Heavenly Mystical Maiden’s only disciple, your senior sister! The Nine Heavenly Mysterious Maiden!”

The Pillow Book said.

“My senior sister? The Nine Mystical Maidens?”

Lin Ran was at a loss, when did he have an additional senior sister, his ancestor hadn’t even mentioned it alright.

“The Nine Heavenly Mystical Maiden and the Immortal Emperor are close friends, I’ve met her several times, she once mentioned that in her own world she had a favoured disciple named the Nine Spectral Maiden, born from the Nine Spectres born into darkness.”

“But she was born with a heart of goodness, so the Nine Heavenly Maidens took her as a disciple and taught her the way of Chinese medicine, so that she would follow goodness, and even wore the ninth-order silver needle, you know this ninth-order silver needle, the Nine Heavenly Maidens had made two in her life, one was for her own use, and the other was given to this disciple, the Nine Ghostly Maidens!”

“Do you still remember that saying about a silver needle breaking the heavens?”

The Pillow Book looked at Lin Ran.

Lin Ran nodded his head.

“Back then, when I was separated from the Immortal Emperor, it was the Nine Heavenly Mystical Maiden who took me with her, and she used this one silver needle to break through the heavens and make a passage to bring me here, but did you think that it would be so many years in the blink of an eye!”

“Today I will meet her descendants here!”

There were memories and vicissitudes in the pillow's eyes.

And Lin Ran even listened to his heart tremble, the ancestor that kind of great power, but in the end, he had to return to his own world, and the pillow side book followed the immortal emperor, and in the end, he also followed, what exactly was the hair province back then that would cause this kind of result.

"Well boy! You can meet your senior sister here, perhaps it is a creation in the underworld, this trip to the Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation, it is your turn to take this Ninth Order Silver Needle, treat it well, don't let down your senior sister's good intentions, and don't disgrace its prestige of the Nine Heavenly Mystic Maiden!"

The pillow said and returned directly to the golden book, obviously the events of today had stirred up his dusty memories and put him in a somewhat bad mood.

"Definitely!"

Lin Ran nodded solemnly, then carefully placed the ashes of the Nine Specters female in her Phoenix robe and buried her.

Looking at the raised mound of graves, Lin Ran knelt down and solemnly performed a few salutes before saying.

"Senior sister is above, although I am not a recognized disciple of my ancestors, the grace of passing on the Dao is greater than the heavens, today senior sister has guided me here, Lin Ran bears this in mind and will certainly not dishonour the prestige of this Ninth Order Silver Needle, and likewise will not let senior sister down!"

"In the future, if there is a need, I will do the same with Sister Lust for Blood to kill the enemy and promote the prestige of my master!"

After saying this, Lin Ran solemnly brought the bracelet with him and kowtowed once more before he got up and left the place.

Chapter 795

"Brother Lin Ran, where are we? Also, how come we're not dead, what was I in just now?"

Li Sheng was released and asked busily, he could already be sure that he was really not dead, but what exactly had happened, he had no idea at all, and now he was also full of doubts.

"I don't know where this is either, but I can be sure it should be somewhere in the warring zone, that demon lynx old man has been killed by me, as for where you went just now, don't ask!"

Lin Ran returned one by one, that last question he couldn't tell Li Sheng, the existence of the pillow book was his biggest secret, no matter who it was he absolutely couldn't tell.

"Awesome!"

Li Sheng looked at Lin Ran, his eyes were full of admiration, that thing was no good at first glance, Yue Feng was directly swallowed, but Lin Ran actually said that he got it killed, this contrast was simply not too strong.

“What now?”

Li Sheng was busy asking, before he was still confident about this journey to the Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation, but with the few times things had happened, he had seen that if he relied all on himself, he was afraid that he wouldn't be able to make it to the Inheritance Area at all, so he still had to let Lin Ran help.

“Go somewhere else!”

Lin Ran said with a frown.

There was one last thing he hadn't done in the Warring Area, and that was the deal with Wind Elder.

“The same demon stone! It should be around here!”

Lin Ran thought in his mind, according to the location markers given by Wind Elder, and the information provided by the pillow book about the surroundings, it seemed that the Tongdeng Stone wasn't too far away from him.

“Let's go, let's find the exit first!”

Lin Ran greeted, and immediately walked towards the front.

Li Sheng didn't ask too many questions, and immediately followed.

At this point, there was black mountain rock all around them, and the two seemed to be deep in the ground very deep, but the further they went the higher the ground became, and the two kept going uphill, seemingly heading towards the surface in a hurry.

One minute, two minutes, half an hour, one hour

Finally, when the two Lin Ran had walked for a full two hours, a bright light finally appeared in front of them, a light that wasn't very big, but definitely an exit.

“It's out!”

Both of Lin Ran couldn't help but reveal their joy and immediately ran wildly towards the exit.

“It's finally out!”

Li Sheng was so excited that he almost didn't fall over.

But just as the two of them were about to rush out of the cave and return to the ground, Lin Ran was differently surprised to find that there were actually human footprints next to the exit.

“How could there be footprints here?”

Lin Ran's heart sank, and he couldn't help but stop and check them out.

He was then even more completely confused, the footprints around him were very numerous and dense as if there were people living here.

But this was the Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation, who else could there be other than an evader like Qing Mu Ya? The point was that Lin Ran could be sure that these were definitely not the footprints of a shunner.

Because the footprints were so small, they looked like those of a child, definitely no older than five years old!

“Brother Lin Ran?”

When Li Sheng saw that Lin Ran was slow to come out, he was busy running back.

“Look!”

Lin Ran pointed at the footprints on the ground.

When Li Sheng looked at them, he was also confused.

“What’s going on here? Did someone bring a child in?”

Li Sheng wondered, but followed and dismissed his thoughts.

“This is getting stranger and stranger!”

“Go! Go out first!”

Lin Ran frowned, and immediately walked out with Li Sheng.

As soon as they walked out of the cave, Lin Ran realised that he had actually walked out of a huge underground cave, which had a narrow entrance, but if he hadn’t walked out of it, who knew that the space inside would be so big.

“Is that?”

Li Sheng exclaimed, pointing off to the side.

Lin Ran looked and found that not far ahead of the two of them, there was actually a huge rock, which was as tall as two buildings, and the key was that there was a hole in front of this rock, facing the direction where the two of them were.

And on the ground, a series of small footprints spread directly to the cave on the opposite side.

“Brother Lin Ran, or else we Let’s hurry up and leave!”

Li Sheng was a little scared, the appearance of inexplicable footprints here was already frightening enough, but now a house-like stone had appeared, which simply made him a little incredulous.

“Okay!”

Lin Ran nodded, he didn’t want to stay any longer either, the situation around here was a bit weird and there wasn’t much time left for them, so it really wasn’t a good thing to continue wasting time here.

But just as the two of them were about to take a detour to leave.

Suddenly, a sharp claw actually poked out of the rocks in front of them. The moment that claw appeared, both of them felt a chill down their backs, and Li Sheng even had a cold sweat on his forehead instantly.

“Brother Lin Ran Again Have to see you again!”

Li Sheng said with an embarrassed look on his face.

“Holy shit!”

Lin Ran couldn't help but curse, he never dreamed that he would run into another one here after just getting out of the cave.

“Nope! This one isn't that big, it should be a small one, good kill!”

Lin Ran was also stunned, but when he settled down to take a look, he couldn't help but sigh in relief.

“Roar!”

Sure enough, a devil lynx soon jumped out of the stone hole, but it was only twice as big as the one Lin Ran had first encountered, and was a small toy compared to the old devil lynx.

“We've really arrived at your lair, after killing the little one comes the old one, after killing the old one comes a little one!”

Lin Ran was so angry that he gritted his teeth, the sight of such creatures made him want to vomit, there was no way the previous encounter inside the Devil Lynx Ancestor simply made him not want to experience it a second time in his life.

“Die!”

Lin Ran's eyes suddenly chilled as a dark red short sword appeared directly in his hand, he found that Yue Feng's magic weapon was simply too suitable for killing the devil lynx.

“Whoosh!”

The dark red dagger cut through a stream of light, heading straight for the head of the demon lynx.

But just when Lin Ran thought that he would definitely be able to kill it in one blow, the demon lynx actually jumped violently to the left and dodged directly.

At the same time, that ugly face actually had a faint smile on it, as if it was laughing at Lin Ran for missing.

“Holy shit!”

Lin Ran was completely furious, and with a wave of his palm the dark red short sword shot out again, while he himself followed suit, directly blocking the Devil Lynx in the corner.

The dark red short sword was getting closer and closer, and was about to pierce through the head of the devil lynx, but just then, the devil lynx suddenly turned and disappeared into a white smoke, followed by a little girl who actually appeared in front of Lin Ran.

“Hey!”

Lin Ran was startled and hurriedly kicked the dark red short sword away, which narrowly missed hurting the little girl.

“Why it’s still a little girl!”

Li Sheng was also busy running over, he also didn’t expect that the demon lynx just now was actually a little girl.

“You Why are you so mean! Beat you to death!”

The little girl got up from the ground, with tears in her eyes, and said angrily, raising her pink little hand towards Lin Ran’s leg and hit him.

“This

Looking at this scene, Lin Ran was also helpless.

This little woman looked like she was only three or four years old, but that pink carved little face and black jewel like eyes were the two people who looked at Lin Ran and their hearts melted.

“Little girl, who are you and why are you here? Where is your family?”

Li Sheng seemed to be very experienced and asked with a smile as he squatted next to him.

“How do I know who I am, this is my home, I am here naturally, besides what is family? My house is just me, there’s no family!”

The little woman looked at the two warily, as if she was still mindful of what Lin Ran had just done to her.

Chapter 796

“So what’s your name?”

Li Sheng asked awkwardly.

“Name? What’s a name? Can I eat it?”

The little girl asked with a bewildered look on her face.

“A name is a name, for example, my name is Lin Ran, his name is Li Sheng, so what’s your name?”

“I’m just me, there’s no name!”

The little girl said in a serious manner, but this milky voice was the one that made both of Lin Ran laugh.

“How about this, then I’ll give you a name, how about you’re called Xiao Jiu?”

Lin Ran laughed.

Li Sheng was stunned at his words and was busy looking at him, as if Lin Ran seemed to know this little girl.

Lin Ran gave him a wink, signalling him not to talk too much, and then looked at Xiao Jiu.

“Does Xiao Jiu like the name?”

“Sloppy, I guess, better than nothing, then I’ll call it Xiao Jiu!”

Xiao Jiu laughed, her silver bell-like smile was pleasant to hear.

“So, does Little Nine want to go out with Big Brother?”

Lin Ran continued to laugh.

Little Nine, however, was stunned and shook her head straight away.

“No way, I have a playmate, that’s my pet, it often takes me out to play, I don’t know you well, don’t get close!”

“Me!”

Lin Ran was suddenly helpless, so he was getting close.

“Haha!”

Seeing that Lin Ran had touched his nose, Li Sheng at the side couldn’t help but laugh.

“What are you laughing at, I just have a pet, don’t believe me, I’ll call it out!”

The little girl said with a straight face, following which she actually walked towards the cave in the ground that the two had just climbed out of.

“Hey, hey! You can’t go over there, it’s too dangerous!”

Li Sheng was busy stopping.

However, Lin Ran stopped him.

“You?”

Li Sheng looked at Lin Ran in wonder.

Lin Ran, however, shook his head.

“She’s not human!”

“What did you say?”

Li Sheng’s head exploded, not a human being? Then what is it? A ghost?

“She’s a spirit intelligence!”

Lin Ran said seriously.

“She’s the last thing I’ll ever see in the war zone!”

“What the hell is going on?”

Li Sheng was at a loss, completely unaware of what Lin Ran was talking about.

“Before entering the Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation, I had a deal with a senior, and the deal, was to come and collect and pay for it, and to my surprise, that senior was right, this thing has manifested its spiritual intelligence and even has a human form!”

Lin Ran said.

“Then what exactly is she?”

Li Sheng asked busily.

“The same demon stone!”

Lin Ran said.

“You might not have noticed just now that she was wearing a small stone on her chest, her original body was that stone, and she had stayed in this Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation for a long time before she manifested her spiritual intelligence!”

“Don’t you interrupt later!”

Lin Ran said.

“Lin Ran!”

Li Sheng thought for a moment, but said with a grit of his teeth.

“Although you have a point, she has after all manifested her humanity, theoretically there is no longer any difference between her and us, if you can please don’t hurt her!”

Faced with such a cute little girl, Li Sheng was really soft-hearted and couldn’t bear to see Lin Ran hurt her.

“What are you thinking?”

Lin Ran smiled.

“Collection and payment is not detention, where is the harm, such a cute little girl, I can’t wait to feel sorry for her!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

“Having you say that is enough!”

Li Sheng laughed.

While the two of them were talking, Xiao Jiu in front of them had already run into the cave, but no matter how much she screamed, this time there was no response from the cave at all.

“Where’s my pet?”

Xiao Jiu was so angry that she ran out, she had just seen that Lin Ran and the two of them had come out of the cave.

“Your pet? We didn’t see it!”

Lin Ran said with a straight face.

“Are you lying to children? My pet is so big, how could you not have seen it?”

Little Nine said angrily.

“No Little Nine, what’s your pet?”

Li Sheng asked busily.

“It’s the rat in the cellar, my pet is very big, you Jedi can see it!”

Xiao Jiu said seriously.

Lin Ran and Li Sheng, however, heard a thud in their hearts, the two of them looked at each other, and a thought couldn’t help but pop up.

“The pet she’s talking about, it wouldn’t be the Demon Lynx Ancestor, right?”

“Little Nine You Is that pet of yours a very big A very big, big kind!”

Lin Ran asked as he swallowed his spit.

“Yeah, it usually stays in the cellar!”

Xiao Jiu said with a serious face.

“That This”

Lin Ran was at a loss for words.

“Are you guys bullying it? Is it there?”

Xiao Jiu got angry and asked, pinching her back.

“Xiao Jiu, in fact that one isn’t a pet, it’s a magical beast, we”

Lin Ran really didn’t know what to say instead, should he just say that he was killed by himself? Then how else would this collect and pay for the same demon stone.

“Humph! You must have done something bad, you don’t say I have a way!”

Xiao Jiu pinched his waist and then actually whistled, and soon several very small demon lynxes actually crawled out of the cellar entrance, they squeaked and gestured at Xiao Jiu, and following that Lin Ran saw Xiao Jiu’s face change.

“You! You killed my pet!”

Little Nine pointed at Lin Ran, his eyes filled with anger.

“No Little Nine, listen to my explanation, it was your pet that wanted to eat me!”

Lin Ran said busily.

“No way! My pet is so well behaved and usually doesn’t even let me walk, how could it possibly want to eat you! You have something delicious to eat!”

Xiao Jiu said, and at the same time her eyes turned red, crystal tears immediately flowing down her face.

“No Little Nine, it’s really not what you think, that pet of yours isn’t very kind to anyone!”

Lin Ran was busy running over and crouched down beside Xiao Jiu to explain.

“I’m not going to listen to you, you bad person, explain!”

Xiao Jiu was so angry that she pulled Lin Ran’s hand over and followed it with a direct bite.

This bite immediately brought out blood, but Lin Ran couldn’t do anything to Xiao Jiu, so he could only grit his teeth and bear it until Xiao Jiu felt that the bite was too hard for him, then he let go of his mouth and cried out in pain, holding his head.

Xiao Jiu’s mouth was full of blood, but seeing her crying so sadly, Lin Ran was also helpless, he sat down in the same place, sighed and said.

“Xiao Jiu, brother really didn’t know it was your pet, but you should also be clear, to you it’s a pet, but to us it’s an existence that can easily kill us, before it really was because it had to eat me, that’s why I couldn’t kill it, I really didn’t mean to!”

“Liar! You’re a liar!”

Xiao Jiu still had Lin Ran’s blood on his mouth and didn’t believe it at all.

“Xiao Jiu, I’m not lying to you! You’re actually the same demon stone, you should know that very well, so no matter what kind of demonic beast it is, it won’t hurt you when it sees you, they’ll even protect you, but we’re not, we’re just ordinary people, those demonic beasts won’t give us that kind of treatment!”

Lin Ran said.

“But!”

Xiao Jiu wanted to say something else, but when the words reached her mouth, she didn’t know what to say.

She gently picked up the same demon stone on her chest and looked at it somewhat blankly.

“Yes, that’s it! Because of it those demonic beasts will be kind to you, do you understand?”

Lin Ran said busily.

Xiao Jiu’s face was bewildered, not knowing what he was thinking, but Lin Ran’s heart was already raised at this moment.

This was because at the edge of Xiao Jiu’s mouth, stained with Lin Ran’s blood was about to drip down, and if it happened to drip on the same demon stone, his collection and payment would be complete.

“I don’t want to understand, you killed my pet anyway, I’ll kill you too!”

Xiao Jiu suddenly put down the same demon stone, and the blood grazed the edge of the stone and landed on the ground with a “tick”, Lin Ran was completely helpless.

“Ah? What did you say?”

Lin Ran asked as he came back to his senses.

“I said I’ll kill you!”

Xiao Jiu was so angry that she clenched her small pink fist and stared at Lin Ran angrily.

Chapter 797

“Kill me? You can’t beat brother!”

Lin Ran laughed, facing a little girl who said in a serious manner that she wanted to kill herself, Lin Ran still couldn’t help but laugh.

“I can’t beat you now, but I’ll definitely be able to beat you when I grow up, from now on I’m going to follow you until I grow up and can beat you!”

Little Nine said with a serious face.

“Good, then big brother I’ll be waiting haha!”

Lin Ran laughed, his essence blood didn’t drip on the same demon stone, but he didn’t expect this little girl to stick up for himself, although he said he was after his own life, but at least he could follow him for the time being that would be great!

When they get out, the deal between themselves and Feng Lao will be completed. As for this Xiao Jiu, Lin Ran believed that when the two of them stayed for a long time in the future, she would slowly understand.

“Do you have a place to stay, I want to move!”

Xiao Jiu said with a serious face.

“With my pet dead, I have no friends, from now on I’ll follow you and take revenge for the little mouse!”

“Go ahead and pack, there’s definitely a place to live!”

Lin Ran laughed.

At the same time, he rushed to the pillow book in his mind and said.

“Hurry up and move somewhere, let Little Nine enter your little world!”

“No problem, how much space can a little kid take up!”

Pillow Book laughed, and it saved him boredom to have someone from the same world as himself as a companion.

“That’s what you said!”

Little Nine said with a serious look on his face, following which he actually pointed to his small mountain of a house.

“I’m taking my house with me!”

“Huh?”

Lin Ran almost didn’t spurt out a mouthful of blood when he heard that, her house was two storeys high, if she were to bring it all with her, then

“Can I refuse?”

The pillow book had a speechless face.

The most important thing is that this little brat has to bring a mountain with him, what a joke!

“The only thing is that you have someone to talk to afterwards. And such a cute little girl, you can’t bear to say no?”

Lin Ran was busy persuading.

“Kid, she’s ready to kill you at any time!”

The pillow said without good grace.

“Don’t worry, I have my own way!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

“How did this shit all catch up with me, I have to get Master Book something good to swallow later, or this won’t end!”

Pillow Book said discontentedly, following a golden light that shot out and instantly took away Xiao Jiu’s house.

“Where’s my house?”

Seeing his house disappear out of thin air, Xiao Jiu was instantly anxious.

“Don’t be anxious, I’ve already taken the house, don’t resist I’ll show you in immediately!”

Lin Ran laughed, while pointing his finger, at once Little Nine also disappeared in place.

“Lin Ran!”

Li Sheng looked dumbfounded, completely unaware of what was happening.

“Don’t ask, went to the place you went before!”

Lin Ran laughed, there was no way he could say anything about this matter.

“Mm!”

Li Sheng did not ask more questions, he knew that this was Lin Ran’s secret, to be able to do so in front of him, I’m afraid it was already the limit, as for more content, he might not really tell himself,.

“Hmm! Not bad! That’s it!”

Soon Little Nine appeared again and said with satisfaction.

“Why did you come out?”

Lin Ran said in surprise, how did the pillow book come straight back out for her.

“Why not come out, there’s nothing in it, besides I have to come out and watch you, otherwise who will I seek revenge from if you run away!”

Xiaojiu said with a serious face.

“Ah ok ok! Then let’s hurry up and go!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

“Go? Who said anything about leaving? Besides, even if we go you’ll have to let me go!”

Xiao Jiu said with a strong face.

“Go with you? Don’t even think about it, unless you don’t want to take revenge!”

Lin Ran smiled brightly and winked at Li Sheng, instantly walking towards the side.

“You!”

Xiao Jiu was so angry that her silver teeth clenched, and her small fist even swung at Lin Ran several times, but not enough to finally compromise and follow.

.....

Leaving Xiao Jiu’s home, Lin Ran also quickly determined where the two of them were with the help of his pillow book.

“At the current speed, in an hour at most, we will be able to reach the inheritance area!”

Lin Ran said.

“Hm!”

Li Sheng nodded at his words, almost sixteen hours had passed since they had entered the Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation, leaving them with far less time, and with eight hours to spare, Lin Ran still needed to make another trip to the Inheritance Area to send the formation disk back, so time seemed very tight.

“The Inheritance Zone? What’s that place?”

Xiao Jiu said with a bewildered expression.

“It’s a place around here, when we go out later, big brother will take you to see a more exciting world!”

Lin Ran laughed, but that look was really like a child trafficker.

“Bah! Don’t try to buy me off, you’re my enemy!”

Little Nine's little mouth pouted, completely ungrateful.

"Haha, brother Lin Ran, I didn't expect you to meet an opponent too!"

Li Sheng, who was at the side, laughed.

"Hey, there's no way around it, it's all fate!"

Lin Ran sighed helplessly, but in his heart he was muttering a little.

If he went out and brought a little girl back, would the four daughters at home think that he had an illegitimate daughter outside? If this was misunderstood, then he really wouldn't be able to wash himself out even if he jumped into the Yellow River.

"Forget it!"

Lin Ran shook his head helplessly, instead of thinking about it here, let's go back first for example.

The two of them rushed on without any further ado.

Xiao Jiu, who was obviously not very strong, perhaps because of the illusion of the same demon stone, did not take long to enter the small world inside the pillow book to rest, after all, it was an illusion of spiritual intelligence, and it should not be easy to maintain a human form for a long time.

Once she went back to rest, the two of them hurried on even faster.

Finally, after nearly forty minutes, the two of them came across the boundary of the Inheritance Zone.

It was called the Inheritance Area, but in fact, to Lin Ran, it looked more like a castle that had been built for the Great War back then.

According to the map provided by Elder Feng, this entire Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation was a huge battlefield, and this Inheritance Zone at the back of the battlefield should be the base camp of the war back then, where many people lived to amend the many inheritances left behind only at the end of the war.

The herbal medicine area, on the other hand, was prepared for this rest area, and I'm afraid the same is true of the foreign object area, which is why the three areas are linked together.

The two men quickly rushed towards the Inheritance Area and soon arrived nearby. The huge Inheritance Area had long since fallen into disrepair, and the walls that had originally defended it against foreign enemies had collapsed, leaving it in shambles everywhere.

Even from a long distance away, the two saw many corpses, not knowing whether they were left behind by those who had died in battle before, or by those who had come to seek treasure later.

"Let's go straight to the centre of the inheritance area!"

Li Sheng opened his mouth and said.

In every area, only the core places had the most good things, such as the core of the previous warring area, where Wang Yifeng and the others had found the right magic weapon for their land.

Li Sheng naturally also wanted to go to the core of the inheritance area to have a look.

However, Lin Ran shook his head and said.

“We’re not going to the core of the Inheritance Zone, we’re going to the most remote place!”

“The most remote place?”

Li Sheng smiled in confusion, while busily saying.

“Brother Lin Ran, you know the importance of using martial arts to enter the inheritance to me, don’t joke around at this time!”

“I’m not joking!”

Lin Ran looked at Li Sheng with a serious look on his face.

Chapter 798

“Then you?”

Li Sheng was a little puzzled, even he had thought about it, if Lin Ran really didn’t go, then he had to go and take a look at it himself at his own risk, after all, it was a matter of great importance to him for the rest of his life.

“Listen to me!”

Lin Ran said seriously.

“Before I met up with you guys, I once bumped into an evader!”

Lin Ran explained, following up with what had happened to Aokiya.

“I don’t think what he said was unreasonable... the warring zone herb zone is different from the other three places! These two places, the former is very dangerous, the more dangerous the core is, that Demon Lynx Old Man is the best illustration of that, and the Herb Zone herbs are right at the core, there’s nowhere to go!”

“But the Inheritance Zone is different from the Exotic Zone! After so many years, let’s not talk about the shunners who stay here, just a hundred people come in every year to sweep the area, how much do you think there will be left when the heritage goes to the core?”

“I’m afraid the foreign object area is no better!”

“But!”

Li Sheng wanted to retort, but found that he was literally speechless.

Lin Ran continued.

“It’s been quite a few years since martial initiation began to decline, but have you ever heard of anyone being able to enter the Dao with martial arts?”

“No!”

Li Sheng sighed.

“That’s it, if there was really an inheritance here, why would no one have reached this realm for so many years, you can say that they are too stupid, but those who have received the inheritance, wouldn’t they tell their friends and fellow disciples about their realization? After all these years, someone should have crossed which step!”

Lin Ran said, turning to look around.

“This can only mean one fact, there is definitely no inheritance of entering the Dao with martial arts at the core of the inheritance zone, if there is such an inheritance inside this Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation, it has either been taken somewhere by an evader, or it is in an easily overlooked place inside the inheritance zone!”

“The former, there’s not much hope, after all, if you get this kind of inheritance, you should be able to break through to enter the Dao with martial arts soon, and it’s not like the outside world has never heard of it, so I think the second one is the most likely!”

“This inheritance could very well be in some remote corner of the inheritance area, or it could even be in the hands of some dead person! It’s not known either!”

As he said this, Lin Ran looked at Li Sheng.

“I’ve said everything that needs to be said, as for where to go you can choose for yourself, originally I came here to accompany you, when you leave I’ll also go to the Inheritance Zone!”

Lin Ran said.

Li Sheng was silent, he quickly weighed the reliability of this Lin Ran’s words, after all, this was a matter of great importance to him for the rest of his life.

“Hurry up, hurry up! What a shitty place, it took two hours to find an introductory gong method, it’s a waste of time go to the foreign object area and check it out!”

“That’s right, if I had known I would have gone straight to the herbal medicine area, what a fucking waste of time!”

“Stop cursing, hurry up and hurry up!”

Just as Li Sheng was silent, four or five people ran out of the Inheritance Area, looking at the direction they should have come out of the core area precisely.

When they saw Lin Ran and the two of them, they all couldn’t help but be stunned, but at this time, when they saw that Lin Ran and the two of them had no intention of making a move, they immediately rushed towards the herbal area next to them.

“Make a decision!”

Lin Ran looked towards Li Sheng, he didn’t have much time either, he couldn’t keep waiting here.

“Go take a look around!”

Finally, Li Sheng made up his mind.

“Good!”

Lin Ran nodded his head and immediately led Li Sheng towards a small, inconspicuous building on one side and ran inside.

The so-called core area was nothing but the city centre generation, and this remote area was naturally the inconspicuous buildings around the city centre. Although it was on a battlefield, the buildings here also followed the status arrangement, the closer to the city centre the higher the status was naturally, while the small buildings around it should obviously be inhabited by people of lower status.

“The area around here isn’t too big, we can definitely finish exploring in an hour, you follow me!”

Lin Ran said.

“Scouting?”

Li Sheng was stunned, wasn’t it a room by room search? Scouting to take what scouting.

“Don’t ask too many questions, just follow me!”

Lin Ran said, with the existence of the pillow book as a big bug, he really didn’t need to search from room to room.

“Really owe you in a previous life, tell this kid, turn around and must find something good for Master Book, or Master Book will definitely not agree!”

Pillow Book was helpless, his own divine weapon beside the titular Immortal Emperor was actually being used as a radar, which was simply a great use of his divine personality.

“Alright stop talking nonsense, if you don’t work properly, how can people find you good stuff!”

Lin Ran urged.

“You kid don’t fool me, his family is so big in the underground market, this is not negotiable!”

The pillow said.

“Fine! I’ll talk to him alright!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

“That’s more like it!”

Only then did Pillowside Book agree, releasing his divine sense to start probing.

“That Brother Li Sheng, there’s something I need to tell you!”

“Go ahead!”

Li Sheng said nervously.

“You don’t need to be nervous, it’s about some Heaven and Earth treasure materials that I asked you to find before, you might have to help find some more later, I have a friend who still needs them!”

Lin Ran said.

“I don’t think so, don’t worry, whether we can find the inheritance this time or not, I’ll take care of it when we get out, if we find it, my old man might even get some from him if he’s happy!”

Li Sheng laughed.

“Holy shit! You can do that!”

The pillow side book was happy to hear this, Li Sheng’s old man was definitely a deep family man, if he could get something from him, it would definitely be a big profit deal.

Li Sheng’s answer made the pillow side book very satisfied, and he naturally worked very hard.

With his divine sense enveloping him, the small building around him could be scouted clearly for paper, not to mention books.

“You really have a mother!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

“Nonsense, my grandma and uncle don’t love each other, I have a meal after you, and I can’t earn something for myself, I’m a divine weapon that needs a lot of treasures to recover!”

The pillow retorted.

Lin Ran saw this and knew that he couldn’t say anything to him, so he didn’t bother to say anything else and let him concentrate on exploring.

The entire outer area was not too big, and with Pillow Book’s talk of investigation, they only needed to walk around the outer area once, and they were basically done exploring.

At first, they found quite a few corpses and book scrolls, but every time Lin Ran and his team ran to check them out, they returned disappointed.

Gradually, as more and more areas were explored, there were fewer and fewer places left, and Li Sheng’s heart, which was still full of hope, gradually began to lose some of its hope.

“Don’t be anxious, there’s still one last area left!”

Lin Ran advised.

“Mm!”

Li Sheng nodded, but in his heart he had already given up a little.

“Kid, there’s a corpse in the pavilion not far ahead, and there’s a scroll on his chest!”

Suddenly, the voice of the pillow book sounded again.

However, with the countless reminders from before, Lin Ran had already become numb to it, greeted Li Sheng and the two of them walked towards the pavilion.

“Kid! There’s someone coming up ahead, it’s that red-robed youth!”

Suddenly, the pillow's voice rang out again.

And this time, Lin Ran was stunned to hear it, and his eyes immediately went on alert.

"What's wrong?"

Seeing this, Li Sheng hurriedly asked.

"That red-robed youth is here! Hurry up and check the scrolls in the corpse!"

Lin Ran was busy reminding.

"Good!"

Li Sheng responded without further ado and immediately went forward to check the condition of the corpse in the pavilion.

Chapter 799

As expected, just as Li Sheng stepped forward, a red figure soon appeared in the distant sky. What made Lin Ran's difference was that the other party had actually flown over directly, obviously not skimping on the consumption of true qi in his body.

But for that matter, he was far stronger than Lin Ran.

"Kid see, this is the heritage of a great family!"

The pillow laughed.

"A great family?"

Lin Ran was stunned.

"That's right, there's definitely a big family behind this kid, look at his aura in the air, it's weak but not scattered, the consumption of true qi in his imperial air is almost negligible, otherwise how strong do you think a Qi Watching realm person's true qi can be?"

The pillow said.

Lin Ran drifted off, as far as he knew, it was impossible for even the Sky Raider realm to reach the Royal Air for a long time, only when they reached the Creation realm could they perhaps do so, but this was not absolute, there were some techniques that, when cultivated to great success, could also allow a Qi Watcher realm person to Royal Air with very little consumption of true qi.

For example, the red-robed youth in front of him was an example.

"Got it!"

At this moment, Li Sheng had already touched the scroll from the corpse's arms, but just as he was about to open it, a cold cry came violently.

"Stop!"

This voice was cold and domineering, not at all a tone of discussion, but a complete command!

Li Sheng was instantly subdued by this aura, he had not entered the Dao after all, and was more or less affected by this shout from the other side.

“Friend! What do you mean?”

Lin Ran looked at the other party, and his eyes went icy cold.

Li Sheng hurriedly ran back with the scroll and hid behind Lin Ran, who was the only one who could negotiate with the other party at this point.

“That scroll is mine! You can’t move it!”

The red-robed youth landed not far from Lin Ran, his voice still bland.

This was the second time Lin Ran had heard the other party’s voice, the first time was that rebuke, although he was somewhat suppressed by the other party’s aura, but likewise the other party’s domineering also made Lin Ran a little uncomfortable.

“Friend isn’t that too overbearing, this thing was obviously found by us first, so how come it’s yours!”

“I knew of its existence a long time ago, only some things delayed me and I arrived a step late!”

The red-robed youth said in a cold voice.

Lin Ran smiled at his words but laughed.

“That’s meaningless of you, robbing it openly, is it?”

“If you don’t hand it over, you can assume so! I’ve explained everything I should have explained!”

The red-robed youth said in a cold voice.

“Lin Ran, or else

Li Sheng was a little worried, the other party was also one of the top three, and it looked like his strength should not be weak, if he fought with Lin Ran at this point, it would have a big impact, after all, Lin Ran still had to go to the foreign object area.

“It’s nothing to be otherwise, what if this roll is it?”

Lin Ran said solemnly.

Although he hadn’t found it all the way here, and this scroll was likely to be the last one as well, but if it really was Li Sheng who had handed it over, wouldn’t that be a brush with his last chance in this life.

“Just open it and read it!”

Lin Ran said.

“How dare you!”

The red-robed youth was also enraged, his voice clearly tinged with a sense of anger.

“I’m saying it again, this thing was left behind by my friend’s family, don’t you dare look at it! Die today!”

The red-robed youth's voice was icy cold without the slightest room for negotiation.

"You're really unreasonable, then I, Lin Ran, also put my words out there today, what we found, you want it! Step over my dead body!"

"You're no match for me!"

The red-robed youth said disdainfully, not putting Lin Ran in his eyes at all.

"If you're not a match, you'll know after the battle!"

Lin Ran flipped his palm, and the dark red short sword had already appeared in his hand.

The red-robed youth however laughed.

"A person who doesn't even have his own original magic weapon, and still presumes to call my bluff? What a lack of knowledge of the heavens, do you think I'm a waste like the Yue family?"

The red-robed youth coldly shouted, following which his palm directly probed out of his robe and grabbed towards Lin Ran across the air.

As soon as the palm came out, a huge palm shadow appeared directly around Lin Ran and grabbed towards him.

"What kind of gongfu is this!"

Lin Ran was stunned, he understood that this was definitely a gong method, the true gas external transformation could only be achieved by the Creation Realm, this move of the other party was definitely some kind of gong method, but he had actually never seen it before at all, even Compulsion Yang did not have this skill.

"Be careful! His gong methods are all very powerful, there's definitely a big family behind this kid!"

Pillow Book warned.

Lin Ran also got serious at this moment, his body's Medical Dao True Qi quickly running, the dark red short sword in his hand already slashed towards the vague shadow.

"Bang!"

The short sword collided with the shadow, and at once the tremendous impact actually sent Lin Ran flying backwards, and the short sword in his hand also emitted a series of buzzing sounds, obviously somewhat unable to carry it.

"The strength is quite strong!"

Lin Ran's eyes micrometered as he directly put away his shortsword, and with a flip of his hand, the Linglong Breaking Tip appeared.

"I still don't believe I can't break you!"

With that said, Lin Ran poured a stream of true qi directly onto the broken tip and flung it out towards the front.

“Whoosh!”

The speed of the broken tip was so fast that it vaguely pierced the air with a popping sound.

“A cold weapon?”

When the red-robed youth saw this, his disdain became even more obvious.

“Bang!”

Soon the two collided, and the red-robed youth was even prepared to slap Lin Ran to death directly.

However, as he continued to manipulate the palm void, he was surprised to find that his palm void had actually started to collapse, from where the palm of his hand was to collapse rapidly, and in just a few breaths it had completely collapsed and disappeared.

“This move is no better than that!”

With a wave of his palm, Lin Ran directly retrieved the Linglong Breaking Tip, using force to break the spell paired with the Breaking Tip was truly unbeatable.

“Kid, you’ve really surprised me!”

The red-robed youth looked at Lin Ran and laughed after him.

“Remember my name, Fire One Sword! You’ll be proud of it in the future!”

“O? Is that so? I’m only proud because my name is Lin Ran and I’m a Chinese medicine doctor!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

“I don’t know what to think!”

Fire One Sword snorted coldly, followed by a flip of his palm, a red true qi immediately surfaced, and then actually formed a sword of true qi.

“Still not using a magic weapon?”

Lin Ran laughed at this, but in his heart he was secretly shocked.

To be able to exude his aura to such an extent, coupled with the other party’s heavy performance earlier, this had completely exceeded Lin Ran’s expectations.

This level of the other party was completely a strength only found in the Realm of Creation, if this wasn’t the Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation, Lin Ran really would have thought that he was standing in front of a Realm of Creation powerhouse.

“This kid’s entire body is full of treasures, just this entire technique, without a top great clan tailoring it, it definitely wouldn’t be able to achieve this effect!”

Pillow Book marvelled.

This was similar to the world he was in, where high-level powerhouses could completely tailor a set of gong methods for their own descendants according to their own understanding and perception, allowing someone as weak as him to bring out his ultimate strength, such was the power of a family, for someone like Lin Ran who fought alone, he was simply born with the golden key in his mouth.

Faced with this scene in front of him, although Lin Ran was a little surprised, he was not the least bit nervous, and he even remembered a line from a drama he had seen before.

“Have you ever heard of a saying?”

Lin Ran asked the pillow book with a smile.

“What saying?”

“What saying?”

The pillow-side book wondered.

Lin Ran smiled and said.

“If he is strong, let him be strong, the breeze will brush the mountains. If he is strong, let him be strong, the moon will shine on the river!”

“Li Sheng! Open the scroll! If he doesn’t agree, I, Lin Ran, will fight!”

Chapter 800

“Arrogant!”

Fire One Sword shouted, and his body immediately rushed over, the fire-red longsword on his palm was as majestic as a general who had fought in the sands.

“Li Sheng! Open!”

Lin Ran’s bloodlust was also completely ignited as he chided.

“Good!”

Seeing this, Li Sheng stopped talking nonsense and instantly opened the scroll, following which he watched it.

“Seeking death!”

Fire One Sword’s face instantly turned ugly, and his aura actually surged once again, faintly taking half a step into the Heaven Seizing Realm.

“Is this your strength?”

Lin Ran frowned slightly, followed by a loud laugh from the sky.

“Half a step into the Heaven Seizing Realm, I’d like to see how strong it is!”

With a cold cry, Lin Ran followed suit and moved.

He had no magic weapon and had to take Yue Feng’s dark red short sword out at this point, breaking spells and stabbing with a dagger was fine, but at this point he was facing one of the strongest opponents ever, and Lin Ran couldn’t help but deal with it carefully.

The latter is the head of the compulsion pavilion, but in the end, it is an insignificant power in front of the Fire One Sword.

And through the pillow book's evaluation of this Fire One Sword, it was clear that the other party was extremely powerful and not at all comparable to Compulsion Yang.

Moreover, through the exchange of blows just now, Lin Ran had also discovered this, nowadays, whether he was facing Yue Shan or Qin Ji, he was confident that he could defeat them both, but he was not at all sure about facing Fire Sword.

This meant that this guy was at least as capable of fighting across the ranks as himself.

"Die!"

As he was thinking in his mind, Fire One Sword was already killing over, his whole body was overwhelmed with Qi, and the sword of True Qi on his palm was even slashing violently, his speed was simply shocking.

"Come on!"

Lin Ran didn't have time to dodge at all, picking up his short sword and directly staying to meet him.

"Bang!"

The sound of metal colliding resounded through the sky, following which Lin Ran actually flew out directly to, while he only felt as if his tiger's mouth was about to be torn apart.

"That's quite a strong force!"

Steadying himself, Lin Ran couldn't help but say to himself.

The strike just now looked like he had blocked it, but only he knew that he was completely pressured by his opponent, and in the face of Fire One Sword's attack, Lin Ran could only barely defend himself, and had no chance to counterattack at all.

"Is that all the strength you have?"

Disdain leaked out of the corner of Fire One Sword's eyes, it was really just like he thought, this kid was just a piece of trash.

"That's all your strength is, if you want to see more of my strength, then show your true ability!"

Lin Ran sneered.

"Don't know what to do! I think you're tired of living!"

Fire One Sword's eyes chilled as his body moved once more.

"Bang, bang, bang, bang!"

Three swords in quick succession slashed Lin Ran backwards by several hundred metres, but each time, before he could adjust his stance, Fire Sword came over again to kill him.

"Beating you is like cutting up a melon and chopping up vegetables!"

Fire Sword said disdainfully.

“You talk a lot of nonsense, am I dead?”

Lin Ran rubbed his tiger mouth, which was already numb, and said in a cold voice.

“What’s the difference?”

Fire One Sword sneered.

“What do you think?”

Lin Ran also laughed as he pointed at Li Sheng in the distance, his meaning was clear, you won’t be able to get that scroll until Laozi is dead.

“Humph! You’ve managed to anger me, I didn’t want to kill you before, seeing as you were also a talented person who could be used for me in the righteous path, but now! You deserve to die!”

Fire One Sword shouted coldly, and the red sword of true qi above his hand instantly disappeared, replaced by a long sword with a white scabbard.

The longsword with the scabbard was not yet sheathed, but as soon as it appeared that sharp chill, and monstrous killing intent made Lin Ran feel his heart tremble.

“Do you know why I don’t use magic weapons? Because it is the same as my name, killing with only one sword! When it comes out, you will die!”

Fire One Sword’s eyes were filled with confidence.

“Is that so? You’re bragging quite a lot, I just don’t know if you have the ability to do that!”

Lin Ran said disdainfully, but there was some unease in his heart, the other party’s sword’s aura was too strong, it didn’t seem like something a Qi Watcher realm person could possess at all.

“Kid! You’re in trouble now, that magic weapon was definitely used by a strong person of the Creation Realm, the killing aura on it is so dense there are definitely many people who have died under its sword!”

The pillow book was busy reminding.

Lin Ran secretly cried out in his heart.

“So what can be done, now we can only wait for Li Sheng to finish reading it quickly!”

“I’m afraid this comer you’ve messed with this time is extraordinary!”

Pillow Book sighed, he wasn’t afraid, but he was worried about Lin Ran, just too easy to break, if he messed with some power that he couldn’t even fight against too soon, it definitely wouldn’t be good for Lin Ran.

“Die!”

As the thought was going through his mind, the Fire One Sword in front of him was already moving.

The white scabbard was violently pulled off, and immediately a long sword that was snow white and vaguely transparent appeared violently, and immediately the space around it seemed to quiet down.

Lin Ran only felt that he was wrapped in a cloud of coldness that made his whole body start shivering, and he tried to suppress it, but the effect was minimal.

“Killing you with this sword is really a bargain for you!”

Fire One Sword’s face was gloomy, and even more so with a wave of anger, as if even giving the use of this sword gave him a feeling of being insulted, but in order to get the scroll as early as possible, he could only do so.

“Go!”

Fire One Sword shouted explosively and swung his longsword out in the air in his hand, immediately a harsh sword Qi turned into a cold aura and came straight at Lin Yet.

There was no flashy stance, nor was there any brewing, just this ordinary sword, but the sword Qi seemed to be able to tear through the void and shoot straight at Lin Ran’s heart.

“Good! Strong!”

Lin Ran’s heart trembled as he imagined the consequences if he resisted hard, perhaps he could carry it off, but he would definitely be seriously injured, or he might not be able to resist it at all.

“Fire One Sword! You are really shameless! A person is really a bitch as his name suggests!”

Suddenly, just as Lin Ran was thinking in his mind about how to respond, a laugh suddenly rang out, followed by the appearance of a youth shrouded in black robes.

With a wave of his palm, a huge blade shadow emerged and directly collided with Fire One Sword’s sword Qi.

“Bang!”

A shocking tremor shook the surrounding buildings, causing a large portion of the buildings to collapse and the Fire One Sword Sword Qi to be blocked.

“Surnamed Li! You want to get involved in this matter too?”

Fire One Sword’s face instantly turned ugly, if the youth surnamed Li in front of him really wanted to take charge, then he really might not be able to kill Lin Ran today.

“Nonsense? I can’t care if I’m here, besides! You kid is going to kill someone from our Li family, so I can’t just watch?”

The black-robed youth said with displeasure.

“Your family’s people? Is it possible that all the Li family members under the sky are still untouchable by me?”

The black-robed youth was named Li Mu Di, his greatest rival so far, but of course the rivalry mentioned here was not a mortal enemy, but two people whose strengths were equal to each other and who had to compete with each other in everything.

“The boy reading the scroll is from the Li family! Do you want me to show you the family tree of our family?”

Li Mu Di said in a good-natured way.

“I don’t believe it! You let him speak in person!”

Fire One Sword pointed at Li Sheng and scolded.

“What are you talking about? Can’t you see that he is reading the heritage? If you interrupt him at this moment and something goes wrong, you will be responsible! If you want my father to talk to you, that’s fine with me!”

Li Mu Di laughed.

“You!”

Fire Yijian’s face turned ugly as he listened and pointed at Lin Ran who was on the side.

“What about him? He’s not one of your Li family after all! Why did you stop me from killing him?”

There was anger in Fire Yijian’s eyes.
