

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 801

“He is my Li family son’s brother, we Li family members naturally have to defend him!”

Li Mu Di laughed.

“You! Li Mudi Laozi has something to do today, otherwise I would definitely fight with you!”

Fire One Sword was so angry that he gritted his teeth.

“Come on! I’m afraid of you!”

Li Mudi had a disdainful face.

The two had fought for many years, they knew each other’s strength too well, so a real fight was better than a brawl, and they could save some energy.

“All right! It’s just a scroll, wait until he’s finished reading it, if it’s really yours you can just take it!”

Li Mu Di said directly.

“You don’t give a shit! The scroll is a heritage, he has read it, who is responsible for the leakage of this heritage?”

Fire One Sword said in a cold voice.

“You are sick in the head, this is the Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation, the inheritance was put here for people to see, people were there first, how come this is yours!”

Li Mu Di said angrily.

“If I say it’s mine, it’s mine, this scroll was left to her by my disciple her father!”

Fire One Sword said in a cold voice.

“O?”

Li Mu Di was stunned at his words, and his face turned a little ugly.

He knew about Fire One Sword, this guy had a disciple who said he was a disciple, but he froze and turned someone into his girlfriend, the key was that this girlfriend had a tragic life, he didn’t expect this guy to have a father who could leave a legacy!

“Ling Ya is the descendant of the great war back then?”

Li Mu Di frowned and asked.

“Or else!”

Fire One Sword said without good grace.

“Hey! You didn’t tell me earlier, he has already read it, just be patient and wait, everything will be said after he has read it!”

Li Mu Di said helplessly.

If what Fire One Sword said was true, then the scroll might really be left to his daughter by his old man, that was read by others, it would be fine if Fire One Sword didn't have the strength, but the key was that he still had the strength, then this would be a difficult matter to deal with.

"You better give me a statement!"

Fire One Sword snorted coldly, not saying a word and waited patiently.

Lin Ran's tense nerves only relaxed slightly when he saw this.

"Phew!"

Soon, after the crowd had waited for a while, Li Sheng let out a long breath and closed the scroll.

At this moment, his eyes were filled with light, as if he had seen some supreme treasure.

"Found it?"

Lin Ran asked busily.

"Mmm!"

Li Sheng nodded excitedly, and then laughed.

"But it's just some of the most basic perceptions, and the person who wrote this scroll didn't enter the Dao himself, he just wrote out the perceptions of his own cultivation!"

"But even so, it's still beneficial to me! I've still earned it this time!"

Li Sheng laughed, clearly satisfied.

"Huh! Who is he!"

Suddenly, Li Sheng also noticed the extra Li Mu Di, and that Lin Ran was standing in front of him intact, as if he and Fire One Sword hadn't done anything.

"Kid, I'm your cousin!"

Not far away, Li Mu Di said without good grace.

"Cousin?"

Li Sheng was stunned to hear how he didn't even know about it.

"It's normal that you don't know me, I'm from the Inner Clan, I know! The son of the Temperance City branch family, Li Tianming!"

Li Mu Di laughed.

"You ....."

Li Sheng was stunned, the inner clan this was a word that was deeply remembered since he was born, because only the very bright disciples within the clan could enter the inner clan, and once they entered the inner clan what they got was the best resources of the whole clan, the clan business was very big but in the end those who could enjoy the inclination of these resources were phoenixes.

“You’re really from the inner clan?”

Li Sheng was still a little unconvinced.

“I can’t lie to you!”

Li Mu Di gave him a white look without good humour, followed by taking out a token with the word Li written on it.

“Inner tribe token! Li Sheng has met the Inner Clan seniors!”

Seeing this, Li Sheng was busy bending down and saluting.

“Alright, alright, I’m not much older than you, just call me cousin!”

“Yes! Cousin!”

Li Sheng was busy shouting, the inner clan definitely had status within the family, he didn’t dare to retort.

“Tell me, what’s on the scroll?”

Li Mu Di asked.

“Back to cousin, on the scroll is an article about the experience of using martial arts to enter the dao, the person who wrote it didn’t succeed himself, but only wrote out his experience! Let future generations refer to it, and it also says that but anyone who practices martial arts can watch it!”

Li Sheng said busily.

“Impossible! Ling Ya’s father is not a martial arts practitioner! And he had already reached the Realm of Creation a long time ago!”

Fire One Sword said in a cold voice, his hands clenched!

“Look for yourself if you don’t believe me!”

Li Sheng directly threw the scroll over, while saying.

“I don’t know who Ling Ya is, but the person who compiled this scroll said on it that because of the war he really broke up and had no way to continue practicing the Feng Shui path, which is why he turned to martial arts to enter the path instead, but in the end he didn’t succeed!”

“How is this possible?”

Fire One Sword looked at the clear words on the scroll, and his hands could not stop trembling.

“My cousin didn’t lie to you, did he!”

Li Mu Di didn’t need to look to know that what Li Sheng said was true, in front of himself he didn’t believe that Li Sheng would lie.

“Humph!”

Fire One Sword put away the scroll and looked at Li Sheng’s crowd, with anger in his eyes.

“Although what he said is true, this is after all Ling Ya’s father’s relic, how can others be allowed to view it like this!”

“Hey! This is what the old man meant, besides the current cultivation world is in great need of such an enlightenment, okay?”

Li Mu Di said without good grace.

“I don’t care! This scroll has to follow Ling Ya’s wishes whether to make it public or not, and no one is allowed to read it until she decides!”

Fire One Sword scolded.

“Then what do you want? We Li family members have already read it, so if you want to fight I’ll play with you! But do you still have time?”

Li Mu Di laughed, but he knew the destination of Fire One Sword’s visit here.

“You!”

Fire One Sword’s face turned ugly as his gaze swept over the crowd before landing on Lin Ran.

“I can let it go for the sake of him being a member of your Li family, but you have to make him make a blood oath that he can’t say anything to anyone until Ling Ya decides to go public! Not to mention the events of today!”

The matter of the Scroll of Embodiment with Martial Arts into the Dao was too influential, if others knew about it, I’m afraid it wouldn’t be something that Fire One Sword could peddle, after all, it was something that the entire cultivation world needed, and it was impossible for any of the great clans to fight against the entire cultivation world.

“It can be! I don’t think Ling Ya will be as careful as you!”

Li Mu Di laughed.

“I am willing to make a vow!”

Li Sheng said, he had already read it, this oath or not was basically useless to him, because in this era, the scroll of understanding with martial arts was definitely worth a lot of money, no matter who got it, they would not say anything.

This is how it is in Jianghu, when it is difficult, everything can be shared, but when it is peaceful, it is to develop oneself, and the portal view is very serious.

“There is one more thing!”

Fire One Sword suddenly pointed at Lin Ran and said in a cold voice.

“You, Li Mu Di, will definitely not talk nonsense, I still believe you on this point, but what about him? In order to ensure that no word of today’s events will get out, he must die today!”

“You!”

Seeing this, Li Sheng became anxious, and Li Mudi at the side also frowned slightly.

“Fire One Sword, is it necessary? Maybe when you get back Ling Ya will decide to go public? Just for this bullshit secret, you’re going to kill a person?”

“Besides, if I’m not wrong, this kid’s potential isn’t small, right? If you kill him, that’s a loss to the Alliance of the Righteous, have you considered it?”

“They say that your Fire One Sword’s sword only kills evil demons, why do you want to target people from your own camp this time?”

Li Mu Di chided in a cold voice.

Chapter 802

“He may have some strength, but I’d be chilled even if he was a soldier in the future, so what future do you think he has? It’s a waste of resources to train him!”

Fire One Sword said disdainfully.

“O? Haha you’re really going to laugh me to death!”

Li Mu Di laughed.

“You say he’s a waste of resources, I’m telling you! As of now there are already many tutors who have noticed him, so if you kill him, you’ll have to wait to explain yourself on the tutors’ side!”

“That’s not possible!”

Fire One Sword’s face was filled with shock, how could a tutor possibly notice Lin Ran, what kind of existence was a tutor, this was absolutely impossible.

“Impossible?”

Li Mu Di laughed and turned his head to look at Lin Ran.

“Kid, did Compass Pavilion’s Compass Yang lose to you?”

“Yes!”

Lin Ran didn’t hide his head and nodded directly.

“What is Compulsion Yang, I can exterminate his entire sect!”

Fire One Sword had a disdainful look on his face.

“Yes, you Fire One Sword are powerful, but do you know what level he was at when he defeated Compulsion Yang? You had only just crossed into the Qi Watching Realm, and when you had just crossed into the Qi Watching Realm, you hadn’t even killed anyone!”

Li Mu Di laughed.

“What?”

Fire Yijian was shocked at his words, he had just crossed into the Qi Watching Realm and defeated the Heaven Seizing Realm’s Compass Yang, how was this possible.

“You don’t have to fool me, Compass Yang is at the Heaven Seizing Realm, how could he possibly defeat him when he has just crossed into the Qi Watching Realm!”

Fire One Sword did not believe it.

“Believe it or not is your business, moreover I have to tell you, how many years has Yue Shan of the Yue family been in the Heaven Seizing Realm, it is said that he has half a foot crossed into the Creation Realm, but he still failed at his hands!”

Li Mu Di continued.

“Such a person, you say he wasted resources? The mentor won’t even agree!”

“You!”

Fire One Sword’s face was ugly, if what Li Mu Di said was true, then he really weighed it up, after all, someone who was valued by his mentor, he really didn’t dare to make a move, it was a big matter that concerned the survival of the entire Zheng Dao Alliance.

“Two, interrupting, who is the mentor?”

Lin Ran had a confused look on his face, having no idea what they were talking about.

“Don’t worry you’ll find out later, you won’t know who your mentor is until he decides to see you!”

Li Mu Di laughed.

“By the way! I’ve always wondered when you guy rose to prominence, I asked my mentor mentor just smiled and didn’t say, come on you tell me, how many years have you been cultivating?”

Li Mu Di looked at Lin Ran and laughed.

“You really want to hear?”

Lin Ran frowned.

“Nonsense, what’s there to keep secret!”

Li Mudi said without good humour.

“It’s less than a year!”

Lin Ran said.

Technically speaking from graduation to now, it was indeed less than a year.

“What? Less than a year, are you teasing me?”

Li Mu Di was instantly enraged.

“I started cultivating at the age of three, and I’m only at the peak of the Qi Watching Realm now, you’ve only been at it for less than a year? You started cultivating at the age of twenty-six?”

Li Mudi said helplessly.

“Indeed it’s less than a year, believe it or not!”

Lin Ran didn’t bother to explain.

Now, both Li Mudi and Fire One Sword were silent, they were both about the same, but now they both felt their faces hurt, they had been cultivating for over twenty years, but others had only been cultivating for a year, was this speed still human?

“Kid! You better not be lying, or else I’ll have plenty of ways to deal with you in the future!”

Fire One Sword looked at Lin Ran, the anger in his eyes having gone down for the most part.

“Do I have something to gain from lying to you?”

Lin Ran looked at Fire Sword, his face calm without the slightest ripple.

“Yes!”

Fire One Sword thought for a moment, and then sneered.

“Fine, I can not kill you! But this matter is not going to be over so easily! Take my sword, whether you have the strength and qualifications to take my sword or not!”

“Take this sword and our grudge is settled, and you must swear not to tell anyone about what happened today, just like Li Sheng! But if you can’t take it and die, then you can’t blame me!”

“Hey! How can he catch that sword of yours, you still want to kill him!”

Li Mu Di said busily.

“This is my bottom line, a mentor is a mentor, but I, Fire One Sword, also have my own pride that belongs to me!”

Fire One Sword retorted.

“Whatever, if you really kill him, I’ll see how you can explain to your mentor!”

Li Mu Di said in a cold voice.

“Then let’s see if he can survive!”

Fire One Sword said blandly, while looking at Lin Ran.

“I’ll take this sword, but I won’t make this oath, I won’t say anything about things, but no one will try to force me, Lin Ran, to make an oath! Not even you!”

Lin Ran said firmly.

“What a lot of nonsense! That depends on whether you can survive or not!”

With a cold look on his face, Fire One Sword drew his white longsword with a “scuffle”, followed by a shake of the sword, and a sharp sword aura rushed towards Lin Ran once again.

It was the same feeling as before, the same trembling heart, and this time, Lin Ran knew clearly that no one would be able to block this blow for him.

“Kid! You!”

The pillow saw only a sigh, making a vow wouldn’t do anything, was there a need to be so adamant about principles?

But on second thought, wasn’t this the same temperament of the Immortal Emperor back then, perhaps he followed him in the middle of Mingming himself precisely because he saw this indomitable heart in him?

“It is better to bend to live than to die in battle!”

Lin Ran only blandly replied, followed by not paying any attention to the pillow book and concentrated on the sword mane that was shooting at him.

This sword mane was the second time Lin Ran had seen it, the first one was easily blocked by Li Mu Di, clearly the two were agreeing on the level.

But this time’s, he could only rely on himself.

“Come on! Let me see how strong the sons of the Exodus Great Clan really are!”

Lin Ran clenched his teeth, a look of determination in his eyes.

This situation reminded him of his own time back in school, when he was similar to now.

Only then it was money that was being compared, while now it was strength that was being compared. To be looked up to by others and control one’s own destiny, whether it was money or strength, one could only rely on oneself.

“Come on!”

Lin Ran shouted explosively, his hands fiercely joined together, followed by a stream of medical dao true qi quickly diffusing out, in order to hide his true qi from others, when it was leaking out, Lin Ran was disguising it as feng shui aura, so it didn’t look any different from an ordinary person.

“It’s going to be a fight?”

On the side, Li Mu Di watched nervously, what was so exceptional about this person who had pleased even his tutor that he wanted to know.

“Hmph! With this kind of strength, the tutor looks up to you? Don’t be ridiculous!”

Fire One Sword’s eyes were filled with disdain.

In his opinion, if this sword of his landed on Lin Ran, even if he didn't die, he would probably be completely crippled, and he still presumed to be chosen by his mentor to become his comrade? It was simply ridiculous.

"Li Mudi remember today's agreement, and don't tell anyone outside!"

Fire One Sword looked at Li Mudi and was already preparing to leave.

"You're leaving like this?"

Li Mudi was surprised, the clash between Lin Ran and the sword blade below hadn't even started yet.

"Why not leave? Waiting to see a dead man?"

With a face full of disdain, Fire One Sword turned around and left.

Finally, when he had just flown a hundred metres away, a loud "bang" sound came from behind, followed by the rumbling sound of a house collapsing.

"Dead?"

A cold smile appeared at the corner of Fire Sword's mouth as he turned around to look at the dust in the sky.

Chapter 803

The dust slowly fell away, and in the distance there was only a ruin, and Li Sheng and Li Mu Di, who were standing in shock.

"Still really useless!"

Fire One Sword snorted coldly and turned around to leave.

But suddenly, a crisp sound of rubble clashing rang out, a crisp sound that was so piercing that Fire Sword could not help but stop and turn his head.

In the distance, a hand poked out from the pile of stones on a ruin only, covered in blood and dust.

"Not dead?"

Fire One Sword frowned slightly, but followed with relief.

"If you're not dead, then you're not dead, a mere mole and Xu put it to heart!"

A word to himself, followed by Fire One Sword this time turned his head and left directly.

.....

"Li Sheng! I'm leaving too, see you later!"

Not long after Fire One Sword had left, seeing Lin Ran crawl out from the ground, Li Mu Di also spoke up.

"Take care, cousin!"

Li Sheng laughed.

Li Mudi gestured, and then rushed towards Lin Ran and said.

“Kid, you’re good! Do your best, and I hope to meet again one day!”

After saying that, Li Mudi had already left the place in a few flashes.

On the originally lively ruins, only Lin Ran and Li Sheng were left at this moment.

“Brother Lin Ran!”

Li Sheng looked at Lin Ran with gratitude in his eyes, he didn’t know what to say, although in the end his own cousin had come and bailed him out.

But it was also this that made him feel somewhat guilty towards Lin Ran, Lin Ran had, after all, taken on Fire One Sword for himself, without himself, Lin Ran would not have had to take this risk at all.

“There’s no need to say words of gratitude, thankfully I’m not dead!”

Lin Ran covered his chest and sat on the stone platform, quickly recovering from his injuries.

He had indeed fought with all his might to resist this sword of Fire Sword, but again, as Fire Sword had said, he really only used one sword to kill, and this strength was at least completely beyond Lin Ran’s current ability to resist.

“Is this the gap?”

Lin Ran revealed a helpless bitter smile, he thought he had worked very hard, but there were times when time was really very important, and the time Lin Ran had taken to embark on this path was ultimately too short.

“Brother Lin Ran, you take this medicine!”

Li Sheng fished out a wooden box from his arms, which was exquisitely carved with delicate flower patterns.

“It’s not necessary, even if you appreciate me, you don’t need to give me a gift here!”

Lin Ran laughed, he really didn’t think that much about it, the more Li Sheng was like this, the more uncomfortable he felt.

“It’s not a gift, it’s a hybrid grass!”

Li Sheng said.

“Mixed Yuan Grass?”

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, he had heard of this item, it was very precious and as soon as it appeared on the market it was definitely a situation where it was grabbed in seconds.

Not because of anything else, just because a single stalk of Mixed Yuan Grass could restore a cultivator as good as new within half an hour, but of course a dead person was definitely out of the question.

So this herb was a must grab for many cultivators.

“Originally this was prepared for me by my father, but now it seems that I can’t use it, so it’s kind of a thank you for helping just now, it’s yours!”

Li Sheng had no intention of negotiating at all, and directly shoved the Hybrid Grass to Lin Ran.

“I’ve got what I want, I’ll leave straight away and wait for you outside!”

Li Sheng laughed, then directly took out the letter talisman and crushed it to go, not giving Lin Ran the chance to refuse at all.

“Hey .....

Lin Ran opened his mouth, and before the words could come out, Li Sheng had already disappeared in place.

“This guy! He’s so comfortable in his own mind, how embarrassing for me!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

Li Sheng should have thrown this to himself, the pressure in his own heart was put down, but instead, he made himself feel a little overwhelmed.

With the value of a Mixed Yuan Grass, I’m afraid no one would refuse to ask anyone for help, mainly because this thing was too rare.

“Forget about not thinking so much, there’s still a chance! Seize the day!”

Lin Ran directly stuffed the Mixed Yuan Grass into his mouth, following the weak Medical Dao True Qi in his body to quickly refine and absorb it, recovering the injuries in his body.

Although he had survived the move made by the Fire Sword just now, the injuries in his body were not optimistic. Without the Mixed Yuan Grass that Li Sheng had given him, I was afraid that Lin Ran would have to rely on his luck to decide whether or not he could make it to the foreign object zone.

At a dangerous moment, he could only crush the messenger to save his life, but now with this Hybrid Grass, he would still have the capital to continue.

“Weng!”

The power of the Mixed Yuan Grass quickly dissolved and soaked into Lin Ran’s limbs and bones, nourishing his body like crazy.

“They say that with one strain of Mixed Yuan Grass, the gods don’t need to be disturbed, this thing is truly magical!”

Feeling the rapidly recovering injuries within his body, Lin Ran couldn’t help but laugh.

“Kid, I have to remind you of something!”

Suddenly, the pillow’s voice rang out.

“What?”

Lin Ran asked in wonder.

“That Fire One Sword is very strong, it’s fine if you don’t run into him on the next path, but if you do you won’t have a second Hybrid Grass!”

The Pillow Book frowned.

Lin Ran smiled at his words but laughed.

“What kind of words do you call that? I’ve known from the moment I was born that there are people who are richer than me, don’t I still go out and make money?”

“There are so many better than me, can’t I just go out and walk around?”

“You!”

The pillow was speechless, and he realised that he seemed to be saying something a little too sensational.

“I can’t help it if he’s strong, if he really wants to kill me, then I can only fight to the death, but God won’t let me collide with him every time, if that’s the case, I’m afraid I’ll be smashed to death by the house even if I just hide at home!”

Lin Ran laughed.

He had long since looked past all this, they say that heroes emerge in troubled times, if everyone in troubled times only cared about self-preservation and no one came out to break through, where would there be any heroes to speak of.

“Well, forget I said anything about this, you seriously recover, recovering after a big battle will always yield unexpected gains!”

Pillow Book reminded, and then said no more.

Back then the immortal emperor also rose from the mortal dust, only it followed the immortal emperor scenery for hundreds of years, has long been used to high above, now have to accompany Lin Ran from walking side this struggle road, some times more or less still not quite adapt.

“The road is hard, and I don’t know how far this kid can go, Immortal Emperor! Nowadays, I don’t know where to bury my bones!”

Pillow Book lamented.

Indeed, the road is hard! The uphill road was always difficult.

But Lin Ran had never walked downhill since he was a child, he had always walked uphill, so he knew better than anyone how difficult this road was, but it was because it was difficult that he had to walk it, the comfortable road was reserved for the dead!

Time passed by minute by minute, half an hour later.

“Weng!”

Suddenly, white smoke rose from Lin Ran’s entire body, and a large bead of sweat rose above his forehead.

And at this moment, above his brow, there was actually a faint wisp of white flame burning slowly.

“Sky Raiding Realm? This kid isn’t going to break through now, is he!”

The Pillow Book looked stunned, busy looking up at the sky, which was as calm as ever without a single change.

“There’s no strange image, it shouldn’t be, I’m afraid this kid has crossed into the half foot Heaven Seizing Realm!”

Pillow Book said to himself.

“Whew!”

Suddenly, Lin Ran let out a long breath, the flame mark on his brow dissipated, and he opened his eyes, his eyes had a refined aura as if he could see through ten thousand miles of dark clouds.

“So cool, this is the power of the half-step Heaven Seizing Realm? I feel like I can fight the Fire One Sword!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Wake up you, drink more hot water! You’re lucky you didn’t die just now, you’re just about ready to go fight again, you masochist!”

The pillow said without good humour.

Chapter 804

“It’s called confidence! You don’t know anything!”

Lin Ran gave the pillow book a blank look, followed by jumping off the stone platform to change his clothes, and walked towards the outside of the inheritance area.

“Confidence? If you die, I’ll have to find someone else.

The pillow side of the book said so, but in his heart is very pleased, a big battle directly forward a step, Lin Ran this speed really makes him very satisfied.

“Cut the crap, there’s still two hours left, let’s go straight to the foreign object area!”

Lin Ran laughed, there were still the last two hours left in the day, he was also straight away from this final destination.

“By the way! I have a doubt, how come you didn’t use a silver needle to resist that fire sword just now! Just the set that your senior sister left you!”

The Pillow Book asked.

“You mean this one, I never bothered to refine it, I refined it in passing when I was recovering just now, from today onwards I, Lin Ran, finally have my own magic weapon!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“You!”

The pillow was so angry that he almost spat a mouthful of old blood on his face, his life was at stake and he didn't refine his magic weapon, was he too big-hearted or too stupid?

“It's nothing, I survived without the magic weapon!”

Lin Ran laughed, while already rushing out of the Inheritance Zone and towards the direction of the Foreign Object Zone.

He had to pass through the Herb Zone halfway to the Foreign Item Zone, but Lin Ran had already obtained the Ninth Order Silver Needle, so there was no longer much point in going to the Herb Zone, so he was going to pass straight through without stopping at the Herb Zone.

“Hey kid, you can't take anything with you, don't you forget Master Shu, this herbal medicine area you can take a look at when you leave later, in case there are good things also give Master Shu some whole!”

Pillow Book laughed.

Lin Ran could only take one item with him, but Pillow Book was not subject to this restriction, he could just eat up the entire herb zone and no one would be able to control him.

“No, time is running out! I have to go to the foreign object area first. Besides, what if people see you when I let you out? Do you still want to go inside the tripod and be cannon fodder?”

Lin Ran refused outright.

“Shit! Not even if it's just one or two!”

The pillow said without good grace.

“If there's one by the way, I'll get it for you!”

Lin Ran laughed.

As they spoke, the two of them had already seen a huge wooden gate from afar, the gate was open surrounded by all the dead vines and decaying leaves, looking like an abandoned manor house.

“Hundred Grass Garden!”

Looking at a plaque hanging next to the entrance, Lin Ran couldn't help but laugh.

On the plaque, apart from the three words Hundred Vegetable Garden, there was also a small line of writing attached to it.

“I hope that the old man can one day grow herbs, drink a little wine and not be involved in war!”

“This senior should have managed this Hundred Herb Garden back then!”

Lin Ran laughed.

From the words he could feel that this manager, did not want to participate in the war, but the world was unpredictable being in that context at that time, he was forced to do nothing.

“Let’s go! Pass it straight over!”

Lin Ran said with a smile, and then entered the Bacchanalian Garden directly.

Traversing from inside the Hundred Herb Garden, it would only take ten minutes to reach the foreign object area, which would also save time in finding the location where the roulette wheel was to be returned.

The herb zone was obviously more crowded than the warring zone, this way over, Lin Ran had already bumped into several groups of people, while some of these people were very happy and some were very frustrated, it was obvious that not everyone could get something here either, and scrambling should also exist.

A few minutes later, Lin Ran had passed through most of the herb area and was about to enter the last stretch of the road.

And hardly anyone would come along this stretch of road, because this last stretch of road was the most dangerous part of the Hundred Herb Garden, the Poison Zone!

Almost all kinds of poisons are planted here, some of them don’t even need you to get close, just sniff the air, they can kill people straight away, so no one would normally come here.

“Help! Help!”

Suddenly, just as Lin Ran was about to speed up and charge straight out of here, a faint woman’s voice was the one that rang out in his ears.

“Who’s calling for help?”

Lin Ran was stunned, and his instincts as a doctor made him immediately stop and look around.

“Hmm?”

Suddenly, Lin Ran’s face changed, he actually found four or five corpses lying in the medicinal field on the side of the road, and one of them was still moving, it was she who was making the cry for help.

“Girl!”

Lin Ran rushed over, but when he saw the other party’s cheeks, his heart chilled.

The girl’s cheeks were completely black and her face was full of death, so she was obviously dead, but her body was still moving.

“This person died unjustly, the souls of cultivators are stronger than normal people, and she, on the other hand, is unwilling to leave!”

The pillow said.

“Dead is dead, I’ll give her a ride!”

Lin Ran sighed, and then reincarnated her soul.

“Why are there so many dead people here!”

Lin Ran's brow furrowed as his eyes looked around, and he noticed a problem.

The herbs in this medicinal field actually showed signs of being picked, and it looked as if the picked herbs had not been taken away, but had instead been eaten directly by people, and I'm afraid that the few people who died here were the ones who ate them according to the dosage.

"Why are these people eating poison for a good reason?"

The more Lin Ran thought about it, the stranger he felt, and immediately became alert, and also had the pillow book emit his divine sense out.

"Well?"

"You guessed correctly, there are indeed people around here, and there are quite a few of them, at least a dozen!"

Pillow Book laughed.

"Where is it?"

Lin Ran asked busily.

"A thousand metres ahead on the left!"

"Go!"

Lin Ran rushed straight towards the place.

So many people had gathered in the poison zone, and so many people had died, I'm afraid that even a fool wouldn't believe him if he said that there was nothing wrong in here, he had to get to the bottom of it.

In less than two minutes, Lin Ran had already appeared next to a medicine field.

At this moment, there were more than a dozen people standing in the medicinal field, but these people were dressed in a variety of clothes, one of the parties was wearing black robes, and the leader was a youth whose entire body was shrouded in black robes, Lin Ran recognized him the first time he saw him.

"The Compulsion Pavilion's compulsion! He was here!"

Lin Ran was startled, no wonder he hadn't seen this man since he entered the Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation, he hadn't expected him to be in the herb area, and he had brought so many people with him, they were obviously all running here.

"Those people!"

Suddenly, Lin Ran noticed that in the crowd, there were actually two groups of people wearing familiar clothes, one wave was from the Qingfeng Sect, because of Xu Qingfeng, Lin Ran remembered their sect's clothing, there were four people in this group, two men and two women.

The other wave was from the Plum Blossom Sect, there were three of them and they were all women, wearing the same costume as Ling Sa!

“Ling Sa!”

Thinking of Ling Sa, Lin Ran could not help but feel his heart seize, so far he had not been to the foreign matter area, but he had never seen Ling Sa, this heart is still somehow uneasy.

The compulsion in front of him spoke up as he was thinking.

“You two eat it!”

The compulsion pointed to the herb collected by two of his men next to him, and said to a man and a woman from the Clear Wind School.

“We won’t eat it! These are clearly poison, you’ve just made at least ten people eat them, and they’re all dead! What the hell do you want?”

The young man from the Qingfeng Sect named Stone retorted.

“Why do you want to eat it for him?”

The compote looked at Stone, with this cold smile on the corner of his mouth.

Not eat it? If he didn’t test the medicine on these people, how would he know which of these poisons in the Hundred Herb Garden were the most poisonous, he didn’t care about the lives of these people, he just had to choose the strongest poison to take away.

Chapter 805

“Brother Stone, I don’t want to eat it! If I eat it, I’m sure I’ll die!”

Xiao Yun, the female disciple who was named, cried out.

“We won’t eat it!”

Next to him, the other man who had been named also retorted.

The four of them were Stone, Tiehuan and the two females, Xiao Yun and Ah Qiu, all of them were from the Qingfeng Sect and had come in this time to gain insight, but they didn’t expect to be plundered by the compulsion and become test subjects for eating the medicine.

“Don’t eat? Fine, I’ll kill you all now!”

The compulsion smiled and poked out its hands, which were very dry hands, as if they were the hands of a dead person.

“What the hell do you want? We, the Clear Wind Sect, and your Compulsion Pavilion have no grudges in the past and no enemies in the near future, why are you doing this to us!”

Shi said angrily.

“Why? No reason, I can only blame you guys for being unlucky!”

The companions laughed coldly.

“Cut the crap here, either eat! Or I’ll kill her first!”

The compulsion grabbed Ah Qiu next to him and looked at Shi and Tiehang and scolded.

“You!”

Stone’s teeth instantly cracked, he liked Ah Qiu a lot, he just never said so, but at this moment the compulsion actually threatened them with Ah Qiu’s life.

The point was that they still couldn’t beat this compulsion, and at this point they were simply being forced into a desperate situation.

“Don’t you hurt her, I’ll eat! I’ll eat it! I’ll eat her share for her, just please can you let her go?”

Stone looked at the compulsion and begged.

“Oh, still a lover, that’s fine! As long as you can insist on trying two portions of the poison, I can let her go!”

The compulsion laughed, his dry palm unconsciously sliding over Ah Qiu’s pretty cheek, I must say that this Ah Qiu was indeed pretty looking, no wonder Shi was willing to even die for her.

“Such a beautiful face, I wouldn’t want to ruin it, eat it!”

The companion looked at the stone with a smile on the corner of her mouth.

“Good! I’ll eat, I’ll eat!”

With tears in the corners of his eyes, Shi directly took the poison over and stuffed it directly into his mouth without saying a word.

“Brother Stone! Don’t!”

Ah Qiu’s eyes looked at it and tears came down as well.

“What about you?”

The compulsion’s face sank and he looked at Tiehang who was on the side.

“I ... I ... I don’t want to die, please spare me, I, Tie Xuan, am willing to work for you as a cow and horse, just please spare me!”

Tie Xuan actually knelt down and begged for mercy.

“Tie Huan! You!”

Shi looked at him, his eyes full of disbelief, this was his usual best friend, but at this moment, he actually chose to beg for his life.

“Stone, don’t blame me, I don’t want to die for Ah Qiu, you like her! But I don’t like her, I just want to live, I don’t want to die!”

Tie Han said busily.

However, the compulsion heard but a cold smile appeared at the corner of his mouth and his palm waved.

At once the men next to him stepped forward and stuffed the poison directly into his mouth.

“Lord Compass, you?”

Tie Han’s eyes were filled with disbelief, he had begged for forgiveness and was still willing to follow him, but he .....

“I don’t need someone like you who is heartless and only cares about himself!”

The companion sneered, then turned his head and pointed at the others beside him and chided.

“Bring them all here, the three women from the Plum Blossom School, and this Ah Qiu stay, the others all test the medicine, the last medicinal field, we are ready to leave!”

“My lord, what about the four women of them?”

Someone next to her asked, referring to none other than the three from the Plum Blossom School, and Ah Qiu.

“Them? Oh, what do you think? When I have enjoyed enough, they will be yours!”

The companion sneered, greed in his eyes.

“Thank you, my lord!”

The men listening also had glowing eyes, they were all female cultivators, no matter their posture or temperament, they were definitely not comparable to ordinary rouges, especially that Ah Qiu, she was simply beautiful enough to make people gulp.

“Don’t! You can’t do this, you promised me!”

Seeing this, Shi immediately covered his stomach and stood up, pointing at the compulsion and shouting angrily.

“Get the hell out of the way! Stupid, promise you? A dying man, what did I promise you?”

The compulsion kicked Stone in the stomach, knocking him backwards into the medicinal field.

“No! Let Chewie go, please!”

Shi shouted, trying to get up, but by now the poison was starting to take effect and he was already in so much pain that he couldn’t even control his body.

“Dry your tongue!”

The companion’s face was grim and impatient.

Immediately, one of the men next to him understood and went over towards the stone.

If he ate the poison, he would die sooner or later, so it would be better to finish him off now and save his tongue from drying up here.

“No! Don’t!”

Although she didn’t feel much for Stone, anyone would be moved to see a man die for him.

“Don’t? A woman says the opposite, so that means yes?”

The companion sneered, looking at Ah Qiu with greed in his eyes.

“Kill him!”

The compulsion said blandly.

“Yes boss!”

The henchman had been ready for a long time, waiting for these words from Compulsion.

“Go to hell!”

With a flash of the dagger in his hand, the henchman stabbed directly towards Stone’s chest.

If this dagger went down, coupled with the poison in his body, not to mention a human being, I’m afraid even a god would have to play dead.

“Clang!”

Suddenly, just as the dagger was about to touch Stone’s chest, a crunching sound suddenly rang out, followed by the dagger in the man’s hand actually throwing it away.

“Who!”

The companions’ faces sank as they hurriedly turned their heads to look.

“It’s you!”

Seeing Lin Ran appear, the compulsion’s face instantly turned ugly.

“You still have a grudge against our Compulsion Pavilion, and you still dare to find yourself here!”

The compulsion said in a cold voice.

“You’re overthinking it, you ran into it by the way!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, following with a guffaw.

“Besides, don’t elevate yourself too high, I have a grudge against your Pavilion Master, I’m not familiar with you and me!”

“Arrogant! Just you deserve to be familiar with me!”

Compose laughed, he was confident in his own strength, although Compose Yang had once lost to Lin Ran, but in his opinion it must have been Lin Ran who had sneaked in first, otherwise how could the Pavilion Master not be able to beat him, a small Qi Watching Realm.

“Hurry up and get lost! Or else I’ll even kill you!”

The compulsion said in a cold voice.

If Lin Ran hadn't offended Compass Yang, I'm afraid he wouldn't have let Lin Ran go at all, and Compass Yang had also said through a message that he would deal with Lin Ran personally, which was why Compass didn't want to interfere in this matter.

"What a lot of nonsense! Just come directly if you want to do it!"

Lin Ran said indifferently, not putting the compulsion in his eyes at all.

He turned around and walked directly towards the stone.

And as he passed by Tie Han on the side, he couldn't help but shake his head at him.

"I ....."

Tie Han wanted to say something, but the words still didn't come out as they reached his mouth, at this moment he even wished in his heart that Lin Ran would die.

Otherwise, if word got out about his abandoning his fellow disciples today, there would be no place for him in the entire Feng Shui world.

"Better be dead!"

Tie Xin prayed in his heart, although it was true that he was wrong to do this, but when he thought about it, he was also trying to stay alive, so what was wrong with him! How could an ant steal his life, let alone himself.

"What do you want?"

Seeing Lin Ran, there was a hint of doubt on Stone's pain-filled face, he hadn't seen Lin Ran before.

"Behave yourself if you don't want to die!"

Lin Ran laughed as he simultaneously fished out a silver needle and stabbed it directly into Stone's chest.

Shi did not resist, at this point he was already on the verge of losing consciousness from the pain, and whatever the other party was going to do to him would actually have little effect.

"What are you doing! Let Brother Stone go!"

Chewie watched as tears once again flowed down her face.

"Don't worry, your Brother Stone won't die, but if you keep arguing, I can't guarantee it!"

Lin Ran turned his head and laughed blandly.

Chapter 806

"You!"

Ah Qiu looked stunned, this smile of Lin Ran's was simply a bit of bright light in the dark night, causing Ah Qiu's entire being to completely melt.

Although Lin Ran was clean looking, he was definitely not the kind of super handsome man that made people fall in love at first sight, but at this moment, this face, coupled with the smile, was something that had already made Ah Qiu's heart flutter.

"How do I ....."

Aqiu heart tensed up, she had this feeling for the first time, not daring to look at a person, she had never felt this way before no matter who she was with.

"Kid! Really think I don't dare to touch you?"

To the side, the compulsion looked gloomy, vaguely already carrying a killing intent.

"You won't!"

Lin Ran didn't even have his head too far and laughed.

"You're ruthlessly confident!"

The compulsion's face was grim, and the dry palms under his black robe had clenched into fists.

"Of course I'm confident in my medical skills, you're a practitioner of poison attack, don't you want to see how others break your poison?"

Lin Ran laughed.

"How do you know?"

The companion instantly tensed up, he did cultivate poison attack, otherwise he wouldn't have come to this herbal area to specifically look for poison, and it was the cultivation of poison attack that had turned his one hand into what it was today.

"You come to a place like this and your whole body is shrouded in a deadly aura, if you're not practising poison attack or something, yes! As a doctor, I'll kindly remind you that the poison in your body is still salvageable, if you keep on obsessing, then there's nothing I can do!"

Lin Ran said indifferently.

"Cure? Haha, are you a fool, kid? I'm a practitioner of poison, and you're telling me about a cure? I think you've lived long enough!"

The compulsion's face was filled with sneers.

Saying cure to a person who cultivated poison attack was no different from selling a watermelon to a melon producing field.

"I'm just saying that it's up to you to cure or not!"

Lin Ran said indifferently, while already putting away the silver needles and helping the stone to stand up.

"Does it still hurt?"

Lin Ran asked.

“No ..... It doesn't hurt anymore!”

Shi touched his stomach with some surprise and looked at Lin Ran with even more confusion on his face.

“Who the hell are you!”

Shi asked busily, this was his life-saving benefactor he must remember the other party's name.

“Lin Ran!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Lin Ran?”

Hearing this name, not only Shi, but also Ah Qiu and the three people from the Plum Blossom Sect were all stunned, they all knew Lin Ran.

“Then you ..... You still saved me!”

Shi wondered, the feud between Lin Ran and Xu Qingfeng was known to many of them, it was only logical that Lin Ran should not have stepped in to save himself in this relationship.

“Xu Qingfeng is Xu Qingfeng and you are you! What's the connection!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, and then looked to the companions on the side.

“Let them go, and you can go!”

“Hm?”

The compulsion smiled at his words, and then laughed.

“Kid! Are you not awake? Or are you not clear about the situation in front of you? I'm the one who should be saying this!”

“Get lost immediately! Or I will definitely let you live no more than three seconds!”

The companions scolded in a cold voice.

The men at the side had already copied their magic weapons by now, ready to go up and surround Lin Ran.

“You should leave now!”

Ah Qiu was busy speaking.

“He's already killed many people, so you should go!”

“Ah Qiu!”

Shi was a little nervous, he couldn't just watch Ah Qiu go and get killed.

“Brother Shi, this is our business, we can't be dragging others into it!”

Ah Qiu said, she really didn't want Lin Ran to be involved in this.

“Go? Did I agree?”

The companion laughed.

“Don’t worry, I won’t go, since I’ve stumbled upon it, I’m in charge of this!”

Lin Ran swept his gaze over the crowd and said indifferently.

As soon as those words left their mouths, the crowd was relieved, although they didn’t understand Lin Ran’s strength, having someone stand up to take care of this matter at this moment was undoubtedly a life-saving straw for them.

Especially the three people from the Plum Blossom Sect, they had a very good impression of Lin Ran, they had only heard of Lin Ran before, but this time they really had a lot of courage when they saw him.

“I’m saying it again, let them go and hurry up, I don’t have much time, I don’t have time to spend with you here!”

Lin Ran spoke.

“Kid! I think you’re determined to die! It looks like I’ll have to go and explain myself on the Pavilion Master’s side!”

The compulsion’s face turned completely gloomy as his dry palm slowly probed out of his black robe, waved his hand, and followed with a chortle.

“Go! Kill him!”

“Yes boss!”

A group of men next to him immediately copied their guys and rushed towards Lin Ran at the sound of his words.

“It’s better for you to do it yourself, they’re too weak!”

Lin Ran looked at the stock and said blandly.

“Arrogant, do you really think you’re a bully?”

The compulsion was full of disdain, he hadn’t fought Lin Ran, he had only heard that it was very powerful, but how could he put Lin Ran in his eyes when he was so proud by nature.

“Ai!”

Lin Ran shook his head helplessly, followed by a flip of the dagger in his hand and shot straight out.

“Pfffffffffff!”

A series of muffled sounds came out, followed by miserable screams.

The dozen or so men who were charging towards Lin Ran all instantly fell to the ground, their legs, arms and bodies covered in blood.

“You!”

The companions' faces turned pale as a ball of anger rose up directly, while looking at Lin Ran with a little more caution.

The other party had nullified a dozen of his men with just one move, this kind of strength definitely deserved his attention.

"That really surprised me, but that's just about it!"

The compulsion's face was cold, and his dry palm directly probed out of his black robe, ripping it off his body and throwing it to the ground with one hand.

And when his cheeks were revealed from the black robe, many people looked dumbfounded.

In particular, Ah Qiu, who was held captive by his side, almost lost her breath as she watched.

Only to see that face of the companions was covered with large and small bumps, as if a face had grown on top of the bumps, and it looked very ominous.

"Are you a devil? How fucking disgusting! Luckily I don't have dense phobia!"

Lin Ran couldn't help but curse, this face made him a little nauseous to see.

"Cut the crap! When we kill you later, you'll know what it means to be respected for your strength!"

The compulsion said in a cold voice, while pulling out two black scimitars from his own back, as if they were two scythes of the god of death, rushing straight at Lin Ran.

"Grind it out! It only takes one move to kill you, dilly-dallying for half a day!"

Lin Ran said impatiently, he really didn't want to look at this face of the compulsion, it was simply too damn ugly.

"One move? Haha, indeed it's one move, but it's old me who wants you dead!"

The compulsion's voice fiercely became shrill as it charged straight towards Lin Ran.

"Still don't believe me, hey!"

Lin Ran sighed helplessly and followed as the dagger in his hand flew out once more without wind.

And this time, the speed at which the dagger broke the tip was simply staggeringly fast.

If it was said that the broken tip could detonate the air before, but this time, the speed of the broken tip was such that even the air could not catch up with it somewhat.

The instant it shot out, only a residual shadow remained frightening in place, and when it reappeared, it was already back in Lin Ran's hand.

"That's it?"

The compulsion looked stunned, what the fuck is this? Amusing himself?

"That's all you've got ....."

"Pfft!"

Compulsion hadn't finished his sentence when he suddenly heard the sound of an object breaking, followed by him feeling his neck slightly warm, reaching out to touch it, it was sticky and hot.

"What is it?"

The compulsion was full of doubt and put it in front of his eyes to see, then he froze, only to see his fingers black and stained with his own blood.

Chapter 807

Because of his cultivation of poison attack, his blood had turned black a long time ago, and at this moment, seeing the blood on his finger was more than familiar to him.

"You!"

The compulsion looked at Lin Ran with shock in his eyes, and he also saw that those people around him who he had captured were looking at himself with changed gazes at this time.

Even some of the men who were lying on the ground and wailing were looking at themselves with despair in their eyes at this time.

"This can't be! How can I possibly lose! It can't be!"

The companions were busy going to touch their necks, and when they did, they were covered in blood.

He hurriedly went to wipe it, but the blood just kept gushing out as if he couldn't finish wiping it, and soon the clothes on his chest were completely stained with blood.

"This can't be! How can I possibly!"

The compulsion was filled with resentment, but this time, before he could finish his sentence, he heard a "bang".

His entire body froze and a large amount of blood flowed down his body.

He saw that his body was covered in blood and his eyes turned to the sky.

"With a bang, he fell to the ground.

"This ..... No ..... It's impossible!"

With those last words, his breath died out.

One move, indeed it was only one move, Lin Ran had only used one move to kill him.

From the time Lin Ran had taken the Hybrid Grass, his strength had improved by a large margin, the half-step Heaven Seizing Realm and the Qi Watching Realm were definitely the difference in essence.

Stepping out of this step, he had reached a level that was enough to fight against Fire One Sword Li Mu Di, he might not be able to completely defeat them, but he definitely had the power to fight.

The compulsion, on the other hand, was not strong in the first place, and had only popped up during the most difficult time for the Compulsion Pavilion, and against the current Lin Ran, there was nothing strange at all about killing him with a single move.

“This!”

The people around them all looked dumbfounded, everyone who could enter here was at the Qi Watching Realm, and the compulsion was still practicing Poison Attack, but they were actually killed by Lin Ran in just one move, if it was them instead.

“Goo dong!”

The crowd couldn't help but gulp, and their gaze on Lin Ran changed, before everyone was of similar strength, but now they were the ones who understood that this youth in front of them definitely possessed the ability to kill them with a wave of his hand.

“You three!”

Lin Ran turned his head to look at the three women from the Plum Blossom Sect.

“Lin .... Lin Gongzi!”

The three women were stunned, and the one leading them was busy speaking, her body stopping trembling as she spoke.

“Don't be afraid, I just want to ask a question!”

Lin Ran said.

“Please speak!”

The other party was busy saying.

“Have you seen Ling Sa?”

“Ling Sa?”

All three women were stunned at the words, and looked at each other then all shook their heads.

“In fact, we are also looking for her, after this Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation came in everyone was scattered, we were also looking for Senior Sister Ling Sa after we reunited, but we never found her!”

The other party said.

“Then can you guys find out if she's gone out or not?”

Lin Ran continued to ask.

“No way!”

“Hmm!”

Lin Ran nodded, but in his heart he was vaguely worried, even the people from the Plum Blossom Sect hadn't seen Ling Sa, where on earth could this nun have gone?

“Lin Ran gongzi!”

Suddenly, the woman leading the group said.

“If you’re also looking for Senior Sister Ling Sa, I suggest that you go to the Foreign Objects Area, because it’s the only area we haven’t been to this whole way over! Moreover, Senior Sister Ling Sa has magic weapons and is not short of herbs, so she might go straight to the foreign objects area!”

“Good! Thank you!”

Lin Ran nodded, he was also about to go to the Foreign Relics Area, if he could find Ling Sa in the Foreign Relics Area, that would naturally be the best.

“You guys go out, the time will be up soon too, there’s no point in staying!”

Lin Ran smiled at the three of them, turned around and was about to leave.

“Wait!”

Finally, Ah Qiu, who was standing at the side, spoke up.

“Something’s wrong?”

Lin Ran stopped and looked at Ah Qiu.

He could feel that the way this nee-san looked at him had changed, but he just didn’t have time to care about that at the moment, and with so many people around him already, he really didn’t want to make things harder for himself.

Most importantly, he could tell that the stone should really like this Aki.

“Thank you for saving us!”

Ah Qiu spoke after a moment of silence.

“It was just a passing act!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, following his steps and walking away.

“So, will we meet again?”

Seeing Lin Ran leave as soon as he said he would, Ah Qiu hurriedly asked.

“We’ll meet again if we’re meant to!”

Lin Ran smiled back and his figure had already disappeared ahead.

“Don’t look, everyone’s gone!”

A moment later, Stone walked over, with helplessness in his eyes.

Where could he not see that Ah Qiu was in love with someone else, but what could he do, he had average looks and average strength, so he had never forced Ah Qiu to look at him, he just wanted to keep Ah Qiu in silence and that was it.

“That, stone Aqiu and Xiao Yun! I have something to do so I’ll leave first!”

On the side, Tie Xin saw that the situation had already gone and said busily, while already taking out his own letter talisman and crushing it directly.

“Tie Xuan!”

Seeing him, Stone’s face sank and wanted to go up and scold him, but Tie Han had already disappeared in the same place.

“Forget it, he was also forced to do nothing!”

Ah Qiu Quan said.

“Forced to do nothing? He’s a villain! Luckily that unit didn’t let him deal with us this time, if he wanted us to kill each other, that Tiewan would definitely be able to do it!”

Shi said angrily.

One incident was enough to see through a person, and this incident had made them see through Tiewan completely.

“We must tell the clan about this incident!”

Shi said angrily.

“Hm! Let’s go too!”

Ah Qiu said.

The two then also directly crushed the messenger and left the place.

The three women from the Plum Blossom Sect followed and left as well, they had originally come to look for Ling Sa, and seeing that Lin Ran had already gone to the foreign matter area, plus the fact that the three of them had limited strength, there was not much use in staying, so they naturally chose to leave as well.

.....

At this time, there was only one hour left before the end of the day.

The first time I saw the company, I was able to find a way to get to the top of the world.

But all the same, Lin Ran’s disappearance had always made him a little worried.

....

“Hey! Kid how come it’s you again!”

Suddenly, just as Lin Ran was about to enter the foreign object area, a familiar voice realm came from behind.

“It’s you guys!”

Lin Ran turned his head to look, and his eyes instantly narrowed slightly as the two people standing behind him were none other than Li Mu Di and Fire One Sword.

Moreover, at this moment, Fire One Sword was even ignoring him outright, not even looking at him!

“It’s really fate! What are you doing here?”

Li Mu Di was familiar with himself, plus he had said that Lin Ran was someone who was valued by his tutor, so he looked very enthusiastic at this moment.

“I’m here to deliver something!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, not hiding it, he was also one of the top three at the Treasure Competition, and many people knew about this, so there was no point in hiding it.

“Delivering something? What a coincidence, we’re both here to deliver something too!”

Li Mu Di said as he actually took out a token from his arms as well, which was actually identical to the one Lin Ran had.

“Did Xu Qingfeng’s piece fall into your hands?”

Lin Ran was stunned.

He didn’t know who had ended up snatching Xu Qingfeng’s token during the initial engagement melee, the situation was so chaotic that he didn’t expect it to end up in Li Mu Di’s hands.

But when he thought about it, he was relieved, this guy and Fire One Sword could even fight hard, so it was inevitable that the token would fall into his hands.

“I grabbed a random person and ended up getting this, don’t you think it’s a coincidence!”

Li Mu Di laughed.

“You’re so full of nonsense, I’ll leave first if you don’t go in!”

On the side, Fire One Sword couldn’t stand watching.

Chapter 808

“Look at that, still angry!”

Li Mu Di helplessly stretched his hands and laughed.

“Lin Ran let’s go together, we’re on our way anyway!”

“Humph!”

Hearing Li Mudi’s words, Fire One Sword was obviously a little angry, and with a flip of his hand he actually went ahead and entered the foreign object area.

“Don’t mind him, he’s got this stinky temper!”

Li Mu Di laughed at Lin Ran.

Lin Ran laughed and didn’t answer.

“Let’s go!”

Li Mudi greeted, and immediately followed in with Lin Ran.

The Foreign Item District was very much like a market, except that like the Inheritance District, it was now uninhabited and there were many shops on both sides of the road that were all empty, after so many years, almost everything in these shops on the outermost side had been taken away.

“This exotic zone is the most miserable place, all kinds of things are put on the street, no matter how much there is, it can’t stand the greed of people!”

Li Mu Di said as he walked.

“By the way Lin Ran, you’ve really only been cultivating for less than a year?”

“Huh?”

Lin Ran was stunned, not expecting this guy to suddenly bring the topic back to himself.

“Indeed it’s less than a year!”

Lin Ran nodded helplessly.

“Holy shit! You’re really a demon, you’re so old and you’ve only been cultivating for less than a year and you’re almost catching up to us, what a pervert!”

Li Mu Di said enviously.

“No, I’m only in my twenties, I don’t seem too old!”

Lin Ran was helpless, even in his twenties he could say he was so old, was he very old?

“You don’t understand! A cultivation path must start at a young age, you don’t say twenty, starting at ten is already considered late!”

Li Mu Di laughed.

“Is it useful for you to say this to a loner like him? He looks like a halfway house!”

Up ahead, Fire One Sword said disdainfully.

“Old Sword, don’t be reluctant to listen, if you were a halfway house, would you be able to cultivate to Brother Lin Ran’s current level in less than a year?”

Li Mu Di asked with a smile.

“There is no if!”

Fire One Sword directly disliked the question back.

“You just can’t see that others are better than you!”

Li Mu Di laughed.

“You’re thinking too much! He can’t even receive a single move from me!”

Fire One Sword said disdainfully.

Lin Ran listened helplessly, he had been a bit depressed when he ran into the two of them here, he had only just recovered and then he ran into them again, but now this Li Mu Di was still moving to pull conflicts for the two of them, he was afraid that he wouldn't die completely enough!

"Catch it or not, at least I'm still alive, if you're still holding a grudge about what just happened, I can leave on my own!"

Lin Ran spoke.

Although he was indeed not as strong as Fire One Sword, he wasn't a soft bone either, he hadn't intended to come in with the three Fire One Swords.

It was just that Li Mu Di had kindly invited him and he had no way to refuse, but this guy had completely treated himself as if he didn't exist on this journey, and that was even better, he had spoken without any politeness, I'm afraid that no one else would have been able to stand it.

"Fine! You can go by yourself, I still suspect that you are following just to save your time!"

Fire One Sword said disdainfully.

There were dangers in every place, then even the foreign object area was the same, it was just that in recent years the dangers had been pretty much tripped over by those who had gone before, and there were obviously less of them, and Fire One Sword's words were clearly aimed at Lin Ran.

"Farewell!"

Lin Ran rushed at Li Mu Di and was about to leave at once, it was still comfortable to go by himself.

"Don't! Why do you guys always pinch each other when you meet? Isn't it good to bond now? We might all be comrades in the future!"

Li Mu Di said.

"Comrades?"

Lin Ran was stunned to hear this, how could he still sound like he was going to be a soldier?

"Just him is worthy of being my Fire One Sword's comrade? It's impossible to even be my soldier!"

With a face of disdain, Fire One Sword turned around and was about to leave, not even giving Lin Ran a chance to get in front of him.

"Whoosh!"

Suddenly, just as Fire One Sword took one step only, there was actually a buzzing sound behind the three of them, followed by a sharp, cold aura shooting violently, with a speed that was simply terrifying!

"Watch out, it's a machine!"

Li Mu Di shouted reflexively, and then he was about to clang.

But at this moment, Lin Ran was in front of him, the closest to the cold mane, and in the blink of an eye, before Li Mudi could rush over, the cold mane had already reached Lin Ran.

“Lin Ran! Get down quickly!”

Li Mudi shouted, this cold mane was incredibly fast, although the attack did not seem strong, but after all, it was a mechanism left behind by previous generations, one mistake could very well kill him.

“It’s too late!”

The Fire One Sword at the back spoke with a frown.

The speed of that cold mane was so fast that it had reached Lin Ran in almost the blink of an eye.

“It’s over!”

Such a thought occurred in the hearts of both Fire One Sword and Li Mu Di, the two of them already had a clear idea of how strong Lin Ran was.

Although the attack of this cold mane was slightly weaker than the one that Fire Sword had made before, the speed of this attack definitely surpassed his, so I was afraid that even if Lin Ran blocked it, he would be overturned in an instant, and this time he was afraid that he would really die.

Moreover, both of them had put themselves in his shoes, and if they were in their shoes, I was afraid that they would only be able to block it with difficulty.

“Bang!”

Finally, a muffled sound rang out, and both Li Mu Di and Huo Yi Jian could not help but close their eyes, as if they did not want to see that bloody scene.

But when they looked up, they found that Lin Ran was standing intact, and in his hand was a broken sword!

“He ..... He blocked it?”

“How is this possible?”

Li Mu Di and Fire One Sword were both stunned, somewhat in disbelief.

They knew how strong Lin Ran was, but now .....

“Brother Lin Ran! Your strength ..... breakthrough?”

Li Mu Di was somewhat incredulous, and Fire Yijian was also looking nervously, waiting for Lin Ran’s answer.

“It’s still thanks to Brother Fire Yijian, otherwise it wouldn’t have been possible to make a breakthrough in such a short time!”

Lin Ran laughed lightly, without a trace of anger on his face.

“Me!”

Fire One Sword was so angry that his teeth were practically bared.

But he also understood that if Lin Ran had really taken that step, he wouldn't have much of an upper hand now, or at least One Sword Killing wouldn't be much of a threat to Lin Ran anymore.

Although there was still a gap in strength, if he was bent on leaving, I was afraid that Fire One Sword really wouldn't be able to stay.

"You're really worthy of being the one that your mentor looks up to! You brat is too perverted too! In less than a year, half a step to the Heaven Seizing Realm. If word of this gets back, I'm afraid the instructors will all go crazy!"

Li Mu Di laughed, while glancing at Fire Yi Jian and smiling wickedly.

"How about Old Fire, he's qualified to be your comrade now!"

"Hmph! It's better to get your mentor's recognition first!"

With an unhappy face, Fire One Sword turned his head and continued on his way.

"Let's go!"

Li Mu Di greeted and pulled Lin Ran to follow, after what had just happened, his attitude towards Lin Ran was obviously more enthusiastic, and Fire Sword obviously didn't look as disdainful as before.

This was the harsh reality that without strength one would never have status or the right to speak.

"Brother Li, what kind of existence do you think a mentor is?"

Lin Ran opened his mouth and asked, this mentor Li Mu Di had mentioned it more than once, he was truly curious about what a mentor actually was.

"I couldn't tell you before, but now that you've made another breakthrough in strength, I'm afraid that the mentor should soon be unable to hold back, so there are some things I'll reveal to you first!"

Li Mu Di smiled mysteriously and turned to point at Fire One Sword in front of him.

"Let's start with this guy first!"

Chapter 809

"Hm?"

Fire One Sword turned his head to look at Li Mu Di at his words, but did not say anything, and obviously acquiesced to this guy's move.

"What are you looking at, drive the road properly!"

Li Mudi said without good humour, then looked at Lin Ran and laughed.

"This guy comes from an extraordinary background, you should be able to see that, so do you know where he comes from?"

"I don't know!"

Lin Ran shook his head, according to what he had learned so far, it seemed that the imperial capital was the most likely, after all, the imperial capital was home to some very powerful families.

“It’s definitely not the Imperial Capital!”

Li Mu Di saw what Lin Ran was thinking and laughed.

“Those families in the imperial capital are all superficial paper tigers, what with the Yue Family and Qin Family not being enough for us at all!”

Li Mu Di laughed.

“Ao?”

Lin Ran was stunned, the Yue family and Qin family were not enough to look at, then how powerful they must be and .....

As the thought was going through his mind, before Lin Ran’s words came out, the Fire One Sword in front of him was laughing.

“Li Mu Di, if I remember correctly, there seems to be a Li family in the imperial capital, right, how come your Li family is also very average?”

“Go! Don’t interrupt!”

Li Mudi gave Fire One Sword a white glance without good grace, before looking at Lin Ran and continuing.

“Our Li family is in a special situation, as I said before there are inner and outer clans, the one in the imperial capital is actually an outer clan, the ones scattered in the big cities across the country are also outer clans, people from the inner clans are not usually seen at all!”

“Is it that mysterious?”

Lin Ran asked with a smile.

“Don’t believe me yet, our Li family’s inner clan, including the Fire clan where this guy is from, plus the Wind clan, the controllers of this Ten Thousand Treasure Spell Formation, are actually the three most powerful clans!”

Li Mu Di laughed.

“Ao?”

Lin Ran smiled thoughtfully.

Thinking back carefully on this journey, it seemed to indicate this.

He didn’t understand Fire One Sword’s family, but Li Sheng’s family and the Wind Clan were all very mysterious indeed.

Imagine, there were so many clans in the imperial capital, yet everything in the cultivation world had to be bought from Li Sheng’s clan, the underground auction house, which made it very strange!

And a Ten Thousand Treasures spell formation, but there is a small number of Wind Clan in control, this is also very strange, if everyone's strength is similar, I'm afraid that there will not be this situation, and this situation can only mean one thing, that is, the Li and Wind Clans are very powerful.

"You'll understand if you think about it carefully!"

Li Mu Di laughed.

"Our Li family has the most resources in the entire cultivation world, because all the treasured materials in the cultivation world are sold all over the country through our Li family's hands!"

"The Wind Family, on the other hand, controls a very large number of treasures, which you don't know much about yet, you'll understand later, the Ten Thousand Treasure Spell Formation is just the simplest one!"

"As for their Fire Family, it should be clear when you look at the way he's tugging at it, their family has the most people and the strongest fighting force!"

"Hmph! Good to know!"

Fire Yijian snorted coldly, with smugness on his face.

"Stop tugging there like you're two-fifths of a million, how strong is your Fire Clan without having a point in your heart?"

Li Mu Di gave him a blank look.

Lin Ran had expected Fire Yijian to retort, but to his surprise, he didn't say anything, acquiescing to Li Mudi's words.

"That's strange! If your two great clans are so powerful, why do you still want to come to the Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation?"

Lin Ran asked in amazement.

Furthermore, just now, Li Mudi had also said that this Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation was the worst spell formation under the Feng Family's control, so it was only logical that a large clan like them should not be able to look at it.

"I'm purely here to play, but this kid is here to pay back his debt!"

Li Mu Di pointed at Fire One Sword.

"When he was first born in poor health, the Fire Family borrowed a magic artifact from the Wind Family, and now that so many years have passed, he's here to return the treasure this time!"

"Ao!"

Lin Ran smiled as he drifted off, daring to say that both of them had come by the way, and only he was expecting to find the treasure in this Ten Thousand Treasures Spell Formation.

"After all that, you didn't say what kind of existence the mentor was!"

Lin Ran laughed awkwardly, but in his heart he was already satisfied, at least through the conversation he had just had, he had learnt about the three super families.

I'm afraid that the Qin family and Yue family in the imperial capital were really not enough in front of these three great families.

"This really can't say much, the family is dead after all have a mind can see the end, but this mentor is something that must be kept secret!"

Li Mu Di said into a deep thought, a moment later said.

"I can only tell you, in the country is the entire Chinese, among the family similar to the Yue family Qin family, large and small no less than a few thousand, they are distributed in all the important cities, and they are the descendants of these families, only the strength of the very evil people, can see the mentor! Otherwise, they definitely don't know about the existence of a mentor!"

"Then what exactly does a mentor do?"

Lin Ran asked busily.

Why did it feel like the more Li Mu Di talked, the more mysterious he became.

"I can't tell you this, the day the mentor finds you, you'll know for yourself!"

Li Mudi said as he looked ahead at Fire One Jian, who turned his head to look at him without speaking.

"Lin Ran, in fact, the grudge between you and Fire One Sword, whether it is to you or to him it is a trivial matter of chicken feathers, listen to my advice work hard to improve your strength, in the future if there is a chance I hope we can fight side by side!"

Saying that, Li Mu Di handed out a card with an address written on it.

"This is a Li family property in the imperial capital, you go out and give it to Li Sheng! I can tell that this kid is not a coward either! The higher your strength is the more things you will be exposed to, you can live there for future activities in the Imperial Capital, it's very convenient!"

"Huh?"

Lin Ran felt baffled, how could he suddenly give himself the address of a house, or ask him to tell Li Sheng.

"Hey! After all this talk, it's really troublesome that the most crucial thing can't be said in person!"

Li Mu Di was a little upset, and with a grit of his teeth, he sighed and looked at Lin Ran and said.

"In the end, let's remind you, whether it's a grudge with the Yue family or whoever, it's really insignificant to you, cultivate well when you really come into contact with the madness behind this calm world, then you'll know how rare even half a day of peace and quiet is!"

"That's what one of my brothers told me, although I can't understand what kind of madness it really is yet, but I can tell that he's really tired, yet he can't stop!"

“For this apparent peace, many people are actually holding on in the madness! It’s just that we all don’t know it!”

Lin Ran was silent, he didn’t know exactly what Li Mu Di meant by these words, but he seemed to be able to vaguely grasp something.

Perhaps he was too low in strength to touch that level at all, but it seemed that there were things going on just higher up that ordinary people didn’t know about.

And there were many others who were holding on, and perhaps when he was stronger he would be one of them, he just wasn’t qualified yet.

“All right, the place is here! It’s about time, return the stuff and we have to go!”

Suddenly, the Fire One Sword in front of him spoke up.

Lin Ran sniffed and looked, only to see that a temple-like building had appeared in front of the three of them.

The building also did not have a gate, but it was bright inside, seemingly because it did not have a roof.

“Let’s go! Go in!”

Li Mu Di laughed, and then the three of them walked in one after another.

Chapter 810

Inside the building, the space is not very big, only half the size of a basketball court.

In the middle of the building, there is a huge pillar, which is very high and straight to the sky, and the thickness of which would require at least ten adults to hold it in their arms.

“Let’s begin!”

Without delay, Fire One Sword was the first to step forward and pressed his palm onto the stone pillar.

“Weng!”

A tremor followed, and a ripple actually appeared on the stone pillar only, the ripple enveloped Fire One Sword’s palm, and soon a dark compartment appeared.

Fire One Sword put his things inside and then gently pushed up the hidden compartment.

Following this a stream of light within the stone pillar shot up into the sky, and then Lin Ran saw that stream of light appear in the sky and shoot out towards the distance.

“This ....”

Lin Ran wondered, that stream of light seemed to be the magic weapon that Fire One Sword had just put in, but how did it get thrown out.

“I really don’t know what this Feng family is trying to play, making us go through all the trouble to send it here, only to have to throw it into some corner of the Ten Thousand Treasure Spell Formation again.”

Li Mu Di shook his head helplessly and followed up to do the same.

“Sure enough!”

Hearing Li Mudi’s words, Lin Ran confirmed his suspicions.

“It seems that this Feng family is using this stone pillar to scatter all the magic weapons we sent in at various places in the formation, to pave the way for those who come later!”

Lin Ran’s mind dawned on him.

“I’ll go and choose my treasure first!”

Without meaning to wait for Lin Ran, Fire Yijian came to the stone pillar and directly placed his palm on it, followed by a red light that directly enveloped his entire being.

While his eyes were closed, he seemed to have fallen into some kind of special environment.

“Lin Ran hurry up, I’ll go first too!”

Li Mu Di smiled, following which he also poked out his palm and pressed it against the stone pillar.

Lin Ran smiled lightly and placed his palm on the stone pillar as Fire One Sword had done before, and soon a hidden compartment also appeared.

Putting the jade tray box in, soon the same situation as before also appeared, the jade tray as well as the box were both thrown away to who knows where.

“It really is!”

Lin Ran laughed bitterly and shook his head, he had sent it over after all the hard work, only to lose it again just like that.

“Forget it, let’s hunt for treasure!”

Lin Ran smiled lightly and instantly placed his palm on it as well.

“Weng!”

A buzzing sound rang out in his ears, followed by Lin Ran realising that his surroundings had changed.

The original building had long since disappeared, replaced by a dimness, with only a few wavering beams of firelight around it, making it impossible to see clearly.

“Weng!”

There was another buzzing sound, and a wall actually appeared ahead, with streams of light turning on the wall, forming a grid divided by light.

“You have three chances to refresh your treasures, if you don’t choose after three times you are considered to have given up, now begin!”

A mechanical voice rang out, followed by a surge of light on the wall, and a dense square grid actually appeared.

Inside the grid, there were things of all sizes, including the remains of some kind of beast, herbs, scrolls, and even some bottles and jars that seemed to be filled with pills.

“So many things!”

Lin Ran was a little baffled, after a cursory glance at this wall there must be at least a thousand items, and that voice just now said that he had three chances to refresh, so that would be nearly four thousand items, with so many he could always come across the Fire Spirit Pearl!

“Kid! Here are nine hundred and ninety-nine items, thirty of which are useful to you and five of which are worth exchanging, I recommend three of them, want to take a look!”

Suddenly the pillow’s voice rang out.

“Which three pieces?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

The pillow side book directly pointed out the three points he had marked to Lin Ran.

Lin Ran quickly came to one of the dots, and sure enough, he saw that in the compartment in front of him, there was actually a suit of armour that resembled clothing.

“Spectral Earthfire Armour, peak of the Watching Qi realm, Watching Qi realm opponents cannot break through this armour’s defences, and weak Heaven Seizing realms also have the effect of weakening its attacks!”

Looking at the introduction on it, Lin Ran’s eyes instantly went red.

“Holy shit!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but curse.

Attacks below the Heaven Seizing Realm couldn’t break through defences, if he were to get him a batch of them all for Wang Yifeng Song Nuan and the others to wear, wouldn’t he be able to walk across the streets.

One had to know that it was rare to see cultivators of the Qi-Realm in the metropolis, so this was definitely a must-have item to keep one’s life at home.

“What about the second one?”

Although he liked it in his heart, Lin Ran also knew that how could he share it with his family, and that it was only an external object that could protect him for a while but not for the rest of his life, and once his strength broke through to the Heaven Seizing Realm, I was afraid it would be useless.

Although Song Nuan and the four girls needed it, they still had to rely on themselves for some things.

“The second item is a pill that will allow you to directly cross into the Heaven-Realm!”

The Pillow Book laughed.

Lin Ran listened but was stunned and shook his head straight away.

“Look at the third piece, I don’t need this kind of thing!”

Where Lin Ran did not know clearly that cultivation was just like building a house, relying on such external objects to boost up one’s strength would never be as good as cultivating it yourself.

“This third piece is a set of whip spells, it’s more suitable for Lin Ran!”

The Pillow Book laughed.

“You!”

Lin Jean was a little speechless, how did this guy start choosing some of these things too, was he afraid that he still didn’t know how serious the troubles of the beautiful woman beside him were?

“Is there a fire spirit pearl!”

Lin Ran asked.

“No!”

Pillowbook laughed.

“Refresh!”

Lin Ran shouted directly.

Instead of choosing those things, it was better to continue waiting for the Fire Spirit Pearl, after all, that was what Lin Ran needed the most.

“Hey hey! There’s an item in this second batch, do you want to take a look!”

The pillow said busily.

“Are there any fire spirit pearls!”

Lin Ran asked directly.

“That’s not there!”

“Refresh!”

Lin Ran shouted out directly without even looking.

“Hey! Can you wait!”

“Are there any fire spirit pearls!”

The third batch Lin Ran asked straight away.

“No!”

The pillow book was helpless.

“Brush ....”

Lin Ran was just about to shout when the Pillow Book spoke up.

“Kid, you’ll regret if you don’t listen!”

“Say!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

“This third batch is the penultimate chance, you won’t have a choice if you don’t have the fire spirit pearl after one refresh!”

Saying this, the pillow book guided Lin Ran to one of the compartments with a wooden box on it.

“Inside this is the Fire Spirit Marrow! You get it back and give me a year I can cultivate it into fire spirit liquid, although the effect is a little worse than fire spirit pearls, it’s definitely enough for that little girlfriend of yours!”

The pillow said.

“Then after the bone replacement and marrow cleansing, will Xiao Nuan be worse at the fire lineage!”

Lin Ran asked, frowning.

“It will indeed be the case, but it can be completely ignored!”

Pillowbook said busily.

“You have to be clear, if you give up and don’t brush it off for the last time, then you’ll have no chance at all!”

“Who says there’s no chance! This is only one place to look for the Fire Spirit Pearl, but the Jedi isn’t the only place, if it’s not here I’ll switch to something else and go out and look somewhere else, I must have the Fire Spirit Pearl, and it definitely can’t be a substitute for Xiao Nuan!”

Lin Ran insisted, following up with a direct shout.

“Refresh!”

“Weng!”

The items on the wall changed once again, this time all the streams of light disappeared, clearly this was the last time, the items on it could no longer be changed.

“Aye aye! Boy I ...”

The pillow’s voice snapped out, but then it was interrupted by Lin Ran.

“Stop shouting, I can see it!”

Lin Ran smiled lightly and reached out his hand towards the square grid in front of him, a wooden box was lying quietly in the grid, and three words were being written on the wooden box.

“Fire Spirit Pearl!”
