

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 891

The village headman waved his hand and laughed bitterly at this.

"I know! How do not know, but what can be done, other villages have more people, what can our village say, really fight, are not enough to give people a gap!"

Speaking of this, the village chief shook his head repeatedly and said helplessly.

"You've heard the broadcast just now, the general election is tomorrow, I'm getting old and have decided to retire, from now on it's your young people's world, and I don't want to care!"

"So who are the candidates?"

Lin Ran asked busily.

"Candidates? There is no candidate, everyone chooses at random!"

The village chief waved his hand, and then left alone.

Lin Ran and the two of them didn't follow him, looking at the village head's appearance, it seemed that he didn't want to care about the village affairs anymore.

"Hey! In our village, everyone is afraid of being poor, even the position of village chief, which is the meat and potatoes of other villages, no one is willing to do it in our village!"

Dalong said helplessly.

Lin Ran also understood the reasoning, other village chiefs could make money, but Lin Jiawan was too poor, not only could they not make money as village chief, but they also had to pay for it.

"Forget it, let's go back and rest first, let's see what happens tomorrow!"

Lin Ran said.

After that, he and Dalong parted ways and each went back home.

.....

The next morning, while Song Nuan was still in dreamland, Lin Ran was already up, now he had the whole village on his mind, plus today was the day when the new village chief was to be elected, so he naturally had to go and take a look.

"Ranzi, don't go and see, I'm afraid this village chief election will end in vain again!"

Grandma said from the side.

"Grandma, what does that mean?"

Lin Ran was puzzled.

"It was like this last year, the current village chief was too old to be relevant, but there was no one behind him to step up, resulting in the annual election ending up with him!"

Grandma said with a bitter smile.

“But I think the village chief is doing okay, at least our village is slowly developing!”

Lin Ran said.

“What development or not, it’s been so many years, we’ve all got used to it!”

Grandma laughed.

“No, I still have to go and have a look!”

Lin Ran said.

“Alright then, Grandma will go with you!”

Grandma laughed.

Lin Ran was just about to say that it would be fine if he went by himself, when suddenly Song Nuan, the ninny, actually came out of the room as well.

“I’m going too!”

Looking at his grandmother and Song Nuan, Lin Ran had no choice but to nod, and the three of them packed up and headed towards the village.

The village was just this big, and there was no decent office for general meetings, so it was placed at the head of the village.

When Lin Ran waited until he arrived, he was just in time for the villagers to vote, and naturally his grandmother, who was the head of the family, had also written the ballot.

“Hey, isn’t this Lin Ran?”

“Yes, yes! Lin Ran is here too!”

“He’s the tycoon of our village now, a car is over a million dollars!”

“That’s right, we really don’t understand the world of the rich!”

When they saw Lin Ran, the villagers were talking, after all, spending more than a million dollars on a car was a complete waste of money in their current perception.

Lin Ran smiled awkwardly and didn’t say anything, he didn’t know how to explain to the villagers.

“Ranzi!”

Soon, Dalong also came, but his face was not very nice.

“What’s wrong?”

Lin Ran asked.

“Outside, Bai Cai’s father has brought a group of people with him! I’m afraid they’ll be here in another ten minutes!”

Da Long frowned and said.

“It’s alright!”

Lin Ran smiled blandly at his words and didn’t say anything.

Bai Cai’s old man, if he remembered correctly he should be called Boss Bai, this man had a great reputation in Bai Gou Village and was outwardly upright, which was how he became the head of a village, but his son was a complete bastard.

The voting stage was soon over.

The old village chief and a few villagers quickly counted the votes, but only seven out of ten had been counted before Boss Bai had arrived with his men.

“The people from Bai Gou Village? What are they doing here?”

“That’s right, what are they doing here?”

“Is it because they want to disrupt our election?”

“Stop it, what’s there to disturb our village election!”

The villagers were talking one after another.

The village chief also saw Boss Bai at this time and laughed aloud.

“Boss Bai, why have you suddenly come to our Linjiawan? What’s the matter?”

“Nothing is going to happen, so naturally, I’ve come for something, who is called Lin Ran!”

Boss Bai swept his gaze over the crowd and asked in a cold voice.

He was only in his early forties, with a big back that was shiny, and he looked imposing, while next to him was a group of sturdy villagers, who he had obviously shouted at on purpose.

“I am!”

Lin Ran smiled and took two steps forward, looking at Boss Bai with a smile.

Boss Bai’s gaze glanced at Lin Ran, with disdain in his eyes.

“Take it away!”

“Yes!”

A group of people around him instantly walked towards Lin Ran at the sound of his words, with an aggressive look to take him away by force.

“What are you doing!”

The grandmother became anxious when she saw this.

The village chief even questioned.

“Boss Bai, what do you mean, coming to our village to detain people, are you the police?”

“No! But I’m going to detain this man!”

Boss Bai’s gaze was icy as he looked at the village chief.

“This Lin Ran almost killed my son yesterday, shouldn’t I detain this person?”

“Why don’t you ask your son about the very thing he did!”

On the side, Da Long was busy scolding.

“Your son has been blackmailing me all year round, and with it robbing our village of herbs, why don’t you go and ask him about it, if it wasn’t for Lin Ran yesterday, my herbs would have been robbed by your son again!”

Big Dragon was upset.

“Boss Bai, so this is you who is going to illegally detain people without asking?”

Lin Ran looked at Boss Bai, his face bland.

“Even if my son didn’t do the right thing, there’s still no need to beat him to death, he almost died yesterday, and even his van was destroyed, can you afford the damage?”

Boss White had a disdainful look on his face.

“If I dare to do it, I can afford it! I can pay you for the van, but don’t even think about asking me to apologise for your son, and I’ll tell you, if there’s a next time, you won’t be able to see your son!”

Lin Ran had a bland look on his face.

“Fine! Good! That’s crazy! You’re really not afraid of a tiger at birth!”

Old Man Bai laughed out loud as he swept his gaze across the crowd present, disdain in his eyes.

“A general election, right? Today, I’ve put my words in front of you, your village will sooner or later be owned by us, so you’re crazy, right?”

“You don’t think so!”

Lin Ran smiled and refused outright.

“Boss Bai, what do you mean by that, although our Lin Jiawan is small and poor, but people are poor, you want your Bai Gou Village to annex us, you are dreaming in daylight!”

The village chief chided.

But Boss Bai laughed.

“Are you not clear in your own mind whether you are dreaming or not? How many village chiefs can you still elect in Linjiawan? You are already half in the ground, how many more years can you last? Your village will be cold sooner or later!”

“You!”

The village headman's face turned red with anger at his words. Although what Boss Bai said was hard to hear, it was the truth.

Most of the people left in the village were old, sick and disabled, and some of the young people who had gone out were basically not willing to come back, which led to the fact that there were no young people in the village who could carry the position of village chief.

"Humph! Boss Bai, you continue to be complacent, but there's one thing I'll really announce in front of you!"

"I am stepping down as village chief, but there is no shortage of village chiefs in our village!"

With that, the village chief swept his gaze over the crowd and held up the ballot paper in his hand.

"I now declare that the new village chief of our Lin Jia Wan is Lin Ran! All votes are in favour!"

Chapter 892

Lin Ran smiled without the slightest surprise, and all the people around him looked at him.

Last night, Dalong had said that the village chief of Lin Jia Wan was a position that burned money, and the more he did it, the poorer he became, so how could anyone else be willing to do it, and I was afraid that only Lin Ran, who was showing his wealth, could resist.

"It really is!"

Lin Ran laughed helplessly, but this laugh had these two meanings.

Firstly, it was hard for the villagers' current mentality to catch up, and secondly, he was happy for the future, making himself the village chief, then he would have to change Lin Jiawan completely.

Lin Ran turned his head to look at Boss Bai, his face was bland.

"Is there anything else, Boss Bai? Please leave if you're fine!"

"Lin Ran, I didn't expect that, becoming the village chief, huh! But you have to think carefully, this village chief is not easy to be, be careful not to break your back!"

Boss Bai sneered, but there was some anger in his heart.

Now that Lin Ran had become the village chief, then he would be on an equal footing with himself on the surface, and it really wasn't convenient for him to move Lin Ran today.

"Then I won't old Bai village Zhang you worry, we have a lot of things to say next, if you want to go, go, if not, stay!"

Lin Ran said indifferently and then didn't bother to pay him any mind.

"You!"

Boss Bai's face was ugly, Lin Ran was blatantly ignoring himself.

"Humph! Let's not change the green hills and green water!"

Boss Bai dropped a sentence and left with his men at once.

As soon as Boss Bai left on his first foot, the villagers were ready to leave as well, the village chief had already been chosen, so it was useless for them to stay here.

“Old village chief, fellow villagers, please stay!”

Lin Ran suddenly spoke.

“What is it?”

The old village chief turned his head and asked, and the villagers also looked puzzled, not understanding what Lin Ran wanted.

“I’m not suitable for this village chief, I want to recommend someone more suitable!”

Lin Ran spoke.

He had expected the villagers to be puzzled and question who it was, but who knew that the villagers would simply wave their hands, looking as if they didn’t care at all.

“Lin Ran, now that you are the village head, let whoever you want do it, honestly it doesn’t make much difference who is the village head, as long as they are willing!”

The old village chief said, also with an indifferent look on his face.

Lin Ran was completely relieved to see this instead, and he pointed to Song Nuan at the side and said in a loud voice.

“Since that’s the case, then I’ve decided that from now on, the village chief of our Lin Jia Wan will be Song Nuan, and Da Long and I will be her helpers!”

“Huh?”

Song Nuan froze at the words, followed by her pretty face brushing red.

She didn’t have any experience in being a village chief, she had studied dance at university, so how could she possibly relate to a village chief.

“Lin Ran are you crazy!”

Song Nuan asked busily.

But Lin Ran laughed and didn’t say anything.

The crowd came and went quickly, whoever was the village chief was the same to them, and the group had no opinion.

“What the hell are you up to?”

Song Nuan asked as she was busy coming over.

Lin Ran smiled mysteriously at his words, however, and said.

“Go! Go home and talk!”

At that moment, the four of them went back home.

....

On the roof only, Lin Ran Song Nuan as well as Big Dragon sat around a table, Lin Ran looked at the two men and said solemnly.

“Now that the rights are in place, we must make the village change forever in six months time!”

“Does this have anything to do with you making me the village chief?”

Song Nuan looked at Lin Ran with a look of impatience.

Lin Ran, however, laughed.

“Have you forgotten what your origins are?”

“I”

Song Nuan was stunned, but then she followed and said impatiently.

“But I don’t have any experience in this area at all!”

“No experience can be accumulated slowly, no one is born with experience, and with me and Big Dragon as your helpers what are you afraid of!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“You!”

Song Nuan was completely helpless.

“You have a lot of knowledge, especially about policy matters, you are definitely the most knowledgeable among us, so you are the most suitable for this village chief!”

Lin Ran said, while sweeping his gaze across the back of the mountain and laughing.

“And no one knows the direction of the village’s development better than me, you know the policies and I know the direction, our Linjiawan can definitely see a huge change.”

Lin Ran’s heart rushed full of fighting spirit.

“Then what do you want?”

Song Nuan was impatient, originally he had only come back to stay for a few days, but he had somehow become the village chief, and now he felt that the burden on his shoulders had become much heavier.

“First, let the villagers’ pockets get bigger!”

Lin Ran laughed, and then said as he looked into the distance.

“You’ll come up the mountain with me this afternoon, we’ll go and see the situation on the ground!”

“What about me?”

Dalong asked busily.

“You go and count how many people with labourers are left in each household in the village, apart from those who are too sick to work, anyone else who can walk and talk will count!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“What do you want? ”

Song Nuan and Dalong were puzzled, Lin Ran clearly meant that even children and old men and women were counted.

Lin Ran laughed heatedly and said.

“Bringing the villagers to wealth!”

After saying that, Lin Ran went down to his busy work.

.....

After eating lunch, the three of them started to get busy individually.

Dalong went to the village to count the situation, while Lin Ran went up to the back of the mountain with Song Nuan.

The terrain at the back of Linjiawan is very peculiar.

The back of the village is right next to the hillside, but the terrain here is relatively gentle and becomes very steep further back.

The hills are evergreen and rich in herbs and game, but the area is so remote that it is almost undeveloped.

“Do you have any plans?”

Following Lin Ran on the hillside, Song Nuan asked, she had no plan at all, she simply had two heads in one.

“Of course!”

Lin Ran smiled.

“Do you see the herbs that are all over this mountain? That’s what we’re going to do as our first step!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“How so?”

Song Nuan didn’t understand.

Lin Ran, however, smiled and said.

“These herbs are all natural and wild, and in the big cities they are at least the most expensive batch, but just because they are worthless in the mountains, I have to find a way to get these herbs out!”

Lin Ran said, already making a move to dig.

“This!”

Song Nuan was stunned at the sight, and seemed to have understood Lin Ran’s thoughts.

If there were really so many herbs on the mountain, it would indeed be a very good way.

With this in mind, Song Nuan also started to help, but her knowledge of herbs was limited, so she could only ask Lin Ran as she searched.

The two of them dug for three hours before they filled two baskets, and by now it was getting close to evening.

“Come on, it’s time for us to go back!”

Lin Ran greeted.

“Ah? So soon? I’ve only just been able to identify the herbs!”

Song Nuan didn’t seem to be satisfied, she had just learnt to identify herbs and she wanted to pick them for a while longer.

“It’s getting late, there are wolves in the back of the mountain at night, let’s go back first! ”

Lin Ran greeted.

“There are wolves?”

Song Nuan heard a chill and hurriedly got up to follow Lin Ran as the two of them walked towards the bottom of the mountain.

But the two of them had unknowingly gone a little deeper into the mountain, and were now a little far from the village.

Seeing that the night was getting darker, Song Nuan couldn’t help but feel a little worried.

Chapter 893

The two of them took advantage of the night to rush down the mountain, but before they could walk for much longer, the sky had completely darkened.

Song Nuan couldn’t help but feel even more worried at this point, as she clutched Lin Ran’s arm, her pretty face a little white.

Lin Ran, on the other hand, did not look so good, as he was having a hard time holding his breath.

This girl was too close to him, and if he touched her, the feeling simply made his nosebleed spurt out.

“Ow!”

Suddenly, a wolf’s cry rang out in the back of the mountain.

This cry scared Song Nuan, and she jumped into Lin Ran’s arms.

“Don’t be afraid! Don’t be afraid, I’m here!”

Lin Ran hurriedly reassured him, and at once the two of them went from walking side by side to a princess hug.

“Why didn’t you say so earlier if there was a wolf! Let’s go down the mountain earlier!”

Song Nuan complained.

Lin Ran was also helpless and embarrassed.

“I forgot!”

“Forgot?”

Song Nuan almost didn’t pass out from anger.

“It’s alright, I’ll carry you, it’s fast down the mountain!”

Lin Ran greeted.

“Huh?”

Song Nuan was a little embarrassed at his words.

“Don’t hesitate, if you do, the wolves will catch up with you!”

Lin Ran urged.

Only then did Song Nuan reluctantly lie down on Lin Ran’s back.

And Lin Ran also hugged Song Nuan’s legs by the way.

It was said that women were made of water, and only then did Lin Ran finally understand that Song Nuan’s legs were simply soft and boneless, and Lin Ran’s whole body felt like it had already started to sleepwalk as he hugged it.

“You hurry up!”

Seeing that Lin Ran was standing still, Song Nuan couldn’t help but urge.

“Er This is going! This is going!”

Lin Ran came back to his senses and hurried down the mountain with Song Nuan on his back.

And behind them, the wolves were still howling and seemed to be getting closer and closer.

This made Song Nuan so scared that she buried her head into Lin Ran’s back, not daring to listen.

At first it was fine, as Lin Ran was carrying her on his back and she felt safe on the way.

But then she felt that something was not quite right. I don’t know if it was because the mountain path was difficult or because this guy was doing it on purpose, but his hand would slip down one moment and then slip up the next.

Song Nuan's whole body felt soft, and her pretty face could not help but blush.

On top of that, Song Nuan was lying on Lin's back, and that wide and firm back made her want to get into trouble.

"This bastard, he must be taking advantage of me!"

Feeling Lin Ran's hand on her leg change places again, Song Nuan couldn't help but curse in her heart.

"Hey! It's still really heavy!"

And Lin Ran was impatient, carrying Song Nuan down the mountain this ninny was moving around on his back, every now and then he had to lift it, otherwise he was afraid he would have fallen off long ago.

But feeling the softness on his back, he still endured it.

The two of them walked for ten minutes, finally getting closer to the village, and could even see the bright lights of the village.

But just as both of them could not help but breathe a sigh of relief at this point.

Suddenly a black shadow burst out of the bushes next to them, coming straight at Lin Ran and the two of them.

"Watch out!"

Lin Ran was quick-eyed and hurriedly turned around to wrap Song Nuan up in his arms.

But at that moment, a force came from behind him, instantly crushing him and Song Nuan together to the ground.

And with this pressure, Lin Ran and Song Nuan were instantly embraced together, and the two of them were even facing each other with a soft sensation coming from their lips.

At this moment, neither of them spoke, and Song Nuan's eyes were tightly closed, not because she was shy, but because she was afraid to open her eyes and see a wolf facing her.

Lin Ran was also confused at this moment, although he had kissed Song Nuan before, it was really the first time he had kissed in this wild mountain.

"Sorry, I didn't mean to!"

Since he hurriedly got up and saw the dark figure sitting next to him, which was actually Er Long, Lin Ran couldn't help but smile helplessly.

Er Long was very affectionate and directly came to surprisingly flop down on the ground and wailed.

Lin Ran also laughed and fought with Er Long before greeting Song Nuan.

"Get up!"

"Where's the wolf?"

Song Nuan was too frightened to move, into closed eyes afraid to see Lin Ran being bitten and injured.

“Where are the wolves?”

Lin Ran laughed.

“But I clearly heard it, there were wolves barking, and you just opened it!”

Song Nuan said and opened her eyes, but when she saw Erron in front of her, she instantly understood.

“You!”

Lin Ran was angry and furious, and her pretty face instantly turned red.

“Why is your face red?”

Lin Ran asked in wonder.

“You said it!”

Song Nuan said without good humour.

“Just now on the mountain you said there were wolves and scared the hell out of me, now it’s actually Erron, you’re a rogue pervert!”

“No, what does this have to do with me!”

Lin Ran looked impatient.

“You still say it’s alright!”

Song Nuan’s pretty face turned red and she stammered, unable to say anything.

“No what the hell is going on? Tell me clearly!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

“You! Rascal!”

Song Nuan’s pretty face turned even redder.

“How am I a rogue? I carried you all the way down, so how am I still a rogue?”

Lin Ran was completely helpless.

“You still don’t admit it!”

Song Nuan was furious and pointed at Lin Ran.

“What were you doing with your hands all the way down just now, changing position a little later and touching it with pleasure!”

“I”

Lin Ran was suddenly speechless.

“I said beautiful, carrying someone is tiring, don’t I need to adjust my position?”

“You!”

Song Nuan was so angry that her pretty face turned even redder.

“Then you still kissed me just now!”

“I didn’t want to either, it was Erron who pushed me from behind!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

Song Nuan, however, didn’t believe it at all.

“Humph! That’s your men’s ghostly tricks!”

Song Nuan’s pretty face turned red with shame and anger.

“What do you mean there are wolves, just trying to take advantage of others, I think you’re the biggest wolf!”

“How am I a wolf!”

“You’re just a wolf, a wolf is also a wolf!”

Song Nuan gave Lin Ran a blank look.

“Me!”

Lin Ran was practically in tears, this injustice was simply more wrong than even a sinus.

.....

When the two of them got down the mountain, it was already completely dark.

When they hurriedly arrived home, they saw their grandmother, who was guarding the door, from a great distance.

“What have you two been doing? Back so late!”

Grandma complained, but when she saw that Song Nuan’s pretty face was red and her clothes were still a bit untidy, she suddenly but smiled.

“I see, I see, give me the stuff, be careful of getting tired!”

Grandma said and took the basket in Lin Ran’s hand, smiling as she advanced into the house.

Song Nuan was confused, what did she mean by being careful of getting tired, she turned her head to look at Lin Ran and wondered.

“You can get tired even with this body?”

Lin Ran was embarrassed for a while and pointed to his collar.

Only then did Song Nuan notice that her collar had opened at some point and a large piece of snowy white was being exposed.

“You’re still looking!”

Song Nuan glared at Lin Ran in shame and anger.

Lin Ran, on the other hand, said helplessly.

“Who’s looking, I mean grandma misunderstood!”

“Misunderstood? Misunderstood what?”

Song Nuan didn’t understand.

Lin Ran was helpless and didn’t bother to explain, and was about to enter the door at once.

“Say clearly, misunderstand what!”

Song Nuan did not relent.

“Big sister, can you use your head? It’s the middle of the night, in the wilderness, you’re not dressed, what else could you have misunderstood!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

Song Nuan’s pretty face turned even redder at that, so it was such a careful tiredness.

“Lin Ran! You return my innocence!”

Song Nuan was so angry that she stomped her feet.

Lin Ran, however, spread his hands and said helplessly.

“I’m afraid I won’t be able to return my innocence, the village is so big that I’m afraid word will spread tomorrow, but I can be responsible for you!”

“Bah! Who wants you to be responsible, rogue pervert! I’m so angry!”

Song Nuan said as she went in the door herself, ? This guy is simply too shameless.

Chapter 894

The night went on without a word, and early the next morning, Dalong came looking for him.

“Ranzi, I’ve made some enquiries, and now there are only three or four hundred people in total who can work in all the households combined!”

Dalong said.

There were only about seven hundred people in the whole Linjiawan, and the three to four hundred were mostly old people and children, while the young and strong people were probably all working outside.

“Hmm!”

Lin Ran nodded, he had thought that the village would be in this situation before, but he just didn’t expect the population to be so small.

“What now?”

Dalong asked busily.

“Come with me to the town!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Go to the town?”

Big Dragon was stunned, not understanding how Lin Ran suddenly wanted to go to the town.

“We’ll find out when we arrive!”

Lin Ran smiled mysteriously and didn’t say anything more, then he got into the car with Song Nuan Da Long and headed straight for the town.

....

“Village chief, that kid went out today! It seems to be rushing to the town!”

Bai Gou Village, a smoky office, Boss Bai gripped his cigarette with a disdainful face.

“Let him go and see what tricks he’s planning to play first! You continue to keep an eye on it! Report back immediately if anything happens!”

“Yes!”

The youth who brought the news immediately ran out again in fear.

While Boss Bai was smoking a cigarette, his face full of disdain, he said.

“A hairy boy, how dare you be this village chief, I won’t play you to death!”

“Father! You must take revenge for me, my life was almost lost!”

On the other side, Bai Cai was so angry that he gritted his teeth.

“Shut up! You’re useless, you can’t be mad at me, bring your own men to get it back!”

Boss Bai said angrily.

“Father, I just can’t beat him!”

If he could have beaten Lin Ran, he wouldn’t have shrunk here, he wouldn’t even dare to go now, Lin Ran had left too much of a shadow on him.

“How did I give birth to such a useless thing like you!”

Boss Bai had a look of hatred on his face.

“Go back and stay honest if you have nothing to do, this has to be done slowly!”

Boss White said helplessly.

“Ao!”

Only then did Bai Cai reluctantly leave the office.

.....

In the town, Lin Ran first placed Song Nuan in front of an office building, since he had decided to make her the village head, then some formalities still had to be done.

“Bastard, what am I going to do?”

Looking at the office space in front of her, Song Nuan was helpless for a while, she was really afraid that she wouldn't do well as the village chief, but now that the arrow was on the string she had no choice.

“I'm so mad at you!”

Song Nuan was so angry that she stomped her foot, but still walked towards the office building, where the handover of the village headship was handled.

The process was rather troublesome, so while Song Nuan was busy with these things, Lin Ran took Dalong straight to the town's herb trading market.

All the herbs they had picked from the villagers of Linjiawan before were sent directly to this market for sale.

“Ranzi, what are you looking for their manager for? There are so few herbs in our village that the people from the market are usually responsible for buying them!”

Dalong asked in disbelief.

“The previous price was too low, I had to raise the price up!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

“Raise it up? That's unlikely, I've delivered herbs, this market is a wholesale market, the prices aren't even high!”

Big Dragon frowned, he felt that Lin Ran might have to make a trip for nothing.

“The wholesale market is fine, but if the stuff is good, you won't have to worry about selling it for a price, just watch!”

Lin Ran smiled lightly and didn't say much.

The two of them soon arrived at the market office and ran into the marketing manager who had previously interfaced with Big Dragon, Cao Wang.

“Manager Cao, it's been a long time!”

Seeing Cao Wang, Dalong greeted him with a smile.

However, Cao Wang just glanced at Dalong and followed with a face full of disdain.

“Ah, Dalong, what brings you here? Didn't we say that next time we could just directly interface with the people below?”

“Manager Cao, I’m not the one looking for you this time, it’s my big brother Lin Ran looking for you!”

Big Dragon said with a smile.

“Big brother? Big sister doesn’t matter, docking with the people below, I’m busy!”

Cao Wang glanced at Lin Ran, seeing that he was dressed blandly, he didn’t put it in his eyes.

“No Manager Cao, we’re all here, do you think we should sit down and have a chat?”

Dalong accompanied him with a smile, he knew that this Cao Wang liked to be put in high hats, and immediately continued.

“You’re not seen by God every day, we can’t afford to see you once, so please be gracious!”

Hearing these words, Cao Wang then took a proper look at the two, especially Lin Ran, and said blandly.

“In that case, then say something, hurry up and say something, I still have things to deal with!”

“Yes, yes!”

Big Dragon said with a busy smile.

Lin Ran, however, could see what was really going on, something to deal with? The computer was clearly just a card game, what could there be to deal with.

“Say it!”

Seeing that Lin Ran didn’t open his mouth, Cao Wang suddenly became impatient and said.

“Say it or get lost!”

“Manager Cao Wang, isn’t it!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“I’m looking for you for just one thing, do we have to raise the prices of our herbs in Lin Jiawan!”

“What? You’re saying that again?”

Cao Wang smiled at his words.

“I said

Lin Ran was just about to say something when Cao Wang interrupted him.

“How dare you say that, you’re sick in the head, running to me to bargain, who’s in charge of the prices in this market? This is a wholesale market, not a counter. Your village’s combined annual supply doesn’t even exceed a hundred pounds, and you’re raising prices with me?”

“Fuck off!”

Cao Wang said impatiently.

Lin Ran didn’t get angry at his words and laughed.

“The supply will be guaranteed by our village in the future, but at this price!”

“What’s the price, fed up? I said no, get lost immediately! I’m still busy!”

Cao Wang said disdainfully.

Lin Ran’s face couldn’t help but go icy cold at this.

“Too busy fighting landlords?”

“Kid, what are you talking about!”

Cao Wang was instantly enraged at his words and stood up directly with a slap on the table, pointing at Lin Ran and scolding him.

“Which fucking eye did you see that I was fighting the landlord! Do you believe that I’ll make it so that none of your village’s herbs can enter this market of Laozi’s in the future?”

“Manager Cao, don’t be angry, my elder brother is not this”

Dalong was busy laughing with him.

However, Cao Wang was already angry and glared at Dalong angrily.

“Not what not, I see that your village is just spoiled, what poor place things are still a lot, from today onwards your village’s herbs are not allowed to enter our market!”

“That’s your loss!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

Cao Wang smiled but his face was full of disdain.

“My loss? How much are your village’s herbs worth every year? It’s not even enough for me to bet on a game of landlord!”

“Get lost immediately!”

Cao Wang was full of disdain.

Da Long was about to say something else, but Lin Ran stopped him and then led him straight out of the office.

“Boss, how can you possibly negotiate things like this!”

Big Dragon was also panicking, if the sales of this herb were lost, then he was afraid that he would not even have a rice bowl in the future.

“Don’t worry, good things aren’t afraid of no one buying them!”

Lin Ran, however, did not care.

While the two of them were talking outside the door, two more middle-aged men walked in the opposite direction.

When Dalong saw one of them, he immediately patted Lin Ran, followed by tensing up and smiling at one of the middle-aged men.

“Good day, General Manager Cao!”

Chapter 895

“O! It’s Da Long, here to sell herbs again!”

The middle-aged man smiled, then after looking at Lin Ran, he led the man next to him straight into Cao Wang’s office.

“Who’s this guy?”

Lin Ran asked.

“Who else could it be, the general manager of this herb market, Cao Wang’s own uncle, Cao Delei!”

Dalong said enviously.

“What about the one next to him?”

Lin Ran continued.

“That’s a buyer, I’ve met him, he buys so many herbs every time he comes! Hey, when will our village get to know a buyer of this level!”

While Dalong was full of envy, Lin Ran had a light in his eyes and a solution in mind.

“Boss, what’s wrong with you?”

Seeing that Lin Ran did not say anything, Da Long was a bit worried, after all, this was just the beginning and Lin Ran had touched a nose, he was also afraid that Lin Ran would lose his motivation.

“Boss, or else forget it, I’ll send something to that boy Cao Wang later to talk and make peace!”

Big Dragon persuaded.

Lin Ran, however, made a pose at him to say something, and then stood in the doorway without saying a word.

Seeing that Lin Ran did not say anything, Dalong did not dare to speak either, and the two of them just stood there, just like the doorman.

However, he did not know that Lin Ran’s attention had already run inside the office at this time, where a door could block Lin Ran’s ears.

.....

In the room, seeing someone come in, Cao Wang thought it was Da Long and Lin Ran running back again, and without raising his head, he angrily scolded.

“Get out, I said I was busy with something, didn’t listen”

“What are the bastards doing!”

Before Cao Wang could finish his words, Cao Delei angrily scolded out.

Once he saw that it was his own uncle who had come, Cao Wang was so frightened that he hurriedly turned off the landlord and busily stood up.

“Uncle Uncle!”

“Uncle what uncle, what are you doing during working hours!”

Cao Delei was so angry that his face turned blue.

He could clearly remember that the last general manager of the herb market had been removed from office in the end because of favouritism and fraud.

He had been working very hard to get into this position, and he had always been very conscientious, even his own nephew didn't want to get in, but he couldn't resist the family's arguments and finally agreed to do so.

“Old Cao, forget it! I'm not an outsider!”

The middle-aged man next to him laughed.

“Old He has laughed at me!”

Cao Delei had an embarrassed face and turned his head to scold Cao Wang angrily.

“Why are you still standing there, where are the herbs you were told to prepare!”

“It's ready, it was ready a long time ago!”

Cao Wang was so scared that he was sweating profusely, and hurriedly brought over the prepared herbs, two big bags of them.

“Old He, take a look!”

Cao Delei laughed.

“Mmm!”

Old He nodded and immediately went up to take a look, but the two big bags could not be seen below, so he could only look at the top layer.

Only with this look, Old He was frowning.

“Old Cao, why is this batch of herbs not as good as the last batch? I remember that there were some very good colour herbs in the last batch, why is there nothing left this time?”

“What's going on?”

Cao Delei looked at Cao Wang, who was in charge of the herbs, he didn't know much about it.

“This”

Cao Wang was a little hesitant at once.

Because in the previous batch of herbs, the very good ones were sent by Lin Jiawan, but recently, Lin Jiawan didn't send any herbs, and with what just happened, I'm afraid that they won't be sent in the future, how can this be explained.

"That's right!"

Suddenly, Cao Wang thought of a reason and said with a busy smile.

"It's like this, that Lin Jiawan that delivered the medicine before, because it's too poor, this herb they don't pick anymore, so there won't be any in the future!"

"O?"

Old He sighed with a slight frown at his words.

"That's really a pity!"

"It's alright, Uncle He I'll help you find some more good herbs in the future and save them all for you!"

Cao Wang was busy laughing, he was clear about the strength of this Uncle He in front of him, that was the biggest herb processor in the whole town, if he could get on good terms with him, his future was not waiting to soar in the future.

"Well, then we can only wait slowly!"

Old He was a little disappointed.

However, just as his voice fell, a voice came from the doorway, while two figures walked in.

"It's not working, Mr. He, if you need our herbs from Lin Jia Wan, I think we can talk about it!"

"Who let you in, get out!"

Seeing that it was Lin Ran and Da Long, Cao Wang's face suddenly changed and he hurriedly shouted.

"You are?"

Old He looked at the two, he didn't know Lin Ran and Big Dragon.

"Lin Ran, this is my friend Dalong, we're both from Lin Jiawan, we're here to sell herbs this time!"

Lin Ran said with a smile.

"O?"

Old He smiled and instantly became interested.

"Uncle He, these two are liars, you can't be fooled by them, there aren't many good people in Linjiawan!"

Cao Wang saw this and quickly said.

Lin Ran, however, disliked him straight back.

"I know best if there are any good people in our Lin Jia Wan, but I also know very well what kind of person you Cao Wang are!"

Saying that, Lin Ran turned his head to look at Old He and laughed.

"Mr. He, do you think a person who uses inferior herbs indiscriminately is a good person?"

"Naturally not!"

Old He said blandly, while Cao Delei at the side was already frowning slightly, his heart vaguely uneasy.

"Good! Then I can tell you responsibly that these two bags of herbs in front of you, only the surface layer is still okay, the underside has all gone mouldy!"

Lin Ran pointed at the two bags of herbs Cao Wang held out and swore.

"What nonsense, how could Laozi's herbs be mouldy!"

Cao Wang was instantly anxious, Old He was a very big customer of theirs, if they offended him, not to mention themselves I'm afraid even Cao Delei would be heartbroken.

"Young man, I admire your courage, but you will be held responsible for talking out of turn in public!"

Cao Delei said in a cold voice.

"Whether it is a lie or not, we will know if we open it and see, but when we see the truth, I hope General Manager Cao will not defend your nephew!"

Lin Ran said indifferently.

"If this is the truth, I will naturally handle the matter impartially!"

Cao Delei said solemnly.

"Good!"

Lin Ran clapped his hands, followed by a step forward, and with a wave of his palm, the two bags of herbs split apart with a "bang", and the herbs inside were scattered all over the ground.

Looking at them, the mouldy and hairy herbs were simply too clear.

"How is this possible!"

Seeing this ground full of herbs, Cao Wang was immediately dumbfounded, he remembered very clearly that these herbs were all packed under his personal watch last night, how could they have suddenly gone mouldy.

"Cao Wang!"

Cao Delei's eyes went red at once, this was simply lying to Old He, how could he explain it clearly.

"Uncle, it's not like that, I personally watched the loading, ? It can't be mouldy!"

Cao Wang was so anxious that he could not defend himself.

Old He, on the other hand, looked on quietly without speaking.

“Mr. He, now you should be able to tell who is credible!”

Lin Ran said, taking down his two backpacks and placing them on the ground, laughing.

“Of course, you can take a look at our goods from Lin Jia Wan first, before making your decision!”

Chapter 896

“O?”

Old He became interested at the sight and immediately took out some herbs to watch.

There were two kinds of herbs that Lin Ran had brought with him, namely Golden Silver Flower and Snake Tongue Herb, which were the two most abundant herbs on the hills behind their Lin Jiawan, and were also the two main ones that Lin Ran would focus on in the future.

Moreover, as they were natural and wild, and the area around Linjiawan had not been polluted, the quality of the herbs was quite good.

“Good! This herb is of superior quality, just what I need!”

Old He was very excited.

“It’s good that Mr. He is satisfied!”

Lin Ran smiled and nodded his head.

“But!”

Suddenly, Old He, however, frowned slightly and asked.

“But your Lijiawan is in a remote location, if I were to arrange for people to pick it I’m afraid the cost would be too high for this”

“Mr. He can rest assured, you do not need to contribute manpower, from now on this herb we Lin Jiawan to supply, but you need to send a car to the village to collect, the price must also be given to us according to the market price, this is my condition!”

Lin Ran spoke.

Seeing that Lin Ran had already started talking to Old He about cooperation, Cao Delei, who was at the side, panicked.

“Hey, hey, Old He, Lin Ran! That’s not right, the herbs from Lin Jiawan used to be sent to our herb market, how come you guys are still trying to sign a contract privately!”

According to the previous practice, herbs sent to their market had to sign a contract, if there was such private cooperation between the supplier and the buyer, if they were found out, they would have to pay a breach of contract.

“That’s also true!”

Old He frowned, in fact he would prefer to work with Lin Ran alone, after all, it would save a large amount of overheads.

“That was the reasoning before, but not anymore!”

Lin Ran, however, laughed.

“What do you mean?”

Cao Delei’s face sank and he glanced at Cao Wang next to him, feeling in his heart that something had gone cold again.

“Little friend Lin Ran, what do you mean by that?”

Old He also asked, with a little more anticipation in his heart.

“It’s simple!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Because Lin Jiawan’s herbs have never signed a contract with their Medicine Talent Market at all! What’s this talk of a breach of contract?”

“No contract was ever signed?”

Old He was delighted at his words, having seen a business opportunity.

“How can you not have signed a contract? How did you get your herbs in without a contract?”

Cao Delei questioned, he was confident that this year through his management, the management system of the herb market was quite perfect, how could there still be this kind of supply relationship without a signed contract!

“General Manager Cao, there was indeed no contract signed!”

On the side, Da Long was laughing.

“What is going on?”

Cao Delei looked at Cao Wang and questioned.

“Uncle This matter is It’s more complicated!”

Cao Wang stammered.

Da Long, who was on the other side, spoke up instead.

“General Manager Cao, this matter is really not that complicated!”

“Ao? You tell me!”

Cao Delei looked at Dalong, his eyes micronized.

“It’s very simple! Because this is your own nephew’s intention!”

Da Long said.

“You bullshit! When did I ever say that!”

Cao Wang retorted at once.

“You did not explicitly say so, but isn’t that what you meant? Without a contract, it’s not the property of your herb market, so aren’t you making a difference by buying it at a low price and buying it at a high price?”

Big Dragon sneered.

“You You’re nonsense!”

Cao Wang’s face turned blue for a while.

“I’m bullshitting?”

Big Dragon laughed as he turned his head to look at Cao Delei and laughed.

“General Manager Cao, am I bullshitting, just send someone around to ask around, how many villages have been directly cut off by your own nephew because the amount of herbs is too small, and put the money into their own pockets! Do I need to be more specific?”

“That’s enough!”

Cao Delei scolded with an ugly look on his face.

“Cao Wang! From now on, you don’t fire!”

“Uncle!”

Cao Wang instantly felt as if lightning had struck him, and his entire body directly went limp and sat down on the ground.

“Old Cao, isn’t this too harsh?”

On the side, Old He frowned, he hadn’t said anything from the beginning to the end.

“It’s not hard enough to right the law, I don’t want to be the first general manager to be removed from office!”

Cao Delei said in a cold voice.

“It’s still General Manager Cao who understands righteousness, in that case, we’ll take our leave!”

Lin Ran laughed and turned around to leave.

Cao Delei was not willing to let Lin Ran go so easily and hurriedly stepped forward and said.

“Little friend Lin Ran, please stay!”

“Does General Manager Cao still have something to do?”

Lin Ran asked with a smile.

“This is the case, what happened before was all my nephew’s fault, I am here to apologise, but this private cooperation between you and Old He is indeed a bit inappropriate, and for security reasons, it is safest to go through our market!

Cao Delei said with a smile.

“Not proper? One of us ships and one of us pays, what’s wrong with that?”

Lin Ran laughed.

“That’s not true, there are many factors involved in this transaction, besides, it’s safer to go through our herb market!”

Cao Delei said busily.

This time, before Lin Ran could say anything, Old He on the side laughed.

“I think it’s better to drive in the long run, or go through the herb market!”

“That’s right!”

Cao Delei was instantly delighted, and was busy laughing.

Lin Ran also laughed at this, they understood the relationship between Cao Delei and Lao He, and in essence, it was just as Lao He was wrong, going to the herb market was relatively stable, after all, the market was there and would not run, and the most fearful thing about working with private individuals was paving the way.

Thinking of this, Lin Ran laughed and said.

“In fact, it’s the same for me with whoever I work with, I won’t change the conditions, as for who I work with you guys can discuss it!”

“No need to negotiate, just follow what you said before, market price and we’ll send a car to the village to pick it up!”

Cao Delei said at once.

“General Manager Cao, then you’re not making any profit here!”

Lin Ran laughed, the market price into the market price to sell to Lao He, where was the profit to be made, even with the labour costs.

“I’ll consider this time to give Lin Ran brother you Lin Jia Wan to compensate for the wrong, money is not important, the important thing is to make sure to earn back this reputation!”

Cao Delei was serious, but Lin Ran smiled and didn’t say anything.

He didn’t understand that Cao Delei was an old man who had become an expert. At present, Lin Jiawan only provided honeysuckle and snake tongue herb, but Lao He was obviously a big customer, so he couldn’t just need these two kinds of herbs.

But as long as Old He was tied to their herb market, the other herbs the former needed in the future would still have to go to their herb market, and if Linjiawan's herbs couldn't make money, then it would be better to earn from elsewhere.

"Good! In that case, then you guys prepare the contract!"

Lin Ran said with a smile.

"Good! I'll go and prepare it now!"

Cao Delei immediately sent someone to prepare the contract, while greeting Lin Ran and the others to sit down in his office and chatted away.

Old He had always had a question that he wanted to ask, so when he saw that he had time, he opened his mouth and asked.

"Little friend Lin Ran, I wonder how much of these two herbs your Linjiawan can provide each year?"

Lin Ran smiled and was silent for a moment, then spoke.

"Based on the current workforce, we can probably provide 500,000 catties of snake tongue herb and 400,000 catties of honeysuckle a year! Of course later on, as the labour force returns to their hometowns, the quantities will be even higher!"

"A whole year of these quantities It's a bit small!"

Old He frowned a little.

Chapter 897

Lin Ran saw this but smiled.

"If Mr. He is not satisfied, I can find someone else to talk to, after all, the village has to develop can't ask for unlimited, we also have our own plans!"

"Never, what is this for, little friend Lin Ran? I just think we can totally cooperate in depth no!"

He had been in the town for so many years that he naturally had a scale for the production and quality of herbs in the town.

Although the total amount of herbs provided by Lin Ran was not that much, they were all guaranteed natural wild herbs, and this alone was no less profitable than other herbs.

Moreover, looking at the situation, Lin Jiawan should be looking for development, and there would be other aspects of cooperation in the future, so how could he be willing to push Lin Ran, the money-spinner, out of the country.

"In that case, then there is no objection, and if there are other things that our village wants to sell in the future, we will naturally be happy to negotiate with Mr. He!"

Lin Ran said with a smile.

"Good! Good!"

Old He was busy smiling along.

While the people were talking, Cao Delei had already run off to bring the contract.

“We have this three-way contract, it’s kind of like having our herb market to buy it first, and then selling it to Old He, come and sign the contract!”

Cao Delei said impatiently.

Although this cooperation was not profitable for the time being, it was definitely a very cost effective contract in the long run.

Lin Ran and Lao He also took what they needed, so naturally there was no problem, and the three of them signed the contract right away.

And according to the contract, every year Lin Ran had to provide the herb market with at least 500,000 catties of snake tongue grass and 400,000 catties of honeysuckle, and this was still the very beginning, and if it increased later on, they could also continue to provide.

“Alright!”

Lin Ran signed his name and then pressed his handprint.

“Right Lin Ran, I have to ask one more thing, are you planning to do this alone in the future?”

Cao Delei asked.

Lin Ran smiled at his words but said.

“The co-operative, I’m here on behalf of the co-operative in our village!”

“Co-operative?”

On the side, Dalong was stunned at his words, when did Lin Jiawan have a co-operative, how come he didn’t know about it.

“Co-operative? So it’s best, for the village not for the people, then I’m also relieved!”

Old He smiled, the co-operative was at least a village collective, any accidents would be more secure than just Lin Ran personally.

“Right, Lin Ran, I see in the contract you said there is a mountain closure period, how did you arrange this time? I can also make preparations for it!”

“Every year, the mountain is closed in winter, no herbs will be taken out and collected, and the supply will continue in the summer of the following year!”

Lin Ran said.

It wasn’t without reason that he arranged this, after all, the village had to develop, it couldn’t keep asking for more, it had to give the mountains time to breathe, and closing the mountains in winter and spring was the best option.

For one thing, the mountains were full of snow in winter and people couldn't get up there, while winter would allow the herbs to recover properly and not affect next year's harvesting.

"Well, if there's nothing else, then we'll take our leave, I'll have the first herbs ready in three days!"

Lin Ran got up and smiled.

"Little friend Lin Ran wait a moment!"

Old He suddenly remembered something and spoke up.

"There is something I don't know if I should talk about!"

"But there is no harm in saying it!"

Lin Ran laughed, in fact he had already guessed what it was about.

"I've always wondered, how did little friend Lin Ran know that the two bags of herbs provided by Cao Wang were mouldy inside when he wasn't in the office earlier?"

"Right! I had almost forgotten about this!"

Cao Delei was also bewildered, he was also curious as to how Lin Ran knew about it, had this kid secretly changed it?

Lin Ran couldn't help but laugh as he looked at the two men's confusion.

"Is that hard to understand? One of you two is in the herbal medicine business, and the other manages the herbal medicine market, and you don't even understand this?"

After saying this, the two of them looked at each other, still at a loss, and Lin Ran said helplessly.

"The two bags of herbs provided by Cao Wang are dry herbs, which are not suitable for long periods of time to be stacked, plus the warehouse inside this office backs up to a water station, the environment inside is humid, he stored the herbs here, it would be strange if they didn't get mouldy!"

"This"

Cao Delei was stunned, while Cao Wang at the side was completely wilted, sitting paralyzed on the floor looking at Cao Delei, looking at Lao He, not holding in a word for half a day.

"Young friend Lin Ran, you are indeed a hero! I have learned a lot!"

Old He arched his hand at Lin Ran, he himself was in the herbal medicine business, but he had never thought that he would not even understand this truth, he was really a bit embarrassed.

"Mr. He is joking!"

Lin Ran laughed lightly, then chatted with Old He Cao Delei for a few more minutes before leaving with Dalong.

Looking at Lin Ran's back as he left, after taking a look at this own nephew of his, Cao Delei was furious.

“Tell me about you, people are about the same age as you, why do you only know how to play games, can you learn more from them!”

Cao Delei hates iron.

.....

Leaving the herb market, Lin Ran took Big Dragon straight to Song Nuan.

This ninny had been working all morning and had finally completed all the formalities and gotten some information about the village.

“Well?”

When he got into the car, Lin Ran asked straight away.

“The situation is not good!”

Song Nuan frowned sadly.

“Our Linjiawan has a total population of more than seven hundred people, about two hundred families, but do you know what the poverty rate of our village is?”

“How much?”

Lin Ran frowned.

“Eighty percent!”

Song Nuan sighed.

“And the remaining twenty percent are still very poor, and I’m afraid you’re the only exception in the whole village when you do the math, everyone else is either poor or impoverished!”

“That even?”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but laugh too.

“Can you use average? The whole village is poor, what are you going to do?”

Song Nuan couldn’t help but ask.

Lin Ran smiled at his words but laughed, while raising the contract in his hand.

“What’s this?”

Song Nuan was delighted and immediately took it over to check it out, and the entire person froze under this look.

“This So many herbs, where are you going to get them!”

“What do you think?”

Lin Ran laughed.

Song Nuan was instantly stunned and thought of something.

“Village Chief, do I need to say more about what to do next instead?”

Lin Ran laughed heatedly and took the contract back, before looking at Song Nuan and saying seriously.

“I don’t have much time, and the time I can spend next to you helping to develop the village is not much either, so we’ll have to do a lot of things at the same time to try to make the village change drastically within six months!”

“What do you want?”

Song Nuan asked with a serious look on her face.

“You have to familiarise yourself with the various policies as soon as possible to provide a strong policy guarantee for Lin Jiawan’s future development!”

Lin Ran said.

“Mm!”

Song Nuan nodded solemnly at her words, she found that this guy Lin Ran was very good at motivating people, she herself didn’t have much fighting spirit before, but at this moment, seeing that Lin Ran had negotiated such a big cooperation, she instantly had confidence too.

“Do you still feel lost in life now?”

Lin Ran asked with a sudden turn.

“Don’t feel it anymore!”

Song Nuan smiled, before she didn’t have much of a favorite career, after all, the conditions of her family were there, but now she seemed to feel a different trajectory in life, looking at the eager eyes of the villagers, Song Nuan also finally understood what kind of things were more meaningful to do and better reflected her value.

“Don’t worry, since you gave me the village head and the villagers didn’t object, then I will do a good job as the village head!”

Song Nuan assured to, her words full of determination.

Chapter 898

They returned to the village just in time for dinner.

Grandma had prepared dinner early and was waiting for Lin Ran to return.

It was a summer evening and the villagers were all gathered at the entrance for dinner, so when they saw Lin Ran and the others return, they all chatted.

“Ranzi, where have you been?”

“Yes, it’s only been a day since you became village head and you’ve been out having fun?”

“Huh don’t talk nonsense, people Lin Ran handed over the village head to his young daughter-in-law! ”

“Haha, that’s not as afraid of his wife as I am!”

The villagers laughed.

Lin Ran, however, just laughed and didn’t answer.

After dinner, the villagers all gathered together to chat and gossip, the countryside was such a pleasant place to live.

Originally, the village was full of old people and children, there was not much labour, there was nothing to do but eat and chat, they all counted on their young sons and daughters to send money back from outside.

“Hey, hey! Now give notice, all villagers have a meeting at the village head!”

Song Nuan’s voice rang out over the village loudspeaker, as the village head this voice was naturally for her to say.

But after the notice, she soon received a call from Dalong.

“Sister Nuan, no one is coming!”

Dalong was standing guard at the village head and didn’t see anyone coming at all.

Lin Ran, who was on the side, saw this, frowned slightly and spoke.

“I’ll shout!”

With that, he turned on the loudspeaker and shouted.

“I’m Lin Ran I’m Lin Ran, I’ll only say this once, this meeting is to bring everyone to make money, whoever doesn’t make money can not come! The meeting will be held in ten minutes, so everyone can decide for themselves!”

“So direct?”

Song Nuan was stunned to hear that, saying making money over the loud speaker, would anyone believe it?

“Just you wait!”

Lin Ran laughed heatedly and didn’t explain, then he dragged Song Nuan to the village head.

When the two of them arrived, the village head was already filled with people, each waiting eagerly for Lin Ran and Song Nuan to appear.

“You’re really something!”

Seeing this scene, Song Nuan couldn’t help but give Lin Ran a thumbs up.

“You have to understand what the villagers want most!”

Lin Ran laughed heatedly, then pulled Song Nuan into the crowd.

“Hey hey! Isn’t this Lin Ran and Village Chief Song? How on earth are you guys making money by shouting for the big guys to come over!”

Seeing the two coming over, the fat aunt at the front of the crowd was the first to speak up.

“Yes, wife I’m changing the baby’s nappies, how on earth are you guys going to make money here!”

Aunt Liu, who had just become a grandmother, also asked.

“I think it’s just a joke, how do we make money just in our village!”

On the other side, a very unkempt old Yu said disdainfully, he was a famous lazy man in the village, in his early forties, but he was so lazy that he hadn’t even found a daughter-in-law yet.

The crowd was having a lot of fun.

Seeing this, Lin Ran sighed helplessly and immediately stepped forward to scold them.

“Stop it all! Be quiet if you want to make money, and listen to Village Chief Song next.”

As soon as he chided, the surroundings really quietened down.

Seeing this, Song Nuan knew that it was his turn to take the stage, and immediately took a deep breath and walked forward to look at the surrounding villagers and spoke.

“Villagers, since you all believe in me so much, then I, Song Nuan, will not be polite with you!”

“Today we went to the city to negotiate a big order, signed with our village’s cooperative relationship, and this contract is directly related to everyone here!”

As soon as Lin Ran’s words fell, murmurs arose from below.

“What kind of contract?”

“How big can it be?”

“That’s right, making money isn’t pulling us to do hard labour!”

On the side, Old Yu was full of disdain.

Seeing this, Song Nuan not only frowned slightly, and said.

“We have a contract, so naturally we’re not cheating everyone!”

Song Nuan took a deep breath and continued.

“From tomorrow onwards, those who want to make money will go to the back of the mountain to collect snake tongue grass and honeysuckle, the more you pick the more you earn, the price per catty of snake tongue grass is ten yuan, and per catty of honeysuckle flower is seventy-five fast!”

“What? A catty of snake tongue grass for ten yuan?”

“A catty of honeysuckle for seventy-five fast?”

“That’s a lie! How can it be so high!”

“Yes, I even dragged Dalong to the town to sell it before, and the honeysuckle was only twenty dollars!”

“Liar!”

The villagers suddenly murmured at the words.

Song Nuan was a little overwhelmed by the situation, it was her first time doing this job after all, and it was inevitable that she was nervous.

Lin Ran saw this and rushed straight up, scolding.

“All be quiet!”

“I’ll tell you why the price is high!”

Lin Ran swept his gaze over the crowd and said.

“In the past, our herbs from Lin Jiawan couldn’t fetch a good price, that was because the people in charge of herbs in the town didn’t know what they were doing, plus our limited production resulted in that!”

“But now it’s different, the price that Village Chief Song just said is the real deal! If any of you don’t believe me, feel free to try it tomorrow, I, Lin Ran, put my word on it, will still be here tomorrow night, you will come to me with the herbs you have collected and be paid on the spot!”

“This

Hearing Lin Ran’s words, a crowd of villagers all burst out laughing and talking.

The money was handed out on the spot, then so many people were watching, Lin Ran was afraid that he wouldn’t be able to renege on his debt if he wanted to.

“Ranzi, you told the Second Grand Master that you were serious?”

In the crowd, an old man who was over sixty years old looked at Lin Ran and said seriously.

“Second Grand Master, I was brought up under your watch, do you think I look like a liar?”

Lin Ran said seriously.

“Not like that, then Second Grand Master will go pick herbs tomorrow!”

Second Grand Master said seriously.

“I’ll go too!”

Suddenly, Big Dragon spoke up too.

“I’m so poor that I can’t even uncover the pot, I’m going tomorrow too!”

Big Dragon cursed.

Lin Ran smiled at this, Big Dragon was indeed in a difficult situation, so he wouldn’t stand in the way.

“Then I’ll go too, I have nothing to do at home anyway, and if I do have money, I can still use it for my children’s school!”

The widow Liu on the side also said.

“Brother Yu are we going?”

On the side, Hei Zi, who had just dropped out of school and was at home, asked Lao Yu.

Since he had dropped out of school, Hei Zi had been following Lao Yu, and although he had nothing to do, he still wanted to seek Lao Yu’s advice.

“Go? What for? Paying for picking herbs, what a lie! I’d rather lie at home and sleep in the time I have, I’m not going.”

“All right then!”

Blackie nodded helplessly.

“Let’s go! I don’t believe you!”

Old Yu tilted his head and looked at Lin Ran with disdain.

Lin Ran didn’t get angry when he saw this and swept his gaze over the crowd and laughed.

“Those who don’t believe for the time being can go without, when they do believe feel free to come and find me, no one will be denied!”

“For those who believe, you can go ahead and try, I, Lin Ran, am also a member of the Lin Family Bay, so we will know tomorrow night if it’s a lie to the group!”

A night of hustle and bustle had passed.

For this kind of result, Lin Ran actually had psychological preparation, after all, the first way to make money, the villagers also need a process, and as long as wait for tonight after the scene to give out money to everyone, I am afraid that this wind of making money will be completely up.

The next morning, early in the morning, some villagers started to go to the mountains to pick herbs. For the people of Linjiawan, who were born and bred in the mountains, almost everyone knew how to pick herbs, so it was too easy for them.

While the villagers went to the mountains to pick herbs, Lin Ran was at home with Song Nuan, discussing the next step of development.

Song Nuan frowned and asked.

“Your contract for honeysuckle is eighty dollars per catty, why are you only giving the villagers seventy-five? The snake tongue herb is not worse!”

Chapter 899

Lin Ran smiled at that.

“You forget that? The co-op I was talking about!”

“Co-op?”

Song Nuan was stunned and seemed to have thought of something.

“Are you trying to save up the difference of the five pieces as funds for the co-op?”

“It’s just comfortable to talk to smart people!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Cut it out!”

Song Nuan gave him a blank look, but was a little worried.

“Your intentions are good, but if the villagers find out, will they say you’re enriching yourself!”

“Enrich yourself? The money will still be used for the construction of the village in the future!”

Lin Ran laughed.

Song Nuan, however, was still a little worried.

“It’s alright, don’t worry, the villagers aren’t as mindful as you think!”

Lin Ran, however, laughed.

Just as the two of them were about to further discuss the next path of development, suddenly there was a loud noise in the courtyard.

Lin Ran frowned at the sound and immediately rushed out, but he only saw a figure running out of the gate, not who it really was.

“Who is it?”

Song Nuan also chased out and asked busily.

“I don’t know!”

Lin Ran shook his head.

“Then the conversation we just had!”

Song Nuan was vaguely worried.

“Don’t worry, you have to trust the villagers!”

Lin Ran, however, was unconcerned and smiled as he patted Song Nuan, gesturing for her to go back inside and continue discussing the next strategy.

“What are your plans next?”

Back in her room, Song Nuan asked.

Picking herbs was only temporary, after all, the mountain would be closed in the future, so it was impossible to keep collecting them, and when it was closed its time to consider other ways to get rich.

“I’ve thought about it, it’s May now, we can collect herbs until November, six months! As soon as the mountain sealing period starts, we’ll have to make a big move!”

Lin Ran said, taking out a pen and paper and planning.

“This?”

Watching Lin Ran draw a map of the current Linjiawan on the paper, Song Nuan couldn’t help but be stunned.

“I want to make Linjiawan a great place for herbal medicine and tourism, so the first step is to renovate the entire village’s houses and build it into a community with modernity!”

Lin Ran said solemnly.

“That’s not realistic, is it? How can the villagers have the money to renovate their houses!”

Song Nuan frowned.

Lin Ran, however, smiled.

“So this will require funds from the cooperative!”

“Tell us about your plan!”

Song Nuan asked busily.

Lin Ran laughed heatedly and spoke at once.

On their side, they were planning the development of the village, while at this time in the mountains, the villagers were working feverishly.

Old Yu ran up the hill with his cigarette in his mouth and smiled when he saw that there were indeed people gathering herbs.

“I say, gentlemen, you really believe that boy Lin Ran!”

“Old Yu? What are you doing here instead of going home to warm your bed!”

When they saw Old Yu, the villagers didn’t bother to pay him any mind, this guy was notorious for his laziness.

“What for? To save you!”

Old Yu sneered.

“Save us? Do you have food to eat yourself? Don’t steal buns from my house if you have the guts!”

Immediately, some villagers sneered.

“That’s right, you don’t do anything yourself every day, and you’re still pointing out other people’s mountains!”

Liu Xiao said coldly.

“Hey, I say you little girl, you still have the right to say what I do?”

“What’s Old Yu doing! Bullying my daughter, believe it or not, I’ll kill you!”

Liu Xiao’s mother was instantly furious.

“You widow, you didn’t follow me when I asked you to, and now you don’t even have a man!”

Old Yu said in a cold voice.

“Auntie I would be a widow for the rest of my life, but I wouldn’t look at such a pig-like man!”

Widow Liu said nonchalantly.

“Fine, fine! You are willing to be fooled, and I don’t care about you!”

With that, Old Yu immediately turned around and ran next to the old village chief.

“Old Village Chief, you are a sensible person, there is something I must tell you!”

“What is it?”

The old village chief frowned.

“Just that kid Lin Ran, he said seventy-five fast per catty for honeysuckle last night, but in fact he signed with someone else for eighty, and ate five of our kickbacks!”

Old Yu said busily.

The old village chief frowned slightly at his words and looked at Old Yu.

“How did you know that?”

“I …..”

Old Yu was dumbfounded.

“You have run off to eavesdrop on people, be careful of rotting your tongue!”

The old village chief said in a cold voice.

“But Village Chief, no matter what, it’s the truth!”

Old Yu argued.

“What facts, fuck off! I know about this!”

The old village chief didn’t bother with him and sent him away at once.

When Old Yu saw that he hadn’t made much noise, he didn’t bother to talk any more and prepared to go back.

But halfway there he saw Heizi and was stunned.

“Heizi, why are you here too!”

“Brother Yu, I just wanted to give it a try, if I can really earn money, then I can continue my studies too, right?”

Heizi said awkwardly.

“Study? You think you can earn money? Don’t they be stupid!”

Old Yu said disdainfully.

“It’s okay, I’ll try!”

Blackie laughed nervously.

“Try? Then you try, I’m too lazy to care about you!”

Old Yu said and turned around and went down the mountain.

.....

The time soon came to evening, and many of the villagers who had picked the herbs had sorted themselves out and were guarding the village head early, just waiting for Lin Ran to come and hand out money.

Lin Ran and Song Nuan had their dinner and then arrived with Dalong.

At this moment, they were both relieved to see the herbs in the hands of many villagers around them.

“Lin Ran, we’ve brought all the herbs, when will the money be handed out!”

Widow Liu was the first to ask.

“Don’t rush yet, we’ll start later!”

Lin Ran laughed, while greeting Dalong and taking out a pen and paper to prepare for registration, while Song Nuan took out a thick pile of money, immediately looking at the surrounding villagers’ eyes went red.

“Oh my god, there’s really money!”

“Lin Ran didn’t lie to us! There’s really money to be handed out!”

Seeing this scene, those villagers who had stepped on the herbs boiled over, while those who hadn’t picked the herbs could only look on with bewilderment.

“Villagers, we’re ready, everyone line up let’s go one by one!”

Lin Ran greeted.

“Good!”

At once all the villagers responded, following which everyone lined up consciously and began to count and settle the money.

“Aunt Liu, four catties of honeysuckle for a total of three hundred!”

“Liu Xiao, eight catties of snake tongue grass makes eighty dollars!”

“Mother I’ve earned eighty yuan!”

Taking the money, at once Liu Xiao said excitedly.

“Yes! Mother has earned three hundred, we mother and mother have earned three hundred and eighty dollars a day!”

The two Liu widows said excitedly.

And looking at the two of them getting the money, the other villagers couldn’t help but gag.

If they earned three hundred and eighty dollars a day, wouldn’t this be over ten thousand dollars in a month?

In the past, they would never have dared to think about it.

“Hei Zi, eight catties of gold and silver flowers, six hundred in total!”

With the fall of another voice from Lin Ran, there was a complete explosion among the villagers.

Holding his six hundred pieces, Hei Zi burst into hot tears.

“Brother Lin Ran! Village Chief Song, thank you! I can go to school again!”

“Brother Yu, did you see that? Brother Lin Ran they really gave money!”

Hei Zi took the money and ran to Old Yu at once.

Old Yu, however, looked envious, and at the same time was a bit chagrined at how he hadn’t gone to pick herbs.

Thinking of this, Old Yu could not help but be a little angry and immediately scolded.

“Lin Ran, what do you mean by that? You clearly signed a deal with the buyer for eighty yuan per catty for honeysuckle, and only gave Hei Zi seventy-five per catty, aren’t you screwing the villagers?”

“Wow.”

Hearing Old Yu’s words, everyone instantly looked at Lin Ran and the three of them, the atmosphere instantly changed, from boiling to quiet.

Chapter 900

Lin Ran swept his gaze over the crowd and saw that the big guys were all looking at him, so he couldn’t help but frown slightly.

“Ranzi!”

“Lin Ran!”

Song Nuan and Dalong also looked at him, unsure of what to do.

The situation at hand might cause discontent among the villagers, and they were all thinking about how to deal with it.

“Gentlemen! Now is the time to hand out money, if you have doubts, you may not pay for the herbs first, so as not to delay the others who are ready to pay!”

Lin Ran swept his gaze across the crowd and said blandly.

“Also I’m saying this, the seventy-five fast won’t change, so continue if you want to pay!”

“This

All of them hesitated at once.

A difference of five yuan per catty was not a small amount, and for villagers whose average annual income was less than ten thousand, it was a large sum of money.

“I’ll go first! What five or ten dollars, getting the money is the way to go!”

Soon, the Second Grand Master shouted over the group and came over with the herbs.

“Second Grand Master, five catties of gold and silver flowers, three hundred and seventy-five fast in total!”

Lin Ran’s voice rang out once again.

Some of the other villagers who were still ready to wait and see, could not help but be foolish again when they saw that everyone else had gotten their money.

“Don’t you have any brains, that’s a difference of five yuan, you’re just willing to be ripped off by Lin Ran?”

Old Yu said angrily when he saw this.

“Shut up!”

Suddenly, an angry roar came from the crowd.

The crowd looked and found that it was surprisingly the old village chief.

The old village chief swept his gaze over Lao Yu, scaring him so much that he didn’t dare to say a word, although he was no longer the village chief now, but his authority was still there.

The old village chief swept his gaze across the villagers and spoke.

“I am an old man who is short of money, those of you who are not in a hurry go to the back and let me pay first, I need the money!”

A very simple sentence, but one that left the crowd speechless.

Some villagers were embarrassed and had to move aside from the queue.

“Old village head, ten catties of gold and silver flowers, a total of seven hundred and fifty yuan!”

Lin Ran laughed, while handing the money to the old village chief.

The old village chief looked very excited as he took the money, he slowly turned around, looked at the other villagers and spoke.

“Villagers, I just want to ask, could you have earned this much money in a day before?”

Hearing these words from the old village chief, all of them fell silent at once.

Three to four hundred a day, not to mention before, they had never even thought about it in the future, but now it was all coming alive to them.

Those who had received the money could not say how excited they were.

Those who hadn't delivered yet were a bit hesitant. They wanted the money, but the five yuan difference made them hesitate.

The old village chief swept his gaze over the crowd and said with a sigh.

“Villagers, we are all poor and scared people, you feel your conscience and ask, if there was no Lin Ran, what would you all be doing now? You hesitate at a difference of five yuan per catty, have you ever thought that without Lin Ran, you wouldn't even have seventy-five!”

With these words, the old village chief immediately made everyone fall silent, especially those who hadn't yet handed in their herbs, and their faces were on fire.

Indeed, without Lin Ran, they were afraid that they wouldn't even be able to sell them for seventy-five quick.

“I don't want to say much more, who is not busy working to earn a living, why should people pay you as much as they sign, don't they have to earn a living?”

After saying that, the old village headman said no more and took the money and went back to the crowd.

“The old village chief is right, I support Brother Lin Ran!”

Heizi spoke up.

“I'm already happy that I can go to school, if it wasn't for Brother Lin Ran I'm afraid I wouldn't have had the chance to go to school in my life, I don't care about this five yuan, I'm willing to let Brother Lin Ran earn it!”

“We mothers too, we don't forget to dig the well when we eat water, we earn seventy-five, so what if we let Lin Ran earn five!”

Widow Liu also spoke up.

At once all the villagers figured out this point and one by one they all spoke up.

“You guys!”

Old Yu was furious at the sight of this, but no one was even standing with him at this point.

“Lin Ran!”

Song Nuan saw this and pulled at Lin Ran's clothes, as if she wanted him to explain.

But Lin Ran just shook his head and didn't say much.

"Alright folks, let's continue handing out money!"

Lin Ran laughed.

"Good!"

Some of the remaining villagers who hadn't handed in their herbs yet also went up and handed them over, getting their money at the same time.

When everyone had finished handing them over, Lin Ran then gathered his emotions and spoke.

"I still say that those who didn't participate today can also participate tomorrow, no matter what the reason is, as long as they are willing to make a fortune through their own efforts, I, Lin Ran, welcome it!"

"But if anyone wants to get something for nothing, from today onwards I, Lin Ran, put the word out that anyone who steals will be turned over to the Public Security Bureau!"

"You!"

Hearing Lin Ran's words, Old Yu couldn't help but tremble with anger, he had just thought about how to steal some herbs to sell to Lin Ran, only to have his thoughts crushed by Lin Ran as soon as they started.

"Gentlemen!"

Suddenly, Song Nuan also stood out, looked at the crowd, and spoke.

"Lin Ran doesn't want to talk about it, but there are some things I must make clear to you all, since I am the head of a village, I can't let anyone be wronged!"

Song Nuan said as she swept her gaze over the crowd and finally landed on Old Yu.

"The difference of five yuan for this honeysuckle, Lin Ran never wanted to take it all for himself!"

"Didn't think much of swallowing it up alone, what a lie! Who has a problem with money!"

Old Yu said unconvincingly.

Song Nuan smiled at his words, however.

"You wouldn't understand, Lin Ran doesn't lack money at all!"

Said Song Nuan, sweeping her gaze over the crowd and saying aloud.

"Lin Ran's assets are at least a hundred million, do you guys think Lin Ran is short of money?"

"One hundred million?"

"My god, that's a lot of money!"

"Lin Ran is really capable!"

At once all the villagers were abuzz.

“One hundred million? How good would it be to simply give everyone a share of such money?”

Old Yu sneered.

“Split it up? On what basis? Just because you’re lazy and lazy? You can’t even feed this money to the pigs!”

Song Nuan said disdainfully.

“You!”

Old Yu was furious.

And Song Nuan was looking at the believers and said in a serious tone.

“Lin Ran has come back this time to help us all get out of poverty and become rich, he is rich, even if he gives you all a million dollars, so what if you don’t make money yourselves, there will be a time when this money will run out, teaching people to fish is better than teaching them to fish! Don’t you understand this principle?”

Said Song Nuan, pointing at Lin Ran.

“He just wants you guys to have the skills to be able to make money on your own, so that your offspring can also make money on their own, this is the way to develop in the long run at this point!”

“Besides, do you guys know what that five dollar difference is going to do?”

“I don’t know!”

The villagers looked confused and shook their heads one after another.

Song Nuan’s eyes went red and she said.

“That is the starting capital of the cooperative, in the future the cooperative that is the cooperative of all Linjiawan villagers, even we have planned the future development path of the village, wait for six months later, the difference price of these five pieces at least two million funds, then we will take it all out to renovate the houses for everyone!”

“Don’t you want to live in a house with water and electricity and in a better environment?”

“Renovate the house?”

“The village will pay for it?”

In the past, they wouldn’t have dared to think about it, who didn’t have money to build a new house, but now the village chief said that the village would pay for it in the future.

“That’s a parental official!”

The old village chief said excitedly.

He looked at the crowd and said excitedly with tears in his eyes.

“This is the hope of our Linjiawan, what the other village chief Song said is fair, do you understand?”

“Understood!”

At once all the villagers became excited.

Although Song Nuan had not said much, he had given the villagers a real glimpse of the future, a glimpse that the Linjiawan they lived in would become better in the future!
