

Wonder Doctor

Chapter 921

The road was repaired under Lin Ran's strong pressure? In the end, Ah Hui and Bai Cai compromised and had the road repaired within a day, so that Lin Jiawan's road to prosperity was once again open.

However, although all these matters were resolved, Lin Ran knew clearly that if he did not remove the conflict between Boss Bai and Bai Cai and himself, they would come back again.

But Boss Bai and Bai Cai were the kind of people who were so calculating that it would be difficult to settle their grudges.

"Don't worry about them, we're not afraid of him. If they're doing anything disruptive, we can call the police, and when they arrest them, we'll have peace in Linjiawan!"

Song Nuan said angrily, these two times, fortunately they did not succeed, otherwise it would affect the road to wealth for so many people in Linjiawan.

"If something really happens that can be sentenced, I'm afraid that our Linjiawan will also have to be greatly affected, it is best to take this matter as it is!"

Lin Ran said.

Nowadays, Lin Jiawan's development had just started, and the village only had one economic source of herb picking, so they and Bai Gou Village could not afford to toss and turn, but later on, if there were more industries and more ways to make money, then they could turn around and settle the score with Bai Gou Village.

"As long as they don't go too far, we can put up with it for the time being, but as long as it's something that involves development, we absolutely can't put up with it!"

Lin Ran's eyes narrowed slightly, he still saw things very clearly when it came to some things.

.....

The next half month, the village of Bai Gou was calm again, not knowing if some new plot was brewing.

The villagers are now wealthy in hand and talk home with a bit of happiness.

This day, Lin Ran and Song Nuan came to town together, because today was the day of Song Nuan's meeting, and also to see if the grant for renovating houses in the new countryside that was applied for last time had come down.

Although Chen Xi's side is almost a month old, she has not contacted him yet, so he is not in a hurry as the rendering is not yet ready.

He went to a teahouse opposite the office building and sat down. Lin Ran ordered a pot of tea and drank it while he meditated and cultivated.

Since returning to Lin Jiawan for the past two months, his mind had calmed down along with him, and the absence of the previous hustle and bustle of the city had also made his entire mind more ethereal.

“Kid! This Heaven Seizing Realm of yours is considered solid, but if you want to have another breakthrough, you still need to work hard!”

Pillow Book jumped out at just the right time, back in the village this guy was like hibernating and rarely popped out, but he also understood that most of the time Pillow Book was with Little Nine.

After all, Lin Ran was too busy with the village every day to take care of Xiao Jiu, and Xiao Jiu’s status was somewhat embarrassing, so if he appeared in the village, I’m afraid the villagers would speculate indiscriminately, and for the village people reputation was very important, unlike in the city where few people knew him.

If Xiao Jiu is rumoured to be his illegitimate daughter in the village, he will be fine, but he is afraid that his grandmother will not be able to bear it.

Drinking tea while cultivating his body and soul, such a life was a rare occasion for Lin Ran to relax.

The time passed, and soon half an hour had passed. Lin Ran stopped meditating and figured that Song Nuan would have finished his meal, so he got up and paid the bill and walked out of the tea house.

“Hmm?”

Suddenly, Lin Ran saw a BMW behind his car at some point.

It was just that although the BMW was parked in a good location, the people on it were really too unqualified.

The car door was wide open near the side of the road, and the already not very wide road was directly reduced by a few dozen centimeters again.

And it was just at noon, at the peak of the off-duty period, the road was already full of cars, and he still did this, making the cars on the road drive cautiously.

“Hey hey! Watch out!”

Suddenly, a granny’s cry of alarm rang out, and Lin Ran turned his head to look and realised that not far behind the car, an old granny boarded a tricycle and happened to come over, but at that moment the middle of the road was full of cars, so she had no place to go.

But the door of the BMW was still blocking the way, and the old woman hurriedly braked, but the distance was too tight and she was about to collide with it.

“Watch out!”

Lin Ran saw the situation quickly, an arrow step directly to the BMW, followed by a slap to close the BMWs, while hands directly on the old woman’s tricycle head, which will stop the car, otherwise if this load up, with the old woman’s physical quality, I’m afraid also have to be very sick.

“Shit! Who the hell closed the door of my car!”

Lin Ran had just stopped on his side when a young man’s cursing voice came from inside the car, followed by the car door opening again.

“It’s none of your business if I’m fucking resting here, damn it! Do you know you’re touching my foot?”

The youth cursed as he got out of the car, and then saw the tricycle close at hand, and his heart burst with fear.

“Holy shit! How come there’s a tricycle, can’t you fucking ride it, it’s so close to my car, can you afford to pay for it? Old thing!”

Seeing that the other party was an old granny, the youth became even more arrogant.

Lin Ran turned his head to look at him, and his brows couldn’t help but frown slightly.

This was a young man wearing a white shirt with very neatly combed hair, and he was quite human looking, but there was an indecency between his brows, and he was obviously a very calculating person.

“Have you had enough of cursing? Are you speaking human words at such a young age?”

Lin Ran said in a cold voice.

“None of your business, I haven’t said anything about you, you’re the one who shut my car door, right? What right do you have to shut my car door!”

The youth said in a cold voice.

“Then what right do you have to open your car door openly on the road, is the road run by your family?”

Lin Ran coldly retorted, he did not expect this youth in front of him to be so unreasonable, simply you are a scoundrel.

“Old me willing, fuck you want to drive you have a car? Poor loser!”

Disdainfully glancing at Lin Ran, the youth sneered.

“O? Is that so?”

Lin Ran laughed at this.

“Old granny, you go first, take your time on the bike!”

Lin Ran laughed, wanting to let the old granny go first.

“Go? I’m letting her go, I haven’t checked the other places yet, in case it cuts somewhere else, you still want to go without paying for it?”

The youth was unrelenting.

Lin Ran, however, directly blocked in front of the old woman and laughed.

“If it cuts the road, I’ll pay for it! I’m poor and only have money left!”

“Young man, thank you! But granny I’m not afraid of anything, I’ll just wait here and let him check!”

The old granny also had a lot of backbone and just got off and stood by, waiting.

“Good! How interesting, one is poor and has only money left, and the other still lets me check, so you can stand still! Don’t resist running away later!”

The youth sneered.

Lin Ran also laughed at this, glanced at his watch and said blandly.

“Then you’ll have to hurry up comrade scum, I don’t have much time to play with you!”

“Who the fuck are you calling scum?”

The youth was instantly furious at his words.

Lin Ran, however, stretched out his hand and laughed blandly.

“Who else could it be but you, someone’s tricycle is passing on your left and you’re running to the right to check, I think you’re not only scum, but also an idiot! The brain-damaged kind!”

Chapter 922

“You!”

The youth was so angry that his face turned blue, and by now some passers-by had gathered around to watch, much to his displeasure.

“All right! I won’t give you a hard time, just take a thousand dollars and forget about it!”

“A thousand yuan? I only make a few hundred dollars a month collecting rags, and I didn’t touch you, so why should I give you a thousand dollars?”

The old woman quit when she heard that.

“If you don’t touch it, you won’t pay. You’ve wasted a lot of time. I’d have had to go to the shop to get it repaired. Remember, next time you see a good car, stay away from it, you dare to come to the side of any broken tricycle, you are not afraid to pay yourself to death!”

The youth said with disdain.

“Old granny, you should go first, there’s nothing to say to such a scoundrel!”

Lin Ran turned his head and looked at the old granny.

“But ...”

The old granny was a little hesitant, if she left, then wouldn’t the other party have to take Lin Ran to task.

“Don’t worry!”

Lin Ran smiled, looking calm, which made the old granny feel a surge of relief.

“Alright then!”

The old granny compromised and instantly got onto the tricycle to leave.

“Who told you to go, give me”

The youth saw this and tried to go up to stop him, however Lin Ran was in front of him.

“Kid! You’re fucking looking for death!”

The youth’s face sank as he raised his hand and slammed his fist in front of Lin Ran.

However, before his fist could land, a black shadow suddenly flashed past, followed by a “pop”, and the youth was immediately knocked against his car.

“Try swearing one more time!”

Lin Ran looked at the youth and said in a cold voice, just now the old woman was here and he didn’t want to make a move, but now that the latter had already left, he wouldn’t follow the youth politely.

“You!”

The youth’s face was blue and half of his face was even redder, obviously he had just come to use Lin Ran’s slap with a lot of force.

“You almost hit my car, and you still dare to hit someone, is there any king’s law left!”

The youth said angrily.

Lin Ran smiled at his words, however.

“You said it yourself, you almost hit it, did we hit it? You want a thousand dollars for not bumping into us, I’m really curious! On what grounds!”

“On what basis? Just because I’m a BMW! If it did, can you afford to pay for it? Bastard!”

The young man said coldly, his eyes full of disdain.

At this time, many people were gathered around, and when they heard the youth’s words, they couldn’t help but look at Lin Ran and point at him, and they even had sympathy in their hearts.

“Who can you mess with but a BMW driver?”

“That’s right, looking at his outfit, he must be from the village, hey! He doesn’t know how to behave!”

“No, he’s a rich man who can drive a BMW!”

“This kid is in trouble!”

Lin Ran turned a deaf ear to the words of the people, just looked at the youth and smiled.

“You drive a BMW and you want a dollar for someone almost running into you, so how much do you have to pay me for this car? Ten thousand is not too much!”

Lin Ran said and patted the Porsche in front of the BMW, at once everyone present froze, including the youth.

But they were only stunned for a moment, and then everyone, including the youth, suddenly laughed.

The youth even pointed at Lin Ran and laughed from ear to ear.

“Your car? Do you know what kind of car it is? It’s also your car, you can only buy one by selling your entire body’s organs almost!”

“This is my car, don’t you believe me?”

Lin Ran was serious.

And at this moment, the people around couldn’t help but speak up as they watched.

“Kid! This is the latest model of Porsche from last year, it’s at least a million or so!”

“Moreover, this license plate is obviously from Temperance City, our town’s license plate doesn’t start with a Temperance City opening!”

“You’re dressed up like a nearby village, you can’t even lie, so don’t hold on to it!”

The chatter of the people around him made the youth laugh even more, pointing at Lin Ran and saying.

“Kid, I can understand that you don’t have money, big deal, I just don’t want it,? I really don’t care about a thousand dollars, but there’s no need for you to act like a fool, right?”

“You don’t care about a thousand dollars, but I do care about ten thousand dollars!”

Lin Ran said and fished out the keys from his pocket, and at once the laughter of the youth and the people around him was restrained.

“Why aren’t you laughing anymore?”

Lin Ran looked at the crowd and slowly aimed the key at the Porsche and pressed it down after him.

“Weng!”

In an instant, everyone felt their heads go weng, as if they had been blown up by lightning, only to see the Porsche next to them actually flashing.

“There must be someone in the car! Yes there must be someone!”

The youth did not believe it and immediately ran to open the door, but the car was empty where there was no one inside.

“Hey! What are you doing? This is not a cheap car, what if a piece of paint falls off if you touch it? Twenty thousand!”

Lin Ran said.

“You!”

The youth was so scared that he hastily retracted his hand and looked at Lin Ran with anger on his face.

“Bastard! So rich driving a Porsche, what’s the point of pretending to be a poor loser, is it fun to pretend to be poor?”

“Give me the money!”

Lin Ran didn't care about the expression on the youth's face and directly extended his hand for money.

"You!"

The youth was so angry that his face turned blue and he gritted his teeth.

"You're already driving this car, do you still care about 20,000!"

"I care, how much is money, you can't take a beanbag and not use it as dry food!"

Lin Ran said with a straight face.

"Besides, you even have the nerve to ask an old granny collecting rags for a thousand when you drive a BMW, what's wrong with me asking you for 20,000, don't give a crap about paying!"

Lin Ran said.

"What if I don't give it!"

The youth's face sank, 20,000 was still a bit of a pain for him, after all, it was two months' salary, although his job was to drink tea and read newspapers, but it was his own money after all.

"No? That's fine, I'll give you ten slaps for the slap you just gave me, and we'll call it a day!"

Lin Ran laughed.

"You!"

The youth's face became even more ugly, he didn't want to pay, but if he was slapped ten times, he wouldn't want to lose his face.

Especially at this time, the youth noticed that people had started to come out of the office building across the street, so he couldn't take the beating any more.

"Forget it, I'll give it to you, but you're not allowed to pick a fight!"

The youth said.

"Fine!"

Lin Ran immediately smiled, this can get 20,000, simply not too happy, the village is speeding up the construction, 20,000 is not much, but to join the cooperative, that is also an income is not!

The youth took out his mobile phone and quickly transferred 20,000 to Lin Ran, and then said in a cold voice.

"The money is also given to you, from now on we'll pretend we don't know each other!"

The youth said and put away his mobile phone, turned around and got into his car and made a U-turn and drove towards the opposite side.

"Hm?"

Lin Ran saw this and had some understanding in his heart, this guy finally agreed to give the money so quickly, I'm afraid that the person he was waiting for was coming out.

“Xiao Nuan is also coming out instead!”

Lin Ran smiled and immediately got into his car and drove over as well, waiting at the entrance.

The youth saw this and frowned slightly, but when he saw that Lin Ran had no intention of going up to talk to him, he put his heart down.

“We’ll pick up the person and go straight away later, save this guy from looking for trouble!”

The youth thought in his mind, and at the same time, he could already see a beautiful beauty in the crowd walking towards the door, not exactly the target he was waiting for, Song Nuan, the village head of Lin Jia Wan!

Chapter 923

“Nuan!”

The youth greeted him in a loud voice.

Song Nuan looked over and couldn’t help but be stunned, muttering in his mind “Why is this guy here too? Today doesn’t seem to be his day for meetings!”

“Hmm?”

Suddenly, Song Nuan also saw Lin Ran next to her and only then did her frown relax, but Meng Yu had called out to her first after all, so she politely went to greet the latter first.

“What brings you here?”

Song Nuan smiled.

“I came to pick you up, last time you didn’t take advantage of my car, I thought it might not be too convenient for you to go back this time, so I purposely came to pick you up!”

Meng Yu laughed.

Song Nuan smiled but was stunned, and in her heart she somewhat understood what this guy meant.

Next to him, Lin Ran also looked stunned, not expecting that the person this kid was waiting for would actually be Song Nuan, this would be a good show.

“No need, my boyfriend is here this time!”

Song Nuan laughed, she had no idea about this Meng Yu, at this moment she naturally said a double entendre, rejecting him and at the same time making the other party understand that she had a boyfriend.

“Boyfriend? Xiao Nuan you’re joking, you’re also a college student going to the countryside, did your family members come with you? And I haven’t heard you say you have a boyfriend!”

Meng Yu didn’t believe it, last time Song Nuan hadn’t mentioned having a boyfriend.

“You’re mistaken, my boyfriend is from Linjiawan!”

Song Nuan laughed, while waving her hand to leave.

“Wait!”

Meng Yu suddenly spoke up.

“There’s something else?”

Song Nuan turned her head to look at him.

“Xiao Nuan, your boyfriend is from Lin Jiawan?”

Meng Yu frowned slightly, looking a little surprised.

“What? Surprised?”

Song Nuan wondered, what was wrong with her boyfriend being from Lin Jia Wan? Is there something wrong with that?

“Xiao Nuan, I see that you are not too old, you should have just graduated, this society is treacherous and people’s hearts are complicated, how can you, a college student village official who came from the countryside, find a local village man as your boyfriend? And”

“And what?”

Song Nuan frowned, not understanding what exactly Meng Yu was going to say.

“And don’t you know? Linjiawan is the poorest village around the whole town, you’re so pretty, how can you find a boyfriend in this poor village? It won’t help your future, and it will ruin the rest of your life!”

Meng Yu said in a serious manner.

“And think about it, if you do marry in Linjiawan, won’t you be fixed in this poor village for the rest of your life in the future, do you want to live like that?”

“You’re thinking too much, I have money of my own!”

Song Nuan frowned, Meng Yu’s words made her heart very unhappy, although Linjiawan was poor now, but that didn’t mean it would be poor in the future, his words were clearly saying that Linjiawan would also be this poor in the future, completely not believing in his own ability.

“Xiao Nuan then you should be even more careful, you have money the other party is still a poor man in the village, that is not clearly thinking of your money!”

Meng Yu said.

“You’re going too far!”

Song Nuan frowned tightly, somewhat unable to listen to it anymore.

“What kind of boyfriend I find is my freedom and it has nothing to do with you, and besides, Linjiawan is poor now, but I believe that with our efforts together, Linjiawan will definitely get rid of this poverty hat!”

“Lastly, my boyfriend is richer than me, I don’t think he is greedy for my money!”

After saying that Song Nuan turned around and was about to leave, she was already too lazy to bullshit with this Meng Yu Bai.

“Having money? Oh!”

Meng Yu suddenly laughed, a sinister laugh, hearing Song Nuan immediately stop again and turned to look at Meng Yu.

“What exactly do you want?”

“Xiao Nuan, I’m really afraid that you’ll be fooled, if you’re such a pretty girl, there are many perverts staring at you!”

Meng Yu said in a serious manner, then patted his car seemingly intentionally or unintentionally and laughed.

“You said your boyfriend is rich, I wonder what kind of car he drives? Have you checked whose name his car is registered under? It mustn’t be a rental!”

“You!”

Song Nuan heard her face sink, clearly already angry.

“It’s none of your business!”

After saying that, Song Nuan turned around and was about to leave.

“Hey!”

Meng Yu was a little anxious at the sight and hurriedly followed, he had just wanted Song Nuan to understand that his might have fallen for it, but he didn’t expect Song Nuan and that so-called boyfriend to be so affectionate and actually get angry.

Meng Yu chased after him while his face began to look ugly, he found that the direction Song Nuan ran was actually where Lin Ran was standing.

He was picking up girls now, if he let this guy interfere again then I’m afraid things would not go well.

“Why are you still standing!”

Song Nuan came in front of Lin Ran and said in a bit of anger.

At this moment Lin Ran was standing in front of Song Nuan, those who knew the two knew each other, those who didn’t thought that Lin Ran was blocking Song Nuan’s way, apparently Meng Yu thought so.

“Kid, here’s five hundred! Disappear immediately!”

Meng Yu didn’t dare to say more, so he went up and took out five hundred yuan and handed it directly to Lin Ran, saying.

He was also afraid that Lin Ran would reveal what he had just done, if that happened, I was afraid that with Song Nuan’s character, he would have absolutely no chance.

“Five thousand!”

Lin Ran turned his head to look at Meng Yu and said with a smile.

“You!”

Meng Yu’s face twitched as she listened, asking for five thousand with her mouth, this girl really thought she was an ATM machine!

“Don’t you go too far!”

Meng Yu looked at Lin Ran and gritted her teeth.

“What just happened was a bit tongue-in-cheek, let me think about what to say!”

Lin Ran said, scratching his head.

Song Nuan, who was still a bit angry at Lin Ran for not going over to help himself, was not only dumbfounded when she saw this situation at this moment, but she had followed Lin Ran for a long time and knew that this guy was always surprised, so she didn’t say anything at this moment and just watched quietly from the side.

She did not look better, this look, Meng Yu as a man’s temperament came up, a clenched teeth nodded.

“Five thousand, just five thousand, take the money and disappear immediately!”

He took out his mobile phone and transferred five thousand to Lin Ran.

Seeing the money arrive, Lin Ran immediately smiled.

“Okay boss, let’s go right away!”

Said Lin Ran as he greeted Song Nuan and got into the car.

“Hey hey! What are you doing? Laozi told you to go, who told to take her with you!”

Meng Yu was instantly anxious.

Lin Ran and the two men both turned their heads to look at him at his words, especially Song Nuan who couldn’t help but have a smile in his eyes already.

“Brother, is it alright if you pay me to leave!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“No problem!”

Meng Yu nodded his head, it was indeed no problem.

“Then I’m coming to pick up my girlfriend, is it a problem to take my girlfriend with me when I’m all gone?”

Lin Ran continued.

“No me!”

Meng Yu had no problem before he could finish his sentence, he immediately felt his head spin,
“Girlfriend? Song Nuan’s boyfriend is actually this kid?”

“I’m sorry, her boyfriend is me, driving a Porsche, and I’m really from Linjiawan, the richest man in Linjiawan! She really doesn’t need to follow me and suffer!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“You guys! You guys are a group out to scam money!”

Meng Yu was so angry that he could hardly cry, it was only a few hours and he had lost 25,000, the key was that he thought he was doing it for love, but it turned out that love wasn’t even his!

“Brother! Remember, prying into a wall is not something a gentleman does, bye!”

After saying that, Lin Ran took Song Nuan straight to his car and set off in a burst of engine noise.

“Bastard!”

Meng Yu was so angry that he kicked the pole next to him, the pole didn’t do anything, instead it waited for him to cover his foot in a hurry.

“Bastard! Pit the old man! If this account doesn’t count, I’m not Meng Yu!”

Chapter 924

On the way back to the village, Lin Ran told Song Nuan what had happened before, and listened to Song Nuan’s anger, especially when he heard that Meng Yu had actually made things difficult for the old granny, he even said straight away how he hadn’t seen it before, that this guy was such a bastard.

And Lin Ran also learnt the identity of the other party, which turned out to be the village secretary of Bai Gou Village.

But he also understood, so what if he was the village secretary of Bai Gou Village, in Bai Gou Village, everything was still not up to Boss Bai, he was a landlord, in Bai Gou Village, he had a hand in the sky, although Meng Yu was the village secretary, but in Bai Gou Village, he basically had no real power.

He also heard from Dalong that Meng Yu had been arranged by Boss Bai to work in the village’s paper mill, as a deputy general manager, and was paid daily.

The two of them are unspoken.

“Such assholes are really abominable!”

Song Nuan thought about this reasoning, and her heart was also more angry.

Her father, Song Yujiang, was her role model growing up, so for people like Meng Yu who only knew that money and didn’t do anything, she was also disgusted and pained.

“Forget it, there’s no need to get angry over this kind of person!”

Lin Ran said with relief.

“Mmm!”

Song Nuan nodded, but there was still anger on her face.

“By the way, how did the meeting go this time?”

Lin Ran saw this and changed the subject.

“It went well, the approval has been passed, the money will be allocated tomorrow recently, just wait for your side of the design to come out, and we can start talking about cooperation!”

Song Nuan laughed, but followed with a slight frown.

“But the money to build the house, our co-op doesn’t seem to have enough!”

Song Nuan said.

The two of them had discussed this matter before, and they had calculated it according to the six months of medicine picking, so that the cooperative would have a few million in savings by then, but now the full count was less than two, and the purple gold of the cooperative was not enough, and I am afraid that the village names did not have much money in their hands either, although they only used ten percent, but this was not a small amount.

“Don’t worry! Even if the plans come out, it will take almost half a month for the contract to be signed and construction to begin.

“As for the final payment, the renovation of the whole village still needs to ensure that the villagers have a place to live, so they can only build and demolish at the same time, so by the time they are all finished three or four months will have passed, and by then the cooperative will have enough money to pay the final payment!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“You’re really!”

Song Nuan was also convinced as she listened, she was worried about this before, but now it seemed that Lin Ran had thought of it all.

“Then we’ll tell the villagers about it tonight!”

Song Nuan laughed.

Lin Ran smiled but shook his head and said.

“Don’t say anything for now!”

“Why?”

Song Nuan didn’t understand.

Lin Ran, however, laughed and said.

“In the village, the house is something bigger than even the sky, it’s definitely not good to move forward if you talk to them directly, I’ve already thought about it, when the design plan comes out, let them first get the first house that starts out, then we’ll move in first and then start demolishing it from my house!”

“You are thinking!”

Song Nuan smiled and immediately understood Lin Ran’s intention.

“That’s right, to set an example, at the same time this first set of houses built out will also let the villagers see the effect, at the same time it will make them envious, then when we go to talk about the renovation of the whole village, it will be much smoother!”

“You’re really something!”

Song Nuan said with a smile, at this moment she also had to admire Lin Ran’s resourcefulness, this way when we talk about the renovation of the houses at a later stage, it would indeed be much smoother.

The two of them talked while rushing to the super village, however on the other side.

.....

Meng Yu, who had just returned to Bai Gou village, found Boss Bai straight away.

“Village Chief Bai, who is Lin Ran?”

“Hm?”

Boss Bai was harboring fire in his heart, and when he heard Meng Yu’s words, he frowned slightly.

Meng Yu was very afraid of Boss Bai, after all, a strong dragon cannot suppress a snake on the ground, how could he not dare to act rudely in Bai Gou Village.

“No, you misunderstood, Chief Bai, I just want to inquire about this person Lin Ran!”

“Lin Jiawan, what’s wrong? Did he piss you off?”

Boss Bai asked with a frown.

“Sort of, is this man very rich?”

Meng Yu asked afterwards.

“I haven’t heard of it, but this man has some tricks up his sleeve!”

Boss Bai said.

“Chief Bai, the last time you asked me about Song Nuan’s meeting, I knew you were planning to deal with her... Let’s not be frank, I like Song Nuan! So I want to deal with Lin Jean, I can give you an idea, as long as it can be done, they both have to be finished, when the time comes I will find a way to pick up Song Nuan, will you do this!”

Meng Yu suddenly said in a cold voice with slightly narrowed eyes.

“O? What plan? Tell me!”

Old Man Bai laughed out loud.

All along, Meng Yu had given him the impression of being the kind of gentry who waited for death, but he didn’t expect to be quite like himself.

“It’s very simple!”

Meng Yu said and immediately came forward to talk with Boss Bai.

As they talked, both of them had a cold smile on their faces.

A moment later, Meng Yu’s voice got a few moments louder and laughed.

“Moreover, even if things go wrong in the east, with your methods of finding two scapegoats, you can’t blame us for this!”

“The plan is okay, but I have to think about it!”

Boss White knocked on the table and thought about it.

“Yes, take your time, it will take at least another week to implement it anyway!”

Meng Yu laughed, while turning around and leaving the office.

.....

Two days passed peacefully.

This morning, Lin Ran was about to get up, when suddenly Song Nuan was running in from outside with an excited face.

“Saw it! Saw it!”

“Saw what? Missy, I’m wearing my underwear!”

Lin Ran was stunned and hurriedly covered herself with the blanket.

“What the hell, I said I saw the text message!”

Song Nuan was stunned and her pretty face couldn’t help but blush as she busily changed the subject.

“The text message is here!”

“What text message?”

Lin Ran was busy putting on his clothes and running over.

“A text message from the money on the card!”

Song Nuan said excitedly.

When Lin Ran took a look at the text message, he also froze, boy a lot of money!

“Is this the grant applied for?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

“Yes! Now the money has arrived, all that’s missing is the design company’s side!”

Song Nuan was very excited, the renovation of the house was definitely a big project for Lin Jiawan, and now that it had started so well, it also gave her hope.

“Good! I’ll call and ask now, we can’t let the construction company drop the ball!”

Lin Ran was also very excited, picking up her mobile phone and calling Chen Xi.

Previously, Lin Ran hadn’t had the heart to contact people this month because of this nee-san’s poisoning, but at this moment, the east wind had arrived just short of this design plan of hers, even if he was embarrassed, he couldn’t wait.

“Hey! How can you call me now? I thought you didn’t want the design either!”

As soon as the phone was connected, Chen Xi’s resentful voice came from inside.

“No I’m just too busy, by the way are the designs out yet?”

Lin Ran asked awkwardly.

Chapter 925

“I came out three days ago, and I still keep my appointments, but you can’t have a girl reaching out to you!”

Chen Xi said.

Lin Ran heard but a moment of embarrassment and laughed.

“Just come out, just come out, then I’ll go straight to the company this afternoon, I’ll see you at the company!”

With that, Lin Ran hung up the phone, at this time, Song Nuan was still beside him, he was also afraid that this Chen Xi said something nonsense, so that Song Nuan in heard the persecuted or himself.

“What’s wrong?”

Seeing that Lin Ran’s face was a bit off, Song Nuan was busy asking.

“Nothing, that afternoon to go to the company to look at the design, you want to go?”

Lin Ran asked, in fact he wanted Song Nuan to go with him, after all, taking a woman with him Chen Xi wouldn’t be able to do anything to him, but he couldn’t say it explicitly, so as to look like he was a bit weak-minded.

“I don’t have to go, I have to count the houses in the village this afternoon, make a financial statement, and plan the use of the money applied for, as well as the details of the expenses later on!”

Song Nuan said.

Seeing that she still had so many things to do, Lin Ran was too embarrassed to say anything else, and it was worth going on his own with a stiff upper lip.

.....

In the afternoon, Lin Ran arrived at the construction company on time and met Chen Xi in Xiao Zhang’s office.

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

Although it was hard for him to be interested in other women now, in the end, he had taken advantage of her last time, and if she had to come over, Lin Ran couldn't help it.

So it was better to be careful with everything.

"This is the design, brother Lin Ran, take a look at it first!"

Xiao Zhang, as the company's side, was naturally the first to get the design drawings.

Lin Ran took the lead, picked up the effect drawing and looked at it, and was instantly attracted to the design.

The design was a very Chinese style house, and it was a small three-storey building, and there was even a fence around it, the whole house looked ancient, and it fitted in very well with Lin Jiawan's.

"Linjiawan I understand some, also looked up information on the internet, this is a very beautiful small mountain village, so the design style is biased towards Chinese classical style, and I consider that the current development of mountain villages in the end are inseparable from the tourism holiday nongjiajie elements."

"So the house is designed with three floors, which can provide an accommodation business, while the fenced courtyard can also provide a good place to relax and eat in the summer!"

Speaking here, Chen Xi frowned and continued.

"But according to the previous practice, the development of agrotourism will inevitably cause environmental pollution in the mountain village, which is contrary to my original design intention, so this fence yard can be decided according to the situation whether to take it or not!"

Looking at Chen Xi's serious talk, Lin Ran also sighed with relief and nodded his head.

"What you say makes sense, but this kind of problem will definitely not exist in Lin Jia Wan!"

"Why?"

Chen Xi asked, she actually didn't want to remove the fence yard as it was part of her design, but there were times when design was design and reality would still give way to design.

"Because there is very little food to develop in Lin Jia Wan, and even a meal will be hard to come by in the future!"

Lin Ran said with a straight face.

He had actually been thinking about this matter for a long time.

Although there were many delicacies on the back of the mountain, if every household in the village opened a home, even if the resources in the back of the mountain were rich, there would be an oversupply, so the strategy Lin Ran had developed was that tourism was the main focus and herbal medicine was the supplement! As for the farmhouse, it was directly provided in limited quantities.

"But won't this be a constraint on the village's development?"

Chen Xi asked, she had been involved in a lot of new rural construction, so she knew more or less about this situation.

Trying to develop the economy quickly would inevitably affect the environment, which was a difficult issue to reconcile.

“You’re wrong!”

Lin Ran listened but shook his head.

“Initially, there may be constraints, but if the village makes a complete name for itself, what it will bring then will not be constraints, but a following! No matter when the village develops, it cannot be at the expense of the environment, that’s the bottom line!”

“Then do you still want this fence yard!”

Chen Xi asked.

“Yes!”

Lin Ran nodded straight away.

“But there’s one thing that needs to be changed!”

Lin Ran said.

“The table in the fenced courtyard goes away and is replaced with a stone table more suitable for people to play chess and drink tea!”

“What do you mean!”

Chen Xi was suddenly thoughtful, somewhat understanding Lin Ran’s way of development.

Imagine if one had a cup of tea in the courtyard early in the morning and played two games of chess with friends it seemed that this state of life would seem more suitable for a small mountain village than a smoky barbecue every night.

“You don’t need to change the design plan for this request, just replace it when you build it!”

Chen Xi said.

Lin Ran nodded his head, indicating that there was no problem.

“Brother Lin Ran, since everything else is fine, what about this contract do you think?”

Xiao Zhang laughed at the side.

Lin Ran nodded at his words and said.

“Everything else is fine, the contract can be signed at any time, but there are a few things to discuss before signing it!”

Saying that Lin Ran then told the two of them about his plan to build a model house first, and then there was mention that the village renovation needed to be built first before the old one could be demolished, so as to advance little by little, after all, we can't let the villagers have no place to live!

For this problem, obviously Xiao Zhang and the others were more experienced and said that there was no problem, and that it would not even take a month to build a model house.

This still made Lin Ran very satisfied.

The two sides quickly signed a contract, while Lin Ran paid a deposit, and finally agreed that workers would be dispatched to the village tomorrow to start building the first model house.

After all, the most important thing for a village is its appearance. When the appearance is changed and the roads are open, the village will have all the conditions to develop.

.....

From the company, Chen Xi still caught up with him.

"Thank you for the design, I'm very satisfied!"

Lin Ran laughed first, bringing the conversation back to work.

But Chen Xi clearly didn't want to talk about work.

"You haven't seen me for so long, and this is what you're telling me?"

"Or what?"

Lin Ran said awkwardly.

"Actually, I wanted to apologise to you, I was too reckless last time!"

Chen Xi suddenly spoke.

"You apologised to me?"

Lin Ran was stunned to hear this, it was obvious that he had taken advantage of her, how could she still apologise to herself.

"Last time I did lose some control over myself, now that I think about it I was too unreserved, although you kept saying you had a girlfriend, I don't know if it was true or not, but in the end you restrained yourself that time, from here I can also see that you are a decent man!"

Chen Xi said to herself.

"Although I don't know if you have a girlfriend or not, but from the personal charm I appreciate you, not round whether you will be friends or lovers in the future, you are a person I approve of!"

With that, Chen Xi waved her hand at Lin Ran and left with a smile.

Lin Ran looked stunned, he did not expect Chen Xi to be so open-minded, instead it was himself who had overthought.

But on second thought, it was also true, after all, even if Lin Ran was more charming, there couldn't always be someone who didn't care for him, and Lin Ran's current attitude was obviously that he didn't want to accept himself too much, so Chen Xi's openness seemed generous.

"Hey! It's pretty hard for me too!"

Lin Ran sighed helplessly, he did not want to hurt anyone, but also did not want anyone to be in love for themselves, instead of giving each other hope to make themselves uncomfortable, it is better to just cut off this hope, it is better for everyone.

Chapter 926

It was already evening back in the village.

Time always flies when you're busy, but Lin Ran was enjoying it too.

"Huh? Why didn't Da Long come to dinner?"

Lin Ran asked with a difference during dinner, usually Dalong came to his house for dinner, but tonight he was actually not seen.

"He said he was going to the widow Liu's house tonight!"

Song Nuan said with a white smile from the side.

"Widow Liu's house?"

Lin Ran was stunned to hear this, previously when Dalong was still a gangster he had an affair with Liu Widow, he didn't expect that now that he had reformed he would still be involved with her.

"The two of them can get together, it's good that Dalong is now a good person, Liu widow also really need someone to take care of, after all, small grow up every day,? There has to be a man in the family, right?"

Grandma laughed next to her.

"Let them go!"

Lin Ran laughed, he couldn't care less about such things, as long as everyone got along fine, then naturally he had no problem either.

After eating, Lin Ran prepared to rest, there was nothing to entertain him at night living in the village, he had always slept quite early, especially as the workers would be coming to the village tomorrow for construction, so he wanted to look forward to tomorrow coming early too.

However, while the ideas were plentiful, the reality was always unconventional.

He had just laid down and was not yet asleep when suddenly there was a tap on the door.

"Ran-ja! Otherwise, Renzi, something's happened! Come out quickly!"

Eiko's voice came from the doorway.

"What's wrong?"

Lin Ran responded as he hurriedly dressed and ran out, with Song Nuan following suit.

When he opened the door, he saw that Yingzi was covered in sweat, and Lin Ran couldn't help but be startled.

"It's Stone, Stone Dalong and the others, they've all fainted at the widow Liu's house!"

Yingzi said in a panic.

"Where are they?"

Lin Ran asked busily, hearing the implication that there were quite a few people unconscious!

"They're all at the widow Liu's house!"

"Let's go! Let's go to her house first and talk as we go!"

Lin Ran greeted him and ran towards Widow Liu's house with Shadow and Song Nuan in tow.

It was only on the way that they heard Yingzi explain.

It turned out that Da Long had gone to the widow's house for dinner tonight and invited Stone over for a drink, so Stone had gone to the widow's house for dinner tonight.

But when the meal was over and Stone hadn't returned, Yingzi ran to look for someone.

The three of them arrived at Liu's widow's house in the twinkling of an eye, and as soon as they entered Ben Lin Ran asked about the smell of wine, obviously the two hadn't been drinking much.

"Where are the people?"

Lin Ran asked busily.

"They're all in the living room!"

Yingzi led the two straight to the living room.

Sure enough, once they were in the living room, Lin Ran saw both Big Dragon Stone and Widow Liu lying on the floor, foaming at the mouth, somewhat unconscious.

"Stand still and don't come over!"

Lin Ran reminded him and hurriedly stepped forward, probing his fingers to take the pulse of the three.

At the same time, a wave of medical true qi had already invaded the three people's bodies, and the situation in their bodies was immediately clear.

"Food poisoning?"

Lin Ran was stunned, how could there be food poisoning in the village? And it was still summer, so it was only logical that this wouldn't be the case.

You know, the people of Lin Jia Wan were all very poor before, eating the last meal without the next, so everyone was very clear about what could and could not be eaten on the mountain.

As for the leftovers, forget about them, they can't even get enough for one meal, much less leftovers.

Although everyone has money in their hands these days, even fewer people are willing to spend money on meat, so food poisoning hardly ever happens in Linjiawan.

"Well?"

Song Nuan and Shadow waited on the sidelines very anxious.

"Food poisoning, I'll detoxify them first, Yingzi you watch the door don't let anyone in to touch anything here, Nuan you go and inform everyone to pay attention to their meals lately to prevent another food poisoning!"

Lin Ran quickly arranged, the two women immediately went to their own work upon hearing this.

While Lin Ran took out the silver needles and began to give the three of them acupuncture.

The food poisoning could be big or small, and Lin Ran had already understood after his probing that the poison the three had been poisoned with was somewhat uncommon, but it was not so deadly that they could recover after the detoxification, but their bodies should be weak for two days.

The silver needles fell one by one, and soon Lin Ran had inserted them into the key acupuncture points of the three.

"Yingzi, where's Ranzi?"

Suddenly, the voice of the second eldest came from the doorway, looking anxious.

"What's wrong?"

Yingzi asked busily.

"Second Grand Master I'm inside, what's wrong?"

Lin Ran asked busily, while already starting to remove the needle.

"It was Village Chief Song who asked me to come and inform you, just now she learned that Old Yu had also been poisoned!"

"What? Old Yu has been poisoned too?"

Lin Ran's heart sank at the sound of his words.

If it was a coincidence that Dalong and the three of them had been poisoned, but Old Yu was eating at his own house, so how could he have been poisoned too?

"Don't worry, your grandmother has already rushed over!"

Second Grand Master added.

Lin Ran nodded at his words.

Grandma also had her own pharmacopoeia booklet, and naturally knew about acupuncture, so she should be fine once she went to Lao Yu.

But this was only superficial, there was definitely something behind this succession of poisonings, and this was what Lin Ran was most worried about.

“Second Grand Master, you go straight to the village head! Yingzi, you go find Xiao Nuan and tell her to inform the group of the meeting at the village head!”

Lin Ran said.

“A meeting now?”

Yingzi was stunned, but seeing that Lin Ran wasn't joking, he immediately ran off to find Song Nuan.

The three of them soon gradually woke up, and when they saw Lin Ran they were all a little bewildered.

“What's happening to us?”

Big Dragon asked, shaking his head, as if his head still hurt a little.

“You've had food poisoning, the poison has been cleared up, but you still need to rest for two days! Can you walk?”

Lin Ran looked at the three.

“Not too bad!”

Big Dragon and Stone were both young and strong, and got up and tried to barely walk.

“Let's go! Go to the village head!”

Lin Ran said as he served Liu Widow up and the four of them rushed together towards the village head.

By now the loudspeaker had already sounded, the villagers had not followed Lin Ran and his group to make money recently, and when they heard that a meeting was going to be held at this time, they all scrambled forward and ran over.

Lin Ran sent the three of them to the village head first, and then went to pick up Song Nuan and Yingzi.

However, not long after they had run out, suddenly there was the sound of Erlong's shouting nearby.

Erlong is usually very well-behaved and basically does not bark, and he is so big and strong that other dogs do not dare to make a fuss in front of him.

But this time, Erlong's barking was obviously very urgent and carried a bit of hostility, as if it had encountered an enemy.

“Erlong!”

Lin Ran shouted, and ran in the direction of the Second Dragon, and a moment later he saw it behind a house.

The dragon was currently holding a black piece of what seemed to be cloth in its mouth, and there was blood on its leg, as if it had been injured.

“Erlong!”

Lin Ran greeted and went up to check, only to find that Er Long's leg was broken and blood was seeping out, fortunately it was not very serious, Lin Ran input a stream of true qi and wrapped it with the piece of cloth, only then did he take off the black piece of cloth from Er Long's mouth.

"This?"

The more Lin Ran looked at it, the stranger he found it, wasn't what Er Long was holding in his mouth a piece of cloth for clothes, and this kind of cloth was very common and could only be seen in the villages near Lin Jia Wan, as this kind of cloth didn't usually appear in the city, it was a very coarse cloth and was mostly used for farming only.

"Looks like someone really is up to no good!"

Lin Ran's eyes narrowed slightly, and he already had a guess in his mind.

Chapter 928

The Ancestral Hall is a place in Linjiawan where few people come, and was first used as a place for the village's ancestral shrine. So the ancestral hall slowly became an ancestral hall.

In the ancestral hall, there is also a statue of the Bodhisattva built at an unknown time, a big Buddha statue, but it has also become a bit precarious due to the age and disrepair.

"Don't you understand, old folks? You have offended the Mountain God, and this is the Mountain God taking revenge on you!"

In the ancestral hall, an old man with white hair was holding a floating dust with an agitated face, while beside him the villagers of Lin Jia Wan were gathered around.

"Master, how did we offend the Mountain God? We usually respect him!"

Immediately a villager asked.

"Don't say anything, listen to what the Master has to say!"

The Second Master was busy interrupting the villagers.

"Just listen to what the master has to say!"

Another villager beside him was busy saying.

Seeing that a group of villagers believed in him so much, the master was energised and with a wave of his hands he pointed from afar and laughed.

"If you have offended the Mountain God, then naturally it has something to do with this back mountain of yours! On my way here, I found out that the feng shui of your back mountain is the feng shui of the offering table, so the things on the back mountain cannot be touched!"

"Feng shui for the table? What do you mean?"

"Yes, what is table feng shui?"

"Master, can you say it in layman's terms?"

The villagers didn't understand, and the master smiled blandly at this and said.

"Well said! This so-called feng shui of the offering table is, to put it plainly, the place where the old mountain god enjoys his offerings!"

"This big mountain is like a table of offerings, and the things on the mountain are the offerings of the Mountain God, so it's not bad if they don't kill you immediately after you take their offerings!"

The master spoke in a very eloquent manner, as if this was really the case.

The villagers, on the other hand, all turned pale.

"What should we do then? If this offends the Mountain God Master, then won't we"

"No right Master, then many people in our village have taken it, how come something happened to the four of them alone?"

"Yes! What is this about?"

The villagers were busy asking again, and this time, before the master could say anything, a voice was already coming from the doorway.

"That's because it was an accident!"

"Hmm?"

The villagers were stunned and were busy turning their heads to look when they saw it was Lin Ran, they all couldn't help but gulp.

"Kid! Who are you?"

The Grandmaster followed suit with a frown when he saw Lin Ran, looking a little nervous.

"Lin Ran! Master, you talk a good game, but do you have any proof? You say that the four of them are the Mountain God Master taking revenge, then why are all the other villagers fine? Tell me instead, so that I can understand too!"

Lin Ran laughed, how could he possibly believe the guru's bullshit, but the villagers did, so he could only find an opportunity to poke him in public.

"This is simple!"

The Grandmaster said as he flung the floating dust in his hand and counted with his fingers.

"If I'm right, your Lin Family Bay must have recently claimed something from the back mountain on a large scale, and of those involved, the four of them definitely claimed the most, am I wrong?"

The Master had a smug look on his face and appeared to have a good idea of what to expect.

"Aiya, it's really not bad to be a master, it's like a golden mouth breaking a chapter!"

"Yes, even this can be right!"

"A master is indeed a master!"

The villagers all sighed in admiration when they heard it, but Song Nuan was frowning at it and was busy looking at Lin Ran.

If Lin Ran did not retort soon, I was afraid that the villagers would really believe this so-called master.

“Hehe!”

Lin Ran suddenly laughed, and at once all the villagers looked over, and the master also looked over, but there was disdain on his face.

“Master, this tactic of hoodwinking people is really something, even I almost believed it!”

“You call me a hoodwinker? What need does the old man have?”

The Grandmaster snorted coldly.

“I have been travelling the mountains and rivers for many years, today I happened to pass by your precious land and saw that the mountains and rivers were like this so I came in with good intentions to advise you, you actually said I was a monger, then fine I don’t care about this idle matter then, I will leave now!”

The master turned around and was about to leave.

“Master, don’t!”

“Master, you can’t leave, you haven’t said how to save us yet!”

“Yes, Master!”

The villagers saw this and stayed, Lin Ran also looked at it with a frown and immediately scolded.

“All right!”

“Use your brains and think about it, this master doesn’t come early and he doesn’t come late, just when something happened to the village last night, he comes today, don’t you think it’s a coincidence?”

“But Ranzi, this is a good indication that he is a master, he knows that something has happened to our village, so he has rushed here!”

The villagers whispered.

“Ridiculous!”

Lin Ran was completely furious at his words and pointed at the master in a cold voice.

“If a person who has truly attained the Way would he not threaten to leave in a few words? How dare you impersonate a master here when you don’t even have the heart of a bodhisattva?”

“But Ranzi, what they say is right, our village is the only one in which Dalong and the four of them have been poisoned, and the four of them have indeed made the most money recently!”

The Second Grand Master also stood up and asked, these questions were indeed a little difficult for them to understand.

If the master was a liar, he wouldn't even know so much about the medicine collection in Lin Jia Wan.

Lin Ran laughed at his words.

"Oh, second master, you guys use your brains, several hundred villagers in Linjiawan, did I ask you to keep this a secret when we pick medicine to make money? Couldn't other people know about it?"

"But this"

The second grandfather was a bit puzzled.

"Nothing but, but where a person knows that Linjiawan is picking medicine to make money, they can think who makes the most!"

"Medicine picking picking medicine, whoever picks more medicine will make money, our village in addition to the big dragon stone as well as Liu widow old Yu they are young and strong, the rest are either children or old people, who of you picking medicine can compare to them, as long as the discerning eye take a look, they will know our village picking medicine who makes more money!"

Said Lin Ran, sweeping his gaze over the crowd, and said in a cold voice.

"Now do you guys still think this is the master's skill?"

"This"

At once a kind of villagers all dawned on them and looked at the master, if that was true, then the other party clearly had an ulterior motive and had deliberately come to compel them.

"Humph!"

The Grandmaster gave a cold Heng and looked at Lin Ran with an icy coldness in his eyes.

"Grandmaster, why aren't you speaking! Is it because your heart is weak? Still offering the table bureau!"

Lin Ran sneered.

"There is still a table offering bureau in Feng Shui? If it was a table offering bureau, you could have just taken the lives of the four of them, why would it be as simple as poisoning!"

"That's why you're not moving!"

The Master seized the opportunity to retort directly.

"The mountain god is also a god, naturally have a loving heart, can't bear to directly take people's lives, so only to send down the calamity to let you awake, unfortunately you and other foolishness simply can't understand!"

"O? Is that so?"

Lin Ran, however, laughed.

“What about me? It was my idea to go to the back mountain to collect medicine, so by definition I’m the culprit, how come the Mountain God Master didn’t look for trouble with me, but instead found the four of them? How can this be explained?”

“You!”

The Master was so angry that he was speechless, how could he know that what he said before was simply lying bullshit.

Chapter 929

“Humph! Ignorant little children are full of talk, I am too lazy to argue with you!”

Said the master with a wave of his sleeve robe and looked at the other villagers.

“I’ve said what I should have said, it’s up to you to believe it or not, when you really anger the Mountain God Master, don’t blame no one for reminding you then!”

With that, the master turned and bowed to the statue of the Bodhisattva behind him, and at the same time recited the sutra.

But as he chanted, he suddenly frowned and pointed at the statue of the Bodhisattva and exclaimed.

“You still don’t believe me! See for yourselves, your actions have caused the Bodhisattva to shed tears on his heart!”

“Huh?”

The villagers all heard the words already and were busy looking at the statue of the Bodhisattva, and with this look each of their hearts went cold.

Only to see that under the right eye of the Bodhisattva statue, there was actually a crystal teardrop that looked incomparably obvious.

“What’s going on here?”

Song Nuan was busy coming over to ask, the impact of this Bodhisattva shedding a tear could be so strong that I was afraid the villagers would not be able to tell the difference between real and fake.

“Don’t rush, wait and see first!”

Lin Ran frowned, he was also a bit confused, how did this Bodhisattva statue suddenly shed tears.

“You foolish people, you have offended the mountain gods and still don’t know it, I’m afraid that the fact that the four of them are still alive is the Bodhisattva’s manifestation, but not only do you not appreciate it, but you think that this is someone else’s alarmist talk, well now even the Bodhisattva is sad, from now on no one will care about you I’ll see what you do!”

With that, the master turned around with a flutter of his sleeve robe and was about to leave.

“Hey, hey! You can’t leave, Master!”

“Yes, Master, what will we do if you leave?”

“Just tell us what to do, we’ll pay whatever you want!”

“Yes, Master!”

The crowd of villagers all panicked, if Lin Ran’s words before had caused them some hesitation to believe this so-called master in front of them.

But at this moment, when they saw the Bodhisattva shedding tears, they were completely dumbfounded and the vigilance in their hearts was completely routed, after all, the Bodhisattva that was something they had all seen before, there were no tears under his eyes at all before.

The great master turned his head and gave Lin Ran a smug look before sneering.

“What should we do? It’s simple, seal the mountain! Whoever touches the Mountain God’s things will die!”

“Seal the mountain! Yes seal the mountain! We can’t take any more of the Mountain God’s stuff!”

“Yes, yes! The Master is right!”

“Yes, we have to do this!”

The villagers all seemed to be brainwashed at this point, each with persistence in their eyes, as if they were really going to seal the mountain.

“Villagers, don’t listen to his nonsense, there is no such thing as a mountain god master in this world!”

Seeing this, Song Nuan became anxious and said busily.

“Village Chief Song, there really is, you’ve only been in our village for how long, you don’t understand!”

“Yes, just leave it alone!”

“We’d rather die poor than offend the Mountain God!”

“That’s enough!”

Lin Ran suddenly spoke up, his gaze turning extremely cold at this moment, sweeping over the crowd as if he wanted to freeze everyone.

The villagers all trembled at the sight and couldn’t help but take a few steps backwards.

“You keep saying that there is a Mountain God, but how come the Mountain God doesn’t let you live a good life, so that you live in this Linjiawan and live in isolation, with no one to heal you when you are sick, no schooling for your children, no food for your children, and this is the Mountain God you respect?”

“I think it’s Zhou Pai Pi!”

Lin Ran’s words pierced straight into the hearts of the villagers due to a steel nail.

“Some people burn incense and worship Buddha in order to get rich, others even transform the feng shui of their homes, I, Lin Ran, am here to tell you that it’s useless to do anything, even if you grind up your ancestral graves you won’t get rich!”

“If you want to make money, if you want to change your life, if you want to change the lives of your offspring, you only have one way, and that is to work hard and rely on your own struggle!”

Saying this, Lin Ran turned to the master and pointed at him in a cold voice.

“You all believe in him so much,? Even willing to give him money, but what about after he’s gone? You are afraid to pick medicine and continue to live in a situation where you have no money to go to school after eating the last meal and your children are watching you want to go to school?”

Lin Ran’s words were like frost and snow on a sunny day, freezing the villagers’ bodies to the point where they couldn’t help but tremble, although what he said was a bit emotional, but that was the truth.

“Many of you are of the older generation, I don’t blame you for your feudal thinking, but you have to think about your future generations some of the time!”

Said Lin Ran as he calmed his excitement and turned his head to look at the Master.

“I have to admire that you still have some tact!”

“I’m flattered!”

The Grandmaster laughed.

Lin Ran, however, waved his hand and said in a cold voice.

“It’s a pity that it’s me you’ve bumped into today!”

Saying that, Lin Ran turned his head and rushed at Song Nuan.

“Watch him! He can’t leave this village today without me!”

“Good!”

Song Nuan nodded her head.

Only then did Lin Ran turn around to the Bodhisattva statue and pointed at it as he said to the villagers.

“You all believe in the Bodhisattva shedding tears, don’t you, fine! I’ll show you all what you believe in today!”

Saying that, Lin Ran’s feet fiercely, the whole person directly jumped up, a full jump of nearly three meters high, directly to the front of the Bodhisattva statue’s cheeks, followed by lifting his hand and squeezing directly actually squeezed off that drop of tears.

“This How is this possible!”

“Tears can still be pinched?”

The surrounding villagers were all dumbfounded, they couldn’t imagine that Lin Ran had actually pinched the Bodhisattva’s tears, this was simply too unbelievable.

“These are the tears you believe in!”

Lin Ran said as he directly dropped the object in his hand onto the ground.

There was a soft “bang”, and the tears, which should have been white and transparent, actually burst open, and a red bloodstain appeared.

“This How is this possible!”

“How can the tears be red!”

“No! These aren’t tears, this kind of looks like worms!”

“My god what the hell is this!”

The villagers were all confused, each one looked at Lin Ran with horror in their eyes.

“It’s called a water drop worm! A less common worm, the light in the ancestral hall is dim, placed on the statue of the Bodhisattva, it’s nothing like tears!”

Said Lin Ran, turning his head to look at you think Master, and said in a cold voice.

“Master, am I right!”

“What is correct, nonsense, I have no idea what you are talking about!”

Grandmaster face a moment green, a moment white very embarrassed.

“Is that so?”

Lin Ran laughed at this.

“Water droplet insects contain a small amount of acid in their bodies, one is still fine, but if there are more than one bursting together, the acid convergence can corrode a large part of one’s flesh and blood in an instant, unfortunately Master you have three of them on your face!”

“Huh?”

The master panicked and hurriedly slapped himself in the face, while quickly pulling out a glass jar to inspect it.

“You!”

The villagers around him felt their heads explode when they saw this scene, and they all understood that they had been fooled!

“Bastard! Fucking cheat has come to our village!”

“You old bastard, I’ll get you killed!”

“You’ve ruined our fortune, you must be killed!”

The crowd of villagers were furious, and went straight to surround the master and beat him up.

“Be careful, don’t kill anyone!”

Lin Ran warned, and immediately led Song Nuan outside the ancestral hall.

“Why didn’t you stop it?”

Song Nuan asked busily.

“It’s useless, we need to vent our anger at this time!”

Lin Ran shook his head and said indifferently, it wasn’t that people in the countryside had to have feudal ideas, it was because there were too many people like the gurus who came to compel people to not believe in them that they became like this.

So this time the villagers needed a vent, not only about being cheated, but also about their disgust with feudalism.

Chapter 930

The fat beating lasted for several minutes, and when Lin Ran and Song Nuan returned to the ancestral hall again, the master had been beaten so badly that he could not see the human form at all, and his head was swollen like a pig’s head.

He sat down on the floor, crying out in pain, and cursing as he did so.

“Master, tell me, who sent you here!”

Lin Ran looked at the nonsense,? looked at him and questioned.

“I don’t know what you’re talking about!”

The Grandmaster slowly got up and straightened his clothes, wiped the tears off his face and prepared to leave.

“You know!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“I don’t know, all the people in your village are wallflowers, even if you don’t believe me why are you beating people up!”

With an aggrieved look on his face, the Master pointed at Lin Ran and said.

“Moreover, even if you were to see through the matter of the Bodhisattva shedding tears then so what, in the end, your village is still the only one where the four of them had an accident, this is what is destined to happen in the underworld, this is a problem you have the ability to explain too!”

“Ranzi, that is indeed a problem, we also want to know what is going on!”

“Yes, the villagers are in a state of panic because of this, and no one wants to go to the mountains to collect medicine!”

“Right!”

The villagers all looked at Lin Ran, wanting to understand the doubts in their minds.

“You’ll have to ask the master if you want to figure this out!”

Lin Ran laughed and suddenly turned his head to look at the Grandmaster.

“Ask me? I don’t know anything!”

The Grandmaster’s face sank as he said in a cold voice.

“O? Are you sure?”

Lin Ran laughed, while taking out a small glass bottle on his person, containing the very water samples he had gotten from Old Yu’s house and also Widow Liu’s house.

“I can tell you all clearly now that the reason why it was the four of them, Da Long, who had the accident was because of the water, we are already investigating and initially suspect that someone has poisoned the water of their two families!”

“What? Poisoning?”

“Who is it, so cruel!”

“This is too much, what a grudge to poison!”

The villagers were furious, poisoning is no different from intentional murder.

“Don’t worry, folks, this poison won’t kill anyone, but it will cause panic in our village!”

“And just after our village had an accident, the master came, think about it yourselves, is there no connection?”

The villagers all fell silent at his words, Lin Ran had a point, and they couldn’t help but all look at the Grandmaster.

“Master, still no explanation? Who told you to come?”

“Old man, I don’t know what you are talking about!”

The Master’s face was gloomy and he struggled to leave.

“Since you already don’t trust the old man, why do you still hold back and not let him leave”

“Leave? Who will tell us the truth if you leave!”

Lin Ran laughed, while holding the faulty water sample bottle and walking over.

“It’s okay for you to be tough, I, Lin Ran, have never been afraid of others being tough either, you only make money without considering the situation of our villagers, then don’t blame me for not being polite either, I’ll give you three seconds to think about it, either give an honest explanation or I’ll let you taste what it’s like to drink this water too!”

With that, Lin Ran had pulled off the cork and placed the bottle in front of the master.

“You!”

The Grandmaster’s face changed completely this time, this water was obviously faulty, if he drank it he was afraid that he would have to be half dead even if he didn’t die.

“Master, you can think it over! With this body, can you resist the Lord?”

Lin Ran looked at the Grandmaster and asked with a smile.

“You Don’t you fool around, I I have people above me!”

The Grandmaster was so scared that he was incoherent.

“O? I’m sorry, there’s someone above me too!”

Lin Ran said having pinched the Master’s mouth and laughed.

“I’m going to ask you one last time, say it or not!”

“Me!”

The master’s face turned red with anger, but he couldn’t say anything, he had only taken half of the money this time, if he said anything then he wouldn’t want the rest of the tens of thousands.

“I don’t know!”

The master gritted his teeth or absolutely held back for the money.

“Fine!”

Lin Ran helplessly stretched his hand, following which he directly poured the questionable water into the master’s mouth.

“You!”

The master’s face turned red with anger, but in his mind he was thinking that the most that could be done with this water was a stomach ache, and that it would be fine once he got over it and went to take some medicine.

But obviously he had underestimated the problem with the water, and within two minutes of drinking it, his stomach hurt like a knife twist, and his forehead immediately became sweaty.

“Lin Ran, you!”

Song Nuan ran over and looked at Lin Ran with some worry.

“Don’t worry, he can’t die!”

Lin Ran smiled and shook his head.

“What the hell did you give me to eat!”

The Master’s face had turned iron blue by now, and his speech was a little unsteady.

“It’s just faulty water, by the way! I forgot to tell you, this is Lin Jiawan, it would take you half an hour to drive to town from here, but apparently no one here is willing to drive you, and the only one with a car is me!”

Said Lin Ran as he got up and patted his clothes and laughed.

“Finally in telling you, there are only two people around here who can cure your condition, one is my grandmother and the other is me!”

“You!”

The master smiled and was almost backed up, isn't this saying the same as not saying.

“What the hell do you want!”

At this point, the master was in so much pain that he could hardly carry it anymore, and the veins on his neck were bursting.

“Don't want anything, tell me who sent you and tell me everything you know, or else you'll wait to see the limits of your own body!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

He would never be merciful to such complicit people, especially if the other party was still aiming to hinder the development of Lin Jiawan, then it would be even more unforgivable.

“You You can't do this to me, give me the antidote to the poison!”

The master had already started rolling on the ground in pain, it was already a miracle that he could carry on until now at his age, if he hadn't still been thinking about the money, I'm afraid he would have passed out.

“Speak first!”

Lin Ran sat aside and said indifferently, not worried at all, even if the other party had passed out, it would be too easy for him, he was a doctor trying to wake him up was just a matter of moving his hands.

“You What the hell do you want!”

The master was completely anxious, he was really a bit overwhelmed.

“Tell me what you know and I will immediately give you the antidote!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Fine! Fine I'll tell!”

Finally, the Grandmaster couldn't take it anymore and spoke with a grit of his teeth.

“It's Boss Bai! He was the one who found me and let me come, and promised me a sum of money, and another after the job was done!”

“I've said it all, so give me the antidote!”

The Grandmaster said busily.

Lin Ran, however, shook his head and said.

“What about the poisoning? You didn't know about this?”

“I really didn’t know, if I knew they had poisoned it, I wouldn’t have drunk it if I had been beaten to death!”

The Master said busily.

Lin Ran thought about it and it was indeed true, so he immediately gave the Master the poison.

“I’ve told you everything I know, so let me go!”

The Grandmaster looked at Lin Ran with a pleading face.

“Let you go? You’re thinking too much! From the moment you promised Boss Bai or, you’ve already been in the boat of thieves! Whether you can get down or not, you’d better go and talk to the police!”

Lin Ran said and nudged the Grandmaster directly on his neck, and instantly the latter passed out.

This side had just gotten someone to watch the Grandmaster so that he wouldn’t wake up and run away, when Song Nuan’s phone rang over there.

“It’s from the inspector!”

Song Nuan said excitedly.

“Get through!”

Lin Ran said at once.
