

Work Hard 1081

Chapter 1081: Escape So Easily ?

So, how much credibility did Han Jie still hold? Even he couldn't answer that question.

But, no matter what the truth was, the public enjoyed watching the first battle as their interest piqued.

Meanwhile, Han Jie's situation worsened.

If he didn't respond the first time because he underestimated Tangning and Su Yu, then, this time around, he had to express his standpoint clearly.

If the Han Family still refused to respond even after Su Yu had already reaffirmed her standpoint, then she was going to release more evidence and the Han Family would only look worse.

Han Jie was in quite a dilemma, especially since his face was still burning from the slap he received earlier. After all, he knew deep down how difficult it was to deal with Su Yu who was receiving help from Tangning.

So, after careful thought, he decided not to reveal his end game. He was going to continue diverting trouble towards Tangning instead.

As a result, during his next PR attempt, Han Jie directed his anger towards Tangning.

"This is our own family matter. I hope outsiders don't get involved. Your tricks might end up ruining a happy family!"

"I admit that I may have been partially lied to. But, my father's affair has no direct connection to my mother being caught in bed with two men."

"Just because my father had an affair, it doesn't mean that my mother is automatically innocent. How do you know that we aren't innocent instead?"

Who was this 'outsider' that he referred to? Everyone knew without him saying.

Not only did Han Jie draw everyone's attention towards Tangning, he even pretended that he had been lied to. Moreover, he insisted that even if his father was wrong, his mother also cheated and was in no way innocent.

Of course, Han Jie's main motive was to draw attention away from himself and transfer them to Tangning.

According to him, she was an outsider that had no right to interfere with others' business.

Su Yu wasn't her artist nor her relative, so how could she play her tricks around them?

Han Jie's words weren't unreasonable.

After all, the entire matter had nothing to do with Tangning, so how could she act all righteous and interfere with something unrelated to her?

Even for a normal person this was a taboo, let alone someone like her with tens of millions of fans.

So, the way that Han Jie challenged Tangning was reasonable.

However...his method was a little stupid.

Tangning knew she couldn't withdraw from the matter easily because she provoked it to begin with.

So, her personal manager, Mo Ting, stepped out to provide a response.

However, he didn't say anything at first. He simply presented the the three pieces of evidence that they had.

The first one was the video that Han Xiuche had made and released previously, claiming that it was leaked footage from 'The Ant Queen'. During the editing process, he had forgotten to remove the logo, yet he manipulated netizens into ridiculing the film.

The second piece of evidence was the incident at the film festival where Han Xiuche framed Tangning for cheating with An Zihao.

And the third, was when Han Jie bribed the special effects technician into slandering the post production of 'The Ant Queen' and claiming that they received help from Hollywood.

Afterwards, he gave a Mo-style conclusion:

"Firstly, I would like to say that my wife has never done anything to wrong the Han brothers. On the other hand, from Superstar Media until 'The Ant Queen', how many attacks have they directed towards her? I'm sure the available evidence is enough to say it all."

"Secondly, I'd like to pose a question for the Han brothers: do you expect me to let you bully my wife after all the attacks you've made? I'm sure you know how things ended up this way."

"Thirdly, I hope the brothers stop trying to divert everyone's attention. The matter with the Han Family was not my wife's fault. What goes around comes around and the truth will eventually be revealed..."

"So, I'd like to ask that President Han answer Su Yu's questions and not dig his own grave!"

"Finally, my wife is simply providing assistance, she's not twisting the truth. She is willing to take responsibility for everything she's said!"

In other words, Han Jie was trying to divert everyone's attention, but he was simply fanning the hatred that the public felt for him.

Of course, as soon as Mo Ting's evidence was released, the Han brothers were exposed of everything...

"The Han brothers are psychos. They did something wrong, yet they won't admit to it, instead they're asking others why they are interfering with someone else's matters!"

"My Ning has come across the cruelest brothers. No one can compare to them!"

"They started it. I don't know how these two brothers could call Tangning an outsider when they framed her first..."

“My Ning doesn’t have much spare time. If these two brothers weren’t so disgusting, no one would want to get involved with them; they would just avoid them.”

In the end, Han Jie used Tangning to draw away attention, but Mo Ting quickly threw it back at him.

Did he think he could escape so easily?

...

Han Jie was slapped in the face – left, right and center – leaving him with no strength to retaliate. Those watching the drama unfold, couldn’t help but cheer in amusement.

If he was simply complaining that Tangning was butting her nose into the Han Family’s business, he may have had an argument. But, after all the hurtful things he had done, wasn’t it only right for them to respond with a little something of their own?

Han Jie was almost driven mad by the stress!

At that time, Father Han also called to apply pressure and urgency. So, Han Jie exploded, “I’m making such a huge sacrifice for your measly matter. You may be able to hide overseas, but what about me? Isn’t one troublemaker at home enough...?”

“Don’t criticize me, aren’t you selfish as well?” Father Han asked. “I’ve already given the family business to you, what else do you want?”

“The current mess is too hard to clean up. If I can’t clean it, then you will need to handle it yourself. After all, I was still a child when everything happened.”

“Han Jie...you are such an ungrateful dog!”

Han Jie couldn’t be bothered listening anymore as he hung up.

There were only a few people in his family, but there wasn’t a single one that he didn’t need to worry about.

They either caused trouble or were trying to escape trouble; his life was not easy.

Han Jie threw his phone to the side. That was when he noticed Han Xiuche standing in the doorway with his arms crossed. His heart immediately dropped as he asked, “Why did you come in without knocking on the door?”

“I knocked! You simply didn’t notice,” Han Xiuche said innocently.

“What did you hear?”

“Is there something that you’re worried I might hear?” Han Xiuche asked.

“It’s nothing. If you don’t have anything to say to me, then get out,” Han Jie was not in the mood to argue. There was still a huge mess waiting for him to clean.

Right now, he was being cornered by Tangning and Su Yu, to the point where he could barely breathe. If he couldn’t hold up against them, then he had no choice but to betray every last person in his family!

Of course, if even that didn't work, then all they could do was pray.

So, they wanted him to respond to Su Yu, huh?

How was he to respond?

No matter how he responded, Tangning was going to throw him into hell!

That was the consequence for offending Tangning and Mo Ting!

Han Jie was left with no choice but to use his last trump card...

Chapter 1082: I Must Have Been Possessed

Because of the matter, Han Jie went to look for one of the parties involved: the cousin of the secretary. As the situation was getting tense, the cousin took some time off work to hide at home; it had gotten too difficult for him to even go to work.

As soon as he saw Han Jie, he immediately grabbed onto him anxiously and asked, "What should I do? Will I be going to jail?"

After hearing these questions, Han Jie laughed in rage, "If you didn't know if your actions would lead you to jail, then why did you do it?"

"I must have been possessed!"

"Even if it's a criminal case, the legal prosecution period has already passed. Besides, this is just a scandal," Han Jie explained calmly. "However, your reputation is going to be ruined. That's why I'm here to resolve the matter with you..."

"As long as you can help me. We're just a small average family. It might not matter to me that our neighbors are pointing and gossiping about us, but what about my son?"

This man was sloppy and dirty; someone that never did any proper work and simply relied on his parents to help him fund a small business that he ran for survival.

Han Jie sat down and taught the man what to do in detail, "We'll need to trouble Auntie to put on a show. After all, women are seen as vulnerable, so they easily draw sympathy."

"I understand. I know how to put on a pity act!"

"In that case, I'll wait for the good news," Han Jie left after 3 hours at the man's home. However, not long after he left, there was another knock on the man's door. He initially thought that Han Jie had returned, but before he knew it, a pair of strong arms pulled him outside – it was Han Xiuche.

Han Xiuche dragged the man to a quiet alleyway, pressed him against the wall and punched him a few times before he asked, "What did Han Jie say to you?"

"Han Xiuche!" the man's face turned pale after he recognized the man before him.

"What's the truth behind the incident from all those years ago?" Han Xiuche asked.

“What incident? Back then, your mother...”

“You must know. I am more ruthless than Han Jie. You can choose to not tell me anything, but I won’t let you live,” Han Xiuche said as he continued to hold the man against the wall and began to strangle his neck. “Think it over carefully.”

Since small, Han Xiuche had always been different to the average person. Out of the two brothers, Han Xiuche was definitely more frightening because of his strange personality.

“If...if I tell you the truth...you can’t hit me. I’ll only speak if you can promise me that.”

“I promise,” Han Xiuche loosened his grip on the man, but placed his foot against the wall to stop him from escaping.

“This matter started from my cousin. Back then, she told me she was pregnant, but Mr. Han wouldn’t get a divorce. So, she asked me to help her scare Su Yu. I didn’t expect the drama that followed to unfold. At that time, I must have been possessed by lust. I swear I never took advantage of your mother; it was my cousin’s classmate.”

“Tell me everything you know,” the color of Han Xiuche’s eyes began to change.

“At that time, the classmate violated your mother while I simply pretended on the side. All the while, my cousin was taking photos. However, Mr. Han suddenly returned home, so my cousin had no choice but to explain the situation. Mr. Han realized that we had deliberately created trouble for Su Yu, but, seeing that my cousin was young and beautiful, he decided to become an accomplice to her scheme.

“What about her leg...?”

“Mr. Han broke it!”

“Was Han Jie on the scene?”

“Of course. He was standing in the doorway watching the entire thing. At that time, Su Yu even asked him to call the police, but he grabbed onto my cousin’s leg and called her ‘mother’ instead. You don’t know how disappointed Su Yu looked. Even to this day, I can still remember her expression clearly...”

After listening to the man’s story, Han Xiuche’s eyes turned red. His anger caused his blood to boil.

“Do you swear that everything you’re saying today is the truth?”

“Actually, I would like you to repeat everything on camera!” Han Xiuche said before he pulled out his phone and pointed it at the man’s face. “If you don’t repeat what you just said, I’m going to kill you right here!”

The man was frightened out of his mind. Because of Han Xiuche’s intimidation, he had no choice but to do as he was told.

“You can’t let Han Jie know that I looked for you today. If he tells you to do something, then do as he says.”

“You...”

“Although I promised I wouldn’t hit you, I still can’t resist!” After saying this, Han Xiuche gave the man a good beating. “This will make your act even more convincing!”

Only after he released all his anger did Han Xiuche finally leave the alleyway, leaving the man all alone, lying on the floor.

It turned out, this was the truth; this was truth behind the woman he had hated for so many years. Han Xiuche couldn’t believe that Han Jie had lied to him for so long.

With this thought, Han Xiuche held onto the evidence he gained and disappeared into the night.

The cousin assumed that nothing would go wrong since he had simply revealed the information to another member of the Han Family.

But, he had underestimated Han Xiuche’s temper!

Han Xiuche was a jerk; a natural born scum. Perhaps, this was all thanks to his father’s genetics. But, everything was triggered by Su Yu.

Even when he opposed Tangning, he had to admit that it was because of the humiliation he felt from Su Yu that he sought revenge from her after he grew interested in her and she hurt his pride. This was because he felt that all women were cheap and fake.

But, he now realized that the person he believed the most, was the one that hurt him the deepest. Whereas, the person that he hated, had gone through the worst humiliation.

His world fell apart; he couldn’t accept the truth.

Of course, he wasn’t about to let Han Jie know that he had already discovered the truth. He was going to sit back and watch how far he was taking the show.

As for Su Yu...

Han Xiuche took a deep breath as a mix of complex feelings flooded into his heart.

Previously, no one trusted Su Yu except for Tangning who brought her incident back into the light and helped her with her PR, unafraid that she would become implicated. Now that Han Xiuche thought about it, he was worse than an outsider even though he was meant to be Su Yu’s son.

After discovering the truth, he no longer hated those that he originally hated.

Instead, those that he originally trusted, had now become his enemies...

This was perhaps the worst kind of punishment on earth.

Tangning and Su Yu predicted that Han Xiuche would not handle the truth well, but, they waited for so long without seeing any response. Perhaps, he decided to side with his brother even after discovering the truth?

After all, Han Jie had taken care of him for so many years. He couldn’t possibly betray him, right?

A jerk would forever be a jerk; they couldn’t expect him to turn back.

Chapter 1083: Using Death To Prove His Innocence ?

Since he wanted to put on a show, both involved parties had to be present for it to be a success. But, the secretary's classmate had already moved overseas for many years and they couldn't trace which country he was currently in. So, there was no point in trying to contact him.

Hence, the secretary's cousin turned into the solo protagonist of the show.

This could be considered as a response to Su Yu's questions.

That night, the man that Han Xiuche hit, was sent to the hospital and his wife took the opportunity to claim his innocence in front of the media.

"Just because he's the cousin of Qingai, does that mean he deserves to be slandered? We are just a small average family, we are not from the entertainment industry. Su Yu, haven't you considered that your words would cause my husband to be labeled a scum? He's too afraid to even go to work now and my son's too afraid to go to school. What do you want?"

"Because of you, something even more serious happened today and someone beat him up out of the blue. Do you want to see my husband being forced to his death before you're satisfied?"

The media gathered around quickly. Since there was an update on Su Yu's matter, they naturally rushed to see it.

Over a dozen reporters surrounded the woman in the hospital room as she accepted their interview.

"Since your husband is innocent, why didn't you say anything from the start?"

"I thought the Han Family had it under control and we wouldn't be able to get a word in. But, I never imagined that things would get to this point where my husband's left with barely a life!" After saying this, the woman looked at the cameras and began to cry hysterically.

"So what's the truth?"

"Su Yu's been falsely accusing my husband. Everyone knows that my husband is responsible towards his family even though he appears lazy. It must be because my husband is an honest man that Su Yu made undeserved accusations against him."

"She probably saw our small family and assumed that we wouldn't be able to argue with her. But, I would like to ask Su Yu to let us go. I don't know who the men you had an affair with were, but my husband is definitely not one of them!"

The only reason she was brave enough to say this, was because the news from 20 years ago never mentioned the identity of the two men. Plus, none of the photos showed their faces either.

After all, the photos were taken by the secretary and she was the one that planned everything. So, there was no way she would throw her own people into the deep end.

As a result, the newspapers from 20 years ago, simply said that Su Yu cheated with two men, but the identities of the two men weren't the main focus. The main focus was on Su Yu's act of adultery.

Han Jie had confirmed this before he told the woman to claim her husband's innocence.

The reporters snapped their cameras furiously at the woman as she cried. Since one of the people in question were giving a response, the news was definitely explosive.

"Do you have evidence that your husband wasn't at the Han Family home on the night of the incident?"

"How am I supposed to prove that? Are you bullying me because I'm a vulnerable woman? How am I supposed to prove something from 20 years ago? If Su Yu insists that someone make a sacrifice before she ends her slandering, could she please let my husband go? I can pay you back in his stead."

After speaking, the woman forced her way out of the crowd, rammed her head against the wall and fainted, frightening everyone.

Was she using death to prove her husband's innocence?

After a small commotion, the woman was finally sent to emergency. Of course, if she wanted to get rid of her worries, she had to suffer a little.

[Wife of the accused responds: "Please stop acting!"]

[Wife of the accused makes an appearance: "My husband never hurt anyone!"]

[Wife of the accused criticizes Su Yu: "You are obsessed with acting!"]

...

"From the looks of it, Han Jie made another move. He's even resulted to using the 'running against the wall' trick. It's just like you expected," Tangning laughed at Mo Ting after seeing the news. Mo Ting had previously predicted that Han Jie would put on a pity act to reclaim his innocence. When they looked at the current situation, his prediction was correct.

"Following on, I'm sure this woman will use her child as well. After all, women and children are both seen as vulnerable."

"After going around in so many circles and playing so many tricks, are they really going to succeed in hiding the truth?" Tangning shook her head, "The Han Family must think that an incident from 20 years ago can't possibly be proven. Especially since they know the ins and outs of that day and they think their plan was flawless..."

"But, once something is done, there are bound to be tracks left behind. This woman may appear highly emotional, but there are flaws in her act!"

"You've already investigated everything in relation to the incident," Mo Ting said as he lowered his head. Without looking at Tangning, he already knew his wife's rate of success.

Han Jie wanted to confuse the truth. But, unfortunately, he was up against a frightening pro.

And, behind this pro, was a top secret master.

So, even if they used death to prove their innocence, the show was going to continue.

Of course, after the woman woke up, she cried hysterically again. This time, her son also joined her. This made the media feel extreme sympathy for them.

But, Su Yu's response followed soon after.

"Ms Xie, as you admitted, your husband is often seen as a lazy person...This, in itself, is proof that your husband isn't a very responsible person. Yet, you claim that he's a responsible family man. Don't you think this is contradicting? How could a lazy person be responsible?"

"Secondly, from what I know, your neighbors claim that you and your husband argue every few days and you've both admitted to having affairs outside of your marriage; it's been like that since you were both young. So, how can you prove that your husband is 100% innocent?"

"Is he innocent because you rammed your head against the wall? Does that mean all accused criminals should do that to clear their names?"

"Thirdly, if you're able to tell us your husband's habits, I may still have a bit of trust in you. But, even the closest of couples don't spend 24 hours together. So, how can you guarantee anything with your words?"

"By running against the wall, you were just trying to force me to retreat, right? Look at yourself, you almost died. I think you should give up..."

"I bet you can't even point out unique features on your husband. But, I can confidently say that the b*stard has a green birth mark on his left bum cheek, even if it means that old wounds are reopened."

"So, it's useless. Running against the wall did nothing. You will never be able to clear your husband's name."

Su Yu's counterattack was clear and focused.

Even though this woman was crying so pitifully, she was full of flaws.

She originally thought she had the situation under control. But, after what Su Yu said, the media quickly realized that they had been manipulated by pity...

Chapter 1084: The True Protagonist Has Arrived

As a result, the situation became clear; anyone with eyes could tell that the couple wouldn't pretend to be vulnerable if they didn't have something to hide.

The funniest thing was, Han Jie actually thought running into the wall would be enough to turn the tables and help him regain his pride. Unfortunately, Su Yu destroyed his plan with a few simple sentences!

Which meant that the woman had run into the wall for nothing!

Meanwhile, observers were beginning to trust Su Yu more and more. After all, she could even recall a small feature on the jerk so clearly.

Afterwards, the reporters went to test the 'suicidal' wife and discovered that she knew nothing about her husband, just like Tangning and Su Yu said. On top of that, neighbors vouched that the couple had been on bad terms since many years ago. The couples' lie had just been told not long ago and a face slap was already given!

Seeing this, Han Jie felt completely helpless. Tangning and Su Yu had been holding him down and slapping him from the start. Even getting to this point wasn't easy.

So, he decided it was time to give up...

At this time, Father Han finally returned to China after realizing the seriousness of the matter.

As soon as he saw his son, he only had one word for him: "Trash!"

Han Jie was completely defeated by this point. As long as Father Han was willing to take over the matter, he was more than happy to be called trash.

"Where's Xiuche? How come he's nowhere to be seen?"

"I'm not sure. Xiuche has been a little mysterious lately," Han Jie replied.

Father Han was a chubby old man who had long lost the good looks of his youth. However, his wife still looked young and beautiful.

"If you find Xiuche, tell him not to cause any more trouble. I will be holding a press conference tomorrow. I want you to attend and testify that Su Yu is crazy. If anyone could put this matter to an end, then you would be that person."

After all, the words of one's own son was solid evidence.

Soon, Han Xiuche returned home. As soon as he saw his father and step mother, his attitude was cold. However, he had always been like that, so it did not arouse any suspicions. They simply continued to talk about Tangning.

"What a b*tch, she can't even handle her own affairs at home, how dare she butt her nose into others' business?"

"Su Yu too. It's already been 20 years. How could she be so shameless as to bring up an old grudge."

As soon as he heard these words, Han Xiuche suddenly sat up straight in his seat.

"Xiuche, this is all your fault. If you didn't provoke Tangning then all this wouldn't have happened and you wouldn't have implicated the entire family."

"Father, I have one question for you: were you and that woman in an affair all those years ago?"

Father Han looked at Han Xiuche confidently and replied, "Of course not, how could this I be lying? Even the newspapers reported on it and you saw it for yourself..."

"Then, who were the two men that my mother cheated with?"

Father Han froze when he heard this question, "How could I remember the random men that she found?"

As soon as he heard this response, Han Xiuche well and truly woke up. Originally, he still held a slither of hope for his father; he thought, perhaps the cousin lied?

But, which man wouldn't even know the identities of the men that his wife cheated with?

Wasn't stealing one's wife as bad as killing one's father?

"Regardless, both you and your brother should watch what you say. I want that crazy woman to be destroyed again."

What confidence!

Han Xiuche wanted to laugh in ridicule.

"That's enough, don't think too much, just follow us to the press conference when the time comes. For now, let's have dinner."

How did he still have the mood for dinner? He had no appetite.

With this thought, Han Xiuche stood up from the sofa and returned to his room. He then grabbed the keys to his motorcycle, "I'm going out to buy something. You guys eat first."

"Your choice!" Father Han yelled impatiently.

It turned out, Han Xiuche had been living in a lie all these years. Yet, his family was still trying to lie to him and use him. But, things didn't always go to plan.

They wanted to hold a press conference, huh?

He might as well hold a self-revelation conference instead. That would be much more satisfying. After all, he had already bullied Tangning so many times and hated Su Yu for so many years; it was time he paid them back for everything.

...

Meanwhile, Tangning received news that Father Han had returned. The true protagonist had finally arrived.

As someone that could be compared to Han Yufan, Father Han did not disappoint as he quickly announced a press conference.

From the looks of it, he wanted to suppress the matter!

If he was up against someone else, perhaps a bit of suppression would have worked. But, this was a chess board laid out by Tangning. No matter what, he needed to follow the rules of somebody else's game.

"The true protagonist has finally arrived. In regards to this matter, Father Han and his mistress should be the most ashamed."

"We need to be wary of the secretary. She was already so evil 20 years ago, so 20 years later, her methods must have definitely improved," Mo Ting warned Tangning. Noticing that she was getting a bit tired from carrying Yan Er, Daddy Ting immediately swept up his daughter in his arms and coaxed her to sleep before putting her in the cot.

“With so many rumors piling up, he would be dreaming if he thinks he can suppress it. If the Han Family thinks they have the ability to hush this matter, then they are seriously underestimating you,” Tangning humphed. “As soon as they host a press conference, Auntie Su will have something even more spectacular to counterattack them with. Let’s see how shameless this Father Han is!”

“I held a meeting today. Hai Rui is planning to release ‘The Ant Queen’ at the end of the year so it can compete for this year’s Fei Tian Awards,” Mo Ting suddenly changed the subject.

“Are you talking about the Best Actor Award?”

“I’m talking about Best Director and Best Producer,” Mo Ting replied. It seemed, he was always thinking on behalf of Tangning. “Apart from planning for you to win an award, I’m not interested in anything else.”

“OK, we’ll do as you say. But, I don’t care if I win the Best Producer Award or not, I simply hope that Qiao Sen wins an award! That would be the best consolation for him.”

“Trust me, everyone is going to be amazed by your film.”

“I never knew you had so much faith in me.” Tangning leaned into Mo Ting’s embrace; she loved the way this man doted on her. She loved him down to the bone. “After this entire Han Family incident is resolved, I will make sure to accompany you well. President Mo, you’ve worked hard!”

“When that time comes, our family of five can visit a beautiful beach. I want to dress our two sons up like little prince’s...”

“I’m looking forward to seeing you in a bikini!” Mo Ting whispered seductively in Tangning’s ear.

Chapter 1085: He Was Happy To Let Her Dream !

If one was to ask Su Yu who she hated the most in the world, the answer wasn’t necessarily the mistress secretary.

Yes, the secretary was hateful for stealing someone’s husband and ruining a family, but the thing that disappointed Su Yu the most, was the fact that Han Jie called the mistress, ‘mother’.

She had carried him in her stomach for almost 10 months and given birth to him. She also devoted all her love to parenting him. Unfortunately, at a crucial moment, the child knew how to choose self preservation. No, to be exact, he knew about the affair between his father and the secretary and never told his own mother about it. It seemed, the secretary had put in a lot of effort on him!

“The Han Family is holding a press conference tomorrow. In fact, the entire family will be there...”

Su Yu was shocked, “Is that wretched couple back?”

Tangning nodded and looked Su Yu in the eyes, “Yes they’re back and the first thing they’re doing is calling for a press conference so they can suppress the news.”

“Suppress?” Su Yu laughed before she looked down at her leg. “How strange, I’ve managed to live with being wronged for 20 years, yet I suddenly feel a rush of hatred for that family. I guess, hatred doesn’t fade with time, and it especially won’t disappear!”

“I understand how you feel, Auntie Su. All you can do now is pay them back a hundred, no, a thousand-fold. Only then, will your heart be truly at peace.”

“Life is already tough as a woman. If one must continue to be subjected to this annoying behavior, they might as well die!”

“My life once revolved around love. But, after I woke up to reality, I realized that everything a man can do, a woman can do too. So, I’ve learned to do everything on my own where possible...”

“After receiving a second chance at life, I told myself to be more selfish. That’s how I became the person I am today: a person that gives an eye for an eye!”

“The luckiest thing for both of us is that you met Mo Ting and I met my Old Man Long!” Su Yu stood up from the sofa, wrapped her body and in her shawl and patted Tangning on the shoulder. She then walked over to the window and looked out into the distance, “Did you say it was tomorrow? Then, I must stretch my ears to listen properly and open my eyes to look clearly; I can’t wait to see how the wretched couple decide to flip right from wrong.”

“Oh, and there’s also my son, Han Jie...”

Compared to Han Xiuche’s persistent harassment, his brother, Han Jie, was much worse.

He simply hid his true intent well hidden, while Han Xiuche was like an open book.

It seemed, a bottom line was determined via comparison and, in this case, Han Xiuche was definitely the gentle one when compared to the rest of the Han Family.

“I will instruct my assistant to have some reporters at hand. As soon as the Han Family tries to suppress the matter, we will immediately strike back,” Tangning explained. “No one can get away with doing something wrong, it’s just a matter of time. They are bound to face punishment. So, Auntie Su, don’t be afraid...”

“20 years of avoiding the matter has been enough. Especially since I have you and the old man by my side. One is an international martial arts superstar and the other is a two-time award winning best actress; what is there for me to be afraid of? One of you has the brains, the other has the brawn!” Su Yu chuckled. “On top of that, I have President Mo, who even an elder like myself is afraid of. He’s born with the presence of a domineering king.”

“He even managed to turn Hai Rui into the top agency within the entertainment industry and he’s only in his 30’s. It’s obvious how capable he is. So, I’m confident, as long as he is around, he will always be your best bodyguard!”

“You are over exaggerating!” Tangning laughed.

No matter how colorful the world was and how extravagant the industry was, love was still the most important relationship between two people.

The amount of love that Su Yu once felt for Father Han, was the same amount of hatred that she now felt. On top of that, were 20 years of being wronged. If they added everything up, the Han Family could only pay back with their destruction.

Everything boiled down to tomorrow!

...

Meanwhile, Mo Ting confirmed the release date for 'The Ant Queen': it was to be released on the 16th of December.

However, Tangning told Mo Ting not to announce it to the public yet. She wanted to wait until the matter with the Han Family was resolved first.

Although Han Xiuche no longer caused Tangning trouble because of Su Yu's matter. Tangning still wanted to give Su Yu all the attention she needed to achieve her goal.

...

The next day, the media were once again filled with excitement. This time, the Han Family was finally jumping into action and responding to Su Yu. The entire family, including the secretary, was present.

With the appearance of their father, the Han brothers seemed a lot more obedient. The two men stood quietly behind their father, dressed in black suits, while Father Han stood tall and proud. Even though so many years had passed, he still had a powerful presence. After all, he had once paved his own path in the entertainment industry when he was young. Although he gave the agency to his son because of the incident that happened back then, he still ended up starting his own business overseas. Actually, he was more successful overseas than he was back in China.

But, the agency in China was still the mother company. Even though he had been living overseas for many years, he had always wanted to return home. So, it was important for him to resolve the matter with Su Yu as quickly as possible and end it once and for all.

It had already been 20 years. Did Su Yu think she could still make a comeback?

If she wanted to dream, he was happy to let her dream!

Meanwhile, the secretary beside him still looked young and beautiful. She understood men and knew the best way to keep a man in her hands.

So, she didn't experience many changes in the 20 years that passed.

The family of four stood in front of the media dressed in suits and formal clothing, looking serious. The media quickly sensed the serious vibe as well.

Father Han wanted to create a nervous atmosphere where no one dared to intrude.

He then sat down at the table on the stage and said to everyone, "Firstly, I would like to thank the media for their support and concern and I would also like to thank those that provided assistance during this time. I will always remember you."

“Now, let’s move onto the main topic. 20 years have already passed since that fateful day. It’s extremely painful for me to think back on that day because it’s difficult for a man to admit that his wife cheated on him; especially when she cheated with two men at the same time!”

“I don’t want to think back on that disgusting scene, but it seems, someone doesn’t respect the forgiveness I’ve shown them and insists on digging up an old scandal to embarrass everyone.”

“Su Yu, you’ve created so many stories about this person lying and that person deceiving, is there any point to doing that? It can’t change the fact that you cheated.”

Chapter 1086: Create Some Drama

As soon as Father Han brought up this topic, the media began to ask questions, “President Han, while saying this, have you not considered that you and your secretary were also caught having an affair?”

“The evidence was fake! Someone created it! Everyone knows that I’m a family man. I can’t believe that after 20 years, that woman would create evidence to slander me. I swear I haven’t done anything, I have nothing to hide!”

“My secretary and I got together after our divorce was finalized.”

“Both my sons are witnesses to that.”

Father Han was confident, but he emitted an annoyingly overbearing vibe. This made it difficult for the reporters to ask further. All they could do was roll their eyes; the Han Family obviously weren’t there to explain anything. Instead, they were forcefully telling everyone that they were innocent and anyone that opposed them were trash.

So, it wasn’t hard to guess what was to follow.

The two sons were going to step forward and testify against their mother and the entire incident was expected to come to an end.

But, wasn’t this a PR trick from 20 years ago? A trick that was already out of date. Did Father Han think he was holding a company board meeting?

“Su Yu’s evidence can’t prove anything. Instead, you should trust what my sons say. After all, that woman gave birth to them. They have no reason to slander their mother, right?”

Father Han did exactly what the reporters expected and turned his gaze towards Han Jie, “Han Jie, come and tell everyone the truth!”

Afterwards, Han Jie moved to the front of the stage.

Actually, Han Jie was quite surprised by Father Han’s forceful method.

He insisted that he did nothing wrong and that the other party was playing cheap tricks. A self-deceptive method like this showed how low he could go. But, what if a lame method like this actually worked?

“It’s already been 20 years since everything happened. I think revisiting an old incident like this, is a second round of pain for both parties involved. I really don’t want to be sitting up here today. After all, the person I’m opposing is the mother that gave birth to me and brought me up. But, a person should have their limits. Just because she’s my mother, I can’t let her hurt innocent people. That’s all I’m going to say. Thank you everyone for your attention.”

Han Jie had been slapped in the face before, so his response was very broad with no real point.

Father Han turned and looked at his son. He expected Han Jie to reveal the details of what happened in the past, but instead, what was the result? Han Jie avoided saying anything of value.

Father Han gestured for Han Jie to step forward again to elaborate on his response, but Han Jie pretended not to see him.

Meanwhile, Han Xiuche lowered his head. No one knew what he was thinking. Since he wasn’t present during the incident, Father Han did not ask him to say anything. Instead, Father Han placed his gaze on his current wife.

The secretary immediately understood his gaze.

She gave a slight whimper and pretended to be wronged as she stepped forward and bowed apologetically, “I’m sorry that our family business has offended everyone’s eyes. This incident from 20 years ago, should have already been over and forgotten. Who would have thought that it would be dug up again. I’m not sure what the motive of the person that’s behind this is.”

“Sister Su, I don’t know what you want. If you think I stole your husband and you’re trying to get revenge, then fine, I’ll accept that. What do you want as compensation? Just tell me. You don’t have to dig up this old scandal and make it known to everyone. You’ve made it impossible for your two sons to face the world.”

“I know I shouldn’t have married this man, but I couldn’t stand seeing him suffer. Apart from comforting him and marrying him, there was nothing else I could do.”

“If you want to hate someone, then direct your hatred towards me. I don’t want to see you continue down the wrong path.”

The family of four were simply taking turns talking, but they had no actual evidence to prove their innocence. There was an obvious problem with their responses.

What the reporters wanted were explosive revelations and solid evidence; they didn’t go all the way to the press conference to watch the Han Family cry and complain that Su Yu shouldn’t have dug up old news.

“Xiuche, do you have anything to say?” the secretary passed the baton to Han Xiuche. After a few seconds of surprise, he nodded his head.

“Of course I do!”

Afterwards, Han Xiuche walked to the front of the stage.

The reporters were so bored that they almost fell asleep. Why were they from the entertainment industry like Tangning, but Tangning's news was always full of exciting ups and downs, whereas listening to the Han Family was like sitting in on a company meeting?

After Han Xiuche spoke, everything was expected to be over.

The reporters assumed that Father Han would announce that he would give no further responses and the entire incident would be forgotten.

"Before I say anything, I would like to clarify that I wasn't present on the scene when everything happened and have no idea what the truth is!"

Rubbish! Was Han Xiuche simply trying to separate himself from the matter?

"Back when I heard that my mother was caught in bed with two men, I hated her for many years. I hated her for humiliating me in front of so many people."

"I also hated her for ruining our family. Like that, I hated her for 20 years."

"Now, 20 years later, I suddenly have a question that I really want to ask my father."

Father Han looked at his son frustratingly, wondering why he was creating such a fuss. But, he continued to act righteous as he said, "Go ahead and ask!"

"I want to ask whether you're tired of lying to yourself after so many years?"

As soon as Han Xiuche said this, everyone was shocked. Especially Father Han.

What did Han Xiuche mean by this question?

"Xiuche!"

"I'm sorry, you held the press conference because you want to cover up the matter, but I attended because I want to know the truth!" Han Xiuche replied. Afterwards, he turned to face the reporters without taking a single glance at his father, "Since there are so many reporters present, why don't we create some drama. I've already invited Ms Su to come today. Since the two of you have so much suspicion and hatred towards each other, why don't you sit down together and have a proper chat?"

After hearing this, the sleepy reporters immediately woke up...

Was Han Xiuche treating them to a surprise?

As a result, the venue erupted in excitement. At this time, Han Jie jabbed his brother in the hip, "What are you trying to do? The matter was about to come to an end!"

"End? Aren't we just getting started?" Han Xiuche laughed.

Chapter 1087: It's Not Clear Enough

"What are you trying to do?" At that moment, Han Jie finally realized that there was something wrong with his brother's expression.

“What are you afraid of? Since you claim that that woman lied, isn’t it only right for her to clarify everything in front of everyone?” Han Xiuche asked. “Besides, there’s no point accusing each other back and forth. Why don’t I give you a helping hand?”

“You’re crazy! You’re absolutely crazy!”

Han Jie was on the brink of exploding and Father Han was already trembling in anger.

The entire incident was almost over, but due to Han Xiuche’s involvement, the media’s interest was hooked once again.

Unfortunately for the Han Family, they were in the middle of a press conference, so they couldn’t just get up and leave. Hence, they held back their anger and waited for Su Yu to arrive.

Of course, Su Yu and Tangning never expected that Han Xiuche would send someone to fetch Su Yu.

But, since they were already watching the show, they decided it would be more interesting for Su Yu to see the Han Family’s expressions in real life.

So, Su Yu immediately agreed to the invite. Since it was a family matter, Tangning did not tag along. Instead, she told Su Yu to take some bodyguards and a legal team with her, so she could fight back.

As for the game that Han Xiuche wanted to play, Su Yu would have to wait until she arrived at the press conference before she’d find out.

...

After Han Xiuche told everyone that Su Yu was on her way, the reporters in the venue waited anxiously for Su Yu’s arrival.

“What’s Xiuche doing?” the secretary asked Father Han in private. “Is he telling that woman to come so we can become an even bigger joke?”

“How would I know what he’s doing?” Father Han asked coldly, forcing his wife to shut up.

The secretary pursed her lips and did not say another word. She was going to let them argue amongst themselves and sit back to watch the show instead.

Father Han and Han Jie waited for Han Xiuche to explain himself, but Han Xiuche simply sat on the stage confidently without a word.

No one knew what he had brewing, so they all felt a lingering fear.

However, they did not believe that Han Xiuche would betray them unless he was an ungrateful dog. After all, Han Jie had brought him up. But, it seemed, they had forgotten that they themselves were ungrateful.

Roughly ten minutes later, a dark figure finally appeared in the hall of the hotel. Everyone watched as she hobbled to the stage with a line of people behind her.

As soon as they saw Su Yu, the reporters immediately turned to look at her and began to snap photos furiously. But, the Han Family simply snorted at her arrival. Did this cripple want to put up a fight?

Was she planning to completely humiliate herself?

It was an intense meeting between enemies. So, Su Yu scanned her eyes across the tricky family and sneered, "We haven't seen each other for 20 years. Who would have thought that I'd end up seeing you speak such despicable words on television? You are exactly like a remembered you."

"Hmmpf, you cheated, yet you've been creating all this mischief. Look at how you forced our entire family to clean up after you. You are a complete humiliation!" Father Han replied.

"Everyone look, isn't this a lot more interesting?" Han Xiuche laughed when he saw that the two were at odds as soon as they met. "So, now that everyone is here, I have a lot of questions for you. Let me first question my brother."

Han Jie looked at Han Xiuche and furrowed his brows. He had no idea what his brother had planned.

But, Han Xiuche questioned him straightforwardly, "Did you see Ms Su cheat with your own eyes?"

"Xiuche..."

"You simply need to answer me."

"Of course, I saw it clearly!" Han Jie replied firmly. "No matter how many times you ask me, my answer will always be the same."

"OK," Han Xiuche held back and turned his attention to Father Han, "Father, tell me, you returned home to find Ms Su sleeping with two men, right?"

"Of course."

"Secretary Li, you said my father dated you after he got a divorce with Ms Su?"

"Yes," the secretary nodded, even though she didn't know why Han Xiuche was asking this question.

"Great." After Han Xiuche was done questioning his own family, he turned and questioned Su Yu, "What about you?"

Su Yu took a deep breath and said in a resounding voice, "Those three are all lying!"

"But, you have no way of proving your innocence..." Han Xiuche said. "Although you're trying to prove that these people are lying, you have no evidence. Am I right, Ms Su?"

"Of course she has no evidence, because she definitely cheated!" Father Han roared. "She was in bed having a threesome. Didn't the newspapers write about it clearly?"

"Yes, it wasn't clear enough," Han Xiuche replied. "I've asked you previously about the identities of the two men. Yet, you said you weren't sure. Coincidentally, the news did not mention anything about the two men either."

"But, that's exactly where the problem lies. A man discovered his wife cheating and he discovered it at home of all places. Yet, he didn't feel ashamed, instead he took photos and exposed them? Wouldn't a normal man keep it to himself so he wouldn't be humiliated?"

“If you exposed it out of anger, it’s understandable, but, why would you only expose your wife and not the men that she cheated with?”

“You sure are forgiving towards them!”

“Your actions do not make sense for someone that discovered his wife cheating. You sound more like a jerk that framed his own wife so he could have an excuse for a divorce!”

After listening to Han Xiuche, the reporters cheered.

He gave a strong analysis!

“As for the reason why you didn’t expose the identities of the two men: it was either because you were acquainted with them or you were the one that invited them to your place. So, you had to ensure that their identities weren’t exposed!”

“So, which one were you?”

Father Han’s face turned pale.

“As for my brother’s response, it did not answer one important question, was Secretary Li also present at the scene? I’ve expressed my thoughts regarding my father and brother, but I have yet to mention Li Qingai, the secretary. However, Ms Su did mention that Li Qingai called her on the day and told her to open the door so she could fetch some documents.”

“Afterwards, she got the two men to violate her and took photos of the incident! In other words, she was saying that Secretary Li was present at the scene.”

Chapter 1088: An Internal Fight

“I’ve thought about this matter clearly and realized that there’s an issue with the angle that the photos were taken.”

“Everyone can think carefully about the newspapers from 20 years ago and the articles regarding Ms Su. Did you guys think that a furious husband would be calm enough to plan out the angles of his photos and deliberately avoid the faces of the men?”

“20 years ago, we didn’t have cameras on our phones. So, where did the photos come from? An actual camera! How long does it take for a person to fetch a camera to take photos? When Ms Su discovered her husband had returned home, would she have continued sleeping with the two men like nothing happened, while her husband went to fetch his camera?”

“If we take these questions into consideration, how did my father capture photos of his wife cheating? They should have split apart as soon as they were discovered. Plus, according to the angle of the photos, the person that shot them must have been standing very close. Wasn’t it obviously planned?”

After Secretary Li heard this, her face turned red in guilt.

“In other words, Ms Su’s recount of the events was the most accurate. That, not only was the secretary present, she even took the photos!”

As soon as the media heard Han Xiuche's analysis, they wanted to bow down to him. Why did it seem like he suddenly woke up to the truth?

Or was he possessed? Was that why he was siding with Su Yu?

How unbelievable!

Either way, his analysis was completely logical and convincing.

"Han Xiuche, do you know what you're saying?" Father Han stood up straight and yelled towards Han Xiuche. He had to stop him as soon as possible. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

"Father, I'll address you soon. Let me first deal with my brother," Han Xiuche laughed. "My brother said he saw the entire incident. So, you must have seen the two men that cheated with Ms Su, right?"

Han Jie froze!

He was completely dumbfounded. After a few moments of silence, he finally replied, "I was so young back then. How could I know who the men were?"

"You can't remember any distinguishing features whatsoever?"

"No."

"In that case, when did you walk in on the affair? At the beginning? Halfway?"

"Xiuche, what are you trying to find out?" Han Jie asked worriedly. He was afraid that Han Xiuche would grab onto his weakness as soon as he said one wrong word, "Don't forget who brought you up. How dare you speak to me like this?"

"Simply tell me whether Secretary Li was present on the scene!"

"No, she wasn't!" Han Jie replied firmly.

"Then who took the photos?"

"Father did..."

"Think carefully before you answer..."

"Han Xiuche, are you interrogating a criminal?" Han Jie asked angrily. "This entire incident was obviously caused by Su Yu's nonsense. How could you not help your own family and help an outsider instead?"

After hearing this, Han Xiuche suddenly laughed, "Haven't you been helping an outsider for 20 years?"

"What are you trying to say?"

Were the brothers about to tear each other apart? How could that be possible?

Han Xiuche had always despised Su Yu and Tangning. Why did he suddenly change his attitude? Especially since Han Jie had brought him up. Even if Han Xiuche wanted to know the truth, he would never destroy his brother in the process, right?

"You know what I'm trying to say. What did you see and what did you do 20 years ago?"

After hearing this question, Han Jie looked at his brother with a complicated expression. He couldn't believe that this question came from his own brother.

So, he was both surprised and filled with disbelief, "Han Xiuche, no matter what I've done, I have a clear conscience when it comes to you!"

"Enough! Stop playing your little detective game and judging people. There's nothing more to this story, the truth is already before your eyes. So, let's end the press conference here..." Father Han stepped forward to clean the mess. He wanted to end the humiliation as soon as possible, especially before Han Xiuche continued with his analysis. He was afraid that Han Xiuche would eventually expose the truth, so his actions were a result of guilt.

But, Han Xiuche turned around and looked at his father and brother and said, "What if I present you with evidence?"

As soon as they heard the word 'evidence', the reporters eyes immediately lit up.

"Is this an internal fight?"

"What's wrong with Han Xiuche? This is unbelievable."

"No one has presented any evidence regarding this matter. To be honest, I doubt he has any either!"

All of a sudden, the hall was in an uproar because of Han Xiuche's words.

If there was evidence, then this matter would not be going back and forth for so long.

"Han Xiuche, if you're done causing trouble, then get lost!" Father Han was obviously starting to lose his temper. "All you reporters can leave as well."

"Me? Causing trouble? I'm not doing such a thing. From the time I was old enough to understand anything, everyone has been telling me that my mother was a tramp because of photos of her cheating had been published in the newspapers. At the same time, you and Han Jie have been creating a bad image of her in front of me. As a result, I hated her for 20 years!"

"I never questioned what I was told. I believed everything you told me. But, I never imagined that both of you had been lying to me!"

"Who's been placing these ideas into you? Was it that woman? How could you believe her words?"

Han Xiuche turned and looked at Han Jie. He then said in a powerful voice, "If I don't believe her, am I supposed to believe you? Ever since she put forward her claims, your actions have been extremely abnormal. You once said that that woman was shameless, but you've been lying with the same amount of shamelessness."

"Han Xiuche...you..."

"I was there when you visited Li Qingai's cousin," Han Xiuche cut in. "You visited him for three hours and taught him how to put on a pity act by telling his wife to run into the wall. Do I need to refresh your memory?"

Han Jie's expression immediately changed.

“And, what about the discussions you had on the phone with father about ways to suppress this incident. Should I refresh your memory on that too?”

“Xiuche, it’s not what you think. You’ve misunderstood...”

“Compared to the way that Ms Su has hurt me, your lies have been more painful...”

“This must have been a part of Su Yu’s plan to drive a wedge between us.”

“That’s enough...” Han Xiuche lost control, “Do you really think that I have no evidence?”

“Xiuche, think it over clearly, I’m your brother!”

“That woman over there is your mother! Didn’t you end up betraying her?” Han Xiuche ridiculed.

“Fine, since you claim that you have evidence, where is it?” Han Jie suddenly changed his attitude towards Han Xiuche.

Chapter 1089: He Deserves To Be Angered To Death

As she watched the brothers argue, Su Yu finally lost her patience as she said, “That’s enough. How much longer do you want to put on an act in front of me? I know your final motive is to help your father and the media wipe away the memory of what happened 20 years ago.”

“Since that’s the case, what’s the point of pretending to be at odds with each other?”

“It makes me look down on you even more!”

“Han Xiuche, I don’t know why you called me over here. Did you call me here to see how united your family is?”

“Or, are you simply provoking me?”

“If that’s the case, then I’m here and your motive has been achieved. Shouldn’t this show come to an end?”

Han Xiuche looked at the woman below the stage and suddenly fell silent, because Su Yu couldn’t tell...no, to be exact, she couldn’t believe that he would help her.

After being hurt for 20 years – the latest occurrence being only 2 days ago – what reason did she have to believe him?

With this thought, Han Xiuche glanced at Han Jie, his pale-faced father and the secretary and nodded his head. He then stepped off the stage and signaled for the hotel staff to turn on their audio and visual equipment. Soon, the video he recorded of the conversation between him and the secretary’s cousin began to play on the big screen.

“This matter started from my cousin. Back then, she told me she was pregnant, but Mr. Han wouldn’t get a divorce. So, she asked me to help her scare Su Yu. I didn’t expect the drama that followed to unfold. At that time, I must have been possessed by lust. I swear I never took advantage of your mother; it was my cousin’s classmate.”

As soon as the first sentence left the man's mouth and the video started playing on the big screen, everyone was shocked by what they heard.

In reality, Han Xiuche had actually threatened the man into repeating himself on the night that they met.

That was when he recorded the video!

After the video got to this point, Father Han looked at Han Jie questioningly. How did Han Xiuche get a video like this?

Han Jie shook his head in a clueless manner.

At this time, Father Han stood up, grabbed his chair and whacked it against the screen. With a loud bang, everyone jumped in shock at Father Han's actions!

"Today's press conference ends here. All you reporters can leave, I will leave the rest for my lawyers to handle."

Father Han glared at Han Xiuche as he emphasized every word with all his strength!

But, Han Xiuche did not back down.

"If you don't put an end to this matter today, I will place this video online so everyone has a copy!"

As soon as Father Han heard this, his hands clenched into fists. He originally wanted to respond, but the secretary quickly jumped ahead of him, "Xiuche, can you not be angry at your father? After all these years, haven't you learned to grow up a little?"

"You're the last person to be talking!" Han Xiuche scolded as he pointed at Li Qingai. "Who gave a mistress the right to share her opinion on my matter?" "

"Are you trying to anger your father to death?"

"He deserves to be angered to death!" Han Xiuche replied coldly.

"What benefits did Tangning give you? What benefits did 'that woman' give you? Why are you turning on the people that gave birth to you and brought you up?" Han Jie took the opportunity to yell at his brother. "Answer me!"

"She never gave me any benefits. You were the one's that truly hurt me! It was all of you!"

"Why won't you let me continue playing the video? Are you feeling guilty about something?"

"Are you afraid that people will know that you teamed up to frame your own wife and mother?"

"Why are you afraid? If you had the audacity to do it, then you shouldn't be afraid of admitting to it!"

"As for Li Qingai, you are the most disgusting person of all! You guys may be willing to end the press conference without a proper conclusion. However, you have no choice but to lower your heads in guilt because of this video! It's best you think things over clearly!" After speaking, Han Xiuche approached Su Yu and said to her, "I know you won't forgive me, no matter what I do or say, but I will still get a conclusion today."

Su Yu looked at Han Xiuche and took a deep breath. Even though she didn't completely trust him, she did not stop him either.

Now that they were on the same side, it was the rest of the Han Family's turn to make a decision.

"So?"

"Father!" Han Jie turned and looked at Father Han.

Father Han did not respond straight away. After a while in silence, he finally rushed off the stage and threw a punch at Han Xiuche's face, "From today onwards, I'm going to pretend you were never my son!"

The reporters gasped in shock and assumed that the father and son were about to break out into a fight. But, Han Xiuche rubbed his chin, stood up and faced his father confidently.

Of course, even his actions that day couldn't excuse the horrible things he had done in the past, but he at least displayed some humanity.

With the video that Han Xiuche captured, Father Han was left in a helpless state. What could he do? Could he claim that this video was also fake?

If he really did that, then he was truly lying to himself and asking to be shamed.

"Since things have gotten to this point, there's nothing I can say..." Father Han said before he turned and left the hotel. Which meant, Han Xiuche could expose whatever he wanted. He wasn't going to sit around and get humiliated.

Han Jie watched as Father Han left. After his gaze met with Li Qingai, he also turned and left.

Afterwards, the reporters gathered around Han Xiuche and asked for a copy of the video in his hands.

To prevent further troubles, Han Xiuche sent his video to the reporters. Since Father Han wouldn't admit to his wrongs today, he had plenty of time to admit to it later.

Su Yu looked at Han Xiuche. This was perhaps the most meaningful thing he had done up until this point. So, she did not say a word as she turned and left. However, after she returned home, she received a phone call from Tangning.

"Auntie Su, I saw the news, but you can't let your guard down just yet. I have a feeling that this video won't be enough and Han Xiuche will be suspected of creating a fake!"

"If you look at the man in the video, it's obvious that he was forced to say what he did."

Tangning received first-hand news that the Han Family had a huge argument at the press conference. It was a typical example of a socialite family drama.

"Either way, he was only trying to do something good, wasn't he?" Su Yu asked. "Let's wait and see how the public respond."

The complete video was posted online half an hour after the press conference and spread like crazy!

Although the video was at risk of being called a fake, it clearly detailed the disgusting incident that happened in the Han Family home 20 years ago.

Chapter 1090: Kneel And Apology

It didn't take long before the video was thoroughly spread online.

"Although I've been watching this show for a long time and I knew the result a long time ago (after all, the Han Family were simply lying to themselves), only after seeing this piece of trash admit to his wrongdoings can I imagine what Su Yu went through 20 years ago. It's something that I would never be able to handle if I was in her position!"

"She was betrayed by her husband and he even broke her leg. At the same time, her son acknowledged a thief as his mother. I think Su Yu was already being merciful for waiting 20 years to expose them."

"The Han Family reminds me of a phrase: 'Don't judge a book by its cover'. Look at Han Jie, he looks like a man of good morals on the surface, but he is merely a wolf in sheep's clothing. Even as a child, he already knew how to betray his own mother."

"Most despicable of all was the mistress. She stole another woman's man and showed up at their family home to apply pressure. Worst of all, she brought men along with her to humiliate the other party. A woman like this is even worse than a mistress!"

Opinions online were self-evident. They were all siding with Su Yu because the contents of Han Xiuche's video were clear.

Although Father Han contacted his lawyer and the lawyer confirmed that the video was invalid, everyone already had their own answer.

Even if the matter was moved into the court and Su Yu lost the case due to lack of evidence, everyone still viewed her as a victim. This was already a certainty.

The Han Family were nervous. After all, Han Jie's artists could no longer secure any jobs because of the incident that happened and even Han Xiuche's manhua contract was canceled. Moreover, their stocks plummeted by a few billion in one day. Meanwhile, Father Han thought that distance would leave his overseas business unscathed. Unfortunately, Tangning shared the news with an overseas website, causing Father Han's business to also be affected.

As a result, Father Han locked himself at home and smoked all day.

At the same time, Han Jie and Li Qingai looked deeply depressed.

"You've been so good to Han Xiuche over the years. Who would have thought that he'd betray you in the end?!"

Han Jie let out a laugh and shook his head, "All I can do is pretend that I never had this brother!"

“If I was to say that I want to find someone to teach him a lesson, what would you do?” Li Qingai tested. “After all, our peaceful family suddenly turned into this because of that man. So, shouldn’t he pay for what he’s done?”

Li Qingai swirled the wine glass in her hand and continued, “Otherwise, my anger will never subside!”

“Your choice.” At that time, Han Jie never expected that this casual answer would end up risking his brother’s life. After all, he never thought Li Qingai would actually send someone to do something!

Soon after, Li Qingai used Father Han’s phone to send a message to Han Xiuche, inviting him to meet on the rooftop of Han Jie’s apartment.

But, when Han Xiuche arrived at the rooftop, he was quickly surrounded by a group of men and beaten.

Han Xiuche never expected that his father would call him out and beat him...

...

It soon hit midnight.

Tangning was awoken by a phone call from Long Jie. As soon as she picked up, she was met with some shocking news, “Han Xiuche fell off a building and he sent you a video.”

“What?”

As the news was so shocking, Tangning could not process it all at once. So, after a few minutes, she got out of bed and went to the study room to check the news online.

She then looked at the video that Long Jie sent her. It was a video of Han Xiuche kneeling on the floor, covered in blood. It seemed, he had recorded the video himself. But, his speech was a little slurred.

Tangning had to turn the volume up to its maximum before she could hear him clearly.

“Tangning, here’s the kneel and apology that I owe you.”

“Mom...I actually want to apologize to you...but...I don’t think I’ll get the chance.”

Afterwards, Han Xiuche fell unconscious.

Tangning immediately returned Long Jie’s call, “What happened?”

“Apparently, the Han Family sent some people to teach Han Xiuche a lesson. While they were fighting on the roof, Han Xiuche fell off the edge. But, after he fell, he quickly recorded this video and sent it out instead of calling the ambulance!”

“How could the Han Family be this ruthless?” Tangning couldn’t believe that they would risk someone’s life, especially when they were family. But, then again, they had already done it once in the past, so it was no surprise. Everything simply happened so quickly.

“Has Auntie Su found out yet?”

“I heard she’s already at the hospital. Han Xiuche still has a thread of hope. Although he’s really annoying, using this method to apologize is...”

Seeing the apology made one uncomfortable.

“Auntie Su has Uncle Long to accompany her. You don’t need to worry.”

“That’s all, I simply called you to give you a heads up.”

After the two women got off the phone, Tangning gently returned to the bedroom. However, Mo Ting was already awake and looking at the news.

“You already know everything?” Tangning asked as she approached the bed, sat down on the edge and leaned against Mo Ting. “Now that I think about it, I wonder if everything that happened wasn’t worth it. Although I hate Han Xiuche, seeing him kneel and apologize in this way makes me very uncomfortable.”

“I will help you release a statement tomorrow.”

“OK,” Tangning nodded. Afterwards, she remained awake until daybreak.

Early the next morning, news quickly spread that Han Xiuche suffered serious injuries and was declared brain dead...

Meanwhile, at the hospital, no one from the Han Family showed up. Only Su Yu and her husband were present. However, when they heard that Han Xiuche was brain dead, the news was very difficult for them to accept.

“Doctor...I reckon he can still be saved. His video appeared on the news just last night.”

“Ma’am, I’m sorry. I know it’s hard to accept, but you need to understand that a normal person would have already died after falling from such heights. When he recorded the video, I also thought he still had a chance, but in reality, his injuries are much too severe. My condolences...”

“Doctor...”

At this time, Father Han and Han Jie rushed into the hospital.

“How’s my son?”

The doctor glanced at Father Han. Just as he was about to answer, Su Yu suddenly threw a slap across his face, “20 years ago, I was the victim. This time, it was your son. You honestly have no humanity left in you! Xiuche’s gone now, are you happy?”

“What nonsense are you talking about?” Father Han obviously couldn’t accept what he heard.

Even Han Jie thought Su Yu was just scaring them, “How could anything happen to Xiuche?”

“If you don’t believe me, go have a look for yourself.”

The father and son had no idea what was happening. All they knew was, when they woke up in the morning, their phones were switched off.

In fact, they had no idea that Li Qingai had already run away as well...