

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 274

What Can You Use To Compensate? Rosalie searched all the way back to the hotel. When she stepped into the lobby, she saw Wendy sitting on the sofa with her back facing the entrance. She would normally avoid coming into contact with her. However, this was related to Estie. She walked over without even hesitating. "Is Estie back?" Wendy's mind was everywhere because of what had happened earlier. It was only when Rosalie was in front of her did she notice her presence.

Coming into eye contact with each other, the panic in Wendy's eyes immediately turned into anger.

'It's her! Rosalie Jacobs! It's all because of her that Estie went missing!

Seeing how she was staring at her, Rosalie frowned and found it strange, so she wanted to ask. Suddenly, Wendy stood up from the sofa with reddish eyes. She pointed at Rosalie and scolded her, "How dare you still ask?! Estie wouldn't have run out if it wasn't because of you! It's all your fault, you b*tch!" Rosalie's expression changed slightly. "What are you talking about?" 'Because of me? What happened before Estie left?' "What have you been feeding Estie all this while? How can she be so clingy toward you? What's wrong with me switching rooms for her?" Wendy said with a mad expression. No one knew if she was trying to blame Rosalie or persuade herself.

Hearing what she said, the guilt in Rosalie's heart started to spread. She felt as if she was going to suffocate.

'So Estie ran out because she wanted to look for me?

'If I had agreed to let her tag along, this might not have happened. 'It's my fault... "B*tch! If anything happens to Estie, what can you use to compensate us?!" Wendy felt as if she was not at fault and started to judge Rosalie like a saint. "I've warned you to stay away from Estie and Byron, but you refused to listen! You knew about her condition and still allowed her to cling to you! Are you trying to get back together with Byron through Estie? Dream on!"

Rosalie could not get any of the words into her mind as she could only think of Estie.

If anything happened to the little girl, she would definitely be unable to forgive herself!

"So, Estie isn't back?" she asked softly

Wendy kept quiet for a few seconds with an ugly expression. She then answered with some annoyance, "No! I told you she went out for you!" After getting her answer, Rosalie nodded absent-mindedly and left the hotel without bothering about Wendy

Since the little girl went missing because she wanted to look for her, she must find her as soon as possible!

'The little girl must be extremely afraid and lonely now.'

In the hotel lobby, Wendy watched Rosalie leave while she was in a bad mood.

'It's all because of that b*tch that I'm now in such a state!

“That little btch is also another troublemaker. Why did she even run away? Can’t she leave this btch for even a second?’

Wendy was trying her best to put all the blame on Rosalie. However, she still could not stop panicking. After considering it for quite some time, she still called the police to file a report and called to inform Melody.

‘No matter what, it’s better for me to tell her instead of Byron!’

After two rings, the other person picked up the call.

“Hey, Wendy. What’s the matter?” Melody’s cheerful voice came through. “Didn’t you go to visit Estie? How is she?” Wendy sounded as if she was about to cry. “Aunt Melody, Estie... Estie is missing...”
