

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 275

Find Her In No Time Melody was watching TV in the living room. She immediately got worked up upon hearing that. "What did you say?!"

Wendy clenched her fist and made herself sound guilty. "It's all my fault. I didn't take care of Estie properly and made her run away..."

"How long has she been gone? Have you reported it to the police? Where are you now? I'll send people over immediately!" Melody was so worried that she wanted to fly over immediately.

'How did my good granddaughter disappear out of nowhere?!

Wendy answered softly, "We're looking for her right now, and the police are helping as well. Don't worry."

Melody was extremely anxious, so her words did not sound pleasant. "How can I not worry?! It's about to be dark soon! Estie will be so afraid! Okay, I must tell your Uncle Lawrence to send people over!" Wendy agreed. The more manpower they had, the higher the hopes were. After hanging up the call, Wendy also went out to help in the search. Melody then called Byron to confirm the situation. Byron was looking for the little girl along the mountains. He frowned when he suddenly saw his mother calling.

"Have you found Estie?" His mother's voice came through immediately after he picked up the call.

Hearing that, Byron's frown deepened. "Who told you?"

Melody sounded as if she was blaming him. "Are you still trying to hide such a big matter from me? Where are you now? I'll send people over!"

Byron was even more annoyed. "You don't have to. I already told Luther to bring people over."

Melody did not continue to insist, but she wanted to come over herself. However, Byron stopped her. "This is a remote place. You'll only be waiting in the hotel even if you're here. Just cut the hassle. I'll call you after I find her."

Melody had no choice but to give up her idea "You must find Estie as soon as possible. Call me immediately when you do!"

Byron agreed and hung up the call with a frown. On the other hand, Rosalie grew more and more anxious when she saw that the sky was getting darker. However, considering that the two boys were still waiting at the entrance of the botanic Garden, she had to return.

At the garden's entrance, she could see the two boys holding hands while waiting there. "Mommy!" Noticing Rosalie's return, the two boys immediately went up to her. "Did you find Estie?"

Rosalie did not want the boys to be worried and forced a smile. “Nope. I’ll send you two back first and continue searching after.”

That being said, she touched their heads and brought them back to the hotel.

On their way back, Nox was very worried about Estie knowing that it was getting late. “It’s already dark. Estie must be very scared.”

Lucian had the same solemn expression, but he pursed his lips and kept quiet as he did not want his mommy to be more worried.

Rosalie was moody, and her words sounded forced, “I’ll find her in no time.”

After sending the two boys back, Rosalie took a torchlight from her luggage and was about to go out again. Lucian grabbed her sleeve. “Mommy, you should go after dinner, or else you won’t have enough energy.”

The smile on Rosalie’s face almost faded completely as she shook her head. “I have no appetite. I must hurry up and find Estie. After all, she went missing because of me...”

Hearing that, the two boys tilted their heads in confusion. “Mommy, what are you talking about? We’ve always been together. What does Estie going missing have to do with you?”

Rosalie realized what she just let slip and quickly smiled. “It’s nothing. Be good and stay inside I’ll go out now.” That being said, she patted their heads and turned back into the elevator.
