

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 276

I Will Not Forgive That Woman Miss Leigh Ann sent a text to check in on everyone in the parents' group. Everyone unanimously replied that they had yet to find her. After all, Byron's daughter had gone missing. Everyone was trying their best to look for her. However, the area around the botanical garden was full of deep forests. None of them were so foolish to the extent that they would go in to look for her.

Byron saw everyone's replies. However, he did not see Rosalie's reply among them. He could not help but frown.

After coming out of the botanical garden, both of them separated. He had not been in contact with Rosalie ever since.

He wondered how she was doing.

Besides, it was dark outside. Byron could not let a woman like her continue the search outside all by herself. With this thought in mind, Byron dialed Rosalie's number.

He dialed her number three times consecutively. However, her phone was out of the service area.

Byron's expression gradually darkened.

Luther brought his men over. "Sir, our men have already dispersed. They're looking for Estie in the forest."

Byron nodded after hearing what he said. He ordered coldly, "Continue the search throughout the night. We must find Estie as soon as possible."

Luther agreed.

Byron glanced at his phone screen, which had turned dark. He frowned and said, "I'll go back to the botanical garden. Let's keep in touch at all times."

After speaking, he took large strides in the direction of the botanical garden. He wondered if anyone would look after the two children if that woman did not return right now

11 nobody managed to find Estie and something else happened to the two children, he did not know how guilty that woman would feel.

However, he did not see the two children anywhere after returning to the botanical garden.

Byron's heart sank as he turned around and returned to the hotel.

He simply hoped that they were waiting for him in the hotel.

Byron let out a long sigh of relief after seeing the two children waiting for him in the room.

"Uncle, did you manage to find Estie?" Nox asked him frantically.

Byron shook his head and said, "We're still looking for her. Where's your mommy? Did she bring both of you back?"

Nox's small face was full of worry. "Mommy went out to look for Estie after sending us back. She didn't even have dinner. She told us that Estie got lost while looking for us." After speaking, Nox looked at Byron in confusion. "Did Estie really head out to look for us?"

If that was the case, he would feel extremely guilty.

Estie wanted to be with them in the afternoon, but he had even urged his mommy to leave as soon as possible...

Byron's gaze hardened. "No, this has nothing to do with both of you. Stay in the room obediently. Don't open the door for anyone unless it's Estie."

The children agreed and watched as he turned around and left.

Somehow, their bad daddy seemed to be angrier than he was when he entered the room.

Byron walked out of the room. The things that he heard just now continued playing in his ears

Rosalie said that Estie went missing because she went to look for her.

Only Wendy would say something like that! That woman had angered Estie She did not take good care of her either. Finally, she blamed everything on Rosalie!

After seeing the two children, he could just imagine how guilty Rosalie felt because of Wendy's words She refused to eat dinner and went out to look for Estie all night due to her

At this thought, Byron exuded a hostile aura.

Rosalie's Pilot Was out of the service area when he called her just now. This meant that it was Very likely that she had run into the mountains on her own!

He had enough of Wendy!

If anything happened to Rosalie and Estie this time around, he definitely would not forgive that woman
