

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 300

After Mommy came home, the two little boys had been picked up by Mary and were playing with Legos in the living room.

Seeing her come in wet, the boys became worried. " Mommy, were you caught in the rain?"

Rosalie was a little tired, but still rubbed the heads of the little boys soothingly. "I didn't expect it to rain, so I didn't bring an umbrella, and it rained a bit on the way to the parking lot, not a big deal."

After that, Nanny Lisa took care of the boys, while she went upstairs to take a shower and changed her clothes.

She went downstairs and played with the boys for a while before returning to her room to rest.

Maybe she was too tired these two days, Rosalie just felt powerless, and fell asleep almost as soon as she lay down.

In the middle of the night, she was woken up by the heat and wanted to get a glass of water. As soon as she got up from the bed, her arms suddenly softened, and she fell back on the bed.

Rosalie frowned slightly, slowly woke up, and realized with hindsight that she seemed to have a fever.

It is slightly past midnight now, so she does not want to disturb anyone, she thought it is best to sleep first, maybe tomorrow will be fine.

Then, Rosalie fell asleep again in a daze.

The next morning, Lucian and Nox got up early.

Some time ago, Mommy was busy with work, and it was Nanny Lisa and the godmother who picked them up. Now that Mommy is done with work, she can send them to school again.

The two little boys are looking forward to that.

Mommy did not come down even after they had finished breakfast.

Seeing that they were going to be late, the two boys could no longer wait, so they went upstairs and knocked on Rosalie's door.

After knocking for a while, no one responded.

The boys hurriedly went down and called Lisa, " Nanny Lisa, Mommy won't open the door, come and have a look."

Hearing this, Lisa was alarmed, and hurried up, took the key, and opened the door.

As soon as the door opened, the two boys rushed in almost immediately.

All they saw was Mommy lying on the bed, weak with her eyes closed, face flushed, and lips chapped, all signs of a high fever.

“Mommy!” Nox worriedly called Rosalie twice but got no response.

Lisa touched Rosalie’s forehead and her expression became heavy.

Compared to the last time, Rosalie burned, even more, this time.

Moreover, looking at this situation, Rosalie might not be able to wake up for a while, and they were unable to take her to the hospital...

Thinking of this, Lisa’s face was riddled with anxiety. Lucian’s little face was also full of solemnity. He glanced at the time and said to Nanny Lisa, “Nanny Lisa, please call the school for me and Nox, we can’t go. We have to take care of Mommy at home.”

Lisa hurriedly agreed and gave their teacher, Miss Leigh Ann a call. After the call, she went to get a wet towel to cool Rosalie’s temperature physically.

The two little boys stayed by the bedside for a while, waiting for Mommy to wake up.

Rosalie slept very deeply, but she could not wake up when she wanted to. She also vaguely heard the voices of two boys before struggling to open her eyes.

“Mommy!” Seeing that Mommy woke up, the two boys approached Rosalie excitedly.

Rosalie was stunned for a moment, then frowned and wanted to get up. “I’m sorry, Mommy got up late.”

She also thought about sending the two little boys to kindergarten.

Lucian and Nox carefully pushed her back to the bed, with seriousness on their faces. “Mommy, you have a fever, we already asked for leave to take care of you at home.”

Hearing this, Rosalie was stunned and later realized that she is still having a fever, and it seemed that the fever has not subsided.

The two little boys cared about her so much, Rosalie’s eyes were damp with emotions.
