

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 302

“Little Lady, did you tell Master about this?”

Halfway through, the driver only remembered this important question.

There was silence in the car.

The driver felt apprehensive.

The Little Lady of my family is definitely action first and thoughts later. If Master finds out about this...

Thinking of this, the driver hesitantly glanced at the little one in the rearview mirror, “Til help you inform Master, alright?”

Estie shook her head. “No.”

She is NOT telling Daddy!

The last time the Beautiful Auntie would drive her away was because of Daddy.

Beautiful Auntie does not like Daddy, so she did not even let Estie stay with her. If Daddy goes in with her again this time, she is afraid that Auntie will not let her in.

Seeing the firm look of the young lady, the driver remained silent in the end, thinking about sending the young lady to the place first and then telling the Young Master himself.

Soon, the car stopped in front of Rosalie’s house.

Little Estie jumped out of the car and hurriedly rang the doorbell.

Almost everyone in the family took care of Rosalie upstairs, so that they did not hear anything downstairs.

After pressing for a long time, no one came to the door. The little girl was so anxious that her eyes were red, and the frequency of ringing the doorbell became gradually slower.

It was when Nanny Lisa came downstairs to cook porridge for Rosalie when she heard the doorbell.

She opened the door and to find the lonely little girl at the door, Lisa could not help but freeze for a moment. “Estie, why are you here alone?”

Estie was crying. “Auntie...”

Lisa was taken aback at how pitiful the little one was. “ Are you here alone to find Miss Jacobs?”

The little one nodded vigorously, poked her head, and looked inside, wanting to see if Auntie or the brothers were there.

Nothing.

Lisa hesitated for a while, then turned to let the little guy into the living room.

She witnessed the last time when Rosalie drove Estie and her father. Therefore, she was still confused about Rosalie's stance in regard to Estie.

Since the little girl was alone, she did not dare to let the child wait outside for too long.

As the little girl waited in the living room, Lisa went upstairs to explain the situation to Rosalie.

"She's alone?" The fever was messing with Rosalie's head, her face flushed, but her lips were chapped and white.

Lisa nodded, "I asked her to wait downstairs. Do you think she should come up, or contact President Lawrence and ask him to pick up the child?"

Rosalie had a fever, so her reaction was slow, and she did not have an answer immediately.

The two little boys were excited to call their little sister upstairs.

During this time, they watched little sister miss Mommy, and now she is looking for Mommy again. They are afraid that the little sister will run away again.

Moreover, they also know that Mommy has always rejected Bad Daddy, but never Little Estie.

Seeing that Mommy didn't speak for a long time, the little guys hurriedly spoke for little sister, "Mommy, let little sister come up, she must know from the teacher that you are sick, so she came over by herself."

Rosalie furrowed her brows and nodded anyway.

She could not bear to leave the little girl alone; it always reminded her of when she curled up at the bottom of the pit that night.

With Mommy's permission, the two little guys went downstairs and brought their little sister up.

It was not the first time that Little Estie came to Rosalie's bedroom, and even lived there for quite some time.

However, this time she felt a little nervous.

She has not seen her Beautiful Auntie for a long time, and Auntie is still ill...