

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 427

Although Rosalie kept telling Mary that she was alright, Mary still felt extremely worried. She examined her body once thoroughly.

Finally, she confirmed that Rosalie was only feeling like this due to the shock she experienced. She would recover after getting enough rest.

Rosalie did not want the children to worry about her. She lay down in her room for a while, got up, and went downstairs.

Lisa had just served dinner on the dining table and was about to go upstairs to ask Rosalie to come down for dinner when she saw her making her way downstairs.

"How do you feel now? Can you eat all of this? If you don't have the appetite, I'll make some oats for you." Lisa looked at Rosalie's complexion in concern.

Rosalie's complexion has visibly improved after resting for a while, she shook her head at Lisa comfortingly and said, "I won't trouble you. I don't have much of an appetite, so I'll just have some of the food here."

After speaking, she sat down by the dining table.

The children were worried about their mommy. They sat down on the sofa in the living room seriously.

After Mommy told them that she would be fetching them to the kindergarten, Lucian and Nox could not help but feel happy for Estie.

Besides, if Mommy could fetch them to the kindergarten, that meant that Mommy had recovered!

Rosalie smiled and nodded after seeing the excited expressions on their faces. "I'm a loser if I'm lying to you guys."

The children smiled. They then lowered their heads obediently and started eating.

After dinner, Mary stayed a little longer. After the children fell asleep, she took care of Rosalie and made sure she went to bed before getting up and heading off.

"If you still feel uncomfortable tomorrow, remember to call me. I'll fetch both of them," Mary reminded her worriedly before leaving.

Rosalie chuckled and said, "I got it. I've troubled you for the past two days."

Mary glared at Rosalie and said, "I'm Lucian and Nox's godmother. It's my obligation to look after them. You should recover as soon as possible."

Rosalie smiled and nodded, she then watched as Mary left.
