

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 389

Hearing Leon's voice, Lucius' arrogance completely dimmed. He shut his mouth with embarrassment, but he still despised Rosalie in his heart.

His status in the country's holistic medicine was second to none. Except for the few aristocratic families, any holistic medicine doctor would treat him with respect.

He had heard of most of the popular doctors in the country.

However, he had never heard of this lady before. He could say that she was not anyone significant.

How would she dare speak to him in such a way if she did not have the support of Young Master Leon and Lancer?!

Leon noticed that Lucius had toned down, so he nodded at Rosalie to comfort her.

Rosalie thanked him gratefully, "Thank you, Senior. Don't worry, I'm definitely in a good condition."

She was initially nervous, but because of Lucius' provocation, her nervousness was replaced by anger. The only thing she wanted to do right now was to prove herself to him so that he would remove his prejudice against her.

Noticing how she was not affected, Leon let out a sigh of relief.

Xander, who was on the other side, continued staring at them meaningfully.

He already knew that they were friends when he met Leon in his office earlier.

However, he did not expect them to be so close to each other.

The room fell into a short moment of silence.

There were some noises coming from the door, followed by the reminder from the workers, "Young Master Lancer, the free consultation has begun. The children are on their way."

Hearing that, the group immediately prepared themselves, adjusted their expressions, and looked at the door with smiles on their faces.

Four cute children walked into the room in a line.

Seeing the four in the room, the children could not help but start blushing.

Except for Lucius, who was nearly middle-aged and had a beer belly, the other three had good looks. Although they held friendly smiles on their faces, the little guys could not help but feel shy.

They stood at the door for a long time without walking in.

In fact, Xander was experienced in such situations. Just as he was about to move forward to bring them in, he noticed Rosalie had already gone over.

“Hey there, everyone!” Rosalie squatted down with a smile in front of the children and touched their heads lovingly.

Noticing her approach, the children got even shier and wanted to step back.

Rosalie somehow had a handful of candies and showed them to the children while speaking gently, “These candies are really delicious. Do you all want to have some?”

The children had no resistance to candies and kept staring at Rosalie’s palm.

Rosalie kept her hand and reached her other hand toward another girl. “Here, let me do some checks on your body and I’ll give you candies after.”

The little girl looked at her timidly, she felt that the lady in front of her was not just beautiful and smelled pleasant, but she seemed to be glowing when she was looking at her with a smile.

Seeing how the little girl looked, Rosalie could not help but recall her first time meeting Estie. she was also as afraid as this little girl now.

Thinking of that, Rosalie’s expression became more gentle, she looked at the little girl patiently.

After a brief moment, the little girl finally reached out her hand carefully and grabbed one of her fingers.

Rosalie let out a sigh of relief and led the little girl to lie down in bed.

The remaining three children wanted to follow her as well but were blocked by three men. They got nervous and stepped back.

Rosalie turned around and shook her head helplessly before saying to the kids, “You boys can let the uncles do your check-ups. I’ll also give you candies, alright?”

That being said, the children hesitated for a bit before lying on the three other beds in fear.
