

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 469

In the kindergarten, two little boys surrounded Miss Leigh Ann.

'Teacher, where did little sister go?'

Miss Leigh Ann did not know either, but she comforted the little ones." Estie asked for day of leave. As for the reason, I'm not sure either."

The boys pursued further with their question. "Will we see little sister tomorrow?"

Miss Leigh Ann hesitated for a moment, then smiled and affirmed them as she saw how anxious they were. "Yes."

Hearing this, the little boys felt relieved.

However, when school was about to end, suddenly, Miss Leigh Ann received a call from the principal.

As soon as she reached the principal's office, he pushed a document in front of her.

"All that is left is your signature." With that said, the director handed over a pen.

Miss Leigh Ann took the pen in puzzlement and lowered her eyes to look at the document.

When she saw the document content, her eyes were full of puzzlement. ' Estie wants to transfer? Why? Is there something wrong with our kindergarten?'

The principal explained with a smile. "President Lawrence said, it's a personal reason. He will continue to invest in our kindergarten, you can rest assured to sign!'

Miss Leigh Ann could not put a stroke down.

Estie was sent out of the school by her own hands.

If she knew that the little girl was going to transfer schools, Miss Leigh Ann would have a talk with Byron no matter what.

In Estie's case, she was not suitable to transfer schools at all.

Moreover, she just promised Lucian and Nox that they would meet Little Estie tomorrow.

If she really signed and Estie transferred to another school, how would she explain to the little ones?

"Hurry up and sign this. I want the Young Lady of the Lawrence family to stay in our school, too. This way, President Lawrence's investment in US will be maximized, but this is his decision, and we cannot change it."

The principal advised her earnestly.

Miss Leigh Ann came back to her senses and finally signed her name under the document.

Early the next morning, Lisa sent the two little boys to the school gate.

The little ones gathered around Miss Leigh Ann immediately, and asked her childishly, "Teacher, is little sister here?"

Miss Leigh Ann shook her head with a troubled look.

The little boys just thought that the little sister would come later, so they stood beside Miss Leigh Ann. "Then well wait here for her!"

As she looked at their innocent faces, Miss Leigh Ann opened her mouth, but unsure how to break it to them.

The boys waited until it was time for class, and Estie was nowhere to be seen.

Miss Leigh Ann knew that she could not hide it anymore. "Don't wait anymore, Estie...she won't be here."

Hearing this, the two little boys widened their eyes. "Why?!"

'It was fine yesterday! Why would she not come to school all of a sudden?!' Miss Leigh Ann avoided their eyes and said in a helpless tone, "I only knew about it at the end of school yesterday. Estie is going to transfer schools." The little boys' eyes were full of shock.

'Little sister wants to transfer school? How could we not know'

'For such a big matter, little sister would tell US for sure!'

"This must be a last-minute decision. I'm so sorry but I don't know why either." Miss Leigh Ann explained.

Lucian and Nox finally believed that little sister had transferred schools.

The faces of the little boys collapsed in unison at this realization.

Miss Leigh Ann knew how close these three little ones were. It was unbearable for her to look at the heartbroken faces of the little boys.

She could only pat their heads in attempts to soothe them. "Although you are not in the same school anymore, you can still play together when you get home."
