

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 487

After Byron finished speaking, he strode out of the mansion with the little one in his arms.

Melody was very angry as she watched her son take the child away like this, but there was nothing she could do.

For the next few days, the little girl did not go to kindergarten anymore but stayed at home under Byron's arrangement.

The little girl's mood became much more stable after she returned to a familiar environment.

Although she was still throwing a temper tantrum at Byron, she was willing to say a few words to Mrs. Zora.

Byron knew the little girl's temper and knew that she would be willing to talk eventually, so he let her be.

During the weekend, Lucian and Nox thought about going to see Little Estie again.

They were unsure if she had gone back, but they were really worried.

Rosalie happened to be working overtime while Nanny Lisa was away on vacation. There were only the two of them in the villa.

This time, it was easier for the little ones to sneak out than last time.

After coming out of the villa, the little ones skillfully got a taxi and went straight to Lawrence Manor.

On the way there, the two little guys were still a little apprehensive.

They had not healed from the injuries they suffered last time, and they were unsure if those guys had left.

However, the thought of seeing Little Estie again eased all the fear in the little boys' hearts.

The car stopped slowly at Lawrence Manor's gate.

The little ones paid the taxi driver and ran to the door as fast as their tiny legs could carry them.

They thought about what Mrs. Zora said last time and wondered if they would be turned away this time.

Lucian did not waste time at all. He took his younger brother as he tried to get in through the gap from the last time.

Unexpectedly, as soon as they passed by, they saw that the gap had been narrowed, and they could not squeeze in.

"What should we do?" Nox got a little anxious.

Lucian frowned. "We can only go back and ring the doorbell. If Mrs. Zora doesn't let US in, then it'll be good enough as long as she can tell US about Little Estie's current situation."

Nox nodded in agreement.

The two little guys circled back to the main entrance.

Lucian tiptoed and rang the doorbell.

Soon, the video doorbell was connected inside.

"Mrs. Zora, it's US again. Is Little Estie back?" Lucian said hello impishly.

Mrs. Zora's heart softened at the little boys' persistence.

In the past few days, Little Lady had been reticent and clearly missed these two boys very much.

Moreover, after what happened last time, the young master seemed to feel guilty toward these two little ones.

Thinking of this, Mrs. Zora smiled at the two little ones. "Yes, she's home. Come in."

After that, she opened the door for them.

Seeing the door slowly open, the two little ones could not believe it.

After being dazed for a while, Lucian was the first to react. He ran into the manor with his younger brother, and then into the villa.

"Where's Little Estie?" Lucian asked in his childish voice.

Mrs. Zora pointed upstairs.

The two little boys thanked her politely, then ran upstairs quickly.

Mrs. Zora felt her heart soothed as she looked at the backs of the little boys.

She always felt that these three little kids should be together.

Just like it was now.

Upstairs, Little Estie had shut herself in the room and was playing with Lego blocks by herself. She put together one piece with her left hand and another piece with her right.

When she heard the knock on the door, the little girl thought it was Mrs. Zora.

During this time, Daddy would only come in to take a peek at her when he came back at night.

Only Mrs. Zora will come to her during the day.

Thinking of this, the little girl responded without raising her head.

The next second, the bedroom door was pushed open from the outside.
