

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 631

Rosalie stood at the entrance of the kindergarten for quite a while, she barely recovered as she put away the tickets in her hand. She got in the car and returned to the research institute.

As soon as she entered the office, Xander called.

“The time is set for tonight. Will you be free on your end?”

Rosalie was still a little confused, when she heard this, she was stunned for a moment. Then, she remembered what Xander said when he came to visit yesterday.

Tonight. That must be the time to meet the doctors who would be collaborating with them.

On the other end, Xander had no answer from Rosalie, so he urged in a puzzled voice. “Miss Jacobs?

Everything okay? Is it because the time isn’t right for you?”

Rosalie snapped back to her senses. “Oh no, it’s nothing. Yes, I’m free tonight, I’ll be there on time.” Xander felt that her reaction seemed a little strange, but he could not say anything over the phone, so he simply gave some reminders before hanging up.

Rosalie was a little absent-minded all day because of what happened in the morning.

In the afternoon, as Rosalie thought of attending the banquet in the evening, she left work an hour earlier. She went home to freshen up out of respect for the doctors.

Seeing that it was almost time, Rosalie was about to go downstairs to attend the dinner when she received a call from Leon Martin.

“Where are you?” As soon as it was connected, Leon’s voice rang out.

Rosalie was puzzled. “At home, what’s up?”

Leon smiled warmly. “I’ll pick you up.”

Hearing this, Rosalie was stunned for a few seconds before she reacted. Leon must be one of the doctors who would work with them this time.

Realizing this, Rosalie’s eyes brightened, but she still refused with a smile. “No, it’s alright. I’ll just head there by myself. We’ll meet at the banquet.”

Leon was deeply concerned. “Are you sure? I heard Young Master Xander say that your foot is injured.”

Xander inadvertently mentioned it when discussing cooperation with him two days ago.

Leon wanted to come and check on her, but he never had the time.

Leon knew Rosalie would also attend tonight's banquet. He was afraid that it would be inconvenient for her due to the injury, so he asked to come pick her up.

Rosalie smiled gratefully. "It's all healed up now, Leon. You don't have to worry."

Hearing this, Leon no longer insisted and agreed immediately.

When she hung up, it was almost time. Rosalie got up, went downstairs, and drove to the banquet venue.

Leon and Xander had already arrived and were talking at the entrance of the banquet.

Seeing her coming, the two stopped talking and greeted her with a smile.

"Hello, Leon. Good evening, Young Master Xander," Rosalie greeted with a smile.

Xander nodded slightly in response.

Leon had not seen her for a long time. He smiled and greeted her, "I heard that your foot was injured. I wanted to visit, but I really couldn't find the time."

Rosalie smiled nonchalantly. "It's just a minor injury. It's healed now. If my injury were to delay your work, I'd be even more sorry."

The two smiled at each other.

At the side, Xander watched as guests arrived one after another. He urged the two. "Come on in to continue your chat. The guests are almost here."

The two agreed and followed Xander into the banquet hall.

As soon as the three entered the area, everyone looked over.

First, as the host, Xander was highly regarded by others. Secondly, Rosalie's and Leon's age was also out of tune with everyone.

Even though both of them looked outstanding in appearance and aura, in the field of holistic medicine, most were often judged based on field seniority.

The appearance of the two of them stuck out like a sore thumb.
