

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 632

Not many doctors attended this banquet, but there were still a dozen or so.

Rosalie took a glance and recognized a few acquaintances who had also participated in the free clinic previously.

As for the rest, she had never met them before.

However, this must be an esteemed crowd because to be recognized by and cooperate with the Lancer family must not be easy.

Thinking of this, Rosalie smiled politely at everyone, expressing her gratitude.

“Young Master Xander, who are these two?”

Suddenly, someone stood up and asked Xander. “They’re also the doctors who want to cooperate with us this time?”

Their words were full of doubts about them.

Rosalie had long been accustomed to such doubts, but when she heard this, the smile on her face stiffened for a moment.

This was Xander’s territory, after all. She was afraid that her qualifications would create some unnecessary trouble for him.

‘If someone distrusts the Lancer family because of me, it’ll be my fault.’

Thinking of this, the expression on Rosalie’s face became even more humble.

Xander calmly looked at the person who asked the question and introduced in a deep voice, “These two are Dr. Jacobs and Dr. Martin. They’ll be working with us this time. I hope everyone will have good cooperation.”

Hearing this, everyone fell into hushed whispers and looked at Rosalie and Leon with doubtful eyes.

There was even more doubt when they looked at Rosalie.

Naturally, Xander also noticed the doubts of the crowd toward them. He turned around and glanced at the two of them and asked them with his eyes whether he should help them out.

The two smiled lightly and shook their heads.

Most of the people present here were their seniors. It was normal to have doubts about their abilities. There was no way a sentence or two could change their prejudice.

Upon seeing this, Xander did not say anything and just explained to them, “These are the doctors who participated in the Lancer family’s free clinic last time. Some of you may have not met them as you were participating in the free clinic in other areas.”

They both nodded.

“Since everyone is here, let’s have a seat and get together!” Xander looked back at everyone and suggested.

Everyone obliged and did not refuse.

At the banquet held by the Lancer family, although Xander was young, he still sat on the main seat. All the attendees spread out and sat according to their seniority.

Rosalie and Leon also consciously walked away from Xander to find their own seats.

Just as they were about to sit down, Xander stopped them. “Dr. Jacobs, Dr. Martin, come sit here.”

Everyone was stunned when they heard this.

Rosalie was about to refuse but saw that the doctor beside Xander had given up his seat.

Taking a closer look, it was Dr. Lucius Rand, the one who participated in the free clinic with them the last time.

Other doctors may not be aware, but after the last free clinic, Lucius had a deep understanding of these two people’s medical skills. He also knew that they were indeed worthy of this position.

Seeing Lucius give up his seat, the rest of them were puzzled. However, since Lucius was a senior in the field, nobody said anything. They just obliged and moved their seats.

Rosalie and Leon looked at each other, knowing that they would be very disrespectful to not accept the seats. They had to go over and take their seats while they endured the stares of everyone.

“During the last free consultation, I went back to study the acupuncture technique that Dr. Jacobs performed. I still don’t understand some points. After the banquet is over, can you take the time to chat with me, Dr. Jacobs?”

Lucius’ voice was not too loud, just enough for the whole table to hear him.

Hearing that Lucius was actually going to ask Rosalie for advice, everyone looked at Rosalie with a bit of shock in their eyes.
