

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 681

Needless to say, Wendy thought so as well.

Hearing what Magdalene said, Wendy frowned and asked in a muffled voice, "But, what else can I do now?"

In the photo, Byron was already so close to the Jacobs woman!

Magdalene pondered for a moment. "We have to settle the matter between you and Byron before the two of them reconcile completely!"

Wendy's expression was becoming uglier and uglier. As if she did not already know what she had to do, she just did not know how to go about it. Magdalene might as well not have said anything.

Magdalene was unaware of what she was thinking, she was still contemplating seriously, searching for a solution for her.

After a while, she opened her mouth and said, "Regardless, you can't allow them to get in touch like this anymore! Instead, you have to stay by Byron's side, so that he won't have the chance to meet that Jacobs woman."

Hearing this, Wendy snorted. "I have thought of this too. However, Byron has been ignoring me completely during this time.

I didn't even get the chance to get close to him. How could I take that b*tch's place?"

Magdalene glanced at her daughter. "Can't you take the initiative to go see him if he doesn't want to see you? What if you live in his house directly? Even if he doesn't want to see you, he will have to get along with you every day and every night! when the time comes, you'd just have to go through some measures, and he will forget about that woman sooner or later!"

Wendy was still hesitant. "Live in his house? Will he allow it? Byron didn't even let me stay overnight at the manor before when the b*tch hadn't returned. It's even more impossible now for me to live in it directly! "

Thinking of this, Magdalene also frowned, perplexed.

For a moment, both mother and daughter's expressions were a little solemn.

"If he doesn't agree, then we'll find a way to make him agree!" Magdalene spoke coldly after a moment.

Seeing her mother's determined expression, Wendy's face filled with puzzlement.

Magdalene glanced at her before getting up and grabbing her mobile phone. She said coldly, "Come with me."

She walked out of the room after saying that.

Wendy hesitated for a moment before getting up and following her out.

The two of them walked to the door of the study one after the other.

Henry was working in the study when he suddenly heard a knock on the door. He answered with furrowed brows.

A moment later, he saw his wife and daughter come in, each's expression looking uglier than the other.

"What's the matter?" Seeing both their appearance, Henry frowned and put down the work in his hand.

Wendy just followed behind her mother with an ugly expression. She did not know what she was going to do.

Magdalene stepped forward and put the phone in front of Henry before saying with a cold expression, "See for yourself!"

Henry glanced at her suspiciously. He then lowered his head and picked up the phone before taking a look.

What caught his eye was the intimate photo of Byron and Rosalie.

Henry's expression sank instantly seeing this. "Why is this woman still by Byron's side?"

Henry looked up distressed and glanced at his daughter after saying that. He felt like she had been wronged.

Wendy flushed but did not speak.

"We need to put on a show together if we want to get rid of her! If we can successfully get Wendy into Byron's house, then there will be nothing for that Jacobs woman!" Magdalene said with a gloomy expression.

Hearing this, Wendy and Henry were both puzzled. "Put on a show? How?"

A child flashed across Magdalene's eyes, and she waved to the two of them.

The three gathered together and Magdalene explained her plan in an orderly manner.
