

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 689

“Hello.”

Seeing these two cute and sensible little children, Xander’s tone also became very gentle.

The boys straightened up and looked up at their mommy in confusion, not knowing who the person in front of them was.

Rosalie introduced him with a smile, “This is Uncle Xander, mommy’s work partner.”

After hearing mommy’s introduction, the boys greeted Xander in their childlike voice again, “Hello, Uncle Xander!”

Xander stepped forward and patted the boys’ heads. “I came in a hurry and didn’t expect to meet you two. I should have brought you some gifts. I will make it up to you two next time.”

The boys nodded obediently. “Thank you, uncle.”

Xander smiled at the children before getting up and glancing at Rosalie, signaling that they should be on their way.

Rosalie nodded. She turned around and said to the boys, “Mommy and uncle are leaving now. You two should head back in quickly.”

After saying that, she and Xander got into the car.

The boys waited until Xander’s car disappeared from their sights before turning around and heading back into the villa.

“Brother, that Uncle Xander looks quite handsome just now. Nox rubbed his eyes and sobered up completely.

Hearing what his younger brother said, Lucian frowned and thought about the uncle just now.

He did look a little handsome indeed. He had the same style as daddy and was a little gentler than him.

Moreover, hearing what mommy said, that uncle seemed to be a member of the Lancers that mommy had been eyeballing before, and he should be very powerful.

Nox murmured to himself, “Could that uncle is courting mommy too? If so, daddy may have a harder time courting mommy!”

Mommy had a grudge against daddy to begin with. If there was another competitor, the two boys would feel anxious for their daddy.

Lucian also could not help agreeing. “If it’s true, it can only mean that mommy is great. That’s why so many people like mommy!”

“But, what about daddy?” Nox looked distressed “I still want daddy, should we inform him?”

Although daddy was slowly courting their mommy, she still did not trust their daddy. They boys had seen their daddy’s efforts with their own eyes, however. Plus the bonus that was Estie, they were still somewhat biased in their hearts for their daddy.

The boys looked at each other, there was hesitation in their eyes.

What if they did not inform their daddy and their mommy really got wooed over by the other uncle?

Yet, if they were to remind him, how would they do it?

This problem really challenged the two gifted children. It was the first time the boys felt themselves having a headache because of a problem.

Lucian said with a sullen expression after a long time, “Since daddy wants to court mommy, he will definitely sense that someone else is snatching mommy away from him! Moreover, this is an adult matter. If we inform daddy, he will definitely be embarrassed, so let’s not talk about it.”

Nox nodded solemnly. “That’s right, Daddy is so powerful, he will definitely keep an eye on mommy! who knows, daddy might have realized earlier than us!”

It was uncertain if the two boys were making guesses or consoling themselves. They talked to themselves for a long time.

In the end, they came to the conclusion that no matter how many people pursued mommy, the one who would succeed in courting their mommy would be their own daddy!

Although the boys used to harbor prejudice against their daddy, they were still very confident in their daddy’s sincerity after interacting with him during this time.
