

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 736

The following day, Rosalie woke up from her sleep and immediately checked the public comment on the Internet.

She saw herself on the top of the trending search list when she opened the page.

Rosalie's heart sank, thinking that public comments were accusations about her again, she frowned as she clicked open the topic.

Unexpectedly, as soon as Rosalie clicked on it, she saw the most popular search on social media. It was a video of her teacher's interview, among which there were many employees from Quentin's overseas research institute, famous internationally.

"I have heard about the Lancer family's project. I, as a teacher, feel honored that Dr. R. Jacobs, my apprentice, can participate in this project. I've seen plenty of comments about her medical skills. I hope you believe in Rosalie, she will give you a surprise."

Quentin looked into the camera amiably in the video, yet he still had a solemn temperament.

After Quentin's interview, the researchers commented about Rosalie in the video.

When Rosalie saw those familiar faces she had not seen for a long time, Rosalie felt touched. Tears welled up in her eyes.

Under this video, the comment section was in an uproar. Unlike yesterday, the comments this time were mostly surprised and apologetic words.

"Dr. R. Jacobs? Is that the famous Dr. R. Jacobs? Did she return to her hometown secretly? Wow! she is pretty!"

"Her appearance could make her plenty of money, yet she chose to make a living with her talent. Dr. R. Jacobs will be my role model from now on!"

Tons of comments drowned the video.

Most of them were shocked to know Rosalie was the famous Dr. R. Jacobs they had heard of. Some did not know who Dr. R. Jacobs was. However, those who knew her soon explained Rosalie's identity and answered their doubts.

Compared to Rosalie's first name, Rosalie's title as Dr. R. Jacobs was more well-known internationally even though she was not a famous person. The public found her participation in the Lancer family's project reasonable.

After the big news yesterday, Rosalie's appearance became more famous than Dr. R. Jacobs's fame.

Rosalie was now the Goddess of Medicine to those netizens.

However, Rosalie was still a little bit unaccustomed to the dramatic changes that had taken place in the online discourse about her overnight.

After a while, Rosalie closed the interface and searched for her teacher's phone, wanting to make a phone call to thank him.

Just as she was about to call him, she received a call from the same number.

Rosalie quickly answered, "Professor...."

"Why didn't you tell me what happened?" Quentin's voice sounded concerned and displeased from the other end of the call.

Although Quentin sounded displeased, Rosalie knew her teacher was worried about her. Her teacher's concern touched her. "I'm sorry, professor. I've caused this, so I thought...."

If she claimed herself as Dr. R. Jacobs, the netizens would soon find out she was Quentin's student.

Rosalie was afraid she would ruin her teacher's reputation because of the comments she saw yesterday, others might scold Quentin, saying he taught someone without medical ethics like Rosalie.

The comments about her had turned better, presumably because of the statements the Quirke Enterprise and Stacy had provided.

"Stop giving excuses. You are my student. No one would dare to doubt your ability. Doubting your professionalism is doubting mine," Quentin said firmly.
