

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 739

Wendy, who was in the hotel, knew about what had happened these two days.

Although she did not know who was behind it, she was happy to see everyone on the internet scolding Rosalie and doubting her professionalism.

After all, with the public comments and bad reputation, it would be difficult for Rosalie to clear her name.

That way, Rosalie would have to leave the country even without her doing anything to Rosalie.

Then, Byron would be hers!

Therefore, Wendy had been paying attention to the news on the internet about Rosalie.

She thought the public comments would only turn worse. Unexpectedly, there was a turn in the situation.

Wendy had a sleepless night because of anger after looking at the statement from Quirke Enterprise. She had been tossing and turning on her bed as she pondered how to make the issue bigger.

Unexpectedly, Stacy publicly apologized to Rosalie and admitted she had accused Rosalie because she was jealous.

Wendy was also from one of those wealthy families in Coast City, and she knew Stacy. So, she could guess someone was controlling this matter because Stacy was not someone who would apologize just like that.

So, although Wendy was furious about it, she did not dare to do anything yet.

Wendy had a sleepless night.

The following day, Wendy's phone rang.

Gloomily, she picked up the phone and saw a series of unknown numbers. Without hesitating, she hung up the call.

From yesterday to this morning, Wendy's mood had been gradually elevating like a roller coaster.

After watching Quentin's interview, she was even more displeased.

So, she was not in the mood to answer random calls.

Unexpectedly, she received a message as soon as she hung up the call.

"Miss Fuller, don't you want to know something about President Lawrence?"

It was a message from the same number which had called her before.

Wendy frowned when she saw Byron's last name. After pondering for a few seconds, she picked up her phone and dialed the number.

The person picked up the call as soon as it went through.

"Who are you?" Wendy asked coldly.

Stacy was planning something mad on the other end of the call. "Miss Fuller, it doesn't matter even if you don't know who I am. All you need to know is that this matter I'm going to tell you about has to do with Rosalie's relationship with President Lawrence!"

Wendy felt her heart shatter when she heard this.

She knew Rosalie had a relationship with Byron!

She could not imagine what others would think of her as Byron's fiancée if this matter spread.

Wendy sounded cautious as she said, "What are you talking about? I don't understand!"

"Heh! Miss Fuller, you have to pay attention to that woman. I guess you don't know President Lawrence threatened and placed the Hudson family's company in a difficult situation."

Stacy continued coldly. "President Lawrence could even do something like that for that woman. Miss Fuller, I think you know what I mean about their relationship."

Lawrence Corporation had helped Rosalie out.

Wendy felt her heart sink when she knew about that.

She had always known the relationship between Byron and that wrench was special. However, she did not expect Byron would do so much for her.

"Are you... Stacy Hudson?" Wendy guessed.

A cold chuckle came from the other end of the call. "Well, well. I didn't expect someone like you would know about me. Don't worry. I will keep President Lawrence and the woman's relationship a secret. However, I hope you can teach that wrench a lesson!"

Wendy was relieved to hear Stacy's promise. Then, she thanked Stacy hypocritically. "Thank you for letting me know about this. How dare that b*tch seduce Byron. I'll teach her a lesson she will never forget!"
