

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 759

“Mommy.” Rosalie turned around to see Lucian grabbing the hem of her clothes.

Rosalie lowered her eyes in confusion as her older son stopped her.

Lucian glanced at his younger brother, his face full of seriousness. “Let’s go and persuade Little Estie. She’s still angry, so she may not listen to Mommy.”

Hearing this, it hit Rosalie in hindsight. Come to think of it, she was part of the reason why the little girl got angry.

Rosalie nodded and agreed. “I’ll leave it to you, then.”

The boys nodded obediently, turned around, and ran to Estie. They looked mysteriously at the two adults. In the next second, the three little heads disappeared behind the sofa.

Rosalie saw that the little kids were up to something, and there was a hint of suspicion in her eyes. However, she did not bother them and just stood helplessly while facing the man with harsh condemning eyes.

‘What did I do wrong for him to look at me like that?’

In the living room, the three little kids came together and whispered.

“I don’t want to go home.” Estie blurted because she knew that the two little brothers came here to persuade her to go back.

The two little guys looked at each other and said, “You have to go back with Uncle Byron.”

Hearing what they said, Estie lowered her eyes sadly. “You both don’t like me anymore? Estie doesn’t want to go home. That Mean Auntie is at home.”

The boys’ hearts broke at her pitiful appearance, but they still had to focus on the overall situation.

Nox raised his hand and stroked Estie’s hair, then said in his childish voice, “Estie, we like you very much. That’s why we must become a family!”

The little girl looked up at the two brothers with a blank expression, not sure what their words meant.

Lucian frowned and looked at his little sister intensely. “Uncle seems to have quarreled with our mommy. But we don’t know why they quarreled.”

Estie nodded. She could see that the two adults were in a quarrel, and it was because of this that she did not want to go back with Daddy even more.

Lucian continued to talk about his arrangements. “Go back with Uncle and see if you can get something out of him. Nox and I will ask Mommy at home.”

The little girl suddenly realized something.

'I want Beautiful Auntie to be my Mommy, so of course, I can't let them fight.

'We have to help the two adults resolve the conflict!'

Thinking of this, the little girl nodded vigorously and agreed. "I got this!"

Lucian and Nox also nodded earnestly. They got up and stretched out their hands to Little Estie. "Let's go, then."

Holding the two little brothers' hands, Estie stood up, returned to the door, and timidly reached out and grabbed the hem of her father's clothes, signaling that she would go back with him.

Rosalie was surprised at how quickly the little girl changed her mind. She glanced at her own two boys, not knowing what they said to her.

The two boys were nonchalant about it as if nothing had happened. They waved goodbye to the little sister. "Bye-bye, Little Estie!"

Rosalie looked at Estie in surprise, only to see that the little girl also wave back at them.

It looked as if her anger had vanished.

The little girl raised her eyes and waved at Rosalie again. Rosalie smiled and nodded, her heart was moved, she felt that the communication between the kids seemed to be much smoother than the adults.
